Chapter 731

So I didn't even hesitate here and called the person out directly. After all, for me, I really didn't expect that he would do such a thing.

I thought that the other party should reflect on it, but he kept causing trouble for me here again and again. At this moment, Zhao Yuyan in front of me was caught off guard and lowered her head.

"Tell me, what are you doing?"

"In fact, it's because she made a deal with him. She promised to restore my freedom here. In addition, I really don't like snake people. Every time you are so quiet with them, don't you think about me? Feelings?"

After hearing these words, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but feel a little unreasonable. What was he saying? The reason why he was so close to them was not because he wanted to escape from such a predicament here.

"Don't you still know why I did that? It's you who want to revitalize the family here, so I'm thinking of getting out of this predicament as soon as possible.

Maybe it can be of some help. I didn't expect that at this time, I had negotiated cooperation with others, but you left me a way out. I really didn't expect that I was eventually plotted because of you."

After hearing these words, Zhao Yuyan's face turned pale. What the man told her was not a script at all. Could it be that he had been deceiving her from the beginning?

Seeing her like this, Gu Shaoyang simply remained silent. Silently, this situation has nothing to do with him, and he doesn't want to continue to be involved with him. As long as he has some real skills, he won't be wandering here.

"And you said before that I can give you your body here right now. Do you think it's your little ability that I covet? Even if you don't look in the mirror yourself, I can see the truth even with illusions."

Hearing that he was belittled by the person in front of him also made Zhao Yuyan's face turn the color of pig liver, but he had nothing to defend.

After all, he had been a villain from the beginning, but he didn't expect that he had a villain's heart. In the heart of a gentleman, people not only don't care about these things, they even feel that they have nothing to do with them. In the end, it is just a highlighted result. But I didn't expect that all of this would turn into this scene today.

"Anyway, I don't want to confront you now. As long as you hold on to this drop of blood, you can be free here."

Then she turned around here, walked to the railing on one side and climbed up. Looking at the surrounding situation, Zhao Yuyan also became cruel and drank the drop of blood that dropped into her hand.

Then both of them were covered in blood. A halo of light emitted, and the contract was terminated. Seeing how simple it was, he was a little surprised.

"How did you know?"

"When the man in black you found was about to take my blood, I knew it would be useful, but I didn't expect that you could just drink ordinary water.

But what he wants is my heart and soul. Since you betrayed me for an ordinary thing, we will be enemies from now on. Don't think about any chance we will meet again."

What else did Zhao Yuyan want to say in front of her, but she didn't expect that Gu Shaoyang had already started to attack her at this time.

Chapter 732

Then he could only leave in disgrace. In fact, the incident itself was his fault, not to mention some other situations that would arise.

And correspondingly, I also learned some things. As long as I was prepared, I wouldn't be in jail here.

But now I can see it clearly. After all, I have learned some things at this moment. Compared with all these, I may think that these things will go more smoothly, but the current method may not be exactly the same as I think.

At this stage, Gu Shaoyang is undoubtedly hesitating about the compass, if he really starts from here.

That's probably the most troublesome thing, and now because I don't have the power, I can't push him to have any reaction at all.

Finally, seeing Zhao Yuyan disappear in despair, the person in front of him finally breathed a sigh of relief. He no longer wanted to face her face to face.

A person like him who only knows how to betray is not qualified to stand in front of his own body. I thought he was loyal, but now I see it is really bright.

No one who is loyal and sincere would choose him, so now he has recognized the fact and does not continue to worry about this matter.

After all, the more he does this, the more he has to learn about other aspects. After all, what he should do is also something that makes people feel hesitant.

It's just that at this stage, it's not certain that he will take the initiative to take this step, and there is also an embarrassing thing in this situation.

Before, it could be said that he was one of the best here, but the barbarian demon who never failed was caught, and it happened to be when he lost his strength. This stage was troublesome.

This current state has allowed me to grasp some aspects. It seems that other people I can guess in this process can also do it.

Therefore, at this critical moment, Gu Shaoyang would definitely not be able to use the Seven Star Long Yuan in his hand to do any unnecessary means.

