Chapter 901

However, there was a person next to him who couldn't hold himself back any longer and opened his mouth directly at him, preparing to launch a crusade. This person was the Medusa who just disappeared.

"I think you just don't know what's good and what's bad. I saved you before and you said you wanted to attack me. Now a person has appeared who can take you away from here.

You also complain that she appeared too late and made you suffer. It just so happens that I won't save him and won't take you away, so you might as well just die here."

Hearing these words, the people next to him were stunned for a moment. No one thought that this so-called Medusa would actually say such a thing. After all, in the impression of all righteous people, he is an unforgivable person who does all kinds of evil. People.

So this moment has also subverted many people's impressions of him, including Fang Ruyu of course. He has thought about who will speak for him.

But he only did not expect that Gu Shaoyang next to Medusa saw this scene, the corners of his mouth raised in a very obscure smile. In fact, he knew that Medusa would do this from the beginning.

After all, he already had a special reaction to him in his impression from a long time ago. If he really didn't have this ability, How could he be the leader of the snake people?

But soon all this farce ended, and Salo successfully hid among the crowd. In fact, no one expected that the remaining eight holy gods would only come back. 4. The remaining 4 were still not found when they were counted. Medusa was a little anxious, but Gu Shaoyang walked out from under the curtain behind him.

Seeing that this man was still there On her own territory, Medusa couldn't help but be very surprised, and even turned to look at the person next to her. Salo shrugged his shoulders at this time. He looked like he didn't know what was going on, and then Medusa turned around The few people around looked at me and me, and no one dared to say anything.

But at this moment, Christi grabbed Medusa's arm, and then handed a note to her. After it was in their hands, Medusa's expression improved slightly at this time.

It turned out that this man stayed here because he had a mission, and relied on the excitement it brought to him and changed himself.

In fact, he did not intend to put her Keep him by your side, or even plan to throw him directly to an unknown place. As soon as you see him, you will be unable to do the things you are doing.

In fact, you know why they are like this, but Medusa does not I intend to admit that after all, everyone has a different mission, including myself.

Sometimes it can reflect some of the phenomena here, but it does not mean that everything can be solved successfully. In addition, there is something inexplicable at this moment. situation and gave some details.

Sometimes I also wonder whether it is due to some things that caused the Seven-Star Longyuan in his hand to have some affinity for Medusa.

After all, no matter how you say it, since After fighting side by side for the last time, Qixing Longyuan no longer has any hostility towards Medusa.

Now on the surface, Medusa is more like the master of Qixing Longyuan, while he is an insignificant man. Of course Sometimes you can't think based on such choices. After all, everyone makes different choices.

In addition to some of the previous processes, I have gradually identified some directions from their actions. Not everyone Everything done here can be improved.

Of course, including myself in front of me, it is very likely that I will fall into an embarrassing situation, so in order to avoid all this, I am working hard now, thinking that I can use this opportunity to solve everything.

But I have forgotten some of the problems that occurred. Yes, no matter how good my ideas are, they will not be recognized by others.

Once this happens, it is very likely that you will fall into an embarrassing situation. I don't know why, but I suddenly thought of what Medusa said before.

Although it seems very weird at the moment, and even a bit ironic and unsettling. But the instructions that Emperor Liu Yun once gave him were real.

At this moment when two things existed at the same time, Gu Shaoyang didn't know who to believe, but Medusa still became one of the criteria for his choice. After all, he was the one who saved himself from fire and water the last time.

But soon the people nearby also came over. Unexpectedly, his men were indeed loyal to him. Just when he announced that he would retreat here and return home, Salo suddenly rushed out and caught him. On the side, a few words were whispered to him.

Unexpectedly, the people next to him suddenly became excited, as if they were trying to stop them from discussing some topics here. Seeing this, Laptop felt a little strange.

So they pretended to trust the people around them, and then drove Salo away. After confirming their eyes, the two decided to meet again in the small mountain village next to them in the evening.

Chapter 902

Unexpectedly, the words spoken this time felt strange and extraordinary. It turned out that someone had already planned the rest of the things from the beginning.

No matter how you do it, there are already some endless troubles. Once you really have to consider these, it is very likely to cause some unnecessary interference.

But he had to consider these thoughts. Although Gu Shaoyang was a real person, it was more important for him now to ensure the smooth resolution of this matter from the few people around him.

In fact, sometimes Salo also wonders in his heart what the beautiful mountain thinks. If he wants to rebel at all, he has the intention of entering the palace for this man.

These people must have been one after another. After all, the real subordinates of the Eight Holy Gods are not everyone of the Snake People, but their leader Medusa.

But this woman seemed to be fascinated by someone, watching the peaceful scene over and over again, as if she was eager to get some results from her body.

But there will also be some other changes for myself. In these reactions, I must first promote some directions.

Sometimes Salo also wonders if he is too trusting of Medusa, which leads to trouble.

