Chapter 971

It sounds like the Snow Ice Clan has some hatred against the Snow Elf Clan!

Wouldn't this be an opportunity to stir up hatred between the two families? Then I can take advantage of the two of them to fight and go up the mountain!

I'm such a clever guy!

Gu Shaoyang was plotting silently in his heart, but the snow elf in front of him had no idea that this was actually the fault of the human.

Soon, although they were actually walking on the white snow, the leader of the snow elves came to the door of the Snow Ice Clan directly.

Following the leader of the snow elves to the door of the Snow Ice Clan, Gu Shaoyang leaned down and looked down the mountain, and found that the place where he and the snow elves were fighting was now very far away from him.

Realizing this, he couldn't help but confirm his guess. These creatures on the snowy mountains must have their own unique path up the mountain. They definitely don't really climb up step by step like ordinary people.

"Inform your leader immediately! Tell him to get out and see me!"

While Gu Shaoyang was still feeling complacent about his conjecture, the voice of the leader of the snow elves suddenly sounded in his ears, and he sounded very angry.

However, the attitude of the gatekeeper of the Snow Ice Clan surprised Gu Shaoyang even more.

I saw that the people of the Xuebing clan who were guarding the gate didn't even have a good look or show any basic respect after seeing that the person who came was the leader of the Snow Elf clan. After all, the person who came here was the leader of the Snow Elf clan. They shouldn't be treated like this.

But the snow elf leader and the gatekeeper seem to be used to this kind of thing, and their attitudes towards each other are almost the same.

"If you don't let your leader come out, don't blame me for being rude to you!" As the leader of the snow elves said, he grabbed a handful of snow on the ground, and within a few seconds it turned into a snow stick.

When the people of the Snow Ice Clan saw the snow stick, their eyes immediately lit up, as if they were out of control. Usually, people are distracted by others.

When the people of the Snow Ice Clan stared at the snow stick in the hand of the snow elf leader and were about to rush towards him, he directly threw the snow stick back in his hand, and then lifted it up directly. He walked into the Snow Ice Clan.

Gu Shaoyang behind him saw the snow elf leaders entering and couldn't help but want to raise his legs to follow, but before he could take a step forward, a snow stick flew to his feet. Behind the snow stick What followed was the Xuebing clan who had just guarded the gate!

All this happened caught Gu Shaoyang and Gao Junfang off guard. He was completely unprepared, and his mind suddenly went blank. Just as he and the Snow Stick clan people looked at each other, he wanted to explain. At that time, he discovered that the people of the Xuebing clan became mentally demented after meeting the snow sticks. Even if they met humans, they would not wake up.

This strange phenomenon also made him understand that the Xuebing clan, like the snow elves, would be controlled by something made of snow on the snow mountain!

After thinking about it, Gu Shaoyang did not disturb the two gatekeepers of the Snow Ice Clan enjoying the snow sticks. He hurried forward to look for the Snow Elf and wanted to know where he was.

But he was He searched around the yard but found nothing.

Just when he was about to give up, he suddenly saw two people from the Xuebing clan walking towards him. He was so scared that he hid quickly.

"I heard that the leader of the Snow Elf tribe came to visit our leader again. This time he won't make many snow sticks for us, right?"

A person from the Snow Ice Tribe said to another person, and that person just frowned and then shook his head.

"It's hard to say if we don't know. After all, how can we guess the thoughts of the two leaders? We'd better hurry up and take our leader's whereabouts book to the main hall to show it to the leader of the Snow Elf clan."

"That's true. Let's go. As long as the leader of the snow elves sees our leader's whereabouts, he won't make things difficult for us."

The two people from the Xuebing clan carried ice plates and headed towards a place. That place was an ice gate. Gu Shaoyang had been walking around there for a long time without realizing that it turned out to be a gate.

And they were about to go in. , the leader of the Snow Elf was about to know the whereabouts of the leader of the Snow Ice Clan in his hand. The truth was about to be revealed, and Gu Shaoyang became anxious.

If the whereabouts record of the leader of the Snow Ice Clan was discovered, he had never been there before. Gu Shaoyang and the Snow Elf Where the clan is fighting, then Gu Shaoyang's whereabouts must be in danger.

So for his own safety, he must create perjury! By the way, he will also give the Snow Ice clan and the Snow Elves a big surprise!

Thinking of this, Gu Shaoyang suddenly appeared in the two snow When the people of the Ice Clan were about to enter the hall, they knocked them unconscious. Then they started to check the whereabouts of the leader of the Snow and Ice Clan, and added his own whereabouts to his whereabouts.

After he finished everything, he He transformed into a member of the Xuebing clan, and then respectfully handed over the whereabouts record.

When Gu Shaoyang handed over the things, he immediately exited the hall and found a room.

