Chapter 811

The eyes of Fu Ruosha in front of him were widened. He probably didn't expect such a situation to happen, but Gu Shaoyang had already considered these whereabouts before.

If she was really powerful and consistent with everything about her, then he wouldn't appear here at all.

The 1st and 2nd list of the top ten holy gods have joined forces, do they still need help from others? After thinking about it, I felt that this statement was a bit ridiculous, so several people obviously brought about some changes while discussing it.

"Just remember that passage. If he makes things difficult for us here, you can just run out from there. According to my previous impression, he is probably not a good person."

This naturally refers to the smiling monk next to him. In fact, for T person, some of the actions taken by Zen Xin now do make them feel a little hairy.

But due to the strength of the two of them joining forces, it is almost impossible. I personally have no way to change this matter, so I have no choice but to consider the follow-up matters here.

Although I did understand the original template, it was not through the current position, and I can also understand the current state..

Instead of waiting and hesitating here, why not think about other things? Maybe you can get some other results here as soon as you turn your head.

But before that, they must ensure their safety. After all, Fu Ruo is now Killing followed him, and he had gained some changes here.

So how could he let these people attack him? But what to do before that depends on the actions of several other people.

Who Everyone knew what the outcome would be at this time, so he had to give them a reasonable direction before they made such a move.

Looking at Gu Shaoyang holding up the sky alone in front of him made the people in front of him feel sour. I thought it would be very simple here.

But now it seems that it is not as easy as expected. In fact, sometimes I know how he thinks about this matter.

But I can't say some unnecessary excuses, let alone Now Fang Ruyu has been staring closely at Gu Shaoyang in front of him.

If he wants to dodge, it may not be that simple, so he is also working hard to reverse this situation for him, but Qixing Longyuan has been The flickering light in his hands, as if everything could be improved

"What do you mean by Qixing Longyuan?"

Seeing these extremely abnormal lights coming out of him, I secretly screamed something bad in my heart. It was probably because they had discovered the previous things.

A few people chased me here again, which really made me feel guilty. It's a bit of a headache. If it had been before, I would have spared him even an extra glance, but now it's obviously different.

"Oops, those friends from outside my house must have rushed in. Don't forget to cover me here when the time comes."

The person in front of him nodded and didn't quite understand what he meant. But in fact, everyone here can't understand it. Maybe what happened at this stage is such a standard.

Although I can I can see through his thoughts here, but if I follow the steps, it will definitely be slightly different, so I am also working hard to identify the reasons for these events.

Then I found a starting point in them, unexpectedly These two people really showed their skills here. I thought it was all their own mistakes before.

The two of them joined forces here to deal with Xun Fang. I don't know what evil things this kid learned in the middle, and now he is actually very powerful. Up.

Seeing this, he must have panicked, but the current situation obviously did not allow him to do such a thing.

In desperation, Gu Shaoyang had no choice but to take action here. Seeing that he was finally willing to act, the two of them also faced each other. Lu Xisese, no one knows what he will do this time.

Anyway, as long as he is here, he can rest assured. The two people are here to assist him, and finally the problem is solved here.

Xun cannot be subdued by them, But there was no sign of compromise on the other party's face. Instead, he was still glaring at them from this place, as if he could see something from here.

At this time, he still tried his best to avoid their gaze, but In fact, it has not brought about any changes. Could it be said that this is the most troublesome incident now?

I can think of it, but I absolutely cannot do it now. After all, these are two different things. Maybe I didn't understand so much before.

But now everyone is waiting for such an opportunity, how could he not help?

"Forget it, for the sake of seeing them struggling like this, I'm going to help, and you are here to be ready to escape."

Chapter 812

Fu Ruosha was amused by her words, why was he in front while she was thinking about escaping, but Gu Shaoyang did not hear her question.

He just turned around and walked away, leaving Fang Ruyu behind. He Chanxin saw Gu Shaoyang coming to help, and a trace of doubt burst out in his eyes. They had negotiated with him before, but they just didn't want him to poke a cold knife in the back.

To be honest, there is only one way to resist Xun Fang this time, and that is for them to join forces here, otherwise they will be overthrown here soon.

Seeing them stunned, Gu Shaoyang glanced sideways, as if he felt a little strange here.

"What are you doing? Don't you know how to cherish the opportunity when I come to help you?"

As soon as he finished speaking, Fang Ruyuan was the first to react. He raised his hand and re-transported the mana to the big compass before. In fact, this thing was a refracted Bagua array. But it had to be Not to mention, after having her help, several people here have become more relaxed. Although there is no major essential change from before.

But in fact, at this moment, there is some change in my eyes, to some extent. It seems that everything I want to deal with is not much different from usual. Is this a change now?

