Chapter 1041

"But it will still make the inhaler stay at his current level for the rest of his life and stagnate!" Gu Shaoyang looked at the small stool with half of his cultivation base and said very sadly.

He didn't pity him because he was their enemy, he just felt sorry for his dissipated cultivation base, which was how long he worked hard to cultivate. Result.

But now we are back to before liberation overnight!

"This shopkeeper is really going too far!" The more he listened to Gu Shaoyang's explanation, the more hateful the boy in white felt that the shopkeeper was hateful.

But while he felt hateful to him, he was also glad that he had met Gu Shaoyang, otherwise the little stool would probably end up with him.

"Okay, stop lamenting them, we still have to do business!" After saying that, Gu Shaoyang carried the small stool on his body and threw him directly near the Black Hole Mountain.

"The time is now ripe. The shopkeeper must have thought that Little Stool was either dead, or even if he was not dead, it would be impossible to reach their base in such a short time."

After putting down the small stool, Gu Shaoyang was worried that he would not wake up in time, so he reluctantly used the spirit stone from the snow mountain to give him a little breath to ensure that he could wake up smoothly tomorrow morning. After the two of them finished all this, Gu Shaoyang just left with the boy in white and returned to the inn.

The next morning, when the boy in white and Gu Shaoyang were still asleep, the shopkeeper had already quietly gone out.

He came alone to the place where he controlled the stool to jump off the cliff last night, and then flew directly down.

The shopkeeper thought he would see a puddle of meat here, or some corpse related to the small stool, but he found that there was nothing under the cliff except overgrown weeds! Not to mention anything. The body of the small stool was dead! He didn't even see the body of an insect!

The shopkeeper who was unwilling to give up searched around again, but found that there was still no one he was looking for.

"Could this little stool have been saved by someone?" Suddenly an idea appeared in the shopkeeper's mind, but he quickly shook his head and denied his own idea.

Because Xiaostool has never been in contact with anyone except Gengjiu'er, and he has never heard of Xiaostool. Who is the stool with?

But now the stool has indeed disappeared, so the shopkeeper is very confused.

"Where will this little stool go? Could it be that the Axia I saved before recovered her cultivation, and then accidentally saved the little stool and then killed her?"

The shopkeeper thought about countless possibilities in his mind, but in the end he ruled them out. No matter how he thought, he never imagined that Axia was actually saved by someone who had been living in his inn.

Experience After searching unsuccessfully all morning, the shopkeeper returned to the inn dejectedly. Gu Shaoyang estimated the time and guessed that Little Stool should have woken up by now, so he prepared to check out and go to Black Cave Mountain. He prepared to join the spirit hunting organization, and now that the young man in white has recovered his cultivation, ordinary people are no match for him if they start a fight with him.

So Gu Shaoyang can go there with peace of mind, and when the shopkeeper saw that Gu Shaoyang was about to check out, he subconsciously wanted to send someone to follow him.

But in the end, he found that the four remaining people in their inn were not in the inn except him and Xiaoba, who had been guarding the shop.

And he could not stop Gu Shaoyang from leaving, but the shopkeeper didn't know anything about Gu Shaoyang. He couldn't do it, and Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but feel very happy when he saw the shopkeeper trying to kill him but couldn't.

Finally, Gu Shaoyang paid the money and checked out, and then he rushed towards the direction of Black Hole Mountain, and was The little stool he threw nearby had also woken up.

When the little stool woke up and found that half of his cultivation was gone, he was completely confused.

After he realized it, he quickly thought about it in his mind, and the result He found that he had clearly entered the room, but he seemed to be controlled by someone from behind.

When he was controlled and walked out of the door, he heard the shopkeeper telling him to die in his room.

And he also remembered He was rescued by the boy in white, but he couldn't remember what happened next. He didn't even know how he got here. But when Xiao Shi Dingqing took a look, he found that he was where he was now. The closest base point to them is very close.

And he wanted to complain to the shopkeeper before, and now someone deliberately sent him here to satisfy him, then he would not be polite. And now it is not only for himself, but also for Jiu'er!

Thinking of this, the little stool quickly lifted his body from the ground and walked towards the entrance of Heikongkong Mountain. As a result, as soon as he stepped into the territory of Heikongkong Mountain, someone appeared immediately.

"Who are you! No outsiders are welcome here! Get out of here quickly! Did you hear that?"Because when the little stool fell from the cliff, its face was scratched by a branch, and its body was also bloody.

Chapter 1042

And his clothes were also shabby, so the people in Heikongkong Mountain disliked him very much. They also felt that there must be no treasures on him, so they didn't intend to let him in.

Facing the expulsion of the person in front of him, Little Stool calmly put his hand into his collar, and then took out the identity tag of his soul hunting organization.

The person who drove away the stool hesitated for a while when he saw that he had an ID tag, and then became warm to him after confirming the authenticity of his ID tag.

"Little brother, what's wrong with you? Why was it hurt so badly?" After knowing that he was one of their own, they hurriedly helped him walk inside step by step. With their support, the little stool was finally not so strenuous.

Finally, after the little stool entered the organization, someone came to replace him. He diagnosed and treated him and discovered something strange about his body.

"Little Stool, what a pity your cultivation is!" The person who diagnosed and treated Little Stool is an old doctor from the spirit hunting organization. He is highly respected within the spirit hunting organization. Even the highest leader here will show courtesy to him when he sees him. He cannot be judged just because of his medical skills. He has many talents, and he told the truth about Little Stool's condition in one sentence

"yes! It's all useless! And even more hateful. The reason why I am like this is because I am harmed by myself! That's why I'm so resentful!"

