

Attributes 1101

Chapter 1101

Then if I pretend to be Tian Dao and send him blood every day, I can secretly replace it with chicken blood and save the child.

It's just that the workload is a bit heavy and I need to plan it carefully.

Thinking of this, "Tian Dao" couldn't help walking in the room and nodding heavily, while the children looked at him with only more fear in their eyes.

When they saw him like this, they just felt that he had some bad intentions in mind again, but they didn't know that Tian Dao was no longer the same person as before.

After Gu Shaoyang made a plan in his mind, his expression relaxed a little, and his eyes when looking at the children became more gentle.

It's just that Gu Shaoyang is now facing Tian Dao, so his expression will only make the child feel more terrifying.

The children who were glanced at by Gu Shaoyang turned their heads and did not dare to look at "Tian Dao". At this time, Gu Shaoyang also remembered his identity.

After realizing the children's fear of his identity, Gu Shaoyang stopped staying in the tree hole for a long time.

Because the purpose of his trip was to see if there were many children hidden in the tree hole as he thought, and it turned out that it was exactly what he thought.

After walking out of the room where the children were, Gu Shaoyang came outside again. After looking at the two children who were hanging, he couldn't help but frown.

Then he stretched out two hands to wave, and the people guarding here thought that Tian Dao had come to get blood again and was going to give it to the man, so they very diligently took the blood that they had released from the child in advance. It was brought to "Tian Dao".

Tian Dao, who was pretending to be Gu Shaoyang, looked at the blood in their hands and then looked at the pale children hanging on the wooden stakes, and his heart suddenly burst into anger.

In an instant, Gu Shaoyang stretched out his hand and hit them hard on the head. However, "Tian Dao" suddenly became angry and attacked, and the person holding the blood bucket was often hit.

Then he was about to fall to the ground, and Tian Dao, dressed as Gu Shaoyang, watched the person in front of him fall and subconsciously reached out to pull him, but the person he pulled was not a person.

It was the blood bucket in the man's hand, and the reason why Gu Shaoyang reached out to pull the blood bucket was because it was all the blood in the children's bodies.

Although he was very reluctant to send it to the head of the Lin family in the jar, he had already accumulated so much and he would never allow it to be wasted.

However, Gu Shaoyang was very angry about their behavior of doing things to their children without their permission.

But his anger cannot be expressed as anger because they took the child's blood, but because they did it to the child without his permission and ignored him.

Ignoring him feels like they are coveting his position and want to take his place and get angry. This is also in line with Tian Dao's character.

"Do you think you can act on my behalf now? Or do you actually want to replace me and take my position?"

Gu Shaoyang looked at the person in front of him and said very indifferently. After hearing what "Tian Dao" said, the person immediately knelt down in front of him and admitted his mistake. His attitude was very good.

Gu Shaoyang also recalled that Tian Dao would usually behave when he was angry. People die, and the person in front of him will definitely die in the next second according to Tian Dao's personality.

But Gu Shaoyang is not Tian Dao, although he is now holding on to his identity: "Get out! I'm in a good mood today, I'll spare you!"

In order not to expose himself and conform to Tian Daoping's usual behavior, Gu Shaoyang kicked him hard, and then came to the wooden stake with the blood bucket.

The child who was tied to the wooden stake saw Gu Shaoyang holding the blood bucket. As they walked towards them, their eyes were full of fear, but there was only fear and no resistance at all.

And Gu Shaoyang also saw obedience and resignation in the children's eyes. You know, the child in front of Gu Shaoyang now They were only eleven or twelve years old.

But Gu Shaoyang saw in the eyes of eleven or twelve-year-old children the acceptance of life that can only be revealed in the eyes of elderly people in their seventies or eighties when they face death. And obedience.

The children's eyes looked very uncomfortable to Gu Shaoyang. Looking at the pale and bloodless faces of the children, Gu Shaoyang felt even more distressed.

And now they have all had their hand tendons and hamstrings broken, and their hands and feet are very difficult for them. It has become a decoration, and now their hearts are still beating.

They are no longer much different from the living dead. But their situation is not a big problem for Gu Shaoyang

"You go out and wait for me first, and don't come in without my instructions."

Gu Shaoyang thought about the action of his mind, and the people around him said while searching for the wound medicine in the space ring.

He quickly found the wound medicine, but he did not take it out, but went directly to a child's In front of him, he began to untie his clothes.

When those who had not yet had time to retreat saw "Tian Dao"'s actions, they immediately buried their heads lower and exited the room faster.

Chapter 1102

As if he was afraid that he would be the next one to be undressed by "Tian Dao", and Gu Shaoyang noticed their strange looks, but he didn't say anything.

It is difficult for him to explain, because anyway, he is currently carrying Tian Dao's identity, and Tian Dao's reputation is already very bad, so he does not need to do anything to defend it.

Moreover, the worse Tian Dao's reputation is, the more he does something different from ordinary people so that they will not be suspicious. This is also a good cover for Gu Shaoyang.

And soon, when they all retreated, Gu Shaoyang had also taken off all the children's clothes.

I saw that in addition to many stab wounds, there were many wounds of varying degrees on the child's body.

It seems that when the field path is not in the tree hole, the people outside often take it out on the children, otherwise the children would not have so many wounds on their bodies.

