Chapter 1941

The giant snake was chasing behind it while spraying out flames. When the flames were about to reach the back of the little princess, Hou Yi's bow, which was carried by the little princess, suddenly emitted a faint golden light and sprayed the giant snake. The flames coming out were blocked. The giant snake was frightened by the golden light emitted by Hou Yi's bow and stopped suddenly, because he had just been seriously injured by this divine bow, and now he was very afraid of this peerless magic weapon, because he might die from it if he was not careful.

At the same time, a huge roar came from the distance, the sound was louder than thunder, and it rippled back and forth in the air.

"Don't be afraid, the master is coming!" The voice of this man walking over was very loud, and the sound waves from his voice shook the gravels at the crater one by one.

Ouyang Zhengxiong's ears were buzzing at the sound, and he almost fell on the spot. Fell down!

After a while, a middle-aged man wearing loose long sleeves appeared a hundred meters away

"Woo.....Old man, you came too late, right? If you had come a little later, I'm afraid there would be no bones left of me. This giant snake is too fierce." The little princess shouted loudly.

Ouyang Zhengxiong was shocked and his blood surged all over his body. Coupled with the excessive tension just now, he directly He sat down on the ground and stared in front of him silently.

"What kind of human voice skill can be practiced so powerfully? Is this Goshawk Xiao who has the trace of Yan Sha? Why did the little devil call him old man? He doesn't look very old! Is this an old guy who has become a child again?" Ouyang Zhengxiong stared at the middle-aged man closely. In just a blink of an eye, the man came closer to them by more than 50 feet.

Ouyang Zhengxiong looked at the old guy's flying steps on the ground and couldn't help but sigh in his heart. : "This old guy is really amazing, his kung fu has at least reached the master level."

In an instant, the middle-aged man was in front of the little princess. The giant snake was not far away, staring at the two people.

But the middle-aged man didn't seem to let the giant snake go at all. In his heart, he was just doing his own thing. He patted the little princess's head gently with his hand, smiled and said to the little princess: "Haha, I told you not to come out alone, so don't show off next time. Bar! It's going to be hard this time!"

"It's so annoying, I've told you so many times, don't hit me on the head so easily, it will make me stupid," the little princess said, pushing the middle-aged man's hand away from her head. He turned aside, then pouted her lips and said, "You old man, what on earth do you want to do? Can you come a little more timely next time? Do you want to make fun of me on purpose? The old man smiled even more happily. He smiled and said to the little princess: "How can that be done?" If I had come early, could I have seen you being chased around by this little thing? Looking at your desolate look, I wonder if you will be arrogant next time! Hahaha"

"I'm so dizzy!" Ouyang Zhengxiong watched the conversation between the master and the disciple. He was convinced from the bottom of his heart that the master and disciple actually called such a huge basilisk with a small character.

"Humph, I don't know whether what you said is true or false!"

At this time, the guards who had escaped from the strange snake's mouth began to flee in all directions.

The middle-aged man's voice became very deep: "You guys should stay away from this volcano as quickly as possible. Run as far as you can. Come on, don't look back!"

The little princess didn't say any more. She took the injured guards and ran towards the bottom of the volcano. Of course, Ouyang Zhenxiong had escaped a long time ago. He didn't want to face that terrifying little devil here.

Little Princess The princess discovered Ouyang Zhengxiong who was running quickly in front. She shouted to Ouyang Zhengxiong from a short distance: "Hey, scum, stop for me quickly. If you are caught by me after running away, I don't need to say more about the consequences. Come on, I can do anything in the exam!" The little princess said harshly to Ouyang Zhenxiong.

In the ten days since Ouyang Zhengxiong was arrested, he had already suffered a lot, but she finally couldn't help but scolded him back: "You stinky princess, I I have never seen you so stupid. I was almost brought to death by you. Are you a little self-aware? With your three-legged cat skills, you still want to deal with this big snake. Let me see if you can catch me. You I will return this account to you sooner or later, I xxxxxx....."

The injured guards wanted to rush forward immediately and catch Ouyang Zhengxiong, but their injuries were too serious and they were powerless. They could only yell and curse loudly from a distance, and then Otherwise, just give him a vicious look.

When had the little princess ever been so angry? She was so angry that she was clenching her teeth and her body was shaking. If her power hadn't been exhausted by that big snake, I'm afraid she would have rushed forward and killed Ou Yang Zhenxiong by now.

Ouyang Zhenxiong jumped up and down the mountain. After three or five ups and downs, Ouyang Zhenxiong had already reached the bottom of the mountain. He ignored the scolding of the little princess behind him. At this time, he just wanted to leave this ghost place as soon as possible. Let the big snake and the little princess appear in front of him again.

He plunged into the small woods not far away, but he did not leave immediately. Instead, he quietly hid in the small woods because he really wanted to see the big snake fight with the middle-aged man. He wanted to Look how powerful this middle-aged man is.

This middle-aged man faced the giant snake alone, and his death changed immediately. At this moment, he seemed to be a proud master traveling between heaven and earth, with no trace of fear on his face. Sexy, but full of confidence, as if this big snake is a piece of cake for him.

