Chapter 581

The power of Gu Shaoyang's Five Elements Circulation sword was much greater than when he fought against Jiuying, and it directly sent Han Bao flying in the late stage of the God Lord Realm with one sword.

Hanba was in pain. It had never suffered such a big loss when it fought against Zhuang Ming and the other three.

Suddenly, ferocious anger surged up, and they roared: "Roar!"

The red-black demonic fire was so enchanting that it suddenly rose up, burning the void, and its demonic power was overwhelming.

Drought Demon was bathed in the demonic fire. The long-haired ape body jumped suddenly and flew quickly in front of Gu Shaoyang. The nails on the ten fingers of his hands were as sharp as knives, several feet long, and even the void was about to be cut.

"This guy is finished!"

Hu Xuandao, Zhuang Ming, who had stopped running away not far away, had this thought flashing through their minds at the same time.

"The long sword in this boy's hand is a royal weapon, and it is an extremely rare killing weapon, extremely extraordinary."

Hu Xuandao stared closely at the Seven-Star Longyuan in Gu Shaoyang's hand with fiery eyes. He licked his lips lightly and said, "It's a pity that I don't use a sword...."

The tone seems quite regretful

"In other words, the sword that this guy just killed Hanba mainly relied on the power of the king's soldiers?"

Zhuang Ming was thoughtful.

"That's natural. This little boy is only in the middle stage of True God Realm. Even if his combat power is extraordinary, he still can't hurt the god master's late stage Hanba...."

Long Lang lost his life in the battle just now, so his face is the ugliest now.

He stared closely at Gu Shaoyang's figure in the field and said:"The Drought Demon is a great evil in ancient times. In addition to the extremely fierce demonic fire that accompanies him, his body is also extremely powerful and can tear apart dragons and phoenixes.

The black dragon I transformed into has at least The True Dragon Clan in the God Lord Realm possesses 80% of its power and was torn into two pieces by it. This kid only has the strength of the middle stage of the True God. I am afraid that he will be crushed into a ball of meat by the Han Demon."

Hu Xuandao nodded slightly, his His eyes never left the Seven-Star Longyuan in Gu Shaoyang's hand, and the light in his eyes flashed, as if he was planning to go forward and fight for this royal sword as soon as Gu Shaoyang died.

Hu Xuandao and the others had determined that even if Gu Shaoyang had Wang Bing in his hands, once Han Bao got close to him, he would definitely be killed in a few rounds.

I saw the Han Demon flying towards Gu Shaoyang with the fierce flames in the sky. Its claws and fingers brought out a cold edge in the void, which was almost as powerful as the king's soldiers.

Gu Shaoyang's face was expressionless, his eyes cold and indifferent.

The long sword in his right hand suddenly retracted, and he punched Hanbao hard with his left hand.

"Is this kid crazy?!"

Hu Xuandao and the three of them all shook their heads, and the young man further away sighed repeatedly.

"I originally thought that this brother had great fighting ability and was confident, but I didn't expect that deep down he still wanted to seek death...."

Well, Wang Bing doesn't need it, he has to use his fists, hey..."

But the next moment, Hu Xuandao, the three of them and the young man in the distance all stared with eyes wide open, with extremely unbelievable looks on their faces.

"What?!"

"How can it be?!"

Several people exclaimed, with expressions as if they had seen a ghost.

The moment they saw Gu Shaoyang swinging his left fist, a dark sun rose from his fist. The dark sun swallowed up all the light. After staring at it for a long time, it seemed that even his soul would be destroyed. Absorb it in.

The nine-wheeled demonic sun annihilates the void. When the demonic flames on Drought Demon's hands are all swallowed up in the sun, it can't even cause any damage to Gu Shaoyang.

Then the fists and claws collide.

"boom!"

The nine-wheeled magic sun suddenly exploded.

Hu Xuandao and others felt that the ground under their feet and the void around them were shaken violently. The space was like a mirror, shattered to pieces.

Han Ba was in this terrifying wave. Under the force of the counter-shock, his body was pushed back like a cannonball.

Gu Shaoyang also groaned and took a few steps back in the void, with a few flowers of blood exploding from his body.

However, within a short time of being unable to breathe, all the injuries on his body recovered as before.

"Roar!"

Han Bao, who had been repulsed twice, became completely angry and rushed forward with a roar.

Gu Shaoyang did not dodge or dodge, but bullied him directly. The nine-round magic sun and the sword energy that split the sky rose from his body.

Two figures instantly appeared. fight together

"Well..."

Hu Xuandao and the other three were stunned.

"It's too scary. Is this person really in the middle stage of True God Realm?!"

"The three of us couldn't suppress Hanbao even if we worked together, but he did it on his own!"

"This physical strength is too terrifying!"

"He must be a super monster at the top of the list of true gods."

Hu Xuan, Dao, Zhuang Ming, and the others looked at each other with fear and fear.

As for the young man in the late stage of True God Realm further away, his mouth was wide enough to fit a duck egg in, his expression was dull, and he was completely stupid.

Why are you seeking death? It is obvious that Gu Shaoyang is too strong. Even if he sees the monstrous power of the Han Demon, he is absolutely sure to fight against it.

He is like a frog in a well who does not know how big the sun and the moon are, and a sparrow on a branch who does not know how high the Kunpeng is.

Gu Shaoyang and the Han Demon have been fighting fiercely for a while, and gradually, Weaker than downwind

"Extract attributes!"

"Extract attributes!"

Han Bao's physical body is extremely powerful. If Gu Shaoyang hadn't been able to continuously extract attributes and possess the powerful self-healing ability of the Life Fetus Gate, he would have vomited blood and retreated after just a few encounters. However, despite this, he was still slowly at a disadvantage, getting more and more difficult

"This ancient ferocious beast has terrifying bloodline potential. It becomes more ferocious as it fights. It is comparable to the son of a top genius. If it continues, its strength may be forced to increase even more outrageously...."

Gu Shaoyang's eyes flashed with light, and he had already made a decision in his heart.

Hu Xuandao and the other three gradually noticed something was wrong.

"Although this man's combat power is ridiculously strong, his cultivation level is too different from Hanba's, and he has little strength."

Hu Xuandao 697 spoke in a deep voice.

Zhuang Ming and Long Lang also nodded and said, "It won't be long before he will have to retreat."
Hu

Xuandao's eyes flashed and he suggested: "Actually, if the four of us work together, we should be able to deal with this drought demon steadily.".."

"Should we wait for this person to retreat and then discuss it with him?"

"That's what I meant."

Hu Xuandao and the other three made up their minds, and when Gu Shaoyang couldn't support him anymore, they contacted him to discuss joining forces.

Sure enough, when faced with the fierce and powerful Drought Demon, Gu Shaoyang retreated steadily.

"soon.."

Hu Xuandao and the others' eyes were blazing, with a faint look of anticipation on their faces.

"boom!"

Han Bao struck Gu Shaoyang away with a sharp claw.

Just when Hu Xuandao and the others thought that Gu Shaoyang would definitely take advantage of this opportunity to escape, they suddenly saw Gu Shaoyang's face turned cold.

Instead of retreating, he advanced and bullied himself into Han Bao. When Han Bao roared again and again, When he was about to grab it with his claws, Gu Shaoyang waved his sleeve.

In an instant, a strange crack seemed to open in the void.

This crack had infinite suction, and it directly swallowed Hanbao whole.

Then Gu Shaoyang's figure disappeared. not see

"Well..."

The expressions of Hu Xuandao and the others were frozen on their faces. This time they were completely stupid.

Chapter 582

"What about Hanba?"

Hu Xuandao, Zhuang Ming and the other three were dumbfounded.

How could Hanba, a good God Lord, suddenly disappear out of thin air?

The evil young man in the middle stage of the True God Realm also disappeared with him.

Several people's faces were full of confusion and confusion, and they let go of their spiritual consciousness. A frantic search was made for the area where Gu Shaoyang and Hanba disappeared, but nothing was found. It was as if the two of them had never appeared.

"impossible!"

Hu Xuandao and the other three were shocked and searching everywhere.

At this moment, the mid-level True God Realm monster who had just disappeared and was able to fight against the drought demon suddenly walked out of the void. His handsome face was as cold as the bright moon, holding a pitch-black weapon like The king's sword in the night has the same aura as before.

No, the aura should have become much stronger.

"Well...."

Hu Xuandao, Zhuang Ming and others were all stunned, a little dazed.

What about Hanba?

Why is the other party coming out alone?

"Could it be that Hanbao has been killed by him?..."

An unbelievable idea flashed through Hu Xuandao and others' minds, but was quickly rejected.

"Impossible, absolutely impossible!"

"How could Han Bao, who was in the late stage of the God Lord Realm, be killed by him in just a few dozen breaths? If this person had such means, he wouldn't have had to fight the drought demon for so long before..."

But where did the drought demon go? It's really hard for them to figure it out.

Hu Xuandao and others were full of confusion. Looking at Gu Shaoyang with a calm face, they were shocked, suspicious and afraid. They hesitated and did not dare to step forward. When Gu Shaoyang's eyes swept over him, they even had the urge to run away. impulse.

However, Gu Shaoyang just glanced at them lightly, then left on his own and disappeared.

"Huhu..."

Hu Xuandao and the three of them breathed a sigh of relief almost at the same time. They looked at each other and saw that there was cold sweat on each other's foreheads.

"I don't know what identity this person is, but his fighting power is really terrifying. He can fight against the late-stage God Master's Drought Demon for so long. He is definitely one of the top twenty monsters on the True God List."

Hu Xuandao took a deep breath and spoke with shock in his eyes.

Zhuang Ming and Long Lang nodded and said in deep thought: "But none of the top twenty monsters on the True God List are in the middle stage of the True God Realm. They are all at the peak of True God Realm, even half-step to God Lord Realm...."

