Chapter 791

At this time, from the end, Salo saw Gu Shaoyang who had just poked his head out, which inevitably put a somewhat embarrassed look on his face.

In fact, for myself, there are some things that I can definitely think of in my heart, but the more so because of this approach.

Only then did I realize that everything was not as simple as expected. If I really had the ability to reverse everything, then maybe I wouldn't be where I am today.

Then Gu Shaoyang looked at the woman in his arms who was a bit eager to speak, and then looked at the person in front of him and nodded, indicating that he was here to speak.

But Salo still sighed, pointed to the position next to him, and motioned for the two of them to go out and talk here.

"I didn't mean to offend, but I just smelled a bloody smell in the air. Fortunately, I came over. I wonder if it delayed you?"

The person in front of me was stunned for a moment. I didn't expect him to say these words. Coupled with some previous reasons, I was caught off guard.

It seems that I still need to slowly study some other things in this matter. But this moment also makes me a little surprised.

If it were before, I might not think so much, but at this moment, I can't just sit back and watch.

"Don't worry, I didn't think you were that bad, I just didn't expect you to show up suddenly."

When two men relax the rules here, such problems will arise. In addition, due to certain things, they have no choice but to be here. Who wants to do such a thing? No one will do it. Only when they have no choice but to do so in the end. There will be people who choose this path

"I didn't expect that you also have protective thoughts towards Medusa."

"Otherwise, I don't like monsters like him. He usually defends here as fiercely as a man, not to mention that others will be attracted to him."

Hearing his words, Gu Shaoyang in front of him couldn't help but laugh lowly, and then stuffed a bottle of medicine into her hand. At first, Salo wanted to refuse, but then he saw the two light-weight pills on it. I don't know why, but suddenly some mysterious mind took this medicine back.

"This thing is actually nothing, it just can suppress part of it when he goes crazy. I will spend time to find a way to free him. I think there should be a secret in this cave that the two of us are looking for together."

The two men have reached an agreement here, and other things cannot be simpler. After all, there will definitely be no one who is not discerning here at this time.

But at this moment, there will be some surprises. , so what to do next depends on their processing direction. Although I have mentioned some here.

But there will still be some problems, so I also thought of many things in the next process. After all, here I have also learned about several aspects.

Now they are only considering these points, so they must hurry up and see who will appear here.

But the smell in this space really makes both of them feel It's a bit weird. Could it be that this is their usual habit of doing things?

I definitely won't talk nonsense at this moment. After all, there is no need for it, but I have also seen how some things are done.

The current situation It may not be as simple as I expected, so it is definitely a necessary choice to seize the time to deal with these problems.

But then I found that the situation was not quite right. Not only that, the paths that the few people were looking for now all passed through the previous populations. As mentioned in the article, it may be troublesome at this time.

And at this moment, I have also discovered some problems. Maybe it is not as simple as I expected, but this moment is undoubtedly a lesson for myself.

But this air is filled with An atmosphere that not only made my eyes shine, but also caused some trouble.

If it were before, I would have completely ignored this matter, but not now.

After all, everyone has learned about other things here. , I must be prepared to deal with this matter now. Anyway, I almost have the advantage at this moment.

But Emperor Liuyun was not found here, and no one knows where he went. In addition, before For some reason, the two of them are now looking at each other here, and neither of them can speak.

"Shall we go in and take a look first?"

"Forget it, I'll go in alone, and you'll help me watch them here, especially Medusa. When he wakes up, you can give him this bottle, and he will naturally know how to take you away."

Saluo did it in front of him. Unexpectedly, he kept an eye on it. It seems that he didn't completely believe them here.

But it's a bit strange. Before, he didn't care, but now this scene It was also a bit unexpected for me.

Chapter 792

"Don't worry, he is my friend no matter what, and I will definitely be here to protect him."

Gu Shaoyang in front of him nodded his head, and then left here directly. In fact, he didn't want to get entangled in this matter. It was just that he had seen some changes in them before, and he was unconsciously attracted by them here. Some actions were forced to take place. Maybe this is the trouble that is arising at the moment.

No matter what you do at this moment, there will be some problems. Although this is the case, in fact, several people here do not look so anxious. Could it be said that they have already dealt with it? Are you fully prepared now?

Medusa, who was lying on the ground, didn't react at first, but suddenly sat up here, startling the person next to her, who then looked at him.

At the beginning, he didn't know what he was going to do. Then he looked around and Salo remembered what Gu Shaoyang had told him before.

So he immediately took out the box and handed it to him here. The woman didn't know why when she saw this thing, tears flowed down her cheeks, which also shocked the people next to her.