This giant snake has been staying in this crater for more than 2,000 years. He has become the king of beasts nearby. No animal within a hundred miles dares to approach this volcano. And then in just a short period of time today Within half a day, his authority here was being challenged.

He had just been severely injured by Hou Yi's divine bow, and now he had to face the oppression of such a powerful middle-aged man. The little big snake was completely angry, and spurted out the blazing flames from his mouth. This scorching flame An overwhelming crowd rushed towards the middle man.

The speed of this middle-aged man is very fast, as if he is about to catch up with the lightning in the sky. As soon as he moves, he will leave an afterimage on the spot, and then he will instantly move to the side for more than five meters, and then kick his feet. Leaping high in the sky, he hit the giant snake with a cleft palm on the bleeding wound caused by Houyi's bow. The wound that had begun to recover now began to spurt out blood again.

After all, the character couldn't bear the severe pain. It fell directly on its head and rolled on the ground in pain. Its two blood-red eyes gave off a daunting and fierce light, and a very large wind swept the ground. He rose up and swung the huge snake's tail across the air, striking the middle-aged man fiercely.

If this big snake is fighting on the battlefield at this time, then he can definitely be said to be able to defeat thousands of troops alone.

The giant snake's tail hit the ground hard, and then the world began to shake. Amidst the loud rumbling noise, rocks flew everywhere, and the dust rolled up on the ground made it impossible to see what was going on inside. The snake's huge tail left a deep groove in the ground.

When the wind and smoke cleared, the situation inside was vaguely revealed. It turned out that the middle-aged man had already dodged the snake's tail, and now he was standing on the top of the volcano. But the giant snake still did not give up. He raised his tail again, and the huge snake head rushed towards the sky, just at the same height as the crater, and then used its bloody mouth to swallow the middle-aged man directly.

This middle-aged man had no intention of hiding. He rushed forward, and then waved his two fists forward, which seemed to condense the huge energy in the air. Countless white lights appeared in front of his fists, and these lights seemed to have transformed into tangible objects, and each of them has hit the huge wound on the giant snake.

"boom.....boom!"

A loud noise echoed between the heaven and the earth and refused to disperse for a long time.

The giant snake tumbled from the air and landed on the ground, causing the ground to scatter in all directions. The middle-aged man was also struck by the huge force. The force rebounded, and the rebound caused by this force directly knocked him from one side of the crater to the other. This was the first time he fell to the ground in a panic.

Ouyang Zhengxiong couldn't help but sigh in his heart: "This hit What is the origin of young people? He was actually able to challenge this big snake on his own, and this big snake was currently at a disadvantage. Moreover, she has not yet used her full strength. This person's strength is really terrifying."

The little princess and her group who were also hiding in the forest were very excited after seeing the giant snake being beaten by the middle-aged man. They shouted with joy and finally avenged the beating just now.

The middle-aged man and The giant snake soon began to fight with each other again. He also saw that the weakness of the giant snake was its eyes, so he used his lightning speed and his peerless sound wave skills to specifically attack the snake's wounds and his. Eyes, this giant snake did not show any weakness at all. He relied on his huge body to sweep and charge at the middle-aged man. In this way, one person and one snake were fighting fiercely on the volcano. Because their fight was too It was too intense, and rocks kept rolling down the mountain.

Because the two of them kept pulling, the place where the man and the snake were fighting was getting farther and farther away from the crater. They gradually moved towards the bottom of the mountain, away from Ouyang. Masao and the little princess were getting closer and closer, and the fierce fight was enough to hurt everyone.

Ouyang Zhengxiong realized that something was wrong, and he quickly left the forest. The little princess and others also felt that something was wrong, and they also seized the opportunity and retreated two miles back.

These people had just withdrawn, and the place where they had just been became a new battlefield. As the middle-aged man and the giant snake fought from the mountain to the bottom, every time the middle-aged man waved his fist, a large area of intense white light would emit. The nearby rocks and trees will turn into powder when exposed to white light.

But the destructive power of this giant snake is more powerful than this middle-aged man. Every time he sprays flames, it will cause a large area of the forest to be burned, and these trees will suddenly turn into scorched earth. Every time he uses its tail, When it sweeps across, it will cause rows of nearby trees to fall down.

Without even using the time to drink tea, this forest was razed to the ground.

Ouyang Zhenxiong was very nervous when he saw it, as if he was fighting. It was not that he had never seen such a peerless master. His father was the kind of peerless master who was judged again among these peerless masters, but since childhood, Big, he has never seen such a fierce battle. It was too exciting to see it with his own eyes this time.

The little princess was secretly celebrating in the forest. Fortunately, when they fought with the giant snake before, the snake didn't use its real skills. If the flames of the giant snake were sprayed at them, then they would also become the ones in this forest. part of the scorched earth. If this giant snake had swept over them with its huge tail, they would have become fertilizer in the forest.

The little princess shouted happily:"Come on, old man, that stinky snake has bullied me so much. Beat that snake to death and take revenge on my guards who were killed by him." It's only been many years. He seemed to have the upper hand. He moved frequently with his lightning-like speed. The big snake could not figure out his specific position at all. The lightning-like figure frequently appeared near the wound that the big snake had begun to suffer. The young man waved his fist, and the fist was accompanied by hot white light, and kept hitting the giant snake's wound. The giant snake was beaten very embarrassed, and his huge body kept rolling on the ground.

