Chapter 1191

Helplessly, my eyelids seemed to weigh a thousand pounds, and I couldn't open them. I fainted when I tilted my head.

Pangpang walked over and boldly pinched the Warcraft leader's arm. Seeing that there was no movement, he tilted his head and nodded to Gu Shaoyang.

Gu Shaoyang's face suddenly darkened while he was casting a spell.

Because the leader of the Warcraft tribe who had been drugged showed signs of waking up.

Pangpang also noticed it, and kept staring at him. He tugged at the hem of Gu Shaoyang's clothes and muttered nervously: "You're so addicted to drugs that you can't buy fake ones. It's so useless!"

"Shut up!" Gu Shaoyang clenched his teeth and increased his magic power. He could no longer hold on.

Pangpang was very nervous. Their move was just like pulling out the beard on the tiger. It seems that the leader of the Warcraft tribe should not be underestimated. If he uses the magic again Even with the medicine, he couldn't be trapped, but he couldn't do anything to help, so he could only worry on the sidelines. Under the constant control of spells, the leader of the Warcraft clan finally couldn't resist and was controlled.

Gu Shaoyang Seeing this, he finally breathed a sigh of relief. Panasonic took a few breaths and asked the sleeping leader: "Who are you?"

"The leader of the Warcraft clan."

Pangpang's eyes widened and his mouth opened slightly. It's really possible.

"Then do you know where that baby is?"

"Know."

After Gu Shaoyang heard this, he raised his eyebrows.

Pangpang was even more happy, and kept urging from the side: "Ask quickly, ask where it is, and ask him to take it out for us."

Gu Shaoyang seemed very calm in response to Pangpang's excitement. He stretched out his hand to Pangpang and shushed him. He turned around and continued to ask. His voice sounded like he had been drunk with hallucinogenic drugs. It was slow and intoxicating.

"So, where is that treasure?"

According to Gu Shaoyang's inquiry, the Warcraft leader was stunned for a moment, a little sluggish, and then he only saw him slowly raising his arm and pointing to a place.

After Gu Shaoyang and Pangpang saw this, they immediately walked quickly towards the place pointed by the Warcraft leader. They walked away, but when they got closer they saw nothing.

"There is nothing here. Is there some secret room where treasures are hidden?"

Pangpang stretched out his hand and touched around again, but didn't touch anything, so he started to mutter. After hearing Pangpang's words, Gu Shaoyang immediately turned around and continued to ask the leader of the Warcraft clan.

"Where is the treasure hidden? Is there a secret room here?"

Hearing Gu Shaoyang's inquiry, the leader of the Warcraft clan just nodded numbly, and then Gu Shaoyang ordered the leader of the Warcraft clan again: "Come here, open the secret room, and then take out the treasure."

After that, Gu Shaoyang and Pangpang took a few steps back to make room for the leader of the Warcraft clan. The leader of the Warcraft clan put his hand on the top of the second cabinet under a cabinet and fumbled for a while. He only heard the sound of unlocking. Sound.

Then a wall of treasures appeared in front of Gu Shaoyang and Pangpang, but after seeing so many treasures, the two of them immediately wanted to cheer.

But fortunately, Gu Shaoyang understood that the situation was not right at this time, so he suppressed it. But Pangpang couldn't hold it back, so Gu Shaoyang directly covered Pangpang's mouth. He didn't let go until Pangpang calmed down.

"Bring your things and we'll go directly to practice somewhere."

Gu Shaoyang took down a large World of Warcraft core from the wall. It seems that this Warcraft must have lived for a very long time, because its core has been worn black.

And Pangpang also took it from the wall. A treasure, and then the two of them went to the bed of the leader of the Warcraft group.

Because the leader of the Warcraft group was huge, his bed was still very wide even after Gu Shaoyang and Pangpang sat cross-legged on it. The two of them could sit on it very much. Good activity.

The leader of the Warcraft group controlled by Gu Shaoyang began to struggle after Gu Shaoyang was immersed in cultivation and neglected to control him.

Because in the Devil's Forest, the first-level Warcraft are not only intelligent but also intelligent. High, and their cultivation level is also very high. In addition, there are many exotic flowers and plants in the Devil's Forest, so they have their own interpretation system. As for the drug that Gu Shaoyang smelled for him, through time and the leader of the Warcraft group After the body's own metabolism, the effect of the drug has also expired.

As soon as the effect of the drug was gone, the leader of the Warcraft group gradually regained consciousness, and then he began to carefully break away from Gu Shaoyang's restraint on him.

Because Gu Shaoyang's restraint on him It is a strong control of his mind, so the leader of the Warcraft group has some difficulties when breaking free.

Because he not only has to fight against Gu Shaoyang's control, but also has to fight against Gu Shaoyang's mind and thoughts.

And Gu Shaoyang's thoughts are very powerful. , so it was a bit difficult for the leader of the Warcraft group.

However, although it was difficult to break free from the control, the leader of the Warcraft group still did it!

And he did it when Gu Shaoyang failed to notice. At this time, the two people Currently practicing.

Chapter 1192

As expected of the leader of the Warcraft clan, he was able to recover quickly under such circumstances.

The leader slightly narrowed his silver-gray eyes with a hint of murderous intent. He quietly raised his arms. His body was still very weak. He closed his eyes weakly and began to recharge his batteries.

Still not working, wait, wait, the prey will not be able to escape. The only way to torture these two interesting humans is to kill them directly. It would be too easy for them. After all, they haven't seen fresh and living humans for a long time.

Gu Shaoyang, who was practicing, did not relax his vigilance. He suddenly noticed something and turned back to look at the leader, thoughtfully. After all, even though he controlled the leader, the leader's ability to be the leader of the group was certainly not just talk, so he still couldn't relax.

Pangpang also came out of practice because Gu Shaoyang moved too much. He blinked a few times and looked at him confusedly and said,"What's wrong?"

Gu Shaoyang scratched his face and said,"It's nothing, I just suddenly felt a little weird. I'm satisfied."

Gu Shaoyang's behavior made Pangpang a little confused. Seeing that he was still staring at the leader closely, he thought he was worried, so he stood up and stepped forward to pinch the back of the Warcraft leader's hand.