"It should be a newly rising talent.

The God Emperor is about to die and the throne is vacant. There will inevitably be unprecedented turmoil in the Great Thousand Domains. It is normal for some unnatural characters to appear..."

Zhuang Ming and Long Lang nodded. The late-stage True God young man who was still dumbfounded on the spot and had not recovered from the shock brought by Gu Shaoyang smiled bitterly and said:"People are just indifferent, not cruel. Kill the evil people who practice evil ways, otherwise we will be in trouble today..."

Hu Xuandao's eyes flickered, and his expression was a little worried, but he still didn't speak, he just said:"Let's leave quickly. The trial and selection stage is also a great opportunity. There are as many geniuses and monsters as crucian carp crossing the river. If you relax even a little bit, you will be left behind. You should work harder."

The three of them reached a consensus and quickly disappeared.

While Gu Shaoyang was walking aimlessly, he used his consciousness to observe the changes in the realm of chaos.

The Han Demon had been stirred into powder by the energy of chaos, and turned into the purest form. The vitality of heaven and earth and the mysteries of fire laws nourish the entire realm of chaos

"The demonic fire associated with the drought demon was also wiped out, and I directly understood the fourth secret of the law of fire..."

Gu Shaoyang is quite satisfied with the feedback brought by Hanba

"The fifth derivative of the fire law is opposite to the evil water, which is called evil fire!"

The power of the Five Elements Circulation sword is much greater.

Gu Shaoyang feels that now that he is using Seven Stars Longyuan, blessed with ten times the power of time, and using all his strength to slash out the Five Elements Circulation sword, he should be able to directly kill such as Fu Ruo Kill Ao Xin Emperor There are more than thirty or so geniuses and monsters on the top list of true gods.

"My current ranking on the True God List should be in the top twenty... However, this trial and selection place seems to have the effect of blocking the secrets of heaven, and the Heavenly Dao Monument does not manifest at all..."

"This should also be a deliberate arrangement by the God Emperor. If the rankings on the Tiandao Monument True God List are always revealed, and the trialists know each other's strength clearly, it will be easier to avoid breakthrough battles and level-crossing battles....

This lack of understanding of each other's strengths is more likely to lead to the emergence of truly great talents."

Gu Shaoyang has received a lot of benefits, and the changes in the Realm of Chaos are naturally greater.

There is no fierce water, but there is the accompanying demonic fire, so the changes brought by this drought demon are not smaller than those of Jiuying.

The land in the middle of the Realm of Chaos It was growing every moment.

Moreover, Gu Shaoyang saw that a vague red halo seemed to appear in the turbid gray sky of the Chaos Realm.

"It is the prototype of the great sun!"

Gu Shaoyang is quite happy.

With the sun, moon and stars, the Realm of Chaos is getting closer to a real world.

The trial and selection place is wider than Gu Shaoyang imagined. There are many relics of ancient ferocious beasts like the Drought Demon Jiuying..

Gu Shaoyang roamed the trial grounds, hunting ferocious beasts to nourish his realm of chaos and strengthen his own strength.

Unconsciously, twenty years passed.

".Roar!"

The monster with the face of a tiger and the body of a ferocious flame is located on a mountain of gold and stone.

The strength belonging to the peak of the God Lord realm trembles in the void, and it seems that the entire void is filled with the cold and sharp fighting spirit.

Gu Shaoyang looks indifferent and is dressed in white. It was spotless.

The beast with a human face and a tiger body had red eyes, and long pointed fangs were exposed in its lips. It stared at Gu Shaoyang and kept growling.

Gu Shaoyang, however, only looked at the beast in front of him indifferently.

His right hand Holding the Seven-Star Dragon Abyss, but without drawing out the sword, he stretched out his left hand flatly, and tapped five fingers in the void in turn.

Every time he tapped out, the void would tremble slightly like the surface of the water, and then a human-faced tiger would appear underneath him. A dark black hole will appear on the body of the ferocious beast.

The black hole bombards the ferocious beast, making a sound like gold and iron.

Gu Shaoyang keeps pointing his fingers, and the ferocious beast with a human face and a tiger body keeps retreating and roaring.

Finally, the human The ferocious beast with a tiger face roared fiercely and swallowed the mountain of gold and stone beneath it. Its body instantly expanded thousands of times and became extremely huge. It pounced on Gu Shaoyang. There was no trace of anything on Gu Shaoyang's face. With a panicked expression, there was a flash of light in his eyes, and an extremely cold murderous intention burst out from it.

Qixing Longyuan, who had been holding tightly in his right hand, finally took action.

A five-color sword light bloomed in the sky and the earth.

However, although this five-color sword light was gorgeous Incomparable, but people can't think of any words like beautiful dreams. They only feel the fierceness. Just looking at it will make you feel cold all over and your scalp will be numb.

With a sword, the extremely huge beast with a human face and a tiger body will directly hit you. It was divided into two halves.

The ferocious howl of the ferocious beast resounded throughout the world. Although it was cut into two pieces, it did not die. It still wanted to bite and kill Gu Shaoyang.

Gu Shaoyang waved his hand, and the two parts of the ferocious beast with a human face and a tiger body suddenly disappeared. Without seeing it, the world suddenly became empty, as if the previous fierce beast war was just a dream.

Gu Shaoyang showed a satisfied smile on his face and said to himself: "Swallow this 棒杓, my Five Elements Law" The fifth secret should also be fully fulfilled. This fierce sword should be completely perfected..."

Chapter 583

The fifth derived secret of the Five Elements Law is the evil of water, the evil of fire, the evil of wood, the evil of earth, and the evil of metal.

It is the most lethal derived secret in their respective law fields.

When Gu Shaoyang understood the fifth derived secret of the Five Elements Law, he didn't know whether it was a coincidence or a hidden connection. The fifth derived secret of the Five Elements Law was the evil of each nature.

The evil of the five elements evolved into this extremely fierce sword in Gu Shaoyang's hand.

The power of this sword is ridiculously powerful. With the blessing of ten times the power of time, even the ancient ferocious beasts in the late stage of the God Lord Realm can be killed with one sword.

In twenty years, all the secrets of the Five Elements Law have been derived to the fifth level of perfection. One can imagine what earth-shaking changes have taken place in Gu Shaoyang's realm of chaos in these twenty years.

Now in Gu Shaoyang's realm of chaos, the purple sky is shining with the sun's rays, and the moon is hidden behind the sun, changing with each other every hour.

The flow rate of time in the Realm of Chaos is more than ten times that of the outside world.

This alone is already beyond the realms of many secret realms.

In most secret realms, there is no sun or moon, and the flow of time is chaotic.

Gu Shaoyang's Realm of Chaos has two pillars, the Law of Time and Space, plus the Law of Five Elements, etc. It is impregnable and inherently stronger than others.

The small green tree in the center of the Chaos Realm grew into a towering tree a hundred feet high, and the land under the big tree also expanded to a radius of more than a thousand miles.

It has increased hundreds of times compared to 20 years ago.

However, in the vast realm of chaos, 007 still seemed extremely small, not even occupying a space the size of a fingernail.

The towering tree extends out countless branches, and there is a fruit on each branch.

The fruit is full of purple energy and takes on the shape of a human, with its limbs and facial features lifelike, just like a sleeping human race.

There are countless roots growing out from under the towering tree, and each root is rooted in the void, sucking crazily the billowing vitality in the void.

These vitality nourish the entire realm of chaos. The land and big trees are growing every moment, and the trend is getting faster and faster.

There is a river running under the big tree, and beside the river is a boy about seventeen or eight years old.

Her skin is as white as jade, her face is extremely handsome, she is wearing a blue robe, and there are nine long jade swords on her head that circulate endlessly like a swimming dragon, and her whole body is filled with sword energy.

The boy suddenly opened his eyes and saw the presence of Gu Shaoyang. He immediately withdrew from the meditation, walked to Gu Shaoyang, bowed respectfully, and said respectfully: "I have met the master."

Gu Shaoyang nodded lightly, with a little satisfaction in his eyes. color.

The Nine Swords Boy is the lucky treasure of ten thousand years of jade ginseng.

The auras of Fu Bao and the towering tree are intertwined, and the Chaos Realm is growing rapidly, and he has benefited the most.

In just twenty years, he refined nine jade whiskers in one breath, becoming a first-grade elixir of heaven, and refined all nine jade whiskers into his own flying sword.

Although Fubao inherited Gu Shaoyang's kendo, he has gradually developed his own kendo.

The ancient way of flying swords.

Gu Shaoyang also got a lot of inspiration from Fubao's method of flying swords.

"Can you tell when your thunder disaster is coming? Gu

Shaoyang asked Fubao casually.

Fubao respectfully replied:"It should be in the near future.""

Gu Shaoyang nodded.

Fubao's thunder tribulation is a thunder tribulation that breaks through the heavenly level and is promoted to the divine level.

"Although you have deep blessings and are blessed with luck and vitality from the Realm of Chaos, after all, the promotion time is too short and there may be variables.

Just in case, I will personally protect your promotion when the time comes."

Gu Shaoyang said calmly.

Fubao's handsome face showed a look of joy, and he replied gratefully:"Thank you, Master."

Although Fubao is now intertwined with the aura of the Realm of Chaos, he still belongs to the Great Thousand Realms after all, and all thunder catastrophes for promotion to the divine level also need to be spent in the Great Thousand Realms. In fact, Gu Shaoyang is also a little overly worried, Fubao Having mastered the art of swordsmanship and wielding nine flying swords, his current combat effectiveness is almost comparable to that of a warrior in the late stage of the True God Realm.

