Chapter 841

If it was really as he thought, then he could do it step by step. Even if he was afraid that what would happen here in the end would not be good, he could not get a smooth event.

The person in front of him locked himself up for a while, and finally resolved this matter. In fact, he could clearly know the situation that happened exactly as it happened.

But you must always consider some clues, otherwise the events that others can solve in a few sentences here would be placed here, making people a little overwhelmed.

But there seems to be no use in talking more at this moment. After all, the other party is just watching from behind the case, as if nothing has changed for him. If this is the case, I really don't mind hitting him in the head and giving him some blows.

"In this case, let's go to the turning point ahead first. If he catches up to us then, we'll think of something else to do."

The person in front of him nodded and immediately hid in a corner. In fact, no one could decide what to do.

But it was because of these events that he was caught off guard. Maybe this was what he finally considered. Point.

But I have to say that this issue was a way of thinking before, but every day suddenly stopped here. If this was the case, then I would have wasted a lot of time.

But the smell in front of me spread to my eyes again. , it feels as if something has suddenly bypassed here.

If this is the case, I have to make some real preparations. I can't say that it will be all in vain when the time comes.

But to a certain extent, but it really made me feel a little forced. In fact, I had already guessed some aspects before, but because of some reasons to get to the bottom of things here, I didn't say anything else.

The smell got closer and closer, and then He saw a burly man, Gu Shaoyang, standing opposite him. He took a deep breath to hold back his breath. He also turned to look at the person behind him. The other person nodded and said that he would never leak his breath here, but What made Gu Shaoyang change his mind was not his actions.

It was some of the directions that the person in front of him had considered. If he did it step by step, it would really surprise him, but the only thing that made him least expect it was what he saw in front of him. Some problems arose.

After this behemoth walked over, I looked at the area behind him. It was obvious that something was exposed at this moment, but now I did not dare to attack rashly, for fear of causing some trouble.

And I also realized some problems during this process. To be honest, it was actually some incidents I had experienced at the moment. But now I wasted a lot of time before taking the initiative to ensure these incidents. I picked up that thing in the next second. I found a small treasure box, but I didn't expect that it contained such things.

It was said that it was because Gu Shaoyang got the Seven Stars Long Yuan here that it burst out with such a strange brilliance, but this treasure box seemed to be plated with a layer of The light was the same.

Gu Shaoyang was stunned for a moment, and opened a mezzanine inside, and found that there was a particularly beautiful hairpin inside, with a special pattern carved on it. If it were different, he would not have known this matter before. Shangxin, but at this moment there are too few things with the same light as Qixing Longyuan, so when one suddenly appears, he has to face it calmly, and even take the initiative.

But the light inside may not be the same as what he thought. In this state, Qixing Longyuan directly took it into it at this moment.

I thought that all this was reasonable, but now it seems that it is two things, but this light surrounds this Qixing Longyuan.

It was as if it was sending energy to him, but he did not make a hasty decision. Instead, he watched everything carefully here. He thought he could find other starting points here.

But he didn't expect that he would be attacked by Qixing Longyuan. The moment he absorbed the light, he rushed forward directly into the sky as if full of energy.

Seeing this, Gu Shaoyang jumped. In case, the people around him had seen it at this time and came to find it. If he loses his position, it will be a huge change for both himself and Salo.

But precisely because of some of the directions I have made now, I didn't expect that several people in Zuolinyoushe would actually get some adjustments here.

I was aware of the incident, but when something like this happened suddenly, I was caught off guard. Could it be that this incident was the beginning?

I didn't really believe what happened here, so I took the initiative to look at the area next to me, hoping to get some improvement on him.

Chapter 842

But I didn't expect that the other party didn't mention much at this time. Instead, he looked at several nearby positions.

This sudden rush into the sky made me stunned for a moment, but I'm afraid everything would never turn into what it is now.

So I took a look at the surrounding scene, thinking that it would be better to cut through the mess quickly at this time than to waste time here.

But I didn't expect that during this period, no one gave me such a chance to hesitate. Instead, they kept urging me to move forward like a cart.

Salo locked an area behind him, and then called to Gu Shaoyang next to him. As the two of them came and went, they saw a scene here.

Unexpectedly, Medusa and the others were actually in a transparent glass area below. To be honest, if I hadn't seen it directly here before, I would have thought it was an illusion.

But soon the problem didn't just stem from the current moment. After all, there were always some events that he couldn't compare with, and it was also a more reasonable state in the future.