The leader of the Warcraft tribe remained as he was, with no trace of emotion on his face. In fact, I was shocked inside and thought I was exposed.

"Hey, what are you doing!" Gu Shaoyang stepped forward and quickly grabbed Pangpang, exclaiming in a low voice.

"Don't you think he's pretending? So I gave you a try. It's safe. Let's practice quickly and escape from here as soon as possible."

Pangpang glanced at the red marks left on the back of the Warcraft clan's hands with satisfaction. He turned around and sat cross-legged with a proud look on his face, ready to start practicing.

Gu Shaoyang smiled at Pangpang's naughty look and turned his attention to the leader of the Warcraft clan. , I still felt something interesting was wrong, but I couldn't figure it out no matter how hard I tried. Seeing that Pangpang had already entered a meditative state, I had to give up.

Gu Shaoyang and Pangpang both sat cross-legged, doing the same movements for practice.

The room was quiet for a while, except for the wick. There was a crackling and burning sound, and after an unknown amount of time, a pair of silver eyes suddenly opened. He tried again to clench his hands and feel the power. His eyes wandered back and forth between the two people. The leader of the Warcraft tribe raised his hand to use a weapon that had been charging for a long time. The palm hit Pangpang directly, and Pangpang fell directly from the bed.

While Pangpang reluctantly fought with the leader of the Warcraft clan, he looked distractedly at Gu Shaoyang, who was still sitting cross-legged, feeling anxious.

"Brother Gu! Brother Gu, wake up quickly, I can't hold on any longer."

Pangpang was still unable to fight back, and shouted at Gu Shaoyang, feeling extremely anxious.

With a disdainful smile on his lips, the leader used five successes to slap Pangpang's chest.

"puff."

Pangpang took this palm without any warning. He was practicing, but the stable internal force in his body became chaotic due to external force.

Finally, he couldn't bear the severe pain of going crazy. After vomiting a mouthful of blood, he passed out and fell into a coma on Gu Shaoyang's body.

"You overestimating ants, do you know what you are doing? Arrogant humans, you all should die!"

The Warcraft clan smelled blood and suddenly burst out, like a huge rock falling into a quiet lake, causing a big ripple. When Gu Shaoyang felt something, his body was already one step faster than his thoughts, and he woke up quickly. His eyesight and hands were quick before he could react. Holding the unconscious Pangpang in his arms, he jumped off the bed and looked down at Pangpang's formerly rosy face that had turned pale and bleeding from the corners of his mouth.

He tapped a few acupuncture points on Pangpang's body, which could provide temporary relief. The pain on Pang Pang's body was gently put on the ground.

Gu Shaoyang was very vigilant and kept a careful eye even when practicing, but this time he was really careless and underestimated the strength of his opponent.

As he thought about this, he suddenly felt a chill on his back. , Gu Shaoyang turned back and swept over with his legs, but it was still a step too late.

The leader had already pinched his neck tightly. When his feet were off the ground, his overly long nails dug into the surface of the skin, and blood emerged from the wound.

The leader said. With his teeth bared and his face ferocious, he licked the sharp teeth with his tongue and said with an exaggerated smile:"Little ant, run, see where you can go."

Gu Shaoyang's face turned red due to suffocation, and his desire to survive made him constantly slap his palms with both hands to let him go.

"You really.....Disgusting, I feel like vomiting when I see yours..."

Gu Shaoyang felt nauseated as he looked at the face that kept getting closer to him, and struggled to squeeze out these words from his throat.

The leader stopped and didn't care. After all, Gu Shaoyang and Pangpang had already fallen into the trap for him.

He licked the saliva that was about to flow out of the corner of his mouth, closed his eyes and took a deep breath on Gu Shaoyang's neck, sighing: "This is the problem of human blood. It really fascinates me. I want to eat you up one bite at a time. It must taste delicious."

Gu Shaoyang was stuck in the neck and couldn't breathe. Although he was a cultivator, it was like hitting a snake seven inches, and his lifeline was pinched.

Chapter 1193

Fortunately, the leader didn't choke him for long and kicked him hard in the stomach.

Gu Shaoyang was kicked to the wall and suppressed the acid water that he wanted to spit out. Clenching his fists so hard that the veins were exposed, he tried to calm down and thought about the possibility of escaping from the Warcraft leader's palm next.

Ah, right, but he could use this.

Gu Shaoyang lowered his head to hide his sharp eyes, feeling proud in his heart.

"ah!"

"What happened to the leader? What happened?"

The monsters outside first heard the sounds of fighting and shouting in the leader's room, and then heard the sound of tables and chairs collapsing. They felt something was wrong and immediately gathered in front of the door. The leading guard stretched out his arm to stop them, because the leader He told him not to disturb him, but at the moment he didn't know whether he should go in. While he was hesitating, a loud noise interrupted him

"Bang!"

The leader of the Warcraft clan was stabbed with a mark on his thigh by Gu Shaoyang's dagger, and was kicked on the table. The smell of blood spread out along the crack of the door. The guard stopped thinking and immediately pushed the door open. What the hell? This smell of blood He clearly belonged to their leader.

When Gu Shaoyang took advantage of the Warcraft leader being kicked by him, he picked up the unconscious Pangpang and jumped out of the window beside him.

As soon as the guards opened the door, Gu Shaoyang and the others ran away from the window. Escaped.

The guard immediately helped the leader who fell on the table and said apologetically: "My subordinate is late."

"Ahem."

The leader wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth with his fingers, but accidentally choked on the dust. He coughed a few times. He stared at the window through which Gu Shaoyang and the others escaped. He threw away the guard who was supporting him and roared hoarsely: "Chase me! You don't have to come back if I can't catch you!"

"As you command, chief."

After receiving the order, the monsters dispersed one after another and continued to chase the two ignorant humans.

The guard helped the leader sit on the bed, looked at the knife wound on the leader's leg that was cut to the bone, and asked: "Need? Can I bandage it for you?"

Without waiting for a reply, the guard skillfully took out the powder and sprinkled it on the wound.

The leader hissed in pain, but the guard did not stop. He took out the cotton cloth and wrapped it around the wound. After finishing everything, he stopped and waited for the next one. The leader gave the order.

