Chapter 1751

The bell on the other side also has an eye-opening look.

He looked at Mrs. Li and said to him: "Yes, your clothes are really beautiful. I wonder if I can wear such beautiful clothes in the future."

After all, this clothes is very beautiful at first glance. Different, and the workmanship is very cumbersome, and it is really very beautiful, which makes people's eyes light up when they see it.

Mrs. Li now feels that living such a life is very depressing, and he doesn't particularly like it.

He looked at the two little girls and said to them: "You two are the only ones who are sweet-mouthed and good at talking." At this moment, all his maids were waiting outside the courtyard.

One of the eunuchs had already gently knocked on the door, prompting several people to say to them: "The banquet is about to start, please come with me."

When he said this, Gu Shaoyang Several of them were already heading in the direction of the great eunuch, saying to him: "Thank you for reminding me, I'll be here soon."

Then they followed him towards the main building.

When he saw this huge palace, Gu Shaoyang really didn't expect that the Kingdom of Jin was really a very prosperous country.

Everything in this palace is very luxurious. Although they have lived in this place for three days, because this place has so many rules, they have never wandered around. Stay in your own palace.

Only now can I see that every plant and tree in this place, even the many tiles on the palace walls, are very exquisite.

Several people came to the hall. At this time, it was already filled with various luxuriously dressed ministers and people of noble status.

At this time, Emperor Jin Zong was wearing a dragon robe, sitting high up, looking down.

When he saw Gu Shaoyang and Li Haotian coming in, he stood up and walked down the steps with a very enthusiastic look.

Emperor Jin Zong looked directly at Li Haotian and said to him: "You are here, brother."

When he said this, the ministers below were really dumbfounded. They did not expect that the entire Li Mansion was so stunned before. It was already very dilapidated, but to be able to get up again is really amazing.

Jin Qiuming was also standing among them. At this time, he saw that Li Haotian had regained his former glory.

He had no idea that Li Haotian would return to this place after his life was saved. He didn't know what he was thinking.

After all, the two were good friends, and he knew that Li Haotian must have some plans of his own, so he just glanced in Li Haotian's direction and then withdrew his eyes.

Because he also knew that many people were inquiring about the two of them.

At this time, General Qin was standing among a group of generals, watching Li Haotian being surrounded by everyone, and he had already stepped up to the front desk.

Emperor Jin Zong immediately turned around, his voice was very calm, and he had the aura of a high-ranking person.

He looked at all of them and said to them: "Before, the leader of the demon tribe bewitched me and made me disrespectful to my elder brother, so I mistakenly killed the killer. I was wrong in this matter. Today's incident This banquet is not only here to cleanse my eldest brother and his family, but it is also my own apology banquet."

After hearing what he said, the ministers below were completely and completely shocked.

At this time, Li Haotian pretended to be very frightened, already clasping his fists with his hands, and then lowered his body very low.

He looked in the direction of Emperor Jin Zong and said to him: "What you said is too serious. It's all the fault of the humble minister."

Then he knelt down with a plop. After all, accompanying a king is like accompanying a tiger. He didn't know what Emperor Jin Zong will do next moment.

And Master Gu Shaoyang really didn't expect that Emperor Jin Zong had really lowered his status very low. How could it be possible if he wanted to reconcile with a few of them?

Emperor Jin Zong said all kinds of nice things again, then he stood up and raised a glass of wine, looked at Li Haotian, and then at all the people present, and said to them: "Now we all want to celebrate our Li Haotian." The whole family has returned to the land of the Kingdom of Jin to toast them."

As he spoke, the ministers sitting down one after another had already picked up the wine glasses in front of them, and then Li Haotian had already started to congratulate him.

Gu Shaoyang really didn't think about these people. He was really flattering when he said this, and he was not afraid of Feng Da flashing his tongue.

Chapter 1752

Although he was very disdainful of these people in his heart, he could only stay with them all and smile.

Tianci, who was on the other side, looked at Gu Shaoyang and smiled with a face that was not serious at all, and said to Gu Shaoyang: "I really don't like this kind of life."

He spoke in a very low voice. If Gu Shaoyang really didn't like it, With this kind of life, it seems that no matter which country I go to in the future, it will be impossible to enter the court.

Gu Shaoyang nodded and said to him, "I really don't like this kind of life."

The two of them started talking very quietly.

Because Gu Shaoyang really disdained this kind of life, and felt that it was too fake for each of them to live a mask-wearing life.