Little Stool became excited as he spoke, and the old doctor who treated him began to look gloomy after hearing his words.

You know, it is a taboo within the ghost hunting organization for companions to kill each other! But Little Stool did not He was harmed so miserably!

When the old doctor heard what Little Stool said, he decided that he would personally take care of this matter!

"Small stool! Don't be afraid! Tell me everything! If anything happens, I'll make the decision for you! Although I don't have much cultivation, I'll see who dares to touch me!"

The old doctor said very angrily and uprightly, and Xiao Shizi dared to tell the whole story only after hearing what the old doctor said.

When the old doctor finished listening to Xiao Shizi's story, he walked around the room angrily, with a long Te kept tugging on his beard because of his anger!

"How unreasonable! How unreasonable! What a rebellion! There are such arrogant people in the organization! This really pisses me off!"

The old doctor angrily cursed in the room, and the people outside the room held their breaths immediately after hearing his curse, for fear that he would hear any movement and get into trouble.

Because this old doctor has a very weird temper, and he is also very special. He holds grudges, but he is very generous and protective of the people he likes.

So everyone wants to be friends with the old doctor, but in the entire organization, except for the person who founded the organization and the old doctor, everyone wants to be friends with the old doctor. , no one can be loved by the old doctor anymore

"Doctor, don't get so angry! And now the other person who killed my ninth brother is still at large. We don't have enough manpower in the inn now."

"If you are really willing to help me, please bring some manpower to reinforce me as an excuse, and then take away the power of the shopkeeper and sanction him."

Little Stool asked feebly, and the old doctor felt heartbroken when he saw Little Stool like this.

"Little Stool, don't worry, I'll go talk to Boss Hei and I'll send someone right away!" After the old doctor finished speaking, he hurriedly left with his hands behind his back.

When the old doctor left, someone immediately left to take care of the little stool. By the way, he also asked him about what he and the old doctor had just discussed, but there was nothing on the little stool. explain

"I'm tired, maybe next time." Little Stool said very weakly, and the person taking care of Little Stool did not dare to say anything. He could only follow him and close the door.

"Then have a good rest." The person who said he wanted to take care of Little Stool left, and when that person left, Little Stool slowly opened his eyes.

In fact, he didn't finish what he told the old doctor just now, but he didn't talk about Gu Shaoyang. Because he vaguely felt that Gu Shaoyang could help him.

And Xiao Shizi was right!

Gu Shaoyang, who was rushing towards Heikonglong Mountain, heard people from the spirit hunting organization discussing things in their organization when he was near Heikonglong Mountain..

Among them was the matter about the small stool and the shopkeeper, and he also heard that a highly respected old doctor in their organization wanted to intervene, but it was delayed due to lack of manpower.

As soon as he heard the news, Gu Shaoyang immediately moved towards them. He entered the entrance of Heikongkong Mountain, but as soon as he stepped into the territory of Heikongkong Mountain, he was just like Little Stool before. He was directly blocked by the people from Heikongkong Mountain, and he was warned: "Outsiders are not welcome here! You'd better leave quickly!"

Although Gu Shaoyang was neatly dressed, because he didn't like luxurious clothes or wearing things, he looked like a poor man. But in the face of their expulsion, Gu Shaoyang did not leave..

Chapter 1043

"I'm here for an interview! I want to join you! Become one of you!" Gu Shaoyang said very respectfully, his eyes were full of yearning for the spirit hunting organization.

After Heikongshanshan heard him tell his purpose, he could understand why he wanted to join their organization.

Although their organization is in Jianghu. They don't have a very good reputation. They burn, kill, rob, and do anything. But in fact, the treatment in their organization is very good.

And there are also many people who have no choice but to join them and stay in the organization for generations. They are also loyal to the organization and are devoted to it..

This is also the reason why the ghost hunting organization can develop rapidly, because they will never despise a person because of his life experience and background. They will never despise a person because of something wrong he has done. Anyone, As long as he joins the spirit hunting organization, it will be a new life for him!

Everything is a new beginning, and everything in the future will be beautiful!

Although the spirit hunting organization is desirable, it is not possible to join at any time.

"brother! I know you want to join our organization, but now is not the time for the organization to recruit people. If you want to join, you should wait until the next time we recruit people."

The person who drove Gu Shaoyang said patiently, but Gu Shaoyang was unwilling to leave. Just when they were in a stalemate, a man with two maids behind him suddenly came out of the Black Cave Mountain. It seemed that he should be their leader!

"What are you doing here! I have just received an order from my superiors. In the past three days, a wave of people have been recruited to assist the inn where the little stool is located. Please hurry up and get out now."

The man who ruled them told them the news he had just received, and Gu Shaoyang was immediately overjoyed when he heard the news.

Then he stepped forward and introduced himself: "Hello! I'm here for an interview, I want to join the ghost hunting organization!"

Gu Shaoyang's eyes were shining, and the leader frowned slightly when he saw Gu Shaoyang like this, then reluctantly nodded from him, and then said to the people next to him.

"You two, take him to test his strength. If his strength is good, keep him. If he doesn't, then eliminate him."

The leader said coldly, but their subordinates couldn't help but asked in confusion after hearing his words.

"Are there going to be changes in the rules within the organization? Didn't it mean that recruiting people would not require cultivation ability?" When asked by his subordinates, the leader sighed helplessly.

"This time is an exception, because we need to hire people immediately, so remember to let the news out when you notify us later."

