Chapter 1261

Fortunately, I brought a lot of detoxification pills with me when I came this time. If it weren't for these pills, the person just now would have died long ago.

At this time, this group of people finally understood the dangers in the sea. They originally thought that being able to walk freely in the sea was quite powerful, but they did not expect that there were so many poisons in it.

After what happened this time, everyone finally stopped having any other messy things. They all began to be united with Gu Shaoyang, and began to be careful about the messy sea creatures around them.

Sometimes Gu Shaoyang could even see some garbage on the seabed. Some of the garbage looked particularly dazzling, which also made him feel weird.

If there are all kinds of garbage in the deep sea, how polluted will the ocean be?

After experiencing the sea urchin incident just now, the younger brothers were following Gu Shaoyang very quietly, not daring to take another step for fear of encountering some danger.

Because the battle with the octopus monster took too long, several of the boys were already injured.

Gu Shaoyang first bandaged them with the bandages he brought, but after all, they were in sea water, so their wounds recovered very slowly.

After finally stopping at a coral reef, Gu Shaoyang looked at the boys resting around him.

"I never dared to think that one day we would be able to swim freely in the seabed like fish."

While talking, the person who just spoke directly moved the coral next to him. After hearing this, other people also started to chatter:

"Well, as long as we can go out safely this time, we will definitely be able to let them know how powerful we are, and others will definitely look at us in a different light."

Everyone seems to be very excited. Now Gu Shaoyang is looking at the water in front of him coldly. He always feels like there is something around him.

Gu Shaoyang, who is here, just wants to continue going. As we were walking forward, one of the boys' wounds actually opened. He was grinning and kept shouting:

"Don't you think the wounds here seem to be more painful than the wounds on land? It hurts me so much. I have been holding it in all this time. Look, just after I moved a little bit, the bandage fell apart again."

When he said these words, the man in front of him was full of grievances. He did not expect that he was actually injured in the sea. And isn't this the same as adding salt to his own wounds? The people around him were in a hurry. He came over and helped him wrap the bandage again. Seeing the grinning expression of the younger brother in front of him, Gu Shaoyang had no choice but to take out a pain relieving medicine:

"Just bear with me. Haven't I told you many times before? Let you be careful. Who makes you be so careless every time? Now I was accidentally injured by an octopus. Who do you blame for this?"

It seemed that he was a little helpless, and after hearing this, the people in front of him couldn't help mumbling.

Time went on slowly like this, and finally the wound was healed with great difficulty. After it was bandaged, the water surface next to it had already turned bright red.

Because the water in the seabed moved faster, the blood was quickly diluted. Just when they were about to move forward As I was walking, a huge roaring sound suddenly came to my ears.

Originally, there were various small fishes outside the coral jungle, but after hearing the sound just now, the small fishes all rushed directly to He got into the mountain lake.

Gu Shaoyang couldn't help being stunned when he heard the sound. When he finally came to his senses, he discovered that a huge thing appeared not far away.

The speed of the huge thing in front of him It was extremely fast, and after finally dodging the opponent's fatal blow, Gu Shaoyang finally saw the monster in front of him clearly.

The monster in front of him was none other than a shark, and it was vaguely visible. There were several sharks at the back. It seemed that they were all attracted by the smell of blood.

At this moment, Gu Shaoyang suddenly slapped his head. He actually forgot that the smell of blood would attract these sharks.

At this moment, Gu Shaoyang felt that his whole body was no longer good. The younger brothers around him also quickly picked up their weapons one by one. They looked nervously at the group of behemoths in front of them in case they suddenly attacked them.

Chapter 1262

Compared with the creatures on land, the shark in front of him is obviously several times larger, and the fangs of the group of sharks in front of him are particularly long, and they can penetrate the human body directly at a glance.

He couldn't help but sucked in a breath of cold air. At the same time, Gu Shaoyang also came directly to the younger brothers:

"Don't be afraid, these sharks must have been attracted by the bloody smell just now. Don't worry, I won't let them hurt you."

The boys around him all looked very scared. They had never seen such a huge creature when they were on land. Naturally, they couldn't recover for a while.

In order to protect his brothers, Gu Shaoyang directly He rushed out and struck one of the sharks with a sword. The shark was split into two halves. The huge movement also caused the monsters in front of him to howl incessantly. It was particularly scary to go up.

Now that things have reached this point, the few boys around them naturally have no way to retreat. They can only rush out one by one. After what happened just now After the battle with the octopus monster, several people were injured, and some of them did not have much fighting ability.

Seeing the group of sharks in front of him attacking again, at the same time, Gu Shaoyang directly burst out. He used his ultimate move and pushed all the sharks ten meters away at once.

People say that the memory of fish is only seven seconds, but the group of sharks in front of them seemed to have some experience. They were pushed out alive. After walking more than ten meters away, they all left in embarrassment.

Gu Shaoyang had several more wounds on his body, but fortunately these wounds were not fatal.

After finally repelling the group of sharks, at this moment the younger brothers around them admired Gu Shaoyang even more, and they could finally breathe a sigh of relief. They really didn't expect that Gu Shaoyang was so powerful this time, and they didn't expect that their boss could kill several sharks at once. They were scared.

