Chapter 1151

It wasn't until Gu Shaoyang took Aunt Lan out of his space ring that the mother of the boy in white believed what Gu Shaoyang said.

The mother of the boy in white couldn't help but shed tears after seeing her former personal maid, Aunt Lan, and so did Aunt Lan. But this time is not the time for them to reminisce about the past. At this time, the boy in white was kidnapped. The person behind the scenes was not Bai Jing, so Gu Shaoyang needed someone from them.

Or they can tell Bai Jing the truth themselves, and then Gu Shaoyang can save the boy in white.

Otherwise, if it is too late and something happens to the boy in white, his mother and Aunt Lan will regret it.

"I'll go find Jing'er right away!"

In the end, the mother of the boy in white finally relented, and after she decided, she immediately pressed a switch on her bed.

The moment she pressed the switch, Bai Jing walked into her room.

When Bai Jing entered In the room of the mother of the boy in white, when he saw the two people standing in the room, he immediately frowned and his body couldn't help but make a defensive posture towards Gu Shaoyang.

"Jing'er, your brother was arrested, didn't you promise me you wouldn't hurt him?"

When Bai Jing entered the room, the mother of the boy in white immediately questioned Bai Jing. After he heard that the boy in white had been arrested, he was stunned and confused.

Gu Shaoyang carefully studied Bai Jing's expression and determined that he I really don't know

"It's not the person you captured, but you should be who did it. You have always wanted the truth before, now let them tell you."

Gu Shaoyang pushed the mother and Aunt Lan of the boy in white. Aunt Lan, who could not speak and could not see, suddenly took out a medicine from her arms and put it into her mouth.

Soon the medicine took effect, and Lan Aunt Lan's throat, which had been hoarse for a long time, finally made a sound.

Because she had not spoken for many years, it was very difficult for Aunt Lan to speak. When the mother of the boy in white saw this, she patted Aunt Lan's hand, and then she took the initiative to speak.

"Haven't you always been very curious and wanted to know how your mother died? I'll tell you now."

The mother of the boy in white moved her throat up and down, and soon opened her mouth. When her lips opened and closed to tell Bai Jing the truth about that year, his face immediately turned pale.

And Bai Jing changed from the boy in white to After her mother learned about what happened back then, she kept shaking her head, as if it was difficult to accept it.

Aunt Lan saw it from the side and continued to elaborate on what happened back then, but both of them avoided talking about it. So far, they don't want him to know about Bai Jing's life experience. More directly, they don't want to hurt Bai Jing.

Even now, they feel that telling Bai Jing the truth about his mother's death is too cruel for him. But things have come to this, and they can't keep this secret forever.

And now it's to save the boy in white, their other child, so they have to tell it.

"I know it's hard for you to believe it, but that's the fact. The evidence is all in the boy in white. If you don't believe it, you can go and see it."

"But now we don't know where he was taken, and you should be the only one who knows about it now."

Gu Shaoyang stared straight at Bai Jing, wanting him to answer quickly, but Bai Jing seemed to have blocked everyone, saying nothing and looking very dazed.

And looking at him so lost, The mother of the boy in white immediately stepped forward and hugged him, patting his back gently.

When Bai Jing was held by the mother of the boy in white, he could no longer hold back his tears. It flowed downwards, and not long after, he knelt down and kowtowed to the mother of the young man in white.

Then he immediately turned and left, his back very decisive. When Gu Shaoyang saw this, he quickly followed. After all, with Bai Jing's strength, he wanted to deal with Others may have some difficulties. When it comes to fighting, it has to be Gu Shaoyang.

Following Bai Jing, Gu Shaoyang soon arrived at the former prince's mansion.

After arriving here, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but think of Bai Jing's life experience. But he didn't say anything, just followed quietly.

Soon, following Bai Jing, he entered a secret room, and in the secret room, Gu Shaoyang soon saw the young man in white who was captured.

However , At this time, the boy in white was dying, and the white clothes on his body were dyed red with blood.

He fell to the ground and breathed weakly, as if he would die in the next second.

The look of the boy in white was attracted by Bai Jing. After seeing it, he felt very distressed, and before Gu Shaoyang started to take action, he took the first step to take out the wound healing medicine from his arms and fed it into his mouth. Perhaps it was because Bai Jing's wound medicine was very effective, so the boy in white's The bleeding stopped quickly, and he was able to open his eyes reluctantly.

But the young man in white who opened his eyes did not expect that what he saw when he opened his eyes was Bai Jing.

Chapter 1152

When he realized that the person holding him and giving him medicine was his eldest brother, the boy in white immediately shed tears and yelled "big brother" very hard.

At this time, Bai Jing already knew the truth, and he now also understood that the reason why the boy in white was behaving like this was because of his obsession and because he credulously believed in the instigation of others.

That's why the younger brother who grew up with him and the mother who raised him are treated so wrongly.

Bai Jing felt unspeakably uncomfortable when he thought that all this was because of himself. When the boy in white called him eldest brother, he only felt ashamed.

Facing the face of the young man in white, he couldn't help but turn aside. He didn't dare or feel embarrassed to look at the face of the young man in white, let alone the blood seeping out of the wounds all over his body.

Especially the white clothes of the boy in white turned into red clothes, which was particularly eye-catching and made people feel heart-stopping!

When the bleeding of the young man in white stopped, Gu Shaoyang stood by and wanted to take him away quickly. After all, now that Bai Jing came to save the young man in white, the real people behind the scenes must have known the news.

I'm afraid they have already sent people here, so they must leave before they arrive, otherwise there will be another bloody fight.

