Chapter 801

He was studying the map before and looked at some of the surrounding scenes. The orange stone before was unexpectedly found by him and he found a second crystal.

He casually put it in his arms and put it in his treasure bag. If he met that man, he might be able to make another deal with Black Cloak, but the other party didn't seem to appear here.

It was very calm along the way, as if no one had appeared here. Before, I would have been excited, and I wished I could tell them everything here.

But this time, I didn't just silently finish all the things at hand, although they did have some contact with me here.

But after all, it is not convenient for Venus to appear in such an occasion. In order to avoid all this, she can only take such action here.

All of this is the premise for the beginning, but now that no one can tell for sure, no one can be a substitute here. On the contrary, I have found a route.

If he handles it according to the previous method, then he is still willing to make some situations, even if it doesn't seem that simple.

Although all this is somewhat different from what I thought, I still quickly found a route at this time. Maybe I don't want to face these things at this time.

But other people seemed very interested, so he handed over the task of searching for things to Medusa and Natasha beside him, who happened to be recuperating here.

Unexpectedly, I just asked them to find a few, and the two of them came back with a lot of stones, but they really found something useful among them.

In fact, they had the mentality of giving it a try at the beginning. After all, they would definitely leave these things in their caves as a guiding stone.

I didn't expect to find these things by accident. Anyway, the moment I got them, I was a little surprised. Before, I definitely wouldn't have had any unnecessary opinions.

But it was not that simple at this moment. Several people came to a door and found that it was actually the one leaving here. When they finally arrived, they breathed a sigh of relief.

But the next second he saw the pattern on it, which was related to the five elements. In fact, he was not unfamiliar with it, but where could he collect these five things in the cave.

Then he thought of the small stones he found before, and then picked them up from the ground one by one and divided them into different types.

He finally got it together, but the door in front of him didn't change or pick up at all, as if no one had ever touched him here.

At first, I did think that it was a problem of getting wet, but the next second I saw a special straight roll from the analysis, and then took it out.

After reading the above content carefully, it turned out that the orange stone that was given to Black Cloak before was still the key to their departure here.

This gave me a bit of a headache. When I got things here before, I put them in the treasure bag, but now the quantity is obviously not enough, and it doesn't match the pattern on it.

It makes the people in front of me a little depressed. Are they going to be imprisoned here and unable to get out? But the person in front of him didn't say anything the next second.

Instead, he took out his treasure bag directly here, and several people compared all the quantities together, and the starting lines were roughly the same.

Gu Shaoyang put this gem in here with the idea of giving it a try, but he didn't expect that he would swallow the thing directly in the next second.

At this moment, the faces of the people in front of me were all expressions. If this were the case, I would cause some trouble anytime and anywhere. Coupled with some of the previous development processes, the sudden arrival really surprised me.

"How did things happen this time? Do you understand?"

The person in front of me started to conduct some investigations and inquiries, but the other person didn't respond at all, as if all these things had nothing to do with him. If it were before, he would definitely not have the slightest reaction, but now he is. It was a time when I needed help from others. How could I give up in just a few words?

At this moment, how could this door be opened? Several people gathered around to study it for a long time, but could not get any response.

So they passed this scroll to them. In his hand, he circled around here, wanting to see what the surrounding scene was like.

Unexpectedly, a shadow suddenly popped up in front of him. After a closer look, it turned out to be a sika deer, and then he came together. I went over and gently touched the antlers on its head.

I had never seen such a living creature since I entered the desert. All that was there was a patch of sand and a dark aura popping out, and then there were some unknown people..

Chapter 802

Before the sika deer in front of him brought him great psychological comfort, he didn't know much about what happened here, but when he saw him, his mood improved a lot instantly.

But after several people discovered that he had brought back a sika deer, the expressions on their faces became a lot stiffer. They thought that the other party would just turn around and leave, but what happened now really surprised them.

But in the next second, several people studied it according to the language of the snake clan. It turned out that what was written on the paper was not some random words, but something special.

It seems that this incident did catch me off guard, but in order to avoid the changes brought about by all this, I took the initiative and considered some other things.

What I learned here is at this stage, but this little deer looks very smart and keeps surrounding me, as if it is showing me how to go. Anyway, at this moment, I am really letting myself go. Somewhat unexpected.

But it doesn't mean that he will be here to help. Then he looked at the surrounding environment and still set his sights on him, because it was not convenient for someone to move here.

I simply put it directly on the little deer's back and asked him to help take care of all this. The little deer was also very well-behaved and didn't say anything nonsense or even express dissatisfaction here.