"What are you doing? Didn't he already leave something for you?"

"You don't understand that this box is just to let us leave, but have you ever thought about what he will do if we leave."

Hearing these words made Salo a little dull. It is indeed what he said, but several people here should believe that he has the ability to leave here.

Otherwise, how could he have told several people to leave here voluntarily? , to be honest, if someone else said this, I would definitely not believe it.

But she is no one else, she is the savior here, not to mention that he also knows all the things that happened here before, so he will definitely be spared distressed

"There's no point worrying here. Everyone's current condition isn't much better. Taking them out as soon as possible can save a lot of trouble."

Medusa held it up here for a while, and then stood up and helped Natasha next to her. It was just like Salo's funny words.

He was bitten by an unknown creature here, and there was something on his leg. A huge wound, and there were items to treat him in the box left by the man.

He counted everyone in it, but he did not count himself here. If he could not come back, he would also let everyone else suffer. He is buried with him in the cave. This is his own territory. In the end, he must have the final say. The person in front of him didn't know what to say. At this time, his eyes were a little dull, but the people next to him also noticed that There are some secrets.

It seems that a few people may not be able to find some clues here in a short period of time. Instead of being hesitant here, it is better to go through it logically. Maybe there will be some unexpected things. happened, but at this time they also found another path. The route they saw at this time was corresponding.

But suddenly someone opened up an unexpected moment here. At this moment, if he really followed his path If they walked in the right direction, they might just leave from here.

So Medusa rolled her eyes here and when she helped them to the Bagua array, she took a step back here, and Salo grabbed his Arm.

There is a look of determination in his eyes. It seems that he should know what he is going to do, but now all he can do is comfort them with peace of mind.

"Don't be too nervous. I just want to place the device on the opposite pillar. Without this, none of us can move."

Saluo breathed a sigh of relief, and then let him go here. If it were before, it would definitely not be so easy to give up here.

But now that the moment has come, it is a bit too late for him. If it were different, If I did it before, this would definitely not happen.

"Then come back quickly and I'll settle the two of them."

Medusa nodded and ran away quickly. Then Salo stared at him behind him and found that he was indeed going that way and put the thing on the pillar.

Then he felt relieved. He helped Natasha up from the ground with his tone, but he didn't expect that as soon as he finished this action, the person next to him left directly. Before he came here, he didn't expect that he would be isolated from this flat account. , seeing this scene now, his face was as black as the bottom of a pot. He felt guilty for Salo's trust in him before.

Natasha next to him also used the last trace of her sanity to reach out to him. Hand, Medusa knew that her friends needed her, but this magic circle could teleport them directly here.

Chapter 793

Just when he was unconscious after touching the energy ball last time, he also saw those scenes. If he didn't follow him, he would lose all his power in the end.

Turning into a useless person here, how could a proud man like him allow himself to become like that, and he also had memories before.

The previous scenes flashed before his eyes, as if people could see the shadow of the past dispatched here, but now he did not dare to waste this time.

"Don't worry, I will definitely come back here. I remembered what happened after that. What he said was indeed very precious, and the map here was exactly the same as before.

It seems that this time, someone will have to fight with her here, so Tasha and Christi will be left in your care. Venus, I will be responsible."

Hearing what it said here, the person in front of him was also stunned. It is impossible to bring him in now, so he can only ask him to treat himself well here. The other party smiled He agreed, and then at the last second when he disappeared, he threw the box in his hand in. It turned out that the box was the only way out of here. I do n't know if they could still come out successfully at this time, but both of them were Thinking of the subsequent memories, there was nothing to worry about for him. However, at this time, Gu Shaoyang did not expect that he was back.

Hearing the extra footsteps in the cave, he could not help but be a little wary, but after listening When she arrived, the footsteps were very light, as if she didn't want to get into trouble. So she couldn't help but become a little interested in it, so she quietly touched her side, and the next second she saw the person in front of her. Appeared here, it turned out to be Medusa.

At first, Gu Shaoyang breathed a sigh of relief, but then he was stunned. Shouldn't this person be here?

Could it be that Salo failed to do it this time ? Watch him, but it is true that if Salo really had such ability, then this situation would not happen here. So the moment she saw him, before Medusa had time to speak, the person in front of her The man already sighed, took his hand and took him to a corner, then gave him a jade pendant.

"I picked this up on the road. It should be able to withstand some dangers by then. You can take it first without thinking too much."

Medusa was not polite to him and agreed directly here. But to be honest, what happened before also surprised me.

