Chapter 1031

After the young man in white agreed to Gu Shaoyang, he continued

"Now Little Stool is looking for Axia, and Axia was rescued by the shopkeeper today. I don't know where he was taken."

"But this matter is not important to us now, because someone will help us find him and kill him."

"The most important thing now is that we need to speed up the development of the incident. We must let the little stool report to their internal organization, and then their superiors will send people down."

Gu Shaoyang looked at the boy in white and said very seriously, and listening to Gu Shaoyang's words, the boy in white was a little curious now, where did Gu Shaoyang get such a snow mountain spirit stone?

"Brother Gu, where did you get the spiritual stone on the snow mountain?" The young man in white looked at Gu Shaoyang with the spirit stone, waiting for him to give an answer.

But when the young man in white asked him this question, Gu Shaoyang was not surprised.

Whether the young man in white asked the question out of suspicion, curiosity and worry about him, or maybe he Whether he still wants a lot of spiritual stones, Gu Shaoyang has already prepared an excuse.

"This spiritual stone was actually stolen from the shopkeeper's treasure house when I followed him for an appointment today."

Gu Shaoyang directly told the truth to the boy in white, but what he didn't say was how much he had stolen, nor how much the shopkeeper still had.

"he? Does he have such a precious spiritual stone?"Hearing Gu Shaoyang's words, the young man in white was a little unbelievable, but then he thought about it again and felt that the possibility was still very high.

Because the shopkeeper himself is a member of the spirit hunting organization, and he wanted to change the inn here, so It's not surprising that he has such a spiritual stone

"It seems that people really cannot be judged by their appearance."In the end, the boy in white was silent for a while, said these few words, and then continued to look at Gu Shaoyang

"So what are you going to do? How can I cooperate?"After the problem of the boy in white was solved, he waited for Gu Shaoyang to continue his discussion.

Then Gu Shaoyang continued to talk about his plan.

"I plan to provoke a conflict between the shopkeeper and Xiao Shizi and force Xiao Shizi to report to Heikokushan. After his report is successful, the people from Heikokushan will definitely send someone over."

In Gu Shaoyang's mind, he already had an idea, but he never implemented it.

"So what can I do for you?"The young man in white nodded silently in confirmation after listening to Gu Shaoyang's plan, and he also felt that he should help him.

After all, he helped him get the spirit stones from the snow mountain, and the recovery of his cultivation was inseparable from Gu Shaoyang's assist

"you? Let me think."Suddenly asked by the young man in white, Gu Shaoyang didn't know how to answer for a while, because he had never planned that the young man in white could help. The main reason is that his current cultivation level is not there, and he can't fight or run. If you don't win, your ability is too low.

"Hmm... Do you know where the shopkeeper's treasures are usually hidden?"After Gu Shaoyang thought for a long time, he suppressed such a question from his mouth. When the boy in white heard this question, his expression became serious.

"Let me think." Although the young man in white has lost his cultivation, he has learned the abacus passed down from his family very well, so he can roughly calculate it through this method. I saw the young man in white sitting on a chair, with both hands on the table, and then kept calculating, Gu Shaoyang sat aside and watched. Finally, a few minutes passed.

The boy in white finally opened his eyes: "Is this so? Is it counted?"

When Gu Shaoyang saw the boy in white open his eyes, he stepped forward to ask. The boy in white also nodded silently. Then he found a piece of paper and a pen and started to draw on the paper.

"Because I am limited by my cultivation, I can only find a general direction. Take a look." The boy in white is talking, and his subordinates are talking, and as long as she can find the approximate location, Gu Shaoyang can find the exact location.

So the answer of the boy in white is very important!

"okay! Look!" After the young man in white finished the drawing, he handed the drawing to Gu Shaoyang. Gu Shaoyang took the drawing and looked at it carefully.

As a result, he found that there were three addresses on the drawing.

"How come there are three of them?" Gu Shaoyang looked a little suspicious, and the boy in white himself was not sure either.

"No way, this is what I calculated. Because of my limited cultivation, I can only count so many, but are these three places available in every place, or are they not available in every place?"

The young man in white had some self-doubt, but when Gu Shaoyang saw him like this, he accepted the drawing directly, and then said comfortingly.

"fine! Anyway, it's better than nothing!" Then Gu Shaoyang changed the topic and stopped worrying about it.

"You wait until daybreak, and try your best to hold the innkeeper back inside the inn, and don't let him go out."

Chapter 1032

Gu Shaoyang said with one hand on the table and one hand hanging on his thigh, and the boy in white silently nodded in agreement to Gu Shaoyang's instructions.

Finally, Gu Shaoyang finished talking about the matter, and it was almost dawn at this time.

"Okay, I'll take you back." Gu Shaoyang said as he stood up and made two gestures on the wall of the room, and then a door appeared in front of them. The boy in white walked in along the door, and then returned to his own room.

Put the boy in white After seeing him off, Gu Shaoyang also took the time to lie back on the bed and rest. Because he was already very tired, and the next things would only be more difficult, so he had to ensure that he had enough energy to deal with this.

Gu Shaoyang slept soundly, but the young man in white had already come downstairs to eat. In addition, he followed Shaoyang's instructions and kept the shopkeeper entangled in the inn, preventing him from leaving.

"Shopkeeper, do you still have this thing?"

"Shopkeeper, please give me another copy of this thing."

"Shopkeeper, can the food be served a little faster?"

"The shopkeeper's....."

Today's young shopkeeper in white felt like he was deliberately looking for trouble, but he couldn't tell what was wrong.