Even though their lives seemed very wealthy and prestigious on the surface, Gu Shaoyang felt that these people were not living their own lives at all.

Time passed little by little, and it was already evening time for this banquet.

The lights were brightly lit at night, and singers one after another had begun to sing and dance.

On the scene, it looked really happy, but everyone knew in their hearts that something was about to happen.

After the night's banquet, Li Haotian didn't even find a chance to talk to Jin Qiuming.

Gu Shaoyang also wanted to chat with Jin Qiuming, but he had never found such an opportunity. Gu Shaoyang knew in his heart that Emperor Jin Zong was afraid of them, so he didn't give it to them so that they could talk together. Chance.

After the banquet, Gu Shaoyang and others returned to the palace to rest.

After resting for half a month, they did not expect that Emperor Jin Zong would come to their palace in person again.

He walked into the palace, looked at Gu Shaoyang and the others, and said to them: "I don't know how you are resting in this place. You are still used to living in this place."

Gu Shaoyang could only clasp his fists with his hands and look at them with great respect. Emperor Jin Zong said to him: "The food and drinks in this place are good, and the food is really good. I have never had such a life in my whole life."

And Emperor Jin Zong, it is really good. He was very happy, and after exchanging many pleasantries with each other, he already looked at several people and said to them: "Next, I will send troops to attack Long Hanming. I don't know what you are thinking in your hearts."

Gu Shaoyang didn't expect that after such a long time, Emperor Jin Zong would finally start to take action.

Because Emperor Jin Zong could also see that they had been living here for half a month. Even if he didn't mention it, they were very comfortable and had already stayed here, so he really There are some people who are anxious.

But what Emperor Jin Zong didn't know was that Luo Zishan and Tiger had already left the Imperial City of the Kingdom of Jin and began to recruit troops everywhere.

The reason why Gu Shaoyang and the others are not in a hurry at this time is because he will gather more of his forces in the future. As long as there is enough time, they will also have their own army that can fight against the two of them.

So they were not in a hurry, just to give Luo Zishan and Tiger more time.

After Emperor Jin Zong said these words, Li Haotian immediately knelt down this time.

He knelt in front of Emperor Jin Zong, looked at Emperor Jin Zong and said to him: "Thank you very much, Emperor Jin Zong, for giving me a chance to avenge my blood and hatred." At this time, Emperor Jin Zong had already helped him up. Li Haotian, he looked at Li Haotian and said to him: "I have made my elder brother suffer so much before, and this is what I should do."

Then he continued to look at several people and said to them: "Since we Now that we have made such a plan, how about you two, Li Haotian and Mrs. Li, live in this place."

Young people like Gu Shaoyang and Li Zhou are very powerful. Let them go into battle to kill the enemy. At this time, Li Zhou did not expect that Emperor Jin Zong would suddenly say such a sentence , it seems that his parents have been suppressed by him and become hostages in this place?

And Li Haotian is already an old fox, and of course he is not surprised by this kind of thing.

So he is smiling, Looking at Jin Zongdi, he said to him: "I am old now, and I have suffered from many diseases in the past few years. It is impossible for me to go into battle to kill the enemy again, so I still think of your opinion. Agreed, it's really good."

Jin Zongdi really didn't expect that Li Haotian had no intention of resisting him at all, and had already begun to agree, leaving him really confused for a moment. What kind of person is Li Haotian? What do you think?

Chapter 1753

Li Haotian cleverly declined the scheming emperor's invitation. After all, if the old saying "accompanying the emperor is like accompanying a tiger" is so popular, there must be a reason for his existence. What countless wise people have exchanged for their blood is nothing but the king's ruthlessness, which he discarded like worn-out shoes.

Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang looked at each other and smiled. They didn't communicate much verbally, but they seemed to have telepathy and knew each other's thoughts well.

"Brother Haotian, where do you plan to go next?" Zou Zijin asked pitifully.

Li Haotian looked up to the sky and smiled, tears bursting from laughter, and then he wiped his hands boldly and replied to Zou Zijin: "The world is so big, there is always a place for me, even though the great revenge has been avenged. , but I still have regrets in my heart. I want to complete this matter first, and then travel around the world freely!"

"good! Brother Li is indeed a wise man, loyal and principled. He is indeed someone I admire!" Gu Shaoyang cheered and clapped.

