Chapter 2091

Although they faced the powerful monsters from these three families, because these brothers had been on the battlefield for a long time and had rich experience, they quickly calmed down! They have also fought powerful second-level monsters before. After the formation was settled, they dispersed directly towards the favorable terrain!

Although the deputy captain was nearly fifty years old, he was more agile than the others and actually took the lead in launching the attack. He waved his palm, and the gleaming blades flew directly towards the monster. After the reincarnation ended, the photos condensed together, and a huge long knife was born! Cut directly to the head of the third-level monster.

Because of his huge body and large inertia, King Rehu became so big that he hit him instantly! But King Tiger didn't panic at all, it was so big that it had no harmful effect on his tough fur! But Tiger King was angered by that sword, and he let out a loud roar! She didn't expect that someone would dare to attack him! The deputy head of the family used magic elements again, condensed them into magic bullets, and shot towards the Tiger King. But the monster just lowered its head and dodged the magic attack! After hiding, he raised his head high, as if to express his disdain!

Everyone couldn't believe it. He rubbed his eyes and finally confirmed that the Tiger King indeed showed a look of disdain.

As for the little princess, he stood far away from the battlefield and watched! Even standing on tiptoes from time to time to watch!

He was also surprised by the tiger's disdain and thought to himself: "That's what, this Fire King has become a spirit! He can actually show human emotions. But, it's so cute, hahaha!"

Ouyang Zhengxiong had a look on his face Speechless! He directly picked up his clothes from his back with one hand and stepped back! Take her away from danger

"You scum, let me go, I want to watch the fun," he said while waving his hands and feet! He was lifted in the air by Ouyang Zhengxiong with one hand, just like lifting a little mouse!

Then, the Tiger King roared again , at this moment, the beasts lying on the ground trembled! They stood up one after another and opened a path in an orderly manner! They stood on both sides and opened a way for the Tiger King.

This scene was watched by Ouyang Zhengxiong When he arrived, he was also amazed and couldn't help but said:"It's so strange that the Tiger King is so humane."

The relationship on the battlefield at this time was relatively subtle. At this time, the Tiger King and the regiment commander, deputy commander, Guan Haosan People formed an absolute opposition, and both sides were ready to attack at any time. However, other mercenaries were scattered in all directions, surrounding them in a circle. However, Baise was not far away because he was afraid of the Tiger King's authority. Trembling, she never dared to come over!

Another round of attacks began, and there was another roar from the Tiger King. However, this time it was different. A bolt of lightning shot out from her open mouth. A powerful arc of electricity was in the air. There was a crackling sound, and he struck at the magician flying in the air.

The magician chanted spells repeatedly, and right in front of him, the ground in front of him began to slowly rise. However, just as lightning struck him At that moment, in front of him, a side of earth escape instantly solidified!

Seeing this, the leader also chanted a spell instantly, and in front of the magician in the air, a side of water escape condensed. He was worried that the earth escape could not stop him. The tiger's thunder and lightning attack.

At the same time, strong lightning instantly penetrated the earth escape, instantly disintegrating the earth escape in front of him into pieces of earth. As expected, today it reached the water stew, and after a burst of electric sparks flashed , the water escape also disintegrated. Waves of water mist formed, falling over a large area!

But the magician was still rolled aside because of the lightning. The beast's arc attack was too strong, even after passing through the earth escape He Shui Dun's cover still excited her body! With his scream, her long hair that was scattered around her body also became like a tree, and her body was darkened for a while due to lightning! In fact, , if it weren't for the earth escape and water escape, he might be even worse! The attack power of the third-level monster is actually so easy to block! It is possible to die instantly after being hit!

After a long time, the magician slowly The ground crawled out of the ground! At this moment, all the people in the mercenary group had already taken action, shooting bows and arrows at the monster like raindrops. He was so thin, and although he was huge, his movements were very flexible. , just like a rabbit on the ground! He jumped up and jumped out of the circle of people in a few rounds. Then his slender tail whipped towards the mercenaries on the periphery with the force of sweeping thousands of armies. The mercenaries who were drawn They couldn't get up from the ground. Even five mercenaries were whipped by the tiger king's tail like a steel whip and died on the spot! Others were so frightened that some even dropped their weapons and walked far away. He ran away!

After seeing this, the regiment leader hurriedly urged the earth dragon to rush towards him. Guan Hao followed closely, ready to fight the monster again at any time.

The white fur of the King of Stocks is already gorgeous, and it shines even more under the sunlight. Her snow-white body made her look extremely powerful, and she didn't panic at all when faced with a dragon and two people rushing towards her! As if he was ready to fight them at any time, his eyes flashed fiercely, and he opened his fangs, looking like he was fine and ready to charge forward.

The regiment leader drove the earth dragon and rushed towards him. He held the Dragon Slaying Palace gun in his hand and aimed it at the tiger's throat. At the same time, Guan Hao was also ready. He waved the big sword in his hand with all his strength and slashed towards the Tiger King's first branch.

The Tiger King roared again and he jumped up! Just dodge the attacks from these two people! However, this month, he rushed directly towards the earth dragon. In fact, the earth dragon was taller and more powerful than the Tiger King. However, he shrank when facing him, as if he was his subordinate!