Today, there are many more guests coming to eat in the inn than before, which makes the people who were waiting in the inn suddenly become very busy.

In the past, the shopkeeper never had to help, but now the shopkeeper has to help because the business of the inn is so good.

When Gu Shaoyang got up and wanted to eat, he saw this scene. Seeing how busy downstairs was, Gu Shaoyang silently returned to the room.

Then he came out of the room again not long after, but he did not stay in the inn. Instead, he went out to find a roadside stall and casually ordered a bowl of noodles and ate it.

When Gu Shaoyang left the inn, the shopkeeper immediately wanted to follow him, but the boy in white only saw his movements and started to wink at the people inside the inn.

Then they started calling the shopkeeper, asking him to help with this or that. In short, they made it impossible for him to escape.

Seeing Gu Shaoyang's figure getting further and further away, the shopkeeper was also very anxious, so he could only use the small stool that had been following him for a while.

"You quickly follow him to see where he is going and what he is doing." The shopkeeper whispered in Xiaozi's ear, and Xiaozi quickly left the inn after receiving the shopkeeper's order. Gu Shaoyang, who was eating noodles, also found Xiaozi following him, but he did not expose it, but let him follow.

After Gu Shaoyang ate a bowl of noodles, he did not return to the inn, but walked in another direction, as if he had some purpose.

He followed closely. The little stool behind him noticed that he seemed to have some purpose and followed him more seriously.

But Gu Shaoyang deliberately let the little stool lose him from time to time. Whenever he thought he had lost Gu Shaoyang, he would suddenly appear in his line of sight.

After repeating this several times, Little Stool felt that his brain cells were not enough, and Gu Shaoyang kept leading him around, and he didn't know what he wanted to do. Just when he was confused, the small stool suddenly kicked something at his feet, and the thing just happened to be kicked by him, and then it hit Gu Shaoyang's direction.

And Gu Shaoyang said that he quickly hid after noticing it. It opened, but when he was dodging, he deliberately left the map drawn for him by the boy in white on the ground, and then disappeared.

When he caught up, he only saw the map dropped on the ground.

Wait After he opened the map, he found that there were three red circles on the map. His very detoured route was just like the one Gu Shaoyang took with him.

When he confirmed that the content on the map was the route Gu Shaoyang wanted to take, the small stool Follow the instructions above and walk towards the west.

Because he was worried that he would miss something, the small stool moved very fast along the way, and soon he came to the west, but he did not see Gu Shaoyang figure.

And the west side is actually deserted, not even an animal, as if this place has been cursed. Just when the little stool was very curious and ready to leave, he suddenly saw a pearl left on the ground. , and it was only after Xiao Shizi picked up the pearl that he discovered that the appearance of the pearl must be very similar to the pearls from a merchant they had robbed. It was almost as if they were exactly the same.

Although Xiao Shizi already had this feeling in his heart Guess, but he still didn't connect the matter to the shopkeeper.

As for the pearl, he didn't protect you, but pocketed it for himself.

And after he finished all this, he Still found nothing:"What on earth is here?"

Chapter 1033

Little Stool took out the map that Gu Shaoyang dropped on the ground and was very puzzled. Now he wanted to clear up the doubts quickly.

Gu Shaoyang, who was hiding in the dark, saw the puzzled expression on the little stool but hoped that he could find out the treasure location of the shopkeeper.

But Little Stool looked at the map for a long time without understanding it, and then without waiting for Gu Shaoyang's figure, he turned around and left very simply.

Seeing that the small stool did not stay for a long time but left, Gu Shaoyang was helpless at this time, but he could not keep it, so he could only check it by himself.

He emerged from his hiding place, and then hid his aura in order not to be discovered by the shopkeeper.

Then he used his spiritual consciousness to look for something that could be used as a matrix nearby, and he discovered that there was indeed an array nearby!

When Gu Shaoyang found out, he did not open it in a hurry, but took a closer look. He found that the current formation was more difficult than the previous formation in the eastern suburbs.

At first, it was just a basic formation in the eastern suburbs, but now the difficulty of this Five Elements formation has been upgraded. It seems that it has not only been upgraded to one level, but three levels in a row!

Since the shopkeeper can unlock this third-level Five Elements Formation, it means that his cultivation level in the Five Elements Formation is at least Level 4.

Because the Five Elements Formation looks easy, but it is actually very difficult to unlock. If the level is not higher than the actual Five Elements Formation, then the formation cannot be unlocked.

Gu Shaoyang himself is involved in every different field, and his attainments in the Five Elements Formation have reached the top level, so the shopkeeper's Five Elements Formation is like a pediatrician to him.

Originally, Gu Shaoyang wanted to move the little stool's aura into the Five Elements Formation, making the shopkeeper mistakenly think that the little stool wanted to break into his Five Elements Formation.

But when he was about to do this, Gu Shaoyang suddenly thought of another idea - testing!

The shopkeeper always kept his secrets secret. The boy in white only said that the shopkeeper had profound skills, but he couldn't tell what level the shopkeeper's cultivation level was.

So Gu Shaoyang wanted to use the Five Elements Formation to test the shopkeeper.

Gu Shaoyang was seen walking around the Five Elements Array, and then he picked up one of the small stones in the matrix and moved it. Then the shopkeeper's three-level Five Elements Array was instantly changed to level six by Gu Shaoyang.

Not to mention doubling it, he didn't give up and placed a barrier around the entire Five Elements Formation, as if he wanted to see if the shopkeeper's strength could unlock his barrier.

When Gu Shaoyang finished all this, he took out a snow worm from the space ring and ate it raw, and then his speed increased a lot.

