Chapter 1272

These two are famous Dragon Kings no matter what, but I didn't expect that their strength was only like this.

No wonder it was so easy to defeat the so-called eldest prince of the East China Sea. It seems that even the Dragon King of the East China Sea has no ability. How can we expect the eldest prince to be capable?

Time continued to move slowly like this, and at the same time, Gu Shaoyang took the two dragon kings directly to his dungeon.

Long Ao on the other side is still in the dungeon. Originally, Long Ao thought that his father would definitely come to save him. Unexpectedly, not only the Dragon King of the East China Sea came in, but also the Dragon King of the West Sea.

Looking at the three dragons in the dungeon, Gu Shaoyang said helplessly: "Anyway, this East China Sea Dragon Ball is of little use in your hands, and the common people at the foot of the mountain are already dying of suffering, so just think of doing good deeds and accumulating virtue first. Leave the dragon ball with me for a while."

The Dragon King of East China Sea is naturally unwilling to put the dragon ball down, but now there is no way because they have seen Gu Shaoyang's true strength.

Seeing that the Dragon Kings of East China Sea and West China Sea had been captured in this dungeon, Long Ao could only sigh helplessly in the end.

She knew that Gu Shaoyang tied her here because he wanted to make her his subordinate. Since there was no other way out, Long Ao had no choice but to agree.

At this moment, Long Ao's voice was very helpless: "I know we will definitely not be able to escape this time, and we don't have any foreign aid now."

But there is still one Dragon King of the East Sea and the Dragon King of the West Sea outside. Yes, Long Ao wouldn't be as humble as he is now.

Gu Shaoyang didn't kill him when they were fighting just now, so both the Dragon King of the East China Sea and the Dragon King of the West Sea are still fine now.

The Dragon King of the East China Sea was still arrogant: "I'm just a young boy. Don't think you are very capable. Let me tell you, there are many self-righteous people in this world, but there are very few people who can really endure to the end." "

The Dragon King of the West Sea learned a little smarter, and after hearing these words, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but narrowed his eyes. It seems that the Dragon King of the East Sea really doesn't know how to learn well.

Just when he was about to open the door to the Dragon King of the East China Sea, Long Ao, who was beside him, punched the wall behind him hard.

Long Ao's voice sounded full of anger: "You just want me to be your subordinate. Anyway, you have pushed me to the edge now. Then I will sign a contract with you. We will sign a 50-year contract." A contract of 50 years."

50 years is not a small number. Ordinary humans may not even have a life span of 50 years. After hearing this, the Dragon King of the East China Sea immediately started to struggle violently.

Long Ao had always been his most beloved child, so of course she didn't want to see her most beloved child living under someone else's roof.

At this moment, the Dragon King of the East China Sea couldn't help but said: "What did you say? You are the upright Crown Prince of the Dragon Palace of the East China Sea. How can you be so groveling to a human being?"

As a dragon, you have an innate sense of superiority. And dignity made the Dragon King of East China Sea unwilling to admit defeat to Gu Shaoyang no matter what, but Long Ao had already seen through it.

If you don't admit defeat, what should you do if Gu Shaoyang really hurts the Dragon King of the East China Sea?

It is precisely because he has always had this concern in his heart that at this moment, Long Ao didn't care about what the Dragon King said at all, and continued to talk to himself:

"If I guessed correctly, you should have taken a fancy to my identity. You just want me to be your subordinate. I can agree to sign a 50-year contract with you."

This time, Gu Shaoyang finally smiled. What Long Ao said just now was right. He had indeed had this idea from the beginning. He thought that he was able to freely swim underwater after taking pills. If you need to fight underwater in the future, it will definitely be particularly inconvenient.

If you can take the legendary East China Sea Dragon Palace Prince into your pocket, things should become a little easier.

After thinking about this, Gu Shaoyang He curled up his lips and smiled:"Of course it would take 50 years to be alone, but now we have two people here? No matter what, it will take a hundred years, right?"

The tone of his words sounded a little careless, and after hearing this, Long Ao felt a little bad.

He was the son of the Dragon King of the East China Sea, and he had obviously given in to this point, but Gu Shaoyang was still so unwilling to restrain himself. , the Dragon King of the East China Sea next to him was so angry that his beard was almost crooked.

Their dragon race has been a particularly sacred race since ancient times, let alone being subordinate to this group of humans.

Chapter 1273

Even if you are the ancestor of this group of humans, you can still be considered worthy.

At the same time, the Dragon King of the East China Sea kept struggling violently:"You are dreaming that you want my son to be your subordinate. I see you Just go daydreaming, and get out of here if you don't want to."

