Chapter 771

I know what you want to ask. You just want to find out how I know you have ulterior motives for coming here.

The person in front of him smiled, as if he didn't care much about this matter at all, but at this time, the person in front of him didn't give him any chance. Instead, he thought of some things that had happened before.

To be honest, if there was really a reason before, then I would definitely not talk nonsense here. I must understand part of it through his actions.

But precisely because there is no unreasonable position in this matter, the behavior I am doing at this moment is more like here, where there is no silver three hundred taels.

"What is Medusa doing?"

The people in front of them are a little at a loss. After all, what happens next is indeed a bit surprising. Are they planning to fight to the death now? Although several people are not sure about each other's intentions, they are obviously able to It can be seen that there does not seem to be such a suitable opportunity at this moment.

After all, even if you have great ability, you still have to think about whether what happened this time will cause some unnecessary trouble.

But when I saw his face at this time, it seemed that I couldn't bear to talk to him about those nonsense.

But at this moment, they couldn't watch the person in front of them die on their own, to be honest. , no matter how much I disagree now.

I will definitely be here to help when the time comes. After all, no one wants to see him disappear like this. It is definitely a bit difficult to grasp the current situation here.

Although I also know that What is the purpose of her appearance here, but after all, sometimes passing one thing will also cause some troubles.

But it is precisely because of his actions that I thought of some other things at this time, maybe now I should consider other styles.

Maybe in the end it will happen to me that everything is in vain. If so, will it be better?

But at this time, I don't dare to do everything. It can happen smoothly, after all, the current thing is beyond the scope of my guess, but the target state is not that simple, and I can only consider some things here.

Medusa flew directly to Zhong, although she did not know that he was What is the purpose of this place, but several people dare not stop him here.

Ever since that cave, Medusa has become very strange, every time she can return to her original self from a small network break.

The time of silence There are more, and he spends most of the time sleeping, and he doesn't want to make mistakes with anyone, as if he can't get back on his feet. His situation actually makes a few people a little worried here.

But the moment he saw Salo, his face suddenly burst out with some vitality, which Salo and the others liked to see.

Even if he turned the sky upside down, he would still be there. Here to help him, several people looked at each other and prepared to hold off the other people here.

They couldn't let the barbarian demon attack them from both front and back at this time, but to be honest, the situation was like this before, so now I No matter how complicated you think, it won't be useful.

But correspondingly, I have to think of some other situations. It seems that this time things must be done through this aspect.

"Unexpectedly, he finally regained his strength. How can we thank him this time?"

Saluo murmured to himself here. If it weren't for the sudden appearance of Gu Shaoyang, I'm afraid Medusa would have been depressed like this.

But at this time, he felt a bit surprised. After all, it's impossible to do everything. Everything happens according to one's own ideas, so there must be a reason here.

"Then let's have a big fight!"

Then a few people stood up here and looked at the barbarian demon opposite. The other party also felt a little surprised, so they pointed to the sky.

It seemed to be hinting to them that they now have a backer, but they When had the Eight Holy Gods been afraid of anyone?

So he simply looked at the position under his feet. The next second he collapsed directly into the ground and heard his scream. The face of the person in the air appeared. There was a look of surprise, as if he had no idea about all this, but to be honest, if it weren't for what they did, he wouldn't have considered these unimportant things.

"We will definitely not let you go this time. If you really have any ability, let your strength speak for itself here."

The barbarian demon in front of him was stunned for a moment, not knowing what he meant, but the more he acted like this, the better prepared he would be. Anyway, he already understood it at this time.

Chapter 772

Sometimes some people work together to form a line of defense here, and the people in front of them cannot leave here, let alone go to heaven to seek help.

At this time, Medusa and Gu Shaoyang also met here. It seemed that all this really surprised me, but not before the next thunder and lightning struck.

Gu Shaoyang in front of him just wore Medusa and left the air. Now he didn't have to think about those unimportant things. Coupled with some previous judgments, it was enough to give him some help here, but the real thing still had to start from now. Speaking of

"I really didn't expect the two of you to join forces here, and I don't know what you can do."

After his disdainful laughter, the people in front of him were ready to attack him, but they had to let him know before that.

Who is the person who really exerts his true strength here, so Gu Shaoyang directly took The seven-star Longyuan in his hand was facing the direction of the sky.

At this time, the God of Thunder couldn't help but look at him with a smile. He was another person who did not overestimate his abilities. He wanted to show how powerful he was here. Next When he was chopped into powder by the thunder in seconds, he knew what he was doing.

But he didn't expect that the Seven Stars Longyuan would lead this thunder to him. At that moment, Medusa next to him He screamed and didn't want to take the Seven Stars Longyuan from his hand at this moment.