Just before Little Stool returned to the inn, he went back to the inn to have dinner before going upstairs. The shopkeeper saw that Gu Shaoyang had returned, but Little Stool was nowhere to be seen.

So he guessed that Little Stool might have lost him, but he was not angry, because with Little Stool's cultivation it was really difficult to follow Gu Shaoyang.

After a long time, Gu Shaoyang had already gone upstairs, and Little Stool came back from outside. As a result, he heard that Gu Shaoyang had been back for a long time.

"What? He's back?" Xiao Shizi was a little unbelievable when he heard the shopkeeper's words.

Because he rushed back in a hurry because he found that the drawings left by Gu Shaoyang were unique to the inn, and to verify his conjecture.

He also wanted to rush back to his room to see I took a look to see if there was a drawing missing, but it turned out that he had already come back without thinking about it.

"Don't think about it, you just lost track of me, just go on."The shopkeeper didn't expect Little Stool to find anything when he saw this.

He just waved his hand helplessly at him and motioned for him to get down quickly. However, Little Stool originally wanted to defend himself by saying that he actually got a drawing, but soon He swallowed the words that came to his lips again.

After being silent, the little stool quietly retreated and returned to the backyard of the inn. After returning to the place that belonged to him alone, he took out the drawing and opened it. The little stool Looking at the three places marked in red on the drawing, it turns out that they can correspond to the four directions of southeast, northwest, and the shopkeeper's treasure was hidden in the eastern suburbs.

Today he went to the western suburbs according to this drawing, so it is very likely that this place It's the shopkeeper's second treasure hiding place!

Xiao Shizi suddenly had this idea in his mind. The more he thought about it, the more he thought it was very possible. After having this idea, he couldn't wait to verify it.

So he took advantage of the people inside the inn to When no one noticed him, he climbed over the wall and left the inn, heading straight towards the western suburbs.

Gu Shaoyang, who was in the room, noticed the little stool's behavior, but he didn't tell him about the drawings. The shopkeeper, he knew that the little stool was also greedy for the shopkeeper's treasure.

And the shopkeeper was so greedy, he must not see anyone coveting his things, and he had already lost something in one direction.

Chapter 1034

Now if he finds that people around him have this idea again, I'm afraid Little Stool will be unable to eat and carry around!

When the time comes, the fate of Little Stool may be very tragic, and the conflict between the two of them is exactly what Gu Shaoyang wants to see.

So when Little Stool went to the western suburbs, he didn't stop him, because when he made some moves, the shopkeeper would find out.

Relaxing, Gu Shaoyang fell asleep peacefully, just waiting for the shopkeeper to find out, and then there was a conflict between the two of them.

And the ending was just as Gu Shaoyang expected. The shopkeeper, who was still busy in the inn, suddenly felt a flash of inspiration, and then a bad feeling came into his heart.

Intuition told the shopkeeper that someone had broken into his territory in the western suburbs, so he quickly put down what he was doing and hurried over in a hurry.

At this time, outside the Five Elements Formation in the western suburbs, Little Stool originally just wanted to try to open the barrier, but as soon as he took action, the barrier began to rebound.

Then the attack started, and all of this caught him by surprise!

After touching the barrier, the barrier immediately sent out a signal. The little stool knew the signal as soon as he saw it, and the shopkeeper must have known it.

And if he knew that he coveted his treasure, then he would not be able to avenge Jiu'er, and he would very likely die from it, so he quickly covered up his aura.

Then he fled in panic and ran towards the inn quickly. When Xiaostool returned to the inn, he found that the shopkeeper was no longer in the inn.

At this time, the shopkeeper was rushing towards the western suburbs, but when he arrived, he found that there was no one around.

Moreover, he originally only set up the treasure hiding place of the Five Elements Formation, but now there is suddenly an additional barrier!

Moreover, the level of this barrier is not low, even higher than the level of the Five Elements Array he set up.

"Who is this person!"The shopkeeper was worried that the treasure inside would be stolen, so he tried to crack it, but he found out after trying several times.

This barrier cannot be opened with brute force. There is actually something hidden inside this barrier. With the formation, if you want to open the enchantment, you must combine it with the formation.

Otherwise, it will be impossible to open the enchantment no matter what.

With great difficulty, the shopkeeper finally opened the enchantment with his own strength, but when he wanted to open the Five Elements Formation he had made, he found that his matrix had been rearranged, and the action he had just taken to break the formation made his current formation even more difficult!

"this! Don't let me catch you!"The angry and crazy shopkeeper was already very anxious, but the more anxious he was, the more likely he was to make mistakes. The original six-level formation also became level seven because of the shopkeeper's carelessness.

This also made him break the formation. more difficult

"Humph, seventh level acupuncture! It's so powerful! But I'm not a vegetarian either!"The shopkeeper muttered to himself, and the movements of his hands continued.

Soon he successfully opened the formation, and when the shopkeeper opened the formation, Gu Shaoyang inside the inn had already received the message.

He Lying on his side on the bed, with a faint smile on his lips: I didn't expect that this shopkeeper is pretty good! He can untie formations and barriers.

Seventh-level formations are also easy for him! It seems that I underestimate him. He!

Gu Shaoyang silently argued in his heart, but in the western suburbs.

After opening the formation, the shopkeeper couldn't wait to go in and check his treasure. It turned out that this time, his movements were not missing.

Although this result was very Okay, but for some reason it always made the shopkeeper feel uneasy, vaguely feeling like something bad was going to happen.

After thinking about it for a long time, the shopkeeper still found nothing, and he didn't stay long, but When he left, he deliberately upgraded the formation this time, directly to level ten.

