Chapter 891

The problem lies in these aspects. Maybe this is the clue that I need most, but I am not in a hurry at this moment.

Although there were some questions that made me very flustered, and I didn't even understand what he was doing, I still gave myself a strong prediction that if this was the case, it would probably cause some interference.

The question is whether the options in front of me are what I think. After all, there are some hints given to me by the process here.

In fact, not all results can be balanced here, so you must obtain a precise state here.

At least everyone must think that all this is reasonable, otherwise we can't let everyone keep thinking here, and something will look wrong.

Although there are many things that are very different at present, I still quickly locked on to him. There are always some problems that I can't explain clearly with just a few words.

Therefore, I must carefully consider some results, at least during this process, let them know what I am here for.

Soon, Medusa held this energy ball, and everyone here was chasing Han. After all, everyone knew in their hearts what the starting point of these people was.

Once such a problem really arises, he will fall into a confused situation. In order to avoid the current options, he will try his best to learn something about him.

In fact, I have thought about it before. Once the problems I am facing now are all specific, what will I use to replace everything that follows? Is it just based on the judgments made by a few of them?

Thinking about it, it feels a little incredible. After all, I still know what to do. If there is no need to waste time, those few people must have dodged.

No one will have a good impression of this. After all, everyone has the same opinion, and various methods must be adopted.

Although the subsequent answers are not particularly friendly to me, there is nothing I can do about it. At this moment, I have identified these problems. As for how to do it, it depends on luck.

After all, everyone is in their own right here, and I hope to be able to make an accurate judgment through these things, but unfortunately it does not go so smoothly.

In the end, everyone was faced with such an embarrassing scene. The subsequent events may be very different from what they predicted, but at this moment, it seems that there is no need to talk nonsense.

They definitely don't want to hear judgments about themselves. First, they don't need it, and second, they don't feel anything about themselves. But in fact, they are here for such a process.

If this kind of preparation can really be made, then I would be willing to take great pains here and wish I could give some methods, but a question soon arises, what is the meaning of their being here?

Is it just to stay in this dark place?

When I think of this, I feel a little confused in my heart.

Then he turned around and looked at the corner. It seemed that this time the world was really something he didn't quite understand.

But the energy ball in Medusa's hand is undoubtedly a very reasonable choice. If it can always be like this, it won't matter. I'm afraid that there is no way to keep it here for three days of fishing and two days of drying the net. How about that? Not abysmal.

Anyway, during this period, I also recognized a lot of phenomena. Instead of being trapped in this process, why did I never intend to believe these people?

It's not all because of some of the actions they've taken before, but they have heightened their vigilance.

So at present, it seems that this method must be used to make a prediction, but Salo in front of him directly told Natasha some issues about Christi.

The two people immediately prepared some choices. They did not expect that such a thing would happen now. However, in order to ensure that the rest of the things happened smoothly, they thought of many situations, hoping to find some clues on them.

But a few people didn't seem to mind all this, and were even hesitant. If this was all that was going to be unnecessary in the future, they still thought there was some room for discussion.

But I soon discovered a characteristic. Although the current choice was important, I still hoped to see some other characteristics from them.

In fact, this is the process that I hope for most right now, otherwise who would make such a choice here? Sometimes I wonder if some of the situations that are happening now are due to those reasons.

Even if he understood these problems, they still did not cause any interference to him. However, real problems soon appeared and he fell into a confusing situation.

Chapter 892

It turned out that everyone knew what they were doing here, but only his heart seemed to be covered with a layer of cloth, but Salo quickly locked on the four holy gods.

I really didn't expect that these people would dare to show up here after being possessed by ghosts. It turns out that their family has no laws and the country has no rules. They should be told now what the consequences of betrayal will be.

Even though he knew they were being coerced here, what did that have to do with him? You can't just put such casual remarks on yourself.

Thinking about it, I felt a little reluctant, but I didn't expect that what the person in front of me said and what he did were completely different things. He didn't do anything unnecessary here.

Instead, he gave up the main space and venue to the person in front of him. If this was the case, he really had to re-examine the person in front of him to know whether he was here for this matter.

But soon I thought of a clue. If their actions were exactly the same as my template, then why did everyone have this attitude?

Thinking about it, I found it a bit unbelievable, so I shook my head and rejected the other party's request, hoping that other people could help with it.

I didn't expect that the current incident would happen to this extent, but unfortunately, I also painstakingly learned about these issues here.

