Chapter 1991

Ouyang Zhengxiong followed the little princess to the outside of the inn. After seeing such a grand scene outside, Ouyang Zhengxiong jumped up in fright.

Although Ouyang Zhengxiong had just heard some noise, he knew that an army was coming to take the little princess back to the palace. Ouyang Zhengxiong never expected that there was such a big battle outside.

Both sides of the street were surrounded by soldiers, and the center of the street was empty. The street was heavily guarded. These people were waiting for the little princess to drive.

Ouyang Zhengxiong murmured to himself: "How could a scary little devil like him get into this sedan honestly?"

General Li Sheng personally led a horse for the little princess. A soldier followed the general, and he also brought a horse. This horse was given to Ouyang Zhengxiong.

The little princess jumped up, easily jumped onto the horse, and took the lead to drive the horse away. Ouyang Zhengxiong and Ningfeng City Lord Li Sheng followed closely behind the little princess, followed by 300 cavalry. , the last ones were the remaining infantry, these people left this small town with a mighty pace.

After these soldiers left, the residents in the town breathed a sigh of relief, but the owner of the inn was very sad because before Li Sheng, the lord of Ningfeng City left, he gave the inn owner a big punishment. Because the boss was too greedy, Li Sheng fined him a large sum of money and asked him to hand it over to Li Sheng's house within three days.

In the distance, there is a person who looks slender, waiting quietly under the morning glow. She is dressed in snow-white, and under the shining of the setting sun, it is as if she is emitting a golden brilliance. The fairy who can be called the Nine Heavens descended to earth, and the skirt of his clothes kept floating in the wind, as if it might fly away at any time.

The little princess shouted in that direction: "Sister!" Then she whipped the horse hard with the whip, and the horse suddenly ran very fast, leaving everyone behind, and came to Chu Yue's side. Afterwards, the little princess suddenly threw herself into Chu Yue's arms.

At this time, the little princess was like a child, hugging her sister's slender waist and not letting go, and then said in a sweet voice: "Sister, sister, I really miss you. I haven't seen you for many days." That's it."

Izuku patted the little princess's head out of doting, and then said to the little princess: "You are really too naughty this time. You left the palace for so long without even saying hello. Do you know how much your father and mother are worried about you these days? You can't do this next time."

The little princess asked her sister nervously: "How is the mother's health now? Is it better?"

Chu Yue She felt very confused. She didn't understand why the little princess would ask her like this. Then she said to the little princess: "Why do you suddenly ask like this? The mother's body has always been fine. She has always been very healthy."

"The princess understood everything. In fact, her mother was not ill. It was her old man who had deceived her. Then the little princess said: "Huh! That old man dared to deceive me.""

"Ha ha.....Who is it? He even dared to lie to us for being naughty. I want to see who this old guy you are talking about is.", Chu Yue asked the little princess with a smile.

The little princess replied to Chu Yue angrily: "Don't you know now? Apart from that stinky old man my master, does anyone else dare to lie to me? This stinky old man, I will I must play with her well this time and give him back what he lied to me about. Now he has gone to the ancient forest alone to see the unicorn. It really makes me angry to death. When he comes back, I must take it. Its beard was plucked out. Chu

Yue laughed loudly, and then said to the little princess seriously: "You must not do this. Senior is a very respected person. Even our father and mother respect senior very much. You must not do anything to offend Senior Zhuge, otherwise your father and queen will punish you. The little princess pouted angrily, and then said to her sister coquettishly: "Hmph, why are you always on his side? You are still not my sister, huh!" Chu Yue replied: "

Sister, when have you stood up for others? No matter what mistakes you have made, I will always stand by your side. Didn't I think for you just now? Think about it, as long as you offend Senior Zhuge, our father and queen will definitely not let you go. When the time comes, you will be criticized again. If they criticize you together, it will be harder for you than you. Then you will be on the wall in the palace. Being here is boring, but thinking about your faults is even more boring. It is equivalent to putting you under house arrest. You should think about it carefully. Maybe your father has been looking for a reason to put you under house arrest!"

After thinking for a moment, the little princess felt that what Chu Yue said made sense, and then said to Chu Yue: "I'm really too angry, and there's nothing I can do about this old man, so I'll stop pulling out his beard." Oh, by the way, sister, how did you get my specific location? I didn't meet any acquaintances along the way."

"My sister really has a bad memory. Have you forgotten? Didn't you pawn the flower beads on your head? The owner of the pawn shop regarded your flower beads as a treasure and sent someone to Ningfeng City overnight. When we arrived at the main store, the owner of the main store was more knowledgeable and recognized the royal mark on the bead flower at a glance. The owner was frightened and sent someone to report it to Li Sheng, the lord of Lan Ning Feng City. Since Li Sheng has been listening to my instructions these days, I quickly learned about this matter, so I followed the clues and came to this small town. Unexpectedly, I actually found you here. Rascal."

After Princess Chu Yue finished speaking, she pinched the little princess's cheek, and then said to the little princess in a gentle tone: "How is it? It's better to stay in the palace. Look, you've gone out so much that you've pawned off your treasures. You've suffered a lot these days. Let me let my sister take a closer look at you. Well, you I see your skin is tanned and you are much thinner than before. Next time you must not run around, do you hear me? You naughty guy"

"Well, sister, I understand, I will definitely not run around next time, my.....All my accompanying guards....." After the little princess said this, she choked with sadness and stopped talking.

