Chapter 1911

He fell back in an instant, but when he looked at the mirror, it was clearly not broken, but the picture on his side could no longer be seen. He finally solved the problem of gathering, "I finally found you." Ouyang Zhengxiong hugged Sun Yulan directly. He was so excited that they finally met. Sun Yulan didn't know what to say until he hugged her and his brain became a little weird and he pushed Ouyang Zhengxiong away.

Ouyang Zhengxiong still doesn't know what happened. Shouldn't he be happy? Why did she push him away? Later, when she saw the angry expression on Sun Yulan's face, she remembered the difference between men and women. She backed away but there was no way out. What followed was a violent beating. The little girl looked at her completely, and even more I want to beat Ouyang Zhengxiong a little. They are obviously siblings, but after all, they are not related by blood and cannot hug each other casually.

"I was wrong, I was wrong about Yulan, I was just too excited, I swear I had no other ideas, if I had I would be struck by lightning." In the end, there was really a thunder. He cursed in his heart that the lightning came at the wrong time. "Ahem, the lightning came at the wrong time, but I really didn't have any other ideas, nor did I think about it. Taking advantage of you, seriously, what clues did you find here to find me." He was curious about how Sun Yulanshi found the clues without prompting.

She took Ouyang Zhengxiong to the wall with the photos and pointed at the wall, but Ouyang Zhengxiong didn't see anything, "Well, the wall told you Got the answer?" "What wall, I mean....." She was about to scold him for having a problem with his eyes, but she couldn't help but froze when she saw nothing on the wall. The photo frame on the wall was still there, but all the photos inside had disappeared, "I saw you in the photo." Yes, but I don't know why all the photos above have disappeared."

Seeing her anxious expression, Ouyang Zhengxiong understood that what she said must be true, but it was strange that all the photos had disappeared, but as long as they found each other, it didn't matter now So much, "Forget it, let's think about how to get out. Hey, why is there another note on this table." Ouyang Zhengxiong picked up the note from it, "Now please move to the school field for training." Ouyang Zhengxiong read the words on the note word by word.

School grounds! There is also a school ground here. "Is it possible that everything here is the same as what I encountered?" Ouyang Zhengxiong said to Sun Yulan, "Come with me. I know where the school ground is. Let's go over and verify it now." Sun Yulan didn't wait. Nodding, he moved forward, and Sun Yulan had no choice but to follow. When they arrived at the school ground, the school ground here was indeed very new. Ouyang Zhengxiong didn't know what the person wanted them to train for, so he took Sun Yulan behind him and watched the grass around him.

"Are you afraid that there are wolves here?" Sun Yulan saw her and told Ouyang Zhengxiong, and Ouyang Zhengxiong also told him how he escaped from danger. It was a near miss, but there seemed to be no wolves in this mountain. There were cold weapons and arrows on the school grounds. Target, "Doesn't he want us to compete here?" But this idea was soon proven wrong. Suddenly there was a howl of a wolf. It was really embarrassing. Ouyang Zhengxiong quickly picked up the bow and arrow on the side and threw another weapon to Sun Yulan. As for the bow and arrow, Ouyang actually didn't have any. After using it several times, a group of wolves soon bared their teeth at them, as if they were going to tear the two intruders into pieces. Ouyang Zhengxiong fired a few arrows at them, and quickly pulled Sun Yulan and ran towards the previous escape route. Finally, they really reached the creek, and the wolves really didn't dare to get closer. "So what you said is true, and there really is a barrier." While they were rejoicing, another note floated by, saying please leave the circle immediately.

Ouyang Zhengxiong, who didn't want to leave the circle, didn't want to go out even more when he saw this note. Suddenly, another one came towards him, "Otherwise, don't even think about going back? The mission is to kill ten horses and one man?" Ouyang Zhengxiong was stunned when he saw this mission. It would be a big deal to kill ten wolves at the same time, because this is a group of wolves. If they break through, it will be over. However, the superiors are still urging, and with a heartbeat, the two of them go around. On the side, they were preparing to defeat them one by one.

It started smoothly, but for some reason the wolves seemed to have discovered it and stopped falling behind. They had no choice but to jump on the tree together and use hidden weapons to slowly bring down the wolves. They originally retreated slowly. The wolves found that there were a lot of wolves missing, so they gathered in a circle. This annoyed the two of them to death. Suddenly Ouyang Zhengxiong thought that he could use sound to induce these wolves. If that didn't work, he went to attract the wolves to come out and fight together.

After that, they still They jumped out and started fighting. Fortunately, the remaining ones didn't need to kill too many, otherwise it would have been difficult. As soon as the white light flashed, they returned to the door. Their sister was waiting at the door, "Welcome back, brother and sister." The two of them were at a loss what to say after this incident, "Well, we are back, sister, you don't know how exciting it was just now."

Ouyang Zhengxiong suddenly fell from the sky and fell heavily into the water. After a closer look, he found that it was a small river. He quietly observed his surroundings and found that he had come to a paradise. This place was so quiet, except for various animals. There is no other sound than the cry.

He kept walking and walking, and then he saw a small house on a hill not far away, because he had no other choice in this place. Only by looking inside the small house could he know where it was..