Otherwise, who would be willing to do such a thankless thing? In addition, there was a dispute between them before.

However, in order to avoid such a choice, I hesitated here for a long time. After all, no matter from which point I looked, I was still stuck in a tangled process.

Once you know these views, it is actually easy to discern what they are here for this time.

But there is still one thing that I don't quite understand. The trap set by Emperor Liuyun is definitely not an ordinary area.

If this is the case, then why do they dare to rush over rashly? If they do so, it will most likely cause some problems.

But the person opposite did not speak. Instead, they remained silent here, as if doing so could bring some changes to them.

Anyway, I have made some judgments about the previous things. Instead of having these difficult problems happen when the time comes, it is better to take control of them once and just solve all these things. After all, I am here to help.

Although the question was sudden, I didn't imagine what he was doing at this time, and it might sometimes be a little different from what I imagined.

But it actually makes sense in the end, otherwise why would everyone do this kind of thing here? Even so, it makes me a little bit speculative.

If this is really what you think, then why didn't everyone's faces improve to a great extent before?

Is it just because I took these actions here? It's a bit unbelievable when you think about it, but the person next to you made an extremely accurate judgment, and it can be said that it hit the nail on the head.

Sometimes I wonder whether there are too many problems, or whether I am threatened here, and my attitude can cause such problems from time to time.

But to be honest, what should be done in the end seems to have nothing to do with me. I can't just talk nonsense because of the problems that are happening right now.

Even carving some hard points on their bodies, it's a bit incredible to think about it. If I were really so unreasonable, I would have been kicked out long ago.

So after thinking about it, I still focused more attention on him. No matter what I did, I would only encounter more troubles now.

If there is such an opportunity, I still hope to get rid of these so-called scenes. After all, no matter who you look at, you can see these so-called practices.

However, the Seven-Star Dragon Abyss in the hand highlights a characteristic, and everyone can indeed identify the direction each of them makes here.

But it makes people feel a bit surprised. I don't know where it comes from. Anyway, the current process reminds me of an extreme scene. Why do everyone do different things here?

If it had been a different situation before, I would not have asked such a stupid question, but it was precisely because of their views here that I fell into such a doubt.

If you really have the ability to divide all of this, then why wait for the opportunity here and then deal with other plans.

In the final analysis, it was because of some things that happened here that I got into trouble. In fact, no one would have dared to say a word here before.

After all, this is not their territory. Do they have to interfere here to prove how charming they are?

Chapter 893

But then I didn't talk nonsense to him here, and just settled the matter in a few words. Anyway, what happened now seems to be consistent, but the real opening and the end cannot be solved by myself in one sentence..

After all, I have seen many characteristics during this period. Who would want to do such useless work? Not because these questions all have an answer.

If it were the situation before, I would definitely have argued with him or even solved this matter, but the current situation did not allow him to do such a thing.

After all, they are still very clear about the next aspect. If they don't want to waste time here, then only through this direction can they make some accurate judgments. At the moment, they have taken great pains to give these so-called methods.

However, some of their actions are also visible to me. If it is what I think, then why do everyone do this?

It obviously seemed like he was setting himself down, but soon he felt that it was not so reasonable. Is this the so-called situation at the moment?

I didn't quite understand why there was such a direction, so I dodged some of his actions and tried to see what he would do next.

But he was soon forced into an embarrassing situation, and no one knew what the purpose of doing these things was.

But even when they don't know the outcome, there are always people who move forward bravely and try to solve everything here. Anyway, they also anticipated these problems in the process.

The energy ball in his hand is what he knows best here. If it falls into the hands of others, it will be the most embarrassing situation.

So I had to be prepared and try to solve all of this. At least I learned about these problems in the process. If it were before, I would definitely have talked to him and tried to calm everything down.

But I don't know where this problem started to occur. If it can be guaranteed to continue, it seems to be not bad, so at this stage, I am also working hard to solve all these problems.

In fact, sometimes I also wonder what the problem is before I can give these questions, anyway, in order to avoid these clues.

I have taken great pains, wishing that I could let them know the remaining options, just to avoid the current stage, why can't I feel more at ease.

Let everyone realize what to do at this time, but unfortunately, it is such a difference that leads to a leeway.

In the scene of the last train, Medusa gradually recognized these problems. Maybe the problem was with the long sword in her hand.

As long as I can hold on to this line, those few pieces will bring some changes to me. Now I am taking great pains to avoid these problems.