I think that if I take the initiative at this time, I should be able to get some other results, so in order to avoid all this, I can take great pains.

I was afraid that some changes would be brought to Christi and Medusa at this time, but the other party didn't seem to take the initiative to look at me.

It was as if all this was an insignificant matter to him, but problems usually weren't that simple.

So the more I think about it now, some of the aspects I consider here are also the same. As for how to adjust all these in the future, it depends on my ability.

But the man in black appeared next to him again. At first, he thought it was an illusion, but until he looked up and down at the things happening around him.

Only then did he realize that everything in front of him was not false, but was actually before him. No matter how specific the opportunity was, he would not dare to speak rashly at this time.

Otherwise, if something goes wrong, I can't let myself stay here to accompany all this, but some of the situations that happened before are really reasonable enough.

But his sudden appearance here was a huge blow to him, so he thought of avoiding this place.

But I never saw the nearby areas, but I suddenly bumped into this matter, and I quickly found several nearby areas.

And he threatened to make a change with them here, but the other party didn't seem to be talking nonsense, and he was even indifferent to himself here. Is this reasonable?

I didn't know how to describe all this, but fortunately I just ducked aside for fear of getting into trouble at this time.

However, the voices of Medusa and the others gradually reached his ears. To be honest, if it had been before, he really wouldn't know how to deal with this matter.

But events with such a strong purpose must not only be in front of you. No matter how much you say or do, it is actually all based on some of their adjustments.

But soon the sound of the two people's discussion reached their ears directly. In fact, they didn't know what they had done.

But it was here that changes came one after another. Logically speaking, I thought of many events during this period, but Gu Shaoyang was not so restrained by the Seven Stars Long Yuan in his hands.

Even at this time, there were frequent sounds, which directly attracted the person who just passed by and looked back at Salo.

Here he pounced directly on the Seven Star Longyuan, suppressing its light. Gu Shaoyang held it tightly, trying not to make any sound.

Only then did he hear some reasonable sounds next to them, and with the help of the crystal ball in front of him, he saw Medusa and the others walking on the suspended plank roads.

But a few people didn't seem to notice that it was hollow underneath, but at the moment the water essence ball disappeared, they saw the look of horror on Medusa's face.

I couldn't bear it at this moment. I wanted to rush out here and solve everything. Unexpectedly, I was stopped by the person in front of me. The other person shook his head at me, as if to indicate that he didn't want to. engage in such behavior.

After the footsteps disappeared at the end of the road, he looked at the person in front of him angrily. What was he doing?

Now Medusa and the others are in danger. Isn't he a good partner here? Could it be that he didn't even care about the lives of his companions at this time, but the people in front of him just looked at his uncool look, but didn't say anything here.

It wasn't until he saw that he was getting better that he realized the problem. He had always taken this step from here. As for what the men in black and the men in white were going to do after that, it was just to see the relationship between a few people. got engaged.

Chapter 843

"Now turn on the contact device on your body and see what you are going to do. After all, there are reasons for some of the events that happened to us before. It would be great if we could contact them."

Saluo hesitated for a moment and took out the communicator that was specially used by the snake people before. He called a few people here, but he didn't expect that the other members of the Eight Holy Gods were not summoned but instead called the man in white who had just left.

In fact, The two people had already separated. Bai Yiyi was originally going to follow them, but he saw the unconscious Gu Shaoyang on the way. He stayed here to guard him. When he got up after a nap, he found that Gu Shaoyang was nowhere to be seen. Even the Qixing Longyuan that was thrown on the ground was gone.

I didn't expect that I would encounter this kind of thing again after going around in circles. Anyway, looking at the bewildered face of the person in front of me, it really surprised me.

As long as I pick up the If you can deal with it more carefully, you can quickly get a route, but Natasha made an action that she had never remembered before.

This was the only thing she could see the second before the crystal ball went out. I saw some pictures, and then I placed the gestures he made here towards Salo.

As a result, Salo's expression became very bad, but no matter how I asked him, the other party refused to talk to me here. give any explanation

"If you won't tell me, how will I know what to do next? Who will rescue them here?"

Hearing these words, he was stunned for a moment, and then nodded solemnly to the person next to him. If this is the case, then he can do something about it and don't worry.

It's just that the current situation seems to be a bit different from what he considered. , after all, what I can do can certainly be done by others, but in order to avoid all these incidents starting again, I am really a little surprised.

However, the other party still compromised on all this after careful consideration in the end. In fact, I did not do it for To coerce him into doing something, I just want him to recognize the reality.

