Chapter 761

"Thanks to you just clicking here, otherwise Gu Shaoyang would be unlucky this time."

Christie in front of him just waved his hand. The two of them have been in bed together for so long, but they have never heard him say such polite words. It seems that Gu Shaoyang must have a certain weight in his mind.

But Medusa is just a time now. Limitation, it has time to change into this adult form, and it may turn back into the little snake at any time and at any time. So at this time, Christie whispered to Salo next to him. Ear

Before he finished speaking, the person in front of him nodded. It seemed that the two of them were worried about this matter.

But to be honest, I must have understood this area now. Instead of stumbling here, it would be better to cut through the mess quickly and get some help.

"It seems that I was the only one who was kept in the dark about what happened this time."

Suddenly a person appeared in the corner. For Gu Shaoyang, is she the biggest beneficiary here?

It's not that if the barbarian demon survives here, each of them will be in extreme life danger, but at this time it seems I saw the figure of Medusa walking over.

The person in front of me also frowned. To be honest, I had seen this state at the moment. Instead of falling into crisis here, it would be better to take the initiative to speak, or more or less It can still be of some help.

However, the people next to him didn't pay much attention to it at this time. Maybe they didn't think much about this matter. To be honest.

Fu Ruoxa next to him just wanted to rush in at this moment. , to take down this barbarian demon, the arrogant attitude he had towards himself suddenly emerged in his mind.

However, Gu Shaoyang in front of him grabbed his arm and signaled him not to act rashly here, even though he said that his strength had returned. , but always have to consider some other things. The humiliation he gave himself before must now be returned intact to Zai Li Yuanfeng, otherwise it would be too embarrassing. And at this moment, he also wants to let everyone know that now Your own strength is the best, and the person in front of you is just an insignificant existence.

Although I don't know what judgment I will make at this time, it is obvious that what happened before is still slightly different from what I thought.

"After a while, you go around from the left, and I attack him directly, trying to get two people to take it directly here."

The person in front of him nodded and stopped talking nonsense. He carefully observed the barbarian demon here. What happened this time really surprised him.

If he can get some improvement here, then he will definitely be able to From the current situation, we must take the necessary aspects, but the result obtained from the process here must have a rough position. The barbarian demon in front of him still raised the corner of his mouth and looked at them frivolously, as if the person in front of him had nothing to do with it. It's all the same, to be honest.

Gu Shaoyang definitely feels a little uncomfortable at this time. After all, what he does at this time is definitely a little different from them, so he must ensure his initial safety.

"Be prepared, the Barbarian Demon will be taken down soon."

At the beginning, Salo was still here, and he didn't believe that what Christie said was indeed true.

But now he also needs to consider some other factors. In order to avoid these things from causing some unpredictable situations, I have to think of what to do.

But it is really hard for me to predict. Something like this has happened now. To be honest, if I continue to move forward recklessly, I will definitely cause some trouble.

So there is no doubt that I have to make a fuss here. There are some other standards. I didn't expect that I would happen to encounter the thing in front of me at this moment. Anyway, I couldn't guess what happened this time, and I didn't need to think about these nonsense.

"I know how you view this matter, but I also hope you can give yourself some confidence."

Although the words are put here, there must still be some gaps for Gu Shaoyang, and some of the things Salo and Natasha have implemented here have become what he is most looking forward to. The only opportunity in front of him Natasha was considering these things, so she had to reassure Medusa here, but the other party had already left at this time.

After all, for her, conquering the Quartet was the most important thing, and she happened to be doing it here. After being prepared, I was indeed a little caught off guard at this moment.

But other states soon appeared. Could it be that this was what I was most looking forward to? In fact, it wasn't really, but it was just that it was a little difficult for Gu Shaoyang at the moment. Think about it.

Chapter 762

Zhao Yuyan left here before and came back, so what is he doing? You can't just do something out of thin air, and with some unnecessary reasons, you have become the person who needs to be suspected most here.

"Do you think I should believe you this time or how should I feel?"

The person in front of him was stunned for a moment, not understanding what he meant. It seems that for Gu Shaoyang, the hint he should give to the barbarian demon was not obvious enough. The two people had formed a rift here before, and they thought that the other party would now He will understand his intentions, but at the moment, there is probably no need to do such nonsense.

The more he resists himself here, the more important his own thoughts are. After all, who doesn't want to get the final redemption now, so Undoubtedly, this is also a good direction.

However, Gu Shaoyang got some hints from the Seven Stars Long Yuan on his body, and he did not expect that the other party gave him something else at this time.