Unexpectedly, the thunder and lightning returned to silence in the next second, as if everything before was a dream. At this time, Medusa was a little surprised.

Then. He rushed up here and touched her body. There was no change except for the high heat. Then Medusa looked at the God of Thunder in front of her. Could it be that this was a fake?

Then she looked up and down here. His Thor's dignity has been crushed here, and he definitely wants to earn back his face here.

But he also needs to know how to do it. After all, this situation is not the time to give him a chance. On the contrary, he still has Encountered some difficulties.

This was probably the current trouble, but Yang didn't say anything, as if all this had no charm. As for how to eliminate danger here.

Then he should take a look at the surrounding scene, he couldn't tell It will be smoother after this.

Moreover, Qixing Longyuan seemed to have absorbed this lightning into his body, and then the person in front of him launched an attack on him.

However, he did not expect that the person in front of him did not give him any room to raise Qixing again. At that moment, Long Yuan hit him directly.

The person in front of him trembled here, and then immediately retreated to the side. He didn't expect that his lightning was so painful. The position on his shoulder must have been soaked in blood now. It was soaked, but its green blood made the people in front of him stunned for a moment.

Gu Shaoyang knew that Medusa had never seen such a situation, so he gently covered her eyes with his hands, and then the lamp in front of him The person directly scratched.

He disappeared here, and actually transferred to Gu Shaoyang's own world. Ever since he found Emperor Liuyun last time, he had somehow fallen into a special small world, and then Recalling what Zhao Yuyan said before, this should be the small world left to the inheritors by Emperor Liuyun. Here, time and everything stand still. So

I also particularly like this kind of place, but at this moment, I don't seem to have it. What position do you have to say something like this here?

So I hesitated and held back this sentence. At this time, everyone will become the target of suspicion here, and I don't want to be the first one to be replaced.

But now this For a moment, Salo realized something unexpected, but Medusa opened her eyes again and found that the person was missing. She couldn't help but curiously searched around, but the person in front of her just smiled, but did not tell her that the person was gone. Where.

Seeing this look, Medusa knew that she shouldn't continue to ask about this matter, and then she returned to the ground in silence.

Seeing that the clouds in the sky dispersed, the barbarian demon knew that his backers were probably unreliable at this time, so he originally planned to escape directly.

Unexpectedly, he was caught by Gu Shaoyang who came down from the sky. Then the other party carefully looked at the person in front of him, as if he was examining what he had successfully done?

However, due to the previous reasons, there have been some other changes here. He will not talk nonsense about things that he did not mention. Anyway, this kind of bamboo basket is all in vain. You will not get any benefits and you will be scolded. I wouldn't take the initiative to do something about it. Who would be really stupid to rush over here?

Chapter 773

Anyway, at this time, I wished I could hide thousands of miles away, but the person in front of me also did something unexpected.

Although I understand some of his intentions here, I'm afraid it's not that easy to calculate at this moment.

Maybe this was something he hadn't guessed before, but Qixing Longyuan's body was shining with a certain light at this time.

The person in front of me was stunned for a moment. Could it be that this is the most supreme light? Anyway, the suddenness of this moment made me feel a little surprised.

Although I have thought of some processes, it does not mean that it is corresponding now, so I may still need to spend some time on this matter.

Look at how they have changed. It just so happens that we can make some rectifications. After all, no one can get eternal balance here.

"This time, I hope you can understand what I mean."

The Medusa in front of me was stunned and nodded. Although I didn't know what kind of reminder he wanted to give me at this moment, but when I heard his voice,

I couldn't help but support and trust him here. Now this At the time, I didn't know what evil had struck the person in front of me, and then I immediately covered my face with my hands.

It seemed to be the shyness of a little girl, but at this moment, the person next to me didn't take it to heart, after all, I It has nothing to do with them.

As long as he can step back, he will be relieved. After all, there is definitely no way in his heart to keep things irrelevant to him here. In his own impression, he has always followed The person behind me.

So I must cheer up now and try to ignore this matter, but now it seems that it may not be that simple.

And the person in front of me will not let go of myself, what happened before , I actually made a lot of drafts in my heart, and I am quite comfortable here.

But I don't know when, everything started to become a little different. Is this the final far point?

I don't know if he is with If there is any gap between what he expected, Gu Shaoyang will directly follow his previous plan. Everyone has different choices.

But now he does not think that everything is logical. Below, Salo and Christi are At this time, he also broke his head to stop these people who were about to pounce on him. I really didn't expect that he was already going crazy now.

"What are you doing?"