But after driving Zhao Yuyan away, everything here returned to peace again. At this time, he looked at the exit, and suddenly there were a few people who didn't know what they were talking about.

Anyway, I don't have any laws now. Here, I can't call Qixing Longyuan to resonate with me.

On the contrary, the other party has always maintained a dim look, as if he has no feelings. The current scene caught him off guard.

It is also possible that some of the options at this time are different from what you expected. Anyway, since you have such great ability, you might as well start from the next few roads.

Maybe there are some superfluous directions. Of course, for me at the moment, I also think of some other superfluous directions since I have such ability at the moment.

Why not take the initiative? It's just that there will be some troubles more or less on the territory of the barbarian demons.

Therefore, I must be steady and steady here, and I must not do anything superfluous.

At this time, the barbarian demon suddenly appeared at the window, as if waving to him. It was really unexpected at the moment, so he walked to the door to stay.

Chapter 733

Unexpectedly, the barbarian demon just stood here and threw the throwing object in. At first, he didn't realize what it was.

Then the next second it hit him in front of his eyes, and Gu Shaoyang realized that it turned out to be something like a water droplet, and then he looked up and down.

It really caught me off guard at the moment, but some problems undoubtedly broke out at this moment. Even if I took the initiative here, I had to ensure that other things were resolved smoothly, but it didn't seem to be going so smoothly no matter how I looked at it.

"You have the time to imprison me here, why don't you want to let me out?"

"What's the use of letting you out? Do you think this is still your shining moment? Now even the number one person in this place has to bow to me."

Hearing these words, Gu Shaoyang was caught off guard. This was really beyond his imagination. After all, it was a bit unexpected at this moment. Since he had such an idea, he certainly couldn't stop him. I just don't know whether what he said is true or false.

Anyway, there is definitely a chance to verify it now, but it is more appropriate to see what method you can use to do it. After all, you can't take the initiative at this time.

Corresponding to yourself I also saw some things that I might have understood in a one-sided way before, but I don't dare to do it with certainty at this moment.

What if it's the same as before, and I don't know much about the surrounding environment now.

Is it possible? Before I took the initiative here, I faced some other troubles. Anyway, I was hesitating at the moment. The scenes that appeared one after another made me a little nervous.

But then the barbarian demon looked at me with a high look here, and then The body disappeared in front of his eyes, which really caught him a little off guard.

Several people next to him also came over at the right time, which really surprised him a little. Then the next second, he saw When he arrived at the surrounding area, it turned out that he had brought many younger brothers here. These people gathered in a circle and looked at him, as if they were looking at the creatures in a zoo.

Anyway, there is all he should say and do at this moment. I have tried my best. As for what will happen next, it is not something I can say clearly in a few words.

And I also discovered one thing. If I could speak smoothly in these situations before, then now it is Reached a dead end scene

"Don't say that our brothers are here to make things difficult for you. When you were here in glory, you never cared about our feelings."

At this time, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but feel a little strange. Are they sure they are talking to him? He didn't do anything before.

Even here, he kept a distance from them, for fear that they would accidentally target him. I didn't expect that my position would be back to the starting point by mistake.

But at this moment, Gu Shaoyang has no intention of continuing to confront them. It can be clearly seen that this person does not seem to have any intention of talking to him properly..

Then no matter how much I say, it will be of no use, and at this time, I find that this barbarian demon seems to be slightly different from before.

Chapter 734

It seems that he got some inheritance from somewhere, and he became unscrupulous with himself at this time, but at this time, he did not intend to kill him directly.

Instead, he was waiting for an opportunity. After all, at this moment, he was unable to contact the other eight holy gods and entered this area on his own.

So even if there is anything, it is not under their control, but the people around them are always staring at themselves.

Then he saw one of his younger brothers. It turned out that at this time, the man next to him had already looked over and realized that this was the Taoist Huo Man from before?

Why did he appear here? Could it be that he has successfully surrendered to the person in front of him?

Anyway, at this moment, Gu Shaoyang hesitated a little.

He just told himself how to leave here, so he was also grasping an opportunity.

