Chapter 751

Only I am the real candidate here, but now I feel a little unexpected.

But if you go too far, you will draw attention to yourself, so more or less you have to decide what to do. However, at this moment, Gu Shaoyang is still a little hesitant.

If he really had to face Emperor Liuyun face to face, then he would definitely be a little nervous. After all, he had also considered some other things at this time.

But correspondingly, I also learned about some other situations. At this moment, even if I have great abilities, I have to start with this matter.

Instead of dealing with these aspects rashly, could it be said that I am always a chess piece that has not been calculated?

But the Eight Holy Gods have a connection with him, and he will definitely not abandon him so decisively, so now he wants to wait for an opportunity.

See who will give you some help here. After all, it can be seen from the current situation that they will definitely not abandon themselves here.

At that time, it was really a waste of time, but it also made me a little surprised. If I really followed the previous template, would it be slightly different from what I thought?

Although I don't know if this approach can be successful, it is the only way to do it.

"Most of what happened this time is related to that, so I won't say anything else. You can just decide the direction for yourself."

The man in front of me smiled and was not thinking about anything, but something happened in the next second that made me feel very surprised.

After all, I was definitely caught off guard at this stage, but the more this happened, the more I had to make sure. This is a reasonable situation.

In the end, there are indeed many things that end up in vain, but now I don't want this to happen. At least I need to adjust here, and I may have some surprises in this process.

But at this moment, the Eighth Congress The Holy Spirit will start walking on a certain path, but it is not his turn to search here. After all, at this time, who will be the final one at this time depends on what Shaoyang does.

But before stepping onto the altar At this second, Gu Shaoyang raised his head and looked at the man in front of him.

He didn't need to say anything else to cover up his actions. After all, if the barbarian demon was really Emperor Liuyun, he would definitely be able to guess I didn't know what I was going to do.

However, this moment really caught me off guard. After all, this situation had never happened in any of the previous templates, so it didn't make me feel that I should take it for granted. Instead, it seemed even more so here. Abrupt.

However, the person in front of him seemed to know what he was going to do. He actually started to back up and distanced himself.

But at this time, the person in front of him definitely didn't say anything nonsense. The more he hesitated here, the more he hesitated. The more I gave myself a chance.

I don't know whether it was because of this space or because I stood on this altar, but I felt that the strength in my body was constantly recovering.

So at this time, I saw the barbarian demon in front of me, and the other party was He looked like he was sure of winning, and the corners of his mouth were grinning to the back of his ears.

But at the moment, he didn't speak, and he didn't even say that he wanted to recover.

Chapter 752

Since he hopes to get such a leeway, he might as well let her continue to be rampant for a while.

Anyway, in the end, it was not him who was harmed here, but now Gu Shaoyang met some other Fu Ruo Sha, so he left decisively.

What exactly have you done? Shouldn't you turn around and fight with yourself here?

But now is not the moment for him to hesitate. The barbarian demon pulled out a particularly long whip from his side and looked down at the beginning of the Salo case. There was an accidental look in his eyes. It seemed that he didn't want to be here. Think through these aspects.

But at this time, the barbarian demon in front of him had no intention of letting him go. If Gu Shaoyang was really powerful, he would have taken out his Seven-Star Longyuan to fight him here.

I don't know if his thoughts were too strong or something, but he didn't expect that the Seven Star Long Yuan actually floated out of his body at this moment.

And just blocking in front of Gu Shaoyang, this also made Gu Shaoyang a little surprised. He had never seen Qixing Longyuan make such independent movements.

This was the first time, and it was still to protect myself. After all, it made me feel a little warm and yangyang in my heart.

But something else appeared in the next second. I still knew what I should do at this moment, and stumbling here would not be able to give me any help.

He can only give himself an adjustment step here, but at this moment, Gu Shaoyang is definitely a little surprised. This Qixing Longyuan may be different from what he thought before.

But now even the compass is floating here. Seeing the two weapons in the air really makes my eyes light up.

Maybe this compass can also follow the template I drew before. It doesn't matter if I think so, but I didn't expect that I would do something related in the end.

