Chapter 1831

Along the way, Gu Shaoyang and Li Haotian saw that the road was becoming more and more remote and desolate. The streets no longer had the prosperous scene they once had. "What you see now is what I saw when my husband and I first met." The place was at Rouge Shop at that time. I was also the third young lady of the Qiao family, and I was supposed to be the least favored. Then I met my husband. He was very handsome at the time, and many women fell in love with him. Later, we lived in seclusion together in The people in Chicken Leg Country are very enthusiastic, so I am living a very happy life now."

Qiao Liuqing pointed to the Qiao Rouge with a spider web hanging on the plaque, describing in her heart the scene when she and her husband first met. At that time, she was only sixteen years old. The eldest sister in the family was getting married. She came to personally select the best rouge to give to her. At first, she went to the rouge shop at home and found that there were all kinds of styles. It's very good, but she also wants to see other people's homes. After all, each has its own characteristics. My sister is the most beloved daughter of the Qiao family. There will definitely be no shortage of dowry and so on. Maybe YanThe shop may have to send it to her family.

And when she was at the door of Qiao's Rouge Shop, she saw her husband choosing lipstick with his mother-in-law. Of course, he was helping his mother-in-law choose lipstick. She walked back in a trance and heard his mother-in-law say: "Xuan'er, you are a grown-up. It's time to find a wife. There are so many candidates, why don't you like any of them? My mother thinks they are all beautiful, or maybe our Xuan'er has someone she likes. Are you married?" She covered her mouth and smiled at him as she spoke, "Mom, they are all very nice, but my son doesn't like anyone yet, so don't worry about it yet. Isn't the eldest brother about to marry the eldest daughter of the Qiao family? ? Why are you worrying about me again? If I have someone I like, I can't wait to give her the best in the world. Why haven't I told you? Is n't this making other girls unhappy?" When he looked towards the door, he was stunned. He saw the woman in front of him looking at him. He didn't know why she kept staring at him, but when she looked at him like this, his heart beat faster for some reason, and his face turned red. , his mother-in-law noticed that he was silent and looked towards him. The good guy just said that he didn't like anyone, but now he blushed completely. She followed his line of sight to the door and saw Qiao Liuqing at the door. Then she realized, It turns out that this boy likes the third lady of the Qiao family. It's easy to say. It's better to kiss than to kiss, hahaha

"Oops, who just said that there is no one you like, but now he is blushing at this girl and doesn't even know how to turn his head. Girl, I'm rude. I will ask my son to apologize to you. You silly boy, come to your senses. , stop staring at people and apologize quickly. His mother-in-law was scolding him next to him, and then he realized, "Sorry, sorry, girl, I was rude. At first I thought you were staring at me, but then I realized you weren't. Does the girl want to come in and choose rouge?"

Qiao Liuqing hid her face and nodded shyly, "I want to find the best rouge and jewelry for my eldest sister on her wedding day. She is usually very good to us, and we also want to prepare something for her as a dowry.. Then he slowly walked in and went to the other side of him to choose rouge and gouache. His mother-in-law pushed him and winked at him to hurry up, so he slowly moved over to talk to her.

Chapter 1832

The eldest sister is also a very good sister. She will let the two of them do whatever they want. Even if the family gives her some valuable jewelry, she might give it to us if they want it. Her clothes are a little flashy, but not that kind. The beauty is boring, but the kind of beauty with heroic spirit! She is the object of their admiration. Although she is a girl, she likes to dance swords and play the piano. She knows how to play the piano. Before the eldest sister got married, she told them that if they got married before her, she would definitely know how to do it. Give me the greatest gift. She always said to her side, "No matter what I do, I can't hurt you. You are all my babies. Even if your father and mother don't like you, I will always like you." The eldest sister is also not so reliable in many cases, such as Stir-frying, cooking, etc. I remember that on a very hot night, we were really too hot, so we ran out to chat. It was cooler outside at night than inside, and the eldest sister suggested that we go to the kitchen to cook something to eat. We have met the eldest sister. The cooking skills all said that they were not hungry, but the eldest sister thought it was embarrassing, so sheBecause of this beautiful misunderstanding, the eldest sister was like a thief in a teahouse opera singer, hiding from the sight of the servants in the house because she was not allowed to enter the kitchen at night for fear of causing a fire.