However, these people had always thought that Salo had to give a notice to Medusa here, but no one expected that Salo had no intention of telling them so much nonsense from the beginning.

Anyway, in the end, it's all in vain. It's better to cut through the knot quickly and teach them how to survive here and who is the real boss.

But a big trouble soon arose. No matter how much he thought about it, it was nothing compared to some of the methods these people had taken. In order to avoid all this, Gu Shaoyang was also taking great pains.

The Seven-Star Longyuan in their hands gradually made some roaring sounds, and after some discussion, these people decided that Gu Shaoyang was the leader of ten thousand people.

You must discuss with them before making a decision, but who knows that Gu Shaoyang doesn't take them seriously at all. There is no need to investigate what to do to cure them and what the consequences will be after doing so.

But I have to admit that it is very likely to cause some problems for myself in certain directions, and Medusa happens to be one of them.

However, Losman who was next to him quickly caught up and handed a letter in his hand directly to Medusa, which was written jointly by the elders of the snake people.

Although I don't know what is in it, I can almost guess it by looking at the stiff look on Medusa's face when reading the letter. I have to say that these old stubborns do have the ability to make people angry, but they soon let themselves go Thought of other directions.

After all, what I and they need is a more complete system, so no matter what we do, I am afraid we have to search for a direction here.

Although sometimes he doesn't seem that smart, it doesn't mean that he will give people like them an opportunity. Sometimes he has to pay the price for doing something wrong, so he is not panicking at the moment. busy

"How about this, I see there are a lot of people on your side here talking sweet words, why don't we each take a step back, you keep them here, and I can help the rest of the people leave.

After all, people who gossip behind people's backs won't accomplish much if they go out. Do you think you should discuss it with them? After all, we don't want all the people, only the few who stand out."

After hearing these words, Gu Shaoyang already knew what he meant. After all, when disaster strikes and everyone flies away, those people will definitely not stop them. They even wish they could send these people out to seek their safety..

But Gu Shaoyang also smiled at this moment. After returning, he pretended to have a very serious look on his face, and he was still a little sad and confused. This time, the people next to him looked at him blankly. Do you know why you did this?

"What exactly is going on? Are these people threatening you again?"

"But stop talking, they insisted on making me make a choice. Everyone could have left."

Hearing these words, the people next to them were all stunned for a moment. They didn't know what it was talking about. But the next second, their expressions all turned cold.

It turned out that they were asked to go out for an exchange. The moment these people were about to speak, the people next to them suddenly raised their hands. You must know that this is an gesture of approval.

"I'll just feel sorry for you. Anyway, if you go, you can contribute to our safety. Isn't that right? Besides, didn't Gu Shaoyang also contribute to you before?"

A few people were speechless after hearing these words. Yes, isn't that what happened when they asked Gu Shaoyang to do something? People who succeeded in setting the rhythm could not help but lower their heads and purse their lips at this time.

Chapter 903

He laughed secretly, and seemed to be a bit smug, but he soon realized a trouble. At this stage, he didn't need to do anything.

Of course, sometimes Salo also wondered whether doing this would disrupt the balance between them, but when he saw the confident smile on Gu Shaoyang's face, he realized at that moment that something seemed not quite right.

I originally thought that these things needed people to balance them, but now it seems that it is just right. After all, everyone is waiting for such an opportunity, including myself, who is looking forward to it, of course.

No matter what, they have been defeated by themselves now. In the end, whether they will win in vain or be sure of victory depends on luck.

But soon everything reached an extreme balance. It turned out that these people had known these so-called claims from the beginning, and had created a big hole for themselves.

At the moment, he could only agree to this matter with a livid face, but she didn't want this at all.

Even at this moment, he looked at Gu Shaoyang next to him with angry eyes, as if he was angry at all times, but the other person was smiling and unhurried.

But this smile was only directed at them, leaving them unable to express their suffering, and unable to tell others that this dignified and aloof Gu Shaoyang was actually targeting them.

Soon they could only break their teeth and swallow it. Although it didn't seem so reasonable, it did bring about a big change at this moment, which even made these people a little reluctant.

Although the next journey is strange and even makes people feel a little uneasy, as a prominent candidate here, he must shoulder this responsibility.

So no matter what these people said, he could only break his teeth and swallow it in his stomach. Several people who saw him like this suddenly felt a little emotional.

After all, to be honest, no matter how bad things went before, it is not their turn to make fun of them now.

But an embarrassing incident happened soon. The Seven-Star Longyuan in Gu Shaoyang's hand was directly held in this direction, and he didn't even see a chance to break free.

The people next to him were caught at once, and other people began to rush forward to capture him. Although their magic power was superb, they could not withstand the rush of so many people, and they were defeated after a short time.

The man fell to the ground and looked at Gu Shaoyang hatefully, marking every detail of his words with his eyes, but Gu Shaoyang just lowered his head and smiled politely at him.

This gave the people next to him a great impression, and they thought he was a good person. When others provoked him like this, he didn't even say a word, and even smiled at them.