I hope that this matter can be solved smoothly, but it seems that it is definitely not that simple, but I also understand some of the situations in the process.

"They are all here staring at you, so you should try to avoid them for a while. Someone will definitely come to pick you up after a while."

After saying this, the person in front of him left directly, as if the remaining things had little to do with him, anyway, at this moment.

I didn't intend to talk nonsense here, instead of fighting with each other in the end. All is lost, why not consider meeting other results here.

More or less, this is relatively smooth, but who is this? Could it be said that this will eventually become a reasonable situation?

Anyway, now Everyone left, let alone looking for so many directions here, and then I found someone nearby.

That was Zhao Yuyan from before. Unexpectedly, she kept a distance that was neither far nor close and was facing towards herself. , but then when I saw him,

I just gave him a cold look and had no intention of talking to him. After all, all the results I got now were caused by him.

If there is some way, then So that he won't be looked down upon by others here, this barbarian demon is also a bit weird. Why doesn't he still not fight back after he has already reached this level? There was a person next to him who rolled his eyes after hearing his question. He said something, but he looked like he had a sinister look on his face and was not a good person.

"This may be because he has lost his strength. After all, he is not the only one who has lost here. If we can't protect them all, we can directly capture him here."

Hearing these words, the Taoist Huo Man in the corner couldn't help but turn pale. He wanted to stop them here, but it might not be so smooth now.

But at this time, the Man Demon also understood from his words that it turned out that If it's like this, it's indeed a lot easier to deal with it by yourself, but what should be spoken and what should be dealt with will definitely not be that simple.

"How about this, you come with me, and the two of us see what kind of disturbance he can make. If he can't do anything, isn't it just what he wants?"

The person in front of me smiled and leaned forward, and immediately agreed.

Chapter 735

It seems that he used to hate Gu Shaoyang here. To be honest, he didn't actually do much.

But because of his own strength and the advantage he has here, others are very jealous of him, so now he is very clear in his heart.

If he really wanted to continue like this, Gu Shaoyang would only suffer a loss here, but the other party didn't seem to understand what he meant.

Anyway, when Gu Shaoyang sneaked out, he felt a little dazed the moment he saw him, then turned around and walked in the other direction.

Zhao Yuyan had been following him without saying a word, but at this moment Gu Shaoyang immediately turned his head. Just as he was about to scold him loudly, a group of people suddenly walked over next to him.

"Come and see how this man sneaked away!"

Then a large number of people from the army rushed over. Gu Shaoyang in front of him looked at him angrily, and then ran away.

As if he was afraid that the people in front of him would cause any interference to him, and this woman was also worried at the moment. There was a bit of decadence on his face. After all, he originally wanted to help here.

But for Gu Shaoyang, as long as Zhao Yuyan didn't show up, it would be the best thing. But at the moment, could the Eight Holy Gods compete with him? Get in touch.

If not, I have to spend a little more time to find them, otherwise I will branch off the route here, which would be terrible.

But correspondingly, I also discovered another thing. This Venus gave me before The impression left was the shadow on his body.

And I found that everyone here seemed to have only shadows, even the wild demons were included in it. Is this a world of shadows?

I thought I could detect it when I looked at my body. In which direction, he was a complete person.

Then after a while, the man walked over directly and took out the things in his hands. At first, he could not guess what was next to him.

But then In a second, a big trouble occurred. These people found their location accurately, which gave Gu Shaoyang a headache.

Because he was incapable now, let alone escaping here, even if he was doing something so-called in this place in front of him. It was already a bit strenuous to climb over the eaves and walls.

So now I felt a little helpless, but the moment they surrounded me, I saw a shadow in the crowd. This person was very familiar to me. Unexpectedly, He would actually join in with them at this time

"Were you also with them?"

But the shadow didn't reply to me. It just kept looking at me from the side, as if it could see some speed limit on itself. At the moment, I was indeed slightly caught off guard, but then I discovered something else here. One point, instead of having problems here one after another, why not look at other things?

After all, it is impossible for everything to be solved just right, so now I have to ensure that this matter can be solved reasonably.