Even if he still cannot help Gu Shaoyang, it shouldn't be a big problem if he wants to save a divine grade thunder tribulation.

Gu Shaoyang takes another look. Go through the realm of chaos, then step out and disappear into the void....

A realm of trials.

The two figures fled crazily in the sky, raising long tail flames of escaping light in the void behind them.

Even this light-escape tail flame is far beyond the average true god peak level powerhouse, which shows how strong these two people are.

The two escaping lights quickly got closer, and one could clearly see that they were two young men with extraordinary temperaments.

One of them is handsome and handsome, and the other is a swordsman with a cold appearance.

(cbbd) At this time, both of their eyes were quite serious, and their faces were a little ugly.

If Gu Shaoyang were present, he should be able to recognize these two people as Zhuang Ming and Hu Xuandao, who were defeated by Hanba first in the battle with Hanba.

It's just that one dragon is missing.

Both of them are among the top 50 top geniuses on the list of true gods. God knows what being chased them, and they were as panic-stricken as a bereaved dog.

"Damn, damn, damn..."

Zhuang Ming was chanting a mantra crazily, his handsome face extremely ugly, and he would look back from time to time, with a trace of unspeakable fear and shock flashing through his eyes.

"Who is this person and why is he so scary?! Hu

Xuandao, who was beside Zhuang Ming, looked cold and ugly, and said in a low voice, "Young Master of Dang Shen Mountain, Xun can't do anything!"

"Xun can't?!"

Zhuang Ming looked stunned, obviously he had never heard of this name.

Hu Xuandao continued:"I fought with this person once before entering the trial place twenty years ago. He was dull, taciturn, cold and cruel. Absolutely, but the strength is not too strong.

I didn't even rank in the top fifty on the True God List, and I lost with three swords, but I didn't expect that..."

Hu Xuandao's eyes showed disbelief and huge shock, and he murmured:"He has become so powerful in just twenty years. With his current strength, he is probably among the top twenty-five or even the top twenty on the list of true gods. Everyone can get in..."

"hiss..."

Zhuang Ming took a breath of cold air and said in shock:"Could it be that this person got some amazing opportunity in the trial place?!"

"have no idea..."

While the two were talking, suddenly there was a scream that penetrated the gold and cracked stone from behind them.

The expressions of the two people changed drastically in an instant.

"Caught up so quickly?!"

The two people turned around in a hurry, only to see a strange figure shooting towards them at an extremely fast speed.

This figure had long strips of light floating all over its body, and different laws were flowing in each strip of light. The mysteries of the law are all lingering with the faint sound of Tao. It is already an extremely remarkable thing to be able to manifest the secrets of the law and induce the sound of the Tao to follow. What's more, there are so many secrets of the law, and the visions on the visitor are simply astonishing..

However, with so many light belts surrounding the body, this figure does not have any transparent and mysterious temperament. Instead, it looks a bit messy and weird. From a distance, it looks like a deformed monster covered with tentacles. There are many ways. The mixed sounds couldn't produce any mystery, but instead made the listener feel dizzy and almost going crazy.

When Zhuang Ming and Hu Xuandao saw the figure, they ran away like crazy without looking back.

But the difference between them and the figure was But the distance kept getting closer.

The figure gradually became clearer. It was a terrifying young man with ordinary facial features, but extremely chaotic and strange appearance.

The expression on the young man's face seemed to be smiling but not smiling, and he seemed to be crying but not crying. His limbs were spread out, and the whole person was like a The word "big" loomed in the void and kept flying.

Strange words kept coming from his mouth.

"There is no heaven for me, and everything will return to its original state!..."

Chapter 584

These words fell lightly into the ears of Zhuang Ming and Hu Xuandao. The two people who were running away like crazy seemed to hear some supreme magic sound, and their bodies trembled violently. The speed of the shape suddenly increased a bit.

But no matter how hard they tried to escape, the distance between them and the strange young man behind them was still shrinking.

Soon, the strange young man came within ten miles of them.

"There is no heaven for me, all laws return to their original state...~"

The strange young man let out a low roar, like the roar of a wild beast, and dozens of streaks of light streaked out from his body and quickly rolled towards Zhuang Ming and Hu Xuandao.

Zhuang Ming looked back and shot out several mysterious lights. With his strength, the power of each mysterious light was enough to tear the average true god peak expert into pieces. But when they fell in front of these dozens of law light belts, they were like paper. Fragile, easily shattered.

More than a dozen light ribbons shattered the mysterious light and disappeared, quickly wrapping around the two people's bodies like tentacles.

Hu Xuandao raised his eyebrows and quickly slashed out hundreds of swords in just one thousandth of the blink of an eye. He cut a gap in the strangulation of the Six Principles of Light and took advantage of the situation to dodge out.

But Zhuang Ming's luck was not so good.

His strength is weaker than Hu Xuandao, and he faces more law light belts than Hu Xuandao.

In an instant, he was surrounded by seven or eight rays of light.

"Brother Hu! help me! Zhuang

Ming had a look of despair on his face and couldn't help shouting to Hu Xuandao for help:"I only have one life left!"

Hu Xuandao looked ugly. He was about to swing his sword to help Zhuang Ming escape the siege, but the light of the sword was blocked by several newly divided law light bands created by the strange young man.

"Brother Zhuang, I'm sorry..."

Hu Xuandao had an apologetic look on his face, gritted his teeth, turned around and left without any hesitation and determination.

Zhuang Ming's eyes were completely covered with despair. He only heard a scream and was completely submerged in the light belt of the law.

The strange young man who caught Zhuang Ming seemed to have immediately lost interest in Hu Xuandao. He didn't care at all about Hu Xuandao's escape, but stopped directly.

The law light belt surrounding Zhuang Ming was like a monster's tentacles, making a sucking sound.

Groups of pure vitality continuously leaked out of the light group and poured into the strange young man's body.

The strange young man had an expression of great enjoyment on his grotesque face, and he even closed his eyes in comfort.

And the tentacle-like law light bands on his body grew several more at a speed visible to the naked eye.

The aura is the same as Zhuang Ming's aura!

He actually seemed to have swallowed Zhuang Ming alive and gained all of Zhuang Ming's laws, secrets, and magical powers?!

The weird young man slowly opened his eyes with a satisfied smile on his face

"The body of all dharma has reached perfection again..."

"The place of trial has gathered the most gifted geniuses in the True God Realm in the entire Great Thousand Realms. As long as I devour them all one by one, the Body of Ten Thousand Dharmas will definitely become a success..."

"As soon as I have completed my Ten Thousand Dharma Body, I will immediately break through to the God Lord Realm. By then, the second round of trials will almost begin, and I will devour all the geniuses on the God Lord List...."

"Hahaha, when the time comes, not only will I be able to achieve great success in the body of all dharma, but I will also have the inheritance of Emperor Puluo in my possession!"

The weird young man burst into laughter, which was hard to hear, like a night owl.

The weird young man suppressed his smile, casually watched Hu Xuandao escape and said to himself lightly: "Have you run that far already? We have to catch up quickly, we can't let this duck fly away...."

As he spoke, his figure gradually disappeared into the void.

Just when the strange young man's body entered the void, suddenly the ground under his feet and the void in the trial realm trembled violently.

There are inexplicable fluctuations in the void that are transmitted from a very far away place like water ripples.

"what is that?"

The strange young man looked up in the direction of the fluctuation.

He saw a piercing golden light appearing in the sky very far away.

The golden light was composed of countless mysterious and inexplicable small golden characters, each of which was obscure. It's hard to understand and doesn't understand its rationale, but it seems to have exhausted all the mysteries in the world, making people fascinated by it. There seems to be a magnificent heavenly voice transmitted to the minds of everyone in the trial realm.

"The Pragmatic Sutra, Volume 1...."

Two extremely strong rays of light suddenly burst out from the eyes of the strange young man. greed, desire...

"The Puluo Wanxiang Sutra is actually the Puluo Wanxiang Sutra of the Puluo God Emperor!"

"Legend has it that Emperor Baluo has the longest lifespan among the several god emperors in the Great Thousand Realm, and he also masters the largest number of laws of heaven in the Great Thousand Realm...."

"If I could get this half-volume of the Puluowanxiang Sutra, I wouldn't need to devour the geniuses in the True God Realm one by one. The Body of Ten Thousand Dharmas might be able to be completed directly!"

The weird young man's eyes showed a deep look of longing, and the expression on his face became more and more weird, as if he was salivating after seeing a feast of flesh and blood.

"No one can stop me..."

The strange young man let out a low roar, no longer paying attention to the fleeing Hu Xuandao, turned around and fled quickly in the direction of the pillar of light, and disappeared in the blink of an eye....

...Asking for flowers.....

"The Pragmatic Sutra?"

Gu Shaoyang also saw the golden beam of light reaching the sky and the earth, and he was also moved immediately.

"God Emperor Puluo gave the trialists twenty years to prepare, and finally threw out the inheritance to induce the trialists to start fighting?.."

Gu Shaoyang thought secretly in his heart, "The Puluo Wanxiang Sutra covers all phenomena, covers many laws of heaven, and is of great help to my Domain of Chaos. I have to fight for this opportunity."...

The Realm of Chaos, the Great Thousand Realms and the Small Thousand Realms are essentially the same, they are both worlds.

But compared with the Great Thousand Realms and the Small Thousand Realms, the current Chaos Realm is nothing. A baby that is still a toddler does not even have all its teeth.

If he can obtain the Puluowanxiang Sutra, Gu Shaoyang can quickly make up for the missing parts of the Heavenly Dao in the Realm of Chaos, making the foundation of the Realm of Chaos stronger and growing faster..0.....

This is countless times faster than him searching for ancient ferocious beasts to devour.