Now no one can help except myself. The person in front of me soon gave a regulation. It seems that I was too naive to think about the current incident. , but it is precisely because of his current views that he can understand some people.

Black Cloak can be regarded as the man who believes here. Now Salo hesitated but nodded and revealed the news to Black Cloak in front of him.

The other party smiled and took out a transmitter from his side and handed it to his hand. In fact, Salo didn't know what it was, but the moment he held it in his hand, a sudden sound came from his hand. The huge heat directly overturned here, but the next second I discovered something was not normal.

Just as I was walking forward on my own initiative, I suddenly saw some abnormal sights. At first I thought It was an illusion.

But the next second after Salo took the initiative to distance himself from the barrier, he realized that he was restricted to such an environment, and suddenly looked back.

The other party just waved his hand at him, but But he didn't do anything else. Then he heard a cry and reached his ears.

Only then did he realize that the other party had sent him back to Medusa and the others. Although this was good, But Gu Shaoyang couldn't be without someone to accompany him. He hesitated here before taking the initiative to attack.

Originally, what he learned here was nothing more than these few things, but after falling to the ground, he saw When several people around him arrived, they all ran towards me.

At this time, how could I dare to say that it was all because of my actions? Now I could only stay silent, hoping to dodge all of this. It seemed that this critical moment was not that simple.

Moreover, Salo also thought of some accidents at this stage. This situation would not have happened to him originally, but who made the change here? However, he has still found several other routes. In fact, I also understood some of the events that happened exactly as they were. Instead of falling into a crisis, I could have done some unnecessary things, but I didn't do so.

"Medusa, don't worry, I know this incident is very important to you, but it is also important to us."

Then Salo narrated to them all the scenes he had encountered below.

Unexpectedly, the expressions on the faces of several people here were still a little worldly, as if they were concerned about all this. If this is the case, then you may be in crisis

"Are you sure he's still safe?"

"Don't worry, Black Cloak told me here that he will not be in danger of his life. If you are really worried, you might as well come with me at this time."

Chapter 844

Medusa next to her was stunned for a moment, not understanding what he meant by his words, but then she saw some of his actions and suddenly realized some extraordinary events.

It is very likely that there is a gap between several people at this stage, but Salo does not realize that all this is actually within the current scope, and he is not able to understand those so-called opinions.

On the contrary, because of some of the things they did here, Salo fell into a danger. In fact, Gu Shaoyang knew it very well.

As long as he has the steel to follow Salo, he can go back here, but he doesn't. In fact, he only wants to find Emperor Liuyun here. This is his only inheritance.

Only by meeting him can all these events be revealed, but the other party does not seem to think that all of this is reasonable, and instead bypasses the choices in front of him.

If it was necessary before, then I can definitely pass these considerations, but what to do at this moment is not that simple.

But in order to avoid all these incidents, I took great pains. I was afraid of causing any accidents here, but I soon found another way.

Thinking about it, I was really too relaxed, and I actually lowered my guard in front of this matter. But the problem is that on the platform of a few people, it is very likely to cause some other unexpected events.

Since I learned about these aspects, some of Christie's actions did not seem to be the reason for threatening myself here.

If it were the beginning, it might not be so complicated, but there are many kinds of events at the moment. If you really have the chance, why not take the initiative to start with their affairs?

Soon I found the most real reason. It turned out that I was not the only one who planned to attack them, but there were many other people here too.

In fact, Salo had thought about these so-called incidents before, but Venus seemed to have premeditated it.

It's like I know what kind of thoughts they have here, but for Salo, they are completely different things. No matter how much I know, nothing will change here.

"You guys are responsible for going around the two roads on the side. I will go directly to the middle and try to take down these people at once."

The Medusa in front of them nodded, and then several people split up here. Unexpectedly, they happened to bump into the direction next to them, and a pillar appeared in front of everyone. In fact, this is no different from the previous one. After all, it is exactly the same. Because of these pillars, Gu Shaoyang traveled to another time and space.

But now that Salo is back, it proves that there is no danger there, but now he must think of how to solve this situation.

After all, not everyone can Through this choice, especially the situation in front of me, it is very likely to be the reason that prevents me from moving forward here. At the moment, I am also trying my best to bypass this hurdle.

But I didn't expect that all my final thoughts would come to an abrupt end here. I definitely didn't mind what happened originally, but because of this reason,

Gu Shaoyang took the initiative to make some adjustments to them. Unexpectedly, these people directly rejected his opinions and even treated him here. Quite a few percent.