When the leader saw this, he blew the earth dragon directly to make him dodge. In her confinement, it was already too late in an instant! He simply flew away, jumped out from the earth dragon and ran quickly into the distance. Only then did he escape the attack from the monster.

The man's Earth Dragon was not so lucky. The three-foot-long Tiger King actually knocked down the five-foot-long Earth Dragon with one palm. So thin, he stepped on the Earth Dragon with one foot, opened its bloody mouth, and bit directly at the Earth Dragon's neck. The Earth Dragon hurriedly dodged after seeing this, but still could not escape the Tiger King's mouth. The tiger king bit his neck directly, and blood spurted out!

The regiment leader was heartbroken after seeing it. He roared and rushed forward with the Dragon Slaying Palace Spear. The sharp spear head pierced directly into the tiger's belly. A bloody arrow shot out. Guan Hao also waved at this time. The big sword slashed at him, and the sword hit the tiger's back hard. The bright red blood flowed down directly along the tiger king's shiny fur.

These two attacks made the Tiger King scream in pain and let go of the Earth Dragon.

Earth Dragon, who was lying in the blood, immediately seized this opportunity, turned around and climbed up. Perhaps after suffering so much, he hated the Tiger King so much that he seemed to have forgotten the pain. He actually hit the monster fiercely. past.

With a bang, the monster was knocked over by him. When the people of the mercenary group saw this, they rushed towards him. They greeted her with swords, guns, swords, halberds and sticks. In the blink of an eye, she was already He was beaten to a bloody pulp. At this moment, he opened his mouth and spit out a piece of flame! The mercenaries were in great pain from the flames and quickly retreated. After seeing this, the monster got up and rushed towards the people in the mercenary group. Three of them were actually killed by the monster that rushed towards them later. , was torn apart, the scene was too horrible to watch. Blood stained most of the road!

Now when everyone is in danger, the deputy captain who was struck by lightning has recovered. She recited a long string of spells, and magic elements gathered around her crazily. She waved the magic wand in her hand slightly. , there were bursts of snowflakes blowing between the sky and the earth, which actually made everyone feel a chill in this hot summer.

A large number of magical elements suddenly appeared in front of the arrogant monster. At the same time, a thick layer of ice appeared around his body. As time went by, the layer of ice became thicker and thicker. The thicker it became, and in the end, King Tiger was completely frozen inside!

Everyone cheered, but before they cheered for long, they heard the sound of ice cubes breaking!

Cracks extended from the top to the bottom of the ice. Finally, with a bang, the entire ice shattered. It shook the ice on its body and glared at the people in front of it. The Tiger King appeared again. In front of people, but at this moment, he was really sluggish, completely gone. The heroic spirit he had at the beginning, the regiment leader, deputy captain and Guan Hao launched a fierce attack again. After the deputy captain chanted the spell, one shot The ice-breaking spear appeared in front of her, and then rushed towards the tiger like lightning! It stabbed him in the chest accurately! Guan Hao and the regiment leader respectively directed their swords and dragon-slaying hall spears at the tiger. The Tiger King's body shook for a while, and blood spurted out from her body. Her body was covered in blood, and her shiny white fur was deeply covered with blood.

At this time, the leader's earth dragon was no longer afraid of the tiger, and rushed towards him crazily. The huge dragon body knocked the tiger down at once, and the leader and Guan Hao just fell aside lightly. When the Earth Dragon was about to charge towards the monster again, the Tiger King suddenly stood up unsteadily and let out a thunderous roar. The Earth Dragon was so frightened that it stopped in its tracks! I don't dare to continue running forward! Guan Hao, the captain and the deputy captain were also frightened by me. The three of them and an earth dragon gathered together to see the tiger, and their bodies actually changed.

The tiger's body underwent huge changes. Starting from the tiger's abdomen, suddenly, a pair of double thorns and a pair of white wings slowly grew. If in the normal tense, compared with the white tiger, If so, the wings that were born definitely added a bit of fierceness to her appearance, but now, what about now? The bloody body formed a sharp contrast with the white wings. People who couldn't see it would think that the wings were forcibly inserted on both sides of the body. But this is exactly how angry the monster can be. And not only that, his tongue actually grew a horn that was about half a foot long and as white as jade, and it was even sharper than white ivory!

This change in her body really surprised everyone. Everyone present looked at him in shock! They thought to themselves, was that just his normal form just now? Could it be that now is her true form? A mutated version of the Evil-Eyed Tiger King!

After Ouyang Zhengxiong saw it, he was shocked. Only then did he realize that this was the real fighting form of the monster. It was just his fur. If he showed this form before the battle, I'm afraid Everyone's damage may not be able to hurt it. It is no exaggeration to say that this is hitting an egg with a stone, using a mantis' arm as a chariot! The earth dragon didn't dare to step forward anymore after seeing his changed form! His body even trembled slightly!

It's the little princess again. She showed a look of surprise and whispered:"Wow, this tiger king is so beautiful. His mentality now is much more vigorous and mighty than before. I really want him to..." He has become my mount! In this case, I won't be afraid of that bastard Ouyang Zhengxiong. Who else dares to kidnap me? Bully me."

Everyone present looked at the little princess speechlessly. This little girl's head It's really different from us, everyone is thinking about how to deal with her! But he was thinking about how to make her his mount! Has she never experienced an attack from a monster? Or does she want to try it on the battlefield?