His voice sounded particularly angry, and after hearing this, Gu Shaoyang spread his hands helplessly.

Just when he was about to leave, Long Ao suddenly said: "Isn't it just a hundred years? Anyway, I can afford it with you. I agree to your request and let my father and I go immediately."

Saying these words At that time, Long Ao had been staring closely at Gu Shaoyang in front of him, and at the same time, the Dragon King of East China Sea was even more surprised.

Dragons are all born with pride. He didn't expect that his son would really surrender like this man?

The Dragon King of the West Sea next to him was unable to get in the conversation from beginning to end, but after hearing this, Gu Shaoyang nodded.

Since the goal has been achieved, there is no need for him to continue to talk nonsense: "Deal! The two of us will contract for a hundred years. During these hundred years, I hope you can abide by the spirit of the contract."

The goal has been achieved, Gu Shaoyang There is no need to continue to detain the Dragon King of the East China Sea and Long Ao, and simply release them directly.

The matter on the East China Sea side is indeed settled, but the situation on the West Sea Dragon King's side is miserable. No one can come to save him at all.

After looking at the Dragon King of the West Sea in front of him, Gu Shaoyang could only helplessly bring it back to the organization at this moment.

Although the Dragon King of the West Sea is aggrieved, if this Dragon King is allowed to return to the mountains, there is no telling what will happen in the future, and Gu Shaoyang must not take risks.

Someone rescued the Dragon King of the East Sea, but the Dragon King of the West Sea was not so lucky. Now the Dragon King of the West Sea can only be locked up in the cellar by Gu Shaoyang.

Knowing that none of these people have any good intentions, Gu Shaoyang will naturally not be fooled by their sweet words.

In the end, the Dragon King of the West Sea, who had no one to rescue him, could only be brought back to the organization, but Gu Shaoyang had not figured out how to deal with it?

The Dragon King of the East China Sea on the other side really worked hard and worked hard to finally return to the Dragon Palace of the East China Sea. When he thought that he was being played around by a human boy, he felt very angry in his heart. of.

The eldest prince of Dragon Palace next to him also kept urging:"Father, that person is not easy to mess with. Now that we are lucky enough to have a life, we should cherish it." Fortunately, the eldest prince is still there. To be more reasonable, he also knew that Gu Shaoyang was not someone to be trifled with. If he was really trivial, the coalition forces with Xihai must have brought that man down long ago.

Although he understood this matter, the Dragon King of the East China Sea just felt that he could not let it go like this. As a dignified Dragon King of the East China Sea, would it be possible that he would really be bullied by that boy for the rest of his life?

Just when the Dragon King of the East China Sea was about to say something, Long Ao beside him suddenly blinked.

He said insidiously:"Now the Dragon King of the West Sea has been detained by that man on land. He will definitely not be able to come back for a while. If we take the opportunity to attack the West Sea now, it should be very effective, right?

" The Dragon King of the East China Sea and the Dragon King of the West Sea seem to be good friends, but in fact they have already had their own thoughts secretly.

After hearing this, the Dragon King of the East China Sea in front of him was stunned for a moment,"That's right. The West Sea now belongs to a leaderless area. If I directly send troops to attack, then these people will definitely not have the strength to resist!"

Thinking of this! He smiled even more sinisterly after that, and that night the Dragon King immediately ordered all the troops he could use.

Before leaving, Long Ao said to the group of soldiers and crab generals around him:"Xihai has been secretly occupying our territory for many years. Now that their Dragon King of the West Sea has been detained on land, it is time for us to fight back."

The shrimp soldiers and crab generals didn't understand what was going on, but they knew that as long as they listened to the Dragon King's request.

The mighty team set off directly. On the other side of the West Sea Dragon Palace, the eldest prince Long Bing was worried about his father's affairs.

I originally thought that he was just an ordinary human being. Maybe he was lucky enough to be able to steal the so-called East China Sea Dragon Ball before.

An ordinary human being actually let two dragon kings unite to attack him. At that time, Long Bing still thought it was a bit funny.

What he never expected was that his father never came back since he left, and the soldiers and generals he went to inquire about the day before yesterday never came back.

Since the shrimp soldiers and crab generals he sent out have never come back.

Chapter 1274

At this moment, Long Bing already understood. It seemed that he had indeed underestimated Gu Shaoyang before.

Forced by helplessness, Long Bing originally wanted to negotiate with Gu Shaoyang in person, but what could he do before he had time? The East China Sea side has already come directly to kill them.