Although I quickly used these clues, I still hope that this can be slowly adjusted from the position on both sides, although the subsequent choices quickly caused some problems for myself.

But you can get the rest of the changes very quickly. In fact, sometimes I wonder if it's a little troublesome to make it myself, which is why the current situation has happened.

It's not like he can do it step by step in a day or two, so now he must think carefully and try to solve other things at once.

In order to avoid these clues, I could take great pains, but Gu Shaoyang soon recognized some directions at this moment.

If I could really know how to use Qixing Longyuan, wouldn't it be much smoother, but unfortunately it wasn't as smooth as I expected.

Sometimes I am looking at some nearby situations, trying to identify some directions from their faces. After all, sometimes I also think of it.

In these situations, I can always see a variety of directions. If I can give some other opinions, it seems to be pretty good, but I'm afraid that in the end, each path will look different. Wouldn't that be a loss?

But it was easier to think about than to do, and this direction quickly brought some embarrassing situations to myself.

If I can see some clues from them, then it doesn't matter. I'm afraid that these two paths are completely unfeasible, so wouldn't I be in trouble?

However, Medusa was not in a hurry and seemed not very nervous about these things. If this was the case, she would not know what to do.

The more confident he is of winning, the more worried he becomes, wishing he could now know who is best able to make a judgment.

Chapter 894

But it's a pity that this person bypassed his steps and walked directly in the other direction. If this was the case, it would really make it difficult to guess in his heart.

Sometimes I hope to be able to give these methods, but I am unable to give some other answers. After all, the scene I recognized is important, but during this activity, I also saw the direction of several other people.

If I hope to understand these so-called opinions from them, then I can simply solve it all directly without using these methods. Then I don't need to make any unnecessary guesses.

However, the people in front of them were not in a hurry, as if they knew what they would do. Anyway, there would always be various problems among the clues at hand.

Sometimes I am also judging whether they have the same starting point as myself. It is impossible for myself to identify these so-called scenes here.

But soon he realized a problem. He didn't seem to intend to stop these people here, as if he had a prediction of these events.

If it continued like this, I still couldn't accept it in my heart, but soon I thought of the person behind me, and simply connected the two people directly. Originally, this information could not be passed on.

But I remembered what the man had given me before, and suddenly I didn't worry so much at this moment, otherwise I would have hesitated again.

But sometimes I also wonder whether it is because of these so-called opinions that I am forced into a situation here.

"How about this? I think what you discussed here before is quite natural. Why don't you take this opportunity to work harder and see if you can solve this incident directly?"

As his voice slowly reached the ears of these people, the woman in front of him suddenly turned pale. She didn't know what she thought of in her mind. The person in front of him came closer to him and looked at her carefully. Staring at her face, it was as if she wanted to see something from his face.

But the current incident was obviously not going so smoothly. Even if she could know the results now, the problems would always arise in various ways.

Then I was listening to some of the suggestions he gave, but I could tell from the notes that he was talking to other people, but the meaning behind the words was hinting at myself.

Let me take some actions. Unfortunately, at this juncture, Medusa He understood, and then he grabbed the ball in his hand and hid in the gap on the side.

It turned out that the person following him also appeared. Seeing the way his clothes were poking his head, the person in front of him couldn't help but smile, as if he was guessing, to what he was doing.

But to be honest, if it were the people in front of me, they would definitely not have been able to consider these results. In fact, it was because everyone had done different things.

"What about the little girl? Why have you lost track of me?"

"Who knows, let's find out quickly, lest those people get angry with us again."

A few people nodded hurriedly, and then disappeared directly here. If it were the other way around, I would definitely have discussed it with him.

After all, at this stage, everyone still has a very profound opinion. We are all waiting for such an opportunity, so why would we encounter such trouble?

But I have to admit that he belongs to the current range, even though I tried hard to prove my ideas to him here.

I did not do this here intentionally. He acted to challenge his bottom line, but the other party didn't say a word, and his face was a bit ugly. It seemed that he had misunderstood what he meant.

But his view couldn't help but make him stunned for a moment. Sometimes he was thinking, in the end What kind of wind brought him here to do something like this to himself?

Even if he could see through some of his thoughts, he couldn't make some judgments here. Sometimes he was always troubled by these things. Falling into a tangled situation.

But no one has ever realized the problems that are happening right now. No matter how many problems arise now, someone has to show up, otherwise we can't let everyone describe the past here. Let's move forward bit by bit along the route.

Even though he has already said this, they don't seem to have much understanding, and they still keep following him in circles here.