Ouyang Zhengxiong waved his hand, and his body immediately disappeared on the spot. His body seemed to be atomized, and some smoke emitted from the place where he had just stood. When he turned around again, he saw that he had already appeared where the small house was. What he had learned in these days was put to use so quickly, and the understanding he extracted really took effect.

Arriving in front of this small house, Ouyang Zhengxiong found that no one seemed to have lived here for a long time. The garden that was supposed to be planted with flowers was now overgrown with weeds. It was obvious that no one was taking care of it anymore.

A path paved with stones led directly from the end of the garden to the door. Ouyang Zhengxiong followed this path to the door of the cabin. When he was about to open the door and enter, he stopped again because he was afraid that there was someone inside. Usually the people who lived in seclusion in such places were worldly masters. If he made the people inside angry, he couldn't bear the consequences..

Ouyang Zhengxiong cleared her throat and gently dusted herself off with her hands. After arranging her tie and sleeves, she gently raised her right hand and knocked gently on the wooden door in front of her. Once, then again, and then twice in a row. This is the basic etiquette of knocking on the door.

"Is there anyone inside? I didn't mean any harm, I just lost my way and didn't know where I was. I asked the owner to come out and help me!"After Ouyang Zhengxiong finished speaking, he gently leaned his head against the wooden door, because leaning against the door would make it easier to hear the sounds inside the room, but no matter how he changed his position, he could never hear any sounds inside.. However, in order to make sure that there was really no one inside, he repeated what he had just said. After he finished speaking, he listened carefully to the movement in the room and found that there was still no sound at all from me. So he said:"If there is no one inside, I will go in first. If there is any offense, please give me a warning. I am really desperate.""

After you finished speaking, you immediately opened the small wooden door and found that there was a cave inside this small house, just like a portal. When you looked at it from the outside, it was a small broken wooden house. But when I opened the door and walked in, it turned out to be a secluded large mansion. What came into view was a circular garden with very lush flowers and plants. It was also obvious that no one was taking care of it anymore, because The flowers and plants that are taller than people are enough to illustrate this point. After crossing this garden, you can hear the sound of trickling water, because there is a small river inside the house, and there is always mist on the surface of the river, which makes this house more mysterious. Not far away , there was a wooden bridge connecting both sides of the river. Ouyang Zhengxiong didn't want to take even these two steps. He thought to himself, why should he walk across the bridge when he could obviously use teleportation to cross it?

Ouyang Zhengxiong waved his sleeves, reciting a mantra silently in his mind, and then turned around. According to common sense, he should have reached the other side of the river, but he has not gone there now. He thinks something may have gone wrong just now, and he has not He cared too much, so he read it out in his mind again, but he found that there was still no response. At this time, he was very confused and didn't know what was wrong with him. But in this case, there was no time for him Go and think about it. What he has to do now is to know where he is and go back as soon as possible so as not to worry Lan Yu too much.

You walked quickly to the bridge. After crossing the bridge, he came to a small Pavilion, this small pavilion is surrounded by the shade of trees all year round, with breeze blowing from all sides. He saw the small bubbles on the stone table through his special ability: Solid*20

Spiritual Power*15.....Just judging from the sturdiness of this table, we can know that it is made of special materials this time. Materials that are really strong are very difficult to make. What kind of person can use such strong materials to build a table? Put the table.

Ouyang Zhengxiong poked the small bubbles on the table. The table did not turn into bubbles immediately. A cooling time began to appear on the small bubbles, and the cooling time was 30 days. Although Lin Li has been absorbed by Ouyang Zhengxiong, he does not feel as full of power as before at this moment. It is even as if he has not absorbed these spiritual powers. There is no change in his body. Everything here is so... strangeness.

At this time, millions of thoughts poured into Ouyang Zhengxiong's brain, and he began to become a little panicked, because his life had just started to improve, and when this happened, wouldn't his previous efforts have been in vain? His body is already very ordinary, and it is because of his ability to extract attributes that he has achieved some success. If even this ability disappears, he will probably be inferior to ordinary people in the future.

Ouyang Zhengxiong's mood suddenly became very low, and sighs kept coming from his mouth. He slapped the table and stamped his feet. It can be seen how sad he was.

Ouyang Zhengxiong kept scratching his hair, and the expression on his face was not very good. Just like this, he lay motionless on the table. Why was his life that had just improved a little bit suffered such a heavy blow? Everyone's starting point in life Why is it different? Some people can learn some more complicated things without working hard, but people like him who have no talent can't learn it no matter how hard they work.

Even though he felt dissatisfied, even if he didn't achieve much in his life, as soon as he thought of Lan Yu, the strong desire to survive suddenly burst out of his body, and he thought to himself: "I must leave this place." Place, I must see Lan Yu, she may also appear in some strange place now, I must find her, and must not let her encounter any danger."

Ouyang Zhengxiong cheered up again, and he raised his Head, sitting on the stone bench, there is a tough aura. In order to know where this place was, he immediately began to patrol the house, hoping to get some clues.

