Chapter 1951

"I rely on hunting to survive on the continent. I naturally have some methods of finding prey. I can use these abilities to prove to you that I am a hunter." After Ouyang Zhengxiong finished speaking, he bent down. He grabbed a handful of soil from the ground, put it next to his nose, smelled it, and then continued: "The location where we belong is still very safe. The most violent people in the area are here. The beast is just a female tiger, there must be no other beasts."

The young master asked Ouyang Zhengxiong: "Oh?" Why do you dare to say with such certainty, what if there are other beasts? This is not an ordinary forest. I advise you not to jump to conclusions!"

"I can be sure, because this is the experience I have accumulated for more than ten years!"

"Okay, Yang rushes over, you take a few people around and see if this kid is telling the truth."

A young man took two steps forward and said in response: "Yes!" After he finished speaking, he led two of these people and searched deep into the woods.

Not long after, a huge tiger roar was heard where Ouyang Zhengxiong was. After a while, the tiger roared just now. A few people who went to explore dragged a dead tiger over.

The young man walked towards the dead tiger. After looking at it carefully, he smiled lightly and said, "If it looks like this, Then you really didn't lie. Are you really a hunter? But I still have some questions. It would take about three days at the fastest to get out of the mountain here. Did you chase the deer for three days and three nights when you came in?"

After saying that, the young man became very cold. It was obvious that he did not believe Ouyang Zhengxiong at all. Even though Ouyang Zhengxiong proved that he was a hunter with his so-called proof method, he turned his back to Ouyang Zhengxiong. , and then shouted: "Tie this man up quickly, don't give him a chance to make a fool of himself!"

Several masters rushed over and put the sharp blades in their hands on Ouyang Zhengxiong's neck, so that Ouyang Zhengxiong did not dare to move. Ouyang Zhengxiong knew that he could not deal with so many masters by himself. If he took action at this time, If he did, he would only die faster, so he did not resist.

Ouyang Zhengxiong smiled bitterly in his heart: "Oh my god, what kind of sin have I suffered? I just escaped from the clutches of that little devil, and now I am trapped again." These people were tied up. Could it be that God resurrected me specifically to be a prisoner? Not long ago I was the prisoner of the little princess, and now I am the prisoner of these people again."

At this moment, one of Young Master Nian's subordinates stood up and said: "Three.....Third Young Master, why do you have to go to so much trouble? I think it would be easiest to kill him to save trouble, and maybe it will be a problem!"

Ouyang Zhengxiong heard the words "Third Young Master" from this subordinate. At this time, he knew that the young man in front of him was either a famous noble or a general. Judging from his fights, Ouyang Zhengxiong could be more capable. Confirmed.

In this way, Ouyang Zhengxiong's second life as a captive began, but his treatment this time was much better than when he was captured by the little princess for the first time. At least he was not treated as private property this time. Let Ouyang Zhengxiong vent his anger, and he will beat Ouyang Zhengxiong when he is happy. If he is not happy, Ouyang Zhengxiong will also be beaten.

This group of people has a very strong organizational discipline. There is not much talk between them, only the young master Occasionally, he whispered a few words to the people around him.

Two days later, Ouyang Zhengxiong had to sigh at the magic of God's arrangement. He actually saw the little princess here again. Now there were only 9 guards beside the little princess. After adding the little princess together, there were ten people. After Ouyang Zhengxiong saw the little princess and her group, she quickly knew how damaged they were when they fought against the giant snake. A total of four guards died, and two more died. A trainee mage. The survivors were all seriously injured and have not recovered yet.

When the little princess saw the young master and his group, she seemed to be very surprised. After frowning, she instantly showed a bright smile. Smile: "Oh, what a coincidence! In such a huge Heavenly Demon Continent, you can actually meet His Highness the Third Prince here! This year the young master also had a smile on his face:"

Yes, I really didn't expect to meet the little princess here.""

The little princess said with a smile: "Shouldn't the third prince be enjoying the blessings in the Moon Worshipping Kingdom now? How come he has come to the border of our country now? Is he preparing to be sent as an envoy to our Chu Kingdom? If he really comes to our Chu Kingdom? You shouldn't come to this forest if you are on a mission. Could it be that His Highness the Third Prince is here to find the lover of your dreams? You really can't guess what the Third Prince is thinking. There are so many beauties in the palace. Do not do this?"

Chapter 1952

The third prince smiled, and then said to the little princess: "Princess Jade's language is still so sharp. I can't bear the crime of intruding into the borders of other countries at will. But if I remember correctly, this mountain range in the Demon Continent shouldn't belong to your Chu country, it should be said that this mountain range does not belong to any country."

The little princess said: "His Royal Highness the Third Prince seems to have a lot of things to do, how could he suddenly come to such a remote grove? After all, this place is very close to the border of our Chu country. It really makes me suspicious!"

The third prince looked a little embarrassed. He covered up his embarrassed expression with a smile: "Haha, Princess Jade is really worrying too much. , Actually, I didn't come here to invade your border this time. The main reason was that I heard that a Kirin beast appeared nearby. I came to try my luck. To be honest, I really wanted to see the legendary Kirin. Divine beast."