Although several people were injured again, they were still excited. This incident would be bragging rights in the future.

While everyone was resting there, one person suddenly discovered his own... Their abilities seemed to have been improved.

More and more people around them cheered, unintentionally. They did not expect that this concerted attack would unexpectedly improve their strength. There were constant sounds in their ears. The crazy voices of the younger brothers, Gu Shaoyang looked at the group of people in front of him and couldn't help but shake his head and smile.

He didn't expect that his younger brothers were so contented. Not long ago, they were already so excited.

After everyone rested for a while, they were ready to set off again, and now they have all arrived at the bottom of the sea. As long as they can find the dragon ball, they can complete this mission. Sneakily taking a few of their own, the brothers came to the interior of the East China Sea Palace, and Gu Shaoyang met some shrimp soldiers and crab generals. Because their human appearance was completely different from the creatures in the sea, Gu Shaoyang specially hid it.

At this moment, the brothers were just like this quietly. Looking at the shrimp soldiers and crab generals in front of them, everyone's eyes were particularly shocked. I had heard before that the East China Sea Dragon Palace must be guarded by shrimp soldiers and crab generals, but I had never seen the shrimp soldiers and crab generals before. This time they actually grew longer. I saw it.

In order to penetrate directly inside, Gu Shaoyang deliberately pretended to slip, successfully attracted the attention of those shrimp soldiers and crab generals, and was then imprisoned in the brain of Donghai Dragon Palace.

The younger brothers around him also followed Gu Shaoyang's methods one by one, and a group of people were quickly captured by the shrimp soldiers and crab generals.

When they finally got inside, Gu Shaoyang immediately started the escape plan. Anyway, he had already prepared it before, so it was not a problem to open the lock of the prison in the sea.

After easily opening the lock, Gu Shaoyang directly disguised all his younger brothers as shrimp soldiers and crab generals.

Looking at the new image, several of the boys were overjoyed? Each and every one of them kept teasing their companions:

"Look at what you have become now, look at what you have become now, it's so funny."

After all, it is a disguise technique, so there is still a certain time limit. In order to save time, Gu Shaoyang took them to the place where the shrimp soldiers and crab generals lived, and inquired about the news. Although Gu Shaoyang's disguise technique is not very mature. But He was still able to deceive the vulnerable group of soldiers and generals in front of him.

Chapter 1263

In order to get close to them, Gu Shaoyang went out to buy some food:"I know that brothers have been working very hard these days, so this is a snack for you."

These shrimp soldiers and crab generals usually just Patrolling back and forth, there was nothing else going on. Now that another companion has arrived, there is no doubt about it.

How many shrimp soldiers and crab generals will soon be drunk? And they also started talking nonsense. Gu Shaoyang took this opportunity to quickly ask about the whereabouts of the East China Sea Dragon Ball.

A little shrimp in front of him was still saying: "We are simply the worst in the Dragon Palace. Think about it, is there anyone worse than us in this world? We can only patrol here every day. If we accidentally offend the big shots above, we may be sent to prison."

The voice of the shrimp soldier in front of us was particularly miserable: "I accidentally said the wrong thing before. , they were almost sent to the shore to be sunbaked to death, tell me, tell me how they could do this?"

The soldiers around them were also very aggrieved, and each one began to complain about their bitterness. , looking at the group of people in front of him, Gu Shaoyang asked tentatively:

"There must be a certain reason why the Dragon King treats us like this. How many treasures do we have in the East China Sea Dragon Palace? If everyone can take things from us, then we will definitely suffer a lot."

After saying this, Gu Shaoyang took a closer look at the group of soldiers in front of him. Fortunately, he didn't notice anything at all. They were still cursing and saying:

"What nonsense are you talking about? If it weren't for the fact that you still have to make a living here, who do you think would be willing to work here? So what if I have a baby? What do these treasures have to do with us? We can't even touch it."

Seeing that the few soldiers in front of him were almost drunk, Gu Shaoyang finally asked directly and said:

"I heard that there are East China Sea Dragon Balls in our Dragon Palace? This thing is not ordinary. I don't know how many people wanted to snatch this thing away. Do you know where this thing is?"

Anyway, the few soldiers in front of me are already drunk, so there is no need to have any scruples about what Gu Shaoyang said. Fortunately, these few do know the specific storage location of the East China Sea Dragon Ball:

"Wasn't it always locked in the secret room to the west? But I heard that the Dragon King felt so uneasy that he kept the dragon ball with him all day long."

The East China Sea Dragon Ball is naturally a sacred object in the East China Sea. If it is lost, it is likely to cause some turmoil. The Dragon King also cares very much about the sacred objects in the East China Sea. It is for this reason, so Previously, a secret room was specially built to keep the Dragon Ball.

Later, I don't know what happened. The Dragon King gradually felt that the secret room was a little unsafe, so he took the Dragon Ball with him every day, all the time. None of them were willing to let down their guard.

