Chapter 741

If he is chased and intercepted here, he will definitely come to seek his help. Wouldn't it be the best of both worlds to take action at that time?

Otherwise, if she doesn't believe in herself now, even if she speaks, it will be of no use, but she has learned about other situations. Rather than having these things happen one after another here, why would no one be willing to give herself a chance?

"This time things probably started from here. If you had really made some budget, then the few of us wouldn't be in such an embarrassing situation here."

"Several people? Aren't there only two of us now?"

Then the barbarian demon looked around here and found that Fu Ruosha came here alone, without even a gardener, which made him laugh even more crazily.

If this is the case, then for him, he is a It was a great joy. After all, he couldn't back down, and he had a chance at this time.

But there would more or less be some other troubles. It was precisely because of this choice that he had no choice but to stop his steps.

But Correspondingly, I went to find some other troublesome situations. If the previous things all started because of this incident, then it seems that I have found it now. After all, I still understand the true meaning of this matter and what to do. It's just that this road may not be so smooth right now.

"In this case, let's make a deal. If you think everything he does is normal, then we might as well develop on both sides. After all, I don't want to bother you here, and you don't want to be disturbed by me here, right?"

Hearing these words made the person in front of him hesitate a bit. Suili looked at the person in front of him carefully. If there was a reason before, then he must think that this is a more suitable road now, but In this process, I am not sure how to go more smoothly. It may be through this road, but it may also be through several other directions.

At this time, Fu Ruoxa followed some of the plans he had planned before. , rushed out directly. Unexpectedly, not only was he beaten back by the barbarian demon, but he even saw people ambushing here. The layers were more undulating than the other, and it seemed as if there were endless people here. Likewise, this scene at the moment also shocked him.

But at this time, you are just here with your eyes closed, as if you are very relaxed, but in fact you are just showing off.

After all, you know that the more you can attract his interest , I have made more and more improvements here. After all, I don't dare to gamble now. If I lose by then, I will lose everything here, and I also understand the situation on the left and right.

As long as there is If something becomes the premise here, I will not fall to this level, so there may be more or less trouble, but now is not the critical moment for me to hesitate.

"Did you just say you wanted to help me here?"

"This has a premise. I believe there is no one in the world who doesn't spend money."

Hearing this, the other party waved his hands here and there and interrupted him directly.

Chapter 742

"Tell me, whatever you want, I can give you whatever I have, but the premise is that I hope you can successfully take me out instead of leaving me here halfway."

At this moment, Gu Shaoyang narrowed his eyes and inquired here. He then nodded and asked him for a pill.

The other party did not have such a thing, but according to the instructions of taking care of Shaoyang, he was here Here, we used strength to fuse such a pill.

Looking at the small black ball in front of us, the people in front of us couldn't help but frown. To be honest, Fu Ruoxa has been floating here for so long and has never seen it. She has never had such a thing before, let alone such a strange request from him.

But since she wants to give it to herself, there is no need to waste this time here, not to mention that she has also learned some aspects. Even if she is releasing it here now The signal can be wiped out by them, but if he regains his strength now, it will definitely be a fate.

So Gu Shaoyang waved his hand and motioned Fu Ruoxa to come to him, put it next to his ear, and put the only person here I told him a route to leave.

This was what Zhao Yuyan mentioned to herself before. It was Gu Shaoyang who didn't intend to take advantage of it. He was optimistic that he would have to leave Fu Ruoxia in front of him anyway, so why not borrow flowers to offer to Buddha?

"Are you sure this road is okay?"

Right now, the people in front of me are really caught off guard, but for Gu Shaoyang, if Zhao Yuyan deceives him again, it will really be the moment when the two people break off the relationship.

I believe him for the last time, and then I will prepare for Fu Ruosha. When I left, I couldn't help but feel a little strange when I saw Gu Shaoyang sitting here leisurely.

"Won't you come with me?"

"I still have an unfinished account with him, and this barbarian wants to make things difficult for me, so I definitely can't let him go. Besides, if you want to leave, someone will definitely delay the time."