There is definitely no way to deal with it just through my own judgment, so I need to understand who is now. Take the initiative here.

But in the next second, I discovered several nearby areas. It seems that this incident is not as simple as I expected. I will be ready next time to try to win him here in one go. , it just happened to be an explanation.

Xun Feng next to her could not smile very happily at this time, as if to them, this was someone who did not need to be vigilant.

However, the moment in front of her also gave her a bit of a headache, I really wanted to bypass his sight here, but I didn't expect that this kid had locked his position early. Not to mention escaping here, I'm afraid I didn't get any other opportunities. At the moment, I was really in a hurry. Defend

"If this is the case, then should we advance and retreat together here? We are all already grasshoppers tied to a rope."

Fang Ruyuan couldn't help but frowned when he heard what Zen Xin said next to him at this moment, but he didn't say anything. Anyway, the incident this time was because of him, so he didn't need to do such useless work.

On the contrary , To some extent, I need to think of some situations. If this is the case, I would rather move forward slowly here. After all, there are some events that I must know in my heart.

But the people at the top quickly sent some information , I originally thought they would adjust these directions here and consider some other things.

Maybe this matter is the most unpredictable for me, but to some extent, I am also weighing some things. After all, the direction I can control is still very small. Obviously.

To some extent, it can be said that Gu Shaoyang sold the terrain here. It seems that it is somewhat different from what he expected, but the brilliance dotted on the seven-star dragon abyss in front of him is not as simple as he expected. Is there some problem now?

Then the light on the compass suddenly flashed in front of my eyes. It seems that this incident really surprised me.

If I can understand all this, it doesn't seem to be that simple. But to a certain extent, I actually hesitated here for a long time, but the situation in front of me was too complicated.

The star above it suddenly burst out here, and generally lit up. In fact, I didn't know it at the beginning. I want to understand, but now this situation suddenly appeared.

It really made me stunned for a moment. Maybe this was some incident that happened before, but after all, what I was thinking about was definitely two things that I wanted to do. thing, so I need to see if there is a suitable way in this situation.

As this light enveloped several other people, I was suddenly stunned.

Fang Ruyu and Zen Xin were also detained in such a situation. In an environment, I discovered something I had never understood before.

I guess this incident was not as simple as expected, but the things in front of me made my eyes shine. After all, I could definitely understand several aspects.

"How about this, let's take another look at the nearby areas. It would be a good thing if we can seize the time."

Fang Ruyu next to him nodded and immediately locked the position here. Anyway, he had seen it before. Although it may not be as simple as he expected, he had no choice but to do it now. The wind next to him also blew in front of him, and Gu Shaoyang instantly I smell the blood in there.

Chapter 813

Isn't this exactly the same truth that Salo has been pursuing before? Could it be that these two things are combined again?

At this moment, I must have been constantly moving backwards, for fear of causing some trouble here. Anyway, the things I could see during this period must have slowly appeared.

"How about this, let's take a good look here, and if anything happens midway, it can be considered resolved."

Zen Xin nodded, and then took the initiative to take a look at the scenes on the left and right. Unexpectedly, he happened to lock the nearby location.

"It seems that Xun Fang was well prepared this time. Look at the position where he attacked us, it seemed that he was trying to drive us into this area. We don't know what his purpose was this time."

While several people were in a daze here, they looked to the side. If it was the incident that originally happened here, then I must have understood it.

But the current statement is also a unified thing, and the incident is probably not as big as I expected. It went well. On the contrary, I also saw several nearby directions. But if I talk about this matter now, I am afraid I can only do it in front of me.

Although I have guaranteed that this incident can be solved smoothly, there is always a possibility. Some situations are unpredictable, so in order to avoid all this.

I must also understand who is the most winning character here in this matter, otherwise there will be a change here at any time, but it is obvious that some changes have taken place at this time

"Do you think this will be different from what we thought before? What will we do if there is trouble?"

"Don't worry about these irrelevant things. Whether Xun Feng will attack us is still a troublesome thing. If you have time to think about it, why not take a look around."

Hearing his words, the person in front of him couldn't help but froze for a moment, and then followed its pull and looked at the position next to him.

As expected, there happened to be a shadow next to him, and it happened to be Xun Fangfang. Could it be that he has always been around a few people.

At this time, his face suddenly turned pale as paper, as if he had thought of something, but in fact the cause of everything still came from the previous troubles.

Who doesn't know the process that happened here, but because of these conditions, some changes happened. It seems that it is not that simple to avoid these attacks this time.

