

Attributes 831

Chapter 831

I don't know how long this piranha will follow me. After all, I have learned some aspects before. If I really follow the steps, I will probably foresee some other troubles.

However, the 7-star Long Yuan in Gu Shaoyang's hands was completely based on his previous standards. As for what to do next, it may have nothing to do with him. As for what to do next, there are two completely different directions.

Although all the events were taken into consideration by myself, to a certain extent, I still felt impatient. Although I didn't understand it, I didn't give myself such a chance.

However, Long Yuan's dazzling light filled the air at this moment, which made him feel a little careless. Could it be said that this is the problem that needs to be solved first in this incident?

Gu Shaoyang left the situation in his hands here, and then discussed it with Salo beside him, and the two of them chose to leave directly from the route in front of them.

After all, they will encounter some trouble here soon, so they must consider the follow-up issues before things happen.

But at this time, Salo thought of the few people he met on the way here. If they were here in a real situation, then why couldn't he think about it so much.

Originally, all this was not to this extent. Who was secretly connected in this and divided the two things? In fact, I also learned a lot about it under certain conditions.

After all, the results revealed here are slightly different from all angles, including the orange stone from before.

But at this moment, he suddenly floated into the air, and then fell straight down. At first, he didn't realize what he was doing.

But then the next second, the lightless stars above Qixing Longyuan were directly lit up. I don't know what the connection is between the two.

Perhaps it is because of the commonalities between these things, but it may also be due to some troubles explored from various angles.

Although the Seven-Star Longyuan in his hand burst out with great light at this moment, he could not avoid it. Gu Shaoyang knew it at this time anyway.

Salo's starting point was actually based on this template, but due to the accumulation of certain events, he failed to successfully avoid such a choice at this time.

Suddenly, some problems did arise, but soon I learned about some aspects. Compared with these incidents, I thought that what I could solve was just this one highlighted problem. Maybe this was the final direction..

But it has to be said that Gu Shaoyang's holding of the Seven Star Longyuan radiated some light here, although I don't know how Salo and several others will face all this.

But it was obviously different from what he had imagined, and Venus had been disconnected from his will at this time.

Now I don't know what happened to Medusa and the others, but Salo next to me has been comforting myself, saying that they are safe.

"are you sure? But why are the contacts cut off now?"

"The signal in the cave is not good to begin with. Besides, we just rely on our snake people's own catching skills. Don't think too much about it, but to be honest, some of the events that have happened have become effective to some extent. a process in the middle."

Soon I learned some aspects, but in order to avoid all these things, I chose to put the last thing in front of me.

Gu Shaoyang was the one who stuck his head out, but soon he saw The black cloak stood in the center of the opposite rock, looking at him from a distance. He could see that the eyes on the other person's face were very anxious.

Did he lose the orange gem? I heard that the orange gem was in The only factor that can avoid the snake people here.

So what to do has nothing to do with them. This is their own choice, and they can't say anything now.

But a trouble soon appeared, and no matter what they said, There is no use in doing more. It is better to relax and just think about the troubles that will follow. In fact, I have also seen some burdens in some processes. After all, during this period, no one can become the choice for eternal life, but will get some other changes. And it happened that I had some problems here.

In fact, this is the process that I have to go through in this matter, but in fact, the current situation is not established. Although I understand all this, no matter what I do, it is unreasonable.

But there are still many people who are supported here. Maybe this is a feature that needs to be taken into consideration in the end. However, there will be many problems that will come with it. Now it is just a preliminary judgment made by myself.

Chapter 832

But in order to avoid all this, I took great pains this time, for fear of causing any trouble.

However, this moment also makes me hesitate a little. Once some speculation breaks out here, there will actually be no coherent results in the follow-up.

And guessing that one is just from the current stage, it will even become the most difficult place to sell here, so at this moment, I also have to consider several nearby positions.

For fear of accidentally causing some embarrassing moments, everything that originally happened seemed to have been deliberately created by someone.

If I were to do it this way, I wouldn't be able to get it all done in a short period of time. However, I had some doubts about the current situation.

"How about this, you know the previous situation, and no one will fight with you here, but this time, you still need your help."

The person in front of him frowned, not knowing how to say this to Venus, but Gu Shaoyang's seven-star Long Yuan undoubtedly taught everyone a lesson at this moment.

In fact, it happened exactly as it was. Others will not know the incident clearly, but the current situation does not mean the eternity here.

After all, I can guess some processes, and I can naturally complete all of this reasonably, but in fact, I was caught off guard on this route..

