Chapter 961

He checked around the snow-capped mountains and found that the surroundings were full of cliff-like places. In some places, the snow would cause avalanches if people climbed up from there.

Even people with strong cultivation may not be able to withstand the danger of avalanches. In addition, people don't know much about this snow-capped mountain, so they don't dare to take risks. They are afraid that if they are not careful, their lives will be left here.

"Young and very young, what are you looking at? Do you still want to climb up from such loose snow?"

An old man did not occupy a favorable position because he was too old, so he looked at Gu Shaoyang's figure and said in confusion. Gu Shaoyang looked at the old man behind him and then at the snow-capped mountains in front of him, and finally stepped forward. He asked respectfully: "Old man, how long have you been here?"

Gu Shaoyang looked at the many things prepared behind him and guessed that he had been here for a long time, but he never went up and was willing to wait below.

"I've been here a long time, longer than those people before me!" The old man said with a very helpless face.

"Why have you been staying here?" Gu Shaoyang pointed to something behind him, and when the old man saw it, he just shook his head helplessly, and then sighed deeply.

"It's not because of my disappointing grandson! I had to go to the snowy mountains to get the snow lotus to treat my illness, but once he left, he never came back! I am just such a grandson! Whether it's life or death, I want someone to tell me!"

The old man's eyes were full of pain. Seeing how pitiful the old man was, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but feel pity in his heart. His desire to help the old man find his grandson was planted in his heart like a seed.

"So since you have been here for so long, has anyone ever been here before? Gu Shaoyang asked, pointing to the place where people thought there would be an avalanche. The old man followed his finger and shook his head repeatedly.

"How could anyone dare to have this place! Snow-capped mountains are inherently dangerous. This place seems inaccessible at first glance. There are naturally many dangers. People are likely to go up from here."

The old man thought that Gu Shaoyang couldn't understand the terrain and couldn't help explaining it to him carefully, but Gu Shaoyang smiled faintly.

"Sometimes the places that seem dangerous may actually be the safest."

As Gu Shaoyang said, he picked up a stone and threw it towards the snowy mountain. The old man's eyes widened when he saw his action.

If this stone was really thrown into the snowy mountain, it would definitely trigger an avalanche, and everyone at the foot of the mountain would die. He couldn't run away. Even if he couldn't think of it, this young man couldn't drag so many people to be buried with him!

"Boy, stop it!" The old man said and immediately staggered forward to grab Gu Shaoyang and stop his movements. However, the old man was old after all, his legs and feet were inconvenient, and his reaction speed was not as fast as Gu Shaoyang's.

So when he grabbed Gu Shaoyang, it was already him. The hand that threw the stone took it back.

Seeing a small stone being smashed into the snow, the old man subconsciously held his head and ran back, but the expected avalanche did not happen.

The old man ran. After a few steps, he found that the avalanche did not happen, so he quickly returned to Gu Shaoyang, held his hand and said with sincerity.

"Boy, you are so lucky! If there is no avalanche if such a stone is thrown, just leave immediately and don't try again!"

The old man was still frightened where the stone hit him, but Gu Shaoyang refused to listen to the advice. He must do what he decided to do, not to mention that he had already succeeded in the experiment.

"Don't worry, I'm sure of what I can do." Gu Shaoyang patted the old man's shoulder, then leaned down on the ground to pick up a stone, jumped up and threw it towards the snow mountain.

The old man jumped in anger when he saw his action, but he was old and couldn't beat him, so he just jumped up and threw it towards the snow mountain. Can curse angrily

"You young man is too selfish! You haven't taken other people's lives seriously for so long! If you do this, you will put everyone in a very dangerous situation!"

Just when the old man was cursing and thinking that there would be an avalanche this time, there was still no reaction on the snow mountain.

"Old man, look, is something wrong? I told you, sometimes the most dangerous places are actually the safest! Now you believe it."

Gu Shaoyang took the old man and took a closer look. As expected, the worried look on the old man's face relaxed a lot, but his fists were still clenched and worried.

"You... don't be impatient, try again, and go after you're sure it's safe."

The old man took Gu Shaoyang's arm. This time he picked up the stone himself and asked Gu Shaoyang to try a few more times.

"Why don't you try it yourself? This way you will feel more at ease!"

As he spoke, Gu Shaoyang took the old man's hand, raised the stone in his hand and threw it towards the snow mountain. It didn't take long for the stone to fall steadily on the snow mountain.

Apart from making a hole in the snow mountain, there was nothing left in the snow mountain. a little reaction

"Hahahaha...seriously! It's safe! You were indeed right!"

Chapter 962

The old man saw Gu Shaoyang's face filled with joy and he couldn't believe it, his expression was very complicated. After Gu Shaoyang saw that the old man was convinced, he was finally able to go up safely.

Otherwise, Gu Shaoyang just wanted to go up but was blocked by the old man. Now the old man was finally relieved.

"Okay, just continue waiting below." Gu Shaoyang waved to the old man and prepared to move towards the snow-capped mountains. However, the old man picked up a package from his simple house and followed Gu Shaoyang.

"no! I also need to go! I'm going to find my grandson! You want to see people when you are dead, you want to see corpses when you are alive!"

The old man had a solemn look on his face and seemed to have already made up his mind. However, Gu Shaoyang was really worried when he saw the old man's limping legs and his heart and lung function that made him gasp for breath after taking only two steps.

According to the old man's current situation, he must leave. Soon he will be trapped in the middle of the snow-capped mountain, unable to go up or down.

Because there will be a lack of oxygen at high places, and the old man is old and his physical fitness cannot keep up. If there is any good reason, he can go up. The people in the snow mountain will definitely not help him.