"They have already driven us all to death, yet they still have the nerve to ask such a question"

"So what? The fault is yours, do I, a person who has done nothing wrong, still apologize to you? I'm afraid you are not dreaming."

I also learned some things at this time. Sometimes things don't go as smoothly as I thought, so at this time, I also learned some things. Instead of stumbling here when the time comes, it's better to cut through the mess quickly and quickly Solving this matter can be regarded as worthy of what happened before.

But to be honest, at the moment, I may think that other things can reflect the choices I made here, but Medusa is still very obedient and stands still. Behind him.

If his temper was as it was before, let alone his words, even if he were to stand in the sky, he would not pay attention to what he said.

After all, Medusa was like this back then. Qualifications, arrogance, but I didn't expect that he would become like this after not seeing each other for a long time.

But before I persuaded him hard, I didn't expect that he would be interested in the first person behind him, but this can be regarded as a matter of course. It's a good thing.

After all, I don't want to cause trouble here. No one can get off the stage, so it has become an undoubted target at this moment. However, during this period, I also understood some situations. If it were so simple, then everything might not be necessary. Hesitated

"I really didn't expect that a little person would dare to challenge me here."

The God of Thunder in front of him looked at him and smiled. He didn't quite understand what she meant. After all, if he had a little more courage, he wouldn't just say these words.

But at this time, the person in front of him would not follow him either. Why explain more? After all, I have almost understood these situations in this area now.

Although he is not a paper tiger, there is definitely a limit to what he can say here.

So he must consider who can become the ultimate person here. The route may be different from what I thought before, but this time is not the only opportunity for me to hesitate.

"I believe there are many ways to go here, and there is no need to limit myself to such a small pattern."

The person in front of him asked. Gu Shaoyang really didn't expect too much about this incident. After all, Medusa told him before that he only went in and out of the left ear and out of the right ear. He probably listened to it for a while and then passed it. I didn't expect that something would happen again at this moment. To be honest, if it ended up in this situation, I would have to think about it carefully.

But the person in front of him was not reconciled to his choice. It seemed that he knew that some things could not be forced, but it had to be said that he was really considerate in doing things.

If it weren't for him, he would have turned into a corpse in the wilderness by now, but now Salo was suddenly a little surprised. The two people in the sky had gone down. Why haven't they come back after so long? Did you encounter any danger along the way?

Christie next to him also had the same idea. It seemed that the two of them just hit a wall and thought of going together. After all, it was for them.

There is a reason for this incident. I just said these words, but now this moment makes people feel a bit inexplicable.

There are definitely benefits to rectifying things, but that doesn't mean it's the same now. If you want to be fully prepared here, you need to start with this one thing first.

"Just go ahead with confidence, I will protect the area behind you."

Gu Shaoyang in front of her suddenly laughed. She looked in a very good mood with her big white teeth exposed. After all, for her, there was a reason for this incident.

Although no one wants others to be affected here. Tie down, but who can resist the temptation of this thing right now.

So the person in front of me just smiled and turned around and left. After all, the things I can see must be biased towards the few.

"The incident this time is most likely related to people from the past. Just relax and don't think too much here."

Saluo ordered below. After all, everyone knows that several of them disappeared for a while, but no one knows where they went and what they did. Even until now, no one can tell in detail what happened back then. What happened behind the scenes, but Gu Shaoyang didn't want to mention anything more at this time. Maybe this was a previous route.

Others don't know much about it, but he definitely knows about this matter, but if he wants to It is estimated that it will take some time to instantly kill the barbarian demon in front of me.

After all, no one wants to cause trouble here, and the same goes for me. It's just that what direction I have to consider at this time seems to have become my ultimate goal now.

Others don't It's too clear, but I must be sure of winning here, otherwise I wouldn't say such nonsense out of thin air, but everyone knows Gu Shaoyang's thoughts here before.

After all, the things he and Medusa did, including The templates currently implemented are all to let them vent their anger here, but they did not do anything with Furuosha Business Investment here before.

But the personnel are not that simple. I don't know when, this person actually made some changes, but The person in front of me didn't give up.

The more something like this happened, the more violent it became in my heart. I was afraid that the other person wouldn't be able to take care of the rest of the things here, so I thought of provoking some things here. But to be honest, I must be careful before doing these things. You have to think about it carefully.

After all, no one will become your stepping stone for no reason, but it is precisely because I thought of these things before that I suddenly discovered some new worlds that I had never set foot on before. It seems that this time there is another There are new things that can be discussed.

Most of the events this time were done according to my own template, so I will definitely need to adjust some things next as to how to do the rest.