"Sure enough, people from big families have different styles. I didn't expect these people to be so petty."

"Yes, if we had known that something like this would happen, we would have followed Gu Shaoyang and left early in the morning, so there would be no need to follow them here."

After hearing these words, the person who fell to the ground was so angry that he vomited out a mouthful of blood. Seeing these people, you looked at me and I looked at you. They quickly left the position next to them and fled directly to the side. Gu Shaoyang also smiled when he saw this scene.

If this is the case, then he doesn't have to worry. He will deal with this stage in the process.

Although he learned part of the incident from their opinions before, It doesn't mean that everything can be successful. After all, he can see the current situation clearly.

Gu Shaoyang squatted down in front of him very considerately and carefully looked at the resigned look on his face. He just needed this reaction from him. After all , Next is the beginning of his real nightmare. Now is just the beginning. He can't hold on anymore. Wouldn't it be terrible after that?

"Don't worry, if you have the ability, I will definitely fight for you."

Gu Shaoyang smiled and looked at the people beside him who seemed to think that this was a more reasonable situation, even though he understood how there would be adjustments in these aspects.

In fact, sometimes Gu Shaoyang could also see the light shining on the Seven Stars Longyuan, It is undoubtedly reminding him that Emperor Liu Yun is beside him.

But what can he do? He can only write down some directions here and then make some adjustments. After all, for Gu Shaoyang now, there is no chance to reverse all this..

In fact, sometimes I also wonder whether Medusa and the snake people have already considered the next route and then made some special adjustments.

After all, I don't see where they went now. , I don't know what the next plan is.

But soon something happened that made Gu Shaoyang a little helpless. It turned out that there were completely two routes from the beginning to the present. As for what the method will be in the end.

Chapter 904

It depends on everyone's luck. Anyway, now Po Guan Po Po Po has given some aspects.

Just to avoid such a choice, Gu Shaoyang was very cautious. Unexpectedly, after taking the person away, he actually got a string of Buddhist beads from Salo's hand.

"This thing should have been yours, but I didn't expect this person to secretly take it away."

Hearing these words, the people next to him frowned for a moment, not knowing what he meant, but what he said was definitely not false. This string of beads should be an item that is destined to him.

Although he does not know what kind of source it came from, I quickly identified some nearby areas. I really didn't expect that the current situation would be so extreme. I gently rubbed the string of beads in my hand, thinking that the radiance on it would suddenly appear. It broke out. Unexpectedly, it was hidden in Gu Shaoyang.

Looking at this thing, he also fell into deep thought. It seemed that this incident was not as simple as imagined. Salo next to him nodded at him.

Then he turned around. He took these people away directly, and Fang Ruyu and Chan Xin caught up at this time. Seeing Chan Xin's kind expression, Gu Shaoyang suddenly fell into an embarrassing situation.

He originally wanted to chase Emperor Liu Yun, to see if he had left anything good, but he didn't expect these people to follow him and say that they wanted to repay some kind of kindness. He didn't need it. More, he wanted them to stay away from him.

After all, he is not grateful for their actions. Sometimes I think of some of Gu Shaoyang's actions. Why couldn't I complete all this from the beginning?

It's not all because of these changes in events. Despite this, Gu Shaoyang still stayed, at this moment. I still hope to get a piece of pure land and be able to keep everything I really am.

But Gu Shaoyang didn't see the look on Fang Ruyu next to him. He kept staring at Fu Ruosha, just like the other person's face. There was something the same, but in fact, there was a look of foresight in his eyes.

It seemed that he was going to take action again. Although he didn't know what attracted him to Fu Ruosha, but after noticing such a look, I still told Fu Ruosha decisively.

As a result, the other party looked disapproving, as if he thought that the number one on the list would not harm her at all. In this case, Gu Shaoyang would not care about it. He just nodded and declined the matter.

"We are going to a more dangerous road. You should go with them and escort your companions out of here."

Hearing the second half of his sentence, he hesitated a bit in his movements. After all, his companions are also very important. They follow him from birth to death. It is not good to leave them here now, so he has no choice but to do so. Next, I had no choice but to leave with them. Although what I thought of was very complicated.

But it was still a good thing. After all, everyone's choices are different, and I also hope to experience some of the thoughts in these processes. , so as to carry out a proper operation of this

"You guys can just leave with me and don't have to think about those insignificant things, but to be honest, Fang Ruyu will soon lock some positions on us, so you should throw away everything he gave you as soon as possible."

Several people naturally believed in Gu Shaoyang, and immediately agreed, fearing how the locator would interfere with them. After Gu Shaoyang successfully replaced all of this, they found Fang Ruyu fiddling with something with her head down. He quietly came up behind him. Unexpectedly, the other party's eyes became panicked when he saw him, and he hid the things behind him. At this time, Gu Shaoyang had guessed that this was the so-called positioning. Device, but soon I will let him know who is the most terrifying person here, and he actually provoked me.