Thinking of this, Gu Shaoyang quickly stepped forward and took the boy in white from Bai Jing's hand. , and gently transferred him to the space ring.

So far, only Gu Shaoyang's space ring is slightly safer, and every time a person is put in and taken out, it will be particularly taxing for Gu Shaoyang.

Moreover, he has taken it twice in the recent period. For him, half of his internal strength has been consumed, so he can no longer withstand a fierce battle.

Although Bai Jing is with Gu Shaoyang, his strength is not as good as the boy in white, so he is also a burden to Gu Shaoyang.

But despite this, Gu Shaoyang still did not take him into the space ring. After all, he was also a capable person and could help him share some of the burden.

Just as Gu Shaoyang led the boy in white to retreat outside, just as Gu Shaoyang expected, people soon came outside and blocked their way.

When Bai Jing saw this, he immediately wanted to order them to get out of the way, but none of those people listened to him. They all stood still and even fought against each other.

When he saw this situation, Bai Jing naturally understood everything, but Gu Shaoyang had already expected it, so he faced it very calmly.

Soon he moved forward to fight the people blocking their way, because he had to deal with it as soon as possible, otherwise their reinforcements would arrive the longer it took.

By then, both he and Bai Jing's physical strength must have been almost exhausted, and they would not be able to withstand another torment.

"Quick victory!" Bai Jing suddenly realized that his IQ was already online at this moment. He said loudly to Gu Shaoyang and then joined the battle.

Although his strength was not as good as Gu Shaoyang, he surpassed him in terms of prestige. After all, Bai Jingzhi He had been commanding them all the time, so when fighting with them, those people did not dare to kill Bai Jing.

Because of this, Bai Jing was able to handle all the people around him one by one.

Very quickly. Soon he and Gu Shaoyang fought their way out, and Bai Jing knew that those people still cared about his prestige, so they didn't dare to take action, so Bai Jing let Gu Shaoyang go first, and he would break up the rear. After Gu Shaoyang left quickly, Bai Jing hurriedly followed, and the two of them finally escaped after a fierce fight.

After the two of them escaped, they rushed to where the mother of the boy in white was.

Because now Bai Jing had woken up. , then the safety of the mother of the boy in white would definitely be affected, so Bai Jing and the others had to rush over to protect them.

Finally, when Gu Shaoyang and Bai Jing rushed to the mother of the boy in white, the people behind them immediately caught up. And this time the person who came forward was also someone who confused Bai Jing.

This person was the head of the state of Bai Kingdom and the prime minister of Bai Kingdom. His daughter was once the concubine of the king of Bai Kingdom, just like the boy in white and Bai Jing's mother. The three concubines were all pregnant at the same time. The prime minister's daughter was jealous and thought that the child she gave birth to was the first child of the Bai Kingdom, so she wanted to give it to Bai Jing's mother and Bai Yi. The boy's mother drugged her.

But she shot herself in the foot without thinking. Both Bai Jing's mother and the boy's mother were fine. Only the prime minister's daughter had lost her baby.

And the king of Bai Kingdom couldn't bear to see this the most. He wanted to harm the child, so he sent someone to conduct a thorough investigation, and the result was that the prime minister's daughter was found.

The king was also very angry, so in the last few days he demoted the prime minister's daughter to the rank of concubine, which also suppressed the prime minister's arrogance.

As a result In the end, the prime minister's daughter was treated harshly in the palace and died in depression.

Chapter 1153

After the prime minister learned the news that his daughter died in depression in the palace, he felt very sad and stayed home sick for several days.

The King of Bai Kingdom knew that the prime minister always had children, and he only had one daughter, so he didn't care about the prime minister not coming to attend court normally. In the end, he waited until the prime minister had cultivated himself before coming to court.

Since the death of the prime minister's daughter, he seemed to have changed. He was often alone in a daze, as if he was crazy. When the king of Bai Kingdom saw him like this, he made an exception and allowed him to retire early and go home to recuperate.

Although there were many objections in the court, the king of Bai Kingdom still avoided a lot of trouble and allowed the prime minister to cultivate in advance.

However, after the prime minister went home early to recuperate, King Bai's health became worse day by day, and troubles in King Bai's harem also continued.

Bai Jing and the boy in white were the only heirs of King Bai. But one day, Bai Jing's mother suddenly passed away mysteriously, leaving only Bai Jing alone.

And Bai Jing was taken into the palace to take care of the boy in white by his mother. He had been with the boy in white since he was a child, and the relationship between the two brothers was very deep.

It wasn't until Bai Jing met the prime minister that a seed of doubt was planted in his heart, which led to today's situation

"It's you! It was you who misled me!"

Bai Jing pointed at the prime minister, his mouth full of accusations, but he couldn't figure out one thing, which was why the prime minister only kept him after he designed his mother to die to save him.

This The problem is that Bai Jing always feels that there must be some secret behind it, and this secret is very likely to be known to the mother of the boy in white who raised him.

But they are hiding it from him. It seems that the truth behind the secret is him, or the world.
unbearable

"It's not that I misled you, but that you were already suspicious in your heart, but my reminder made you even more suspicious, and you even wanted to take action."

The prime minister stared at Bai Jing viciously and said, as if he was going to eat him.

The mother of the boy in white who was protecting the calf had always regarded Bai Jing as her own son, so when she saw the prime minister looking at him After Bai Jing looked good, he subconsciously pulled him to protect him.

Such a scene suddenly reminded Bai Jing of the time he was bullied when he was a child. His mother was no longer around at that time, and he was bullied. It was the mother of the boy in white who was protecting him.