The more he thought about it, the more troubles and problems he faced were increasing day by day, so Gu Shaoyang just had a try attitude toward Qixing Longyuan.

If any problems occurred during the process, he could only follow the original plan It is impossible to be hesitant at this time to deal with it according to the standards for undertaking it.

On the contrary, after seeing certain aspects, he took care of the Yan family here and soon faced a special direction. Originally, he would not I'm guessing this.

But the more trouble there is, the more problems there will be. So Gu Shaoyang didn't pay attention to all this. On the contrary, at this time, he took out a jade pendant that Salo had given him before.

I heard that this thing can Becoming the only one who took action here, he did not hesitate and blew the horn beside him, hoping to complete all this.

However, the moment the black cloak opposite heard him blowing this sound , the whole person's face was stiff and fierce, and the invisible wind lifted up his cloak.

Slowly floating in the air, whether it was his person or some of his own characteristics, anyway, at this moment, he was a little confused. I understand.

Something is wrong. In the current situation, it seems that I really need to seize the time for this incident. However, I still know some directions at this extreme. It is very likely that this is the most unpredictable thing for me. Picture, but it needs to be carefully distinguished on this road. After all, no matter what you do, the characteristics you have now still exist.

Maybe this is the result that you need to consider most now, but at this moment, some surprises are clearly highlighted. , obviously didn't know what he was going to do, but he still made himself understand some special points here.

"How about this? Anyway, you should still have one of the orange gems in your hand. It is a life-saving thing. Regardless of whether it is auspicious or not, you have to carry it with me."

Saluo took a breath but nodded, then moved the stone away, took it out and held it in the palm of his hand. Seeing him like this, the person in front of him breathed a sigh of relief. I don't know why he saw her. After signing this thing, the scene of her squatting here emerged in my mind. Although I didn't know what the reason was.

But I felt that nothing good would happen next, and I wanted him to leave here voluntarily, but But the other party did not agree and directly rejected him here.

"Since you don't want to leave, be prepared here. No one will clean up this mess for you next."

Saluo suddenly smiled happily, as if he had taken advantage of something.

"Don't worry, as long as you are in no danger here, nothing will happen to me."

The next second, I took the initiative to look beside him, as if I wanted to see if there were any other changes in him, but the other party ignored me, as if I was an insignificant person.

If this continues, Then you may get into some trouble, so you must know all this before these things happen.

Let's see who will do these things here, but to some extent, we have to admit that everyone has a certain Necessity.

The two men divided into two groups. Gu Shaoyang held another small stone in his hand and gradually moved forward. In fact, he also thought of something, but because of some connections, he did not do anything else.

Chapter 833

Anyway, what he said is right. He shouldn't lose big because of small things. At this time, the most important thing is to save his life. As for the rest of the events, it all depends on luck.

After all, no one can do anything here, but at the same time, there will always be some different considerations. As for what you want to do next, it will definitely have nothing to do with it.

But to be honest, in this situation, I was really caught off guard. Is this what happened in certain incidents?

But he didn't directly explain everything clearly at this time.

Instead, they are waiting for the right time. After all, no one will clean up the mess for them here. I also have a corresponding attitude, but I have to say that in the current situation, I still think of many aspects.

Rather than making a decision decisively here, why not see if the remaining people think that maybe this is a good direction for themselves.

But the next moment, Christie's connection with them was repaired again, and he reported the situation there. In fact, nothing major happened.

Everyone is even arranged according to the previous template. If this is the case, then I really don't have to worry too much.

But I'm afraid that the attempt will be in vain by then. I still have to weigh the pros and cons of this kind of thing now, so as not to cause problems later. Anyway, I will know the real reason for all this later.

Gu Shaoyang kept moving forward along this road, not knowing where he would go next.

But I smelled some special smell along this road, and I could feel that it was a completely satisfying smell. Could it be that this is what I need to see most?

Thinking about it, it seemed a bit impossible, so Gu Shaoyang picked up the Seven-Star Longyuan in his hand and resisted all this. In fact, he didn't know where to go more smoothly.

But at this moment, I can definitely see these choices, otherwise who would be hesitant here, but on the contrary, because of certain events, I have also divided some methods at this time.

However, the black cloak unexpectedly came to his side in the next second. At this time, he looked at them carefully, and then he grabbed their wrists.

Leading them back here, I can actually make some choices at this time, but because of my current goal, I am hesitant about this matter. Unexpectedly, I happened to consider several other choices here. Trouble.

