Chapter 1071

Kong San blocked Gu Shaoyang's path and threatened, but Gu Shaoyang didn't take Kong San's threat to heart at all: "Go ahead, I'll go back to the organization and wait for you." After saying that,

Gu Shaoyang pushed him away and moved on. After taking two steps, Gu Shaoyang suddenly turned around and said to Kong San: "If you still have the life to go to the spirit hunting organization to find me."

Gu Shaoyang's last words were undoubtedly fatal to Kong San. Because his strength is nothing compared to Gu Shaoyang.

If he fights with bandits and only cares about himself, he might be able to escape unscathed, but the key is that he still needs to protect the baby, which is his burden.

So once he fights the bandits again, he is very likely to die!

Thinking of this, Kong San's face became a little more frightened, and he quickly stepped forward and grabbed Gu Shaoyang's hand tightly.

"Brother! Let's discuss it carefully if we have anything to do. If you think there's something wrong, we can tell you, right?"

Finally Kong San finally got to the point, and Gu Shaoyang stopped after hearing this.

"This is what you said. I only have one request, which is that within the distance where I protect you, no matter how big or small, you can only listen to me alone, how about it?"

Gu Shaoyang said his request, but after Kong San heard Gu Shaoyang's request, he felt that he was provoking him.

"how! Do you want to seize power from me? You still want to control me!"

In an instant, Kong San lost his temper, and Gu Shaoyang felt speechless when he saw him like this. His patience had been exhausted, and he really didn't want to waste any more words with him. So

Gu Shaoyang simply turned around and left without caring. Kong San and the treasure behind him.

And watching Gu Shaoyang's figure walking further and further away, Kong San's heart became more and more restless, and the hearts of his men seemed to fly away as Gu Shaoyang moved away.

Seeing In this situation, Kong San thought secretly in his heart: Without Gu Shaoyang's protection, our lives would be lost, and the baby would definitely not be delivered.

And if there is Gu Shaoyang's protection, even if I hand over the management rights to him, It doesn't seem to have much impact, and if the mission fails, you can go to the spirit hunting organization for compensation, so why not!

Finally Kong San finally figured it out, and by the time he figured it out, Gu Shaoyang had already walked away. There was no trace, but Kong San still didn't give up and chased in the direction he left.

Finally, he found Gu Shaoyang in a small wooden house.

"Xiao Gu, so you are here! It's hard to find a meal for me."Kong San came forward laughing and wanted to get close to Gu Shaoyang, but Gu Shaoyang just saw him and stood up and left.

Gu Shaoyang got angry when he saw him like this and didn't want to pay attention to him at all, but Kong San was a shameless person, no matter where Gu Shaoyang went He could keep up.

In the end, he finally got Gu Shaoyang helpless and begged him to go back, and then Gu Shaoyang followed him back.

After Gu Shaoyang returned, the power of being in charge of the team was handed over to him. He had the final say in everything, and they were in harmony along the way.

Finally, they came to the third resting place given to Kong San by the spy. As soon as he saw this place, Kong San subconsciously asked the team to stop. Get ready to rest.

But Gu Shaoyang directly ordered everyone to continue marching. For a period of two months, it seemed that there was a stalemate. When Kong San realized something was wrong, he looked at Gu Shaoyang, and then remembered the agreement between him and Gu Shaoyang, so he could only shut up in the end..

And the bandits who were ambushing in the mountain saw that Kong San and others did not rest, but were still driving very fast on this section of the road, as if they were avoiding them.

And because their number was relatively small, they were very fast, and the bandits A large number of people gathered on the mountain and could not be easily moved, so they could only watch them leave.

In the end, they could only place their hopes on the last deployed place and just wait for them to rest somewhere. They caught them all in one go.

Gu Shaoyang did not let them rest at the second deployment place. After passing the second deployment place, Gu Shaoyang found a very open place to rest.

Kong San looked at the place Gu Shaoyang found. They just felt uneasy and always thought they would be attacked. However, they rested for several hours and still did not wait for the bandits to attack.

"okay! Everyone is well rested! Now we have one last hurdle left. As long as that hurdle is passed, we will be able to reach a safe place!"

"At the same time, I also want to tell you that during the last hurdle, I need you to maintain your speed. You must push the baby forward quickly without resting for a moment, so as to ensure that the baby and everyone are safe and sound!"

Gu Shaoyang stated his request, but Kong San felt that it was impossible.

Because of the continuous high-intensity and fast speed.

Chapter 1072

It is impossible to do it with the cultivation level of his men, so Gu Shaoyang's words are undoubtedly fantasy.

However, soon after going through the second level, Kong San was slapped in the face.

I saw Gu Shaoyang asking one of them to sit on top and hold the baby tightly, and then the rest of them all pushed down, and Gu Shaoyang was also walking at the end of the team.

When Gu Shaoyang detects any slightest movement nearby, he will pick it up to speed them up, and then he will also do work to help them increase their speed.

In this way, although they cannot do things on their own, they only need Gu Shaoyang's help to increase their speed instantly.

Because Gu Shaoyang is protecting them behind them, those who are guarding the baby only need to focus on increasing their speed.

Because of this, their speed was as Gu Shaoyang expected, and the bandits who were hiding in the grass and preparing to attack found that their speed was so fast.

