Chapter 1141

"Okay, you go back quickly. I will go back after finishing the matter in two days. You should pay attention to it then."

Gu Shaoyang said so and sent the boy in white back, and he also took the time to rest. After a long time, he fell into a deep sleep.

The night was very quiet. After Gu Shaoyang dealt with the group of men in black, there was also a lot of noise in the inn. Nothing happened.

The boy in white was not attacked in his room, and the residents of the inn who saw the man in black before thought that something would happen tonight. So they all closed the door of their room. Locked tightly, they were afraid that they would be hurt, but they did not expect that nothing happened tonight, and they slept very soundly.

When they woke up the next morning, they were still a little unbelievable.

However, although they were not hurt The influence of any sound, but they could clearly feel that the group of men in black they saw yesterday were obviously missing today. Moreover, they released their spiritual consciousness but could not find the existence of their breath, and their remaining breath in the air could not be found. Insignificant, as if they had left a long time ago.

Upstairs at this time, Gu Shaoyang slowly opened his eyes while lying on the bed. When he went downstairs after washing in the room, what he saw was a group of people walking around. Looking around.

And Gu Shaoyang was aware of the spiritual consciousness they released, but he blocked it directly. They couldn't find out the details of Gu Shaoyang at all.

Soon, Gu Shaoyang went downstairs and left the inn directly after eating breakfast. Gu Shaoyang, the innkeeper's team, has become accustomed to not paying for meals.

After all, Gu Shaoyang is his boss. If he says anything in front of him, he will be kicked out of the organization in the next second, so no matter where Gu Shaoyang is, he will be kicked out of the organization. Something was done inside the inn.

The shopkeeper could only keep silent, not to mention urging him to ask for the account.

On the other side, Gu Shaoyang, who left the inn, went straight to the place where his last task was. Now he only needs to complete this task. Then he can leave immediately.

So now this task is very critical!

Gu Shaoyang came to the city wall and hid quietly, observing the surrounding situation.

His last task was to steal the meteor beads from Prince Yong's Mansion and hand them over to the person who hired him.

As for the specific function of the Meteor Bead, Gu Shaoyang didn't know and didn't ask. He just wanted to be sure that he could complete the task perfectly.

So Gu Shaoyang had been hiding in the dark. After discovering the exchange of patrolling guards in the palace, after a while, he began to feel excited. He was worried about some mechanism on the floor tiles in the palace, so in order to avoid stepping on it himself, Gu Shaoyang chose a slightly dangerous method and walked directly through the air. Although he tried his best to walk directly through the air to avoid the patrolling guards, but because the target can be seen at a glance in the air, the target is too obvious, so it is more difficult to act.

Gu Shaoyang must ensure that he can fly in the air and land without being discovered. Always ensure that your footsteps are gentle and will not make any sound.

If this can be ensured, then Gu Shaoyang will be much safer when moving, and with his strength, this problem will not be a problem at all. The more difficult thing for Gu Shaoyang now is that he After arriving at the location of the Meteor Bead, there was no way to enter.

Because where the Meteor Bead is, there are guards inside and outside. In addition, there are many barriers and formations around the Meteor Bead.

Looking at this situation, the owner of the Meteor Bead should have known for a long time that someone would come to steal the Meteor Bead, so he took such precautions. The more the owner acted like this, the more Gu Shaoyang told him.

What kind of treasure is it that makes people protect it so much, and makes people yearn for it so much?

Gu Shaoyang, who was very curious in his heart, continued to hide in the dark and observed for a while, and finally found a gap, but it was only a gap between the guards, and the time was free for one second.

Therefore, Gu Shaoyang must enter the next barrier through the gap within one second, and he must find a safe place immediately after entering.

Otherwise, the barrier will be touched, and Gu Shaoyang will be trapped inside, and at the same time, people outside will be alerted.

If the people outside are alerted, it will be more difficult for Gu Shaoyang to steal the meteor beads next time, and it is not certain whether he can go out after being alerted.

Faced with so many unknown things, Gu Shaoyang did not allow himself to fail.

Soon, Gu Shaoyang was ready and took advantage of their second to get into the gap.

Because he was very fast, he was not discovered by the guards outside, and Gu Shaoyang himself quickly found the next safe place to hide after entering the gap.

After entering the gap, there are no guards, but it is all filled with barriers and formations.

Chapter 1142

Therefore, as long as Gu Shaoyang can avoid formations and barriers, he will not be discovered.

Relying on Lu Shaoyang's skills, he hid in the gap and studied the formations and barriers, and then quickly cracked it. After cracking it, he entered very smoothly.

After successfully taking him in, what he saw was the meteor bead placed in the center of the huge house.

Only then did Gu Shaoyang get closer and see that this meteor bead was very round, uniform in color, and golden in color. It would emit a slight light in dark places and was not dazzling.

Looking alone, this meteor bead looks like a beautiful art ornament, but Gu Shaoyang doesn't know what its real function is.

So when Gu Shaoyang took the meteor bead, he wrapped it in clean silk cloth.

After all, there are so many guards, formations, and barriers around this meteor bead, so it is difficult to guarantee that the owner of the meteor bead will not quench poison on the surface of the meteor bead at the final level.

For the sake of safety, Gu Shaoyang chose to wrap it in clean silk cloth.

One is that the surface of the meteor bead is poisonous, and the other is that after wrapping it, the silk cloth can cover up its original light, so that Gu Shaoyang will not attract the attention of others when he takes it away.