Under the influence of individual events, he is likely to reach a deadlock, so he must consider what exactly caused all this to happen. After all, there is no free lunch in the world, and he must be able to know their predictions.

"In fact, I have mentioned all this to you before. If Gu Shaoyang really does it according to that method, no one here will get any good results."

Hearing the voices of two people talking about him in front of him made him pause for a moment. He wanted to see who was inside, but he didn't expect to turn his head and saw a scene that would be unforgettable in his life..

I didn't expect that the two of them would get together. Leng Pudding was in such a situation, which really surprised me.

But to some extent, I don't need to take these actions here, so during this relationship, I I am also trying my best to solve the matter completely at once.

But at this moment, I also think of certain events. Once I make some judgments at this time, it will be the most unpredictable thing for me here, so The painstaking explanation is not a wasted scene.

Just watching the man in white take the initiative to make his request to him in front of him, but in fact the people next to him don't know what he is going to do.

Now this For a moment, I was really surprised. The situation I could have appeared was as if I had been stabbed by someone else. Here I directly took out a weapon. If this continued, I would be a little worried about my life, but now this It's easier said than done for a moment. The other people I can think of can definitely do it.

And now that the man in white has planned to deal with him, the possibility of escaping has been greatly reduced by half, and the man in black has not done anything about this before. He did not give any trust.

On the contrary, he had many considerations here. It was as if he had made the choice to avoid others. Logically speaking, this kind of incident could not be a threat to him, but it soon became clear that I found that I had no idea of the result of all this.

All of this situation originated from the person before, so no matter how I dealt with it, it would still happen in the end, but to some extent I had to Confirming all this, no matter how much you say, you cannot deny it.

Chapter 834

"Do you really want to leave voluntarily?"

The person in front of him didn't know what else to say. Anyway, he was just looking sideways at this time, hoping to solve this matter.

But the person in front of him really ignored him and didn't even have any extra opinions. He saw The person who looked like this also stopped his thoughts.

Perhaps this kind of incident is what he least wants to see, but wouldn't it be useless no matter how much he talks about the current situation?

If he really has this skill, then by then You might as well take a look at other people.

I wanted to tell Salo about this matter before, but when I thought that the other person had been worrying here for a long time and there was no need to continue doing this, it would be a waste of time.

So he didn't even hesitate at all, and just bypassed this matter. He originally thought that he could get a rough change here through some of the things they did.

But at the moment, it seems that he was acting on a whim and had no intention at all. There is still room, but under certain circumstances, a trap has always been set for myself.

After returning to the original gathering point, I found that all the people had disappeared, quietly.

But at this moment, I really feel a little bit disappointed. You don't know. Are these the things they need to do most?

But soon I made some other adjustments.

Originally, I couldn't take all of this into account here, but now it's obviously different. , and if I really have the skills, I can leave here directly.

I don't need to look at the faces of these people, so I am a little confused and frightened at the moment. Everything I thought I could solve is suddenly here It came to an abrupt end in a moment.

It seems that I am actually worried about this matter, but there must be a standard. No one will help here endlessly.

And it happens that I am the stepping stone of this matter, I think No matter how much you do, no matter how well you do it, so this time I worked hard to solve it all, but in some situations, I gave myself a blow.

It seems that this time things did not go as I wanted. , Salo didn't know what Christi would consider next, but soon he and Natasha sent real information to several people.

After seeing the things they did, he still let himself do it. For a moment, after all, even if I have careful thinking in my current state, I cannot do this step by step.

After all, I still have to consider several characteristics at the moment. In fact, during this period, I may not have expected so many, but I have It's hard to say.

Maybe this is the final plan, but after being reminded of some special scenes, I quickly understood everyone's intention here.

It seems that everyone wants to escape here unscathed, but think about it Everyone knows how it could be so simple. If such a good thing really happened, wouldn't he have been ascended to heaven long ago?

But now he didn't let his face fall to the ground directly here. Anyway, there are some things that he said more. No, it's useless.

Instead of creating pressure in others' hearts here, it might as well be considered in this direction.

But during this period, it was obvious that I had no choice. If it weren't for the pressure they put on themselves, who would be here? What about betraying your companions?

But when Salo heard Gu Shaoyang's plan at this time, there was a slight difference.

He just wanted to betray him here legitimately. If it were before, he might not really know, but after all, the current situation is still difficult to guess.

So I had to think about the most appropriate path to take next, but to some extent, it really made me feel relieved.

In fact, this is what I need to face most here, but due to certain events, I have no choice but to stop here.