Then it has nothing to do with me, after all, who should also I don't want to do these irrelevant things, but during this period, I thought of some of my previous states.

This God of Thunder is so arrogant and domineering, so I should teach him a lesson no matter what. I can't just do it just for this matter. I made some inadvertent templates. Anyway, I don't agree with it now.

However, the Thor in front of me doesn't seem to have any opinion on myself. He just looks at me here. However, what follows next second Things gradually unfolded.

To be honest, if I had thought about it here before, I would definitely not have been so right. However, it was precisely because of the opinions here that the people in front of me were a little surprised. Maybe this was the reason. The clues I mentioned here.

Medusa next to her has been looking behind her for fear that someone might run out here. Naturally, she will not say anything at this time.

Everyone has different ideas. At this time, I I can only think of it differently, and the things I think about during this period are always different, so I may not have so many opportunities to let myself do it. The Medusa behind me is the reason to protect it first, otherwise It would be bad if something happened here.

Chapter 775

The God of Thunder in front of him saw the Seven-Star Longyuan in his hand. In fact, he was still a little resistant at this time. After all, he had just sucked away all his thunder and lightning.

But then I thought about it carefully. If she was really that capable, why would she listen to her command here?

So he took a deep breath and didn't care. He directly faced the person in front of him. Although he was attacking, it had to be said that his locking ability was still very strong.

Is this the difference between myself and the newcomers? However, due to this responsibility on his body, he will definitely not back down, seeing that Thor has established a firm foothold here.

The person in front of him smiled but didn't say anything, as if all this was within his budget, but at this stage, he did think of something.

The previous screams were restored to the previous template in front of him. It seemed that the lower part was taken down by Salo. He had been quite optimistic about this person from the beginning.

It seems that he must have himself in his memory, so it should be that only Medusa herself is missing this part of her memory.

However, the people in front of him didn't want to drag him back here. The cave was indeed something he didn't expect. Later, he was teleported away inexplicably. They may have thought that he had betrayed them.

However, because of what they thought about here, they actually slowly retreated here. It seems that everyone is wondering who is the person who needs adjustment most here.

However, within this range, Salo thought of something special. The moment Medusa poked her head behind him, Thor's eyes instantly became serious.

It seems that he should also need to perform related tasks here, but the more this happens, the less likely he is to let him succeed. If he did something to Medusa in front of him, then he would be too ashamed of those people. Have confidence in yourself.

But it was precisely because Medusa's appearance here gave me some encouragement that I now have the courage to face these things.

Otherwise, I would not be able to hide as far away as possible, but there are always some things that I need to consider, so there are changes here again and again.

In fact, I don't want to, but sometimes it's not something I can solve with just one sentence, so there will be some troubles more or less.

But during this period, I definitely need to fill in the troubles in my heart here, otherwise how can I talk about improvement here?

"You should know what they are going to do here. Believe in your own strength and take a good look here. Maybe you will be able to find some others soon."

The person in front of him frowned. He didn't know what he meant. He actually pushed himself out. It doesn't matter what he said before.

But now he is at this stage, and he doesn't know how to say it. , but what happened at this moment must be something I had never learned before.

A beam of thunder from the God of Thunder hit him in the next second. At this time, no matter how stupid he was, he knew that he should avoid it, so he He turned away from here and looked to the side.

But at this time, the person in front of him seemed not to let him go, and even looked at himself here. To be honest, what happened before might not be what he thought. Same, so now we have to look at who has done all this here.

"You go down first and wait for me. I'll be back soon."

The Medusa in front of her frowned. She also felt uncomfortable now. It seemed like she had no strength. If that's the case, then she should consider whether she should take the time to exercise here. After all, If this slump continues, it may lead to some problems.

However, at this moment, I am caught off guard. The previous goal may not be as smooth as I thought, so there will be some changes more or less.

But at this moment Sometimes, no matter how much I say, it is of no use. It is better to just do it step by step. Maybe there will be some results in the end, but it is just because of Gu Shaoyang's idea.

I am now in a deadlock, but to be honest, it is just right. It's because I haven't repeatedly promoted some of the aspects that come to mind here. It's not a special thing anyway. However, some situations have arisen. Even if Medusa doesn't let herself mention these here at this time, then I have to force myself to do it.

After all, I can see the current things very clearly. If it weren't for these things, I wouldn't be like this.

But speaking of it, I feel that what happened before is a bit surprising. Getting to the bottom of it doesn't mean that the matter in front of him can be solved smoothly.

Anyway, what he considered must be different from what he thought, so instead of stumbling here, it is better not to say a word.