In the final analysis, it must be related to this, but the person in front of me doesn't seem to be thinking about it, as if it is an unimportant matter.

But this moment really makes my eyes shine. First, it was because of some accidents that happened here that led to what I am experiencing now. But at this time, I don't need to think about those insignificant things. After all, I won't give myself anything. help

"Who guessed it right this time?"

"That must be something I already have a chance of winning. Do I need to ask again?"

The way the person in front of me smiled overlapped with the person in my memory. It turned out that he had been hiding his identity here.

No wonder he would give himself such a big blow in this place, but now he doesn't. I don't plan to dwell on this matter.

Maybe this matter is slightly different for him, but I can also teach him a lesson at this time.

"You don't need to tell me what happened this time. It's definitely not much different from the previous template. You don't need to think too much. Just do your best here."

The person in front of him nodded and immediately retreated, while the barbarian demon took the whip in his hand.

Chapter 753

The person just now came to inform me, saying that it was Puruo Sha from the periphery, and he killed him again and said he wanted to teach him a lesson.

But at this time, she was not taken seriously by the barbarian demon. You must know that if you are really worried about her at all.

Then he will be right about the title of the current ruler. After all, he must kill decisively, so that the people under his command can trust him and even treat him here.

The person who just left also turned around and walked to the side at this time. After all, everyone was thinking about these thoughts here.

It's just that how to take action at this time is still unknown. After all, no one will try their best to do such a thing here, but correspondingly, I also saw several positions on the left and right.

His left and right guardians were all selected from the crowd. Although they were not considered to be superior in strength, they were not far behind at this time.

After all, I have thought of these, but correspondingly, I have also understood some situations. Instead of stumbling here, why can't I take a look at several nearby situations? Do these things also make me feel a little hesitant? ?

After much thought, he still placed the two of them next to him. After all, the nearby areas cannot guarantee his safety here. No matter how good the defense is, it is of no use. In the end, it is not all. Fetching water from a bamboo basket was in vain.

And Gu Shaoyang also guessed at this time that he would do this. After all, in his eyes, he was an enemy, someone who wanted to let him go here.

However, I am not in a hurry at the moment. According to my budget, Fu Ruosha will appear here soon.

As expected, just after he had been beaten by him on the altar, this man appeared in front of him very quickly, and he could also use the Seven Stars Long Yuan.

The man took the Qixing Long Yuan and just made some gestures here. He finally drove away the person in front of him, but now he couldn't help but think of some other things.

If the previous situation was similar to what he thought, then it can be done now. It went on naturally, but there were some things that were different.

Then I definitely couldn't handle it at this stage, and I also saw a few people nearby. If they were really capable of doing these things here, then I would be able to judge.

But at the moment, it is not under his control, let alone this tendency. At this stage, the barbarian demon is waving his whip.

There was no hesitation at all because of Fu Ruosha's arrival. At this time, Gu Shaotang stood up and looked at him with a smile, which also made the barbarian demon in front of him a little annoyed.

So at this moment, he whipped the whip in his hand towards her, as if these things were irrelevant to him. The current situation gave him a headache.

And when Fu Ruo came over, he must have been a little panicked when he saw such a scene, so he came over unprepared.

It just happened to avoid the current person's whereabouts. I have to say that at this stage, everyone was indeed a little nervous, for fear that if Furuo killed the person here and rescued the person, wouldn't the boss in front of him be disgraced?

Chapter 754

But at this time, the barbarian demon didn't seem to be in a hurry. Instead, he stood beside him and looked at him, as if what happened this time had nothing to do with him.

At the moment, I am a little caught off guard, but Fangfang's thoughts must have changed, but I don't know it right now.

"I didn't expect you to learn how to pretend to be someone else, what's going on in your heart."

At this time, the other party just smiled, and his face looked innocent and harmless, but only two people close to him knew what he was thinking.

Although I don't know how he viewed this matter, but it can be clearly felt that he seems to be possessed.

Although he wants to let the person in front of him rush forward at this time, he must also consider whether his doing so will trigger some other states.