And he installed a locator on his body as a means of playing tricks, so I don't mind teaching him what is the most terrifying person here. It is the most terrifying.

After all, he is also famous, and he has gained some dignity. Although his thoughts are not so specific, it is still a good adjustment for Gu Shaoyang. The Seven-Star Longyuan in his hand quickly replaced some. Direction.

Sometimes you can rely on him when you can't find the direction. The compass has been given to Medusa and can't be taken back. However, Medusa's face is very happy. In fact,

Gu Shaoyang knows the reason. , this girl admires me very much, but it is a pity that because of the racial antagonism between the two people, I am afraid that I will not be able to take some action for a while. But it doesn't matter, it is my own who will come back eventually. If not, no matter how hard I force it, I will have to do it. Unexpectedly, his current thoughts are quite smooth, which makes everyone feel a little surprised.

Chapter 905

After all, they feel that all this is false, how could anyone give up their opportunity, but it's just a commonplace thing.

There will be no reaction at all, so now we are in a rather embarrassing situation. Although the people following Gu Shaoyang trust him, there are always one or two who are unwilling to give in.

"Since everyone has different opinions, it might as well be divided into two groups. If anyone is willing to leave with them, they can follow this route.

I won't stop you, but if you are in trouble, you can light the flare in your hand. I will rush to the scene as soon as possible to provide support. It may not go smoothly, but I hope you can have confidence in me."

"Don't worry, our boss is definitely the strongest. If you can't wait, it can only be said that your strength is too weak."

Fu Ruosha behind him spoke directly. Although he still had some contempt for this man before, it is completely different now.

He is a life-saving grace, and Gu Shaoyang's usual strength is also superior, and he can even be in the room. Stand straight in front of Ruyu.

This is a rare good thing, so look at me. I see that no one of you dares to take the initiative to speak, for fear of annoying the other party here, but this string of beads in your hand , but soon ushered in its peak period.

It turned out that he was the set of keys that opened the door, but there were three sets of keys on this door, each with a different shape. Who knew where to collect them?

In desperation, Gu Shaoyang So he had no choice but to turn to Fu Ruosha for help. The other party took a look and found that one of the keys was actually a magic weapon on his body.

So he immediately took it out and gave it to Gu Shaoyang. As for the remaining one, where is it? Emperor Liu Yun said before that whenever you have a problem, you can look up at the sky.

Unexpectedly, when you look up, you will actually see a treasure. It is a map with various routes carved on it. , although it is not clear which route this leads to.

But it is clear that some directions here can be seen. Could it be said that this is this route? Soon, Gu Shaoyang could not restrain his thoughts, and the floating boat next to him Ruo Sha re-discussed it with him.

"How about we divide our troops into two paths and there happens to be a maze pattern on top of it. We happen to see if we can encounter it on the road, and maybe we can go back around again."

After hearing this, I could only agree. After all, I couldn't find a better way in the future, and I was afraid that there would be some trouble, so I just took this opportunity to solve it together. But it's a pity. The situation was not so optimistic.

Soon a few people discovered a passage that led to an unknown place.

But soon they discovered a key point along the end of this route. It turned out that the scenes from both sides It is not difficult to see that there will be a way to successfully appear here.

But soon I discovered an unusual choice. The Seven Stars Longyuan was in my hands, but its light gradually began to dim, as if it was covered by someone. If this is the case, it is really dangerous, so I locked several nearby areas and tried to find some methods here.

But I soon discovered one thing. In order to avoid these problems, I I have also worked hard, and I wish I could help provide some other controls here, but it is a good thing. In order to avoid the other choices at present, I have also worked hard.

But I never expected that the key to this door would be right here. Behind the stone wall, the two people walked around several times with their arms around each other.

Then they climbed up to the side of the door with difficulty, and finally got the magic weapon. It was a small and exquisite bell. I don't know what it was used for.

Then put it down. The moment they reached the door, the door disappeared. The children came to a dark place, and they didn't know what the end of this dark place would be. The two people looked at each other, and Fu Ruosha also decided to go in. So Gu Shaoyang nodded in agreement, and then asked the villains around him to send information to Medusa and Salo.

At least let them know where they were, so as not to cause trouble again, but correspondingly, I know how their plan is progressing. It took a lot of effort to get those old stubborn people to step down.

I also hope that they can solve it successfully. Although I don't know much about these aspects, it is still a relatively well-formed plan, but it is still floating. Ruo Sha kept looking back when he was walking on the road, as if there was some treasure there that he was attracted to. Although Gu Shaoyang was very strange, he did not ask. Some things were better left unsaid, so as not to cause trouble here. In fact, Gu Shaoyang had let go of other people's accusations and troubles before.

Chapter 906

But at that time, he was just an unknown person, and no one would come to deliberately make things difficult for him. But it is different now, these people are always staring at him.

I'm afraid that I'm going to have surgery on myself here. I'm afraid that the questions I ask will hit my Achilles' heel and I won't be able to solve them.