Gu Shaoyang shook his head in distress while taking something out of the space ring. When the child saw Gu Shaoyang's actions, he thought he was going to do something, so he kept twisting and turning.

Only then did Gu Shaoyang realize that this child was unable to speak!

When he discovered this, Gu Shaoyang had only one thought in his mind - cure him!

Then Gu Shaoyang immediately rummaged around in the space ring again, using whatever could replenish his body's energy without considering the value at all.

Although Gu Shaoyang is very caring for the children, he still doesn't dare to give them big supplements.

Because the children's bodies are still too weak now, a sudden supplement may be counterproductive, and his good intentions will be in vain.

Moreover, there are people guarding the tree hole at all times. If he allows the children's bodies to recover too quickly, it will not be good for them to find out the clues.

Just like that, Gu Shaoyang took out the bleeding pills and fed them directly to each child, and then applied tasteless medicine to their wounds.

However, he didn't apply it for long before taking off the wound medicine, because he didn't dare to let their wounds heal too quickly, fearing that people outside would become suspicious.

Finally, when Gu Shaoyang searched for all this, half an hour had passed. In order to make things more misunderstood by people outside, he poured some water on the child.

Wet the child's forehead to make him look tired, and then he shouted at the door: "Come in!"

When they came in, Gu Shaoyang's Tian Dao also turned his back to them and arranged his clothes. Feeling refreshed.

They didn't dare to ask anything when they saw Gu Shaoyang adjusting his clothes, but when they saw the child naked and sweating profusely, their eyes were really scared.

Gu Shaoyang was very satisfied when he saw their scared looks, and he even cast his eyes on them intentionally or unintentionally.

And everyone who was stared at by Gu Shaoyang just wished they could dig a hole and get in.

"Put some clothes on them." Gu Shaoyang pretended to feel refreshed, and then left with the bucket of blood. After Gu Shaoyang left, their hearts were completely relieved, and they quickly put a pair on their children, but later they When he looked at the children again, his eyes were full of contempt and sympathy.

But this was not what Gu Shaoyang cared about. Now he was going to send blood to the head of the Lin family in the jar while sitting on the carriage.

Gu Shaoyang He tentatively opened the curtain and took a look. After confirming that no one was paying attention to his movements in the carriage, he poured all the medicine he had taken out when he was giving medicine to the child into the blood bucket in his arms..

Then he quickly stirred with a wooden stick, making sure to stir thoroughly before he stopped, and an unknown smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

If he gave the medicine to the children in order to cure them, then now He added "material" to this blood bucket in order to help the children escape from the abyss completely.

When Gu Shaoyang finished all this, he felt much better, and the carriage was getting closer and closer to the flower shop. On the way past the flower shop, they also passed through the forest, because this was the only way to the flower shop, and when passing by here, Gu Shaoyang also saw the crowd of people watching. Although he did not personally watch, but He also knew that they were watching something.

Because he had already told the guard couple to go and check if they heard the body of a child in the forest, and he was sitting in the carriage and heard their cries.

So this was undoubtedly the cooperation between him and the guard couple, which made them work so hard. Gu Shaoyang also felt very comforted, because at least he was not the only one working hard for the children, and there were people walking side by side with him. Although they could Helping Gu Shaoyang may not be that important, but it makes him.

Chapter 1103

I feel very heartwarming.

Soon, Gu Shaoyang arrived at the flower shop with the coachman driving, and waited for them to take down all the flowers on the carriage to form a protective barrier.

Gu Shaoyang slowly got off the carriage and walked straight towards the pond without any hesitation.

After entering the pond, Gu Shaoyang bowed to the person in the jar in a formal manner, and then directly carried the wooden bucket and poured it into the blood jar without hesitation.

Finally, while sleeping in the blood tank, Gu Shaoyang added ingredients and blended them more closely with the others.

In order to increase the dose, he added more colorless and odorless medicine into the blood tank.

After all the blood in the barrel was poured into it, Gu Shaoyang picked up the barrel, saluted in the direction of the jar, and left.

And from the time he entered to the time he left, he never saw the person inside the jar come out once, and he didn't know if that person was there.

However, no matter whether he is Gu Shaoyang or Tian Dao, he will not ask, because it will only lead to death.

Soon, Gu Shaoyang completed today's tasks, and after he went out, he was finally able to return to "his" home and have a good rest.

When Tian Dao's men saw him coming back, they all came forward to please him. In the past, Tian Dao enjoyed this feeling very much, so even though Gu Shaoyang didn't like this feeling at all now, he could only endure it.

Soon, Gu Shaoyang finally returned to his room, and the people around him finally dispersed, and Gu Shaoyang's ears finally became much clearer.

When he returned to the room and closed the door, Gu Shaoyang immediately began to plan the dose of medicine he would give to the head of the Lin family in the jar every day.

In order to ensure that when his deadline comes, his cultivation level will be directly reduced to the lowest level, so that Gu Shaoyang will not have to exert any effort when dealing with him.

And in this way, after he loses the strength, there is no need to worry about him attacking other people who have no ability to resist and self-defense, and Gu Shaoyang will not be threatened.

Finally, Gu Shaoyang spent some time dividing the doses of medicine before putting them all into the space ring.

And when he finished these seemingly unimportant things, the housekeeper knocked on the door.

"Sir, it's time to eat. Do you want to eat inside or in the lobby?"