The shrimp soldiers and crab generals from the East China Sea attacked directly. At this moment, the old returnee next to the Dragon King of the West Sea quickly ran into the palace, hugged Long Bing's thigh and started crying:

"The eldest prince should run away quickly. The people from the East China Sea have already attacked our door before our Dragon King came back. The eldest prince should run away quickly!"

As the saying goes, when the house leaks, it always rains. Long Bing really didn't expect that the people over the East China Sea would be so ruthless in doing things.

Now should have been the time when the East China Sea and the West China Sea united to fight against foreign enemies. He didn't expect that the people in the East China Sea would be so ruthless. The people around him would do such a crazy thing.

If the Dragon King of the West Sea was here, he should be able to hold on for a while, but now the Dragon King of the West Sea no longer knows where he has gone. It was not easy for Long Bing to finally When he ran out panting, the Dragon King of the East China Sea on the other side had already occupied all the palaces in the West Sea. The homeless Long Bing didn't know where to go, but in the end he felt that he should save his father. , and he didn't think Gu Shaoyang was that kind of unreasonable person.

Today, Gu Shaoyang was thinking about whether he should lead his men to do something? Suddenly he heard a person running over from outside:

"Brother, please go out and take a look. There is a person in our front hall, saying he came from the West Sea?"

In the past few days, Gu Shaoyang has never thought about what to do with the Dragon King of the West Sea. But after hearing this, he was very interested. It seems that someone is coming from the West Sea. He originally thought that the so-called Dragon King, the Grand Prince It should be pretty good, but what he never expected was that when Gu Shaoyang saw Long Bing, he was sitting in the front hall with a dejected look on his face.

New Concept felt a little shocked, and at the same time Long Bing was already She saw Gu Shaoyang standing at the door.

She said a little exhausted:"Father should be in your hands now. Our Dragon Palace in the West Sea has been occupied by the traitors from the East China Sea. If you are willing to save me, I can follow your orders from now on."

After hearing this, Gu Shaoyang thought for a moment. He really didn't expect that Long Bing would take the initiative to come to him for help this time.

Although he knew that the relationship between Donghai and Xihai was not that strong at all, he heard that Donghai Gu Shaoyang still felt strange that he attacked Xihai after returning.

It seems that the Dragon King of East China Sea is not a loyal person. If the other party is really loyal, he will definitely not take advantage of the Dragon King of West China Sea when he is not around. Launch an attack.

Looking at Long Bing's tired expression in front of him, Gu Shaoyang finally nodded solemnly at this moment.

There are still some elders in the organization, and this matter must be discussed with the elders. We have to discuss it, and besides, this matter is definitely not something that I can do alone.

At the same time, Gu Shaoyang looked at Long Bing in front of him: "The people over there in the East China Sea did not do the right thing, but now I have to do it first. Go back and discuss it with the elders. We also have discipline here, and I hope you can forgive me."

Gu Shaoyang was actually very moved by the condition that Long Bing told him. Besides, he also knew that the people over there in the East China Sea were not good people.

If he could really get the Prince Long in front of him to join his organization, then there will definitely be a lot of things to worry about in the future, and besides, this Dragon Prince is stronger than the Dragon Prince in the East China Sea. After returning, Gu Shaoyang first discussed it with the elders around him. He felt that this matter was feasible, so no one objected.

At this moment, after getting the consent of the elders, Gu Shaoyang could finally let go of the Dragon King of the West Sea with confidence, but he was always worried that this would let the tiger go back to the mountain.

Although the Dragon King of the East China Sea is not a good person? But the Dragon King of the West Sea is not a good person at all? The reason why these two were so easily dispatched by me before is because in fact, they are not good people?

Now the Dragon Bing's words are very beautiful, but if he really helps the West China Sea to destroy the East China Sea, then if the other party goes back on his word, he may not have the confidence to take action. Time will continue like this. Walking down slowly, Gu Shaoyang was always torn in his heart. On the one hand, he was worried about letting the Dragon King of the West Sea let the tiger return to the mountains, and on the other hand, he was worried that the Dragon King of the East Sea would become too powerful.

Just when he couldn't help but feel extremely entangled in his heart, at the same time, a subordinate walked in casually. This subordinate was the subordinate that Gu Shaoyang usually admired the most.

Naturally, his subordinates had already heard about the arrival of people from the West Sea, and now they shook their heads helplessly.

The other party's tone seemed to be full of disdain: "If you are really worried that letting the Dragon King of the West Sea go is the same as letting the tiger go back to the mountain, then why not give him a medicine."