Although the little princess did not finish what he said, Princess Chu Yue already knew what the little princess wanted to express, so Princess Chu Yue touched the little princess's head and said to the little princess: "Good boy, don't be too sad. After all, These things are not your intention. It is an honor for them to devote themselves to the motherland. Don't cry, don't cry....."

The little princess carefully wiped her eyes with her hands, and then said to her sister with a choked voice: "I hate it, I'm 16 years old, why do you still treat me like a child? Don't touch my head all the time." After the little princess finished speaking, she immediately laughed again.

"Sister, I got a good thing, let me show it to you." After the little princess finished speaking, she took out a jade box from his arms. She opened the jade box carefully. The moment she opened it, a burst of fragrance floated out, and a crystal clear petal of a flaming fire lotus came out. Cheng appeared in the center of the box.

Chu Yue was shocked when she saw the petals of the blazing fire lotus in the box, and then asked the little princess: "Ah! This is.....This is legendary....."

The little princess looked triumphant and said to Chu Yue with a smile: "Yes, this is the legendary Fiery Lotus. Isn't my father about to celebrate his 60th birthday? This is who I am as my father." How about the birthday gift you prepared? Can you express my sincerity?"

Chu Yue excitedly held the jade box in her hands, and then said: "Sure enough, everyone calls it the fairy lotus. Just holding it With it, I can smell its fragrant smell. After getting the tattoo, I feel refreshed and comfortable all over."

The crystal clear flame lotus petals looked even more magical under the sunlight. The aroma spread around and reached the mouths and noses of these soldiers and Ouyang Zhengxiong. These soldiers were amazed one after another.

After Princess Chu Yue took a closer look, she discovered that a small opening was missing from the petals of the Fire Lotus. Then she said to the little princess, "What's going on? It looks like someone has bitten you, Yu'er." Look, is there a hole missing here?"

Chu Yue laughed, pinched the little princess's snow-white nose, and then said to the little princess: "You must be a greedy little guy, aren't you? You want to taste it yourself before giving it to your father, right? Haha....."

"elder sister....." While the little princess was talking, she was twisting on her sister, acting coquettishly towards her sister, and then said to her sister: "Don't pinch my nose, otherwise I won't be able to grow." You are as beautiful as your sister."

Chu Yue laughed, and then said to the little princess: "We haven't seen you for so many days. Although you have tanned a little and lost a lot of weight, your mouth is still as sweet as before. Well, I am still so good at acting like a baby, these two points will never change, haha....."

The little princess looked at the missing small opening on the Lieyanhuolian. The more she thought about it, the angrier she became. Then she said angrily: "Actually, this was actually half of the Lieyanhuolian. It's all the fault of that scum Ouyang Zhengxiong."

Princess Chu Yue asked the little princess in confusion: "Sister, what is going on? Who is Ouyang Zhengxiong? What do you mean by what you just said? I didn't understand it very well. Please tell me carefully." Come."

The little princess suddenly became a little angry, and then said to her sister Chu Yue: "Ouyang Zhengxiong is a scum bastard, he is very despicable, and very shameless and obscene, and his behavior is also very dirty, He is still a narcissistic guy who loves stinky beauty. That dirty guy caught me before, and he also used conspiracy and tricks to take advantage of the opportunity to light up my acupuncture points. I really had no choice but to use the efficacy of fire lotus to help me get away. The acupuncture points that were touched by that scum made me have no choice but to take a sip."

"What, is there such a thing? Do these people dare to bully my sister now? Sister, I want to stand up for you. Let me see who has such great ability everywhere. Where is that person now? , catch him now." Princess Chu Yue screamed in surprise. She was very angry because of what Ouyang Zhengxiong did to her sister. Now she wanted to tear up the bastard her sister called her.

The little princess turned around, Pointed at Ouyang Zhengxiong with his finger, and then said to her sister Chu Yue: "That person is already at the scene, and I have caught him. Sister, look at that wretched guy, doesn't he look like that? He doesn't look like a good person."

After the little princess finished speaking, she issued an order to Ouyang Zhengxiong who was not far away: "You scum Ouyang Zhengxiong, come here and die quickly. Come to me quickly."

It's the little devil's voice again. Every time he hears this little devil giving orders to himself in a stern tone, Ouyang Zhengxiong will feel a headache, because he thinks this is a sign of bad luck, and then he will start After receiving some punishment, Ouyang Zhengxiong walked towards the little princess reluctantly.

When Ouyang Zhengxiong found the little princess and Princess Chu Yue, Ouyang Zhengxiong was stunned for a while, his eyes were dull, this was not It was not because the little princess was frightened, but because she finally got a glimpse of Princess Chu Yue's beauty.

At first, from a distance, he could only vaguely see Princess Chu Yue's body through the strong sunlight. Stripes, we can only know that this person's body is slender, and we can guess that she is very beautiful, but now that Ouyang Zhengxiong and Princess Chu Yue are so close, this person's appearance can be said to be unparalleled, this beauty The woman suddenly made Ouyang Zhengxiong feel a little suffocated.