"What happened to those people sent there?"

"I left it to them and didn't say anything."

Hearing these words, Gu Shaoyang just nodded silently, but the people next to him were a little puzzled. Fu Ruosha thought he asked because he wanted to see how these people were doing.

Unexpectedly, they just ignored him. They don't look like they're asking. In fact, there really isn't that much to say. In addition, some of the reactions made by these people are completely unappreciative.

So it's no wonder there is such a trend. In fact, all People in the city didn't welcome them very much, but despite this, they still obeyed the man's command.

But it was precisely because of what they did that they had to pay some price, but fortunately, Natasha sent it to them A few bottles of herbal medicine.

Afraid that he would get into trouble on the way, Gu Shaoyang took it from the man's hand with a smile, and then watched him leave, then turned around and entered the black hole with Fu Ruosa.

I have to say that this is A dark place without a trace of light. Even their convincing voices were swallowed up. It was like a realm of chaos preserved from ancient times.

When he thought of this name, Gu Shaoyang's face turned pale, but the floating figure beside him Ruo Sha couldn't see or hear, and even the voices of the two people talking were swallowed up.

In desperation, Gu Shaoyang had no choice but to keep holding his arm, asking him not to leave him. When there was a glimmer of light, Gu Shaoyang turned around He looked around and found that what he was holding was actually a skeleton. It was not Fu Ruosha at all. So where did he go? Then he searched around for several times but couldn't see him. He had to use this ray of light to start. Pushing his own mana, the surroundings gradually lit up, but until he saw the hole he came in just now, he did not find his person. At that time, he found a book on the ground in the small circle where the light was just now. It stands to reason that Generally speaking, the books that appear in such a place should be some inheritance books.

But it is strange, why are they here? It seems that the situation and location are not right, so I wanted to discuss it with them, but then I remembered this The flares were useless here.

I had no choice but to continue walking forward with this book in my arms. No one expected that Fu Ruosha would be trapped in this book. In fact, he was considered fearless. Along the way, Gu Shaoyang saw many paintings carved on the stone walls. Of course, there were many people painted in the paintings, some of which he had seen before. Could it be that there is the ability to predict the future on this wall?

This room is like Although Jade is now at the top of the top ten holy gods, the pattern painted on the wall is that of a heinous demon king. Of course, his subordinates are Zen Xin who follows closely behind. I really didn't expect that the current monk was before It turned out to be such a character, but as I looked back, I realized that something was wrong.

It turned out that they were really reincarnated, and even their missions were the same. Everything was following the script on the wall. Happening slowly means that as long as this war between gods and demons continues, the war between gods and demons will eventually break out. Who can stop this here now? Looking at the direction on the stone wall, it should be a girl, but now this person is not Didn't appear.

He had never seen anything similar in appearance, which made Gu Shaoyang feel a little weird. Suddenly a black shadow appeared next to him.

Gu Shaoyang didn't even have time to see his figure clearly before the opponent rushed over. The speed of this sneak attack did not look like that of a novice.

However, the Buddhist beads on his body suddenly emitted a bright light, blocking the person back at this moment. At this moment, Gu Shaoyang in front of him had time to see clearly that the person in front of him turned out to be a petite girl.

How this little girl could appear here was simply unbelievable, so Gu Shaoyang kept looking up and down at the person in front of him, trying to learn something from him.

But the other party still looked wary, and his clothes were in tatters. It looked like he had lived here for a long time.

So Gu Shaoyang began to show his kindness, hoping to make friends with him, but the little girl kept walking backwards, as if she didn't really believe Gu Shaoyang in front of her, but the other party was not angry either.

Keeping the same distance, getting closer to him little by little, the little girl didn't know how long she was in a stalemate with him.

With a hint of giving up, Gu Shaoyang faced the difficulty and went straight to capture him here. Unexpectedly, he happened to hit a door next to him.

Chapter 907

This situation did make him a little confused, but Gu Shaoyang soon formed the impression that although sometimes he could see their methods clearly, it did not mean that there would be some improvement.

In fact, I had thought about why they couldn't reverse all this before. The real reason may lie with Emperor Liu Yun.

This man has been a mystery from the beginning, and no one has been able to solve it, or even take some action against him.

Although this does not disturb me, the orange gemstone in my hand does feel slightly hot in the palm of my hand, as if the truth of the matter is not that simple.

What Christi said before suddenly made Gu Shaoyang realize. Yes, being suspicious here is actually of no use.

Everything really depends on whether those people will attack him here, but the Realm of Chaos has been opened.

This proves that something has been released from here. If it continues like this, it is likely to cause some trouble, so now Gu Shaoyang does not dare to take it lightly.

I'm afraid something will go wrong, and sometimes I can figure out the reason why they are here.

Sometimes, as the name suggests, it may make people feel a little incomprehensible, but it does not mean that everything is like this, so Gu Shaoyang is actually covered.