Third, wrapping the meteor bead with silk cloth will prevent people from detecting Gu Shaoyang's aura. In this way, even if the meteor bead is delivered to the employer, no one will know who made it.

It can also better conceal Gu Shaoyang's identity from outsiders.

In this way, even if people outside know that someone from the ghost hunting organization took over the task, they will not know who it is.

And soon, Gu Shaoyang took the meteor bead he took off and returned the same way. Similarly, when he returned the same way, he did not alert the guards outside.

Gu Shaoyang, who was outside the door of the house with the meteor bead in his hand, looked at the bright lights inside. He just stayed there for a few seconds and then hurriedly left.

In order to complete the task, Gu Shaoyang, who was holding the Meteor Bead, delivered the Meteor Bead to his employer late at night, and then rushed back to the organization overnight and did not stay at the inn any longer.

However, when Gu Shaoyang left the inn, he still went back quietly. He did not go back to inform the boy in white, but went to the inn specifically to pay for his previous accommodation fees at the inn, and compensation for the tables and chairs damaged in the fight between him and others. Send it to the shopkeeper.

Although he is the boss of the innkeeper, he is not the kind of overbearing and unreasonable person. The reason why he did not pay before was because he did not want to pay for a day's stay and was too lazy to pay.

He prefers to pay in one lump sum, and the innkeeper was a little unbelievable when he received Gu Shaoyang's payment.

But when the innkeeper wanted to return the money to Gu Shaoyang, he discovered that he had left the inn without anyone knowing when.

When the guard guarding the Meteor Bead discovered that the Meteor Bead was missing, Gu Shaoyang had already returned to the spirit hunting organization, and he had a task that normally took a year to complete.

However, it only took him a month to complete it successfully, and he did not need help from others.

Such a thing is a miracle within the spirit hunting organization, it is unique!

The spirit hunting organization also made an exception to promote Gu Shaoyang because of his speed and accuracy in completing tasks.

Before, he was just a person in the headquarters who completed medium-level tasks, but now he has jumped directly to the person who manages assigned tasks. He has certain management rights in his hands and is no longer the person being managed.

After Gu Shaoyang had the management rights to assign tasks, he could check the tasks taken by the spirit hunting organization in different places, and he could also check different employers.

And because he is the leader in assigning tasks at the headquarters, he can be in charge of assigning tasks in other branches, and can also designate certain people to complete them.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang can appoint strong people to complete the task, and he can also use his own identity to help the boy in white investigate who is secretly hiring people to deal with him.

After Gu Shaoyang was promoted to a position, he quickly exercised his power within the organization. Others did not know and did not dare to say anything, and could only cooperate. Therefore, Gu Shaoyang quickly investigated the mastermind behind the scenes.

The boy in white had been secretly trying to kill him, and the person who took his life was his brother since childhood, Bai Jing!

Bai Jing and the boy in white have always been getting along very harmoniously, and the two brothers have the deepest and strongest relationship.

Although the boy in white knew that the person who murdered him was his family, he never doubted his own eldest brother, Bai Jing.

It wasn't until Gu Shaoyang told him and put the evidence he investigated in front of him that the boy in white had to accept this fact.

The young man in white and Gu Shaoyang found out who was behind the scenes and got the corresponding evidence.

Chapter 1143

The two of them no longer hid in the inn, but headed towards the family of the boy in white.

Because Gu Shaoyang's position has been promoted, he no longer has to perform tasks and only needs to be assigned, so it is very leisurely for him and the boy in white to go together.

But on the way back to his family with the boy in white, the boy in white was always in a very gloomy mood. It must be because of his own eldest brother, Bai Jing.

After all, he has always respected and trusted Bai Jing very much, but the final result disappointed him, and he still hasn't figured it out yet.

Why would the elder brother he always respected and trusted do such a thing behind his back? If the young man in white wants to know the result, he probably needs to see Bai Jing in person and ask him personally.

Just as Gu Shaoyang and the young man in white rushed towards the family, they also encountered an ambush on the road. They almost died several times, but they were all resolved by Gu Shaoyang.

On the way, Gu Shaoyang still insisted on asking the boy in white to pretend that his cultivation had not recovered, because only in this way, Bai Jing's guard against the boy in white would relax a little.

Otherwise, if he knew that the young man in white's cultivation had not only recovered, but was still above him, then Bai Jing would definitely try his best to send someone to take their lives.

"Don't be so depressed on this journey. If there's anything you don't understand, you'll figure it out when you get back."

"And you have been doing this yourself. When the time comes, your mother will not know how sad she will be when she sees it."

Gu Shaoyang and the young man in white were driving on the road. He was always unhappy when he saw him, and he was not that good at comforting people, so he could only reason with him. The young man in white was also more sensible, so Gu Shaoyang said a few words. After being comforted, he was able to understand, and his mood and emotions were no longer melancholy.

The worries in his heart were slowly relieved. In the mind of the boy in white, he had also imagined many different possibilities, so that he could take some psychological precautions, and can also make some preparations in action.

When Gu Shaoyang and the boy in white were together, as he got closer to the family's territory, in addition to some people who came to chase them, there were also some people belonging to the boy in white who gradually emerged.

So they were finally able to relax a little, and the boy in white was also able to learn from their mouths some of the things that happened in the family after he left.

"How is my mother doing in the family now? She hasn't contacted me for a long time."