In order to prevent such incidents from continuing to happen on the transparent steel plank road, I made a deal with the black cloak and sent the person back directly. Otherwise, I really don't know how to solve these things.

"Are you sure you want to leave them here looking for you aimlessly now?"

"What else to do? If I tell them that I can't come back, I'm afraid they will intensify their efforts. You don't need to worry about this matter. I have my own algorithm."

The black cloak in front of him shrugged his shoulders and left here directly, as if he was indifferent to this matter, but in fact Gu Shaoyang knew it very well in his heart.

If it weren't for him worrying about helping himself this time, he wouldn't have changed. After all, his skills have greatly regressed here, and the balance of time and space has been broken, which has caused various problems.

But the last incident should be enough to teach Gu Shaoyang a lesson, but after all, it is always him It's hard for me to say too much about things at this time.

Otherwise, I can't turn the tide here. In addition, some things that happened before made me a little confused. The incident in front of me soon became It brought some interference to myself.

I thought everything was like taking the initiative here, but at this moment, I was a little confused.

However, in order to ensure the safety of the surroundings, I really did not waste any time. By the way, This opportunity gave me a clear idea of the placement of the stone lions on the left and right sides.

Chapter 845

However, it took a lot of effort to persuade him to agree with what he said, but the person in front of him didn't seem to know much about him.

But as she adjusted a lot of opportunities here, she discovered some events in the world. After all, everyone's choices must be different.

So I also thought that I should seize the time to learn about some of the subsequent past here, so that it could be considered a help to him.

But some situations on both sides really surprised me. In fact, if it were before, I would never say anything, but the current situation attracted most of my attention.

But soon the black cloak stopped persuading him, as if it didn't matter to him what all this looked like, and even he felt a bit strange.

Obviously it won't happen to this extent. When did this change start? aspects.

But he had to describe that in some cases he still understood these events very well, so Gu Shaoyang just smiled apologetically.

Judging from the curve of the corners of his lips, Gu Shaoyang in front of him was a little shocked. Isn't this a bit weird? But this stage is undoubtedly a lesson for himself, and the events that happened here are not only the ones in front of him. There were several people, but the other party looked indifferent here, which actually attracted his attention.

"There is a way back here, and I can help you show the way, but I hope you can wait for me after you leave."

The person in front of him nodded and said that he wouldn't talk nonsense. After all, it was really because of his own problems before. If he could be given some opportunities for psychological balance, he would definitely not give up. But at this moment, he would not give up. There was a huge interference.

After all, I could see the previous events. If it weren't for what they learned here, maybe I wouldn't have such a problem at this time.

But soon the black cloak became This is an important factor. After all, to some extent, I definitely hold a lot of clues here, so now that I have these choices, I am really reckless.

"How about this? You also said before that he is important to you. After I disrupted him, try it again. If you can still recognize him, then just pretend that I didn't say anything. How about it?"

The person in front of him smiled, and then nodded, indicating that he understood his intention. It seemed that he was thinking too simply, and he knew that he was not in a reasonable state now.

"Don't worry, this initiative you proposed will definitely be looked at carefully, but there are several other things you proposed here before.

They seem to have made the same judgment here. Do you think you should stand up and give them a command here?"

But the person in front of him refused directly, without even seeing the slightest hesitation. The person in front of him shook his head helplessly.

But he didn't say anything unnecessary. After all, at this stage, he could see some of his thoughts. , in fact, no matter how much you do here, it will basically cause trouble, so in order to avoid all these things, I have found some feasible ways.

After all, every route will have different ups and downs. In the end, it is just trying to draw water from a bamboo basket. Whether it's all in vain or something more valuable happens, it probably depends on your ability.

But in fact, before this incident happened, I had already thought of these points. I will never have eternal interests, so I At this time, I also worked hard to smooth out some of the problems that have arisen here.

But to some extent, some of the doubts I have made are somewhat exposed at this moment. If this is the case, they still exist for me. I have a big doubt.

After all, the events everyone made here are all completely different notes. I hold the Seven Stars Longyuan and some other lifeblood here.

If it were before, there must be someone here who is here to succeed. I was afraid that I would avoid the benefits he gave me here, but it was different now. Everyone was here for that matter.

But something unexpected happened soon. It turned out that Salo was here and had already prepared with them. Go to the pillars and watch them take some special actions against the stone pillars.

The people in front of them are not in a hurry. No matter how much they do, it is of no use. To be honest, only after learning about these events, it is very likely to cause some trouble here.