But the difference from before is that when Bai Jing grew up, the body of the boy in white's mother could no longer block Bai Jing, so Bai Jing stood behind the mother of the boy in white. It was very unexpected.

And Bai Jing felt that he was being cared for. Thinking about what he had done, he only felt that he was an out-and-out bastard.

"Mother concubine! I was wrong!"The moment the mother of the boy in white was protecting Bai Jing behind him, Bai Jing suddenly knelt down and hugged the mother's legs to admit his mistake. The prime minister felt his eyes sting when he saw the deep love between mother and son..

If his daughter was still alive, if the child in his daughter's belly had not been aborted, she would be as old as Bai Jing and the boy in white now.

His daughter has a child, although she is not favored by the king of Bai Kingdom. , but it can be regarded as a support, but now everything is not as expected!

"Now that I know I was wrong, I'm afraid it's too late! When I take the throne tomorrow, you will all die now! The White Kingdom will also fall into my hands!"

Suddenly the prime minister's eyes became scarlet and his mood became more and more agitated. Bai Jing was also supported by the mother of the boy in white, and Aunt Lan was supported by Gu Shaoyang. The four of them were soon surrounded by the people brought by the prime minister. , the narrow room was full of people, and there was no way to use their skills. Even the roof of the house was full of people. When they noticed this scene, Gu Shaoyang and Bai Jing were very nervous.

And just when they were surrounded When he kept retreating, the young man in white who was in Gu Shaoyang's space ring suddenly called out.

It turned out that the young man in white who was put into the space ring by Gu Shaoyang woke up after hearing the sound outside, and he also realized that he was outside The situation was very critical.

So he quickly called Gu Shaoyang, because he also had an army in his hands, and it was nearby. As long as he gave an order, they could rush over to help.

"Brother Gu, if you find a way to sound the signal flare on the roof, someone will come to help you. My family is begging you!"

Gu Shaoyang's consciousness entered the space ring and got the flare given to him by the boy in white. The boy in white fainted again after explaining the matter.

In the end, Gu Shaoyang could only secretly hide the flare in his hand, and then kept using his eyes Looking for a breakthrough from the corner of his eye, the only one who can save them now is the army left by the boy in white outside.

"Can you lead these people over there?"

Chapter 1154

Gu Shaoyang felt a little headache looking at so many people in front of him. If he broke out alone and wanted to release the signal bomb, the chance of success was slim.

However, if there is one person who can attract most of their attention and then break out by himself, then the chance of success will be greater.

In this way, the four of them will have a greater chance of life, and the prime minister will not be able to disrupt the enthronement tomorrow.

After Bai Jing heard Gu Shaoyang asking him about things and looked at the surrounding situation, he finally nodded with certainty.

Although his strength is not good, he still has a body that can fight with them.

"What a prime minister! How dare you lie to me! You hurt the people closest to me! You actually want our lives! Could it be that you want to ascend the throne yourself?"

I saw Bai Jing accusing the prime minister, and because his voice was deliberately loud, many people's eyes were attracted to him, and Bai Jing caught a glimpse of many people looking at him from the corner of his eye. He even directly He rushed towards the prime minister's position and raised a long sword in his hand. He looked very decisive, as if he was preparing to die with him.

And the prime minister seemed not to have expected that in this situation, Bai Jing would choose to follow him. To be honest, this is undoubtedly sending death.

So for a while, the prime minister had to keep retreating, just to take more of the sword in Bai Jing's hand.

When the people around the prime minister saw this, they immediately stepped forward to protect the prime minister, and some stepped forward At this time, there was a position where he could escape, and Gu Shaoyang also took advantage of every opportunity and quickly ran out.

Because his speed was very fast, everyone was caught off guard, so Gu Shaoyang had already logged in. When they reached the top, the others caught up.

But when they caught up, Gu Shaoyang had already fired the signal bomb in his hand, and soon the signal bomb made a loud noise in the air. The prime minister and others also heard the sound. At this time The prime minister knew that they had successfully called for help, and his people had to deal with them quickly.

Otherwise, when their help came, his great cause would not be completed.

"Quick victory. Don't let anyone go!"

With the Prime Minister's order, the Prime Minister's people immediately swarmed over, knowing that Gu Shaoyang, Bai Jing, and Aunt Lan's own mother of the boy in white were taking action.

Gu Shaoyang stood on the roof and soon jumped to Lan Lan. The aunt and the mother of the boy in white were protecting them.

Bai Jing fought with the people around him, while the prime minister evacuated the room under the protection of everyone and stood outside the door waiting.

As time passed by, The loud noise of the signal bomb in the air has also stopped, and the people arranged by the boy in white finally came to help. In the room at this time, Bai Jing and Gu Shaoyang could no longer support their physical strength, but fortunately they finally Reinforcements are waiting for them

"You go first! Let's break it up!"

The reinforcements came to Gu Shaoyang and Bai Jing and shouted loudly, wanting them to leave quickly, but Gu Shaoyang pushed Bai Jing hard, and then pushed Aunt Lan and the mother of the boy in white. In the end, he He joined the battle again, but when he went back to fight again, Gu Shaoyang took a snowworm from his space ring and threw it into his mouth to chew.

Because now his physical strength was so exhausted that he felt like he was going to It was as if he fainted at any time.

But he also saw that although the boy in white had left an army nearby, their strength was comparable to that of the people brought by the prime minister, but the prime minister was better in numbers.

So if it continues like this If they do, then they will definitely lose, so in order to avoid such a situation, Gu Shaoyang cannot leave.