However, several people later found the most suitable place on the nearby road. Although I didn't think this was a reasonable situation when I adjusted my route, it caught me a little off guard. It seemed that the incident this time was much more complicated than I thought before, but through some of their actions, I realized that I learned about some events.

Instead of stumbling there, it is better to find a way out as soon as possible. However, at this moment, some unexpected events happened quickly. I think it is not as simple as I expected. If there is really a chance, I can Cut the mess with a quick knife here.

In fact, he now occupies a relatively advantageous terrain, but the Seven-Star Longyuan in Gu Shaoyang's hand instantly burst out with a huge light.

It seems that this incident is beyond his consideration. , although I don't understand why they suddenly appeared.

But seeing how Xun was unable to kill and plunder here before, I can probably guess half of it, but the barbarian demons not only failed to stop them here, but even helped them.

Xun himself is now The helpless body is enough to shape everything here, but Leng Buding has some problems. It seems that there are some changes in this incident.

"What do you think we should do here to solve it smoothly?"

But just as he finished speaking, Zen's heart was straight. Here, the person in front of a target pulled Gu Shaoyang over and dodged. He just managed to avoid it. He came from the gap between the two stones. There was a hail of swords and swords. Actually, I didn't know what happened, but something was obviously wrong now.

Then I touched the piece of clothing on my shoulder and found that it had been cut off directly, so as not to surprise me too much..

If it doesn't cause trouble, I really don't want to think about it at all, but the events that prove everything here are enough for me to complete the rest.

But in the situation in front of me, I quickly found some directions. If I really If you understand, why did you become like this?

In the final analysis, your distrust of them has taken over. As expected, while the person next to you launched some attacks on yourself, you were actually being attacked here. He was forced into a tangle.

It seemed that this incident was all due to luck. Although he understood all this, it was obvious that what happened was somewhat different from what he had judged.

Chapter 814

"Who is this?"

As soon as he finished speaking, a person suddenly appeared in front of him. At first, he couldn't see his shadow clearly, including his appearance.

But a question suddenly appeared, that is, what were the whereabouts of several people here? When were you exposed? Judging from the attitude of these people,

I am afraid they identified the direction here early on. In this case, there is no need for me to continue to persist here.

Anyway, there is no way to get any results in the end, but But he was a little surprised. To a certain extent, they ended some of their opinions here. In fact, he didn't want to take the initiative to get into crisis here, but this was his own choice, and it should be right. Bear the consequences here.

Unexpectedly, the other party stood in front of me with an evil smile on his face. The person who was a little unexpected at first immediately relaxed his mood again.

Why should I be afraid of him at this time? Isn't this right? Not only will it cause trouble for themselves, but each direction has different considerations. What they want to do at this time has actually become the reason for them to take the initiative.

"I didn't expect you would dare to come back now."

Hearing these words, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but smile frankly, which made him more sure that he was the person he knew before.

After all, looking at him like this, he was carved from the same template as before, although he didn't know him What have I experienced here? This moment in front of me has undoubtedly taught me a lesson.

Hearing his words, the expression on the face of the barbarian demon was extremely embarrassing, and he remembered again the scene where he lost to him here before.

In fact, it was an unexpected event at the time, and he also didn't expect that he would Everyone has different ideas about taking the initiative here.

What's more, I am now, but it is precisely because during such a journey, I obviously found a different place. It seems that this time the incident is not the same. For Gu Shaoyang Palace to solve the problem, it would be even harder than climbing to the sky. Chan Xin next to her was just about to take action here, but unexpectedly she was stopped by someone. After all, for her, this is actually the time when she should appear..

After all, in some aspects, now I have learned about some alternative and special positions. If they can't come up with an accurate result, then I don't mind setting an example.

However, Zen Heart discovered something at this time. Secret, it turns out that the clues on the people next to me are exactly the same as before. I thought I was wrong.

But once this matter comes to an end, it will not be as smooth as my own. In fact, I don't know all this. What is the reason for this?

But I can't tell that he is still very confident. It would be great if it had always been like this. It's just a pity that there is no such opportunity now.

Moreover, he also discovered some extraordinary things on this path. It was an unusual thing. If I guessed correctly before, the battlefield was obviously divided into two.

Although I didn't know what their purpose was, but they had caused trouble here before, I definitely wanted to use all their strength to deal with it. Reversed.

Otherwise, how could I live up to everyone's ardent expectations here? But in the current situation, I also discovered some unexpected things. It is very likely that everything now is exactly according to the template they want.

"Is it fun to procrastinate here?"

Seeing him keep dodging here, Gu Shaoyang laughed out loud. Since he really just wants to escape from things, then he might as well give him a chance and let him take a look. He is here. What exactly are you going to do?