The bandit leader simply ordered his men to stop hiding in the dark. The troops pursued hard, but the speed of the bandits was not as fast as Gu Shaoyang and others.

So they were quickly left behind Gu Shaoyang.

After experiencing such a high-intensity operation, everyone was very tired, but Gu Shaoyang did not let them rest, because there was still a tough battle, and they could only relax completely after passing the final level.

Kong San was a little exhausted following Gu Shaoyang like this, but Gu Shaoyang, who had been busy with the large team, had no time to pay attention to Kong San.

So just when they were about to successfully pass the last level, Kong San was suddenly entangled by bandits.

"Wait for me! Wait for me!" Just when Gu Shaoyang was leading the team and was about to successfully pass the third level, he suddenly heard a roar from behind him.

When Gu Shaoyang turned around to check, he found that it was Kong San who had been following them, but now he was surrounded by bandits.

And he was fighting fiercely with the bandits. The bandits were a little excited because they didn't catch Gu Shaoyang. So they inevitably felt more resentful towards Kong San. Kong San was also deadly when he attacked. If Kong San's cultivation level was not good, he would have been dead long ago. However, regarding Kong San's very dangerous situation at this time, Gu Shaoyang just turned around and looked at it. However, after hesitating for half a second, they finally pushed the team away quickly.

Kong San, who was behind them, couldn't help being very angry when he saw Gu Shaoyang leading his men away.

And Kong San also thought that he was ruthlessly beaten like this. Abandoned, he was still a little sad in his heart. The bandits also thought that Kong San was a useless person.

So they were even more merciless when treating Kong San, and each move became more cruel than the last. It seemed that he wanted to take Kong San's life quickly.

But Kong San was only one person. Even if he tried his best to fight with the bandits, he was still seriously injured because of lack of physical strength and the number of them was not as strong as theirs.

At this time, his body was already bloody and bloody. If he continued to struggle, he would definitely die. The bandits seemed not to be soft-hearted. They just wanted to deal with Kong San quickly and then retreat quickly.

However, in the end, they tried their best and were about to kill Kong San. Kong San's life was taken, and when Kong San thought he was about to die, an accident happened!

The bandits surrounded Kong San, with all the weapons in their hands pointing at Kong San, and they were looking at him. As he got closer and closer, he was almost close to his heart.

But at this moment, a figure suddenly fell from the sky quickly and landed directly on the weapons of the bandits pointed at Kong San's body.

And in that When the figure fell on the weapon, the bandits' weapons instantly shattered into ashes, and Kong San's life was temporarily saved.

"Thank you hero!" With his head lowered, Kong San was unable to raise his head at this time. He just thanked the person who suddenly appeared in his heart very gratefully.

But when Kong San heard the answer from the figure in front of him and heard his voice, he reluctantly raised his head. He raised his head to check.

Only when Kong San raised his head did he realize that the person who suddenly appeared to save him was the person who just fled quickly with his men - Gu Shaoyang!

But now Gu Shaoyang suddenly came back , and also saved Kong San at a critical moment, which couldn't help but make Kong San's mood that was very resentful towards Gu Shaoyang just now change.

And now he also understood that the reason why Gu Shaoyang left so quickly just now was not because he wanted to leave him, but because he wanted to leave him. It was because they needed to quickly send the baby to a safe place.

Then after sending the baby to a safe place, they could return to help Kong San and save him from the fire and water.

And when Gu Shaoyang appeared, Kong San's men who had just left with him have now returned and joined the battle.

Chapter 1073

When they saw that their boss was seriously injured, Kong San's men were more desperate than ever when fighting the bandits.

Only at this moment did Kong San suddenly feel his importance in the team, and suddenly realized that he had indeed been a little too much towards his subordinates before.

But later he will also change his attitude towards his men because of today's events. Similarly, he will also thank Gu Shaoyang because he saved his life today.

Moreover, Gu Shaoyang helped him transport the baby to a safe place first, and finally brought someone to save his life.

At this time, Kong San also thanked him very much but found Gu Shaoyang who was about to leave.

Because if he had not found Gu Shaoyang back then, he would have died countless times by this time, and his men would certainly not be spared either.

So now they can survive all because of Gu Shaoyang!

"okay! You guys take Kong San away quickly! I'll cut it off!"

At this time, Gu Shaoyang was only concentrating on dealing with the bandits. While dealing with the bandits, he also encouraged Kong San's men to not be harmed.

At the same time, he had already taken care of Kong San and could not let the bandits hurt him who was already seriously injured. At the same time, Gu Shaoyang also had to take care of himself from being harmed.

So Gu Shaoyang's task was particularly heavy for a while, but despite this, he still completed it very satisfactorily.

When Gu Shaoyang finished speaking, Kong San's men immediately They led him to retreat back, while Gu Shaoyang stood behind them to protect them and wiped out all those who tried to get close to them.

Finally, when Kong San's men took Kong San to the territory that did not belong to the bandits, they did not dare After getting closer, Gu Shaoyang's burden became slightly lighter.

After finally bringing Kong San to a safe place, Gu Shaoyang did not leave.

According to the actual situation, Gu Shaoyang's mission was just to successfully escort the baby to a safe place. But in the end, Gu Shaoyang stopped escorting the baby, and he also minimized Kong San's casualties.