After eating snowworms, his physical strength can be restored quickly, and the same is true for his spiritual power. And his cultivation strength is with them above, so it seemed easier to fight with them.

Soon Gu Shaoyang eliminated the prime minister's people, and the people arranged by Bai Jing and the boy in white fled quickly with Aunt Lan and the boy in white's mother.

But behind them, the Prime Minister's people were still chasing them.

But the Prime Minister still stood outside the door and never left. When Gu Shaoyang finished finishing all the people in the room and walked out of the room, the Prime Minister had a look on his face. Yes

"You...you...how are you!" Seeing Gu Shaoyang come out of the room, and there was no one following him, the Prime Minister's jaw dropped to the ground in surprise.

Only then did he remember to run away quickly, but it was already too late.

Only Seeing the prime minister pushing the last person who surrounded him to protect him, he turned around and wanted to escape, but Gu Shaoyang jumped directly in front of him and blocked his way.

After Gu Shaoyang raised his hand In the meantime, the doors in the entire house were closed tightly, and now only the prime minister, the prime minister's people, and Gu Shaoyang were left.

And the results were very obvious and self-evident.

Chapter 1155

The Prime Minister was obviously no match for Gu Shaoyang, and he could not escape at all. As for the remaining subordinates of the Prime Minister, after seeing Gu Shaoyang's strength, they did not dare to approach him easily, for fear that they would be the ones to lose their lives in the next second.

"Don't come over? How much money Bai Jing gave you, I will give you double! And I can promise you anything in the White Kingdom!"

The prime minister became more and more nervous as he watched Gu Shaoyang approaching him step by step. He was forced back by Gu Shaoyang.

Gu Shaoyang didn't take the prime minister's conditions seriously at all, and the prime minister saw that he was unmoved. He thought the conditions were not attractive enough, so he kept giving Gu Shaoyang more chips.

"If you want money! status! Beauty! I can give you all of these. As long as you let me go today, then I can satisfy you! And I can also give you the right. When the time comes, you will be the best in this Bai country! Outnumbered by thousands of people!"

The prime minister huddled behind his men and said to Gu Shaoyang, but Gu Shaoyang still didn't say anything about this, and the expression on his face didn't change at all.

When the prime minister saw him like this, his heart couldn't help but raise his throat, and he He must pay attention and turned around in his eye sockets. Finally, he suddenly thought of something and looked at Gu Shaoyang in surprise.

"Is it possible? You also want the position of King of White Kingdom!"

The prime minister looked at Gu Shaoyang as if he already understood everything, but Gu Shaoyang still didn't express anything after hearing the prime minister's words, which made the prime minister full of doubts.

"Just tell me what you want!"

The Prime Minister became more and more anxious about the silent Gu Shaoyang, and he just wanted to leave here quickly, but Gu Shaoyang did not intend to let him go.

"I want your life!"

Just after Gu Shaoyang got closer and closer to the prime minister, Gu Shaoyang immediately stepped forward and grabbed the prime minister's neck, and then several people surrounding the prime minister fell to the ground with a gentle wave of his hand by Gu Shaoyang..

In this way, no one around the prime minister was left dead, and the only ones who escaped were those who chased Bai Jing and Aunt Lan's mother, the boy in white. At this moment, Gu Shaoyang, after he caught the prime minister, he He did not rush to kill the prime minister, but directly knocked him out, then carried him on his body, looking for Bai Jing through traces on the road.

Finally, Gu Shaoyang finally found the cloth of the mother's clothes of the boy in white on a cliff. However, he did not find Bai Jing and others nearby.

"Bai Jing! Mrs. Bai! Aunt Lan!"

Gu Shaoyang walked to the top of the cliff and looked at the depth of the cliff. It turned out that it was bottomless. When he saw this, Gu Shaoyang felt a little worried.

He had been busy cleaning up the prime minister before, and Bai Jing took Aunt Lan and The mother of the boy in white left. Gu Shaoyang had attracted most of the people and bought them time.

But now the result he saw and what he could guess might be a little bad.

So at this time, Gu Shaoyang He felt a little guilty because he didn't take good care of the boy in white's mother and his family. He also didn't arrive in time when the boy in white was fighting with others, causing him to be so seriously injured that he is still unconscious. The young man still wanted to give him the treasure he wanted.

This made Gu Shaoyang feel very guilty.

But just when Gu Shaoyang was preparing for the worst and was about to leave this cliff, a weak voice suddenly stopped him. Got him

"Brother Gu!"

When he first heard the sound, Gu Shaoyang thought it was the young man in white clothes inside the space ring calling him, but when his consciousness went inside the space ring, he found that the young man in white clothes lying in the space ring was still in a coma.

So the person calling him now is definitely not the boy in white, and besides Bai Jing, the person who would call him other than the boy in white could not think of another person.

So after guessing, Gu Shaoyang walked around and shouted loudly With:"Bai Jing! is it you! Where are you?"

After Gu Shaoyang finally fell asleep and called loudly, the weak voice just now came again.

"it's me! We are here!"

Soon Gu Shaoyang searched for the location of the weak voice. Finally, Gu Shaoyang finally found Bai Jing, the unconscious Aunt Lan and the mother of the boy in white in a cave under the cliff.

Although Bai Jing did not faint, But there are also large and small scars on his body, and blood is constantly flowing, just like a faucet that has not been turned off.

"Don't talk yet, I'll give you medicine!"

After Gu Shaoyang roughly checked the bodies of Aunt Lan and the mother of the boy in white, and determined that there was nothing wrong with them, he immediately treated Bai Jing.