Then Fu Ruosha in front of him glanced at him gratefully, turned around and ran away. When the barbarian demon caught up in a hurry, only Gu Shaoyang was left here.

And the person who provoked him before ran away without mercy. Without a trace, a person next to him who took the opportunity to flatter him quickly came up.

"It seems that the king's invincible bravery must have scared away the rebellious minister and traitor here. He didn't even check whether he had such ability, so he came here to make a noise."

Hearing someone speaking, Gu Shaoyang in front of him slowly opened his eyes, and then stared at the chattering mouth, frowning here. He slapped his mouth directly from the air with a wave of his hand, which would kill him, but at this time A problem arises. For Gu Shaoyang, this is his greatest strength. If he wants to experience something else, it will definitely not be so easy.

Of course, seeing this scene, the barbarian demon next to him was a little afraid to answer him. , so he asked the people around him to go up and send him to the altar.

Several people are also here. Look at me and you, no one dares to take this step. After all, no one wants to become a soul under the sword. Who wants to be here? Going to die

"How come you guys are so cowardly? You are so cowardly when you are raising an army for one day and then putting it to use. Shouldn't you be executed directly?"

Chapter 743

As his voice became stern here, several people next to him also looked over here. After all, they were caught off guard at the moment.

But the aspects that should be taken into consideration are almost understood. At this time, they want to throw themselves on the altar, which is probably related to the previous incident.

But now he doesn't intend to let them go, but wants to continue it for a while longer.

After all, at this moment, he doesn't have to worry about speaking out about these things. Instead, he can stay here unscrupulously. After all, he can't do anything to him, and he won't take the initiative to attack.

"What happened this time is probably related to the previous one. If that's the case, we won't give in to anyone."

At this time, they were still discussing how to control the people in front of them. After all, they came to a secret room at this time.

But after entering, they were directly transported to various areas. The only one they met first was Natasha. and Medusa, the two looked at each other here.

The moment they saw each other, they were a little surprised and calm, but the two of them got together and began to study how to leave this area.

It was like a boundless prairie. Likewise, there are no animals up there, only the warm wind, the blazing sunshine, and the grass on the ground.

If you want to leave from here, it is simply impossible. After all, people like them who live in the desert are actually I have never seen the outside world.

Let alone seeing this scene, I have never smelled the air like this and seen these flowers and plants, but the flowers are becoming more and more charming.

Until a burning feeling suddenly arises next to me. I felt that I lowered my head and looked at the situation in front of me. Suddenly a barb grew on the ground in front of me. It pierced directly into the sole of my foot. No wonder I suddenly felt this pain. Then the next step A matter of seconds appeared that gave me an even bigger headache.

It might have just been a passing incident at the beginning, but now I am sure that this should be a trap, but I don't know what the cause of the trap is.

It's like a missing paragraph The memory was the same, so I deduced this according to the direction here, and at this time I successfully found Natasha who was hiding aside.

It turned out that the other party saw a huge thing in the process just now, and it flashed in front of him. Passed by, and then huddled directly in this small corner.

There was no hesitation. Maybe this was not the most suitable approach for him, but he was forced to do nothing at the moment, and he also saw his approach.

If so, If Natasha really wanted to escape from here, she wouldn't be like this. After all, he should have lost some memories.

It feels like the memories of both people are broken. Can they be put together? It's a troublesome thing, so it's more or less a surprise to me now.

Don't forget to look at the surrounding environment here. After all, you still have to solve it quickly at this moment. As for what the result will be in the middle.

That is what I have to deal with. After all, at this stage, I also understand that if I just watch the initial demonstration on this path, I can escape no matter what, but I am afraid that I will get deeper and deeper here.

Chapter 744

I also smelled the fragrance of flowers in the wind. It was indeed very tempting, and it was an unheard-of situation for them, but they had to know what to do now.

I must understand, otherwise I wouldn't hesitate here frequently. Of course, correspondingly, I can also see what other people do. They are here to take the initiative to take this step, but the subsequent results are never predicted..