But the flashing light of the Seven-Star Longyuan in his hand really gave him a blow, and then the two of them stepped on something unknown.

Suddenly he was teleported back to the previous desert. Gu Shaoyang had been flopping around in the surrounding desert since he got up from the ground.

He even picked up every grain of sand and looked at it carefully. The texture just now could only be the beads left behind from before.

Only she can lead herself in all directions, so she tried her best this time, although she didn't know whether she could successfully complete it.

But now I have tried my best. Whether I can succeed or not depends on my luck at the end. After all, no one can handle this situation properly.

Including that I have now learned about certain situations. In fact, it is a reasonable event in itself, so how can it be said to be unfair here?

But at this moment, it really makes me feel a little uneasy.

Chapter 835

After all, I have learned several directions in the original matter, and logically speaking, it should not be to this extent.

But you must handle it properly at this moment, otherwise you may run into difficulties here at any time. This is actually the most unpredictable thing in your heart.

However, the Seven Star Long Yuan in Gu Shaoyang's hand soon made some preparations for this. The originally reasonable directions turned into the most unpredictable under the hint of this moment.

However, he quickly got a change during this period. It seems that Salo wasted a lot of time on this matter.

But then Natasha became her last hurdle here. In fact, it was not that simple to some extent, but unpredictable events still evolved here.

It is estimated that this matter will come to a halt soon, so I must seize the time to let everyone here understand.

Who is the most correct choice here, but under certain extremes, I quickly learned some characteristics. Is this all that I have decided?

In his imagination, the bead bloomed in his hand unexpectedly. If it had been before, Gu Shaoyang would have avoided it, but now he was not so hesitant to go back to save people.

In desperation, I had no choice but to seize the time, hoping to resolve this matter, but I have to say that during this process, I really made myself somewhat speculative.

After all, it is impossible to continue to waste time in the next process, but it is also because of the opinions here, and now it is in a deadlock.

I thought everything was done according to my own ideas, but in fact no one understands what other people think. At this time, I have also considered it with all my heart, so now I don't know what to do. What.

But the moment the light on the table shrouded me, I felt a little unbelievable. After all, it still depends on luck at this moment.

After all, I didn't want to think about these irrelevant events here, but I didn't expect that this moment really surprised me.

Everything I thought came to an abrupt end at this moment, which really made me a little unpredictable, but the current situation has produced some other events.

It seems that this time it is not just me who has considered these things here, but also the meaning of other people's existence. However, I cannot act recklessly and must discuss it with several other people. Who is facing what problem?

However, I soon found a reasonable route. Although I failed to consider these goals before, I quickly gave myself a method and drew it up at this moment.

This is a special way. If you can clearly understand the subsequent events, then maybe it won't be like this now.

However, during this period, I was reminded of some redundant controls, but this was the only reason for everything. I actually didn't know what was going on.

But it can be clearly seen that everything does not seem to be that complicated. If so, it will probably take some time.

But I don't know exactly how to consider it. Maybe this is the trouble I encountered in the end, but this moment has quickly brought some changes to me.

After all, no matter which direction you look at, this is a relatively established choice. It seems that this time the incident will not be as easy as expected.

But the thing in my hand burst out into a huge project at this moment. If it is because of taking the initiative to move forward here, it is actually not as simple as I imagined. Maybe this is some of the aspects that need to be understood in the end.

At this time, Salo stepped back one after another. He didn't expect that he was coming forward for this thing, which really made him feel a little careless.

But no matter how I talk about some of the choices that have evolved in the process, I really feel helpless, but the only thing that can be guaranteed is to seize the time.

In fact, I also thought about these events, but they were a bit too strange, so before that, I was really caught off guard.

But now it seems that he has quickly created some scenes for himself. After all, these events are things he has never experienced before.

If there are really these opportunities, then it is better to look at the nearby areas, but for Salo and Natasha, they will act separately here.

So now no one knows where the other party is. The sand belt, Medusa, is moving forward. I thought I could see him on the way, and I have some right directions.

"Are you sure you are going this way?"

"Aren't you making things difficult for me? If only I knew which one was here talking to you."

The people next to me were stunned for a moment. If we talk about this method, it is indeed exactly the same.

Chapter 836

After all, I could see the previous template clearly, but the current state seemed a bit too abrupt, so I thought about picking a time to pass the area in front of me.

But the other party did not humiliate himself here. Seeing this scene, the people next to him couldn't help but cover their heads, with a headache on their faces.