By the way, he also set up a barrier outside to ensure that the next time someone breaks in, he can get the news as soon as possible. Come quickly.

When he was about to leave after doing all this, the shopkeeper noticed a scent that was familiar to him.

When he got closer and smelled it, he realized that this scent was the scent of the small stool he had just earned!

When the shopkeeper After realizing this, he couldn't help but feel a little complicated, but he didn't say anything and went back to the inn directly. And when he went back, he didn't look for the small stool, but quietly released his consciousness to look for it. As a result, He found a sleeping stool in the backyard of the inn.

Seeing that the stool was inside the inn, Gu Shaoyang's previous suspicion of him became much less, but he did not completely let down his guard. In the room upstairs, Gu Shaoyang discovered that the shopkeeper's general The border opened, and then he waited until night and secretly walked to the suburbs to his north.

Because the boy in white gave him three places on the map before, but now he only went to one.

So tonight, Gu Shaoyang Prepare.

Chapter 1035

Explore the northern suburbs at night! He just wants to make the shopkeeper nervous, mentally disordered, and worried all day long, because only the more chaotic he is, the more awake they will be.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang did the same thing as in the western suburbs when he was in the northern suburbs. The only difference was that this time he touched the barrier personally and deliberately lured the shopkeeper over.

Then this time he increased the difficulty of the Five Elements Formation and the difficulty of the barrier.

He wanted to see if the shopkeeper could still untie it this time.

After making all this, Gu Shaoyang did not leave, but went directly to the tree to hide, waiting for the shopkeeper to come and crack it.

And the result was just as he expected, the shopkeeper quickly came to the northern suburbs, and when he discovered that his treasure hiding place had been discovered and enchanted again.

There was nervousness and worry in his eyes. Besides fear, there was also a lot of worry.

Gu Shaoyang thought that the shopkeeper would quickly break the barrier and the Five Elements Formation he made, but he didn't expect that the shopkeeper just came over to take a look, and then left straight away.

Running quickly in the other direction, watching the shopkeeper leave, Gu Shaoyang jumped down from the tree.

What he didn't understand was why the shopkeeper didn't open the barrier this time, but ran straight in the other direction. Could it be that there are places more important to the shopkeeper than the western and northern suburbs!

Gu Shaoyang suddenly realized this problem, and then he quickly speeded up and followed the shopkeeper. Soon, he followed the shopkeeper to the northern suburbs.

After arriving in the northern suburbs, the shopkeeper was not in a hurry to break the formation. Instead, he released his spiritual consciousness and surveyed the surroundings to see if there was anything suspicious.

When Gu Shaoyang noticed the shopkeeper's move, he immediately steadied himself and held his breath to prevent him from noticing his presence.

In the end, after the shopkeeper's testing found nothing, he began to cast spells with peace of mind and open the Five Elements Formation.

Gu Shaoyang found that the Five Elements Formation in the northern suburbs was the most powerful among the four formations, but this time the arrival of the shopkeeper once again increased the difficulty of the formation.

It's just that the shopkeeper is having a hard time increasing the difficulty. It seems that the full level is level 20, and he himself is only level 13 at most.

But now he insists on raising the formation to the thirteenth level. Obviously, it is very difficult with his current cultivation level.

Seeing the reluctant shopkeeper, Gu Shaoyang suddenly had a plan in mind. Then he saw him reach into the space ring and take out a portion of poison powder.

After getting the poison powder, Gu Shaoyang sprinkled it directly in the direction of the shopkeeper. The shopkeeper was concentrating on casting spells at this time, so he did not notice the poison in the air.

But when he realized that his body seemed to be poisoned, it was already too late. The poison had already entered his meridians.

And if he continues to cast spells like this, I am afraid that the poison will only swim faster in his body, which will only aggravate his death.

"Depend on! Who is it!" Realizing that he had been plotted, the shopkeeper immediately flew up to the surrounding trees, but he flew to several different trees in succession and found nothing.

And now such a little movement made him tired and out of breath.

"no! We have to break this poison quickly!" The shopkeeper doesn't dare to exercise his skills easily now, and if he wants to return to the inn, it will take too much time, and he simply can't afford to wait.

So now he can only enter his nearest treasure hiding place Go find the antidote.

He remembers that in the northern suburbs, he has an antidote that can cure any kind of poison, and he just failed to improve the level of the formation because he was poisoned.

Now he has another He was injured, and it was a little difficult to unlock the formation.

However, for the sake of the safety of so many of his treasures and his own life, the shopkeeper still forced himself to open the formation, but when he opened the formation At that moment, he immediately spurted out a mouthful of blood.

He fell down powerlessly. In the end, he could only crawl into the northern suburbs where he hid his treasure.

Gu Shaoyang, who was hiding in the dark, saw the appearance of the shopkeeper and hurriedly disappeared. Then he bypassed him and entered first.

However, Gu Shaoyang did not take away his antidote after entering. Instead, he spotted his spirit stones and emptied them all.

The spirit stones in this place were just as Gu Shaoyang expected. Generally, all of them are high-quality spiritual stones, and there are actually many spiritual stones from the snow-capped mountains here!

In addition to the spiritual stones, the shopkeeper also has many lost martial arts secrets and precious and rare potions, among which There are also high-quality fusion agents.

After seeing the fusion agent, Gu Shaoyang immediately thought of the young man in white, so he waved his hand and took away all the potions from the shopkeeper.

After he had almost looted them, he turned invisible and swaggered 's departure, this time it was the shopkeeper who opened the door in person, without any effort on his part.