And Gu Shaoyang was not stingy when treating Bai Jing, using some of his own precious elixirs He used all the medicine on Bai Jing's body, and Bai Jing had the dual effects of external application and internal administration.

Chapter 1156

His bleeding stopped in time, and because Gu Shaoyang applied the elixir on him to accelerate wound healing, Bai Jing's wound quickly healed at the speed of the naked eye, and the pain on his body also eased.

"There must be nothing going on between Aunt Lan and my mother-in-law."

After Bai Jing recovered a lot, he immediately began to care about Aunt Lan and the mother of the boy in white, and Gu Shaoyang checked them carefully. The two of them were not injured at all. The reason why they are unconscious now should be because of them They had been running around non-stop today, and they may have never experienced such a threat.

So now their mental and physical strength could not support it. In addition, they were surprised by jumping off the cliff, so they couldn't bear it for a while and fainted.

However, Aunt Lan and the boy in white's mother are just minor problems. They only need to have a good sleep and then take good care of their bodies to recover from exhaustion.

But Bai Jing and the boy in white are not like this.

When thinking about Bai Jinghe When the young man in white clothes was still young, Gu Shaoyang used his mind to bring the young man in white clothes out of his space ring. After he brought the young man in white clothes out of his space ring, he also consumed a lot of his own internal energy in an instant, but he was After bringing the young man in white out, he did not rush to restore his internal strength, but hurriedly treated the young man in white. Soon Gu Shaoyang took off the white clothes of the young man in white that were stained red with blood, and then He quickly took out the wound medicine from the space ring and gave it to him.

But because the boy in white had missed the best time for treatment, after Gu Shaoyang gave him one treatment, the boy in white was still in a coma.

Moreover, his breathing was still very tight. He was so weak, as if he would die in the next second, and seeing the young man in white looking like this, Bai Jing felt very uncomfortable.

"When will he probably wake up?"

Bai Jing sat next to the boy in white and looked at Gu Shaoyang blankly and asked, and Gu Shaoyang didn't say hello to the question raised by Bai Jing.

However, although the wounds on the boy in white were not fatal, they were bleeding. Therefore, the boy in white had lost too much blood at this moment. Even though Bai Jing had given him medicine to stop the bleeding, his body's functions still couldn't keep up. The face of the boy in white who had lost too much blood also turned pale, which was obvious at a glance. he is not healthy

"Wait, it might be today, it might be tomorrow, it might be months, years, or even forever....."

Gu Shaoyang stared at the white-washed face of the boy in white, and his voice became softer and softer. He himself was unwilling to face it.

After Bai Jing heard Gu Shaoyang's answer, he was even more stunned. He had never expected that the result would be like this.

Originally, he thought that although the boy in white was seriously injured, he would be able to recover within a period of time, but he did not expect that it would be very difficult for him to wake up now.

"Is there any way to help him wake up? If you tell me directly, I will find a way to do it."

In order to increase the hope of the boy in white, Bai Jing asked Gu Shaoyang very sincerely, but Gu Shaoyang just shook his head lightly after hearing his words.

"Nothing, no object, can help him. The only thing he can rely on now is his own belief and the encouragement given to him by the people he cares about most."

"Now these are the most precious things to him, the most useful magic medicine."

Gu Shaoyang looked at Bai Jing, and then at the mother and Aunt Lan of the boy in white who were still in a coma. It was almost dawn now, and the enthronement ceremony of Bai Kingdom was about to begin, but Bai Jing's injury was not suitable now. Move, the boy in white is in a coma, and the boy in white's mother is also in a coma. It is impossible for them to attend the enthronement ceremony in this situation, but without them, it is very likely that they will be rebelled, and then their country will be will be chaos

"Brother Gu, can I ask you a favor?"

Just when Gu Shaoyang stood aside and worried about them, the only sober Bai Jing suddenly struggled to his feet, and then knelt down to Gu Shaoyang in an upright manner to plead.

Bai Jing's actions were completely unexpected by Gu Shaoyang, so when he knelt down After falling down, Gu Shaoyang immediately wanted to help him up, but Bai Jing refused Gu Shaoyang's help.

And he persistently wanted Gu Shaoyang to agree to him, but in this situation, Gu Shaoyang was worried that he would want him to be the king of Bai Kingdom. , so let Bai Jing state his request first, and then Gu Shaoyang make the decision.

"Brother Gu, please pretend to be my younger brother to complete the enthronement ceremony! As for explaining things to the court ministers at that time, you can just show the evidence."

Bai Jing said very sincerely, and the throne he had planned for so long has now given up.

But Gu Shaoyang is not surprised, it's just...

Chapter 1157

"Are you sure that Little Brother Bai wants to be the king?"

Gu Shaoyang looked at the boy in white who was still unconscious lying on the ground, thinking about the days when he and he had been together in the inn.

In his opinion, the boy in white might not want to be a king, he was just a kind-hearted person who wanted to be a king. He is just an ordinary person with a noble status who lives with his family.

Now he is pushed to the throne without knowing his wishes. Will he be willing when he wakes up?

"I understand your concerns, Brother Gu, but the happiness of us royals and ordinary people does not exist for us. Because we cannot be happy for ourselves without caring about our subjects"

"In the past, because of my selfish desires, I provoked wars and caused turmoil in the court, but now the truth is revealed, and my father's will was to make my brother the king, so he deserves this position and cannot shirk it."

Bai Jing explained to Gu Shaoyang, and after listening to his words, Gu Shaoyang couldn't say anything to refuse, so he could only nod his head and agree.

