Chapter 701

But as everyone looked down here, Salo suddenly realized that this was not the magma described by Venus before?

So she quickly turned around and called Gu Shaoyang next to her. At this time, she was dressing Medusa. There was a huge window above his knee. I really didn't know where he ran away, and then he came back with injuries all over. Seeing this, the people in front of me also had a bit of a headache.

"Where are you going?"

"It's not the injury I got when I fell off the cliff just now. If you and Venus weren't quick, I would have fallen under the cliff long ago."

At this time, Gu Shaoyang didn't speak anymore, but concentrated on giving him medicine. Isn't this what Salo looks like in peace and quiet? The next second, his voice came out one step ahead of his mind.

"Magma has been discovered, come and take a look!"

Then Gu Shaoyang tied a bow for her here, turned around and left, seeing his back Medusa couldn't help but raise her head at this time.

She glared at him fiercely, wondering how this man could be so timely every time he appeared, as if he was just here to prevent him from finding the special points of other people.

However, due to the relationship between the Eight Holy Gods, it is not easy for me to curse at this time, as it would damage my image too much.

At this time, Medusa could only watch Gu Shaoyang leave in front of her without saying a word. The look at her face made her turn her head.

He glared hard at the person next to him, who felt guilty at this moment. Although he didn't know why he felt guilty, he could see a hint of guilt in his eyes.

Anyway, this is all that can be understood at this moment, and Gu Shaoyang can also see that there is a lot of bulging air on the magma.

If you go down here, there will definitely be some difficulties, and Salo next to him He also saw Gu Shaoyang's intention, so he immediately stopped him and called Christi over. The three grown men gathered together here to discuss the next countermeasures.

"Xiao Hei and Xiao Bai will definitely not be separated. After all, there are only a few of them, and they will definitely not be willing to separate again, so they will be ignored for the time being. Women cannot be allowed in the entire team, so only There are three of us."

Gu Shaoyang didn't have any objections, but nodded.

"So what do you think we should do?"

"Now that Venus has discovered this location, we only need to go into the magma to see the truth and we will know that our Eight Holy Gods have a special mechanism that can defend against any environmental deviations from the outside world."

Hearing these words, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but twitch the corner of his mouth. What should he do? He can't just rely on human bones to swing down from here. Before they even touch the magma, they will be scorched by the heat above. There is only one ball left.

You are a little caught off guard at the moment, but at this time you are basically not thinking about anything else.

Instead, you take out the Seven-Star Dragon Abyss in your hand. At this time, this is the only one you have the most It's helpful, and the direction shown on the compass is also nearby.

Chapter 702

I don't know why, but since I entered this cave, the only position that the compass in my hand can show is Emperor Liuyun himself.

But I don't know whether the compass is locked to the real person or the dummy, but now I can only bite the bullet and do it. I can't just give up at this time. It will definitely have no value.

"If this is the case, then I must have a way to get down. You two, please wait behind me. I will send you a signal after my lover enters safely. You are going down."

"But how to transmit a signal here?"

"You don't have to worry about this, there must be a way."

Saluo and Christi in front of them looked at each other and had no choice but to nod here. Of course, at the moment, Gu Shaoyang thought of some extra things. Didn't Medusa have some scales on her body before? As long as he can find a few of them, that's totally fine.

But asking for scales from an acquaintance at this time doesn't seem to be a polite behavior. Gu Shaoyang thought about it and pulled a hair directly from Medusa's body.

Medusa couldn't help but notice. Feeling the pain, he quickly turned around and glared at the person in front of him. At this moment, Gu Shaoyang was holding the piece of hair with an innocent look on his face.

"I want one of your business cards. Is that okay?"

Hearing him ask so happily, Medusa was somewhat caught off guard. Since he had already spoken, it was hard for her to refute others' face at this time, so she looked at the thing in her hand. people

"This is the most valuable scale that fell off before. Although I don't know what the use of your thing is, if it is lost, it will expose several of us, so you'd better think about it before doing it."

The man in front of me nodded. I didn't expect that there would be a variety of colors on it. It felt like it was starting to reflect light under the light. This really caught me off guard. Of course, I must have considered all aspects carefully. It's just that I need some time now

"Here, a few of us have already planned to go down, and Qixing Longyuan also showed some special reactions here."