"Ah, why are you so stupid, old man? Why haven't you killed him after taking so long? Did I just praise you a few words and you'll be happy? Don't be too proud. Pride also requires strength!"

"Old man, are you too bad? Damn it, you are so stupid. I don't want to watch anymore. If you continue like this, this giant snake will burn you to death. Look, a piece of your hair is on fire."

The middle-aged man stretched out his palm and cut off the strand of hair that was burnt by the flames spurted by the giant snake. Then he jumped back more than ten feet.

"Master, are you too timid? You need to run away from this stupid snake. You are not as powerful as I thought. It seems that I need to say something harshly in front of my father....."

Ouyang Zhenxiong smiled secretly in his heart. It was a torture for this middle-aged man to have such a demon disciple in his life. It was simply a misfortune for his family.

The middle-aged man sighed, and he sent a message to the little princess:"You little girl, if you talk nonsense again, I will make you face the wall and think about your faults when you go back.""

"I didn't mean it, this was just my way of provoking you. I didn't want you to become even more powerful!"

Middle-aged man:"....."

The middle-aged man began to show off his power, and he began to use all his strength. He beat the giant snake to the ground in one fell swoop. Just when these people thought that the middle-aged man could kill the big snake, the giant snake The snake's tail suddenly swung, this time as fast as lightning, and accurately hit the middle-aged man's waist. At this moment, the middle-aged man was rolled up high in the air, even if the giant snake only used it The thinnest tail is enough to wrap around a middle-aged man's waist.

The little princess was frightened. Even though she and the master were noisy, their relationship was still very deep. The little princess escaped the guards' obstruction and ran forward.

The middle-aged man struggled desperately. He began to use all his strength. His whole body began to glow with a faint white light. As he used the bow for a longer time, the white light became more and more dazzling. Finally, the tail of the giant snake wrapped around his body. It's starting to loosen up. He was about to get rid of the shackles of the giant snake, but at this moment, the big snake suddenly opened its abyssal mouth and bit the middle-aged man. The middle-aged man quickly swung out his arms. The fist was punched out, and pieces of hot white light were waved out. These lights with powerful energy blocked the huge snake head. After the giant snake was attacked, it began to tighten its tail again, which had just begun to loosen. , now he wrapped the middle-aged man tighter, and had no intention of loosening.

The little princess has been running this way, and now she has reached a place less than ten feet away from the giant snake. Her voice is choked: "Master.....Woo....."

"Yu'er, don't cry, can this little thing still kill me?"

"Master, quickly take over Hou Yi's divine bow!" After the little princess finished speaking, she threw Houyi's divine bow and a bow and arrow at the middle-aged man.

"Woo woo woo.....I'm really sorry for you. I really want to see your true strength. That's why I deliberately didn't give you Hou Yi's bow when you fought before. It's all my fault, wu wu wu.....", the little princess started crying again as she spoke

"Yu'er.....I don't blame you. Don't be afraid. What can this little snake do to me? Now that I have Hou Yi's divine bow, he is already dead." As the middle-aged man spoke, he punched the giant snake's head twice with his fist. The intense white light emitted from his fist knocked the snake back at once, and the giant snake headed towards it. After retreating three feet away, he stretched out his hands and emitted a soft white light. This white light spread towards Hou Yi's bow and arrows. These white lights were like his hands, sending Hou Yi's bow and arrows Pulled into his hand

"Yu'er, please step back first, otherwise I will hurt you later."

The little princess felt relieved when she saw that her master had received Hou Yi's bow in his hand, so she turned and left.

When she saw the middle-aged man holding the black light Hou Yi's bow, he He became panicked and finally showed a look of fear. His snake head moved back, as if he had prepared an escape plan.

The little princess master's body began to glow brightly. After placing the bow and arrow on Hou Yi's bow, he began Trying his best to pull back the string of Hou Yi's bow, he shouted:"Open!"!!"

But what surprised him was that no matter how hard he tried, the bowstring still didn't change at all, and it seemed like he couldn't pull it apart.

"Yu'er, what's going on with Hou Yi's bow? Has anyone used it?" the middle-aged man shouted to the little princess.

"yes! How do you know that I was the one who used Hou Yi's bow, and that the wound on the giant snake was caused by me? How about that? I still have some skills. Shouldn't you praise me now? You should be happy for me. Now I can finally draw my magic bow."

"I'm really screaming, why are you so confused, how can Hou Yi's bow be compared with ordinary weapons? The peerless weapon can only be used once in a year. It was used by you just now, and now it's in my hand. I can't pull it open. I really want to kill you."

"ah.....Master, it's all my fault. I am too impulsive every time I do things. I will definitely not be like this next time, woo woo.....", the little princess's eyes began to shed tears again. It turned out that the princess would also blame herself.

This giant snake seemed to have known that the little princess's master could no longer draw the magic bow, so he stretched his snake head forward, opened his mouth as wide as possible, and bit the little princess's master with a fierce look. past.