After having a rough understanding of the general environment of the house, Ouyang Zhengxiong came to a door. Like other rooms, this room did not lock the door. Maybe the owner of this room thought that no one else could appear in this place, so he was very vigilant. Low.

It is not without reason that Ouyang Zhengxiong wanted to enter my room, because when looking in from other rooms from the outside, there is very little light inside, but this room looks very bright, as if the sunlight can shine directly in. There are no curtains or anything like that. In this unfamiliar environment, he did not dare to enter an environment with poor lighting alone, because at this time he no longer had any self-defense skills, the aura on his body completely disappeared, and even the basic Qingyun He couldn't use his sword skills, and he couldn't even use his sword energy. He could only choose a room that made him feel safer to go in and check.

Before entering the room, Ouyang Zhengxiong pulled out his Xiongfeng Sword. Due to the loss of spiritual power, the sword did not emit the same blue light as before. Now it looks like an ordinary iron sword, but this It's better than nothing. When in danger, the headquarters might use their fists to fight.

Ouyang Zhengxiong carefully pushed open the door. He held the sword tightly with both hands. He was extremely focused and always ready to attack. As long as someone appeared and wanted to hurt him, he could swing it immediately. The sword comes out and kills the gangster.

What came into view were rows of bookshelves, each with many books on them. Directly opposite the window, there was a desk with several kerosene lamps and some other strange things on the desk.

Ouyang Zhengxiong carefully observed every corner of the room. His breathing became rapid. He was very nervous, and cold sweat kept breaking out on his face. At this critical moment, there was a sound behind him, and then something hit his foot.

Ouyang Zhengxiong turned pale with fright, and immediately turned around and waved his sword, but she found that there was no one behind him. He kept breathing heavily, and his eyes kept changing around, because his eyes did not dare to leak. Fall anywhere, otherwise you may die here.

Ouyang Zhengxiong began to lose his composure. One second he was looking ahead, and the next second he was swinging his sword back.

Soon, movement began to appear on his left. Ouyang Zhengxiong quickly turned around and faced the place where the sound came from. His sword was already in a state of readiness. He shouted towards that place: "What? Don't you dare to come out and fight to the death? Is that all you have? Like to play dirty?"

No one answered him. In fact, the place was not very big, it was just behind a box. Normally, no one could do it. Hidden there. But if you are a child, you can barely hide in that place. Don't be afraid of ten thousand, just be afraid of the unexpected. If there is a secret door behind and there is someone hiding in the secret door, it will be difficult. Ouyang Zhengxiong is still a very cautious person. While looking ahead, he also looks back from time to time. In this situation, it is difficult to look forward and backward at the same time. He can only try his best to do as much as possible. Watch watch the back.

Ouyang Zhengxiong slowly approached the place. He did not dare to step too hard. He subconsciously reduced the number of breaths he took because these actions might save his life. When he reached the box, he used his feet to He quickly kicked the box open, and hiding behind it were two mice.

After he kicked the box open, the two mice started running around again, making exactly the same sound as before. Only then did he realize that the sound he just heard was the sound made by the two mice hitting something.

Ouyang Zhengxiong finally breathed a sigh of relief, because mice are very smart little animals. They will adjust their activity time according to the activity time of other animals, and try to avoid being in the same activity time with animals that threaten them. These two mice were active during the day, which meant that no one had lived in this place for a long time. He immediately put down the sword in his hand, let out a long sigh, and then slumped to the ground.

Ouyang Zhengxiong no longer wants to move. At this moment, Ouyang Zhengxiong feels that it is good to be an ordinary person. He does not need to practice so many complicated sword techniques. He ponders and experiences them day and night. It is really too much for him. tired. Like this, living in such a small wooden house with the person you like in the deep mountains and old forests, growing some fruits and vegetables outside, and going hunting in the forest from time to time. How wonderful this kind of life without competing with the world is!

But yearning comes after yearning, after all, Ouyang Zhengxiong's life has been doomed for a long time, and it is really impossible to make such a big change. His desire to go out became even stronger, because he hadn't seen Lan Yu for too long, and he was really worried about what danger Lan Yu would encounter.

He stood up suddenly and walked thinking about those bookshelves, because he felt that there might be some clues in them. Even if he had no clue now, it would be better than sitting here doing nothing.

Ouyang Zhengxiong came to a bookshelf. The bookshelf was filled with books, and each row was packed tightly. In the center of the bookshelf were written four large golden characters, "The Secret Knowledge of the Human World". As a person who is obsessed with all kinds of unique skills, these four words are enough to make his blood boil.

He put the drawn sword back into the scabbard as quickly as he could, and scratched the spines of so many books with his fingers, because there were too many books, and the information in these books was not written in The spines of the books dazzled him, and he didn't know which one he should take out.

Ouyang Zhengxiong's fingers stopped on a thick book, and then he gently pulled the book out. After he opened the cover, a smell of dusty books hit his face. It was obvious that these books had not been opened for a very long time. After turning the first page, he could see some introduction about the book:

Oni Feng Sword Technique, created by Gui Feng, the leader of Tian Sword City.....

This turned out to be a secret book about sword skills. What does that have to do with him? He is a swordsman. Then he immediately closed the secret book and started looking for the next target.