You may not need to think so much now, after all, it won't be relevant by then, but correspondingly, you think of some other things.

The reason why they caused all these troubles at this time was not all because of Gu Shaoyang's help to them, if they came alone to find Emperor Liuyun.

I'm afraid there is no clue at all. This person seems to have disappeared from the world now. Even Gu Shaoyang cannot detect the location of Emperor Liuyun.

Finally, they finally found such a road. Unexpectedly, the two of them lingered on because of this environment, and even forgot to go back here to save him.

If he encountered any danger, wouldn't it be bad? So Medusa immediately patted her face and tried to wake herself up, and then walked to Natasha's side.

She shook his shoulders in this place to make him wake up quickly. After a while, Natasha also realized that everything here was false.

It is impossible for their hometown to have such a scene, but now it is too late to regret. They have now fallen into such a position, but the current situation really makes them feel a little off guard.

"So what do you think we should do now? Wanting to leave is not as easy as we think without scruples"

"That is natural. After all, we have been attracted to these environments and have gone very far inside. If we want to leave again, there will definitely be some troubles.

It's just that I also learned some things during this process. If I really have such ability now, then I don't have to stumble here. Instead, I can take the initiative and try to skip this matter."

"How about this, the two of us walk in two directions, don't we happen to have some communicators on us? Then keep in touch through this thing."

Natasha in front of her couldn't help but laugh out loud. She didn't expect that he would abandon her right here for that man. This really caught her off guard.

"No way, you are actually willing to do these erratic behaviors for that man. Don't blame me for not reminding you. He is still not one of us snake people and will never understand our thoughts. What's more, you are just following him now. He just joined forces, in case the time comes....."

Before he finished speaking, he was pushed away by the woman in front of him. After all, for Medusa, this person belonged to her previous memory.

It's not the messy ones, so I have to ensure that there will never be any trouble in this matter, not to mention that this incident at the moment also makes me feel a little surprised.

No matter how many possibilities there are, I can't compare. I am decisively attacking now, but I am hesitant about some things. It is one aspect, and taking the initiative here is another choice.

Chapter 745

"Okay, I won't talk nonsense with you anymore, just take care of yourself, I don't want to see you when I come out."

Hearing these words, the person in front of me was a little numb. Then I gave him a loyal kick and left directly. On this road, it was also a choice between two people.

Natasha knew that she would eventually One day I have to face these situations alone here, and even Medusa can't protect myself.

In fact, since I was a child, it seems that I have always been protecting Medusa in the eyes of others, but in fact my heart is fragile. , all because of him convincing these ideas for himself, it feels like he is the one person who can support all his life.

Without him, I would be a walking zombie here, but sometimes this thing that speaks out It can't be solved in a few words.

After all, I can see now that there will be some trouble more or less, but whether I am willing to do it or not is another situation, and correspondingly I also understand that in this jungle The real danger.

By describing the surrounding environment, the two people once again explored the route here. It turned out that among the bushes on the left and right, some strange plants and animals may appear anytime and anywhere. , so everyone is moving backwards now, trying to distance themselves from here, but they never expected that Medusa suddenly jumped into the middle of the grass.

When there was no sound next to the communicator, It made Natasha a little nervous. He couldn't be in any danger. He couldn't run away now.

But after calling a few times, he still didn't show up. But Natasha knew that she was back. There is no way to find others.

It is better to continue walking forward by yourself, maybe you can still find his location. At this moment, I am really caught off guard.

But anyone who can take these factors into consideration here is probably not a normal person. , so I was a little hesitant at this time.

I hope that these aspects can be solved, and correspondingly I also saw the position next to me. If everything before was for a reason, then it seems even more abrupt now.

"This time, please ignore me first. You must ensure that you are safe and sound here. I can't lean over to you now."

Actually, Medusa can only hear it because the signal flare cannot be heard very clearly, and there is no way to reply to him here. After all, he is now imprisoned in a world full of ice. It has always been a high temperature condition. Even the low temperature at night is not like this, so I have more or less other excuses here.