Chapter 846

So at the first glance, knowing that they would take these actions, I no longer hesitated. But on the contrary, there was some hesitation on the face of the black cloak, and I knew why.

He is probably also thinking about whether to start directly here. After all, some of the events that happened cannot be that simple, so he must make thorough preparations now, even though all this does not seem so special.

"Can you help me get their move?"

"Aren't you making things difficult for me? If you want to talk about these other things, then I will help."

Hearing what Black Cloak said, I basically guessed some reasons. It seems that this time it is a healthy person because of the processes that happened before.

Anyway, now I am also thinking carefully for fear of making some mistakes at this stage. It is a world that is difficult to control, but this choice at present really makes me a little uneasy.

Everything that happened originally seemed like someone had made some changes. At this time, I kept looking sideways at all this, but no matter what,

At this time, what I hope for most is what I hope for most. Otherwise, how can I convince him? But soon the other party glanced at me.

I could read it from his eyes, but he didn't quite understand it. It seemed that He had no idea what the meaning of what he was doing was.

But actually he didn't know it in his heart. It seemed like there was a line running across the middle of several people, and no one knew what would happen next.

After all, this It was completely a one-way street, but I soon found some problems. No matter how much I talked about or did, it was never as smooth as this.

"How about this? I saw the world before and you have an experience. Originally, I didn't mind helping Natasha here. After all, I also saw the mural before.

In fact, there must be some divisions between the two. You might as well take the time to take a look here, which can avoid some trouble."

The person in front of him nodded. He did not accept so much nonsense from him. Instead, he directly bypassed some of the other party's whereabouts. All the events that he thought suddenly came to an abrupt end here. In fact, sometimes I couldn't figure it out. What is the starting point of all this? Is this process more suitable for them to make some adjustments here?

If it were before, I would not be able to agree with his views, but because of some voices, I had to fall into Such a situation.

However, the black cloak came closer with the thing in his hand. Before coming, Salo thought he had made a mistake here.

Why did a person suddenly appear on these stone pillars? Only then did he realize that it was He sent them back from there. So, can he also bring Gu Shaoyang back?

As a result, the other party shook his head and washed his hands, and the Medusa next to him also touched it. It felt like nothing good happened. , but no one dares to speak rashly at this time.

For fear of accidentally causing big trouble, everyone here is carrying forward expectations, not those insignificant things, but precisely because of their own understanding methods, but I support that everything in front of me has turned into an inappropriate appearance.

"I don't know where he is now. If you need anything, you can contact him privately, but he really doesn't have much contact with me now."

Saluo in front of him nodded believing it. It was not a difficult matter anyway, but he soon realized some troubles. After all, during this period, he still thought of many coherent methods.

But in his heart, I have always been uneasy, for fear of encountering some problems, but at this moment I have thought of some unnecessary things about this stage.

It is not prudent to choose, so I must consider the final outcome. Once any trouble occurs, I also have a solution.

But what Black Cloak said is the same, so I gave myself a blow. It seems that it shouldn't be that easy just by searching for things here.

"Then thank you very much for informing us of this news now."

The person in front of him nodded and said nothing more. If he really has such a method, why can't he consider these endless possibilities.

But soon the black cloak gave a more professional opinion. It turned out that the previous It can be said that the next stage of the matter is my own wishful thinking.

Maybe I can consider some other detailed processes, and the current incident is too troublesome. Maybe this is also one of the reasons why I took the initiative.

But soon let I discovered some extraordinary events. If it was exactly as I expected, then why did the man never speak?

Then several people discovered here that Gu Shaoyang had been passed down in the previous direction.

Chapter 847

But I don't think this is a reasonable path. Coupled with some subsequent events, the suddenness made me feel a little uneasy.

Maybe this is what I need to consider carefully in the end. Natasha also took the initiative during this period and chose several nearby paths. Maybe everything before was very complicated, but the moment in front of her does not mean that it will be the same as before.

The orange gem in his hand transformed into some scenes at this moment, and it was so unexpected that it really surprised me.

But the next second I realized that doing these things exactly as they are usually doesn't bring any help to myself.

If there is really a chance, then I might as well follow the quiet path, maybe this is a more reasonable one.

But the black cloak still stopped a few people here, telling them not to do such irrelevant actions, otherwise they would probably support everyone.

There are some troubles here, which actually makes me a little uneasy to some extent. In fact, what to do is still a relatively complicated situation.