After a simple selection, he took out another book. After opening it, it still smelled like a book being oxidized by the air. This book turned out to be about Condensation Technique.

He still has a certain understanding of the Condensing Art. After all, he was a disciple of the Wanzong Sword Sect before. His master would not only teach them swordsmanship, but also introduce other techniques of cultivating immortals. Condensing Art was one of them. His master said that the Condensation Technique is an ancient secret technique that has been lost for a long time. After practicing to a certain level, you can turn the invisible into the tangible, and present what you want in front of you through your thoughts. For example, if you want to have a Sword, you can produce a sword out of thin air, and after the sword is broken, you can condense it again. If you need a shield, you can also get it through the same method. You can also make them disappear when you don't need them anymore. As long as you are calmer and have higher mental strength, the objects you practice will be stronger and harder.

Ouyang Zhenxiong can't wait to learn this kind of thing, because this is a good opportunity for him to distance himself from his fellow apprentices. As long as he can practice the Condensing Art, his fellow apprentices will be far behind him. Yes, when the time comes, those who look down on him will also look good on him.

Ouyang Zhengxiong was flipping through the pages of this book on Condensation Techniques. Just as he was about to get lost in what he was saying, there was a sudden surge of powerful spiritual power. In an instant, the whole house began to vibrate, and some books had been removed from the bookshelf. It fell. In order to prevent himself from falling, he tightly grasped the bookshelf in front of him.

A suppressive force came out of thin air. This sudden force made Ouyang Zhengxiong's body become very heavy. He wanted to draw his sword, but it was already too late. Because under this suppressive force, he could only barely hold on to his body and prevent himself from falling. Drawing the sword had become very difficult.

Although this place is far away from the hustle and bustle of the old city and the disputes in the human world, Ouyang Zhengxiong still has many friends waiting for him in the human world. If she suddenly disappears, his friends will be very worried, so now he Wanting to go out, he said to the six-winged fire phoenix, "How can I leave this place? My friends must be particularly worried about me now. Can you please help me get out?" The six-winged fire phoenix surrounded Ouyang Zhengxiong. He spun around, leaving afterimages of flames wherever he flew. He said to Ouyang Zhengxiong: "Are you in such a hurry to leave? Do you still want to live a mediocre life? Where is the ambitious you before?"

Ouyang Zhengxiong Seeming a little impatient, his tone started to get a little aggressive, and he said to the six-winged fire phoenix: "I've already said, you got the wrong person, I'm just an ordinary cultivator."

"Don't you still know your life experience? Have you never even met your own father and mother?"

Even Ouyang Zhengxiong himself doesn't know much about his life experience, because he has never met his parents. His master said that he was picked up by a disciple when he was traveling down the mountain. At that time, he saw several wolves at this address. He was holding an infant baby, and that baby was Ouyang Zhengxiong. Later, this disciple rescued the baby from the wolf's mouth and raised her in Changsheng City.

Ouyang Zhengxiong has always wanted to know who his parents are, because Growing up, he was ridiculed by his fellow disciples, saying that he was a wild child without a father or a mother. He often dreamed that he could hide in his mother's arms and talk about the injustices he encountered in the world. Until he was protected from wind and rain by his father's arms. Ouyang Zhengxiong said urgently: "My life experience? Do you really know my life experience? Who are you? The six-winged fire phoenix slowly said to Ouyang Zhengxiong, "Of course I know your life experience. I understand both your past and present lives, because you are my master!"

Ouyang Zhengxiong's eyes have been staring at the six-winged fire phoenix flying in the sky. He can't wait to know his life experience, because no one has ever told him since he was a child: "Then can you tell me? I really want to know who my parents are"

"Then let's talk about your past life first, which starts from thousands of years ago." In this way, Ouyang Zhengxiong began to sit quietly on the ground, listening to the six-winged fire phoenix telling the story of his past life.....

Thousands of years ago, the world was different from today. The world was divided into three realms, namely the upper realm, the ground realm and the underground realm. The so-called upper realm is the heaven realm, the earth realm is the human realm, and the underground realm is the underworld, which is what you now call the devil realm.

The heavenly world and the demonic world are two realms with powerful magic powers. They can control thunder, lightning, ice and fire, etc., while the human world is made up of ordinary people. Originally, the heaven and the underworld have always developed peacefully, but the people in the heaven felt that there was a group of people with the same strength as themselves, which would definitely threaten them in the future.

Over time, Emperor Tian of the Heaven Realm fell into the devil's way and lost his mind due to his excessive practice of martial arts. The assistant next to him, Huo Yunzi, has always disliked the demon world, and Huo Yunzi has extremely high influence in the heaven world. He pushed Ditian's loss of mind into the hands of people in the demon world.

He did this just to satisfy his own ambition, because after the fall of Emperor Tian, the only one who has the hope of becoming the king of heaven is Huo Yunzi. Huo Yunzi has always had the ambition to unify the three realms, and the human world no longer poses a threat to her. Well, he will directly solve the underworld after he ascends to power, so that the whole world will be his from now on.