The soldiers in front of him were already drunk and staggering. After hearing this, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but nodded. It seems that he should be looking for an opportunity to get close to the Dragon King this time..

The Dragon King actually put the East China Sea Dragon Ball on his body, which shows that the East China Sea Dragon Ball is particularly important. If he wants to get this thing, he has the only way to get it secretly.

After learning about the East China Sea Dragon Ball, Gu Shaoyang secretly returned to his younger brother. The younger brothers were very curious about their current costumes, but they didn't dare to be too excited.

Finally, they finally waited for their big brother to come back, and the younger brothers hurriedly panicked. ran up, and Gu Shaoyang told them a few words about the news he had just received:

"I have already inquired about it just now. The current East China Sea Dragon Ball is kept by the Dragon King himself, and I heard that the Dragon King seems to always carry it with him. I think if we want to find this East China Sea Dragon Ball, we must get close to the Dragon King.."

The news about those shrimp soldiers and crab generals cannot be guaranteed to be true. No one can say that the Dragon King really carries the East China Sea Dragon Ball with him every day.

But now that there are certain clues, Gu Shaoyang immediately started the layout. He divided the younger brothers around him into three waves. One wave followed him to contact the Dragon King, and the other two groups went to collect information from the surrounding areas.

Before leaving, Gu Shaoyang warned him: "You must be careful with me, and My disguise technique is not omnipotent. If the disguise technique really fails by then, it would be best to take action."

The younger brothers had already nodded and watched these people leave.

Chapter 1264

Gu Shaoyang finally sneaked to the vicinity of the Dragon Palace.

With great difficulty, he finally succeeded in approaching the Dragon King with a few people. During this period, Gu Shaoyang had been secretly observing the Dragon Ball.

Originally, Gu Shaoyang thought that Dragon King Hui placed the dragon ball in the palace, or in some other places. What he never expected was that Dragon King actually took the dragon ball with him.

This suddenly made it a little difficult for Gu Shaoyang. If the Dragon King carried the Dragon Ball with him all day long, then even if he had three heads and six arms, he would not be able to bring the Dragon Ball out.

He couldn't help but frowned. You can imagine what Gu Shaoyang was feeling at this moment. On this day, he went to deliver something to the Dragon King as usual, and happened to meet the Dragon King and several beauties laughing and playing there. It's making a fuss.

Normally, the Dragon King would hang the dragon ball on his crown, but today it seems that the dragon ball is not hanging.

After serving them wine and meat, Gu Shaoyang hurried to the Dragon King's palace and unexpectedly found Long Zhu on the bed.

Feeling a burst of ecstasy in his heart, Gu Shaoyang rushed away immediately after stuffing the dragon ball into his sleeve in a panic.

The Dragon Balls have also been obtained. The most important thing now is to quickly take these brothers and leave this ghost place.

It took a lot of effort to finally call over my group of brothers. The brothers have been very good during this period, and none of them showed any flaws.

How many people took turns admiring the dragon ball in Gu Shaoyang's hand? This was the first time they had seen the Dragon Balls, and the most excited they had ever been.

At this moment, Gu Shaoyang waved his hand and put the dragon ball away: "We have all found the dragon ball now, and we have to leave here quickly. If the Dragon King finds it, none of us will be able to eat it. Let's walk around."

Calculating the time, the Dragon King should still be chatting with those few people now, so Gu Shaoyang planned to take this opportunity to go back quickly.

Several people disguised themselves as shrimp soldiers and crab generals. Just when they were about to walk out of the Dragon Palace, the door in front of them was suddenly blocked by several people urgently.

The Dragon King indeed accidentally forgot to bring the Dragon Ball with him today, but he rang it in time. But when he returned to the palace, where was the Dragon Ball anywhere?

After learning that the Dragon Ball had been stolen, the Dragon King immediately became angry. He slapped the table and called all his subordinates over:

"Go and look for me immediately. You all go and look for me immediately. If the Dragon Ball leaves our East China Sea, I will kill you all. I will kill you all to make amends."

The Dragon King was really angry at this time. He was just careless. He didn't expect that the Dragon Ball was stolen by someone. The Dragon Ball is a treasure in the East China Sea. If it is really stolen by others, if it does, something will definitely happen. At this moment, Gu Shaoyang and others are secretly observing in a corner. All the roads leading to the outside have been blocked, and all the shrimp soldiers and crab generals have been blocked. In the palace.

Everyone must go through a certain review when going out, and all the belongings on the person must be taken out and looked at.

Looking at the group of soldiers and generals in front of them who are checking the person who leaves the palace over and over again, The brothers here finally became anxious:

"What can we do? If we go out, we have to accept their inspection, but they will definitely check out the dragon beads on us. What should we do?"

It has become impossible to go out. The most important thing now is to protect himself and Longzhu here first.

After thinking about it, Gu Shaoyang decided that he should continue to lurk next to the Dragon King, and during this period, the Dragon King had no influence on him. The impression is good, there should be no suspicion in a short time.

After arranging all his brothers, Gu Shaoyang was lurking next to the Dragon King, and he spoke more beautifully than anyone else.