Princess Chu Yue was wearing a white dress. Her body was long and slender, with graceful curves and shapely bumps. Her breasts and buttocks were very plump. Her graceful body was hard to find. To the point where it was not good at all, he didn't even use rouge, gouache and other things to dress up carefully, because those things used by ordinary people and ordinary women would not have the slightest effect on the face of this unparalleled beauty. On the contrary, they would The woman in front of her who is as beautiful as a fairy becomes even uglier. The word "perfect" can be used to describe the appearance of Princess Chu Yue. The little princess is not unattractive. In fact, the little princess's appearance is also very iconic. , but after all, the little princess is still relatively young now. Compared with Chu Yue, who is at the age of flowers blooming, the little princess can be described as an elf, very lively and cute, full of vitality, and can Princess Chu Yue is compared to a fairy from heaven. The elf clings closely to the fairy. This close look fully demonstrates the elf's dependence on the fairy.

Such a pair of beautiful eyes , with such three-dimensional facial features and this peerless appearance, it can really amaze the world.

Ouyang Zhanxiong saw that Princess Chu Yue was fascinated, and the dull look in her eyes was already seen by the little princess, so the little princess coughed: "Ahem, you shameless and obscene scum, you are really brave. Do you know that there are thousands of people behind you? Do you have any evil thoughts about my sister, how dare you stare at my sister? After such a long time, the people behind you can kill you at will. Don't you know, you shameless thing?"

After Ouyang Zhengxiong heard the little princess speak, he suddenly returned to the real world from his fantasy world, and then he began to salute to the little princess's sister in a fussy manner: "I have seen Her Royal Highness!"

Just now Ouyang Zhengxiong stared at Chu Yue for a long time, which seemed to make her a little unhappy, so Chu Yue said coldly: "No courtesy."

"Sister, take a good look at this guy. Even though he looks honest, he doesn't look as shabby as he looks. In fact, he is very bad inside, the most shameless. That kind of scum is still a stinky thief who steals things. Don't be fooled by him."

Chapter 1994

After hearing what the little princess said, Ouyang Zhengxiong was really at a loss for words and could only hide all his depression and anger in his heart.

So the little princess continued to speak in Princess Chu Yue's ear: "This guy has been a bad guy since he was born. I think there is nothing wrong with him from head to toe. He....." While talking, the little princess suddenly felt a little embarrassed, and then continued coyly: "If I didn't think this guy was of some use to our Chu country, I would have cut him into pieces long ago. , this damn thing."

Ouyang Zhengxiong smiled at the little princess, and then asked the little princess: "What on earth did he do? Make my sister so angry."

"elder sister....." The little princess blushed all of a sudden, then ran to the left and then to the right, shaking Chu Yue non-stop.

Ouyang Zhengxiong has been observing the two sisters since he met them. Ouyang Zhengxiong has never seen the little princess in front of him appear so well-behaved in front of a certain person, and act like a baby so frequently. He felt that everything he saw with his eyes was not real, and he began to doubt his eyes. Is this the same little devil who had a battle of wits and courage with the third prince in the ancient forest? The little princess before was so resourceful and experienced in survival when she was fighting the third prince, and now she looks like a child.

The little princess pointed at Ouyang Zhengxiong's eyes and said to her sister Chu Yue: "Sister, look at this guy, her eyes are so red, and she keeps looking at you secretly." After the little princess finished speaking, she raised her small fist, and then hit Ouyang Zhengxiong randomly on the chest.

Princess Chu Yue stopped the little princess, and touched the little princess's head with a smile on her face, and then said to the little princess: "Okay, okay, stop making trouble, sister, tell me quickly, What has happened these days? How did you come here these days? Did you encounter any danger?"

The little princess suddenly changed her appearance and began to talk about some incredible and thrilling things she had encountered these days with a rich expression.

From the exotic flowers and plants on the ancient mountain to some unusual birds and beasts, as well as the giant dragon flying in the sky, the appearance and characteristics of these things were vividly described by the little princess, but the little princess was completely engrossed in describing what had happened these past few days, she accidentally spilled the beans and almost told all about Ouyang Zhengxiong who had secretly seen her bathing in the pond. Only then did she realize I made a small mistake, then stopped immediately and quickly covered my mouth.

From what the little princess said, Chu Yue could almost figure out the whole story. At this time, Princess Chu Yue, who looked very amiable, suddenly had a cold light in her eyes, and Ouyang Zhengxiong looked at her with a cold expression. I felt chills in my heart, I couldn't help but shiver, and cold sweat kept flowing from my face.

Ouyang Zhixiong secretly sighed in his heart: "She looks like a master. Her aura is very stable, restrained, and unpredictable. Under this beautiful appearance, there is a very rare temperament. Could it be that she is a master?" Is this a Taoist?"

A very vague Taoist aura swam around Chu Yue's body. At this moment, Ouyang Zhengxiong could finally identify that Chu Yue was indeed a Taoist.

Ouyang Zhengxiong looked at Princess Chu Yue's cold eyes and couldn't help but feel shocked. He secretly guessed: "Isn't this a guy who looks like a fairy on the outside but is a devil on the inside? Everyone in their family is Is this like this? Will he come to kill me because of this little devil?"