"What are you doing?"

Then his knees suddenly softened here and he actually knelt in front of Gu Shaoyang. Gu Shaoyang pretended to look at him in surprise, as if he was in some trouble.

But the other party still looked at her hatefully. , but this look does not have any lethality. After all, it is not difficult to see at the moment.

The problem here must be representative, but it will not matter what will happen in the end. There cannot be problems now. Right.

But the person in front of him stared at him fiercely at this moment, as if he wanted to eat his flesh and drink his blood, but Gu Shaoyang still smiled innocently.

Even Zen Xin next to him couldn't stand it. Although he is usually a bad-tempered person, he can't help but hesitate to look here. While looking at him, he also looked several nearby areas, and in the next second he directly initiated a greeting to him.

"If your knees are weak, do you have to blame me? Then I have shouldered so many blames here. I wonder if I can sit here and raise the price and demand the compensation I am seeking?"

Fu Ruosha, who was stunned by what he said, didn't know how to refute at this time.

Chapter 815

But the person next to him pulled him up from the ground. I really didn't expect that he had such ability. I thought it was an eye-opening scene before.

But now it really surprised me. I thought this must be some of the excessive scenes before. I didn't expect that the situation here really made me suspicious, but the person in front of me quickly gave a specific explanation.

"What's the matter? It's just that my legs suddenly became weak just now. Could it be that I'm afraid of you here? I have so many companions around me now. You'd better think carefully about whether you can beat our boss."

Xun Bu, who was next to him, smiled at the corner of his mouth at this time, as if he had seen him like this. Gu Shaoyang in front of him was actually a little nervous.

But the people next to him quickly came over to block him. With their inquiring eyes, the people in front of them were a little surprised to see how serious these people were. They didn't expect that he would sneak into the middle of the two of them in just a short time.

"What is this doing? Do you guys really need someone who is useless and will only cause trouble? In that case, I can blend in."

Hearing what Gu Shaoyang said, the barbarian demon in front of him really wanted to take it down right here, but there was nothing he could do.

Because the person next to him had already grabbed his arm, as long as he dared to stretch out his hand and aim at it. The person in front of him would soon be defeated by Xun, unable to give up.

So Man Mo could only forcefully hold back this breath. Fu Ruosha next to him looked very excited, but was knocked down by Gu Shaoyang's look..

Go back here and shrink your neck back, and then look at the piece of paper in your hand. You are already familiar with the escape route on it.

So you just burn it here with a fire. This is What Gu Shaoyang warned him here before, there was the smell of burning things.

Xun Bu couldn't smell it in the air, and then gave a perfect smile as if he was very interested in this matter, but Gu Shaoyang in front of him understood it instantly.

This Fu Ruosha should have caused it. He had to distract him, otherwise Fu Ruosha would be killed by him if he even showed up here, let alone trying to escape.

"What are you doing? Is it possible that he is ready to surrender here like the barbarian demon?"

In order to prevent him from staring at that side all the time, he still chose to actively attract Fang Ruyun next to him here, which was quite surprising.

After all, in his impression, Gu Shaoyang was a tepid person who would not Even though he said this, he wouldn't talk nonsense with others.

Fu Ruosha in front of him looked in his direction strangely, but compared to him, Xun Feng was the most interested now. For him, This person is very interesting.

It would probably be better if we could seize the opportunity. But it is a pity that everything did not go so smoothly and did not leave him such an opportunity.

Then I thought about it again here. The man still shook his head and looked at the area behind him. It seemed that he was not stupid and knew what to consider here.

Moreover, the current state also made him feel some surprises. It is estimated that the incident would definitely be a few times different from what he expected. There are differences, so now you only need to adjust the timing here and wait for changes at any time.

Although the plan cannot keep up with the changes, it is not something that I should hesitate at this time. In order to avoid all this and solve it smoothly, I am currently spending a lot of money. A lot of effort

"Let me tell you, just think about it here. After all, the current situation is not that simple."

"What is your attitude?"

The people in front of him don't care what he does. For Xun Feng, all he needs to do is to win the final victory, and all the things in the middle can be ignored.

Besides, if the starting point here is, Jin Jing just uses what is in front of him. If the barbarian demon comes to exchange, then he must be doing his part, and it is best to get rid of him quickly, so as to avoid another trouble.

After all, he has been chasing the truth next to him recently, and this look really makes him a little bored, but It can be clearly seen.

He still has some status representatives here, and he cannot speak rashly, lest he will be condemned by everyone here.

But within this range, he has learned some unexpected things. After all, there is a problem. , and now I understand this difference.

After all, their attitude has already revealed everything that will follow, but now I must not have any unnecessary opinions. After all, I have contributed a lot to this area.