Forget it, he is not the focus, how to deal with this monster is the real thing. Then, I heard the leader yell:"Don't panic, don't panic, and don't be too scared. At this moment, , it is too late for him to transform, because his body has been seriously injured. If we continue to attack, it is estimated that he will not be able to hold on within a quarter of an hour, and she has already been seriously injured and regenerated. Let's work together Go!"

Guan Hao also echoed and said: "Yes, the leader is right, don't panic, everyone, work together, we will be able to defeat it."

After saying that, he and the leader took the lead in rushing towards the monster! Seeing this situation, everyone calmed down, and then followed him and the group leader to rush forward together. However, Dilong shrank back, as if he was shocked by her posture. He was completely gone. At first Facing the momentum of that monster, I no longer dare to charge forward! He even retreated faintly.

The monster did not retreat after seeing this. He spread his wings and flew into the sky. It was probably because he knew that there were only a few magicians in the sky, so he had a better chance of winning when he flew into the air.! So he instantly flew high into the sky, and then kept roaring and roaring in the air. At this moment, another stream of lightning was sprayed out from his mouth. The lightning he sprayed out was in harmony with the condensed lightning in the sky. The lightning gathered together and then struck downwards in the air, not only that! After spitting out the lightning, you then spit out pieces of flames from his mouth. The flames were faster and hotter than before, and they drowned the people underground in an instant!

Lightning and flames are constantly flying in the air, and they are intertwined to produce greater power! Waves of wailing sounds came from the ground. Some were hit by the arc of lightning, some were even directly grilled by flames, and some were directly hit by both! In an instant, dozens of people fell to the ground injured, and some even died on the spot. A burning smell filled the air.

The place where they fought was far away from the merchants, with a large forest in between, so the students who stayed far away couldn't see what was happening on the battlefield! But through the forest, you can vaguely see the fire here, the lightning is dancing wildly, and you can even see the monster flying in the air! But when they saw the monster, everyone was shocked! My body couldn't help but tremble!

A few businessmen and tourists who were not afraid of death ran directly towards the center of the battlefield, wanting to see what the situation was like on the battlefield? But there are a few people who are not afraid of death, after they run there! Everyone stared blankly at their running figures! Then I saw that they never came back! Everyone knows that this is a disaster.

In fact, the tiger's body was already overloaded, because before that, the tiger had been seriously injured, and under everyone's bombardment, she looked even weaker, without the original aura that his monster had. , which formed a sharp contrast with the image of the beasts worshipping at the beginning, but when she stopped attacking! Dozens of people in the mercenary group have lost their lives!

Guan Hao was actually slightly injured, but it was no big deal to her. He picked up a spear from the ground and shot it in the direction of the tiger in the sky. With a bang, The spear stabbed his right wing accurately, and he felt a burst of pain at this time. He shook violently in the air and almost lost his balance and fell! Fortunately, she quickly adjusted her flying posture, and flew upwards in a dive! Back to where we were just now!

The monster was once again angered by his shot, and he began to frantically condense the surrounding magic elements. The magic elements coming from all directions gathered on its horns, forming a huge magic ball, and bursts of magic came from the air. The energy fluctuations are accumulating energy for that magic ball! Preparing to charge up a shot!

After seeing this, the deputy captain screamed:"Everyone, please pay attention, this is the energy of that monster. It is too huge. It is very likely that the tiger king is going to fight us desperately. Everyone disperses and flees the battlefield instantly. Otherwise, the best we can do is to die with him in the end, and that's even if we are prepared! Everyone, run away quickly."

After Ouyang Zhenxiong saw it, he kept thinking about whether he should take action, because he didn't want to at all. eventful! When she saw the weak look of the tiger at the beginning, she thought that they should be able to deal with this third-level monster. Now it seems that they may not be able to hold on, so now they see that the people in the mercenary group can no longer resist it. She was stunned, and he had to take action, because she was worried that once the mercenary group was wiped out, it was very likely that the other side would turn around and deal with them, businessmen and travelers! In that case, I still have to take action, so if I can take action earlier, then I will take action.

So he flew forward quickly. After the little princess was strong, he shouted quickly. He thought the little princess was worried about her own safety and didn't want to take risks! But after hearing what the little princess said, he turned black on the spot and said,"Hey, you stinky bastard, I can't help you if you want to die, but before you die, please quickly release the restrictions on me! I can I don't want to die at a young age"

"Shut your crow mouth, who told you that I was going to die? Stay here and don't move. I'll go and take care of that monster."

"Humph, you are the only one who has dealt with that monster. I curse you to never come back and be killed by that monster in one blow! I curse you to die on the spot"

"Humph, you actually dare to curse me like this, then just wait for the Hidden Dragon Finger to attack! Experience that wonderful feeling again! I won't help you untie it next time." After Ouyang Zhengxiong finished speaking, he flew towards the deputy commander without looking back.

The deputy commander was shocked when he saw her, and hurriedly said to Ouyang Zhengxiong: "You Why are you here? Go back quickly, it's very dangerous here. I have no time to care about your safety here. You should leave quickly. It will be bad when the monster hurts you."

Ouyang Zhengxiong said to him: "It doesn't matter, Captain. Is there any way you can send me up there? Send me to her, I'm 100% sure that I can kill that monster safely," Ouyang Zhengxiong said, then he raised his hand, and a golden sword energy appeared in his hand.