Medusa in front of her nodded and did not organize them. After all, it would be of no use if she said so. What's more, this scale can definitely protect her safety.

Although I don't know much about others, but on my body The scales here can resist any attack. This is real, otherwise he would be killed by the enemy in minutes in the wild.

But on the contrary, I also have some hesitation. This person is not as simple as I expected, and Gu Shaoyang also deliberately sacrificed his life for justice and let a few of them behind him.

Hearing what Christie said to him, the people in front of him were caught off guard. Maybe the current situation made him feel a little surprised, But correspondingly, Gu Shaoyang was able to see clearly some of their practices. There was a high probability that he had figured out something, and it was certainly not that simple.

Chapter 703

But at this time, Medusa could not ask more questions. After all, for herself, all this was beyond her budget, and it was considered a huge capability at the moment.

It's not enough to support myself to ask some unnecessary nonsense. Anyway, I should take a look at the condition of Christie next to me. He is the only one of the three men left behind.

The reason is obvious. Some people must be worried about the few of them fighting here alone, but it also makes me feel a little strange in my heart.

I didn't think Lin Pian had any use before, but when he asked me for it, I realized that this thing could have many uses.

It's just that I don't know very well, but there is no need to say those useless nonsense at this time. Medusa saw Natasha's position next to her, and then took the initiative to approach him. Natasha was a little flattered at this time.

"What are you doing here when you have nothing to do?"

"This is not just about occupying an advantageous place. We can see where they go."

"It's just to go to the magma. It's not like you haven't heard what the valuable Venus said.

But this time, it was really surprising that Venus would become one of their eight goals. The other players were not particularly outstanding."

Perhaps this is what they want to do, to remain unchanged in response to changes, that is, to find those who do not stand out and will not bring about any changes. That may be the one that needs the most adjustment. Of course, at this moment, I also I have learned some aspects.

At this moment, I see some other ways. If Gu Shaoyang can really take some control, it is actually a convenient aspect for me, but I don't know that he can provide me with some choices at this time.

"You won't say much about what happened this time. After all, every aspect has different circumstances."

"You mean, a few of them were threatened here?"

"I didn't say anything, and judging from the people taking care of Shaoyang, I'm afraid no one can capture him here."

Hearing these words, Medusa felt a little bit taken for granted. This is natural. After all, he is the hero who saved her in her mind.

If she doesn't even have this ability, wouldn't she be ruined midway? , but now he didn't say anything.

After all, any extra control during this process would cause huge interference to him, and when Gu Shaoyang held Qixing Longyuan, he also saw several other positions.

The magma here seems to be surging towards the middle place. After all, there are obviously not as many bubbles around it as there are in the middle.

But now I am just speculating about what the truth is and what the result will be in the end. Then It's definitely impossible to tell based on just one sentence of her own.

Moreover, Zhao Yuyan also discovered something at this time. The aspects that Gu Shaoyang had to think about here must be related to what she was thinking about. Just when Gu Shaoyang was about to jump into the magma At the same time,

Zhao Yuyan appeared from the side, stuffed something into him, and then shuttled back to his little world. It turned out that this thing could protect his safety.

Chapter 704

Gu Shaoyang held this gadget in his hand and shook it from side to side. He couldn't help but smile suddenly. He didn't expect that he was still a bitch-tongued, but it was a good thing.

After all, his assistance is much more than what I thought here, and correspondingly I have also seen some other stages. Instead of being frequently disturbed here, why can't I take the initiative here?

"Are you sure you can succeed this time?"

"No matter what, we have already reached this position. You have already gone down to take care of Gu Shaoyang. Is there any reason for the two of us to retreat?"

Anyway, you are only here to help keep them safe. You are really going to go down there to die, but what do you have to be afraid of between the two of us?"

Christie curled her lips at this time and did not say any unnecessary nonsense. After all, Salo in front of her would definitely not understand her thoughts.

This Medusa almost ate them both up with her eyes. , hasn't he noticed it yet? He blamed the two people here for not stopping Gu Shaoyang.