The little princess said: "Oh, it turns out that's the case. I didn't expect that the third prince's news is really well-informed. I didn't expect that he could know about it from so far away, and that you, who are far away in Banyue Kingdom, would be able to catch up. Come."

The third prince said: "This is not because I am well-informed. It is said in the legend that as long as the unicorn appears, the saint will also appear. The appearance of the Jilin mythical beast in the human world has shocked the world, and even the entire Demon Continent. Everyone knows about it."

The little princess sighed and said, "Oh! I really want to see what that mythical beast looks like, but unfortunately I have no chance."

The third prince felt very strange, and he asked the little princess Princess: "Your Highness, what do you mean and why did you say this?"

"When I went to the Luofeng Mountains, I met my master. He said that it was very dangerous and drove me over. It was really disappointing!", the little princess looked angry.

A light flashed in the third prince's eyes, and the third prince continued to ask the little princess: "Oh? Could it be Senior Zhuge Chengfeng? Has he come over too?"

"Who else could it be besides this old man? It's so irritating!"

"Senior Zhuge's martial arts has been extraordinary and holy throughout his life. Among these masters, it can be said that she is the one I admire the most. Senior Zhuge's name can shock the world."

"Really? You must not say that. If that old guy hears it, he will be extremely happy. Maybe because you have praised him a few times now, he will accept you as his disciple!"

"If that is really the case, I really wish for it. I am very envious of you to be accepted as a disciple by such a master!"

"Don't envy me. I'm bored to death every day. He won't let me do anything. I wish you could be his apprentice for me! The little princess continued: "Maybe the old man has heard our conversation, and maybe he is considering whether to really accept you as his disciple!""

After a trace of surprise flashed across the face of the third prince, the third prince said to the little princess: "Haha, little princess, you really know how to joke. Hasn't the senior already gone to the Luofeng Mountains? Even if he How could someone with such incredible martial arts skills be able to hear words spoken a thousand meters away?"

The little princess was a little angry again at this time. She said angrily: "Then how do I know what he is thinking? He has many tricks. Maybe he is worried that I will not go home obediently, but I am just somewhere. Staring at us!"

"oh! It really makes me envious. It seems that senior loves you very much and is afraid that something unexpected will happen to you!"

"Why does this hurt me? You clearly don't trust me at all. The more you talk, the angrier you get! The third prince glanced at the guards beside the little princess and said, "Your Highness, why do all of your men look so ugly? Are they seriously injured?""

"yes! When we were walking normally on the road to the Luofeng Mountains, an ancient giant suddenly ran out and attacked us. These men of mine are usually too lazy to work hard. At the critical moment, none of them have any ability. They were beaten by that The giant was injured. Fortunately, the old man rushed over in time, otherwise we might not be able to stand here and talk normally."After the little princess finished speaking, she looked scared.

"Then you are really lucky! In this mountain range, wild beasts appear very frequently. If you are not protected by some experts, you will be easily attacked. How about we escort you out of the mountain?"The third prince's face was sincere.

A cold light flashed in the little princess's eyes. She didn't believe the third prince and this group of people, so she smiled and said to the third prince:"Thank you very much for the third prince's kindness. There's no need to trouble you. The old man will be here soon. You don't have to worry too much about us. Nothing big will happen as long as the old man is here."

"Your Highness, you really don't need to be polite to me. As a princess of a country, if you are in danger, I have to escort you out regardless of emotion or reason. What's more, you said that Senior Zhuge is looking for the unicorn beast. He may not really follow you"

"I accept the Third Prince's kindness first, but we really don't need you to escort us. This place is already very safe. This is the edge of the mountain range, and wild beasts will hardly come out here."

"No, I think I must send you out, otherwise I will feel very sorry. Please understand, princess."

The little princess felt that there was no way to postpone it any longer. She looked at the sincere face of the third prince, so she no longer doubted them, with a look of gratitude on her face, and then said:"Then I will trouble the third prince.!"

"Princess Jade, I told you to be so polite."

Ouyang Zhengxiong recorded all this clearly in his eyes, and secretly sighed in his heart that these two people deserved to be born into a royal family full of struggle, and they had already completed it in just a few minutes. Psychological war.

The little princess took some seriously injured men and met the third prince from the Moon Worshiping Kingdom. She felt that this might not be a coincidence. There was a very strong sense of uneasiness in his heart. She felt that there was a very big The possibility is that these people of the Third Prince have been waiting here for a very long time.

Out of self-protection, the little princess could only launch the first attack aggressively, because only in this way can these people of the Third Prince be confused. Her fictitiousness, and then she pretended to have accidentally brought up his master Zhuge Chengfeng, because as long as he brought out his master, he could make the people of the third prince jealous.

But the third prince is not an ordinary person. In his heart Although there were some doubts and a very strong sense of uneasiness, the third prince did not back down. Instead, he wanted to follow all the way and further inquire about the truth of the little princess's situation.

Two people from the royal family were full of lies. It's really an interesting thing for people to come together and talk nonsense!

The third prince and the little princess took their men and walked towards the outside of the mountain. Ouyang Zhengxiong walked at the back of the team and was secretly happy. Fortunately, The third prince entangled the difficult little princess, and this little devil did not notice that Ouyang Zhengxiong was behind the third prince's team.