Then Si Lai I wanted to go here but I looked at the corner next to me. I thought I could solve such a thing here, but I didn't expect that in the end it was all in vain.

This situation was really placed in front of me, giving me a slight headache. But in response, he directly stretched out his hand and grabbed the person in front of him, preventing him from taking the initiative to attack here.

"Now there are only two of us left. You should play it safe. If there is any problem, I will handle it here for you. Don't be too nervous."

After hearing these words, the man in front of me gradually calmed down. After all, I also saw it at this time. If he took the initiative to rush forward, I couldn't guess at this moment. If these things happen to me at that time, Wouldn't it be bad if he had to face all these troubles?

The other party naturally wanted to go and figured it out. These things should not be much different from the predictions, and then made a change here.

"Don't worry, just hide behind me and I'll let you know if there are any problems."

Hearing these words, Furuo in front of me killed him. He has no ability now. He can't just fight with others alone.

But there is no need for him to talk nonsense now. After all, the other party probably doesn't need him here. Talking about insignificant things is just a situation that happened more or less.

It also made me seem a little unable to occupy the home court. After thinking about it, I finally locked the target in the position in front of me.

Since there are so many people Being able to take the initiative here proves that this is definitely not much different, so now I need an intermediary point.

I can solve everything here, but this kind of position is quite difficult to find, especially now. At this point, the more things I think about, the more troubles I will create and deal with here, but it is not my fault to think about those things.

But correspondingly, Gu Shaoyang also noticed the people around him at this time. Some actions, if the previous ones were not drawn according to the script I wanted, then this one is even more strange. After all, how could someone suddenly appear here? This is a remote wilderness, unless someone planned it All this.

Did he set up a trap to do something he was willing to do?

However, being able to see a redeemer appear in front of him really made him feel a little satisfied. All aspects were considered carefully, but only at this time It's not the same, maybe there are some changes.

Chapter 755

At this moment, no one else saw it, but they saw this special point that stood out in front of me, which was a tattoo on the body of the barbarian demon.

If I remember correctly, this should be the symbol of a certain organization. Could it be that one of the ten holy gods is actually a member of this organization?

If this is really the case, then you have to take precautions. After all, the reputation of this organization is not that good.

If you want to join them at this time, you will definitely not be willing to do so. After all, if nothing else, this organization has been unrighteous from the beginning.

Although he is not mainly responsible for shocks, it can be said that he is taking the blame for his appearance here, and now there are other people who need to be protected.

But how can the Great Holy Spirit get in touch with each other at this time?

Now that I only have Fu Ruo Sha, I can't guarantee that this matter can be resolved smoothly.

And correspondingly, I also saw some of Fu Ruosha's actions. If I had not guessed wrong before, then the previous situations would have happened at this time. Now I also expected part of it.

But they also know that they will not feel any gratitude to themselves, or even have other emotions. After all, they are such people.

I don't have much expectations for them. Even if those people were saved by me, how could they see the second before they fell into the world?

Aren't you still watching the joke? It's as if you didn't see yourself being targeted here. You've experienced too many things like this, but you've become somewhat used to it.

However, at this time, I also hold on to my last hope. If they are willing to lend a helping hand to me, then I will definitely do my best to help them.

It's just that I haven't considered this stage at the moment, even if it's the same change for myself, maybe this is the final way.

However, the starting point, end point and location of this road cannot be explained clearly by myself in a few sentences, and correspondingly, I also see that his approach is not far different from what I thought, but The more serious it is, the more you have to choose to prevent these things here.

But in the next second, a person suddenly appeared in the sky and intercepted everything. Upon closer inspection, it turned out to be Zhao Yuyan.

I never dreamed that he would actually come over and see two acquaintances. The barbarian demon was smiling very happily at this time. At worst, he could kill them all directly. He just happened to be able to achieve the status of the top ten saints. 3rd Place.

It seems that this time he has really gone crazy. It would be a fool's errand to stop him with just his own skills.

So I looked at the surrounding environment again here, hoping to find a way to end all this, but thinking about it, I know that this is just my expectation, but what will happen in the end is actually written in the book early in the morning. inside this future.