After Huo Yunzi succeeded to the throne of the Heavenly King, he officially launched into the Demon Realm on the grounds that Emperor Tian was plotted by the Demon Realm. However, you in the previous life, Guizhua, the leader of the Demon Realm, saw through Huo Yunzi's plan at a glance. As long as the Demon Clan As long as people stay underground, people in the God Realm will have absolutely no way to deal with the Demon Realm, because there is no True Yang Qi in the underground world. Once people in the God Realm stop absorbing the True Yang Qi, their own divine power will be greatly weakened. With this kind of divine power being continuously weakened, the God Realm has no chance of winning against the Demon Realm, so people from the God Realm must not dare to go directly to the Underworld.

The reason why the demons avoid war is not because they are afraid of the gods, but because as long as the gods and demons start a war, the war may spread to the human race. Those who suffer are still the humans who do not have any divine power, and many of the human race's immortal cultivators are also gods. A member of the God Clan is equivalent to a substitute for the God Clan. When the time comes, they will also be involved in this vicious fight.

After Huo Yunzi of the Protoss learned about the Demons' strategy to avoid war, he ordered the Protoss generals to lead their divine soldiers to search for the Demons who came to the earth. That's because it's impossible for the demons to completely seal themselves underground, because the underground environment is harsh, with lava and stench everywhere, and a lack of water and food. If they want to maintain a normal life, they have to send people to the above-ground world.

Since then, Ghost Claw has heard news of clan members being killed from time to time, and these news have become more and more frequent one after another. Later, Ghost Claw finally couldn't bear it anymore and took the initiative to start a war with the God Realm. In this way, the war between the gods and demons was about to break out.

Ghost Claw led the eight generals of the demon clan and numerous demon armies to the heaven on mounts. I am you, the mount of Ghost Claw. I can carry more than 10,000 people with my six wings spread out. The eight generals moved separately to lead one side, so as to avoid encountering an ambush by the magic soldiers and causing the entire army to be annihilated.

Crystal Mountain is the closest mountain to the Divine Realm. If you want to attack the Divine Realm, you must capture this mountain. The Ice Demon was the first to arrive at the Crystal Mountain. The mountain looked peaceful, but there were magical soldiers lurking in the dark. When the Ice Demon was about to lead the clan members forward, those magical soldiers with golden auras on their bodies. It was revealed that all of them were wearing golden armor and were fully prepared for battle.

Between the lightning and flint, the weapons of the two sides connected. The Demon General Ice Demon took the lead. He jumped into the air and waved his two-meter-long sword. The dozen magic soldiers surrounding him fell on the spot and were frozen. In place.

However, what is strange is that they immediately broke the ice, and golden bubbles flew into their bodies, instantly restoring their divine power. They stood up again like nothing happened, and then started fighting against the ice demon. More than a dozen divine soldiers jumped on the ice demon from all directions. While jumping, they stretched out their golden weapons and hit the ice demon hard.

The ice demon used the Ten Thousand Ice Barrier to disperse these magic weapons with huge energy, causing them to hit the mountain rocks heavily. The thick rocks were shattered by these magic weapons, and each of them was in pain. They fell to the ground. Just when the ice demon wanted to attack other magic soldiers, these Chen Bing miraculously absorbed the golden bubbles flying from a distance. Just like before, they were full of vitality. Instead, they were The golden light is even more dazzling. Yes, their divine power has been strengthened this time.

Seeing that something was not going well, the Ice Demon must have help from a great god behind them. He raised his right hand high, and the sky immediately turned purple-black, and the side of the Ice Demon was filled with cold air, making it difficult for the magic soldiers to approach. Ice stones like blades fell from the sky one by one, causing large-scale damage to these magic soldiers. At the same time as he lowered the ice blade, an ice blade shining with blue light and filled with cold air fell from the sky.

The ice demon jumped to catch the ice knife, and after landing firmly on the ground, he waved his hands, and his cloak fluttered in the wind. The sword energy emitted from the ice struck everywhere, killing and wounding the soldiers of the gods. Just when they thought the Ice Crystal Mountain had been taken, another golden bubble floated from the distance and entered the bodies of these magic soldiers. These magic soldiers were resurrected on the spot, and their divine power was strengthened again.

The demon soldiers all found it incredible. Their morale was greatly reduced because they felt that the divine soldiers seemed invincible. The ice demon immediately used the magic of the Ring to tell the demon paws about the current situation. The demon paws that were rushing to the God's Palace of Immortality immediately stopped. When it came down, it notified the little ghosts in the devil world to find this great god who was secretly helping the soldiers recover their physical strength. If they wanted to take down the Ice Crystal Mountain, they must first deal with this great god with immortal power.

The little ghost followed the direction of the spiritual power and came to an uninhabited hilltop in the God's Domain. This place has beautiful scenery, no buildings, and green grass, giving people a happy feeling. However, the kid cannot make mistakes, because he has never made mistakes in tracing the source of energy. This is his innate power.

Just when the kid was confused, floating peach blossoms suddenly appeared right in front of him. The petals of these peach blossoms floated from all directions and all gathered at one point. Then a great god meditating in the air appeared. This great god has his eyes closed, wearing white clothes, his hair has been shaved, and there are eight Buddha points on his head. There is a golden ring behind his head. Like him, this ring is also floating in the air.