So I More or less, I have to reject all of this, which can be regarded as dealing with these things.

But I have to say that to some extent, I am now caught in a crisis that everyone is chasing. Maybe someone These aspects are not important, but as long as you get the opportunity now, you must do something.

Chapter 816

Unexpectedly, at this time, his boss had already thought of a way to avoid him, and even left him alone here. Anyway, he was not sure whether he could solve it smoothly before.

But looking at so many people in front of him, Xun couldn't turn his eyes around a few times and thought of a good idea. Since no one can replace him now, he might as well consider other troubles and end this here. Everything is over

"Have you ever considered what other people think before you do this?"

I don't know why, but Xun Fang suddenly said something like this inexplicably. He stared at Gu Shaoyang's figure with his eyes straight. He really said it to the barbarian demon. The other person was stunned by what he said here. I don't know why. , so he immediately turned his head and looked over here, but the problem that the other party had here was not only this.

The person in front of her was a little impatient. Three or two sentences here were all connected together.

But the current incident made her feel a little stunned. After all, she had to get all the results before considering the matter. , but now I need such an opportunity

"Why don't we discuss it and I'll leave it to you here. After all, the cooperation between the two of us has been terminated so far."

Hearing these words, the face of the barbarian demon next to him undoubtedly turned black. How can this be a crime? The two of them had agreed to cooperate in advance. What kind of ability does Gu Shaoyang have?

What else can he do? The qualifications here directly replaced everything about him. When he thought of this, the person in front of him was also very angry. There was a bit of impatience in his eyes when he looked at him.

But after all, the problem that should happen at this time It will definitely happen, but who will come here to balance all this, even if it means waiting for an opportunity.

However, the person in front of him did not speak, as if he expected all this, this time The incident happened on my own initiative, not to mention some other incidents.

However, it also caused some troubles. No matter how much I thought of, what can I do? After all, what I can do at this stage is only 10% limited.

So. I have to think carefully about who I want to protect once danger occurs here. In fact, I already have a balance point here early on.

But for some reasons, I have no choice but to consider the subsequent events here. Originally, I should have gotten the book now, but I didn't expect that this incident happened because of him.

"Isn't it a little too hurtful for you to do this?"

The person in front of him suddenly smiled, as if he didn't care too much about this matter. After all, this barbarian demon was an insignificant person to Xun Fafa.

"If you think he is pitiful, then just treat him well after I give it to you. Is there any use in saying these words of the Holy Mother here now?"

The person in front of him suddenly froze and approached Gu Shaoyang. He didn't expect that he would refute him like this, but after all, he said what was the use of being in the Qing Dynasty.

Anyway, no one cares much about it now, but to some extent It has indeed caused a considerable blow to myself.

If this continues, I will collapse here anytime and anywhere. However, in some aspects, it does make it difficult to predict. Is this what happened before?

"If that's the case, then I'm quite willing to make this deal with you. I wonder what you want to exchange for?"

"It's the scroll in your hand. If you are willing to give it to me, then I can give it to you here, what you want."

The person in front of him was stunned for a moment, and then he laughed out loud. What kind of joke was he telling? If such a thing really happened, how could he not do it? It wasn't all because he couldn't achieve it. My own request, I immediately found some light on it when it went up to the sky. In fact, at this moment it was almost covered by other surrounding environments, and it was basically dim.

But Fang Ruyu and Zen Xin's Persistence gave this scroll a hint of color. He quickly became stronger by absorbing the surrounding abilities.

And this scroll was also the same. The two were mutually reinforcing each other. Xun Feng looked at the opposite side in surprise at this time. Position.

For me, I never expected that such a problem would arise in front of me. Anyway, I thought about it a lot this time.

If I am hesitant here, why don't I think about when I can get such an opportunity? In fact, I It was already clear early on, but for some reason it became a bit forced.

Chapter 817

Barbarian Demon also wanted to leave here directly at this time. After all, he knew the previous events very well. If he continued to delay time here, he would be targeted.

Then there will be a lot of trouble that will happen next. You can see the trouble, so you have to control it all now, no matter who will be here to complete it.

It still depends on their own ability to replace who can, but at this time, what kind of same screening should be done, this is the most important thing

"I really didn't expect that your boy is doing quite well now."

"So aren't you talking nonsense? I don't have time to waste time with you here, so I might as well do more things. It seems that you really don't have a long memory of previous incidents."

As soon as he finished speaking here, he took off the eyes on his face and looked up at the person in front of him. Originally, he didn't intend to make things difficult for him here.

But his words suddenly awakened him. There is no use at all. Instead of stagnating there, why not think of other things?