Looking at the Dragon King in front of him Already extremely angry, Gu Shaoyang took this opportunity to express his loyalty quickly:

"His Highness the Dragon King, some unknown villain must have stolen the Dragon Ball. I will definitely get the Dragon Ball back. I hope His Highness the Dragon King will never be angry."

It's a coincidence that Gu Shaoyang came. Now the Dragon King has calmed down. He thought about it and couldn't figure out who had the courage to steal the Dragon Ball.

Looking at the Dragon King in front of him, he looked like a hundred While he was puzzled, Gu Shaoyang took this opportunity to provoke a conflict between the East China Sea and the West China Sea:

"Your Highness the Dragon King, ordinary people would definitely not dare to steal the Dragon Ball. If someone really dared to steal the Dragon Ball, it might be a spy sent from the West Sea."

Only by provoking the conflict between the East China Sea and the West China Sea can I be able to escape unscathed.

Of course Gu Shaoyang knew this very well: "Didn't Xihai always investigate there before? They might have been eyeing our dragon beads for a long time, so we might as well go and take a look, if Xihai really sends them over. What can we do with a group of spies?"

After finally calming down his anger, the Dragon King became even more angry at this moment. He slapped the table and stood up with a curse:

"You're right, Xihai has been making trouble with us before. They must want to take away our treasure!"

Actually, Gu Shaoyang never thought that the Dragon King in the East China Sea would be so easy to deceive. He just said a few words casually, and the other party really believed it. Time continued to pass slowly like this. As he walked down, looking at the angry face of the Dragon King in front of him, Gu Shaoyang continued to add fuel to the fire:

"You are right. I have seen before that there seem to be people with suspicious identities here. If they are really sent by the Dragon King of the West Sea, they must want to spy on our treasures. ah!"

Anyway, no matter what I say, the other party will not arouse any suspicion, so Gu Shaoyang simply adds fuel to the fire and makes the matter more serious.

The other younger brothers have been arranged by Gu Shaoyang in the past few days, although there are not many. It is a place to eat, drink and have fun, but at least it will not be discovered by people in the East China Sea.

Moreover, the loss of the Dragon Ball is not a trivial matter. The Dragon Ball is originally a treasure in the East China Sea. If it is lost, I and the group of people below will not be able to find it. It's easy to explain.

The Dragon King had no choice but to send spies to inquire about Xihai, and even sent his confidants there.

Originally, Gu Shaoyang wanted to go on this trip for the Dragon King. After all, he also wanted to see something. See if there is any special movement over the West Sea? But when he thinks about his special status, he can only let others do it first.

Before that subordinate has found out the results of the investigation, the Dragon King of the East China Sea has always been very special. He is anxious, maybe he also knows that losing the dragon ball is definitely not a simple matter.

At this moment, the Dragon King of the East China Sea is constantly cursing at the group of people who stole the dragon ball: "The dragon ball itself is a sacred object in the East China Sea. , if it is really stolen by those grandchildren, how should I explain it to all the people in the world? It's just too much."

Gu Shaoyang never said anything else from the beginning to the end. Anyway, he knew that the Dragon Pearl was still with his younger brothers. As long as his younger brothers could protect the Dragon Pearl well, the Dragon King would not be able to find any clues.

It has been a whole time. It has been two days. In these two days, the Dragon King of the East China Sea has sent his shrimp soldiers and crab generals to turn the entire Dragon Palace upside down.

Every time, the younger brother can be very clever to fool these shrimp soldiers and crab generals, so they No trace of the Dragon Ball has ever been found in the city.

Just when the Dragon King of the East China Sea was waiting for news that night, the subordinate he sent out suddenly came back, and there were various scars all over his body.

Look. After seeing this situation, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help being shocked. Looking at the appearance of the subordinate in front of him, could it be that he was really caught by the people from the West Sea?

While he was hesitating in his heart, he and At the same time, the Dragon King of the West Sea in front of him also barged in coldly.

There were a group of shrimp soldiers and crab generals around him who wanted to stop the Dragon King of the West Sea, but they had already been kicked to the ground.

The Dragon King of the East China Sea and the Dragon King of the West Sea were before There used to be a certain degree of kinship, but since there has been no movement for so many years, the relationship has gradually faded away.

Now the Dragon King of the West Sea looks at the Dragon King of the East Sea coldly: "Brother, I still call you eldest brother." , I want to ask you what you mean by sending spies to my side?"

After hearing this, Gu Shaoyang screamed in his heart. It seems that his alienation plan this time has really gone too far. He originally wanted to take advantage of the chaos to escape from the city, but he didn't expect that this time he really caused trouble in the East China Sea. The war between the East China Sea and the West Sea.

The Dragon King of the East China Sea is naturally not someone to be trifled with. He was inexplicably broken into his palace by others. If he humbles himself now, wouldn't that mean he has lost the face of the East China Sea?

It is precisely because of the reason in his heart. With such scruples, the Dragon King of the East China Sea directly cursed angrily at this moment.

He said coldly: "Don't think that I don't know what little thoughts you have in your heart. What on earth have you done with our Dragon Ball of the East China Sea?" Where did you hide it? Why don't you hand it over quickly?"