Chapter 776

However, the Thunder God in front of them immediately attracted a special bolt of lightning from the side, which struck right in front of their eyes. The people next to me must be a little frightened at this moment, after all, I also learned about what happened before.

If you want to deal with it directly, then what you see and understand must be one-sided things.

So it's no wonder that I took the initiative to speak here, but to be honest, the purpose before was really not so unexpected. Could it be that someone did all this according to the template?

Although it is a bit unbelievable, the clues they gave me at this time are also reflected. It seems that I am afraid that I have to consider some other things this time. At least at this time, I cannot let others see me clearly.

"I didn't expect that the majestic God of Thunder would be just such a person here."

"Is it possible that all gods should be marked with some special symbols here?"

Hearing what the other party said, Gu Shaoyang in front of him just smiled, as if he didn't know much about this matter. Anyway, the thunder god next to him during this period could be regarded as seeing it.

This kid is definitely not claiming to be arrogant, he has his own The true inheritance of his own set of water preparations, after all, the actions made by the whole person are very prominent here.

It seems that it is not that simple, but the barbarian demon here before was caught by Salo and the others. And the rest here seem to be able to get some clues from him.

But the person in front of him doesn't know what to mention. The current thing is too surprising, but the next second Sa Luo discovered a secret.

There was a special clue on this barbarian demon. If the person before had not helped lead out some clues, he would not have noticed it. But it was precisely because of the discovery of this big secret , and let his eyes leave the beginning of this incident. After all, there are many directions to consider this matter. So for now, let the person in front of me not move for the time being. I have no intention of taking this matter. He told Gu Shaoyang in the sky about this matter.

At this time, he only needs to protect Medusa wholeheartedly, and other things have nothing to do with him, but now it seems that things are not that simple. After all, the person in front of him seems to want him. Making some actions here, such a change definitely surprised Gu Shaoyang in front of him, but the real sanctions came soon afterwards. I really didn't expect that so many things happened in this matter, but it was precisely because of them. As he did this, he keenly saw some of the reactions of his neighbors. If he understood what happened last time, it wouldn't matter.

But now that the villain who followed him before is no longer there, it makes Gu Shaoyang feel a little better. I miss him, but I also saw his fate from that mural.

If he keeps following me here, it will soon disappear. After all, this is his mission.

So in order to let him live here longer, I could only deliberately say some cruel words to let him leave as soon as possible, which could be regarded as some compensation for him.

Medusa next to him directly grabbed Gu Shaoyang's arm and motioned him to look at the corner. Unexpectedly, this Thunder God He actually found some helpers.

But looking at this posture, he doesn't look like a smart person, so maybe he doesn't need to worry so much, but he doesn't understand the current situation very well. What if there is really any trouble? It's not like trying to draw water from a bamboo basket and get nothing.

"Most of what happened this time depends on the behavior of the person in front of me, and I don't know what he thinks."

Medusa muttered a few words casually, but the people below focused on this matter. After all, no one thought that Gu Shaoyang would take the initiative to bow his head here.

Everyone knew about Medusa before. Yes, but it was precisely because of this approach that the things they thought about were a bit biased.

But to be honest, where was Xun unable to be? At this time, his bloodthirsty aura filled the air.

"Be careful, it seems that Xun cannot be around here."

Fu Ruosha in front of me was also stunned for a moment. Since the last incident ended, I haven't seen him for a long time. Now such a problem suddenly appears.

It really surprises me, but at this time I He didn't take the initiative to say anything. Maybe this was some trouble that arose in the middle.

But at this time, he was helpless. Who doesn't want to get these changes, but it's a pity that he doesn't have such an opportunity.

And no one in this area in the air He didn't dare to take the initiative. The purpose of the thunder god in front of him was definitely not that simple, although he was not sure yet.

Chapter 777

What was he after, but it was obvious that he learned something from him.

Anyway, someone will appear in front of him soon. No matter how stupid he is now, he will not waste time here.

Then he immediately made some changes here. To be honest, what happened before was definitely something he had never expected, but that doesn't mean it is the same now, so he must understand the other party's intentions here before he adjusts.

"I really didn't expect you to be so presumptuous now."

After hearing his words, the person in front of him did not hesitate in many aspects. After all, what he said must be useful.

But at this time, he also needs to consider several other groups of people. After all, everyone is here. They go hand in hand. If any trouble arises, I can take shelter here, but this time the incident may not be as simple as I expected.

"What would you say is the most reasonable way to do things this time?"

The person in front of me frowned, not knowing what he meant by what he said. In addition to the previous reasons, something like this happened suddenly.