"Who are you? Are you the one who secretly uses divine power to help the divine soldiers?"

"Everything has its own cause and effect. I advise you to stop early, otherwise you will be the ones who are killed or injured."

"You, a monk, talk so much about cause and effect, but do you know that your divine race is deeply sinful? If you want to kill my people and enslave mankind, you should have died long ago!"

"We may indeed die, but it's not your turn to massacre us yet. If you want to crush the Gods, you must first pass my level!"

"Go to hell! Destroy, Thousand Snake Blades!", in an instant, a blood-red Zhan Eight Snake Spear came out of the kid's hand. After the kid took the snake spear, he stroked the tip of the snake spear with his left hand, and the snake hair was immediately given the power of thunder and lightning. , the thunder and lightning flashed in the air.

The kid held the snake spear tightly in his hand, jumped, and stabbed directly into the eye of the God of Ten Thousand Buddhas...

Chapter 1918

A sudden huge fireball interrupted the six-winged fire phoenix's speech and directly blew up the bookstore to pieces. The six-winged fire phoenix instantly became huge and used his huge wings to help Ouyang Zhenxiong block the fire attack.

It turned out that people from the God Realm chased here. After the six-winged fire phoenix appeared, they saw the spiritual power of the fire phoenix through the sky stone, and pursued them into the mirror world through the spiritual power of the fire phoenix.

The fire phoenix flapped its wings gently, and then a flame bubble enveloped Ouyang Zhenxiong, and at this moment, Ouyang Zhengxiong was blown a thousand meters away. Huofeng tried to block the three great gods of the God Realm on his own. These three great gods were Lei Zhenzi, Shui Miao and Jufeng Huo.

The God of Thunder instantly transformed into thunder, his hair stood up, and his whole body was filled with terrifying power of thunder and lightning. He quickly flew into the air, and the thunder and lightning connected his body to the earth. This was enough to show how powerful the thunder and lightning was. Lei Zhenzi waved his hand, and countless thunderballs flew toward Huofeng at lightning speed. Huofeng could only dodge as much as he could, but he couldn't dodge all the thunderballs, and in the end a few hit his wings. above.

The fire phoenix also started to fight back. He rushed into the sky and breathed out the Samadhi True Fire. Then he flapped his wings and the fire became more fierce. The Samadhi True Fire floated in the direction of the three great gods. The great god Leibu was agile and used the power of thunder and lightning to create a thunder shield, blocking the Samadhi True Fire that was attacking him. Shui Miao is the nemesis of fire. With a wave of his hands, countless water columns rush out of the ground. This is not ordinary water. This water is spiritual water that can extinguish the true fire of Samadhi. In front of Shui Miao, all attacks from Six Wings Fire Wind were in vain.

It would be great if Ghost Claw was still there at this time, because the six-winged fire phoenix is actually Ghost Claw's life weapon. He can transform into a two-foot-long Thunder Flame Dulong Spear. Coupled with Ghost Claw's own attributes, there is basically no What can directly restrain the combination of the two of them.

At this time, the six-winged fire phoenix did not dare to use all his strength, because if he used all his spiritual power to fight, he would not have the spiritual power behind him to protect Ouyang Zhenxiong. When he saw that the situation was not good, he immediately used his wings to fight again. Hit the ground, and then countless pillars of earth rushed out of the ground. He seized the opportunity and burned these pillars with flames. In an instant, these natives turned into a solid stone wall.

This stone wall can delay the escape of the six-winged fire phoenix and Ouyang Zhenxiong. The six-winged fire phoenix immediately turned around and flew to Ouyang Zhengxiong's side at his fastest speed. "Master, come up quickly!"

Ouyang Zhengxiong's skill He was also very agile, leaping up and easily jumping onto the wings of the six-winged fire phoenix. Just when they were about to fly away, the stone wall was broken down by three great gods.

Obviously, they had very little chance to escape. Liuyi Huofeng also realized this, and his tone became very disappointed. He said to Ouyang Zhengxiong: "Master, I may not be able to protect you by your side in the future. Now, let me protect you for the last time. If you are caught by them, they will completely smash your environmental protection, and then you will never be reincarnated again."

Although Ouyang Zhengxiong's memory no longer has the six-winged fire Phoenix, but the desperate protective desire of the six-winged fire phoenix just now moved Ouyang Zhengxiong very much, and Ouyang Zhengxiong's tears fell down drop by drop.

"Fire Phoenix, let us fight side by side! Just like before!", Ouyang Zhengxiong wiped the tears on his face with his hands. His eyes looked so firm. Although he faced such a powerful enemy, this time, he showed courage that he had never had before, because he felt that the fire phoenix was not his pet, nor his weapon, but the brother who fights with him on the battlefield.

"Master, don't rush to die! Your fighting spirit has not awakened yet, so there is no suspense in fighting them now. Leave the rest to me!"