On the one hand, it's because he On the other hand, some of my current opinions are because he has caused some interference to me, so I don't want to have anything to do with him here.

Anyway, it has nothing to do with me now. If he can really be honest and tell the truth, After saying this, why would anyone stop him here? In the final analysis, it is because he is not strong enough here. Otherwise, how could he be beaten to this extent by others?

Chapter 895

"You go this way, I'll go the other way."

The two people split up here, but in fact they did not predict these problems. Anyway, they could see the scenes on both sides clearly on this route. As for what problems they will encounter after successfully solving them, it has nothing to do with them. It doesn't matter.

Anyway, everyone is doing their own thing, and it's not just a day or two. It is precisely because the three of them now occupy a line, and even Salo is not beside him, so now he dare not act rashly for fear of Trouble was caused here.

He was hiding well behind the rock, and he suddenly squeezed in. After a person saw the look on his face, he couldn't help but hide the surprise in his eyes.

I didn't expect this person It was actually him, but he soon made himself think of some aspects. Rather than solving these problems now, which is a stumbling stage, why can't he consider the remaining two things?

After all, he has to give an explanation, not to mention It was still at this stage, but Gu Shaoyang's voice suddenly came from the end of the corridor. It continued to spread in the tunnel and suddenly reflected in their ears. The two people looked at each other and immediately spoke to He ran over there.

Anyway, everyone is waiting here now. As for what they will do in the end, it is still a bit confusing.

Although I am reluctant, there is nothing I can do now. I can't do it myself. Yes, these things are all done step by step, but you will soon understand the real situation of what they did here.

After all, everyone's approach is one aspect, and several people are still another. No matter how you say it now, It also gives a two-way view.

As long as I have the ability to face these problems, it is very likely to bring some changes to myself, which does not seem to be so logical.

And in this direction, I have also locked some positions. , after all, I have such ability, I will definitely be able to solve all this.

If it can be handled properly, it is really a good direction. I am afraid that it will be all in vain now, wouldn't it be terrible, plus what happened before Some problems are also spreading in front of my own eyes.

Everyone here, you look at me, I think you seem to have some unfamiliar feelings with each other, but the people in front of you don't say a word.

Instead, they look at each other. When it comes to the person in front of me, if I want to say that the most sad thing in my heart before, it has to be the incident in front of me.

After all, sometimes I also wonder if there is something wrong that caused him to be like this. An error.

However, I soon realized that such a question was too stupid. This kind of thing would never happen. I would soon understand the reason for saying this.

After all, in the long tunnel, not only Just standing in this corner, there are even many other people who do it step by step. It is very likely to bring some warmth to myself. Although everyone is doing their own thing now, even so A stable state, maybe the previous situation was not mature enough, and I have been waiting for an opportunity here.

But the moment in front of me quickly brought some changes to myself. After all, the locked position in front of me is also very clear, and I must consider it. When it comes to the next ending, no matter which step you calculate correctly, it is an inevitable choice.

But the problem is where this move falls, it will become a fishbone choking in my heart. After all, who doesn't know these problems, plus some of the remaining situations, it is simply adding to my heart.

But soon I realized that all this was not as simple as expected, plus there were some continuing problems.

I have made myself aware of some difficulties, which are very likely to cause some problems in the process, but I have to admit that it will soon bring a problem to myself. In the following period, everyone will become a smooth success here. route.

In fact, if I had done it before, I would still be a little uneasy. After all, the route we finally got is still very tenable.

But unfortunately, the problem was completely different from what I imagined. If this problem really existed, then I might not have to hesitate.

But I'm just afraid that the attempt will be in vain. After all, I can also find some situations here. Everyone must be here for the same thing.

So I must seize the time and try to find some clues on them. After all, I can't let him be responsible for these problems in the end.

But the people next to me didn't have much opinion. It was as if they knew the so-called rhetoric, so they became more vigilant here. Anyway, everyone has different routes. Since such a situation has happened now, who can There was no room for hesitation.

Chapter 896

But there are many problems that arise in an instant, and now I have so many abilities to see through them all, so why not start with them?

It is special in itself, not to mention those unexpected events. In fact, if it were before, I would not mind bringing some changes to them.

Sometimes I wonder why these worlds are so irrational, unless someone can open up the world and prove that everything is normal.

Otherwise, I will be involved in this illusion at any time. In fact, sometimes I also wonder why all the events everyone makes are based on these problems. If it were before, would I be able to get a better direction? ?