Since the boy in white and Gu Shaoyang left the inn, the boy in white has lost contact with his mother. Before, he could still receive letters from his mother in the family from time to time to report that he was safe.

But there was no news after that, and he tried to contact his mother. There was no reply from his mother, and instead she would call a lot of people, so the boy in white gradually stopped contacting her.

However, he kept making plans in his mind and was always nervous, fearing that if he was not with his mother, his The eldest brother Bai Jinghui attacked his mother.

Although he and Bai Jing grew up together and were raised by his mother, his mother was not Bai Jing's biological mother.

When he was a child, the boy in white heard rumors that it was him Bai Jing's mother put Bai Jing's mother to death, but Bai Jing did not believe those rumors at that time, and those people saw that Bai Jing didn't believe it and left it alone.

But now that this situation has appeared, the boy in white is a little worried. Someone would have said something in Bai Jing's ear, making him suspicious, or he had already suspected it when he was a child. However, because he was still young, he chose to endure it, and it was not until now that he started to Slowly exposed.

If it is really as imagined by the boy in white, then Bai Jing's thoughts in the city are too deep, and then he and Gu Shaoyang may have some difficulty in dealing with him. Moreover, his mother is in Bai Jing's hands. , life safety cannot be guaranteed. Thinking of this, the boy in white can't help but frown.

"My mother has been controlled by Bai Jing, and all the people around my mother are also controlled by Bai Jing. Now all the daily life and food of my mother are taken care of by Bai Jing's people, and there is no way for us to get close."

One of the young men in white clothes in the family power reported to him and answered the questions that the young men in white clothes were concerned about. While they were talking, Gu Shaoyang stood quietly aside.

He was as quiet as he was. It's like they don't exist at all, but although Gu Shaoyang will not interrupt them, he will secretly help the boy in white solve the things he is most worried about.

For example, he will help investigate his mother's affairs.

The report of the spy of the boy in white , his mother was imprisoned in his house by Bai Jing, and there has been no news and no body.

Chapter 1144

So Gu Shaoyang guessed based on this information that Bai Jing probably didn't do anything to the mother of the boy in white.

Not only is his mother still alive, but Bai Jing is also very likely to take good care of the mother of the boy in white.

Because Bai Jing was also raised by the mother of the boy in white, although there were some rumors from the outside world, the rumors were all about them when they were children, and they had all grown up.

And after so many years, Bai Jing has never been found. Those rumors before were just speculations by others, and no one has ever been able to provide evidence.

Therefore, Bai Jing will definitely not attack the mother of the boy in white before he finds the evidence. On the contrary, he will definitely keep looking for evidence and the truth of that year.

At the moment, Bai Jing's biggest concern should be the truth of that year, not the boy in white.

After Gu Shaoyang roughly guessed Bai Jing's thoughts, he also had a way to deal with it.

After Gu Shaoyang roughly figured out the solution in his mind, he did not do it immediately because he still needed to understand some things from that year, and he also needed to ask the main person involved that year - the mother of the boy in white.

Although the mother of the boy in white was now imprisoned by Bai Jing and was heavily guarded, it was not a problem for Gu Shaoyang, so he easily entered the place where the mother of the boy in white was imprisoned one night.

When Gu Shaoyang entered the place where the mother of the boy in white was imprisoned, what he saw was not as dark and damp as the prison, with rats and cockroaches scurrying around and overgrown weeds.

It is a clean, tidy and bright room, and the flowers and plants in the room, as well as the velvet quilt cover, are all special items. With these things, Gu Shaoyang can determine that Bai Jing is very good to the mother of the boy in white.

At least that's the case so far.

In the room at this time, Gu Shaoyang sneaked into the room and only dared to show up after making sure that no one was inside.

When the mother of the boy in white clothes in the room suddenly saw a stranger like Gu Shaoyang, her expression immediately became nervous.

However, she did not shout for help, but hurriedly picked up the vase on the side and pointed it in the direction of Gu Shaoyang.

She looked at Gu Shaoyang with an expression that seemed to be saying: Don't come close to me, otherwise this vase will fall on your head in the next second!

After Gu Shaoyang saw the actions of the boy in white's mother, he didn't make any extraordinary move. He just calmly took out a letter from her arms that she sent to the boy in white.

After the mother of the boy in white saw the letter she sent to her son in Gu Shaoyang's hand, her expression immediately softened, and her eyes looking at Gu Shaoyang became a little more expectant.

She was looking forward to hearing the news about her son from Gu Shaoyang, because she was locked in this room. Although she had the best food and drink, she had no freedom and had not contacted her son for a long time.

She has always been worried and concerned in her heart, so after the mother of the boy in white saw this letter from home, she missed her son even more.

"Who are you?" After Gu Shaoyang and the mother of the boy in white looked at each other in the room for a long time, the mother of the boy in white finally couldn't help but asked first. When Gu Shaoyang saw that the mother of the boy in white relaxed a little, he sat directly on the chair, and then Minding his own business, he put a cup of tea for himself and drank it in one gulp.

"I am the Brother Gu in the letter. Now we are back, but Brother Bai has been worried about you, and Bai Jing has never done anything to you because he is obsessed with what happened before."

"The reason why today's situation is happening is because of what happened before, so I'm here to ask you what the truth was back then."

Gu Shaoyang bluntly stated the purpose of his visit, but the mother of the boy in white did not immediately answer Gu Shaoyang's straightforward question.

"Is my son safe now? Has anyone treated him badly?"