Princess Chu Yue took the little princess not far away, and then whispered in the little princess's ear: "Tell sister quickly, this is What on earth is going on? Why did you just stop talking halfway?"

After the little princess squirmed for a while, she stammered to her sister: "No.....Nothing really happened."

Princess Chu Yue's voice was very gentle. She said to the little princess: "It's okay. Just tell your sister. What is our relationship? Why are you still a little embarrassed about me? Could it be that my sister will hurt you again? Please tell me all these things quickly, so that I can help you make some decisions. After all, two people can definitely think about some things more comprehensively than one person. Then I can decide how to deal with it.....Um.....The scum Ouyang Zhengxiong."

After hearing what Princess Chu Yue said, the little princess was finally ready to speak. She had decided to tell her sister, Princess Chu Yue, what happened in the pool.

The little princess blushed all of a sudden, and then coquettishly picked up what happened in the pool: "Actually, it's like this....."

After the little princess finished telling everything about the incident, Princess Chu Yue suddenly turned blue with anger and almost wanted to pull out her sword and kill Ouyang Zhengxiong who was not far away.

The little princess's sister felt a little confused. According to her sister's temper, if someone did such a thing to her, the little princess would definitely kill that person on the spot, but Ouyang Zhengxiong is still here safe and sound. , indicating that there must be other things going on here, so Princess Chu Yue asked the little princess: "What's going on with you? Why can she still stand here after this happened? Why don't you kill her directly?" Yes, he seems to be there quite often. There should be no reason why you can't beat him."

The little princess threw a vicious look at Ouyang Zhengxiong not far away, because the little princess said that after what happened before, her heart She was also extremely angry, but the little princess couldn't vent her anger at this time, because there were so many people here, which would damage her image as a princess. So the little princess turned to her sister and said:"Actually, at first I I wanted to kill him directly, but after thinking about it carefully, I felt that it would be too cheap for him. I wanted to torture him well, but I didn't expect that later....."

Princess Chu Yue listened carefully to every word the little princess said. She learned from the little princess's mouth that the little princess once fought the giant snake in the crater with Senior Zhuge Chenfeng. After the little princess's vivid description, Princess Chu Yue seemed to have come to the crater and started a fight with the big snake. This immersive feeling made Princess Chu Yue realize the ups and downs the little princess had experienced these days, and Princess Chu Yue felt in her heart Secretly breaking into a cold sweat.

Later, when she heard the little princess talking about the five-clawed golden dragon, Princess Chu Yue's eyes suddenly widened and she listened extra carefully, because after all, dragons only existed in legends and almost no one saw them in reality. After arriving, Princess Chu Yue could not help but marvel.

The little princess said calmly:"When the giant snake fell into the crater, it rolled up the flaming lotus. Because the master was there, it barely managed to save one petal of the flaming lotus. Later, that scum Ouyang Zhengxiong took the opportunity to escape, and then I took my injured soldiers and started looking for a way out in the forest.....Unexpectedly, he suddenly met Leng Jian, the third prince of Ban Yue Kingdom, in the forest. But coincidentally, this scum Ouyang lineup was caught by the third prince.....later....."

Princess Chu Yue felt more and more frightened as she listened to the little princess's story. Her face gradually became cold, and then she said coldly:"The third prince of Banyue Kingdom is really unreasonable. Houyi's Divine Bow is our country's best." It's a national treasure. Secondly, they Banyue people can make up their own minds, and they even bullied my sister. It's really time to show their country the glory of our country." The little princess looked very unconvinced, and she faced Chu Yue The princess said:"The third prince is also good at seizing the opportunity. He must have investigated my fight with the giant snake through some means, or noticed something. Because he knew what was going on around me, his stomach was seriously injured before he created an opportunity to fight with me. We met by chance. If all of my soldiers had normal bodies, it was not certain who could defeat whom. But even if our mental state was not the best at that time, under my plan, we still defeated After the third prince's attack, almost all his subordinates died."

Princess Chu Yue laughed, and she began to feel that her sister was a bit amazing, because in such a desperate situation, her sister could still think calmly. She came up with a plan to deal with the third prince, so Princess Chu Yue said to her sister: "Hahahaha.....She is indeed my sister. She has really helped our Chu country. I didn't expect that this little naughty little girl like you could be so powerful. So tell me, what happened next?"

"Later Hou Yi's divine bow....." When the little princess said this, she suddenly became a little angry again, because as soon as he thought that Ouyang Zhengxiong, that scumbag, could actually draw Hou Yi's Divine Bow, he felt a little unfair, and Hou Yi's Divine Bow actually recognized one such an ordinary master, the little princess continued: "Sister, do you know? Hou Yi's divine bow can only be fired once a year, but that scum Ouyang Zhengxiong actually....."

Princess Chu Yue asked: "What happened next? What did that scum do?"

"That scum actually unlocked the seal of Hou Yi's divine bow and fired three arrows in succession."

Chapter 1996

The more Princess Chu Yue listened to him, her expression became heavier, and then she said slowly: "Is all this true? Was Hou Yi's divine bow really drawn three times in a row by that scum?"