At this time, the eldest sister patted her chest and said, "Don't worry, this kind of thing won't happen. You still don't believe eldest sister. When has eldest sister ever let you down? Just stay here and wait for my good news. Wait for me." "I can't stop you. In fact, we don't want to eat. Sister, you can just eat it yourself. But it's hard to say anything when you see the elder sister you like so excited. It's okay. It's just a stomachache. We can endure it for our elder sister."!

They hid aside and watched how the eldest sister went through the door to the kitchen path without telling the servant. They saw a black cat running out of nowhere next to the eldest sister, and then attracted the servant's attention. In addition, she usually also They were practicing, so it was a trivial matter to pass through a place like this. The servant came back, and they had to hide it quickly. In a place they didn't find, there was a silk thread behind the servant's neck, but the servant's expression was as usual, as if Nothing is the same, everything is normal.

Qiao Liuqing and her second sister returned to the pavilion where they were resting to chat. This small pavilion was hidden behind a huge landscape stone, so that no one would notice them, because generally speaking, they were not allowed to go out at night, and it was easy to catch a cold. They also need to take medicine, so their mother will make them stay in the boudoir at night and are not allowed to come out. Even so, even if they are discovered, they will just act coquettishly and talk softly to her, and they don't have to be like their brothers. Squat horse stance or something.

But other than these things, they basically didn't embarrass them. They were quite praised by the outside world for playing the piano and painting, which gave them a lot of face. After that, the eldest sister got a few bowls of cold snacks from somewhere, which didn't look very good. Like making it ourselves, at first we thought it was because the eldest sister's cooking skills had improved, and we kept praising the eldest sister for making it delicious. But for some reason, the eldest sister's eyes were wandering. We thought that the eldest sister was learning to cook behind our backs, and we even praised her so much. , until the news of a burglar in the kitchen came the next day, we thought it was just like that, but it turned out that a hole was found in the kitchen, and it looked very big. At this time, we looked at the eldest sister in unison,"What, I don't I accidentally poked a hole in the kitchen, it was really just an accident."

Chapter 1833

These childhood anecdotes were told to Ouyang Zhengxiong and others on the road. It was very interesting at the time while talking and laughing. Unfortunately, later on, he lived in seclusion and didn't know anything about it. Only people who heard about the rest of the story knew about it."Then Mrs. Qiao and How is your husband doing? And how did you know about Chicken Leg Township? I heard them say that it is difficult to enter Chicken Leg Township, but it is very easy to get out. To enter, you have to be invited by someone inside. Ordinary people don't know. From this place?" Gu Shaoyang asked.

Knowing that he would ask this question, Qiao Liuqing answered unambiguously:"We were also invited in by acquaintances inside at that time. Forgive me for not saying who it was. I promised him not to tell anyone. Okay, here we are.." She asked the cows to stop and asked them to come down, but they never saw the shop. They only saw a small alley. They asked doubtfully:"Is it in this small alley? But that small alley? Is there a way out?"

"Of course it's here, but not in an alley. It's inside this wall. Come with me, don't fall behind."Qiao Liuqing said softly. She skillfully found the slightly different seams and pressed them. With a click, a secret door appeared. There was a ding-dong-dong knocking sound coming from inside. It was very regular. They followed Qiao Liuqing. The mother and daughter went in. After they all went in, the door closed again, and then candlelight came out, which was a flame suspended in the air. Ouyang Zhengxiong touched it with his hand. It was not hot, more like cold. , and immediately started playing

"Stop playing, follow up and don't fall behind. This is not a direct route, it seems."Sun Yulan said to the playful Ouyang Zhengxiong. After hearing this, Ouyang Zhengxiong immediately put down his hands and followed the team. This tunnel is a bit long, and there are branch roads in the middle. I don't know where these will lead."This place is not something you can break into casually. , you have to follow the clues to enter the next intersection. If you go wrong, you won't be able to get out."Qiao Liuqing held Tian Nini's hand and led the way.