Anyway, he is not qualified to control himself here now. But while he was speaking, he actually paid attention to the movements of the wild demon next to him. I pulled him back here directly. Seeing this look, the person in front of me also stopped talking for an instant.

"That's not it, it's just a cooperation. Besides, what if we hand over the person now?"

"There is no difference, but I will definitely do what I promised you. Anyway, I definitely have my own way, so don't worry too much."

The person in front of him frowned, not knowing what to say. He seemed to know Li here, and he didn't want to argue with him for the time being. Nothing good would happen anyway. On the contrary, he I also guessed some scenes, and what I thought would happen smoothly was brought to an end at this moment.

It seems that all the events are really not as simple as I thought, but to some extent, it also made me feel... It was a bit unexpected. It seemed that this was not something I imagined out of thin air.

In fact, I already understood some of the actions they made here at the beginning, but I didn't expect that something like this would happen now. Anyway, now it's a mistake. At this moment, I was not worried. On the contrary, I looked at the area next to me. If I really understood all this, it would probably not be so troublesome.

"How about this? Anyway, I was just doing a show here before. Now I give you the same opportunity. How about you try it?"

Although it was said that the clothes were thinking about him here, the people next to him could immediately tell that he was here to get some other things. He himself also thought of some troubles, so at this moment there was really no need to worry about it. He didn't hesitate, but when he saw the light in Xun Feng's eyes, he understood it.

It seemed that he had underestimated him in this incident, but in some aspects it had really brought a lot of trouble to him. Adjustment

"Since you said you want to give him to me, I still don't want to see this, and I don't know if I can give him another request."

The person in front of him was stunned for a moment, not knowing what he meant. Then he tapped the direction of the ground with his toes. He motioned for him to look at the area below. After all, he also learned this time that many fish fins were stagnant there. If you don't move forward, why don't you consider the subsequent results?

"It turns out that if you want to leave, I will find a passage for your friends at any time, but you must first promise to let me get what I want here....."

Gu Shaoyang nodded weakly and thoughtfully, and then looked at the lower area here. In fact, he had learned this before, but he really didn't expect that the other party would think about it like this now.

"Is it really because of this scroll that you can ignore everything?"

Xun Fang couldn't smile sincerely. He nodded and looked at the person in front of him, but he didn't talk nonsense to him. Instead of wasting time here, it is better to look at other aspects. After all, it is not him at this moment. It can be solved in a few words.

Without looking at Chan Xin and Fang Ruyu next to him for the next second, Gu Shaoyang stayed here and threw the things in his hands with a slight throw. Seeing his actions, everyone around him was shocked. I was quite anxious, but there was only one person here who seemed to be watching the fun.

That was Salo who came from behind. No one expected that he had settled down at this time. They wanted to come up and see if there was anyone around him. Something that could pull him back from his dream.

As a result, he accidentally stepped into his dream. Unexpectedly, it was the same scene where he met himself before. It seems that he has always had a knot in his heart. I don't know if he still has it. What can they encounter, but looking at the relationship between them also gives Salo a bit of a headache.

Chapter 818

Is this the human world? Not to mention anything else, the intrigue between a few people here seems to make me a little disgusted. I really don't know what kind of tricks they can do next.

In fact, I had a rough template for something I had done before, but I didn't expect that it would still be so logical now.

If I continue, I really don't know what troubles will arise, so at this time, without any hesitation, I still locked several nearby areas. In order to avoid all this, I have taken great pains.

"You see, this is the person you have always believed in. I really don't know what you are capable of yelling at me here now."

Hearing these words, the barbarian demon who had just been captured by Xun also turned pale. In fact, he knew something, but he just didn't want to believe it.

After all, he had been able to understand all this before, but there were always some events that started. It shouldn't have happened at that time. You can't do all this according to your own ideas.

Although the original purpose was just right, it is slightly lacking at this moment, so I am a little hesitant at this time. He looked at him, but the person in front of him didn't control it, and even spared him an extra look.

"I really didn't expect that he would have such an attitude towards you."

The person in front of him also seemed to have lost his mind. He stared at the person in front of him carefully, wishing that there was a gap in his face.

But the other person was not afraid. To Xun Feng, it was just a blank. They are just useful chess pieces. As for whoever wants him here, he may be able to exert his final value.

After all, sometimes his real interests do not come from those people, but from the situation in front of him.

I have to say, Some situations made me think of some unexpected events. Someone took the initiative here, let alone other things.

But the person next to him suddenly seemed to have opened up some thoughts, and immediately looked at the person next to him. Man, anyway, I don't intend to do any unnecessary things at this moment.