There was a sudden knock on the door, and after hearing the housekeeper's words, Gu Shaoyang subconsciously wanted to answer that he would eat in the room and let them bring it in.

But then he thought again, this was not in line with the very flamboyant Tian Dao's character, so he just can then answer: "Just eat in the lobby."

Then after she finished speaking, the housekeeper answered, and then left the door of his room. After the housekeeper left, Gu Shaoyang began to practice in the room.

He has been busy recently, and he has not managed his cultivation properly for a long time. Because, seeing a fierce battle coming, if he didn't temporarily hold on to the Buddha's feet.

If his expected plan did not succeed and his own cultivation was not as good as others, then he would definitely be dead.

Therefore, in order to achieve the expected results, Gu Shaoyang made more human efforts in addition to his usual plans, so as to ensure that nothing goes wrong. While

Gu Shaoyang locked himself in the room to practice, the housekeeper and the people in the kitchen were they prepared food very urgently, because Tian Dao's temper was not good.

So they were worried that if they took too long to prepare, he would be angry, and they would be the unlucky ones. So over time, when they were preparing things, they formed: Fast! Accurate! Steady!

So not long after, there was a knock on Gu Shaoyang's door: "Master, it's time to eat! Sir, are you here?" The housekeeper stood at the door of "Tian Dao" and knocked on the door gently and respectfully.

As for Tian Dao, who was disguised as Gu Shaoyang, after hearing the housekeeper's voice, he immediately put away his true energy, and then walked to the door and opened the door.

"I heard you, let's go." After saying "Tian Dao", he gathered up his clothes, and then took the lead in walking in front of the housekeeper.

When the housekeeper saw "Tian Dao" coming out, he quickly followed him, not far away. As he walked, he introduced to him what he would eat today.

"Sir, today's cuisine includes Jiangnan cuisine, Cantonese cuisine, and your favorite Sichuan cuisine"

"Among them, spicy chicken and saliva chicken are the best. They are prepared and marinated early. The chicken is already flavorful and the spiciness is just right."

Gu Shaoyang listened to the butler's introduction while walking, but he didn't say a word from beginning to end, didn't answer, and didn't express his opinion.

Finally, after walking for a while, he came to the restaurant, but when he He was stunned after walking in, but it only took a second before he quickly returned to normal.

In the restaurant, almost all the servants in the mansion were in order.

Chapter 1104

They were dressed in very standardized and uniform styles, and their postures and hairstyles were the same, so they were lined up in two rows.

Then the moment "Tian Dao" approached, everyone bowed and said hello, their voices uniform and loud, as if they were welcoming an emperor.

And after "Tian Dao" sat down, they had no intention of leaving. There were probably hundreds of people watching him eat such a meal!

But this is Tian Dao's character! Make public! And Gu Shaoyang, who is hiding himself now, cannot change his habit at all, otherwise it will be easy for the butler who knows him well to see through.

Therefore, Gu Shaoyang could only bite the bullet and eat in front of so many people, and with them staring at him like this, Gu Shaoyang really had no interest in eating.

And his psychological pressure is still quite high.

When he looked up at the table again, Gu Shaoyang discovered that a long table was covered with dishes in large and small bowls.

It has been placed from where he sat to the end of the table, and this seems to be the luxurious life that Tian Dao has become accustomed to.

Seeing this, Gu Shaoyang remembered the days when the guard and him couldn't even afford food and had to go to the Lin family for help, but look at Tian Dao's days again.

With his behavior like this, the money for one meal could probably last an average person a full year! Unfortunately, this is just a small living habit of his!

In order to stop this behavior, Gu Shaoyang decided that this was the first and last time he would do this as Tian Dao.

Afterwards, he tried to eat outside when it was time to eat, rather than at home, to avoid such extravagance.

In the end, Gu Shaoyang finally finished his meal under the watchful eyes of hundreds of people, and it took him two hours to finish it!

When Gu Shaoyang discovered that it took him so long to eat a meal, he couldn't help but lament the waste.

Because he was able to do a lot of things while he was eating, but today he wasted his time.

You know, although he now assumes the identity of Tian Dao, in fact he is still Gu Shaoyang, and! He is also Gu Shaoyang of the spirit hunting organization!

He still has many tasks on his back! It would be a disaster if he couldn't finish it within the stipulated time!

Therefore, after Gu Shaoyang finished eating, he immediately returned to his room and did not allow any of them to disturb him: "I am tired and want to rest for a while. Please tell them not to disturb me."

"If anything happens, just wait until I wake up." After saying "Tian Dao", he entered the room directly, and the housekeeper respectfully agreed.

After "Tian Dao" entered the room and closed the door, the housekeeper dared to turn around and retreat.

Then the housekeeper walked outside the door, and then Then he pampered him and the man guarding the courtyard said: "Master wants to take a lunch break. Remember, no matter who comes, they are not allowed to come in.""

"No matter what happens, we have to wait until the master wakes up!" The guards all responded to the housekeeper's instructions.

After the housekeeper finished the work, he retired and was busy with other things. When he returned to the room, "Tian Dao" not only did not rest, but also started to change clothes.

When After he turned around, he returned from Tian Dao to his original identity - Gu Shaoyang!

And Gu Shaoyang recovered his true body, took off his mask, and secretly went out from the secret passage in Tian Dao's room.