After the leader finished explaining, he walked back with the two maids, and Gu Shaoyang was also led by someone towards the place where they were testing.

"Little brother, what's your name? My name is Xiao Gu." In order to quickly integrate into the spirit hunting organization, Gu Shaoyang took the initiative to become warm with them.

And they were not indifferent people, so they also began to introduce themselves

"Just call me Xiaoyu." The person who led Gu Shaoyang nodded to him and said, and not long after, he brought Gu Shaoyang to their testing room.

"Okay, here we are! You go in! Remember, no matter what you encounter or see, just take action!"

Opening the door, Xiaoyu told Gu Shaoyang the rules, and then he withdrew, leaving him to deal with it alone. Gu Shaoyang, who was staying in the testing room, could deal with the things that appeared inside easily, and he could easily deal with them in a few clicks. Killing those monsters easily.

So he passed the first level test in less than two minutes, and then moved on to the second level test.

For Gu Shaoyang, the difficulty of the second level test seemed to have not increased, and Gu Shaoyang also He passed the level quickly.

After repeated repetitions, Gu Shaoyang finally found it a bit difficult at the tenth level, but it was not difficult for him.

A total of ten levels would take a normal person an hour to complete, but for Gu Shaoyang it took an hour. It only took ten minutes!

But when he finished the test and walked out, the little fish waiting for him outside the door was shocked: "Have you finished the test?"

Xiaoyu couldn't help but feel a little strange when he saw that Gu Shaoyang didn't have any wounds at all. Gu Shaoyang didn't know that their test would be difficult for many people, so he just shook his head in the affirmative.

Then Gu Shaoyang looked at Xiaoyu and asked: "I have passed the test now. ? Or are there other tests?"

Gu Shaoyang flicked the dust off his body, and then prepared to re-enter the next test place, but Xiaoyu stopped him.

"No, the test is over. Now I'll take you to get your ID badge." After saying that, Xiaoyu walked to Gu Shaoyang's boy in shock, and then took him to another room.

In this new room, Gu Shaoyang saw many jade stones of different materials, and Xiaoyu took him to lead them. The jade that arrived really feels the best to the touch.

"What grade is this jade?"

Chapter 1044

Gu Shaoyang, who was very curious while holding the jade, looked at Xiaoyu and asked. Xiaoyu also answered patiently to Gu Shaoyang's question.

"What you have in your hand now is the best level among newcomers, and you will be upgraded when you follow the old doctor and successfully complete the mission."

I don't know why, but Gu Shaoyang has just entered the spirit hunting organization, and Xiaoyu feels that he will definitely make a big difference in the future.

Usually those who enter the spirit hunting organization start from the lowest level, and their cultivation ability is also very weak. They need to Only with the help of the organization can they improve themselves.

And Master Gu's cultivation has been really strong since he came in, and the jade stone given to him now as an identity card underestimates his strength.

However, there are rules in the organization, Xiaoyu only He can do his best to reflect Gu Shaoyang's strength. As for bringing him to the senior management later, he doesn't know whether they will promote Gu Shaoyang again.

"Okay, come with me and I'll take you to see the commander just now. Xiaoyu said while explaining to him the internal situation of the organization.

"The commander you just met is in charge of recruiting people, making identity cards, and guarding the gate. When you meet him later, I will put in a good word for you and see if I can directly improve your identity card.

Xiaoyu said and took Gu Shaoyang to the room where the commander was just now:"Commander!" I came with people."

After saying that, Xiaoyu pushed the door open and entered. When the commander saw him, he silently nodded and asked him to report.

Then Xiaoyu told the commander the true situation of Gu Shaoyang. After listening to Xiaoyu's report, his eyes also showed A look of shock

"Okay, you go down and I'll talk to him alone."The commander signaled Xiaoyu to leave, and then only Gu Shaoyang and the commander were left in the room.

"Since you have good cultivation, come and give me a try. If you beat me, then I will directly upgrade your status card to be on the same level as me!"

The commander-in-chief told the conditions he could give Gu Shaoyang, and Gu Shaoyang thought about it and felt that the final result would not be a loss for him, so he started to fight with the commander-in-chief. The two people fought in the room, and the commander-in-chief But he didn't defeat Gu Shaoyang three times before being systemated by him. In the end, he could only keep his promise and upgrade Gu Shaoyang's identity card.

"Thank you, Commander-in-Chief!" Holding the new identity card, Gu Shaoyang thanked him and said, but the commander waved to him lightly and said

"I don't dare take it! Your boy will become a great person!"After saying that, the commander bowed deeply to him, and then took Gu Shaoyang directly to see the old doctor.

"The person I want to take you to meet now is the person you will follow. Your mission this time is to go to an inn with him to handle business. You cannot act casually then."

The commander-in-chief was afraid that Gu Shaoyang was a newcomer and didn't know the rules, so he kept talking in his ears. Gu Shaoyang also went in with one ear and out with the other. He didn't take his words to heart at all.

Because he didn't intend to do this in the first place. How long does it take to stay in the ghost hunting organization? He just wants to complete what he wants to do and what he wants to investigate.

"Okay, let's enter." Soon, Gu Shaoyang was taken to the old doctor's medicine house by the commander. After Gu Shaoyang entered, he did not see anyone inside. The surroundings were very quiet. Apart from him, there was a room full of medicinal materials.

And Gu Shaoyang looked at this The medicinal materials in the room began to swirl around, and finally he saw a prescription on the table.

There seemed to be a medicine in it that the other party was not sure about, so some hesitant notes were visible on the paper.