I wanted to ask him here, but when I opened my mouth, I didn't know the rest. No matter how you say it, Medusa in front of you deceived the steel generously. She told Salo's story, and also stated that she remembered those things in the past and hoped to fight side by side with him here.

To be honest , this can indeed put a lot of pressure on Gu Shaoyang to split the order, but he is a girl after all, and with the four-leaf clover he saw later, he is even more afraid to let him take risks here.

"Who are you? Now that you are here, you must listen to me and follow me honestly. If there is any danger, you must follow my instructions."

The person in front of him nodded, fearing that he would kick him out here, but it also made him a little surprised. The truth of some things was also hidden here.

But there was some special atmosphere coming from Ruoda's cave. , this seemed to be the smell that Salo had confirmed before, so the person in front of him gestured with him with his hands.

After roughly explaining the previous things to him here, Medusa nodded and said that she would pay attention here. , but Gu Shaoyang didn't know why in his heart. He always felt that this smell would cause some interference to him, so he simply took out a pill from beside him and stuffed it directly into his mouth.

"Just don't stall with me here, it won't be of any use, just take it, and any problems that arise will be fixed by then."

The person in front of him nodded and didn't say any unnecessary nonsense, but it was precisely because of his current actions that it caused some other problems.

Maybe these are some problems that evolved in the process, but no matter how much I think about it at this time, It was of no use.

After all, no one would be particularly disturbed here. On the contrary, his current situation was thrilling and exciting. Could it be that he knew that he would stop him here?

But the smell appeared in front of him again. , seeing the person coming in front of him, he couldn't help but be a little surprised at this time.

If he had done it before, he would never have thought of so much, but at this moment, he also understood some aspects. After all, not every path can get results here. , you must also learn to handle it appropriately, otherwise you will have some troubles at any time.

Chapter 794

"You wait here. There is an unknown thing in front of me. Once you get hurt by sticking your head here, it will be terrible."

Medusa nodded and stayed behind him obediently. Seeing his appearance, the man in front of her also nodded with satisfaction.

If it had been before, she would not have been in such a mood. It's a waste of time with him here, but sometimes things have to be done this way.

After all, I also saw some other people during this process, and their actions on their own initiative must be related to here, so next I We must also ensure that everything ends smoothly.

There was a smell of blood in the wind, and Medusa's pupils suddenly shrank at this time. The smell was actually very obvious to her, and she didn't even feel a little surprised.

But it made me feel very strange. Logically speaking, such a thing would not have happened before. Where did it start to become different?

But his body was uncontrollable here and he walked forward. Although I understand these things, but it seems that it is not that simple on this road.

Now I wanted to go backwards here, but I didn't expect that I was not given such a chance at all, and I was intercepted in the middle.

And now this There were also some accidents in the class. If it had been before, then I didn't have much prediction about these things.

After all, this was not my purpose at the moment, but some things that happened afterwards really caught me off guard. Is this their true purpose?

But the next second I was here to participate in the call, and I cleared these impressions out of my mind in one breath. I couldn't cause trouble for myself just because of this incident.

And The situation at the moment was quite complicated, and I definitely couldn't explain it in a few words. Coupled with some of the subsequent consequences, I was really caught off guard. The Seven-Star Longyuan in my hand rushed out at once, in this dark place. A glimmer of light lit up in the cave, and to be honest, I also discovered some problems.

After all, there was a figure in the corner following them, but now that Medusa was behind him, he had to ensure her safety.

But Qixing Longyuan attracted the man's attention at this time. He should also be a little interested in this thing, otherwise why would he look here.

But the next second Salo pretended not to want to be discovered here, so He directly covered Qixing Longyuan inside his clothes. This Qixing Longyuan was originally a conscious object. After being hidden here, he made some dissatisfied sounds in a low voice.

But the people next to him did not pay too much attention. , this matter itself is beyond the scope of my consideration. It is a good thing to let that person chase me.

"Who are you? Why are you following me here?"

Hearing Gu Shaoyang's sudden words here, his eyes became sober. I was helpless here, so I had to bite him on the arm.

I hope to get some clear emotions, and as expected, The reason for all this comes from the person in front of me. The feeling he brings to me is quite deep.

I don't know why, but he feels very familiar to me, as if he is someone who has appeared in front of me.

I feel this After a while, I slowly let go. The other party didn't mention anything about his hostility to him here. Instead, he looked over here.

Although I understood these events, it was still difficult to overcome the blockage in my heart in the past. , then there is no chance for him to continue.

But he has to consider the safety of Medusa. Even if he is the person he is most familiar with now, he must be wary of him.