Only then did they realize the seriousness of the matter and did not dare to fall behind. In Sun Yulan's eyes, there seemed to be something hidden in the unseen end of the road, and there were some slight noises. It came from over there. It was probably that the unauthorized intruders were detained there to death. Thinking that these intruders were no different from thieves, I felt a chill. Posts are old friends, and those who sneak in will die."Speaking of such horrible things so calmly, people can't guess what kind of identity this person is. Is she really just living in seclusion? Or is she forced to go to Chicken Leg Township because of something? In fact, this Chicken Leg Township It is not a place that everyone knows. Only people with high moral standing or very powerful people may know about this Chicken Leg Township. If they had not accepted this mission, they would not be able to get this thing. It seems that Qiao Liuqing knows what we do. After that If she had asked, she would have just said it.

The voice was getting closer and closer, and it seemed that the hammer was not an iron block but something else, banging, "I'm here again, and this time I brought some people I met on the road." Friends, please don't take offense."They communicated skillfully even before seeing this mysterious figure nearby, and Qiao Liuqing's steps became brisker.

Chapter 1834

I heard the sound of the blacksmith shop not far away gradually getting quieter, and then a strong male voice sounded, "It's Mrs. Qiao, why are you here to pick up things now? Do you know that I have been waiting for a while? You first Take your little friend and sit there for a while. I'll make a pot of tea and give you a baptism. It's not easy to come out. Your family is still busy. Next time your family comes over, I'll tinker with it for you. Make new things." After saying that, he went to the room dedicated to him to rest, leaving only an empty room.

"Wow, what is this?"Sun Yulan and Ouyang Zhengxiong had already entered here one step ahead of them. Originally, they thought it was a dark shop where blacksmiths usually work. The air should be full of the smell of iron or other metals, but it turned out that there was nothing here. There is no unpleasant smell, but more of a vague aroma. Ouyang Zhengxiong feels like a quilt that has been dried by the sun, Sun Yulan feels like a light candy smell, and others also feel that the smell is different.

Qiao Liuqing walked aside Ouyang Zhengxiong felt that there were as many seats as them, and a separate seat on the side was reserved for the owner himself. Looking at the novel tools next to the seat, Ouyang Zhengxiong felt It turns out that blacksmithing is also a sacred profession. Not only do you have to concentrate, but you also have to polish the same thing day and night. This kind of spirit is also enviable. There are really not many people with such talents nowadays. Everyone thinks that there are always people in today's world. Some strange things appeared, and those beautiful families were scattered one by one. He still remembered that many people were crying bitterly during that disaster.

"Come and sit down. What do you look like standing up? The owner of the blacksmith shop is an old acquaintance of my husband and I. You can also relax and rest for a while. When things are settled, you can go back with me." Qiao Liuqing had a smile on her face, very gentle. Nini was sitting in her mother's arms and was very obedient. Then after a while, she couldn't stand being obedient anymore and said directly: "Uncle, uncle, Nini It's finally here. Where are the snacks you promised to Nini last time? Uncle, have you forgotten? If uncle forgets Nini, he will be angry. He will never visit uncle again, huh."

The uncle in her mouth was busy working in the room. After hearing this sentence, she felt a little bit dumbfounded. He could still forget the little girl Tian Yatou's request, and immediately replied: "Yes, yes, uncle has not forgotten your snacks. Uncle, aren't you looking for it? Since uncle will never forget what he promised Nini, you can see when uncle forgot what he promised you, right?" The person who had been busy inside for a while finally stepped out of the room slowly.