Then he can only wait for death on the snow mountain! This is a situation that Gu Shaoyang does not want to see.

"Old man, if you haven't been here for a long time, just wait at the foot of the mountain! When the time comes, I will go to you to see if your grandson is still there. Please tell me his specific situation!"

Gu Shaoyang grabbed the old man as he prepared to move on and said with a serious face.

Hearing Gu Shaoyang's words, the old man stared at his eyes and hesitated for a while.

Several young people had said this to him before, But they all left forever, and their life or death was uncertain. Now another young man comes and says this. Does he believe it or not?

"Sir, don't worry. If I didn't bring you down, and I didn't even come down alive, then you can stay down below and ask others to help you go up."

"If you go up there in person, do you think you can go to the top of the mountain and come back in your own body? Even if you do find your grandson by then, would you be a drag on him by doing this?"

Gu Shaoyang explained to the old man earnestly. In the end, the old man lowered his head slightly, dropped his hands feebly, turned around and walked silently up and down the mountain.

Gu Shaoyang watched the old man go down the mountain, and when the old man had only taken a few steps, he spoke again. Suddenly he turned around, his eyes full of hope:"Take this package with you. I have some food that I saved!"

"I have nothing to give you, that's all."The old man said and tremblingly handed the things to Gu Shaoyang. Gu Shaoyang looked at the eyes full of hope for him and was very moved.

"Okay, then I'll accept it without ceremony."Gu Shaoyang said, taking the package from the old man's hand, and then asked him about his concern for his grandson.

"Old man, what is your grandson's name? I'll ask you when I meet him."

Gu Shaoyang was very enthusiastic, and the old man quickly informed:"My grandson's name is Dahan! He is tall! The man is also very strong!"When he mentioned his grandson, the old man's eyes immediately lit up.

"OK! Grandpa, I know! Just go down and wait!"After Gu Shaoyang learned about it, he immediately turned around and went up the mountain. The old man watched him disappear and then reluctantly returned to his simple house and waited quietly.

On the snow mountain.

Gu Shaoyang found another way, so he didn't go up the mountain. When he met no one other than him, he didn't see anything strange on the snow-capped mountains.

In addition to getting colder as he went up, he also felt that his eyes were very painful after looking at the vast white snow-capped mountains for a long time.

Sometimes Many people who went to the snow mountain became blind because they looked at the white snow for too long and did not take protective measures, but Gu Shaoyang was not like this.

Because he had done his homework and understood it on the snow mountain, so when he noticed that he felt uncomfortable He immediately took out the protective goggles he had prepared and put them on his head.

With the protection of the protective goggles, he continued walking towards the snow-capped mountains.

Because the magnetic field on the snow-capped mountains was different from that on the ground, he could not fly in the air, and every step was He needs to actually walk up. Although Gu Shaoyang has profound skills and walks for a while, it has no effect on him.

But over time, his spells still cannot withstand such torture:"Oh my God! This is too tiring! No wonder those people never come back!"

Gu Shaoyang sat down on the snowy mountain tiredly, but just after sitting down for a while, his hands and feet that were propped up in the snow began to freeze.

"Is this what happened?"Gu Shaoyang took his hands and feet out of the frozen area, and then wanted to break the ice, but found that the ice was so hard that people doubted his life.

"The ice on this snow-capped mountain cannot be broken?"Gu Shaoyang looked confused. In the end, he could only try to bake it with fire. He had to melt the ice because he hadn't walked halfway yet.

If he was frozen by the ice now and had no feeling in his back feet, how could he walk

? The only hand that was not frozen.

Chapter 963

Gu Shaoyang used the internal energy in his body to heat up, and then sent out sparks from his palms to bake his frozen hands and feet.

Fortunately, the ice on the snow-capped mountains can be dissolved by fire, and Gu Shaoyang finally escaped. However, after the experience of being frozen while sitting for a long time, Gu Shaoyang estimated the time to rest.

He was frozen after resting for five minutes at the beginning, and was still frozen after resting for four minutes, so he continued to shorten the rest time.

Until he found that he would be frozen every time he took a one-minute break, he would control the time and set off quickly when the one-minute break was almost up.

As a result, he couldn't sleep on the snow-capped mountains and could only keep walking like an emotionless machine until he reached the final goal.

To live is to choose to give up and go down the mountain directly, so that you don't have to endure it.

But it is obvious that going down the mountain is completely impossible for Gu Shaoyang, he will only choose the first option!

I saw Gu Shaoyang's slightly tired body in slippers walking step by step towards the top of the snow mountain. Looking with his eyes, Gu Shaoyang felt that he seemed to be very close to the top of the mountain.

But this feeling made him walk for three days and three nights, and he didn't even reach the middle of the snow-capped mountains.

But the good thing is that although he didn't reach the middle of the mountain, he met someone on the way who was also going up the mountain.

"Hey! brother! Are you going up the mountain too?" Because Gu Shaoyang took a different path, he was alone along the way. He also hadn't communicated with anyone for three days and three nights.

Now he suddenly saw someone and couldn't help but greet him warmly, but the other person's response was lifeless, and some people even looked at him. Too lazy to throw one to him.

Gu Shaoyang was not angry at his actions. He quickened his pace and approached him, and soon they were together.

"Brothers, how long have you been here?"

Normally, Gu Shaoyang is a person who does not want to communicate too much with strangers, but for the sake of the old man under the mountain, he had to communicate more with these strangers in order to inquire about the whereabouts of his grandson.