But the good life will not last long, and the little princess's men soon discovered After seeing the bound prisoner, a guard ran forward and whispered a few words in the little princess's ear.

Ouyang Zhengxiong saw all this clearly, but in fact, her heart was like a volcano erupting. It was very uncomfortable. He instantly felt that darkness had enveloped the earth, there was no light in the sky, and the whole world was dim and dim. The little princess looked excited, and he walked towards Ouyang Zhengxiong with a smile. There was no doubt that, This time she encountered the most real expression the third prince had shown in so long, because the previous expressions were all faked by her, and only the evil smile now came from the heart.

Ouyang Zhengxiong shouted loudly in his heart Shouting:"Demons of hell, I beg you to take this descendant of yours away as soon as possible. Don't let him torture me anymore. I have really had enough. If this continues, I will die." No, it is worse than death!"

At the beginning, the third prince didn't know why the little princess became so excited. He just thought that senior Zhuge Chengfeng was already very close to here. Later, the third prince's eyes followed the little princess to Ouyang Zhengxiong. At his side, he realized that the little princess became excited because of this captive.

The third prince looked surprised and began to think wildly about Ouyang Zhengxiong's true identity. He coughed lightly, Said:"This man was sneaking behind us on the road. Later, I asked my men to arrest him. From the look on Her Royal Highness's face, she seemed to know him!"

"We know each other, we couldn't be more familiar!"The little princess gritted her teeth and said:"He is the little eunuch I brought out from the palace. He was originally by my side to serve me, but I didn't expect that when he met the ancient giant, he didn't even look back. abandoned us and ran away. You ungrateful little plum, I didn't expect you to see me again so soon, right?"

Ouyang Zhengxiong was about to faint. He was called a eunuch by this little devil. It was really hard to say!

The little princess kept staring at Ouyang Zhengxiong with her vicious eyes. What she wanted to express couldn't be more obvious. , the little princess was threatening Ouyang Zhengxiong, asking Ouyang Zhengxiong to cooperate with the little princess in lying to deceive the third prince, because Ouyang Zhengxiong knew everything that the little princess and her group had gone through, and it would be bad if the third prince knew the truth.

Although Ouyang Zhengxiong hated the little princess very much, he had to cooperate at this critical moment because it was too easy for the little princess to kill him, even though the little princess's guards were seriously injured.

Ouyang Zhengxiong said in his heart:"People have to bow their heads under the eaves. A strong man takes revenge. It is never too late in ten years. Sooner or later, I will ask you to pay back this debt to me. I will cooperate with you for the time being."

Ouyang Zhengxiong said to the little princess:"Your Highness, please punish me. I really didn't mean it!" The third prince smiled softly beside him, and then said calmly to the little princess:"Since this person is Princess Jade,"Slave, it's up to Princess Jade to decide where to go. I don't have the right to execute you. Let Princess Jade decide what to do!"

"Hahaha....."The little princess looked at Ouyang Zhengxiong with great satisfaction, with a smile on her face.

It's this familiar smile again. Whenever the little princess smiles, something bad will happen to Ouyang Chenxiong. Ouyang Chenxiong's body has formed a conditioned reflex. As soon as he sees this smile, Ouyang Chenxiong You will get goosebumps all over your body and have waves of chills.

Ouyang Zhengxiong lowered his voice and said tremblingly to the little princess: "Your Highness, I want to make a deal with you."

The little princess remembered what Ouyang Zhenxiong said to her before when he was out of tune. She was still angry about the dirty words, so the little princess's temper suddenly rose. She shouted loudly: "Are you thinking about shit? Why should I let you make a deal with me? Just because What is your current identity? Can you stop daydreaming? Don't you know what your situation is now? It would be as easy for me to kill you as an ant. I advise you not to negotiate a deal with me. Yeah, it made me feel bad"

"Senior Zhuge Chengfeng is actually not here. The third prince obviously wants to mess with you. Can't you tell?" The little princess's hand was about to fall on Ouyang Zhengxiong's head. Ouyang Zhenxiong took advantage of the moment before the little princess's hand fell. He said this sentence.

The little princess immediately raised her hand She quickly put it down, then she touched her chin and thought about it carefully, and then she said to Ouyang Zhenxiong: "Hey, you are not bad. It seems that I really underestimated you. I didn't expect that you, a stinky gangster, still have some sense, but no matter what method you come up with for me now, I will be very unhappy with you. Do you still remember what you said to me when you ran over? No, no, the more I think about it, the angrier I am. Please delay the transaction. I want to vent my anger now!"

The white moon hangs high in the sky, like a big yellow scimitar. Under the light of the moon and stars, the forest does not look so dark. The night wind blows gently and rolls up. Waves of grass fragrance, such a large forest, illuminated by this gentle moonlight, do not seem so scary, but there is a very harmonious sense of tranquility.

Ouyang Zhenxiong has been beaten by the little princess, his face is bruised and swollen , at this time, they were quietly discussing their plan in a tent. The two people were basically sure that meeting the third prince in the forest must not be a coincidence. The third prince must have been waiting for them here. , they must be making some plans.