This person who Tian Nini called uncle revealed his true face in Lushan. When she saw his face, Sun Yulan's heart skipped a beat. At first glance, this person is so handsome. He is so handsome, but he still relies on blacksmithing day and night to support his family. I don't know if such a good man has a wife. If he does, he must be a beautiful woman to match him. Come on. Just when he was about to ask, Ouyang Zhengxiong said maliciously: "Is Yulan tempted? Oops, your face is red, tsk tsk tsk, it's a bit strange to see you blush for the first time, it turns out you blush too, hahaha." Ouyang Zhengxiong secretly laughed from the side.

Chapter 1835

In an instant, everyone turned their heads and looked at Sun Yulan's blushing face. Who knows who burst out laughing, "Yulan, it turns out you like this kind of thing. You told me earlier, and Brother Haotian will help you find this kind of thing in the future." , that's interesting." Li Haotian said to Sun Yulan half-jokingly. Sun Yulan's face turned even redder now. She had never seen any men before. Looking at these people every day, she was inevitably a little immune. Yes, in fact, although their appearance was not particularly good-looking, they were still very good-looking. It's very interesting, but the person in front of me is even better looking.

In her mind, the man in the blacksmith shop was also looking at her carefully at this time. She didn't show any weakness and looked at him, but after looking at him for a while, she shyly averted her eyes and said, "Why are you so shy? This is not good." Lan, our Yulan is usually very calm. I have never seen big winds and waves, so why do I feel shy when I look at people? Hahaha, okay, okay, I won't make fun of you anymore, don't be angry." Li Haotian is a bit shameless. said.

I saw Sun Yulan stamping her feet and ignoring him, "You can call me Mr. Tie. Sorry, I already have a wife. She is not here now. I will ask her to come out for a party another day. I am alone today. She usually likes You don't need my company to go out to pick herbs, which really makes me sad." After saying that, he made a sad look, woo woo woo, my wife is not here, but there are some cute children here, when will the two of them also I'm so envious of having a baby.

Mr. Tie's answer made Sun Yulan feel half-hearted, but she felt that Mr. Tie was the kind of little girl facing the big brother who leads the family, so the words she said only had some impact on her, even if she liked it. Mr. Tie also has the kind of feeling that he likes to play with her, unlike these ghosts talking nonsense here. "Hello Mr. Tie, my surname is Sun and my courtesy name is Yulan. I am very happy to meet Mr. Tie. In addition, I just think Mr. Tie is much more handsome than the others I often see, so don't worry, I have no objections, my family and brothers are all joking, don't take him seriously." Sun Yulan said seriously.

Her serious answer made people laugh. In fact, everyone was joking, especially Ouyang Zhengxiong. He had been joking with her for the longest time and it was impossible that he didn't know her temperament, so he also knew what she was thinking, but he just wanted to joke. Just kidding, otherwise it would have been too boring along the way. "Sorry, sorry, Yulan, don't be angry. I just want to tease you. I won't tease you next time, I promise." I don't know how many times I have said this excuse. , even Gu Shaoyang and Li Haotian were tired of hearing it, so they knew that he would not change. It would be strange that he would.

"Bah, I don't believe you will change. Don't make random jokes next time. It's very embarrassing. I mean, it's my person who's being thrown away. I'm really mad at you. I'll deal with you when I get back." Sun Yulan said angrily. Tian Nini looked at them very happily. This group of people is so interesting. Tian Nini's clear laughter came, "Mom, my brothers and sisters are so interesting. When are we going back? I miss them too."

The first time Qiao Liuqing saw Nini asking to go back and play with her brothers and sisters soon, she felt it was very strange. She usually wanted to stay outside for a longer time, but this sudden change made her a little uncomfortable. It was because she didn't have anything to play with around her. Do you miss home after being with me?