Knowing that Gu Shaoyang usually refines a lot of elixirs, So this subordinate was naturally rude this time:

"If you really want to control the Dragon King of the West Sea, you must have something on hand, and I feel that you must get a good medicine that is difficult for others to detect."

As the saying goes, one word wakes up the dreamer. After hearing this, Gu Shaoyang suddenly realized. It seems that this person is right. Why don't you get some medicine?

As long as you can control the Dragon King of the West Sea, you will be able to The West China Sea will definitely not be able to make big waves at that time, and now that Long Bing and himself are cooperating inside and outside, it will be easy to defeat the East China Sea.

All the haze has been swept away long ago, and at the same time, Gu Shaoyang also came directly When I arrived in the dungeon, I knew that the Dragon King of the West Sea was somewhat of a powerful character, so I specially arranged some very nice decorations for him in the cell. At this moment, the Dragon King of the West Sea was staying in his cell. He was almost suffocated to death in this hellish place, where he had to curse every day.

If it weren't for being too afraid of Gu Shaoyang's strength, the Dragon King of the West Sea would have rushed out cursing before.

Now Gu Shaoyang He came to them and said: "Your son is here to join you, and the West Sea has been captured by the East China Sea."

Originally, he looked carefree. After hearing this, the Dragon King of the West Sea stood up in confusion.

The Dragon King's eyes looked full of disbelief: "How is this possible? How could something like this be done over there in the East China Sea? Isn't this too crazy?"

How could the Dragon King of the East China Sea Dragon Palace do such a thing when he was not in the West Sea at all? Thinking of this, the Dragon King of the West Sea already felt a little unacceptable.

This is simply taking advantage of others' danger, this is simply a wolf-hearted thing, In the eyes of the Dragon King of the West Sea, isn't this equivalent to forcing the West Sea to die?

In fact, the Dragon King of the West Sea is particularly clear in his heart that the Dragon King of the East China Sea always wanted to annex the West Sea because of the obstruction. He was still sitting on the throne, so he could not take action.

As he spoke, Gu Shaoyang directly brought out a glass of wine, which he had brought before. Before coming here Gu Shaoyang had hidden pills in this glass of wine before, but now the pills have melted without leaving a trace.

"You don't need to be too angry. Your son has come to see me specifically this time. If you are willing to cooperate with me, I can help you defeat all of Donghai."

The current Dragon King of the West Sea is really eager to cooperate with Gu Shaoyang, so after hearing this, the other party immediately nodded and drank the cup of drugged wine in his hand without any precaution. Anyway

, Everything was almost ready now, so after watching the Dragon King of the West Sea in front of him eat his poisonous wine, Gu Shaoyang immediately started arranging his troops that afternoon.

He said to Long Bing: "East China Sea There is certainly no fool over there. I heard that she has already won over several forces around her."

In the past few days, the Dragon King of the East China Sea has been trying to bring over the surrounding forces. Facts have proved that this time the Dragon King of the East China Sea has done a very good job.

In addition, most of the areas in the West China Sea have been brought over. They have all been occupied, so now the Dragon King of East China Sea has become an overlord-like existence.

"Have you seen this place? I had asked people around me to carefully check the area before." After saying this, the heroine pointed to the map in front of her.

This map was exactly where the Dragon King of the East China Sea attacked, and Gu Shaoyang also directly ambush his people here.

He looked at it quietly. The Dragon King of the West Sea next to him said: "I will find someone to ambush here, so don't worry. As long as you can control yourself well, there will definitely be no problems in the future."

Gu Shaoyang was a little worried that the Dragon King of the West Sea would do something impulsive, so he quickly gave a few instructions before leaving.

Facts have proved that Gu Shaoyang's formation was indeed correct.

Chapter 1276

In just five days, the East China Sea side had been defeated step by step.

There used to be some very special and centralized soldiers and generals here in the West Sea, so now these people have already spontaneously formed an organization.

Gu Shaoyang tried every means to get in touch with these people, and organized a series of plans with these people to drive out all the people from the East China Sea to the West Sea.

Gu Shaoyang's series of plans and actions really surprised the Dragon King of the West Sea and Long Bing. They really didn't expect that this man was not only brave, but also had a powerful brain.

The Dragon King of the West Sea and Long Bing have always wanted to chat with Gu Shaoyang, but Gu Shaoyang never gave them a chance because she felt that both of them were unreliable.

After finally resolving the crisis in the West Sea, Gu Shaoyang finally returned to his organization.

The Dragon Ball is now completely his own. During this period, Gu Shaoyang has been doing various good deeds with the Dragon Ball.