After escaping from death, when Gu Shaoyang was dressing Kong San's wound, Kong San suddenly proposed

"Xiao Gu! oh! No! Brother Gu! Why don't you just escort us to the final location? I'm not managing them now, and it's also a drag on us."

When Kong San truly witnessed Gu Shaoyang's strength, he became even more respectful to Gu Shaoyang. But what Kong San didn't expect was that Gu Shaoyang directly rejected him.

"No, I agreed that I would just help you deliver your things to a safe location. Now that it is safe, you can deliver them yourself."

Gu Shaoyang said while bandaging Kong San's wound, and the people around Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but feel a little sad when they heard what he said.

Because they were used to Gu Shaoyang's leadership, and Gu Shaoyang was so powerful.

As long as he was escorting the baby on the way With his help, their chances of success will definitely be very high, but it is a pity that he directly refused

"Okay, I've finished my work, so I'll leave first."Gu Shaoyang said and was about to leave, but inside the spirit hunting organization.

When Gu Shaoyang successfully completed the task, the number of tasks for Gu Shaoyang suddenly decreased by one on the task stele, and the people guarding the stele couldn't help but be a little surprised when they saw this change..

Because Gu Shaoyang has only been out for a short time, but now he has completed a task in such a short period of time.

"This boy should have completed the simplest task, otherwise how could he complete it in such a short period of time."

The man guarding the stone shook his head silently and said, but while he was talking, he was still flipping through the task book to check Gu Shaoyang's completion of the task.

When he flipped through the column of Gu Shaoyang, he saw that he had completed the most difficult task. , the people guarding the stone tablet could not help but frown.

"How can this be! How could he complete such a difficult task alone...and in such a short period of time!"

The person guarding the stone tablet had a look of disbelief on his face. In the end, he hesitated for a long time, and then said silently to himself:"He must be lucky, someone helped him! Otherwise, how could he complete it!"

Thinking like this, the man guarding the stone tablet relaxed his frown.

On the other side, Gu Shaoyang left Kong San and the others after completing the first task he assigned to him, and he quickly set off towards the next location. , just hoping to complete it as quickly as possible.

In this way, after Gu Shaoyang rushed non-stop for a long time, he finally arrived at the location of the next mission.

And Kong San and the others sent Gu Shaoyang away and continued to move towards their final destination. The target was walking. Kong San was seriously injured and could only lie down in the car, letting his men push him forward.

But this feeling of lying in the car unable to move was really too uncomfortable for Kong San!

Chapter 1074

Gu Shaoyang actually had some intentional elements in dressing Kong San's wound.

Because before, Kong San always liked to order his men to do this and that for him, just like an uncle.

And just this time Kong San was injured, Gu Shaoyang deliberately bandaged him so that he could not move. This time he could completely let him feel what it was like to be taken care of.

And Gu Shaoyang believes that after this experience, Kong San's character will definitely change.

And his original strength is not weak. I believe that as time passes, he will be able to reach a higher level. In the future, when transporting treasures, he may not need to ask for help from others these days.

Thinking of this, Gu Shaoyang quickly arrived at the next location when he was on his way.

As for the task at this location, Gu Shaoyang wanted to kill the city lord of this city, and the person who hired Gu Shaoyang was the city lord's wife.

Gu Shaoyang is a little confused about such a complicated relationship, but he just keeps doing things and doesn't pay attention to his employer's conflicts.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang soon arrived at the place agreed with the city lord's wife to meet, and Gu Shaoyang was waiting silently in a small hidden house.

I don't know how much time passed before the shabby door of the small house creaked and was pushed open by a slender finger.

Then Gu Shaoyang turned around immediately when he heard the sound behind him, and what he saw was a woman with very fair skin and a beautiful face. Although she was dressed in ordinary clothes, her graceful and luxurious temperament could not be concealed.

Gu Shaoyang waited for the woman to approach and then nodded slightly to her. The woman also nodded lightly to Gu Shaoyang: "Let's go in and talk."

After saying that, the woman bypassed Gu Shaoyang and walked straight into the small house. Inside, after Gu Shaoyang watched the woman enter, he also raised his heels.

But when Gu Shaoyang entered, he discovered that the small house that was dilapidated on the outside was very expensively repaired inside, and even the chairs he sat on were made of fine golden nanmu.

And looking at the inside of this small house, it was clean as if no one had ever lived there, and the woman didn't seem to be that familiar with it.

It seems that the woman must have prepared this house a long time ago and regarded it as her secret place, which is why it was repaired so well.

It seems that she has been thinking about killing her husband for more than a day or two.

Gu Shaoyang thought silently in his heart, but he was not prepared to ask the reason because it was not something he needed to know.

"What are you going to ask me to do?" After Gu Shaoyang followed the woman into the house, he started asking directly.

But the woman didn't seem to be in a hurry: "What's your name?"

When performing such a murderous mission, Gu Shaoyang would never directly tell others his real name: "Just call me Ying."

Gu Shaoyang casually made up a name and told it to the woman. After learning his name, the woman just nodded lightly.

"Well, just call me Hua'er." The woman nodded to Gu Shaoyang and then said suddenly, but Gu Shaoyang frowned at the name the woman gave him.