But then I realized a problem. There was no such so-called statement at all, even here.

You see me, I see you, they are all hesitating in this process. After all, we still have no way to deliver this matter.

Especially when the person in front of him keeps looking at him, as if he is looking at a person without any purpose. If this is the case, it will be a bit difficult for him.

Although the current choice is not so smooth, I am actually in a dilemma. After all, the preparations must be made properly.

But sometimes I don't quite understand why everyone has stopped here. If I could help myself all the time, wouldn't I get a better direction?

But who knew that Salo was silent at this time and didn't say a word, as if he had no idea about all this.

Even before changing, you should take a closer look. Salo and Medusa met here. Neither of them saw the notebook.

So Medusa simply told all the things that he had just done to lure people away.

The people next to him couldn't help but beat their chests and felt a little angry here. Who didn't know his temper? If something went wrong at this time.

So what should we do? Look at how many of you there are. I think no one dares to speak first, for fear of causing other problems here.

In addition, it seems to be a relatively complicated process at the moment. If you can really think of some judgments of the other party.

In fact, it doesn't seem that abrupt. I'm afraid that the remaining problems are completely different from what I expected, and that would create trouble for myself.

But the person next to him smiled, as if calling him immediately. Coming here was a reasonable direction, let alone the current problems.

In fact, I can understand these problems, but it does not mean that I hope they will make an adjustment. After all, I sometimes think about it.

Once something like this really happens, whoever can take the initiative to find out here will have to rely on him in the end.

Although I am not very satisfied with this, there is nothing I can do about it. Now I am in a hurry and seeking treatment, not knowing what will happen in the end.

And the control everyone is making now is just because of these few things. If you can guarantee these practices now, then you don't have to hesitate at all.

"To be honest, you have seen the situation of a few of us here before. Are you sure you want to take the risk and rush over now? You won't be afraid of causing any trouble here."

The person in front of him shook his head, as if he was a little reluctant. After all, doing so might make him fail. In addition, he had not expected the rest of the things.

If he really followed what he said, this will most likely bring some problems to everyone. It's not about whether you are willing or not.

It depends on what they have thought about at this time. It is impossible for all events to depend on your own face.

In the final analysis It is still because of these inadvertent troubles, but I have to admit that at this stage, it is very likely to cause some interference to myself.

Everyone here looks at me and I think you are a little unconvinced, but There is really no way, after all, I am also considering some issues.

See if you need your help, but I have to admit that in many aspects, sometimes the control you make is what is needed now.

Plus the remaining methods, It seemed that he suddenly understood that if they made objections to the incident here, after all, this place would soon be cleansed by those people.

As for what will happen in the end, it has nothing to do with these people. After all, he had not done anything before. I thought about what they did, but finally realized a problem.

If what he told everyone before when he left was true, then it doesn't seem so sudden now. After all, everyone is doing their own thing, and some adjustments are needed. opportunity, but then I realized that there was a reason for all this.

Chapter 897

If I really had this ability, why would I need to bother here? Wouldn't it be more appropriate to simply turn this matter around?

But she didn't expect that the person next to her was always in silence, as if sitting here like this and interfering with her thoughts. Soon she realized a problem. At this stage, she mainly relied on some of his ideas.

If you really have the ability, why can't you just take down the man in black? After all, something is wrong with you here.

But soon I thought of a question. Since so many things have been successfully voiced and solved, why can't I seize the time and take a look in several nearby directions?

At any rate, it can be considered a help here. After all, isn't that what everyone is here for now? If there really is something like this that can provide such perfection, shouldn't we be happy here?

However, no one knows what will happen next, let alone what these people will do. After all, the current direction makes me feel a little helpless.

Maybe I didn't think carefully before, but I have to admit that some of the things the other party did made me feel a little uneasy when I saw them. It was very likely that this was the trouble I encountered before.

After Gu Shaoyang lured people away here, he quickly returned to the corner. Anyway, something happened next.

Then there is no need for me to think too much. In fact, sometimes I also wonder why such trouble occurs. In the final analysis, it is because some conditions are not normal.

"You should have seen what happened before. He is now desperately trying to save us. Don't you think that you have ruined his ideas by rushing out now?"

The person next to him frowned, not knowing how to respond to his words. After all, he must be aware of the problems that occurred before.

But as for why this situation happened in the end, it depends on luck. After all, not everyone can hit this line just right.

If I saw some other people when I was retreating here, wouldn't it be a disaster here, so I kept looking at them and hoping that these People can make an accurate judgment.