But at this time I thought of Venus before, so I didn't talk nonsense to him here, but looked at the corner. I found the magma that time, but what should I do now?

Chapter 736

I can't figure it out now, so I just sit here and wait for the right time to deal with both aspects.

After all, I still know what to do. If I can understand these situations now, I don't need to hesitate here.

But there are always some things that are difficult to predict, so I must take the initiative here now.

Of course, during the transition period, I also saw some other things. The fact that this barbarian demon became the king of this place gave him a lot of mentality, and he even became arrogant here.

But there is another thing in front of him right now. Zhao Yuyan should not be within their sight, although he is no longer the same person as him.

But it is inevitable that I will still be a little worried about her. Although he cannot reverse the current situation, it does not mean that the eight holy gods cannot.

So he just had to hold on until a few of them came here, and then there would be no problem, and at this time he went directly around from several passages nearby.

Gu Shaoyang, who walked straight towards him, was not stupid. He knew what the barbarian demon was trying to do, and then he drew a whip here.

Aiming directly at himself, Gu Shaoyang did not forget to be alert to the surrounding situation while walking backwards, for fear that someone might come close to him.

Of course, I also know something else at this moment. After all, Taoist Huo Man also reminded me specially before.

It is estimated that what happened this time depends on their own thinking, but Fu Ruosha should be nearby, and they also smelled its breath. Could it be that he is also a member of the barbarian demon?

Now I was looking around, only to find that there was an altar outside this room, but there was a long passage inside this room, and everyone was isolated in a room. Could it be that he had captured all of this place from outside? person?

If this is the case, you should really pay him some attention to avoid any problems later.

"Today is the moment when we brothers are here to prepare to ask for the Holy Spirit. Everyone, please try your best to stay here. Next is the moment when I am here to dominate the world!"

Then everyone was cheering here, even showing off their power. The sound was as loud as if it was about to overturn the place. It really caught me off guard.

But the trouble that followed also appeared, and I suddenly I feel that the situation here does not seem to be so smooth. If I look at the current scene, some problems will occur more or less. But what should I do next?

"You guys, please light the torch for me here. This is our most glorious moment. Don't slack off here!"

Hearing his order, the people next to him were also very proud. They even used torches to light up some of the surrounding scenes. This surprised me a bit. The fires lit up directly. Seeing this moment, I was slightly caught off guard, and then the rest of the things happened here.

The shadow disappeared directly into the light at the same time, and I don't know where it was washed away.

But in this At that time, Gu Shaoyang undoubtedly believed that he must be here to tip off the news, but what exactly he wanted to do made him feel a little helpless.

Chapter 737

"I really didn't expect that all the masters in the past were defeated by me. If it were the same situation as before, wouldn't you feel a little ashamed when you saw such a scene?"

Right now, he is really arrogant, even talking to himself here, but he doesn't say anything now. The more proud he is. The more he feels that he has a chance to win this matter. After all, if he is really so If he has big abilities, then there is no need to worry about these small things with himself here.

But since he is willing to tell himself now, it proves that this time things are more or less unexpected, so next he only needs to It is enough to watch the surrounding scene here and analyze the direction here. The rest depends on luck. You may not know when a good thing will happen.

"quick! Lift him up!"

With the sound of the iron door creaking, he was carried out here. Seeing the excited eyes and gazes of the people around him, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but feel a bit indifferent.

You must know that he was a gentleman before, Why have everyone degenerated into such villains? They don't really think that the barbarian demon can stay here for long.

The aura of Furuosha has already appeared here, and it is estimated that he will be there in a while. Will appear here, and as for the person in front of me now, he can only be arrogant this time.

It is estimated that after a while, some other changes will happen soon. Anyway, I will definitely not speak out here now. , after all, this kind of thing has a lot to do with it.

But at this time, Fu Ruosha also gradually exposed his side. It seems that the other party should not be able to hold on at this time.

In this case, it would be convenient. After all, I have learned some other aspects here. Instead of thinking so much at this stage, why not take the initiative here? It is not a difficult thing anyway.