"To be honest, although my Five Elements Fierce Sword has been completed, after all, the Five Elements Fierce Sword only covers the Five Elements Law.

I have learned a lot of things and mastered too many secrets of laws. It's time to try to take the second step that belongs to me, Gu Shaoyang, in the way of swordsmanship...."

Gu Shaoyang's eyes flashed.

His first step in the art of swordsmanship can be traced back to the foundation of the supreme swordsmanship laid by the thousands of sword techniques inherited from the Brahma Sword Tomb.

However, the foundation of supreme swordsmanship has been laid for many years, and the foundation has long been extremely strong. The problem Gu Shaoyang faces now is how to use this supreme sword foundation and turn it into unparalleled combat power.

Just like the original Weiwo Sword, Gu Shaoyang's vision and knowledge when creating the Weiwo Sword were still too shallow. The upper limit of the Weiwo Sword was limited, and the subsequent power could not keep up with his pace, so he abandoned it. Got it

"If I were to create a real sword, it would be a truly earth-shattering sword. It would be a world-shattering sword that encompasses all that I, Gu Shaoyang, have learned and possesses supreme potential!"

Gu Shaoyang's body surged with monstrous sword intent, stirring the sky of the trial area like a furious dragon, forming an astonishing vision.

Other trialists who saw this vision from a distance sensed this sword intent. , even though they were thousands of miles away, they felt cold all over and took detours one after another.

"So..."

Gu Shaoyang took a step towards Jin Zhu

"This Sutra of Puluowanxiang can be the final nourishment for my sword. The many proud men on the True God List can be the final nourishment for my sword, Gu Shaoyang...."

"Whetstone!"

Gu Shaoyang's figure disappeared completely...for a long time.

Chapter 585

《When "Palayan Vientiane Sutra" was born, the golden pillar of light reached the sky and the earth, which was no less than setting off a shocking storm in the place of trial.

Countless people all over the trial area heard the sound and rushed madly towards the direction of the Golden Snake Light Pillar.

Gu Shaoyang's figure disappeared and appeared in the void. Every time he disappeared and reappeared, the distance from the golden light pillar would be greatly shortened.

Along the way, he saw many amazing visions.

Those were some geniuses who had been dormant in the place of trial for a long time, who were inspired by the Sutra of All Things and broke out.

"Hahaha, no one can compete with me for the inheritance of the God Emperor!"

Gu Shaoyang saw a huge fiery red mountain shattering, and then a barefooted man with a bare upper body burst out of the mountain laughing.

The man's beard and hair were all fiery red, like balls of burning flames.

He The muscles of his body are like red-hot rocks, and you can vaguely see the blood flowing slowly like magma under his skin.

This big man covers an extremely long distance in one step, and in a few blinks he crosses "five hundred and zero" "Thousands of miles away, it's almost like shrinking into an inch.

The space in the trial land is much more solid than that in the Great Thousand Realms, with a hint of wildness. It's very difficult to break the void and tear apart the space. It is difficult, so even the proud ones at the peak of the True God Realm have to control the light-escape flight.

Therefore, the speed in the trial place is actually a reflection of the strength.

This big man rushed out from the giant mountain. The speed was so fast that two strong men in the late stage of True God Realm who were shocked by his birth vision, stopped in place and happened to be blocking the big man's path, did not even have time to react, and were forcefully hit by the big man's indestructible body. Broken

"boom!"

The figure of the big man disappeared in a flash.

The two late-stage True God Realm experts who were smashed by the big man resurrected in a flash of white light with pale faces. Looking at the back of the big man walking away, their eyes were filled with fear.

"What kind of monster is this guy?!"

"He must be a monster on the list of true gods!"

Gu Shaoyang saw it really clearly from a distance, and sighed secretly in his heart:

"This man is an incomparably powerful body-refining cultivator like Fu Ruo Sha, even stronger than Fu Ruo Sha.

But the last time I killed Jian Furuo was twenty years ago. If he absorbs some of the innate gods and demons' blood in the past twenty years, it's hard to say which one of them is stronger and which one is weaker...."

Along the way, besides this big man, Gu Shaoyang also saw various strange phenomena.

There is water filling the sky, there is fire burning the clouds, there is thunder like hell...

Those who can cause such astonishing visions are all beings who far surpass their peers in understanding the secrets of the law.

Even if he is not a genius monster on the list of true gods, he is still not far behind.

Gu Shaoyang walked for a while towards the location of the Golden Light Inheritance, and suddenly found a fierce fight coming from ahead.

As he got a little closer, he saw that the sky in the distance was densely covered with thunderclouds, and the lightning was like plasma. Among them, two figures were fighting like dragons in the thundercloud plasma, and the fight was extremely fierce.

One of them was filled with anger. It was the barefoot man he saw walking out of the giant mountain before.

"Si Kou Ting, fifteen years ago you chased me so hard that I lost half my life. Now things have changed. Let's see if I don't tear off your head today!"

The barefoot man laughed loudly, covering up the thunder.

He punched out one after another, like meteors falling from outside the territory, beating another figure in the thundercloud into a state of confusion, fighting while Retreat.

Lei Yun rolled over, revealing a majestic body made of steel. The handsome face was a bit ugly.

Gu Shaoyang glanced at him and was a little surprised.

It turned out that this guy was pressed and beaten by a barefoot man. He had seen it before. Si Kou Ting, the genius on the true god list who is proficient in the mysteries of thunder laws and met outside Broken Bone City in Mingzhou, is ranked 39th on the true god list. There are several true god realm warriors watching from a distance, and they are saying Sound of exclamation

"The person in the thunder cloud is not Si Kou Ting, who is ranked 39th on the list of true gods. He is being chased and beaten. Who is that barefooted man? He is so strong!"

"I know this person, his name is Taoist Huoman, and he is also a monster in the top fifty on the list of true gods."

"The two of them had an old grudge for a long time. Someone once saw Taoist Huoman being beaten by Si Kou Ting until he vomited blood, and finally escaped with severe injuries. I didn't expect that in just fifteen years, this Taoist Huo Man would be able to suppress Si Kou Ting. It was really unexpected."

Si Kouting was also shocked and angry.

He wanted to throw away the barefooted man, but the latter refused to let go. He was as powerful as a mad tiger, biting him and not letting go.

This is what makes body-refining warriors troublesome.

These things This guy relies on his strong body and strong recovery power, so he is completely lifeless in a fight. Let alone a weaker or similar warrior, even a warrior who is slightly stronger than his opponent may not be able to fight against him.

He was originally much stronger than the barefooted man, but now the opponent is able to hold him firmly.

"You have to find a way to get rid of him."

Si Kouting's mind was racing, and he suddenly felt an astonishing sword intent.

He turned his head suddenly and saw a cold-hearted young man with a handsome face approaching from a distance.

The clouds above the young man's head were turbulent, and his eyes were as sharp as a sword. Looking at it made people feel the stinging feeling of having a sharp blade pressed between their eyebrows.

Si Kou Ting's eyes lit up, and he led the barefooted man in the direction of the young man.

If he could attract this guy to join the battle group, he would be able to find a chance to escape..

When Si Kou Ting was about to take action, he vaguely felt something was wrong for some reason.

"It seems that I have seen this person somewhere before..."

Gu Shaoyang stopped when the battle group of Si Kou Ting and the barefoot man gradually approached him....0

This Si Kou Ting seems to be intentionally dragging the battle group towards him. What is he planning to do?

Gu Shaoyang's face was expressionless, but there was a cold sword intent all over his body, like a snake's letter.

The battle group of Si Kou Ting and the barefoot man was getting closer and closer to Gu Shaoyang, and even Taoist Huo Man and the onlookers noticed something was wrong.

Then I noticed Gu Shaoyang's presence.

"Who is this young man?"

"Could it be that he was Si Kou Ting's helper?!"

The barefooted man frowned slightly and glanced at Gu Shaoyang, then he still punched Si Kou Ting regardless.

"Die!"

"It's now!"

Si Kou Ting's eyes flashed with brilliance. He could not dodge Taoist Fire Man's punch, and his hands quickly formed a complicated and mysterious mark on his chest.

In an instant ,...

"boom!"

With Si Kou Ting's body as the center, turbulent thunder erupted like a volcano. The barefoot man was suddenly startled. He wanted to retreat but soon discovered that Si Kou Ting's move was not aimed at him. The sky was filled with lightning.

Not only did the lightning not cause any harm to him, but it amplified the power of his punch several times, forming a huge fist intertwined with flames and thunder. However, the barefoot man's fist hit Si Kou Ting with the same force. As if he had missed an empty space, he passed directly through him, and then rushed straight towards Gu Shaoyang's position.

"Zila——"

A burst of thunder flashed, and Si Kou Ting's figure appeared in another place high in the sky. His face was slightly pale, but his eyes looked a little more relaxed when he looked down.

"My 2.6 stand-in thunder escape technique diverted Huo Manzi's punch to the young man. No matter what the result was, there was bound to be a rift between the two of them, and I could just take advantage of this opportunity to escape...."

At this time, the fire-man Taoist below struck out with a punch encased in lightning in the flames, completely engulfing the handsome and cold figure.

A faint cold smile appeared on the corner of Si Kouting's mouth

"Even if I received this punch, half of my life would be lost. This kid would lose half of his skin even if he wasn't seriously injured...."

Si Kou Ting was about to look away, turn around and leave.

The most important thing at the moment is to get to the place where "Palayan Sutra" was born as soon as possible.

But at this moment, I suddenly heard a series of incredible exclamations from the Huoman Taoist below and several people watching.

"What?!"

Si Kou Ting was slightly confused and subconsciously glanced back.

But with this glance, when he saw clearly the scene after the exploding thunder light dissipated, he immediately stayed in place and forgot to move...