The little princess's master took out Hou Yi's bow. The giant snake's white teeth hit the black light of Hou Yi's bow. In an instant, the four or five one-meter-long teeth in the giant snake's mouth He was interrupted all of a sudden, and the blood spurted from his mouth formed a blood mist and flew out.

This giant snake was in great pain. It swung out its tail forcefully and threw the little princess's master out.

The middle-aged man rolled around in the air in a very embarrassed manner, and then landed on the ground. After landing, he took a long breath of cold air, then he grasped Hou Yi's divine bow tightly and moved towards it as fast as he could. The big snake ran over.

Ouyang Zhenxiong was very surprised. This battle left him dumbfounded. The little princess's master actually used this peerless magic weapon as a club. I really don't know how Hou Yi Gong felt in his heart, and he was also very distressed.

"What the hell is this old man doing? He's really wasting such a good tool....."

The little princess was no longer sad when she saw this, and finally showed a long-lost smile on her face:"Old man, you still have a way, it makes me embarrassed to cry."

The little princess's master jumped high in the sky, A black light flashed, and he appeared on the giant snake. He raised Houyi's bow heavily and hit the giant snake's body hard. It is said that the scales as hard as steel were also hit by Houyi's bow. Broken, these scales flew everywhere, and blood began to float in the sky.

This big snake was completely angry. He began to twist his huge body and dashed with its huge tail, as if it had launched a huge earthquake. The ground kept shaking, which made the little princess tremble. Some are unsteady on their feet.

However, the little princess's master was too fast and avoided the frontal attacks launched by the giant snake one after another. Then after the giant snake finished its attack, it was the little princess's master's turn. His right hand held Houyi's divine bow tightly, and then he hit the giant snake again and again at a very fast speed, knocking the giant snake out. The snake was beaten to a bloody pulp, with wounds everywhere.

Suddenly, the giant snake stopped. His body stood upright in the air, emitting a faint golden light. An astonishing change also occurred on his body. Originally, its scales were colorful, but now they all turned golden.. Four protrusions began to grow on his abdomen, and a pair of shining golden antlers appeared on her head. His snake mouth actually let out a dragon roar that shook the world, and the world began to shake.

A powerful aura began to emanate from the snake's body. This was the legendary dragon aura. The animals within a hundred miles radius did not dare to make a sound, and they all lay on the spot.

Everyone present was stunned when they saw this dragon transformed from a giant snake.

"Damn it, is this the legendary beast? Dragon, I actually saw the legendary dragon." Ouyang Zhenxiong was very excited. He rubbed his eyes and shouted.

The little princess also shouted in surprise: "Oh my God, I'm not fighting a snake. Let me just say, a snake. How could he beat me so badly? He is really not an ordinary person! I actually fought with a dragon for a long time. I am indeed quite capable."

When everyone was very excited, only the little princess's master showed a sad look. Because he was the only one who saw the dragon claw in the belly of the giant snake that had not been fully extended, because among everyone present, No one except him knew the consequences of the giant snake's failure to transform into a dragon. If the giant snake failed to transform into a dragon, his only fate would be death. The little princess's master whispered: "Brother Snake, I'm really sorry!" I originally thought you were just a snake demon cultivating here without any results, but I really didn't expect you to have such lofty ambitions. You spent thousands of years to cultivate yourself into a dragon. I know that if you hadn't already arrived During the critical period of transforming into a dragon, you think we will do our best. We will never be able to escape from here at that time."

At this moment, the golden inside of the giant snake began to fall off piece by piece, and the places without scales were all bloody. The giant snake let out tragic dragon roars one after another, and in her mouth He actually spat out a golden shining spherical object, which was his inner elixir. The item floated slowly in the air, and not long after, it exploded in the air. After blowing, he took a little bit of golden powder and put it in the air. Disappeared, the giant snake that failed to transform into a dragon turned into a golden light and rushed down towards the volcano. In the blink of an eye, it suddenly sank into the volcano. The little princess's master was very disappointed. If the one who killed A snake demon who has failed in cultivation would never feel so lost in his heart. But what he is killing now is a snake that has the hope of transforming into a dragon. Dragons are sacred and noble animals. This is equivalent to the fact that the little princess's master has already killed her. Violating the Holy Spirit made him blame himself very much, and his heart began to become extremely heavy.

The little princess's master looked up at the sky with a thoughtful look. He sighed and said to himself He said softly:"Oh, did I do something wrong or did I do the right thing? Maybe there is no absolute right and wrong in this world. I am forced to do this because I have no choice. Maybe God has his best arrangement....."

The little princess's master slowly walked to the crater with a very heavy heart. After he found the location of the raging fire lotus, he jumped down. He did not pluck the whole flaming lotus. He just picked it. He picked up a petal of the blazing fire lotus, then pulled out the entire fire lotus and threw it into the volcano. After watching the blazing fire lotus being completely engulfed by the magma, he seemed to have settled a matter in his heart.