Chapter 1036

After the shopkeeper outside got the antidote and drank it, Gu Shaoyang had returned to the inn. He guessed that the shopkeeper would be very angry when he saw that his treasures in the northern suburbs had been looted, and he would not be able to come back for a while.

So he went to the room of the boy in white and took him to his room again

"Second child! Wake up! Look what this is?"Almost every time Gu Shaoyang went to look for the boy in white, he was sleeping, and this time was no exception.

Gu Shaoyang woke him up as usual, and the boy in white was used to Gu Shaoyang waking him up to serve him, so he started to sleep in a daze. Wake up from the dream and sit on the chair

"what is this?"The young man in white clothes was still a little confused. However, when he opened his eyes and saw clearly what Gu Shaoyang had specially brought for him and put on the table, the young man in white clothes was no longer calm.

"This this....."

Looking at the things on the table, the boy in white was unspeakably surprised. He pointed at the fusion agent on the table and the larger spiritual stone on the snow mountain than last time, and then pointed at Gu Shaoyang.

In the end, he just stammered, but he didn't say why.

Gu Shaoyang knew that he must be very excited at this time, so he just smiled lightly. After his excitement had almost recovered, Gu Shaoyang began to prepare.

"Okay, now I'm going to help you restore your cultivation. Are you ready?"As Gu Shaoyang said, he rolled up his sleeves and opened the fusion agent.

When the boy in white saw Gu Shaoyang's actions, he really felt that he was finally about to recover.

How long has it been! He has been like a useless person all day!

In this mood, the boy in white Simply unforgettable!

"Brother Gu! I'm ready!"For revenge, for myself! The boy in white nodded solemnly towards Gu Shaoyang, then closed his eyes with relief, waiting for Gu Shaoyang to help him.

He only hoped that when he opened his eyes again, everything about him Everything can be restored to its original state, and he doesn't dare to hope for other things.

"good!"Gu Shaoyang saw that the young man in white was ready, so he applied the fusion agent to his hands, poured him a cup and let him drink it.

After the fusion agent took effect in his body, Gu Shaoyang then Picking up the spirit stone, he cast a spell and slowly transported it into the body of the young man in white.

Slowly breaking the things in his body that imprisoned his cultivation.

At first, when Gu Shaoyang delivered it, the young man in white felt that his meridians were being blown by thousands. The pain was as unbearable as if it were eaten by ten thousand insects.

Dense beads of sweat appeared on his forehead, and Gu Shaoyang also felt that it was very difficult to transport.

But when the boy in white persisted for a while, Gu Shaoyang transferred the spirit stone. When the spiritual energy was transported into his body, he just felt that he was in danger. He felt comfortable both physically and mentally, and his body was as comfortable as ever, as if he was in a hot spring to purify his body.

Finally, Gu Shaoyang took the spiritual stone and helped Bai Yi transport it. Half an hour later, all the spiritual energy of the spirit stone was finally transferred.

Gu Shaoyang was also slightly tired from concentrating for a long time.

Compared to Gu Shaoyang's fatigue, the boy in white was completely opposite to him. At this time, his entire body was full of energy Full of energy, like a new life, and his strength has been unexpectedly improved based on his original strength!

When the boy in white realized this, he couldn't hide the excitement in his heart, but when he saw Gu Shaoyang's tired look , his eyes were full of gratitude

"Brother Gu! Thank you!"Gu Shaoyang's move undoubtedly pulled him out of the abyss and gave him a new life!

For him, as he was like his parents again, the young man in white knelt down on the ground and gave Gu Shaoyang a big gift.

And Gu Shaoyang was happy. The boy in white who knelt down for him immediately stood up from the stool and helped him up from the ground.

"Second child, you don't have to be like this. Helping you restore your skills is just the first condition you put forward to me. Now I have just completed one for you, and there are two more!"

In order to make the boy in white feel less guilty towards him, Gu Shaoyang brought up the agreement between them, but the boy in white knew that although Gu Shaoyang loved profit, he was by no means a cold-blooded person. So he admired Gu Shaoyang a lot. , and respect

"OK! Brother Gu!"After knowing that he didn't like what he was doing, the young man in white got up from the ground, and then he couldn't wait to try his own ability.

However, the young man in white, who had not used spiritual power for a long time, discovered that although his current cultivation level His spiritual power had been restored, but he could not use it immediately.

Gu Shaoyang also noticed the problem when he saw his appearance

"Come! I'll show you again!"Gu Shaoyang put his hand on the pulse of the boy in white, and found that the boy in white's cultivation had indeed recovered, and there were no other problems with his body.

So it seems that he has been inactive for too long.

Chapter 1037

That's why his spiritual power is temporarily unable to be used.

"It's okay, you just need to rest for a few days, internalize the spiritual energy of the spirit stone quickly, and then practice more and you will be fine!"Gu Shaoyang said with great certainty.

After receiving Gu Shaoyang's guarantee, the young man in white finally let go of his worries. He was relieved that the cultivation he had finally recovered would become a decoration in the end.

"Thank you, Brother Gu!" The boy in white thanked Gu Shaoyang again, but Gu Shaoyang was tired and just wanted to have a good rest, so he cast a spell to send him back, and then set up a barrier in his room. In this way, even if he was practicing in the room, he would still be able to practice. They will not be spied on, but the barrier he cast cannot last long.

This is not because Gu Shaoyang's ability is not good, but if they are not aware of the movements of the boy in white for a long time, then it is very likely that there is something behind the scenes. People would doubt whether he had recovered his cultivation level.