This beam of light shrouded his body, and then the next A popularization appeared in seconds. In fact, he couldn't quite figure it out at the previous moment.

What was the reason for this, but it didn't seem that simple at this moment. After all, he had found some directions for himself.

As he looked around The light in front of me also made me understand some things. I am afraid that my current prediction is not that simple.

And at this time, even if I desperately want to leave, I must consider that there is no way to let go. Just do it, this seems a bit too stubborn, but this moment really surprises me.

If he said that he took the initiative at this moment, then Kompa might not be able to believe it if he were other people. , after all, there will be a lot of troubles on this route.

It's just a preliminary step now, but I always feel a little worried in my heart. Who doesn't want to get some solutions here.

So now is the time for me to take the initiative. , I have to say that what I learned at this time must be corresponding.

So next, I need to take the initiative here to see if I can understand some of the subsequent processes here.

I didn't expect that the barbarian demon could not suppress them at this time. Putting it into perspective, I actually looked at Gu Shaoyang in front of me at this time and found that his eyes were a bit deep.

To be honest, I can't be sure now. What if someone did something else during this period? That was also unpredictable.

However, Gu Shaoyang also found some other clues in this area. The previous judgment may have been an early stage for him. I didn't expect that he would be able to do this well later, but The few people staring around here seem to be his minions here.

I don't know when he started to gather so many people, and he didn't expect that there would be so many people exploring this place this time. The idea.

The barbarian demon must have promised what they are doing here, so he must see his intentions clearly, otherwise if there is some trouble then, it will become a fixed target for him.

Anyway, in this Basically, there have been some adjustments in aspects that I could guess at that time, so the next step is to see who can take on this responsibility here. After all, Gu Shaoyang now hopes that someone can replace these.

But it seems that there is no one at this time. People will take the initiative to bear all this. After all, this is not a good thing, and there are some other reasons before.

Now that this moment has broken out, I have to say that these people are really thoughtful enough to plant a trap like the barbarian demon here.

He even took the initiative to initiate some contact with them here. To be honest, if this kind of thing had happened before, he would have wanted to escape directly.

But at this moment, I can't think too much about it. After all, whoever is here to do something is not so smooth.

However, the current situation also allowed me to judge some choices. Maybe what I thought of at this time was not so smooth, but it did not give me any chance to hesitate. I think they must have known about it.

This Fu Ruosha cooperated really well with me, and even made me feel that everything he did here was trustworthy.

However, it was also because of the pressure of the barbarian demon in front of him, and then he turned his head and looked at the position at his feet. To be honest, at this moment, he had no more conditions.

None of them can compare to the incident in front of me, but it can be regarded as letting me understand something. There is a high probability that everything I understand starts from here.

And this time someone must have attacked him. Everything in front of him was very real, and he also saw Medusa turning into a little snake, which meant that this place was definitely not an illusion.

Chapter 763

This also destroyed the last line of defense in Gu Shaoyang's heart. It successfully replaced all of this here. To be honest, I was still a little afraid before.

I'm afraid it might cause some trouble, but if you look at what's going on right now, you'll know that none of this will be that complicated. After all, what really happens here is the most important thing.

However, during this period, Salo also thought of something superfluous. He took the initiative to approach it here, which meant that he was willing to compromise with the barbarian demon here. So what on earth was he going to do?

The other party directly picked up his big sword here, with many iron rings hanging on it, as if the sword would make a sound as soon as he left.

But it was precisely because of his voice that he heard his position. Although the opponent was very big, he was not slow to move here.

Therefore, we must ensure that everything here is successful, but the look in Medusa's eyes looking at him seems a little strange, as if he has never seen it before. Doesn't he recognize him anymore?

But the next second, a four-leaf clover pattern suddenly appeared in the middle of his red pupils, and the next second he was here, lowering his head without making any eye contact with himself. This made Gu Shaoyang start. Suspect.

No matter how bad the two of them were here before, they still had some contact, and the way he looked at her was always strange.

It was as if he was trying to test his identity here, but he didn't expect that he would be in this state now. To be honest, he was a little caught off guard.

Maybe I didn't expect things to go so smoothly before, but I just made my own decision here and thought they were the same person.

But at this time, when several people approached, I realized that things were not that simple. Fu Ruosha rushed over very quickly.

And the attacks here are also substantial, but the simultaneous attack of the barbarian demon and Fu Ruosha will definitely cause damage to each other.

At the moment, I only saw a wave of fluctuations coming from the hands of the two people, but there was indeed no adjustment at all, which made me suspect that everything in front of me was a lie.

So I deliberately stopped near them. Instead, I observed them here, and then I saw them.