According to Tian Dao's memory, he The secret passage in the room led to a remote alley, so Gu Shaoyang followed his memory and walked out. As expected, there was no one in this street and it was very quiet, which made it easier for Gu Shaoyang to do things..

While walking on the street, Gu Shaoyang was also very low-key. Today he planned to visit the children he had rescued before, and also went to the drugstore to buy some medicinal materials.

After all, the children in the tree hole needed treatment, and the children hidden by the inn , they also have wounds of varying sizes.

If we don't get treatment in time now, I'm afraid it won't be possible to treat them in the future.

In addition, one of the children who was hidden is still a baby, and everyone who lives there is It was the children. The older one could take care of each other, but it was a bit difficult for him to take care of the baby.

So Gu Shaoyang had to buy some rice cereal, and then buy an animal with milk to temporarily let the child have milk.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang quickly came to the medicinal material shop, and he almost emptied the medicinal material shop as needed. However, the medicinal materials he bought were very basic.

And if he was not a senior doctor, he would only think that he was buying sachet, so this also creates protection for himself.

Otherwise, if he buys so many things at once, it will inevitably arouse people's suspicion, but if others think that he has so many things to make sachets, then others will also There would be no doubt.

Soon, Gu Shaoyang finished buying the medicinal materials, and after buying, Gu Shaoyang went straight to the place where livestock was bought and sold.

Chapter 1105

As soon as he approached the place where livestock was bought and sold, Gu Shaoyang smelled a strong smell of feces and an aura unique to the trading market.

And after he walked in, he didn't ask, but pretended to be experienced in observing and interrogating.

And after looking for a long time, he still couldn't find what he wanted, an animal with milk. Just when he was about to return without success, a person suddenly stopped him.

"What do you want to buy, this customer? I see you've been hanging around here for so long." I saw an old man with a long white beard suddenly stopped Gu Shaoyang.

Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but find it interesting to see the old man's very wise and shrewd look.

Looking around, the people who come here to buy and sell are either specialized in animal breeding. The sellers were either farmers who couldn't get rid of the pot and had to sell their animals.

But this person, dressed in ordinary clothes, but with shrewd eyes and very clean clothes, formed a clear contrast with this messy trading market. Comparison.

So Gu Shaoyang asked the old man to see what kind of medicine he sold in his gourd.

"Since you asked, please help me. I was wondering if you have any milk animals at home? The calf at home had no milk, so we had to buy him a wet nurse."

Gu Shaoyang said very respectfully, but after hearing this, the old man in front of him stroked his beard on his chest, and then nodded towards Gu Shaoyang

"I happen to have a cow at home that has milk, and my calf is about to be weaned, so I might as well sell it to you."

After saying that, the old man made a gesture, asking Gu Shaoyang to follow him. Gu Shaoyang didn't have any worries, so he just followed him.

"The cow is at home, so I have to ask you to follow me to the house."The old man led the way and said as he walked, and Gu Shaoyang followed closely.

"It's okay, just lead the way, I'll go take a look, and if it works, I'll buy it from you."Gu Shaoyang said calmly, and the old man just nodded silently.

Then neither of the two people spoke, and they walked quietly like this, with the sleeping old man leading the way. After Gu Shaoyang followed him around, they Finally, we came to a secluded courtyard. As soon as the old man opened the door, Gu Shaoyang saw the courtyard full of flowers, trees, radish, cabbage and other food. It looked like a paradise isolated from the world.

The people living in this courtyard There is no need to go out to buy vegetables or meat. There is also a deep well in the yard, and it is also a large forest of wood.

When Gu Shaoyang came closer, he just felt that the old man lived here to escape from the world, or that he was in order to avoid someone.

Looking at the old man's clothes and conversation, Gu Shaoyang concluded that he was definitely not an ordinary farmer, and he definitely had nothing to do with farmers.

It seemed that the old man was more like a master among secular aristocrats, and Gu Shaoyang came to in the past few days in Dongcheng, he didn't know any master here who was so low-key.

So he simply searched for the memories of Tian Dao in his mind, and found that the Lin family is now the dominant family in Dongcheng.

What kind of nobles have been there for a long time? No longer exists, and this old man has never appeared in Tian Dao's memory.

Just when Gu Shaoyang was wondering about the old man's identity, he suddenly saw the city logo unique to Dongcheng in the center of the yard.

Originally, this city logo should be it was to be hung on the city wall, but now I don't know why, the city's logo actually appeared here.

Could it be? The city lord?

Suddenly a person appeared in Gu Shaoyang's mind, and the city lord was also the one he had never seen before in Dongcheng. , I have never heard of it.

Although some people say that the city lord is the real culprit behind the abduction of the children, these are just rumors and have never been confirmed.

But now it seems that the person in front of him should be the city lord of Dongcheng. , but Gu Shaoyang didn't know.

He was standing here well, why didn't he come forward to manage the current situation in the city, why didn't he come forward to explain?

With this question, Gu Shaoyang followed the old man to the backyard, and in the backyard, there were no cows or calves like the old man said.

Seeing that there was nothing here that he wanted, Gu Shaoyang was not confused, and there was no fear on his face.

"Old man, you have brought me here and you still haven't told me your purpose? Or should I call you the Lord of the East City?"

Turn around, Gu Shaoyang said straight to the point. After hearing Gu Shaoyang's words, the old man just smiled heartily. He neither rejected nor acknowledged his guess.