After all, everything that happens is basically useless, but now I must seize the time to see if I can make some control here, which can be regarded as I am here to help.

But the person in front of me did not hesitate and got some development here. In fact, I had thought about which side I should protect once trouble arises, but now it is obvious that there are some Question.

It would be a bit difficult to retreat, and there were two people waiting here behind him. Fang Ruyun and Chan Xin's eager expectations made Gu Shaoyang have to bite the bullet and move forward.

But Salo next to him But he suddenly stood up and grabbed his arm here. He was not worried that the people here would hurt him. In fact, he had been stabbed several times before.

But because the situation was too tense, Gu Shaoyang in front of him didn't care about these little things. The wound, in fact, the sword passed through her body like a shadow.

The reason why he has not been able to escape here is not because of anything else, but because he has been unwilling to let go of himself here, but I am not worried about this matter. Maybe everything I should really control is not this way.

Anyway, the things I can consider now are nothing more than these aspects, plus some of the states that have evolved now. , it really caught me off guard.

"How about this, you consider me, and it can be solved smoothly here. What do you think of my proposal?"

The people in front of him were a little surprised. Why did she appear here? According to what happened before, shouldn't she still be with Medusa?

But at this moment, while Gu Shaoyang was wondering, Salo was He pointed at a gap in his body. It turned out that he had already known the gap in the person in front of him before.

"In fact, all this is just your dream. After all, you are constantly putting pressure on yourself. Why don't you give me another chance and see if I reconsider me? What do you think?"

Gu Shaoyang in front of him was a bit sluggish, as if he obviously had no idea about these things.

However, he was not given a reasonable chance at the moment. After all, he could still understand what he should do.

Instead of being here Accompanying her and continuing to fight, it is better to make a decisive decision by yourself. Once trouble arises, maybe you can solve it by yourself.

As he gradually seduced here, the person in front of him was stunned for a moment. He was in a daze, but the person next to him didn't say anything.

Instead, he stared straight at him, as if the person in front of him would cause some interference to him, but he had to say that sometimes his own intuition It was quite accurate. Soon, the real trouble came.

Chapter 819

An inexplicable wind blew beside him. He thought something had happened, but he didn't expect it to reach this level.

In fact, sometimes I wonder if I am too stubborn now, which is why I am having all these troubles now.

But in the next second, I realized that it was too far-fetched. This reason was obviously untenable, and at this time, several people next to me also looked over. I did understand these stages.

But in fact, if you take a closer look, you can find that everything is illusory. If there is a reason, I'm afraid they all come from the same world.

Now they are a transfer student here. Then he stared at the person in front of him carefully, trying to understand from him how he got here.

But the other party just spread his hands and smiled happily, as if something good had happened to him, which really made him feel a little helpless.

Then he sighed helplessly, turned around and walked to the side. At this time, he realized that these people had stopped moving since he stood up, so he looked at the people next to him with some complaints.

"If you knew earlier, why didn't you come forward earlier? Are you willing to watch me suffer here?"

"This is not true, I just want you to have some concrete results. Otherwise, no matter how much I say here, you won't believe me. That would be shooting yourself in the foot."

The person in front of me is a bit weird. I don't know what he is doing now, but in fact it is still difficult for me to understand some of the extremes.

But it is not bad to have such an opportunity, although I cannot completely agree with him. Thoughts, but now what he said is not a trouble.

After all, I could clearly understand his helplessness here before, and when I recalled how I wanted to put all the things on my shoulders just now, it also made myself He suddenly smiled, yes, why did he never take a look at the people around him?

If he had the chance, he would not have fallen to this level, but he soon got into some trouble. After all, he was not the only one here. I am alone here.

Although the people next to me cannot move, I see naked discrimination on their faces.

Are they ashamed because someone is supporting them? Now they have completely let go of their previous thoughts.

So they No matter how powerful he was, he couldn't cause any substantial harm to himself. Then he stared at their faces and smiled meaningfully.

But he soon realized some problems. After all, at this stage No matter how much he said, it was of no use. Yu Qi was hesitant at the time, why not consider the current situation, maybe things would go smoother.

But from a certain point of view, he didn't want to mention something to himself here, There seems to be some reasons.

Although I can't guarantee that this incident will be solved smoothly, I soon discovered a special point. After all, no matter how much I think about during this period, it is not as natural as directly starting to practice.

So next In order to overcome this fear, I also spent a long time. I can't say that what I am doing now still needs to be adjusted in order.

But I soon discovered a necessary method. It turns out that in At this time, both of them found some problems, but how the two people left became a big problem.

After all, some of the routes they followed here gradually became reasonable, but some To a certain extent, it is indeed a bit surprising to me.