Deputy Commander The commander immediately woke up after seeing this. Is this young man in front of him a master? If he can kill that monster, he can walk this road alone and does not need our protection at all! He really Is that okay? He hesitated for a while and thought there was no other way but to let this young man try it, so he said to him: "Young man, be careful then. Can you do it alone?" How about I go up with you?"

Ouyang Zhenxiong said to him, "It doesn't matter, deputy captain. I can do it by myself. It will definitely work. Don't hesitate any more. If you wait until it has gathered enough magic energy, , more people will die by then, especially your mercenary group, which is very likely to be wiped out. You and I and everyone else may die." The deputy commander no longer hesitated and said to him Said: "Young man, well, thank you very much. If we can kill that monster, we will return all the gold coins you gave us to you!" I hope you can really kill that monster and allow us to survive here." After saying that, he urgently recited a series of spells, and suddenly, endless wind elements quickly condensed around Ouyang Zhenxing. Successfully, the deputy captain waved the magic wand lightly, and Ouyang Zhenxiong was swept up by a strong wind, and he actually rushed towards the monster with one head!

The monster was concentrating on condensing magic elements in the air. He rolled his eyes and noticed that the uninvited guest rising quickly from the ground was none other than Ouyang Zhenxiong. At the same time that the monster discovered him, Ouyang Zhenxiong had already been captured. Teleported to a place less than three times away from him!

Just when he was about to open his mouth and spit out the flames again, Ouyang Zhenxiong took action first. He quickly threw the spear he had prepared before coming up at the monster. Just like Ouyang Zhengxiong's body, it was emitting golden light, and it pierced directly into the neck of the monster.

The stabbed Tiger King let out a miserable howl. He kept tumbling in the air, waving his two claws, trying to pull out the spear. At this time, he stepped on the blood on his neck. , sprayed out quickly, and a large rain of blood appeared in the air, swaying down.

The deputy leader seized the opportunity and waved the magic wand in his hand again, sending Ouyang Zhengxiong directly to the back of the monster.

The Tiger King who was shot was even worse. He had already collapsed before, but now he was directly hit by Ouyang Zhenxiao's opinion. He had gradually lost his balance in the air and kept shaking. He wanted to put it on his back. Ouyang Zhengxiong was thrown off, but Ouyang Zhengxiong urgently grabbed his fur and pushed his feet tightly on the back of the monster to keep his body balanced.

Gradually, the tiger king regained his balance, but at this moment, his injuries had seriously worsened! Because Ouyang Zhixiong's Zhiyun Yangtze River directly threatened his life, and Ouyang Zhenxiong was on his back, he was right next to him. He was worried that this person on his back might end his life, so he had decided not to carry Ouyang Zhenxiong on his back. He went to establish his prestige before, but now he just wanted to escape, so he flew away quickly!

Ouyang Zhenxiong panicked at this time. He quickly climbed onto the tiger's neck and stabilized his feet again to keep himself balanced. After he stood firm, he waved his fists as big as stones, Hit him hard on the head. There was a banging sound, and the Tiger King's body shook violently again. He could no longer maintain his balance, because now it was not only his head that was attacked, but his other foot was kicking the same thing just now. The pain caused by the long spear became even more severe! Now he is falling rapidly to the ground!

After Ouyang Zhengxiong saw this, he didn't dare to hit him anymore, and he didn't dare to kick her wounds anymore. It was not because he pitied him, but because the Tiger King was very weak at this moment. If he blew the sword energy at this moment, , this can kill him effortlessly, but she is worried that if this happens, she will be shattered to pieces due to falling from a high altitude. At this moment, he is falling rapidly, and there are waves of noise in her ears. The whistling wind made him feel nervous!

When it was less than ten feet away from the ground, the tiger king stabilized its figure again, and its shaking body also became stable, so it quickly stopped falling, but at this moment, between his ears and nose Blood has been deeply overflowing again and again, and his strong body is also shaking constantly, and the muscles on his body are also twitching slightly. The heavy injuries again and again have made her body extremely weak again!

When the monster had just stabilized, Ouyang Zhenxiong waved his fist again and hit him on the head. The monster kept roaring and suddenly shook its body violently. In fact, he was furious. He was so aroused that he could no longer care about it. He could no longer keep his body in a falling position. He swung his tail victoriously in the air, tumbling like a river, and tumbling crazily. He wanted to throw Ouyang Zhenxiong off his head. , because this person above her really annoys her!

When the businessmen and travelers in the distance saw the fierce fight in the air at this moment, they were all horrified. Some were so frightened that they got directly into the carriage, and some were even so frightened that they collapsed on the ground! Some were so frightened that they fainted!

The few mercenaries left on the ground were all frightened. Everyone held their breath and stared at the battlefield in the sky. He was worried that Ouyang Zhenxiong would really be thrown off by him, and they all secretly worked for Ouyang. Zhengxiong broke into a cold sweat!!

At this moment, another untimely voice came out. Yes, it was the little princess again. He made a voice alone: "Tiger King, come on, come on, harder... use a little harder, it's just a little bit closer , spin it again, and you can throw that bad guy off! But Tiger King, don't use too much force! You can't kill it by throwing it to death. You can throw it to half to death. It's okay to be half disabled. , I still have to ask her to help me remove that finger-breaking technique."