"Brother Snake, I really didn't mean it. Maybe everything today is God's will. If the Flame Lotus had matured half an hour earlier, you would have turned into a dragon and flown away. This kind of fire lotus can ensure that your consciousness is not destroyed. I hope you can achieve righteousness in the next life. If there is an afterlife, I will help you transform into a dragon....."

At this time, the little princess and her gang had already ran up. The little princess looked at the middle-aged man standing inside the rock wall and said,"Master, what is going on? Why did that smelly snake suddenly turn into a dragon? I'm almost stupid. Are we violating the gods?"

The middle-aged man said:"You must be wrong. A snake is a snake, how could it turn into a dragon? Don't you even have some basic common sense? How can you be my apprentice if you are so stupid?"

Chapter 1946

The princess would definitely not believe what her master said, so she retorted:"How could it not be a dragon? I can clearly see it clearly. Can a big snake emit golden light? Can a big snake grow antlers on its head?""

"Yes, yes!"

"Yes, that is indeed a dragon."

"We have all seen it."

The guards also made affirmative sounds.

The middle-aged man said in a calm tone: "What are you thinking about? Do you think I can defeat the real dragon? Long Nan is a sacred object between heaven and earth. Even if I try my best, I can't hurt her in the slightest! As for what you said about seeing the dragon, I think it is just your hallucination, because people do have hallucinations when they are overly nervous." No matter how the middle-aged man explained, the little princess was always dubious. The little princess said: "You old thing, why are you so weird today? You must be hiding something from me, tell me everything as soon as possible."

The little princess's master smiled and said: "Don't think too much. You are a real little girl. It's okay. You worked so hard to fight that giant snake just now, and now you are doing this again. Are you? Do you want to exhaust me to death?" The middle-aged man stretched out his right hand, and the petals of the blazing fire lotus appeared in his hand. He continued to say to the little princess: "Is this what you want? And, don't think about it all day long. Yes, how could my teacher lie to you?"

The little princess looked at the fire lotus in her master's hand. It seemed to be different from what she had imagined, because what he wanted was the whole plant, and this half didn't look as good as the whole one. , she said to her master: "What on earth are you doing? Why is there only one flap and where are the others?"

After so many years, he could use his middle finger to gently knock the little princess on the head, so he said to the little princess: "Don't be so greedy. You all almost died in the hands of that giant snake. Now It's lucky to have saved his life. You also know that the giant snake is very difficult to deal with. When he was about to jump into the volcano, he took the fire lotus down with him. It took a lot of effort for the teacher to capture it. This petal flower."

The little princess sighed, and then said: "That's such a pity."

"Hey, master, do you think that snake can still survive if it jumps into the crater? Has it turned into lava?"

"It is true that he will not survive. I hope he can be reincarnated!"

"what's the situation? He almost took my life. Why do you have such pity for him? It's a snake monster, how can you be merciful?" After the little princess finished speaking, she looked at her master carefully, thought for a moment, and then continued: "Hey, why do I always feel that there is something weird about you? You are not like this usually. You just killed a dragon, no, it was a giant snake, but now you are listless. Why are you so abnormal? If you are a normal person, you must be extremely excited now, because you just had a fight with such a powerful snake. When biological creatures fight, winning proves that you are also very powerful. Why wouldn't you be happy for yourself?"The little princess blinked her big eyes and looked at her master thoughtfully. She wanted to get a serious answer from his master. The middle-aged man didn't want to continue to answer, because no one knew the ups and downs in his heart. What he really killed was A dragon, but this was not what he was willing to do. If he knew that the snake was about to turn into a dragon, he would never do it, so he reached out and pinched the little princess's nose, and then changed the subject:"You When exactly did you sneak out of the construction site? Do you know that your father is extremely anxious now? You will inevitably get scolded when you go back. I tell you, don't come to me crying then. There is nothing I can do. Can't stand your father"

"Don't touch me, you are really annoying. How many times have I told you not to touch me?" The little princess used her free hand to slap away the middle-aged man's hand that was pinching her nose. So he continued:"I didn't come out for anything else. Isn't it going to be my father's birthday soon? I'm not here to look for the flames as a gift to my father. If it's my father's birthday then, Go up, he looked at the flaming lotus that I personally gave him, do you think he would be so happy!"

"You little girl is so young and energetic. Have you ever thought about the consequences of what you have done? If you think about it carefully, if my teacher had not heard the news and came here, you would have become that person by now. The belly of a giant snake is full of food, let alone talking about the flaming fire lotus. You haven't reached the realm of cultivation yet, so don't go out alone to do such a dangerous thing. Let's not talk about whether you will worry after paying. All the trouble you cause has to be wiped out by me. You know, I've been cleaning up your mess every day."

"alright! Can you please stop being wordy? I already know it. Please stop talking so much. You are simply the most wordy person I have ever seen. Why are you even more wordy than my grandma? I listen. I said you had a crush on my grandma when you were young. Is that true?"

The little princess's master quickly covered the little princess's mouth. His face was already slightly red. He began to stammer:"What are you talking about? Who said it? You can eat whatever you want. Don't talk nonsense....."He no longer knew what to say. As if the little princess had really said it right, he smoothed his mouth and said,"You.....Why did you change the topic? When we first talked about leaving the palace, you, you, you....."

