Chapter 851

"I wonder if you are willing to give us the sword in your hand, we will have great use for it."

But I didn't expect that Gu Shaoyang agreed readily and even stared at them here, hoping to get them to offer a price that he was satisfied with.

The other party was not polite, and all the events were brought together in a few words. If this had been the case in the past, there was still a great possibility that he would have taken the initiative here.

"Are you sure you would give me the stuff so readily?"

"Didn't you say you could make a deal with me here? If it can't meet the conditions that satisfy me, I won't agree."

The person in front of him immediately nodded here, as if he was afraid that the treasure he got would run away. He looked at the other party's behavior. The person in front of him didn't say anything. Instead, he raised the corners of his mouth and smiled very happily. Could it be that Is this kind of thing within the scope of his expectation?

But the black cloak next to him was just observing secretly, and did not say anything nonsense to himself. After all, several people had expected these processes before.

And he also had a relationship with him. After some contacts, I didn't see him being so scheming. Otherwise, how could I dare to let him go so easily?

Soon I found another route. It seemed that the incident was not just that simple. I even There are some other processes to think about.

But soon these people gathered around and looked at the things in their hands, as if it was some kind of treasure, but they did not let themselves understand his intentions. Everyone was surrounding them here. , it's really like looking at a zoo.

However, they are extremely interested in the Seven-Star Longyuan in their hands, but they do not intend to give it to them. If they really need it, they can make conditions here, and the world can
There is no free lunch, and now I am also teaching them

"How about this? We don't have anything with us, just these few special tools. See if you need them."

Gu Shaoyang took one of them and looked at it carefully before his eyes. It was indeed a good thing, but it fell into his hands. It was really a bit of a loss. I wanted to take advantage of this opportunity to skip the matter directly. , but the other party seems to be a bit reluctant here.

"Since you took something, you have to promise us here."

"Aren't you being unreasonable? And I think you should be able to understand what happened before. If it weren't for some incidents you yourself made, we wouldn't be where we are today."

The person next to him frowned, as if he was a little dissatisfied with his remarks, but due to the expression on his face, he didn't dare to say anything else here.

"How about this? The paths provided by Black Cloak here were limited before. Now that you have appeared here, you might as well lead the way for us, and I can also give you other things."

But unexpectedly, he was rejected by Gu Shaoyang. In fact, he could lead them the way, but unfortunately, he didn't know where to get out of here.

"It's better to be honest with this idea. Besides, it's not like you couldn't see the world before."

The people next to him frowned, as if they didn't quite understand their intentions here, but for Salo, they were still unable to provide these options. Is this the result of discussions between several people?

Christie then looked at He moved to the side, as if he had some general views on this, but soon the people in front of him took some actions.

Who doesn't know their intentions here, but it is precisely because of this choice that led to the current situation. Trouble.

But after I rejected them, several people kept looking at me with very strange eyes, which made me somewhat confused. So I also kept looking at the people in front of me up and down, and the two sides looked at each other. The test was a bit surprising.

Soon Salo found a route. It turned out that these people were not able to consider these clues at the moment, but it did not mean that they could handle them.

Anyway, there are them in every direction. Different things, now I won't do these unnecessary behaviors here, and naturally I won't waste time. I can't get entangled with them here, but the current situation also makes me feel a little uneasy.

In fact , No matter how much you say or do, it's meaningless. If you really have room for it, you might as well start with this one thing.

"I will leave the things here. After a while, someone will make a deal with you soon."

The person in front of him nodded and did not waste time with him here. He may have understood what he was doing, but he was actually a little worried at the moment. He was afraid that there would be some trouble, but he still felt a little worried about it. Surprisingly, in fact, through these routes, I have already understood their intentions.

However, in order to avoid all this, I have taken great pains, and I wish I could say everything here.

Chapter 852

"I have promised you something, don't worry, I want to see if I can get what I want first."

The person in front of me suddenly laughed. I didn't expect him to be able to measure this ability so much. So I don't waste time now. Anyway, in the subsequent processes, I also found some leeway. Basically, these are the points The road will soon bring some interference to him, so he can clearly see the choice in front of him. Just to avoid all this, he is taking great pains, for fear that he will not be able to help him achieve these results here.

The person in front of me just smiled, but didn't speak, as if he knew what he was going to do here.

