Chapter 1381

When he said these words, Gu Shaoyang really felt that he was a little anxious. He had just brought Tianci to practice outside for a while. If Tianci really had any shortcomings, even the old dean would not do it again. Cover yourself.

Tianci has always been a very, very innocent kind of person, and it is precisely because he has always been an innocent kind of person that Gu Shaoyang is not willing to let him get hurt at all, but he did not expect that this time he was accidentally hit by Liu Chengmin Injured.

That night, Gu Shaoyang tried hard to inject spiritual power into Tianci's body, but as time gradually passed, Gu Shaoyang found that Tianci in front of him was about to become a half-god and half-demon.

On the other side of the academy, the old dean of the academy was writing politely in his room at first, but for a moment, he suddenly felt a pain in his heart.

A mouthful of blood spurted out. Looking at the mouthful of blood in front of him, the old dean couldn't help but fall into deep thought. His heartbeat was extremely fast, and he felt as if something had happened.

Tianci had never gone down the mountain before. It was precisely for this reason that the old dean had always been a little worried. If it weren't for Gu Shaoyang who was also around, the old dean would never have let him go. He went down the mountain to practice.

It had always been good before, but today suddenly he seemed to be a different person. After thinking of this, the old dean could only contact Gu Shaoyang quickly, and then he realized that something had happened to Tianci..

The two people communicated thousands of miles through spiritual power, and at this moment, Gu Shaoyang felt particularly aggrieved and panicked. He did not expect that he would allow someone like Liu Chengmin the opportunity to harm Tianci:

"This time it was indeed my fault. If I had been able to take Tianci with me to that village, such a thing would never have happened. But I didn't expect Liu Chengmin to be with us from the beginning. around."

The more I think about it, the more I feel that the anger in my heart cannot be suppressed at all. At this moment, the old dean can't help but frown. He can no longer contact Tianci tonight. It seems that Tianci is there. There must be something wrong.

Gu Shaoyang's voice seemed to be trembling: "Tianci is still in a coma, and I feel that the magic power in his body seems to be invading her body. What should we do now? ?"

Gu Shaoyang must have used all the methods he could think of, but the demonic energy in Tianci's body in front of him has not been eliminated.

The old dean had read a book before, and at this moment he He also said calmly: "Both of you are children that I am proud of. You must come back well. You should immediately help God give luck and expel all the evil energy."

Gu Shaoyang has naturally used this method before, but he feels that this method is useless at all:

"I had already helped Tianci move his energy just now, but I felt that it was of no use at all, and the energy in Tianci's body was getting bigger and bigger. What should we do?"

Before he finished speaking, the old dean here had already directly interrupted Gu Shaoyang's conversation. He also knew that Tianci's situation must be difficult this time, but this didn't mean anything:

"If you want to get rid of all the demonic energy in your body, you must exercise your skills. It may be because your time was relatively short before, so you should continue to work hard."

Now that the old dean has said so, the helpless Gu Shaoyang can only start to help Tianci move his energy and exhaust gas, and the next day the old dean contacted him again:

"I basically read through all the ancient books last night. If you really want to take pictures of the Chinese Valentine's Day in the human body that doesn't belong to you, you have to do it, and you must not be scheming. , maybe some people can achieve results in only one month."

After hearing this, Gu Shaoyang had already nodded. Last night, he had been practicing God's power for a whole night, and the demonic energy in his body had indeed been reduced slightly, but the quantity is still extremely large.

Gu Shaoyang nodded. He also knew that this time it should be his fault. It should be that he did not grasp the time well at the beginning, so he inexplicably came up with something to wait for.

"Dean, don't worry. I have already put some protective screens in the forest. No one will find Tianci and I in this place. We can practice meditation here."

Chapter 1382

Gu Shaoyang had naturally made complete preparations long ago. This forest was originally the territory of the demons. If those people really discovered his existence, they would most likely attack him. of.

Gu Shaoyang also hesitated a little in his heart last night. If he could have walked out of the forest, he would have walked out of the forest long ago, but Tianci couldn't hold on last night at all.

Last night, Tianci's condition became worse and worse. If he didn't adjust his condition quickly, Tianci's life might be ruined here. So, in desperation, Gu Shaoyang could only continue to think in this cave. There's a solution.

In the following days, Gu Shaoyang basically stayed by Tianci's side except for necessary meals and drinks.

When he finally felt that the demonic energy in Tianci's body was expelled, Gu Shaoyang really felt that he was about to burst out laughing, but now the first day of practice had passed. for four whole days.

Gu Shaoyang has basically never had any other activities during these four days. Apart from helping meditate for luck every day, he just wants to see if there is anything worth hunting outside?

