Chapter 1021

The young man in white was very dejected that he was now like a useless person, and Gu Shaoyang also understood deeply that it was not an option for him to remain like this.

"Don't worry, your cultivation will definitely help you recover, but the spiritual stone is a problem."

The young man in white knows it himself, but now he brings it up just because he wants Gu Shaoyang to tell him a solution, so that he can have hope in his heart.

"So what exactly do you do?"The boy in white continued to ask, and Gu Shaoyang was questioned by him and didn't know how to answer for a while.

Because he hadn't considered this question yet, and had agreed with him before that this problem would be solved later, but obviously he had already impatient

"Don't worry, we'll figure it out when we take it back."Gu Shaoyang did not answer immediately, but adopted a roundabout tactic, and the young man in white could not keep pressing after seeing millions of people like this. So he stopped asking questions, and Gu Shaoyang's ears were finally cleared. However, he was shrouded in Gu Shaoyang's eyes.

Jiu'er and Axia in the ruined temple had already injured each other due to the fight at this time, and they looked very scary. Looking at the fighting situation between Jiuer and Axia, Gu Shaoyang and the boy in white found that this situation was actually different from what they thought. Not what I expected

"How come the two of them, Jiu'er, are ahead? Judging from this situation, Axia probably won't last long, right?"

The boy in white frowned and looked at them. Although his cultivation level was not high, his senses were still very sensitive.

Hearing the voice of the boy in white, Gu Shaoyang quickly got up to check, and saw that Jiu'er had already taken the He was approaching A Xia step by step with his weapons.

They thought that A Xia would definitely win this battle, but who would have thought that A Xia was not Jiu'er's opponent!

But things had already been planned by Gu Shaoyang. Jiu'er today He must die! He must not disrupt his plan.

So Gu Shaoyang immediately ascended into the ruined temple, and then came behind A Xia. When A

Xia saw Gu Shaoyang who suddenly entered, she thought he was going to do something to her, and couldn't help but go to He took a few steps back and said, "You shouldn't be with him, right?"

Jiu'er was very confused when he saw Gu Shaoyang's actions, because he didn't know him at all, let alone knew that he was with himself.

"No! He is not with me!" Jiu'er directly denied Axia's words, and Gu Shaoyang also took advantage of the situation.

"That's right! I'm not with him!" Seeing Gu Shaoyang admitting, Jiu'er and Axia became even more confused.

"Since you are not his, then whose are you?" Jiu'er couldn't help but asked curiously when he saw him admitting so straightforwardly, while Axia fell to the ground clutching her chest, looking at him as well.

"I am from Axia!" Gu Shaoyang suddenly stretched out his hand and pointed directly at A Xia, but A Xia, who was pointed at by Gu Shaoyang, looked confused.

But Jiu'er looked like he suddenly realized it, and he immediately wanted to turn around and run away, but Gu Shaoyang had just The purpose of exposing his identity was to get rid of him.

So how could he let him escape?

Just when Jiu'er turned around and Axia hadn't recovered from her dazed state, Gu Shaoyang naturally picked up the Axia's weapon then stabbed into Jiu'er's body fiercely.

Because Gu Shaoyang targeted Jiu'er's vital attack, he hit it with one blow. Jiu'er fell to the ground immediately after being stabbed in the vital part. His whole body was twitching.

Although A-Xia was confused, when he saw Jiu'er's appearance, his face couldn't help showing a look of comfort. This was what he saw when Jiu'er reluctantly turned around.

Originally, Jiu'er was still doubting Gu Shaoyang Whether he was with him or not, but when he saw Asia's successful expression, he secretly confirmed it in his heart.

Then he used all his strength to take out a Smoke bombs were fired immediately, and Gu Shaoyang and the young man in white fled immediately after seeing this situation.

And when Gu Shaoyang left, he deliberately swept away the breath of him and the young man in white, so that no one would find them.

And when they After leaving, the spirit hunting organization and Jiuer followed the young man in white. After discovering the signal flare, they quickly rushed to the ruined temple, but before he walked in, he smelled a strong smell of blood.

Standing there He was immediately alert at the door, and then opened the door carefully. When he entered, he only saw Jiu'er lying in a pool of blood, with many different wounds on his body.

But as always, the wounds on his body were all caused by the same person. Because, and he is so vicious, as if he has a deep grudge against him

"Ninth brother!"With no time to think more, Xiao Shizi, who had been arriving for a long time, quickly stepped forward to test Jiu'er's breath. He found that he still had a trace of breath left, so he quickly called out.

Jiu'er's situation is now beyond repair. However, when he saw Jiu'er waking him up like this, he could learn from his mouth who hurt him and help him take revenge.

And the reason why Jiu'er has been holding on to this breath is to wait for his companions to arrive, and then tell them who killed him

"Ninth brother! who is it! Who hurt you like this!" Little Shizi is very sad because Jiu'er is his partner from the time he entered the spirit hunting organization until now.

Moreover, Jiu'er will help him in daily life and complete tasks. He is really like his elder brother. , but now his brother is leaving him. He couldn't help crying when he thought of this little stool, and Jiu'er was holding his arms in his arms and woke up with his eyelids open. When he saw the little stool crying When he was in tears, he suddenly smiled weakly: "Don't cry! Give me your own good!"

A simple sentence, it seemed like centuries had passed when it came out of Jiu'er's mouth. And when he heard Jiu'er's words, Little Stool felt even more sad.

"Ninth brother! Who is it! you tell me! I want to help you get revenge! I'm going to kill him!" Little Stool bit his lips tightly. Although his eyes were filled with tears, he did not dare to cry too loudly.