The little princess smiled, then pursed her lips and said to her master:"Haha, okay, master, whatever you say is okay. After all, you are my respected master, how dare I disobey you? What's the will?"

The middle-aged man looked helpless. He said to the little princess:"Do you think I will believe you? You are so naughty. I don't think you will go back obediently. You can't tell. How long are you going to stay outside?"

The little princess felt very strange. She said to her master:"What on earth do you mean? Didn't you go back with me? What are you planning, old man? I asked you to tell me but you didn't tell me."

The middle-aged man replied:"I received an entrustment from your father, and I came here just to find you. I originally planned to have you escorted back, but when I first came, I heard people on the road say that there is a Kirin beast on the mountains here. This is not a small thing. This thing is extraordinary, so I decided to go and have a look. But the one I am most worried about now is you. , because you are too cautious"

"Kirin? Is it the legendary beast Qilin? Does it really exist? Hasn't its existence always been a legend? There really is such a thing in this world!"The little princess's eyes were shining, and she seemed to be very interested in Qilin. Her face was full of excitement. The little princess said,"Can you take me with you? I want to go too.""

"How can this be done? Your father is dying of anxiety. You have been away from the palace for more than half a month. Do you know how your mother has been spending these days? She is worried about you every day. Just two days ago , your mother has fallen ill because of this, you'd better go back early, even if you don't think about yourself, you should think about your mother!"

The little princess looked a little worried, and the excitement on her face disappeared immediately. What she wanted to know now was her mother's situation, because every time her father wanted to punish her, her mother would stand up and speak for her. , and she would suffer a lot less punishment because of this. He looked worried, and she quickly asked her master:"What? Why did my mother fall ill? Then I'd better go back quickly.", the little princess had a look of disappointment on her face.

The middle-aged man returned the Hou Yi Divine Bow with a faint black light in his hand to the little princess and said:"Yu'er, Hou Yi's Divine Bow is under such strict guard. How did you steal it? This is your father's national treasure. It is used to deter masters from other countries. If your father knew that you had stolen it out, he would be very angry." The little princess said Very unconcerned, she said to her master"What's the matter?" I'm just borrowing it, not keeping it for myself or giving it to others. Besides, won't I return it right away?"

"You little girl, why don't you know the importance? This success has been sealed by others. He can only use it once in a year. If people from other countries know that you use it, then they will send people to attack Chu State. , by then we won't be able to produce a single magic weapon, and our military morale will be shaken even before the war begins. The little princess said in a long tone:"

Okay, master, I understand.""

Although the giant snake failed to transform into a dragon, when an inner elixir he spat out exploded, it fired more than 10,000 golden particles around, and then these golden particles turned into golden light and disappeared in the sky. However, no one noticed that there was a golden light hitting the distance.

The golden light penetrated countless trees in the jungle, and then fell on the ground of the forest. Just like this, a sparkling golden bead slowly rolled to the feet of Ouyang Zhengxiong. He could clearly see everything that had just happened.. Ouyang Zhengxiong was very excited because he knew that what was locked under his feet must not be an ordinary thing.

Ouyang Zhengxiong's hands were trembling. He slowly squatted down, took a deep breath, suppressed his inner excitement, and slowly picked up the shining golden bead on the ground. stand up.

Colorful brilliance flowed on this golden bead, which emitted bursts of peaceful light. After seeing these lights, Ouyang Zhengxiong felt very relaxed. Ouyang Zhenxiong had heard many dragon legends before, and his understanding of dragons was very deep. The golden bead in front of him was no longer mysterious to him.

Although the giant snake did not successfully transform into a dragon, after more than 2,000 years of practice, he had become half dragon and half snake. Half of the power in his body is the attribute of the dragon, and the other half is the attribute of the snake. The sheet that the giant snake spit out before it died was made of the essence in his body, and almost concentrated all the essence in his body. Half of the inner elixir belonged to the snake elixir, and the other half was the dragon elixir. The moment the elixir exploded, almost all the snake elixirs dissipated in the air. Maybe the dragon elixir was very strong and did not follow the snake elixir. Exploding and exploding, the remaining dragon powers gathered together to form the dragon ball that now rolled under his feet.

Of course, Ouyang Zhengxiong is also very clear about the role of this bead. Within this hour, this dragon bead is in an activated state. If someone swallows it now, his body will immediately be impacted by the power of the dragon.

Although this kind of impact will cause certain damage to people, as long as you can withstand this impact, the person who swallows the dragon ball can absorb three-tenths of the power of the dragon ball. The proportion of three is relatively small, but the power of the Dragon Ball is huge. With only three-tenths of the skill, a person can achieve supreme magic.

But if no one swallows this dragon ball within this hour, the golden luster emitted by this dragon ball will slowly dissipate. This does not mean that its energy has disappeared, but that He gathered all the energy into the heart of the dragon ball, and its shell will become extremely hard. It is basically impossible to break without an immortal artifact. This means that the huge energy contained in the dragon ball will not be absorbed by people..