And correspondingly I also understand some troubles. Instead of rushing here when the time comes, it is better to stand in this mirror Behind him, see if he can find a passable path through the ice through this mirror.

After all, he more or less knows some of the situation. There is no need to surrender directly at this time. There are so many paths here. Lu, even if I try here, I have to crack this secret.

Chapter 746

And at this time, I found that there seemed to be a scene isolated among these ice cubes. If I could eliminate this option here.

Does that prove that you can get the final result? Medusa nodded now, and then encouraged herself in her heart.

He just stuck his head out here. The rest of the things seemed not difficult for him, and he also understood that the current stage was important, but whether he could do something had nothing to do with him..

Maybe what I am thinking is not going so smoothly, but there is no need to talk so much nonsense at this time. Anyway, in the end, it will be nothing.

What I can think of can definitely be done by others, so in the next state, I must discover some others, which can just replace all of this, but the process may not be as smooth as I choose.

His own shadow was quickly reflected among these ice cubes. In fact, he had not seen these scenes at this moment, so he thought it was his own illusion.

But as everyone knows, what follows is the calm before the storm. After all, it is at this moment that I realize that the things I thought of before are actually just changes in some things.

As for what changes will happen in the end, it's not something I can say clearly in just a few words.

And correspondingly, I also discovered an extremely magical thing. If I choose some situations here, does it prove that I have received some changes?

Although I could understand what they were going to do in this matter, when I actually came to it, I wanted to escape.

After all, there are some things that are irreplaceable, and it is very likely that I will cause some trouble here, but there is also a substitute. After all, this is the best curve, and of course I can also see it.

Rather than sinking into a dead end position in this place, it is better to take the initiative and maybe be able to capture them. At this moment, no matter what happens in front of you.

Anyway, he just rushed over, and Medusa felt a little caught off guard at the moment. These ice cubes were undoubtedly filming such a scene in front of his eyes.

This really caught me off guard, and correspondingly, I also saw some other things. In the end, I was in vain.

This is simply impossible. Instead, he is waiting for a suitable time to cut into the opposite area. Even if these are different from what he expected, it doesn't matter. After all, this is not what he has to consider next.

At this time, I was also trying to get closer to the edge. Maybe I wasn't very clear about it this time, but now Gu Shaoyang was far out of my sight.

Now I must seize the time to prevent these other things from happening. This is what I should consider most at the moment, and correspondingly, I have also seen several approaching directions.

To be honest, you can't just skip these things if you want to. After all, everyone is here waiting for such a suitable opportunity.

So in the end, it was natural that I wanted to do this, but it still fell on my shoulders, even if the previous situation was different from what I had considered.

Chapter 747

And at this time, he also heard the news from Natasha's side. It seemed that he should have successfully reunited with those people at this time.

I am also clear at the moment. After all, the situation that can be understood in this aspect cannot be explained clearly in a few words. It is just that there will be more or less problems. As for what will happen at this time, that is not certain.

"There is a place on this route where you can eventually escape, but only if you have the skills to capture it here."

Hearing these words, the people in front of me were somewhat caught off guard. Could it be that this is the final matter? But now I am also a little surprised.

After all, some situations that occurred during the process were not expected by me at this time. Yes, after all, taking the initiative to attack and slowly retreating are two different things.

But at this time, the signal Gu Shaoyang gave him did not point to one of them. There should be many others next, and at this time, the man in black gradually found Gu Shaoyang's position.

It turns out that he entered the area at this time and was also caught by the wild demon. In fact, the wild demon was a person who was absorbed in the forest.

This illusion can pass through the first person's thoughts here Changes occurred, so now everyone is because of this

"Are we going to go in and save him now?"

"Why is this his world? If we go in, we will only be suppressed here like Gu Shaoyang. It is better to stay away from this place, maybe there is a solution."

Xiao Bairang in front of me is a little caught off guard at this moment. It's impossible to think about all aspects so carefully. In any case, I don't have such an option.

After all, both the man in white and the man in black must be able to think of these aspects. , in fact, it should be done in this way.