Not just for Others, even for the results here, no one wants to cause trouble here, and I am definitely the same

"It doesn't matter who I am, it's who I am here that matters."

Hearing what he said, Gu Shaoyang looked into the corner for a moment, hoping that he didn't notice the existence of that person, otherwise he would definitely pounce here again.

"Don't worry, my goal is not him. As long as you meet some of the requirements I have made here, then I will definitely not attack him."

The people in front of you will definitely cause you some problems, but the subsequent results will still take time to improve. No one can inherit all this here, right?

"Then why don't you say it, before you accurately bring up all this, I won't make the same move here."

The person in front of him narrowed his eyes, as if he was a little wary of him, but at this time, the person in front of him was completely indifferent.

"What you think may not be the truth, but I advise you to be more cautious. After all, I have the ability to stop you two here. If you still want to successfully escape here, it is best to choose here. Cooperate with me."

Chapter 795

The face of the person in front of him was very stiff, and he didn't know how to respond to this matter, but after all, there were some situations that were beyond his scope of consideration.

What I am thinking of now may not be that simple, so it is most important to seize the time to deal with the subsequent troubles here.

However, when the person in front of me proposed cooperation, it was not that I couldn't agree, but I just didn't know whether the situation could be solved this time. Everyone would have some considerations here, so I had to seize the time and not offend others here.

"If the two of us delay what you are doing here, you can also say that we will leave here immediately."

But the man in front of him smiled happily, even showing his white teeth, and turned around his body as if to inquire. But the next second, the other man's expression became serious, as if he knew he was here. What to do next

"Don't you want to know what the smell in the air is? And you guessed it right, this is what drove Medusa crazy last time.

But you have to make a deal with me and help me get that thing so that I can help here. I think this is as tempting to you as escaping from here."

Under Gu Shaoyang in front of me, it seems that he has also come back from that time, so there is no need to say so much. He nodded here, then called Medusa over, and gave the instructions to the person next to him.

"I will definitely bring back what you want, but if I find that he is missing a hair when I come back, then we will settle the score slowly. After all, you also know that I am no other outstanding person, and I will retaliate here."

The man in black in front of him smiled and nodded. He was willing to cooperate with such a person who had a clear distinction between love and hate. On the contrary, the kind of hypocrisy made him feel a bit annoying, but the moment in front of him also caught him off guard. In front of him, he was a little bit off guard. After negotiating with the people, he would not take him into a passage here, but the premise is that Medusa can only be deposited with him. The Medusa mentioned is like an object, and those few people have He was a little unhappy, but then the man in black spoke again to comfort Medusa.

The other party actually followed him willingly. Seeing this, he was a little surprised. Could it be that he fed Medusa something? Did you take Ecstasy?

But the moment she saw his eyes, she understood what Medusa was thinking. No matter what happened, the person in front of her would definitely not do anything unnecessary to her.

After all , He needs the thing that Gu Shaoyang brought back, so he is not worried about the next step, but there are other things that need to be considered now.

There has been a qualitative leap, and since he is ready for this, he will not delay Time has passed, maybe what happened before gave him some misunderstandings. He unexpectedly turned around here. However, then he learned something. It turned out that Emperor Liuyun was not the only living person here, and there were even others. Many people live here.

It seems that I am really short-sighted. I came here for some reasons, so now it seems even more strange. Maybe it is not that simple for me.

Here Real things can become your favorite things, so you need to see who is the winner here. After all, everyone has different considerations. It's just that at this time, I can't be so calm.

"As you walk along this path, this thing next to you will give you some guidance."

Gu Shaoyang simply walked away without looking back. To be honest, if it had been before, the people next to him would have called Yijiao here.

After all, who doesn't know his character? He will never be here again. It's not impossible to return, so I have to make sure that the person in front of me can come back smoothly, even if it's different from what I thought, it doesn't matter

"Do you think Salo will come to you during this process?"

Medusa was very wary and looked at the person next to her. She thought that the other person would say something threatening to her. Unexpectedly, before she heard her answer, the other person smiled softly, and then Walked away without looking back

"Don't worry, if he comes I will receive him according to the same etiquette as you. I won't make any difference."

Hearing his words, Medusa finally put his heart back in his stomach. In dangerous places outside at any time, Salo and Christi are not that safe.

In addition, there is also an injured person. Natasha is definitely a burden. She had known that she would not send them away, but there is nothing she can do now.

So she happened to inquire about their information with the man in black. After all, Gu Shaoyang should have gotten the map from him. , but the other party's eyes were very confused.