When the mother of the boy in white asked about her son, she pulled the clothes on her body with both hands. It could be seen that she was very worried. The boy in white had always been with Gu Shaoyang, and even if there was any danger, he would be ignored. Gu Shaoyang saved the day from danger, so he was very safe.

And Gu Shaoyang did not hide anything from the mother of the boy in white. He just told the boy in white the situation truthfully to reassure him.

"Don't worry, Little Brother Bai is very safe. He is even more worried about your safety now."

After hearing Gu Shaoyang's words that her son was safe, the mother of the boy in white finally relaxed her hands that were holding her clothes tightly, and then she slowly walked to the chair and sat down.

And when Gu Shaoyang saw the mother of the boy in white Relax and still hide him after walking to do it.

Chapter 1145

He was about to start asking about the truth of what happened that year, but after the mother of the boy in white sat down, before Gu Shaoyang could speak, the mother of the boy in white asked again.

"When you were with my son before, my son was hunted down and was not injured, right? He wasn't seriously injured or anything, right?"

The mother of the boy in white immediately asked Gu Shaoyang about the boy in white as soon as she sat down on the chair, and Gu Shaoyang couldn't refuse.

So he answered the mother of the boy in white in a short story.

"Don't worry, when I met Xiaodi Bai, although he was being chased, he was never seriously injured. He was very cunning in escaping, and even I couldn't catch him."

"However, on the way to escape, although Xiaodi Bai did not suffer any serious injuries, he still had some minor injuries, but they were all superficial injuries and did not hurt the inside of the body, so you don't have to worry."

Gu Shaoyang answered very patiently and briefly. After hearing this, the mother of the boy in white couldn't help but trembled her lips and shed tears in her eyes.

But when Gu Shaoyang looked at her eyes, he felt that she seemed to be more than just... Although he felt sorry for the young man in white, there seemed to be another person.

Just after Gu Shaoyang told the mother of the young man in white about the young man in white, Gu Shaoyang thought that he would know what happened back then, but he did not expect it.

The young man in white Faced with his questions about the truth of the year, his mother ignored him and just asked about the boy in white.

Gu Shaoyang also noticed that the mother of the boy in white didn't seem to want to answer what happened back then, so he followed The answer given by the mother of the young man in white can be regarded as giving him and her a step up.

And Gu Shaoyang also has a way to deal with this situation.

"I know you are very worried about Xiaodi Bai, but what we need to do now is to solve the problem instead of dwelling on what has happened to Xiaodi Bai. So, I hope you can....."

Just when Gu Shaoyang was about to ask the mother of the boy in white to tell him the truth about what happened back then, there was a very inappropriate knock on the door.

At this time, based on the time Gu Shaoyang was squatting, there should be no one outside the door, and no one should come in.

Similarly, for the mother of the boy in white, she had never seen anyone knocking on the door and coming in at this time, and Gu Shaoyang was still in her room at this moment, so the mother of the boy in white was a little panicked for a while.

Compared to the mother of the boy in white who was panicking at the side, Gu Shaoyang was much calmer.

Just after the knocking on the door stopped, Gu Shaoyang immediately carried the mother of the boy in white into the bedroom and put her directly on the bed. Then he jumped out of the window.

Just after Gu Shaoyang jumped and left the room of the mother of the boy in white, the footsteps of the people outside the door got closer and closer, and finally entered the room not long after.

The mother of the boy in white who was thrown on the bed by Gu Shaoyang quickly reacted and immediately pretended to sit on the bed, sorting her clothes and putting on her shoes, pretending to have just woken up.

Just when the mother of the boy in white lowered her head to put on her shoes, the person outside the door happened to come in.

And he saw the woman inside just getting up from the bed, so he didn't suspect anything.

On the other side, after Gu Shaoyang left the room where the mother of the boy in white was detained, he went directly back to where the boy in white was. At this time, the boy in white didn't know what Gu Shaoyang had been doing after leaving for so long.

So when Gu Shaoyang came back, he casually asked: "Brother Gu, where have you been?"

The young man in white walked towards Gu Shaoyang, and he seemed to be very uneasy on his face. Finally, when Gu Shaoyang came back He relaxed a little.

When Gu Shaoyang faced the question from the boy in white, he suddenly thought of what he had just mentioned in the conversation with his mother, but he did not get an answer.

So he was going to ask the boy in white to see if he knew something about that year, and even if he didn't know the specific things, as long as they told him some clues, he could investigate on his own.

But the biggest fear during the investigation is that the previous witnesses are no longer there. If the previous witnesses are no longer there, then there will be no way to verify the case.

So Gu Shaoyang could only pray secretly in his heart

"I went to the place where your mother is being held today. She is safe."

Gu Shaoyang planned to ask the young man in white about Bai Jing's mother, and he had nothing to hide when he went to see his mother, so he told him directly.

And Gu Shaoyang knew that once the young man in white knew that he had gone to see his mother, Mother, then he will definitely care about whether his mother is safe, whether she is injured, etc.

So Gu Shaoyang told the young man in white what he wanted to know in advance when he was about to ask him. In this way, Gu Shaoyang no longer had to wait for the young man in white to ask before answering.

And after he informed the young man in white in advance, Gu Shaoyang could quickly ask the young man in white about the old affairs between Bai Jing's mother and his mother.

Because Gu Shaoyang did not grow up with the boy in white and Bai Jing, he knew nothing about what happened when they were young.