But in fact, for me, everything doesn't seem so important. After all, many things happened here, and I don't think maybe each one can be handled appropriately

"How about this? I think the preparations we made here are quite substantial. Since we can't take him down now, why not consider some other factors."

The person in front of him frowned, realizing such a problem. It is very likely that he is in difficulty here, but some other situations have also occurred. The incident that

I thought happened was also in crisis here, In fact, I had considered these inadvertent choices before.

But I don't know why, but there were always other thoughts in my heart, as if there were constant hints here.

In fact, when Qixing Longyuan was held in his hands, Gu Shaoyang I have already noticed some methods, but I don't dare to be too decisive at this moment, for fear of causing trouble here.

"I have also made thorough preparations for the previous incident. Now that you agree with what I am doing, we might as well join forces in both directions here to overthrow his rule here."

But unexpectedly, the person in front of him narrowed his eyes, and then quickly shook his head, as if he did not agree with his proposal, but Gu Shaoyang was not in a hurry. He was confident that he could convince him, but it would take some time. It's just a certain amount of time.

For Christi, the situation in front of him is somewhat certain to win, but he needs others to be a fool here and give them some specific tips.

After all, no one here can go straight in and unravel all the events. All of them have been solved, so hesitation has become the only way to go now.

But I have to admit that there are still many problems that I have not considered before. The first is the scenes in front of me, and the second is my sincerity. It was not enough to impress the people in front of him to make some changes to him.

However, Salo approached here unhurriedly. Here he took Medusa and the others and drove straight in. He thought he could see those people soon on this road. The figure of a person.

But now is the point that really makes people feel that it has extraordinary meaning. After all, I soon discovered a special point. The problems caused by the original model must be there.

But what should I do at this time? That seems to have become an unknown aspect, but we have to mention their choice here.

"Don't you really think about what we think here? All are done according to previous standards."

But I didn't expect that the other party didn't even hesitate at all, and just refused here. If it had happened before, I would have been eager to chat with him here.

But I don't know what was going on in my heart. I gave up the position in front of me. In fact, sometimes I also thought, once all these events really happened to a point that I couldn't tolerate, could I still continue?

But soon the person in front of me gave I brought an idea. This kind of incident would not happen, let alone let them have such a close friend. In fact, if it were before, I would still like to see some changes in them.

But the darkness in front of me The clothes man acted very cautiously, as if he was afraid that he would cause any danger here. If this continues, it would most likely bring him some trouble.

So he had to think carefully, and Gu Shaoyang couldn't talk to him at all. Getting in touch was the top priority right now. He had to think about how to deal with the remaining incidents.

Despite this, Gu Shaoyang still stared at the Qixing Longyuan in his hand during the process, for fear that something would go wrong here.

"Since you have all agreed, I will throw the sword to you, and you will throw the things over at the same time."

The person in front of him nodded, but the moment Gu Shaoyang received the thing, he turned around and ran back without even a moment's hesitation.

Chapter 853

The person opposite thought he was in a hurry, so he simply got up slowly. In fact, there was no difference between this thing in his hand.

There is even some light shining on it. If it is the same as some of the situations that happened before, it actually gives everyone a somewhat immersive view.

"Boss, since we have obtained everything, let's withdraw."

The man in front of him nodded, and then stared at the map in his hand in a daze. In fact, he knew what he would do at this time.

But he would invariably doubt some directions. Maybe this is where he needs to go most. It provides some value, but I have to say a few words with emotion.

In fact, for me, more complicated events have to be done from all directions. As for what kind of aspects the remaining things will form, that can't be controlled. See it for yourself.

Then when I saw the actions of a few people, I couldn't help but be stunned. To say that the most realistic thing here is to look at the people in front of me.

After all, everyone has some control over the direction. Instead of constantly If he fell into such a swamp, he might as well hesitate a little longer and try to deal with it all as soon as possible.

But at the moment when he was near the exit, he suddenly realized that the scenes he saw were either the original model. What happened here as it is is followed by the current stage that I don't want to face.

In fact, if I followed the original template, I would never talk nonsense to them. It's a pity that the current situation is not good, and the incident encountered here It's not a reasonable one.

The people next to him have separated from him, but Salo firmly believes that they will be able to see their figures on the route away from here.

It is precisely because of his current view of these people, in fact, at the moment There is a big gap. No one will clearly understand the mission they are about to make here.

But Gu Shaoyang is not worried. What Salo is holding is the map he gave him. As smart as he is, People will definitely be able to escape all the obstacles here.