A symbol on his body is exactly the same as the four-leaf clover in Steel Eyes. Could it be that they have been manipulated now? But before that, I must also think of some aspects to avoid something happening.

At this moment, where I was still looking, I didn't expect to see Medusa, looking up at me. Her obedient attitude seemed to be hinting at something to me, but it was precisely because of his expression that I was made aware of it. When Zi woke up, could it be that the person in front of him would attack him?

After realizing this, Gu Shaoyang silently took a step back, keeping a certain distance from these people, and even looked around carefully.

I hope to find a Taoli route, but now I have predicted that things will not be that simple this time.

I don't know when it started, but now I have become a favorite of them. However, Fu Ruosha cooperated with me very smoothly, but I saw a mark on him.

It seems that everyone here has made some changes because of the previous incident, and Gu Shaoyang will not speak rashly at this time.

If he really spoke, he would be here to alert others. In order to prevent them from suspecting him at this moment, he also took the initiative.

Try to show all your trump cards and let them know that you are harmless. Otherwise, you may not be able to withstand the interrogation like this.

Moreover, the actions taken by the barbarian demon this time also made me very doubtful. Could it be that everyone here thinks that he is the real king?

But in the next second, the knife in Furuo Killer's hand stabbed directly into the body of the barbarian demon. The corners of his mouth were raised as if he was very happy.

However, Gu Shaoyang jumped directly into the air and pulled Fu Ruoxa back. The people in front of him were a little surprised and didn't know what his action meant.

But the real thing happened the next second. The barbarian demon knelt on the ground and shook his body.

Then from his chest, where the sword was inserted, some liquid that suddenly spurting out was not blood, but something unknown.

When he smelled the smell in the air, Gu Shaoyang directed with his face, and the Seven Stars Long Yuan floated directly into the sky.

He didn't have any contact with the liquid, and he didn't even touch the mist he turned into. Fu Ruosha next to him was a little strange about this.

Chapter 764

"This thing is poisonous, so try not to touch it. Besides, you have seen it before, so it may not be as simple as you think."

Fu Ruosha's expression also changed. Could it be that this is a dummy? After hearing Fu Ruosha's thoughts, Gu Shaoyang re-examined himself.

Some of the things he has experienced from before to now, plus this process During some changes in Medusa, I saw that the people below were submerged in the smoke.

I don't know what they are waiting for here. Could someone appear out of the blue and round them up? At this moment, Gu Shaoyang also shook his head.

I don't know what they were looking forward to, but they adjusted their approach in the next second and escaped directly with Furuosha.

Although it can't be said that they placed it in a safe place, those people may be more cautious now. He needs his own help, and their identities have not yet been determined.

Even if their bodies are found, he can confirm some of the things he has thought of, but at this moment, Gu Shaoyang has some unknown worries in his heart.

Now At this moment, I must ensure that these things can be expressed smoothly, and at this stage, I am also making some adjustments. Even if I have great abilities, I must prepare several other directions to avoid unnecessary things..

But when I left the person behind and went back alone, I found that the place had fallen into chaos, and I didn't know how these people escaped.

Anyway, I saw people lying on the ground in various forms. There are all kinds of things, as if I have experienced some huge disaster here. Although I can't guarantee that it will happen smoothly, the current thing also makes me a little surprised. Although I have to think of these aspects, what really happened When he was in front of him, Gu Shaoyang actually wanted to escape. After looking around for a while, he found that the people he wanted to find were not there. It seemed that they should still be here. As expected, they were evacuating the snake people. Not to mention that this liquid does have a lot of corrosive power.

There were already spots on their bodies, but at this time I also discovered another situation. There seemed to be a figure inside the Yinwu. I don't know if it was It was the one he was familiar with. When Gu Shaoyang got closer, he realized that it was really the python from before. There were many more marks on his body, and the four-leaf clover was particularly prominent. It was magnified in his pair. The panicked look in his eyes that he knew how many times it was.

It seemed that he was not forced to return to this form, but actually became like this. This also made him hesitate. Could it be that the time of traveling has changed now? Is it different?

Otherwise, why did he look like his clothes were natural when he saw him? There were some differences between the two of them before, but now he doesn't talk nonsense. This is an unnecessary thing.

However, it is precisely because Medusa has been seen hundreds of millions of times that I feel a little helpless now. After all, I have learned some things about the previous situation. There must have been some changes, so now I am facing People are not surprised, but they are just locked up here, wondering how to successfully solve this matter.

Although the previous standards are not as simple as they think, facing it calmly at this time may be a good idea. Not a bad thing.