This time I really poked a hole in the ant's nest. Originally, the Dragon King of the East China Sea wanted to deliberately blow up the Dragon King of the West Sea. Unexpectedly, the Dragon King of the West Sea also had a bad temper.

Chapter 1266

The dragon king whipped the subordinate directly and hard.

"When you lose something in the East China Sea, you suspect that we people from the West China Sea stole it. How can there be such a truth in the world? And who knows what you wanted to do by filming this spy going to our side?"

The two dragon kings just started scolding each other so violently that Gu Shaoyang, who had been beside him, didn't know if he should run away quickly.

And when he was still thinking about what to do next? Xihai at this moment The Dragon King said directly and coldly:

"Since you believe that the Dragon Ball of the East China Sea was taken away by us, then come to our West Sea to search carefully. As long as you can enter the gate of our West Sea, we will definitely give you the Dragon Ball of the East China Sea with both hands."

After saying this, the Dragon King of the West Sea turned his head in confusion, and then left angrily. After hearing this, the Dragon King of the East China Sea was stunned for a moment, and immediately slapped his hand on the table:

"You didn't send the spies there for anything else, they just wanted to see if there were any of our dragon balls? As for losing such a big temper?"

Anyway, things have reached this point. Gu Shaoyang decided not to do anything at all. He hurried up and said:

"The Dragon King of the West Sea usually has a bad temper, and this time it is obvious that he is here for you, the Dragon King. Maybe they in the West Sea really stole our Dragon Ball."

"Didn't the Dragon King already say that when he left? It is said that the Dragon Ball has been stolen, but the people here are still arrested by them. It must be because they have a guilty conscience. It is better to go and take a look."

The Dragon King of the East China Sea really has no ability to think. After hearing this, he immediately led his troops to the West Sea. In the past few days, the Dragon King of the East China Sea has been blocking all exits, but now he has deployed all his troops. They were all brought to the West Sea, and Gu Shaoyang took the opportunity to sneak out.

After finding his younger brothers, Gu Shaoyang immediately took his younger brothers and sneaked out that night without being discovered by anyone.

Today A group of people walked cautiously on the bottom of the sea, for fear of being discovered by others.

Finally they finally left the bottom of the sea. When they were halfway there, they once again encountered the group of lantern fish from before.

Since there had already been A certain amount of experience, so this time Gu Shaoyang and others carefully avoided the group of lantern fish. The boys around him were so nervous that they did not even dare to express their anger. At this moment, Gu Shaoyang was also walking cautiously. On the one hand, he It is to avoid the monsters coming from the water. On the other hand, we must be careful not to kill the Dragon King of the East China Sea.

It is precisely because the Dragon King of the East China Sea took away all the troops this time that they can take advantage of them and bring them with them. Dragon Ball ran back from the Dragon Palace. If the Dragon King really comes back now, then things will be different.

After seeing the group of lantern fish finally passing by, Gu Shaoyang felt relieved at this moment. But just when he was about to leave, an extremely harsh sound suddenly came from his ears.

Looking in the direction of the sound, Gu Shaoyang's eyes widened in surprise. This time, the monster came again. They were in groups, and these monsters looked like humans.

Originally, he didn't know much about the creatures in the seabed, so Gu Shaoyang reacted immediately and suddenly hit the monster next to him. The little brother fished it out.

Fortunately, Gu Shaoyang's reaction was relatively quick. If it weren't for such a quick reaction, maybe this time the little brother would have been captured by the monster. He looked at it with some vigilance. The group of monsters in front of me, the group of monsters in front of me, do look like humans, but they all have dense hair on their bodies. This group of monsters looks a little different from the monsters in the water, but their actions are very special. Sensitivity.

Seeing that his speed could not keep up with the speed of the group of monsters in front of him, Gu Shaoyang had an idea after seeing a piece of kelp growing next to him.

He began to use all his strength to lead those monsters into the pile of kelp. , and you must carefully avoid the kelp every time, and you must not get entangled in the kelp.

Several boys around you have been scratched by the monsters, and just when one of the monsters is about to catch up with Gu Shaoyang , at the same time, Gu Shaoyang smiled happily.

The reason why he brought these monsters to the kelp pile just now was because he wanted to use these kelp to entangle all these monsters.

At this moment, he had already wrapped all the monsters. All the monsters arrived.

Chapter 1267

The seaweed pile was in the pile, and looking at the seaweed pile in front of him, Gu Shaoyang winked directly at the group of boys next to him.

The younger brothers were also very sensitive. They immediately understood Gu Shaoyang's intention. How many of them wrapped up all the monsters just now with kelp?

Kelp also has a certain degree of flexibility, so after putting it on the backpack, the monsters inside struggled again and again, but they couldn't get away for a while.

While these monsters were still struggling here, Gu Shaoyang hurriedly ran back, and the younger brothers behind him immediately followed their elder brother's pace.

Several people finally worked together to reach the shore, where they were now breathing heavily.