"Okay, I know what to do."

After agreeing to Bai Jing, Gu Shaoyang set off towards the place where the enthronement ceremony of the Bai Kingdom was held, and he changed his clothes and appearance on the way.

Not long after, when he felt the place of the enthronement ceremony, he had already changed. He became a person and became the young man in white who was still in a coma.

And in order to allow the young man in white to cope better, Gu Shaoyang also created some wounds on his body.

In this way, when the young man in white came to the throne, he would be able to deal with it better. If someone else gives him the medicine, he won't be suspected.

Just when Gu Shaoyang dressed up as a young man in white and rushed to the enthronement ceremony, when he was walking on the red carpet and was about to ascend to the throne, many people suddenly appeared. People surrounded him and blocked his way.

And these people surrounding Gu Shaoyang should be the remnants of the prime minister's accomplices. The prime minister died suddenly yesterday, and the news may not have spread yet, so now the prime minister's accomplices are seeing the person coming. The boy in white, not Bai Jingshi, immediately stopped him.

"You are wanted, it should be the eldest prince who comes, why you!"

The people who stopped Gu Shaoyang led troops to stop him, and even approached step by step, but Gu Shaoyang just stood there and did not give in at all.

Just when the remaining prime minister approached Gu Shaoyang step by step, thinking that he could get close to Gu Shaoyang and catch him, He suddenly couldn't move.

Not only him, but also those who surrounded Gu Shaoyang, they found that they seemed to be recognized at this moment.

But now here, their people have controlled everyone present, So who is so capable of doing this kind of thing?

Could it be the "little prince"? Impossible! Impossible! His cultivation has definitely not recovered yet! And even if he recovers, he is not that big. What is possible!

The leader silently speculated in his heart, while the other ministers under his control gathered in a group and stayed away from the remnants after discovering that the rebellious ministers were unable to move.

And after Gu Shaoyang saw that the ministers were safe, With just one backhand, he grabbed the remnant in front of him and threw it aside.

When the remnant staggered to the ground, a righteous person immediately controlled him, and Gu Shaoyang could pretend to be a young man in white. In the end, as Gu Shaoyang walked towards the throne step by step, the people behind him also knelt down towards him, just waiting for him to sit on the throne and worship.

Gu Shaoyang quickly walked to the throne, and then He sat on the throne and accepted the worship of the courtiers.

But in fact, Gu Shaoyang did not really sit down, but kept a little distance from the throne, because he did not want to really come into contact with these matters of power and profit.

He did not want to sit down. The position that originally belonged to the young man in white, he wanted to leave the throne to him and let him sit in it himself

"See the king, may he be blessed with good fortune and good health!"

In the end, with the last bows from the courtiers and Gu Shaoyang's shouts, the enthronement ceremony was finally completed.

After the ceremony, as soon as Gu Shaoyang returned to the palace, an imperial doctor immediately came to treat him, because Gu Shaoyang had... Very obvious scars.

But when the doctor came, Gu Shaoyang directly refused treatment because he was not a young man in white. He was just pretending, so he was not the one who was sick.

"Okay, you go down first. I have just succeeded to the throne. You can come back after I finish handling the matter."

Soon Gu Shaoyang drove all the imperial doctors away, and then asked people to announce his will

"Announcement! The former prime minister conspired to murder his concubines! Conspiracy to kill the emperor's heir! Instigate relations with the Wang family! Inspiring courtiers with evil intentions! Specially destroy the nine tribes! Those who colluded with the prime minister were all demoted to common people and served as slaves!"

Soon, the decree conveyed by Gu Shaoyang on behalf of the boy in white was issued, and the subjects also agreed.

Chapter 1158

When Gu Shaoyang announced something he knew, he locked himself in the room, excused himself to rest, and then rushed to the cave where the boy in white and others were.

Because Gu Shaoyang was very fast, he arrived at his destination in a short time. After arriving, Gu Shaoyang checked the body of the boy in white's mother and Aunt Lan.

Bai Jing's body has obviously improved a lot after he took the pill given to him by Gu Shaoyang, and now he can get up and move on his own.

Aunt Lan and the mother of the boy in white have also woken up from their coma, and there is nothing wrong with their bodies. They just need to rest for a few days.

The only serious condition was the injury of the boy in white.

Although Gu Shaoyang had given him the best elixir, the boy in white was still in a coma, so Gu Shaoyang could not guarantee what his condition was.

Moreover, if the boy in white doesn't wake up, he won't get what he wants. And if Gu Shaoyang doesn't get what he wants, he will naturally not leave.

"How is my son? Please, save him!"

On the other side, since the mother of the boy in white woke up, she has been begging Gu Shaoyang to save her son, but Gu Shaoyang doesn't want him to wake up quickly.

He has already done everything Gu Shaoyang should do and can do. All that's left is to see the boy in white himself.

"Madam, just wait for the opportunity."

Gu Shaoyang said calmly, and then stayed beside the boy in white. Aunt Lan and the boy in white's mother heard that his answer was always the same, and they stopped asking too much.

They were just like Gu Shaoyang, quietly guarding the young man in white.

And Bai Jing saw that everyone was guarding his younger brother, and he only felt guilty in his heart. So when Gu Shaoyang and Aunt Lan's own mother of the young man in white were guarding his side, Bai Jing walked out of the cave silently and wandered aimlessly in the forest alone.