After all, no matter how much you say, it is of no use. Only when a person truly understands all of this can he get a more reasonable aspect.

Although I understand his approach at this time , but it may not go as smoothly as I expected.

It seems that this should be some of the issues that I have thought about here before, but to some extent, I have to mention it.

That is, some of the directions I see now may not be like myself. It was so simple as expected, but at this moment some signs are also divided.

Although I don't know when I will leave here, the scene here stays in my heart from time to time, as if there is a rough template engraved here..If you follow this method, you may experience a lot of things, but this is the only difference now.

The victory neither belongs to them nor to you, this is something I still understand very well, but in this The period may not be what he thought.

Although it seemed to be a similar trend, Gu Shaoyang soon distinguished the difference here. After all, it is actually a normal phenomenon to face it calmly at this time.

But it doesn't mean that everyone can do it. After all, everyone here has different ideas, and there are very few people who can really work together to make money.

Chapter 820

Then I discovered that Medusa's energy ball here gradually began to grow in size, and then it actually shone coldly into myself in the dream.

The man in front of him raised his lips and smiled. In fact, for Venus, it was precisely because he was able to handle certain incidents that he made the current invitation. Anyway, he was quite aware of the extreme situation at the moment.

"What are you doing?"

But Salo just kept smiling at him and didn't tell Gu Shaoyang what their plan was? In fact, there was no plan.

He originally planned to come in alone, but Medusa forcefully asked to help here. Help me, I can't refuse him.

So I will follow his wishes here. Anyway, I won't make too much trouble this time, otherwise it would have been a mess by now.

But I will find out soon. , the real trouble has come, after all, something more embarrassing has appeared at this moment.

Even if I can predict any aspect now, it will be a more embarrassing scene at this moment, anyway, I am more or less at the moment I understand.

Moreover, I quickly understood some of the process in the previous state. It seems that this is not only my opinion, but also what many other people have learned here. In this case, it is not easy for me to say anything. Nonsense.

I just had to keep my eyes on the person in front of me, hoping that he could give me a series of help, but the other person seemed reluctant.

The current state made Gu Shaoyang a little surprised, but the next second Salo put his hand on On his shoulder, he dragged him directly to another environment with a gentle tug.

When he woke up and looked around, he found that everything was different from what he had imagined. No matter whether the people around him were anxious face.

These things that are happening now are like a comic strip to me. The only reason why they are shown at this time is entirely because of what happened before.

But I soon learned some problems, and sometimes No matter how many careful plans you make, things will go more smoothly, so you must let him seize the time to clearly understand who is the king. But Fang Ruyu and Zen Xin next to him knew at a glance that they were not willing to follow them. After leaving, after a while, the few people had no choice but to move separately, everyone holding their own opinions. But their pause made me feel suspicious, but Salo had already grabbed her arm and brought her back to the United States. Dusha's side.

The second before he left, he saw the way the corners of Xun Wenwei's mouth turned up, and he couldn't help but tremble in his heart.

Then when he returned to them, he immediately asked to take the initiative to find Xun Wenfa's. Position, trying to rescue everyone here, this is indeed the scene Medusa most wants to see.

But if he is forced to have no choice, then he can also consider rescuing him, but the truth will soon be revealed, but because some other reasons

"In fact, I have thought about what to do here before, but it still looks a bit different now. Why don't we reconsider the strategy. I was indeed too arbitrary in the past."

The person in front of him was a little surprised and didn't understand what he meant, but he soon learned about some special directions.

Compared with the previous events, maybe Gu Shaoyang now needs to focus on the one above the Seven Stars Longyuan. Whether the star can be restored or not, his star is completely proportional to his damage.

So he must find a way to light up this star. Even if it is to help himself, it is obvious that he does not seem to I didn't have this intention.

I even wanted to bypass this level here, but after thinking about it, I understood how it could be so simple, and an incident happened in the next second that made me drunk and unprepared.

In fact, I had already done it before I had some representatives, but I didn't expect it would be so smooth now. After all, I thought everything that had happened was unreasonable. But looking at it now, I'm afraid everything is reasonable. Not only that, but there will even be some other consequences. Unexpected events, their own judgment is a two-way street.

So at this moment, there is no need to do those indifferent auditions. In fact, sometimes I also understand the reasons for all these events.

But what I got Change does not necessarily mean that everything will happen smoothly. If something like that really happens here, then I will regret it the most.

But there is no such incident, and there is no such dependence. It is just a few people looking at each other. When I saw the other party, I felt a little more understanding in my heart. After all, Salo, you know that Gu Shaoyang's abnormality was not temporary, but something really happened here.