Because if other people in the organization found out about him, it would be miserable, and the person who attacked Jiu'er would be killed. Discover

"They are people in the organization! Yes... Xia! It's him! For...parents.....! "

Finally Jiu'er told the murderer, but he spent all his life's strength. When he finished speaking, his hands dropped weakly, but his eyes could not be closed no matter what.

Die with your eyes open!

"Ninth Brother——" Little Stool, who had been holding back from crying before, finally couldn't bear it anymore after Jiu'er's hands dropped, and suddenly began to suffer.

Another person was also asleep. Jiu'er's death was imprinted in his heart, and a seed of revenge was planted in his heart, just waiting for an opportunity to get rid of that person.

What he had to do now was to pack Jiu'er and secretly send him back to the inn. The young man in white who they had been following closely before now no longer followed him.

At this time, the boy in white had already returned to the city with Gu Shaoyang.

After returning to the city, the boy in white did not return to the inn immediately. Instead, he continued shopping in the center of the city for a long time, but he bought nothing, contacted no one, and put down nothing.

When the boy in white was wandering around the city center, Gu Shaoyang had already returned to the inn. As soon as he returned, Gu Shaoyang opened the door and went downstairs.

"Shopkeeper, please bring two plates of side dishes and a large bowl of rice." Gu Shaoyang yelled at the shopkeeper, and the inn boy who received Gu Shaoyang's instructions immediately walked towards Gu Shaoyang with a rag.

Then he wiped all the tables where he was sitting, and then slowly stepped back.

When the waiter will Gu Shaoyang's food was brought up, and after Gu Shaoyang had already eaten half of it, the boy in white came back from outside the inn.

And when the boy in white came back, the small stool came out of the backyard of the inn, but his face was very ugly when he came out.

And the boy in white came back. The young man stood downstairs and recognized at a glance that this was another person following him. However, he said nothing and pretended to turn a blind eye. Then he opened the door and returned to his room. After he returned, he sat directly in the room. Although he wanted to be happy on the chair, he could only endure it because there were accumulated fruits in the room recording his movements all the time. After drinking a cup of tea to calm down, the boy in white got up and left the room, heading upstairs. He walked downstairs, but Gu Shaoyang had finished eating at this time and was about to walk upstairs.

The two of them met each other, but on the surface they looked like they didn't know each other and were very indifferent. Even upstairs The shopkeeper and the waiter beside him didn't notice anything was wrong between them.

Just like that, Gu Shaoyang returned to his room on the third floor, while the boy in white went downstairs to eat. When he ordered the food, he used his peripheral vision to I saw a small stool suddenly coming to the front of the shopkeeper.

Then he leaned over and said something in the shopkeeper's ear. Then the shopkeeper immediately left the counter in a hurry and walked straight towards the backyard.

When he noticed that they were leaving , After that, the boy in white quickly withdrew his gaze and waited for the waiter to serve the food.

Upstairs, after Gu Shaoyang returned to the room, he immediately paid attention to the situation downstairs. He used his spiritual sense to spy on the situation downstairs.

When he found the shopkeeper When Xiao Shizi left, he followed closely. Soon after the shopkeeper arrived at the destination, Xiao Shizi told the shopkeeper what he had seen and done.

After listening to Xiaoshizi's explanation, the shopkeeper then They found that they didn't know when A-Xia left today, but the only thing that was certain was that A-Xia went out when Jiu'er left.

Then the small stool opened a cabinet in a hidden place, and in the cabinet Lying inside was Jiu'er who was lifeless and his whole body was cold.

As soon as the shopkeeper saw the wounds on Jiu'er's body.

Chapter 1023

I knew it was A-Xia who did it, because here, as a shopkeeper, he knew their abilities and decisive battles very well.

The wound on Jiu'er's body now is caused by Axia! Moreover, there is a most fatal wound on his abdomen. The appearance of the weapon on the wound can roughly tell that it is Axia's weapon.

"Does anyone know about this besides you?"Now that the shopkeeper saw the evidence, he was sure that it was A-Xia who did it.

However, he couldn't expose it because he was the top priority because as the shopkeeper here, if there was a fight among the people he managed, he would not be able to get away with it.

It is very likely that the organization will punish him in the same way, so what he has to do now is to hide it as much as possible.

Try to suppress this matter within his ability.

"Now you and I are the only ones who know about this matter, and the person who hurt Brother Jiu has run away!" Little Stool said very sadly. When he mentioned the person who hurt Jiu'er, his face was full of hatred.

When the shopkeeper heard that only the two of them knew about it, he secretly made a plan in his heart.

He has been immersed in grief. The little stool in the middle did not notice the shopkeeper's thoughts. Only Gu Shaoyang, who used his spiritual consciousness to check quietly, discovered that the shopkeeper actually wanted to kill someone!

Because the little stool would definitely avenge Jiu'er and kill Axia. And if he killed Axia Kill them. If two people who hate each other die at the same time in an inn, then the organization will definitely come to investigate. During the investigation, as long as you see the wounds, you will find that they were fighting among themselves, so just kill the little stool. , then he is the only one in the world who knows that Axia killed Jiu'er.

And after he kills the little stool, he can report to his superiors that the person behind the boy in white killed the two of them who were following him.

In this way, the excuse is very smooth. Even if the organization sends people down for reinforcements, there will be no doubts!

I have to say that the shopkeeper's calculation is indeed very good, but Gu Shaoyang has also seen through his mind. He is in the room Think about whether the shopkeeper's approach is good or bad for him.

If the shopkeeper kills the little stool, then Axia's injury can be healed slowly, and he will not be in any danger, and it is very likely that he will Exposed!