Didn't you hire me to kill people? Why did you introduce yourself? Could it be that she started to introduce herself again? Don't want to kill?

Gu Shaoyang thought silently in his heart and did not answer the woman's question. In response to Gu Shaoyang's silence, the woman did not say anything.

"When to act?" Seeing the woman's silence, Gu Shaoyang asked anxiously.

Because he had to complete the task cleanly and then quickly move on to the next task, so that he could complete the task in a year.

And the boy in white still Waiting for him in the inn, his task cannot be completed in one year, because one year is too long, so he must compress it!

In this way, after hearing Gu Shaoyang's anxious inquiry, the woman just remained silent, He sighed heavily:"Oh—actually, I don't want to do this either."

The woman did not tell Gu Shaoyang when to take action, and seemed to be ready to complain to Gu Shaoyang and explain her painstaking efforts. However, Gu Shaoyang was pressed for time and did not allow him to waste a minute or a second like this.

Therefore, the woman did not give specific details. When it was time to take action, he turned around and left:"You can contact me when you have figured out the time to take action."

After saying that, Gu Shaoyang left without looking back, leaving the woman sitting alone in the high seat, her eyes full of loneliness. She looked at Gu Shaoyang's leaving back as if she were looking at another person.

And Gu Shaoyang After leaving the small house, he began to look for a simple task to complete in his task list. On the days when the woman ignored him,

Gu Shaoyang completed one fifth of the simple tasks, and in the ghost hunting organization On the stone tablet inside, the people guarding the stone tablet couldn't help but be even more surprised when they saw the number of tasks he completed rising slowly.

Because Gu Shaoyang completed it almost every minute.

Chapter 1075

To complete one, although he completed the simplest task, the speed was really too fast!

For so many years, the people guarding the stone tablet have never seen anyone with a speed comparable to Gu Shaoyang.

And because of this, the people guarding the stone tablet also vaguely felt that Gu Shaoyang was a good young man, and couldn't help but want to train him.

Moreover, the person guarding the stone tablet now wants to take Gu Shaoyang under his command and train him as a closed disciple, and he is very confident that Gu Shaoyang will agree.

But when Gu Shaoyang finally returned, the result was not satisfactory.

On this side, after Gu Shaoyang left for several days, the woman finally contacted him, and he came to the small house again.

The last time Gu Shaoyang saw the woman, she was still graceful and luxurious, and the skin all over her body was very white and delicate, as if she could pinch water.

But this time when Gu Shaoyang saw the woman again, her appearance completely changed.

She was covered in bruises, and no part of her body was healthy. Even her face had many repeated slap marks, and there were a lot of bloodshot eyes.

Just seeing the woman's appearance, Gu Shaoyang knew that the reason why she wanted to kill her husband was because she couldn't stand the atrocities her husband had committed against her.

And this time she didn't contact him for several days. It was probably because she was raped again and got better recently, so she contacted him in a hurry.

"tomorrow! Prepare for action."

This time, when the woman saw Gu Shaoyang again, there was no hesitation on her face. As soon as she saw Gu Shaoyang, she immediately confirmed the time with him.

After Gu Shaoyang got the accurate time to take action, he began to discuss with the woman.

Because He needs to know the activity track of the woman's husband and his schedule, so that it will be easier for him to start.

And the woman is also the person who knows her husband best, so she also knows her husband's schedule best.

"He will go to Wanhua Building to find the oiran at noon tomorrow. He and the oiran have a secret room, which is in the rightmost room upstairs. There is a secret room in the room."

"The switch of the secret room is on the vase beside the bed. You only need to turn the vase to open the secret room."

As the woman spoke, she took out a map and handed it to Gu Shaoyang. Gu Shaoyang looked at the number of scribbles and changes on the map and could probably guess that this information must have been obtained by the woman after many people.

Moreover, she should have drawn the map herself. To think that her husband abused her so much, and then her husband had to go out to find a mistress, it seems that even a woman would not be happy. No wonder this woman wants to know her directly Her husband's life is at risk.

Gu Shaoyang thought silently in his heart, then he put the map into his pocket, turned around and left, leaving the woman alone in the room again.

When Gu Shaoyang turned around and left, Before reaching the door, the woman's cry suddenly came from the room.

The woman's cry was very loud, as if she was venting her grievances for so many years, and she seemed to be glad that she was finally getting rid of her. Husband, but seemed reluctant to leave.

In short, Gu Shaoyang heard that the woman's cries were mixed with too many complicated emotions, but these were not his responsibility, so Gu Shaoyang left directly.

After leaving, Gu Shaoyang directly Wandering around the Wanhua Building, trying to find a quick and safe escape route for himself.

Finally, after Gu Shaoyang wandered near the Wanhua Building for a long time, he finally worked out an escape route and completed it. After that, he left slowly.

After returning, Gu Shaoyang did not rest, and continued to complete simple tasks.

As time passed by, Gu Shaoyang's tasks continued to decrease. Tomorrow also came quietly.

Gu Shaoyang was now at the window. He looked up at the sky and roughly estimated the time. Then he walked out of the room and prepared to take action.

To be on the safe side, Gu Shaoyang disguised himself and then entered directly. He entered the Wanhua Building, and as soon as Gu Shaoyang entered, many beautiful women immediately rushed towards him.