But when I finally thought about it, something was not quite right, so I had to turn the page again, but now I have made myself think about it.

As long as something can appear now situation, then I won't be like this, but there are some things I shouldn't say rashly

"If you really want to go, you might as well wait and see what's going on nearby. If he can give us some signal support here, then we'll go with him."

The man in white also nodded. What he said now is undoubtedly the best result, but he is afraid that some of it is completely different from what he thought.

Wouldn't that be bad, and at this moment, he is also Now I understand, more or less, I was hesitant here before.

So what to do seems to be a point of doubt, but now I also thought of something, since they are a special person here. options, then why can't I learn something from them?

Then the two people continued to explore around, trying to see clearly the changes around them, but the purpose and imagination are always two different situations, and I will not know for a while.
Can't explain

"I think it shouldn't be much different if you walk from here. Why don't you come with me?..."

Chapter 748

The man in white in front of him nodded, and then followed the man in black away. This moment was really surprising, but it was much better than stumbling here.

And correspondingly, I also saw a scene and the subsequent hesitation here. Why don't I think about other things? Maybe some redundant aspects will appear at this time.

But now I can't explain it in just a few sentences. Instead, I am looking at the scene next to me. After all, I am also hesitant at this moment. If any problem arises, I have made some preparations.

"What happened this time is probably similar to what we guessed. The wild demon must have used other methods to control these people here."

The current situation really caught me off guard, but the man in white quickly moved his position here and walked to the side.

As if he was sure of winning in such a matter, seeing his actions and position made me It was a bit surprising. After all, what I had considered before was nothing more than these aspects. As for what to do next, it depends on them.

"We sprinkle this medicine powder on top of this interface here, and we will take care of Shaoyang himself whether he can come out."

Then a few people ran away directly here. At this time, Medusa and Natasha separated into two groups. Unexpectedly, they successfully collided with each other at the end. At the moment, I was really caught off guard, but everything was different. It's much more complicated than I expected, so I have to take these factors into consideration next, otherwise, if there is any difference, I will be a little surprised.

"Most of the things this time are related to Union, so just focus on this and get this thing done."

Hearing these words, everyone in front of me paused. It seemed that I had not thought of saying this, but I was slightly hesitant. There is a high probability that this is a troublesome situation, but correspondingly it is also Some other things happened. In the final analysis, it still depends on Zhao Yu.

But the other party has already started to run to other places. At this time, Gu Shaoyang still doesn't know that everything will really start from him. Instead, he looks at himself here. The position next to him.

To be honest, these eight holy gods seem to be of no use here, but the people next to him gave him a warning.

If he really wants to do what he thought before, it is very likely that something will happen. Even if he can foresee some troubles now, it may not mean that other things will happen smoothly.

So after thinking about it, he finally stopped on this matter.

But Gu Shaoyang thought of it secretly. Some thoughts, as if something fell from the air, anyway, at this moment, I was dragged to the altar by them.

Even if my strength is here, there are two of them who are not afraid of death and leave here. Coming over, Gu Shaoyang just looked at the two people who were condescending.

Although he didn't know what they were thinking, it might not be an advantage for him at the moment.

So more or less, he was also thinking about what he could do in this matter. Do you want to give yourself some help? Sometimes I think of some things, but they may not be as accurate as I predicted.

Chapter 749

"As long as you are on this altar, you will not be able to escape. Someone will soon give you a fair treatment here, so that you don't have to talk nonsense here all the time. It just so happens that this time it can be regarded as helping you."

Hearing these words, Gu Shaoyang in front of him raised his head and looked at him, and did not forget to smile at him, as if these things had nothing to do with him.

After all, in the final analysis, it was nothing more than changes in these few things. That's all, in the end, it's not just you who's trying to draw water out of the bamboo basket, and the rest of the things have nothing to do with you.

But correspondingly, I'm definitely not the only one who is ready to go, so I still have to take a look next What are they planning to do?

This may be the most important thing, and correspondingly, I have also seen some changes around me. If it was an illusion before, then now is undoubtedly the end point from that moment.

