Chapter 1081

It would give him more hope of living, so Gu Shaoyang had to work hard.

Just when he was very anxious in his heart, someone knocked on the door of the flower shop again, and Gu Shaoyang immediately hid in the dark after hearing the sound.

The reason why he hides is because he is assured that the cultivation level of people coming in from the outside will be similar to him, or higher than him.

If the cultivation level of the people outside is higher than him, then if he cannot hide himself well, it will be particularly serious. Easy to spot.

Therefore, in order to be on the safe side, Gu Shaoyang could only hide cleanly, and wait until people outside came in, and he could continue his activities after he was sure it was safe.

Just like that, when Gu Shaoyang was hiding in a place, holding his breath and concentrating, trying to reduce his sense of presence as much as possible, the door of the flower shop opened, and someone walked in from the outside.

The man who walked into the flower shop was covered with a large black curtain, and his face could not be seen clearly. Moreover, he did not take off the black curtain after entering the flower shop.

Gu Shaoyang hid in the dark, waiting for him to speak. After careful observation, it turned out that the man just entered the flower shop and handed a note to the person who took care of the flowers.

Then he left without any hesitation or any unnecessary words.

Gu Shaoyang was hiding in the dark. If he wanted to know the contents of the note, he had to get the note or check it secretly.

But the person who managed the flower shop didn't open it to check the note after getting it. He just kept holding it tightly in his hand and wouldn't let it go no matter what.

In order to get the note, Gu Shaoyang took out the incense from the space and wanted to stun the person in front of him.

But the drug has been dispersed in the flower shop, but the person who manages the flower shop has no reaction at all.

"this? Is it because this person is being controlled? So the drug doesn't work for him at all?"

Gu Shaoyang murmured to himself in a low voice, and if this method doesn't work, he must try another method, and he must see the content on the note.

Thinking like this, Gu Shaoyang's mind is running rapidly, just for Can you think of a good way quickly?

Put him directly?

No, no, no, he is controlled by someone. If he is attacked, the mastermind behind the scenes will definitely know at once that this method is not feasible!

Then pretend that someone is knocking Door?

No! Not possible! If someone knocks on the door, he will not put down the note. There is no conflict between the two.

Then, try to make noise in the flower shop? To attract his attention?

Gu Shaoyang kept thinking in his heart He was trying to find a way, but in the end he was voted down by himself. In the midst of his urgent thinking,

Gu Shaoyang suddenly saw the person who managed the flower shop put the note in his hand into a drawer. But that drawer had a key.

And the key happened to be on his body!

After realizing this, Gu Shaoyang suddenly had a plan in his mind.

I saw Gu Shaoyang deliberately placing a row of flowers in the flower shop. , he casually took out a mouse as the culprit.

When the man who took care of the flower shop saw something moving inside the flower shop, he became nervous instantly.

He took the wooden stick on the side and stepped forward numbly, but when he When he got closer, he found that it was just a mouse.

So he put down the wooden stick again, and Gu Shaoyang took advantage of his high nervousness and focused his attention on the vase to quietly approach him.

Then he He easily took the key off his body, and after successfully getting the key, Gu Shaoyang hurried towards the drawer.

While the gardener was cleaning up the mess he had made, Gu Shaoyang hurried to the drawer and borrowed the cabinet He carefully opened the drawer under cover.

After opening the drawer, Gu Shaoyang looked at the neatly arranged notes and did not dare to disturb them at will. He could only take one or two to look at.

Then after reading, he Quickly put the note back to avoid forgetting it later. Repeatedly.

On the other side, the person who took care of the flower shop quickly cleaned up the mess Gu Shaoyang made, turned around and headed towards the drawer.

After Gu Shaoyang found out He immediately restored the note, closed the drawer, and then quickly put the key back on him as he approached the drawer.

All of this was very hasty, but fortunately, Gu Shaoyang was finally taking care of the flowers. When the person in the shop fumbled for the key, he returned it in time.

If he had been a second or two later, he would have been discovered.

The person who took care of the flower shop fumbled for the key and opened the drawer to check. It seemed that he was reacting to someone knocking on the door. The idea of drawing the drawer, and then when he saw that the note was normal, he closed it with confidence.

His current action was just to confirm that the drawer and the note were okay. Fortunately, Gu Shaoyang returned it in time.

It will be checked by the person who manages the flower shop. After finishing it, Gu Shaoyang had read most of the notes. In the flower shop, the biggest clue was the note in the drawer. Now he.

Chapter 1082

I have already read them all, so there is no need to carry them with me to the flower shop all the time.

Now Gu Shaoyang just hopes that someone will knock on the door again and let him go out quickly, because it is almost dawn now.

If he doesn't go out, he will be exposed in the inn, and once his whereabouts are exposed, it will be very detrimental to his investigation of the child.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang stayed in the flower shop and looked forward to it eagerly, and God also favored Gu Shaoyang very much. Whatever he wanted could happen immediately.

Not long after, Gu Shaoyang heard someone knocking on the door in the flower shop, but this time the person knocking on the door was not here to deliver a note, but to buy flowers.

"boss! Buy a bouquet of flowers!" With the knock on the door, the man who took care of the flower shop hurried forward, and Gu Shaoyang followed closely behind him. He just waited for him to open the door, and then quickly slipped out.

Very quickly As soon as the man in charge of the flower shop opened the door, when there was only a gap, Gu Shaoyang immediately got out. After leaving, Gu Shaoyang immediately rushed towards the inn without looking back.