If he had followed the usual style of caring for Shaoyang, he would have pushed these women away without hesitation. , but now he needs to use these women to cover himself, so he has to endure it

"guest! Look how I am....."

"guest! Come with me....."

One after another, women's voices sounded in Gu Shaoyang's ears, but there was still no expression on his face. He was just looking at the women in front of him carefully.

Finally, after Gu Shaoyang looked around, his eyes fell on a well-behaved woman, and then he directly pulled her into his arms.

"It's you... I'll let you accompany me tonight!"Gu Shaoyang said, his face finally had an expression, and the woman who was pulled by Gu Shaoyang was just there.

Chapter 1076

As Gu Shaoyang held the woman in his arms, the woman then took Gu Shaoyang to her room.

But just walked into the room.

Gu Shaoyang took out the drug and sprinkled it on the woman, and then the woman fell straight down.

Subsequently.

Gu Shaoyang smiled slightly, then disappeared and walked out through the door. He went to the room that the woman told him to wait in advance.

After Gu Shaoyang went to that room, he began to operate according to the mechanism the woman told him.

He came to the vase beside the bed, then stretched out his hand to turn the vase. Then he saw a large stone door suddenly appeared next to it, and the stone door was also wide open at this time.

When Gu Shaoyang saw the stone door, he immediately went in. Then when he entered, the stone door closed by itself, and the stone door outside returned to normal.

In this way, after Gu Shaoyang successfully entered the secret room, he began to wander around the secret room and check the things inside.

And because Gu Shaoyang has been hiding in the secret room, he doesn't know the time outside or when the woman's husband will come back.

And he didn't dare to walk around casually all the time. He could only find a place to hide after he checked the secret room.

And Gu Shaoyang himself didn't know how long he had been waiting inside before he finally heard the sound of a man and a woman at the Shimen.

The voice slowly got closer and closer to Gu Shaoyang. Soon, Gu Shaoyang heard the sound of the stone door opening. As the stone door opened, Gu Shaoyang heard the voices of a man and a woman outside the door more clearly.

When the man and woman came in, Gu Shaoyang heard the man say to the people outside: "Just stay here outside."

"yes! City Lord!"

After the man's order came down, his men all answered in unison, and Gu Shaoyang could probably tell when he heard the voices of his men.

This city lord came to Wanhua Tower to find the oiran, but he brought dozens of people with him. It seems that Usually there are many people who want his life, otherwise he would not have brought so many people here.

And even if he brought so many people here, he still built a secret room in it, specifically for him and the oiran to make love , it is the insurance among insurances.

But Gu Shaoyang is not so understanding of the actions of the city lord.

Because if he likes the oiran, then he can marry the oiran home as a concubine, which will make his home safer. It would definitely be better than going out every day.

But the city lord has created this environment so well, and then goes to great lengths to bring so many people here every day, which really makes Gu Shaoyang a little confused.

But this is also different from Gu Shaoyang It didn't matter, so he didn't think much about it.

He just waited for the city lord and the oiran to enter the stone door. After the stone door was closed, he started to prepare.

After the city lord and the oiran entered the room, the two of them began to get to the point impatiently, and Gu Shaoyang hid in the dark for a moment and didn't know whether to go or wait.

In the end, Gu Shaoyang decided to wait until the city lord was halfway through the process and his defensiveness was at a minimum before taking action, and the final result made Gu Shaoyang understand.

His decision was Very correct! Because after waiting for a while, he discovered that the city lord was wearing layers of armor, and there was gold armor inside.

If the city lord didn't take off the armor on his body, then Gu Shaoyang There was definitely no way to break through his defense or hurt him at all.

Thinking of this, Gu Shaoyang lit the incense and blew the incense into the room.

Next,

Gu Shaofan waited patiently for the incense to take effect.

Chapter 1077

Breathing, and with the effect of the incense, the city lord and the oiran gradually fell down.

Gu Shaoyang saw the two people lying motionless on the bed, then walked out of the hiding place, and then slowly approached.

Gu Shaoyang directly turned the city lord over, and then aimed at his heart and stabbed it without hesitation.

Just like this, in just a moment, the city lord died here, and Gu Shaoyang looked at the naked oiran lying on him and thought for a while.

In the end, he let the oiran go, and he also put the knife that had been stabbed into the main body of the city into the oiran's hand.

After Gu Shaoyang finished doing this, he continued to hide in the dark, and then he gave the oiran the antidote.

After smelling the antidote, the oiran soon woke up from her dream. When the oiran woke up from her dream, she found that she was holding a murder weapon in her hand, and the city lord crawling on her body was no longer alive.

She couldn't help but start screaming, and the city lord's men outside the door heard the oiran's scream and immediately opened the mechanism of the secret room and rushed in.

Ergu Shaoyang also spotted this opportunity. When the city lord's men opened the door, he turned invisible and rushed out.

The city lord's men were so focused on the city lord inside the stone gate that they didn't even notice someone rushing out from behind them.

They just felt that there was a breeze, sliding slightly by their ears, and then disappeared.

And when they entered the secret room, what they saw was the oiran holding the murder weapon and trying to pull the murder weapon out of the city lord's body.

When the city lord's men saw this scene, they immediately stepped forward to separate the oiran and the city lord, and then they immediately tested the city lord's breathing.