A few mercenaries who were further away from him gave him a strange look, but in the end, they received a white eye from the little princess and a cold snort. There was a sound.

Ouyang Zhenxiong rode on the Tiger King's neck. His feet no longer kicked his wounds, but clamped tightly around his neck. He gripped its fur with both hands, for fear of accidentally kicking him from the back. fall down! Just when the Tiger King swooped down, she looked up and looked down. The figure slumped on the ground was getting bigger and bigger. He began to panic in his heart, and began to secretly regret that he was too eager for success. , thus irritating the monster all of a sudden!

But in the process of falling, when Huang was still six or seven feet above the ground, they said he stopped tumbling in the air, and his retracted wings spread out again, and the spread wings stopped the falling momentum. It turned out that the Tiger King was also worried that if he fell from such a high altitude, he would be shattered into pieces.

Ouyang Zhengxiong let out a breath of fear, because at this time, he was so frightened that he broke out in a cold sweat. What if he was really thrown directly from the sky by the Tiger King! It's possible he actually died on the spot. In that case, the gain is really not worth the loss.

Then they were already seriously injured at that time, and now after Ouyang Zhenxiong's operation on him, he was already exhausted, and now he staggered to the ground, feeling falling. It's like being too tired to get up when you're on the ground.

The fight between Ouyang Zhengxiong and this monster is extremely thrilling to watch! Because everyone present knew that he might fall from the sky at any time. As long as the tiger king was willing, he and Ouyang Zhenxiong could die together, smashed to pieces, and the fish would die. Seeing these scenes, the people on the ground were trembling with fear and their blood was boiling! I wanted to break up, but he looked at me soberly, as if he was watching a show! What's even more irritating is that he even cheers for that monster from time to time, which makes everyone look at her speechless!

When the tiger king staggered to the ground, Ouyang Zhenxiong punched the tiger king hard on the head, then kicked him hard on the tiger's back with both feet, and then directly hit him from above. Ouyang Zhenxiong jumped down, and Ouyang Zhenxiong's hanging heart finally relaxed. In this case, he no longer worried that the Tiger King would cause such extensive harm to him! Because once they reach the ground, it is their home court, not to mention that the tiger king is still seriously injured!

What the hell are you talking about? The moment he fell from the sky, he let out an unwilling roar. He did not expect that he, who was supposed to be infinitely famous, had been promoted from the second level to the third level monster. He should be affected by the beasts in the forest. Pilgrimage! But now? It fell weakly from the air and collapsed on the ground with a bang, surrounded by a large amount of bushes!

Seeing this situation, the mercenaries on the ground couldn't help but raise their weapons! They shouted in unison and attacked the fallen monster crazily, because they knew this was an opportunity! If they wait until that monster wakes up, it will most likely be their turn to be unlucky again.

The businessmen and travelers in the distance saw Ouyang Zhenxing shooting down the powerful monster in the sky. They couldn't help but sigh. At the same time, they shouted for Ouyang Zhenxiong's courage and ability. After a tense moment! Everyone fell to the ground weakly, because they were really frightened by the scene before! I have never seen such a scene in my life.

The set of monsters just now thundered in the air, with rounds of lightning and puffs of flames. These caused heavy casualties to the people in the mercenary group. Some people had been killed by him, dead and injured. At this time, the survivors were already filled with anger. With a revengeful mentality, they attacked the monster crazily. In the blink of an eye, the monster that could not be seriously injured was already dying! Blood dyed a large area of land red, and waves of dazzling dances were flying around him! The horn that grew out of his head and the pair of wings that stretched out have retracted due to insufficient energy from the Tiger King! He has returned to his most primitive form!!

The beasts that were originally crawling saw that the monster was dying, as if it was about to die. They roared and hissed for a long time... In the end, they all became confused and fled in all directions. They dispersed in a flurry, with waves of fishy wind blowing, and the ground trembled because of the escape of the beasts! Even the injured earth dragon was not far behind. He was originally frightened by the mutated monster, but now he saw that monster had fallen to the ground, looking like he was about to die! He actually rushed forward and stepped on the monster one by one!

So thin, he can still withstand the trampling of the earth dragon, but he has no strength to resist! I can only admit that the earth dragon slaughtered me! It seems like you can't even feel the pain.

At this moment, the little princess who was on the third floor next to the passengers suddenly ran towards the battlefield ahead. She ran directly behind the mercenaries and shouted to them: "Stop it, hurry up. Stop, he is almost dead, you are still beating him, you are a bunch of evil people."

All the mercenaries on the scene were stunned. Everyone stopped moving forward, came back to their senses, and looked at the little girl. Among them Many mercenaries looked at him angrily. One mercenary had an angry look on his face and said loudly to her: "What are you doing? Didn't you see how much harm he did to our brothers? He killed us." You have killed so many of our mercenary brothers, do you know what you are talking about? You actually asked us to stop! Ask those dead brothers, do they agree? Maybe those mercenaries are nothing to you? What about us? , those are the brothers who live with us day and night! More than twenty lives, not lives! None of them were raised by their biological parents, and they all lost their lives because of the attack of this monster," Ouyang Zhenxiong saw this After the scene, he hurriedly ran over and said to everyone with an apologetic expression: "What do you mean, everyone continue, everyone continue, this little girl has something wrong with her mind, please ignore him, he is a typical little confused, he is doing Just mind your own business and ignore him." After saying that, he took the little princess and left!