Some of the plans that were drawn here as they were were soon made to feel a little different, but maybe that's because everyone made different choices here.

Unexpectedly, some reasonable events were discovered in the end, but Salo really carefully considered some scenes during this process, and actually gave all this time here.

For Salo, he did not think about these unimportant matters, and even carefully looked at several nearby aspects here. In order to avoid these few details, he was currently spending a lot of effort, for fear of accidentally delaying the good time. auspicious day

"Soon what's out there will give us a way to do it right in front of our face."

At first, Salo didn't understand what he meant, but it wasn't until he saw a few people here the next second that he realized that everything seemed a little different.

And it wasn't just from the person in front of him. Orientation, and may support these other things to change in conjunction.

If this is the case, it will really catch me off guard, but it does not seem to be unexpected at this moment, especially because this one thing is particularly special. It's complicated.

But the other party is very attentive in providing help here. If I insist on saying something, it would be too coercive and even make people feel a little passive.

If this continues, it will be really frustrating. I have a bit of a headache, so now I am taking great pains to avoid all this.

"I think you should have understood what I meant before."

Saluo nodded here and did not continue to waste time. Anyway, in the process, he realized all this.

Now that he has made it so clear, it is not convenient for him to do other things. The incident here is disgusting.

But after all, the moment in front of me is always different. If I really think about these points, it is not a bad idea, but I am afraid that it will be all in vain.

And some of Christie's current actions are also Yes, the characteristics that were locked in front of her at this moment were actually the same for Natasha.

However, in order to avoid certain characteristic things, she was also taking great pains at the moment, wishing she could do something here, but This idea was soon replaced.

In fact, at this time, one of Medusa's attacks was due to the blow, and the other was due to some special circumstances. After all, it was not too conspicuous to see all this in the process.

But Gram The instructions that Christi and Medusa received here obviously came from some previous things, so this time I can feel relieved. You can't turn the tide here and think about everything. Thinking about it, there are a few It's incredible. In fact, at this moment, I know very well what he is for.

But he was forced to stop in the middle because of some other things, but Salo quickly found the other party's intention.

If he really had If the opportunity can be thought of, it is not impossible to strive for it. This time, I will seize the opportunity to capture him, but the current extreme nature really caught me off guard.

Is this some of the problems that will happen in the middle? Although I had thought of it before All this does not mean that it can go smoothly.

In addition, there are still many people waiting around here, and a few people do not dare to act rashly here. Especially at this moment, it makes it difficult to predict. Could this be what happened in the past? Something happened?

"Look at the place next to it."

Following his hint, several people looked in that direction one after another. They really didn't expect that something like this was happening right now. Anyway, they had already thought of some aspects. Rather than doing this, it would be better to make some choices on their own.

Chapter 848

However, his hint here is definitely not unreasonable. After all, he has seen some scenes before. If the two really overlap, then he will still be able to ensure the normal operation of these events to a great extent.

But there are always some things that I haven't expected before. If I cause any trouble, wouldn't I regret it? Then I felt a little emotional here and put this matter on the pedal in front of me.

But other events happened soon. Unexpectedly, these people really made me feel stunned, plus some situations that happened exactly as they were.

The suddenness really made me a little uneasy, but after thinking about these events the next second, I obviously made some other adjustments. In fact, some situations may not be that complicated.

So I also need to seize the time to see if I can take this opportunity to successfully capture him, but when I think about it, I feel that something is different.

After all, these stone pillars have their own uses, so it is impossible to talk nonsense here. In addition, some events that happened originally made me suddenly realize that something was wrong.

It was most likely the reason that was causing trouble for me now, but I couldn't say this decisively. After all, I had been watching what to do next for a long time.

I don't know when it will become different, but soon I will find another way to make it happen, no matter how many or how good it is.

It has to spread slowly from this starting point, so now I have almost anticipated some problems, and it is useless no matter how much I say.

It's better to take it slow, not to mention that at this stage, I can understand the conditions clearly. If there is a problem, I will definitely be the only way now.

But soon I supported myself and had some other questions, why can't anyone here divide everything?

Soon Medusa was here carrying a ball of energy in his hands, quickly taking a series of moves around the palace.

I thought that this time the incident would be different from what I thought, but I didn't expect that I was really careless. After all, no matter how much I did, I couldn't be as comfortable as the situation in front of me.

So now I have spent a lot of time, hoping to adjust all this, but I didn't expect that I have more hopes.

There are naturally a lot of troubles caused here. Maybe I never thought about how all this would change before, but these results are definitely displayed prominently in front of my eyes.