After the fire phoenix finished speaking, it wrapped Ouyang Zhengxiong with a flame bubble. This bubble would not burn Ouyang Zhengxiong, but it could prevent Ouyang Zhengxiong from being burned by the true fire of Samadhi. The fire phoenix looked up to the sky and roared, burning all the souls in his body. The power of the fire phoenix burst out, and the fire light emitted from it was extremely bright. With a "boom", a powerful energy burst out from the body of the fire phoenix. This energy knocked back the three great gods.

Shui Miao drew it. A water shield blocked the way of the other two great gods. Even the spiritual water that could restrain the three-flavored true fire was slowly becoming thinner under the energy attack of the fire phoenix. However, in order not to be attacked by the water, The flames burned and kept sending energy into the shield, which was in opposition to the energy emitted by the fire phoenix. Shui Miao struggled to say: "The six-winged living phoenix is worthy of being an ancient divine beast. The three of us have a little difficulty handling it, so he How terrifying it is to fight with Ghost Claw!"

Lei Zhenzi misunderstood Huofeng's intention. He said to Shui Miao,"No, Guizhao is about to run away. Huofeng is seeking death!"

Chapter 1919

"what are you saying? How could Ghost Claw run away? He is a commoner now! He is almost human, so what ability does he have to escape from the three of us?"

"The six-winged fire phoenix is burning itself. In this way, he can open a fire spring. As long as he passes through this fire spring, he can reach a certain place in the world. By then, we will not be able to trace his spiritual power at all."

"What to do? Let's stop him quickly!", Lei Zhenzi gritted his teeth, and cold sweat broke out from his head drop by drop, because he was suppressed by the momentum of the six-winged fire phoenix. If he cannot complete this task today, Huo Yunzi will The three of them will be severely punished."Underground Rat, come and help me. I will use all my spiritual power to rush over later. You cover me and help me."

The underground rat nodded, and Lei Zhenzi's eyes turned white. A force of thunder and lightning penetrated his whole body. Every pore on his body flashed with the blue light emitted by thunder and lightning. Even his eyes were full of thunder and lightning. Then, with his right hand, Holding a thunder ball, there was a small Thunder Tomahawk wrapped inside the thunder ball. The thunder ball slowly enlarged, and the Thunder Tomahawk inside also grew larger. Soon, the Thunder Tomahawk became a normal one. Big and small.

Lei Zhenzi held the Thunder Battle Ax tightly. The underground rat slammed his hands on the ground, and huge thorns moved forward on the ground, and the speed was extremely fast. Lei Zhenzi followed here Behind the ground thorn, his thunder and lightning power left an afterimage in the air, just like a bolt of lightning, rushing forward.

At this time, the six-winged fire phoenix had already opened the flame spring, and the six-winged fire phoenix captain Ouyang Zhen Xiong said:"Master, leave quickly. If you don't leave, it will be too late!"

Ouyang Zhengxiong hugged the wings of the six-winged fire phoenix tightly and never let go. He said to the six-winged fire phoenix:"I will not abandon you. Let's go together!"

While they were talking, Lei Zhenzi held a thunder battle ax and pointed directly at Ouyang Zhengxiong. The six-winged fire phoenix immediately spread his wings, and then swatted towards Lei Zhenzi with all his strength. Lei Zhenzi, The thunder ax struck heavily on one of the wings of the six-winged fire phoenix, and at the same time, he was pushed back by the wings of the six-winged fire phoenix. The six-winged fire phoenix shouted, and the whole mountain shook. His wings were drooped on the ground and could no longer be lifted up.

Ouyang Zhengxiong was extremely sad at this moment. The fire phoenix that tried so hard to protect himself was now being attacked so heavily, but he was helpless. He blamed himself very much at this time. He felt It was all his fault that he didn't work hard at all, and would hurt others at the critical moment. He hugged Huofeng and cried, so choked up that he couldn't say anything.

Lei Zhenzi seized the opportunity, and after accumulating power, a blue-purple lightning shot toward Ouyang. When Zhenxiong called, Ouyang Zhenxiong looked up to the sky and screamed:"Ah!"Suddenly, an energy wave centered on Ouyang Zhengxiong and spread to all directions. Everything hit by the energy wave was shattered. The lightning that flew towards Ouyang Zhenxiong also disappeared directly. Lei Zhenzi was severely beaten. The missile hit the mountain a hundred meters away

"Master, I feel your powerful aura. You just used the soul power of your previous life. It seems that you have understood something, but now is not the time to show off."

Just like what the six-winged fire phoenix said, Ouyang Zhenxiong was indeed just hitting the mark. He didn't even know how he had emitted the energy just now. He tried to use the energy hidden in his body like before, but this time he But he didn't succeed. He could only use some basic moves of immortal cultivators.

He clasped his hands and intertwined his fingers, only the index and middle fingers of both hands were raised, and then his long sword came out of his scabbard. , flying steadily above his head.

After Ouyang Zhengxiong recited the incantation, this common sword transformed into hundreds or thousands of long swords. Ouyang Zhengxiong shouted:"Sword Rain!", he waved his hands forward, and the more than 1,000 common weapons flew towards where the other two great gods were. The underground rat waved his right hand, and countless dust twisted into a thick stone shield in front of them. It was easy to block more than 1,000 swords. Then, Shui Miao said to Ouyang Zhenxiong:"Kid, you still want to deal with us with your three-legged cat skills. You think too highly of yourself!"