This would be very disadvantageous for the boy in white and would put him in a very dangerous situation.

After sending the boy in white away, Gu Shaoyang finally lay back on the bed, The innkeeper from the northern suburbs just came back late.

This time, his face was extremely gloomy. People in the inn didn't dare to mess with him when they saw the innkeeper's appearance, for fear of offending him and getting angry.

However, after seeing the small stool, the shopkeeper deliberately found fault with him and made trouble for him.

"Small stool! Come with me!" As soon as the shopkeeper saw the small stool, he remembered what happened in the western suburbs, so he called him to a place where they were alone.

"Did you go to the western suburbs yesterday?" It was rare for the shopkeeper to go around and ask directly. When Xiao Tengzi saw the shopkeeper's appearance, he thought it was something stolen from Xijiao, so he immediately denied it.

"No! Yesterday I was just following the guest upstairs, but I lost him. I searched around and couldn't find him, so I came back."

Little Shizi knew that he had been to the western suburbs before, but he had already wiped out his aura, so he was sure that the shopkeeper would not find out.

But he did not expect that behind his back, Gu Shaoyang, who was accustomed to deceiving others, would harm me. How could he give up such a good opportunity for them to fight among themselves!

Sure enough, when Xiao Shizi denied the shopkeeper's question, the shopkeeper didn't say anything, but when Xiao Shizi turned around and left, there was a look in his eyes. But there was a trace of murderous intent.

This boy! I can't keep him!

The shopkeeper thought silently in his heart, and then prepared to go to Xiaostool's room to give him some drugs so that he could be controlled by him.

As a result, the shopkeeper When I went to Little Stool's room, I saw the drawings of his treasure hiding spots on the table in his room!

And in addition to the fact that the eastern suburbs had been stolen, the other three locations were also marked with red circles!

This made the shopkeeper confused. I am even more certain that this little stool and the person who stole his treasure belong to the same group!

"What a little stool! On the surface, he pretends to be stupid and surrenders to me, but behind his back he is secretly plotting against me! Since you are unkind, don't blame me for being unjust!"

The shopkeeper thought this way, and then directly increased the dose of the drug to the little stool to the maximum. In this way, even if he was out of his control, the little stool's own cultivation would be damaged.

After the shopkeeper finished this After everything, he quietly exited Little Stool's room, as if nothing happened, and went straight back to his room.

Then the shopkeeper always paid attention to Little Stool's figure, just waiting for him to return to the room to carry out his plan. plan.

Although there are few people in the inn, the number of guests coming and going has suddenly increased in the past two days, so Xiaostool, who has always only stayed in the backyard, now has to go to the front yard to help.

And his busy schedule is a Throughout the day, until they were about to close at night, there were a lot less people. At this time, he had time to return to his own room.

After the shopkeeper's rare little stool returned to his own room, he immediately returned In his room, he soon sensed that the stool had been attacked.

However, there were still people outside the inn, so the shopkeeper did not dare to act rashly. He just controlled the stool and lay on the bed, waiting for the opportunity.

And then After an hour, everyone in the inn fell asleep, and then the shopkeeper controlled the small stool to get up, preparing to go to the cliff by himself and jump off.

And the small stool controlled by him jumped from the cliff. You can't cast spells if you jump up and down, so he will definitely die!

Just when the shopkeeper thought that no one but himself knew what he was going to do, he didn't know.

In order to improve his cultivation, the young man in white Even if he recovered quickly, he would sneak out after the inn was closed. As a result, he accidentally discovered the behavior of Little Stool.

In order to find out what the behavior of Little Stool was for, the boy in white kept following him closely.

Chapter 1038

Until they came to a place on a cliff:"Why is this little stool so weird? What are you doing here at night?"

Hiding behind a big rock, Bai Yi looked at the figure of the little stool and was very puzzled. Before he could think about why, At that moment, he only saw the little stool and jumped down directly!

And he hasn't used any spells or spiritual power yet, it's as if he did this on purpose just to seek death.

Watching the small stool jump directly from the cliff, the boy in white appeared from behind the stone, and then jumped down like the small stool.

However, when he jumped down, he controlled his body, accelerated directly, then grabbed the small stool that jumped before him, and then restrained him directly.

Finally, the boy in white successfully brought him to the ground without any harm.

The young man in white has been practicing non-stop recently, so his cultivation has recovered a lot, but it was a little difficult for him to barely save the young man in white just now.

So the young man in white quickly sat down cross-legged on the floor and began to cultivate his moral character and repair his own skills.

After he had repaired it a bit, he hurried towards the inn, ready to tell Gu Shaoyang what happened.

But when the boy in white hurried back to the inn and before he went upstairs, he suddenly saw the shopkeeper. He didn't hide his aura, so he was noticed by the shopkeeper in an instant.

Seeing the shopkeeper suddenly looking in his direction, the young man in white quickly became invisible and hid his aura. Then he only felt the shopkeeper's consciousness constantly testing around him.

Finally, after probing for a long time and finding nothing, the shopkeeper turned around and left with confidence. Only after the shopkeeper walked away did the boy in white dare to breathe heavily and move.

Then he returned to the room, trying to break the barrier in Gu Shaoyang's room.

Because only by trying to break Gu Shaoyang's barrier could he attract his attention and wake him up from his sleep.

Sure enough, after a while, Gu Shaoyang came to the room of the boy in white.

"What happened?" When he came to the room of the boy in white, Gu Shaoyang immediately asked.

Because he smelled an aura that did not belong to him.

"I just went out to practice secretly, but when I saw the little stool seemed to be controlled by someone, I jumped off the cliff."