"I really don't have any cows here, and I only brought you here because I am used to you as a young man."

The old man looked at Gu Shaoyang, his eyes full of appreciation, but Gu Shaoyang didn't believe the old man's lies. His intuition told him that the old man in front of him must be one.

Chapter 1106

A very smart, very wise person.

It's just that Gu Shaoyang despises him for being a coward now.

Regardless of the people in his city, he lives in such a leisurely and comfortable courtyard, or lives isolated from the world. It is really uncomfortable!

"Thank you for your appreciation, but I'm afraid I can't bear your appreciation. Your appreciation is just hiding in the dark and enjoying yourself."

Gu Shaoyang felt a little angry for the people in the city at this time, because they were like children abandoned by their mother. He was not used to it at all. Now they are being bullied, but the people who should take care of them are hiding themselves. Gu Shaoyang just felt chilled.

The old man was also a little moved when he saw the disappointed look in Gu Shaoyang's eyes, and there was also some self-blame in his eyes.

"Young man, I know you blame me, but I also have my own difficulties, otherwise I wouldn't go to a lot of trouble to find someone from the ghost hunting organization to help."

Gu Shaoyang, who was still full of resentment towards the city lord, frowned instantly after hearing what he said: Is he the one he was looking for? Then how did he know that I was from the spirit hunting organization?

With doubts, Gu Shaoyang asked for an exit, because under normal circumstances, it is absolutely impossible for people from the soul hunting organization to be exposed when completing tasks, especially such murderous tasks.

But now that Gu Shaoyang has been exposed, this can only show that within the organization, Someone has exposed him.

And this matter can be big or small, but it is not a good thing for Gu Shaoyang personally.

Because he will help the boy in white complete the task later, so if his identity is too exposed now In front of others, it may become an important issue when you help the boy in white later.

"How did you know about me?"Gu Shaoyang looked and asked, but he just pointed in the direction of the room and motioned for him to enter.

Then Gu Shaoyang walked directly in, and in the room, except for a letter on the table, there was nothing else Something.

So Gu Shaoyang stepped forward and picked up the letter, and saw the familiar handwriting of the prescription.

"Isn't this the old doctor's handwriting? Do you know each other?"After seeing the familiar handwriting, Gu Shaoyang could also understand who exposed him.

And he also knew the old doctor's status in the spirit hunting organization, so there was no way he would be punished for what he did. At the same time, he liked Gu Shaoyang very much, and He won't be harmed

"He and I have been friends for many years. The reason why I asked the ghost hunting organization for help was because he recommended me. But I didn't expect that you would take over this task."

"Originally, this was a very difficult matter. This task has never been taken up within the spirit hunting organization, and the situation in Dongcheng is becoming more and more complicated."

"Originally, I had planned not to rely on others, but unexpectedly I learned that someone had taken over this task and was completing it, so I asked the old man to help me find out who it was."

"Although I know that this is against the rules within your organization, but you are worried, I will never tell anyone about it, not for any other reason, because the old man values you very much."

Hearing what the Lord of Dongcheng said, Gu Shaoyang couldn't say anything else. After all, it was the old doctor who told him, and he had such a good relationship with the old doctor.

"Okay, so what do you want to do by bringing me here?" Gu Shaoyang asked after understanding the general story of the matter.

"I know you're already taking action, and I live here in a nice and glamorous way, but in fact I'm being watched all the time."

"Until the past few days, Tian Dao, who has been monitoring me, that is, the person who has been running errands for the people behind the scenes, has not continued to monitor me for some reason."

"That's why I was able to go out to look for you, and I happened to meet you in the trading market."

When he heard the city lord mention "Tian Dao", Gu Shaoyang frowned, because the city lord said that Tian Dao sent people to monitor him.

But there was no such thing in Tian Dao's memory!

But neither did the city lord. It seems like a lie, but if it is true as the city lord said, then Tian Dao is not the only one who works for the head of the Lin family behind the scenes.

And because Tian Dao acts too openly, there may be many things that others are doing while others are doing it. They are all under the banner of Tian Dao, so they hide themselves

"Now I just want to know what is going on in the city. I walked around for several days, but I found that there is no child in the city now."

Speaking of the scenes he had seen in the past few days, the city lord blamed himself very much, but Gu Shaoyang looked at the city lord and wondered whether he should comfort him or tell him that there were actually children alive in the city.

But in the end he After thinking about it again and again, he decided not to talk about it for the time being. He didn't want to expose the children to others until the matter was settled.

And there were children in the city, and the more people knew about them, the more children.

Chapter 1107

The children would be in more danger, so it would be better for Gu Shaoyang not to say anything.

"The situation in the city now is probably even more chaotic than what you have seen. The people in the city are short of food and all their children are missing. I heard two days ago that a newborn child was kidnapped."

"Not long after, the child's body appeared in the forest."

"The child's parents have been quarreling over this matter, and I heard that there are still conflicts between them to this day."

Gu Shaoyang told the city lord what he knew, but he only told the bad part.

He himself was pretending that he didn't tell him about Tian Dao.

"Is the situation so bad now?"Hearing Gu Shaoyang's words, the city lord's brows tightened a little more, and Gu Shaoyang was not surprised when he saw his reaction.

It's just that he wanted to see if the city lord could do something for the city now.

"Since the situation is so bad, now that I can move, I must stand up and help them!" Finally, the city lord said very firmly that he had thought about his decision over and over again.