Gu Shaoyang stayed up all night, He has been busy investigating things in the flower shop, and he couldn't rest during the day because he had other things to do - thread!

Gu Shaoyang's intuition told him that the thread must be a very important clue, so during the day he He was about to go to the tailor shop to have a look.

With this thought, Gu Shaoyang had already returned to the inn. Similarly, he did not enter through the door, but directly climbed in through the window.

He jumped up and returned to the room in an instant. , and as soon as he returned, Gu Shaoyang began to wash up and change clothes, and also changed his own shoes.

Because the previous shoes were stained with leaves and petals that he stepped on when he went to the flower shop.

And if these were seen by someone with a heart, , then they are all details that will reveal his whereabouts, so they must not be seen by others.

Soon Gu Shaoyang finished cleaning himself up, and then opened the door. Just when he opened the door, the shopkeeper was standing When he arrived at the door of his room, he raised his hand as if he was preparing to knock on the door.

"It turns out that you are already up. I wanted to ask you a question."The shopkeeper smiled at Gu Shaoyang, and then took his hand back slightly embarrassed.

Gu Shaoyang just smiled at the shopkeeper, then walked out and followed the shopkeeper downstairs.

"Today's breakfast is steamed buns. If you want to eat something else, just ask! After Gu Shaoyang walked to the dining table and sat down, the shopkeeper served the buns himself.

Gu Shaoyang was not picky:"It's okay, just eating buns is fine.""

Gu Shaoyang was content with the situation, and the shopkeeper didn't say anything when he saw that he was not picky.

Soon Gu Shaoyang finished all four buns on the plate, and after eating, he walked out again.

But he was not looking at the tailor. Instead, he went to the flower shop.

Yesterday he told the shopkeeper that he wanted to see the daffodils, so he had to go and see them today. After all, he had to be consistent with his words and deeds, so as not to arouse suspicion.
Soon

Gu Shaoyang came to the flower shop, and the flower shop's business did not seem to be affected by the kidnapping. When Gu Shaoyang went there, there was a long queue of people buying flowers.

Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but feel very happy when he saw this scene. Out of curiosity, he stepped forward and grabbed a person and asked

"Brother, may I ask why you want to buy flowers?" Gu Shaoyang was very confused when he saw the flowers in their hands, because although they bought flowers, they would not buy more, only one.

And most of the flowers they bought were daffodils, which made Gu Shaoyang very puzzled.

The person who was caught and asked by Gu Shaoyang looked him up and down when he saw Gu Shaoyang's appearance, and then leaned over and whispered in his ear.

"I saw that you just came to our east city. You don't know that we always abduct children here. Although there are no children in the city now,"

"But our home still gets robbed from time to time. Only by buying a bunch of flowers like this and putting them in the house will they not be stolen!"

After listening to the explanation of the person in front of him, Gu Shaoyang's brows immediately wrinkled, because after hearing his explanation, Gu Shaoyang subconsciously felt that the person who stole their money was probably the murderer behind the kidnapping, and the reason why he did this The reason is because he can borrow the flower shop to transfer their money.

In addition, the note Gu Shaoyang saw yesterday said that because there are no children in Dongcheng now, but they still need more children, they need to use money to go to other cities Buy.

Because making money from the people in the city by running a flower shop is a source of their income.

But these people don't know it, and they stupidly think that flowers can protect their safety. In fact, they are helping The man behind the scenes!

After Gu Shaoyang figured it out, he didn't stay too long, and he didn't buy flowers.

Chapter 1083

Gu Shaoyang turned around and left, then headed towards the tailor shop.

Gu Shaoyang has discovered a lot of clues in the flower shop, but Gu Shaoyang thinks that all the clues are less important than the thread.

Because the thread was found on the child, as long as the owner of the thread is found, it means that the child is not far away.

Because the owner of the thread is someone who has access to the child! This clue is crucial! It is also decisive!

Just like that, Gu Shaoyang strode to the tailor shop.

But after arriving at the tailor shop, Gu Shaoyang did not take out the threads and fabrics to compare, but carefully selected the clothes that had been cut in the shop.

When the shopkeeper of the tailor shop saw Gu Shaoyang like this, he felt that he really wanted to buy clothes, so he was particularly enthusiastic towards him.

When Gu Shaoyang saw the shopkeeper introducing him enthusiastically, he bought one piece of every kind of clothes he introduced.

"Just wrap these up."After saying that, Gu Shaoyang had already taken out the money from his pocket and handed it to the shopkeeper, but the shopkeeper did not accept it.

Because the money Gu Shaoyang handed him could not only buy these clothes, but also more, so the shopkeeper's I just want Gu Shaoyang to buy more

"Oops guest! Don't be in a hurry to pay now. We have a lot of stuff in our store. Please take a closer look."

As he spoke, the shopkeeper began to introduce to Gu Shaoyang again, but they were just the ones that had just been introduced.

So Gu Shaoyang couldn't arouse interest, and just shook his head lightly: "I have seen these, I don't like them, that's all. It's not bad. If you have any goods at the bottom of the box, you can take them out and take a look."

Gu Shaoyang calmly shook his hand at the shopkeeper, but the shopkeeper did not give up and stubbornly introduced the same fabric to Gu Shaoyang over and over again.

And he was also made irritable by the shopkeeper, but despite this, he still could not He would listen to the shopkeeper and buy all the fabrics he had.