The little princess replied to Ouyang Zhenxiong: "I feel the same way. I think they are coming for me this time, but I don't know why they are like this. I have been looking for There is no motive for them to take action, because our Chu State and their Banyue State have not had conflicts for a long time.

Ouyang Zhengxiong asked the little princess: "How can there be no conflict? How is the relationship between the two countries?" The little princess thought for a moment, and then said to Ouyang Zhenxiong:"In other words, the current relationship is pretty normal. Nothing pleasant has happened in several years.""

"This makes people feel a bit strange. If this is the case, then why do they want to attack the princess? Ouyang Zhenxiong gradually fell into deep thought, then laughed and said to the little princess:"I know why. I think they want to rob the princess of her beauty here.""

"Go to hell quickly!"The little princess punched Ouyang Zhenxiong very hard on the head.

Ouyang Zhengxiong touched his head, and the expression on his face showed that he was in great pain, but he still forcibly lowered his voice and said to the little princess Said:"Why do you always strike so hard? I'm not talking about other things. Isn't this helping you analyze things? It is impossible to get a correct answer directly. We have to list all possibilities. Come out and eliminate them one by one. Besides, the possibility I just mentioned is not impossible."

"I don't bother you to think too much about this. Everyone in the world knows that Sanhuangzi is not such a perfunctory person. She is definitely not the kind of person who covets beauty.

Ouyang Zhenxiong stammered:" Maybe.....Maybe he doesn't want you, maybe he is requested by others and wants to give you to others as a gift."

The little princess's face was full of anger, because every word Ouyang Zhengxiong said made him very angry. She felt that Ouyang Zhenxiong was not helping him analyze, but deliberately making him angry. The little princess has now Her eyes widened in anger, and she said viciously to Ouyang Zhengxiong:"You scum, is this the only thing you can say? Do you know what kind of identity you are talking to me now? I advise you to weigh every word carefully when you say it. Otherwise, your head is in danger. Then don't blame me, my princess. I can't stand people like you"

"Then this is a bit strange. What else does the third prince really want to get? Let me think carefully about what kind of things can make a prince of a country take such a big risk to come to a strange place. After some thinking, Ouyang Zhenxiong suddenly realized it. He said to the little princess:"Wait a minute."....."

"It's Hou Yi's divine bow!"

"There is no doubt that the third prince must have come here for the divine bow."

Ouyang Zhenxiong and the little princess shouted together, congratulating silently in their hearts for their simultaneous awakening.

"I think that when Her Royal Highness used Hou Yi to attack the big snake that day, the third prince must have seen the golden light that Hou Yi sent into the sky."

"I finally understood why that guy always looked at the black box on my back and actually wanted to take our Chu country's national treasure. This guy was really cunning." Little princess, you clenched her fists, looking very angry, and then said to Ouyang Zhenxiong: "I said scum, now that you have thought of this, can you think of another way to deal with him? method?"

"I really have nothing to do. You can't blame me. It's hard for a clever woman to make a meal without rice. Now even if the gods come down to earth, they probably won't be able to save the current situation. Your Royal Highness, the princess, is leading all the men seriously injured. If the third prince takes action directly, you There won't be any strength to fight back. I think you should just give Hou Yi's bow to the third prince. This can also establish the friendship between you. As the saying goes, if you keep the green hills, you won't be afraid of running out of firewood. When the time comes, you will meet him. , you just grab it back,.....Hahahaha."

After Ouyang Zhenxiong finished speaking, a sneer flashed across the face of the little princess. Ouyang Zhenxiong immediately closed her mouth because he knew that he had made this little devil unhappy again.

"Is there anything you, a scumbag, can do? Didn't you say you wanted to make a deal with me during the day? What you said now are the bargaining chips you used to make the deal. How can this thing of yours help me? This is not bad. Now I can finally deal with you without any worries, lest I regret it after beating you to death. Now it seems that I will regret not beating you to death. The little princess had a cold look on her face and continued to say to Ouyang Zhenxiong: "Do you know how much effort I have spent in the past two days to find you? Do you know how angry I am when you are in front of me? I can't wait to kill you now." Immediately remove your skin and use it to make me a dress."

Seeing the little princess' face looking so ugly, Ouyang Zhenxiong got goosebumps all over his body again, and then he said to the little princess: "Your Highness, in fact, there has always been a misunderstanding between us. I didn't mean it at the beginning.....I didn't mean to go to the place where you took a shower, and I didn't mean it either....."

After hearing what Ouyang Zhengxiong just said, the little princess was furious. Her eyes were full of murderous intent, and the anger could already overflow from her eyes. She said fiercely to Ouyang Zhengxiong: "You damn thing, you dare to mention that matter, I will kill you!"

Ouyang Zhengxiong was so frightened that he took a few steps back, and then said: "Wait a minute."

Ouyang Zhenxiong continued to say to the little princess: "Your Highness, you You can't be so ruthless. I helped you out during the day. Can you think about it carefully? I don't have to help you at all. If I tell the third prince everything that happened to you, maybe I will still be able to help you. I can find an official position, but I still have no hesitation to come to your side. You have to treat me like this now, which really makes me sad. I am completely loyal to the princess just to make up for the mistakes I committed before. That's wrong, Your Highness Princess, why don't you understand my painstaking efforts?"