This incident itself was done according to the original standards. No one expected that Gu Shaoyang and Salo left alone, otherwise everyone would not have changed to this extent.

But in the end, Medusa took the initiative to stand up here, and looked at the people around him to signal that they should not argue here.

Instead, they brought out several other directions here. After all, they should consider the follow-up matters here instead of having some irrelevant quarrels here.

If it were before, I wouldn't have said so much nonsense, but now who can take the initiative here depends on everyone's luck here.

After all, it is impossible to do anything by yourself, all according to the current standards. Some people have to stand up and block it for you. It happens that the person in front of you becomes the luckiest one here.

Medusa looked at Venus at this time. She was not worried about others taking action here, so she might as well consider the person in front of her.

Maybe there are some other directions that can be obtained, but the person in front of him doesn't seem to pay much attention to the stimulation, but turns his head to look at the area behind him.

Everything that could have happened completely came to an end at this moment. Anyway, I have now considered it. Instead of stopping here, I might as well take a look at other locations to see what might shine in front of me. Just behind.

Then Medusa directly put the beads in Venus's hands, grabbed his arm, and led them to Natasha's side to stand together.

The person in front of him nodded with satisfaction, and he must have been worried about what happened before. The only way is to bind several people here together, so that when the time comes, he can feel relieved when he leaves.

"Well, since we found a way here for what happened before, we might as well consider some follow-up ones. Although the Seven Star Long Yuan in Gu Shaoyang's head can come in handy here, we still can't pass this thing when we look for him."

Hearing what Medusa said, the people next to him nodded thoughtfully. In fact, Natasha and Christi knew these things very clearly.

But now neither Salo nor the others Coming back, it's not easy for a few people to take the initiative to attack and get hurt, but it's still a feasible event. It's much better than being hesitant when the time comes.

"Now that Salo has felt better and left, you have to think about it for yourself. Once you are in crisis, who can suddenly appear here to save you?"

The person in front of him frowned, not wanting to say anything to him at this time, but the person in front of him was not in a hurry, as if everything was under his control.

If it were the person in front of him before, he would definitely have A bit reluctant, but to a certain extent, I have to consider some follow-up troubles, otherwise problems will arise here anytime and anywhere. But now if no one comes to help Salo, then he has no way to understand it. All the matters here finally calmed down in 2 vs. 1.

Although what he said was indeed correct. , if we continue at this time, we will definitely be able to fight steadily, but now I am not sure about this kind of thing. If something happens, it will definitely be a worse phenomenon, so before that, I must think about it, in case If a problem really arises, who will bear everything here?

The person in front of him also frowned in embarrassment. Even if he knew all the subsequent events, he would still be here and walked over without looking back. So at this time For Salo, he did not expect that they would follow him.

However , Soon Medusa smelled that the smell inside was exactly the same as Christi's. She wanted to turn around here and go back to bring a few people over.

But when the senior wanted to go back, she found that they were missing, and she didn't know how to do it at all. Knowing where they went, looking at it this way, they were probably ready from the moment they parted ways.

This made me a little worried, and asked the people next to me to turn on the locator.

Chapter 837

I am actively searching for their location here, including the positioning of several people. But in fact, at this moment, I am really surprised. Maybe this is some of the events I have learned about before.

"did you find it?"

The person in front of him shook his head, and then stared at them carefully, as if he could see something in this way, but the next incident really made him feel a little uneasy.

No matter what he thought of , If it goes well, then there are always other things to consider, otherwise there will be trouble here at any time, but Gu Shaoyang soon found a more reasonable route. Before, Medusa was able to feel the connection with him here. But where did it start and why did the current situation occur?

I must not have a clear idea, but the Seven Star Longyuan in my hand kept making a rustling sound, as if there was something going on around it.

I couldn't even take it for a while. After all this, but on the next platform, I suddenly found something beyond my expectation.

There was a huge altar inside, dotted with all kinds of lights. I thought it could continue to operate normally. Everything soon turned out to be a beginning here.

At first, I was stunned for a moment, but the next second the light on the altar not only enveloped me, but also covered the direction next to it.

In this case, then Natasha has now become a more dangerous place, after all, the totem painted on it is his face.

Could it be that these snake people are all different endorsements? After all, I suddenly thought of the Eight Holy Gods, it is definitely not that simple here.

But from the beginning, I should think carefully about it, and I can't just do it by chance.

However, I must have taken the initiative to ask Salo about the information about the Eight Holy Gods, and the other party was stunned at first. After a moment, the kiln headdress here looked completely unaware.