After finally returning to the organization, Gu Shaoyang has been thinking about how to turn his organization into an upright organization in the past few days.

It is precisely because he has done a lot of good things in the past that Gu Shaoyang's reputation has obviously improved a lot in the past few days, and even his reputation within the organization has improved a lot.

That night, Gu Shaoyang directly called his younger brothers over: "I never think that fighting and killing can really solve everything, and I also hope that we can all be respected by others. So I'm going to take on the task of doing good deeds in the past two days."

Although I have already known that there is no reward for doing good deeds, but if I can change other people's impression of me, it will be worth it.

The younger brothers around him actually hope that they can live openly and honestly in this world, so naturally they have already agreed with Gu Shaoyang's views.

In addition to helping the common people with some things every day, the most important thing for these young men is to kill bandits.

The strength of the bandits and the strength of Gu Shaoyang's younger brothers are simply the same as those in heaven and earth. Moreover, those younger brothers have even been to the Dragon Palace, so they have no stage fright when facing any scene.

Time continues to move slowly like this, and three months have passed in the blink of an eye. During this period, the Dragon King of the East China Sea did not dare to take any other measures, while the Dragon King of the West Sea was always concentrating. of recovery.

The Dragon King of the West Sea is a relatively rational person. He knows that he has suffered a lot after the last war, so he let all the creatures in his territory be released to nature.

In the past three months, Gu Shaoyang's spiritual pet branch has gradually grown, and soon its strength has surpassed hers.

Every time he saw his spiritual pet, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but feel a little happy in his heart. He never thought that one day he would have such a powerful spiritual pet.

Sometimes the younger brothers will come over to flatter you:"Big brother is really awesome, isn't he? We have never seen any spiritual pet that can be like this branch. This strength is really too powerful." Are you ready?"

The growth rate of the spiritual pet branch's strength is indeed a bit surprising, but Gu Shaoyang is just rehearsing another thing in his heart.

Nowadays, Zhi Zhi's cultivation has reached a certain level. If he continues to cultivate, he will need more spiritual stones.

Gu Shaoyang wanted to find some in every possible way before, but now that he has become the big brother in the organization, everything he does now must be for the sake of the organization.

It is precisely for this reason that Gu Shaoyang has not been able to go out at all during this period. In addition to working hard every day to deal with things in the organization, the remaining time is probably only to see the people outside..

Listening to the constant teasing about his spiritual pet, Gu Shaoyang felt particularly uncomfortable at this moment. He knew that he had no way to give more branches.

If possible, Gu Shaoyang hopes that he can find more spirit stones, but as the eldest brother in the organization, he certainly cannot get away.

Seeing that the branches during this period were almost unable to practice, Gu Shaoyang could only helplessly call him to his side.

Looking at the branches in front of him with innocent eyes, Gu Shaoyang also sounded a little strange when he said these words.

He looked at his branch with some grievance: "I know you are definitely not willing to leave me, but I have nothing more to offer you now."

Chapter 1277

"And now the organization cannot do without me at all."

After hearing this, the branches in front of me kept whining, as if they didn't want to be separated from Gu Shaoyang at all.

The younger brothers around them had already lowered their heads, and they didn't expect that. His eldest brother was so interested in this pet.

Gu Shaoyang wanted to provide some spiritual stones, but since he could only stay within the organization, he had no choice but to find another way:

"I can't delay your cultivation. If I delay your cultivation, I will feel sorry for you for the rest of my life. It's better for you to go out and practice on your own."

The brothers around him have already realized what Gu Shaoyang is going to say. They are actually very reluctant to let go of the branch, but they also know that everything is for the good of the branch.

Looking at the expression of Gu Shaoyang in front of them, they can't bear to part with it. After that, a younger brother couldn't help but cautiously asked:

"Otherwise, let us brothers go out to look for it. We can't let Zhi Zhi go out alone. There are so many dangers outside. What if we are really targeted by those who are interested?"

Everyone was very, very reluctant to part with it, but after hearing this, Gu Shaoyang rolled his eyes and rolled his eyes. Now the strength of the branch has exceeded that. How could he be kidnapped so casually:

"If you really have this free time, I think you should hurry up and see if there is anything you can do to help, right? I've been talking about this all day, some and some, so why don't I hurry up."

After hearing this, the brothers had no choice but to go down. At this moment, Gu Shaoyang quietly looked at the branches in front of him:

"Naturally, I can't delay your cultivation, but I have no other way now, so you should go and practice on your own, I believe you can do it."