"How could this be fake? I saw all this with my own eyes, and then the most annoying thing happened. In fact, when he pulled the bow for the fourth time, he had no strength left, and then he pretended to be relaxed, and he just gave me I was deceived, but the third prince was beaten away by this scum. In the end, he and his men fled like prodigal dogs, but I also fell into the hands of this scum Ouyang Zhengxiong."

After saying this, the little princess became extremely angry again. Her breathing began to become rapid. After a while, she shouted angrily: "This damn scum is so cunning! I.....He actually used a trick to deceive me. Unexpectedly, the final winner turned out to be this seemingly inconspicuous scum Ouyang Zhengxiong."

Princess Chu Yue started to laugh when she heard this, and then said to the little princess: "Oh, is this really the case? Then I think he has some skills, because it is not an easy thing to deceive a clever guy like you." But soon, Princess Chu Yue showed a solemn expression again, and then continued to ask the little princess: "What happened next? What happened next?"

"later.....later....." Before the little princess could speak, her face suddenly turned red, and then she started to become coy again.

Princess Chu Yue knew it right away. The little princess didn't want to talk about some embarrassing things that happened before, so she comforted the little princess and said, "Don't be afraid. It's okay. Just tell your sister. Are you still afraid of your sister?" Will I make fun of you? My sister is not that kind of person. No matter what happens, I will stand by your side, just say it."

The little princess took a few deep breaths to adjust her mind, and then said Everything that happened next was told to Princess Chu Yue.

Chu Yue's eyebrows suddenly wrinkled. It was obvious that she was very angry about what happened to her sister, so he asked the little princess: "Yu'er, why do I feel something is wrong? With your temper Generally speaking, you should have killed that guy directly in that situation of extreme grief and anger, but that's okay, I think you have matured a lot, and your reason can now overcome your impulse. This matter You still did something right. If this guy is willing to serve our motherland, then we have another peerless master here. But there is one thing I should remind you. You can't torture this guy now like before. Dude, since you have graciously spared her life, you should convince others with your virtue, because only in this way will he be grateful to you and serve our motherland wholeheartedly. Otherwise, he will only I have hatred for you, and maybe you will betray us."

The little princess was extremely angry, because she felt that what her sister said was a bit unreasonable, and she couldn't kill a guy she hated so much. He, and his sister, even wanted to convince others with virtue, so the little princess asked Princess Chu Yue: "What, convince others with virtue? Do you want me to smile at that guy all day long? Do you know that I see it every day? Him? I just want to kill him directly. I hate him so much that my teeth are itching. Do you know what he did to me before?.....snort! I didn't kill him directly, which was the greatest kindness I showed him."The little princess's anger was completely reflected on her face.

Princess Chu Yue said to the little princess in a low voice: "Oh, why are you so stupid? You usually don't appear to be very smart in everything you do. Well, asking him to be grateful to you does not mean asking you to laugh and laugh at him. In fact, there is a saying called giving both kindness and power. Only in this way will he be loyal to you. The little princess's face was like a bitter gourd, and then she gritted her teeth and said, "Sister, please stop talking. Do you know that I have begun to regret not taking this guy's name off before? I have to read it every day now." When it comes to this guy, you won't understand how uncomfortable this feeling is. It is a very crazy and angry feeling, and it makes me feel very uncomfortable."

Princess Chu Yue smiled, then touched her head and comforted the little princess: "Sister, don't be angry. Think about it, as long as you hold back your anger for a while, you can still avenge the third prince's ambush. Think about the third prince and this scum Ouyang Zhengxiong, which one do you want to see?"

After hearing what Princess Chu Yue said, the little princess felt that what Princess Chu Yue said was not completely unreasonable, because with Ouyang Zhengxiong's ability, he could completely avenge himself.

The little princess rubbed Princess Chu Yue's hand, and then said coquettishly to Princess Chu Yue: "But I just feel very angry. As long as I think of such an ordinary guy being so unreasonable to me, I will I went crazy. I didn't expect that such an ordinary guy would now become more powerful than me."

"You should not say that he is a useless person now. Hou Yi's divine bow is not something that an ordinary person can pull open. Think about it, even a person as powerful as Senior Zhuge cannot pull the descendant god's bow. He is a skilled worker, and this person's martial arts are so ordinary, but he can pull off this peerless artifact. Do you still think he is an ordinary person now? If this matter is publicized to the outside world, it will definitely be those people on Jingdong who have cultivated to a very high level. Presumably many martial arts people will come to our motherland to see this ordinary-looking monster."

Listening to Princess Chu Yue's words, the little princess suddenly fell into deep thought. At this time, he thought of the shocking arrow that Ouyang Zhengxiong fired when he used Houyi's divine bow to drive away the ancient giant. Ouyang Zhengxiong's body exuded The golden light emitted, so the little princess recognized what Princess Chu Yue said.

"Sister, you are right. Next time I won't hit him on the head, I won't pinch his arms, and I won't even touch his ears. In short, I will never torture or pester him again. He did."

Princess Chu Yue listened to the words of the little princess and couldn't laugh or cry. She really didn't expect that such an eccentric sister like herself would do so many things to retaliate against Ouyang Zhengxiong.

Ouyang Zhengxiong stood not far away and was flustered, because He only knew that the two sisters had been talking here for a long time, and he thought in his heart that the two sisters must be discussing how to punish him as a villain.