"Gu Shaoxia, there is always a banquet in the world. Thank you so much for your many rescues along the way! Haotian has nothing to repay for his great kindness and kindness." Haotian said as he emotionally took out his jade pendant.

Li Haotian gave the jade pendant to Gu Shaoyang, probably because he really regarded Gu Shaoyang as a close friend.

Gu Shaoyang subconsciously shied away and said: " Brother Li, this is impossible. I am just doing my best. How can I accept such an expensive gift from you? This is impossible, absolutely impossible!"

In fact, the relationship between the two has long transcended the shackles of worldly things, but this jade pendant is of extraordinary significance to Li Haotian. With this jade pendant, no matter what danger the person holding this jade pendant encounters in the future, Li Haotian will go there regardless of everything. Save him or her. Moreover, the properties of this jade pendant are very weird. After following Li Haotian for a long time, it can actually have a conscious dialogue with Li Haotian. This is like a spiritual pet in the form of a jade pendant. It is very spiritual and can protect Li Haotian. He considered important people.

After the group had a simple dinner, they planned to leave the imperial city for their new destinations.

When Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang were about to separate, Gu Shaoyang suddenly received a letter from the family elder. The content of the letter was roughly to ask Gu Shaoyang to rush to Muyue City immediately after receiving the letter, find Jiang Xuanyi, and seize the Xuanshi.

Gu Shaoyang was wondering why the situation was suddenly so urgent. Li Haotian asked with concern from the side: "Brother Gu, what happened? Something happened? Why do you look so bad? You can tell me if you encounter something difficult, and I will do my best to help you!"

Seeing Li Haotian's nervous expression, Gu Shaoyang immediately told Li Haotian word for word about the elder Fei Ge's message, and comforted him: "Haotian, you don't have to be nervous. I don't know much about Jiang Xuanyi at the moment. , so you rushed to Mutsuki Castle to find out whether it was dangerous?"

"Brother Gu, to be honest, I am going to Mutsuki City." Li Haotian was happy and held Gu Shaoyang's arm tightly.

Why did Li Haotian go to Muyue City? This is actually a long story. He was going to Muyue City to find his father's old friend. He heard that his father left a book. The secret book was in the hands of his old friend. Unexpectedly, by chance, he and Gu Shaoyang were going to the same place.

After the two figured out the whole story, they looked at each other and laughed, and then laughed. Gu Shaoyang smiled at Li Haotian and said: "Hahaha, Unexpectedly, we said goodbye so affectionately before, and after saying goodbye, we would have to set off to a new place together. This is really a blessing in the world. After Li Haotian calmed down, he discussed with Gu Shaoyang: "Brother Shaoyang, it's getting late now. Let's set off together and rush to Muyue City. This place is about five hundred kilometers away from here. You and I will fly together with the sword." We'll take a short break on the way, and if nothing happens tonight, we should be able to get to Mutsuki Castle and rest for the night."

Gu Shaoyang readily agreed, so the two quickly packed their luggage and rushed to Muyue City.

On the way, the two talked about interesting things about the rivers and lakes, while admiring the beautiful scenery along the imperial city. The journey did not feel boring and long.

Gu Shaoyang and Li Haotian were on the road. After taking a short rest, he continued on his way. It didn't take long before he saw the people of Muyue City appear. Gu Shaoyang casually stopped a vendor selling calligraphy and painting on the road and asked:"Seller, please ask, how long does it take to get to Muyue City? Is there a curfew in the city? Why are there so few people on the road? Has anything strange happened recently?"

The store owner said in horror:"Don't talk nonsense. If the people under Grand Master Jiang hear this, your life will be in danger."After saying that, he quickly waved his hand and broke away from Gu Shaoyang.

Li Haotian looked at Gu Shaoyang in confusion. It was clearly still daytime, why were there so few pedestrians before nightfall? But judging from the names of the shops on the road, it was estimated that Muyue City should be a little further ahead.

The two of them They entered the city together, and as soon as they entered Muyue City, Li Haotian's expression became condensed, and he thought to himself:"Strange, why is it her? Why is Jiang Min here?"Li Haotian suspected that he had made a mistake, so he kept moving forward without saying anything. But when he took a closer look, he saw that the person was Jiang Min!

Although Li Haotian has determined that the red-haired woman in front is Jiang Min. Although her hair color turned red for some reason, her facial features have not changed in any way. Li Haotian and Jiang Min were childhood friends, but not long after, Xiao Jiang Min was forcibly picked up by her family, and Li Haotian and Xiao Jiang Min didn't even say goodbye properly.