Chapter 586

Si Kou Ting's lightning escape combined with Huo Man Taoist's full punch almost tripled the power of the blow, even the void in the trial ground was struck. There are cracks.

But when the surging energy wave passed, the scene at the center of the explosion was revealed, and everyone suddenly opened their eyes wide.

I saw Gu Shaoyang standing in the void with an expressionless face as before, with an extremely cold temperament around him, and a long sword like ink appeared in his hand.

However, the tip of the sword was hanging low. His other free hand gently and deftly blocked Taoist Huo Man's fist, and his long and powerful five fingers tightly grasped Taoist Huo Man's huge iron fist, even though Huo Man The Taoist's face was so red that he couldn't even take a breath away.

"Oh My God?!"

"How can this be?!"

The warriors who were watching all exclaimed in disbelief.

"This man's sword aura is soaring into the sky. He must be a sword cultivator. How come he easily blocked Taoist Fire Man's fist before he even drew his sword?!"

"Is it possible that he is also a body refiner? And his physical strength exceeds that of the Huoman Taoist?!"

Everyone can't believe it, but the facts are in front of them and they have no choice but to believe it.

Especially Taoist Huo Man, who is the first to bear the brunt.

After he punched, he did not expect that Si Kou Ting would make such a move to divert trouble, but he was too lazy to take back his fist. , as for Gu Shaoyang behind the fist, he is dead.

31 Unexpectedly, what he saw when he punched was not a figure vomiting blood and flying back, but like a punch on a wild beast.

"This power is so terrifying..."

The barefooted man looked at Gu Shaoyang with horror in his eyes.

He looked into Gu Shaoyang's eyes, which were pitch black, a pair of unfathomable black holes.

A terrifying force came from the fist, accompanied by a stinging pain like a thousand cuts.

The barefooted man couldn't help but try his best to get free, roaring angrily, but he never thought that Gu Shaoyang would suddenly let go.

All his strength fell into the air, and he felt so uncomfortable that he wanted to vomit blood. He kicked and flew backwards in the void, his face extremely pale.

Of course, the one who was most shocked when seeing this scene was Si Kou Ting.

"Who is this person?!"

Si Kou Ting stared at Gu Shaoyang and his mind went blank for a moment. Gu Shaoyang was far more powerful than he expected. He originally just wanted to find a random unlucky guy, but he never thought of kicking the iron plate.

Oh no, it's not the iron plate. It's an ancient and sinister monument!

"It's you! I remembered!"

Si Kou Ting suddenly screamed.

He finally remembered Gu Shaoyang's identity.

When he first entered the trial place, he saw the man who single-handedly suppressed Fu Ruosha and Emperor Ao Xin in Mingzhou Broken Bone City. The young man in white who bows his head?!

He can't even defeat Fu Ruosha himself, who is his defeated general, let alone a terrifying young man who is even more powerful than Fu Ruosha.

Not to mention that it was still twenty years ago, God knows... How powerful was this guy ten years ago?

Si Kou Ting felt extremely regretful. He turned around in a panic and fled in a flash of light.

Gu Shaoyang stared coldly at the seven-star dragon that quickly disappeared from his field of vision and then raised his hand. Yuan waved casually.

In an instant, the sky seemed to light up.

At that moment, everyone present felt that their bodies and souls were cut in half.

The barefoot man and several onlookers could not help but move hundreds of miles away, Looking at Gu Shaoyang in horror

"ah——"

A short scream came from afar.

Several people subconsciously turned around, just in time to see the thunder light explode on the horizon, white light flashed, and Si Kou Ting's figure appeared.

Then Gu Shaoyang flashed and appeared next to Si Kou Ting.

The latter screamed and tried to escape, but the sky lit up again.

White light reproduction...

After repeating this three times, Gu Shaoyang finally saw Gu Shaoyang sheathing his sword and slapping it with his palm, and Si Kou Ting was no longer seen.

The barefoot man and the onlookers stood there for a long time, speechless.

"hiss..."

Finally someone took a breath of cold air and murmured:"I must have seen it wrong. This man took three of Si Kou Ting's lives with three swords."..."

"Si Kou Ting is the top genius ranked 39th on the list of true gods. He can be killed instantly...."

"Definitely one of the top twenty on the list of true gods, oh no, even the top ten peerless monsters!"

Everyone looked at each other and couldn't say a word.

The top ten monsters on the list of true gods....That person was chosen by billions of people in the vast world. I didn't expect that they would see him here with their own eyes.

The only thing to blame is that Si Kou Ting was unlucky and had to provoke such evil stars, so he was cut off three times in a row and didn't even have a chance to escape from the trial place.

"《"The Sutra of All Things" was released, and the trial of the True God Realm was about to come to an end. The top figures on the True God List also appeared one by one. I am afraid that many people will take this opportunity to attack the God Lord!"

Someone among the warriors watching murmured:

"The old God Emperor is about to die. Everyone is waiting for this opportunity. The road to the new Emperor will be completely opened...."

Everyone trembled slightly, as if they had foreseen the upcoming unimaginable super prosperous era.

Gu Shaoyang wiped out all three of Si Kou Ting's lives with a few swords. The formed Five Elements Fierce Sword could even confront the bloodline of ancient ferocious beasts in the later stages of the God Lord, let alone the little Si Kou Ting.

Gu Shaoyang killed Sikou Ting three times and then threw him into the Realm of Chaos.

Entering the Realm of Chaos is not just to be slaughtered by Gu Shaoyang. Once the Sea of Chaos rolled in, Si Kou Ting became the nourishment of the Realm of Chaos.

Sections of the secrets of the laws of thunder were integrated into the realm of chaos. While Gu Shaoyang's understanding of the secrets of the laws of thunder advanced by leaps and bounds, spring thunder rolled and heavy rain poured down in the realm of chaos.

The Central Continent rumbled and expanded for hundreds of miles.

"It is indeed the secret of the law of thunder...."

Although Gu Shaoyang understood that there is a Law of Destruction, the Law of Thunder is just a branch of the Law of Destruction.

But this still made Gu Shaoyang feel that he benefited a lot

"Whether it is the law of lightning, the law of space, the law of time, or the law of cause and effect, they are all too strong...."

Gu Shaoyang looked at the sword in his hand and said in a low voice:"Any law is enough to support a shocking sword move, but when used alone, it is slightly inferior to the Five Elements Fierce Sword. The Five Elements Fierce Sword is still the strongest I currently have. A killer move.

But in fact, I can't bring out all my combat power like this. If I can integrate all the secrets of these laws into one sword move, then my combat power can be increased by dozens or hundreds of times!"

Gu Shaoyang sighed with a little regret, and soon his expression returned to normal.

Killing Si Kou Ting was just a minor incident to him, just like a man walking on the road casually swatting to death an insect that flew over without eyes.

Not far away, the barefooted man looked at Gu Shaoyang's leaving figure, a trace of hesitation flashed across his face, and suddenly he gritted his teeth and strode forward to stop Gu Shaoyang, saying:"Brother, you should also be for the God Emperor's" How about we go together with the Sutra of Puluowanxiang?"

Unfortunately, Gu Shaoyang didn't even look at him. He walked past him coldly and said:"If you are confident that you can take my sword, you will be qualified. Walk side by side with me."

The barefoot man suddenly froze and stood motionless, his face full of shame.....

«The golden light inherited from the Pāṭṭhāna Sutra appears to be near but is actually very far away.

Gu Shaoyang walked non-stop for almost a month before he could get close to the golden light.

This also made him a little stunned. One month was enough for him to travel an unknown distance of thousands of miles. It seemed that the trial place was wider than he imagined.

Chapter 587

When we got closer, we could clearly see the golden beam of light that penetrated the sky and the earth.

It is completely composed of golden runes.

It does not belong to any kind of writing in the universe, but it seems to be born out of the way of heaven and possesses boundless mystery.

If you stare at any one of them for a long time, you will be deeply immersed in it and you will be unable to extricate yourself.

And in the center of these countless mysterious golden runes is half a golden stone slab as bright as the sun.

The golden stone slab is criss-crossed with ravines, and the countless golden runes in the sky are all reflected from the stone slab. The mysterious aura of heaven that the golden stone slab possesses is thousands of times richer than what Gu Shaoyang felt before. more than

"《The Pragmatic Sutra》 ! "

Gu Shaoyang's eyes were bright and his feet were a little faster.

But when he traveled thousands of miles further, he suddenly stopped

"That is..."

Gu Shaoyang's expression slowly darkened.

I saw around half of the stone slab a golden light pillar, and ten figures standing in the void surrounding the light pillar.

Each of these ten figures was extremely powerful, and their terrifying momentum jumped into the sky, confronting each other and connecting with each other, forming an extremely terrifying and inexplicable formation, sealing off the entire void around the golden light beam.

Many genius monsters who came because of the "Palayan Sutra" were helplessly trapped outside the formation, unable to get close at all.

"This is a domain jointly established by the top ten geniuses on the True God List. It is the seat of the top ten overlords of the True God Realm, and represents the peak combat power of the trillions of powerful people in the vast realm!"

"Unless this realm can be broken, one will not be qualified to participate in the battle for the inheritance of the "Palayan Sutra"."

Everyone looked solemn and looked ugly.

"A seat for the top ten overlords? Hahaha! Today I want to give it a try and see what the top ten on the True God List are!"

With a long laugh, a man nearly five meters tall, with arms as long as his knees and as majestic as a sacred mountain, strode out from the crowd.

This man was very different from ordinary people in appearance and momentum. His appearance attracted many people's attention.

Gu Shaoyang looked at the man who was the first to step out and try, and said softly "Huh", slightly surprised.

"It's him?!"

"Floating like killing!"

Someone has already called out this man's name.

Fu Ruo Sha!