As a result, they discovered that the city lord was out of breath at this time, while the oiran was trembling all over and looked very scared, but they had just seen the oiran holding a murder weapon with their own eyes.

So they subconsciously regarded the oiran as the murderer. After the oiran was wronged, he just shook his head and denied it, while on the other side.

After Gu Shaoyang left the secret room, he quickly returned to his room, cleaned himself up and lay down on the bed, pretending to be still sleeping.

Not long after he was lying on the bed, someone suddenly broke into the room and lifted the quilt without saying a word. When Gu Shaoyang faced this scene, he immediately pretended to be scared.

At this time, the woman lying next to Gu Shaoyang had woken up. When she saw someone breaking into their room, she couldn't help but be afraid.

But the person who broke into the room turned around and left after seeing that there was nothing wrong with the two of them. When Gu Shaoyang saw this, he pretended to be curious and put on his clothes and went out to check.

As a result, he heard about the murder of the city lord, and many men in Wanhua Tower waited to put on their clothes and leave when they heard about the murder of the city lord. Gu Shaoyang saw that most of their actions followed the trend.

Because only in this way can he hide himself among the public and not be easily discovered.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang gave some of the money to the woman and left directly. After leaving, Gu Shaoyang went to the room he had agreed with the woman.

"The mission has been completed, and now there is chaos outside." Gu Shaoyang came to the small house to report, and the woman just nodded silently with tears in her eyes after hearing Gu Shaoyang's words. When Gu Shaoyang saw the woman's expression, his face was still expressionless, and then he turned around and left indifferently, while hunting for ghosts. Within the organization, Gu Shaoyang's ranking finally rose.

Gu Shaoyang, who had been ranked first from the bottom before, now moved up one place and became the second to last.

And when the people guarding the stone tablet saw that Gu Shaoyang had completed the task of killing the city lord, can't help but love Gu Shaoyang even more.

And some strong people in the organization didn't believe it after knowing that Gu Shaoyang had completed two difficult tasks, because he was just a newcomer.

And he completed both difficult tasks alone, and it did not take more than three days, so it was completely impossible for them.

And what was impossible for them was just a matter of time for Gu Shaoyang.

I saw Gu Shaoyang will After completing the second difficult task, he continued walking towards the next place.

Next, Gu Shaoyang walked towards the east. His next more difficult task was to rescue a group of children.

While Gu Shaoyang was walking on the road, At that time, Gu Shaoyang kept studying the information in his mind about the person he was going to subdue. He kidnapped a child and used the child's blood to refine the elixir of immortality. Legend has it that this person was from Dongcheng. The previous city lord.

Because he couldn't stand his aging and couldn't bear to part with his own rights and status, he used his authority to kidnap the children in Dongcheng.

And the formerly prosperous Dongcheng became like this because of this city lord. Like a ghost town.

Chapter 1078

The people of Dongcheng are now not allowed to enter but not to leave, and once Gu Shaoyang enters, if he cannot subdue the city lord, then he will not be able to leave Dongcheng.

Therefore, for this task, Gu Shaoyang's requirement for himself is that he can only succeed and not fail, and he must complete it in the shortest possible time.

He does not allow himself to delay on the same task for too long.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang came to the door of Dongcheng. Standing at the door, Gu Shaoyang looked at the guards outside the door. Their faces were very pale and bloodless.

Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but frowned when he looked at the guard. When he approached and was about to go in, a guard silently shook his head at Gu Shaoyang.

The guard's expression seemed to be telling Gu Shaoyang, don't enter!

Gu Shaoyang also understood his hint, but he still walked in. However, as he entered, Gu Shaoyang quietly handed the things in his hands into the arms of the guard.

When Gu Shaoyang entered Dongcheng, he found the guards. Their faces were not normal. Everyone looked sallow and thin, as if they hadn't eaten for a long time.

At this time, Dongcheng was like a ghost town. People did not work or go out, so how could they have food.

In addition, the city lord did not allow them to leave the city, so they could not go out to purchase because everyone looked very bad.

And Gu Shaoyang felt very distressed when he saw the people in Dongcheng like this, and he hated the man who kidnapped the children in Dongcheng even more.

He was also very grateful to the guard who reminded him just now, so he took out some things from the space ring, then put them into another space ring and gave them to the guard.

It could be regarded as Gu Shaoyang's thanks for his kindness. The guard hesitated for a moment when Gu Shaoyang suddenly handed something to him, but in the end he accepted it.

However, he also cast a grateful look in the direction of Gu Shaoyang walking into the city, but soon returned to normal.

Because now there are spies of the city lord everywhere inside and outside the city. If he is not careful and exposed, his family will be in danger.

Moreover, there is a child in his home who has not been discovered by the city lord, so if his home is inspected by the city lord, the children in his home will definitely be discovered.

And in order to protect his children, he must not be discovered.

Thinking this way, the guard guarding the city gate became more determined, and behind him, Gu Shaoyang had already entered the city.

At this time, Gu Shaoyang was standing in the streets and alleys of Dongcheng, looking at the scattered shops in the streets and alleys outside that were still setting up stalls and doing business, but there were very few people patronizing them.

And when they saw a newcomer like Gu Shaoyang enter their Dongcheng, their eyes were full of pity and pity when they looked at him.