After seeing this, Gu Shaoyang picked up the prescription and read it. After looking at it, he took up a pen to add to it and perfected the prescription. Finally, he saw that there were unfinished medicines corresponding to the prescriptions next to him. After seeing this,

Gu Shaoyang did all the medicine for him in order to leave a good impression on the old doctor, and then he behaved obediently. Waiting in the room.

Not impatient or irritable, with a very relaxed attitude.

Finally, after a long, long time, the old doctor finally came back from outside, and saw a young man sitting in his house.

And he also Touched his things!

You know, the old doctor has a very weird temper. What he hates the most is that others touch his things, especially medicinal materials, but Gu Shaoyang did it just to please the old doctor! When he saw the old doctor, he became very angry. When he rushed into the prescription, Gu Shaoyang immediately stood up and greeted him with a smile, but what he received was the old doctor's ignorance.

Then he only saw the old doctor hurriedly walking toward the things he put on the table, and then began to take the medicinal materials. Smell on the left, sniff on the right.

The old doctor who was about to get angry at Gu Shaoyang suddenly became much better after smelling the medicinal materials Gu Shaoyang grabbed.

However, there was still no smile on his face, and he remained stern. It was not until he saw the prescription that Gu Shaoyang gave him that the old doctor suddenly smiled happily.

Chapter 1045

"Hahahaha...boy! Did you write this prescription?"The old doctor smiled heartily, and then walked up to Master Gu with the prescription.

Gu Shaoyang just nodded lightly. His face was neither proud nor overly humble, but looked very indifferent. The old doctor saw him like this The deputy was even more satisfied, nodded affirmatively at him, and then continued.

"good! good! He is a very accomplished child. Did you come here to become my teacher?"The narcissistic old doctor thought that Gu Shaoyang was like those people.

But he didn't expect that Gu Shaoyang would directly reject him:"No! I don't want to be your teacher."

Gu Shaoyang said it very simply. For a moment, the old doctor felt that his face was red with embarrassment, and he wanted to lose his temper in his heart, but he didn't know what he should be angry about.

In the end, he could only clear his throat and continue to ask:"Since you You didn't come to me to learn medical skills, so why did you come to me?"

At this time, the old doctor had forgotten about recruiting people, so for a while he couldn't understand the purpose of Gu Shaoyang coming to him.

When Gu Shaoyang saw that the old doctor had forgotten, he quickly reminded: "You forgot Did you say you wanted to recruit people? I am the person who has just joined the ghost hunting organization. You can just call me Xiao Gu."

After Gu Shaoyang introduced himself to the old doctor, he stood there and looked at him quietly. After hearing Gu Shaoyang's words, the old doctor remembered what he had ordered before. It's just that he had just given the order, and he didn't expect this. Someone came in soon, and it was a young man who satisfied him in every aspect.

"I'm so old and confused! You actually forgot such an important thing!" The old doctor patted his head, then walked up to Gu Shaoyang and gave him a new identity tag.

"Please return your previous identity tags. Now that you are following me, you can no longer use those identity tags. You need to change them."

Gu Shaoyang listened to the old doctor's words and obediently took the identity tag from his hand, and then tied it directly to his body.

As for the other identity tag, he temporarily placed it on his chest, waiting for it to be free. Return it when the time comes

"Well, do you know how many people are being recruited outside now?" Because the old doctor is always running around in the organization, he has no time to pay attention to things outside.

Now he can only rely on Gu Shaoyang to catch up on the situation outside. The old doctor thought that Gu Shaoyang must know something, but I didn't expect him to be worse than him

"I don't know anything. I only know that I was the first person to come for the interview. People outside should have sent out notices by now."

Gu Shaoyang told the truth, but the old doctor seemed not to hear what he said.

Because he personally gave the order, they would definitely carry it out. He also knew that Gu Shaoyang was the first person to interview, otherwise he would be dead when he came in. No, I just saw him alone

"never mind! You are not familiar with the situation inside the organization. If you follow me, I don't have time to explain it to you. Just go outside and help them interview."

After saying that, the old doctor waved his hand to Gu Shaoyang and signaled him to leave. Gu Shaoyang also wanted to recruit people quickly and then took the shopkeeper away, so he went there very actively.

When he went to help them recruit people, he He also sent the exchanged ID tags to the place where the ID tags were made, and then went to the door.

When Xiaoyu, who was guarding the door, saw Gu Shaoyang coming out of it, he couldn't help but be curious:"Why did you come out of it?"

Didn't he get kicked out because he was favored by the superiors?

Xiaoyu guessed silently in his heart, and soon he found an identity card hanging on the side of Gu Shaoyang's robe that was higher than the commander-in-chief's.

When he saw it, he After receiving his identity tag, Xiaoyu immediately saluted him with great respect. The gatekeepers around him also quickly saluted Gu Shaoyang after seeing Xiaoyu's behavior.

"Okay, I'm just a newbie, so just let's get along with each other. Now when I come out, I just hide you and recruit people together, because the old doctor is more anxious."

Gu Shaoyang explained his purpose, and then they took him to familiarize himself with the surrounding environment and brought all the people who signed up in front of him.

"There are only these few people left today, take a look."Xiaoyu brought all the people who passed the test to Gu Shaoyang and asked him to check it.

After checking it, Gu Shaoyang said to them:"Okay! Just a few of you! You don't need to recruit anyone, just these few people are enough!"

After that, Gu Shaoyang asked Xiaoyu to take them to get their identity cards, while he went to report the situation to the old doctor. If everything goes well, then they can set off towards the inn at night. If the situation is not so smooth.