"How long have you been here?" As for Gu Shaoyang's question, several people were really unable to answer. They were already out of breath.

Some people's feet were completely frozen by the ice, and their hands were trembling in their pockets. Although Gu Shaoyang He was in a sorry state but not like them.

Compared with them, Master Gu's condition was not very good!

His hands and feet were not frozen. Although his body could feel the cold, it was within the range that he could bear.

"I've been here for three days and three nights, and I haven't had much rest."

Gu Shaoyang answered one of the few people who rarely answered his question.

But when that person heard Gu Shaoyang's answer, he snorted coldly: "Tch! You want to get to this position in three days and three nights? Who do you think you are?"

Hearing the young man's cold voice, Gu Shaoyang was confused: Didn't I go all the way up from that position? It did take three days and three nights. It depends on the time!

Could it be that the distance is shorter from the place where everyone thought there would be an avalanche? Is the journey easier?

After Gu Shaoyang's conjecture and his own personal verification, he determined that the place he walked was actually easier and shorter than other places.

"How long have you been gone?" Gu Shaoyang did not explain after being questioned. He just asked the other party's time.

"We have been walking for almost a week, and we also lost a few people who had agreed to go to the snow mountain together. Now we can see the top of the mountain, and we don't want to give up."

The young man pointed in the direction of the top of the snow mountain. Gu Shaoyang followed his eyes and found that he could indeed see the top of the mountain, but sometimes the eyes can deceive people.

It looks like it is very close, but in fact it is still far away. Here

"How long do you expect to be able to go up there?"

Gu Shaoyang didn't want to attack them, but he saw that these people in front of him were very young, and their situation was already very bad. If they continued to move forward, there would be no way out. If they could figure it out, there is still a way to turn back. , their physical strength can support it, but if they insist on moving forward, then Gu Shaoyang has nothing to do.

Originally, Gu Shaoyang wanted to ask them about the old man's grandson, but they had only come up not long ago, and it was impossible to get them to tell them. of

"We looked at the itinerary and estimated that we should be able to go up in another week."

The young man made a bold guess, and Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but shake his head silently when he looked at the distance between them and the distance to the top of the mountain.

Because he had already seen the top of the mountain when he was walking alone on another road, but he still walked for days and nights. Now these young people have just seen the top of the mountain, as if it took them a week to reach the top.

This is absolutely impossible, unless a miracle happens, but looking at their physical condition, even if there is a miracle, they are afraid they will have to wait. Not here

"Young men, I advise you to go down quickly. Look at the current situation of your team members, they simply can't hold on any longer!"

Chapter 964

If you keep going, something might happen!

"If you regret it now, go down that road. The wind and snow are not that heavy. If you are tired, rest for no more than a minute and your hands and feet will not freeze."

"It would take less than a week to walk back from that road, maybe two or three days would be enough. You are still young now. If you want to explore the snowy mountains, you can wait until you are older."

Gu Shaoyang walked with them like an elder to advise, but the teenagers refused to listen and even thought that Gu Shaoyang had selfish motives.

"Come on, uncle! You want us to go down just because you are assured that we will snatch the treasure from you after we reach the top! Don't worry, uncle, now that we are here, we will never give up easily!"

The young man's determination seemed to be very strong, and precisely because of Gu Shaoyang's persuasion, their team members became more motivated and their eyes became firmer.

Looking at them like this, Gu Shaoyang didn't know for a moment whether his actions were harming them or not. encouraged them

"Okay, since you all have itHeart, then I suggest you go in another direction. There is a road to the east. Only the road over there is easier to reach the top of the snow mountain. Gu Shaoyang's persuasion could only help, but these teenagers still didn't appreciate it: "Uncle, we did our homework before coming here. It is obvious that the direction we are taking now is easier to reach the top of the mountain. Why do you want us to take the most dangerous road?" Woolen cloth?"

"That's right! Who doesn't know that the road to the east is most prone to avalanches. If an avalanche accidentally occurs, let alone climbing to the top of the mountain, your life will not be saved!"

"Uncle, when you asked us to take the east road, did you mean to take us away and then take our own path that is easiest to reach the top of the mountain?"

Facing Gu Shaoyang's kindness, the young man not only didn't appreciate it, but also made all kinds of sarcasm. Gu Shaoyang had no choice but to shake his head and leave.

"Okay, no matter what I say or do, you all feel that I am harming you, so I wish you good luck. I hope I can see you on the top of the mountain instead of seeing your body halfway."

Gu Shaoyang shrugged and said goodbye to them. He continued to return to his east road and walked alone.

But the teenagers who said goodbye to Gu Shaoyang were still walking their own way blindly, and their bodies and breaths were getting worse and worse. Okay.

Gu Shaoyang, who was walking alone on the east road, quickly reached the front of the teenagers. When he was resting, he stood on a high place and looked down, and found that the group of teenagers just now had lost several more people.

Looking at their reduced number, Gu Shaoyang He couldn't help but shook his head helplessly. He had done everything he could, but others didn't believe him, so there was nothing he could do.

Just when Gu Shaoyang was about to lift his feet and continue walking forward, the only three teenagers left saw him keep looking towards him. he waved and shouted

"Uncle! We were wrong! Please save us!"

Hearing the young man's cry, Gu Shaoyang really wanted to turn a blind eye, but he, who was always kind in his heart, could not ignore it. In the end, Gu Shaoyang returned directly to them, and the young man finally believed what Gu Shaoyang said, because he did come down from the east road.

"Uncle, please beg us! We just can't stand it anymore!"

The young man who was very proud and determined in front of Gu Shaoyang just now is now afraid to back down.