And it is impossible for Gu Shaoyang to go to Bai Jing to understand the situation. Bai Jing's biological mother is no longer here, and the mother of the boy in white always dodges when Gu Shaoyang asks about this matter.

Gu Shaoyang and Bai Jing were on opposite sides at this time, and Bai Jing now strongly suspected that the mother of the boy in white had killed his biological mother, so it was impossible for Gu Shaoyang to tell him what happened in the past.

Therefore, Gu Shaoyang only has one candidate so far, that is - Little Brother Bai!

"Your mother is in good condition now and no one has hurt her, but if she has been detained by Bai Jing, there is no telling, so we must rescue her quickly."

Gu Shaoyang said very seriously, and the boy in white agreed with Gu Shaoyang's words with both hands and feet. After all, it was his mother who was imprisoned!

As a son, how could he let others hurt his mother? This is a very unfilial act!

So after listening to Gu Shaoyang's words, the boy in white prepared to discuss with Gu Shaoyang about the route to save his mother.

Because Gu Shaoyang had successfully entered and met his mother, the boy in white handed over the drawing of the map to Gu Shaoyang.

And Gu Shaoyang also did his part. After all, he was the only one who went to see the mother of the boy in white, and he was able to go in quietly and retreat without anyone knowing.

Gu Shaoyang is probably the only one who can do this.. So apart from him, no one dares to say that he is more familiar with the terrain.

Therefore, Gu Shaoyang quickly drew the blueprint of the terrain and gave it to the boy in white, but when the boy in white got the blueprint and wanted When discussing with Gu Shaoyang about rescuing his mother, Gu Shaoyang waved his hand and refused.

"No, now is not the best time, we can't act now, and after you rescue your mother, is it possible for her to escape with us?"

"We are often faced with swords and swords. Do you think your mother can handle it? If there is an accident, it will be fatal!"

Gu Shaoyang analyzed the pros and cons to the boy in white. After hearing this, the boy in white was silent for a while, and then he confirmed Gu Shaoyang's words and temporarily gave up the idea of saving his mother.

"So what should we do now? You can't just do nothing!"

Although the boy in white has given up the idea of saving his mother, it does not mean that he will always hide in the dark and be slaughtered by others.

At this time, he has come back, but the family is controlled by Bai Jing, and the boy in white cannot go back at all. , so he can only hide near the family and wait for the opportunity

"We definitely can't sit back and wait for death, and what we have to do now is to figure out the cause of this matter, just like catching the thief first, catch the king first"

"The reason why you are like this is because Bai Jing feels that your mother harmed his mother, so he wants to avenge his mother, but he suffers from the lack of evidence, so he has not taken action."

"And the reason why he hasn't taken action may be because your mother raised him and his own conscience can't bear it, so he will never act rashly before getting conclusive evidence."

"And if we can find the truth behind the death of Bai Jing's mother, then we can untie his knot, rescue your mother, and restore your family to its original state."

Gu Shaoyang made a series of analyses, and the boy in white nodded frequently in agreement.

"So what should we do now? I'm afraid many of those who were insiders were killed by people who wanted our brothers to turn against each other. Where should we start?"

Speaking of the investigation, the young man in white feels a little headache. After all, this happened more than ten years ago, not to mention that the older generation is still there. No matter how long the time has passed, no one can remember it. must

"I understand your concerns, but we have to find those people of the older generation no matter what, and it is not impossible that you are worried that they may have been brutally murdered."

"But don't forget, you were once one of the parties involved. Although you may have been young at the time, you can definitely still remember some scattered things, so you might as well think about what things were like back then."

Gu Shaoyang suddenly mentioned it, and the boy in white began to recall.

He was only five years old when Bai Jing's mother was still alive.

Chapter 1147

"Let's go, Aunt Lan happens to live very close to us."

When mentioning Aunt Lan, the young man in white immediately led the way and took Gu Shaoyang to find the witness.

Because Aunt Lan lived very close to them, they arrived at Aunt Lan's residence soon, and when they reached Aunt Lan's residence When they arrived at the place, they discovered that Aunt Lan's residence was very clean.

It didn't look like a place where a blind and deaf person lived. The surrounding area was clean as if someone was cleaning it every day. Just when the two of them were looking at each other in confusion, Aunt Lan appeared with a cane.

However, when Aunt Lan appeared, she was not alone. There was another person supporting Aunt Lan, and this person was not alone. He was not Aunt Lan's husband, but a maid.

Seeing this, Gu Shaoyang and the boy in white were even more certain that Aunt Lan must know something about what happened back then, otherwise how could Aunt Lan have someone to take care of her after she became blind and deaf.

Even if When Aunt Lan left their mother, the boy in white, the mother of the boy in white gave her a large sum of money, which allowed her to have no worries about food and clothing.

But it was definitely not going to allow Aunt Lan to continue living on the basis of not having to worry about food and clothing. Ask someone to take care of herself.

And Gu Shaoyang can see from looking at Aunt Lan's clothes that the clothes on Aunt Lan are not something ordinary people can wear. They look like high-quality silk.

So there must be something wrong with Aunt Lan. telltale secret

"Aunt Lan!"

The young man in white immediately stepped forward and held her hand after seeing Aunt Lan whom he was once familiar with. When the maids next to Aunt Lan reacted, the young man in white was already beside them. Beside Aunt Lan Because the maid was not strong enough, she could not release the boy in white from Aunt Lan's hand.