On the contrary, after being annoyed by the shopkeeper, Gu Shaoyang simply didn't want any of them. Anyway, none of the fabrics he looked at in this tailor shop were made of the same material as threads. Related.

Even if Gu Shaoyang bought so much fabric, it was of no use, so he simply pretended not to want it, and then looked at the shopkeeper's reaction.

At the same time, Gu Shaoyang just wanted to walk out, and then asked the shopkeeper to call him back to buy it, so that outside In some tailor shops, the shopkeeper's competitors will know that Gu Shaoyang is a person who has the ability to spend when they see it.

Later, when Gu Shaoyang goes to visit his tailor shop, the shopkeepers of other tailor shops will wait for him to go there. Introduce good fabrics to Gu Shaoyang instead of pestering him to buy some worthless ones.

Sure enough, when Gu Shaoyang showed impatience and wanted to leave in the store, the shopkeeper immediately stopped Gu Shaoyang, but Gu Shaoyang did not stop. He started walking, and his goal was very clear.

He saw Gu Shaoyang walking towards the opposite side of the tailor shop where he was now, as if he was going to buy something opposite, and the shopkeeper behind him saw it. He immediately came out of the counter in a panic. Then he pulled Gu Shaoyang back to the shop.

In the end, Gu Shaoyang only bought the fabric he had just chosen. The shopkeeper wanted Gu Shaoyang to buy more, but the best fabric in his shop was medium-grade fabric, which was not available at all. Better.

After Gu Shaoyang bought fabrics here, he still went to the tailor shop opposite. As soon as Gu Shaoyang entered, the shopkeeper was very enthusiastic.

Gu Shaoyang also got straight to the point: "Except for the best fabrics, everything else is No introduction is needed."

After saying that, Gu Shaoyang sat down on the chair like an old man, waiting for the shopkeeper's introduction. The shopkeeper also knew that Gu Shaoyang was a person with spending power.

And he seemed to be very generous, so he just took out them. The best fabric in the shop, and after Gu Shaoyang listened to the shopkeeper's introduction, he just stretched out his hand and touched the feel, but the feel was still very different from the feel of the thread he picked up.

Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but feel disappointed when he found that there was still a gap. , but he didn't show it on his face

"Apart from this, do you have any higher fabrics in your store?"

Gu Shaoyang just rubbed his hand and took his hand back. From the shopkeeper's experience in selling things, he knew that Gu Shaoyang was not interested in this fabric.

And he was a person with spending power, so the shopkeeper quickly put him at the bottom of the box. took out the fabric

"Sir, you should be someone who knows the goods. Since you insist on having good fabrics, I will bring out the best fabrics in our store."

After saying that, the shopkeeper took out two pieces of fabric from a very hidden place and placed them in front of Gu Shaoyang.

When Gu Shaoyang saw the fabric in front of him, he immediately tried the feel: Hmm! It's really good! But the feel of the thread is It's still a few points behind!

Gu Shaoyang thought silently in his heart without expressing it in words, and the shopkeeper also observed him.

Chapter 1084

Finally, when the shopkeeper saw a little bit of satisfaction on Gu Shaoyang's expression, he felt relieved.

"How about it? These two are pretty good!"

As he spoke, the shopkeeper also stretched out his hand to rub the fabric. Gu Shaoyang could also see from the shopkeeper's eyes that he loved these two pieces of fabric very much.

Moreover, the shopkeeper seemed to be looking at other people's things by looking at the cloth. In his eyes, there was nostalgia, sadness, and reluctance.

Seeing the shopkeeper's complicated emotions, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but be curious:"I can see that you like this fabric very much. If you like it so much, why did you buy it for me? Woolen cloth?"

Gu Shaoyang asked with some confusion, and after hearing Gu Shaoyang's words, the sadness in the shopkeeper's eyes became more intense. The shopkeeper looked at Gu Shaoyang and smiled bitterly, and then said:"Because I will never need it again. Fuck him."

The shopkeeper said with tears in his eyes, and Gu Shaoyang was even more puzzled when he saw this scene.

Could it be that the shopkeeper did this to sell the fabric at a good price? No! No! The shopkeeper's emotions came from the inside out. It's radiating, not pretending!

Since the shopkeeper's emotions are real, what is the reason for him to be like this?

Such questions have been lingering in Gu Shaoyang's mind, so he simply asked, wanting to hear the shopkeeper's difficulties, is there anyone he can help with?

"So what are you in for?" Gu Shaoyang asked in a very gentle tone.

The shopkeeper suddenly became speechless after being asked by Gu Shaoyang, and memories suddenly came to his mind.

"This was originally a Chinese New Year fabric I prepared for my child, who is only three years old! but! but....."

As soon as the child was mentioned, the softest part of the shopkeeper's heart was touched, and his tears were like bursting from a dam and could no longer be stopped.

Gu Shaoyang was very moved when he heard what the shopkeeper said: "Don't be sad. The child has not been found yet. No news is the best news. Maybe the child will come back that day?"

Gu Shaoyang watched a man in the shop crying heartbrokenly for the child. Split Lung couldn't help but feel sad, but all he could do was to persuade him to be strong.

After all, in addition to his children, he also has a family to support. If even he falls, what should their family do?

Gu Shaoyang thought silently in his heart, looking at the fabrics in front of him and thinking. In the end, Gu Shaoyang did not buy the shopkeeper's favorite fabric, but picked a few high-quality fabrics.

After walking out of this tailor shop, Gu Shaoyang went to several more, but Gu Shaoyang still found nothing and bought a lot of fabrics for nothing.