Now they have no intention of climbing to the top. Now they only want to get down and go home.

"Uncle, can you help us to show a clear path for us to go down the mountain? Also, why are there no ice on your hands and feet?"

The teenagers stretched out their hands and compared them with Gu Shaoyang's hands. They found that although Gu Shaoyang's hands were often exposed, they were still rosy and maintained his normal temperature. The teenagers' hands were often put in their pockets, but they were not at all. Prevents freezing and shows no sign of melting

"While walking, you mobilize your internal energy to generate heat. Remember, never stop. If you keep doing this, the ice on your hands and feet will naturally melt."

Gu Shaoyang told them the method, but the teenagers were frozen stiff. Although they already knew what to do in their hearts, they actually acted very slowly.

Seeing the stiff movements of the teenagers, Gu Shaoyang had no choice but to help.

"I'll take you down and help you melt the ice on your hands before we go our separate ways."

As he spoke, Gu Shaoyang immediately mobilized his internal energy to gather in the palm of his hand, and then held the young man's hands tightly on both sides, sending heat to them.

With Gu Shaoyang's heat, the young man's feet soon returned to ruddy, and his hands were rosy. All the ice melts

"Okay, you can go on your own next. You don't know what you will encounter when you go up. I can't guide you. You can come back later."

After saying that, Gu Shaoyang hurried back. Originally, they had traveled one-tenth of the total distance to the snow-capped mountains, but now because of the teenagers' request for help, he had gone back almost half the distance.

Chapter 965

Although this approach was a waste of his time, he did not regret it at all.

"Why! Today's young people are really excited!"

Gu Shaoyang turned around and continued to drive forward.

Behind him, the three young people he had just escorted firmly remembered his appearance. Although the words of gratitude did not come out of his mouth, they were engraved in them. In his heart.

Gu Shaoyang didn't help them to get anything from them, so he didn't care. It was just that after helping others, his heart felt happier. When he walked, his steps became much lighter because he already had some experience. , so the speed of going up the mountain again was much faster than when he just went up the mountain.

Looking at the boundless snow-capped mountains, Gu Shaoyang felt that his heart was much purer. Tianling Gai had made some achievements, but when he wanted to seize that little bit, Inspiration suddenly passed away again.

Gu Shaoyang had no choice but to give up. After all, some feelings also depend on fate. Now in this snow mountain, such a feeling will appear once and then a second time, so Gu Shaoyang is not worried.

With this idea Gu Shaoyang went on the road safely and walked very briskly. Also on the road, because he was walking alone, he didn't meet anyone.

When Gu Shaoyang spent a day and night walking back to the previous place, it suddenly started to snow heavily again in the sky: "Look This heavy snow is probably going to be a thick layer on the snow-capped mountains, and the temperature may be even lower."

Gu Shaoyang stretched out his hand and felt the snowflakes falling on his hand and melting. In the end, he rubbed his hands shivering and hid them in his cuffs.

"In this damn weather, I'm afraid I have to use some more energy to maintain myself, otherwise it will get colder as we go up, and I'm afraid I won't be able to hold on for long."

Gu Shaoyang was talking to himself as he walked. These days when he is driving alone on the road, he talks to himself and answers any questions he encounters. Otherwise, he will not open a word all day long.

After the words fell, Gu Shaoyang secretly thought to himself He used internal energy to heat himself up. After a while, he felt very warm all over his body. With enough warmth, his complexion also improved a lot. After enough warmth, his pale face gradually became rosy, and his hands My fingers are no longer trembling, and my legs are more comfortable when walking.

"One, two! one two three four....." In order to cheer himself up, Gu Shaoyang murmured as he drove. It has been five days and four nights since he came to the snow mountain, but he still hasn't met anyone.

He could still see the snowy mountain tops that he could see at first, and even the distance didn't seem to have changed much with his eyes.

These days, he has been walking around and resting for only about a minute at a time. He has not slept for four full days. Although he is a cultivator, he cannot withstand such a high-intensity challenge.

"I only knew that the snow-capped mountains were difficult to climb, but I didn't expect that there would be any danger. It's just that it's really difficult to go up completely relying on your own physical strength!"

Gu Shaoyang complained while crawling. No one around him answered him. He just played two roles, talking to himself, asking and answering questions.

However, not long after he walked, what he just said was slapped in the face.

He I thought that there was no threat on this snowy mountain, it was just difficult to get up, but who would have thought that after he walked for about half a day, snowballs suddenly rolled down one after another on the snowy mountain.

At first, there were only one or two, and Gu Shaoyang thought it was just because of the snowy mountain. It snowed, so the snow was thick in some places, and it naturally fell, and the snowballs formed as they rolled bigger and bigger.

But as he slowly continued to move forward, he discovered that the snowballs were bigger and smaller, and as he As he went higher and higher, the number of snowballs became more and more, and they became bigger and bigger.

Slowly, they became very regular. At first, he faced one, two, three, and four snowballs. He was able to cope with it easily, but the snowballs gradually became denser, and he was having a hard time.

At this time, Gu Shaoyang's feet were stuck deep in the snow, and countless snowballs were rolling away directly in front of him. , shapes and sizes.

Gu Shaoyang originally wanted to find a place without snowballs to hide, but the place in front of him that he couldn't see seemed to have eyes. No matter which direction he went, the snowballs would appear again.

After Gu Shaoyang noticed it, he felt There was something rolling down towards him on purpose. As long as he grabbed that thing, he could solve the trouble in front of him.

But every time he raised his head to see clearly what the thing in front of him was, a huge snowball appeared. It would roll down and block his sight.