Anyway, I was also thinking that in this process, some people would become the costumes I needed most, but I soon realized that if everyone has so many problems, wouldn't it be in accordance with the rules?

If I could solve this problem directly and safely now, wouldn't it be logical? So I carefully looked at the people around me. Trying to see the most distinctive position from them, but Apart from a strange tattoo, there was nothing on these people.

After careful observation, it was found that there was really no clue, so Medusa came back and roughly drew the shape of the tattoo to Salo.

Unexpectedly The other party's face suddenly turned as dark as the bottom of a pot, and it even showed a bit unsightly. You must know that ever since he became one of the Eight Holy Gods,

Gu Shaoyang has successfully become everyone's patron saint, and There is no relevant aura on Salo's body anymore, so he is a little uneasy at this moment.

If this continues, it is very likely to create some problems for himself, and it happens that he will be the problem with this sword. The originator of

"Remember, this is not a previous note that we should interfere with. What Ben said is indeed correct. The only thing we can do now is to wait here for him to come back."

Medusa was stunned for a moment. The man who just wanted to rush out with her to fight for the bloody battle turned into this situation at this time.

It was as if the man in front of her suddenly gave up temporarily. There was no one in front of her. Explain it clearly to him, let alone tell him the reason for all this.

Anyway, I almost understand the current incident. After all, I am also aware of a problem with the current choice. If the teacher said that all this is sudden, then why is there nothing at all right now? Can give myself an opinion

"Why are you saying that now? Didn't you just rush out with me?"

"This is not necessary. I think it is better for us to do our own thing now."

Hearing these words, the person in front of him frowned. For Medusa, he didn't know what changed this person in an instant.

But it was definitely related to the tattoo just now. Since seeing that thing, The man in front of him looked as if he had lost his mind.

If he continued like this, he would definitely create some problems for himself. Although he could predict the remaining time, some other adjustments soon appeared.

Chapter 898

It is impossible for oneself to predict events like a god, let alone budget for all of them. In fact, at certain stages, no one can resolve them.

After all, everyone knows in their hearts that if they attack rashly now, it will definitely require a situation, but they don't know when it will start.

They actually did such a thing step by step. If it had been done differently before, I would definitely have come forward to argue with him, but suddenly at this moment, I realized that I must not cause a large-scale panic.

Natasha from before was still waiting for him at home, so she felt a little relieved. After all, it was not that she couldn't see what happened before.

Once some problems arise, it will be an endless blow to myself, but soon I will judge that if it is exactly as expected, then why do everyone keep avoiding me here?

In fact, sometimes I also wonder whether these questions are too abrupt and have caused such interference to me, but the look on the face of the person next to me is as cold as ever, as if he doesn't care about all this. Too many views.

Although I knew their standards for doing things and some of their opinions here, when it all happened, I still didn't quite understand it. After all, all the characters had already appeared here.

However, while Gu Shaoyang was dodging them, he accidentally came to a space and carefully looked at the surrounding scene.

I never expected that this was the position I had seen before. To be honest, if it were the other person before, I would definitely have argued with him, but now this thing directly attracted my attention. Isn't this Liu Yun? The inheritance before the Great Emperor?

«The "Palayan Sutra" is a snatching point within everyone's reach. If you keep following his direction, it is very likely to cause some interference to yourself.

So now I am taking great pains, hoping to get some predictions from him. The other party seems not to pay attention to me, but keeps an extremely far distance next to him, as if getting close will cause some trouble.

But it was precisely because she felt that she was in danger. Gu Shaoyang in front of her re-examined the distance between the two people and started moving forward after ensuring that nothing would happen.

Sometimes I wonder if I was too harsh sometimes, which led to the current problem, but Gu Shaoyang soon thought of it.

As Emperor Liuyun personally told him before, before that fake person showed up, the two of them were indeed in a cooperative relationship.

Not only that, his English would give these inheritances to himself, but he didn't expect this to happen now, but the deal between the two people was still considered.

The moment he saw this thing, he went straight forward and was not allowed to hold this thing directly in his hand, but in fact it was not that simple.

After all, when he looked at him, he was also locked in by the person next to him. If everything before was just a show he was watching here.

Then why did everyone just look at the fun with their hands folded, and they should say a few words for themselves anyway, but then everyone's indifference really made them realize that they were in trouble.

After all, no one wants to cause trouble here, and sometimes I wonder if there are some situations that are happening right now, even though I am aware of the so-called clues here.