The pills on my body had basically expired. I looked at myself and saw that my whole body was wet. One of the boys couldn't help but smile and said:

"Sure enough, our eldest brother is very powerful. I really didn't dare to think about it before. I really didn't dare to think that we could move freely in the sea."

The group of boys around them also laughed in amusement. By the time they returned to the organization, the group of people in the organization had already been waiting anxiously.

This time, Gu Shaoyang had been waiting for more than ten days alive, and in During these ten days, one person was giving orders on his behalf.

Gu Shaoyang took out the dragon ball that he had worked so hard to obtain. The group of people around him all looked at the dragon ball greedily. When did they Have you ever seen such a big treasure?

One of them kept touching the dragon ball with some emotion: "My dear, it turns out that the so-called top treasure looks like this. Isn't it really beautiful? I really have never seen anything more beautiful than this."

The expression on this man's face when he said these words looked particularly greedy. Gu Shaoyang had already seen through this man's inner thoughts, so he quickly put the dragon ball away:

"The victory this time is the result of everyone's joint efforts. There will be a celebration banquet tonight. I will definitely reward you well, so hurry up and prepare."

Originally, there were a few people who wanted to appreciate the heroic appearance of the Dragon Ball, but now that the boss has put the Dragon Ball away, they could only sigh helplessly.

Time went on slowly, After finally waiting until night, the few boys who had gone with Gu Shaoyang had already changed into very gorgeous clothes.

Knowing that they must be the focus of praise tonight, the tails of these boys were almost gone. It reached the sky.

Some of them even directly exaggerated: "You don't know how powerful our eldest brother is. Our eldest brother went to the cave behind and practiced alchemy for several hours, and he made more than a dozen pills that can The elixir that allows us to move freely underwater."

When looking at the envious faces of the people around them, these boys were even more proud. You know, very few people have the opportunity to go to the East China Sea Dragon Palace.

And there are even more people who don't want to go there. He kept showing off: "Our eldest brother is not only very powerful, but also very smart, but he also provoked a feud between the Dragon King of the East China Sea and the Dragon King of the West Sea?"

Listening to the exaggerated words of these young men, Gu Shaoyang here couldn't help but laugh. It seems that he really has to let these people keep a low profile when he goes back. The celebration banquet is about to begin. , this time Gu Shaoyang also called over all the younger brothers who had followed him before:

"I know you all had doubts in your hearts when you followed me. You should have doubted whether I was lying to you? But now you won't have such doubts anymore, right?"

The reason why he took such a big risk to go to the East China Sea to get the Dragon Ball was not because he needed the Dragon Ball, but because he urgently needed to confirm his status in the organization.

One day when he was unsure of his status, Gu Shaoyang became confused. He couldn't settle down, so he took the risk to go to the Dragon Palace. The reason why he took such a big risk to steal the Dragon Balls in the Dragon Palace was that Gu Shaoyang wanted to take this opportunity to stabilize his position in the organization, and he also had to let those Those who disobey themselves will resolutely obey.

After going to the East China Sea to complete the matter of getting the Dragon Ball, those who followed Gu Shaoyang to the Dragon Palace have already seen through it.

They know that the current eldest brother is a very powerful person. The eldest brother is even worse than the previous eldest brother.

Although there are a few people who still look unconvinced on the surface, in fact, he is already very convinced in his heart.

Chapter 1268

Moreover, these people have already determined that Gu Shaoyang will be their next and only eldest brother.

At the celebration banquet, Gu Shaoyang looked at the group of people in front of him quietly, and at this moment he also said with a cheerful smile:

"I know that you have worked hard for following me this time, so this time I will be the one to apologize to you. I know that you have suffered a lot along the way, so don't worry, I will definitely reward you well. Yours."

This time, Gu Shaoyang also specially took out some elixirs that he had refined before. These elixirs are things that can be encountered but cannot be obtained. Others don't have them yet.

It is precisely to establish himself in this world. Because of his position as the eldest brother in the organization, Gu Shaoyang specially took out all these elixirs this time, and solemnly told the group of people in front of him about the great effects of the elixirs:

"I finally refined these elixirs with great difficulty. Their main function is to improve your cultivation. You can try them.

Everyone who followed Gu Shaoyang had a share, and after hearing this, the people around him were very happy, especially those who followed him to the East China Sea Dragon.

"In fact, we couldn't help at all this time, and it was our eldest brother who took us to hide in the Dragon Palace. We are really ashamed that our eldest brother has such a big role beside the Dragon King."

On the surface, they pretended to be very humble, but in fact, this group of people had already been salivating over the pills that Gu Shaoyang brought over, so they happily took them.

Looking at the few in front of them The younger brother's body was so honest. At the same time, Gu Shaoyang also smiled directly. He knew that these people should also be bribed by interests. It is not a big deal to be bribed by interests, as long as these people can obey him sincerely, then It's enough, at least he can't let these people resist him all the time. At this celebration banquet, Gu Shaoyang also showed off the Dragon Ball. After seeing the Dragon Ball, the eyes of those around him were straightened. Who could Everyone knows that the Dragon Ball in the East China Sea is a huge treasure!