But in this Whether he hesitated or stopped at this place, it was actually of no use, otherwise he wouldn't be shaking his head here.

But the person next to him didn't seem to have thought that all of this had been chasing him. Even if he continues to attack, he is really caught off guard at the moment.

He does not place his hope on anyone. After all, he now knows that he is in an isolated and helpless state.

Even if he finds the strongest one temporarily People will only become what they are now. But no matter how I say it, I also discovered some of the whereabouts of Emperor Liuyun at this time. In fact, he has always been around a few people. It's just that

I have never noticed it. In this situation, I didn't expect that this time the fate of the barbarian demon in front of me would be delayed, and I accidentally bumped into it.

Just above the little black where he imprisoned me, it was all filled with graffiti colors. I was also graffitiing here just now. In his analysis, he saw the things he had been searching for.

If I remember correctly, there was nothing he could do about it at that time, otherwise he would not have had to make such a choice here.

But he was not in a hurry at this time. , anyway, there were some changes in the end, but at this moment, I also saw some nearby choices.

Unexpectedly, at this time, the clues of Emperor Liuyun and his inheritance were temporarily placed on the body of the barbarian demon, so I absolutely You can't kill him here.

Later, during the conversation with him, I also heard some familiarity in his words, which were exactly the same as the person who gave me guidance in the cave. After all,

I am not stupid. , who else besides Emperor Liuyun could speak in such a condescending manner?

So I happened to put my thoughts on this. Unexpectedly, I happened to discover it by accident, and I was indeed a little surprised at the moment, But there are some things that are irreplaceable.

So you must also decide on these aspects, and even deduce some other directions here. It may not be clear to you, but other things are still the same.

"I didn't expect you to deal with the problem like this at this time."

Chapter 750

At this time, Manmo was stunned for a moment. He didn't know whether he couldn't figure out what the person in front of him was talking about, or whether he had other choices. Anyway, at this moment, he was just looking at her with squinted eyes.

It's as if all the clues can be learned from him. Anyway, this moment is really a little surprising.

But no matter what, Jingxi still exists, so I don't think this is an unexpected situation now, and now I have discovered another point.

Instead of being hesitant here, why not take a look at the other options, and I learned a few aspects here.

But now I am not sure that I will compete. The starting point of everything is different. If I book my own place here, I will lose money in the end.

The barbarian demon also discovered it. He should have guessed his true identity. He didn't expect that this kid's intuition was so sensitive. If he had known it, he would have changed his mind.

He wouldn't be questioned like this here, but what he actually didn't know was that no matter how many times he changed here, the same result would still happen.

After all, everyone is here waiting for this opportunity, so no matter how he chooses to do it, it will still become the same in the end.

However, at this moment, I was a little surprised. Maybe this was something I hadn't discovered during the process. At this moment, I was a little helpless.

"Why don't we make a move here? I believe you will also find that everyone starts on an equal footing here.

I don't want to embarrass you, nor do I want to be embarrassed here, so we each take a step back. This is better for everyone, what do you think?"

But the barbarian demon in front of him suddenly laughed wildly, as if he heard something funny.

But at this time, Mr. Gu in front of him looked at him calmly, and his thoughts had nothing to do with his own. Related.

I don't even need to question it here. After all, everyone has different ideas. I just need to wait for the result here.

I also know that most of the people in front of me will not agree. But what does it matter to me? I don't need his approval or his ideas.

He deliberately said this in Gu Shaoyang's ear, for fear of being heard by a few people nearby. After all, he is a fake.

If someone really finds out his true identity, it will be quite embarrassing, but he did Nothing has much to do with me. Now I am taking the initiative to lend a helping hand. As for the rest, it depends on each person's ability.

"If this is the case, why are you still hesitating? Get angry and burn it. We have just finished handling this matter, and the remaining time will be left to everyone to deal with their own affairs."

After all, this game is still going on. At this time, I found that there seemed to be a little bit of a normal atmosphere. It was like acting before, but to be honest, it also made me hesitate. After all, no one can do it here now. I believe they are all a virtual one.