Gu Shaoyang saw that Li Haotian looked strange and wanted to ask him in detail what happened, but he was worried that he had crossed the line and cared about other people's private affairs. Li Haotian was thinking about Jiang Min and didn't notice the changes in Gu Shaoyang's psychology. When he came back to his senses, he found that Gu Shaoyang's expression was different, so he asked with concern:"Brother Shaoyang, what's wrong with you? Why do you suddenly look weird?"

Gu Shaoyang replied worriedly: "I'm fine, I'm just worried about you. I just saw you. Suddenly you looked nervous, thinking there was something strange about your body." Seeing Gu Shaoyang caring more about him, Li Haotian felt warm in his heart, and his affection for Gu Shaoyang increased even more.

Li Haotian hasn't figured out how to communicate with Gu Shaoyang about Jiang Min's matter. After all, it happened when he was a child. If he wants to tell the whole story clearly, he needs to tell Gu Shaoyang about what happened when he was a child.

He thought about it, I frowned, feeling that this was too tedious. Who would want to listen to you talk about such a long and boring thing?

Immediately afterwards, the two walked to the Yingyue Lake on the edge of Muyue City. Looking at the bright moon in the lake, Li Haotian was filled with emotion. The two of them still planned to find a quiet place to live first.

After all, there is always someone willing to listen to you. It's just a matter of time, and besides, I have close friends accompanying me on the arduous journey. I don't understand why I feel a little disappointed in my heart?

Gu Shaoyang also had his own thoughts in his heart. He clearly thought that he could control the scale of conversation with his friends and do not do to others what they don't want others to do to him, but he didn't expect that he still lost his sense of proportion because of Li Haotian's slightly strange expression. Hiding sad things in your heart will inevitably make you feel sad.

The two randomly selected the inn where they lived to get ready and take a short rest. However, because it was too late, there was only one room left in the inn. Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang had no other choice but to live in the same room together.

The waiter in the inn was very enthusiastic and treated Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang very attentively. He asked: "You two gentlemen, where are you planning to go? Our specialty Huadiao wine is well-known far and wide. It is the best wine in Muyuecheng. If you two gentlemen pass by Muyue City, you must try this Huadiao Liquor, otherwise there will be no shop like this after passing through this village, and it will be difficult to drink it in the future!"

Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang saw the waiter's talk and said, There was something in the sky and on the earth, and he felt drunk in his heart, so he ordered the waiter: "Since the Huadiao wine in your shop is so famous far and near, then after my two brothers have put away their luggage, we will come down and drink a bottle. How about the best Huadiao wine?"

Li Haotian took two steps, paused, and turned around and said: "Waiter, remember to warm up the Huadiao wine, and bring two bottles! And two special side dishes from your store." The waiter was delighted. The reply was: "Okay! Don't worry, sir, you can just pack it up. You will be full of praise for our special dishes!"

In fact, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang did not want to taste the Huadiao wine and special dishes, but when I was passing by the wine table, I found a table of people dressed in Jianghu costumes talking about the Jiang family. Isn't this exactly the Jiang Xuanyi that Elder Gu Shaoyang was talking about?

And Li Haotian was thinking, isn't the person in question Jiang Min? Isn't this his childhood sweetheart Jiang Min who was forcibly taken away without saying goodbye?

Both of them had their own ideas, so when they asked the waiter to warm the wine. Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang showed an amazing tacit understanding again. Although their starting points were different, their final behaviors were consistent.

After Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang simply placed their luggage, they hurried to the dining room together. Fortunately, the group of drinking people were still gossiping about Jiang's family. Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang looked at each other and smiled, calling the waiter: "Young waiter, my best. Is the Huadiao wine warm? There are also special dishes in your store. Bring them over quickly."

The waiter hurriedly brought Huadiao wine and two side dishes over, and was still apologizing: "Sir, you've been waiting for a long time. Okay, I'm really sorry. The store is too busy and the kitchen staff are unskilled. I'm really sorry for wasting your time. I apologize to you! You two will have a good meal! The store will give you two a treat. A cold cucumber as an apology gift from our shop."

In fact, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang didn't really want to blame the waiter, they just wanted to take the opportunity to sit around the group of drinking and gossiping people in order to get the information they wanted. At this time, a bearded man said angrily: "This Jiang clan, ever since Jiang Xuanyi got the old man's black stone, he has been recruiting warlocks to refine secret medicine for him. Ever since he started using the black stone to make secret medicine. After that, strange things happened one after another in the surrounding area! Alas! It really makes Mr. Jiang die in peace!"