"Do you think you can win the final victory here? You only caught half of the people, and there are still some people running around. When they show up, you will be terminated."

Hearing these words, the person in front of him raised his head and laughed, as if he had heard something interesting, but he didn't intend to talk nonsense to him right now. Anyway, no matter how much he talked, he wouldn't understand what he was. I mean, you will think that you are being disrespectful here.

"There is no need to be harsh when death is imminent, and you are not the only one who has problems here. Believe me, they will be in trouble here soon."

This affirmative tone caught him a little off guard. Could it be that he knew some of the stages here from the beginning? Anyway,

Gu Shaoyang didn't intend to move forward recklessly now. Looking at him looking like he had a chance to win, he already knew He flinched back. After all, there is no need to make a fuss about those uncertain things here.

If he exposes himself directly here, then he will lose all face, but he believes that sooner or later, the locator on his body will be able to attract the eight holy gods to help here, after all, they still have some abilities no matter how bad things are.

But correspondingly, I also know that the abilities of these eight holy gods are obvious to all, but how to do it is definitely not that simple.

Chapter 738

Correspondingly, this barbarian demon caught me off guard. Could it be that the purpose of his appearance here was to consider these unimportant things?

It really caught me off guard at the moment, but once something like this happened, I couldn't help but look through these directions. After all, I could see some things now.

There seemed to be a special aura about him, as if someone had carved some buttons on his body, which really caught me off guard.

Then I took a deep breath here and looked at the position next to me. I thought I could understand this at this time, but now it seems that it may not be that simple. Not only that, I also learned something else in the directions on the left and right.

This barbarian demon has gone crazy now, and there is no need for him to stay here any longer.

After all, the current situation may give him some help in other positions, but the more impulsive the timing, the more likely it will cause some trouble.

So I must see what kind of abilities the barbarian demon can have at this time. If I solve it, then the rest of the things will be a sure win. Anyway, at this stage, I can figure out almost everything. Take action directly.

But the Taoist Taoist Huo Man just now came to him and specifically reminded him that if he had to do such a thing now.

That was going against his thoughts. Anyway, this moment really caught him off guard. Of course, the target state also reminded him of some other situations.

After all, he still lacks the help of two people on his left and right. Without Zhao Yuyan, he can only rely on himself.

There may be some trouble, but Zizi is not willing to fight with someone who has betrayed him. He is not worthy.

Moreover, I also saw the positions on the left and right sides. If I saw some other aspects before, then this situation seems to surprise me. After all, I understand it at this moment.

"I advise you to stay away from me and look for trouble in this place. After all, I don't want to cause trouble to you, so we each take a step back. Isn't this just right."

But the person in front of him was so presumptuous that he didn't seem to think of these insignificant things at all. On the contrary, he was caught off guard. Anyway, he could almost think of what he did, but at this moment, he must let himself It's a bit of a headache.

So next, I may need to understand some other aspects during this process, and I can just deal with these options.

"If you say that, then I have nothing to say."

The barbarian demon in front of him looked at him condescendingly at this time, as if he wanted to get something from him. Anyway, this moment caught him off guard. After all, he had already contributed what he could.

But this At that time, I didn't know why he kept me here. After all, everything that should be given to me had been given away. It would seem a bit wrong if he kept detaining me here. But I had no intention of speaking here.

Chapter 739

On the contrary, he is hesitating about several nearby states. After all, isn't everything here still based on the previous point of occurrence?

So more or less, I have to make sure that the current situation is reasonable, otherwise I won't do it in the end.

"I really don't know what you are trying to do here. Don't forget that we must have the same enemy here."

But at this time, he couldn't listen anymore. Instead, he felt that he was talking nonsense here. If this was the case, it must have caught him off guard.

But what should be considered is not that important. Instead, he should start from It was solved in several passages next to it, and I also saw the corresponding one.

The reaction of some people next to this barbarian demon when it was acting. It seems that everyone should have understood such a thing here, but why did people let it go? Just ignore it?

Do you think everyone wants to be attacked from both front and back here? The current situation is indeed a bit caught off guard, but it is not just these that should be considered.