I left here precisely because my hopes were too high. Unexpectedly, some embarrassing things happened in the middle. To say that what I should be thinking about most at the moment is Several other aspects.

In fact, he was not given such a chance at all. As for the immediate aspects 10 points of thoroughness, it is all done according to other people's opinions.

As for in the end, it is like fetching water from a bamboo basket, and some other aspects will still be examined, then it probably depends on luck.

Suddenly a person appeared in front of me He blocked the wall and stood here to block his way, but Gu Shaoyang did not panic and reached out to touch the place in front of him.

He wanted to overthrow everything at once, but soon he realized something Trouble, if you can really understand what they mean during this process.

It doesn't seem so sudden, but during this period, you also need to use other missions to restrain yourself here, not only to get their Unification, there are even other reasons.

Just as he gently touched this wall with his hand, a bright light suddenly emitted from it, and it suddenly enveloped his figure. The next second, he turned out to be like this Being swallowed, if it had been before, I would have been trying to escape, wanting to avoid all of this, but for some reason something suddenly happened that I couldn't handle.

After being forced to leave here, I obviously felt that the atmosphere around me began to become clearer, as if someone had replaced some of the choices here.

In fact, according to the original template, no one will become the bad guy here. On the contrary, everyone is in a state of peaceful coexistence.

But being sucked into this environment, Gu Shaoyang discovered a completely different place from what he had seen before. This was their imaginary world.

If you guess correctly, it is very likely to cause some interference to yourself, but you have to admit that every aspect that everyone thinks of should be valuable.

Otherwise, who would work here for them? But the more he thought about it, the more he discovered some special situations. The incident he thought was like a sudden obstacle suddenly blocked him here. Way to go.

He looked up at the sky, but there was no light shown here, as if it was covered by someone. He didn't know what was happening here, so he could only follow them step by step.

But this line is very long, and it looks like an altar-like area. At the moment, I don't dare to attack rashly, for fear of what difference they will make here.

Chapter 854

However, the more I imagined here, I discovered some coincidental events. If I followed my previous opinions, it would most likely cause me some trouble.

Although he gave Seven Star Longyuan to them, it was always a substitute. If these people found his location, he would be very embarrassed.

So in order to avoid all this, I am currently working very hard, wishing I could learn some special points about them, but soon the gradual progress became the reason why I took the first step here.

As the team moved forward, he saw another area at the end, which was the same wall as before. If he could touch these.

I don't think it's weird, but I've actually seen these special directions through these aspects.

If he really did it step by step in the direction he had thought before, it wouldn't seem so abrupt, but it was because of this tendency that Gu Shaoyang felt a little uneasy here.

The Seven-Star Longyuan in my hand can definitely perform some functions, but how to deal with it at this moment always makes me feel uneasy.

After all, these things seem to be moving, always spinning around them.

Gu Shaoyang in front of him also realized that this wall should be his only way to escape, so he was currently working hard, hoping to get some direction on this matter.

But there is no hint here. There are many different words on the wall, which seem to have some color, but Gu Shaoyang quickly realized that these were the words of the snake man.

I have also stayed with them for a while, so I naturally clearly understand their position here. If it is really what I think, then why do everyone keep shirking here.

It's as if this can bring about some mission. Anyway, if it were done before, I would definitely not understand it.

But in order to avoid these consequences, Yan also worked hard. He got some changes here, but for some reason, the more things he did now, the more he fell into deep thought.

It was as if he didn't want to attack him here, but there were so many people surrounding him in front of him, as if he had to stop him here.

If he keeps going through this kind of thing, he will be in a lot of trouble. But under the exploration of several people, he didn't expect that they came here before him.

The weirdest thing is definitely the wall on the right. There is a lot of light on the wall, but it is not difficult to see that the stars on it are exuding some necessity.

For Xun Fang, who had disappeared before, he had actually been watching the actions of several people in the dark. If he wanted to master all this, he first had to have a general view of the overall situation.

But Gu Shaoyang never guarded against him, because he knew that he would not make any unnecessary actions here. He would never waste time doing such unimportant things before ensuring that he was the number one candidate here.

Unexpectedly, choosing a day is not as good as hitting the sun. At present, his guess is quite accurate. With certain problems that occurred here, Gu Shaoyang soon became aware of a special passage.