And after the boy in white grabbed Aunt Lan's hand, he thought he could know something from Aunt Lan, But he didn't expect that Aunt Lan would throw away his hand.

After Aunt Lan threw away the hand of the boy in white, the boy in white had a look of astonishment on his face.

When Gu Shaoyang saw his expression, he immediately stepped forward to catch him. Then he patted the boy in white on the shoulder.

"Aunt Lan can't hear your voice and can't see who you are."

After hearing Gu Shaoyang's reminder, the boy in white suddenly reacted. After reacting, when the boy in white stretched out his hand to hold Aunt Lan's hand again, he couldn't help but stop in mid-air.

And just as the boy in white reacted, when the young man was at a loss, Gu Shaoyang promptly reminded him in his ear.

"Is there any birthmark on your body that can be felt by touch, and is it known to Aunt Lan?"

Just when the young man in white was at a loss, Gu Shaoyang's timely reminder instantly made his eyes light up. The reason why Gu Shaoyang raised this opinion is because, for blind people and deaf people, their other perceptions are generally inferior. Others were more sensitive.

And he guessed that Aunt Lan would know and recognize it.

The boy in white quickly rolled up his sleeves after Gu Shaoyang's reminder, and then grabbed Aunt Lan's hand and wanted her to touch it.

But just when the boy in white suddenly grabbed her hand, the maid next to Aunt Lan began to protect Aunt Lan from letting the boy in white get closer. When Gu Shaoyang saw this, he had to step forward to help. So he directly lifted the maid away. Then she directly grabbed Aunt Lan's hand and placed it on the scar of the boy in white.

There was a long scar on the inner side of the boy in white's arm. It looked like it was an old thing, but Aunt Lan was touching it. The young man in white was still very resistant to the scar.

But after she touched it carefully, she recognized that the person who came was her little master. Aunt Lan no longer resisted, but hugged the young man in white, and tears flowed silently from the corners of her eyes. Tears.

The scar on the inner side of the hand of the boy in white was when he asked Aunt Lan to push the swing when he was a child. Aunt Lan accidentally used too much force to swing him off the swing and was scratched by a branch.

Aunt Lan has always loved him very much. Her little master, so after she accidentally hurt her little master, she felt very guilty.

After she made a mistake, she took care of him more carefully every day, and it was Aunt Lan who gave the medicine. She did it herself, so she knew the scars on the inner side of the boy in white very well.

The boy in white couldn't help but shed tears when he saw Aunt Lan, who used to play with her, become like this.

Just as their former master and servant hugged each other After that, the maid who had just been thrown out by Gu Shaoyang did not dare to say anything more. She just silently returned behind Aunt Lan and waited quietly.

Finally, after Aunt Lan cried for a while, the boy in white personally helped Lan Aunt Lan walked to the chair.

Originally Aunt Lan was unwilling to let the boy in white help her, because in her heart, the boy in white was still her little master, but in the end she couldn't resist the boy in white, so she could only let him help her sit down..

Chapter 1148

After the young man in white helped Aunt Lan sit down, Gu Shaoyang also sat directly aside, while the maid wisely went down to serve them tea.

The three of them sat on the chairs. Because Aunt Lan couldn't speak or read, the three of them just sat on the chairs and said nothing.

Seeing Aunt Lan like this, Gu Shaoyang and the boy in white were a little embarrassed, because they couldn't ask what they wanted to know because Aunt Lan was like this.

Just when Gu Shaoyang and the young man in white were in a dilemma, the maid came up with tea, and Gu Shaoyang quickly locked his eyes on the maid.

Because he found that this maid had not said a word since they came in, as if she was also mute, so Gu Shaoyang felt.

There should be some special way of communication between this maid and Aunt Lan, so he asked the maid

"How do you and Aunt Lan usually communicate?"

The young man in white clothes on the side heard the young man in white clothes suddenly mention the main person they were going to question today. I was a little surprised when I became a maid.

But soon he saw the maid's answer.

Although the maid didn't speak, she moved her hands. Looking at her movements, the boy in white understood that this was sign language, and the maid seemed to be unable to speak.

In the end, Gu Shaoyang found out after having a hand-to-hand conversation with the maid. Normally, she and Aunt Lan communicated with their hands.

Although Aunt Lan can't see, the maid can slowly demonstrate the movements to Aunt Lan, and then she can know what the maid said by touching it with her hands.

In the end, Aunt Lan would answer her. This is how two physically disabled people usually communicate.

Neither Gu Shaoyang nor the boy in white knew much about sign language, so it was very difficult to communicate with them. Fortunately, the maid's ears could hear.

So the maid could help them communicate with Aunt Lan, but when the boy in white asked the maid to ask about the old affairs between Bai Jing's mother and her mother, Aunt Lan suddenly stopped moving.

It looked like she didn't want to answer, but Aunt Lan couldn't force her without telling the boy in white and Gu Shaoyang, so she could only plead.

But Aunt Lan had a very firm attitude towards their pleading and was unwilling to say anything no matter what. Just when they were about to give up and prepare to come back next time.

After the young man in white asked the maid to convey the sudden words, Aunt Lan suddenly became anxious.

It turned out that the boy in white asked the maid to tell Aunt Lan that her mother had been arrested by Bai Jing, so Aunt Lan became anxious when she heard that something happened to the boy in white's mother.

When Gu Shaoyang saw Aunt Lan's reaction, he knew that the mother of the boy in white was a breakthrough, so he pursued the victory and asked the maid to help convey the message.