And the fabric he bought was probably something he wouldn't be able to wear out in his lifetime. Looking at the fabric in his hand, Gu Shaoyang was speechless, but he still didn't give up and continued to wander around the tailor shops in the city.

Finally, this time Gu Shaoyang came to an inconspicuous shop. When the shopkeeper saw Gu Shaoyang, he just raised his eyes and glanced at him lightly, and then continued to do his own thing.

It seemed that he didn't intend to pay attention to Gu Shaoyang, and many of the fabrics in this tailor shop were already covered with dust, but look at the proprietress.

The exquisite makeup, clean clothes, and the boss lady's appearance formed a sharp contrast with the dirty shop. It didn't look like the boss lady took care of it.

"Boss lady, won't you introduce it to me?" Gu Shaoyang saw the landlady busy with her sewing work, so he couldn't help but asked with some dissatisfaction.

When the landlady heard Gu Shaoyang's words, she looked over with a blank look. That look seemed to say: What? Let me introduce to you? Go away! Do you want to buy it or not?

After being looked down upon by the landlady, Gu Shaoyang did not dare to say anything more, but he did not look at the fabric himself. He just stared at the movements of the landlady's hands.

Because he It can be seen that the sewing work on the landlady's hands is obviously making clothes for the baby. But now where are the children from the city?

All the children have been abducted by unknown people. Now the landlady is working as a child at home. The needlework can only explain two problems.

One: The boss's wife is pregnant and is about to give birth to a child. Two: The boss's wife and the mastermind behind the scenes are together, and the needlework she is doing now is probably for holding children..

And Gu Shaoyang guessed in his heart. At the same time, he also paid special attention to the boss's wife's belly. As a result, he found that the boss's wife's belly was bigger than that of ordinary women.

The reason why the boss's wife didn't stand up to introduce him and kept hunched over was... It was probably because she was afraid that others would see her big belly.

That's why she kept hunched over and didn't get up. After Gu Shaoyang saw through the boss's wife's pregnancy, he didn't reveal it. He just calmly dipped his fingers into the tea in front of the boss's wife.

Then he wrote in front of the boss's wife Said:"You are pregnant, and you are being targeted."

Sure enough, the woman who had been ignoring Gu Shaoyang just now.

Chapter 1085

After seeing what Gu Shaoyang said on the table, she subconsciously covered her belly, her eyes immediately widened, and she looked at Gu Shaoyang defensively.

But Gu Shaoyang shook his head at the landlady, and then continued to write on the table:"Don't worry, I won't hurt you. I just entered the city and I just wanted to buy fabrics.""

"But when I came in, I saw several people wandering around your house repeatedly, so I guess that your pregnancy should have been known to others."

After Gu Shaoyang introduced his identity, he kindly reminded her, and the woman's eyes looking at Gu Shaoyang changed from defensiveness to nervousness, fear, and expectation.

As a mother, she is also a woman, and she wants to It is impossible to protect her own child if she only relies on herself.

So she must seek help! And Gu Shaoyang is like a life-saving straw to the woman now, she just wants to hold on to him tightly

"please! help me! Save my child!"The woman looked at Gu Shaoyang, and finally wrote on the table with water. Then she put down her sewing, clasped her hands together and begged.

Gu Shaoyang couldn't bear to see the woman's actions, and the people outside were watching eagerly. , I am afraid that the reason why they have not taken action now is because the woman has not given birth to the child yet, and once the woman gives birth to the child, they will immediately snatch the child away. If such a thing happens, the woman's willpower will be destroyed once the child is born. If you are not strong, then you are very likely to die.

And if Gu Shaoyang refuses to save him, he will have a bad conscience. Therefore, Gu Shaoyang nodded firmly and agreed to the woman's request for help.

Finally, the woman got it. After Gu Shaoyang replied in the affirmative, he felt a little relieved.

As Gu Shaoyang had been looking at the woman in the shop, he was also worried that it would attract the attention of people outside, so he thought of a way

"In this way, you close the door, and then I will come in through the window to discuss with you, otherwise they will become suspicious if I stay here too long."

Gu Shaoyang finished speaking to the woman, then turned and left. The woman followed Shaoyang's instructions and soon closed the door tightly.

People outside saw the woman closing the door and thought she was about to give birth. So they quickly sneaked into the woman's house to check, and they only saw the woman busy cooking in the kitchen.

In the end, they made sure that they were just hungry and wanted to cook before leaving with peace of mind, but they were still surrounded by women. around the house.

After those people exited the woman's house, Gu Shaoyang carefully climbed through the window and went in.

When the woman saw Gu Shaoyang's figure, she immediately walked out of the kitchen, and then the woman led Gu Shaoyang to Arriving at the living room.

Just when Gu Shaoyang followed the woman into the living room, the woman walking in front of Gu Shaoyang immediately knelt down towards Gu Shaoyang:"Hero! I beg you! I must save my child!"

Before Gu Shaoyang could react, the woman had already knelt down with her belly in hand, and she refused to get up no matter how hard Gu Shaoyang helped her. It wasn't until she got Gu Shaoyang's affirmative answer that she was willing to stand up and sit down:"Don't. Worry! I will definitely do my best to help you keep your child! But you must also cooperate with me!"

Gu Shaoyang comforted the woman while putting forward his conditions. After the woman heard that Gu Shaoyang was willing to help her, she nodded and agreed to any conditions. But when he heard Gu Shaoyang's conditions, the woman regretted it.