Soon I found another path, which I had never experienced before, if it was really similar to what I originally thought.

Then maybe there is no need to hesitate on this matter, and it is precisely because of the choice in front of me that it makes me feel a little helpless.

However, the energy ball of Medusa Shoudong is indeed a very good clue that can be grasped in hand. After all, I still know what to do.

In order to avoid all this, I am currently working hard and wishing I could solve all this, but I didn't expect that the incident here happened due to a strange combination of circumstances.

The person in front of me frowned, seeming a little dissatisfied, but I didn't expect to face these choices in the end. If it happened here exactly as it happened, I would definitely not agree with it, but at this stage in front of me, I really let myself go. Somewhat unexpected.

Soon this matter came to an end, and Salo and Christi gradually became a bit difficult to judge. In fact, I thought of many possibilities in my mind.

But these are the only things that I don't have so many ideas about. Maybe it's because I think about something different here, and secondly, it's the extra imagination that's been triggered here. If it stays like this, wouldn't it be terrible?

But the other party looked at it and showed that he was not in a hurry, and even had some other ideas here. He originally thought of these details during this time.

So when encountering such a scene, he obviously couldn't grasp the situation here, but Salo obviously caused some interference to him. As for now, how Gu Shaoyang wants to deal with it, and he also needs to see some clues brought back by the black cloak.

Unexpectedly, what he brought back to him here were some clues that he had never thought of before. It turned out that these people were fully prepared to attack him here.

But he has to have some ability to do it, otherwise he will always be stagnant here, which is not his ability. He carefully explored the surrounding environment.

Suddenly I found that everything was a little different from what I imagined. If I really got to the bottom of it, wouldn't it be a big trouble? But no matter how much I said.

It seems to be of no use. I must carefully look at the surrounding scene during this process, even if it is to avoid all this.

Chapter 849

But I never expected that the plans that could be made with the information this person brought back were endless. Then I followed his steps and launched some actions here. Unexpectedly, I happened to bump into that person here.

It turns out that the other party knew the reason for all this a long time ago, but he never said anything to me. If it were done before, then I really wouldn't have any unnecessary thoughts.

But the matter in front of me is not an ordinary thing. If I really have a chance, I might as well pass this stage and take a look at the nearby aspects to see if there are any feasible events?

But no one thought that they were actually sucked in by this air. When they first saw it, they just had a strange feeling.

I looked here, but I didn't expect that there would be many more questions later. What I can understand now, others can also understand, so this seems to be a very different adjustment for me here.

But at this moment, I am not in a hurry. After all, no matter how much I do, it is not as important as some of the events I need to consider at the moment, so I must be prepared. Look at the positions on the left and right here, even if it is a gift for myself adjusted.

The other party didn't rush and ignored everything here, but trouble soon appeared. It seems that he didn't think carefully enough.

The other party actually took some other actions here, which made me a little dissatisfied, but the few people next to him didn't mention anything.

It was as if all this was an event that needed to be considered for him. In fact, he had thought about these aspects before, but for some reason he did not take the initiative to speak.

I was afraid of causing some problems here, but I really didn't expect that this kind of thing would happen now. If it were changed before, it would definitely be unexpected.

I wish I could just go around here, but the thing in front of me has taught me a lesson. No matter how much I do, I don't care. If this thing goes well, I must take some methods to identify some of the phenomena they made here..

You can't just end up with nothing in the end. It's a bit incredible when you think about it, but the people next to you seem to have misunderstood all this.

After thinking about this result, he took the initiative to look at several people. In fact, he had known them before.

At the moment, all he was trying to do was to open up their world. After struggling for a while, Salo found an exit in the tunnel and led several nearby people out.

In fact, Salo knew his intention here before, otherwise why would the other party go to all the trouble to do something here? In fact, in order to avoid these situations, you will most likely take some actions.

That is to take the initiative to seal the door of the time vortex, but I also thought of some other situations and didn't want these people to do something.

But Black Cloak did not manage himself more. Instead, he gave up his position here. At first, he was not sure what happened.

But it wasn't until this moment that I noticed something unusual. The current situation was a bit too unexpected. After all, I had never seen it like this before, but the results that followed were really surprising to me. Somewhat caught off guard.

The other party quickly found a path and took the opportunity to take the initiative to place it on his body. In fact, he had thought about these things before, but for some reason everyone fell into deep thought.

"Do you think this incident will be different from what we imagined?"