"Haha, although you are a bad thief with poor moral character, you are quite eloquent. Haha, I know what you are thinking. You did not come to me to help me."

The little princess glanced at Ouyang Zhenxiong, and then continued to Ouyang Zhenxiong: "If you take refuge with the third prince, your ending will be nothing more than death. If all my secrets are known to the third prince, what will happen to you?" After he drives out a group of us, he will definitely silence you. If not, do you still dare to make a desperate deal with me? Do I still not know about this little trick in your mind?"

"Forehead.....Ah this.....In this case, you really can't kill me. Think about it, the men who can help you now are seriously injured. If you don't have such a capable assistant like me, you won't be able to fight back when the time comes. After all, I still have some strength. If the fight comes, I can help you."

After the little princess thought for a while, she felt that what Ouyang Zhengxiong said was not completely unreasonable, so she looked at Ouyang Zhenxiong and laughed, and then said calmly to Ouyang Zhengxiong: "Yes, since you have mentioned this For your sake, how can I not let you go? Take this and put this on your back."

After the little princess put the box containing Hou Yi's divine bow into Ouyang Zhenxiong's hands, Ouyang Zhenxiong shouted loudly: "Little princess, what are you doing? You should kill me.""

Ouyang Zhenxiong already knew what the little princess was planning in her heart. The little princess wanted to hand Hou Yi's Divine Bow into Ouyang Zhenxiong's hands, because this could divert the attention of the third prince and his group, and then all their The attack power will all be on Ouyang Zhenxiong, and the little princess can take the opportunity to escape.

"This is what you begged me for, so don't blame me for being cruel, I'll kill you with one shot!" After the little princess finished speaking, she pulled out her sword from her waist.

"don't want.....Come on, why don't I just do what you say?"

Although the night seemed so peaceful, the forest was full of murderous intent. The light and shadow of swords reflected each other in the third prince's tent. They were discussing how to deal with the little princess.

Lin Chong, the third prince's subordinate, said: "I think That old immortal Zhuge Chengfeng must not be nearby. We must have been fooled by this little princess during the day. Your Highness, I think it is better to take action now. If that old immortal Zhuge Chenfeng really comes over by then, , that would really become very troublesome. The third prince held his neck with his hands and fell into deep thought. After thinking, he said

:"Don't be so hasty to take action. Anyway, they have no fighting ability at all now, and we have completely surrounded them. Their every move is under our surveillance. When they relax their vigilance, we will seize the opportunity to annihilate them in one fell swoop. Yang Chong immediately said:"

Don't do so many tricks. Why does His Highness the Prince value them so much? They are all seriously injured. No matter how powerful that little devil is, he can still be stronger than our His Highness the Prince."! The third prince spoke calmly and said to this subordinate: "I tell you, don't always be so impulsive when doing things. You are so reckless every time you do things. How can I trust you to stand alone in the future?" , what you said is not unreasonable. They were indeed very seriously injured, but even though they were about to die, what you don't know is that people will struggle desperately when they are dying. The power coming out is not small. What we have to do now is to spend a night to disintegrate their fighting power and reduce their will to fight. Why don't we make good use of this night? You are also someone who has read the Art of War. The way to defeat the enemy is to do everything possible to design favorable conditions for yourself. It seems that the book you have read is not refined enough!"

Yang Chong's head was already sweating a lot. He felt that the third prince's analysis was very reasonable. His Highness's words made Yang Chong admire him very much. He could feel an exposed emotion in the prince's body. Domineering, a sense of oppression emanates from the body

"Yes, your thinking is indeed wrong. Your Highness should think more comprehensively. I still have a lot to learn. I hope Your Highness can teach you more."

The third prince put his hand on his back, walked back and forth in the tent for a few steps, and then said:"If we start taking action then, you can directly take Houyi's Divine Bow back to Banyue Kingdom, regardless of the journey. Whatever happens in the movie, you can't delay at all. Do you understand?"

"What, am I going alone? Your Highness, won't you go with me?"

The third prince smiled, and then said to Lin Chong:"Your Highness, how can this be done? I can't leave yet. The mythical beast Qilin is still on the Luofeng Mountains. I also want to see the legendary Qilin beast." , it is said that this unicorn....."

Yang Chong said to the third prince:"Your Highness, no, it is too dangerous for you to do this."

"Then have you never thought that it would be more dangerous if I returned to Banyue Kingdom immediately? Think about it carefully. As soon as Hou Yi's divine bow is lost, I will send him back immediately. What fool can't see that it was me who did it? Hehe, what if I did it? After this, if I still stay here, who has any evidence against me?"

"Tall, your highness is taller!"

"It's almost done now. Go ahead and arrange the rest. Tell the others that you must be clean and tidy when doing anything in the early hours of the morning, and don't leave anyone alive."The third prince's face was cold. He looked like the kind of demon who kills without batting an eye. The sincerity he had before was completely gone.

"Okay, leave the rest to me!"Although Yang Chong can be regarded as a person who has walked out of the pile of dead people, he still felt a little scared before this happened.