"I need you to cooperate with them. After you give birth to the child, pretend to be taken away by them, so that I can follow these people and find where they hide the child."

Gu Shaoyang's method is like taking half her life to the woman, and Gu Shaoyang's conditions are like a gamble to the woman.

If the bet is right, then Gu Shaoyang can successfully help her. Bring the child out, if the bet is not right, then she will lose her newborn child

"no! I can't agree to this condition! I can't let my kids take risks! He is still so little!"

The woman shed tears, her head shaking like a pound of garlic and refused, and Gu Shaoyang also knew that no mother would agree to his conditions. Because the child is their life, and taking risks with the child is like using a needle. It's like digging their hearts out.

However, so far, Gu Shaoyang can't find the whereabouts of the person behind the scenes, so he can only think of this method.

While Gu Shaoyang was persuading the woman, the door of the woman's house was suddenly opened. Knocking.

The moment they heard the sound, the breathing of the woman and Gu Shaoyang stopped at this moment. Then the woman cleared her throat and asked very vigilantly.

"who is it? What's the matter?"When the woman asked about the birth, Gu Shaoyang also came to the gate and made a defensive posture.

Chapter 1086

He was prepared to kill one of them if he dared to break in forcefully and harm the woman.

But fortunately, the people outside the door are not dangerous to the woman.

"It's me! Qianqian!" Hearing the answer from the person outside the door, the woman's tears flowed even more fiercely, and Gu Shaoyang also opened the door.

But when the door was opened, what Gu Shaoyang saw was also his acquaintance, the man guarding the city. The guard at the door.

When the guard saw Gu Shaoyang, there was a flash in his eyes. Then he immediately backed away and Gu Shaoyang walked inside. It wasn't until he saw that his wife and children were safe and sound that he felt relieved, and Gu Shaoyang closed the door directly, and then walked in front of their couple.

"Why are you in my house?" The guard held his wife tightly in his arms, looking at Gu Shaoyang with some vigilance and precaution in his eyes.

When the woman heard her husband's words, she realized that her husband knew the man in front of her.

"I came here to buy fabric, but I found out that your wife was pregnant and was being watched." Gu Shaoyang described the matter calmly, but the guard felt as if he was facing an enemy after hearing Gu Shaoyang's words.

When he saw his wife's face full of tears, he felt even more uncomfortable: "Has it really been discovered?"

And when the woman just entered the house and was busy in the kitchen, she also discovered that there was indeed someone outside watching her all the time. She had been discovered a long time ago. After receiving a positive reply from his wife, the guard couldn't help crying. As he shed tears, he touched his wife's belly with his hands. When the child in his belly felt his father's touch, he would kick his hand to give him a reaction, and he felt the tenacious vitality of the child in his wife's belly. The guard and his wife couldn't bear it anymore.

Gu Shaoyang stood aside and looked at the two people hugging each other and crying bitterly. He felt bad, but the solution he could come up with was what he just said to the woman.

But he The woman couldn't accept the method, but what the woman didn't expect was that although Gu Shaoyang's method was dangerous, it was the most effective.

Moreover, only by completely uncovering the person behind the scenes can the child's life safety be guaranteed. If only Simply protect the children, not the people behind the scenes.

Then they can protect the children for a while, but they cannot protect the children forever. After all, the children will always be exposed in front of others because of crying or playfulness.

"So do you want to consider my approach."After watching their cries gradually subside, Gu Shaoyang spoke.

The guard adjusted his mentality after hearing Gu Shaoyang's words, and then helped his wife to the living room.

"Is there any way you can help us?"The guard looked at Gu Shaoyang with an expectant look on his face.

Gu Shaoyang then repeated the method he just said to the woman:"The most effective method I can think of is to risk it yourself."

"You let them take the children away, and then I will follow them, find their lair, and finally rescue all the children."

"And you can also catch the person behind the scenes at once, but this method is more dangerous. If your wife doesn't agree, you should discuss it."

Gu Shaoyang remained silent after saying this. After the woman saw her husband coming back, she also handed over the final decision to his hands.

The woman was seen staring closely at her husband and guarding her heart. It was also very painful.

In the end, everyone was silent for a long time, and Gu Shaoyang was not in a hurry, because he needed to let them think about it by themselves. After all, such a decision was very important to them.

And Gu Shaoyang himself also took on a very important responsibility. Responsibility, the pressure on him is also very heavy

"I agree! I trust you!" I don't know how long the guard was silent, but he finally gave the answer, and when he told his decision, his whole body was shaking. After the guard's wife heard her husband's decision, she couldn't stop crying, and held up her hands. Also holding on to the clothes tightly

"good! Don't worry, I will definitely protect your children and bring them back to you safely!"

Gu Shaoyang is also very pleased with the trust of the guard and his wife. After all, he and the guard have only met twice, but they trust him very much.

"I trust you! You saved my wife and children by giving us food before, and I still believe in you now!" As the guard said that, he pulled his wife and knelt down directly towards Gu Shaoyang.

Only then did the wife realize that it was the man in front of them who saved them when they had no food to sustain their lives.

And now he appears again, like It was the destiny of God.

However, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help having a headache when he saw the guard and his wife kneeling down to him again. Their actions made him very helpless.

"Get up quickly! Your wife is still pregnant with the child! Doing this kind of thing all the time will be bad for your child!"

Chapter 1087

As Gu Shaoyang said that, he helped the couple up from the ground, and with Gu Shaoyang's guarantee, their hearts could be relieved a little.