"If I hadn't seen and saved him, I'm afraid he would be a puddle of flesh at the foot of the cliff now!"

The boy in white told Gu Shaoyang what he had done, and after hearing what he said, Gu Shaoyang was very curious, how could this little stool be like this?

Before Gu Shaoyang could ask any questions, the boy in white continued to tell him what he saw.

"When I came back just now, I also discovered that the shopkeeper was sneaking around at night and his face didn't look very good. I'm afraid it was him who did the small stool thing!"

The boy in white guessed secretly, and then waited for Gu Shaoyang's answer. After listening to the boy in white, Gu Shaoyang nodded affirmatively.

Judging from what the boy in white saw, things should be as he guessed, and the shopkeeper's Finally, they took action against Little Stool.

This was exactly what they expected! However, Little Stool was drugged, and I don't know if he could know that it was the shopkeeper who harmed him!

"Where is the shopkeeper now?" Gu Shaoyang was silent for a while, then looked at the boy in white and asked.

After hearing Master Gu's question, the boy in white also fell into memories: "He seems to have gone out, but I don't know where exactly he went. It looks like It's heading south."

The boy in white said uncertainly, but Gu Shaoyang was very sure that the shopkeeper sneaking out in the middle of the night must be trying to move his treasure.

Because he has lost the treasure in two places now, and now there are still two left. He definitely can't be snatched away by anyone again

"In this way, you secretly go to the shopkeeper's and Xiaostool's rooms to search to see if there are any clues left by him, and then I will deal with the shopkeeper."

Gu Shaoyang quickly made arrangements in his mind, because it is easier to deal with the shopkeeper than quietly detect the traces.

In addition, the young man in white has not fully recovered, so Gu Shaoyang is worried that the young man in white will not be the shopkeeper's opponent. , so he could only go

"OK! No problem, let's act quickly!"The young man in white didn't complain about Gu Shaoyang's arrangements. He just left immediately after talking to Gu Shaoyang.

Gu Shaoyang also set off quickly. This time he opened the window and jumped out, and then headed south.

When he arrived By that time, the things in the southern suburbs had been controlled by the shopkeeper, and the figure had disappeared.

Helpless, Gu Shaoyang could only follow the little breath left by the shopkeeper, hoping to find him.

Finally, after his unremitting efforts, he finally found Learned the shopkeeper's whereabouts.

Chapter 1039

However, when Gu Shaoyang discovered the whereabouts of the shopkeeper, the shopkeeper had already moved his treasure and buried it.

This time he did not choose to use the Five Elements Formation, but used the Earth Escape Technique.

Gu Shaoyang showed up after he saw him strengthening his spell and leaving. He then stood at the place where he had just made a mark, and then quietly followed him.

Then Gu Shaoyang followed the shopkeeper to the north again. Gu Shaoyang did not steal the treasure here last time, and the shopkeeper did not want to move the contents at that time.

It seemed that after Gu Shaoyang stole his most precious thing from the south, the shopkeeper began to feel distressed and worried.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang has been hiding in the dark, waiting for the shopkeeper to break the barrier and the Five Elements Formation. After he broke it, Gu Shaoyang turned invisible and followed him in like the last time.

After walking in, Gu Shaoyang picked up the precious and most valuable things. The shopkeeper didn't notice it at first, but the more he cleaned it up.

He just discovered that his things were getting less and less for some reason!

There's someone here!

Suddenly an idea appeared in the shopkeeper's mind. After realizing this, the shopkeeper immediately cast a barrier to seal the space.

He wants to close the door and beat the dog!

However, Gu Shaoyang ignored the shopkeeper's actions and happily took his treasure away until he had almost all the shopkeeper's precious and valuable things.

He easily opened the barrier cast by the shopkeeper, and then after he left, he smoothly cast a barrier and locked the shopkeeper inside.

When the shopkeeper realized it, Gu Shaoyang had already run away with his things.

After Gu Shaoyang returned to the inn with his things, the shopkeeper struggled to open the barrier cast by Gu Shaoyang.

When he wanted to catch up, he couldn't see anything

"Don't let me catch you!"The shopkeeper finally came out of the closed hole. He shouted loudly to the surroundings, but his cry attracted the howling of wolves.

In this area, it is the world of the wolf king. If the wolf king discovers that he secretly slipped into their territory, he would be entangled by the werewolf clan for the rest of his life.

So the shopkeeper quickly took the treasure away, then left the Wolf King's territory and found a new place to hide the treasure.

On the other side, back to When Gu Shaoyang arrived at the inn, he found that the young man in white had finished his investigation and was sitting in his room drinking tea, so he hurried back and shared it with him.

He took out all the treasures he had stolen from the shopkeeper, But that's not all. I was going to share it with the boy in white, but the boy in white refused directly.

"Brother Gu, these are all your hard earned, you deserve it, you don't have to share it with me." The boy in white is not greedy for these things, not because he doesn't need them. It's because Gu Shaoyang has helped him too much, and he owes him a favor. If he still takes things away from his hands now, then he will be even more I couldn't change it.

Gu Shaoyang was also expecting the reaction of the boy in white. When he refused, Gu Shaoyang took out the spirit stone and forced it into his arms.

"Brother, you can refuse the gold and silver treasures, but the spiritual stones on the snow-capped mountains are very precious and are very beneficial to you now, so you should accept them."

Gu Shaoyang was very generous and gave him half of the spiritual stones from the snow-capped mountains that he got from the shopkeeper, and he also had half of them himself.

However, in addition to half of the spiritual stones from the snow-capped mountains, he also had many high-grade, medium-grade and inferior ones. These spiritual stones add up to a considerable amount of wealth.