They Tomorrow at the latest will be able to go to the inn to clean up the shopkeeper and take over everything in the inn.

Chapter 1046

"Old doctor! I've already found the person! When shall we set off?" Gu Shaoyang started calling loudly before he even got close to the pharmacy.

When the old doctor heard his voice, he frowned and seemed a little dissatisfied. But when he saw that the person coming was Gu Shaoyang, the unhappy look on his face disappeared.

"Found it so quickly?" The old doctor was a little shocked, but with the reputation of the spirit hunting organization and the ability he had seen Gu Shaoyang, he was not surprised. It's just that he had to deal with the inn's affairs urgently, and taking care of the patients also kept him busy.

If he goes with him, it will definitely delay the condition of the patients in the organization, and if it is serious, it may be life-threatening.

So after thinking about it again and again, the old doctor decided to let Gu Shaoyang go on his behalf, but he had to bring a Man - Little Stool!

Logically speaking, Little Stool cannot go out until his injury is healed, especially if the road is bumpy. His physical strength cannot support it, and it is very likely to get worse.

But the old doctor considered that Gu Shaoyang is proficient in He has good medical skills and good cultivation, and Xiao Shizi knows the things inside the inn better. Therefore, it is the best way to let Xiao Shizi follow and Gu Shaoyang replace him in charge, but this is a bit dangerous for Gu Shaoyang. Because Xiao Shizi sees After passing him, he had personally led Little Stool to the northern suburbs before, so if Little Stool knew that he was Gu Shaoyang, then it is very likely that his whereabouts would be exposed and his true identity would be revealed, so Gu Shaoyang was setting off When he was young, he brought himself a long curtain to cover his face. After he was on the road, he also asked others to take care of the small stool. Whenever they stopped to rest, Gu Shaoyang would hide far away, beautiful The name is to survey the terrain. But in fact, almost all the territory in this area belongs to them, and it is impossible for anyone to break in and threaten them. But Gu Shaoyang decided to do this, and together with Gu Shaoyang Except for Little Stool, all of them are newcomers, so Little Stool is not surprised by Gu Shaoyang's behavior. Because he has just joined the soul hunting organization and is full of curiosity about everything, Little Stool just thinks that he is very curious. That's all. And because they carried small stools in their team, their journey was very slow. Normally, the distance that could be covered in one day was three times as many because of the small stools! And they walked for three days.! After walking for three days but still not arriving at the inn, this made Gu Shaoyang a little anxious. Because the boy in white was alone in the inn, Gu Shaoyang didn't know whether he was good or bad. Finally, after four days of journey, they Finally, they arrived at the door of the inn, and the shopkeeper saw that the visitor was someone from the ghost hunting organization. Moreover! They actually came back with the little stool that had been drugged by him but was not dead. The shopkeeper knew that, I'm afraid he's finished. The organization must have known about what he did, and now they deliberately let the little stool come here, probably just to sanction him.

"okay! We have been on the road for a day, so the shopkeeper should hurry up and prepare a room for us so that we can have a good rest."

Gu Shaoyang was like an old man. After entering the inn, he sat with his legs crossed, and then ordered the shopkeeper, but his words were full of dissatisfaction with him.

As for the entanglement that occurred among the people sent by this organization, the shopkeeper He just thought that he did this deliberately under the order of the organization, but he didn't know that it was actually because the adult was Gu Shaoyang.

After the shopkeeper arranged the room for them, the small stool was brought back to his former room. And a person was specially sent to take care of him.

Gu Shaoyang also chose to live next door to the boy in white's room to facilitate his work at night. The rest of the people were accommodated in rooms arranged by the shopkeeper.

At night, the shopkeeper He kept worrying about it, fearing that Gu Shaoyang would kill him without saying a word, but he was worried all night.

People from the organization said that there was no reaction at all, as if they didn't actually know about the small stool.

After Gu Shaoyang ignored the shopkeeper for two or three days in a row, the shopkeeper's heart gradually relaxed. He felt that they might not know that Xiaostool was harmed by him.

Although Xiaostool did not remember it now, There is no guarantee that he will know about it one day, so the shopkeeper's decision is to not do anything about it! Just kill people and silence him!

This will also give him a real peace of mind, and he will no longer have to worry about life. He has this idea in his mind The shopkeeper began to secretly plan, but what he didn't know was that from when he had the idea, to when he was preparing, and then when he was about to implement it, Gu Shaoyang knew it all, and the reason why n't stop it was because he wanted to Grasp the current situation personally.

Only in this way can you win over the shopkeeper's heart.

Chapter 1047

Make him convinced! And he himself had nothing to say in defense.

Taking advantage of the dim and groggy night, after everyone in the inn had rested, the innkeeper began to implement his plan.

This time, he also used drugs to deal with the little stool, and he planned to increase the dose this time!

The last time he was drugged, he only lost half of his cultivation, and he was still alive! So the shopkeeper decided that this time he would make Little Stool lose his martial arts skills and his cultivation base! And let him die tragically!

To relieve the hatred in his heart!

But it turned out that the shopkeeper obviously thought too much!

Just as the shopkeeper sneaked into Little Stool's room again and prepared to put the drug in the tea cup for him, he was on the cantilever of Little Stool's room.

Gu Shaoyang and the people he brought witnessed everything the shopkeeper did, and Xiaozi stood quietly in the corner of the room, quietly watching what the shopkeeper did.

The shopkeeper seemed a little dissatisfied when he put the drug in the tea cup. Just in case, he also put it on the bed of the small stool.