The little princess, Lan Yu, called all her men together, and this It's her image that is completely different from the past. The playful and playful expression has disappeared. She now looks so serious, like a mighty general.

"That scumbag Masao should have told you everything, right? The prince with ulterior motives in the Banyue Kingdom actually came up with the idea of inheriting our country's national treasure.

The difference in strength between us is really too big. Even if we obediently give them Hou Yi's Divine Bow now, they will silence us.."After the little princess sighed, she continued to say to these men:"Now there is only one road in front of us, and that is the road of death, but it is divided into two types. One is to kneel down to the enemy, and then be killed by them. Kill ruthlessly, and the other is to fight the enemy at the last moment like a real hero. Soldiers, which way of death do you choose?"

There were bursts of roars from inside Yin Zang:"Unyielding until death, long live the Kingdom of Chu! Unyielding until death, long live Chu!....."

"Yes, we have been forced to a dead end. Now we have no choice. The Chu people are all hard-core and will never give in. I will fight them to the end. Even if I die, I will make these ambitious people pay the price. Soldiers, you are so outstanding, are you willing to use your blood to defend the dignity of the country?"

"We do!"

"Do you even need to ask?"

"Fight to the end!"

"It is my honor to throw my head, shed my blood, and sacrifice myself for the country of Chu!"

"I am willing to go all out for the princess!"

"I am willing to give up my life for my motherland!"

Ouyang Zhengxiong sighed silently in his heart. He didn't expect such a cheerful little princess to have such powerful methods. He obviously wanted to use the power of these people to help him escape, but he actually did it so heroically.

"good! Let's start making defensive arrangements now!"

The little princess arranged a designated place for each of her subordinates. She told these people: After nightfall, they must keep an eye on this place and quietly ambush here.

After the little princess arranged everything, she said to Ouyang Zhengxiong: "You scum, seeing as you don't have much effort, I won't arrange for you to kill the enemy. You just need to keep a good eye on this artifact!"

Ouyang Zhenxiong seemed very speechless. Although he said that he only needed to keep an eye on the magic bow, it was more difficult than killing the enemy. After a while, every enemy would rush towards him.

"Do you need to add anything else?"

A female guard stood up from the crowd and said: "Your Highness, it's dark and windy at night, and the visibility is not good. Why do we take advantage of this to break out?"

The little princess quickly shook her head, sighed, and said, "You all, come here."

A group of people gathered around the little princess. Under the guidance of the little princess, these people stared at a corner of the tent. The little princess walked over gently, lifted up a corner of the tent, and then threw it with a stone. After going out, the stone fell into the grass. The sound in the grass was like someone passing by.

Then there were bursts of swishing sounds in the air, and dozens of arrows flew towards the grass.

"Take a look, we have no hope of breaking out, because these ambitious people have already arranged everything. If we break out, we will only die faster. If they bite back without paying attention, of course there will be more. Hope of survival. If that's the case, it's okay for us to wait here quietly. This will form a counter-encirclement and catch these people by surprise."

After the little princess finished speaking, his subordinates showed admiration for the little princess one by one, because they did not expect that the little princess who usually laughs and laughs would be so clever in such a life-and-death situation. She deserves to be raised in the royal family. People can analyze the enemy's psychology so clearly, and the intrigues in the royal family on weekdays are indeed beneficial.

After the little princess stood and thought for a while, she continued: "I think there is another possibility. If they don't attack us after an hour, then they may not take action tonight. The most likely time to take action is then Even at dawn tomorrow, you must be very careful. No matter what time it is, you cannot relax at all. It should be almost done now, everyone, go and get everything ready!"

When these guards left, A guard suddenly walked over to the little princess, knelt down in front of the little princess, and swore with a serious look on his face:"Please rest assured, princess, I will do my best to escort the princess out of here."

Other guards saw this. After that, one by one they knelt on the ground

"I swear to the death to escort the princess away!"

"The villain is willing to shed the last drop of blood for the princess!"

The oaths came out from the mouths of these people. They swore to use their lives to escort the princess out of here.

Of course, not everyone has exceptions to everything. The person who did not swear was Ouyang Zhen. Ouyang Zhengxiong whispered in his heart:"Are you kidding me? Are you asking me to protect this inhumane devil? These people are really funny. Their little princess has already planned everything to escape. The damn guy actually asked me to bring Hou Yi's bow. This is obviously making me a scapegoat! It's really annoying. Who is it that sealed Hou Yi's bow? If Hou Yi's bow can still be used normally, who else can stop me?"

These people left the tent before finishing their oaths, and then found a place nearby to ambush.

When Ouyang Zhengxiong was about to walk into the tent next to him, a sword suddenly reached his neck. This was a Female swordsman, she said to Ouyang Zhengxiong:"Don't go anywhere, just stay here and protect the princess. If the princess makes any mistake, I will take it upon you!"

Ouyang Zhenxiong felt that he was even more unjust than Dou E in ancient myths. He was already trying to throw the princess away from his back. After this, his subordinates said that he did not do his best to protect her. It was really It's so helpless.

Death is not a very painful thing. Death is just a short moment in life. The most painful thing is to do nothing and wait for death to come. During this period of waiting, every day Every minute and every second is a very painful torment, and my heart is like a tightened string. Even I don't know when it will break.