But children are the thorns in the heart of their parents. Although they have done enough psychological construction for themselves in their hearts, when that day actually comes.

Both the guard and his wife felt that it would be the most difficult time of their lives.

But now Gu Shaoyang just wants to catch the murderer who kidnapped the child quickly, because his clutches are already ready to reach other cities.

Gu Shaoyang didn't know much about this place in Dongcheng. Now that he is cooperating with the guards, he has found a helper for himself. They also sell fabrics, so Gu Shaoyang can ask them about the fabrics.

Thinking like this, Gu Shaoyang took out the cloth in his arms: "Take a look, do you recognize it, or know where this kind of cloth is sold, or have you seen someone wearing it."

Gu Shaoyang said and took out the cloth. It was handed to their hands, and the guard's wife fumbled with the cloth, her brows furrowed tightly.

The guards' eyes became even more solemn after seeing the cloth. Gu Shaoyang didn't know why, so he was very puzzled. But looking at them, they should know something.

"I found this fabric on the child who was thrown into the woods. The child was holding this tightly in his hand. I think it was missing from the person who kidnapped the child."

"But I searched for a tailor shop all day today, but I couldn't find the origin of this fabric, and I didn't dare to ask others easily."

After Gu Shaoyang told them the origin of this piece of cloth, their eyes were full of regret, but after they adjusted their mood, they explained to Gu Shaoyang

"This piece of fabric cannot be found outside at all, because it is exclusive to the Lin family, and this fabric has always been made in-house and is only provided to the head family!"

The guard said through gritted teeth, but Gu Shaoyang felt from his words his deep disappointment and hatred for the Lin family.

Even though he now knows that this cloth is exclusive to the Lin family, their children are still there, and even when the matter has not been confirmed.

Their emotions are already very excited, and there may be some tricks that Gu Shaoyang doesn't know about.

"Do you have any festivals with the Lin family?" Gu Shaoyang asked in confusion, and the guard's wife said angrily after hearing Gu Shaoyang's inquiry.

"Not before! But now there is!" However, when Gu Shaoyang heard what the guard's wife said, he was even more confused and confused.

Seeing Gu Shaoyang's anxious look to know, the guard adjusted his mood and explained

"In fact, there are still a small number of children in the city. These children are either a little older or, like us, they are not yet born."

"The Lin family also has children, and they have a lot of money and power, so they secretly formed an organization with the reputation of protecting the children of ordinary people like us."

"And all of us had almost nothing, so most of us sought the protection of the Lin family, and became one with the Lin family, preparing to fight together against those who abducted the children."

"But I didn't think about it! them! them!"

Hearing this, Gu Shaoyang understood why the guards and his wife's deep disappointment and hatred for the Lin family came from.

But he still didn't understand something: "Although there are fabrics from the Lin family, the matter has not been confirmed yet. , why are you so sure it is the Lin family?"

Gu Shaoyang asked his question, but the guard's wife was sobbing softly, seeming to be blaming herself.

"Because when my wife was pregnant, she didn't announce it or seek help from others. However, the food at home became less and less, and my wife needed nutrition while pregnant with the child."

"So we took the initiative to seek help from the Lin family, and the Lin family was very generous to us, so we have always been very grateful."

"Besides, no one else knows about my wife's pregnancy except the Lin family. My wife rarely goes out after she is pregnant, so if our child is exposed, it can only be done by the Lin family!"

The guard said with great certainty, and Gu Shaoyang felt that it was very reasonable after listening to his analysis. After all, it seems that the Lin family is indeed the most suspicious at present.

It seems that he also needs to go and explore the Lin family. Before I have always thought that the child might be in the flower shop, but now it seems that may not be the case.

The man behind the scenes is too cunning, and his identity is not yet known, so it is particularly troublesome to find it, but if the general target is determined, then it will be easier to find

"Okay, since you all said so, I will go visit the Lin family tonight, but you need to protect yourselves."

Chapter 1088

Gu Shaoyang looked at the belly of his guarding wife and said, their most important task now is their children

"We know, but how should we contact you if we have anything?" When Gu Shaoyang was about to leave, the guard suddenly blocked his way.

After being blocked by the guard, Gu Shaoyang took out something similar to a toy from his arms and handed it to their hands.

"I almost forgot such an important thing. This is a call. If you need anything, just pinch it hard. Just pinch it and I will know your location."

"It doesn't make any noise, and it's small and easy to carry, so you can always keep it with you in case you need it."

As he said this, Gu Shaoyang handed the calling Gu to their hands, and the guard and his wife, one by one, nodded heavily to Gu Shaoyang with the calling Gu.

After settling the matter, Gu Shaoyang left, and his wife They and their husbands could no longer feel at ease at home, and their hearts were always tense.

For fear that someone would come and snatch their children in the next second, the guard also quit his job of guarding the door and concentrated on being with his wife at home.

After Gu Shaoyang left their home, he quietly came to the vicinity of the Lin family.

However, the guards of the Lin family were too tight, and it was broad daylight, so Gu Shaoyang had no way of sneaking in.

So he could only wait until He went in at night, and just when Gu Shaoyang was about to leave, he suddenly saw the door of the Lin family open.

Then he saw a carriage parked at the door of the Lin family, and then a man walked toward a ball wrapped in cloth. The long strip of things got on the carriage.

But because the things in the man's arms were wrapped too tightly, Gu Shaoyang didn't know what the things in his arms were.

And Gu Shaoyang saw the man get on the carriage and drive. After leaving, he hurriedly followed them in stealth mode.