He glanced at the wound on his leg and felt so angry that his chest tightened. He swallowed the smell of blood that kept coming out of his throat. He was so angry that he kicked the guard hard.

The guard silently withstood the kick. , bowed his head and said nothing

"Trash, a bunch of useless things. The people you asked to find are now gone. What a waste. Go down and collect the punishment yourself, no need for me to tell you."

The guard's face turned pale, cold sweat covered his entire back, and he was trembling slightly.

"kindness? If you don't go down yet, why are you standing there?"

Seeing that the leader had no intention of changing his words, the guard responded with an ashen look on his face:"Yes, I am retiring."

The leader didn't even look at the guard. He walked to the cabinet and saw that, sure enough, what the man took away was his own dagger.

"It's been a long time since I've been so excited about two ungrateful prey."

The eyes of the leader of the Warcraft clan were filled with bloodthirsty excitement, and he threw a few pills into his mouth, imagining Gu Shaoyang and the others chewing their meat. The deep bone-breaking wounds on his legs were also gradually recovering, with torn... Feeling pain, they flew towards the direction where Gu Shaoyang and the others left.

Gu Shaoyang was kicked by the leader of the Warcraft clan, and now he was flying around in the valley using Pangpang's Qinggong. He was even more mentally weak than talented. He almost didn't fly several times, but he managed to persevere with just one breath.

Not far behind, he could still vaguely hear the Warcraft from the Warcraft clan, noisily looking for their voices. Gu Shaoyang didn't dare to take it lightly. If he was being attacked by the Warcraft at this moment, If caught, there might not even be a bone left.

He gritted his teeth, and the sweat from his forehead ran down his temples. He hugged Fatty tightly with both hands, and his eyes kept looking for a hiding place in the valley.

By his ears The painful moans of Pangpang being possessed were heard constantly, and the hot breath was sprayed on his ears.

Gu Shaoyang was even more nervous. Now Pangpang's situation was even more critical, and he needed immediate medical attention. If he did not do so, his life would be in danger.

The group behind them were chasing after them, and Gu Shaoyang was gradually losing his strength. He was a little annoyed, like a headless fly, flying around at a loss.

Trees were still trees, there were trees everywhere, and there were some broken flowers and plants. There was no hiding place at all.

Just when Gu Shaoyang was about to give up, he saw the hiding place with sharp eyes. It was really difficult to find it if he didn't look carefully.

He looked back and saw that there was no one coming up, and there was a shudder in his heart. Hi, they immediately took Pangpang inside to take shelter, and even used a large pile of withered branches to block the door.

This cave should be a cave cut out by the Warcraft in the Warcraft tribe for practicing martial arts. It is just enough for them to stay, as long as they don't If they found out.

After doing all this, Gu Shaoyang didn't dare to take a breath. He needed to regulate Pang Pang's exercise as soon as possible. He sat cross-legged, held up and started to exercise. The internal force in Pang Pang's body was very fierce.

Chapter 1194

Even he couldn't bear it, so he could only continue to caress the inner force inside and slowly regulate them.

Pangpang suddenly spat out a large mouthful of black blood, which fell on his clothes and was extremely dazzling.

Gu Shaoyang opened his eyes and took a look, and continued to channel his internal energy.

When the leader used Qing Kung to get here, he looked around, his heart moved slightly, and he squinted at one place in thought.

Gu Shaoyang, who was healing Pang Pang, suddenly opened his eyes, immediately hugged Pang Pang inside, stared at the door warily, took out a dagger from the cuff of his boot, and prepared for a fierce fight.

"It turns out that two injured little mice are here."

A joking voice was recalled in the small cave. The leader of the Warcraft clan made a burst of palm wind, and the cave entrance, which was originally tightly covered, became unobstructed.

Gu Shaoyang swallowed nervously. If he fights alone, he has a lot of potential. Chances of winning, but there is still an unconscious Fatty at this time, which is a bit troublesome.

He really hates trouble.

Gu Shaoyang and the leader of the Warcraft tribe don't know who made the first move, but they became entangled in the blink of an eye..

There was not much difference in strength between the two, and it was difficult to tell the winner.

He took the dagger and made many cuts on the leader, but the leader of the Warcraft tribe did not make it easy for him. He only attacked the arms and legs.

Gu Shaoyang held the dagger tightly, Salty sweat fell into his eyes. He didn't even dare to blink and stared at the leader of the Warcraft clan.

"Although the little mouse is small, its bite is quite powerful."Gu Shaoyang said provocatively.

The leader covered his wound and said nothing.

Suddenly he saw Gu Shaoyang, who was still provocative, covering his heart, frowning, and slowly kneeling to the ground. Even the dagger in his hand fell to the ground, stained with The change came suddenly. The leader of the Warcraft tribe, Gu Shaoyang, was holding a weapon. His strength was almost the same as his own. He wanted to hold on until his men came down and kill them all.

It seems that there is no need now. The little mice have exhausted their energy..

The leader of the Warcraft clan was a little embarrassed and sat down towards the place where he said he had fallen, and slowly squatted down.

"Why are not you talking? Isn't it awesome?"

Gu Shaoyang weakly opened his eyelids and said something. After speaking, he closed his eyes tightly and covered his heart. He seemed to be uncomfortable.

The leader got closer to his face, trying to hear what he said clearly.

Gu Shaoyang squinted his eyes. When the leader of the Warcraft clan was approaching, he quickly took out the drug and sprayed it on his face, leaving him no room to react. Finally, he watched his expression change from shock to disgust to expressionless eyes as he closed his eyes. , collapsed to the ground.

When Gu Shaoyang saw that he finally fell, he immediately got up and hugged Pangpang and prepared to escape from the cave. Before leaving, Gu Shaoyang kicked the leader of the Warcraft tribe hard in the stomach.

They took advantage of the large army to go southwest He was chasing in the opposite direction, heading towards the Warcraft tribe in the opposite direction.

There was a place in his heart. Although that place was a bit dangerous, as the saying goes, the most dangerous place is often the most complete, so that was the place.

The secret room in the house of the leader of the Warcraft tribe!

Gu Shaoyang carried Pangpang on his back and quickly climbed in through the window where they escaped. Fortunately, the road was smooth and no one was encountered. He found the secret room door switch and pressed it. The secret room door was slightly There was a noise, and he slowly opened it.