The Seven-Star Longyuan in his hand was disturbed by something unknown. At this moment, it soared directly into the air, where it emitted a huge light.

Seeing this look, Gu Shaoyang next to him was also shocked. He thought he could learn the real secret of this realm of chaos at this moment.

But I didn't expect that a burst of darkness suddenly sprayed out from nowhere, swallowing up the light above the seven-star thick smoke. How could it go on like this?

So a few people looked at each other and thought about how to escape from here, but the only people with them here were these virtual characters on the wall.

So at the moment, Gu Shaoyang was a little bit sad, but he still took the initiative out of desperation. After all, no matter how much he did, it was of no use. If he really had faith, it would be better to cut the knot with a quick knife here.

There are actually not many uses, but don't we need such a person now?

And he happened to be such a character. Gu Shaoyang had thought before that if the subsequent events were over, wouldn't he regret it here?

But it is still a good thing. Fang Ruyu and Zen Xin have not found their hiding place for the time being, which means that they are still stable and safe now. However, the monk does not look simple. He also has a bunch of these in his hand. Buddhist beads.

But every time he smiled, he gave himself a very bad feeling, like a scheming fox, not an ordinary monk.

So at this moment, Gu Shaoyang also worked hard to get everything back into operation, but unfortunately, the situation was not that simple.

And Gu Shaoyang also knows that the Seven Stars Long Yuan in his hand is not that easy. If he really has the ability to divide all of these, it must be a good thing. I am afraid that in the end, the bamboo basket will be empty, wouldn't it? Terrible.

Originally, it was because of some things everyone did here that there was a trend, so Natasha knew it very well in her heart.

Sometimes this is the choice he makes, but it is still a good thing. This guardian has appeared.

Moreover, I have also heard some legends in Chaos. All the creatures in the Book of Mountains and Seas are here. If I am lucky enough to encounter them, it is actually not bad.

It's just right to take a look at where these things exist, including the location where they usually live. After all, I have never seen them before, so I have to give some reaction to deal with them, but the things in the Classic of Mountains and Seas are not that common.

He was just thinking about it now, and soon Gu Shaoyang discovered some situations nearby. Although he could recognize their actions, the appearance of these black shadows was still beyond his budget.

As if something was rushing over here, Gu Shaoyang was a little worried at this moment, sharing that he would go around him here.

He wanted to see if he could leave from here, but the person next to him stretched out his hand to intercept him, not knowing what he was going to do.

So I tilted my head and looked in his direction, trying to understand something from his face, but the other party remained indifferent, as if there was no reaction.

If this was the case, it really made me feel a bit indifferent, but then I noticed a tail dangling out from behind him, and then I realized that his indifference was just because he seemed to be unable to speak.

Chapter 908

This should be Bai Ze in The Classic of Mountains and Seas. For some reason, the little spot on his forehead turned from pure white to black as if it was infected.

If this is the case, has the Realm of Chaos also been greatly disturbed? I got nothing by showing up here, but I had to settle all these troubles for them. Thinking about it, she knew it was a trap set by Emperor Liu Yun, which made her a little annoyed.

This man didn't do anything good, but instead caused trouble here. If he caught him, he would definitely do some surgery on it.

But Gu Shaoyang soon thought of something. If it was really the same as all this, then why couldn't everyone here adjust to the same stage?

Is this an inevitable phenomenon, or is it a position that needs to be aspired to? The two are compatible, so for me it is a process of planting trees for the former and letting others enjoy the shade.

What kind of operation method is used in this realm of chaos? Bai Ze in front of him transmitted it to him in his mind, which even surprised Gu Shaoyang.

Unexpectedly, such a thing as the law of the jungle actually existed, and it was still managed by Medusa.

Unexpectedly, they did not judge the situation here at all, and even directly ignored the management of the Chaos Realm. In fact, to be honest, if it were Gu Shaoyang, he would not pay more attention to it.

This place was originally a dangerous area, who would not think of taking action against it, but soon Diao Keli formed a judgment.

Originally, he had planned to discuss with Zen Xin to find Gu Shaoyang together, but they just happened to capture him in one fell swoop, which could be considered an end to the matter this time.

Unexpectedly, this kid ran so fast and disappeared before he could recruit others. But if Gu Shaoyang knew about it, he would have to run faster. However, the management area of Medusa and Salo is only this. Isn't one manipulating?

In fact, there must be a lot of direction instructions. They didn't see them clearly at the moment. Gu Shaoyang thought hard and then made some judgments. To be honest, these situations must be more complicated than he expected.

Therefore, we must consider these follow-up issues. Even if the problems that arise during this process are extreme, we must face them calmly.

After all, sometimes the real trouble is not just the line in front of him. Of course, it is also very clear to Gu Shaoyang. The Seven Star Longyuan in his hand suddenly becomes very clear.

Although he didn't know the use of the compass in his hand, Salo still held the compass in his hand and carefully observed Medusa walking in from the outside.