Yes, he is the body-refining madman who fought with Gu Shaoyang and Ao Xin Emperor for half a year.

But his appearance has changed a lot from before, making Gu Shaoyang almost... Not recognized

"Fu Ruosha is only ranked around forty on the list of true gods. Why does he have the courage to challenge the top ten?"

When someone saw Fu Ruosha coming out, they couldn't help but sneer disdainfully.

But before the man could finish his contemptuous words, he heard Fu Ruosha punch hard in the direction of the golden light beam.

This punch was unremarkable at first, but soon made all the geniuses present become pale.

I saw this punch being thrown, and the sky suddenly set off huge waves like a sea. Thousands of volcanoes erupted at the same time. A tornado wind blew on the ground, pulling up the hard ground tens of meters.

"Being able to do this with the power of his body alone, no wonder Fu Ruosha had the courage to challenge the top ten. He must have completely absorbed the half drop of the innate god and demon essence and blood in his body!"

Some people exclaimed.

At this time, Fu Ruosha's hair and beard were swollen, his eyes were like copper bells, and the veins on his body were bulging out like an angry dragon. His already tall body was raised by several meters, and the whole person was close to ten meters.

In addition, his arms are much larger than ordinary people, and he looks like an ancient demon ape stirring up the world in the void.

Legend has it that in ancient times, there was a demon ape that forcibly captured the divine weapons of saints. At this time, the vision formed by "Palaman" was Like a long golden stick that reaches the sky and the earth, Fu Ruo Sha is like the ancient demon ape who doesn't want to control the divine weapon, and takes action brazenly.

"boom!"

Fu Ruosha's punch hit the invisible momentum of the ten human beings hard, causing a loud noise that shook the sky. Countless cracks suddenly appeared in the void like a mirror, and the earth also collapsed. The whole world seemed to be shattered. Shocked

"snort!"

Among the ten figures, an extraordinarily tall and burly body snorted and seemed to move.

In an instant, as if it was a heavy blow, the whole person flew backwards, and mouthfuls of blood spurted out from the mouth.

"Failed..."

Someone exclaimed, "It's the barbarian demon ranked sixth on the list of true gods who has taken action!"

"Alas, Fu Ruo Sha is strong enough. With that punch alone, he is enough to rank among the top fifteen on the True God List. It's a pity that the majesty of the ten overlords is not so easy to provoke...."

Someone spoke with regret.

Even Gu Shaoyang felt slightly frightened.

If he wanted to take Fu Ruoxa's punch, he would have to use at least the strength of Jiu Ri Qi Yan or above.

As a result, the figure in the light pillar only moved slightly to shake it away. Although it borrowed the power of ten people, its strength was terrifying enough.

"Fu Ruosha just got half a drop of the essence and blood of the innate gods and demons. It is said that the barbarian demon got a complete body refining inheritance of the ancient body refining power, and has embarked on the true path of the innate gods and demons!"

The gap between the two is still too big"

"Damn it, since you have inherited the body refining method, why are you here to grab the God Emperor Sutra?"

Gu Shaoyang heard the comments from others and secretly sighed in his heart:"The barbarian demon's life gate may have been opened to the fifth level or above! To be able to rank among the top ten in the list of true gods, both in terms of talent, understanding and opportunity, he is the best in the entire universe, and should not be underestimated...."

"Have fun!"

At this time, Fu Ruosha, who had retreated, flew up from behind again, laughing like thunder.

"This punch was really enjoyable, I haven't experienced such pleasure in a long time."

After saying that, he sat down cross-legged on the ground. A stream of blood-red air surged out of his majestic body, quickly healing his injuries, and his momentum was brewing again, and he seemed to be climbing to a higher peak..

Gu Shaoyang's eyes lit up,"It seems that the essence and blood of gods and demons in his body have not been completely absorbed at all. There should be another breakthrough now.""

Of course Gu Shaoyang is not the only one who can see this. Many people looked at Fu Ruo Sha with frightened expressions and secretly remembered him in their hearts.

After Fu Ruo Sha, there were prodigies who kept trying to shake the True God. The status of the top ten overlords on the list was all defeated, which was far inferior to the performance of Fu Ruosha. The momentum of the top ten alone was enough to crush them without any need for one of them to take action.

Gu Shaoyang kept looking for Holy Son Ao Xin during the process. figure, but the strange thing is that Holy Son Ao Xin didn't seem to come to participate in the inheritance competition at all.

It's my turn to try.

After a genius who ranked more than 20 on the True God List tried to no avail, Gu Shaoyang quietly stepped on Taking a step, preparing to try to break through the formation outside the golden light pillar, at this moment, a sharp whistling sound suddenly came from the distance.

It was a dazzling light as blazing as the sun, so dazzling that people could almost not open their eyes. Come. As soon as this escaping light appeared, it gave people a powerful and overbearing, lawless and terrifying aura, which instantly attracted the attention of everyone on the scene. The escaping light came to the light pillar in an instant, and the figures in it were not yet visible. When it is completely revealed, someone will recognize the identity of the person who escaped from the light.

".Xuan Hua Tian, who is number 11 on the list of true gods!"

"The eighth son of God King Xuan Ye! Innate Taiguang Holy Body!"

"Let me just say that none of the 11th to 15th Prodigy Sons on the True God List showed up. They are the ones most likely to shake up the status of the top ten overlords!"

Many people seemed quite excited and talked loudly.

But when the glare dissipated and the figure in the brilliance was completely exposed, the sound of anticipation on the field suddenly stopped, and instead bursts of incredible exclamations arose.

"This person...It's not a dazzling day at all!"

"? ! "

What was revealed in the blinding light (Zhao Lihao) was a tall and upright young man with an ordinary face, his eyebrows and eyes were widely separated, and his mouth was grinning from ear to ear, as if he was smiling, and he looked extremely ferocious. A feeling of great terror that is extremely eerie and weird.

"Hee hee hee..."

The weird young man slowly glanced around the field. A long and slender tongue passed across his mouth, like a poisonous snake, which made people shudder. Many people subconsciously took a few steps back when they looked at him.

"So much...so much delicious food..."

The temperament of the strange young man surged up quickly like boiling water, constantly changing. One moment it was like the scorching sun, the other moment it was like the glaciers of heaven, and the next moment it was like the cold wind of the netherworld....Always unpredictable, giving people an extremely chaotic and uncomfortable feeling

"That is...That is..."

Some people who felt the change in his temperament suddenly changed their expressions and screamed in disbelief.

The weird young man also sneered lowly and said:"The eleventh to the fifteenth on the list of true gods?...You don't have to wait any longer..."

"because.."

"They have all become one with me!"

As soon as the weird young man's words came out, there was an uproar in the audience....

Chapter 588

Have all the geniuses from the 11th to the 15th place on the True God List merged with this weird young man in front of them?

Everyone couldn't believe it and looked at the strange young man as if he were looking at a madman.

In fact, the weird young man behaves like a madman.

But at this moment, a pale and stern young man said in a low voice: "He is right, Xuanhuan and the others... Or to be more precise, it has been swallowed by him!"

"What?!"

"This is impossible?!"

Everyone else shouted in disbelief.

Someone recognized the identity of the person who spoke, opened his eyes wide and read his name: "You are Hu Xuandao! Hu Xuandao, who is ranked 37th on the list of true gods!"

He is actually one of the top fifty geniuses on the list of true gods?!

Hu Xuandao stared at the strange young man in front of him, with a deep sense of fear that could not be concealed in his eyes. He said in a slightly trembling voice: "This person turned out to be Xun Fangfa. , I don't know what kind of evil magic skills I have practiced, which can swallow up all the essence of a person's cultivation and even the secrets of martial arts perception, and turn it into my own power....

I once saw Long Lang and Zhuang Ming being devoured by him!"

Long Lang and Zhuang Ming are both the sons of the top geniuses on the True God List, and they were also devoured?!

Hu Xuandao is the genius on the True God List, and he is also a good friend of Long Lang and Zhuang Ming. There is no reason to lie, so what he said before It's true. Is it possible that this weird young man can really swallow others and transform them into his own cultivation? Even the eleventh to fifteenth ones on the True God List were swallowed up by 877?!

"Hiss..."

Everyone was shocked. When they looked at the strange young man in front of them, their eyes suddenly changed. They all stepped back and stayed away from the strange young man.

Gu Shaoyang frowned slightly and was a little surprised when he looked at the strange young man in front of him.

This person gave him a very special feeling.

Chaos, evil, grotesque...

It's like a big ball of wool that is randomly intertwined, and it's like a ball of yarn....Nutritious and delicious fruit!

Gu Shaoyang had a strong hunch in his heart that if he absorbed this person, it would definitely be of great benefit to his realm of chaos.

The strange young man stood like a scarecrow. He tilted his head and stared at Hu Xuandao. Hu Xuandao's body tensed up and he held the handle of his knife tightly with both hands, as if he was facing a formidable enemy.

He can force a true god to look like this with just his eyes. No one on the field dares to look down on him.

"It turns out it's you. You've slipped away from me many times, tsk tsk tsk..."

The weird young man grinned fiercely for a few times, then stopped quickly, then turned his head towards the golden light beam, and whispered to himself:"But I, who have tasted the sweet fruit, now have no sympathy for your dry and bitter one." There is no interest in tangerine orange anymore, I long for a more plump and juicy fruit...."

The strange young man stared at the ten stalwart bodies in the beam of light, quietly licked his lips with a snake-like tongue, and then suddenly swooped in the direction of the golden beam of light.

The strange young man's whole body turned into a huge light group. The light group showed colorful colors, and huge tentacle-like light bands stretched out from it.

There is ice, fire, water and earth...Traveling with him, although it was chaotic, the scene was amazing.