I was teleported here before, so I can leave here in the same way, but there will be other troubles on this path.

That's unknown, but in fact, I know very well in my heart that I have worked hard to understand these problems. The changes I thought I could get suddenly turned into the direction I hate most.

And after touching the wall, it emitted a blazing light, roasting itself here, and the people behind it seemed as if they didn't feel anything.

Still pushing forward here, seeing this look really made me feel a little numb, but then I realized a characteristic.

Even if he has great abilities now, he still has to start from the situation in front of him. After all, this is his starting point and his upcoming route. However, the Seven Star Longyuan in Gu Shaoyang's hands has brought about a big change.

He suddenly emitted a bright light, which became extremely obvious among the crowd, and even matched the light on the wall.

Anyway, for Gu Shaoyang, he immediately hid the long sword under his clothes, for fear that those people would see it. After all, he had just completed a deal with others.

If they hit him and find that there is another sword on his body, then there will be no way to lay the groundwork.

Chapter 855

But I didn't expect that everything turned out to be because of the emergence of this point. Anyway, Gu Shaoyang has now become the target of everyone's suspicion.

Including the light he exuded among the crowd, the next second this place turned into a place where he sank, and two platforms suddenly appeared on it.

Looking from top to bottom here, Gu Shaoyang has become one of the group of people below.

In order to hide his figure, he wished he could retract his head into the ground, but after thinking about it, he knew how it could be so simple.

Everyone is ready here, just to do something against them, but it is also a battle of missions for themselves.

But no matter what, the troubles I encountered must be very specific, but the more because of this reason, I also considered some other characteristics. If it is not smooth, it must be false.

After all, everyone was chasing him here, but then he saw the figure appearing on the shelf above. If it was different from what he thought before, wouldn't it be a bit contradictory?

But there are many people guarding it here. It is impossible to climb up that layer of Scumbag's Notes, no matter it is the huge searchlight-like thing.

There are still some scenes on both sides that hinder my progress, but to be honest, the more I mention here, some other situations will also arise.

And a platform suddenly appeared on top, which seemed a bit abrupt, so he quickly locked the position next to it and directly grabbed their arms here.

He took them away from here, but following the general direction of the crowd and heading to the same place, that was not realistic at all.

So in order to consider other consequences before this, Gu Shaoyang directly found the direction they should leave according to some of the tracks illuminated by the searchlight here.

The most questionable thing now is that it was a special position before. In fact, Gu Shaoyang was not too worried here.

After all, the Seven Stars Longyuan each has its own use here, and no one needs to question anyone, but there are many more places that come with it. At the moment, I only have a simple opinion.

"The people downstairs went to take a look at prisoner No. 313 in the queue."

As he opened his mouth to give instructions, many people came to him. He had to admit that they were really orderly. Although he said he could guarantee all this, he still had to hide among the crowd and ensure that someone here could protect him. Otherwise, he would soon stand out here.

Wouldn't it be bad then? So he kept circling here trying to avoid their attacks, but he never expected that everything was different from what he thought..

If it was really similar to what he had investigated, then he might not have to go through such a method, but the Seven Star Long Yuan in Gu Shaoyang's hand did give him a blow. He never expected that the people above him would also attach great importance to the ones below. The scene, and even some problems that occurred due to some changes here, happened to hit this incident.

If you really have a certain method in your heart, it is actually a reasonable aspect, just for the sake of Avoid all these consequences.

You have also tried your best, but in order to avoid such a choice, you basically lower your head and pass by here, hoping that these people can give you some explanations.

But even so, you are still trapped in a In the midst of confusion, it seemed that this was the different stance everyone had taken to examine this matter here.

But he soon thought of a question. If it was exactly the same as he had predicted, then why did Gu Shaoyang not dare to be here? Does he still have any worries about taking action directly?

But he never expected that this is what he needs most at the moment.

In fact, everyone's considerations here still need to be changed, but they have to To describe everyone, the methods here are all two-way.

It is as if someone is here forcing them to make a change, but Gu Shaoyang still walks past here calmly.

Only leaving them There was an elusive back figure and an empty room. In fact, Gu Shaoyang had already guessed the following problems here.

But the Seven Star Long Yuan in his hand suddenly dimmed again, and the costume No. 313 did not seem so conspicuous, so for a few seconds The individual left directly after not finding him.