If the shopkeeper wanted to kill Xiaostool, but failed, and Xiaostool also knew the shopkeeper's intention to kill him, then he would definitely report it to the organization and expose it. But with Xiaostool's strength, he wanted to It is impossible to escape back to the organization to expose the shopkeeper.

It is estimated that Xiaostool will be killed in a corner tomorrow night at most, and then the shopkeeper will claim that he was killed by the enemy and no bones were left.

The same is true for Jiuer He will say this even if he dies.

In this way, the shopkeeper can keep his position and eliminate all those who hinder him. But for Gu Shaoyang, his approach is his obstacle.

So Gu Shaoyang will also He has to get rid of his own obstacles!

Thinking like this, Gu Shaoyang took advantage of them not paying attention and quietly stopped the fruit accumulation in the boy in white's room, and then went to his room.

"Second child! Come and discuss it."Facing Gu Shaoyang's silent entry and sudden call, the young man in white who was lying on the bed was suddenly frightened.

But he quickly reacted, then got up from the bed, came to the table and sat down

"Why did you come here? Didn't they notice what was going on in my room?"The young man in white sat opposite Gu Shaoyang and poured him a cup of tea.

While pouring the tea, he turned his head to look outside to check the situation.

But in his current situation, he didn't know anything at all, so it didn't take long for him to feel that there was no movement. Then he turned his head back and continued to look at Gu Shaoyang

"There is movement! It is precisely because they are making noise that I came here specifically to find you."

Gu Shaoyang drank the tea that the boy in white poured for him in one gulp, and then said slowly.

After hearing Gu Shaoyang's words, the boy in white immediately became alert and curious:"What happened to them outside? what's going on?"

The young man in white asked questions one after another, but Gu Shaoyang still put down the tea cup leisurely before slowly answering his questions.

"The shopkeeper wanted to kill someone and silence him. Bad for you and me." Gu Shaoyang told the shopkeeper's idea to the boy in white, but the boy in white didn't understand after hearing it.

"The shopkeeper wants to kill me and silence me? Do you want to blame Jiu'er's death on me?" The young man in white stood up from the chair in a hurry, and then prepared to pack his things and leave.

Gu Shaoyang was stunned for a moment when he saw his actions, and then knew that he had misunderstood what he meant.

"Don't worry! You would be mistaken!" Gu Shaoyang forcibly pulled him back to the chair, and then explained carefully

"It's the shopkeeper who wants to kill Xiaostool and silence him! Because Xiaostool wants to help Jiuer take revenge! But once Xiao Shizi told the organization that Jiu'er's death was caused by their insiders,"

"Then the shopkeeper will most likely receive criticism from the organization, and their organization will send someone down to take over temporarily."

Chapter 1024

"This situation was unfavorable for the shopkeeper, so he wanted to kill someone to silence him. It happened that the only person who knew the real murderer was Xiao Shizi."

In one breath, Gu Shaoyang finally told the young man in white what happened. After finally understanding the ins and outs of the matter, he finally calmed down.

"So, the stool is now in danger!" When the young man in white thought about this, he immediately raised his head and looked at Gu Shaoyang, and Gu Shaoyang also nodded heavily to him, confirming his guess.

"Then we have to protect the little stool! If he is killed, it will be us who are at a disadvantage! This shopkeeper will most likely put the blame on us!"

The young man in white made a very calm analysis, and his analysis was exactly what Gu Shaoyang was thinking.

Today, Gu Shaoyang came to him just to ask him if he knew where the base of the close organization was, because he was planning to go deep in.

"Do you know where their nearest base is?" Gu Shaoyang looked at the boy in white and asked. When asked by Gu Shaoyang, the boy in white instantly guessed what Gu Shaoyang was thinking and what he was going to do next.

"you! It's dangerous for you to do that! If you're exposed, it's over!" The young man in white was subconsciously worried about his safety.

So he did not tell the base point of the spirit hunting organization, but Gu Shaoyang had made up his mind. What he wanted to do, the young man in white would either help or turn a blind eye. In short, he It won't change his mind

"I've made up my mind, just tell me. If you don't tell me, then I will figure it out myself." After saying that, Gu Shaoyang was about to turn around and leave the room of the boy in white.

But as soon as he turned around and took two steps, the boy in white turned around and looked in the direction he was leaving and stopped him.

"etc,! I tell you!" Hearing the words of the boy in white, Gu Shaoyang turned around and returned to his seat faster than when he left.

"Say it!" As soon as he sat down, Gu Shaoyang immediately asked, hoping that the boy in white would tell him quickly.

But the boy in white suddenly understood that he was actually trying to coax him by leaving just now, because he had expected that he would definitely tell him.

But The boy in white figured it out but said nothing, because although it was dangerous for Gu Shaoyang to do this, it was also beneficial to himself.

Only by quickly getting rid of the people from the spirit hunting organization could his safety be guaranteed, and so could Gu Shaoyang's safety.

"Their base point is behind Heikongkong Mountain. This is their closest base point to here. And if what happened in this inn is reported,"

"Then people will only be sent from inside the black cave." The young man in white told him the address, and after knowing it, Gu Shaoyang left quickly.

After he left, he did not forget to rearrange the accumulated fruits in the young man in white's room to ensure that even if someone checked his behavior, he would not find some flaw.

After returning to his room, Gu Shaoyang began to plan the route. Before he went to the Black Cave Mountain, he had to ensure that the boy in white had enough coping ability.

Because there was no guarantee that the shopkeeper would not get so angry that he would kill him directly and then tell the organization. The people sent made haste, but nothing could happen to the boy in white.

Because the last key Gu Shaoyang wanted was still with him!

"What should we do?"

In order to come up with a way to deal with it, Gu Shaoyang anxiously walked around the room. He didn't know how long it took before he finally thought of a way.