At this moment, Gu Shaoyang is also inquiring about some of the practices of the person in front of him. Instead of seeing him stumbling here, it would be better to cut through the mess quickly and solve it, but it is not that simple.

After all, everyone is gathered here at this time, waiting for a reasonable opportunity to happen, but he doesn't know this, but if he really wants to do this at this time, he will also face a lot of interference.

But at this time, the network around them was a little worried. After all, he was very clear about what they were doing here.

Once he really lets it go and confronts these people, it is very likely that he will be dismantled and moved into his home. After all, he has stayed here for a long time and knows the intentions of this barbarian demon.

He smiled so happily, and most of the things were related to the present. It seemed that he had already predicted many things in his mind that would solve them here.

I just don't know if he wrote the script here better or if he figured it out faster.

Although this is a suspicion of mine, it doesn't mean that I don't have some extra thoughts. After all, I have seen several nearby areas at this moment.

The current state is far from being as good as I judged, so even if I have great abilities, it goes without saying.

However, at this stage, Gu Shaoyang could clearly see the weapon in the hands of the barbarian demon, knowing that it should belong to the previous person.

How could it be in his hands now? His eyes were stunned for a moment, and then he looked at Fu Ruosha and another person.

Although she drove Zhao Yuyan away, she didn't expect that he would come back here again, looking at her with very worried eyes.

As if she was afraid that she would tear down the place here, seeing her worried eyes made Gu Shaoyang in front of him dodge a little.

Chapter 756

I wanted to avoid his opinion, but I didn't expect that the other party was staring at me closely, as if I ran away from him in the blink of an eye.

The look in his eyes caught him off guard. Could it be that he had such a status in his mind?

But the next second I pulled some distance here, I saw some speculations from the people next to me. I guess things are not that simple this time.

Barbarian Demon walked directly at this time. He was afraid that the person in front of him wouldn't recognize him, so he even introduced himself to him.

"I really didn't expect you two to have the time to visit such a small place like me. I thought I would never see you two again. Since you took the initiative to send me to my door, don't blame me for being rude here."

Then the person in front of him rushed over without even a moment's hesitation. He simply moved to the side and put a certain distance away. This person was not polite, he just charged with the weapon in his hand. Going up, the moment the two people were confronting each other, the air around them was flowing backwards.

To be honest, the people next to them were dumbfounded. They didn't expect that the two people were so powerfully competing here, but in this transition During the period, I could see several nearby directions.

Logically speaking, things this time will definitely not be what I thought, but no one dared to be sure here. Zhao Yuyan next to her looked at Gu Shaoyang very worriedly.

He must have suffered a lot of injuries. After all, he saw that there were traces of blood under her neck from being whipped. I don't know why this man seemed to have a special resentment towards him. He was so cruel to her. If the boss knew about it, he would definitely not be able to eat it and walk around. Then the woman in front of him turned her head and glared at him. The barbarian demon turned around and saw his look, thinking that he had eaten it here. I, who was always very happy, suddenly came over from the side.

Many people took a closer look and turned out to be the exclusive snake man in the desert. At this time, they pulled their thoughts back. Unexpectedly, the two of them were actually there. This place was the same as this one.

It was specifically used to deceive the barbarian demon in front of him. Unexpectedly, it just delayed Li for a while, but at this time, Gu Shaoyang was definitely a little strange. Weren't they still trapped in such a place before?

How could it be possible that they escaped not long after this?

But when he was surprised, a look of worry appeared on his face. In fact, he did not give Gu Shaoyang a reasonable explanation for the real result.

At first, he was just anxious to He walked away from here, but he didn't expect that he completely misunderstood what he meant. Seeing this situation now, he should have understood it.

But he didn't expect that the person in front of him had no opinion of him at all at this time. On the contrary, while recovering her strength at this moment, she rushed forward with the weapon in her hand. At this moment, Zhao Yuyan could not avoid it. She had to close her eyes and let herself go. Unexpectedly, there was someone behind her in the next second. There was a sound, and when I looked back, I found that it was a person who was here before, who wanted to sneak attack me. He happened to be captured by the person in front of me. To be honest, he was a hero because he was beautiful. I don't know how many times I have fantasized about it in my heart.