He accidentally touched the compass on the table, and Gu Shaoyang's figure suddenly appeared on it, which made Salo's eyes somewhat meaningful.

Medusa's face suddenly turned red, and then she glared at him. How could Salo dare to speak? So I quickly called Christy and Natasha over to renegotiate how to operate?

"I'm afraid it won't be that simple this time. The chance of us being able to save him is also very small. How about this. We each have our own opinions and choose a path here. This is a fork. After dividing into groups, we can go straight forward."

"But don't the snake people care about it? We just came back not long ago"

"So what can be done? He is from Da'an, you can't watch him die, can you?"

"But now we don't know the terrain inside at all, or even the conditions inside. Isn't this an act of committing suicide?"

Hearing these words, the people next to him frowned. What he said did make sense, but Medusa didn't want to hear it.

"If that's the case, then you just stay here. We can be considered successful if we just go."

Hearing these words, the other party's face became embarrassed, and a bright look appeared on his face. Then he dodged aside and saw this look.

Medusa directly decided on this matter, by the way. The person left behind is here to guard these snake people. There is indeed nothing wrong with what he said. If there is no one at home, they may be attacked by surprise. This is a situation in the desert, and every mistake may cause serious consequences. It will bring interference to themselves.

Especially it will bring some implication to them. After all, they chose themselves as the leader, and they must hope that these people can give them some help.

However, they soon discovered a line, which Salo did not seem to be so clear. , but Gu Shaoyang was unable to bring some changes to himself.

After opening the door in front of him, he was faced with a choice. This is the operating base of the Five Elements Law. There are metal, wood, water, fire and earth, and you need to choose by yourself.

Chapter 909

But I don't know where the starting point here is. After all, I will soon find a route, as to where this road leads.

Then it has nothing to do with him, and Gu Shaoyang also knows very well that he has taken great pains to avoid these choices, hoping that they can give some judgment.

But soon Medusa's first order as the leader made many snake people feel strange, why do they have to save an ordinary human being?

You must know that these snake people are sworn in with humans. Is it possible that the leader is fascinated by others? Such rumors spread further and further, and even directly portrayed Gu Shaoyang's image as a pretty boy.

After the turmoil there, all the images of these people were gone. Hearing them describe Gu Shaoyang like this made Medusa laugh and feel her stomach hurt.

If that man came out and heard these words, his face would be as black as the bottom of a pot. After all, he had never experienced such a thing before.

She had never received such a judgment, but Medusa calmly gave an order to Salo and Christi, just to walk through the areas on both sides.

But in fact, things are not that simple, but some of the rights exercised by Venus will soon become the most supreme executive power here.

The leader conveyed half of his power to Venus. After all, this was one of the Eight Holy Gods and the only one who could be trusted. The other party immediately expressed his emotion that he would definitely live up to expectations.

This can be regarded as settling the matter, but Medusa is still a little worried, fearing that he will not be able to control the situation here, so she specially gave these people instructions before leaving.

Don't make things too difficult for him, but several people were wiping sweat from their foreheads. Who didn't know what Venus had done before? Who would do anything for such a dangerous person?

If you insist on making things difficult for him, is it possible that you just can't think about it and have to send him away early?

However, these troubles soon led to a rather embarrassing situation. It turned out that from the beginning, several people's routes were already known very well.

Halfway through, he was stopped by a group of inexplicable people. The thought of such a situation made the people in front of him a little embarrassed.

After much thought, I still rejected the matter. I hope these people can respect themselves and give themselves a corresponding space.

But the other party didn't seem satisfied and kept trying to get around the matter. I don't quite understand what he is doing, but the current situation is also very clear, and it will soon become the reason why I am being coerced here.

Soon all this will end. After all, there will be an answer soon. You can't blame anyone for appearing here. After all, their existence has a certain value.

But so what, in the end, I still have to face these insignificant events. But after encountering it for a while, I clearly found that some of the terrain here can be said to be beyond the scope of my prediction.

I am not sure if I continue to move forward, I may encounter a stop, but no matter what, there are some problems with these two routes.

So a comprehensive approach must be given anyway. But it also taught me a huge lesson.

If the previous things had changed just because of their appearance, then it can be said that it has encountered a century-old catastrophe, but it is still reasonable.

After all, there are so many people waiting for the right time, and of course Gu Shaoyang is one of them. No one could have imagined that he, who once shocked Feng Yun, would fall in love with a snake man.

In fact, this is not the case, but for some reasons. They were all forced to embark on such a path, but soon Christie fell into a difficult and embarrassing situation.

It turned out that some of the things that Salo and Medusa had asked him to do were hindered midway, and the elders would not cooperate with him to do these things.

Not only that, but it will also block them when they are about to reach the end.

So sometimes Gu Shaoyang is very afraid, fearing that this group of people will be killed, but they just don't understand anything.

Can all this be solved only by Medusa herself? Venus next to him has been thinking about whether to deal with him directly before all the elders can react, which will at least end all this trouble.