I originally thought that since the demonic aura on Tianci's body has been removed from him, he should be able to stand up again soon, but what he didn't expect was that three full days later, Tianci still had no idea. It means to open your eyes.

The old dean didn't know what was going on. If it weren't for the fact that there were too many things to teach in the college, maybe the old professor would have flown over by now.

After thinking of this, Gu Shaoyang tentatively suggested: "If external methods don't work at all, then why don't we think about taking things internally? I heard that some things have miraculous effects."

After hearing this, the old man in front of him couldn't help but nodded. If they could really get a good gift, they would definitely be able to save their God-given life.

"The place where you are now is very close to the Daughter's Kingdom. It is rumored that there is a very big treasure in the Daughter's Kingdom. If you can get that treasure back, God may be able to save you."

Although he has heard of the prestigious name of the Daughter's Kingdom before, he does not dare to go directly now. After all, the king of the Daughter's Kingdom is not a good person?

Gu Shaoyang has been thinking about it these days. He was puzzled. He didn't know why the toxins in his body had been removed, but now the other party still couldn't open his glasses at all.

As for this matter, the answer the old dean could give was obvious. He was not very able to convince the people around him, but he still analyzed it seriously:

"Before Tianci was basically the same, he had never been injured, so I think his body's recovery speed was much slower than that of ordinary people. This time, he was also poured into the demonic energy by the demons, so he must have It takes more time to recover."

After hearing this, Gu Shaoyang's eyes sounded even more sad. If he had been able to take Tianci to the nearby village, maybe things would not have become like this at all, and Liu Chengmin would not have been like this at all. There can be no opportunity to take advantage of it.

Time continues to go down minute by second like this. Just when Gu Shaoyang here doesn't know what he should do next, the old dean suddenly suddenly The command was issued directly:

"Tianci cannot recover because of his physical condition. If you really want to wake him up, you can look for the Holy Pill of the Daughter Kingdom. That thing is the best thing."

Gu Shaoyang had heard of the Holy Pill before, but that kind of thing only existed in legends. Gu Shaoyang didn't expect that these things actually existed in real life.

"If I just asked for it directly, there would be no way they would give it to me. Besides, I knew it was a treasure as soon as I heard it. How could they give it to me for no reason?"

This holy elixir really sounds like it is very valuable. After hearing this, the old dean was helpless. He had gone through all the medical books last night, but he still couldn't find it. Any method that can detoxify.

Although Tianci is still in a coma, if he always lives in a coma, his brain will definitely gradually die, and then he will slowly lose consciousness.

Chapter 1383

Seeing that the old dean in front of him had no intention of joking with him, Gu Shaoyang finally made up his mind at this moment. Even if it was a mountain of swords and a sea of fire today, he would definitely find the medicine.

Before leaving, he carried Tianci on his back: "Don't worry, I will definitely be able to find an antidote to save you this time. If I can't find an antidote to save you, then I will never do it again." Stop talking!"

When he said these words, Gu Shaoyang's tone sounded a little worried, and at this moment, he couldn't wait to set off to find the Holy Pill.

Gu Shaoyang had only heard before that there was such a thing as a daughter's country, but he had never been there, and this place should only allow women to enter, right?

After looking at the clothes he was wearing, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but feel a little embarrassed at the moment. This daughter's country has never allowed any stinky men to enter. If he goes in, then what if he is killed? What should I do if I hit it with a big stick?

Tianci on his back still showed no intention of waking up, and at this moment, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but started mumbling over there. He really didn't expect that one day he would be so embarrassed that he had to go to the Daughter's Kingdom:

"I think it would be faster for the two of us to dress up as women. If we didn't dress up as women, we probably wouldn't even be able to get through the gate of their daughter's country. How could we meet their king?"

Gu Shaoyang was worried all the way here, and when he finally found out the specific location of the daughter country, an old woman beside him suddenly reminded him kindly:

"Young man, if you are here to inquire about the Daughter's Kingdom, do you really want to go to the Daughter's Kingdom? I advise you not to go there. Only girls can go in that place, boys are absolutely not allowed to go in."

After hearing this, Gu Shaoyang suddenly felt a little broken in his heart. If he didn't get the Holy Pill quickly this time, Tianci would probably never wake up. This was his Things I don't even dare to think about

"Grandma, can you tell me how to enter the Daughter's Kingdom? I really have something very important this time. If I don't see their king, I will probably die!"