The branch looked reluctant at first, but when it saw that Gu Shaoyang wanted to let him leave no matter what, it finally had no choice but to accept the fact, and set off with a small bag on its back...

Originally, Gu Shaoyang hoped that he could be of help, but since there were too many things going on in the organization now, he could only let Zhi Zhi go out to practice on his own. Nowadays, Zhi Zhi

's power has become very powerful, and even Gu Shaoyang has It was almost impossible to keep up with him.

Although he knew that he was strong and there was nothing to worry about, Gu Shaoyang always felt strange in his heart. Since Zhi Zhi left, he had rarely been able to sleep well.

People around him The younger brothers also knew what their eldest brother was worried about, but they had nothing to do.

Since there is a connection between spiritual pets and their masters, Gu Shaoyang was worried all the time. Such worries even caused those around him to The younger brothers couldn't stand it any longer.

They said one by one: "Why don't you, Master, follow me and take a look? Master has been very worried these past two days. I think the branches are not big." questionable."

The younger brothers are naturally kind-hearted, but there are too many things in the organization, so Gu Shaoyang just smiled helplessly. Gu Shaoyang was just about to take a rest that night, and at this moment, he suddenly felt something... A strange force.

His eyes suddenly widened. At the same time, Gu Shaoyang finally sensed that the branch had found a vein of spiritual stone for cultivation.

After sensing this, the feeling in Gu Shaoyang's heart His heart was finally relieved, and he couldn't help but sigh softly.

Fortunately, the branches this time were relatively lucky. Now they have found the veins, and there should be no danger in practicing in them, so Gu Shaoyang also There is no need to worry too much.

Time flies, and a full six months have passed in the blink of an eye. During these six months, Gu Shaoyang has been taking care of his organization very well.

In Gu Shaoyang's heart In fact, I have always been very clear that if I don't take care of the internal affairs of the organization, it will definitely not work, and internal management is conducive to the longer-term development of my organization.

Ever since I participated in the relationship between East China Sea and West China Sea After the incident, Gu Shaoyang paid special attention to his brothers. Even if the two dragon kings of East China Sea and West China Sea were able to fight, it is impossible for his brothers to be disloyal.

If there is really something wrong in his organization If there is a spy, it will definitely be particularly detrimental to his organization. Fortunately, no abnormalities have been discovered recently.

In the past six months, Gu Shaoyang first set a set of rules for his organization, and then forced The younger brothers around him all do things according to this set of rules.

Chapter 1278

The rules include countless restrictive treaties, and more treaties are aimed at the bad habits of the younger brothers in the past.

Originally, these younger brothers couldn't accept these habits at all. After all, these habits were really different from what they used to do.

Moreover, Gu Shaoyang would force them to do some good deeds at the homes of the farmers at the foot of the mountain, which was something these younger brothers simply couldn't stand.

In the past, I often did all kinds of arrogant and domineering things outside, but now I have inexplicably started to do good things with the farmers again, which makes these younger brothers unable to lose face at all.

It was precisely because he knew that the younger brothers around him were usually full of evil that Gu Shaoyang specially invited them directly to hold a regular meeting:

"Don't think that what I ask you to do now is to harm you. All the things I ask you to do are to train you. If anyone dares to cause trouble for me outside in the future, see if I don't come back and punish you. The dog's legs were broken."

Everyone knows that Gu Shaoyang is very powerful. In addition, Gu Shaoyang is now the person in charge of the organization, so these people naturally do not dare to do anything else.

Things within the organization have always been managed very well. But the external reputation has not improved much.

Seeing that he has been working hard for more than half a year, only the farmers at the bottom of the mountain have a slightly improved impression of his organization. Gu Shaoyang finally sat down. He couldn't help it.

He called over the two good brothers he trusted most: "Zhang Jie, Liu Bao, you two are my most trusted brothers in this organization. Our organization's reputation outside is still very bad. I hope you can help me."

These two boys are also very sensible boys. When they heard what happened to Gu Shaoyang, they immediately agreed.

In fact, Zhang Jie and Liu Bao are both good people. They have never used their power to bully others before. This time I saw Gu Shaoyang acting so heroic and righteous, and I was particularly impressed.

Zhang Jie smiled cheerfully: "As long as you ask us to do it, brother, we will definitely be able to do it well."

With the support of his two good brothers, the big stone in Gu Shaoyang's heart was finally relieved. He began to take his two good brothers down the mountain to do chivalry.

Now is the time of autumn harvest, and the mountain farmers below are busy every day. There is only one old woman in the family, and her two sons are both dead.