Gu Shaoyang was going to give the spiritual stone on the snow mountain to the boy in white. Use it, but he can't give him too much at one time, and how to get it and where to get it from requires someone to do it.

This shopkeeper has been guarding this inn for so many years and has seen so many kinds of people. There is no guarantee that anyone who has lived here has a spirit stone.

And the shopkeeper was originally born as a robber. When he sees good things, he will naturally want to rob them, so he must have treasures on him.

Gu Shaoyang thought silently in his heart, The idea was quickly determined, but since he wanted to take it, he must really take it, because he would only behave if the shopkeeper really lost something.

People around him would believe it, and more importantly, Bai Yi Only the young man would believe that the spiritual stone he used belonged to the shopkeeper, not Gu Shaoyang.

In this way, the shopkeeper's treasure would be exposed, and more and more people would be jealous of him, and the more people would stand between him and the boy in white. In front of them, the two of them are safer.

After confirming his idea, Gu Shaoyang immediately became invisible and often followed the shopkeeper, just to spy on where his treasure was hidden.

After following the shopkeeper for a whole day, Gu Shaoyang He didn't find the hiding place of the shopkeeper's treasure, but unexpectedly discovered that the shopkeeper planned to attack Little Stool in the eastern suburbs. The excuse he invited Little Stool to the eastern suburbs was that he had caught A-Xia, but A-Xia...

Chapter 1025

At this time, Axia was seriously injured by Jiu'er, and because Jiu'er set off a flare and fled in a hurry, he was seriously injured. To make matters worse, his health was extremely poor.

And he knew that someone would avenge Jiu'er's death, so he had to recover his body in the shortest possible time, otherwise he would be the next person to die.

In addition, he saw Gu Shaoyang's action, so he had to seize the time to report the real situation to the organization.

And with Gu Shaoyang's situation, the organization will forgive him and Jiu'er's infighting. When the time comes, he will not only get revenge, but also save himself.

For Axia, this is the best of both worlds.

Because she was a little eager for quick success, when Axia was recovering from practice, her true energy was unstable and she sprayed a mouthful of blood into the dark cave.

Although nothing could be seen inside the cave, the strong smell of blood could not be concealed.

On the third day after Jiuer's death, Axia finally managed to recover one third of her body. As soon as she recovered a little, Axia rushed towards the Black Hole Mountain without stopping.

Gu Shaoyang also happened to discover A Xia's traces.

But Gu Shaoyang didn't want to go now, but because he was waiting here on purpose. In fact, he had already guessed that A-Xia would go to Black Cave Mountain, and he needed to use A-Xia again.

Because in the next plan, Axia plays a very crucial role.

In this way, as soon as Gu Shaoyang found Axia, he knocked him unconscious and took him away, and then placed him on the only way to the place where the shopkeeper and Xiaostool agreed, waiting for Xiaostool.

When Gu Shaoyang discovered the figure of the little stool, he woke up the unconscious Axia and asked him to make a sound to attract the little stool.

And the result was just as Gu Shaoyang expected.

As expected, Little Stool was attracted by the sound A Xia made, and then he stepped forward to check, and found that the person lying on the ground was the A Xia he had been looking for.

But the shopkeeper told him that in Axia's hands, he was asked to go to the eastern suburbs to ask for someone. This...

Little Stool stayed where he was for a while, a little at a loss, and Axia, who was discovered by Little Stool, also just wanted to escape..

While holding the stool and thinking, A-Xia quickly turned around and wanted to escape. However, the stool soon discovered his motive and immediately flew forward, blocking him directly in front of him.

"Where do you want to escape?"The little stool blocked Axia's body. Because he was seriously injured and has not yet recovered, Axia is not the opponent of the little stool now. But he was blocked by the little stool, and he immediately wanted to escape in another direction. , but was stopped by him again

"You are the murderer who killed me and my ninth brother!"As soon as Xiao Shizi saw A Xia, whom he had been searching for all his life, the hatred in his heart was aroused.

The scene of Jiu'er dying in his arms also appeared in his mind, and now he wanted to take A Xia quickly. Xia's head was used as a memorial to Jiu Ge

"No! I'm not!"The little stool pointed a weapon at him. Seeing the weapon in his hand getting closer and closer to her, Axia kept backing away in fear. She thought that with such a high level of cultivation, one day he would be raped by a young boy. It was extremely embarrassing to point a weapon at him.

But now, compared with his face, he felt that his life was more important, so in Axia's mouth he just denied the little stool's questions.

"Listen to my explanation! It really wasn't me! It's really not me."Although A Xia kept talking, Xiao Shizi still looked at him as if he were looking at a dead person. He didn't take his explanation to heart because he heard it with his own ears when Jiu'er died. He told him the real murderer, and the shopkeeper had checked Jiu'er's wounds before.

He was also sure that the wounds on Jiu'er were caused by Axia, and now Xiaostool also saw with his own eyes that the wounds on Jiuer were indeed caused by Jiuer did it.

All these things told him that Axia was the murderer! But in the face of so much evidence, he still refused to admit that he killed Jiuer and even tried to escape! When he thought of this, Xiaostool felt that Axia It was unforgivable, so he raised the weapon in his hand and stabbed Axia quickly, as if it was a fatal injury to Jiuer. Just when Axia thought he was about to die from this, Little Stool thought he was about to die for When his nine were seeking revenge, the shopkeeper who had agreed with Little Stool suddenly appeared. As soon as the shopkeeper appeared, he saw Little Stool stabbing towards A-Xia with a weapon, so he immediately took action and beat Little Stool Go back and directly lift Axia up from the ground

"The shopkeeper's!" Opening his eyes, A-Xia found that he was hugged by the shopkeeper and flew away from where he was just now, and he was also very surprised.