Chapter 796

"It shouldn't be me. There are many people in this cave. Anyone can do this kind of thing, as long as the conditions can be negotiated."

The last sentence is the key point. After all, what Gu Shaoyang is doing now is based on this condition, but it also makes me feel a little panicked. There must be some adjustments in the process, so the next step is to Let's see who will take the initiative here and take this step. Maybe the reasons before were not that similar.

But at this moment, they can't help but be reckless here. What happened before was based on their wishes.

"I don't really know the map very well, but it should be easy to bring them back."

The man finally changed the smile on his face here. The person in front of him who mentioned this very seriously here was a little worried. Will it be better or worse if he comes back?

After all, at this time , Salo is not by his side, and the decision he makes now is definitely not guaranteed, so he must think about it before it happens.

Otherwise, if something happens here, Gu Shaoyang will have to settle accounts with him when he comes back, and Salo There was nothing he could do to save himself.

Although the situation of Christi and the others should be better than he expected, Gu Shaoyang has now penetrated part of it. He really didn't expect that the speed here was quite fast.

Although on the way I saw some things, but I was a little surprised. After all, the situation in front of me also made me aware of some problems.

Although it was much different from what I thought before, there is no way at the moment. Who doesn't want to get the last chance here?.

But I also want to see if it fits, so I was a little nervous before doing this, for fear that I might get into some trouble accidentally.

Although the previous situation was something I had not expected, but in the target state There must be a reason for the chain of things that happened.

So I tried my best to avoid these practices before. No matter what, as long as I have this opportunity now, everything is actually within my reach.

And this man in black is also very good here. It took care of itself, and I couldn't tell that it had any other purpose. Over time, I got used to its existence.

But it made Medusa suddenly enjoy herself. Things were obviously not like this before, and now Furuosha appears. There was something wrong with the timing.

Why was he in such a tunnel? The man in black patted him on the shoulder, and then turned to the person in front of him, as if he could learn something from him.

It seems that this time The incident was not as simple as he expected, but Salo also smelled a trace of blood in the air.

The next second, a man in black appeared in front of him. From the crystal ball he gave him, he could When I saw a few of them, I wanted to leave.

But I couldn't get out after walking around here for a long time, so I had no choice but to let Black Cloak help here. The other party was not polite and arrived at their location in a few seconds.

Repeatedly After confirming with Medusa, the other party confirmed that he would take them back here. The man sighed and went out directly.

Seeing his reaction and behavior made the people in front of him a little nervous. Could it be that this Did he do something wrong again?

He must have thought about the previous incident, but it may not be that simple now. Gu Shaoyang held Qixing Longyuan tightly in his hand and slowly moved forward in this dark tunnel.

I have to say that the scenery on both sides really made me a little stunned. It was as if someone was carefully measuring here with a pen and ruler, and there was not even a slight difference.

Every pattern seemed to have been shaped here for a long time. If it were a work of art before, I would have never imagined it to be so specific.

However, there are always some situations that are beyond my expectation, so I must seize the time to let everyone understand what I am doing here. what to do

"I have almost understood what happened this time. They are not trying to make things difficult for you here. Just stop it and choose some reasonable paths."

Then several people watched him leave here. In fact, they didn't think of these reasons before, but for some reasons.

Everyone here embarked on a road of no return, but some things happened at this moment. The situation also made me a little surprised. Maybe this is what happened in the process.

Maybe it was a bit far-fetched for some of my previous situations, but I will definitely do what I promised the other party now.

But For some reasons before, I had to examine whether someone would suddenly appear and stop me at this time. Although I thought of this, there were also some other fluctuations.

Chapter 797

Especially at this time, a ray of light came from the foot, which should be a special gem. I don't think that I can get some improvement if I take the initiative now, so it will more or less cause some trouble.

But at this moment, I thought that what that person wanted was similar to this little gem, so Ji Ben stepped forward and picked her up from the ground.

But he didn't expect that the next second he saw this thing, a huge behemoth appeared standing next to him and looked at him condescendingly. Gu Shaoyang's heart couldn't help but feel suspended in the air.

You have to know that during this process, I also had some accidents. Although I knew there would definitely be danger here, otherwise why didn't the man come by himself.

But the black cloak didn't mention anything here. It seemed that this kid just wanted to frame him, so he just picked up the gem and turned around and ran over there.

I hope to get rid of his control as soon as possible, but the other party has been following me, as if he has locked himself. It really surprises Salo now, but it is also related to the previous process.

He knew that this orange gem was useless, but he still got it resolutely. He was not sure whether this thing was what he asked for.