After Gu Shaoyang heard his decision, he immediately rejected it.

"City Lord, it's not that you can solve it now by just stepping forward. The strength behind it is too strong, and we simply can't compete!"

Gu Shaoyang only feels that he needs to be made aware of the reality. Only after he sees the actual situation clearly can he make the most correct decision.

"But if we don't come forward to control them, won't they become more and more rampant?" The city lord rolled his eyes and said.

But Gu Shaoyang directly analyzed it for him.

"City Lord, there have been rumors outside that you abducted the child, and you have not come forward even once since the child disappeared."

"Then those who know will definitely know that you were imprisoned by them, but what if the common people don't know? What if after you come forward, the person behind the scenes just puts the blame on you?"

"Now you are no longer the city lord who orders the whole city. The reason why I still call you city lord now is because I want to tell you that the city lord of East City has not been replaced yet!"

"And when you serve as the city lord for one day, you should be responsible for the people in the city!"

In one breath, Gu Shaoyang finished all the words in his heart, and the city lord just nodded heavily after listening.

"I understand what you mean! Blame me for being too impatient! I still think about how much power I had before! Boy! Thanks for your reminder!"

Finally, the city lord came to his senses after being persuaded by Gu Shaoyang, and Gu Shaoyang felt that although the city lord has no rights for the time being, he must have a way out for himself, and there must be some ways, but what exactly is he? It's unknown.

And the specific actions need to be done by the city lord himself. He wants to complete his mission and cannot take him into consideration.

"Okay, that's all. I just hope you can do something for this city now. Since you don't have the cow I want, I'll leave first."

After saying that, Gu Shaoyang was about to leave, but the city lord immediately stopped Gu Shaoyang.

"etc! Young man, please wait a moment! I give you something, take it and use it, maybe you can find what you want."

After saying that, the city lord took out something similar to a text symbol from under the pillow in his room, and then handed it to Gu Shaoyang

"This thing used to be able to command the power of the masters of legal organizations who were hidden all the time, but now I haven't come forward for a long time, and I don't know if I can get them to come together again."

"But...it can be considered as my contribution."After that, the city lord forced himself into Gu Shaoyang's arms, and he did not refuse.

"OK! Then I'll leave first. Please pay attention. We'll try to deal with this matter in the dark now. Don't expose yourself to others."

After giving the last instructions, Gu Shaoyang left here, and the city lord also personally sent him out.

After leaving the city lord's yard, Gu Shaoyang took the command talisman given to him by the city lord and found a place in a ruined temple to start using it.

Because now He still lacked the cows, and this was the baby's ration, which was very important, so he had to buy it today. When he arrived at the ruined temple, Gu Shaoyang activated the order, and soon, the order symbols all over his body became as white as snow. A faint, vague light spread all over his body.

It didn't take long for it to return to silence, which meant that the summoning was successful.

Seeing this, Gu Shaoyang quickly changed his clothes and found another person. He put on a mask of his face, then pretended to be a lame old man, and sat slumped on the ground.

And soon, a figure stood in front of him.

Gu Shaoyang raised his head and looked in front of him, and the person in front of him also Looking at him with a lot of eyes

"Did you summon me?"The person standing in front of Gu Shaoyang seemed to be very suspicious, but he still asked in disbelief, and as he fell asleep, he asked the doubts in his heart.

Chapter 1108

The other people who were summoned also came here one after another. They couldn't help but feel a little strange when they saw that except for a lame old man, they were their own people.

They looked at the old man, and their hearts were also full of curiosity. They wanted to know whether it was he who summoned them, or why he summoned them.

"I summoned you, but I summoned you for the city lord."

Gu Shaoyang said to them with a voice that sounded like an old man, and they didn't have the slightest doubt about Gu Shaoyang's appearance or his voice.

All their attention was focused on the"city lord" he was talking about.

"City lord?"

"Are you talking about the city lord of our east city?"

"Have you met the city lord?"

"What is your relationship with the city lord?"

In an instant, after hearing about the person they were concerned about, the people in front of Gu Shaoyang were like machines that created questions, asking questions non-stop.

While he was speechless in his heart, on the surface he could only pretend to be an old man and answer anxiously. Moving slowly

"Okay, done! You ask me one by one! I'm old and my ears don't work. If you ask me this, I can't remember it either!"

Gu Shaoyang slapped his thigh and complained like an old child. People standing in front of Gu Shaoyang apologized after seeing him like this.

Then they helped the "old man" Gu Shaoyang up from the ground and placed him in the ruined temple again. I found a good stool for him to sit on.

Finally, I started to surround him and ask him questions that he had been piling up for a long time.

"Where is the city lord now? Is he the one behind the scenes? Why didn't he show up for so long?"

"Now that the city lord is making you anxious, what do you want us to do?"

"Why doesn't the city lord step forward to solve the problems in the city?"

After they settled Gu Shaoyang for a while, they couldn't stop asking questions again, and Gu Shaoyang could only answer what he knew one by one, although he was extremely reluctant in his heart.

But he would still need to find them after answering the questions. Help, so let's consider it as a reward now.

"It is not convenient for the city lord to come forward now. I am just a mouthpiece. In addition, the city lord has not come forward before because he was controlled by others and only escaped recently."