Not long after, Princess Chu Yue took the little princess's hand and faced Ouyang Zhengxiong. Walking over here, the steps of Princess Sideline are so graceful and graceful that it makes people's hearts beat when they see her. She can be called a graceful and elegant lady!

"Mr. Ouyang, Mr. Ouyang!"

Ouyang Zhengxiong was shocked by what Princess Ye said. He didn't expect that the little devil's sister would be so polite to him. She didn't call herself a scum and a wrong thief like the little devil, but called herself " Mr. Ouyang, so Ouyang Zhengxiong hurriedly replied:"Tell the princess, the common people are here."

Princess Chu Yue smiled and said to Ouyang Zhengxiong:"Young Master Ouyang does not need to be so polite to me. We have a very good rule in Chu State, that is, talented people do not need to pay any big courtesy in front of these royal families and senior officials, and they can List these people who have made outstanding contributions to the motherland as national scholars, so that they will receive unparalleled respect both in front of and behind the people of the country."

Ouyang Zhengxiong breathed a long sigh of relief, and his nervous heart finally felt relieved, so he began to look forward to the future, because he was really interested in what Princess Zuo said, because ten thousand years ago, he His reputation is very bad because Ouyang Zhengxiong was born in a family with a strong family background. Everyone in the family is a person who has cultivated to a very high level, but his own cultivation progress has not been able to keep up. Instead, he is not making progress. , but kept regressing, so everyone began to discuss Ouyang Zhengxiong behind his back, saying that Ouyang Zhengxiong was not a member of the Ouyang family at all, and even those who could not compare with him before began to surpass him. This made Ouyang Zhengxiong for a time Decadent.

Ouyang Zhengxiong felt that now was the time for the fortune to turn. Soon, he would be included in the history of Chu State. By then, her reputation would be passed down through the ages, and no one would think she was a waste anymore.

Princess Chu Yue continued to Looking at Ouyang Zhengxiong, he said:"Master Ouyang, please promise me a condition. I hope that you can draw Houyi's divine bow and not let other people know about it, because this is not an ordinary little thing. This thing happened It was too sudden, because Hou Yi's divine bow could only be drawn once a year for thousands of years. This was the first time that someone could draw the bow continuously. It was really shocking. In order to avoid unnecessary troubles, I can only wrong Young Master Ouyang first. I can only let Young Master Ouyang become an unknown national scholar in Chu State. I hope Young Master Ouyang can forgive me."

After Ouyang Zhengxiong heard Chu Yue's words, he quickly pretended to be very grateful, and then said to Princess Chu Yue:"Of course Princess Chu Yue can do whatever she says. I am just a commoner, how can I make so many decisions? Quan, I am lucky to be alive now. It is really an honor for me to be able to contribute to Chu State, but....."

Princess Chu Yue asked Ouyang Zhengxiong: "Does Mr. Ouyang have any concerns? Mr. Ouyang, what else is he worried about?"

"I'm afraid it's hard to keep the secret now, because Leng Jian, the third prince of Banyue Kingdom, already knows that I can draw Houyi's divine bow. I think he will....."

Princess Chu Yue looked calm, as if she felt that what Ouyang Zhengxiong just said was a trivial matter, not enough to cause him too much concern, so Princess Chu Yue said to Ouyang Zhengxiong: "You don't have to worry about this. , Sanfangfang will never tell this matter, because he dare not tell it. Do you know what he is most afraid of now? What he is most afraid of now is that we will kill directly with Houyi's bow. They have passed half a month, and he feels very lucky to be able to continue to survive in Banyue Kingdom."

In fact, what Ouyang Zhengxiong said was not that the third prince of Banyue Kingdom would spread the news that he could draw Hou Yi's divine bow. Come on, what he fears most now is that the third prince will send someone to sneak into the Chu Kingdom and assassinate him secretly. But after hearing what Princess Chu Yue said, Ouyang Zhengxiong I'm sorry to continue talking.

When Ouyang Zhengxiong and Princess Chu Yue were talking, the little princess kept standing next to them. The little princess kept mumbling in a low voice without knowing what she was talking about. Ouyang Zhengxiong secretly glanced at the little princess and said, She wanted to know what kind of expression the little princess had, but the little princess immediately noticed Ouyang Zhengxiong peeking at her, and then the little princess showed a fierce expression to Ouyang Zhengxiong in time, and Ouyang Zhengxiong was frightened and turned around. It was too much, because Ouyang Zhengxiong wanted to avoid the troublesome little princess as much as possible, and he did not want to be tortured by this little devil again.

Princess Chu Yue said: "Since there is nothing else to do, let's get on the road now!"

The cavalry began to mount their horses one by one, and the infantry also began to adjust their ranks. This large group of people began to march toward Ningfeng in a mighty way. Departed from the other side of the city.