After all, I didn't have time to take out the piece of paper and compare it with the huge thing behind me. It had been tracking me, and I thought I could hide next to it.

But this rock kept emitting light and never stopped for a lesson. This gave me a headache, so I had no choice but to put him down in the middle of the two rocks.

But with its huge body, it couldn't get in at all, and I tied a rope to the tip below it, and then pulled it hard towards my position.

Maybe he didn't understand the true strength of this monster. After all, Black Cloak just told him to take it over before, but what happened now surprised him.

But just at the moment when he was stuck in the gap, he turned the thing in his hand and took her away from here. If it happened according to what happened before, then he was not sure whether it would be solved. These.

Anyway, now I also understand that if they take the initiative, they will definitely pass this route, but I don't want to waste time here.

But the next second, he heard the sound of the rocks on both sides shattering. He turned his head and saw that he had destroyed it directly here.

But before Gu Shaoyang hesitated, the reflex arc of his body was faster than his own thinking speed here. The Seven Star Long Yuan in his hand flew out directly and landed at his feet. Gu Shaoyang stepped on it and left here directly.

If it were before, I would definitely have some opinions on this, but at this time there is no need. After all, I can also see that some of the things they do here are sincere.

However, the huge monster in front of him is also extraordinary in strength. He must hurry up and leave the Seven Stars Longyuan before he rushes over. The speed of movement is really fast.

But it was nothing compared to the fact that this behemoth was caught up here in just a few breaths. It really surprised me. Then I controlled the common things under my feet to fly higher and farther.

But there was a roaring sound next to him. He was beating up and down like a flexible gorilla, constantly making his presence felt in front of him, but at this time he realized a problem.

How can we go back? At that time, I arrived here, but it was completely in a gliding state, and now I thought of this.

I couldn't help but turn pale. Do I have to fly up again from the bottom of the canyon? But when I saw this big monster, there was a special circle hidden behind it, which also emitted a kind of light. This light made me feel very friendly.

It seemed that he was the only way for him to teleport back here, but at this time, he did not take the initiative.

Sometimes it is more necessary, and the person next to you is here to help, even though I know that he is different from what I think, and I also thought of something.

Waste of time is always inferior to the remaining events to be considered here, so I hurry up and get there. However, Qixing Longyuan also arrived at the opposite area while cutting through the air. Now I have to be prepared no matter how much I don't want to see him..

Although I understood their style of doing things, I still felt some uneasiness in my heart before letting go completely.

But the next second, he heard a voice, which seemed to be Medusa calling his name.

When he turned around, he saw the huge bear's paw slapped on his body. At this time, it was too late to escape, and he could only watch as he approached him.

Chapter 798

But a problem occurred in the next second. Just when he was about to fall slowly, Qixing Longyuan suddenly seemed to have his own consciousness, and he flew straight into the sky, resisting some of the enemies on the opposite side. attack.

But as a price, several of the stars above him were knocked off. Seeing this, Gu Shaoyang felt very distressed here.

So he immediately grabbed Qixing Longyuan, changed into a swooping posture, and then curled up together, for fear that the other party would catch him here. After all, he had to be prepared during this process.

As expected, the magic circle quickly swallowed him up, but the next second he saw an unexpected situation.

Although he said that he had escaped this danger here, there were still many troubles to come. After all, in the huge time and space tunnel, he stumbled and suffered several scars from lightning strikes on his body.

This Seven-Star Longyuan also became as dull as before, as if it had become a good match for him and was very suitable for his sword. It wasn't him, but to be honest, it surprised him.

I didn't expect that he would rush out here to block that level for me, but looking at the faint light above, I thought that I should be able to treat him if I go back now.

So he immediately stepped on the edge in front of him and returned to where he was before, but the black cloak was definitely not here, and Medusa also disappeared.

Could it be that they were scattered here by other creatures? I had such a conjecture before, but I didn't worry about going directly along this path the next second.

Instead, the bloody smell on his body welcomed other creatures here. Looking at the wolves in front of him showing off their power, it seemed that if the tigers didn't show off their power, they wouldn't know how powerful they were here.

The next second he touched the long sword in his hand, and raised his other hand. In the hand was a Qiankun bag, and a gloomy wind came from it.

Then a black shadow was released here. This was actually a path he had found before.

I originally wanted to return it to the underworld and let the King of Hell make this decision. Unexpectedly, I ran into trouble halfway, so I could only use it as a shield.

"I didn't expect you to have this thing."

A voice came from behind, followed by a snap of fingers, and then the wolves in front of him disappeared.

I didn't expect that his strength was already so powerful now. It would have been him before. It must be a bit shocking.