Watching the figure staggering away from here on Plum Blossom Road made the person in front of him a little satisfied. If it was because of those things before, then I would just like to send him away right here.

But it seems obviously different now, but what will happen during this period has nothing to do with me. Who doesn't want to deal with these, but some problems have happened, which has led to the current changes.

Several people walked forward and finally opened the place. At first, several people did not find a way out, but they didn't know what Medusa accidentally encountered when she stepped backwards here.

There was a roar here, and then the next second the thing disappeared here. I must have had many ideas before, but now it is obviously different at this moment.

No matter how much you think about it, it is better to give it a try and do it. This moment happens to be the moment that makes your eyes shine the most. Although I have seen their approach before.

But it has more or less caused some changes. Is this the compulsion to take the initiative here? But in a way, I don't need to worry about these things.

Anyway, in the end, it's not like there is nothing happening. At this stage, I am fully prepared, just to see who will have some problems here.

"If that's the case, then I won't be polite. I've basically told you everything that needs to be said, and you can figure out the rest on your own."

After the sound disappeared, Medusa raised her head and looked around the corner. It turned out that she accidentally touched a button. There was a comic book on the opposite wall, and the protagonists in the painting were unknown to each other. , but the voices of the people next to them were quite familiar, as if they were Medusa and Gu Shaoyang.

However, the two people were not closely related, and these things had never happened before. Such a problem suddenly appeared, but it was still surprising. People were a little surprised.

As he considered certain things, he quickly predicted for himself that maybe this was some of the troubles that were arising now.

However, he could still see the situation clearly. Rather than being here when the time comes, On the fence, why not take a look at the others?

"If you follow me forward, you will probably find the previous path soon."

The Medusa in front of her frowned very high, as if she heard something and did something he didn't want to do.

At this moment, I was indeed a little surprised. What on earth had he been bewitched? He actually behaved like this at this time.

But he didn't dwell too much on this matter. Anyway, there were more than this one thing that happened before, so he just had to seize the time. There was no need to worry about this matter. I am greedy for the superfluous, but at this stage, I am a little surprised. Could it be said that this incident is the front end of the initiative?

"Are you sure you want to do this this time?"

The Medusa in front of me had a somewhat embarrassed look on her face. She must have been impressed by what happened just now.

However, she didn't know when she had contact with him here. The look on the face of Gu Shaoyang in front of her was a little strange. Medusa Medusa felt like she was a joke.

Everything that had happened came to an unsatisfactory end here. Medusa was convinced that he was the boy she saw when she was a child. He was as beautiful as a doll. , I didn't expect that he wouldn't recognize me when we met now.

Chapter 803

"I really didn't expect that I am a stranger to you now."

Hearing the other party's self-deprecating words made the people in front of me a little stunned. To be honest, I really had no impression of him at all.

I didn't know who he was at all. Salo and the others next to him could see him. They were stunned. No one expected that it would turn into such a bloody theater.

But the other party didn't get any other opportunities here. After all, no one is a fool at this moment. Who would fail to recognize their purpose here? But the previous Emperor Liuyun made everyone fall into doubt. If the value of his existence here is not important, then why are all the people now experiencing some changes due to this?

"Maybe this is a show, specially designed by Emperor Liuyun for the two of you. Don't talk so much now, let's go out and discuss it slowly."

But at this time, Medusa was unwilling to give up and stared at him, as if she was afraid that what she saw was not real enough, and even pinched his arm here.

The other party bared his teeth here, and then He raised his head and looked at the woman in front of him. He remembered this action quite clearly.

However, before ensuring his smooth escape, he did not intend to have anything to do with her. After all, his four-leaf clover was still the last time. Keep it in mind, and the things that originally happened here seem to be different.

But in desperation, I have to ensure the normal operation of these things. I can't end up in vain, this kind of thing myself I won't do it.

But correspondingly, I also thought of some of the previous troubles. Compared with these few things, I have now fallen into a deadlock. No matter how many directions I have to consider, I still have to do a good job now. Thorough preparations.

Then he asked Medusa next to him to follow here. He originally thought that everything would be resolved smoothly.

But now it seems that it is not as smooth as he expected. Originally, this matter was divided into steps. order, but I didn't expect such trouble to happen now.

In addition, what everyone learned before was actually coincident with what I thought. Salo and Christi were sent to the other side by myself to help deal with these incidents..

But who could have expected the trouble that would arise now. In fact, this was just a preliminary judgment compared to before, and he would fall into a more troublesome situation.