The person in front of him frowned, not quite understanding what he meant, but the next second the situation appeared in front of him.

It turned out that this man had thought about it a long time ago, and they were here. What should I do if I don't want to leave? I really underestimated him, but the next question is not that simple. I still know it in my heart. The energy ball in Christie's hand burst out at this moment. A huge light shone in front of everyone's eyes, but originally I didn't plan to deal with it this way.

But for some reasons, I fell into such an opportunity, and it seemed to be really good, so I put more. He spent his time on other things.

Unexpectedly, Medusa understood what she meant by giving this thing to him, and she didn't even hesitate at all here. To be honest, she knew the consequences before, but she failed to do it here. I thought about some directions.

It would have been nice if it had always been like this, but unfortunately I saw a symbolic item in his hand. It turned out that there were many things hidden in this tunnel.

Chapter 850

It happened that they would meet one of them here. I wanted to take this opportunity to dodge with them, but I didn't expect that they would rush over without looking back.

Seeing this look, I must have felt a little uneasy in my heart. I wanted to rush up and tell them what to do.

Unexpectedly, several people dodged away from him in a flash. If it was like that before, he would definitely not agree to it, but the current incident is not that simple.

The sword in his hand was responsible for the same gem from before, which really surprised me.

Unexpectedly, the stone ended up in his hand, but rather than being surprised, something more surprising was yet to come.

That sword immediately transformed into the appearance of Qixing Longyuan. It was indeed reasonable to say that they did not know, but they did not leave themselves such a chance.

After all, in this process, I can still predict to a large extent.

At the moment, in order to make a comeback and adjust, I am being cautious, for fear of encountering any problems in the future, but the other party doesn't seem to like me very much, and the thought of this makes me feel a little disappointed.

But soon a ray of light shone down from above the head. At first, I thought it was an illusion, but unexpectedly, I happened to hit it.

It really caught me off guard, but the problem lies in this matter. After all, the changes everyone gets on each path are definitely different.

Instead of getting into such a difficult problem, it would be better for me to put in some effort to solve this matter once and for all, but the people next to me don't seem to agree with my view.

"This sword is made according to your original model, so don't refuse, just accept it and do what you want to do here."

The person in front of him frowned. He didn't quite understand what his intentions were for being so kind to him. Several people were not in the same state here.

So he frowned and dodged to avoid the opponent approaching here. I mean, I will take out the weapon in my hand in the next second.

I block it in front of me here. To say that I am unkind here is not necessarily the case. After all, there are more people who feel that they are meaningless here. People.

Gu Shaoyang was not here, wasting time with him, and left directly after putting on his things, as if he was not polite to him at all.

In fact, it was because he had thought of some aspects. If it was really as he expected, It would be better to solve all this smoothly, but it is actually an embarrassing situation for myself. In fact, everyone can take some actions here, but only you can't. After all, some of the problems caused here are obvious.

If you insist on If you have to take some actions, it is very likely to cause some trouble for yourself, but at this moment, it does not mean that it is an inevitable problem.

However, the sword in your hand, regardless of the state of use or the way it is used in your hands, Some directions are exactly the same as the previous 7-star Long Yuan. Does he also know that his sword has no light?

Thinking about it this way, everything is possible, but it doesn't seem to be important at this time, plus the follow-up There are some troubles.

In fact, I have predicted these troubles early on, but here Yue has painstakingly obtained the results, and there is actually no difference.

But Salo is taking the initiative to contact me. Although I don't know what his intentions are, but You can see some signs on the other party.

If you remember correctly, you can continue to explore inside and you will get some results soon, but Salo does not seem to have such complicated thoughts at this moment. He is just here to inquire. After a moment, some of the things done by the people in front of me, if it were changed before, I would be willing to dodge here.

But I quickly found a route on the ground. If it was not so obvious here before, then I It is indeed impossible to distinguish this area.

But at this moment, it seems that it is not easy to look at it. There is a very special sign on it. I didn't see it very clearly at first. It wasn't until a trace of light radiated from the altar that I realized it. Everything is not a change, but a moment to attack yourself here.

Along this route, some figures soon appeared. At first, I couldn't notice it all, but in the next second, all the figures appeared. Everyone appeared here, including the Yin soldiers who had borrowed the road here before. Only then did Gu Shaoyang realize that something seemed to be wrong.

But he was not the only one who would be suspected here. If he really had this ability , might as well take the initiative to attack.

Soon the sword in his hand came in handy, and those people gathered around him, like watching a zoo.