When Gu Shaoyang spoke, he deliberately made the matter a little more serious, but after hearing this, the old lady in front of him still shook his head:

"What you don't know is that this thing itself is impossible. It is impossible for men to go to the Daughter's Kingdom. There is a big mirror at the gate of the Daughter's Kingdom. This mirror can automatically distinguish men and women."

If you really want to enter the Daughter's Kingdom, then the first rule is that you must be a woman. If a man enters the Daughter's Kingdom, he will most likely be sentenced to cruel and inhumane punishments. I think of the old lady before. I once saw a scene where people from the Daughter Kingdom beheaded a man in public. Such a scene was really too bloody. The old lady still feels that it is her own psychological shadow.

"I advise you not to go there. If they find out that you are a boy, they will probably kill you, and they may even torture you."

Although the name of the Daughter's Kingdom sounds very warm, in fact, the old lady knows in her heart that the people in this country are the truly ruthless people.

The mirror at the door of the Daughter's Kingdom can automatically distinguish between men and women. , if you really want to enter the daughter country, you must be a real daughter, and neither Gu Shaoyang nor Tianci can enter. After thinking of this, Gu Shaoyang felt anxious. Originally, he wanted to be here. While looking for a reliable person to help me go to the daughter country, what I never expected was that this time things were more complicated than I imagined.

"I don't dare to go to that place. I heard that the women in that place are basically crazy women, and we have seen the women in that place before, and they are all very tough. If we go in, then I'm afraid we'll soon be gone from nowhere."

Originally, Gu Shaoyang wanted to find a little girl casually, but the little girls here didn't have a good impression of the daughter country, so they were not willing to go on this mission at all.

Gu Shaoyang right here While he was distressed, he suddenly heard a news in the restaurant that day. The people in the restaurant were chattering there about the king of the daughter country.

Chapter 1384

One person looked angry:"I have met the king of the daughter country before. You don't know how good-looking he is. If you can be with such a wife, then you will be happy in this life." There will definitely be no regrets."

Nowadays, Gu Shaoyang is really very sensitive to the three words"daughter country", and when he heard the name of"daughter country", he immediately wanted to see what happened. What happened.

There was a person next to me who kept saying:"It's useless to say this. Why can't you marry the king of the daughter country? But I heard that they seem to be going to the temple to pray for the country recently. Maybe we can meet there."

The women in this daughter's kingdom have always been famous for being cruel, and the king of this daughter's kingdom is even more cruel, but this person is indeed extremely beautiful. Everyone praises it.

After hearing this, Gu Shaoyang immediately hurried to the man who had just spoken. She asked in disbelief:

"Are you really sure that the king of the daughter country will go to the temple to pray for the country in the next few days? Can you tell us the specific route they took? I want to find him."

After hearing this, several men in front of them couldn't help but look at each other. They really didn't expect that Gu Shaoyang was so bold.

And the other few people didn't know what they were saying at all. That's great. Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but said anxiously:

"Didn't you already say that just now? Didn't you just say that the king of the Daughter Kingdom will go to the temple to pray for the country soon? Which path did they take? Is it possible that you don't even know this?"

Even Gu Shaoyang didn't realize that his tone became particularly irritable when he said these words. After hearing these words, several people in front of him finally reacted, and one of them quickly laughed in panic. After a while:

"Young man, I advise you not to go see the king of the daughter country. That woman is notoriously cruel. If you really want to go, then go to the nearby temple and wait on the mountain road. They will definitely pass there."

These people thought that Gu Shaoyang wanted to see the honor of the king of the Daughter's Kingdom. After he left, they immediately burst into laughter. Gu Shaoyang and Tianci were men originally, and there were also people in the Daughter's Kingdom. A big mirror. If they really want to go to the daughter's kingdom, they must pass by that big mirror, and that big mirror can't go wrong at all. At the beginning, Gu Shaoyang wanted to see if there was anything. Is there a way to make the big mirror go wrong? But he had already asked everyone around him, and then he discovered that the mirror that entered the daughter's country had no flaws at all, and it was surrounded by women guarding it. When Gu Shaoyang was so anxious that he didn't know what to do, he suddenly heard that the king of the daughter country was going to the temple outside to pray for the country.

When he heard this When I heard the news, there was already a feeling of excitement in my heart. If I could really stop him on the way to the temple, maybe I would be able to stop the king of the daughter country. After thinking about this Gu Shaoyang's heart began to become excited, and this time, in order to allow him to spend more time with the king, he specially set a trap on the only way for the king to go to the temple. This trap was far away. It looked very realistic.

When he saw the trap in front of him, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but smile secretly at this moment, and he was lying down in the bushes next to him, quietly waiting for the daughter of the country. The arrival of the army.