More than 10,000 years ago, Ouyang Zhengxiong's family background required him to become an outstanding strong man. However, his birth qualifications were relatively ordinary, coupled with the cynicism of his friends, which caused him to practice very slowly and his skills were very slow. Jiujiu couldn't lift it up, and his low skills almost became the source of his pain. He suffered every day because others laughed at him.

And today, ten thousand years later, a dragon ball fell at his feet. As long as he absorbed the power of this dragon ball, no one would look down on him anymore.

But at this time, he hesitated. He was not afraid that the impact caused by the dragon ball would cause him to explode and die, but because he remembered what his father said to him.

His father once said:"The treasures given by God may allow a person to become the supreme god of war and fulfill the lifelong dream of the 50 scholars. But in everything you gain, you will lose. He can in this moment He has obtained the skills that others have practiced for decades, or even hundreds of years, but this powerful force will also restrain him from moving forward. He will conflict with the power of subsequent cultivation, resulting in him being unable to break through the current state. This also means that He lost the chance to become a strong man."

Ouyang Zhengxiong said:"I would really be so extreme, wouldn't there be any exceptions? What if I practice very seriously!"

Ouyang Zhenxiong's father said : "Really strong people are not afraid of loneliness. A person's cultivation sometimes brings happiness, but what they are really afraid of is often stagnating in one place and never moving forward. This is also the failure of their lives."

Ouyang Zhengxiong stopped After recalling his previous memories and returning to reality, he said to himself in front of the dragon ball:"As long as I swallow this dragon ball, maybe I can become a strong man now, even this little I can live with this bad breath even if the master of the Demon Princess is around, but no matter whether I successfully absorb this dragon ball or not, what I will lose is the opportunity to become the strongest warrior. Stagnation is too scary."

He After staring at the dragon ball for a minute or two, he said to himself:"But, I am a stagnant person now. No matter it is ten thousand years ago or ten thousand years later, my My skill has not improved for a long time. Maybe swallowing this dragon ball is the best choice now, because after all, this is an opportunity arranged by God for me to become a strong person, so that I can jump over the dragon's gate and become a strong person in just a short period of time. He will become a truly strong man within a few hours."

Ouyang Zhengxiong was fighting fiercely in his heart. He was wandering between choosing to swallow or not to swallow, because this choice would affect his life, because for a warrior It is said that skill is the most important thing.

Ouyang Zhengxiong lowered his head and looked at the dragon ball affectionately. He was thinking about it every minute and every second. After hesitating for a long time, he sighed and said:"Who am I, Ouyang Zhengxiong? I don't need you, God." I am the one who wants to be the strongest, and I don't want to stand still."

Looking back on the past, Ouyang Zhengxiong felt a little lost.

Before he was 16 years old, everyone around him said that he was a martial arts genius, and his cultivation was also very fast, which can be said to be a thousand miles! He is the unique first person in history. And after that, his nightmare began. No matter how hard he worked, his cultivation never improved, not even a little bit. Even the ancestral magical skills were reduced to the second level that he had previously cultivated. Fell to the first floor.

Seeing those people who were as old as him surpass him one by one, the sense of loss in his heart was very strong. He even felt that he could no longer lift his head. He was so sad.

Although he felt that his fall in martial arts was related to external reasons, no matter how he searched for the truth, he found nothing. Later, he gradually adapted to this life of accomplishing nothing, and spent his days in everyone's discussions.

After the aura of genius faded from his body, countless sarcastic voices came from behind him. Those ridicules and curses seemed to have the same sealing ability, sealing all his talents and making his progress further. becomes impossible.

He was burdened with huge pressure, which pressed down on his chest like a mountain, making him unable to breathe. The incompetence he showed made him slowly feel that he was a A mediocre person, he no longer deserves to be in his family.

During the period from when he was 16 to 20 years old, he felt that life was so tiring that he even had thoughts of suicide many times. During this period, he was very confused. But there is always a belief in his heart. He feels that one day he will break through this shackles in his body and break the current cultivation fortress. This is all the motivation for his current cultivation.

Today, ten thousand years later, he has been reborn, but Ouyang Zhengxiong's skills have still not improved at all, but he has put aside the pressure from his family far away. After a year of rest, He has slowly accepted the reality and integrated into this new society. He has slowly broken away from the pain of the past and finally returned to his original nature.

"This dragon ball may be a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for me, but I choose to give up this opportunity, but I will not feel the slightest regret."

The dragon ball that was originally flowing with golden light has now slowly become darker, and even the last light has completely dissipated. Even the color of the appearance has changed from the initial golden yellow to turquoise. It looks like it from a distance. An ordinary bead.

Ouyang Zhenxiong carefully wrapped the dragon bead. After some observation, he returned along the route he came from before. His steps were very fast because she didn't want to be here. Stay in the ghost place for a moment longer, because the longer he stays in this place, the more chances she will be entangled by the little devil princess.

Now he climbed to a high mountain, he looked in the direction of the little princess and found them. This group of people were still at the crater. Seeing this, Ouyang Zhengxiong finally let out a long sigh and said to himself: "Huh!".....I finally got rid of this little devil. In the past few days, I was really living worse than an animal."