However, Salo in front of him did not think of this, nor did he think about it in this direction. In fact, he saw the puzzled look on her face. I almost guessed half of the expression.

I can't help but feel a little sorry for Medusa. No wonder he is so tired of chatting with this little girl. It turns out that he is just a not very smart person. He can't understand other people's speech here. Forget it, I don't look at other people's faces. No wonder I always get unequal treatment here.

But correspondingly, I discovered some other things. For example, if Gu Shaoyang had other reasons for being here, then what's in his hand now? Qixing Longyuan became the one here to resist external attacks.

He began to sway on his own through Gu Shaoyang's control, and seemed to have refined his previous appearance in this magma. He even took the initiative to help him remove it at this time, and then changed He has become a new Seven-Star Longyuan. After seeing his changes, Gu Shaoyang must be happy.

But he did not expect that there would be such a situation, and the corresponding eight holy gods should not be shouldered by him. I don't know. Who suddenly started talking next to his ear?

"Obviously all this should be their own fault, and these people do not need our help."

Hearing these words, the person in front of him was a little surprised. It seemed that he had not considered that she would say this. In the process, Gu Shaoyang also guessed some other things. It is estimated that this person should be a demagogue here. character, so while gesturing to the top, he did not forget to tell them about it.

But whether they could understand his gesture was another matter. Medusa looked at the two of them confused. Shui, of course, also saw the words that Salo drew in the magma using the Seven-Star Longyuan Pen.

"He is telling you that there is something deceptive under the water."

Hearing these words, both of them looked at Medusa in surprise. Only Natasha from behind said something in hindsight.

"Why is this water? It's obviously magma."

The tense atmosphere between the few people was instantly broken, and at this time, Gu Shaoyang was a little helpless.

Chapter 705

But correspondingly, I also guessed some things. Instead of being stubborn in this place alone, why not consider seeking help from others? In fact, this is also a question that has been buried in my heart.

And correspondingly, I also saw through one aspect. After all, no matter how beautiful I am, I still have some surprises. Although I want to rush down with them at this time, I still have to evaluate whether I have such ability. Once it really happens, if something goes wrong, you will be in trouble.

Although he said that he had learned some aspects, Gu Shaoyang's initiative to jump in at this time really surprised him.

Maybe all the aspects considered are not that important to him, but now Zhao Yuyan is also a goal that he has been striving for.

Although excessive choices cannot bring about any changes to myself, it may be an important factor in my defeat here.

So the people in front of them had to hesitate first. As for how the subsequent situation will develop, it depends on their abilities, and at this time Gu Shaoyang sneaked into this.

Then I smelled a special smell here. I had thought of something before, but it doesn't mean that everyone can predict it.

"Maybe the current situation is definitely not as easy as we thought, so let's give it a try. Anyway, two people have already gone down."

After hearing these words, the people above were stunned for a moment, and then laughed out loud. Yes, there is indeed nothing wrong with what he said. With those two people here doing one thing, it doesn't matter if it is someone else. I am not confident, but now I have reasons and confidence. Maybe it is not that simple for me, but now I understand some aspects of the situation.

Then I saw the signal he sent in this place, so several people came to. After going down here, no one thought that there was still a person behind him at this time.

Venus was a little timid at this time. He had been stumbled over this matter before, but the snake man did not need to be afraid of these things.

So. Natasha, who was going down, quickly turned around and waved to him. Christie, who was behind her, couldn't stand it anymore, so she jumped out from here and kicked him in the back, knocking him down.

"I am really grinding here, what if I am delayed?"

Then he entered the magma again, and I have to say that what happened this time really caught him off guard.

But correspondingly, I also saw some aspects clearly. With a high probability, if I really have so many abilities, then It's not like he was constantly swinging here.

When he entered the magma, everything became what it was before. It turned out that he also saw some other options.

It might not have been so smooth for him before, but At this time, I am also aware of some unusual situations.

It is very likely that this is the step I took on my own initiative. Although I don't know what to do, it is definitely impossible to give up on this at this time. After all, I am in this situation. In the process of correspondence, several people are trying to protect the Eight Holy Gods.

Chapter 706

It's just that I don't know where these people have gone. Looking at it, it is empty. No one would think that this place is normal.