Soon he learned all this, after all, for a certain Regarding these things, I can still make a big improvement.

Although it is not the same as what I have learned, I am not worried at this time.

After all, I will have more things to consider now. As for the current situation Whatever happened at this moment, it had nothing to do with me.

But the light on Medusa's body made me shine. If it were other things, I really wouldn't have the slightest idea.

But now this A moment cannot be the reason to stop yourself from doing certain things. As long as you can seize the opportunity, you can actually complete all of this very quickly.

But after all, there will still be some events that you cannot understand, so during this period There will definitely be some troubles within it. As for how to understand these things in each process, it makes me a little surprised.

But the four-leaf clover in Medusa's eyes really made me shine, for fear of causing trouble here. No matter what trouble happened, I gave him everything I could.

But the current situation was really extreme. What I thought could happen came to an end at this moment, just like that.

Although I can't guarantee all these adjustments and opportunities, if I don't do this now, I will definitely regret it in the end.

But in order to avoid problems caused by certain events, Salo and Christi still With Natasha, they collected the rain quickly, and with some help from themselves, it seems that sometimes the choice is not fixed.

"You are here to help me keep an eye on the surrounding scene. If anything changes, just tell me at the time, and I will definitely do my best to help here."

Saluo nodded, first to reassure him. Who would cause trouble for him here?

Moreover, this extreme situation is not something he knows best. His own situation is also caused by this incident. , so I can't wait to explain it as if I have a reason.

Maybe at this time, some of my judgment skills will be useful.

Although I understand part of the process, it is obvious that it has nothing to do with me. Related.

But the thoughts of the person in front of me are definitely not that simple, but I definitely don't want to cause trouble at this time. There are some things that I can just listen to.

Chapter 804

There is no need to look for trouble here, not to mention that I have learned something at this stage.

When the time comes, what keeps stumbling behind is that I may not be able to do it, so why not take advantage of this opportunity to dodge, so as not to cause trouble here.

But Medusa didn't seem to mind. All she did was look at herself here and there, as if there were some clues on her body.

But this moment really surprised me. Could it be that what happened during this period was so complicated?

It's just that I don't want to waste time at this time, which may lead to some clues being false, but it shouldn't cause any trouble to myself at this moment.

"Medusa's eyes don't matter, right?"

"If you ask this question, isn't it just like asking in vain? If I really had this ability, I would still be hesitant here."

The people in front of him frowned, not knowing what he meant by these words, but several people couldn't understand from this that some things may not be as simple as they predicted.

But they also caused some trouble. , although I definitely can't do things that are quite satisfactory, I definitely won't make any unnecessary moves at this stage. After all, I know very well in my heart that this will only increase my troubles.

Although I saw this time event, but there will inevitably be some gaps, so I still have to consider which path is more suitable for me.

However, Gu Shaoyang in front of him did not make a request to Medusa, but instead pointed directly here Staring at him, it seemed that I could understand something from his expression.

But the smell was once again permeated in the air. At first, I thought it was an illusion.

But I didn't expect to find out the situation the next second. It's not quite right. All the smells here are mixed together, and even I can't tell whether this is right or wrong.

But Medusa's pupils soon changed again. If I guessed correctly, it It must have become what it is now due to some reasons.

And this smell has become an out-and-out first person responsible for the incident, but the other party does not seem to understand all this.

It may be because of some reasons , but it may also be because of some things. Anyway, there are not many things that I can see clearly at this stage.

But for some reasons, this situation happened now. I was not too worried at first, but at this stage It doesn't seem to be the same. Is this the change that happened midway?

I definitely didn't have so many ideas before, but it seems a little different at this moment. Medusa looked at herself with a smile at this time, as if her own There is something like something on his face.

But there are many things that follow. I have only seen the surface at the moment. Although I am not sure why he did this, I have learned some other things here..

The twinkling light in Medusa's eyes made me a little bit incomprehensible, but because of certain events, I had to consider some things.

The problem is that what is happening now is not just as simple as I expected. There are many people meddling here, so no one can guarantee what they will encounter here.

However, in the face of your initial thoughts and desires to poison Gu Shaoyang, I can generalize. After all, for me , there are always some situations that are reasonable.

It's just that there will be many different events on this path, and then even if you have great ability, you won't be able to think of it so concretely.

But for me, there are always They would not have thought about these aspects. It felt like they were people who could appear and disappear at any time. However, something happened to Salo and the people in front of him soon.

Salo and Christi gradually This place disappeared, as if it disappeared out of thin air. I don't know the reason and starting point of all this, but I am not worried at this moment.