After Shui Miao finished speaking, he summoned a water dragon, and the underground book also summoned an earth dragon. The two dragons entangled each other and flew towards Ouyang Zhengxiong. The vegetation was destroyed wherever they flew. The two dragons flew. The strong wind brought out made Ouyang Zhengxiong unable to breathe. Facing such a powerful attack, Ouyang Zhengxiong was stunned and stood motionless. It may be that he had too little combat experience. He encountered this in the first battle. With such a powerful opponent, no one would know which set of moves to use to counter them.

"Master, I'm sorry, I can't listen to you this time. Goodbye!"

After the six-winged fire phoenix finished speaking, he used all his strength to throw Ouyang Zhenxiong into the flame spring.

As Ouyang Zhengxiong flew towards the spring, he clearly saw the earth dragon and the water dragon hitting the six-winged fire phoenix hard. His tears flowed out drop by drop, and the crystal clear tears were the size of pearls. , what is reflected inside is the entire process of the six-winged fire phoenix being attacked.

The moment Ouyang Zhenxiong entered the spring, the whole world became blurred. He began to become drowsy and could hardly open his eyes.

Suddenly, his consciousness began to become blurry. He could no longer remember everything that had happened before. She came to a dark place. The space was small and the air was not very fresh. He could not even open his legs. very convenient.

Even though Ouyang Zhengxiong escaped from the six paths of reincarnation through the spring, he could not escape this turbulent world.....

The place where he is now is the Cemetery of Gods and Demons. In addition to the top human cultivators, the rest of the people installed in this cemetery are members of the Gods and Demons. This cemetery is located in the center of Shengyuan Continent, absorbing the essence of heaven and earth, ensuring that every corpse will not rot.

There are lush flowers and plants in the cemetery, and the flowers are blooming. If there were not many graves there, it would not be wrong to call it the source of flowers. This cemetery is surrounded by lush green trees. The school breeze blows gently, the sun shines in the woods, and the fallen leaves fall like snowflakes in the air. It is often the most desolate at this time. According to legend, these They are the tears of the gods.

The scene in the cemetery during the day and at night is completely different. During the day, the cemetery has an awe-inspiring atmosphere. The sunlight shining in the cemetery makes it look particularly holy. The holy sunlight illuminates every piece of land, allowing us to see various sculptures painted by the powerful faith of the ancient gods. You can seem to see angels dancing in the sky and hear the beautiful fairy songs coming from the east. The whole cemetery looks so sacred.

But as soon as the sun goes down and night begins to fall, a chilling darkness begins to emerge here. This darkness makes the stars in the sky unable to illuminate this cemetery. Darkness covers everything here. Just like the legendary place of evil, like the kind of place where demons can do whatever they want, people can even hear the ancient demons, Meimei, anyone who walks here will get numb in the scalp.

Sunset seems to be the turning point between these two periods. When it is busy, this cemetery is the quietest. There is no sound at all in the cemetery, not even the sound of insects can be heard. It makes people feel so peaceful here.

At this moment of sunset, an almost bloodless hand was taken out from a grave. Later he stretched out another hand. At this moment, the person inside seemed to have no strength. He used two His hands struggled to crawl outside, and not long after, a young man crawled out of the tomb. The man's hair was disheveled and pale. He looked at a loss when facing everything unfamiliar around him. His worn clothes were already tightly worn. It stuck to him. He seemed to have no spiritual power and was still so ordinary. He was Ouyang Zhengxiong. After passing through the Flame Spring, he became so depressed because the power in the Flame Spring was too great. He can tear apart space. It is precisely because he is protected by the flame bubbles of the six-winged fire phoenix that he can survive until now.

"Where am I? What happened just now?" Ouyang Zhengxiong seemed to have forgotten everything that had just happened. He was so confused looking at everything unfamiliar in front of him.

Ouyang Zhengxiong turned his head and looked around, his eyes fixed on a stone monument. He squinted his eyes and tried He read the words on the tombstone clearly and wanted to get information from the words, but at this moment he was shocked because the words here looked so unfamiliar. Even scholars who specialize in ancient words would shake their heads after reading them.

But he seemed After understanding it, he silently read the information recorded on the tombstone in his heart: "The Tomb of Dongchuang Sword God Zhan Wuyang". Ouyang Zhengxiong thought it was incredible. He felt that the words on the tombstone might be garbled. Wrote: "Is this true? Is this really the famous sword god back then? He is a powerful figure. Will he die after cultivating immortality and becoming a god? So what's the point of us cultivating immortals?"

In order to rule out the possibility of fraud, he turned his head and looked at another tombstone. This tombstone was taller than the one just now. He was even more surprised when he saw it: "The tomb of the northern war god Huo Kai? Isn't it said that Huokai got a set of golden holy armor? Is he the warrior in golden armor?"

All this is so strange. He looked around and found that these were tombstones of various famous gods or human beings who reached the pinnacle. So he sighed: "What on earth is going on? How come all those powerful people died one by one? Why are their tombstones here?"