The trap made by Gu Shaoyang was basically invisible, and the people from the Daughter Kingdom in front of them really didn't see it. When the car of the King of the Daughter Kingdom passed the trap, one of the wheels sank directly. Go down.

If it weren't for the quick eyesight and quick hands of the people around him to support the car, the king might have fallen directly into the trap. At that moment, the king came down to inspect the car:

"How could a trap appear in this place for no apparent reason? Haven't we passed this place many times before? Why have you never noticed a trap here before?"

In the past, when the kings came to pray for the temple, they basically all passed through this road, and there were never any problems in the past. Unexpectedly, this time a huge trap would appear inexplicably.

Chapter 1385

And this trap is also concealed very well.

"Your Majesty, our car can no longer move forward. We need to make some repairs here first. I think it will be repaired in about half an hour. Otherwise, Your Majesty, please rest here first."

The woman in front of him also looked very serious. After hearing this, Gu Shaoyang suddenly became excited. What he wanted was the result in front of him.

As long as he could stop the car in front of him. If she came down, she would definitely have a chance to get along with the king of the daughter country. After thinking of this, she sneaked outside the army. Those on the periphery of the army were still patrolling there. Those outside the army Women have always been patrolling, but Gu Shaoyang could not be afraid of them at all. At that moment, he rushed out suddenly, wanting to bring the king back to his side first.

He thought he would bring him back among these women. It should be an easy thing to do alone, but just when Gu Shaoyang here was about to rush out, the group of women discovered her with quick eyes and quick hands, and rushed over one by one. If it were the one in front of them, If these people don't have much strength, maybe Gu Shaoyang can defeat these people, but these people in front of him are particularly powerful, and they really have a posture of not being inferior to women. The mood in his heart has immediately changed. He felt a little uneasy. At first, Gu Shaoyang could barely cope with the women in front of him, but as time passed, he felt more and more like he couldn't face these people. It was just a matter of going to the temple. They were just praying inside. What they never expected was that this time the emperor actually brought hundreds of troops. After dealing with it halfway, Gu Shaoyang already felt that he was unable to do what he wanted.

He came directly to a place not far from the emperor. , looking at the cold look in the eyes of the woman in front of him, he loudly expressed his true purpose of coming here this time:

"Your Majesty, I know I must be particularly abrupt this time, but I still hope you can give me a chance. If you can give me a chance, I will not let you down. Please give me a chance. Give it a chance."

When he said these words, Gu Shaoyang continued to fight with the people in front of him. After hearing this, the king just went to the carriage next to him coldly. When the king just got on the carriage, Gu Shaoyang had already been Several people fell to the ground at the same time.

One of them quickly put something into his nose, and after smelling such a pungent smell, Gu Shaoyang fainted at this moment.

When he woke up again When she came over, she realized that her eyes had been covered long ago, and there seemed to be a faint smell of water in the air, but now Gu Shaoyang had no idea where she was.

She His eyes were blindfolded, and he was following a group of people in a carriage at first, but he was soon thrown into a dungeon, and the people guarding the outside were basically all women. One of them was even more so. He stopped there and said sarcastically:"These stinky men are really disgusting, aren't they? Now, inexplicably, he has designed a trap for our king. Don't you think that you are likely to get into disaster?"

When he said these words, his tone sounded particularly disdainful, and after hearing these words, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but roll his eyes. If it weren't for the fact that this time it was for God's gift, he would definitely He won't come here.

When he thinks that Tianci is still lying on the bed, Gu Shaoyang here feels a little aggrieved, and the person on the other side can't help but directly haha Laughed loudly:

"Isn't that right? We have already arrested many men who wanted to sneak over to our place before. These men are so disgusting that they think about those sneaky things all day long. I really don't know what they are like. What does it mean to do something?"

The tone of these women when they said these words really sounded very disgusting, and after hearing these words, Gu Shaoyang was very angry in his heart. The emperor didn't listen at all. He said what he was going to do? He had already started to slander himself like this.

He cursed directly to the women in front of him and said: "I didn't want to attack your king at all, I just asked for something. , please go and call me your king again, I really have something important to ask of you."

In the beginning, Gu Shaoyang would still be there by himself, pleading hard.

Chapter 1386

But soon he stopped wasting energy, because it was impossible for the people outside to listen.

When they heard Gu Shaoyang's pleading, the little girls in front of them were still teasing them, and one of them even pressed the knife in his hand directly against Gu Shaoyang's neck:

"There are no men in our daughter's country, and we girls don't need any men at all. We just hope to continue the family lineage. If it were not for the family lineage, we would definitely not be with any man."