But it does not mean that all this can be completed successfully. After all, what everyone is reminded here is important, but the troubles that will follow are exactly the same. In fact, everyone may not understand the meaning of doing this before doing it.

But if you think about it in the same direction, you will still fall into a confusing scene. Everyone is really looking forward to it here.

I hope they can return smoothly, but compared to these achievements, the people in front of me actually hope that they can give some other methods, and some adjustments must be made anyway.

However, Gu Shaoyang quickly realized some problems here. The methods everyone was thinking of now were simply because of these problems, and he quickly came up with a plan.

Does everyone end up drawing water from a bamboo basket but in vain?

In fact, there is no need to think so. There must be a reason for what Gu Shaoyang did here, what he said to the two people before contacting him.

Everything is connected together into a scene in my mind, but even so, I still need to consider it carefully, after all, other aspects are definitely not as good as these words.

In fact, sometimes I also wonder, what exactly did I do wrong?

This situation actually happened, but Qixing Longyuan burst out with great brilliance. It must have been at this moment that he felt what others were doing. If it had been the same before, he would have wished to do something here to calm everyone down. psychology.

Chapter 899

Gu Shaoyang walked around this strange place. After all, everyone came to this place together. He said, "Let's find a place to go out together. After all, there are still people waiting for us outside. We must leave here as soon as possible, otherwise we will definitely there will be danger"

"Is this really okay? But I think this strange place is very safe. We can avoid their pursuit here and prevent them from finding us, so we can survive."The companions said.

Although they didn't know why they came to this legendary place, they couldn't find them when they came to this legendary place.

After all, they also came to this place without a party affairs center. If there was no special If there is a chance, they should not be able to get in. They continued to turn around, and they couldn't figure out why they kept entangled with them. After all, entanglement also takes time. If they don't need time, they definitely need to entangle, but if It takes time, so why bother?

Gu Shaoyang turned around. He hoped to find a place to go out as soon as possible. After all, there were people waiting for him outside. He didn't know what happened to the people outside now. He should be able to escape. After all, they They were chasing him very quickly. If he didn't leave, he would die. If he died, everything they had done would be in vain.

Christis didn't know what was going on, and he didn't know where Guo Zhaoyang and the others had gone all of a sudden. Maybe they have guessed where they live, but don't know how to find them, but it is a good thing that they can leave. In this way, no one will know where they exist, and the existence of the energy ball will not be known to them, But they must be caught as soon as possible, otherwise if the news of the energy ball spreads, the Eight Holy Gods will rush over. Although Gu Shaoyang is powerful, he is still a bit dangerous. He is afraid that they will not be able to come back in time, otherwise they will definitely Something will happen.

If they go out, they will definitely blame themselves and be sad, and they will have to look for a new Holy God. This cannot be done, and he must find a way to rescue them.

As for Gu Shaoyang, it is very difficult. They came to a strange place, and the strange environment made them very uncomfortable. After all, the people here were unfamiliar and it was difficult for people to find their way.

They had been really okay, nothing dangerous happened, and neither did their people. What's missing? After all, in a strange environment, danger is the most likely thing. If they can't leave in time, their lives may be in danger.

Thinking like this, they hurriedly stepped forward.

"Do we really have to leave? Can you really leave here? It seems quite unacceptable here. If we go out, will we directly encounter those people and arrest us directly?"

A person in the crowd asked this. He was very afraid of death. Besides, who doesn't want to leave here alive? Who doesn't want to live to take care of relatives, friends and family. Who doesn't want to enjoy all the beautiful things in this world.

Although he got here wish, but he also wants to live. He doesn't want to leave his things in this strange place. He doesn't want to leave his traces in this place. He doesn't want to let him die in this place.

"No, you have to believe us, they have no ability to kill us, we can definitely leave here, I will definitely take you away, you have to believe me, believe me!"Gu Shaoyang directly said that he firmly told everyone that they could leave safely?

After all, here, he is their god.

No one will be surprised, no one can be in danger, and he will definitely be able to take everyone away.

After hearing his words, everyone calmed down. After all, Gu Shaoyang is really capable, and they can definitely take them away.

In fact, there are still people waiting for them outside, but they are not afraid at all.

They can definitely avoid the people outside!

"Let's get out of this hellish place quickly, I don't want to stay here any longer!"

"Wouldn't you like to take a look at this place? I think it's pretty good. You can still see these scenery."