When the shopkeeper brought A-Xia to a safe place, the shopkeeper immediately turned around and prepared to return The place just now.

But Axia was about to tell the shopkeeper that Jiuer was not a homicide, but was delayed.

Looking at the shopkeeper's leaving back, Axia wanted to catch up, but it was hateful.

Chapter 1026

Unfortunately, with his current physical condition, even if he could go back again, he would not be able to compete with the little stool. If he went back, he would probably die because of it.

So Axia looked at the direction in which the shopkeeper was leaving and thought for a while, and finally decided to stay where he was and wait for the shopkeeper to return.

As long as the shopkeeper comes back, there will be no problem for him to explain at any time.

Thinking this way, A-Xia finally felt at ease. On the other hand, when the shopkeeper took A-Xia away, Xiao Stool looked confused but did not follow them.

Although Little Stool is not that smart, he can also find out from the shopkeeper's actions that the shopkeeper is deceiving him!

He said that he was invited to the eastern suburbs and that A-Xia would be left to him, but in fact the shopkeeper was really ready when he showed up, as if he was ready to fight.

And when he met A-Xia, the shopkeeper suddenly appeared and took him away, with no intention of leaving A-Xia to him.

So Xiao Shizi guessed that the shopkeeper wanted to kill him by asking him out, and then blame his and Jiu'er's death on others.

As for Axia, after he recovered from his wounds, if he knew that it was the shopkeeper who saved him, he would definitely follow the shopkeeper with all his heart.

He only obeyed the shopkeeper's orders because the shopkeeper saved his name, and if Little Stool let the two of them join hands, he would be in danger.

When he thought of this, Little Stool felt that he couldn't stay where he was, so he took the time to rush towards the Black Hole Mountain when the shopkeeper returned.

At this time, Xiao Shizi just hoped that he could tell the people in the organization what the shopkeeper had done before he caught up with him.

I hope that people in the organization can help Jiuer get revenge, and at the same time, they can also deal with the shopkeeper who tried to attack him.

Thinking like this, the little stool couldn't help but rush faster.

The shopkeeper who hurried back to where he was just now and couldn't see the small stool immediately followed the smell left by the small stool to search for it, and found out that his target was Black Hole Mountain.

And he absolutely couldn't let the organization know about this, so he quickly chased after the small stool in the direction it left.

Gu Shaoyang, as a bystander, has been quietly hiding in the woods, quietly following behind the two people, preparing to protect the small stool after the shopkeeper wants to take action on it.

Because if he takes action now, he will be discovered by the shopkeeper, and his plan will not go smoothly.

So he can't reveal his whereabouts yet.

At the same time, there was a person above them, following them very leisurely and never showing up.

The shopkeeper who had been busy chasing the small stool did not notice Gu Shaoyang hiding beside him.

In fact, Gu Shaoyang really wanted to go back to the inn to find the treasure hidden by the shopkeeper, but he was worried that the little stool would not be his match if he met the shopkeeper face to face.

That's why he can only act so ungenerously.

And the little stool was just as Gu Shaoyang expected. It didn't take long for the little stool to be overtaken by the shopkeeper.

As soon as he saw the figure of the small stool, the shopkeeper immediately formed a spark from the palm of his hand and smashed it hard behind him.

Because the little stool was busy running forward and ignored the situation behind him, he was accidentally hit by the shopkeeper's spark, and a muffled groan came out of his mouth instantly.

However, after being hit by the sparks, the running speed of the little stool dropped instantly. The shopkeeper quickly caught up with the little stool and stood directly in front of him, blocking his way.

"Where else do you want to run?" Finally, the little stool caught up with the shopkeeper and asked him directly.

Facing the shopkeeper's approach, the little stool moved behind him step by step, and his head kept turning to think of countermeasures.

"If I fight against the shopkeeper, I will definitely not be his opponent, so I can only outwit him!" Xiao Shizi deeply understood the gap between him and the shopkeeper, so he never thought about fighting with the shopkeeper from the beginning.

When his eyes rolled around in his eye sockets, he suddenly thought of a way

"who are you? What do you want to do by joining forces with that fake A-Xia?" Now the only good way Xiao Shizi can think of is to pretend to be stupid.

Because all along, his image in the eyes of others is that of a fool who only clings to Jiu'er. He is completely like a person who can't think and has no brain. They are the same killing tools.

Therefore, now he is just showing his true self to the shopkeeper by pretending to be stupid, and his appearance is also the best way to make the shopkeeper relax his vigilance.

And he has been hiding in the tree. Gu Shaoyang is already ready to help Xiaostool.

Chapter 1027

In the end, he didn't expect that he could actually think of a way to deal with it quickly. Moreover, after the shopkeeper heard what he said, the killing intent in his eyes instantly turned into confusion.

"Am I the shopkeeper in the inn? Didn't I ask you to go to the eastern suburbs before? Why haven't you ever gone?"

Seeing that the little stool was a little stupid, the shopkeeper took advantage of his trick and directly described the person who had just appeared to save A-Xia as his enemy.

Then he could hide his identity

"how? Did you just see someone? But I've been waiting for you in the eastern suburbs. Seeing that you haven't come yet, I thought something had happened to you and was going to Heikongkong Mountain to report the situation."

The shopkeeper said as he approached the little stool. Facing the approach of the shopkeeper, the little stool panicked in his heart, but he must not retreat at this time.

Once he retreated at this time, he would directly expose himself. So he tentatively approached the shopkeeper.

But the shopkeeper felt relieved when he saw that he had no doubts.

"Let's go. Now that I've found you, let's go to the eastern suburbs quickly. Where am I still holding Axia? If someone comes to rescue him later, then I don't know when it will take to find him next time."