And his pace became extremely slow because of the snowball's obstruction.

Originally, he could walk very far in a day and night, but now that he was blocked by the snowball, his speed was directly shortened to One-third!

If he continues walking at his current speed, he may die halfway due to lack of physical strength.

"no! I have to find a way, and continuing like this is really not an option!"

Gu Shaoyang thought silently.

Chapter 966

While avoiding, he kept running his brain, trying to find a solution, but now he was very anxious about the situation.

And the more anxious he is, the less likely he is to come up with a solution. Repeatedly, it becomes a vicious cycle.

"Oh my God! I! Why!" At this time, Gu Shaoyang was very irritable. He hadn't closed his eyes for several days. His mood was already bad, and now it was even worse.

Gu Shaoyang, who was angry, wanted to catch the unknown person who threw snowballs at him. The determination of the famous thing is also very firm.

Because he has a strong belief in his heart, Gu Shaoyang's speed increased a lot when avoiding the snowball. Maybe he was driven by the thing throwing the snowball.

And the thing throwing the snowball above After discovering that Gu Shaoyang's speed had increased, they were not far behind. The number of snowballs they threw increased and their shapes became larger and larger. For a while, the two sides remained in a stalemate, as if you were either going to die or I would live.

No! There is no way to go on like this. My high-intensity exercise consumes all my own physical strength. The opponent seems to be huge in number. I am definitely outnumbered.

In this situation, I can only be smart. If I force it, I will definitely not be able to do it. Opponent!

After a high-intensity fight, Gu Shaoyang finally calmed down because of his physical strength. However, the opponent's speed and efficiency were still very fast, and Gu Shaoyang could only barely keep up. Only after Gu Shaoyang had calmed down completely could he calm down. Think carefully.

Now as long as he appears in a place where there are no snowballs, snowballs will immediately appear. The reason for this must be because the other party can see his figure. To be clear, the other party is in the dark and he is in the light. If he wants to regain the situation, he must reverse the situation.

Since the other party was in the dark before and he was in the light, then he must find a way to put himself in a dark place and find a way to lead the other party to the light.

Yes. After having this idea, Gu Shaoyang began to put it into practice.

Although the impact of the snowball rushing down from top to bottom was very strong, if he avoided it properly, the snowball might not be a weapon to attack him, but might even become a shield for him to defend himself.

And once he was covered by the snowballs, the things above could not see his figure, and they would naturally be unable to throw snowballs at him.

Thinking of this, Gu Shaoyang suddenly had an idea in his heart and found a way. Seeing that Gu Shaoyang had an idea, when he met Snowball again, he no longer avoided it, but leaned down directly on the snow.

And if he leaned over in the snow for more than a minute, it would freeze, and now he was He wanted to use this ice to deal with the clumps of snow.

It didn't take long for him to bend over in the snow, so the ice formed. When the ice formed on his body, he immediately released heat and melted part of it, and then After ensuring that his body can break away from the ice, he will no longer release heat.

Instead, he will directly use brute force to peel off the ice from his body, letting him fall into the snow, and then be eroded by the snow and continue to freeze.

When the ice cube When it got bigger and bigger, Gu Shaoyang appeared in front and guided the unknown thing above to throw snowballs at him. Then he immediately stood on the frozen place and waited.

Once the snowball was about to get closer, he was behind. He resisted hard to prevent the snowball from continuing to roll down, but let it be blocked by the frozen ice pillars.

Then he slowly let go after making sure that the snowball would not continue to slide down without his help.

That's it. Gu Shaoyang followed this example, and it didn't take long for him to build a long, big snowball shield for himself. The unknown things above could not see Gu Shaoyang's figure, and they couldn't hit him no matter how hard they threw it.

And he used the snowballs they threw to defend himself, and moved forward step by step. Although his speed was not as fast as at the beginning, it was still much better than he had just been.

"This human is using our snowballs to defend himself! It's so cunning! no! We have to report it to the boss quickly, otherwise this human being will definitely become our first line of defense if things continue like this!"

At this time, those who threw snowballs on the snowy mountain also discovered Gu Shaoyang's conspiracy. Although they were not very intelligent, they were not too stupid after staying on the snowy mountain for so long. So they should stop throwing snowballs. Then they kept observing Gu Shaoyang's position, and once they saw a snowball moving, they would hit it.

However, Gu Shaoyang did not dare to act after seeing them stop throwing snowballs, for fear of becoming the target of public criticism.

"The enemy is immovable! I don't move! But the enemy will always be fascinated by the blindness!"

Gu Shaoyang murmured in his mouth, then leaned over to pick up a pile of snow and slowly kneaded it into a big ball in his hands. Then he put the ball aside and used his kung fu to melt the icy areas on his body.

Wait. After he melted all the ice on his body, he picked up the snowball he rolled on his forehead, and then threw it hard and threw it away.

There was a snowball for him as a guarantee, so he hurriedly stopped. Stop and use the cover of other snowballs to move forward.

Chapter 967

After realizing that this method was effective, Gu Shaoyang continued to try this method several times, and he originally thought that this method would allow him to continue using it.

Unexpectedly, it only took a few times for the things above to discover his deception.

"This human being lied to us! The snowballs he threw were an illusion. In fact, he was hiding in other snowballs and sneaking up while he was letting us attack the moving snowballs!"

Because Gu Shaoyang was standing very close to them, he secretly heard their voices.

After realizing that he had been discovered, he did not dare to act rashly anymore.

Because the distance between him and them was now They are very close. Once discovered, the chance of him escaping safely is very slim, so now he can no longer act rashly.