When he got to the secret room, he put Pangpang down. Because of the bumps along the way, Pangpang's face turned paler, and he vomited a little black blood, and some of it was also on his clothes.

Gu Shaoyang frowned, His face was a little panicked. What he cared about was that Pangpang still hadn't woken up yet. He didn't know when he would wake up. After all, there were still certain risks in the place where they stayed.

But for now, he could only continue to recuperate.

He calmed down and began to treat Gu Shaoyang must help Pangpang quickly at this moment, otherwise it will be a small matter if he goes crazy and becomes a demon. It would be a big deal if he loses his life.

And now they are in the secret room of the leader of the Warcraft group and they will not be discovered by him, because Although he and Pangpang were in the room of the leader of the Warcraft clan and took his treasure to practice before, they never mentioned the secret room in his room in front of him.

So now Gu Shaoyang took Pangpang and hid in his room. It was very safe in the secret room.

And Gu Shaoyang put his hands on Pang Pang's back, supporting his body while helping him use his kung fu to open up the meridians that were blocked due to the suspension of practice.

And when Gu Shaoyang used his kung fu to help Pang Pang , he also deliberately combined his spiritual power with the demonic energy that had been absorbed into his body.

Because when he first met Pangpang in the Devil's Forest, he had already helped him combine the demonic energy and spiritual energy in his body. , so now it seems easier when Gu Shaoyang helps Pangpang to combine again.

But just when Gu Shaoyang thought it was very easy, he only half combined Pangpang's spiritual power and demonic energy. To be precise, he only combined Pangpang's spiritual power and demonic energy. All of Fatty's demonic energy was fused, and the spiritual power was still scattered throughout his body.

At this moment, the place that Gu Shaoyang thought was the most dangerous was the safest place, but it was no longer safe.

Chapter 1195

Because the door to the secret room where they were was suddenly opened.

What caught the eyes of the monsters outside the door was Gu Shaoyang, who was helping Pangpang Yungong practice.

"Okay, I guessed you might be hiding here! I didn't expect you were actually here! Catch them quickly!"

Gu Shaoyang heard the sound, and when he turned around, he only saw the leader of the Warcraft clan pointing his finger at them. Gu Shaoyang had no choice but to stop treating Pangpang.

"Don't even think about it! Go through my search first and then talk about it!"

Putting away his hands, Gu Shaoyang stood up from the ground in a hurry, and then stretched out his palms straight to attack the leader of the Warcraft clan. The leader of the Warcraft clan was not to be outdone, and he directly accepted Gu Shaoyang's attack. , and soon the two of them were singing and fighting together. While Gu Shaoyang was fighting with the leader of the Warcraft clan, he also needed to pay attention to Pang Pang's situation.

At this time, Pang Pang fell to the ground without Gu Shaoyang's support. He fell to the ground, and his face, which had been getting better, now started to look bad again.

In order to prevent the monsters in front of him from getting close to Pangpang and hurting him, Gu Shaoyang could only fight hard with the monsters, but there were too many monsters in their group, and Most of them are not weak in strength, and Gu Shaoyang gave Pang Pang a power exercise to heal his injuries, so he couldn't hold on for a while.

But every time when Gu Shaoyang was about to die, he could grit his teeth and push through, but the real situation was that his mouth There was already blood inside, but he didn't dare to spit it out to let the monster know that he was dying.

"no! I definitely won't be able to stand it if this continues! I have to think of a way!"

The situation was critical. Gu Shaoyang's mind was spinning rapidly. Finally, his eyes suddenly looked behind the Warcraft clan, and then he thought of something.

"Here we are!"

Gu Shaoyang took out a spinning stone from the space ring, and then while he was yelling and howling, he knocked the stone out, and finally it whirled back.

And the whirling stone happened to fall on a monster, so the number of magic beasts surrounding Gu Shaoyang was immediately reduced by half, and they swarmed towards the direction they thought were humans.

Little did they know that it was just Gu Shaoyang's plan, and Gu Shaoyang quickly turned around while the number of magic beasts was reduced by half. He pulled up Pangpang who was lying on the ground, and then used the last ten percent of his strength to bounce away the monsters surrounding him.

When there were no obstacles in front of him, Gu Shaoyang could finally leave with Pangpang, but in order to avoid the monsters chasing him, so he keeps using teleportation when he escapes.

This teleportation can make his scent stay in a certain place, but there are only a few, so it is impossible for those monsters to find him through the smell.

And teleportation The speed of teleportation is extremely fast, and by the time those monsters react and want to hunt down Gu Shaoyang, it will definitely be too late.

However, teleportation also has a very disadvantageous disadvantage for Gu Shaoyang now, that is, it consumes too much mental and spiritual energy, it is simply an impossible thing for Gu Shaoyang now.

But Gu Shaoyang, who has strong willpower, still insisted on completing it, but after he teleported Pangpang and himself to a safe place, Gu Shaoyang He lay directly on the ground and fainted.

And Pangpang was also in a coma. With Pangpang's physical strength, the originally balanced spiritual power and demonic energy in his body were also changing at this time. The surrounding mountains and forests were dense, and the originally sunny The weather suddenly became violent and violent. Gu Shaoyang and Pangpang, who fell to the ground like this, were inevitably caught in a heavy rain. However, this heavy rain solidified the surrounding demonic energy and surrounded Pangpang. At this time, the heavy rain continued, and Other monsters are also looking for Gu Shaoyang and Pangpang non-stop, but because the smell of the two of them is intermittent, and a heavy rain washes away their traces.

Therefore, the monsters in the group of monsters are very sure to search. Because of this, Gu Shaoyang and Pangpang escaped at noon.

Just as the heavy rain in the mountain forest gradually subsided and the rainbow hung high in the sky, Pangpang, who had fallen in the forest, finally woke up from his coma.

But after waking up, Pangpang Fatty's mind returned to normal, and he was no longer as stupid as before. At the same time, the color of his eyes also changed from black to golden.

However, he himself did not feel the change in his body appearance. He only felt that Being in this devil's forest now fits him perfectly. He only feels that he suddenly wakes up, and he can also remember the things he and Gu Shaoyang did together before.