The little princess didn't appreciate it. She broke away from him and said loudly: "These bastards are the ones with the problem. Let me go! Let me finish my words. Otherwise, I'll make a deal with you. You don't want to How about killing this beast and I can compensate you for all your losses?"

"Compensation is up to you. What compensation do you want? That is more than 20 living lives! How can you accompany me, and what compensation can you give me?" A mercenary brother shouted to him, with bursts of anger on his face!

The little princess looked at the corpses on the ground, then turned around and said to the man: "People cannot be resurrected, so please show your condolences, so be it! I can give some compensation to the dead brothers and their families..."

No one present paid attention to the little princess. No matter how much the little girl shouted, no one stopped, because no one believed that he would be responsible for what he said, and no one believed that he would be responsible for what he said. People thought he could do what he said! So everyone attacked the beast crazily. The mercenaries didn't stop until the Tiger King stopped moving at all. At this time, the Tiger King's whole body was cold with blood. It was blurry, and the blood was everywhere. The scene at this time was shocking. It fell to the ground, motionless. Some of the wounds all over his body had even exposed bones! It really made people look pitiful. But I thought Looking at the harm he caused to the mercenaries, no one sympathized with her, except for the little girl who seemed to be the leader!

The little princess looked at the Tiger King lying in a pool of blood, and was really angry and anxious, but she had no ability. There was no way. He could only worry and pray in his heart that the tiger was not dead! If possible, it would be better if it could be rescued. But that was impossible. It was too late for everyone to kill him. Why? Will save it.

After Ouyang Zhenxiong saw the little princess's expression, he shook his head and said to the little princess: "I remember that time, you, the evil little witch, tortured me in all kinds of ways and made me miserable. , and now you are showing random sympathy towards a ferocious beast. Are you mistaken? , you are simply an unreasonable little devil! Can't you sympathize with me? I'm also injured."

After hearing what he said, the little princess said to him angrily: "I want you to take care of it, huh, for me, Tiger King is much better than you, a thousand times better than you, you are the world. The most shameless, vile, despicable bastard in the world, one day I will kill you, one day I will cut you into pieces"

"Look, look, look, did you feel sympathy for that ferocious monster just now? This time you cursed me again. What do you think? Am I worse than that evil beast?" Ouyang Zhenxiong shook his head helplessly.

"Humph, you have to worry about it. Anyway, that Tiger King is better than you, much better than you! Stop them quickly and don't kill him. I know you have the ability!" The little princess looked at her and said, Yang Zhenxiong.

At this moment, someone took a knife and walked towards the tiger king's chest. Are you ready to use it? The knife opened the tiger's abdomen and took out the magic crystal core in her body. , because this third-level Tiger King magic crystal core is absolutely precious, the little princess immediately became anxious after seeing it: "You are not allowed to kill him, he was not shot down by you, why do you take away his magic crystal core? You are really going too far."

After hearing what the little princess said, the group leader walked towards Ouyang Zhengxiong and said to him kindly: "What do you call this brother? He is so skilled."

Ouyang Zhenxiong replied: "Captain, my surname is Ouyang."

Chapter 2098

"I didn't expect Brother Ouyang to be so capable. I couldn't see it before. We came in and took a quick look, but we actually had the ability to subdue this ferocious tiger king. In fact, your contribution in the war ranked first, which made many of us My brother was saved from his murderous hands, so the magic crystal core of this monster should belong to Brother Ouyang."

The leader also echoed and said: "You are sure that it should belong to Brother Ouyang! Although all of us were seriously injured, Brother Ouyang's injuries were not light either! And if he hadn't run forward with all his strength, this tiger king would never have been shot down!"

The leader said to everyone again: "This time, our mercenary group suffered heavy losses. Twelve of them were seriously injured, and twenty-three died unexpectedly. Everyone, please take a rest first, and we will share the brewing brothers later. Were they all buried? Erect a monument for them, well, some of our brothers know that they once existed, and at the same time send some gold coins to the families of those dead brothers, just think of it as our last bit of comfort to them!"

After everyone cleaned up the scene, the people in the mercenary group expressed their gratitude to Brother Ouyang one after another, and then walked towards the merchants and tourists. At the battle scene, only the little princess Ouyang Zhenxiong was left. and Guan Hao.

Guan Hao scratched his head in embarrassment and said, "I didn't expect Brother Ouyang's martial arts to be so good! It's really hidden! Brother Ouyang, the gambler must be much taller than me, right? But why do you need a bodyguard? Ouyang

Zhenxiong said to him: "Actually, I know martial arts, and I don't want to show it in front of others. It would be a crime to possess a jade. What's more, if I follow you, everyone is like this. I won't be afraid of any thieves. If I am alone If I face them, I may not be sure that I can take them all down, so it is safer to follow you."

"It makes sense." Guan Hao nodded.

Ouyang Zhenxiong looked at Guan Hao and continued: "Big Beard, do you want to return the 100 gold coins to me? Since you plan to return it to me, I'm sorry to accept it." After saying that, he stretched out his hand in the direction of Guan Hao.