Gu Shaoyang soon discovered that Bai Jing was missing, so he got up to look for it. Firstly, it was because there were some interesting things in the forest. He is a spiritual animal. He is afraid that Bai Jing will be injured if he encounters someone with a disparity in strength. Secondly, he is worried that there are remnants of the prime minister around who will harm him. Thirdly, he is very sure that Bai Jing blames himself in his heart and needs enlightenment.

In addition, Now that the boy in white was unconscious, he must have felt even more uncomfortable, so he took the initiative to follow him and talk to Bai Jing, hoping to make him feel a little better. After a while, Gu Shaoyang walked out of the cave, inside Only Aunt Lan and the mother of the boy in white were left guarding him. After leaving the cave, Gu Shaoyang followed the breath left by Bai Jing.

After a while, he found the general direction of Bai Jing's location, and then Gu Shaoyang headed towards Moving in that direction, he finally saw Bai Jing on the branches of a big tree. At this moment, he was sitting on the branches of a big tree, looking into the distance alone in a daze, his expression a little sad, and because he was too focused, So he didn't notice anyone approaching him.

It wasn't until Gu Shaoyang came to him and patted his shoulder gently that Bai Jing suddenly woke up, and then his body took a defensive posture.

But because he was sitting at the moment On the branches of the big tree, so when he turned around and subconsciously wanted to step on the ground, he inevitably fell directly.

Just when he was about to fall from the uncle's branches, Gu Shaoyang caught him in time He then lifted him up by his collar and made him sit on the branches of the big tree again.

And Gu Shaoyang only dared to let go after making sure that he was really sitting firmly. At this time, Bai Jing also noticed the person approaching him. It was Gu Shaoyang, not a dangerous person, so he relaxed

"Brother Gu, why did you come out?"

When Bai Jing saw that the person who came was Gu Shaoyang, he moved his buttocks and made a place for Gu Shaoyang so that he could sit down.

And Gu Shaoyang sat directly next to him after Bai Jing made a place for him.

"You didn't seem too happy, so I came out to take a look. What's up, can you tell me?"

Gu Shaoyang turned his head and looked at Bai Jing with very sincere eyes. Bai Jing lowered his head after being asked by Gu Shaoyang.

"I....."

And after Bai Jing hesitated for a long time, he finally said nothing.

When Gu Shaoyang saw him like this, he understood that he might not know how to express it, so he stopped asking him to speak and said it himself.

"When Bai Xiaodi and I were in the inn before, I often heard him talk to me about you. He said that you are a good big brother who often takes care of him and protects him when he is bullied."

"But he also said that his eldest brother does not have his own biological mother, so he and his mother will take more care of him and give him more love."

"He felt that his eldest brother was not pitiful."

Chapter 1159

Gu Shaoyang observed Bai Jing's facial expression as he spoke, but Bai Jing just buried his head deeper in silence after hearing Gu Shaoyang's words.

It seemed that after listening to Gu Shaoyang's words, instead of feeling better, he felt even more uncomfortable.

But after Gu Shaoyang saw his subtle movements, he still didn't stop talking.

"I know you feel guilty now, worried about Little Brother Bai, and also afraid that Little Brother Bai's mother, your concubine, will blame you."

When Gu Shaoyang said this, the expression on Bai Jing's face and his body visibly trembled, and then returned to normal. After catching his subtle movements, Gu Shaoyang knew what Bai Jing was worried about. He was right.

So after he knew what Bai Jing was worried about, he began to prescribe the right medicine, so that even if Bai Jing didn't speak or answer him, he could help him untie his knot.

But Gu Shaoyang could only untie part of it. , in the end, the boy in white and his mother need to forgive Bai Jing, and then he will truly let go.

"You are now worried that Little Brother Bai may not wake up, but Madam may hate you or even deny you, but think about it for yourself, have they ever said harsh words to you over the years? You and Little Brother Bai fought over each other when they were children. Has Madam ever been surprised by something?"

Listening to the question raised by Gu Shaoyang, Bai Jing thought about it carefully. There was no answer in his mouth, but his expression became a little more solemn, and Gu Shaoyang continued to say coldly.

"I think they have never beaten you. Instead, they are just being reasonable and distinguishing between black and white. So I think for your matter this time, as long as you can realize your mistake and step back from the brink in time, they will not blame you."

"And the reason why you are like this is because you were instigated by others to think that your biological mother was....."

Gu Shaoyang did not finish his last words, leaving the words for Bai Jing to think by himself, and Bai Jing kept thinking about his mistakes after hearing Gu Shaoyang's words.

Finally, after thinking for a long time, he realized what he did wrong, but he didn't know how to apologize to Xiaodi Bai and his mother and concubine.

Maybe it was because he had done something wrong, so he felt ashamed to see them. Gu Shaoyang guessed it when he saw his troubled look, so he gave Bai Jing an idea.

"If you feel shameless to face them, but want to apologize in your heart, then you might as well write them a letter, so that you can apologize without having to face them head-on."

Sure enough, when Gu Shaoyang gave Bai Jing this solution, he finally had a little light in his eyes, and finally he grinned at Gu Shaoyang: "Thank you, Brother Gu! Finally, after Gu Shaoyang persuaded Bai Jing, he jumped down from the tree: "Okay, you can think about it yourself. I'll go back and see how they are doing.""

After that, Gu Shaoyang flew away from where Bai Jing was. After Gu Shaoyang left, Bai Jing took out a pen and paper and began to write a letter of apology to the boy in white and his mother. In the end,

Bai Jing was alone. He wrote on the tree from dawn to dusk, and the paper balls also piled up in a small pile under the tree where he sat. But fortunately, he finally finished the letter.