And at this moment, since I have so many abilities, I might as well try to cut through the mess quickly. Maybe I will get a lot of results, but I don't dare to act rashly at this time.

I just searched for the time, and it happened that some other troubles happened at this time. Maybe I didn't think so thoroughly at this time.

But there is nothing I can do now. The more I think about it, the more trouble I will cause here, so I am very clear in my heart.

At this time, I just need to deal with it calmly, and every direction is enough. As for unnecessary problems, I shouldn't fall on my shoulders.

But at this moment, there are obviously some unnecessary things. Medusa is aware of what Gu Shaoyang did before.

Now the two people must have understood each other's intentions by looking at each other, but the other person kept circling around them and refused to look into their eyes. Is it because of that four-leaf clover?

It was impossible for Salo to talk nonsense at this time, so he had to observe Gu Shaoyang's actions. After all, he could see everyone in the dark.

This man has always had a voyeuristic feeling towards Medusa. Although I don't know what he means, at this moment, I must be more cautious, but the person in front of me doesn't seem to take this into consideration.

Chapter 765

Moreover, the way Medusa looked at him at this time was most likely examining his identity. If this was the case, then he must seize the time to capture him here.

It just happened to be some help to him, but now Salo has found a way, and it is not impossible for him to complete all this by teleporting at this time.

But now a person needs to take the initiative to bear the consequences of these things for himself, otherwise he is likely to face a helpless situation.

The person in front of him didn't seem worried. Instead, he looked over here frequently. But the next second, Gu Shaoyang took the initiative to extend an olive branch, hoping to get the previous Salo to cooperate with him here.

After all, I don't want to bother with things that can be solved here. But right now, this person seems to be keeping a certain distance from me. Could it be that I have attracted his attention somewhere?

Although he must be dealing with these directions at this moment, the current matter does not seem so easy. This time the incident itself is at the forefront of the previous one.

So now at this time, I have probably found a few special directions. Instead of trying to get nothing at this time, I might as well think about the remaining things, and there won't be any trouble anyway.

However, the person in front of him did not pay attention to him, but looked to his side at this time. I think this person must have taken some precautions against himself.

However, in this current situation, I have no intention of hesitating. The number of people who have sacrificed here is definitely not a small number.

And now that I have to shoulder such a responsibility, I can't let them keep locking up these unimportant things here.

I'm afraid no one else would agree, and I almost thought of something during the process. Now everyone must realize that they are the biggest controller here, not other people.

After all, the barbarian demon already controls half of the overall situation. If he can't get some other improvements, wouldn't it become some trouble?

However, I still have thoughts about Cheng Ren's beauty, but I just don't know how to deal with the rest. After all, it is a strange thing in itself. Is this still missing?

The current situation also gives me a bit of a headache. I must be able to understand it at this stage, but it is precisely because of my own thoughts that it led to some subsequent things.

Who is doing this secretly now? You have to figure it out, otherwise you can't let these people hesitate here.

Furthermore, I am aware of the previous situation. As long as I have a little bit of ability, I will not reach this stage, so I must think about how I will make decisions before what happens next.

"I believe you understand the situation this time, so I won't add any more nonsense here."

Then he walked away directly, while Fu Ruosha across from me was a little confused. He didn't say anything to me. Did he know it already?

But I didn't expect that the person next to me nodded, as if it's a look that I've already understood in my heart. This state of things makes me feel a little surprised.

But at this moment, I never talk nonsense. After all, if Akira doesn't tell secret words, I won't be so stupid. things.

Although sometimes I still hope to solve some plans through them, this lesson is particularly important right now.

Maybe this is the different positions on several routes, plus some things I have thought of before, it doesn't seem that excessive.

But every time I can think of something, it seems that I can successfully complete the matter.

But to be honest, the probability of me being steady here is actually greater, but because of some other factors forced us to make concessions here.

"What do you think he was thinking?"

Saluo in front of him is in bad luck. Indeed, he did not expect Christi to rush up at this place. He thought he would do what he once said. The secret troops are not moving here. Take a look and see the other people. Will there be some unnecessary control? Moreover, Gu Shaoyang is still not visible, and we don't know if the other party will do some other extreme things, so before that, they were all on tenterhooks here.

"You must have guessed what happened this time, so I won't talk nonsense here."

The person in front of him was stunned for a moment, as if he didn't know what he meant. However, due to some other reasons, something had to happen.

Medusa also took this opportunity to come over and perform, and saw them. It really surprised me that two people appeared here at the same time.

Chapter 766

Maybe this is some trouble that occurred in the middle. These people have not been with Medusa for a while, but this does not mean that Medusa will become what she is now.