Chapter 1836

"Mom, it's just because I haven't seen them for so long that I miss them. It's not because I'm too bored and don't have anyone to play with Nini." Tian Nini said to Qiao Liuqing. While talking, she twisted her round little fingers and matched each other. It was very cute. Looking at such cute Nini, Mr. Tie's heart almost melted. He cried in his heart, why not? My wife seems to have it, madam, I miss you, woo woo woo.

The lady who was picking Ganoderma lucidum on the cliff in the distance seemed to hear it, and sneezed twice in a row. As a result, her hand slipped and she fell directly. Fortunately, there is grass below, otherwise I would have fallen to death. Why did I sneeze so much today? Is it too cold? I went back to Mr. Tie and asked, "Uncle Nini, how about playing with you? We can make iron together and design many weapons. Does Nini like it?" Looking at Nini expectantly, Nini rejected him directly. "No, uncle, no wonder your wife doesn't play with you. If it were me, I wouldn't play with you either. What are you playing with? I played with you when I was a child. Come on, can you think about it?" Tian Nini said to Mr. Tie with a look of disgust.

Mr. Tie seemed to have been stabbed with several swords, and his heart was bleeding. Nini hates me. Nini won't play with me. Madam, I miss you so much. It's another day to miss my wife. Mr. Tie sat aside unhappily and kept mumbling. Tian Nini and Qiao Liuqing were used to it. They kept mumbling like a child. She is better than him, "Uncle, Nini is really ignoring you when you are like this. When will uncle have younger brothers and sisters? I really want to be an older sister, and I also want to be called aunt or something. I am the youngest. There are not many peers to play with. Nini is bored to death. Uncle, please cheer up. Nini supports you." Mr. Tie, who was mumbling in the corner, became happy now.

He nodded in agreement towards Nini, "The guy in my family just likes to study pharmacology, and like me, he likes to be addicted to one thing and can't get out of it. If I had known, it would be because maybe if you get along with her more, things won't be like this anymore. I don't know when she will come back. I miss her." Everyone then realized that Mr. Tie's wife is a doctor and likes to study pharmacology. "Mr. Tie, is your wife not at home?" Ouyang Zhengxiong asked strangely

"Hmm... No, because it takes time to collect herbs and so on, I may not come back for a while. I am also like this sometimes, our time is always inconsistent. Occasionally, we meet to say hello, and Xiaoxiao Niwai has to go out again. ,well." Mr. Tie said sadly. Gu Shaoyang and Li Haotian looked a little want to laugh, but out of politeness they gave him an idea. "You can try to do something together sometimes. For example, if you make iron, she will help you. You can help her observe or find medicine when she collects medicine, and your relationship will gradually warm up."

"Yes, this is a good idea. Thank you. I will give her this suggestion when she comes back. Mrs. Qiao, your custom-made appliances are ready. Do you need someone from my gang to help you deliver them? I can ask my disciples to help you. Anyway, this journey is not far away." Mr. Tie said to Qiao Liuqing. She shook her head and refused: "Forget it this time. My friends helped me get it this time. You can just help me deliver it next time." Qiao Liuqing drank tea while helping her daughter get snacks. This technology has improved.

Chapter 1837

While drinking tea, he commented: "It's good that today's tea has improved. It's more drinkable than before." After being praised, Mr. Tie felt that he had more strength to do anything. He felt that he could use an extra weapon and drank it. He put the tea cup back in its place and put Tian Nini aside again to prepare to go back. Mr. Tie led them into the place where things had been put. After entering, they found that there were only some weapons and a pair of plowing tools. Mr. Tie said: "This pair of plowing tools belongs to Mrs. Qiao. You can take them away. The others are all It's the weapon of my other customers, don't touch it. Some people have to come back to pick it up after a long time, but I'm so worried. If I leave it alone, it will be over when I can't put it down anymore."