Seeing that now even the Dragon Ball has been obtained, several other people can't help but regret it, and they keep looking at Gu Shaoyang one by one. Saying in the ear:

"If I had known, I should have gone with my eldest brother. If we had gone with him, we would have been able to see the world with him."

These people were really helpless when they spoke. If they had gone with Gu Shaoyang, then maybe they would be the ones being rewarded now. Everyone around them was full of envy. After this time After the incident, Gu Shaoyang had already established some positions in the hearts of these people.

He thought that he would definitely be able to make everyone obey him this time, but what he never expected was that even this time the celebration banquet had already been held, they There were still a few who were unconvinced.

And that night, a few people even said:"What's the big deal? It's just a trip to the Dragon Palace, and it also called up Xihai and When it comes to the disputes in the East China Sea, this method is simply not something that can be put on the table."

After the celebration banquet was over, how many people started discussing directly? There were a few people around who followed Gu Shaoyang to the Dragon Palace:

"Let me tell you, our previous eldest brother would definitely not do such a thing. Our previous eldest brother must have directly relied on his own abilities to confront the tough ones. How could he do such a mess like now?"

The person next to him who was going to the Dragon Palace couldn't bear to hear these people talking nonsense here. Seeing that this person wasn't finished yet, he directly punched that person hard:

"I warn you, our eldest brother has always been affectionate and righteous. If it weren't for our eldest brother, we would have written about countless brothers. If you dare to say these nonsense again in the future, don't blame me. You're welcome."

The person in front of me was stunned all of a sudden. Since the people who followed Gu Shaoyang all took the pills given by Gu Shaoyang, their cultivation base increased rapidly. Moreover, their cultivation base also increased when they were at the bottom of the sea, so their abilities were all improved. It was already very strong.

After watching the man who hit him just leave, the few people at this moment finally did not dare to discuss nonsense, and in the next time, no one dared to talk nonsense anymore.

Gu Shaoyang went to the Dragon Palace It's pretty good inside, and it's because of going to the Dragon Palace this time that no one dares to say nonsense anymore.

Now Gu Shaoyang has firmly established himself as the leader.

Chapter 1269

When he was free, he began to think about how to carry out internal reforms and how to adjust the rules?

In the past few days, he directly called all his old employees over, and also called over some people who were not convinced by him before:

"Now that I have become your big brother, I hope to lead you on a brighter road."

After saying these words, Gu Shaoyang threw down a book. The content in the book was the crystallization of all his wisdom these days. Everything in it was thought up by him:

"We must carry out internal reforms and regulations. Burning, killing, looting, and stealing are absolutely not allowed. If I find someone doing something bad, I will kick him out directly."

After hearing this, the group of young men in front of them all looked at each other. This is not the rule of their soul hunting organization.

However, because Gu Shaoyang's strength is too strong, they did not dare to say anything more, and later Gu Shaoyang also He directly led them to take the lead in doing good deeds.

Anyway, he already had the Dragon Ball in his hand, so it was simply useless if he didn't use it, so Gu Shaoyang directly used the Dragon Ball to help rain in the drought-stricken areas below.

Since he has now become the boss of this organization , so of course Gu Shaoyang hopes that the new official will take up his post.

And since there were several people in the organization who did not trust him before, Gu Shaoyang has always wanted to use his own skills to make these people obey him.

Fortunately Now that she has some followers who are supporters, it is easier for her to gain a foothold in the organization.

And that day, Gu Shaoyang heard that the farmers down the mountain had lost their harvest due to a long drought and no rain, so he thought Thinking that he also has a dragon ball in his hand, why not use the dragon ball to do some good deeds?

After thinking of this, Gu Shaoyang immediately called his men over: "I heard that the farmers at the foot of the mountain are dying because of a long drought without rain. There is no harvest. Since we have all got the dragon balls, let's go and help them. It can also be regarded as doing good deeds for a few of us."

The men in front of them looked at each other in shock after hearing these things, because they had never done such a great deed before. In the past, they only knew how to have fun and never thought about the problems of the people at the foot of the mountain. And they never thought about other people's problems.

But now that Gu Shaoyang has made this request, this group of people can only bite the bullet and follow him down the mountain.

When Gu Shaoyang came to the bottom of the mountain, they were I saw a farmer uncle worrying about the crops in the field. This time it was really too dry, and the crops in the field were almost dry.

And seeing the farmer uncle standing there with a sad face, Gu Shaoyang Have you already guessed what he was thinking?

After looking at the brothers around him, Gu Shaoyang came directly to the farmer uncle: "Gather all the people in the village to the open space in front. Well, I can help you survive this drought crisis."

This farmer has never seen Gu Shaoyang before, but he can tell from his clothes that the man in front of him is definitely not a good person.

He knows that there is a mysterious organization on the mountain, so after hearing this The farmers quickly called out all the villagers in the village.

Now the empty land was full of those villagers, and the villagers didn't know what Gu Shaoyang wanted to do. ? Everyone looked a little frightened. After finally waiting for everyone to come here, Gu Shaoyang finally took out the dragon ball in his arms.