"okay! Don't act rashly now. When the human throws the ball, we can see where the ball was thrown from and we will know his location!"

Gu Shaoyang hid behind a big snowball and heard the voice of their leader above.

However, they did not move, and neither did Gu Shaoyang. While they were all quietly waiting for Gu Shaoyang's move, he secretly sneaked behind the snowball. He changed his clothes.

The reason why Gu Shaoyang changed his clothes at this time was not because he liked to be clean or because his clothes were dirty. The reason why he changed his clothes was just because he was wearing pure black clothes.

And black was in a large area The white snow can't help but look very abrupt. If he wants to hide his figure well, then a large piece of white snow melting into one is the best disguise.

In addition, Gu Shaoyang has a space ring, It contained a lot of clothes of different colors, so it was just right for use.

It didn't take long for him to change his clothes, and after changing his clothes, he didn't forget to take a piece of cloth that was very similar to the color of the snow to cover his head. They were all wrapped up, leaving only two dark eyes outside.

After doing this, Gu Shaoyang leaned over and lay on the snow, and then walked up the snow step by step.

Because of the unknown figure above The things were all focused on seeing which snowball a big snowball was suddenly recognized behind, so no one noticed the situation in the snow.

Gu Shaoyang also took advantage of this moment to speed up and directly passed them and climbed above them..

When Gu Shaoyang climbed above them, he did not rush forward. Instead, he directly found a place to hide and observed their appearance carefully.

Now Gu Shaoyang changed positions with them, and he was hiding in the dark. And they were in the light.

I saw Gu Shaoyang peeking out his only two exposed eyes to look secretly, and then he saw a lot of small round white things gathering in the snow.

Because they were all white, if you didn't look carefully There is no difference between them and the original color of the snow at all, so the snow is also a good place for them to hide their figures.

Their shape and appearance are also the reasons why Gu Shaoyang could not see them before. But although Gu Shaoyang has seen them He saw their appearance, but he didn't know what they were afraid of and how to deal with them.

It is said that to catch the thief first, catch the king, but now even if he catches the leader of the group of little guys in front of him, he doesn't know their weaknesses.

So. He must observe again and wait until he finds their weaknesses and eliminates them before he can continue to act. Otherwise, if he just walks away like this, there is no guarantee that they will not surpass him faster than him and run in front of him. After all, they But he is more familiar with the situation of this snow mountain than Gu Shaoyang.

With such questions and purposes, Gu Shaoyang has been hiding in the dark and stamping his feet, trying to see their actions.

The little things in front of him have no idea that Gu Shaoyang has already Beyond him came to their front

"Why is this human being immobile? Could it be that he has been hit by us and rolled down the mountain?"

While both parties were keeping quiet and waiting patiently, a little guy lost his patience and couldn't help asking impatiently.

Then not long after he finished speaking, he was slapped on the head by the person next to him.

"What to say! The best thing we snow elves have is patience, why are you so impatient! Just wait! Stop talking! Otherwise, I won't take you out next time!"

Gu Shaoyang hid in the dark and heard their conversation, and from their conversation he also learned their identities - snow elves. He had also heard people from the older generation mention that there were snow elves on the snowy mountains before, but Thousands of years have passed, and there are so many people going up to the snow-capped mountains. Although not everyone is destined to come down.

But there are still a very small number of people who are lucky enough to go up to the snow-capped mountains and successfully come down again, but I have never heard them mention it. I have heard about the snow elves.

I only know that they all said that there are unknown monsters on the snow mountain, and now it seems that it must be them.

Chapter 968

I didn't expect that there is such a thing as snow elves, and I didn't know if I could catch a few and go down the mountain to play. Seeing them look like this makes me feel very energetic.

Gu Shaoyang learned their identities and began to make plans for them, but now he still doesn't know where the other party's weaknesses are.

"Okay, I get it, just wait patiently! But when will we wait? We have been fighting with him for so long, and my favorite snow cake is almost gone."

The little snow elf who had been taught a lesson had a wrinkled face and a very aggrieved tone. He looked very cute.

When Gu Shaoyang heard what he said, he wanted to catch it and ravage it.

"Just know how to eat, I will make two for you right away!" The one who taught the Snow Elf a lesson said helplessly, and then he rolled two small snowballs in the snow and flattened them. Then he took out the sugar, sprinkled it on it and handed it directly to it. The Snow Elf took the snow. He finished the cake in two bites and said, "It's delicious! tasty!"

"I also want! I also want! I also want!" Seeing that one snow elf was not paying attention to the situation below, but was still eating snow cakes, the other snow elves around him immediately said angrily.

After they finished speaking, they immediately spread the snow for themselves. cake, but they stopped moaning after eating the snow cake.

"okay! okay! Don't eat too much! If you eat too much later, it will turn into a puddle of snow! It will stick together later when it snows heavily again!"

The leader of the snow elves couldn't help but said angrily when he saw his descendants eating snow cakes non-stop.

Then his angry warning just let Gu Shaoyang seize their weakness-snow cakes!

From now on snow cakes From the looks of the elves, it seems that they like eating snow cakes very much, but if they eat too many snow cakes, they will turn into a puddle of snow, and they must wait until it snows again before they can gather again.

Otherwise, they can only keep It's just a trip of snow, without any fighting power

"Since you like snow cakes, I will make them for you!" Although Gu Shaoyang has never tasted the taste of their snow cakes, he has watched them make them several times just now.

So he probably knows the technique, but he doesn't know if they will be genuine when they make snow cakes again. It's just made of snow and then added with sugar. If he wants to know whether it is true or not, he can only practice it himself.