He complained that the weapon should be kept here and remembered for a long time."Trouble, I hope their owner will come to pick it up soon, otherwise he will charge double the price once the time is over."If the time is over and the guest hasn't come to pick it up, it will be another price. I know Mrs. Qiao's temper. She I never go on time, and I have to give her an advantage every time. Alas, who wants us to be old friends? It was her who introduced my wife to me. For the sake of my wife, I can't charge more. If it weren't for her, I might still be there. I don't know how to marry, so this is fate, right?"

"Thank you Mr. Tie, we will take it back, sorry for bothering you."Gu Shaoyang said to Mr. Tie, and followed Qiao Liuqing's footsteps back to the ground. Strangely enough, he couldn't feel the thinness of oxygen even though he was inside. He put the farming tools on the bullock cart and headed to Chicken Leg Country. Now , although the delay was a bit long, it did not hinder the purpose of going there in the end. Today, their knowledge has increased a lot. For the first time, Ouyang Zhengxiong and Sun Yulan felt that the world was not like that, and there would always be some weird things appearing there. People around them, like Mr. Tie, they also thought it was quite strange. Living in such a dark place, he could do it all day long. He was so energetic. It would be a big deal if ordinary people could do it for an hour or two, let alone half a day.

Qiao Liuqing gave them a strong shock along the way. A woman has so many things that ordinary women cannot have access to, and there are also a lot of etiquette and so on. She is probably from a big family. Even if they have done too many tasks, I met more people in the mission hall and didn't have such connections, so I rushed over like a military arsenal,"Nini, is your family fun? What do you usually do after you go back?"Ouyang Zhengxiong said to Tian Nini, he wanted to know what families like theirs usually do. It feels like it is very hard every day.

"Nini usually plays with her brothers and sisters at home, but they usually don't have time to play with Nini. They all need to go out to do things or study. Nini is really bored at home, so she looks forward to going out to play the most. She doesn't have any at home. Nini has someone to play with. Although Nini also has to study, she still hopes to play occasionally. Her brother and sister are actually very good to Nini, but they just don't have much time to play games together. However, they learn a lot together. of."What she said about Wu Di was the piano, chess, calligraphy and painting that girls need to learn, but she is still quite interested in these, so they usually hold the piano or play chess with their father when they don't have time.

Looking at the little daughter Xiao Zui kept talking about how bored he was at home, Qiao Liuqing smiled helplessly:"Is it really that boring? I see that you are very happy in your daily life."

As she spoke, Nini pinched her little face. Although she had a loving look on her face, in Qiao Liuqing's hands, her round little face was rubbed and squeezed. No matter what, her daughter's little face was soft. Her other babies are not fun at all, and they are very serious at all times, which makes her extremely uncomfortable as a mother. She doesn't even kiss her children. Fortunately, she played with them all when they were young. When Nini grows up, if you become a mother like her, you can enjoy the benefits of being a grandmother. When the time comes, you can bring a bunch of little dumplings, play games, embroider with them, and supervise their studies. It will be exciting just thinking about it.

Looking at her mother's expression, Nini felt that she was thinking about something strange again. Whenever she was thinking about something strange, she would be filled with a strange smile, "Mom, you are thinking about something strange again. While squeezing Nini's little face, she actually has other thoughts on her mind. It's really abominable." Tian Nini said to his mother. Only then did Qiao Liuqing become normal, put her hand to her lips, and coughed softly, "What are you talking about? , Ni, of course your mother likes you the most, so she won't want other children." Qiao Liuqing glanced around in panic, not daring to look into Nini's eyes.