Although the men brought by the little princess are all very skilled, But who can withstand the torture of waiting for death? These subordinates shed cold sweat uncontrollably while waiting. On the contrary, Ouyang Zhengxiong was very calm. He only knew that Ouyang Zhenxiong was calmly analyzing He followed the escape route and made countless escape plans in his mind, changing bad plans again and again.

"Very good. As the first step, I should take care of Hou Yi's bow first. This damn bow is like the God of Death. Whoever carries it with him will die the fastest. I should take care of Hou Yi's bow first. The wing bow is thrown directly to someone or somewhere. The second part?.....Well, the nth step is whether I should pretend to be dead under that tree. This point still needs to consider the situation. This step must be played by ear. This is also the step that determines whether I can survive in this chaos....."

But Ouyang Zhenxiong could not let these people know his thoughts, because if these idiot men knew about Ouyang Zhenxiong's thoughts, Ouyang Zhengxiong would definitely be beheaded by these unreasonable people.

There are fewer and fewer stars in the sky, and there is only one bright morning star hanging in the distant eastern sky. The fewer stars in the sky are a warning, warning these people that their death is coming, of course. , Ouyang Zhengxiong will realize this.

Ouyang Zhengxiong took out Hou Yi's bow from the black box. Hou Yi's bow emitted a faint black light. Ouyang Zhenxiong was chilled by this wave of black light, because he knew that this was the black light that symbolized death. Who was holding this bow? , who should die.

Ouyang Zhenxiong looked at this familiar treasure. He thought of his father. This bow was immersed in his father's hands and he had achieved great achievements. He never thought that he would still be able to see this thing after ten thousand years. He Gently stroking Hou Yi's bow with his hand, he whispered:"Old friend, you didn't expect, did you? We can meet again after ten thousand years." Unexpectedly, this was heard by a guard next to him, but this guard I couldn't understand what Ouyang Zhenxiong said, because what Ouyang Zhengxiong just said was not in the language of this continent, but in the ancient language they used ten thousand years ago. It is impossible for these people today to understand it.

The guard pushed Ouyang Zhenxiong, and then asked Ouyang Zhenxiong seriously:"You scum, do you have any bad ideas? What are you muttering about?"

"Oh, I didn't say anything. I just thought why Hou Yi's sealed bow could only fire one arrow. I was wondering if it was because of some spell, so I tried to recite some ancient spells to see if it could Break the seal."

While they were talking, more than 20 figures jumped out from the woods. These 20 people formed a ring of encirclement, tightly surrounding Ouyang Zhenxiong and others.

The little princess's men were long. With a long sigh, the pain they endured has finally come to an end, because they have been waiting for death for too long. Now they can finally end this painful waiting. Another happy death is even more comfortable than waiting. For them, During this time, they felt that it didn't matter whether they survived or not. As long as they could get rid of the torture of waiting, death was a trivial matter.

At the end of this long night, a killing was about to come. In this The murderous atmosphere in Bianlinzi was so strong that the more than 20 people surrounding these men rushed forward, like tigers pounced on their prey. At this time, the little princess's men were not idle either. One by one, Xi'an drew his bow tightly and pointed it at these vicious intruders.

"Search!"

"shou! "

"Soso!"

These slender feather arrows were fired together. As these bows and arrows were fired, the enemies began to scream one after another, and six people on the spot were immediately hit by arrows and died, falling to the ground motionless. The third prince's men Yang Chong yelled and cursed:"Why is this little princess like a devil? Damn it, it's already dawn and they haven't let down their guard yet, everyone, come on!"

After the ninth person was knocked down by the bow and sword, the third prince's men had already rushed in front of Ouyang Zhenxiong and the others. At such a close distance, firing bows and arrows was a burden. Now the bows and arrows have completely lost their effect.

The little princess's subordinates grabbed the weapons in their hands one by one and rushed towards the enemy. Only two people stood motionless. One of the two people said Ouyang Zhenxiong, and another I am the young trainee mage who survived the battle with the giant snake.

Ouyang Zhenxiong carefully observed the battle situation and did not miss any opportunity to escape. At this time, the trainee mage was concentrating on chanting The spell is ready to start casting magic.

Waves of magic waves began to emit in the air. This is the magic element that the trainee mage condensed in the air. A very large ice pick quickly formed in the air. This huge After the ice cone was formed, it began to emit bright white light. Soon, the soldier was completely surrounded by white light. Under the control of the trainee mage, the ice cone emitting white light rushed towards the enemy in just one or two seconds. It pierced the chests of two enemies within a short period of time. When the third person was at the equator, the ice cone burst into pieces. After the trainee mage felt that he had successfully attacked the enemy, he secretly laughed in his heart. When he again When he wanted to cast magic, he found that he could no longer cast it because the magic in his body had been used up. He was already a very seriously injured person and had endured huge pain when he cast magic for the first time. It was in pain, and it was normal for him to be unable to cast it the second time. However, he failed to cast it this time, which meant that he was about to die. Soon, a steel sword was thrown over by the enemy from a distance. This one The steel sword hit the trainee mage at a very fast speed, and the throw was quite accurate, directly piercing the trainee mage's heart. The trainee mage lay on the ground very comfortably. Maybe he felt nervous. Everything was finally over, and he could finally have a good rest. Just like that, he closed his eyes.