It really made me a little unprepared, but in this case At that time, I didn't think too much. Anyway, this aspect was reflected. Although what I considered was important, there was a reason for it at the moment. The thunder god's light suddenly hit me again, and I could see the other party's His face was not very good, as if he was a little dissatisfied.

But the people next to him ignored him, so you just followed the original template. After all, for them, the incident itself was unexpected.

What's more, there would be As for these areas, to be honest, at this stage, I almost understood their intentions.

As the light hit the Seven Stars Longyuan, it was transmitted directly from above. If it takes longer, If you say a few words, it is very likely to bring some trouble to Gu Shaoyang.

Medusa rolled her eyes and returned to her original appearance, connecting heaven and earth here. At this time, the person who just came to sneak attack could not I know what happened.

Suddenly I was enveloped in a burst of light, but the people next to me were silent at this time. For them, this matter was not as complicated as expected.

So there is no need to waste time here, but Perhaps it was also because this idea was deeply rooted in people's hearts, but it suddenly made me think of something.

I had tried these things before at this time, but the people next to me didn't seem to care too much, but the more because of his actions.

Now I I am also willing to be vigilant. Each road leads to a slightly different direction, so now I must carefully consider before taking action.

If there is any trouble, wouldn't it be bad, but to be honest, at this moment, I am almost I can understand their views here.

Although it is somewhat different from what I thought, I am still helpless at this time. Who doesn't want to get a good adjustment, but this is also necessary, otherwise it may be here at any time. cause some trouble

"I didn't expect you to be able to make Medusa wholeheartedly work for you here."

The person in front of me frowned high. Why did his words seem so weird when he said them here? But to be honest.

At this moment, I don't intend to think about those unimportant things. Anyway, now I am concerned about For myself, I have made some adjustments, but the current moment is obviously different, and I have thought of some things.

But the next second, when I basically took out the Seven Stars Dragon Abyss, something else happened. , no one could have expected that the problems that arise now are different from those then.

After all, I did have lingering fears here before. I had thought about these things in the first place, but now it seems that it is not that simple.

"I know what you are thinking, but this matter had nothing to do with you in the first place. Don't you think you should give up your position?"

Gu Shaoyang looked at the person in front of him. He didn't understand what he meant. Is it just to humiliate himself here to prove that what he said was completely correct?

Anyway, he didn't want to worry about this at this time. Anyway, nothing will happen, but to be honest, at this stage, I have also judged several other aspects. At this time, everything is not that simple.

Wanting to do it and being able to sit are two different things. Things, but to be honest, I discovered something unexpected at this time.

If I remember correctly, the final result will soon come on this road, and now Gu Shaoyang is a little helpless, Although the person in front of him is indeed very powerful, there is no guarantee that he will turn into the little snake he was before.

Chapter 778

In addition, he had promised Salo before that he would put his life safety first, so it was not up to him to say whether he would do so now.

Instead, he has to consider the remaining things, but at this moment, he really has some unexpected money. For Gu Shaoyang, what he may want is some one-sided methods.

But it's not that simple at this time. Anyone who expected these aspects would never end up like this.

But at this moment, I also understood that the plan LeTV thought of here would also undergo some changes here, so I had to think of these situations no matter what.

The thunder god in front of him attracted a ray of thunder, which directly hit the common object in his hand, but what he never expected was what happened next.

With the sword in hand, it is impossible for a person to fall forward. So at the moment when the thunder was triggered, the entire Seven Stars Longyuan once again emitted a particularly large light.

It envelops everything around it, as if it has been transported into a special small world. Anyway, the people in front of it at this moment are stunned.

But there were many other things that followed. After absorbing the lightning, Qixing Longyuan began to release energy directly. I really didn't expect that this kind of thing would happen now.

The thunder god's eyes struggled to watch this lightning, and then directed it back to himself. At the moment, he was really caught off guard.

"Didn't you expect that?"

Gu Shaoyang smiled and nodded at her here, as if everything was within the scope of the plan, but the next second Gu Shaoyang gently knocked on the stars on the Seven Stars Longyuan.

Suddenly Suddenly, some unexpected conditions were discovered. The brightness of these stars was no less than those seen before. At this time, Salo and Christi were also left out in this golden light.

Then everyone They all disappeared out of thin air here, including the barbarian demon and the followers who had spoken out. Outside the light, Xun Fu couldn't help but narrow his eyes. He didn't expect that he still had the right to control time, but he didn't expect that he was An accident here is that even if everyone here is controlled by time, they don't have to.

When everyone wakes up after being baptized by this light, they see the surrounding scene. How can this be regarded as a A good place.