Gu Shaoyang lowered his head and looked at the clothes on his body. He didn't understand what it was and attracted them. In order to avoid such an embarrassing situation for the second time, Gu Shaoyang had to do it before Recognize this and do the opposite.

Chapter 856

But I have to say that everyone's starting point here is somewhat different. As for how to escape, it depends on their ability.

In fact, Gu Shaoyang thought of some other directions during this process, and could have carried out some processes step by step.

However, due to some unprovoked events, it came to an end midway. I did not intend to do this.

But he soon created some other aspects for himself. Once he really made such a change, everyone would focus on him.

As expected, after he dimmed, not only the people searching him left, but even the people around him came back to his side.

He didn't treat himself as an alien here, but Gu Shaoyang missed Salo and the others very much. He didn't know how they were doing now.

If they encounter any danger, I can escape here and help them solve the problem, but for now.

It doesn't seem to have much to do with me. I don't know where it started, but now I'm quite worried in my heart.

After all, I need to think of many other aspects during this period, but I have to mention some special points to consider.

Once I can really realize some gaps here, it is completely reasonable, but on this current path.

Obviously everyone is chasing me. If I deal with it this way, I will also have a lot of worries in my heart.

After all, in the next process, I always have to carefully consider some troubles, but the person in front of me doesn't seem to be intending to cause any help to me here.

Medusa directly bypassed him here. Seeing this look now made him somewhat dumbfounded, but the more he faced these so-called incidents.

In fact, if you change it to some thoughts in your heart, it will be even more abrupt. After all, no one will know what kind of action they will take in the end.

Right now, it is because of their opinions here that I control the whereabouts of several people. In fact, no one can admit it frankly and no one can dodge it.

But it is precisely because of the layers of difficulties that I am now trapped in that I feel an unprecedented relief.

In fact, in some processes, I have already realized some problems, but through their considerations, including some of the descriptions they said.

I suddenly realized that I was not the only one resisting for no reason here, there were even other people, it was just the choices everyone made.

Including their positions, they were all different, but the other party's grand feeling here really made me feel a little uneasy.

If it had always been like this, it would be a good thing, but I'm afraid it would be a completely embarrassing situation between the two.

But I have to say that some of the opinions I actually thought about were all because of their prompts, but if I moved forward, I couldn't recognize their scenes at all.

Although I can understand these aspects, I actually think of some other aspects. For me, I should understand the bias of some obstacles.

But in order to avoid these choices, I am constantly changing. In fact, sometimes I feel a little embarrassed, but it has not brought any changes to myself.

Is this a necessity here?

However, when this wall approached him, he was sucked directly into it, but he didn't know who reached out to pull him in the panic.

He actually took himself back directly, and finally managed to escape. I don't know who actually did such an incident here.

Gu Shaoyang glanced around and found that several people had their heads lowered. They were obviously the same as those who had been manipulated before.

Who does this hand born in secret belong to?

It's now an impasse, and no one can provide any useful clues.

However, a sign from the person next to him made him frown. After all, for him, there were many directions here that were different.

However, everyone's position is definitely different, so you only need to think of the subsequent difficulties in this matter step by step, and you can actually solve a huge part of it.

The thought of leaving was like Feicheng's weeds. I couldn't bear it anymore, but I couldn't find a way to leave.

If you continue like this, you will get into some trouble at any time. You have already found your position before everyone attacks you.

This is the next wall. If no one grabs you, you can leave quickly by following this path.

Chapter 857

So before approaching the wall, I deliberately found a relatively hidden place where no one could catch me.

But Gu Shaoyang soon discovered a trouble. Although his problem was solved, there were still many people surrounding him.

There is really a sea of people here, and if there is any gap, they will rush over to occupy it.

Therefore, other people are exactly the same to me. If I can dodge all this, it will really surprise me.

In fact, if you reason forward, you can quickly identify their intentions, but it is precisely because of the different directions everyone learned here.

That's why I have such a headache now, but no matter what, some of the problems I identified during this process are still very likely to become special points in other corners now.

But it really made me feel a little uneasy. Salo already knew the route of his departure.

But some people appeared again and again to stop me. If this continued, it would really make me feel worried.

Salo and Christi outside had not seen Gu Shaoyang's appearance, and they were a little worried. Then they nodded here and did not waste any more time.

"Let's send Venus and the others out here first. If any trouble occurs, we can resolve the awkward atmosphere here."