The shopkeeper said and pushed the stool forward directly, and the stool followed helplessly, silently thinking about countermeasures in his heart as he walked.

He had already contacted Axia before, so he was very sure. Axia is definitely not in the eastern suburbs, and the shopkeeper has rescued him and put him in a safe place.

Now that he has always wanted Little Stool to go to the eastern suburbs, then it is only possible that he wants to take him to his specific place, kill him and silence him!

Xiao Shizi suddenly figured out the matter, and was a little worried in his heart, but now he didn't know what excuse to find for not going.

Gu Shaoyang, who had been hiding in the tree, also discovered that the shopkeeper didn't know why. He was so stubborn that he wanted Little Stool to go to the eastern suburbs before attacking him. Could it be that he was hiding something in the eastern suburbs?

Or maybe his treasure was not actually hidden in the inn at all, but in the eastern suburbs farthest away from the inn. Suburbs?

Such an idea suddenly appeared in Gu Shaoyang's mind, and he became more and more sure.

After having this idea, Gu Shaoyang hurriedly took a step ahead of the shopkeeper and the little stool, and rushed towards the eastern suburbs, because he wanted to be the shopkeeper. Before he arrived, he robbed all his treasures!

He wanted to see the smiling tiger of the shopkeeper really angry. Soon

Gu Shaoyang rushed to the eastern suburbs ahead of the shopkeeper and the little stool, but when Gu Shaoyang arrived, he found, there is nothing in the eastern suburbs, only a large open space.

Gu Shaoyang was very confused as he squatted on a tree and looked around. He still couldn't find anything wrong around here, but he didn't dare to move forward rashly.

"Is it possible that the shopkeeper is doing a formation here? Hiding everything around here?" Suddenly Gu Shaoyang thought of the Five Elements Array, so he released his spiritual consciousness to check, and found something in the matrix near here. When Gu Shaoyang found something, he found all the matrix things around him, and after finding it, Gu Shaoyang began to think of ways to break the formation.

Because only by breaking the formation, he could see the most real scene, and he could not be discovered by the shopkeeper that he had forcibly destroyed it.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang began to break the formation, because he had some experience in this area, so he quickly figured out that the shopkeeper's formation was the simplest among the five elements.

And the simplest formation was just a snap of the fingers for Gu Shaoyang, so he quickly made the shopkeeper's most simple formation. The basic formation was broken.

But the Five Elements Formation was opened, and the treasures that had been hidden before were now highlighted. Only then did Gu Shaoyang realize that the shopkeeper's wealth was simply the wealth of the Wan Guan family! There were so many gold, silver and jewels hidden in the place that he had hidden them. Stacked on the ground, some valuable and precious things were simply placed outside without being packed in boxes because there were too many.

And among the treasures of the shopkeeper, there really was the Snow Mountain Spirit Stone that Gu Shaoyang had been thinking about.

Originally, Gu Shaoyang only planned to take away part of it, but now it seems that his inner desire does not allow it, and he decided to move them all away!

So, Gu Shaoyang opened the space ring, and then kept throwing all the treasures hidden by the shopkeeper into the space ring.

Because I don't know when the shopkeeper and Xiaostool will come over, so Gu Shaoyang doesn't have time to pile the things properly in the space ring. He can only wait until he is free to sort them out.

Because the shopkeeper has too many things. , so Gu Shaoyang had to use his power to speed up, and after he used his spiritual power to accelerate, he finally improved a lot. Soon he took all the treasures of the shopkeeper into the space, and just when Gu Shaoyang was about to climb a tree to hide At that time, he suddenly thought of the spiritual stone that the boy in white needed.

Chapter 1028

He took out a small piece of spiritual stone and threw it on the ground, pretending that it was accidentally left by a thief when he stole it.

Moreover, in order to confuse the shopkeeper's sight, Gu Shaoyang deliberately made many footprints of different shoes on the ground, as if to tell the shopkeeper that the person who stole your things was not the work of one person.

It's a lot of different people! In this way, even if the shopkeeper wants to find the treasure, it will be very difficult, and this is an illusion specially created by Gu Shaoyang for him.

After finally finishing this, Gu Shaoyang climbed up the tree and hid. Not long after he hid, the shopkeeper came over with a small stool.

Originally, the shopkeeper wanted to take the life of the little stool here, but who would have thought that when he came, he found that the treasure he had treasured for so many years now had nothing left!

And the thief has disappeared!

The little stool that was following the shopkeeper noticed that the shopkeeper's body suddenly stiffened and stagnated, so he popped his head out from behind him, only to see the mess in front of him.

"This this....."Not to mention the shopkeeper, Xiao Shizi saw it with his own eyes and was speechless for a moment, not knowing how to express his feelings. He had indeed never seen such a scene.

The shopkeeper saw that his hard work was in vain and fell to the ground. When the little stool saw it, he immediately stepped forward to support him.

Then the shopkeeper tremblingly stepped forward with the support of a small stool, trying to find if there was any fish that had slipped through the net.

However, after searching for a while, the shopkeeper and the small stool were found in vain. Just when the shopkeeper was about to give up.

He was suddenly attracted by the light coming from a place, and then he followed the light forward.

Although it is only a small piece, it can cause a big sensation if it is placed in the world.

As for the shopkeeper, who was the only spirit stone left, he felt an indescribable feeling in his heart.

Originally, he collected several boxes of spiritual stones, large and small, from everyone who had stayed in the inn, all of which he planned to use to improve his own cultivation.

But he didn't expect that he had saved so many good spiritual stones, but he didn't use any of them himself. Instead, he made wedding clothes for others.