If the snow elves are willing to eat the snow cake, then he will know how to do it. If he is not willing to eat it, then he will He kept trying.

After having the idea, Gu Shaoyang immediately started to act. He hid in the snow and gathered all the surrounding snow together, and then began to knead, flatten, and sprinkle sugar.

The first time he made three, Then he removed a long piece of white cloth from the space ring and rolled it behind a snow elf.

Then he placed the snow cake on it and used his strength to slide the snow cake down from the top. The snow cake was successfully delivered to After that, all Gu Shaoyang had to do was wait quietly to see if the snow elf would like the snow cakes he made.

After Gu Shaoyang delivered the snow cakes, a snow elf noticed him and rolled his eyes to make sure no one was paying attention. He immediately stuffed the snow cake into his mouth.

In a few moments, he finished all three snow cakes made by Gu Shaoyang. However, not long after eating, he immediately turned into a puddle of snow.

Gu Shaoyang just looked at it like this It's so magical to see the snow elf turn into snow

"Why can't this snow elf just eat three? It seems that they really can't eat more snow cakes. If that's the case, then I will let you eat more!"

Gu Shaoyang thought about this and kneaded the snow cakes on his mobile phone faster and faster, becoming more and more skillful. This time he made thirty snow cakes at one time.

After they were done, they were passed on through the white cloth strips, and the wedding As he expected, the snow elves couldn't help but be tempted when they saw the snow cakes.

They ate as many snow cakes as there were, but their bodies had an upper limit. When they ate the fifth piece at most, they It will turn into a puddle of snow.

Gu Shaoyang also used this method to slowly eliminate them. Although it was comfortable and slow, the enemy would not notice it and he would also reveal his position.

This method was a great gift to him!

And Gu Shaoyang also successfully used this method to eliminate a large group of snow elves. The key was that they themselves were completely unaware of it.

Gu Shaoyang originally thought that this snow elf was very smart, but when they met Snow Cake, their cleverness was revealed. After Gu Shaoyang's snow cake battle, the number of snow elves dropped sharply and the threat to him was greatly reduced. However, he still did not give up the fight and continued to make snow cakes.

It seemed that It is necessary to eliminate them all before we can feel at ease.

"What happened to this human being! Go down and take a peek!"

Just when Gu Shaoyang kept making snow cakes behind them and made no more noise.

Chapter 969

The leader of the snow elves couldn't help but issue orders to send people to check. Once he sent people to check and found that Gu Shaoyang was not there, he might be in trouble.

Because once they don't find Gu Shaoyang, they will definitely find his body, and they will live to tell where the person who found him is.

Otherwise, if they let him run away to who knows where, if he directly attacks the top, then it will be their snow elves' fault.

"You two, one on the left and one on the right, check it out together!"

The leader of the snow elves said while standing and pointing in two different directions.

However, even if the leader of the snow elves stood up completely, it could not reach Gu Shaoyang's calf, but it was smarter than all the snow elves.

Seeing that The men sent by the snow elf leader were about to find out that Gu Shaoyang was gone. In order not to be discovered, Gu Shaoyang immediately spit out two stones from the spiritual pet he had collected before, and then he threw them at a slightly smaller snowball.

The reason why he smashed the snowballs was because as long as the snowballs were loose, they would think he was still down there, so they would not send the snow elves to check.

As long as his whereabouts were not discovered, he could slowly use the snow cakes After destroying all the current snow elves, even if there are still a few left, he can barely deal with it.

After Gu Shaoyang hit the snowball with a stone, it immediately staggered and rolled down the mountain, and was The two little ones sent by the leader of the snow elves to check ran back immediately before they could reach them.

They were afraid of what Gu Shaoyang would do to them if they met.

"leader! That person is still there! Still there! Hurry and hit him with a snowball! Where is he! Where is it!"

The snow elves who ran back hid behind the leader and kept pointing to the place where the snowball just rolled down, but they did not see Gu Shaoyang after the snowball rolled down.

"This human looks like he's still down there! But why don't you see anyone?"

The leader of the snow elves was very puzzled, but he still ordered the snow elves to make snowballs and throw them downwards. However, more than half of the snow elves have turned into a puddle of snow because of Gu Shaoyang's snow cakes.

So now they pile up snow. The number of balls pushed downwards can't help but decrease sharply.

"What are you doing? Why are there fewer and fewer snowballs now! Do you want to be lazy? Do you want humans to attack the mountain and steal our snow cakes?"

The leader of the snow elves shouted angrily, and Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but frown when he heard his words. Are you trying to steal your snow cakes? Just sprinkle some sugar on top of the snow cakes. Do you still need to grab them? I don't know how much more delicious food there is at the foot of the mountain than on the snow mountain.! Are we going to rob you?

He shook his head helplessly. Gu Shaoyang didn't know the snow mountains, and he didn't know what was precious on the snow mountains. But after hearing the words of the leader of the snow elves, he really wanted to jump out and tell them.

"We humans don't need your snow cakes! We don't like it!"

But he didn't need to think about it. He knew that the precious snow cakes of the snow elves would not be believed no matter how others explained them. Instead, he would only think that others were quibbling.

So he simply gave up on explaining and just continued quietly. With his snow cake, he tried to get rid of every snow elf before the leader of the snow elf discovered it.

After all, the less trouble the better.

Continuing like this, as they kept throwing snowballs, Gu Shaoyang kept throwing them. After making snow cakes, it didn't take long for the number of snowballs and snow elves to decrease at a speed visible to the naked eye, and the leader of the snow elves also noticed something was wrong.