In the whole village, only the mother-in-law's family has no one to help harvest the crops. After seeing this situation Gu Shaoyang immediately saw the opportunity.

He collected all the crops in his mother-in-law's house overnight, and also helped his mother-in-law grind the grain into edible flour.

Looking at his mother-in-law's vigilant eyes, Gu Shaoyang felt a little distressed. He took out a few more taels of silver and said, "Mother-in-law, it's really not easy to live alone. I hope you can eat well and drink well in the future."

Last night, Gu Shaoyang took his two good brothers to help his mother-in-law harvest the crops. Now Liu Bao and Zhang Jie are also showing honest smiles.

This mother-in-law is quite popular in the village. , but since every household was rushing to harvest their own crops, no one could spare time to help him.

Since this incident, the old woman basically had to preach to others wherever she went:

"The people in our organization on the mountain are all good people. They did do a lot of ridiculous things in the past, but now they have long since changed their ways."

After the propaganda from his mother-in-law, and the fact that Gu Shaoyang and his two good brothers often do good things outside, their reputation outside the organization has finally improved.

Gu Shaoyang has always been very clear in his heart. If only these people know If he has changed his mind, then everything he has done will still have no effect.

It is for this reason that Gu Shaoyang called his two good brothers in front of him that night.

Then Gu Shaoyang poured it for Zhang Jie A glass of water, "Our current progress is too slow. Look at what we have done in the past few days, we have indeed achieved some results, but only those old ladies know about what we have done in the past few days. Zhang

Jie also felt melancholy after hearing this: "Isn't that right? Our internal management is pretty good now!"

"If we can improve our external reputation, then we might really be able to get some serious jobs in the future."

The three of them are all worried. They all feel that their progress is too slow, and most people don't have a good impression of the organization.

Chapter 1279

So their job seems to be getting harder.

Time continued to pass slowly like this, and along the way, Gu Shaoyang was always looking for various opportunities to help others, and he also did a lot of good things along the way.

Although the progress is indeed a bit slow, hard work pays off, and God can always see those who put in the effort.

In the place where Gu Shaoyang Line is now, the reputation within the organization has become much better, and everyone already knows that the group of people in the organization have changed their minds.

Several times when Zhang Jie and Liu Bao were walking on the road, several farmers at the foot of the mountain greeted them.

In the past, they felt that bullying talents was the most enjoyable thing, but now Zhang Jie and Liu Bao suddenly understand that being able to live happily with everyone is also a very luxurious thing.

These people kept working hard, and a month or two passed in the blink of an eye. During this period, Gu Shaoyang worked hard to turn the tide and make the people around him have a slightly better impression of the organization.

There is already a strict management system within the organization, so those within the organization do not dare to act rashly. They have always wanted to listen to Gu Shaoyang's management.

Seeing that the people around him were almost changing their views on him, Gu Shaoyang called his brothers over again:

"After our unremitting efforts, the people around us have changed their view of us a lot. This is the result of everyone's joint efforts." As he spoke, he applauded himself.

The brothers next to him were also smiling, but what Gu Shaoyang said next made them unable to laugh anymore.

Gu Shaoyang frowned: "Now we just have to It's just famous in this place, but it's still notorious in other places. I think we have to go to other places to do good things."

It's really difficult to deal with in other places, and because they were notorious before, they may have to put in some effort if they want to turn the tide now.

Just when Gu Shaoyang was about to say something, there was someone in front of him. The younger brother suddenly stood up and told the people around him the information he had learned during this period:

"I heard a few days ago that there was a robber in Xingmang Town, and this robber seemed to like young and beautiful women the most, and he had already stolen many brides."

There is a proverb in ancient times, it is better to destroy ten temples than ruin one marriage. Now this robber has taken away so many brides. It seems that he has really committed a lot of evil!

The one in the ear The younger brother was filled with righteous indignation: "I also heard from people who came to the inn at the foot of our mountain a few days ago. I heard that the villagers were very angry, but they did not dare to confront the robbers directly."

After hearing this, Gu Shaoyang was ecstatic in his heart. If those people don't dare to do this, then wouldn't it be enough as long as this matter can be handed over to him?

If he really wants to let the outside world If those people in the organization change their views on the people in the organization, then they must make certain achievements. This robber kidnapped the bride in broad daylight. If he continues to ignore it, he doesn't know what will happen in the future. After thinking of this ,

Gu Shaoyang stood up and patted the table. He laughed and looked at the younger brother who just spoke.

Gu Shaoyang's voice sounded very excited: "You really brought a person with you this time. Good news, since those robbers are so arrogant, let's catch them all."