Although it was daytime and he couldn't sneak into the Lin family's house invisibly, he could follow them invisibly and blatantly to see where they were going mysteriously.

Just like that, Gu Shaoyang followed the Lin family to the outskirts. Here, there were also many daffodils and a small pond.

But what was different from the flower shop was that these daffodils were not taken care of at all and looked particularly dirty. It was messy, and the small pond also exuded a stench.

Moreover, Gu Shaoyang also found that there were many traces of carriage wheels on this road. It seemed like they would come here every day.

After realizing this, Gu Shaoyang became more cautious. He followed, and soon he saw the people in the carriage getting out of the carriage, and then took out the things in their arms.

When he got off the carriage, he looked around carefully, for fear that someone would discover his whereabouts. After finally making sure that no one noticed, he walked towards the thing in his arms and came to an old tree.

Then Gu Shaoyang only saw him pulling at the bark of the tree, and then he directly peeled off the bark of an old tree, forming a It was in the shape of a door for people to walk through.

The man walked straight in towards the thing in his arms, and then restored the bark. The person who drove him here saw him enter and drove away alone..

After the carriage left, Gu Shaoyang slowly walked out, and then slowly approached the bark of the tree. He pressed against the bark to hear if there was any sound.

But the result was that he was disappointed. He couldn't hear anything at all. There was no sound at all, and the bark was like a natural sound isolator.

When Gu Shaoyang realized this, he felt even more that the children were probably inside, because the bark could isolate the sound.

In this way, even the children They were crying, and no one passing by outside would notice anything unusual, and the environment here is so bad.

Even if someone passed by, they would probably take a detour, for fear that the dirty water in the small pond and the broken daffodils would be contaminated on their skin. Body.

Nothing was found by sticking to the tree bark. Gu Shaoyang wanted to imitate the man just now and move the bark away, but when he got started, he found out.

Someone actually cast a barrier on the bark of this tree. If he touched it rashly, he would most likely alert the people inside.

In order not to alert the enemy, Gu Shaoyang had no choice but to let go.

But after he temporarily let go, he did not leave. Instead, he hid in the dark and observed. He just wanted to see when the person inside the bark would come out.

If he can catch the pattern or timing of his coming out, then he will definitely be able to go in and find out next time!

Just as Gu Shaoyang was thinking this, the bark of the tree suddenly opened from the inside, and the person who came out was holding a large wooden barrel in his hand.

The wooden barrel in her arms still exuded a strong smell of blood. When Gu Shaoyang smelled this smell, he was already very sure that the lost child in Dongcheng must be hidden in the bark of the tree!

Chapter 1089

After he was convinced, Gu Shaoyang became very excited, but the more excited he became, the calmer he became.

Because at this time, he couldn't alert the snake, otherwise it would be difficult to handle if he angered the people inside.

And with so many children, he definitely couldn't kill them all at once. He should have raised some of them, and then taken blood from the other ones every day.

Gu Shaoyang silently guessed in his heart, and soon he saw the man coming out of the bark. After waiting beside the tree for a while, a carriage came in front of him.

Then the man carried the barrel and got on the carriage, and all the carriages carried were flowers!

The strong smell of flowers just covers up the smell of blood!

When Gu Shaoyang saw this, he immediately followed him. Finally, he came to the door of the flower shop again, but he did not enter the flower shop immediately.

The man holding the flowers immediately drove to the small pond behind the flower shop, and then two people helped to move the flowers out of the car.

When they all moved down the flowers and piled them into a high fortress that could block other people's eyes like a city wall, the man carrying the bucket in the car got out of the car carefully.

Then he walked into the small pond under the cover of many flowers, and Gu Shaoyang watched him walking towards the small pond, originally thinking that his clothes and body would be soaked.

But he didn't expect that the water in the small pond had no impact on him at all, and he felt no pressure walking in it!

Moreover, the small pond was like a staircase. The man carrying the bucket disappeared into the small pond not long after walking, and after a while, the man came out again.

But when he came out, the barrel in his hand was no longer there, and there was something covering his face, making it difficult to see his true appearance.

Gu Shaoyang hid in the dark and did not dare to get too far forward, for fear of alerting others and affecting his subsequent actions.

Gu Shaoyang watched them send the barrel down and then leave without stopping at all. However, seeing that they were so familiar with the road, the people nearby did not pay any attention to them.

Gu Shaoyang guessed that they should give it away every day, so everyone would be used to it and not find it strange or curious.

And Gu Shaoyang had been observing for so long and traveled such a long way, so he had to go back and just plan how he was going to get inside.

Because only by getting inside can he get in touch with their central links.

Just when Gu Shaoyang was thinking, Gu Shaoyang suddenly saw the person buying flowers in the flower shop talking to others, and a solution suddenly came to his mind.

He saw people queuing up to buy flowers and jokingly chatting with the people next to them and said: "I put on a mask of kindness and peace of mind when I walk out the door, but when I get home alone, I take off the mask."

"I have become the most real, unhappy me!" When Gu Shaoyang heard what this person said, he suddenly thought of - mask!

This is a very good way! And if he wants to penetrate into them, he can rely on something!

It's just that the person he wants to imitate He didn't understand the person's behavior and habits, so this was a big problem.

After having a rough idea in his mind, Gu Shaoyang immediately started making a human skin mask of that person, and then he followed that person all the time.