Princess Chu Yue and the little princess were riding horses side by side at the front. Ouyang Zhengxiong and Ningfeng City Lord Li Sheng were following closely behind the two princesses on horseback. The two of them had been observing. Regarding the surrounding situation, only Li Sheng was focused on protecting the two princesses. Ouyang Zhengxiong's thoughts were not so simple. He observed the surroundings for two purposes. The first was to see if the third prince had sent someone to secretly observe and assassinate him. The second opportunity is to see if there are any assassins or the like operating nearby. In that case, Ouyang Zhengxiong can be a hero in front of Princess Chu Yue to save the beauty. At that time, Princess Chu Yue may turn to Ouyang Zhengxiong. Generating some feelings of admiration, after all, getting a beauty as beautiful as Princess Chu Yue is every man's lifelong dream!

The little princess sat high on the horse, rolled her eyes, and then said to Princess Chu Yue: "Sister, my father, the emperor, and my mother asked you to come look for me. Why did you suddenly take such a big risk? Come looking for me?"

Princess Chu Yue stretched out her snow-white fingers, tapped the little princess's forehead, and then said to the little princess with a smile: "Are you a little scared? Are you very afraid of returning to the palace now? The father and the queen will punish you later! Hahahaha, you little clever guy, no one can control you except the father and the queen. But we are not here mainly to find you this time, you also Don't be so afraid."

The little princess looked confused, and then said to Princess Chu Yue: "Sister, what do you mean by this? What is your main purpose? Is there anything else that can be done more than me? Is it important? Humph."

After the little princess finished speaking, she seemed a little jealous. A hint of jealousy began to show on her face, which made Princess Chu Yue laugh. "Hahahaha.....Why are you still jealous? Of course my sister cares about you very much, but this matter is definitely not trivial. You should know by now that the Kirin beast appears on the border of our Chu country, right? Do you know how many immortal cultivators from the Gods and Demons Continent have been offended by this incident? One by one, they began to ask their father about the Qilin Divine Beast. My father became a little anxious because no one in Chu State knew why the Qilin Divine Beast will appear on our border, so Fu Wan was very worried and asked me to lead 500 elite cavalry here to inquire about the situation. Of course, my father also said that I would look for you here. If the key is found, Take you back to the palace immediately, haha....."

The little princess let out a long sigh, and then said to Princess Chu Yue: "Although you didn't come here specifically for me, it's still good. If my father sent so many elite soldiers out of Switzerland to look for me, And if we go out, it means that my father must be very angry."

Princess Chu Yue said to the little princess: "What? Do you know how scared you are now? Why didn't you think about the consequences when you sneaked out of the palace alone? Did you know that you suddenly disappeared? We were so worried. Fortunately, we have Senior Zhuge Chengfeng. Otherwise, we will definitely worry until we grow old overnight."

The little princess looked confused. She had no idea what the old man did to relieve his father. The little princess asked Princess Chu Yue: "Sister, what do you want to express? Why do you say you are lucky to have my master here? What did he say to make you become like this all of a sudden?" of peace?"

"Thanks to the clever calculation of Senior Zhuge Chenfeng, he had already figured out where you were going, so he followed you all the way down, which made the father and queen not so worried."

The little princess suddenly realized. He finally knew why his master would appear at the critical moment during the battle with the giant snake. It turned out that the old man had been following him, and he took action at such a late opportunity just to see him make a fool of himself. So The little princess began to become a little angry, but Princess Chu Yue also saw all this. Princess Chu Yue asked the little princess: "Sister, what's wrong with you? Why did I become so angry all of a sudden? Did I say something I shouldn't have said? The little princess said to her sister: "No, sister, you have no problem. It was the old man who cheated me.""

Chu Yue became a little confused about her work. She didn't know what senior Zhuge Chengfeng had done to make the little princess so angry. So Princess Chu Yue asked the little princess: "What did senior Zhuge Chengfeng do? What? I think he won't do anything to hurt you. You shouldn't talk about an old thing or shut up about an old thing. After all, he is your master. Even if he is not your master, you shouldn't. Called this way, we must respect our elders, and even more respect those experts who have contributed to Chu State."

The little princess said to Princess Chu Yue: "No, no, how can she be as high-definition as her sister said? Sister, you don't know, I met her in the crater when I was picking the flaming fire lotus. A very big giant snake, which is said to be very difficult to deal with, but I still hit him hard. Later, the giant snake really showed its power and made my men run away. Then, the giant snake started to chase me, which made me It was very embarrassing. When I made a fool of myself, that old guy came out to help me. Do you think this is irritating?"

Princess Chu Yue said to the little princess: "Maybe Senior Zhuge Chengfeng has something to hide."

The little princess angrily said to Princess Chu Yue: "What can that old guy have to hide? He couldn't find a way to make a move, he didn't make a move too late, but he made a move at the most critical moment. In addition to what you just said, he has been... Follow me. Now I feel more and more that he deliberately wants to see me make a fool of myself. It really makes me angry. I must talk to him properly when I go back. I want to expose his lie. He did the same to me at the beginning. Yes, I asked why it was so late to take action. He made a similar excuse like you. She said that she had just arrived. I asked why the old guy smiled so happily when he took action. It turned out to be because he saw me making a fool of myself. I'm addicted to watching it"