After all, Natasha originally mentioned this to herself at this time, but because the sacrifice was in a hurry, she did not listen to his words carefully. Unexpectedly, By chance we bumped into each other here

"He did mention these things to me before, and they probably had something to do with sacrifices, but I didn't think about it now."

Hearing his words, the people in front of him couldn't help but laugh and cry a little bit. If this is the case, then he should think about it in a big way. Let's see who will evolve some practices here, otherwise why? There are too many other things that may cause some interference to myself at any time, but at this moment, it is obvious that I am a bit unhurried. Could this be some of the events I learned about before? It doesn't seem right no matter how you think about it, but The current situation has quickly brought some changes to themselves.

Although they did have capital to make some hesitations for them before, the next time will not be so smooth, and they may even make themselves hesitate here frequently. Decision.

At this moment, they are also trapped in a dilemma, but at some levels they have thought of some reasonable ideas. Since they have no intention of taking the initiative to attack themselves here, they will not waste the opportunity. The thing in their hands has gradually become This is the most unreasonable situation. If you really have a chance, you can handle it through these few things.

I'm afraid that if you don't follow through and cause trouble here, wouldn't it be bad?

But Gu Shaoyang soon found a sense of direction. Instead of hesitating here, why didn't he consider some other scenes?

Suddenly there was a sound of storm from behind, and it directly enveloped his head. When he waited As he slowly moved away from himself, he realized that everything around him was not normal.

If this was the case, it really made him a little careless, but he soon found another path, which he couldn't say. It's just a waste of time to sharpen one's skills in battle.

Doesn't that mean that several other people are unable to complete all this? Now I have made some adjustments naturally, but at this moment, I also thought of some alternative events, which I thought could happen. Everything came to an abrupt end here.

It seems that no matter how many incidents I have committed at this time, I will not be able to get any improvement. Maybe this is the reason why in the end it is all in vain.

However, this moment in front of me has triggered a lot of trouble for myself. Some other thoughts, instead of constantly hesitating at this time, why not think about what other people will do. After all, there will always be an explanation.

But a figure suddenly fell from the sky and enveloped the place. the top of one's head

"Why are you here? Didn't I remember you said you wanted to leave before?"

Chapter 838

Hearing a very strange voice say this to me suddenly surprised me, but at this time it was more important to find Salo's location.

I don't know why the few people next to me didn't show up again, but they clearly heard Medusa's voice talking here just now.

It had only been so long since he disappeared like this. Gu Shaoyang definitely couldn't compromise, so he took out the Seven-Star Longyuan in his hand and pointed it at the person in front of him, and took the initiative to distance himself.

"Who are you?"

"I didn't expect how long it has been and you don't even recognize me anymore."

The other party's voice suddenly changed from the excitement just now to a feeling of loss, but for me, I don't think he is a good person.

After all, I have to hurry up in the next moment. After all, in this process, You really make yourself a little uneasy.

Some of the methods that you can get by taking the initiative at this time have come to an abrupt end, and even some unnecessary emotions are gone.

But you don't want to close the distance with him, but instead Stay far away from him here, for fear of bumping into him at this time. Of course, the other person also seems to be ignoring him. It seems that after knowing that he is not that man, he feels particularly lost, and he is even here He looked at himself frequently. If this happened, it would be too sudden.

But at this stage, he couldn't be sure. After all, so many people were watching, so he had to be able to win him down.

But soon other extremes occurred. What I thought was going to happen came to an abrupt end midway. It seemed that everything I had expected was not so successful, and it was even a bit difficult to predict.

Anyway, at this moment it should be I can definitely understand what happened. As for what will happen at this time, I definitely can't say it here.

But soon Salo found the thing that Gu Shaoyang needed before, and then put the plate-like thing I got the things in front of me.

I wanted to take the initiative in this situation and take down the man in black in front of me, but Salo came back at the wrong time.

If the two of them collided, wouldn't it be a big trouble? , As expected, this person had a great sense of hatred towards things and people.

So Salo was directly hidden behind Gu Shaoyang without even looking at his head. Then the person in front of him pulled him and dodged directly, but The person next to him didn't know what to do.

He just followed its lead and acted here. Unexpectedly, he bumped into his arms in the next second. It was indeed the hardest thing for him to predict.

But the next comparison An embarrassing incident occurred. In fact, I didn't know the reason why he did this, but soon I discovered an unexpected incident.