It was obvious that someone had dragged him in, then turned around and came out again. The people in front of him were a little incomprehensible, and their faces were full of sweat. It actually made the people next to them laugh. , I didn't expect to find out that they had gone through this kind of thing now, but it does make people feel a little weird now.

Maybe to a certain extent, all the people I saw were correct, but no one can be here Persuasion.

When several people came here, Gu Shaoyang's pupils shrank. The people around him couldn't remember the memories here, nor what happened before.

But at this time, he could definitely guess in his heart , Not only that, for Gu Shaoyang, isn't this the cave from before?

But the time has moved forward a little earlier, and they are still preparing for the situation before entering the cave, and they have not been attacked by those snakes.

So at this moment The person in front of him was anxious to get around all this, so he simply took the person in front of him and took him away from here.

This made the people next to him a little confused. After all, for Medusa, I am not very familiar with him now. Just because he is very similar to the little boy back then, I have some unexplainable affection for him.

But he is doing this to himself now for some reason. What? But the person at the moment didn't have time to explain, he just dragged her away.

Seeing the other party's appearance, the person who defrauded the money was a little bit 10,000, but he didn't mention anything. He carefully looked at the person in front of him, and the next second he took out a jade pendant in his hand. He stuffed it directly into Medusa's hand. This jade pendant also had traces of a four-leaf clover on it. If it hadn't just been in the time tunnel, Among them.

Thinking that he was still carrying this thing, he didn't quite know why Medusa became like this. However, at this time, his eyes were still green, and he did not see the four-leaf clover inside..

No wonder he is looking at himself now and he will not turn into a stone. But now Gu Shaoyang is not messing around here and has re-planned the route here.

As for the previous men in black and white, they are still the same. While being tracked, Gu Shaoyang directly threw the Seven-Star Longyuan in his hand to the ground. The sound caused the man in black in front of him to turn his head.

Chapter 779

"I have thrown away my weapon. I wonder if I can talk to you about something at this time. After all, we are all escaping here. Why not join forces? As long as we can get out from here, it doesn't matter what we do."

The man in black in front of her looked at her arrogantly, with a look of dissatisfaction on his face, but the person next to him didn't say anything at this time.

It seemed that he expected that he would mention this here, but At this moment, I was obviously a little surprised. What on earth did I experience?

"Do you think you said I would compromise with you here?"

"That's not what I meant, I just wanted to see if you had any other intentions. After all, everyone here is doing it according to the previous template."

The man in black in front of me is a little surprised. It seems that she knows a lot of hidden secrets. Otherwise, why would she tell herself these things here? But at this moment, she is not wasting time here. Instead, she is looking at several nearby areas.

"You said that if it were that person who happened to do this this time, would he help you?"

The face of the man in black in front of him stiffened for a moment. It seems that he must have understood what he meant. After all, how could a cold-blooded person like that come over to help? It's already a good thing that he didn't clap and applaud next to him. Something happened, so now I don't think that these things will be rejected. Instead, I think of some of the previous ones. It seems that the situation this time is definitely not as complicated as expected.

But it is also because of some conditions here that some things happened to me. Change, but during the transition period, I didn't dare to throw this olive branch too hard.

I was afraid that they would stop their intention to cooperate with me here, and the man in white would definitely advise the people in front of me, so now I also There is no rush.

Anyway, everything will be in their own hands at that time. Whether they can grasp it or not depends on their actions. After all, everyone here is judging based on what happened before. Even if you have great abilities now, , and had to think of how to do it.

However, the man in white did not bargain with him here, but appeared directly behind him.

Originally, the man in black wanted to argue, but was directly ignored by the person in front of him. Come on, since the other party intends to support you here, there is no need to talk so much nonsense at this time. It will only attract different opinions from others, so you must consider carefully how to deal with it. policy, but at this moment, it makes me a little surprised

"I agreed on his behalf first. I am really grateful to you for being willing to give us a chance to try here.

We definitely won't waste time here, but to be honest, we want to ask you about what's going on here. I don't know if you know anything about it."

Gu Shaoyang in front of him nodded, and then walked to the side with his arm, and the two of them went to communicate in private. It made a few people next to them stunned. When did their relationship become so good? But at this time, it seems that no one will take the initiative to speak here.

After all, everyone knows that things here are never that simple. The man in black is a little awkward standing behind him.

After all, the man in white is his brother, but he I left myself here and ran away with others, but I also felt that it was a bit overwhelming. I may know the previous situation, but it does not mean that this time the incident will be solved smoothly.

"What do you think I should do?"

"It's enough to follow your own ideas. Is it possible for you to make changes based on what others say? This is too inconsistent."