And Gu Shaoyang has already entered it. If he can consider some other things here, it should be very simple, but now Qixing Longyuan has also shown its original direction.

It seems that this Seven-Star Longyuan must have undergone some changes before. Of course, at this moment, the light appearing on the compass also foreshadows the subsequent results.

Liuyun is displayed on it, and the Emperor is beside him, but he can't see clearly on the left and right. Maybe this is a difference here. Of course, excessive choices will not cause changes in his feelings here..

But at this time, Gu Shaoyang was a little shaken. After all, the location where Emperor Liuyun appeared seemed to be the same as what he had seen before.

If you start diving now, you might be able to see them, but now you have to wait here for the people behind you to approach. The two are combined.

At that time, the people in front of me felt a little caught off guard, but the direction of each consideration was definitely different.

If I can think of these things now, then others can certainly do the same, so I have no choice but to wait here for good news, and the few people in front of me show up as expected.

At first, there was only Salo, but unexpectedly everyone came down one after another. Seeing this, Gu Shaoyang was stunned for a moment.

How could he bring such a large number of people up there by himself? However, Christie seemed to understand what he was thinking, so he swung his tail.

It seemed to indicate that Gu Shaoyang could take them away, so Gu Shaoyang waved his hand and directly led them swimming there without any nonsense.

On the other side, the temperature in the magma is indeed very high. With such a protective cover, one can feel the high temperature.

Even here, his face was covered with sweat. Gu Shaoyang wiped the sweat, and then continued to open his eyes and look at the place in front of him. Suddenly, a light pierced his eyes, and Gu Shaoyang quickly closed them. Then he opened them again and found that in front of him It was completely dark.

It was as if he accidentally fell into the abyss, but he could hear the shouts of the people next to him, which surprised Gu Shaoyang.

Then he was almost far away from the entrance of the cave. Gu Shaoyang tentatively moved two steps there, and then a person came over and surrounded him.

After taking himself into the cave, he unexpectedly felt an unprecedented coolness inside. Then Gu Shaoyang began to touch the arm of the person next to him. At this time, Christie pushed Salo over.

"What happened to him? Why can't I see it?"

"Who knows? There are many unknowns in the magma itself, and he is just an ordinary person. How can he have such a strong physique like us snake people?"

"Wouldn't that be terrible? If he can't see it, how can we escape here?"

"Then it just depends on luck, and didn't Gu Shaoyang have a compass on his body before? She should be able to hear us."

Gu Shaoyang groped around on his body at this time, and then put the compass into their hands.

Chapter 707

"This thing can see the location of Emperor Liuyun. As long as you put my hand under the compass and drag her, you can see his latest whereabouts."

"Are you sure you still want to find Emperor Liuyun? Are your eyes looking like this now?"

"What else to do? We can't all be trapped here all the time, right? Moreover, these eight holy gods have just gathered 4 and the other 4?"

Medusa in front of her bit her lip and didn't speak. She didn't expect that as a non-snake person, he understood better than she thought.

If she wanted to let the people around her know what she was thinking, she would definitely despise herself here. After a while, it was Salo and Christi who were studying the compass in front of them, and which way to go in this cave?

Venus in front of them walked up to him and put his hands on his shoulders, as if He is comforting himself, but he seems to be doing other things. At the moment, Gu Shaoyang can't see his surroundings at all, but it doesn't matter now.

After all, he can trust them, just in case everything turns out to be what he thought before. As you can see, wouldn't that be the smoothest?

And their corresponding abilities should not be underestimated. Although they are only the Eight Holy Gods, there is also a Medusa. In actual combat, the destructive power of the combination between several people is also Very strong.

Several people saw nothing at this time and did not know where to start looking. Anyway, the people in front of them were caught off guard at this moment.

But the corresponding Medusa made a direct response at this time. After making another prediction, it seems that things this time are basically the same as what he imagined before.

However, Gu Shaoyang considered some other things at this time. Maybe this is a tangled point for him, but the current situation is also Gu Shaoyang was a little surprised.

Before, all he had thought of was to go in here directly and find the location of Emperor Liuyun, but now that he has no eyes, how can he see the surrounding scene? Now he was indeed caught off guard.