He looked at the group of farmers proudly: "I know you have all been working hard during this period. Due to the long drought and no rain, the crops in your fields are almost withered. This thing in my hand is a treasure!"

Originally they thought it was bandits from the mountains who came down to steal things, so the villagers were so frightened that they quickly protected all the valuables.

Now looking at the thing that looked like a night pearl in Gu Shaoyang's hand, None of these people knew what this was.

The younger brothers behind them also felt a sense of superiority inexplicably. Before, they didn't understand why Gu Shaoyang suddenly led them to do good things? Now it's like I understand.

Gu Shaoyang's voice came to my ears: "This is the Dragon Pearl of the East China Sea in my hand. I'm here to help you make rain today."

After saying this, Gu Shaoyang directly threw the dragon ball high, and at the same time, the sky was also covered with clouds. A heavy downpour fell directly. The villagers around him were stunned for a moment, and then one by one. They all bowed gratefully on the ground.

Chapter 1270

This time, the younger brothers were really shocked. They had only known how to solve problems by force before, but they did not expect that solving problems peacefully could be so useful.

What Gu Shaoyang never thought was that just because he used the Dragon Ball to make rain, he had been targeted by the spies sent by the Dragon King of the East China Sea to look for the Dragon Ball.

These shrimp soldiers and crab generals saw the sudden rain here for no reason, and immediately came over to investigate, and sure enough they found the aura of Dragon Ball.

After hurriedly returning to the Dragon Palace, the few soldiers immediately reported: "Your Highness, we have found the location of the Dragon Ball. The Dragon Ball is now in the hands of a human." After hearing this, the Dragon King of the East China Sea frowned. He frowned. He had never seen a human being in this period of time. How could he be in the hands of a human being?

Seeing the hesitant look of the eyeliner in front of him, the Dragon King couldn't help scolding angrily: "If you have anything to do, just tell me quickly. If the best time to tour Dragon Ball is delayed, then don't blame me for being unkind to you." Now."

Now that the words have been said to this point, the eyeliner in front of him can only sigh helplessly: "The young one noticed a familiar breath on that human being. It should be that he has been there some time ago. The one next to the Dragon King."

At this moment, the Dragon King suddenly realized that it seemed that this time he was really tricked by the brat from before.

After angrily throwing the cup on the ground, the Dragon King began to curse.

He kept cursing: "There is such a shameless thing in this world, and he even stole the treasure from my East China Sea. No, I must get the dragon ball back."

Knowing that Gu Shaoyang is also a man of some ability, So the Dragon King immediately called his eldest son over: "Our dragon ball has been snatched away by a human, you go and get it back for me immediately." The Dragon King of the East China Sea is most optimistic about his eldest son, so it is important Basically all the things I need to do are left to my eldest son.

The eldest son Long Ao in front of him also had a face full of disdain: "Father, please rest assured, he is just a little human being and dares to steal our dragon beads. He is really impatient."

Long Ao had already heard about the loss of the Dragon Pearl, but she thought it was a spy sent from Xihai.

No wonder East China Sea and West China Sea suddenly got into trouble. It seemed like that man was always stirring up trouble.

After selecting a few of his more capable generals, Long Ao immediately rushed to Gu Shaoyang's side.

When Long Ao found Gu Shaoyang, Gu Shaoyang was leading a group of brothers to discuss what to do next?

Angry voices had already been heard outside: "Shameless boy, please return our dragon balls quickly."

The people in the room looked at each other, but after hearing this, Gu Shaoyang smiled and said, He knew who was coming this time.

From the moment he used the Dragon Ball to make rainfall, Gu Shaoyang already knew that the Dragon King of the East China Sea would definitely be aware of the situation on his side.

Long Ao's arrival was a little later than Gu Shaoyang expected, so of course she was not afraid anymore.

After coming out, he found that Long Ao in front of him was the one he met: "Are you all moving too slowly? It's already several hours later than I thought!" The tone of his words sounded particularly mocking, After hearing this, Long Ao became even more angry. He did not expect that this human being could be so arrogant.

It was just a matter of sneaking into the Dragon Palace to steal the dragon beads, but now he actually dared to show off his power in front of him.

After hearing this, Long Ao immediately attacked directly, but Gu Shaoyang had already been prepared and captured him in three strokes.

Seeing that the man under him could not move, Gu Shaoyang smiled: "You should be the legendary eldest prince of the Dragon Palace of the East China Sea. It turns out that wine only has these abilities." After saying this, Gu Shaoyang directly faced The few shrimp soldiers and crab generals behind him waved their hands: "I am also a moral person. Since I have captured your leader, I will naturally let you go back. When I go back, I will talk to your Dragon King. , if you really want to redeem his son, you have to come to me in person."

The few shrimp soldiers and crab generals behind him were already frightened, and they really ran back to the East China Sea Dragon Palace..

At this moment, a few soldiers were crying:"That human being is so cunning, he actually defeated our eldest prince, and they even asked us to come back to let you know, saying that they want you, the Dragon King, to go there in person.."

Long Ao used to be the most beloved son of the Dragon King.