Medusa is still beside me, so these people will definitely come back. They were looking for her. As for why this situation occurred, they can only be responsible for everything.

I can't even prepare this for him myself, and I have also found some plans accordingly. Compared to before, this may be smoother now.

Medusa picked up the half of the stone he handed to her, and then kept staring at him closely.

It was as if traces of several of them could be seen in the stone, but in order to avoid all these incidents from happening, he finally focused on this one thing.

I thought I could escape their attack, but I didn't know that the other party searched me very quickly.

There is no chance left for myself here at all.

Chapter 805

I just let myself be hidden here, but I have to say that some reasonable things did happen in certain aspects, and I am now in a state of discretion.

I thought he would be indifferent here, but it seems that he still thinks too much, and the other party has been fully prepared early in the morning.

No matter what I do here, the other party seems to be very supportive. It seems that I have understood part of it. I will be able to see it next, but it does not mean that other people are the same.

However, Medusa did not intend to get entangled in this matter. Anyway, she also learned about it during this period. In order to avoid all this happening, maybe now is the time to take the initiative.

Although Gu Shaoyang gave him a stone here early in the morning, the person in front of him didn't seem to pay much attention to it, as if it didn't matter.

After all, some aspects have nothing to do with me, and I don't want to care too much now, as those things are nothing more than the things in front of me.

It actually succeeded in refreshing my own ideas. Originally, it would not have happened to this extent before, but the extreme scene in front of me made my eyes light up.

It seems that in this incident, he is not just thinking about himself. There may be many more goals to follow, but this is undoubtedly one of them.

If I had such a mind, I wouldn't be so panicked here, but then I didn't hesitate here.

After all, they still have to rely on Gu Shaoyang to escape here, and Christine's situation is not very comprehensive, if something really goes wrong.

That would be a miscalculation, so a few people must hurry up and find a way out of here, but just thinking about it, you will know how this can be so simple.

Once this is the case, then some things that would have happened seem to be directly in front of me. Maybe the original things are different from what I thought, but hesitation at this time has never been my own. style.

Gu Shaoyang didn't say that he was being treated badly. The things he used here were all excellent, as if he felt a little guilty in his heart.

I would have doubted it before, but this time it was necessary. After all, no one knew his thoughts better than him, and it only mattered to a few of them.

He will not let all the results here be stalemate. Although he views it this way, some problems will inevitably arise. This is the most important thing for him here. It seems that there are many ways he can think of at this moment.

But whether they are willing to solve it is a huge problem here. Who doesn't know their temper, so a few people are still looking forward to learning some follow-up information here.

But I didn't expect to be interrupted midway. After all, during this process, I saw that the queen bee must be in a lot of trouble here, so I had to seize the time and just think of it as luck here.

And whether they can find the exit now is their biggest change. They thought Emperor Liuyun would appear at this time, but it seems that they were still too naive.

Everything was not as smooth as he expected, including several nearby areas, which seemed to be blocked all of a sudden, leaving him no chance at all.

If you continue like this, you will cause trouble for yourself anytime and anywhere, so the people in front of you are also trying to distinguish and see if these things can be dealt with.

Originally, everyone here stopped abruptly. After all, no one wanted to cause trouble here, but it didn't seem to matter to him.

I definitely didn't know much about it before, but what happened now didn't cause any trouble to me. Maybe this was a little surprise that I learned about halfway.

At this moment in front of him, Gu Shaoyang finally found the location of Emperor Liuyun. This real estate had been entrusted to Salo and the others. Unexpectedly, he happened to find this path here. It really made his eyes light up.

"Are you sure you can leave on this road?"

The people in front of him hesitated. After all, Salo and Christi were just here to look.

As for what will happen at this time? Then I don't know very clearly. After all, I am in this situation. I have also learned about some of the events, and maybe I have thought more carefully here.

Not to mention the troubles they caused later. Although I can't quite understand their final results, I really have a lot of potential at this moment. Quite unexpectedly, the elixir left in his hand was also taken out directly.

It seems that this time he is planning to punish himself directly, but before doing this, why don't you see if you have this ability?

Chapter 806

Anyway, I don't plan to waste time here at this stage. On the contrary, I have considered some follow-up events. Instead of stumbling here now, why not consider some unnecessary things.

Perhaps this would be smoother for me, and since I had discovered some processes here, I suddenly had some doubts, but then I realized that everything happened for a reason.

It seems that at this stage, someone still needs to be free here. Who can get the final result? After all, to some extent, I still cannot get a large part of it.