To make sure nothing went wrong, but when he finished all this and wanted to leave the room, he turned around and found that the people from the organization had appeared behind him without knowing anything.

And I'm afraid I've seen everything he did!

"It seems that you have done this to the small stool before, right?" Gu Shaoyang stepped forward, picked up the drug he had placed, and then walked to the shopkeeper's side.

With their help, the small stool was placed on a chair far away, away from the drug, for fear that he would come back again. He was hurt twice.

After the shopkeeper saw his story exposed, he went from being scared and nervous at the beginning to suddenly realizing it.

Now he suddenly understood that they had come to investigate the little stool from the beginning, and I didn't expose him from the beginning. I just wanted to lure him to do it again

, but I didn't expect it! He was so stupid that he actually did it again! And he still used the old method! And he was still beaten by so many of them. See.

So now he can't clear his name no matter how he explains it!

After the shopkeeper figured it out, he suddenly raised his head and looked at Gu Shaoyang, and then attacked suddenly. It seemed that he was ready to break the jar.

The shopkeeper When he started fighting with Gu Shaoyang, he also woke up the boy in white upstairs. He watched a man wearing a curtain fighting with the shopkeeper, and the small stool from the inn before also appeared here. So he guessed that the man wearing a curtain was there. The person holding the curtain was Gu Shaoyang!

In order not to reveal his identity and not to interfere with the internal affairs of their organization, the boy in white just glanced at it lightly, then closed the door. Then he pretended that nothing happened just now. , just waiting for Gu Shaoyang to come to him after he has settled the matter.

Downstairs, Gu Shaoyang has not made any big moves due to the restrictions of the space. The main reason is that he is worried that the house will not be able to support it.

The second is that they are afraid that they will not be able to bear the small stool. To avoid the turmoil caused by his ultimate move, he might not have subdued the shopkeeper when the time came, but would have injured nine of his own people, which would be more than worth the loss! In this way, Gu Shaoyang had been entangled with the shopkeeper for a long time without a winner, so Gu Shaoyang deliberately led the shopkeeper towards the outside, and his goal was the southern suburbs!

Under Gu Shaoyang's guidance while teasing the shopkeeper, they quickly arrived at the southern suburbs, but Xiaostool and the others could not keep up with Gu Shaoyang's strength.

So they just being able to wait inside the inn, after Gu Shaoyang and the shopkeeper left, they began to clean up the things in the room that were damaged by shaking.

After finally finishing cleaning up, they waited on the small stools to rest, while several other people were waiting in the lobby. Gu Shaoyang returned.

On the other side, the shopkeeper in the southern suburbs who was guided by Gu Shaoyang did not notice anything unusual. However, when he arrived at the place where the shopkeeper hid the treasure, Gu Shaoyang suddenly stopped. Then the shopkeeper only saw him take out a treasure from his sleeve. The spiritual stone on the snow mountain: "Shopkeeper, I heard that this is where you hide your treasures."

"And I am also very lucky. I accidentally got a lot of things here before, and I got them from the place where we are standing now!"

Gu Shaoyang even deliberately stamped his feet as he spoke, his words full of provocation!

When the shopkeeper heard what he said, he immediately understood that the person who had stolen his treasure before was Gu Shaoyang!

"you! you! You are not from the ghost hunting organization! You are the person from the inn before!"

Now the shopkeeper is very sure of Gu Shaoyang's identity. Seeing that the shopkeeper guessed his identity, Gu Shaoyang also took off the curtain above his head.

"That's right! I am the person who was in the inn before, but you were a little bit wrong! It's that I'm not just the person from the previous inn! I'm still a member of the ghost hunting organization!"

As he said this, Gu Shaoyang handed over his identity card.

Chapter 1048

He took it out, and when the shopkeeper saw Gu Shaoyang's identity card, he realized that his identity card was quite high-level! According to the hierarchy within the organization, he would still be his subordinate.

But now he is obsessed with the fact that Gu Shaoyang stole his treasure, and he knows it himself.

He did something like that to the little stool. No matter who in the organization handled this matter, he would definitely die.

So now he doesn't care about his status level. He just wants to fight Gu Shaoyang to the death and get back all the treasures that originally belonged to him!

"You clean it up!" As the shopkeeper said, he immediately took out his big moves and aimed them at Gu Shaoyang. Each move was aimed directly at taking his life.

However, his cultivation ability was not enough for Gu Shaoxia, so every time Gu Shaoyang He was able to dodge in time when his moves were about to hit him.

For dozens of rounds in a row, Gu Shaoyang kept letting go and not attacking. Finally, in the eleventh round, he started to really take action.

"okay! I have given you ten times just now, allowing you to live for ten more seconds. This time can be considered as me buying your treasure from you."

"After all, life is very precious, right?" Gu Shaoyang deliberately raised his eyebrows at the shopkeeper, and then moved forward quickly.

Aiming at the shopkeeper's heart, the shopkeeper saw that Gu Shaoyang was unable to dodge at such a fast speed, and was directly attacked by him. His heart was instantly hit by Gu Shaoyang's
The weapon was picked out.

In an instant, his body turned into two parts. After Gu Shaoyang picked out the shopkeeper's heart, he wiped his weapon clean on his body to avoid contamination.

Finally, he took the weapon back without leaving it. The account that hit his heart instantly settled on his chest, and he knelt down directly.

Seeing him like this, Gu Shaoyang shook his head silently, then picked up the curtain he had thrown away and put it on, then flew directly up the tree, just waiting for him to completely After he ran out of energy, he took him back to the inn.