Hearing these words, the person in front of him nodded and did not waste any more time. After all, during this process, he quickly understood the positions of these people. Although it was somewhat different from what he expected, There is always a priority

"How about this? I think things went smoothly before, so let's see if we can find some added value based on the original situation, and we can just bypass them."

"Then leave Gu Shaoyang alone like this?"

Saluo in front of him gritted his teeth, then nodded, and then pushed them to leave as soon as possible. Before that, he had heard the instructions given to him by Gu Shaoyang. Now he is the most meaningful decision-maker here, but But in order to avoid these choices, Fang Fang also tried his best.

If it were before, everyone would definitely be asking for explanations here, but I don't know when, everything turned back to the original starting point. In fact, I At first, I thought that if I stayed with Gu Shaoyang here, I might be able to wait for him up there, but I thought of him again. I tried so hard to lead myself out. If this is the case, I haven't thought of these processes. It's too inappropriate, so at this moment, my own people are dodging everything in front of them while reporting these results.

Several elders are also looking at them. Everyone knows that a non-snake person has entered here, the Eight Holy Gods. Everyone was dispatched. Unexpectedly, now that they are back, they are still a little bit disapproving of it.

"We want to apply to return to the building to study it. After all, our lives were exchanged for them here. The elders shouldn't disagree, right?"

With their previous sentence, even if what happened in this towering floor, those few people could not refuse.

In desperation, they had no choice but to agree with the remaining ordinary snake people here, because they The emotional contagion between them was also very supportive here.

The Eight Holy Gods made decisions here, but suddenly they heard a burst of artillery fire from outside, and Medusa frowned. She looked outside, and found that it happened to be the person who appeared in the dream. It seemed that it should be a prediction of a scene in the future. Gu Shaoyang really gave himself a big surprise. He immediately searched below, and all the ordinary people were sorted here. When it comes to the army, all the snake men have never been relaxed at all. Instead, they are training every day just to defend the huge desert.

"Remember, you must never fight them head-on. The other side has clues that can restrain us, but you must also grasp the speed here to avoid being attacked here."

After getting the experience they taught here, I can easily find some methods.

Then several elders watched them leave here, but a few people were left here to see the figure of Venus, and a few The elders also breathed a sigh of relief.

Only 4 of the Eight Holy Gods have returned. Where did the other 4 go? But in fact, no one dreamed of it.

Chapter 858

There were 4 people in the air. One of the elders was standing in various directions. He felt that some would appear. Due to the audition, these young people with successors had already been arranged in a place where they could save their lives.

"Remember, if Medusa and the others are not back, you must not go out. If you go inside, you will find the resources in a place like a paradise."

Since they can survive, the remaining events make me feel a bit calm. After arranging all the events, the elders directly faced the people in front of them.

But they also asked the other elders to send each other off here. He asked some people in the army to leave, after all, the green hills were left without fear of running out of firewood.

After so many years of intuition, he told himself that there would definitely be some troubles at the moment. In order to ensure that these incidents could be resolved as soon as possible, he also took great pains, but he didn't know what to do. Can they agree with these options?

The man in the air didn't speak. He slowly took off the mask on his face. Seeing the look on his face, he realized that his intuition was right. These were the four saints that were lost before. God.

I don't know why, this person is actually in their hands now, but seeing the four-leaf clover in their pupils, I think of some things that Medusa told me before leaving here. It is said that as long as he is here, When they saw the corresponding people here, they immediately dodged. These people were no longer their companions. Then the great elder made a gesture behind him, instructing them to leave here immediately and not to waste time. However, they never expected that all this would happen now. There was no chance for them to escape at all.

In addition to everything that had been arranged before, everyone was pinned on the spot. One of the four could control gravity.

It just happened to suppress all of them. Here, since they are respected as the Eight Holy Gods, they must be able to crush these ordinary people in terms of strength.

The elder can compete with them here alone, but if he has to protect these companions behind him, it is impossible to leave from here. Right now,

I am also seizing the time and hoping to solve all this, but it makes me feel a little uneasy. In order to admit some of their existence here. The great elder was directly suppressed. They usually celebrate happy moments here. The platform.

Logically speaking, this is also an altar belonging to the snake people. Unexpectedly, it has now become a place of public execution, because he is relatively strong here.

So it is natural that he should be the first to appear in this position. In order to avoid some of the problems that happened before, it really made a few people sigh.