"Okay, okay! You little clever guy, don't be too naughty. Don't blame Senior Zhuge Chengfeng. Maybe Senior Zhuge Chengfeng also wants you to practice. After all, you have learned more skills than you can say more. , you are sparring in the palace every day, but you don't know that those sparring partners are for you. You have to go outside and experience the strong winds and waves, so that you can know whether what you have learned is powerful or not. After working with the third prince After the battle with others, you should be more confident in your abilities, right? You should also be more confident in your own abilities. Isn't this the benefit you get from fighting alone? You should not think so one-sided about anything. After all, as your master, Senior Zhuge Chengfeng, of course, what is the matter? They will all think about you"

"Sister, why do you always turn to that old guy? You don't love me at all. Sister, you have changed, woo woo woo....." After hearing what Princess Chu Yue said, the little princess began to act coquettishly again. She felt that her sister suddenly became no longer towards her. Before, Princess Chu Yue was obviously obedient to her, but now she has always been Helped her master to speak, but the little princess was still persuaded by her sister, because after fighting with the third prince, the little princess did become more confident in her own abilities. She had no confidence in herself before, but the little princess The princess has always refused to admit defeat, so the little princess can only pretend to be unconvinced.

Princess Chu Yue said to the little princess: "Okay, okay! Don't be too naughty. By the way, sister, have you felt any discomfort in the past two days?"

"Uncomfortable place? That's not the case, I just feel a little bit warm in my body, but I haven't found anything unusual so far."

Princess Chu Yue said to the little princess seriously: "When I was reading an ancient book before, I happened to see it said in the book that those Shanxian herbs that are conceived by the aura of heaven and earth are good for ordinary people like us. For people, it is indeed something that can be encountered but cannot be sought. After taking it, our cultivation level can indeed be greatly improved, but they have a very big shortcoming, that is, after taking it, our upper limit will be significantly increased. limit."

Because what Princess Chu Yue said was a bit professional, the little princess who didn't like reading was a little confused. So the little princess asked Princess Chu Yue: "Sister, what did you just say? I can't understand a word." , will there be any drawbacks to taking Tiancai Dibao? Aren't those things supposed to be very good things?"

So, Princess Chu Yue began to explain slowly: "Eating those things can indeed make a person's cultivation level rise by more than one level, but after he rises to a certain level, the person who takes Tiancai Dibao will be able to It is very difficult for people to make progress in subsequent cultivation, which means that it is very easy for people to encounter bottlenecks in their cultivation in the future, especially those who have reached the ultimate level of cultivation. After taking the treasures of heaven, materials and earth, the obstacles will become more obvious. Basically, there will be no Progress is possible."

The little princess looked serious, because when she took Lieyan Huolian, she didn't know these bad consequences at all: "Huh? Is there such a thing? Why is this?"

"These genius treasures, which grow with the spiritual energy of heaven and earth, themselves contain huge spiritual power. After you take them, their spiritual power will begin to conflict with your own spiritual power, and it will also produce a kind of suppression of your own spiritual power. This will be a bottleneck that you will never be able to break through in your lifetime."

"ah! It's over. This kind of thing still happens. What should I do? what to do? No wonder I started to feel hot all over my body after taking the medicinal herbs two days ago. Lin Li, who was trying to make a fuss, has not completely melted away in me. What should I do now? elder sister."

Princess Chu Yue said: "Don't be anxious now. Fortunately, you have not taken too much jelly grass. Moreover, the main function of Lieyanhuolian is not to help cultivators improve their skills. Its main function is to help others. Cultivating one's character, extending one's lifespan, and improving one's skills are only its secondary functions. Now the spiritual power in your body is still guided by your own interests. After you go back, I will help you turn the medicinal power of Lieyan Huolian into your own skills. This way It shouldn't be anything serious."

The little princess's heart suddenly relaxed, and she immediately cheered: "It's really a near miss. I'm so lucky. In this way, my skills can not only step to a new level. , and it will not affect my future cultivation. Sure enough, God still loves me." Then, the little princess said to her sister Chu Yue: "In that case, the Fiery Fire Lotus is still here with me. Sister, please pay a little bit! I think my master will be back soon, and I will ask him to help us resolve the power of the Flame Lotus."

Princess Chu Yue said to the little princess with a smile: "You are the smartest in the whole Chu Kingdom. You will have opportunistic skills no matter what happens, but you have to remember that many things do not depend on time, nor on your own skills. At such a high level, do you know that some people have reached a very high level in cultivation, but they will still be defeated by people who are not as good as themselves in cultivation?"

The little princess was a little puzzled and asked her sister: "Will such a thing happen again? Shouldn't it be very simple for people with higher skills to beat people with lower skills than themselves?"

"What you know now is really too little. You don't know that some things must be experienced by yourself. For example, a person has a very high labor rate, but he relies on herbs to lift these things. In some special circumstances, he will not know how to resolve it, because he has never encountered such a situation before. Of course, his combat experience will be very little. Compared with those who rely on themselves to practice step by step, they are certainly far inferior. La, those who rely on their own cultivation to improve will experience things that others cannot experience during the cultivation process, and will learn some ways to deal with emergencies. Only the strength gained in this way, tea is what cultivators like us pursue of pure power."

Ouyang Zhengxiong has been listening to what the two sisters said. After hearing this, Ouyang Zhengxiong also nodded. He felt that what Princess Chu Yue said was really right, because it happened to be in line with the views held by Ouyang Zhengxiong's father. Exactly the same.