Who made some undue control actions here obviously made me a little surprised, but then the more things happened here, I also expected some processes. It seems that this time things are far from what I thought. so simple

"Unexpectedly, Medusa would become the target of blackmail this time."

The people in front of me couldn't help but smile here. Medusa didn't care, but looked at the area behind her. This really caught me off guard.

Coupled with some of the previous processes, it was quite unexpected. It was a bit unexpected, and correspondingly I also saw several other directions. It stands to reason that the more complicated things are breaking out at this moment, the more control those few people have here. So who is here? I have done something beyond my previous behavior. At this time, even if I did not expect it, it is time to make some adjustments.

"I really didn't expect that these guys would dare to dig a hole for us here."

Saluo's eyes in front of him were confused, and his whole face revealed disdain, sarcasm, and some reluctant information. Seeing this scene also made the person in front of him frown high.

Christi is really here. You need some help, but it doesn't mean that it's the sword in front of you. Who doesn't want to get some results here? At this moment, you must carefully consider it.

Things will happen anyway, why can't you start from now on? If you take the initiative, there won't be any big trouble.

What's more, if you find some beginners here, you can be here, and it's because of them. To be honest, I have thought of something about what happened before.

I just didn't see the current stage. And at this moment, I also realized that some aspects did not seem to go as smoothly as I expected. However,

Barbarian Demon's actions were quickly caught by the people next to him. I really didn't expect that this person actually had such ability at the moment.

But to be honest Yes, some of the previous things have also been taken into consideration. It seems that what the other party sees here is not only the actions he is doing now.

Does he even want to rule him in the future?

But the next second Gu Shaoyang knew the other party's Intention, this barbarian demon dodged past while not forgetting to look back at himself. His eyes were full of provocation. It was not difficult to see that the other party was very proud of the current situation. The current situation was really disappointing to him. I can't show off my face, but I don't want to talk nonsense to him. Since the other party is trying hard to cause trouble for me here, I might as well let him do what he wants. Anyway, if he has any ability, he won't yell at me here.

"I know that all this is a dream created by you, so you'd better give up the place as soon as possible, otherwise I can't guarantee what will be done by then."

The person in front of him suddenly laughed, as if he felt that it was not too late for his behavior. If he really had such ability, he would not have to stop at this time.

Besides, Gu Shaoyang now holds the Seven-Star Longyuan in his hand. , whether you can beat him is another matter. The difference in strength itself, coupled with other things, makes the person in front of him suddenly afraid to take action.

But he thought about it carefully, This moment is how I am here, so what if there is any difference? In the end, it is not what I wanted.

Then the barbarian demon's smile slowly rose here, but I could see some of it on his face. From the look on his face, it seems that the other party is not as simple as he thought.

And now that the barbarian demon is out here, it means that he has compromised on the things he discussed about rebellion before, but this is not what he wants to see. After all, I hope to get some other achievements from him.

And if all this is dreamy and even thought-provoking here, then why was Medusa still able to distinguish herself here before? There are some things that once connected in series It seems very strange.

It even makes me feel that I have been plotted against me inadvertently, but the person in front of me at this moment does not seem to intend to do anything to me this time.

Even if I have great ability, I still have to think How to deal with it? After all, I also understand part of this incident.

"Do you believe that this time, you or him?"

Saluo looked at Medusa with a thoughtful look in his eyes. After all, they were attracted to Medusa here before.

But after coming here, they obviously felt that he was somewhat different from the normal Medusa. , not only that, there are even some gaps here frequently. Even if you have great ability, you should consider some things at this time.

Chapter 767

He wanted to expose this place before, but due to some other unsurprising factors, he became like this.

However, there is enough sexual pleasure in choosing a station, and I must be confident here. No one wants to fall into a passive environment at this time, and I must be the same.

So next, I need one person to adjust all this here, and the position in front of me happens to be the moment for me to take the initiative. It may be a little different from what I imagined, but at this time, I have no way to regret it.

"I know what you're thinking. If you regret it now, it's not too late."

Christie frowned in front of him. What was he talking about? Is he trying to question his own opinions and choices here? The more he thought about it, the more problems he had now gradually evolved.

Although I have indeed thought about these things before, it does not mean that they can run smoothly. Moreover, I have almost expected what happened this time.

If there is really a chance, I can get something by slowly grinding with him here. Results, but he was afraid that the bamboo basket would be empty by then.

Gu Shaoyang simply prepared to accept the barbarian demon here, but at this critical moment, the person next to him suddenly laughed, and he did not know that he was For what?