The light ball hit the ten overlords like a meteor.

There was a sound, and everyone's expressions changed.

The originally indestructible aura was forced into a crack by the terrifying power of the weird young man. The weird young man laughed strangely, and the light strips on his body emerged even more crazily, and then he clung to the crack and jumped into it with all his strength. out

"Hum..hum..."

Among the ten bodies, two figures swayed slightly at the same time.

Suddenly, the solidified momentum stirred like a boil, and the entire sky seemed to be affected, and the skylight became flickering, like the end of the world.

The flowing momentum brought more pressure to everyone, and those who were closer to Shida and the light pillar couldn't help but retreat.

But the weird young man didn't seem to feel the pressure at all, and the expression on his face became more and more crazy and crazy.

The strips of light on his body were flying wildly, turning the vitality of this world into a pot of porridge.

Various phenomena of wind, fire, ice, electricity, earth and wood are changing rapidly in the sky, causing the energy in the bodies of everyone below to constantly fluctuate. Those with weak cultivation levels are even so uncomfortable that they want to vomit blood.

"Be bold!"

Suddenly, a loud shout rang in everyone's ears.

Everyone opened their eyes wide. It turned out that the strange young man had wrapped a light belt around one of the ten figures at some point and pulled hard.

He actually wanted to It was an extremely crazy and terrifying move to drop one of the top ten overlords on the True God List directly from the altar!

The figure pulled by the light belt kept taking action, shooting out one after another of extremely terrifying mysterious lights. The light belt on the weird young man's body It is constantly shattered by the mysterious light, but more are derived.

Just like a monster's tentacles, if one is cut off, ten or hundreds more will grow out.

And now everyone can see that each of these light bands Gendu represents an interpretation of the mysteries of the law. There are strong and weak. Even the weakest can easily beat the average late-stage True God Realm warrior to life and death.

"Hahaha...."

The strange young man suddenly laughed and said,"Become one with me, obediently."..."

"There is no heaven for me, and everything will return to its original state!"

The weird young man roared, and the light strips on his body instantly increased more than ten times. At the same time, they entangled together and faintly merged into a huge gray light strip. Like the tongue of a giant beast, it suddenly wrapped around the figure and fiercely escaped from it. Pull down from the sky

"Damn it!"

The pulled body shouted loudly, and finally revealed his true appearance.

He was a handsome young man with three dark eyes between his eyebrows, which looked strange and powerful.

But at this moment, this powerful young man He looked very embarrassed.

His three eyes kept shooting out terrible mysterious light. When the mysterious light fell on the huge gray light belt, it could only create ripples and could not be broken at all.

"It is Xuan Mingce who ranks seventh on the list of true gods!"

"Is it possible that this weirdo Xun Feng really wants to force his way into the top ten today?!"

"Is this amazing?!"

Everyone below exclaimed in shock.

At this time, Xun Feng's "big gray tongue" was shrinking tighter and tighter. Even if Xuan Mingce's three eyes on his forehead were activated crazily, he could not stop this shrinking trend.

"damn it!"

Xuan Mingce's face was extremely ugly, which was in sharp contrast to Xun Feng's weird laughter. It was clear at a glance which of the two was stronger.

"Come on, become one with me and help me reach the top, hahaha..."

"Roar!"

Xuan Mingce finally couldn't bear it anymore and roared suddenly. One of the three black eyes on his forehead suddenly burst out with a strong mysterious light, and then exploded suddenly.

"boom!"

Xun Fuwei's "Gray Giant Tongue" was finally blown into two pieces.

Xun Fufa's expression changed, but he immediately returned to normal. He sneered, and more light bands emerged, rebuilding into a new "Gray Giant Tongue" towards Xuan. Ming Ce rolled away.

This time Xuan Mingce's expression changed completely.

The three black eyes on his forehead were originally shining like obsidian, but now one of them has become dim and even seeped a trace of blood. If it happens again, he had to be severely injured.

His expression changed rapidly several times, and then his whole person turned into a black light and pierced the void, disappearing in an instant.

Xuan Mingce...Escaped?!

Everyone in the audience stood stunned for a few breaths, and then suddenly burst into a burst of incredibly fierce exclamations.

"Unexpectedly, this weirdo actually succeeded?!"

"Can you actually force Xuan Mingce, who is ranked seventh, into such a situation? This person's skills are really terrifying!"

"Top ten substitutions! Top ten substitutions! I didn't expect to see the replacement of the old and new overlords among the ten overlords today!"

"Successful kings and defeated bandits, there are countless heroes on the road to the new emperor, no one can say who will become a stepping stone at the next moment."

Everyone was talking about it, but Xun couldn't help but smiled strangely, and stepped into the light pillar. His chaotic aura replaced the aura that was somewhat incomplete due to Xuan Mingce's departure. A new top ten seemed to be born.

And right here At that moment, a stunning sword light flashed across the sky like an aurora, and everyone's vision was "split". The ten auras that were about to "close" suddenly had another crack.

Everyone was shocked and suddenly He turned his head.

He saw a handsome young man holding a black sword and wearing white clothes walking out coldly.

"I want a place!"

Chapter 589

Who is this person?!

Everyone on the field looked at Gu Shaoyang, including Xun Feng, who had just ranked among the top ten, and seemed to be looking at him up and down with interest.

Fu Ruoxa recognized Gu Shaoyang and grinned. Hu Xuandao's eyes suddenly shrank, and his eyes became awed when he remembered a certain powerful figure who used his physical body to challenge the god Lord Hanba.

There are also fire barbarian Taoists.

Apart from these people, Gu Shaoyang's reputation is not obvious at all.

After all, he only entered the True God List just before the Trial Grounds opened, and his reputation has not yet fermented over time.

Gu Shaoyang took another step, raised the long sword in his hand, and then gently lowered it.

Everyone saw this sword clearly, and a gorgeous sword light with five colors flowed down quietly.

It was obviously a sword light that was as beautiful as a dream, but it set off a torrential murderous intent and ferocious energy in the scene, giving people a huge sense of impact.

Five Elements Fierce Sword!

This sword was more terrifying and unparalleled than the one Gu Shaoyang had just made.

A sword that can kill ancient ferocious beasts in the late stage of the God Lord Realm struck Shi Da's momentum, and the latter suddenly opened countless cracks like an ice wall, and then suddenly shattered

"Wow..."

The ten hazy figures seemed to have been forcibly torn off the mysterious veil, and their appearances were all revealed in front of everyone.

Eight men and two women are both handsome and extraordinary people.

The most eye-catching one is a tall young man who looks like a god.

The young man just stood there calmly, but he was like the center of heaven and earth, with the sun, moon and stars all worshiping him.

There was no cover on his face, but no one could remember his appearance, or even judge his beauty or ugliness.

The young man seemed to pay no attention to everything around him, and just looked intently at the half of the golden stone slab in the center of the golden light pillar.

Someone was fascinated by the young man's charm and murmured his name

"Number one on the list of true gods, Fang Ruyu!"

"He was once praised by God King Xiaoyao as the person most likely to become a king under the God Lord!"

"He has been at the top of the list of true gods for nearly ten thousand years. He was able to kill the God Lord ten thousand years ago. Now...I don't know how terrible it is."

About Fang Ruyu, just a few words are enough to arouse people's imagination and arouse great admiration.

In addition to Fang Ruyu, there is also a handsome monk wearing snow-white cassocks that is particularly eye-catching.

"Who is this person?"

There were slight commotions below, and many people had doubts on their faces.

"There seems to be no monk among the top ten?"

"One person is missing! Why is Cao Feibai, who ranks second among the top ten, not here?!"

"Could it be that this monk replaced Cao Feibai as the new number two on the True God List?! The top ten have already been replaced?!"

"so amazing...."

Facing the crowd's comments, the handsome monk just looked at his eyes, nose and heart, and stood in the air with his hands clasped together without saying a word.

Neither sullen nor arrogant, just like a pool, extremely quiet.

Of course, everyone's attention to this mystery soon passed, and their attention continued to shift to Gu Shaoyang.

Gu Shaoyang didn't talk nonsense and glanced at the ten people lightly.

Then he took a breath and slashed out with his sword.

Five Elements Fierce Sword!

"hehe..."

The person chosen by Gu Shaoyang was a tall woman with a heroic face and a long sword in her hand. When she saw that Gu Shaoyang had chosen her, she couldn't help but laugh angrily.

But when the ferocious five-color sword light fell in front of her, she truly felt the terror brewing in the sword light. Her pretty face suddenly changed, and a sword light suddenly appeared.

The tall woman's sword light is like a dream, misty and rainy, water and fire go hand in hand, and it is extremely atmospheric.

With just one sword strike, Gu Shaoyang's sword light was offset.

Gu Shaoyang's eyes lit up slightly, and he slashed out with another sword.

This time he used a little part of the power of time, and the power of the Five Elements Sword was several times greater.

The tall slender woman gritted her teeth and struck out with another sword. This time it took her two sword strikes to offset Gu Shaoyang's sword light.

Then Gu Shaoyang kept drawing out his sword, increasing his strength.

The sky became a canvas, and he was like a person who splashed ink wantonly, waving his sword light on the canvas.

The tall slender woman drew her sword faster and faster, and the sword flashes became more and more numerous. In the end, the entire sky turned into a sword field.

The people below were frightened and frightened when they saw it.

"There are only a few people in the True God Realm who are respected for their swords, and Princess Jianxin of the Heavenly Sword Dynasty is definitely the number one. This sword light is so terrifying! Worthy of being ranked among the top ten!"

"The sword gleam of that handsome young man was even more terrifying. Several or even more sword gleams from the sword heart could barely withstand one of his sword gleams, and the power of the handsome young man was still growing, seemingly endless!"