But this is also a problem. All I can think of is these few things. Fortunately, I have roughly grasped some clues compared to before, and I can just solve everything.

Medusa looked at the red light in front of her with a smile, and ended it all in her own hands before it spread out to cover the earth.

Chapter 910

Medusa looked at the light emanating from her hands and thought to herself, hoping that they would be relieved.

It's been so long now, and I don't know what to do to rescue Gu Shaoyang. They have done so much, but I don't know if it is of any use?

However, no matter what happens now, saving people should be the first priority

"Have you found any trace of Gu Shaoyang?" Medusa asked her men, trying to get the news about Gu Shaoyang from them.

How could Medusa think so much? She had just sent people out, how could they succeed so quickly? How could there be news now?

Here, Venus is still considering whether to get rid of Gu Shaoyang. After all, Gu Shaoyang has affected their lives. If something happens, they will be in trouble.

Now because Gu Shaoyang accidentally entered the realm of chaos, Medusa He was so anxious, he was afraid that Medusa would lose her mind in the future, which would affect the snake people.

No matter what, it is best to be in the past.

Venus thought like this, planning to find Gu Shaoyang first, and then make plans.

And Gu Shaoyang Here, he didn't know what was going on, and he went to another place.

Furuosha hadn't been found yet, and now he was in such a strange place again. What should he do now? He didn't know if Furuosha was in danger. , we still have to find him quickly, otherwise, what will happen if Fu Ruosha can't survive that time?

Gu Shaoyang thought like this, but now he doesn't even know where he is, after all, it seems that he is trapped in another place now.

This is indeed the realm of chaos.

At this moment, he didn't know that Du Meisha outside had been trying to save him by shooting people, and there were pursuers behind him. Although there were people from Du Meisha who wanted to save him, there were also people who wanted to harm him. Gu Shaoyang.

And Gu Shaoyang didn't know all this. He just wanted to find his Furuo Sha. Gu Shaoyang walked around and found nothing unusual.

"Could it be that you want to trap me here, but this won't work, I want to get out of here!"Gu Shaoyang thought like this.

With this choice, Gu Shaoyang suddenly remembered something. Will the third key be hidden here again?

What was Emperor Liu Yun's hint? Is it related to them?

Gu Shaoyang At this time, I thought of Emperor Liu Yun. Maybe the third key can be found here, but the most critical moment now is to find Fu Ruosha.

Just when Gu Shaoyang was thinking about it, a mark suddenly opened in front of him and appeared out of thin air. There is a small road. Gu Shaoyang is preparing, wondering if he should go there?

Anyway, there is nothing now, just go there.

Maybe he can find Furuo and kill him.

Gu Shaoyang thought like this.

At this time, the sky was unpredictable and dark clouds were gathering. , as if it wanted to rain heavily.

Gu Shaoyang looked at the sky and felt something was wrong. After all, it had not rained heavily here for a long time. Now the sky was dark and blurry, which was a bit scary. He didn't know what was going on. Could it be that Is it raining?

Or is someone here to survive the tribulation?

In fact, it's no wonder that Gu Shaoyang thinks like this. After all, it seems that he and Fu Ruosha are the only ones in this place. But Fu Ruosha is gone now, and he keeps thinking anxiously in his heart Looking for someone.

Gu Shaoyang didn't know where he was, so he kept walking hoping to find clues, but how could the clues come up so easily?

Fu Ruoxa has disappeared for a long time.

Gu Shaoyang has not encountered any danger yet , he thought that Fu Ruosha wouldn't be in any danger, right? Maybe he might have an adventure here.

But he didn't know what adventure he would have this time.

The Seven-Star Longyuan in his hand was still in his hand, but the light It was still dim, and he didn't know what was going on. Gu Shaoyang rubbed it with his hands, and it was still the same.

He didn't care.

"who is it? Come out." Gu Shaoyang walked around and suddenly noticed something was wrong. It seemed like someone was following him. But no one should know that he was here.

Outside, Medusa was very worried about Gu Shaoyang. After all, Gu Shaoyang had disappeared for a long time, and now There was no news at all, and she was very anxious.

The people she sent out also didn't reply, and now everyone is very worried.

"Alas, it seems that Gu Shaoyang cannot be saved this time."Medusa felt a little uncomfortable. After all, Gu Shaoyang was their great benefactor, but now, seeing that Gu Shaoyang was trapped, they were helpless.

Medusa felt a little irritated,"The most powerful warriors have been sent out. If we really find Without Gu Shaoyang, there is nothing we can do"

"They are auspicious people who have their own destiny and will definitely come out safely. You don't have to worry too much."The subordinate comforted Medusa.

Medusa understood in her heart, but she still couldn't help but worry about Gu Shaoyang.

Although he knew that they were going to find the third key, where could they find it?

"Alas, Gu Shaoyang is so powerful. If he can't come out safely, there is nothing that can be done. I have tried my best."Medusa said this, but the worry on her face did not diminish.