Finally, five minutes passed. The shopkeeper had no heart, the most important organ to support his life, and his eyes were wide open because he refused to die in silence. Gu Shaoyang looked at him like this He looked horrified but very calm.

Finally, he jumped down from the tree, put his heart directly into his pocket, and then carried him back to the inn.

Only one person was seen on the rafters at night. Carrying a long thing that was still bleeding, he jumped over different rafters and finally came to the backyard of an inn.

When Gu Shaoyang returned to the inn, the people guarding the inn immediately surrounded them. When they saw Gu Shaoyang's empty hands, they thought he hadn't caught anyone.

But when they entered the backyard and took a look, they found that he had returned directly carrying the shopkeeper's hand.

"okay! I'll leave it to you."After Gu Shaoyang finished the most important thing, he handed over the work of handling the shopkeeper's body to them.

And he yawned and went upstairs and returned to his own room.

But when he returned to his room He did not go to bed, but walked directly through the wall to the room of the boy in white.

The boy in white in the room was also sitting on the chair and waiting. The two seemed to have a tacit understanding and knew that the other would come today. looking for each other "Brother Gu! Are you okay now?"The young man in white saw Gu Shaoyang coming in and immediately poured him tea, and Gu Shaoyang also took down the curtain.

Then he sat down unceremoniously and drank the tea that the young man in white had poured for him in one gulp.

"fine! Now I have infiltrated the ghost hunting organization, and it is okay. Now I have also finished cleaning up the shopkeeper. You will never see him again tomorrow."

Gu Shaoyang told the boy in white what he had just done, and the boy in white was not surprised.

"So when are you going to come back?"Now that Gu Shaoyang has got rid of the shopkeeper he planned to take over, he should take over the inn.

But now Gu Shaoyang does not plan like this:"I may not come back."

Then Gu Shaoyang told the young man in white his plan.

"I think the person behind your scenes probably hired people from many different organizations to deal with you, but now, what I can try to find out is the information about the ghost hunting organization."

"Because now I am a member of the spirit hunting organization, and my strength is one of the best in the spirit hunting organization. If I can be promoted faster,"

"Then I can get the list of those employers, and I can also investigate who hired people to deal with you behind the scenes."

Gu Shaoyang told the young man in white his plan very rationally, and he just nodded silently after hearing it, because Gu Shaoyang's waiting was indeed reasonable.

And his analysis was also for his own good, so there was really no reason to refute. The only thing he felt was bad was that he always felt unsafe without Gu Shaoyang around.

Maybe it was because he had no cultivation before.

Chapter 1049

So now even though he has recovered, he is still a little worried. After all, if those people can do what they did before, they can definitely do it twice.

But what's more fortunate now is that his cultivation has recovered, but he can't show it to others for the time being. This also means that when he encounters danger, if it's not a life-threatening matter, he can only pretend to be useless.

"Okay, Brother Gu, I will do as you say and I will hide myself well."The young man in white nodded to Gu Shaoyang and said with great certainty.

Gu Shaoyang felt relieved after seeing his promise.

"But Brother Gu, I think that although the shopkeeper has been solved now, there are still two problems."The boy in white looked at Gu Shaoyang and said very seriously.

Gu Shaoyang just nodded in agreement with what he said:"Indeed, although the shopkeeper is gone, the little stool and Axia are still there."

"If I want to reach a high-level position in the ghost hunting organization, then the existence of these two people will be a huge obstacle to me!"

Gu Shaoyang mentioned that there was more murderous intent in the eyes of these two people, and the boy in white also nodded heavily, confirming his statement.

"After you went to Black Cave Mountain, I did some fortune-telling and found that A-Xia is now hiding in a cave at the junction of the north and the south, which is the junction of the territories of the Wolf King and the Tiger King. It is very difficult to be discovered."

The boy in white provided Gu Shaoyang with the address in time, and after knowing where Axia is, it will be more convenient for them to act.

"Well done!" Gu Shaoyang patted the young man in white hard on the shoulder as a confirmation of him. After receiving Gu Shaoyang's affirmation, the young man in white was also very happy.

"Now that we know where Axia is, we will spread the news to someone in advance to see how he will react."

Gu Shaoyang raised his eyebrows and said, and the boy in white nodded to complete his statement.

Finally, after the two people discussed for a while, Gu Shaoyang quietly returned to his room, and the innkeeper was gone because the shopkeeper was gone.

So Gu Shaoyang went directly Let Xiao Ba from the previous inn take over temporarily, because now in the inn, no one except him is more suitable.

In contrast, only he is more suitable. Although his cultivation and qualifications may be insufficient, for the temporary Management, with Gu Shaoyang's assistance, there won't be any big problems.

After Gu Shaoyang took care of the shopkeeper's affairs, he immediately wrote back to the old doctor to report, and the old doctor was very satisfied after receiving Gu Shaoyang's reply.

So in the end, the old doctor The doctor just let Gu Shaoyang make his own decision when he finally replied to the letter, and there was nothing more in the end. When

When Gu Shaoyang was in the inn room from After waking up from his sleep, he immediately went downstairs. When he saw that the inn was not busy, he gathered all the people who had come with him from Heikongkong Mountain.

"Everyone has been out for a few days, but some of us still have unfinished tasks. In the end, there are still a few days of tasks that require everyone to work together to take down Axia and reduce the organization."

Gu Shaoyang said his decision, but the people he managed didn't quite understand after hearing what he said.

"Boss, you said you want to arrest Axia, but we don't know what Axia looks like, let alone where he is now!"