What he said meant that he looked down on the boy at all, and at this moment, Gu Shaoyang didn't know what to say. If he didn't go back quickly, Tianci's condition would definitely become more and more serious.

A few days ago, Gu Shaoyang kept yelling, but later he stopped talking. He knew that his words were of no use, and would instead be a waste of energy.

Although it is said that the few guards here look down on boys, but they really do not treat Gu Shaoyang badly at all, and they can even add a little chicken to every meal.

If it were not for knowing that they If he had seen the treatment of prisoners before, maybe Gu Shaoyang really thought that all prisoners were treated like this. At the moment, he really felt that his little life was very comfortable, even though the layer on his face Heisha has not surrendered yet, but he believes that the place he is in is not as bad as he imagined.

"I said, I have been detained by you for several days, right? If you don't let your king come over to see me, then I guess I will really turn into a mummy. Just tell me a little bit, okay?"

When he said these words, Gu Shaoyang really felt that he was a little speechless. He really didn't expect the girls in front of him to be so stubborn.

It is said that girls are always gentle and lovely, but this time his daughter These people in the country are like steel. No matter how much I beg, they are not willing to pay attention to me at all.

The more I think about it, the more angry I feel in my heart. Gu Shaoyang here just wanted to say something. At that moment, a person suddenly came over and unlocked the door of the prison in front of him:

"You've been chirping here all day long. This time we finally let our king see you. If you don't straighten your tongue quickly, don't blame me for not warning you."

After saying these words, the person took Gu Shaoyang directly into a hall, and when the black veil on her face was finally lifted off, he finally felt the feeling of sunshine:

"I know that my visit this time is indeed very abrupt, but I really have no choice now. If I don't come to your side, my friend will probably die."

On the way here, Gu Shaoyang found herself in a splendid palace. At this moment, she finally understood that she had been in the underground prison of the palace before. No wonder that place seemed to be damp and wet. dark

"If it were not to save my friend, I would never come here to trouble you, but I really have no choice this time, and only you can save my friend."

The tone when he said these words sounded very serious, and after hearing these words, the king of the daughter country couldn't help but shook his head:

"We have never let any man in here, and you are considered a special case when you come in here, and the place you enter is originally our prison. That kind of dirty place is the most suitable place for you boys."

It seems that all the residents in this daughter country are the same. They probably look down on all the men outside, but if there are no men, it will definitely be difficult for their daughter country to continue to reproduce. After thinking about this, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but complained quietly in her heart. If those people didn't let her out quickly, then she would definitely have to escape from this place. The reason why she took a huge risk this time to come here to see her King, because there is still a trace of luck in Gu Shaoyang's heart, maybe this king will really give the Holy Pill to him.

At the moment, Gu Shaoyang said directly: "My friend is now possessed of demonic energy. If you don't hurry up, It would be too late to save my life, so I hope to get something from the king."

After hearing this, the king of the daughter country in front of him became somewhat interested.

Chapter 1387

She felt that Gu Shaoyang was different from the men she had seen before. This man had superb skills and was able to face all kinds of situations without hesitation.

Time continues to go on like this. At this moment, Gu Shaoyang naturally has no intention of hiding anything. Anyway, there is no good thing in hiding from the king in front of him:

"Maybe my request this time is particularly abrupt, but I really have no other way now. I want the Holy Pill, and I must save my friends. If the king can give the Holy Pill to me, then I will definitely do it in the future....."

Before she finished speaking, the king of the daughter country in front of her had already stood up suddenly. At this moment, she suddenly interrupted what Gu Shaoyang wanted to say next:

"I think you are just being whimsical. Don't you think what you are saying now is too much? Let me tell you, the holy elixir is a sacred object of our daughter's country. Do you think you can just use these things casually? Are you leaving?"

This time, the king of the daughter kingdom seemed to be very angry, and after hearing this, she couldn't help being stunned.

In fact, Gu Shaoyang did not expect that the king would be so angry before. I just borrowed his temper for a little while, and he didn't take possession of the holy elixir permanently, so why would he have such a big temper? The more I thought about it, the more I felt something weird in my heart. At this moment, Gu Shaoyang Looking at the king quietly in front of him, he couldn't help but continue to explain:

"I know that my request this time is indeed very abrupt, but I really have no choice now. If I don't get the Holy Pill quickly, my friend will die soon. Besides, I Just borrow it."

Gu Shaoyang's expression looked sincere when he said these words, and the officials around him couldn't help but look at each other. They felt that the man in front of them was completely different from the men before.

They were the same as before. Basically all the men I saw were shameless men, but the man in front of me was different. The man in front of me looked like he was quite powerful.