I just thought that he was here to do some unnecessary things, so I immediately gave up this area. Unexpectedly, the other party was staring at me here, and there was some light in his eyes, as if he was guiding me. The same as before.

Then a ray of light suddenly appeared on the body of the barbarian demon. He would not think that this was a gift from God, but would think that he was causing trouble here.

So he stared at him closely, and the ecology was here. He let him go, but the people next to him didn't know all this, and thought it was here that attracted his attention. He didn't expect that everything turned out to be like this. Anyway, this state did make the people next to him feel a little bit sad. It's uncomfortable, but Salo didn't give him any chance. After all, he had thought about this before, so he had to make a prediction about it.

Although he was not worried, he still needed to adjust here. Opportunities definitely exist, but the doubts are the same in this place.

Different voices will appear every time, and I have no way of predicting things, so at this moment, I really feel that I am a little unprepared.

"Who do you think you should believe about this time?"

Gu Shaotang began to ask the person next to him. At this time, he also looked very confused. It seemed that the other person was not very clear.

However, at this moment, he did not intend to waste time. Anyway, he had already considered the current situation. Arrive, now that I have such a preparation, then wasting time is the last thing I need to think about. On the contrary, the reason why the barbarian demon is able to do these things here is that I think that the man behind the scenes will definitely not be able to escape. Relationship, but now I can't even touch the person's shadow, where can I find this person?

Then I still focus on the person next to me. This Medusa must be slightly useful, but I don't know How should I think about it?

And the four-leaf clover in his eyes is undoubtedly leaving an impression on himself. If he is helpless now, then he can believe it. After all, he has great confidence in him before. Even know some of the problems happening here

"I know what the reason is, but this time he was forced to do so, so I hope you can still believe me."

The person in front of him frowned and didn't seem to want to talk to him about this matter. Maybe he thought too simply, but it was also because of some situations that had happened before. Once he figured it out at this moment, everything seemed very simple..

But Gu Shaoyang took out the Seven-Star Longyuan in his hand and pointed it at the person in front of him. To be honest, what he didn't believe the most was the barbarian demon in front of him.

The gap between him and himself still existed, and now he also I don't want to have anything to do with her. After all, this man has been so arrogant before. Even if I have great abilities, I don't want to have anything to do with this person, but it seems that the other person doesn't intend to give up on me.

In this case If so, then I have nothing to say, but instead I reviewed some of the conditions here before that.

Is it because I was too hasty and attracted the attention of others here, but the idea is one of them, and it is really important to implement it. In reality, it was another template.

At this moment, Gu Shaoyang looked around and was sure that he could not condition anything from here. Could it be that this was the source of Mi Mi? But in the next second, Gu Shaoyang immediately knew the other party's intention.

Chapter 768

It turns out that he contacted the person behind the scenes early in the morning, and mobilized all these things here to happen in the direction he wanted. To be honest, if this is the case, then he It's definitely a different matter.

Who doesn't want to avoid such a situation? Coupled with the previous events and other reasons, I am somewhat helpless now.

However, the more this happens, the route I choose here will definitely become more and more strange, but it is not certain whether I can wait until that time.

"Don't worry and do it boldly, I'm afraid it won't be that easy this time."

Hearing his unreasonable words, it made Gu Shaoyang in front of him suffer bad luck. Could it be that she knew what she was thinking early on?

You are a bit too cunning. If it is really because of this, then I was afraid that I would have to hide from him here for hundreds of thousands of miles, and I wished that he could not even touch his shadow here.

However, the lightning in the sky still flashed in front of my eyes. If this barbarian demon is like It doesn't matter who the owner of this lightning is.

I won't believe it at all, but what is the relationship between them here, but it makes me a little strange. Do they have something hidden behind their backs?

Now this At times, it was difficult for me to make a decisive decision. After all, everyone here was under suspicion, and it was hard for anyone to say anything.

But the current situation made me guess what happened before, and not everything might be as I thought. So simple.

And for Gu Shaoyang, what happened this time has some reasons, so no matter what he does next, it is not reasonable, so there will be some troubles more or less.

"I know what you're thinking, but after all, things happened this time for a reason."

Gu Shaoyang frowned at this time, casually told Fu Ruosha, and rushed directly into the sky with the Seven Star Longyuan.

Seeing this thunder flashing in his eyes, he also realized that things are not that simple. , not only that, there are even some other troubles

"You must take care!"

Gu Shaoyang did not speak, but directly reached the sky, then wiped his nose, with a look of unwillingness to be touched by ashes, and then looked down at the few people who were so small that there were only small black dots left.