But because of deceiving him, he has been put on hold here for a long time. He didn't expect that he would have such an opportunity now. However, after the other party saved him, he grabbed him like another little shrimp. on the back of his neck

"Since I saved your life, shouldn't you explain to me what the situation is this time?"

The person in front of him nodded, with a somewhat helpless look on his face. To be honest, he didn't want to mention too much to him at this time.

But he still reversed the time and space they had experienced here, and this time in advance One thing was said, and only then did we realize that during the period when he was unconscious, it seemed that not only a part of what happened, but even from his verbal description, he could clearly know that he should be asleep. It lasted about a month.

During this period, no one could wake him up. In desperation, they had to speed up their process, which meant that after being teleported away, they should have seen each other. Since they were guaranteed If you are safe, you don't have to worry about it now, and you sit down on the ground, as if you are completely relieved.

But things in your house don't seem to be that simple at this moment, after all, everyone rushed over.

If he had followed his previous plan, he would definitely have taken the opportunity to escape at this time, but now that Fu Ruosha and Zhao Yuyan are both here, it would be a bit unloyal for Yan to leave now.

Chapter 757

In desperation, Gu Shaoyang had no choice but to return to this area. When he saw Fu Ruosha in front of him, he raised the corner of his mouth and smiled at him.

But Zhao Yuyan next to him returned to his side and was here to help without even looking at him. At this time, he realized that he seemed to be able to stand alone.

Unexpectedly, during this period of his life, everyone became different, and Medusa also stood in front of him at this time, and he changed back to his original appearance from the little snake he was before.

The woman who is still the same as the elder sister suddenly appeared here, but to be honest, I kept hesitating at this time.

Maybe this is your own time. As long as you can seize this opportunity, you will be able to make other improvements.

But to be honest, I definitely couldn't do everything thoroughly at this time, so I could only take out my Seven-Star Longyuan and rush forward at this time.

This Qixing Longyuan had not been used for a long time. As soon as spiritual power was poured into it, many things like sparks appeared on it.

Seeing this, the Internet also rediscovered the stone system he was here. After all, it was impossible for him to take a breath here now.

Although this was the case, the barbarian demons in front of them did not seem to intend to back down. On the contrary, at this time, they looked like they had a chance to win.

The more I saw him like this, the more distressed I became. I even wanted to curse loudly here, but I didn't do it at this time. This was the most despicable method.

The person in front of him smiled very mockingly, as if what he said was not at all. Anyway, the person in front of him didn't mention anything at this time.

Just watching his figure, the barbarian demon shook the hand in his hand at this time. Something seems to be beckoning them to attack.

"I didn't expect you to get together, so I won't relax. Are you going to come one by one or in a group?"

The person in front of him frowned and didn't know what to do, but he didn't talk nonsense to him here and directly bypassed the area in front of him.

To be honest, Weiji was a little caught off guard at this moment, but at this time he thought There are many things.

It is impossible to be uncertain at this time, and I have also discovered that this time it seems that I am in the biggest trouble.

Although there are many people here to help me save myself, I still know what I should do. , there will definitely be some different troubles.

The seven-star Longyuan in his hand lit up with a light at this time. Only when these seven stars really light up is the moment when this sword activates its greatest potential.

So now is the time He allowed himself to see some of the signs on it. However, at this time, the network did not block it in any way, and he did not even have any extra thoughts.

After all, during this period, he also saw several nearby areas, even if he had Even though they are extremely capable, they have to think about what to do. Otherwise, wouldn't they be creating a home court that they own here?

"I really didn't expect you to be here together, so don't bother me. I went looking everywhere. I didn't expect you to understand me so well."

The barbarian demon in front of him smiled very happily, as if he had caught a few of them, which meant that all of them had become defeated by him.

Anyway, this moment made him feel numb, and even made him feel numb. I felt a little bit reluctant to eat, but I didn't defend him here.

People like him have basically gone crazy, and no matter how much I say, it's not as practical as teaching him a lesson, so I'm here I am also waiting for an opportunity.