"Oops, the weather is nice today, the wind is sunny and cloudless, the sky is blue and spotless." Guan Hao wanted to change the topic because he didn't want to return the 100 gold coins.

The little princess said impatiently to Guan Hao: "You damn rat, what do you want to say?"

"Ah, I... kind of, can I discuss something with you? Can you give me all the things you don't want? For example, tiger skin, tiger whip, and tiger head bones! Anyway, you don't want it, so why don't you give it to me? It's a waste to throw it away. If you can make the best use of it, that would be the best." He happened to say to him in embarrassment again.

The little princess in the distance heard what he said. , couldn't bear it any longer, and suddenly jumped on Guan Hao, kicked and hit her and said: "You, a perverted fat man who is obsessed with money, still want everything? Tell you, don't think about it, I won't give you anything, go away, go away."

After seeing this, the bearded Guan Hao ran away in a hurry. He found that he couldn't afford to offend this little princess, she was too difficult to deal with! And She had a bad temper.

Then when the little princess saw him running away, she turned to Ouyang Zhengxiong and said, "Can you let me stay with the tiger for a little longer? He is going to die anyway, give me a chance! Please," the little princess pretended to have an innocent expression and said to her sincerely.

Ouyang Zhengxiong nodded helplessly and said to him: "It's simply unreasonable. Sure enough, the devil and the devil are a family, and you actually I have developed feelings for a beast, and it is such a beast so far in advance. With you, a little witch, we are really like a family!" After that, Ouyang Zhengxiong disappeared into the forest.

The little princess watched Ouyang Zhengxiong disappear into the forest, and he felt relieved. He faced the tiger lying on the ground and said to himself: "No. Ah, this doesn't make sense! , my master, that stinky old man, said that growing monsters should have extremely strong vitality and should not die so quickly, but why is this guy so big? , It has grown so long, it shouldn't die so easily."

He stood up and wandered for a while. He walked around the monster again and again. She sighed softly: "Oh, it seems that he really He's dead. I wanted to save him, but it looks like he's dead." After saying that, she came down to the basement and whispered to the door. She stroked her spare white spot and said, "Little tiger. ah! Sorry, I can't save you, I don't have the ability! I asked them to stop hurting you, but they didn't listen! Now I only wish you to be reincarnated as a human being in your next life! This way you won't die an unexpected death."

When the little princess was about to turn around and leave, he suddenly heard a dull gasp! They looked in the direction of the tiger's head, and the little princess was really frightened! The yellow eyelids on his head twitched and then opened, and then the tiger skin on his body trembled.

"Ah, he came back to life, and he is indeed not dead. It seems that my old master didn't lie to me." But the little princess of Moment was a little scared, because he had seen the angry tiger king with his own eyes. If he jumped suddenly at Moment, If she got up and attacked him, she might be killed by him in one fell swoop! Thinking of this, he felt uneasy at the moment! He was on edge.

His voice was trembling, and he said to the Tiger King: "Little...little Tiger, don't be afraid, I don't mean any harm, I don't want to hurt you! I just want to talk to you, I thought you were going to die"

"Hahahaha, are you telling him not to be afraid, or are you comforting yourself? It's so funny that I'm laughing to death. Who is scared?" Ouyang Zhenxiong had already left, but he was really worried that the tiger king would suddenly wake up and attack the little princess. So it didn't go far. , then right here, she turned back, how come she happened to hear what he said to the tiger in the process! So she couldn't help but laugh.

"Humph, how could this princess be afraid of a little tiger? And you, a scumbag, why did you suddenly come back? Did I say that I could be alone with him for a while? How dare you lie to me?" In fact, when the little princess saw Ouyang Zhenxiong coming back, he was no longer afraid because he knew that with him around, the little tiger couldn't hurt him at all!

"Please, you little witch, this is a huge super beast, please don't put a small word in front of him, okay? This really undermines his prestige. I think, in front of him, why can't you fill her teeth with enough?"

"Huh, I want you to take care of it," the little princess said with her lips raised.

Ouyang Zhenxiong quickly walked to the fallen Tiger King and said to him: "I didn't expect it! I didn't expect your vitality to be so tenacious, that it didn't even kill you. You're already injured like this, but you still don't want to leave this world? After saying that , the little princess looked at him warily and said to her in horror: "You scum, what do you want to do?" Don't tell me that you want to kill him again, right?"

"yes! If such a powerful beast remains in the world, we don't know how many people will die because of it in the future."

"Absolutely not, I won't let you touch her, bad guy, stay away from him." The little princess suddenly lay down next to the beast and opened her big hands. In response, Ouyang Zhenxiong said. At this time, the Tiger King suddenly Staggeringly, she stood up. The blood in the sunken area was already more than half a foot deep. She looked at Ouyang Zhenxiong's eyes with fierce flashes, but with a hint of fear, because he also Worried that he would take action and kill him! When he looked at the little princess again, his eyes were softer and full of gentleness!

"Hey, what's going on? He's not hostile to me, silly tiger, you won't bite me, right? I'm saving your life! , you can't repay kindness with enmity." The little princess said to the human head monster.

What should I say? After hearing the little princess's words, she actually nodded. This behavior was so similar to that of a human being.

After seeing this situation, the little princess immediately cheered Get up, Ouyang Zhengxiong, look, my God, he can actually understand what I said! Did you see that? You are not allowed to kill him.