Ouyang Zhengxiong remained motionless on the spot. He lay down in the grass, waiting for the opportunity to escape.

In this life and death battle , the little princess's men and the third prince's men were all injured, but the little princess's men and the third prince's men were different. The little princess's guards had already been very seriously injured when they fought with the giant snake. , now they are equivalent to injuries on top of injuries, but they still endure the severe pain and persevere. This is completely a desperate fighting style. Their desperate spirit makes the enemy look at them. They were all a little scared.

At this moment, a figure rushed out of the tent as fast as lightning. Damn it, this turned out to be the little princess. Instead of running away, the little princess rushed into the enemy's encirclement. This made Ouyang Zhengxiong It feels a bit unexpected.

When the little princess broke into the crowd, she held a thin sword tightly in both hands. Wherever she passed, the enemies would die on the spot, leaving bursts of blood in the air.

Ouyang Zhengxiong was shocked. He thought the little princess had run away, but unexpectedly he rushed into the crowd at the most dangerous moment. Ouyang Zhengxiong felt that he decided to stay after a painful inner struggle, otherwise the little princess would be here. I would never have given Hou Yi's bow to Ouyang Zhengxiong before.

"It turns out that this little devil is not a real little devil. She is still kind in her heart. It seems that she is still a little girl. She is not as vicious as I thought. I originally thought that she would abandon her subordinates. She ran away, but in a few years, when she grows up, she won't be like this anymore."

After the little princess entered the crowd, the enemy suddenly fell into chaos. At this time, Ouyang Zhenxiong raised the Hou Yi Bow with both hands. He instantly became the target of the enemy's attack. More than a dozen people All of a sudden, they rushed towards him.

After the little princess saw that Ouyang Zhengxiong helped him attract the enemy's firepower, a very sorry look flashed in her eyes, but then she became very angry again, because Ouyang Zhengxiong took over What he said next made her feel very angry.

Ouyang Zhenxiong shouted loudly to the subordinates of the third prince:"Brother, eldest brother, stop it. I have no intention of becoming your enemy. Don't you want this Hou Yi Bow?" , I will give them to you now, you must take them."

After Ouyang Zhenxiong finished speaking, he threw the Houyi Bow in his hand, but he did not sincerely want to give it to the enemy. She deliberately deviated the direction a little, and the Houyi Bow fell next to the little princess.

"Brothers, rush over to me!"

The third prince's men all ran towards the little princess. The little princess's men were eager to protect their master and rushed towards the enemy one by one. The encirclement formed by the enemy suddenly collapsed, because everyone was heading towards Luo Luo. The descendants on the ground rushed over, and the two parties fought together again. The little princess was very angry. She stared at Ouyang Zhenxiong with her vicious eyes, the anger in her eyes. It looked like it was about to spurt out. If this look could kill, Ouyang Zhenxiong would have been killed millions of times.

But what was very helpless was that the little princess was surrounded by enemies at this time, and she had to She cast her eyes on the enemy who was running towards her, but it was not difficult to see that there was a trace of unwillingness in her eyes. She was not willing to accept that she had nothing to do with Ouyang Zhenxiong. The little princess clenched the sword in her hand and faced the enemy. Go up.

Ouyang Zhengxiong sneered at the side and said to the little princess: "Don't blame me. I won't offend others unless they offend me. You clearly want me to die. Do you think I don't know? Houyi Gong Whoever is in his hands will be the one who is taken advantage of, and he will definitely be the first to be killed without any suspense. I did this out of instinct. After all, everyone's instinct is to save their own lives."

Ouyang Zhengxiong saw a long sword at his feet. He bent down to pick up the long sword and hung it on his waist. She turned around and wanted to run into the forest, but suddenly there was a puff and a black box It fell from the sky and landed at his feet.

Ouyang Zhengxiong looked down and became very panicked again. It was the black box symbolizing death again. This was the box containing Hou Yi's bow.

"Oh my god, why are you back again? Can you give me some time to escape? This is too fast!" Ouyang Zhengxiong turned his head and looked behind him. He found that the little princess was smiling at him. That smile was a malicious sneer. At the same time, the third prince's subordinates all rushed towards him. He ran over

"Little devil, you are so cruel!" At this time, Ouyang Zhenxiong had no time to throw out Hou Yi's bow. He turned around and ran towards the woods with all his strength. After he ran dozens of steps, he suddenly stopped. She felt There was an icy coldness behind him.

The third prince walked out from the depths of the forest with four of his men. His face looked very cold, like a cold-blooded killer, without any emotion. The third prince walked towards Ouyang Zhenxiong After arriving, a faint smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, and he said to Ouyang Zhengxiong: "I'm going, it's really interesting, it's really interesting, it's wonderful, this is really wonderful, I didn't expect it." The princess of Chu also made miscalculations, and you took advantage of my loophole. I really underestimated you. I didn't expect you to be much smarter than I thought. I was originally waiting for the little princess in this forest, but I didn't expect that you would be the first to run out alone."

"this.....His Royal Highness the Third Prince"