But more large-scale accidents, after all, right now If you surprise yourself, it may cause some trouble, but now you are undoubtedly a foothold here.

If you can take the initiative here, you will definitely have a good opportunity, but I am afraid of all this.

I was replaced directly before I had time to make other judgments about the matter. Wouldn't it be very embarrassing? However, at this time, I thought of something else. No matter how good things are now, so what?

Anyway, the balance here will be broken in the end. No matter how good they think now, they can't withstand the final attack. Anyway, they can understand the current situation. Rather than triggering unnecessary factors later, it is better to take the initiative at this time. Propose it to them, but whether they believe it or not is another matter.

You can't try your best to persuade here, while they keep shrinking back. That is definitely not your style, and at this time, Gu Shaoyang also discovered that this There was a black aura surrounding the barbarian demon.

It was as if someone had drugged him. This moment really caught me off guard, but every time something like this happened, I should look around to see if there was anyone. Controlling him here.

After all, it was done deliberately, but it was more of a headache for me. It also made me a little surprised at the moment. After all, everything from this road forward was the scene I least wanted to see.

"Anyway, you will definitely attract other people's attention here, so you should proceed with caution."

Hearing these words made me a little surprised. I didn't expect such a thing to happen, but now it caused some troubles one after another.

After all, there is no doubt that the route here must be somewhat different from what I had considered before, but the more so. The more I have to face difficulties, this is my ability.

And the Eight Holy Gods are also counting on me for help, so there is no doubt that they must solve the immediate problem first, but I just don't know what they are doing. What are you struggling with?

Chapter 740

Taking the initiative now means that everyone's attention will be drawn to him, so he doesn't dare to do it even if he has great ability.

After all, what happened before has taught me a profound lesson, and now my initiative is to help those behind the scenes.

So no matter what, I can't let them go so simply. It will only cause all kinds of troubles for myself, but it does make me feel a little surprised at the moment. After all, no matter what I do, this time it also gives me a headache.

But Zhao Yuyan had successfully left before, and then she noticed the aura of Emperor Liuyun nearby. At this moment, even the gods coming could not help.

So no matter what, I have to solve this matter, but I also saw another approach.

This Fu Ruo Sha should be nearby. If he can sow discord and let the two of them start a fight here, then it can be said that he still has the strength to enjoy the results here.

I just didn't dare to make such a prediction for the time being, for fear of what impact the two of them would have on me by taking the initiative, but I didn't expect that the other party would throw me directly on the altar at this time.

This is indeed a bit surprising to me, but after all, no matter how thoughtful all aspects are, there is nothing to be proud of. Instead, I need to understand some other aspects at this time.

"I knew you were going to take action here."

The next second, Fu Ruosha actually stood up at this place, and then the other party turned his head strangely and looked at Salo in front of him. He had never seen this person before.

But why did he know his whereabouts?

But only Gu Shaoyang knew the reason at this time. He felt as if his identity had been changed here. He had become the enemy of the barbarian demon here, and Fu Ruosha no longer recognized him. Now he really felt a little bit embarrassed. It's strange, but there is no need to hesitate here.

After all, I now understand some other situations, and these things will more or less cause some trouble.

But now I don't want to hesitate about those irrelevant things here, after all It's a bit strange to say that it doesn't feel as smooth as I thought. Could it be that this is trouble?

But at this time, Gu Shaoyang thought of something else, so he rolled his eyes and looked at the person in front of him. She shouted, trying to get him to notice her.

Then Fu Ruoxa looked over here, and he immediately said everything he needed to say, as if he was digging a hole for others. At this moment, it was really frustrating. I was a little caught off guard, but every aspect must have seemed thorough. This is what I need to deal with most, but more or less changes must be caused by my hesitation here.

"Have you ever thought about what to do at this time?"

"Is it even necessary to think about it? Just rush up and capture her. She has great abilities. Could she still ambush me here?"

But Salo in front of him just smiled meaningfully, but didn't say anything else. After all, if he doesn't believe it now, it's useless no matter how much he says. It's better to just wait here for good news.