"Although he has escaped now, he still does not come forward because the people behind the scenes want to blame all the kidnapping of the children on the city lord, so the city lord can only act in secret"

"The person behind the scenes can also tell you with certainty that he is not the city lord. But you may not believe it now. You will know it after the city lord completes the matter."

Soon, Gu Shaoyang answered their questions, and when a few people wanted to ask again, they were directly rejected by Gu Shaoyang.

"Calling everyone here today is not to solve everyone's problems. Although I know everyone has many questions about things in the city"

"But the top priority now is to solve the problems in the city, instead of dwelling on what has happened and cannot be undone."

Gu Shaoyang's words pointed out the current reality, and after hearing Gu Shaoyang's words, they also put aside their inner doubts.

"Does the city lord want to tell us something? Please inform! For Dongcheng! It is our duty to do so!"

Then Gu Shaoyang only heard them swearing, and after hearing their answers, Gu Shaoyang was quite satisfied.

"Okay, then I will thank you in advance on behalf of the people of Dongcheng. After the matter is completed, the city lord will reward you based on your merits."

"Now I need you to slowly gather your forces, and then wait for me to inform you when to take action."

"In addition, I need you to find ways to buy food to meet the needs of the people in the city. Also, I need a cow. Of course, this is my personal need."

"That's probably it for now, but you should remember it! You must not alert the enemy! Be sure to proceed with caution! If you are discovered, you must stop immediately!"

In the end, Gu Shaoyang Qian Dingling and Wan Zhi were afraid of any accidents, and they immediately started to take action after receiving the instructions.

Regarding the individual request of Gu Shaoyang, an "old man", one of them, Mr. Long, also helped him solve it.

"Old man, where is your home? Let me help you take it back. Mr. Long stood in front of Gu Shaoyang holding a cow and said with great concern.

But Gu Shaoyang just waved his hand towards him and said:"No, no, you are busy with your business, I have to go shopping later.""

As he spoke, Gu Shaoyang stood up from the ground tremblingly, then took the rope from his hand and led the cow away alone.

Although Mr. Long and the old man Gu Shaoyang wanted to help, they thought of his own tasks. It was very burdensome, so he gave up the idea.

Finally, after he watched Gu Shaoyang completely leave his sight, he walked away and left quickly.

Chapter 1109

After Gu Shaoyang moved away from Mr. Long's attention and noticed that his eyes were no longer focused on him, he straightened up.

Then he turned around and returned to his original appearance, and the cow he was holding was directly put into the space ring with a wave of his hand.

Then he took the things he had prepared and ran towards the place where he hid the children.

When Gu Shaoyang ran towards the direction of the children, he also passed by the innkeeper's place.

The shopkeeper liked to sit at the door when he had nothing to do, so Gu Shaoyang saw him when he passed by.

It's just that the two didn't say anything when they met, and Gu Shaoyang didn't stop because he saw three people opposite the shopkeeper, still monitoring him.

So he just made hurried eye contact with the shopkeeper, signaled his reaction, and left in a hurry.

The shopkeeper became more worried after receiving Gu Shaoyang's eyes.

Because he had never looked at Gu Shaoyang since the last time he handed the note to him, and at the same time, he didn't know what happened to the children he was hiding.

He just heard that someone was going to do harm to the children, so he asked Gu Shaoyang for help, and now it seems that the children should be fine.

After Gu Shaoyang hurriedly left the street, he set off directly towards the forest. Soon he came to the place where the barrier was implemented.

When he entered the barrier and the children saw that the person who came was the one who saved them, they all gathered around to watch.

Among them, the backbone of the children was very enthusiastic and wanted to take Gu Shaoyang to see the new dishes they had cultivated, while the other children followed Gu Shaoyang at a short distance.

It can be seen that they actually want to get very close to Gu Shaoyang, but maybe because of their previous experiences, they have suppressed their feelings.

Children like Gu Shaoyang can grow up carefree. Even though some misfortunes have happened to them, there is no way to change them.

Then he can only make up for the children in other things, and try to make up for the pain caused by being kidnapped and bloodletting.

"children! Look what I brought to you!"

Gu Shaoyang was surrounded by a group of children, which also aroused the childlike innocence deep in his heart. Suddenly he took out a big ball and threw it into the air.

After the children saw the toy, their faces instantly had happy smiles. Just now The children who had been surrounding Gu Shaoyang immediately ran towards the ball.

However, there was still a person holding a baby who did not go forward, but stood obediently with Gu Shaoyang.

"Give me the children and you go play with them for a while."Gu Shaoyang saw that he was so sensible, so he extended his hand to him, but the child refused directly.

"No! I don't want to play, I am the older brother and I have to take care of my younger brothers and sisters."

The child's innocent words were full of responsibility, and Gu Shaoyang felt heartbroken when he heard the child's sensible words.

"It's okay, I am the big brother here today, I should take care of you, so you can go and play without any worries."

After saying that, Gu Shaoyang took the child directly from his arms, and then pushed him forward to play with other children.

And this child would look back after being pushed forward by Gu Shaoyang for two steps. Looking at him, his eyes seemed to be asking: Can I go? Can I really go?

Seeing the child's look, Gu Shaoyang felt even more distressed, so he just nodded at him heavily, and then said hard to him Waved his hands.

After seeing Gu Shaoyang's definitely encouraging action, the child ran to mingle with the other children with confidence.