In the restaurant of the inn, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang heard some strange things about Jiang's family. They could only understand some fragmentary keywords. If you want to know all the details of the matter, you may need Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang. Gu Shaoyang continued to spend a lot of time exploring Muyue City!

After Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang drank wine in the inn, they both fell asleep deeply because they had their own concerns.

The next day, at dawn, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang woke up. This Huadiao wine has quite a lot of staying power! The two of them were lying on the bed in rags, with clothes and shoes scattered everywhere. After Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang were completely awake, they were stunned for a moment.

Li Haotian thought to himself: "This Huadiao wine is really causing trouble. I...I didn't do anything inappropriate to Brother Gu last night." Although what Li Haotian was thinking was that he shouldn't do those things, deep down in his heart he felt that maybe he could do something under the influence of alcohol so that he wouldn't be found out and couldn't even be friends. Gu Shaoyang suddenly woke up when he saw Li Haotian's clothes slipping off his shoulders. , was greatly shocked: "Is this Huadiao wine so powerful? Why can't I remember anything about what happened after drinking? Did you really do something you shouldn't have done?"

The two of them were embarrassed and speechless after waking up. After quickly washing up and tidying up, they immediately rushed to Jiangshi. On the way, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang didn't talk much because of the embarrassing things in the morning, so the journey seemed awkward and boring. In a blink of an eye, it was noon. The two of them walked to a remote forest, and they happened to see a couple from a farmer's family crying anxiously looking for them. Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang immediately looked at each other, their eyes knowing, and hurried to the farmer's couple.

"Folks, what happened to you? Why are you crying here? I heard you shouting names, but your children are lost? Tell us, maybe we can help you a little bit." When the villagers heard this, they cried even more sadly and became more emotional. The aunt cried and said: "My little boy, you said you just went out to buy some candy, why did you leave your parents behind? Why did you leave without any news?"

The aunt fainted because she was so excited. The uncle supported his wife and said, "There have been a lot of missing children in the village recently. I thought it would be good to not let the little ones go out to avoid the limelight. I didn't expect it, or I was negligent." The man wiped his tears and said to Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang.

More children have been lost in the village recently? This is strange. What about the government? Isn't there anyone in charge of these things? Why haven't the successive cases of missing children been taken seriously? Why are the villagers' young children disappeared one after another? Who had captured them?

Questions emerged one after another, lingering in the minds of Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang. Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang first escorted the aunt and uncle home, and then asked the uncle about the details of the missing children in the village and the details of the missing children. Li Haotian wanted to speculate on the possible development direction of the matter by comparing the commonalities of the missing children. Gu Shaoyang intuitively felt that the missing children in these villages were not simply human trafficking or lost. , the possibility of accidental death is even smaller, and the most likely possibility is that someone organized and premeditated to abduct young children in the village.

After the uncle and aunt's narration, Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang discovered that the children who disappeared in the village and surrounding villages were of the same age group. They are boys and girls between eight and twelve years old, and they all disappear very suddenly without any other signs.

Therefore, based on this, we can first rule out the possibility that these boys and girls ran away from home. Many of the missing children are like the uncle and aunt's son, he just went out to buy candy and never came back. This was a devastating blow to the family.

Li Haotian said to Gu Shaoyang: "Brother Shaoyang, I think the young children around here. Disappearance cases are not as simple as imagined, what do you think? I think we should stay and help them find out what happened. No matter whether these children are dead or alive, we must find the mastermind behind it."

After hearing what Li Haotian said, Gu Shaoyang felt happy. He is indeed a good friend who has been with me all the way. His ability and character are indeed very good. He immediately replied: "This is natural. Of course we have to stay. Help these parents who have lost their children find their children. Whether these missing children are dead or alive, I want to see the people of these missing children; if they die, I also want to see their bodies. In this matter, it's settled."

Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang reached a consensus, so they planned to settle in the homes of the villagers so that they could learn more about the details of the missing children, and the two of them could also play a protective role. After all, there are still eight to ten children in the village. For the two-year-old boys and girls, their many years of traveling around the world tell them that there must be an ulterior conspiracy behind this incident. And this conspiracy may have a lot to do with the original intention of Li Haotian and Gu Shaoyang coming to Muyue City!