But the few people behind this team, because of the long distance and the controlled eight holy gods, couldn't do it at all. Their true strength was exposed, and with some cover here, I had a chance to escape.

But soon something happened here, which blocked me from moving forward, but the ones in front of me The great elder also understood, so he dodged all this here.

He put some distance between him and solved it. In fact, no one can become the eternal pillar here. The reason why such a character exists is that he is forced to do so. ?

"You don't need to take such actions here. If you have any needs, you can find some methods nearby. It is recommended that you do not take action here."

I didn't expect that the Eight Holy Gods at this time are no longer under their control. No matter what he says, the people in front of him act like they have nothing to do with him.

If this continues, it will make him feel a little sad. They were helpless, but it was because of some of the incidents they had done that they kept themselves in confusion.

They couldn't guarantee that such things would happen smoothly, so they kept avoiding it. They hoped to get an improvement.

In fact, there were At that time, I could calculate all of this, but because of some special points that happened in the middle, I was unable to solve it all. In the end, it is not surprising that everything is in vain. After all, everyone Everyone has some identity that happened here.

So I don't feel that I need to speculate too much about all this at the moment. Anyway, in the end, it will be all in vain.

However, the person in front of me has always maintained a relationship with myself. From the distance that suddenly came and went, it was actually not difficult to guess what they wanted to do.

But it didn't have any connection to me now. Anyway, I couldn't let myself make some corrections for them here, right now.

But I wish I were here This place is thousands of miles away, and I deliberately kept a certain distance from him nearby.

But I didn't expect that the other party kept surrounding me, as if he wanted to say something to me, but now this For a moment, it really made me feel a little uneasy.

To say that the ways that make me miss the most must come from the current incident. After all, everyone knows what will happen here, but there is only one person. Keep testing here.

Chapter 859

Not only would there not be any problems, but others would even look at her differently, so now I was wasting a lot of time on this road.

I just wanted to settle all this, but I didn't expect that the other party would ignore me at all. This really gave me a bit of a headache. I wanted to resolve everything here, but it suddenly stopped.

But on the way back, several people also discovered something was wrong. If they continued to move forward along this road, why would no one be willing to lend a helping hand to them here?

But then I guessed that it was because of the difference in this incident. In fact, no one was willing to face these events here calmly before.

After all, this is always a premise, but soon my views here became a target for others to think about. It is very likely that this is some change that has brought about some changes in myself, but it has never caused any embarrassing special impression on myself..

Plus, aren't all the people coming and going now just for this thing? Even if I say it now, no matter how nice it sounds, it won't be of any use.

On the contrary, in this situation, I also learned some other aspects. After all, at this stage, many people are watching here.

Especially the so-called mastermind behind the scenes, Medusa did not tell herself what his identity was, but her intuition told the great elder.

This person should still be one of their snake people, but now I don't know how to advise. After all, all this is for me, and I still need to protect the people behind me first.

"How about this, I can leave you here, and I can accept any behavior you do, but they are still young, they are still small, I hope you can be more tolerant and let these children go here."

Actually, these are not particularly young people. The real ones have been hidden by me for a long time. If they want to find them, it will be harder than climbing to the sky.

But I did not mention any details to them. Anyway, It's useless to say more at this time. If you really want to find some opportunities, you might as well filter out some methods from several nearby aspects.

Sometimes I also question in my heart whether this is the right thing to do. It was wrong. After all, if I had done it before, there would always be some people giving me special reminders, so in order to avoid all this, I also took great pains.

Anyway, the four holy gods in front of me remained motionless and looked at the area next to them. He seemed to be waiting for the man to speak.

I didn't expect that the children I once taught would become like this. After all, I felt a little uncomfortable in my heart, but what could I do? What

I did It is always the most prominent thing here. Although I have considered these clues, I still have to face the current changes, so what can I do even if I have no choice? Could it be that after saying these words and doing these things, they will do this? Some of the same changes? This is actually just a guess on my part. Who doesn't know what kind of adjustments will be made next?

But there are so many people chasing and blocking here. Even if they figure it out and prepare to escape now, they probably won't be able to do so. Simple.

But soon I realized a problem. The actions I took here were all based on the reactions of these people.

However, they didn't seem to take this matter seriously, and instead passed them. His eyes thought of a key point. If it was like this before, wouldn't he be in crisis? But fortunately, no such incident happened. In fact, he had already expected this situation before. , after all, everyone at that time seemed to have seen it. Even if he wanted to avoid their incident, it was definitely not that simple.