It seemed that no matter how much I thought, it was of no use. I still had to rely on these He had to deal with it with his own thoughts, but it also made him fall into doubt. Why did he do such a thing before? It seemed a bit wrong, but he was not in a hurry.

The other party moved from his side and took the initiative to get closer to the person next to him, but Gu Shaoyang blocked it behind him quietly.

After all, during this period, he could still clearly see some of his movements. Although I don't know much about the events here at the moment, isn't it useless to think about it too much?

Then I approached the nearby area directly and took the initiative to inquire about the information here. Unexpectedly, it really made me feel a little bit right now. Inadvertently.

But during this transition period, I could also see some of their reactions. The man in black in front of me just wanted to get close to him here.

But there should be an explanation anyway. It was impossible to let him just like this. I took it inexplicably, but it also surprised me a bit.

None of his circumstances would have become so unreasonable, but now he discovered that his behavior was completely different from that of the previous person.

At this time, even if I have great ability, I still have to hesitate, otherwise it will be terrible in the end, but I never expected that the other party would not hesitate at all at this time.

He leaned forward directly, as if he had walked over, and then stayed next to him. This head looked at him, not knowing what he was going to do, but it gave him a feeling of oppression.

If this continues, he may fall into crisis. Then he hesitantly looked at the person next to him, hoping that he could lend a helping hand to him, but unfortunately the other person just looked at him from a distance without even thinking about it.

"what do you mean?"

The person in front of him frowned, and turned to look at him as if he didn't understand.

"I think what I do should have nothing to do with you, right? You can't be so big that you want to take care of me now?"

Chapter 839

This sound surprised Gu Shaoyang. Isn't this the trash can from before? Why is he messing around with them here?

The moment the other party saw Gu Shaoyang, he subconsciously took a step back. It seemed that he wanted to cover up his cooperation with them.

But the more nervous he became, the more weird he felt. Unexpectedly, they all divided the trash cans within the boundaries here.

But Gu Shaoyang soon adjusted his posture. Here I only guard Qixing Longyuan in the east. No matter what he looks like now or before, it doesn't matter to me.

After all, his duty is only to protect the people he wants to protect here, but I have to say that his choice of camp really caught him off guard.

What would Liu Huan think about all this if he knew about it? But soon he discovered an extraordinary incident. Liu Huan was also following him. Could it be that the first two people in the era of God have been swept away by others?

I don't know what purpose they have in obeying here, but for me, I just need to manage it well, and the rest is enough. I took Salo's arm and wanted to take him away here.

But the other party was still a little hesitant. It seemed that he wanted to talk to the trash can and the others here. Gu Shaoyang did not hesitate to let go of it. The other party looked back at Gu Shaoyang, and then strode forward boldly. passed

"We, the Eight Holy Gods, have also heard of your reputation before. I wonder if we can lend a word at this time?"

Liu Huan next to him looked at him with kind eyes, but the more he was such a wantless person, his eyes were more like a poisonous snake. He kept locking his position here, could it be said? Is this the beginning of this place?

But Gu Shaoyang soon discovered that what he was talking about was nothing else, but some of the troubles they had encountered here before.

But Gu Shaoyang knew that according to the current position of the end, he was He would never say anything about it, let alone ask for help. After all, he needed to protect his rights.

But he didn't expect that the two of them didn't know what they said. At this time, he actually agreed. Anyway, his thoughts at this moment were It made me feel a little abrupt.

So I looked at the trash can frequently with an incredible look on my face. The other person just smiled at me without thinking too much.

Gu Shaoyang directly grabbed Qixing Longyuan in the next second. There was a certain distance between here and him. Seeing his alert look, the person in front of him also hesitated.

"You don't need to be on guard against me like this. The reason why I cooperated with them was entirely because of the situation at that time."

I don't know which one of them was wrong, but I actually refuted him at this time.

"So what? It has nothing to do with us in the first place. Is it possible that our cooperation with you is just a formality?"

At this moment, the trash can doesn't know how to discuss this matter. On the contrary, being in this area really reminds me of some coincidental times.

In fact, everyone here is bound to win. But as for who was replaced in the end, no one knows.

What's more, this stage also makes one thing question. As for why they did these unimportant things, can they think that everything has a reason? What? Anyway, I need someone to balance myself.

But Salo next to him doesn't know what kind of help he can provide himself at this time. If he can take action, he might not consider the person in front of him.

But for Salo This is a very dangerous world for Luo. After all, few people here are not very familiar with it. Once a problem occurs, who will be here to solve the subsequent consequences for him?