The person in front of me didn't say anything. It seemed that he had some understanding of this incident. To be honest, he had considered these things before. He hoped that it could be resolved smoothly, but he gave up hesitantly afterwards. After all, not everything is within the scope of consideration.

So I need to understand these things before this to see if it will be all in vain in the end. Coupled with the previous information, I am even more hesitant now. Anyway, no matter what, the result that evolved at this time is definitely not fake.

But it also makes the person in front of him somewhat unable to do anything. For Salo, this time it is to see if he can persuade him.

After all, Gu Shaoyang also provided a lot of help at this time. Although he didn't know what would happen next, the current situation was obviously somewhat different from what he expected.

But at this time, Christie was very He walked towards him in good faith, looking as if he wanted to say something to him here.

"I know that this time we take the initiative, you must not be used to it, but I also know that you came here under coercion, and the Flowing Cloud Land disappeared a long time ago."

Chapter 780

Gu Shaoyang told him all this before. I don't know why, but there is always a voice in my heart, telling me to believe him here.

No matter what happened in the middle and what kind of results we encountered, but now that we have such a premise, I won't waste time anymore.

After all, they have already taken the fastest path, so next they just need to let themselves see which aspect can be solved smoothly.

All this can be regarded as eliminating all dangers, but at this moment, he also thought of some alternative processes. During this stage, the Seven-Star Longyuan in Gu Shaoyang's hand has been emitting light, covering the stars on the compass..

This made Gu Shaoyang a little distressed, and then he directly stuffed the compass into the hand of the man in black next to him, and then smiled at him, with a somewhat kind expression on his face.

"I know why you came here, but it was indeed me before."

Hearing these words, the person in front of him looked at him hesitantly, not knowing what he meant. Coupled with the previous reasons, the man in black was really confused. But the man in white next to him People are more natural than her. Everything here is very smooth. She took this thing from his hand and put it in her arms. This was the help he provided to herself first, so it must be He got the thing before he regretted it, but the people next to him stood there blankly.

I don't know what they were thinking. The next second, the man in black was pinched by the man in white. Although he made some exclamation sounds, at this time A light also appeared on the compass.

One was purple and the other was blue. I don't know what the difference is between the two beams of light, but at this time it was not as simple as I thought.

But at this time, Gu Shaoyang had already left, entrusting the compass to In their hands, I felt that I was safe this time. After all, they would definitely not be betrayed here. However, for the sake of safety, Medusa still took it with me, but at this time, Salo reached out to stop it. killed oneself

"What's the use of bringing a young lady with such a bad temper? How about I go with you?"

Saluo came over here. Before Gu Shaoyang had time to speak, Medusa beside her raised her eyes and pursed her lips. She knocked his hand off here, and then immediately grabbed Gu Shaoyang's arm and took her away.

"If you have such free time, you might as well take care of the other people. You see, Natasha and Christi's legs are sore from walking all the way."

As his voice spread further and further, and he watched the two people's figures disappear at the end, Salo in front of him breathed a sigh of relief.

In order to avoid disputes between the two people on the road, he can only help now. For this reason, Christie next to him saw his hard work. He just sighed but didn't say anything. I don't know why when I sleep at night recently, I always dream about some previous scenes, but These scenes happened after he went out.

Could it be that he still has the ability to predict the future now? Gu Shaoyang was a little surprised at this moment.

If Gu Shaoyang was still here, he would definitely find out what Christie described The dream was exactly the same as the scene where they met again.

Maybe he was the only one who retained the memory. After all, after the beam of light shrank in front of his eyes, he clearly gave some hints, saying that he would be there. I encountered some trouble here, but I didn't expect that the trouble would come too quickly.

But thinking about it this way, the next thing is not as simple as I expected. There will always be something to be judged and learned. thing, but at this moment, I feel a little helpless

"Do you think this incident was planned by someone?"

The man in black next to him couldn't help but tighten the arm of the man in white. He also had the memory of the later period, but unfortunately, this time it was Gu Shaoyang who really gave him a chance to be reborn. At that time, the two of them left here alone. , I didn't expect to be killed by the fake Liuyun Emperor directly at the door. I feel that I still remember it clearly. I originally thought it was a dream, so I rejected Gu Shaoyang's offer of cooperation before. But as she revealed more and more information here, she discovered that he was the savior of this place.

The compass in his hands was given to the two of them because Gu Shaoyang understood their impressions of the previous events in their eyes. , the two of them will definitely be able to use the compass here.

In addition, they are familiar with some of the habits of Emperor Liuyun, so they don't have to waste time at this time. However, what happened before did make me a bit surprised. Maybe this is the halfway point. some changes.