This was always a threshold that was difficult for him to cross, so he had to confirm again and again to see Are these events exactly what I thought?

In fact, I had some expectations in my heart before, but I misunderstood here. I hope I can give some views on the events.

But then I realized that these events are often It happened to varying degrees. If I was really capable, I would probably have to look in other directions.

But now that the troops are approaching the city and have already arrived at the doorstep, it seems a bit strange that I am avoiding it at this time.. So at this moment, it was a little hard to accept in my heart, but I still gave some explanations that I should have. After all, in the end, everyone has to draw water from a bamboo basket to get nothing.

Or think of some specific directions, then But it depends on their ability. After all, what everyone did here is all from previous incidents.

If it is really exactly what you think, then why would someone say such rude words here.

Chapter 860

But then I realized that there was a reason for all this. If I really had such ability, then I should think about it unnecessarily.

Although the method they gave was indeed smooth and seemed to be some unusual special representatives, it made no difference to me.

It is impossible to simply forgive others just because of a word. Now he is not an ordinary obstacle to me, but a huge change. Especially at this moment, he cannot think too much at all.

No matter how much you say, others will doubt you, so at this moment, I am also wondering whether it is different from what I thought. This is a route that I actively choose to disconnect.

Therefore, it should have become the biggest disaster for me here. I thought I could dodge it, but I didn't know that the real salvation was still to come. Now I was not qualified to see him here, let alone have the opportunity to grasp all this.

But the man quickly told the truth, and it turned out that the previous few people arrived here because of Venus.

Once something happens, wouldn't it be more thought-provoking? Anyway, in this process, it is very likely to cause some interference to oneself.

Anyway, after going through the subsequent troubles, Gu Shaoyang is no longer the same person as before, but he can resolve everything for his sister here in minutes.

After all, I have never been able to form a concept. This has always been my opinion, but in order to avoid these things, I still caused great interference.

It seems that the cause of all this actually comes from myself, which is a bit incredible when I think about it, but in order to ensure that some problems that occurred during this period, I can't be considered to have taken great pains.

I wish I could give some other methods here, but in fact no one can divide these subsequent problems. After all, everyone's appearance is different.

But for Gu Shaoyang, now that there are only 4 of the Eight Holy Gods left, they are still relatively complete here.

So he simply sent Medusa to take action here, which happened to be able to teach these people a lesson and let them know who is the real big brother here.

It's just that under the current choice, I still feel a little uneasy in my heart. During this process, I saw a lot of events, but because I kept dragging here, I fell into a trap.

However, the expressions on the faces of these four people looking down from the sky were a bit paranoid. You could tell what he meant, but they did not hesitate on this matter.

It is very likely that these are some of the choices I am considering now. Although it will bring some problems to myself, it is useless to doubt so much now.

In the end, they still have to distinguish between their worlds. In fact, sometimes I also think about how this current choice is not as smooth as I thought.

But it was precisely because of the clues they considered here every time that they made themselves a little hesitant, but the black cloak didn't say anything before.

Instead, he kept targeting himself here, and over time, he actually learned some of his ways to dodge him here.

If someone takes advantage of you, then one time is enough. Too many times would be a bit stupid. Now I have summed up the experience gained for a long time.

But I have to admit that it is very likely to cause some interference to me in some directions. If it keeps like this, wouldn't it be terrible? Although I think differently, the meaning these people give me is still extraordinary.

"I don't know what your purpose is in escorting these eight holy gods here, but I advise you to learn smarter."

When the people in front of me heard what she said, they couldn't help but have some surprises on their faces. They didn't expect that they were already on the verge of death, but they were so stubborn.

"I really didn't expect you to say that. Don't the lives of the people behind you matter anymore? Do you think it's appropriate to sacrifice the whole army of snakemen for 8 people?"

The few people in front of them didn't say anything. These are not the only problems that occurred in the process at the moment. The 7-star Longyuan in Gu Shaoyang's hand also gradually emitted some light. In this small space, it gradually condensed. There was a big chance, as if someone deliberately did such an incident.

To be honest, I would never have believed it if I had done it before, but it also made me feel a little uneasy in my heart.

In this process, it is the route that I hope for most, so I naturally have to understand the remaining choices during this process, but the current choice may not be as smooth as I expected.