Otherwise, I wouldn't read these things here frequently, but in order to avoid all these consequences, I still have to think of some unnecessary things.

Although this process may not go as smoothly as I expected, it is inevitable to some extent. It seems that I must pass through this place.

Although the other party doesn't seem to intend to embarrass himself here, if that's the case, that would be great.

The light displayed on the compass undoubtedly taught me a lesson here, but what was in front of me also brought some substitutions. Could it be said that this is my opportunity now?

However, the whereabouts of Emperor Liuyun has never appeared accurately before his eyes. Could this be the starting point of certain events?

I didn't hesitate here. On the contrary, I carefully looked at the incident this time. It was probably still somewhat different from what I expected.

But Gu Shaoyang had already left with Salo at this time, leaving Christi and Medusa face to face.

Everyone looked a little embarrassed. Maybe this was some trouble in the middle, but the person in front of him hesitated, but he didn't waste time.

"You can come in his direction and intercept them here for me."

The person in front of him frowned. He didn't know what he meant by this. Didn't he want to live in harmony with everyone here before?

Why did he do such a thing here in the blink of an eye? After all, I still let myself To a certain extent, I don't understand what his purpose is now.

Coupled with some of the previous reasons, I suddenly began to question the person who has been following them. After all, the current situation is too complicated.

But in fact, in front of The person just wants to solve the matter in front of him. After all, he has already considered part of it before.

It is precisely because of his careless consideration that some troubles have arisen, so he must understand at this time Which path is the smoother?

But with this change, there will definitely be some trends, so no matter what you do, it seems to be one of the reasons for hesitation here. Maybe this is the last A trouble on the way.

But fortunately, these people didn't think much about it. Things are complicated now. At the moment, I only saw the best trend in this process.

Medusa gradually smelled a breath of it. , if it had been before, I really couldn't be sure, and I didn't even know if there would be any trouble now.

But the moment I saw him, I felt that everything was just the result of my imagination. It is still very simple to complete the things.

Although I think so, some of the plans that were finally transformed still make me a little unclear. After all, not every process can end smoothly, and I also need to find one now. alternatives

"This compass is the last thing he left me. You have to keep it for me. If I disappear along the way, just don't go forward from the place shown."

Medusa didn't know what he meant by these words? Could it be that he would leave here one day? She didn't want to believe it.

At this time, she desperately wanted to explain some of the situation to him, but the other party seemed to It doesn't matter if you don't want to pay attention to what happened before. Isn't this a bit extreme now?

"If you are going to disappear, why not take me with you."

But Gu Shaoyang rejected him flatly. The leader of the snake clan in Medusa City should have returned to his world. What if he followed an ordinary human being? There was trouble.

However, the other party did not seem to realize all this at this time. Now he is still hesitating and thinking about the previous process. It seems that he was careless this time.

"I can only go on the road ahead. If you have any opinions, we can talk about it later."

But the person in front of him didn't intend to agree with what he said. Instead, he said something else. Then he sighed bitterly. It wouldn't have mattered if he said it before, but at this stage, he didn't want to. Causing so much trouble.

Chapter 807

"You know that these things are what I don't want to see, so do you want to do the same?"

The person in front of him frowned, as if he was a little impatient, but at this moment he did not intend to waste time. His opinion was always related to him.

But he was different, but in this period But it made me feel a bit of danger. Maybe this was a trouble I encountered.

Although I understood what he was doing, it was difficult to escape some of the suspects here. If it continued, I would definitely be unwilling.

I wish I could put him here. All this has been reversed, and there is nothing to do in the past. It seems that it was not my turn to scream here from the beginning.

But since the black cloak disappeared, I have understood where it came from now, so what if I scream now? , isn't it still the same?

"Have the Black Cloaks left us alone here?"

"He doesn't care about us either. We are two-way people. You wouldn't think that he would take care of you here."

The face of the person in front of me suddenly turned dark. I didn't understand what he meant at this time, but the person in front of me didn't say a word.

Anyway, the plot this time must be related to me, but based on the previous standard situation, This time they didn't do anything wrong.

It seemed that the trip here should be over. Since he did this, there was no need for them to waste time. The purpose was to give them a chance to adapt to all this.

Now that the situation has happened naturally, I don't need to think too much. On the contrary, I have also realized several other things.

Maybe in this current situation, there are some things that I did not expect, but the special situation is definitely There were also some reasons.

Then I carefully weighed it here and did not consider other troubles, but I did not take the initiative.