"Don't worry, we'll definitely be here to get you out."

Hearing Medusa's voice, it didn't matter to Gu Shaoyang. After all, this matter had nothing to do with him, but Gu Shaoyang definitely couldn't hesitate at this time.

Although he had seen Qixing Longyuan emitting light here before, but now This disappeared without a trace, which really surprised me.

But just now I saw some flashing light spots on it, as if it was the light leading me forward in the darkness. When I opened my eyes again, I found that there was a light on the ground. The same thing happened.

There was a small circle extending forward here, as if to guide him to another location, so Gu Shaoyang made a gesture along this direction.

Then he asked the person in front of him to take a look for him. Medusa looked around and saw where this place was. It was just a cave sinking downwards.

"Just a cave inside the river"

"There shouldn't be any danger there. Just send me to the entrance of the cave and let me go down by myself."

"How can this be done? You can't see it now. If you do this again, there will be problems."

Hearing these words, the person in front of me didn't say anything. Some things cannot be solved by just one word.

Chapter 708

What's more, in the current situation, Gu Shaoyang carefully looked at the environment in front of him, and suddenly found that Salo and Christi did not appear in his field of vision, and even the Medusa disappeared.

It seems that this point of view only exists for the path he wants to take. As long as he leaves this position, he will not be able to see anything.

I really have a headache now, but I haven't given up on this. For Gu Shaoyang, Natasha may be a junction point, and the only thing he can see is a small gem in his body.

Although he didn't know what it was, Gu Shaoyang tilted his head and asked quietly in Medusa's ear, but Natasha didn't hear it at this time.

Medusa hesitated for a moment. That was his family heirloom that he always hung on his chest like a treasure and never took it out.

I didn't expect that Gu Shaoyang could actually see Natasha's baby after he lost his sight. He didn't dare to ask rashly, lest he think he needed him.

"It doesn't matter, just help me ask what material it is made of. I can see her in the public place, so it must be similar.

And I saw the same glowing circle on the ground. As long as you can find common ground, you might be able to uncover the secret of his gem."

Hearing these words, Medusa went to mention it to Natasha. During the previous inquiry process, Natasha was very dissatisfied and even wanted to lose her temper.

But after hearing the last sentence, she could After getting the real secret truth here, he has already softened his attitude and looked at Gu Shaoyang next to him. Now in his eyes, this person is equivalent to a magic stick.

"Can I talk to him alone? Of course Medusa nodded, and then gave up her position. Natasha squatted down next to Gu Shaoyang, took off the pendant from her neck and put it in his hand.

"If you can see that their light is the same, please point me to that location."

So Gu Shaoyang carefully touched this small gem. It felt like a piece of warm jade, with Natasha's body temperature on it.

Then he asked him to help him up, and the position he touched with his toes was right here. shining point, but Natasha did not find anything on the surface

"You can't always look at things from the surface. Maybe the gem is underneath the rock."

Natasha in front of her nodded immediately when she heard this sentence, and then she looked down directly. At this moment, she discovered a point.

I didn't expect that among such layers of stones, there is really a A special corner appeared, so I immediately locked its position at this time and captured this area directly.

Unexpectedly, what appeared in front of me happened to be a ring made of jade, which really made me I was a little caught off guard. I didn't expect that his guess was really right.

Anyway, at this moment, I can also understand some aspects, but some choices in the process may become different. Anyway, it is useless no matter how much I hesitate now. , it's better to be honest here.

Chapter 709

"Have you found that thing?"

His voice came from behind again. Natasha nodded at this time, and then realized that he couldn't see it, so she hummed again.

After the person in front of her made a decision, she took him directly and started to go inside. Let's go. Medusa next to me wanted to stop him when she saw this scene, but she was stopped by Natasha next to her.

"I think what he said is indeed very reasonable. He can see these bright lights here. Why don't we just believe him once? Besides, wouldn't the compass be useless without him?"

Medusa in front of her hesitated for a moment, then bit her lower lip with her teeth, as if she was having a final struggle in her thoughts.

But I have to say that this question did catch me off guard, but I should consider these few things. I will also not give up.

After all, the things I have thought of must have also thought of some other things at this time. It is very likely that the things I should do will change during this process.