Without further ado, after saying this, Gu Shaoyang immediately took several of his younger brothers to the legendary Xingmang Town.

When they arrived at the town out of breath, they happened to see a family there. He was crying while opening the door.

There were already several circles of people around him, and an old woman was there who kept comforting her: "My mother, please don't be so sad. If the child can be normal, Peaceful, that is our destiny."

After hearing this, Gu Shaoyang immediately realized that something must have happened. He immediately went to the crowd and quietly inquired.

An old man sighed: "What else can happen? This family was originally I planned to marry off the bride today, but I didn't expect that the group of robbers from the mountain came again and took the bride away. How could this be a good thing?"

I encountered such a thing as soon as I came up. After hearing this, Gu Shaoyang immediately became ecstatic. He vowed to the crying old woman:

"Old lady, I know you must be very sad right now, but you can rest assured and leave this matter to me, I will definitely handle it properly for you."

Since those robbers have bullied people and come to the town.

Chapter 1280

Gu Shaoyang naturally had to deal with that group of people.

He led a large group of people directly to the road that the robber took just now. The two boys beside him were also in high spirits.

Zhang Jie was even more excited: "This group of people is really unlucky to meet a few of us. Fortunately, we have already inquired about their news before. Now we just need to get the bride back first." "

The bride is the most important thing. The family worked hard to marry off a daughter, but unexpectedly, the group of robbers took her away.

They had been searching for about an hour, and they just happened to encounter the group of robbers who had thrown the bride under a big tree, and the group of robbers were now eating meat under the big tree.

The bride next to her looked particularly frightened, but the robbers in front of her were smiling. They just planned to rest here for a while.

Seeing that this group of people could be so shameless here, licking their faces and eating barbecue, Gu Shaoyang went up without thinking and beat all of them three times.

The boys behind him originally wanted to help, but to deal with the robbers in front of him, Gu Shaoyang didn't need the help of his boys at all.

After watching his younger brothers tie up all the people he had knocked down, Gu Shaoyang finally raised his eyebrows.

He directly held down the head of a robber: "It's a happy day for me. I would rather destroy ten temples than one marriage. What? Is it possible that I don't listen to what the old man said?"

Originally, these robbers were still They wanted to resist, but Gu Shaoyang's power was too strong, and there was not much they could do to struggle.

Seeing one of them still looking aggrieved, Gu Shaoyang kicked that person in the stomach.

He looked at this person condescendingly and said, "Don't look at me like this here. What I hate most is when others look at me like this. Where is your hideout?" He didn't want to take action directly. Yes, but the bride next to her was really pitiful, so Gu Shaoyang couldn't hold it back.

These robbers were just paper tigers. Seeing that Gu Shaoyang was so powerful, how could they have any other ideas? He immediately told them their dens in detail.

The robbers in front of them led the way, while Zhang Jie and Liu Bao were responsible for sending the frightened bride back.

Gu Shaoyang didn't notice anything at first, but when he saw the robber leading him to a cliff, he was almost stunned.

The cliff in front of us is almost vertical, and the top is relatively smooth. How is it possible that someone can climb up and down back and forth every day?

After thinking of this, he ferociously grabbed the robber: "How could anyone get there? Let me tell you, if you continue to play tricks in front of me, don't blame me for being rude to you.."

After hearing this, the robber in front of him was almost crying: "Brother, I really didn't lie to you this time. I definitely didn't lie to you this time. We usually live up there.!"

The people on Gu Shaoyang's side definitely couldn't get up, but he came up with another way. Since the cliff is so steep, why not just surround it on all sides?

After assigning locations to all the people he brought, Gu Shaoyang said directly to the robber next to him:

"You go up to me immediately and tell me that we are waiting down there now. If you can come down obediently and be captured, then we might be able to let you live. But if you don't be captured, then you don't blame me. You're welcome."

These robbers already knew that Gu Shaoyang was very skilled, so they absolutely did not dare to hide anything.

After hurriedly arriving at their den, the robbers immediately found their The king of copycats was crying and shouting:

"Your Majesty, why don't we surrender quickly this time? This man is really, really powerful. He beat us to the ground by himself. If it weren't for that man's mercy, we would have been beaten long ago. Dead."

Originally, the king didn't believe it after hearing this. He even came directly to the foot of the mountain without thinking of his own abilities, hoping to compete with this powerful figure in the legend.

Gu Shaoyang in front of him looked at the mountain king. The king was very rough-looking, and one could tell at a glance that he must be used to fighting and killing.

At this time, the king standing in front of Gu Shaoyang was also sarcastic.