Gu Shaoyang, however, simply ignored their looks and found an inn that was well decorated and walked in.

When the owner of the inn saw someone coming into his inn, which had not been open for several months, he couldn't help but approach him very enthusiastically.

"Ouch! Guest! Are you staying in a hotel or eating?"

Facing the shopkeeper's enthusiasm, Gu Shaoyang just said coldly:"I want them all."

After saying that, Gu Shaoyang threw a silver ingot directly into the shopkeeper's arms, and the shopkeeper's Gu Shaoyang silver ingots immediately beamed.

"Go ahead! You wait!"After saying that, the shopkeeper took the silver ingot and left, while the waiter arranged Gu Shaoyang's room.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang had his first meal in Dongcheng. After eating, Gu Shaoyang did not go back to his room to rest. He went to patrol the streets.

He walked around the streets and alleys to check, trying to find where the person who kidnapped the children was hiding.

Because as long as he found where he was hiding, he could also find where the children were.

And Gu Shaoyang After wandering around threateningly for a long time, he still found nothing. Just when Gu Shaoyang was about to go back and wait for something to eat before continuing his search, he suddenly heard a place suddenly surrounded by many people, and where they were surrounded, there were There was a strong smell of blood.

Not long after, Gu Shaoyang heard someone's heartbreaking cry:"My child! who is it! my child!"

When Gu Shaoyang heard the wails, he immediately stepped forward, and the people around him burst into tears.

Even some of the onlookers were blindfolded to see the child lying on the ground, and the child's mother even cried until she fainted.

And After Gu Shaoyang came closer, he couldn't help but take a breath of cold air.

He saw that the child lying on the ground was pale. There were many wounds on his wrists, ankles, and neck. The paleness on his body was probably due to being put there. It was completed after drying the blood.

In other words, the child was bled out to death, and there were still traces of struggle on the child's body. It can be seen that the child was in great pain!

Chapter 1079

Seeing this, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but be moved, and a tear couldn't help but slide down his face.

Gu Shaoyang had always thought that he was a very cruel person, but he never expected that he would cry uncontrollably when he saw such a scene.

Seeing the child's tragic image, Gu Shaoyang's desire to quickly reveal the murderer became even stronger!

In this way, with such a strong goal, Gu Shaoyang suppressed his emotional emotions, and then observed whether there were any traces on the child's body.

After Gu Shaoyang observed it, he suddenly discovered that there were water droplets on the child's shoes, and there were also daffodils sticking to them.

It looks like there was water and daffodils where the child was taken.

Look at the child's clothes again. Although the child's blood has been drained, the child's clothes are very clean, so the person who drained the child's blood loves cleanliness very much.

Moreover, the children should be in a dry environment, and it is very likely that there are people taking care of these abducted children.

After having this information, Gu Shaoyang returned to the inn and began to think about the memories. Where were the daffodils in the place he just walked through, and the environment was very clean.

However, Gu Shaoyang sat at the inn table and thought for a long time, but in the end he still couldn't figure it out.

The people inside the inn saw Gu Shaoyang looking like he was worried and couldn't help but stepped forward to ask.

"Dear guests, are you curious about anything in Dongcheng?" Although Gu Shaoyang has only been in contact with the innkeeper for a short time, he has met countless people.

So when Gu Shaoyang stepped into the door of the inn, the innkeeper had already seen that Gu Shaoyang was extraordinary, and the innkeeper's intuition told him.

When Gu Shaoyang After coming to Dongcheng, their city will be saved, and the children in their city will also be saved!

So if Gu Shaoyang has any questions that he doesn't know, or wants to know, he will tell you everything!

"I'm just curious, where are there a lot of daffodils in Dongcheng? I personally like daffodils, and I like to see them wherever I go."

Gu Shaoyang asked his question directly, but he made up an excuse for himself because he didn't want to be too purposeful and worried that it would attract attention. The shopkeeper Gu Shaoyang didn't say anything in his question, just Answer his questions patiently

"Daffodils? There are no daffodils in the city, but if you keep walking along the road ahead, you will find a very large flower shop with a lot of daffodils in it."

As he spoke, the shopkeeper pointed out a direction to Gu Shaoyang, and Gu Shaoyang looked at the direction the shopkeeper pointed and had a lot of thoughts in his heart.

Flower shop? Human blood has a very strong smell of blood, but if you use different floral scents, Cover up, plus different types of flowers, different smells, and different smells.

Then even if someone buys flowers from a florist, they will not smell strange smells. They will only feel that the types of flowers in the florist are too complicated and mixed. asked strangely.

This is a very good way to hide the smell of blood. It seems that I have to find time to explore this flower shop.

Thinking of this, Gu Shaoyang made a silent decision in his heart, but he didn't Prepare to go during the day, because the purpose is too clear, so he needs to hide.

Night is the best cover:"Okay, thank you, it's too late today, so I'd better go tomorrow."

Gu Shaoyang politely thanked the shopkeeper, and then returned to his table, and the shopkeeper didn't say anything more. In this way, after Gu Shaoyang finished eating, he returned to his room, and in the room, Gu Shaoyang He directly cast a barrier.