But the current situation may not necessarily be the same. Even though it went so smoothly, I could understand at this time that there were some different aspects that would definitely be different from mine.

Walking down this passage, I felt the feeling of cold wind hitting my face. It was undoubtedly a starting point.

Gu Shaoyang then groped around the wall and moved forward little by little, and happened to come to a corner next to it. Although it was not clear what would happen in the middle.

But Gu Shaoyang was here At that time, he expected something unnecessary. He didn't know what Zhao Yuyan was going to do at this moment.

And correspondingly, he had been leading himself forward like this since he came out, because he could hide at any time. My own.

However, I encountered some other troubles on the way. The traps left by Emperor Liuyun here were not just one or two, but groups of them.

"You don't need to tell me, it's enough for me to hide from the surface here. I can see their internal structure."

Hearing these words, Zhao Yuyan in front of him was stunned for a moment. What he said was true or false, but it sounded like a lie. But then he used his strength to confirm whether these words were true or false.

As he moved, he also began to discover some other things. He was really walking in this direction. Such things and actions on other sides really made his eyes light up. He had never seen such a scene.

But as his movements accelerated, he could see clearly. There was a time interval here, and it seemed that Gu Shaoyang had his own measurement direction in mind. So

Zhao Yuyan didn't say much and went directly back to his little world. To be honest, Yes, Gu Shaoyang was here just to see where the light was going. That was how it was just now, and it was definitely not much different now. He didn't expect that he accidentally hit him and he guessed it correctly.

But just as he landed, this one The white light suddenly disappeared, so Gu Shaoyang had to hang without falling.

The next second, another bright light appeared on the right, and Gu Shaoyang walked there with confidence. This was also the first time he understood that there should be more here. You need to look at the frequency, rather than jumping straight ahead here.

Chapter 710

Slowly began to cooperate with the actions here, and gradually saw some other Gu Shaoyang. At this time, the Seven Star Longyuan in his hand also began to vibrate.

It seemed that he couldn't control some of his inner thoughts. He would definitely not take the initiative at this time. After all, he still had to wait for a critical moment. Of course, Gu Shaoyang also fumbled for some clothes on his body.

Some of the wind on this dress can be felt concretely on your skin. If you say that all of this is fake, then it is too real, and you will definitely not believe it.

What's more, this is a trend now, so in the current situation, he also tried his best to turn the tide and thought of some other aspects, but Gu Shaoyang also saw some other scenes at this time.

If all this is logical, then I have to find some excess from several other locations.

After all, Zhao Yuyan did not follow him at this time, but kept floating above him, giving him some traps to guide Emperor Liuyun. What he did was really intensive.

If you want to leave from here, it will definitely be a difficult thing, but Gu Shaoyang did not hesitate more at this time. Maybe this was due to some other troubles he encountered along the way.

But at this moment, it invariably shows the redundant aspects, and generally speaking, it is just these few things.

Maybe this is what I need to face in the end, but I also see some redundant aspects, and I estimate that I need to take some other measures during this process.

As expected, the person next to him was waiting for him at this moment. Not only that, he even took the initiative to help here. This situation really surprised him.

But it was obvious that the aura on his body did not belong to Zhao Yuyan, so who exactly appeared in front of him? Now I can't see the world around me clearly.

This is giving me a huge headache. Why is it so difficult to find someone? But at this time, some other considerations also emerged.

Generally speaking, I have only made a small change in the things I do here. As for the ones I choose, it still depends on their abilities. After all, what everyone does here is definitely different from what I expected.

But then he started to contact Zhao Yuyan, but there was no sound from the other party, as if a living person disappeared out of thin air.

Gu Shaoyang is also a little nervous at the moment. You must know that now that someone has appeared but one of you is missing, you must have to consider some other aspects here.

However, the other party did not actively touch his fingers, but guided him forward bit by bit towards his arms. There were no white light spots on this road to remind him.

No wonder a person was suddenly sent out, but he could feel the other person's cold body temperature, just like a snake, his whole body was extremely cold.

I couldn't figure out what Liuyun Emperor was thinking. Of course, at this stage, Gu Shaoyang's Qixing Longyuan began to make that sound again.