This feeling of suddenly waking up and no longer being stupid makes him feel like a bystander. It was the same as what happened before.

After thinking about it faintly, Pang Pang Leng tried to wake up Gu Shaoyang, who was still in a coma. However, because he consumed too much spiritual energy, his body was stretched to the limit, and because he was tired from running around, so No matter how much Pangpang called, he was still unconscious.

Chapter 1196

Pangpang took him to hide in the cave. Seeing that he was getting worse and worse, he helped him up and tried to transfer some spiritual power to him. His anger disappeared from his Dantian and Baina returned to the river.

When Pangpang used his inner strength to transfer his energy to Gu Shaoyang, he found that he could not transfer his energy to Gu Shaoyang. At first I thought it was because he didn't calm down, but he tried again and again to no avail.

Because of his irritability, the power in his body became very fierce, and he was disobedient and rampant in his body. Gradually, he began to realize that something was wrong, and he felt an unfamiliar internal force in his body.

This is...

He opened his eyes suddenly, looked at his hands in disbelief, his lips trembled, his face became very defeated, and he kept muttering: "How could...it become like this," because of the power in his body It's obviously demonic energy. This means he is possessed by a demon. Only demonic energy can make it impossible to transfer energy to the other party.

But he clearly had no impression.

Pangpang's heart became very complicated, and he was at a loss as to what to do. I don't know when he became possessed by the devil, and I don't know how his relatives, friends, mother, and Gu Shaoyang will treat him.

Could it be that the leader of the Warcraft tribe suddenly attacked him while he was meditating and slapped himself, causing him to become possessed, or was it because he became possessed for some reason?

Gu Shaoyang fell directly to the ground with a muffled sound because there was no one to support him.

Pangpang immediately came to his senses when he heard the noise, his eyes became red, and tears were already rolling in his eyes and sliding down his face.

Then he asked Gu Shaoyang to lie down while he spent the night alone.

He leaned his head against the stone wall, sat hugging his knees, and stared at the night sky leaking out of the cracks in the stone. He thought a lot.

I sat there from late at night until dawn, until I grumbled from hunger alone, and then I came back to my senses.

Forget it, who cares, things are already like this, and there is no way to change it, Pangpang thought pretending to be optimistic.

Pangpang is always on tenterhooks all day long. Whenever there is any disturbance, he is too scared to say a word. They often have to wait until dusk falls and the monsters in the Devil's Forest fall asleep before they dare to go out to look for food.

But in this huge Devil's Forest, there is nothing that can be picked and eaten casually. Looking at the ordinary mushrooms, the toxins in them can poison a giant beast.

A few days ago, Pangpang didn't know what he could and couldn't eat. His eyes glowed green because of hunger. When he saw a fruit on a tree, he didn't care about it. He picked it and stuffed it in his mouth.

As a result, I had a stomachache all day, and I could only use a large leaf to roll up water and drink a few sips to survive the hard day.

In the next few days, Pangpang learned a lot. During the day, he quietly observed what other monsters were eating in the cave, and he also went there to pick it at night.

He also wanted to eat meat, but the wild rabbits in the Devil's Forest had been refined inside and no longer looked like the wild rabbits outside, so he would definitely not be able to touch them.

Because he himself went through a lot of trouble trying to catch a wild rabbit, but in the end he caught nothing and wasted a lot of energy.

Pangpang took a look at his inventory and found that he had finished eating the few red fruits he picked before. Now he was going out to look for food again. He hadn't eaten meat for a long time.

"Why."

Looking down at Gu Shaoyang, who was still unconscious, he couldn't help but let out a long sigh.

"It feels like eating meat. I really want to eat fragrant rice and chicken legs."When Pangpang thought about that scene, he kept drooling from his mouth.

The more he thought about it, the more he wanted it, and the more he wanted it, and finally he clenched his fists, his eyes full of fighting spirit, gritted his teeth and said,"Okay! I had to catch a wild rabbit and treat myself."

The night is thick, and there is always the sound of pattering in the woods. When white shadows are quickly scurrying through the jungle, it is difficult to tell where they are at night.

Pangpang has been squatting on the tree trunk for a long time, and he has been squatting on it. Waiting for the rabbit, the wild rabbit under the tree is also very clever, and will make fake moves from time to time.

He squats patiently and does not understand, waiting for the wild rabbit to relax its vigilance.

After a while, the wild rabbit pokes its head out again, seeing that there is no danger around, and jumps jumping around.

It's like a rabbit in the Devil's Forest. The meat on its legs is roasted and crispy, and it must be delicious.

"Gulu."

The alert rabbit pricked up its ears and jumped up and down trying to escape.

Fatty had been waiting nearby for a long time, how could he let it escape now?

He flew down, picked off a branch, and chased after the wild rabbit.

Fatty Fatty followed the rabbit for a while and said a little irritably: "Why does this rabbit run so fast!"

Finally, he angrily threw the branch in the direction of the rabbit.

"I can fuck you."

Pangpang remained in the throwing position and was stunned.

A branch filled with magic energy was inserted straight into the rabbit's neck.

He found that his own strength seemed to have improved.

Pangpang picked up a stone from the ground and threw it. With force, the hard stone instantly turned into powder and fell to the ground from his fingertips.

His internal strength increased several levels. Although this was good news, Pangpang was not very happy. He took a few steps forward. Carrying the rabbit, he walked back slowly.

Chapter 1197

"You finally woke up!" Pangpang said excitedly lying down next to him.

Gu Shaoyang blinked a few times before he saw clearly who was in front of him.

Pangpang lifted the weak Gu Shaoyang and leaned on his shoulders, and fed him with water from the stream on the leaves. point.

He was in coma for several days, his breathing was a little messy, and his lips became bloodless and dry and rolled up due to lack of water. What was even more sad than this was that there was nothing in the stomach to digest, and he was already protesting at this time.

Pangpang watched him drink water in large gulps, and said worriedly: "Drink more water first, moisten your throat, and don't talk yet. I will have some food picked yesterday here later. You can eat it with it." "

Gu Shaoyang nodded and lay back weakly. After all, he had just woken up and his physical strength had not recovered yet. He let Pangpang busy around to take care of himself.