See if I can get over this matter. But I can understand this situation now. Just thinking about it, I know that it will definitely not be that simple.

So now I must seize the opportunity to take a good look. , what can we do to reverse the process this time? After all, there must be a reason why Zhao Yuyan is here to help.

But Gu Shaoyang in front of him still did not give him a good look. He glared at him at this time. Keli knew he was in the wrong, so he didn't talk nonsense to him. Instead, he looked at the area next to him, wishing he could bypass this passage at this time.

"Just do it with confidence and boldness. With me here, there is nothing to worry about."

For Fu Ruosha, he really needs someone here to bear witness to him and prove that he is not the one who provoked this time. Then he is a good target now. He really didn't expect that his former enemy would become his now. People who support and help each other.

But the current situation really surprises me. After all, I have seen the previous process. Rather than stumbling here and stumbling, it is better to take the initiative.

Chapter 758

"I advise you not to get too close to me, you will definitely be in trouble."

Fu Ruoxa in front of him was confused, as if he didn't quite understand why he said these words, but at the moment this person didn't say anything unnecessary to him. What

Gu Shaoyang saw at this time may not be true, but The image he created at this time must be the most in line with his current situation.

After all, he didn't want anyone to lend a helping hand to him. The problem of the barbarian demon should be solved by himself. After all, he had taken advantage of it before. , but the gap in their own strength

"Let me do it this time. I let him take advantage before, which must have made him think that I am a waste. So this time, let him see how waste is generally made."

Hearing what she said when she lowered herself into the picture made Medusa next to her a little dissatisfied. She was about to speak at this moment but turned her back on Gu Shaoyang.

Zhao Yuyan next to her also looked at Mei Du Sha indicated that he did not need to do these unnecessary actions for the time being.

After all, Zhao Yuyan almost understood what Gu Shaoyang was thinking during this process. He just hoped that he could get a fair treatment here. In this case, Then no one needs to talk nonsense.

On the contrary, I should get rid of some redundant imaginations. Maybe this is what I should do the most, but on a certain road, I also saw some unexpected things.

I saw it before I had to understand that he was taking the initiative here, but I couldn't understand the meaning of what he was doing. It wasn't until I saw the woman in front of me that I realized that everything was just a preliminary guess. To say that he was What is the purpose of this place? It is probably not much different from the current one.

I don't know who this woman is, but her strength here must be 10% sufficient. Maybe this is the direction I need to look at most.

Although I I thought a lot at this time, but there was no real meaning in doing so. After all, I also understood some aspects at this time. If I had some opinions, it would not be like this.

But Medusa was stopped After coming down, he didn't continue busy. Instead, he watched from a distance, as if he could see something from him.

Seeing this, Fu Ruosha almost understood. He didn't expect that this kid was still a lover. A veteran, all the girls drinking here are moved by him.

But at this moment, he is not at a disadvantage as a gangster. Although Medusa has brought a large number of people here.

But after all, for Fu For Ruosa, they don't know each other or are familiar with each other, and they don't know whether the person in front of them will reach out to help, so they must consider these aspects before doing so.

But now that this moment has arrived, I feel a little surprised. Maybe when I heard their assurances here before, some unnecessary emotions would not spread.

But it is different now. There are many people in my mind at this time, so naturally I will get some help here, but in During this period, I also thought of some surprises

"I know what you are thinking, but at this time we are willing to help, so you don't have to think too much."

The person in front of him was stunned for a moment. How did he know what he was thinking? After all, he was also hesitating at this moment. What he needed to do most at this moment was to muster up courage.

Accept their help here, but he also I don't dare, this will only become a reason for my hesitation.

What's more, everyone around me is looking at me now, so I don't dare to attack rashly, let alone do these unnecessary behaviors, for fear of accidentally causing some trouble. trouble

"I know what you are hesitating about here. There is no need to think too much. Everyone is here waiting for you to stand up."

Zhao Yuyan suddenly spoke, and did not look at Fu Ruosha's expression in front of her. In Fu Ruosha's eyes, the two of them did not actually know each other.