For Gu Shaoyang, the incident this time was exactly the same, so he Next, we must consider these troubles.

Qixing Longyuan also gradually showed some changes in his hands. It seems that this environment must have put a lot of pressure on him. Although Gu Shaoyang did not say too much nonsense , but absolutely did not make any other controls.

As the lights on it that had been extinguished turned on again, I suddenly gained some confidence. I had considered these points here.

It was nothing more than In a middle position, I just need to seize the time and re-read it. After seeing what everyone is doing here, it will actually be improved soon. However, I still dare not ignore the gloomy place above Qixing Longyuan.

"How about this, you seize the time and walk around with this colored stone, even though the black cloak is not around to help us.

But it doesn't mean that we don't have other people. As long as we find the exit, it will only be a matter of time before we leave. Remember, don't lose this thing. This is the only token we can keep negotiating with him."

Medusa nodded, not to waste time here. It is a change in itself. I don't understand if I want to negotiate.

But it is precisely because of all these reasons that I am forced to have this problem now. Anyway, I have done it as soon as possible to deal with it, just to see if he has this ability to continue.

But in order to solve the notes smoothly on this road, Ben has understood some of the process. The dim sky above the Seven Stars Longyuan Stars.

Finally, one of them was lit up under my own prompting, but in fact I was not in a hurry. After all, there were still many things that I had not expected at this stage.

Although I didn't quite understand what would happen at this time, but At this moment, I undoubtedly saw a lot of clues, and I originally thought that this route would be solved quickly.

But judging from the current teachers, I am afraid that I still have to wait for some opportunities, but they do not seem to intend to leave any clues for me. There is a chance, if this is the case, then he may indeed fall into doubts.

Medusa is holding this thing in her hand, for fear that there will be some crisis here, but the other party does not seem to be paying much attention at this time.

It seems as if he is indifferent to this matter. But the people next to him have no extra thoughts.

After all, some of his control is still very clear at this time, so next he only needs to judge who will do this here. Things are enough.

Otherwise, are we going to be changed here? Anyway, I almost understand the current things.

Instead of stumbling there, it is better to continue smoothly, but if there are difficulties on this road, there will definitely be Appeared, so in order to avoid all this, I need to be prepared now

"I know what you're thinking, now this thing is the only key we have."

Chapter 808

Medusa in front of her hesitated for a moment, and then she had no choice but to lower her head again. She naturally understood what his words meant.

It's just that I don't want to do this. In fact, there is a reason. I firmly believe that the changes at this time will definitely cause some problems.

But there is no doubt that we can determine what this problem is, and it is very critical. After all, no one can control some of the whereabouts here, but now we can't guarantee that this key point can be solved. Who doesn't know where the current problem lies.

Therefore, I must ensure that everything that follows can go smoothly, otherwise there will be some troubles anytime and anywhere.

However, during this period, I also learned about some unexpected events. I am afraid that it would be easy to do as expected, but it turned out to be a lot more difficult.

The orange gem in their hands became the only way for them to pass this path, and then several people began to scatter.

It seems that in order to find the so-called exit, he unexpectedly saw a stone pillar on the ground at this time. Several people walked around here and saw Gu Shaoyang meditating in the air above.

I don't know what he was doing, but in fact, Gu Shaoyang had been looking around this pillar inexplicably like them before, but he didn't expect that he would be dragged directly into the abyss the next second.

When he woke up, he had fallen into a desolate darkness. Then he carefully explored the surroundings, and suddenly found that the situation here was not as smooth as he expected.

On the contrary, Gu Shaoyang also found some other dangers here, which may be the last thing he wants to experience.

But now the symbol of Seven Stars Long Yuan also taught me a lesson here. This dark heart thought, as I waved the sword in the dream, it was lit up one by one.

Anyway, the current scene really caught the people in front of him off guard, but before the final incident came, Gu Shaoyang could only consider some feasible things.

Anyway, my path is now one-way, it just depends on who I lead will take the initiative here.

But at this moment, Gu Shaoyang didn't seem to be planning any explanation. Medusa called his name in a low voice. The other person's body just trembled, but then returned to a calm state.

It was as if the person shaking his body just now was not him, but the situation in front of him made him somewhat unable to do anything. It seemed that there must be a reason for this incident, so what should be done next.

It has become his undoubted goal now. The Seven Star Longyuan is waving in his hand like a person dancing, facing endless layers of demon soldiers and generals.

The next second they directly revealed their true faces. Looking at their dream swords, they saw Fu Ruo Sha, Barbarian Demon and Xun Buwei.