Gu Shaoyang, who was lying down well, felt that something was wrong around him, so he got up with difficulty and said: "Pangpang is surrounded by demonic energy. Come on, let's change places quickly."

Pangpang, who was originally very happy, was stunned when he heard this, and the expression on his face gradually stiffened.

"Why don't you move? Let's go quickly."

"actually..."

Gu Shaoyang supported the wall and looked at Pangpang, waiting for his next words.

Pangpang lowered his head so that his face could not be seen clearly, and whispered:"Actually,...I'm obsessed.

Gu Shaoyang shouted in disbelief:"How could this be possible!""

But when he recalled that when he was conditioning Pangpang's exercise skills, the demonic energy was still loose in the body and was not eliminated in time, which caused the demonic energy to form a ball, causing Pangpang to become a demon now.

Gu Shaoyang also felt uncomfortable. , he has always regarded Pangpang as his younger brother, but now he failed to protect him. With red eyes, he stepped forward to hold Pangpang guiltily, looked at him and said:"It's all my fault, it's all my fault protect you"

"If it weren't for my carelessness, you wouldn't...and you wouldn't be possessed."

"How could this be your fault?"

"If I hadn't protected you, you would have gone crazy."

As soon as he finished speaking, Gu Shaoyang felt water dripping on the back of his hand.

They were Pangpang's tears.

Pangpang was very moved when he saw that what he said was very true and sincere. It was just a stranger who saved his life, and now Before I even thought about him, was this family affection?

At this moment, Pangpang finally dared to raise his head, his eyes were red from the smoke, he kept sniffing his nose, he opened his eyes and whispered to comfort:"It's really not your fault, you just Don't always try to get everything done to you. And you see, my internal strength has become stronger, and now it is more than enough to deal with the minions outside."

He let go of Gu Shaoyang's hand and slapped the stone wall, leaving a palm print instantly. Then he looked at Gu Shaoyang proudly, waiting for praise.

Gu Shaoyang felt even more uncomfortable when he saw this scene. It shouldn't have been like this. , it was because of myself that I failed to take good care of him, which made things like this.

Gu Shaoyang seemed to have thought of something, and asked angrily:"Is it because the leader of the Warcraft clan suddenly attacked you at that time, which caused you to fail to control it in time? It's so easy to get carried away. I will take revenge for you right now!

Pangpang put the food in his hand and said:"The main reason is that before entering the Devil's Forest, there was only spiritual power in the body. After entering the Devil's Forest, I stayed here for a long time and absorbed the magic due to the influence of the environment. gas"

"But demonic energy and spiritual power are balanced. I became a demon because I was slapped by the leader of the Warcraft clan when I was practicing, which caused an imbalance between the two."

Pangpang paused and continued:"And if we can walk out of the Devil's Forest, I won't be able to return to the original world...."

As soon as Pangpang thought about this, his mood began to feel low, and the word"grievance" was almost written on his face.

"If, I mean if, we can escape from the Devil's Forest, I think it would be better for us to go our separate ways. You walk on your sunny avenue, I walk on my single-plank bridge, and no one disturbs the other."

Gu Shaoyang angrily patted Fatty on the head, lifted up his clothes, and sat next to him. He looked at him seriously and said speechlessly:"Why did we part ways?"

Faced with doubts, Pangpang explained a little aggrievedly.

"Because I am obsessed now, there is no guarantee that I will do something I cannot control in the future. Moreover, I turned from a human into a demon. If I went to the world of demons, people would look down on me and maybe call me a bastard. I don't want to suffer this kind of injustice."

"Pangpang, let me ask you, have you done anything outrageous or uncontrollable now?"

Pangpang thought about it seriously, and it seemed that it really didn't happen. He pursed his lips and said nothing.

"Don't worry, I will let you stay well. As long as I am here, you will not be bullied. And if you really don't want to go to the human world or the devil's world, I will let you gain a foothold in the Devil's Forest."

Pangpang looked at Gu Shaoyang's serious face. The setting sun cast a layer of light on his face, making him unable to help but want to follow him.

Chapter 1198

But he couldn't believe it, so he opened his mouth to confirm

"real?"

"Of course it's true. When have I ever lied to you? When I've cultivated myself well, I'll stand up for you. You can just watch."

Pangpang agreed with a smile.

Gu Shaoyang was already very hungry after talking on the phone for a long time, and his stomach hurt. He took a few bites of the fruit that Pangpang handed over, and then continued to practice.

Because Pangpang Fatty's skills increased, and their food became better and better. They could eat meat whenever they wanted, and no longer had to swallow secretly.

Gu Shaoyang thought that if Fatty was allowed to gain a foothold here, he would capture the thief first, as the Devil's Forest said. The official who goes up is the leader of the Warcraft tribe. If he is controlled and allowed to make a contract with Pangpang, it will be easy to survive in the Devil's Forest.

But it is not very easy to get the leader of the Warcraft tribe to agree to make a contract. Things are easy, now you can only do it hard.

One day, at noon, Gu Shaoyang kept turning the dagger in his hand, walking carelessly alone, but keeping his eyes fixed on the front. The guards guarding the Warcraft clan He said to the person who came: "Hey, what are you doing? You can come to such a place."

"I'm here to see my grandson. The Warcraft guard waved his hand impatiently at him and said, "Go, go, get out of here, there is no grandson of yours here." Gu

Shaoyang pretended to be suddenly enlightened and said, "Oh, by the way, don't you know who my grandson is?"

One of the monsters could no longer hold its breath. It held the machete in its hand, danced in the air a few times, and yelled loudly: "You brat, I advise you to leave quickly. Don't blame me for having no eyes in my sword. I beat you until you cry and call me daddy." mother"

"my grandson...Of course it's your leader."

One of the guards stared at Gu Shaoyang's face, suddenly thought of something, and whispered to his companion: "It's the human being wanted by the leader that time."

After another guard heard this, he looked at Gu Shaoyang, suddenly got angry, picked up the weapon in his hand and swung it at Gu Shaoyang.

Another Warcraft guard followed closely behind.

"I think you, a human being, really don't know the heights of the world, and you talk arrogantly. Our leader is waiting for your lunch to be delivered to your door, so please enjoy it."