The shopkeeper felt very aggrieved when he thought of this, and when Xiao Shizi saw the spirit stone in the shopkeeper's hand, desire immediately appeared in his eyes.

No^_^Although he had little knowledge and did not know the specific type of spiritual stone in his hand, his intuition told him that the effect of this spiritual stone was absolutely extraordinary.

The shopkeeper is not satisfied even though he already has such a spiritual stone. He thinks he should have more treasures.

Gu Shaoyang, who had been squatting in the tree, couldn't help but feel a little strange when he didn't see the shopkeeper getting angry. According to normal logic, he should be very angry.

But how could he have nothing to worry about now except sadness?

Could it be that he has other places to hide treasures?

With this guess, Gu Shaoyang became even more curious about the shopkeeper, and just wanted to quickly find where he hid the treasure.

Xiao Shizi didn't dare to say anything when he saw such a sad shopkeeper, for fear that his bad mood would affect him.

So he could only stand obediently behind the shopkeeper, not daring to be too far forward or too far behind.

"Help me up." When Little Stool stood behind the shopkeeper and his legs were numb, the shopkeeper's hoarse voice, which had not spoken for a long time, suddenly called him. As soon as he heard the shopkeeper's call, Little Stool immediately stepped forward to help him up from the ground. "Shopkeeper, where are we going now?"

Now Little Stool doesn't dare to continue asking the shopkeeper about A-Xia, but the shopkeeper mentioned it himself

"You have also seen that all the treasures I have treasured for so many years have been stolen by thieves, and Axia, who I hid in this place, was also captured by thieves."

"So if you really want to avenge your ninth brother, then go find the person who stole my treasure. Moreover, the reason why I was robbed was because I promised to help you take revenge, but now I am harmed instead!"

The shopkeeper said very helplessly, and put himself in a high position. On the surface, he said that he was trying to help Little Stool, but in fact, he wanted to use Little Stool to help him recover the treasure.

But Little Stool met the shopkeeper. He had no intention of attacking him, and he felt relieved, and he quickly agreed to the shopkeeper's request.

Because now he could only avenge Jiu'er if he could save his life.

"No problem, the shopkeeper! I will never forget your kindness! I will definitely catch the thief who steals your things in front of you!"

Little Stool swore a promise and said it sincerely, but in fact, what he was thinking in his heart was exactly the opposite.

"Very good, since your ninth brother is gone and now you need someone to follow you, then you can follow me from now on."

Moreover, he had to thank him very much.

Chapter 1029

"Thank you, shopkeeper, I will definitely be loyal to you and loyal to you to the death!"

As he spoke, the little stool knelt directly on the ground, and the shopkeeper's frowned brows relaxed slightly as he watched his actions.

"Well, get up, it's getting late now, go back to the inn first, and come out to search tomorrow."

The shopkeeper said and walked forward on his own, and Xiaozi quickly stood up and followed the shopkeeper.

When they were all gone, Gu Shaoyang walked out of the woods and looked at the shopkeeper. He pursed his lips and shook his head as he left.

The expression seemed to say: What a loser!

As the shopkeeper left, Gu Shaoyang did not stay there for long. He took a detour and speeded back to the inn. And just like before, no one noticed his departure.

When the shopkeeper and Xiao Shizi had returned to the inn for a long time, Axia, who had been rescued by the shopkeeper before, was very anxious.

He had been waiting for the shopkeeper at the same place. He hoped that he would come back quickly to listen to his explanation, but he never waited.

Originally, Axia wanted to stay where he was now for a few days to see if he could wait until the shopkeeper came back.

But while waiting, he encountered When it came to the person he had assassinated before, but without success.

In order not to be discovered by that person, A-Xia could only flee in a hurry. Otherwise, if he continued to stay here, he might really be waiting for the shopkeeper.

All he saw was It could be a corpse.

Inside the inn at this time.

In the dead of night, the inn had already closed. The shopkeeper took advantage of the cover of the night to quietly leave the inn and run towards the place where he had hidden A-Xia.

But when After he arrived, he found no trace of A-Xia. He searched around and found nothing. After the search failed, the shopkeeper returned to the place where he hid the treasure, carefully investigating, trying to remove the mess. He found some clues in the footprints.

But in the end, he found that the messy footprints on the ground were nothing but messy.

After the shopkeeper left home with nothing, a figure who had been following the shopkeeper appeared from the darkness. This person was officially the one who wanted to take revenge on A-Xia during the day, because he knew that A-Xia was actually taken away by the shopkeeper.

However, he followed the shopkeeper not far or near but did not find the person he was looking for..

And the shopkeeper didn't seem to find the person he was looking for. But when the shopkeeper went back, the little stool returned to the ground where the shopkeeper went for the first time to search. As a result, he smelled a trace of blood, but there was no one around him. No, and Min Jue's little stool concluded that it belonged to A Xia just by the trace of the smell of blood in the air.

Although he was sure, he could not find A Xia's person, so he had no choice but to go back.

And. At this time, Gu Shaoyang, who was in the inn, had been using his spiritual consciousness to organize the space ring after stealing the treasure from the shopkeeper.

Finally, he found that the treasure from the shopkeeper contained 20 million gold, 10,000 taels of silver, countless jewels and jade, including the Snow Mountain There are ten pieces of spiritual stones, just like there are thousands of medium spirit stones.

There are also countless weapons and martial arts secrets, etc., countless, comparable to a small kingdom.

When Gu Shaoyang was sorting it out, he also found that in Among the many treasures of the shopkeeper, there are still many more precious things that are not available.

If it is because the shopkeeper himself does not have them, Gu Shaoyang will definitely not believe it, because he deeply understands how greedy the shopkeeper is.

So he is sure The shopkeeper must have more treasures in some unknown place.