But now that I have this thing in my hand, it is time to understand how to get the maximum benefit, but suddenly walked out from behind him.

Several people actually made their eyes look a bit Shocked, maybe this is the reason why I was pregnant recently, but suddenly a peaceful state appeared.

It really surprised me, but something else happened the next second, and it seemed that there was indeed some reason for my previous guess.

And I definitely wouldn't want to hear what I said before, but in this current situation, I have to consider some other consequences to avoid causing some trouble.

"How about this, let's reconsider it, and if something happens then, we can discuss it here."

The black cloak smiled, and then nodded in agreement. Gu Shaoyang did not hesitate, and then directly reached out and put the thing in his hand.

Seeing that he had been asking for something for so long, he couldn't help but feel a little embarrassed. It was very emotional, but the person next to him didn't intend to say anything at this time.

This was what he asked for, but it had nothing to do with him. However, it was due to some reasons before, and now he has thought of some exceptions.

"If you follow me along this path, I promise you will get something soon."

Gu Shaoyang finally followed him here without hesitation, but the people next to him were a little uneasy. What if something happens then?

But the people next to him didn't seem to hesitate to do anything, so they just followed him here. Go up. To be honest, if it were the same situation before, I would definitely want to avoid it.

But it is obviously different now, but the people behind me don't believe it here. Who else can set an example except himself?.

Anyway, I have seen something about this matter. The man in front of me didn't talk nonsense. He just took out the things in his hands. If it were before, then I would definitely be more wary. But now this One moment does not mean that he will be subdued by him, especially at this time. Although he cannot guarantee that things will happen smoothly, he must seize the time.

Then during this period of time, Salo thought of something before. This was before Gu Shaoyang. Didn't they give them an envelope? Is the map on it fake?

Chapter 799

Unexpectedly, Black Cloak knew what they wanted to ask early on, so he told them everything they needed to do, including that there were many unreasonable places on the map.

In fact, at first glance, the black cloak didn't look any different from the one he held in his hand, but Salo pointed out a few passages beside him.

It was said that the painting at that time was not the same as the painting on the spot. It was then that Black Cloak realized that these people wanted to use the maze to hide all the truth here. Fortunately, he arrived in time, otherwise it would have been terrible.

I don't know what Liyun Emperor is thinking. It seems that he wants to turn all his spaces into a closed space, which will not interfere with him. But now he has brought so many people with him, so it's not a good idea to agree to Gu Shaoyang's affairs. Do

"Don't worry, I will definitely be able to help you solve these things, and I have told him before."

Gu Shaoyang looked at Salo next to him. How long had it passed? It was the same before he was bribed. He was also very easy to talk to when communicating with him.

But Christie next to him seemed to be smarter than him. Little, but the other party actually maintains the same attitude here, which seems to really surprise me.

If everyone sees it this way, then I want to invite him to join here, but the black cloak seems to have noticed him. With this thought in mind, he handed him the real map and walked away.

Then Salo stopped him behind him, hoping that he could give him some help.

"Don't you want to leave with us? I promise you will get the freedom you want when you get out."

The black cloak in front of him smiled and rejected Kan Ran. Then the incident this time should be related to the previous one. Anyway, he also learned some things. There is no need to mind the rest.

In the target state, he did understand some things. , if it were the same before, then I would definitely not compromise.

Anyway, at this time, I am letting nature take its course, and there is no need to do these unimportant things. On the contrary, I think that all this will cause some trouble.

Although under the target situation, I He also knew the follow-up results, but Gu Shaoyang still did not dare to act rashly, especially in this situation.

If there is any trouble here, it would be terrible. Sometimes knowing something is actually not a good idea. It's very important.

But there are always some premises that are forced to be changed, so Gu Shaoyang was a little hesitant at this time to give him the previous things. He did give him everything he wanted, but he didn't dare to be too concerned at this time. Too sure.

I am afraid that there will be some trouble in the end. Maybe the things I learn within this area will be more important than some of the original things, but I have no chance to hesitate during this period. After all, the beauty of the transition period is Du Sha and several other people are by his side. Right now, what he needs most is nothing else.

It is a route here that may not have been as smooth as he thought, but Gu Shaoyang also took out Seven-star Longyuan.

The originally bright Seven-star Longyuan was already dim and unsightly at this time. Although I was a little heartbroken, I had no choice but to take the initiative to stop it.

After all, sometimes there are problems. What is produced is definitely important, but he will also be a little surprised. No matter how he discovers these processes, he will eventually get a reasonable ending.