"horrible! Any sword light in this sword field feels like it is enough to kill any strong man below twenty on the True God List!"

···Asking for flowers·····

"Where did this handsome young man come from, and why have I never heard of him before?"

"puff!"

The woman finally couldn't withstand Gu Shaoyang's sword. She spurted out a mouthful of blood and stepped back for a few steps. There was a low cry from below.

Defeated.

Another person among the top ten was defeated.

Although she was ranked among the top ten. She was the last one, but the one who defeated her was a little-known swordsman.

And the swordsman defeated the opponent easily and effortlessly, and it seemed that he still had some strength left.

"May I have your name?"

The tall woman wiped the blood from the corner of her mouth, stared at Gu Shaoyang and asked.

Gu Shaoyang took one step forward, and his sword power perfectly blended into the top ten, and was independent of the momentum of the top ten. This method alone was already stronger than the top ten. Some people are much smarter.....

"Gu Shaoyang."

Gu Shaoyang replied calmly, and then never looked at her again.

"Gu Shaoyang, right? I remember you! The tall slender woman glared at him and snorted coldly:"The road to the emperor has just been opened, and my heavenly sword has not yet been completed. Sooner or later you will be defeated by my sword.""

After saying that, she withdrew from the golden light pillar, but did not leave. Obviously she still wanted to inherit the inheritance of the God Emperor.

Gu Shaoyang naturally became one of the top ten true gods, ranking at the bottom of the top ten.

In just half a day, the true god list There were only three changes in the top ten overlords, and one of them took the second position on the list of true gods, which is really surprising.

Whether it is the unfathomably handsome monk, the weird and terrifying Xun Wenfa, who chooses and devours people, or the last Gu Shaoyang, who is holding the sword against the sword heart princess, is hard to see through.

They are all new geniuses who have opened the imperial path and risen strongly, representing unlimited potential and infinite possibilities.

The next battle will be a truly fierce and exciting battle.

Everyone can't help but look forward to it.

Although everyone comes here for the "Palayan Sutra", many people actually know that there is no hope for them and the inheritance. They can see a group of young geniuses who are on the path of God competing with each other. The scene was full of regrets.

After Gu Shaoyang defeated Jian Xin and became the third member of the New Ten, no one stepped forward to challenge him again. After waiting for a long time, the golden light beam that had been all over the sky suddenly moved, and the light beam began to slow down. Slowly shrink...Personal.

Chapter 590

Gu Shaoyang didn't understand the situation about the inheritance of the God Emperor until he entered the ten realms and entered the pillar of light.

The top ten on the True God List are not waiting for those who come after them to challenge them one by one, and then compete for inheritance after the candidates are determined. In fact, the inheritance has never been left behind.

The golden pillar of light that penetrates the sky and the earth is a vision and a restriction. Others are not allowed to approach the golden stone slab in the center.

Now, with the new top ten confirmed, the golden light of inheritance has immediately shrunk, the restrictions have disappeared, and the inheritance is about to truly begin.

Gu Shaoyang seems to have realized something.

It seems like someone is behind everything.

In the place of trial, plus the voice that specially attracted everyone before...

It was obvious that this was the intention of Emperor Puluo.

Gu Shaoyang subconsciously raised his head, his gaze seemed to pass through the sky of the trial place, through the layers of void, and he saw an old body entrenched on the rotten throne, silently watching all this.

Gu Shaoyang's eyes flickered slightly, and the power of cause and effect was touched.

He saw that on the half golden stone slab where the golden light was constantly shrinking, a line of cause and effect as thick as a sky chain was tightly connected. There seemed to be a pair of eyes looking at him at the end of the line of cause and effect.

"Even if I know that this "Buluo Wanxiang Sutra" contains the plan of the God Emperor of Baluo, I still have to fight for this inheritance, and I have to take over this cause and effect...."

Gu Shaoyang sighed slightly in his heart, when can he escape from this chessboard, break away from the fate of being a chess piece, and become a real chess player.

Even the God Emperor is not a true chess player. The God Emperor will be destroyed by time one day. too far away...

For a moment, Gu Shaoyang felt a little sad in his heart.

What he didn't know was that in the endless void, a certain figure full of rotten and dilapidated aura suddenly chuckled.

"Interesting and interesting, the ants in the realm can actually look up to the sky, and the frog's eyes at the bottom of the well have transcended the bottom of the well..."

I originally thought that a descendant of the ancient Buddhist sect would appear in the trial, which was extremely interesting, but I didn't expect that an even more interesting little thing would pop up. Come.

He was probably the last person who sensed the existence of a small world of pregnancy and refining....

If you can suppress that little Buddhist monk this time, what if I give you a big opportunity, haha..."

At this moment, the golden light that penetrates the sky and the earth has completely retracted into half of the golden stone slab, which also means that the competition for the inheritance of "Palayan Sutra" is about to officially begin.

The eyes of everyone in the field became tense for a moment.

Gu Shaoyang's hand gently rested on the hilt of Qixing Longyuan's sword.

The next battle is very important to him.

It is a real sword-sharpening battle.

If he's not careful, he will die. On the contrary, if he survives, it will be a great opportunity, an opportunity for his swordsmanship to transform again!

"call..."

Gu Shaoyang breathed a sigh of relief and relaxed his body, but the sword intent and fighting intent in his body surged quickly like boiling water.

Others, too.

The last inch of golden light is about to shrink...Time to fight...at this moment...

Gu Shaoyang's eyes flashed, and he was about to take action subconsciously.

But at this moment, the golden stone slab trembled slightly, and an invisible ripple spread throughout the entire venue, and everyone's hearts relaxed instantly.

"what is that?!"

Someone exclaimed loudly.

With the inexplicable fluctuations of the golden stone slabs, the entire trial place underwent earth-shaking changes. The color of the sky quickly deepened, turning into an endless night sky, and grass and trees began to grow rapidly on the ground beneath their feet. Everyone The place where it was located was originally a barren mountain, but it turned into a lush virgin forest in the blink of an eye.

Not only that, everyone saw mountains rising in the distance, sand turning into seas, and vast plains with hills and valleys.....

"唉——"

Suddenly there was an extremely clear cry, and everyone followed it.

But I saw the sky was a fiery red, and a big divine bird covering the sky and the sun, covered in colorful feathers and bathed in colorful divine fire, slowly flew towards everyone.

"This is..."

Someone opened their eyes wide and exclaimed in disbelief: "This is the Suzaku! The ancient mythical beast Suzaku!"

This was followed by another majestic roar.

A huge green dragon swam from the east

"Qinglong! It's the Eastern Blue Dragon! It's also an ancient mythical beast!"

Everyone shouted excitedly.

Gu Shaoyang was slightly touched when he saw Qinglong. He felt that the appearance of this Qinglong was exactly the same as his destiny Qinglong.

Not only the appearance, but also the breath were very similar, but there was a missing part in the mouth. A strange black sword

"The next one should be the White Tiger of the West!"

Someone said excitedly.

Sure enough, another huge snow-white tiger flew from the west, covered with sharp golden energy, which was extremely dazzling.

Then Xuanwu emerged from the bottom of the sea.

All the four ancient mythical beasts gathered together, and then started fighting each other..

This earth-shattering melee made the whole trial place dark, and everyone below was terrified.

In front of such a powerful beast, all of them are insignificant dust, ants, and may be wiped out at any time.

But very soon Soon everyone discovered that those terrible powers couldn't hit them at all.

"We can't change anything here either...."

Someone tried to break off a blade of grass, but it went right through it

"It turns out to be a fantasy.."

"So what does this illusion mean? Is it possible that the Sutra of All Things is hidden in this illusion?"

Everyone is puzzled.

At this time, the battle between the four elephants in the sky has already come to an end, and the remaining ancient ferocious beasts and ancient divine beasts have begun to appear in the sky and on the earth.

What is happening in the trial land now , as if reenacting the ancient wilderness era for everyone, a epoch-making era.

Everyone has been watching the surrounding ferocious beasts, vegetation and terrain constantly changing, time flies, and the sea has changed.

In an instant, the scene returns to the original place of the trial. appearance.

But this time, the golden stone slab has disappeared.

"What exactly is going on?!"

Everyone was surprised, confused, and confused.

"started again..."

The sky above them turned dark blue again, something they had only experienced once before.

Once again, Suzaku, Blue Dragon, White Tiger, and Xuanwu appear...

Among all people, some are thinking hard, some are thoughtful, and some are confused and ignorant....

Suddenly, a person lowered his body.

Everyone subconsciously looked at him, and at first glance, they were all shocked.

I saw this man holding a green blade of grass between his fingers, and there were still a few dewdrops on the grass blade.

And this person is the handsome white monk who replaced Cao Feibai in the second place on the list of true gods among the top ten.

"little monk..."

The handsome monk in white clothes looked at the grass blades in his hands, smiled slightly, and recited his Dharma name: "Zen Heart"

"Isn't this an illusion? How could he pluck the blades of grass?!"

"impossible! How does he affect the illusion?!"

Everyone was shocked.

The moment Zenxin picked off the blades of grass, two people took a step forward at the same time. One person reached out and slapped the turbulent river and sea below him with one hand, and the other raised his sword and slashed towards a hill in the distance.

"boom!"

"boom!"

The sea surface parted, and a few fish jumped up and were shocked to death by the force of the palm.

The hillside collapsed, gravel rolled, and a fist-sized stone was sucked over and fell into a white and slender sword-holding hand.

"congratulations.."

Monk Zenxin smiled and nodded:"The two Taoist brothers have also realized it."

Looking at these two people, one is the handsome young man Fang Ruyu who is like a god, and the other is...

Holding an ink sword and wearing white clothes, who else could it be if it wasn't Gu Shaoyang?