After writing, Bai Jing took the letter with him. He put two very precious letters into his arms, and then walked towards the cave where the boy in white and the others were.

When he returned to the cave, the boy in white had also woken up from his coma, but his body was still very weak and his face was very pale.

After the boy in white woke up, his mother finally felt relieved.

When Bai Jing went back and saw his brother waking up, tears could not help but fall from the corners of his eyes. He himself also felt very guilty and knelt down behind the boy in white: "I'm sorry! It's all my brother's fault! sorry!"

The relationship between Bai Jing and the boy in white was very good, but now he hurts the person he loves most. Bai Jing's heart feels uncomfortable, as if his heart is being stirred with a knife.

And the young man in white also respected his brother very much. Now his beloved brother knelt down in front of him. When the young man in white saw it, he immediately struggled and knelt down. In the end, their mother couldn't bear it anymore and then she helped them both up.

"alright! alright! Now that things have passed, our family will no longer speak two different languages. We just need to be fine!"

Finally, after their mother spoke, the boy in white clothes and Bai Jing finally stopped crying.

Bai Jing felt even more uncomfortable when he saw that his brother and mother still treated him like this. Gu Shaoyang and the others watched from the side and were very touched by the good relationship between their family.

Finally, Bai Jing After the boy's body recovered, Gu Shaoyang sent them back to the palace together, and then helped the boy in white to recuperate his body.

When the boy in white was in bad health.

Chapter 1160

Bai Jing helped the young man in white to deal with things in the court, and the young man in white himself thought that he could work with his brother Bai Jing to keep the country of Bai in order and better, but he never thought.

After Bai Jing completely recovered from the body of the boy in white, he sent the letters he had written to the boy in white and their mother respectively. After delivering the letter, he left the Bai Kingdom and went out to wander the world.

He also told them in the letter that he didn't know when he would come back after leaving, and he also told them not to look for him and just take care of themselves.

"This...why is brother doing this! My mother and I really didn't blame him!"

After learning that Bai Jing had left Bai Country, the boy in white had been in a bad mood for several days. The only person with him at this time was Gu Shaoyang, so he could only complain to Gu Shaoyang.

"Everyone has their own choice, or maybe your brother has been in this palace for a long time, is used to intrigues, and wants to live a free life."

"See if you don't have as many rules outside as you do in this palace."

Gu Shaoyang and the boy in white were sitting at the table together. The two of them were still the same as when they were in the inn. Each of them had a cup of tea in front of them, and they were chatting while drinking tea.

But now it's different from before. They talked about everything before. It's about whether we will encounter danger tomorrow and how to survive. But now it's commonplace and the things we talk about are very relaxed.

"Okay, let the eldest brother go out and see the outside world. When he misses us, he will come back naturally."

Things have reached this point, and the boy in white can only think this way. But now everything in the Bai country he leads has returned to normal, and there are no problems in his country.

So now he has fulfilled the treasure he promised to Gu Shaoyang.

"Brother Gu, when will you leave? Tomorrow I will go and give you the key I promised you."

The boy in white said to Gu Shaoyang, and as soon as Gu Shaoyang heard the word key, his eyes lit up. He had been working hard for several months just for the key, and now he can finally get it!

"OK! You can go now. I'll probably leave after I get the key. I've been here for a long time."

Gu Shaoyang told the young man in white about his itinerary. When the young man in white heard Gu Shaoyang say that he was about to leave after getting the key, his eyes were immediately full of reluctance.

"So fast? Gu Shaoyang, please stay a few more days. My eldest brother has left, and now you have to leave too."

The boy in white said a little aggrieved, but Gu Shaoyang's attitude was still very tough, and he did not compromise because of the reluctance of the boy in white.

"I know you are reluctant to let go, but I have my own problems, and you are already the king of a country. You can no longer behave like a child."

"And you must be responsible for your subjects. I hope you will be a good king who will be loved by your subjects!"

Gu Shaoyang patted the young man in white on the shoulder and solemnly stated his expectations for him. When the young man in white heard Gu Shaoyang's words, he felt very stressed.

After all, the population of a country is now weighing on him, and he must deal with it. They were responsible, and they had to consider the future development plans of the Bai Kingdom. He was busy every day and had little time for him to do things that made him happy.

Now he suddenly felt that leaving his eldest brother was the right choice. If his eldest brother is here, then he will definitely give him the king's position. He himself wants to go out and have a try and be a leisurely little king.

"Brother Gu, I understand what you said, and I will definitely try my best to do it!"

"By the way, let's pick up the key tomorrow. I just don't have anything to do tomorrow. I'll take you to get it and send you away. I have to deal with things."

The young man in white was thinking about tomorrow's arrangements silently, and Gu Shaoyang just nodded silently in agreement after hearing his arrangement.

At this time, on the other side, the mother of the young man in white went to his residence to check in person after learning about Bai Jing's departure. , it turned out that she felt very sad after Bai Jing really left the Bai Kingdom.

After Aunt Lan recovered her sight and voice, she once again stayed with the mother of the boy in white to take care of her. Now he is also beside the mother of the boy in white. A talkative assistant.

At the same time, Aunt Lan is now the eldest among the harem status maids. Because she is the eldest maid next to the Queen Mother and has also taken care of the king, everyone in the palace respects him very much.

Even the boy in white Whenever I see her, I will call her Auntie Lan. The reason why she is respected by everyone is because she really has a high position, and the second is because she is very gentle and fair in dealing with people.

So everyone is willing to make friends with her. Well, plus being friendly with her would allow her to say good things around the Queen Mother.