Although Saying that they told me not to behave like this here would only increase the trouble and cause trouble here.

But after all, there are some things that I can't think too much about. Maybe this is what I need all the time. A result, but at this time, Salo also thought of something.

Medusa had been looking into the sky here before, and his four-leaf clover pupils also shrank for a while. In fact, his pupils were still so golden before. It

's not like it is now, but I don't know when it has completely changed its form. Although I don't know how to ask at this time, it doesn't mean that there is no difference in this matter. No one is a fool.

But whenever I asked him here, Medusa's eyes would dodge here, as if she was asking a particularly private question.

His transformation also made him somewhat helpless. He had to know what was going on at the moment. More or less, I have learned something, but it does not mean that this time the matter can be solved smoothly.

The more specific I think, it is also a kind of pressure for Medusa. After all, he certainly did not expect that he would do something This kind of thing, the monitoring of him was actually something I had never expected before.

However, just because of such a tendency, I realized something clearly. Now that I have great abilities, I have to consider the follow-up. The result.

To avoid some trouble. After all, to be honest, if I want to find a reasonable route to solve this matter here, the first step is to pass by Medusa, otherwise I deeply doubt that he will reach out here. A helping hand.

Then he pulled Christi aside. Seeing the mysterious look on his face, the other party couldn't help but feel a little strange.

"What are you going to do? Why are you talking to me behind their backs?"

"Don't you think Medusa is acting weird lately? In this world, Gu Shaoyang is no longer as caring as before, and secondly, his control over the Snake Man headquarters is no longer so obedient."

At this time, before Christi looked at him doubtfully, Medusa looked like this here, so she didn't think there was anything wrong.

But now, through his description, she seemed to feel that something was wrong. , but it is this something wrong that makes me feel a little hard to understand.

There is a high probability that this is something that has changed midway. Is he trying to find a way to solve it with himself?

Chapter 769

Then Christi looked up at the man in front of him, hoping to learn some of his suggestions from him. After all, he must have thought of how to do it.

But at this time, the other party just looked at him mysteriously and lowered his head, not understanding what his action meant.

At this moment, Christi can only understand it according to his own ideas. Could it be that Medusa has threatened him here? Thinking about it this way, it doesn't seem surprising.

"What do you mean this is for?"

"In order to bring us back together, in order to bring Gu Shaoyang back alive."

At this time, Christie's eyes suddenly widened. What was he talking about? Didn't Gu Shaoyang have an old teacher who stayed with them and said he wanted to stay with Medusa here?

Why did he look like a frightened rabbit in the blink of an eye? He flew out directly, and then under Christie's pressure, Salo had no choice but to tell Gu Shaoyang's previous plan.

Of course, it also included him going to the sky to understand the rest of the things. To be honest, there were some It is true that I am not very clear about the matter, but this is not an opportunity for me to hesitate.

On the contrary, I have also expected these situations. If I really have the ability to take an optimistic view of all this, then why is no one here to speak? Still It might as well be all because what happened this time is a little biased.

If I insist on making fun of you here, it will probably cause some other troubles. It's not that what I'm thinking about now is not good..

After all, in their psychology, Gu Shaoyang is still the companion who stands together. Now everyone is about to retreat with Jin Gong, how can they give up here? ?

And he has almost found an aspect in the target state. It seems that things this time should not be that simple.

But in the process, he discovered something in the corner. At the moment, he may be joking, but it is also possible He was doing some unnecessary behavior.

Anyway, at this moment, I didn't fight and didn't intend to let him face this matter alone. Thinking about it made me feel a little uneasy.

But the person in front of me didn't seem to Well, as if it didn't matter, this fact made a few people a little nervous at the moment.

But Gu Shaoyang didn't know what was happening below in the sky. Instead, he foolishly thought that everything inside was about to be completed successfully. For a moment, I was a little surprised.

After all, the figure in the sky appeared as always. It was exactly the same as the person in my dream. Although I didn't know what he was here for.

But I could clearly see it. At this time, he has mastered most of the whereabouts, so he has no chance at this moment.

But at this moment, he feels a little weird, why didn't he take such action before? Is it because Don't you want to save face here?

But the person in front of you didn't give you any chance. Instead, you bypassed yourself here. Maybe this time the situation will happen smoothly.

But after all, I don't have much control. Anyway, the other party has no intention of leaving any room for themselves here, so the next step is to see who can be the person mentioned here.

"What did you say happened this time?"

The man turned around and looked at him, but didn't say a word. He just stared at him at this moment, as if he could see something from him.