Firstly, it was to prevent people from disturbing him, and secondly, and most importantly, he did not want people outside to know what he was doing in the room. The shopkeeper was concerned about the mysterious Gu Shaoyang He didn't ask too many questions, because it was not his business.

In this way, as time passed, the sky became darker and darker, the clouds in the sky gradually dispersed, and soon the sky became dark.

Gu Shaoyang stayed in the room and always paid attention to the changes in the sky. After he could barely see his fingers, Gu Shaoyang changed into night clothes.

Then Gu Shaoyang opened the window through the cover of the night, and then jumped in the direction of the window invisibly. He jumped down.

And all this was something that the shopkeeper and waiter inside the inn didn't know. They didn't expect that Gu Shaoyang would suddenly climb out of the window and leave. At this time, when Gu Shaoyang left the inn, , Gu Shaoyang didn't just head straight towards the flower shop the shopkeeper told him.

He just set off towards the place where he saw the child's body during the day, because he was going to search along the way to see if there was anything else useful. Clues.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang walked on the eaves and soon came to the place where he saw the child during the day.

Chapter 1080

Gu Shaoyang squatted down on the spot, and then stretched out two fingers to pick up a piece of thread left on the child's body.

Gu Shaoyang couldn't help frowning when he looked at the thread on his hand. The thread and the thread on the child's clothes didn't seem to be made of the same material at all.

"Whose thread is this? Could it be that it belongs to the child's mother?"

Gu Shaoyang squatted on the ground and guessed, but he soon rejected his own guess.

"No! This is not the mother's! The child's mother was wearing tattered clothes, but the threaded material felt very smooth, so it must be expensive!"

"Moreover, this material seems to be uncommon. Although I have been here not long ago, I have met many people, but I have never seen anyone's clothes made of such good quality."

Gu Shaoyang squatted on the ground and muttered to himself, but in the end he still couldn't think of anything, and in order to quickly go to the flower shop to check at night.

So Gu Shaoyang could only temporarily put the fabric in his arms into his arms, and then he started to rush towards the flower shop. Gu Shaoyang was particularly careful when rushing towards the flower shop and no one discovered his whereabouts, so he also discovered something unexpectedly.

When Gu Shaoyang was holding his breath and keeping still in a dark place, he suddenly saw a person sneaking towards the direction of the flower shop.

And his expression was very nervous, as if he was trying to hide something.

However, Gu Shaoyang had too few clues in his hand now, so when Gu Shaoyang saw him like this, he quickly stepped forward, keeping a distance from him, and followed him not far or close.

Soon, Gu Shaoyang followed him to the door of the flower shop. At the door of the flower shop, when the man knocked on the door twice regularly, the door of the flower shop was opened.

Then the person at the door flashed into the flower shop, while Gu Shaoyang stood outside and wanted to get closer but found that the flower shop was warded.

He would be discovered if he forced his way in, so in order not to be discovered, Gu Shaoyang could only stand guard outside the door, hoping to wander around and find something useful.

Gu Shaoyang took advantage of the darkness and relied on his own senses to quickly discover a very clean small pond near the flower shop.

There were a lot of daffodils planted near the small pond, which just matched the clues he found on the child.

However, Gu Shaoyang only found daffodils and ponds here, but he did not find any blood or any mechanism nearby.

And after finding this place, Gu Shaoyang had no clues in his hand. If he wanted to go deeper, he would have to go into the flower shop.

But now that there was someone inside, Gu Shaoyang had no way to force his way in. He could only wait until someone came out before trying to get in.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang kept waiting anxiously at the door of the flower shop with this idea in mind, and it took a long time for the people inside the flower shop to come out.

Gu Shaoyang, who had been guarding the door, also noticed that the shapes of the people who came in and out of the flower shop were obviously different, as if they had lost something in their bodies.

But now Gu Shaoyang doesn't have time to delve into it. He can only seize the time and quickly enter the flower shop to investigate.

As the door of the flower shop opened, Gu Shaoyang quickly rushed in. Once inside, Gu Shaoyang first found a place to hide.

Finally, after Gu Shaoyang made sure that no one in the flower shop noticed her entering, and that no one in the flower shop posed a threat to him, Gu Shaoyang began to act confidently and boldly.

In the flower shop, Gu Shaoyang looked at the man inside who was just planting Dali flowers. From his body, Gu Shaoyang couldn't see anything abnormal, but there was always a strange feeling in Gu Shaoyang's heart.

In the end, Gu Shaoyang stood aside and observed for a long time before discovering that the person who attacked the flower shop turned out to be a controlled puppet!

In other words, such a large flower shop has always been controlled and managed by others, and the real mastermind has never been revealed.

After having this conjecture in his mind, Gu Shaoyang became a little curious. Is the mastermind behind the scenes in this flower shop?

After having this conjecture, Gu Shaoyang immediately started to take action, groping around near the vases in the flower shop to see if he could find some additional clues.

But in the end, Gu Shaoyang had searched everything in the flower shop, but still found nothing.

So Gu Shaoyang guessed that there might not be anything fishy in the flower shop.

Since there is no trick inside the flower shop, then the trick must be outside, but where is it?

Gu Shaoyang frowned and was very curious. In his heart, he just wanted to find the flaw in the flower shop quickly, because it is important for the children to find the flaw in the flower shop quickly.