Gu Shaoyang looked at the two monsters without panic. When the tip of the knife was about to chop the knife in front of him, he turned sideways and turned his hand and inserted the dagger directly into the heart of the monster. When he pulled out the dagger, blood spurted out, and then he was killed cleanly. The other monster, who had been stunned, continued to walk forward without looking.

After Gu Shaoyang opened the door and entered, he found that there was already a row of monsters standing aside with weapons, waiting for him.

He smiled dismissively Said:"Just in time, I thought there were more of you, which saved me from going to the corner to look for you one by one.""

Obviously his words angered the group of monsters, and they all showed their weapons and rushed towards him.

Gu Shaoyang solved them one after another.

When there was only the last monster left, the monster looked around and saw that he was the only one left. , his companions were already lying in a pool of blood.

Not caring about anything, he immediately knelt down and kowtowed and said:"My hero, hero, please spare me, then I am willing to do anything.

Gu Shaoyang wiped the blood on the dagger and said,"I can spare you.""

Warcraft burst into tears of gratitude, with snot and tears all over his face, and kept thanking him.

Gu Shaoyang continued:"Bring me a message to your leader, and ask him to sign a contract with me, which is what you call a master contract.. If you don't agree, I will bloodbath your Warcraft clan."

After that, Gu Shaoyang used Qing Kung and left without waiting for a response.

The Warcraft guard lay on the ground for a while in fear. When he saw that there was really no movement, he dared to raise his face.

He reached down and touched it. Touching his crotch, he found that it was already wet and smelled of urine.

The Warcraft guard hesitantly put it to the tip of his nose and asked, and immediately sighed in disgust.

"Bah, so cool."

Looking at the corpses on the ground, he remembered what the human said, and immediately got up again and ran non-stop towards the leader's residence to report the matter truthfully. The guard raised his head and glanced at the leader cautiously. He informed the leader of this situation, fearing that the leader would give him a slap if he was unhappy.

Sure enough, the leader became furious after hearing this and kicked him to the corner. The guard spit out a mouthful of blood and passed out.

The leader of the Warcraft tribe was extremely upset. I walked back and forth in the house, and finally I smelled the unpleasant smell of urine, and then I realized that there was that monster in the house.

"Come on, drag him out, drag him out, look upset."

The two Warcraft guards dragged them away with quick hands and feet.

The two humans were bound to be quartered, and it would be worse than life or death.

In front of the cabinet in the room, it seemed that this was going to be used.

The leader had been forced into a rage by the two humans, and walked to The treasure wall took out the Warcraft crystal.

This treasure can monitor every move in the place.

The leader of the Warcraft tribe calmed down and began to explore.

Sure enough, he found Gu Shaoyang and Pangpang somewhere, discussing something.

Chapter 1199

In order to hear the sound, the leader of the Warcraft tribe kept pouring his own internal energy into it.

Not long after, after hearing their plan, the leader put down the Warcraft Crystal with a proud smile on his face, summoned a few guards to be on guard somewhere, and placed many weapons on himself, waiting for their arrival.

Although it took a lot of effort and internal energy, and they also used the Warcraft Crystal to know Gu Shaoyang and Pangpang's tactics, they were able to defend this time, but the most important thing was that they were not caught.

The leader looked at his severely injured men, and he was so angry that he wanted to spurt fire from his mouth.

He pointed at them angrily and said: "They are all a bunch of trash. They can't even catch two humans. What's the use of you? And you can't even catch them even after exposing their plans to us!"

The guard covered the affected area that was bleeding continuously, his eyes were full of unwillingness, and he gritted his teeth and said

"Leader, although we knew their plan, we were unable to catch them. Those two humans were too cunning, and we were careless and fell into their trap."

"Don't make excuses for your mistakes. I'll give you another chance. If you can't catch it this time, go get the punishment. Go on."

The Warcraft guards obeyed the order.

The leader of the Warcraft clan opened the Warcraft crystal again, preparing to inquire about the information and see what they were doing.

And here, Gu Shaoyang's wound was from that time when the Warcraft didn't know how they knew their plan. After suffering a lot of injuries and recuperating for a few days, his body has already recovered to some extent.

Pangpang was almost caught again, but fortunately he was clever and escaped from the clutches.

Gu Shaoyang and Pangpang met each other after meeting Talking about the weirdness this time, they discovered that their plan was discovered by the other party. How the other party discovered it was unknown to them.

Because it is impossible for them to betray each other, and it is possible that the leader of the Warcraft clan may send Only when Warcraft can monitor them can they know the plan, but how they monitor them is unknown.

Gu Shaoyang suddenly had an idea and thought of another way, which was to deliberately leak the false plan, but in fact he was implementing another real plan, so that he could fight The Warcraft was caught off guard.

Gu Shaoyang and the others did not know when the Warcraft would stop monitoring, so they dared to whisper the real plan until late at night.

Pangpang was so excited that he praised his cleverness.

After saying this conjecture, Gu Shaoyang took Pangpang pretended to be wandering around, pretending to look at the Warcraft clan's road map.

Because he didn't know when the Warcraft would start monitoring, Gu Shaoyang would take Pangpang around the World of Warcraft clan every day, and deliberately said loudly

"I thought of a good idea. After repeated visits, I found that the guards guarding the Warcraft clan are changed every two hours. We can first get rid of the guards at the door, put on their clothes and sneak into the Warcraft clan."

"Then we can use hallucinogens. I'll sprinkle it on their meals, and you'll sprinkle it on their laundry. Let's split up! After you're done, go back to the door."

Gu Shaoyang said while observing the surroundings, but did not find any monsters watching them. When he continued to carry out their fake plan

"With this hallucinogen, we can make them kill each other, so we don't have to waste any effort to let them kill each other and enjoy the benefits of the fishermen. Then find the leader of the Warcraft clan and ask him to sign a contract with you, so that you can walk sideways in the Devil's Forest."

Pangpang winked at him and said

"You are really amazing, you can come up with such a bad idea."

When Gu Shaoyang saw his expression, he almost couldn't hold back his laughter. He raised his hand and slapped Fatty on the body, "Hey, hey, please pay attention to what you say. What do you mean by such a damaging idea? Where are you from?"

Pangpang agreed: "Then we will start implementing it the day after tomorrow."