"Please tell Aunt Lan that the mother of the boy in white has been captured by Bai Jing and has been locked up, and Bai Jing also wants Bai Xiaodi's life."

In the end, as Gu Shaoyang expected, when Aunt Lan heard that the lives of her master and little master were threatened, she couldn't sit still.

Then she saw Aunt Lan gesticulating with her hands anxiously, and the maid saw After that, she didn't convey Aunt Lan's words. She just walked out of the door silently, and when she came in again, there was an extra box in the maid's hand. The maid also directly handed the box in her hand to the boy in white, Finally, he roughly translated it in sign language to the boy in white and Gu Shaoyang.

"There are things you want in this, there are secrets you want to know."

After finally taking the box from the maid's hand, Gu Shaoyang immediately cast a barrier around him.

Although the whereabouts of him and the boy in white were not exposed, and they observed that there was no one around when they came here, Gu Shaoyang wanted to The insurance still cast a barrier around it.

The young man in white also took the box from the maid's hand, and then opened the box carefully.

At this time, the young man in white was also very excited, because the maid inside was Bai Jing. He is also the truth that many people want to know.

At this moment, the truth is placed in front of him, so the young man in white is very expectant, nervous, and a little scared.

Although the young man in white has very complicated emotions at this time, He still opened the box, and after opening the box, what the young man in white saw was a lot of letters.

Finally, Gu Shaoyang and the young man in white opened the letters together, and it took the two of them some time to read all the letters.

When After the two of them read the letter, Gu Shaoyang's mood was still very calm, but the boy in white was different.

After reading the letter, he felt a little unbelievable, as if everything was a dream. At this moment, he finally understood, Why did her mother never tell this secret?

He finally understood why Aunt Lan suddenly became "sick" and became blind and deaf. It turned out that they wanted to protect her.

Chapter 1149

To protect this secret and protect the people they love.

The reason why Bai Jing's mother died was not because she was harmed, but because of Bai Jing.

Bai Jing has always thought that his mother was killed by someone else, and has always wanted to avenge his mother, but the truth is that he died because of Bai Jing.

The mother of the boy in white wasn't sure whether he could bear the truth, so she never dared to tell him. Moreover, there was an even more explosive secret, which was Bai Jing's life experience.

This secret is the most important reason why the mother of the boy in white would rather be misunderstood than explain, and why Aunt Lan became deaf and blind.

"Okay, we know the truth now it's time for us to act."

Gu Shaoyang has helped the boy in white get the truth, and time is waiting for no one now, so Gu Shaoyang and the others must act quickly.

And Aunt Lan also knew that the situation was critical at this time, so she did not keep Gu Shaoyang and the boy in white for a long time.

Just When the boy in white and Gu Shaoyang took the evidence and prepared to go back to the plan, another wave of people also found Aunt Lan's residence. After they went there, they threatened and lured Aunt Lan, hoping that Aunt Lan would tell them the truth.

But However, Aunt Lan stubbornly did not speak, and the maid was killed by the person who suddenly broke in, so Aunt Lan was the only one left in the house. The person who suddenly broke in saw the three teacups on the table and concluded that someone was coming. However, it was very likely that what they wanted had been taken away in advance, so they kidnapped Aunt Lan and took her away.

Although they did not get what they wanted, they guessed that Aunt Lan was a useful person. He was a human being, so he spared her life.

Aunt Lan was tied up and knocked unconscious by them, so she could only submit. Gu Shaoyang and the boy in white who had left on the other side were completely unaware of this.

Finally, Gu Shaoyang and the boy in white returned. After they found a temporary residence, they began to plan to tell Bai Jing this evidence, and they also wanted to tell it tactfully, not wanting to hurt him.

But after thinking about it, they couldn't think of a suitable way.

"I think we can tell him the truth about Bai Jing's mother's death first, and as for his life experience, we can take our time."

Right now, the mother of the boy in white is still in the hands of Bai Jing, so Gu Shaoyang suggested that the mother of the boy in white should be cleared of suspicion first, so that Bai Jing would not keep the mother of the boy in white.

And he himself might not be able to do it again. Regarding the young man in white, he only paid attention to his life experience, but Gu Shaoyang didn't know how to tell him.

After all, the truth was a bit cruel to Bai Jing, and his life experience may also be a very big blow to him, so he may need to slow down slow to accept

"Okay, then I will go find him with this tonight."

In the end, the boy in white and Gu Shaoyang discussed it and decided to do it according to his suggestion.

And time passed very quickly. It got dark soon, and the boy in white was already dressed and ready to rush towards the place where Bai Jing lived. Go.

But just when the boys in white were ready to leave, they heard someone on the street talking about the news that Aunt Lan had been kidnapped.

After hearing the news, the boys in white knew that Aunt Lan's life was definitely in danger. In order to protect Bai Jing's secret, Aunt Lan had chosen to become blind and deaf.

He could not let Aunt Lan be hurt again, or let her do anything to hurt him again, so the boy in white immediately turned around. , heading towards the place where Aunt Lan was imprisoned.

Gu Shaoyang had no idea what the boy in white did. If he knew, he would definitely let the boy in white tell Bai Jing the truth, and then he would go and save Aunt Lan.

But things But it was not as expected.

In the end, the boy in white came alone to the place where Aunt Lan was imprisoned, and the person who captured Aunt Lan seemed to have expected that someone would come to rescue Aunt Lan, so the guards were particularly tight.