"What exactly is going on? Why are there fewer and fewer snowballs? Has everyone turned into a puddle of snow?"

The Snow Elf was very confused. It was originally at the forefront of the battle command, but now it found out there was a problem and immediately came to the end of the team.

When he came to the end of the team, he found that there were not many Snow Elf left. Originally His army of thousands of snow elves now only has a few hundred left, and the rest have turned into a puddle of snow.

"What exactly is going on!" Seeing his army suddenly become like this, the Snow Elf leader was very angry.

His voice immediately roared in the air, and his tribesmen stopped rolling the snowballs in their hands when they heard his roar.

They also turned around. Looking at him to see what happened to him: "What's wrong with the leader? What happened?"

I don't know why the remaining snow elves looked at the leader with curiosity and confusion. They haven't noticed that there are a lot fewer of them.

Maybe this is because the color of their bodies is very similar to the color of the snow, so Maybe it's because they all misunderstood themselves.

"Assemble now! Put down everything you are doing!"

The leader of the snow elves gathered his emotions. In order to ensure that the number of remaining snow elves would not decrease, he decided to stop temporarily and find out what was going on.

If he could not find out the reason, he would soon become a polished commander. Got it!

"How many people are there now?" The snow elves quickly gathered their team.

Chapter 970

They stood uniformly in front of the leader of the snow elves, and the people who had been around the snow elves to help him handle things saw that he was angry and quickly sorted out the number of people.

When he finally sorted out the number of people and reported back, he was a little unbelievable: "Reporting to the leader, there are now 168 snow elves left, and the rest should have turned into snow." The personal assistant reported the situation truthfully, and learned that After this, the leader of the snow elves immediately gathered around a big snowball.

The reason why the snow elves turned into a puddle of snow must be because they ate too much snow cakes, but he clearly stipulated that they should not eat snow cakes when dealing with foreign enemies. Even if someone eats them, they will control the amount.

So it will definitely not be like now, where a small amount will directly reduce the amount by half. Someone must be causing trouble!

"You take them and quickly find a place to hide, and then you choose two to follow me to explore the situation."

The leader of the snow elves ordered, and then he turned around and hid himself in the snow and moved forward slowly. The snow elf who assisted him quickly found two smarter-looking elves to follow him.

Gu Shaoyang saw the snow The elf leader's actions have already foreseen the consequences. Now that he is no longer down there, things will definitely be discovered!

And he, the leader of the snow elves, may also have a big war after that, but before the war begins, he must try his best to clean up the unnecessary things for himself. This way, the battle between him and the leader of the snow elves can be fair and exciting.

As the leader of the snow elves led the elves down to inquire about the situation, Gu Shaoyang's speed of making snow cakes still did not slow down.

When he put After making about three hundred snow cakes, he took the snow cakes and changed places and came to the place where the snow elves gathered.

He used the old method to put down a cloth strip, then slid the snow cakes down, and finally let the snow The elves ate it.

The little man who was helping the leader of the snow elves and guarding the remaining snow elves found that he had inadvertently seen the snow elves disappear at the speed of the naked eye.

And he was standing right next to them!

This realization made him feel terrible: Could it be that some special person suddenly appeared and wanted to wipe out all our snow elves?

Why do we follow wherever we go?

A little man with this idea feels dangerous in everything he looks at. After this situation, he wanted to go down to find the leader, but he did not dare to disobey the leader's order to look after the remaining snow elves.

But he could only suppress his anxiety, calm down and wait patiently.

At this time, Snow The patience that the elves are proud of is what hurts them the most.

If they had been more anxious and reported it to the leader, they might not have lost so many snow elves.

When the leader of the snow elves inquired about the situation, he confirmed that Gu Shaoyang was really not there. When he was at the bottom of the mountain, he came back and found that there were only 68 of the 168 snow elves left just now.

And the number included him and the two he brought down. If they were not counted, the number of snow elves would be There are only 65 left

"Little man! What exactly is going on!"

The leader who came back from a tour found that something was wrong and immediately called out to the person in charge he had just assigned, but after calling around, he found that no one responded.

Looking at the remaining snow elves, their expressions were very dull. It looked like they had eaten too many snow cakes.

But who would give them snow cakes at this time?

Could it be an internal fight!

The leader of the snow elves thought about the drama in his heart, and then the more he thought about it, the more he felt that his idea was correct.

"now you! You quickly take the remaining snow elves back to our cave. No one is allowed to come out without my order!"

The leader of the snow elves randomly grabbed a relatively sober snow elf in the crowd and asked him to take responsibility. Then he turned around and left aggressively. The aura around him seemed to be asking for debt, which made Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but wonder about him. What on earth was going to be done?

When the leader of the snow elves left, Gu Shaoyang took the opportunity to follow their large army. After the leader walked away, he took out the snow cake again.

However, he did not show up and just took out the snow cake. Stay, and then immediately quicken his pace to follow the snow elf leader to check where he is going.

Now Gu Shaoyang could actually ignore the snow elf leader and run up the mountain, but he didn't do that.

It's not because he didn't want to, But because he wanted to do it very much! That's why he wanted to follow the leader of the snow elves.

Because the leader of the snow elves knew the terrain of the snow mountains better than he did, he must also know some unique trails. As long as he followed him, he might be able to get there quickly. Climb the top of the snow mountain.

You may also learn a lot about the snow mountain. This kind of purpose is really what he wants.

"This Xuebing clan must be deliberately and honestly against me! What happened today must have been done by them!"

The leader of the snow elves muttered in his mouth as he walked, while Gu Shaoyang followed behind him to receive the information.

It turns out that there is also the Xuebing clan!