Sun Yulan and Ouyang Zhengxiong thought that Nini didn't ask you this question just now. Hey, you have your thoughts written all over your face. You are obviously as cute as Nini. My daughter is still not satisfied. She really doesn't know how to cherish it. "Nini didn't ask her mother this question. It turns out that her mother wants a new baby so soon. I want to tell her father that you don't love Nini." Nini, you secretly like another child. Nini is no longer the mother's baby. From now on, Nini will be someone else's baby, not the mother's!" Tian Nini turned away sadly, wanting to go back and run to her father's study immediately to complain. Her mother was the most afraid of her father. Sometimes, although she didn't know why, she just felt a strange and strange feeling. When she heard that, My own baby was even more anxious when she was angry, "It's okay, my mother loves Nini the most, so why would she look for another baby?" None of them are as cute as Nini, and ten of them are not as good as one Nini." Qiao Liuqing said anxiously, and kept gesturing with her hands to describe the scene, for fear that the little guy would complain. She didn't want to lie down for ten months anymore. Although the baby is very cute, it should be done in moderation. Taking care of a baby is actually very tiring. , the one at home has long wanted to have another one. If this is not what he wants, she will not even have a chance to resist.

"Nini, look, what is this? This is my brother's treasure. Does Nini like it? You can play with it if you like. Anyway, I still have a lot here." Li Haotian took out a wood carving from his bag. He also has some small hobbies. Sometimes he likes to carve some gadgets. Gu Shaoyang and the others don't like it, but children especially like this. Looking at the sparrow wood carving that looks a little clown in front of him, but in other aspects They all vividly showed the appearance of a sparrow when it spreads its wings.

Ouyang Zhengxiong, who was about to say that Nini didn't want this kind of thing, saw her take it, and his round almond-shaped eyes shone like stars. It turned out that she did not like this kind of thing. Ah, that's right, but Brother Haotian just gave him these toys he made to play with. At first, he didn't know they were made by him. He just thought they didn't look good, wanted something else, and didn't cherish those toys.

Chapter 1839

After the zombie scene started, he became homeless. It was Brother Haotian and Brother Shaoyang who pulled him out of the abyss. The emergence of this kind of thing in this continent was due to a technological war a long time ago. Crazy evil cultivators wanted to transform human beings. Genes make them have no thoughts like animals. Everything depends on the initial instinctive reaction and the genetic memory modified by him, so that their food becomes human. This is the best way to solve the problem of population imbalance. There is no way, Ouyang Zhengxiong just thinks he is crazy.

At that time, Brother Haotian would change him some ugly toys from time to time. At that time, Ouyang Zhengxiong felt that these were too childish. He was already past the age of playing with such things. It was this war that caused him to grow rapidly. He thought that he could only grow up by himself. If he is strong enough, he can defeat those evil cultivators, so that he can get his father and mother back, but he can't lie to himself. His father and mother have long been eaten to death in front of his eyes. His father and mother are afraid that he will be sad and have been holding back. He screamed, but little did he know that his heart was being cut severely by a knife.

Finally, the zombies left, and he met a kitten on the way to escape. The kitten's mother also protected the kitten in this way. When he saw this scene, he didn't know where he had cramps, and his brain was short-circuited and he picked up the kitten. The cat ran away. Although the kitten's cry attracted zombies, he had no regrets. He also wanted to protect what he could, just like his father and mother. Just when he thought everything was lost, Gu Shaoyang and Li Haotian appeared, and they worked together to kill Find a bloody path and finally save him and the kitten.

He was like an angel. Seeing those disgusting things dying miserably under their weapons, he was extremely excited. If he followed them, he could find a way to become stronger and save more people with his own abilities. He plopped down and knelt down in front of them, "Please teach me how to become stronger. I really have no choice. I can no longer bear to see my relatives die in front of me. Please, woo woo Woo." Ouyang Zhengxiong was very sad at this time. He was afraid that these two angels would abandon him.

"Okay, but you have to get up first. There is gold under a man's knees. You should keep this in mind. No matter what happens in the future, you can't kneel down casually. If your parents are not around, just accept this from me. From now on, we will be yours. My brother, my surname is Li and my courtesy name is Haotian. His surname is Gu and my courtesy name is Shaoyang." Li Haotian took out the sign from their home, picked him up, and hung it on his waist.