After leaving the little princess, he has been walking around in this forest alone for three days. He found that he was lost. In front of him were mountains after mountains, and it seemed that the road in every direction was endless. It's exactly the same. If he can't find a way out, he can only become a savage on this mountain.

When he was disappointed, he saw a wisp of green smoke floating up from a forest in the distance. , at this time, he was extremely excited, as if grasping a life-saving straw, he looked for the place where the green smoke floated out.

When he was 100 feet away from the green smoke, he suddenly stopped, Because she didn't dare to run forward vigorously. If the person who made the green smoke was the little princess and her group, it would be terrible for him. The little princess would definitely let him die without a burial place.

After careful examination After observing, he found that this was a group of strangers, and these people were also lost in the forest like him. These people seemed to be looking for a way out.

In the next two days, he has been following them secretly With such a group of people, and not letting them discover him, Ouyang Zhengxiong would follow them wherever they went, because only in this way could Ouyang Zhengxiong have the possibility of getting out.

Just like before, good luck always has nothing to do with Ouyang Zhengxiong.

On the afternoon of the third day, Ouyang Zhixiong was still following the group of people cautiously, but seven or eight people jumped out from all directions and surrounded Ouyang Zhixiong.

Everyone's eyes are so sharp. It is not difficult to see that these people are masters. They have that cold murderous aura floating around their bodies. Ouyang Zhengxiong can completely imagine that everyone here has gone through a life-and-death battle. of.

The people in front also discovered Ouyang Zhengxiong. Now all the people in front have returned. There are more than 20 people in total. Among them is a young man leading the way. This young man is very handsome, with delicate eyes and domineering Faintly emanating from the body.

He looked Ouyang Zhengxiong up and down, frowned his eyebrows, and said to Ouyang Zhengxiong:"Who are you? Why do you keep following us? You must be sneaky when you walk. Not a good person."

Ouyang Zhengxiong quickly explained:"I'm just a hunter. I came to the mountains to hunt, but I got lost in the woods. I thought I could get out of the woods by following you, so I followed you all the time."

"How dare a hunter walk into this forest alone?"

"I didn't mean to come in. At first, I just found a white deer on the outside. I kept chasing him, and then I came here unknowingly. When I found it, it was already too late. I didn't care. No matter how hard I try, I can't get out.

The young master pointed at a strong man next to him and said, "Come here."

Ouyang Zhengxiong could tell at a glance that this young man was used to giving orders. He felt that this man must have a great background.

This strong man held a big sword in his hand. The sword was very long. It was very wide. He walked towards Ouyang Zhengxiong and struck Ouyang Zhengxiong twice. Ouyang Zhengxiong was so frightened that he hurriedly dodged to both sides. The strong man's first sword was out of thin air, so she continued. The second sword came, and the sword of his big sword emitted a faint cyan light, and slashed at Ouyang Zhengxiong's belly at an angle.

Ouyang Zhengxiong secretly sighed in his heart: "No way, he has it in his hand." What he is holding is not a real sword, it is sword energy transformed from Qi. This man is definitely a master! Why would a master like him be willing to be someone else's subordinate? Where did this young man come from?"

Although Ouyang Zhengxiong was shocked by the strong man's sword energy, he still dodged the strong man's attack immediately.

"ci!"

Putting on the long sword in his hand, the light cyan light emitted cut a light-colored groove in the air.

Ouyang Zhengxiong felt very strange, because the subtle power condensed by those Qi Refiners was all It's very big, but this strong man's attack on him can be easily dodged by him. Even ordinary Qi training techniques are better than this.

"Brother, what kind of aura are you doing? Are you a Westerner? Is this the fighting spirit from the West?" He carefully looked at the posture of the strong man when he swung the big sword in his hand, and then he confirmed what he was thinking.

Seeing that Ouyang Zhengxiong had dodged another of his attacks, the big man became fierce again. With a knife on the ground, Ouyang Zhengxiong was forced to fight with the strong man. The fighting spirit emitted by the strong man was one after another. Those light cyan lights almost put Ouyang Zhengxiong into a dangerous state. The young man The young master stood nearby and smiled coldly: "How come you, an ordinary hunter, are so good at martial arts? If you still don't tell the truth, I will definitely kill you without a burial place within ten moves. I advise you to take the real move!"

Ouyang Zhengxiong shouted hurriedly: "I said, Master, stop for a moment, I really can't bear it if it keeps going like this!"

The young master patted his hand gently, and then said to the strong man: "You can stop."

The strong man then put away his sword and stood aside. He said to Ouyang Zhengxiong: "Okay, you boy, the camera is not bad. You can dodge more than 20 moves in a row. You boy's. The origin must not be simple. Ouyang Zhengxiong whispered in the language of 10,000 years ago: "Harm, strength is still the best thing, no matter in which era?" Strong people will be respected. After my skills declined, I was destined to experience some unpleasant things. I was really bullied by dogs!"

Ouyang Zhengxiong thought quickly in her mind, and then she said to the young master: "Hello, young master, if I say that I am a hunter who has learned a little bit about working, you will definitely not believe me. But I can actually prove it to you.

Young Master Nian asked in response, "Oh?" I want to see what tricks you can do and tell me how you can prove it!"