When the young man in white saw the spiritual stones on the snow mountain that Gu Shaoyang handed him, his eyes lit up instantly.

"Brother Gu! This...how come there are so many!"The hands of the young man in white could not help but rub the spirit stones, and the number of spirit stones placed in front of him was actually not many, only ten.

But you must know that just one of these spirit stones can be used as a Ten years of wealth and income for a small country, and now Gu Shaoyang casually gave him ten!

Although the boy in white wanted it very much, he restrained himself in the end.

"no! Brother Gu! You have helped me restore my cultivation! My request is just for you to help me restore my cultivation, not for you to help me get the spirit stones."

After pondering for a while, Bai Yi finally pushed all the spirit stones in front of Gu Shaoyang and rejected his kindness.

Gu Shaoyang was really surprised now, because few people can resist the temptation of snow mountain spirit stones, but Bai Yi But the young man did it.

And the more he behaved like this, the more Gu Shaoyang felt that his character was valuable and that he was a friend worth making!

"Second child, the fact that I can give these spiritual stones to you has proven that now I am not treating you as my employer, but directly treating you as my brother and my friend!"

Chapter 1040

Gu Shaoyang spoke to the boy in white very solemnly, and he had never said such words since he met the boy in white.

So after hearing this, the boy in white felt moved in his heart!

Because in his family, he has never had friends or family! There are no brothers.

All this time, all he had was endless calculations and conspiracies.

In the eyes of others, he is a high-ranking young master who has no worries about food and drink, but who knows that in the dead of night, he is actually more envious of those whose families can have a home-cooked meal together in peace and harmony.

Such a humble thought for him after so many years! It has always been just a luxury wish!

So now when he heard Gu Shaoyang's words, his eyes immediately turned red.

"Second child...you...this?" Gu Shaoyang didn't know why. He thought he had done something wrong and said the wrong thing, so he apologized quickly.

"If I didn't do well there just now, just say it if I'm wrong. Why am I still crying?" Gu Shaoyang looked at him. A grown man suddenly acted like a child.

He was at a loss for a moment. If he was really a child, then Gu Shaoyang could just buy him candy and coax him. But the key is that he is a grown man. Man!

This makes it a little difficult for him!

"It's okay, brother. I'm just so excited! I couldn't hold it back for a moment!" Finally, the young man in white said slowly after regaining his emotions, but Gu Shaoyang only thought that he was too excited to see so many spiritual stones.

"It's okay. Although spiritual stones are precious, they must be useful to be valuable. Take them quickly. The shopkeeper will be back later!"

Gu Shaoyang put all the spirit stones into the pocket of the boy in white, and then urged him back to the room, and then set up a barrier in the room.

The boy in white who returned to the room also quickly sorted out his mood, because He didn't dare to implement the barrier in his room now, so he couldn't let anyone notice his mood swings.

After a while, the shopkeeper came back from outside the inn, and now his face looked even more ugly, as if It felt like eating shit.

And Gu Shaoyang had been paying attention to the shopkeeper's movements to see if he had any suspicions about him and the boy in white.

As a result, the shopkeeper didn't think much about it. In a bad mood, he went back to the room without checking. The room of the boy in white.

When he returned to his room, Gu Shaoyang found that his breathing was steady before taking the boy in white to his room again.

"Okay, he has fallen asleep. Did you just find anything in his room?"

Now that they were sure that no one was around, Gu Shaoyang and the young man in white began to discuss boldly.

"have! I found this!" As he said that, the young man in white took out the drug powder he got from the shopkeeper's shelf, and Gu Shaoyang took a breath and smelled it.

Then he immediately started to exercise his power to force out the drug powder he had just inhaled.

"Put it away quickly! Stay away from him!" After Gu Shaoyang forced the drugged powder out of his nose, he quickly asked the boy in white to put it away.

When the boy in white saw Gu Shaoyang's vigilant look, he immediately wrapped it carefully and put it on the table.

"What exactly is this?" The young man in white put the powder away before turning around and asking, and only then did Gu Shaoyang tell him in detail

"This thing is actually made from the stamens of the Datura flower, the Bana flower, and countless other highly toxic things. It can not only make people hallucinate, but also control people's mental movements."

"It seems that the shopkeeper used this kind of thing on the small stool. After saying that, he behaved strangely and jumped off a cliff to die in the middle of the night."

After listening to Gu Shaoyang's analysis, the boy in white frowned tightly: "What did the little stool do to provoke the shopkeeper to treat him like this!"

The boy in white still had some sympathy for the little stool, but Gu Shaoyang suddenly looked at him and said, "Where is the little stool now?"

Gu Shaoyang's meaning was very clear. He was going to find a small stool immediately. Although the boy in white didn't know why he was doing this, he still took him there immediately. It didn't take long for the boy in white to take Gu Shaoyang from one place to another. He jumped down from the high cliff, and then saw Little Stool, who had fainted on the ground. At this time, the boy in white also discovered that Little Stool, who was originally an average cultivation base, now only had half of his cultivation base.

"How is this going? Could someone have sucked his power away? Bai Yi asked in confusion, but Gu Shaoyang shook his head and denied his conjecture.

"No! No one came to suck away his cultivation, but it was because of the intoxicating drug that the shopkeeper gave him."

Gu Shaoyang said with great certainty. Then when he saw the young man in white was surprised, he continued to explain: "There are filthy things in the drug that make people lose their cultivation!"

"and! Once a person inhales it and does not expel it in time, his cultivation will not be affected at all!"