What Gu Shaoyang has to do is to take all the shopkeeper's treasures as his own. Who makes him keep thinking about the things on him.

When Gu Shaoyang finished packing his things, it was already gray and the inn still didn't open, so Gu Shaoyang sneaked into the room of the boy in white again.

But when Gu Shaoyang went to the room of the boy in white, he was still in a deep sleep, so Gu Shaoyang took him directly to his room.

Then he woke up the boy in white who was in a deep sleep.

"Second child! Wake up! Look what good stuff I got!" After waking up the young man in white from his sleep, Gu Shaoyang brought a small spiritual stone from the snow mountain in front of him. The young man in white, who was still in a dazed state, looked at the spiritual stone in Gu Shaoyang's hand and would return it for a moment. Couldn't react

"What's this?" The boy in white shook his head a few times, and then slowly opened his eyes.

"Spirit... spirit stone! This is a spiritual stone! Is this a spiritual stone?" When the boy in white saw clearly what was in front of him, he was very excited, and he also raised his head and looked at Gu Shaoyang. He wanted to get a real answer from his mouth, but Gu Shao just nodded heavily when he looked at him. respond

"That's right! It's the spiritual stone you think of, the spiritual stone that can restore your skills!"

I'm afraid that the young man in white doesn't understand the function of this spiritual stone.

Chapter 1030

Gu Shaoyang also specially explained it to him again. After the boy in white knew that this spirit stone could restore his skills, he could not accept anything in his mind and only wanted to quickly restore his cultivation.

Because he really doesn't want to continue to be a person who looks full of cultivation but actually has no spiritual power at all.

"quick! how to use! help me!" The young man in white gestured at Gu Shaoyang with the spirit stone, because if he only relied on himself, he would not be able to absorb it.

Now he can only use Gu Shaoyang to restore the spirit stone.

"Don't worry, now is not the time." Although Gu Shaoyang had helped him get the spirit stone, Gu Shaoyang discovered by chance again.

The structure of the boy in white is mostly fire element, but the spirit stone on the snow mountain is ice element. If he mixes the two rashly, it will only He was afraid that the young man in white would lose his cultivation or lose his life if he was young.

And Gu Shaoyang also discovered what kind of vicious heart made the young man in white such a person.

"Why not?"The young man in white didn't know why. He was very happy at first, but now it was like someone poured cold water on him, extinguishing his passion instantly.

The hope he had finally ignited was extinguished because of Gu Shaoyang's words.

"Don't think too much about it, it's just because there is still one very important thing missing."Seeing the disappointed expression of the young man in white, Gu Shaoyang opened his mouth to comfort him.

But after hearing Master Gu's words, the young man in white was a little puzzled:"Didn't I say before that as long as there are spiritual stones from the snow mountain, it will be enough? Why do you still need something now?"

The young man in white scratched his head irritably, then sat down on the chair dejectedly, his hands constantly rubbing the small piece of spiritual stone on the table.

His eyes were full of longing for him, and he just wanted to hurry up Integrate him into your body, become a part of him, and help him restore his cultivation.

But reality does not allow him to do this

"Don't worry, you just need some fusion agent. This stuff is very common. I'll just buy some when the sun comes up."Looking at his dejected look, Gu Shaoyang shook his head helplessly, and then opened the window to let him look outside.

"You see, there are pharmacies everywhere. I will buy some when the time comes and then find a safe place to help you."

Looking in the direction of Gu Shaoyang, the boy in white saw a pharmacy downstairs, but what he didn't understand now was why he needed the fusion agent and the spiritual stone from the snow mountain to cure him.

He is obviously the element of fire. system, but what he needs now has nothing to do with him.

Looking at Bai Yi's confused look, Gu Shaoyang guessed that he noticed something was wrong, so he smiled faintly at him

"Right, you've also discovered that something is wrong, and you've understood how vicious the person who harmed you really is."

Gu Shaoyang closed the window and returned to the chair. The expression of the boy in white became ferocious because of anger, and his hands were clenched into fists.

"Don't let me catch that guy! Otherwise, I must make him look good!" After the young man in white was silent for a long time, he suddenly said harshly. At the same time, he was very glad that Gu Shaoyang discovered this problem.

Otherwise, if he had started using it directly after getting the spirit stone, he would probably be finished in his life now. Those who attack him will be able to get what they want.

"Brother Gu! sorry to bother you!" Thinking of this, the boy in white immediately turned around and bowed deeply in the direction of Gu Shaoyang to express his gratitude. However, this bow was only temporary, because the real gratitude would have to wait until Gu Shaoyang helped him complete three tasks. You can only give it to him after you wish

"It's okay, it's my fault that this person was a little careless. He forgot to hide your pulse when he did this to you, and that's when I discovered it."

Gu Shaoyang is not arrogant, he is just very indifferent, and his appearance makes the boy in white very happy to get along with him.

"Okay, this is just one thing. The main purpose of me bringing you here is to tell you that after I help you recover, you can't be exposed yet. You still need to continue to hide."

"It's like your cultivation has not recovered yet, because once you are exposed and your cultivation has recovered, the people behind you who want to harm you will definitely send people back again."

"By then, their tricks will definitely be more powerful than they are now, and I'm not sure whether they can guarantee your safety."

Gu Shaoyang warned the young man in white, and he nodded silently. He could understand what Gu Shaoyang said.

After all, the people who wanted him to die were too vicious, and his purpose was extremely clear, and he was desperate. It is very likely that he will jump over the wall.

So now they must make a show to stabilize the person behind the boy in white, and then more things must be done in the dark. Their plan must be kept absolutely secret!

"No problem, Brother Gu, I will definitely control myself well."