"is that so? That's not what I think. I want to leave quickly. I think this place is too dangerous. If we don't leave, something will happen to us!"

There was a lot of chatter among the crowd. Some people wanted to leave, and some wanted to stay. I don't know whether it was because of pressure or because they were looking for something.

The risk of staying is too great. There may be protection here, but really It might be dangerous, and there are people chasing them outside. If they stay, they will probably be discovered by people outside, and they will all be killed in the future.

Gu Shaoyang is also looking for a way out at this time, and he doesn't know what will happen in the future. , but he thought he could definitely avoid this place.

"Stop talking, I will take you away. If you don't want to leave, stay."Gu Shaoyang said directly.

Chapter 900

The war was about to break out, and there was no time for them to hesitate. Perhaps this was not only a waste of energy, but also the only reason for various situations to arise.

Fortunately, the final result was finally completed smoothly. Although everything did not look so smooth, it was still brought to an end by these people at the moment when the final result was about to occur.

Their appearance is like a just-in-time replacement, perfectly connecting and ending everything.

With the collapse of this illusion, everyone found the only way to go. These happened to be the two events that stepped on this dividing line. No one would have thought that before the important event came, there would be something here. What kind of commonality has arisen, but at this moment, all the results are suddenly put into reality, letting everyone know the process of coming and going here.

Of course, the mastermind behind the scenes could not escape death. Everyone swarmed him here and threw him directly to the ground. No one asked him to take any other actions. They just hoped to give this matter a final result..

Although the little desk lamp was very reluctant, it still took the so-called scepter in the eyes of all of them.

Gu Shaoyang looked at the final outcome of all this with satisfaction. After all, for her, nothing could be better than this moment.

But the most true words still have to come from their hearts just now. In fact, Gu Shaoyang has also received reminders from many people. They hope that Gu Shaoyang can accept all this. After all, it is not clear whether the other party is an enemy or a friend.

Sometimes Gu Shaoyang will think that if these people really do what he wants, they will actually give an alternative soon.

But I was afraid that Medusa would detain them now and not let a few people leave. In fact, I was completely sure that I could let a few people go, but those people kept chanting the word "witch" in their mouths, as if they were To capture Medusa.

They completely forgot that the person who saved people from the fire and water just now was Medusa, but seeing their ungrateful actions, Medusa did not take any action.

But his eyes were always locked on Gu Shaoyang, and the people next to him could also see that he probably hoped to get Gu Shaoyang to come forward and provide a solution.

After all, the way these people were beating him didn't look like a lie, but more like they were trying to get an explanation here. Although Medusa didn't have any expression on her face, she actually still hoped that Gu Shaoyang could Stand alone and stand up for him.

But sometimes the idea and the real result are completely two routes, and no one can successfully bypass this route, but soon the Seven Star Long Yuan in Gu Shaoyang's hand was faster than everyone else.

At this moment, he rushed out, locked the few people in front of him, and directly lifted them into the air. This layered state put everyone in crisis.

They were trapped in a tornado surrounding the city with a sword. Of course, these people who were shouting and killing were also the so-called martial arts people. They claimed to be the fairest messengers of justice here, but they chose to attack their own savior.

After all, they were driven by profit, but Gu Shaoyang in front of them didn't intend to give them a chance to hesitate, and rushed forward in two or two.

The people in front of him were locked here. Although Gu Shaoyang understood the reasons why they did these things, it was because they were righteous people.

He didn't say too much, he just looked at them symbolically and muttered, but then some embarrassing situations happened to a few people.

A sword was dropped directly into the air. The moment it turned over, everyone around was really surprised. Fang Ruyu, who arrived late, also saw the farce in the air.

Unable to help frowning, he was ready to ask them to change directions here, but he didn't expect Gu Shaoyang's eyes to be very firm. The Seven-Star Longyuan was its sword and would not listen to Fang Ruyu at all. This also made her feel guilty. A bit of a headache.

You know, all the people here are so-called righteous people. Once they cause some trouble here, they will at least be the first to bear the brunt.

Fang Ruyu should be responsible for this farce and even put it all back in order, but the current trend is not that simple.

"It turns out that this is your upbringing, and it turns out that the ten holy gods are nothing more than this."

One of the people who was hung on the tree directly spoke sarcastically. Although Fang Ruyu frowned, there was no other reaction because of his words. No matter how bad it was, it was not what he should be thinking about at this moment. Yes, besides, there were so many people around who didn't speak, so what would happen if I rushed out now?