At this moment, Gu Shaoyang was really surprised. He was a little uneasy. Logically speaking, the abilities that Qixing Longyuan gave him here before were not that small.

What exactly prevented him from taking the initiative here, and he almost understood what happened before. This barbarian demon was most likely ordered by him, but he didn't know the reason why he did this.

Anyway, what has happened can never be regretted, so now he must think about which thing is right. The most correct choice.

Moreover, the light on Qixing Longyuan seemed to be guiding me to the position. Looking at his beam of light made the person in front of me think of something.

If it were before, I would definitely not He would think of this matter so simply.

But in this situation, everyone is in the opposite direction, and Salo will definitely not talk nonsense here to tease his mind.

But on the contrary, he also allowed himself to see Several nearby areas, to be honest, I feel a little uneasy at this moment.

But beyond this, more superior ideas are still to come.

Chapter 770

If he can win him, then he may be regarded as an upright person this time, but it also makes Gu Shaoyang a little hesitant. The Thor operator in front of him is not an easy person to please. people.

Once he makes some actions behind his back here, wouldn't he regret it, and it was also his actions that he wanted to avoid here.

Unexpectedly, the other party has been chasing him from behind. If Gu Shaoyang wants to get out of the way, he has to give them an explanation.

So when I wanted to reason with them here, the barbarian demon floated up directly, and before his boss could say anything, he approached with a very sinister look.

He directly stretched out his hand to kill the person in front of him, but where would they get such an opportunity at this time?

Instead, he was caught by the person next to him. Gu Shaoyang raised his eyes and looked at the person behind him as if to signal him if he didn't manage it.

Then there will only be someone here to take action, but at this time the other party did not make any move. Instead, he folded his arms and looked like he was watching the show.

If this is the case, then I won't be polite. After all, it is difficult for me to consider so many complicated things in this process.

But the more because of these options, I was forced to take some other actions here. After all, to be honest, I thought of many things during this process.

But some other troubles also appeared. The compass in his hand suddenly flew out of the treasure bag on his waist.

This treasure bag came from the previous cave. No one expected that there would be so many treasures in such a small place.

At that time, I also allowed myself to wait a bit, but I didn't talk nonsense here. Instead, I wanted to consider the next results.

Now, even if I have great abilities, I still have to decide the follow-up situation to avoid unnecessary actions.

However, the person in front of him at this moment does not seem to intend to reconcile with himself. Instead, he wants to fight with him to the end. If this is the case, he really cares.

However, the light on the compass enveloped the smiling God of Thunder opposite, and then he was teleported away directly. The sight of this scene now made me a little shocked. After all, this was indeed the first time. bump into.

The barbarian demon behind him is here with a beautiful face. After all, no one expected that such a thing would happen at this time.

I thought that what I was doing now was enough for them to see my identity, but I didn't expect that I still overestimated this scene.

The people in front of him looked at him with a smile. At this time, Gu Shaoyang had almost grasped the other party's intentions. It seemed that even these people were very capable this time.

Then he should treat him fairly. After all, he has such thoughts, so he should give him some lessons to prevent the other party from thinking that he is eating and drinking here for free.

But to be honest, at this moment, the Seven-Star Longyuan in his hand actually flew directly past him and flew out. At this moment, the people in front of him were somewhat caught off guard.

But what happened in the next second became very serious, and even surprised me. It seemed that all of this was for the same reason.

But how exactly do I want to do it? It doesn't seem to be that simple. In addition, these sudden changes that I mentioned before made me a little surprised.

"I'll leave everything to you this time. If anything unexpected happens, I hope you can help me avoid it."

The next second, Medusa stepped directly onto the place under his feet and rolled over. No one expected that something like this would happen at this time.

In addition, there were many problems that occurred before, so now Let alone learn about these things here.

However, after being teleported away, this barbarian demon seemed to be much more restrained than before. He even looked at Gu Shaoyang in front of him frequently here, as if he wanted to say something here, but now this At that time, he did not give Barbarian Demon such a chance.

"I advise you to be more cautious and not think about these useless things."

The person in front of me frowned, not knowing what he meant by this. On the surface, he was here in the forbidden area to give himself some weight.

But in fact, there should be more things to do, so he must do it next. Think about what to do to succeed, otherwise there will be more and more troubles here, but to be honest, in this process, I almost understand what they mean.

"I probably know what happened this time. If you really mean something, you might as well tell me now."

But at this time, the barbarian demon didn't say a word. It seemed that the other party was being harsh, so he didn't mind patrolling for a while.

But he didn't expect that the person in front of him would speak out his true intentions directly here. Now this How could I have such a great ability in a moment.