But after Ouyang Zhenxiong saw the monster standing up, she couldn't help but put her long sword was pulled out, and the sword's light shone coldly, and the murderous aura could be felt all around! After seeing this, the little princess glared at him, "I told you not to kill him. If you want to kill him, then you will." Get me!

Ouyang Zhenxiong asked the little princess: "What if he hurts someone else next time?" Will you be responsible? What are you responsible for?"

The little princess went and said: "No, he will never discuss it again in the future."

Ouyang Zhengxiong said: "You are not him, what guarantee can you give? Just by your mouth? Or can you make him listen to you?"

"It can understand my words. As long as I tell him, he will definitely not hurt others again." So the little princess turned to the tiger and said: "Little tiger, listen to me, don't hurt anyone again." Someone else, otherwise this fierce guy in front of you will kill you." The monster looked at the little princess, then at Ouyang Zhengxiong! Finally, he nodded.

The little princess said excitedly to Ouyang Zhengxiong: "You See what I said? He will definitely not hurt others again! You see he has already agreed, so you are not allowed to kill him now! Did you hear me?" After the little princess finished speaking, she waved her little fist at Ouyang Zhengxiong. Chapter 2100

The little princess immediately cheered and said to the tiger, touching his head from time to time: "Oh my God, you can actually understand what I'm saying? You are so amazing, it's unbelievable"

This scene now makes the little princess extremely happy. Surprised and praised: "It's so spiritual. It's more powerful than those dragons that join the dragon knights. Little tiger, if not, just follow me from now on. I promise to treat you well and never let you go." They hurt you! Okay?"

After Ouyang Zhenxiong heard what he said, he looked at him with disdain and said to her: "Save your energy! Think about it with your brain, a big guy like this, will he follow you obediently? Besides, his injury is so serious that even walking is a problem now, and the mercenaries will never let him go. How do you want to take him away? Want to be alone? Fight against the mercenary army?"

"I don't care, I won't let anyone else hurt her again, don't even think about it." The little princess stopped paying attention to him, and said with some distress: "What should I do? Little tiger, you are seriously injured and have difficulty moving, and you are so big now. How should I get you away? I can't leave you here."

At this moment, another strange thing happened. This thing shocked the little princess and Ouyang Zhengxiong's jaws. The one that grew out of the monster before On the wings, the single horn that grew out suddenly disappeared. And the size was also slowly reducing. The little tiger shrunk from a body of three feet long to only less than one foot long! At this moment, those things stuck in her The weapons on her body also fell off! The wounds in her body were also healing quickly! In just a while, he had recovered exactly the same as before, except that he was smaller and cuter than before. More, and not so scary and powerful anymore!

At the same time, the tiger king shook his body vigorously, and all the blood on his body was shaken off. There was no such horrible scene as before, and it appeared in What he saw in front of him was another small and cute little tiger with snow-white shiny fur!

Ouyang Zhengxiong said in amazement: "Humph, this is actually a demon tiger. It seems that he has learned some magic tricks. He is really smart and cute."

The little princess He also said in amazement: "It's simply incredible and unimaginable. He really knows some magic spells of change!"

Ouyang Zhengxiong pondered for a while. Although she had seen monsters before, she had heard from her father that there were many spiritual beasts in the East that could gather the vitality of heaven and earth and absorb the essence of the sun and moon. In this way, day after day, Absorbing the essence of the sun and the moon year after year, with the accumulation of time, these retails have gradually become psychic, and slowly figured out their own practice methods, and this method is the most suitable for him. For this reason, Many monsters have become extremely powerful, so in the eyes of the world, these monsters have slowly become monsters in the eyes of everyone. Those who are more powerful are called monsters! Monsters and monsters in the world Monsters have different abilities. Monsters are generally very large, and they can swallow clouds and mist, go up to the sky and into the earth, and are omnipotent. This monster is obviously more powerful than them. The legendary monsters can even directly transform. He is in human form and knows how to use magic. If he is not an ordinary top master, he cannot be compared with them. Even at the same level, ordinary people may not be able to defeat him.

His father once encountered a powerful monster. After a great battle, in the end, Ouyang Zhenxiong's father was able to beat the monster back to its original shape due to his superior force. After the battle, Ouyang Zhenxiong's father carefully recalled everything that had just happened.

Gradually, he seemed to understand something about the monster. and the mystery of the monster beast.

It turns out that the monster beast slowly changes its physique in the process of its own cultivation. It can slowly integrate its physique with the spiritual energy between heaven and earth. Therefore, the size of the general monster beast is They are extremely huge, the smallest ones are two or three feet long, and the larger monsters can even grow to seven or eight feet long! And their huge bodies are full of powerful energy! If one day , if Yasuo is seriously injured by an attack, or is about to die, his energy today will slowly dissipate! In this way, he will appear in his most primitive state, and his size will become that of an ordinary beast. The same size!

Monsters are much more powerful than monsters. They are already constantly pursuing quantitative changes in their bodies, while you are still striving for qualitative changes. The reason why biting hands can transform into human forms and even mutate is because they are also working hard to change themselves. The nature of the body, in order to better practice, the bodies of legendary people and some mythical beasts are the most suitable for cultivation, so when the time comes, either work hard to transform into human form, or work hard to evolve into a mythical beast!