But he did not expect that this girl would be willing to come back with him to help. At this moment, the two of them were just The real reason was pointed out.

It seemed that the two of them had secretly met Chen Cang and had known each other before him, but because of the connection between their identities, he took a high look.

"I think what he said is quite right."

Instead of being hesitant here, it's better to give it a go. Anyway, Medusa has come to help, but at this time, his judgment may not be the same as what he thought, so he has to think carefully whether he really wants to do this. Do it.

Gu Shaoyang in front of him also hesitated for a moment, not daring to move his hands too frequently, for fear that the barbarian demons opposite would notice them. At this time, those people were still fighting Medusa.

Chapter 759

In fact, this scene was enough to make the person in front of him a little confused, but Gu Shaoyang still calmed down and looked at Medusa in the crowd.

I really didn't expect that he would rush back to help me at this time. After all, when several people parted ways here before, I also made harsh words.

But in fact, everyone knows that if it weren't for Gu Shaoyang's words, Medusa would never have thought of what would happen next. In addition, he had transformed back into a little python at that time. Everyone was waiting for an opportunity to let him Back into his body.

Of course, these people also include Gu Shaoyang, but he doesn't show it so obviously, and others are secretive here.

It can be considered that he has completely brought back all those little thoughts, but at this moment, Gu Shaoyang is definitely a little surprised. The first one, Qixing Longyuan, seems to be out of control.

She flew directly to the area in front. At this moment, she really felt a little off guard. She didn't expect that he was aiming at the back of the barbarian demon. She had committed a taboo and shouldn't show her back to others..

But at this time, Gu Shaoyang didn't say anything nonsense. The alliance sat cross-legged on the ground and became one with Qixing Longyuan, directing him to wander here, avoiding the sight of the person in front of him, and rushing to his side. , this can be considered a help.

The snake men next to them also recognized this sword. Isn't this the great benefactor they mentioned before? But later, because others disappeared here, no one knew where he was going.

Unexpectedly, this sword appeared again. These people thought it was a gift from God, giving them the opportunity to repay their benefactor. At this moment, they rushed forward like a bunch of madmen.

Seeing this scene, Gu Shaoyang next to him was also stunned. After all, the scene he saw on Qixing Longyuan could be wider.

But while possessing this sword, he also became aware of some alternative situations. It seemed that this was not what he needed most at the moment. However, before those things happened, Gu Shaoyang still found a smoother way.

After all, if it can happen, the more useful it will be, but before ensuring that these things will happen smoothly.

I don't dare to jump to conclusions, for fear of accidentally provoking someone, but to be honest, the more this situation is, the more attention it will draw to myself.

After all, every road is different, and I won't speak rashly now. , but to be honest, the current situation makes me give in a bit. Could it be that what happened before was just revealed quietly?

Although I can't guarantee that they will listen to me, I am very cautious at this time.

How Medusa and the others left here before, and how things happened next, I must have made some judgments more or less, but it may not be that simple at this moment.

"Are you saying that you probably guessed what happened this time?"

"This is natural. After all, you know that these people have done some things step by step here before. Now it seems that it is not an exaggeration for me to guess these things."

Hearing what he said, the people next to him didn't know what to say. What he said seemed to be very reasonable, but it made him a little careless.

But at this stage, Salo was reminded of what happened before..

Maybe now they can immediately make peace with Gu Shaoyang and seize the opportunity to win this thing here, but there will definitely be some changes at this stage, so it depends on who can win it all here. The people next to them leave immediately He came over, as if he was ready to help here. After all, Natasha and the others were familiar with each other before, but after that.

Where did he go? A few people were a little confused. Why did he leave suddenly? Think about it. They all find it a bit unbelievable.

However, they do not waste time here. If they make too many choices, they will definitely not be able to deal with it. On the contrary, they will keep an eye on this opportunity and deal with it quickly. It is better to eliminate it in one fell swoop than to delay it until the time comes. Procrastination is much better

"I know what you are thinking, but the strength of the barbarian demon in front of you is also extraordinary."