Ouyang Zhengxiong didn't expect that they would agree so quickly. After all, in such a chaotic period, people don't want to be burdened with a mouth and a mouth. They were scrambling for food, and food began to be scarce due to the outbreak of zombies. "Well...thank you...thank you Brother Haotian and Brother Shaoyang. I will work hard to become stronger. I don't need to eat much." Afraid that they would abandon him, he quickly said that he didn't need to eat like this. He would be hungry when he was hungry. As long as he could become stronger, he would be able to eat food when he became stronger. As a result, his stomach was growling, and he didn't have any food these days. What to eat? Children of this age need the most nutritional supplements.

Looking at Ouyang Zhengxiong who is obsessed with getting stronger, Gu Shaoyang and Li Haotian feel distressed. How could they not know this feeling? Li Haotian squatted down and touched his dirty With his little face, he took out an egg and a steamed bun from his bag.

Chapter 1840

Ouyang Zhengxiong, who had never had a good meal, his eyes lit up when he looked at the food, and he asked anxiously: "Is this... is this for me?" He had not had a good meal since that day, and he just thought He stretched out his hand to take it, then thought that these two brothers might not have eaten, so he stretched it back again, "Brother Haotian, have you eaten? If you haven't eaten, I won't eat. I'm not very hungry, hehe." Originally saw him I felt happy after having a good meal. This little guy must have been hungry for a long time, otherwise his face would not be sunken. He was so sensible. He even asked them if they had eaten. If ordinary people would have taken it away without caring about anything, I used to eat it because it was important to save my life.

"We've already eaten. Little one, you should eat first, otherwise the buns will be hard and won't taste good. Don't worry. we still have." Gu Shaoyang said to Ouyang Zhengxiong, and then he took Ouyang Zhengxiong back to their home. Although it was not as beautiful as the previous home, this warm home was also very beautiful. He had a home again. Later, Sun Yulan was also brought back. , looking at her, Ouyang Zhengxiong thought of himself. After that, the four of them grew up together and went to many places together. Under the training of Gu Shaoyang and Li Haotian, their skills became better and better. During this time, Li Haotian also did I gave him a lot of interesting toys. He liked them very much at first, but then he didn't like them anymore. Later, he felt that these were just toys for coaxing children, so he placed them randomly. Seeing Tian Nini's happy expression, he felt happy in his heart. It's not a bad feeling. Brother Haotian used to like to make some small toys to make them happy. When he was on a mission, he was frightened by Brother Haotian and burped. He ignored him when he got back. After that, he changed his ways. Make him happy

"Thank you, brother. Did you make this yourself? It's so ugly, but Nini likes it very much. My brother made it by himself. My brother and his friends can also make things, but they never do this. This is the first time Nini has received a handmade wood carving." Looking at Tian Nini whose attention was diverted, Qiao Liuqing cast a grateful look at Li Haotian. Nini carefully touched the lines on it. Although it was quite ugly, this little sparrow was cute, but of course not as cute as her.

Tian Nini rummaged around in the bag to see if she could put it away first, planning to put the little sparrow in her study so that she could show off the little sparrow. At her age, she still has a bit of a show-off mentality, "Baby, are you here?" What are you looking for? Do you need a bag to put this in? You can play with it for a while first, and then let your mother hold it for you when you get home or stop playing. Then you can play with the same thing when you get home." Qiao Liuqing said to Tian Nini. Tian Nini thought it was okay and started playing by herself.

"Didn't you ask us about Chicken Leg Township before? We outsiders from Chicken Legs are not allowed to come in and out at will, because there is a barrier outside the village, and you can only enter if you are invited by our village. However, there is something a bit strange these days. We occasionally hear people roaring at night, that kind of It feels very strange. The village chief called people over but found nothing. However, bad news always happens in Chicken Leg Township recently, and I don't know what kind of beast it is." Qiao Liuqing said unclearly. She felt that the person in front of her should know something.

Logically speaking, zombies cannot enter a place like Chicken Leg Township, because the only people who can enter are living people who have been invited, but that kind of thing must be Can't get in.