In order to find out what is going on? At this moment, the king barely suppressed the anger in his heart. Indeed, no one had ever dared to mention borrowing sacred objects in front of her:

"You are really brave. Since you also know that the Holy Pill is the sacred object of our daughter country, you should not have spoken at all in the first place. Why! Do you really think that I dare not do anything to you?"

Men have the lowest status in the Daughter's Kingdom, but after hearing this, Gu Shaoyang is still neither humble nor arrogant. If he tells the matter and the Daughter's Kingdom in front of him still refuses to borrow the treasure, then he will have no choice but to go again. Find another way:

"I am indeed very abrupt this time, but I have also said that if it were not for the fact that I had no other choice, I would definitely not come here to make such a request. I really have no choice now. I hope you can Lend it to me and I will reimburse you twice as much when the time comes."

This time, the expression on the king's face looked much calmer than at the beginning. After the other party thought about it for a while, he finally nodded gently:

"If you just borrow it temporarily, that's not impossible. What if you don't return it by then?"

When he said these words, the king in front of him looked particularly cold. After hearing these words, Gu Shaoyang immediately shook his head, and he would definitely return the things:

"I know that maybe you don't believe that I am going to save people. If you don't believe it, then you can send someone to follow me."

This method is also a good method. If you can really send someone to follow him, firstly, you can find out where this man came from, and secondly, you can also find out whether what the other person said is true. words?

The ministers around him also seemed to be shaken, and the king in front of him at this moment nodded gently:

"It seems that you are sincerely doing your best for your friend. If this is the case, then I will make an exception and let you bring your friend to the Daughter Country so that he can be treated here."

After hearing this, the people around them had already exploded.

Because they did not expect that their king would suddenly make such a request. If he really did this, wouldn't it be a big deal? Is this equivalent to breaking the ancestral precept that the daughter cannot have men in her country?

"Absolutely no, no man can be allowed in our daughter's country!"

Chapter 1388

Any man who comes to our place will tarnish the feng shui of our place. I hope the king will think clearly about this. This is a lesson left to us by our ancestors for generations!"

An older-looking old man stood up, and after hearing this, the king in front of him frowned coldly. It seemed that he couldn't stand this old man. :

"I advise you not to say these things. Since it is a decision I made, you must abide by it. And I have already said this. If you don't abide by it, don't blame me for treating you. You are welcome."

Anyway, the baby is someone else's. It's normal for people to be a little wary. So after thinking about this, Gu Shaoyang immediately took the people from the Daughter Kingdom to take Tianci back.

Tianci has not sobered up until now. Well, it was not easy to finally bring Tianci to the daughter's kingdom. At this moment, Gu Shaoyang quietly looked at Tianci lying on the bed, and suddenly felt a little moved. There were no men in this daughter's kingdom, and they usually saw them. Basically, all the men who arrived were crooked. Now that he suddenly saw such a handsome and beautiful God, the king was naturally a little tempted.

Gu Shaoyang in front of him bowed respectfully: "If the king is really willing to take out the treasure, then I will definitely repay the king's kindness even if I have to go up mountains of swords and seas of fire."

The king didn't think about anything else before, but when he saw the gift from heaven in front of him, he suddenly thought of a very bold idea:

"If you really want to save people, then I have a condition. As long as you agree to my condition, I can let you use the baby. If you don't agree to my condition, then you can only watch your friend die."

Because he didn't know what conditions the other party offered, Gu Shaoyang was frightened at first. At this moment, the king in front of him looked at Tianci lying on the bed:

"If you really want the baby, then leave this man in the daughter country. If you really want it, let him go, then he will be mine from now on."

After hearing this, Gu Shaoyang suddenly became particularly embarrassed. He couldn't sell his God-given personal freedom just because of a treasure. This would go against the other party's wishes.

"You have to think carefully, I feel like your friend can't survive at all. If you continue to drag it out like this, your friend will definitely be dead by then."

The expression on the king's face seemed indifferent when he said these words.

After hearing this, Gu Shaoyang thought for a moment, Tianci's situation was getting worse and worse. If it were to be delayed any longer, it would be. At that time, even his life is gone, so he might as well agree first.

After all, the top priority now is to save the life given by God. As for his emotional affairs, he can solve them by himself after he wakes up. After all, this is the king of the daughter country. There is also a bit of beauty. From this point of view, it is actually a godsend. That is to say, he saved his life and got a woman.

Now that Gu Shaoyang thinks about it carefully, he actually has more points of envy in his heart.

"I agree to your request, but I also have a small request."