Logically speaking, Xun Feng shouldn't be here. After all, didn't he want to clear the rankings here before? It is already above itself.

There should be no need to continue searching for his position, but Fu Ruosha frowned next to him. You must know that he is also a group of dark horses here and a contestant here.

But I don't know why there was no change, but Fang Ruyu and Chanxin were facing their side, and the first and second names on the list had already appeared.

So Gu Shaoyang carefully looked at Fu Ruosha's appearance in front of him. Sure enough, he was very interested and even walked towards them here.

But Gu Shaoyang didn't take action, and Fu Ruosha stood still next to him. The two of them knew very well that if he really wanted to do something, even thousands of troops would not be able to stop him.

Rather than looking for trouble here, it is better to be honest. Maybe some good things will happen in the future, but during this period, I obviously saw several people around me make different changes.

In fact, at first I wanted to check here to see if other people would behave like this, but I didn't expect to find out later that everything was fake.

But this should be considered a good thing. Then he gritted his teeth and took the initiative to tell the people in front of him about it. But in fact, the people next to him were a little at a loss.

But to Gu Shaoyang, all of them are strangers. As for why they appear here and what they will do next.

That has nothing to do with me. After all, I have already known some of his actions during this process. These current things are themselves because of the original things, so I can also value their abilities during this process.

Although Fu Ruoxa didn't say he wanted to be here before, and he really took his own words, but he could clearly see from the movements of his hands that the other party would never be arrogant and unreasonable here, otherwise he would have taught him a lesson. But the next second the problem occurred.

Chapter 809

In fact, I didn't have such an idea before, but due to the original appearance, I am now in a deadlock.

Maybe in some aspects, they have a greater advantage, but now dealing with Xun Fang is what they undoubtedly have to do.

After all, I didn't originally plan to deal with these aspects here, but I don't know when to start.

It turned out to be his own initiative here. This suddenness still surprised him a little, but the next second he discovered something extraordinary.

The gem in my hand gradually had its own effect. At first, I thought it was my illusion, but now I think it is still a good thing.

Salo had specifically warned him here before, and when he left this world, he said that the barbarian demon here was like a puppet controlled by others. There would definitely be some trouble now, so he was in this situation. There was no confusion about the matter.

On the contrary, I learned this method from the people around me. Maybe this can be regarded as a good direction. Anyway, no matter how much I say at this time, it will be smoother than what I can't do.

So I was also looking at the clues on him, wanting to know whether it was exactly the same as what I knew before. Originally, this matter was beyond my scope of consideration, let alone these insignificant matters.

"If you join forces with me here, we will definitely be able to take him down."

Fu Ruosha hesitated for a moment, and finally nodded. He didn't know why there was a secret voice in his heart that told him to believe it.

He said that it must be useful here, but at this time no one can I can guarantee it, let alone what happened before. Although I dare not make up my mind to make such a judgment here.

But the other party is very patient and takes the initiative to look at me here, as if he is afraid that he will cause some trouble.

If it had been before If so, then I must be afraid that something will go wrong, but it is different now. I have learned some directions here, not to mention others.

Following the direction of his finger, Fu Ruoxa gradually looked at When it came to the line behind the barbarian demon, he actually couldn't see clearly originally, but at this time no one replaced him.

In addition, Gu Shaoyang used some more ingenious means to make him have to be happy. All of this was There is a reason. Although I can see his current predictions and thoughts.

But I still feel a little troubled because of you. The problem can be solved, but he doesn't believe in himself, which leads to what happened now. Look.

Suddenly, I was a little surprised, but what happened next, and there were many things that I couldn't let go of all my opinions based on this one thing. Isn't this too much? Then I took a deep breath. The tone here looked to the side.

Now Zen Xin and Fang Ruyu also raised their weapons, which happened to be aimed at the person in front of them. Anyway, no matter what, I tried my best to give an explanation here.

Although I don't know what it will do next, I can't help but say no now. What happened before could indeed happen naturally.

But it was stopped halfway for some reason, and now several people are facing each other here.

You can see All they got were the clues they had now. Anyway, they didn't intend to make these controls. This would only be an endless waste of time.

But Fang Ruyu in front of him nodded at Gu Shaoyang, as if The two of them knew each other, and seeing his behavior like this made the person in front of him panic.

After all, some of the things he did at this time must be a stepping stone here, so he must know what will happen next. Who can successfully solve the problem here?

This is also the result I need to get now. I can't be drowsy and stage a drama like that again. It would be too much of a headache for me, plus this One thing should not have happened in the first place.