In the house where Aunt Lan was imprisoned There are experts all around, inside and outside, and there are barriers.

With the strength of the boy in white, if he went in and out alone, he could barely escape, but he went in alone, and then he needed to take Aunt Lan with him. It would be a little difficult to come out.

The young man in white who had already arrived at the place where Aunt Lan was imprisoned was also a little impulsive at this time, so he didn't consider the consequences at all.

After he hid in the dark and observed the situation, he rushed in directly, and he was very careful when he rushed in, so he successfully avoided the guards, opened the barrier, and successfully came to Aunt Lan. Aunt Lan, who was locked in the room alone, heard someone's footsteps. After the sound, she immediately made a defensive posture.

It was not until her hand touched the scar on the hand of the boy in white that Aunt Lan relaxed her vigilance.

After Aunt Lan realized that the person who came was her little master, she understood that the boy in white wanted to get her out, but at the same time she understands.

Chapter 1150

If she really went out with the boy in white in her own situation, the final result would most likely be that neither of them could get out, so Aunt Lan rejected the boy in white's intention.

But the boy in white who had already come here to pick up Aunt Lan was unwilling to let go of Aunt Lan who had been struggling.

So in the end, the boy in white simply knocked Aunt Lan unconscious and took her away.

When they went out, everything went smoothly, but just when they were about to leave the last guard's patrol, a large net suddenly appeared in the sky.

The direction of the big net was really aimed at the direction of the boy in white and Aunt Lan. The boy in white tried to hold Aunt Lan to escape, but the big net seemed to have eyes.

No matter where the boy in white hides with Aunt Lan in his arms, it can find their location. The boy in white has also discovered this, but he is almost successful.

Therefore, he was still unwilling to let go of Aunt Lan's hand, so he could only try to get comfortable with the big net. While the boy in white was trying to get comfortable with the big net, the guards had also discovered that the person they were guarding was missing.

So they all followed the direction in which the boy in white was escaping. For a moment, the boy in white was attacked from both sides. He couldn't hide or run. Expert guards also gathered together, and he couldn't defeat them either.

Therefore, the situation of the boy in white became very critical, and Aunt Lan was carried on his body. Although she was knocked unconscious, she still woke up from his constant jolts.

"Walk! Go quickly!"

Although Aunt Lan couldn't see and couldn't speak when she woke up, her ears were very sensitive, so she kept pointing in the direction with her hands, trying to get the boy in white to leave.

But his stubbornness got the better of him. The guards refused to listen, and the guards were not polite to him when they saw the young man in white, and started to attack directly.

When the young man in white was fighting with them, he put Aunt Lan in an open place, and then pushed her hard. She pushed her away, wanting her to leave quickly.

Although the invisible Aunt Lan was pushed away by the boy in white, she walked very slowly due to physical limitations, and she didn't know the direction at all.

At this time, she wanted to find someone to help Aunt Lan was as difficult as finding a needle in a haystack.

But in the end, Aunt Lan was lucky and met Gu Shaoyang who was out looking for other evidence. After Gu Shaoyang saw Aunt Lan, he hurried forward.

And Aunt Lan. He also smelled the smell of Gu Shaoyang, so he kept pointing in one direction, very anxious.

Gu Shaoyang didn't quite understand what Aunt Lan meant at first, but soon he saw Aunt Lan's action - touching the inside of her arm.

This The boy in white had previously exposed the scars on his body in order to be recognized by Aunt Lan. Now Aunt Lan also did this action, so Gu Shaoyang guessed that the boy in white might have encountered danger.

And looking at Aunt Lan, he looked like this , it should be that the young man in white did this in order to save Aunt Lan.

After thinking of this, Gu Shaoyang directly put it into his space ring, and then he rushed in the direction of Aunt Lan's finger.

But Gu Shaoyang's heart has been Thinking about the boy in white, he felt comfortable very quickly, and he just wanted to rescue him quickly.

But in the end he was a step too late. When he arrived, there were only traces of a fight at the scene, and the rest of the fight There was nothing but some corpses.

In order to confirm whether the boy in white was still alive, Gu Shaoyang turned over all the corpses on the ground. When he saw clearly that there was no boy in white among the corpses, he felt a little relieved.

But he After just letting go of his heart, he thought that the recovery of the young man in white must have been exposed, and there was also the truth about the death of Bai Jing's mother in him.

Now that he has been captured, his life or death is uncertain, and the situation is very critical.

After realizing this situation, Gu Shaoyang hurried towards the place where the boy in white's mother was being held.

Because he didn't know where the boy in white was taken, and he guessed that the person who took the boy in white was not Bai Jing's. There may be someone who is instigating Bai Jing behind his back.

So what Gu Shaoyang can do now is to go to the mother of the boy in white and ask her if she knows who is instigating Bai Jing.

Even if the mother of the boy in white doesn't know, then she doesn't know. You can go to Bai Jing and tell him the truth, and then Bai Jing will find a way to kill the boy in white.

Thinking like this, Gu Shaoyang soon came to the place where the mother of the boy in white was imprisoned.

And this time Gu Shaoyang's journey was smooth. Entering, this time the mother of the boy in white was obviously not as surprised as last time when she saw Gu Shaoyang.

This time she was also very concerned about her son, but when the mother of the boy in white spoke, Gu Shaoyang directly told her that the boy in white had been Things that were taken away.

When she learned about this, the mother of the boy in white still didn't believe it until...