Gu Shaoyang stood there and watched for a while, then went to where the children lived, and then began to help them Organize.

By the way, he also made a cowshed, put the cows in, and took out the ingredients he prepared for the children. At this time, it was almost dark, so Gu Shaoyang prepared a dinner for the children. , and let them milk the milk later.

In this way, the baby will not be hungry when he is away, and the children can take good care of him.

When Gu Shaoyang fell asleep and prepared alone, the children were already playing They were tired and all of them were sweating profusely.

When Gu Shaoyang saw them like this, he was worried that they would catch a cold, so he boiled water for him and asked them to take a bath together.

Finally, he led them to the cowshed and taught them how to How to milk a cow.

After the children learned how to do it, Gu Shaoyang told them the location of the ingredients to make sure that the children could live a better life when he was not around.

"Okay, brother has prepared dinner for you tonight, but now he has something to do and may have to leave, but I will come to see you next time"

"So you must take good care of yourselves, you know?"

Gu Shaoyang looked at the sky. He was also preparing to go back, but when the children heard him saying that he was leaving, they didn't want to leave.

Chapter 1110

"Brother, can you not leave?"

"Brother, please play with us for a while longer."

"Brother, when will you visit us again?"

"Brother, will you not want us?"

Ever since Gu Shaoyang said he was leaving, the child has followed him closely, for fear that he would leave without saying goodbye.

And Gu Shaoyang has always been relied on by the child. Deep down in his heart, he only feels that he is like a mother and a father..Although this feeling of being relied on can make people feel annoyed, it is more of a comfort and a sense of accomplishment.

"Don't worry, brother will definitely come back! Next time brother comes again, I will bring you delicious food and fun things, okay?"

Gu Shaoyang squatted down and looked at the children at eye level, trying not to let the children feel the pressure. He squatted down so that he could better hold all the children in his arms.

Despite the children's constant requests, Gu Shaoyang still I didn't agree to their request because it was important.

"Okay, brother, I'll leave now. I'll see you next time, so you have to be good."After that, Gu Shaoyang walked out of the boundary, and the children watched him leave. Everyone looked very disappointed. However, not long after Gu Shaoyang left, the children came out of their sad mood. Everyone They played happily together again.

Maybe this is the nature of children, innocent and happy, forgetful and without any worries.

On the other side, after Gu Shaoyang left the forest, he followed the secret passage from the Tiandao room, and then He walked back carefully.

When he returned to the room, the room was still the same as before, and no one disturbed him, and he continued to stay in the room for a while before going out. After

Gu Shaoyang went out with Tian Dao's appearance, The housekeeper was already guarding the door at some point, and when he saw "Tian Dao" coming out, he immediately walked up.

Gu Shaoyang saw that the housekeeper seemed a little anxious, so he took the lead and asked, "What's wrong? What's the matter?"

Gu Shaoyang stretched and pretended to have just woken up. When the housekeeper saw him, he just followed him not far or near.

"People outside spread the news that the child was born and asked you when to arrange transportation."

When the steward told "Tian Dao", he specifically looked around to make sure that no one was nearby, then walked forward and leaned over to speak in "Tian Dao's" ear.

After hearing the steward's words, Gu Shaoyang's eyes rolled. Immediately, his eyes rolled around, and then the memory of paying attention to Tian Dao emerged in his mind. Before, he had been searching for babies for the head of the Lin family in the jar, but now he finally completed the collection, and at the same time, the head of the Lin family in the jar The end is coming soon.

And Tian Dao is no longer here, and his replacement is Gu Shaoyang, so it is absolutely impossible for him to help him do bad things again.

But now that the child has been delivered, he still has to find a time to transport the baby Come in, but they may not report truthfully about the head of the Lin family in the jar.

Anyway, if the child is just one or two short, he will not be able to pass the deadline, and he has now absorbed the medicine Gu Shaoyang gave him. I believe His period of weakness will also be advanced.

If he wants to have a hundred babies in advance, Gu Shaoyang can also say that he hasn't gotten it yet because the time has been advanced, so he can't be blamed.

And he can take advantage of it Attack him when he is weak and kill two birds with one stone!

"Find some time. Just follow the old time." Gu Shaoyang quickly finished thinking in his mind, and then said to the housekeeper, who immediately made arrangements after receiving the order. After watching the housekeeper leave, Gu Shaoyang returned to the room, and then took all the medicinal materials he bought during the day. came out, ready to implement his next plan.

Soon, Gu Shaoyang set up a barrier in the room. Although Tian Dao's room was originally a barrier built with formations, for the sake of safety, he set up another barrier. layer.

After taking defensive measures, Gu Shaoyang began to distribute medicinal materials and refine them.

Today he mainly wants to refine a colorless and odorless medicinal powder that can make people weak and weak, and can also temporarily lose the ability to fight.

This Gu Shaoyang planted medicinal powder just in case, because he was worried that if the head of the Lin family in the jar had a back-up plan, it would be very difficult for him to deal with him alone. So he had to use a lot of external means. Keep the things for himself first, so that even if there is any sudden situation, he can deal with it well.

Moreover, even if the powder he prepared is not used now, it does not mean that it will not be used in the future.

After all, he still has a mission There is so much, there is no guarantee that I will need it next time, so I am preparing early now so that I can be a little more relaxed in the future.

And the process of preparing the medicinal powder is also very fast.