But after the twists and turns just now, the steel on the Seven Stars Long Yuan has already It's bleak, with no change at all.

But at this moment, I have to understand some aspects. Instead of stumbling here, it is better to consider the follow-up issues.

Maybe I will make some decisions at this time. Some of the repercussions may very well support other people to make changes, which would be bad then.

However, Gu Shaoyang and Qixing Longyuan quickly merged into one here, and Medusa next to them looked a little bit different. Marveled.

The people who were unable to cheer up here gradually looked over. To be honest, the man in front of him didn't expect that his strength was like this.

In fact, several people were a bit amazed. Ben I thought Yuan Xian's matter would cause trouble here.

But it wasn't until they saw what they did that Salo and Medusa realized that this man just didn't do it before, but it doesn't mean that his strength is Like this.

And at this moment, everything is connected together. Even if you have great abilities, you still have to consider some troubles in the future.

Otherwise, some problems may arise at any time. Of course, at this moment During this period, I did not insist on forcing such a thing, as long as they trusted me.

Chapter 800

Then Gu Shaoyang took action here without any hesitation. In other aspects, it seemed that they were willing to do so, but who knew.

After all, what happened here was definitely not as smooth as they understood. In this case, everyone would definitely not be able to control an extra aspect.

But to be honest, the succession that I originally saw here gradually appeared to this extent. If it were the same as before, I would definitely not be welcomed.

But it's different now. I just need to seize the time to be here and figure out how to take over Shengyu's affairs. After all, the person in front of me doesn't want to make things difficult for me.

But to be honest, this period also gave me a bit of a headache. Is this thing in front of me what I am looking forward to the most? There must be a reason for excess in this period anyway.

Therefore, you must be fully prepared to avoid any trouble.

But the other person didn't seem to hesitate at all here and was very calm. It really surprised me, but then I thought about what happened to him before.

He immediately understood why Salo and the others were so calm. They had already escaped, but were inexplicably brought back by a man in black, and such a problem even occurred.

However, what Black Cloak promised him here before was extremely appropriate. It seems that he must have understood what he meant here.

I don't understand why the orange stone is so important to the black cloak, but at this moment, I don't want to think about those unforgettable situations.

The jadeite that was in the box before was also taken into their hands. After a closer look, they discovered that the jadeite was all covered with some special light.

There was even a burst of crystal clear light under the only light source. If I thought he was dangerous here before, I can now confirm that it was my illusion.

But at this moment, under the premise that the beauty is alluring, I also have to consider several other things. After all, it is impossible to solve this matter smoothly.

Moreover, at this moment, I have also learned some things, and some problems have arisen, and I am eager to solve them.

Therefore, I am trying my best to avoid the troubles that arise more or less, for fear that some troubles will arise in the overwhelmed situation. However, at this time, Fang does not seem to give himself such a chance to hesitate and return, and is still looking here. Own.

The map Black Cloak gave him did write a route that could leave here directly, but he did not dare to do so for fear of seeing some surprises along the way.

And there was no help here. A few people had no choice but to support each other and walk towards the exit. At the beginning, Salo was prepared to lend a hand to help Gu Shaoyang find his position.

But I didn't expect that the intensity of this matter was far greater. After a few days of protecting them here, I had no choice but to come back here in disgrace.

Medusa asked here. She didn't expect that he came back for this reason, but then she was a little worried about whether it would be particularly difficult to find out what happened in front of her. She seemed to know what he said here, so she came in front of her. Salo shook his head

"Safety is safety, but I am too tired, jumping up and down, and trying to find the final route here. Anyway, I can't bear it after staying for a few days."

The person in front of me complained and went back to the back, supporting Natasha and Kristi. Then I felt that it was not very good, so I just put Kristi on the back and threw Natasha to the back. Medusa and Venus on the side.

I would have definitely wanted to attack him before, but because of some interactions between the two of them in the past few days, I wanted to take a good look at him here. What does it mean?

After all, Christi is also my friend. We have grown up together. In addition, he also helped me a lot when I changed my world. It is impossible to make some aspects at this time.. Not sure what he meant, but at this time I understood some aspects.

Compared with these, I thought that everything might be smoother, but the current transition period really caught me off guard. Could it be that this is Have they made some adjustments?

I definitely won't talk nonsense right now, but there will also be some specific problems.

"The two of you walk back and you will soon see him appear here. To be honest, there is nothing in front of you."

Medusa agreed and did not move forward. Instead, she stayed with them. Anyway, Salo definitely wanted to do this.

Then there is no need to cause these problems. There may be trouble, but it is not At this moment, and I don't want to waste time anymore.