But soon, Salo will directly bring it to him. After some adjustments, it seems that the previous idea was just a rough process, and no insignificant judgment was actually made on this matter.

Especially now that Gu Shaoyang is holding the Seven Star Longyuan in his hand, and is here with him towards the goal. He moved forward and looked for the sound of them appearing here.

Of course, he didn't realize that everything was a scam until they actually appeared. If he really had the ability to get close here, he wouldn't be in this situation now.

But why are the sounds between the two so close? Thinking about it, it feels a bit incredible, and then just when I was about to finish all this, a bunch of various sounds suddenly came from the side, here It was very messy, which didn't mean anything to Salo, but Gu Shaoyang's intuition told him.

This time it must be an opening, so as long as he seizes the time, he can take advantage of this opening to directly reach the outside world instead of being trapped in it. In such a small corner,

Gu Shaoyang glanced at the person next to him, and the other person immediately understood what he meant.

Chapter 840

Although the distance between the two people is still relatively far, I am not worried. After all, there will be different people helping me along the way.

I just wonder if I can hold on tight when I meet them. But unfortunately, the person I met this time just extended a helping hand and gave me a key.

He neither explained how to use this medicine, nor did he help himself to do other things here. Meeting such a person unexpectedly made me feel a bit strange.

But soon the methods and approaches I thought of were not just the one in front of me. After all, which one of the nearby areas was the most prominent, I could still make a big adjustment.

Although I had seen what he did before, I felt a little caught off guard. Gu Shaoyang picked up the key in his hand and faced the light in the sky.

Suddenly, a ray of light passed through the key hole and shone into my eyes. I found that this key did not have the same color as in winter.

It was completely different from what I had imagined. Not only that, even some of the brilliance emanating from it were exactly the same ones I had seen on the murals before.

If this is the case, then why can't you try to pull it out at this time? Gu Shaoyang and Salo will definitely act separately here.

I wanted to take this opportunity to find something, but the other party kept focusing on the area next to me, as if there was something attractive there.

He followed his gaze and looked over there, only to see a pool of light still glowing. Could this be the latest thing that attracted him?

The person in front of him didn't try to touch it. Instead, he picked up a stone and threw it in.

He found that the water was rippling, as if there was something inside. Seeing this scene, Gu Shaoyang immediately took a step back.

Realizing that Salo was standing there like a fool in front of him, he immediately stepped forward and pulled him back, but he seemed to be particularly interested in the things in the water.

Even here he stretched his neck and looked at her, but the person in front of him pulled him back. If it was before, it would really be indifferent. After all, he would not make any unnecessary considerations, but now it is obviously different. Not going to waste this time.

Moreover, the things under the water in front of me were obvious. I didn't want to think about these irrelevant things, nor did I want to waste other opportunities here.

But the person in front of me seemed to be interested in the machine, and even kept watching him. Is this the current practice?

The person in front of me was unhurried and didn't even have a superfluous opinion here.

To be honest, if such an incident originally happened, I would definitely try my best to stop it, but now thinking about it, I know that the situation is not quite right.

If he really had such an opportunity, that would be the moment when he would take the initiative to approach here, but now it is obviously a bit different. If he really has such ability, then he might as well make some other thoughts.

The key in his hand has become the only reason to do all this now, but no one dares to say anything now, for fear of provoking other parties here.

But it was also because of some of his views that he had fallen into a deadlock. I thought he would give himself some directions to consider at this time.

But looking at it now, I guess I was overly worried. After all, the other party had no such thinking at all, and even wished that I could dodge here.

So that I can make space here. If it were the same as before, I would be eager to take him down directly, but I soon found some other ways.

It's not necessary to want to leave here now. It depends on this one thing. In fact, there are many ways, but I may not be able to consider them right.

So Gu Shaoyang could only hold Salo's arm, hoping that he could stay on the same front as him.

If he left too, he really didn't know what to do, but Salo smelled the scent in the air at this moment.

Sure enough, there was a reason why he led him to retreat after teaching, and that smell appeared in front of him again. If this was the case, he should really be prepared.

After all, the real trouble will appear soon. Although I don't know why it has turned into what it is now, for me, I have to lament Lin Jing's several areas.

After all, the real problem will be highlighted here soon. The person in front of you doesn't seem to care, with a face full of indifference. Anyway, the person next to you is not in a hurry.

It was an unreasonable incident for them. If they were chasing after them at this time, wouldn't they be playing into the hands of these two people?

However, the person in front of him didn't say anything. Instead, he turned his head and looked at the place next to him.