Wanting to know his living habits , every move, but because there were too many people around them, Gu Shaoyang couldn't get close at all. He couldn't even see his every move, so Gu Shaoyang's plan couldn't be effective.

Just when Gu Shaoyang was struggling, he didn't know what to do. At that time, the man Gu Shaoyang was observing broke away from the organization and went to the grass alone.

It seemed that the man was in a hurry. When he saw this scene, Gu Shaoyang immediately approached him quietly, and then knocked him unconscious when he was not paying attention..

However, after Gu Shaoyang knocked him unconscious, he did not let him fall down. Instead, he kept him in the same posture as when he just went to the toilet, because only the people next to him would not suspect it. And Gu Shaoyang can also do what he wants to do.

Just In this way, Gu Shaoyang fed the man a potion, and then he cast a spell to put his hand on his head, and then felt the flow of his memory. It was equivalent to after Gu Shaoyang fed him the potion, he could share his This method is for Gu Shaoyang.

It is the fastest and most effective way for him to complete the task and understand things. Moreover, this method will not let this person notice, and it is also the safest.

And The process of Gu Shaoyang understanding things was also very fast. In about ten seconds, Gu Shaoyang obtained all the memories in his mind.

However, because of the urgency of time, Gu Shaoyang did not dare to delay for too long, so when he finished understanding the memories Just let that person wake up quickly.

And after that person wakes up, he won't have any strange feelings, and will just think that he was in a trance just for a moment.

Chapter 1090

In this way, after Gu Shaoyang stayed away from him, he carefully understood his memories in his mind, but he only roughly sorted them out.

After the man and his companions left, Gu Shaoyang got up and returned to the inn.

In the inn, there were a lot of cloths piled up in his room. These cloths occupied his entire room, leaving him with almost nowhere to put his feet.

Looking at such a messy room, Gu Shaoyang was a little upset, so he simply waved his hand and put all the cloth in the room into the space ring.

In this way, the room is restored to its neat appearance, and the cloth also has a place to rest, the best of both worlds!

After returning to the inn, Gu Shaoyang took a short rest, because he went to Ye Tan Flower Shop the night before and didn't rest all night.

During the day, I looked for clues about the thread. I finally found the thread and met the guard and his wife. As I got closer, I met someone carrying things to the flower shop.

A series of things made him dizzy due to his busy schedule, and his brain was now like paste due to long hours of work.

So he had to take a break quickly to give himself a little more energy.

Finally, Gu Shaoyang felt relaxed physically and mentally while lying on the bed, and he soon fell into a deep sleep, keeping company with Duke Zhou.

After two hours of deep sleep, Gu Shaoyang suddenly woke up from the bed, and he was not naturally fresh.

Just because in his heart he was always thinking about catching the person who kidnapped the child, so in his subconscious, his brain woke him up.

After waking up, Gu Shaoyang lay on the bed and hesitated for a few seconds, and then immediately got up from the bed.

And he opened the window and looked outside, and found that the sky outside had already darkened, and it was now time for him to move around.

Because most people are sleeping at night, they rarely notice the movements in the dark, which also makes Gu Shaoyang's actions easier.

At the same time, this is also a very important reason why he chooses to be active at night.

Soon, Gu Shaoyang put on his night clothes and left through the window. His goal was also very clear, and he headed directly towards the guard's home.

Because now the guard's wife's delivery time is coming soon, and her child is also receiving much attention.

So Gu Shaoyang had to go and take a look. If the guard's wife gave birth tonight, then it is very likely that the man behind the child's abduction would have a heartbeat tonight.

And he absolutely cannot miss this very important thing.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang quickly arrived near the guard's home. However, because the guard's family was being targeted, there were many informants near his home.

He was always watching them day and night, so Gu Shaoyang spent a lot of time sneaking into the guard's house. After he finally sneaked in, he went straight to the room of the guard and his wife.

The guard and his wife were sleeping at this time, but the guard opened his eyes the moment Gu Shaoyang entered the room, and immediately took a defensive posture.

And when he saw clearly that the person coming was Gu Shaoyang, he relaxed slightly: "Why are you here?"

The guard relaxed his vigilance slightly, and then approached Gu Shaoyang, but Gu Shaoyang looked behind him to make sure that no one was following him. Just mentioned

"I'm going to sneak into them and have already identified a person, so I'm here to tell you in advance. If I come to you as another person next time, don't be too anxious."

"In addition, I am going to check out of the inn tomorrow and may disappear for a while. If you have time, please remember to call Gu."

Soon Gu Shaoyang finished what he wanted to tell the guard, and the guard nodded heavily after listening.

Gu Shaoyang didn't dare to put down the call he and his wife had given him, and even put it on the bedside when sleeping. , just to be able to contact him in time in case of any emergency.

"Okay, I just came to see if you are okay. Now that I have finished talking about the matter, I will leave. You should pay attention to yourselves."

"Now there are spies around your house all the time. If your wife is about to give birth, you must notify me in time."

In the end, Gu Shaoyang left worriedly after repeated instructions. The guard also knew the situation at his home, so he did not dare to take it lightly.

But after Gu Shaoyang left, the guard returned to the bed and could not sleep anymore. He just sat on the bed and watched. He stayed with his pregnant wife until dawn.

On the other side, Gu Shaoyang left the guard's house and set off towards the flower shop again.

During the day, he saw the man walking directly into the pond next to the flower shop, plus he He had absorbed that person's memory, so tonight he was going to explore the small pond at night.

He just wanted to see what was under the pond, because there had never been anyone who had been sending blood below.