When one of the people asked these two questions, the others immediately began to discuss it, and their opinions became more and more different.

"yes! We don't know where this Axia is now. There are so many territories around here, where should we go to find him?"

When Gu Shaoyang was discussing with a few people, Little Stool was listening with open ears, but he did not express his opinion.

Because his trip was mainly to assist, as long as they did not ask for his opinion, he could Remaining silent.

But Gu Shaoyang just wanted to see what kind of reaction he would have when he knew where A Xia was.

"I know everyone has questions, but as far as I know, Axia is now at the junction of the north and the south, which is the junction of the territories of the Wolf King and the Tiger King."

Gu Shaoyang told the information he knew, and when Xiao Shizi knew where A Xia was, his eyes immediately glowed with gold.

But soon the light in his eyes dimmed. It was him It was because his cultivation level had dropped by half.

After Gu Shaoyang saw his reaction, he pretended to say:"Alas! I don't know what it was like when Jiuer was lost. I heard that the death was very tragic."

"How pitiful! If the organization hadn't sent us to investigate now, I'm afraid no one would take revenge on him."

Gu Shaoyang pretended to sigh, and several other people heard his words and agreed. They only had small stools.

Chapter 1050

When he heard Gu Shaoyang's words, he immediately objected, and he seemed to be a little excited: "Who said that! That's not the case!"

Originally, everyone was discussing in a very amicable manner, but because of Xiao Shizi's sudden unhappiness, everyone was surprised For a moment.

After the little stool lost his temper, he walked back to the room by himself. Gu Shaoyang threw away everyone who asked people to help him.

Helpless, Gu Shaoyang could only let them go away and let Xiaostool return to the room alone.

When Little Stool returned to the room, Gu Shaoyang continued to discuss with several of them, but on the surface he was discussing with them, but in fact he told Little Stool the information.

Because based on Little Stool's current reaction, he could probably guess that he would definitely go find Axia, but his cultivation was now damaged, so he would definitely find a way.

Gu Shaoyang wanted to push him to find A Xia, so he took out something while discussing with them

"Come! Look, once this thing is aimed at the target, it will definitely hit the target, and the power of the person caught by it will also be limited."

"But it also has a drawback, that is, its impact is very powerful, so you must be gentle when using it, but be sure not to hurt yourself."

"A-Xia's cultivation should be about the same as yours now. I heard that his cultivation has not recovered yet, so it should be only 30 to 40 percent."

Gu Shaoyang probably guessed, but in fact, his words were meant for the small stool in the room.

However, people outside did not know what he was thinking, so after hearing his words, they immediately said confidently

"cut! His cultivation level is only 30 to 40% of his previous skill. With so many of us trying to deal with him alone, are we still afraid that we won't be able to succeed?"

One of them patted his chest and was very confident, but Gu Shaoyang had to remind him:"Although he only has 20 to 30% of his cultivation level now, he has more practical experience than you."

"Your current level of cultivation is something he has already experienced, so even if his current level of cultivation is similar to yours, he is still as good as you!"

Gu Shaoyang gave a certain degree of affirmation to A Xia, and after they heard it, their originally exciting fighting aura instantly dimmed, but Gu Shaoyang's next sentence made them ignite again.

"Don't worry too much, A-Xia's cultivation level should be similar to that of a small stool now, but the small stool is injured, so we don't need him to take action for the time being."

Gu Shaoyang compared the two of them, and after Xiao Shizi, who was eavesdropping in the room, found out, he had already made a decision in his heart.

"okay! That's it for today's discussion! We will set off again tomorrow night. Let's all have a good rest tonight. In addition, I will leave this treasure here for you to take with you when you set off tomorrow."

Gu Shaoyang went straight upstairs after notifying the matter, and the rest of the people also returned to the room to rest.

However, when they all returned to the room, after a long time, the small stool that had already returned to the room was He sneaked out quietly.

Moreover, after he came out of the room, he directly took the treasure that Gu Shaoyang put on the table, and then quietly left the inn.

The little stool thought that no one noticed what he did. In terms of strength, From the moment he left the inn, someone had been following him secretly.

This person was Gu Shaoyang!

He had long expected that Xiaostool would be unable to hold back after listening to his words and would take action tonight. That's why he deliberately put things downstairs.

It was because he wanted it to be easy for him to take, so that he could go out immediately after taking it.

He followed the small stool and sang in the north-south direction, because it was at the junction of the Wolf King and the Tiger King. , so there are many dangers along the way, and you will encounter wolves or tigers if you are not careful.

And Little Stool is also very unlucky. He was met by a little tiger just after he stepped into the tiger's territory.

And the little tiger has not yet Cultivated in human form, he was still ignorant of the world, so Little Stool just slowly avoided it and then moved on.

However, Little Tiger's mother soon found the child who had lost her because of her naughty nature. As a result, after finding the child, she heard that there was Humans broke into their territory.

So the tigress hurriedly reported this matter to the tiger king, and when the tiger king learned about it, he immediately led the tigers in the group to search around. For a time, the originally silent tiger group in the night was all He was awakened by the arrival of the little stool, and the little stool discovered that he had disturbed the tiger group.

Now he could only escape by hiding in the wolf king's territory, so he quickened his pace and sang "Southern March".

Finally, Little Stool finally hid in the Wolf King's territory just before the Tiger King led his men to find him. The Tiger King and the others saw Little Stool leaving their territory and stopped chasing after he went to the Wolf King's territory.

But they They kept roaring in the direction the little stool was leaving, as if to warn him not to get closer to their territory.