Gu Shaoyang was not afraid of the majesty of his daughter's country at all. Instead, he made his request very boldly. The king of her country was not angry and just nodded to him, indicating that he could express his request.

"After you save him with the holy elixir, I hope that I will take care of him alone while he recovers, because he has been on the mountain all the time, and now he suddenly travels down the mountain and is injured. I am afraid it will cause harm to his future cultivation. Influence."

Gu Shaoyang's request was all about God's future future, so the king of the daughter country didn't hesitate at all after hearing it and immediately agreed.

"I agree to your request"

"Now that we have reached a consensus, I will take him away now, and I will send him back to you when the time comes."

After that, the King of the Daughter Kingdom turned around and left, and the people behind her immediately took Tianci away carefully. Gu Shaoyang stood there and watched them leave.

After the King of the Daughter Kingdom completely left, Gu Shaoyang began to have a headache.

Because now he still needs to give an explanation to the dean of Tianlu Academy. After all, he has given away Tianci, and Tianci is the future successor of Tianlu Academy.

If Tianci wakes up by then, it will really happen. If he has anything to do with the king of the daughter country, the dean will not catch him and let him take over Tianlu Academy.

So now Gu Shaoyang has to figure out how to explain to the dean and how to tell Tianci after Tianci wakes up. This happened.

Chapter 1389

At this time, Gu Shaoyang's head was almost bigger than the other two. He was really in a dilemma. If he really agreed to this matter, how could he explain it to the elders of the academy, and Tianci who was in a coma? Thinking of this After that, he really couldn't even sleep.

Fortunately, Tianci finally woke up that night. Although he was seriously injured, he didn't feel like he was going to die soon.

While he was awake, Gu Shaoyang finally told him the whole story. He originally thought he would be very angry and make the decision for her without permission.

But things often went beyond his expectation. After hearing this, this guy actually showed a lewd smile.

"Gu Shaoyang, are you lying to me? There is such a good thing."

After he finished speaking, he actually laughed heartlessly.

At this time, Gu Shaoyang seemed to be shocked. This is not like his character. According to his understanding of him, shouldn't he be furious? How could this happen? Could it be that he was possessed by someone?

And the other party also saw the confusion in Gu Shaoyang's eyes, so he started to explain to him

"Maybe my thoughts are despicable, but from the current point of view, I must save my life first, otherwise everything will be zero. As for my father, I will explain it to him, so you don't have to worry, promise him Just ask."

It's hard to find feelings for yourself, but the brat agreed so quickly.

So on the second day, he told the other party about the decision. Unexpectedly, the other party was very happy, and he immediately took out the holy elixir. Very quickly Let Tianci heal his injuries.

At this moment, Gu Shaoyang saw the other party holding the holy elixir and placing it on the damaged part of Tianci's body. Then he saw this Christmas glowing with golden light, and his light penetrated into Tianci's internal organs.

During the whole process Tianci's face was green-white at first, but after a while it finally turned pink.

Until this moment, Gu Shaoyang finally let go of the burden in his heart, which meant that Tianci was no longer in fear of his life. Unexpectedly, his daughter The country's holy elixir is indeed well-deserved, no wonder so many people want to get it.

In the next time, Tianci needs a period of rest. During the whole process, Gu Shaoyang did not let anyone interfere, because he had already followed The king of the daughter country agreed.

Seeing that his injury was about to recover, a difficult problem was placed in front of them. Did he really want Tianci to stay?

So he began to ask Tianci in front of him, and asked him Do you really want to stay? But at this time Tianci showed a sly smile

"If I told you now that I was leaving, how would you treat me?"

"I don't think you would do this. If you do this, you will become a villain who breaks your promise. When your father finds out, he will definitely punish you severely. Perhaps even your father and son will be punished severely. She won't even care about your love and will expel you directly from the academy."

"You are absolutely right, so I can't take risks. The only thing I can do is to stay for now and talk about other things later."

After hearing this, Gu Shaoyang didn't know what to do for a while. He didn't know how sad the other party was. However, there was no better way for a while. In this way, this matter came to an end. It was delayed like this, but as Tianci's body gradually recovered, this matter was put on the agenda.

At noon on this day, the king of the daughter country came to Gu Shaoyang and asked him how Tianci's condition was. In fact, it has been such a long time, everyone knows it well, and has completely recovered.

However, Gu Shaoyang said

"In fact, it is like this. It is not that we are unwilling to fulfill our promise, but that he is going smoothly. Something has happened. We want to recuperate his body before studying this matter for you."