Zen Xin's actions here suggested that he walked to the side, and then he picked up and received his hint. Unexpectedly, he turned his head the next second and saw an unexpected person. The scene.

The string of Buddhist beads in his hand gradually showed its original appearance, with streaks of golden light engraved on it. If I had a feeling in my heart before, it was confirmed now. I didn't expect this Zen mind seems to be different from before.

It seems that this time, I have to understand why I am here. On the contrary, some unnecessary problems have arisen.

In fact, it would not have happened to this extent, but now The situation is obviously a bit different, although I must have been well prepared before.

Chapter 810

But at this time, some other aspects will inevitably arise, and perhaps more and more things will be caused during this time period, so before this, I also need to consider several scattered processes.

"What do you think we are here for?"

Fu Ruosha in front of him was stunned for a moment, why did he suddenly ask himself as if he was lamenting about life?

"Aren't we just going to escape here?"

This sentence suddenly awakened Gu Shaoyang. How could he do such a thing?

The reason itself came from a previous stage, but what happened now to change it into the following way? This is indeed It caught me off guard.

But I may not be able to understand the aspects of every consideration. Although I originally considered it this way, it seems to be different now.

Anyway, Gu Shaoyang cannot escape unscathed at this time. Wu Lun is from I have to understand two aspects from the previous consideration direction to the current one.

The first one is whether something will go wrong with those people in the outside world. After all, whether Salo can take them without him. Successfully escaped.

In addition, the black cloak has withdrawn the help given to him. At this time, no matter how powerful he is, there is no way to solve the problem.

However, in this area at the moment, he finally saw something extraordinary. As for the part, I originally thought that all these events were the original beginning.

However, this should be considered a good thing. Gu Shaoyang was still meditating, but several people outside had already begun to work. He never dreamed that several people would actually He was completely shrouded in that beam of light. He could see the original situation, but certainly not through this aspect, so he must seize the opportunity to see their core here. But Manmo and Xun couldn't see it all at once. He looked arrogant, as if he was the only one here, but I have to say that this incident really surprised me.

Maybe this was the step I took the initiative before, but because of several other people The style here, I thought of something superfluous.

Xun couldn't quickly lock their position, and rushed over directly. Seeing this, he must have subconsciously taken a step back.

Unexpectedly, he happened to avoid it. After his attack, the suddenness of this moment really surprised me, but the current situation is also very easy to control. It's just whether I can make some changes, which is what I need to think about most now.

But the things in front of me are The curtain did not seem to have come to an end. The points he had considered were gradually revealed to everyone at this moment. It seemed that they now undoubtedly knew some of the routes here. So

Gu Shaoyang had no choice but to follow the floating people next to him. Ruo Sha continued to discuss, fearing that the other party would be misunderstood here, so he quickly took back what he had just said. He just put the map in front of his eyes, and Ruo Sha didn't know why, but there was a look on his face. His expression suddenly looked strange, as if he was entangled, but the people next to him also came to ask for help, and seeing his expression obviously made him a little surprised. Didn't

Zen Xin and Fang Ruyi next to him always do it by themselves? As for his own, why did he suddenly come to his side again, but the luminous sword in Fang Ruyi's hand just attracted his attention.

After all, this thing is quite necessary for him. If it is really It would definitely be a good thing to be able to win him at this time, but it would be terrible if we were afraid that the effort would be empty by then.

"Now I still can't agree with your request for cooperation. Xun Fang doesn't want anyone to go. Is it possible that after cooperation, two of us can go?"

Although Zen Xin is a monk, and he smiles here in a simple and honest manner, in fact he is a person who eats human flesh and drinks human blood without spitting out his bones. The last time I saw him plotting against others was a scene.

It was really disappointing. I somewhat disagreed with him, and I didn't even dare to talk nonsense to him here, so I thought about avoiding some of its current whereabouts.

But the other party seemed unwilling to discuss this matter with me. On the contrary, I'm avoiding myself all the time. This matter really bothers me a little now, but the people next to me also look a little embarrassed.

"Don't worry, you will definitely not be threatened by anything when you stay here with us. If I have any questions, I will tell you directly here."

The person in front of him nodded and said no more. It seems that he must have thought a lot about this matter.

Fu Ruosha next to him saw that the person in front of him agreed, so he didn't say anything more. Anyway, it had nothing to do with him. Relationship, there is no need to talk so much nonsense here

"Are you sure they can be trusted?"

"Even if we don't trust him, we still need to rely on his ability."