"Uh-huh."

The leader of the Warcraft Tribe happened to hear Gu Shaoyang's false plan when he opened it. After hearing this, he waved his hand and closed the screen. He had an unpredictable expression on his face and began to think of countermeasures.

But the fact was completely different.

Gu Shaoyang came out. The attack was so ferocious that the leader of the Warcraft clan gradually became unable to take the attack.

Looking at the corpses of the Warcraft lying on the ground, he couldn't help but wonder. They had obviously taken countermeasures according to their plan, so how could such an accident happen?

Just in the Warcraft When the clan leader was forced back by Gu Shaoyang, fortunately, other monsters from the Warcraft clan heard the sound and rushed to capture Gu Shaoyang.

Gu Shaoyang moved his ears slightly, and after giving a blow with all his strength, he quickly escaped.

Gu Shaoyang I originally wanted to take the leader of the Warcraft clan with me, but in the fight just now, I have exhausted too much energy, and there are pursuers behind me. It may be even more cumbersome to take him with me, so I have to make plans next time.

The leader of the Warcraft clan After withstanding the blow, he had no extra strength, so he could only watch Gu Shaoyang leave, his anger getting worse.

Chapter 1200

When the monsters arrived, their leader was sitting on the ground in embarrassment. His clothes were cut open and blood stained his clothes. He was breathing heavily and leaned against the wall with his eyes closed.

"The subordinate's rescue arrived late."

The leader did not respond.

The monsters knelt on the ground and did not dare to speak.

After all, they had never beaten these two humans.

After a long while, they opened their eyes and said to the nearby monster guards:"After healing, help I go back to the house."

The leader of the Warcraft clan staggered open the door, muttering about the Warcraft Crystal. He walked into the room, walked to his treasures hanging all over the wall, and took out his treasure Warcraft Crystal again. The leader of the Warcraft clan held it in one hand. Holding the World of Warcraft crystal, he put a hand under his lips, coughed a few times, swallowed the blood foam, and said with hatred in his eyes:"Ahem, I want to see what tricks you can do this time."

He is already a little overdrawn now, and he can't drag them on any longer. If he drags on any longer, there will be no chance of winning. He waved his hands on the World of Warcraft crystal, and the perspectives of Gu Shaoyang and Pangpang were revealed again.

The two people in the picture The young man was sitting opposite to each other. He didn't know where they were. He just felt that the scene was very familiar. He was holding a branch in one hand and scratching something on the ground.

"In this way, when the time comes, I will attack from the west, and you, Pangpang, will attack from the east. We won't play tricks with them this time!"

"The failure last time may be because there was a problem with our plan. We must act cautiously this time. They are not honest in what they do, and we must be rude to them."

"good! This time they will be beaten to pieces."

Seeing this moment, the leader of the Warcraft clan stopped the scene.

"Hum hum, it's still shit, let's see who is shit."

After the leader of the Warcraft clan hid the Warcraft crystal, he was about to go out and tell his subordinates to prepare for defense. They were caught off guard.

Suddenly he felt a cold feeling on his back. Before he could turn around to fight back, a hard-mounted object hit him on the head. , he fainted after a moment of dizziness.

When he woke up, he saw Gu Shaoyang holding up a crystal and admiring it. The sunlight was shining down on his face, and his amber eyes were shining brightly. It was very beautiful.

Fatty Looking at the treasures on the entire wall with covetous expression, he said:"Get rich, get rich. Oh my gosh, it would cost a lot of money to resell these."

"That's okay."

Gu Shaoyang said it was okay, but he kept moving his hands. His hands were so fast that afterimages appeared, and he kept loading these treasures into the space ring.

After a while, Gu Shaoyang finished loading the treasures all over the wall, and began to look at them with satisfaction. Looking around, they were thinking about what else they could put in.

The leader of the Warcraft tribe finally knew why the place they were sitting was so familiar. It was his secret room.

As early as when the leader of the Warcraft tribe was still outside, Gu Shaoyang and Pangpang had already skillfully As if he had returned to his own home, he climbed in through the window and hid it in his secret room.

People who practice martial arts have very good ears. When Gu Shaoyang heard the leader of the Warcraft clan pushing the door in, he kept talking. He seemed to understand something when he started talking about crystals on the ground. He immediately sat on the ground with Pangpang and continued to expose the fake plan and implement the real plan.

Pangpang was confused for a moment, and then quickly realized and cooperated with him.

After waiting After there was no sound outside the meeting, Gu Shaoyang told Pangpang the real plan. When the leader of the Warcraft tribe was about to go out, he cooperated with Pangpang and captured the already weak leader of the Warcraft tribe. The leader of the Warcraft tribe saw that he cherished It takes decades to accumulate all the treasures that can be hung on the wall, and my heart keeps bleeding.

Watching them put into space rings one by one, I still dislike this one and that one.

"Oops, by the way, I almost forgot about that."

Pangpang was already tired and was walking aside. Suddenly, as if he remembered something, he stepped forward and grabbed Gu Shaoyang and said

"Hey, do you still remember his Warcraft Crystal, the one that can monitor our conversations? Why didn't I see where it is?"

Gu Shaoyang raised his eyebrows after hearing this, put the last treasure on the wall into the space ring, shook the dagger in his hand, and looked around slowly without looking at the nervous Warcraft leader on the ground.

He leaned on the bed rail. Asked:"Hey, what is that thing of yours that can see every move of a person?"

Pangpang replied:"Warcraft Crystal""

"Oh, yes, where is the Warcraft Crystal?"

"Do you think I will tell you?"

The leader of the Warcraft tribe said while looking towards the bed, for fear that others would not know that he had hidden the Warcraft crystal here. When Gu Shaoyang saw it, he stepped forward and started rummaging on the bed.

The leader of the Warcraft tribe immediately yelled when he saw him like this. Said:"Hey, boy! Don't rummage through things."

Not long after, Gu Shaoyang found the Warcraft Crystal and immediately put it into the space storage ring.

Then he stood up and walked to him and said,"By the way, you will sign a contract with Pangpang later. I am not asking you, I am informing you."

The leader of the Warcraft tribe was shaking with anger, breathing heavily with his nostrils enlarged.