When the king of the daughter country heard Gu Shaoyang's words, the world was stunned for a moment. Hasn't his body been nursed back to health by his own Christmas? When will problems arise again? After hearing this, he couldn't help but worry. He got up and said, can you tell me what happened again? Otherwise, how can I help him?

I saw that Gu Shaoyang became more lonely at this time, and then he said

"This matter goes back a long time, that is to say, when she was just born, his mother did not know who she offended and gave his body cold poison, which caused his body to have cold poison when he was born. Hantu.

It would happen every once in a while, and the time was approaching. He felt uneasy in the past few days, so this matter was not put on the agenda."

After hearing this, the other party finally understood, so he asked him

"So how should this matter be resolved? Have you never thought of a solution?"

Chapter 1390

"Why haven't you thought about it? You must know that his father is the dean of Lishan Academy. A large part of the reason for this is because of Tianci's illness. Unfortunately, after so many years, he has never found a solution, and it has been like this. It was dragged down until now.

You see, he usually looks like a healthy child, but he feels particularly uncomfortable every few days."

"His body is so cold that it feels like he has been soaked in water. It feels exactly like being thrown into the ice and snow, so he really can't bear your love."

After hearing this, the king of the daughter country finally knew what was going on, so he said don't worry, I will go back and think of a way, maybe I can help you solve this problem here. After that,

Gu Shaoyang didn't wait. He said something and left. When his figure disappeared in front of Gu Shaoyang, Tianci suddenly walked out from behind, then came to Gu Shaoyang's side, walked around him several times, and suddenly laughed loudly. Laughed and said

"Unexpectedly, the serious Gu Shaoyang actually told lies without even writing a draft, which really made people admire him."

Although what the other party said was funny, Gu Shaoyang didn't have time to make a fuss with him at this time, so he rolled his eyes at him.

"It wasn't because of you. If it weren't for you, how could we have fallen into such a predicament? We can only delay it for a while, and we must try our best to find a way."

At this time, the other party also became serious and said, although the method you mentioned can alleviate today, what will happen after it passes? That's why we are trying to find a way to make the king give up on this matter. By then, won't there be no problem? ? But the problem is that this king seems to really like you. He doesn't want you to leave and wants you to stay. What should I do?

So I will trouble you about this matter. You will definitely help me come up with something better. There is a way, as long as he can give up, no matter how big a sacrifice is required of me, I am willing. I really think, but there must be a way.

At this moment, the two of them are particularly worried about what kind of solution they should think of. What?

At this time, after the king of the daughter country returned to his room, he suddenly burst out laughing. He felt that these two guys, Gu Shaoyang and Tianci, were really interesting. In order to escape this promise, they could think of anything. Come out...

Although he didn't see what kind of symptoms Tianci had, after getting to know each other in the past few days, he knew that these two guys were definitely not as simple as they seemed on the surface.

In fact, he didn't really want it from the beginning to the end. The purpose of keeping Tianci was to help him do something. It seemed that he had to step forward. After thinking of this, his eyes became particularly sensitive.

That night, he wore night clothes and quietly He came to Tianci's room, and then quickly threw a note into the other party's bedside table while the other party was not prepared, and then inserted a knife into the other party's bedside table. Because Tianci was a very alert person, he discovered it immediately The note above said that we would meet by the river in the backyard.

Although Tianci felt very strange as to who had given this note, he couldn't help but be curious, so he told Gu Shaoyang about it. Once again, Gu Shaoyang thought that he should not go, but Tianci was a person who was more willing to take risks, and he had to figure out this matter.

There was no way, Gu Shaoyang could only accompany Tianci, when they came to the river , he found a woman wearing black clothes waiting for him there. He felt very strange, so Tianci walked up and asked who are you? Why did you invite me here? What do you want to ask us recently? ?

At this moment, the other party suddenly took off the black cloth from his face. When the two of them saw each other's face, they were stunned for a moment. They didn't expect that he was the king of the daughter country.

It made them feel I was particularly confused. Why did he do this? There was something he couldn't say face to face, so he actually sneaked to the river.

If some people found out, he would definitely not let them go.

After thinking about this, He looked at the King of the Daughter Kingdom in front of him with an alert look on his face and said

"I don't know what the king's purpose is for calling us here late at night, or maybe there is something that is not convenient for us to say in front of outsiders."

Then the other party glanced at the two people pointedly and said

"I knew you two would come together. In fact, I want to tell you that you don't have to worry. You have to pretend to be sick in order to fulfill this promise. In fact, it is really unnecessary. But after Gu Shaoyang heard what the other party said, his old face suddenly changed. Hong, she didn't expect to be exposed so easily by the other party."

"In fact, we don't want to, but we have no choice."