This Salo was stopped by Christi at once. With the two of them being careful, they could see it clearly at a glance.

But at this moment, he didn't know how to tell her. After all, he It was also in the process of preparation. Although it might be a little different from what I expected before, it doesn't seem that complicated at this moment.

Hearing Christie's stop here made me frown. This The situation seemed not as complicated as he thought, but now that he has spoken, he will not refute it here.

Chapter 760

"Believe Gu Shaoyang, he has overcome all the previous dangers, is this time still missing? But to be honest, I didn't see him leaving here before, I thought he just disappeared so hastily."

The person in front of him smiled, as if he was not surprised by his remarks. After all, Gu Shaoyang also knew that the reason why he could get such a trend here was entirely because of the help of these people here, so I have to adjust everything before this, which can be regarded as giving some help here.

"You know the outcome of all this, why do you still let me do this?"

"Because someone needs to be here as bait."

Hearing these words, the person in front of him turned as pale as a piece of paper. What was he saying? Is his existence here just to act as a transparent person with no sense of existence?

At this moment I must be reluctant to change this matter, but if I think about it, I know how it could be so simple.

"I really didn't expect that a trap would be dug by someone next to me."

But then Gu Shaoyang directly took out the sword Qixing Longyuan here, and he has returned to the state of recognizing himself. He really didn't expect that it would take him so long.

After all, it has never happened to him. The extra understanding is just a rough judgment on this, but it doesn't seem to surprise me at the moment.

The more I do this, the more complicated the direction I find, and correspondingly, I also see He noticed the actions of several people nearby.

It was estimated that things were not that simple this time, and while Qixing Longyuan flew into the sky, he also found a position next to him. This compass was probably completely different from what he thought. status.

Looking at the crazy deflection of the pointer above, Salo also realized that things were not that simple this time. Maybe what they said was true.

But at this moment, he didn't know how to reverse the situation, so he could only look up here. The note in the sky originally hoped that his figure could give him some guidance.

But the other party didn't react at all. Instead, he looked to his side. Even if he didn't understand it now, he had no chance to reverse it.

"You should know what I mean."

At this time, Barbarian Demon looked towards him, with an unknown look in his eyes, as if he wanted to reject his request. After all, in this process, everything is done in a first-come, first-served order, and it is impossible for him to say something out of thin air here. Nonsense.

And correspondingly, Gu Shaoyang also picked up some things. Salo and Venus will definitely take action at this time, but now facing a more powerful opponent like Barbarian Demon, he must think carefully, and he must not let Their fight here was in vain.

However, Gu Shaoyang also expected some other aspects. When the Seven Star Long Yuan was sent, it was also stained with a lot of light and blood. The mixture of the two made Gu Shaoyang feel better. At this moment, I thought of Emperor Liuyun for no reason. He was also a guide in my life before.

But I didn't expect that something like this would happen now. Could this coordinate that guided me forward become the most annoying situation before? ?

But then the sky suddenly darkened in the next second and the large clouds were surging on the crazy side. Gu Shaoyang took a look.

His face was very serious. You must know that he also knew that this was the coming of a storm. It's a sign, so you have to think about what is the most appropriate thing to do.

"You should understand what I mean."

As this sentence appeared again, Gu Shaoyang was stunned for a moment, as if the voice of the former Emperor Liuyun was still in his ears. At this time, it was a little difficult for Gu Shaoyang to control, and then he turned around here He looked at Medusa, but there was an incomprehensible look on the other person's face, as if he didn't know what she was talking about. It seems that this time the voice should only be directed at himself. I don't know who is so hateful. I specially set such a trap for myself.

But to be honest, I am not surprised by the current situation. Is this the premise for them to do things?

But the prediction is always inferior to what happened in the end. The book of rites is also watching them, hoping to get some clues from a few people.

"Things will definitely start with them this time, but have you ever thought that once you take the initiative here, it is very likely that Gu Shaoyang will be trapped in a state of attack from both front and back."

Saluo next to him suddenly asked, "Yes, why did he forget the last preparation? It seemed that he was really confused, but something else happened that he didn't expect in the next second."