Chapter 972

In a secluded room where he was alone, he kept practicing the technique that the snow elf leader had just used to refine the snow sticks. After several attempts, he could quickly master it.

After mastering it, Gu Shaoyang changed into the appearance of the snow elf leader. Looking at his appearance, Gu Shaoyang was very satisfied. Now he just had to wait for the snow elf leader to come out of the hall, and then he could go out again.

Not long after, Gu Shaoyang heard the leader of the Snow Elf and the leader of the Snow Ice Clan coming out of the hall while cursing in a hidden room.

"Your whereabouts have been recorded! You still don't admit it! Have you not done enough of this thing for so many years?"

"And the whereabouts records were brought over by your people! I came here alone, and there was no way I could do anything about it, so you just asked me to see your whereabouts, and now you say you won't count them. Are you slapping yourself in the face?"

After the leader of the Snow Elf stepped out of the hall, he kept pointing in the direction of the leader of the Snow Ice Clan and yelling. The leader of the Snow Ice Clan was so scolded by him that he didn't know how to retaliate.

He just put one hand behind his back and the other He stretched out his hand and pointed at the leader of the snow elves, opening and closing his mouth, but said nothing.

"Get him away!" After holding it in for a long time, the leader of the Xuebing clan finally yelled out, and after saying that, he immediately returned to the hall.

It seemed that out of sight was out of mind. As long as he couldn't see, he wouldn't be angry.

And the door The leader of the snow elves outside was also surrounded by the Snow Ice Clan and wanted to drive him out.

"You little people! After all, I am still the head of the clan, how can I allow you to treat me like this!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the leader of the snow elf waved his hand, and countless popsicles immediately fell to the ground. Then the people of the Xuebing clan immediately swarmed up after seeing it.

They all went to pick up the snow sticks on the ground, and some who didn't grab them immediately. After regaining consciousness, those who had grabbed the snow sticks ran around and found a safe place to enjoy them secretly.

Seeing them like this, the snow elf leader relieved himself and left with satisfaction. While the snow elf leader left, Gu Shaoyang He also quickly came out of the hidden room.

He stood in the position where the leader of the snow elves had just been, and imitated his behavior. His tone caused the snow stick to fall from the sky again.

"snort! I am the leader of a dignified clan! How can I not allow you to treat me like this? If you, the leader of the Xuebing Clan, dare to use snow cakes against us, I will treat them the same way as they do!"

When Gu Shaoyang finished scattering the snow sticks, he immediately left in a swagger. After walking out of the door of the Xuebing clan, he returned to his original appearance. The leader of the snow elves walking in front of him walked towards them after leaving the Xuebing clan. As he walked towards the cave, Gu Shaoyang followed closely, and soon followed him.

However, when the snow elf came to the entrance of the cave, he found that there were many uneaten snow cakes around, and none of his tribesmen were there. Got it

"Little man! Oh my God! Where are my people! The leader of the Snow Ice Clan must be you!"

The leader of the snow elves suddenly shed a drop of snow tears, and the tears he shed were all small snowflakes, which looked very beautiful.

Gu Shaoyang observed silently behind him and found that the leader of the snow elves didn't even notice the snow cake when he saw it. He was moved and couldn't help but worry.

If this leader was not moved by Snow Cake, what was his weakness? It is said that knowing the enemy and knowing the enemy will lead to victory in every battle. Gu Shaoyang hid in the dark and observed quietly. In order to verify whether the Snow Elf leader was Really not interested in snow cakes, he specially made a super large snow cake.

And the sugar sprinkled on it was five times that of a normal snow cake!

After making it, Gu Shaoyang used the smooth snow to push the snow cake out. , and then he quickly changed a place to hide.

After hiding, Gu Shaoyang exposed his eyes and observed secretly. As a result, after the snow elf saw a big snow cake, his tears immediately stopped and his eyes immediately lit up.

His feet The speed of approaching the snow cake became faster and faster. When he got the snow cake, he kept eating it.

After eating, the body of the snow elf leader began to stagger, and then he fell to the ground not long after. , and finally turned into a puddle of snow.

After confirming that the snow elf leader turned into a puddle of snow, Gu Shaoyang felt relieved, and then he transformed into the snow elf leader and came to the Snow Ice Clan.

Because he had also thrown snow sticks just now, Therefore, the people of the Xuebing clan are now in extreme chaos internally. After eating the snow sticks, many of them turned into a puddle of water without any fighting power. The leader of the Xuebing clan was very distressed to see his clansmen become like this. In addition, There were a few people's testimonies on the Internet saying that it was the Snow Elf leader who did it, so he was even more angry.

He had already explained that it was not him, but the Snow Elf leader didn't believe it and actually used such a damaging move against his people.

"The leader of this snow elf! See if I don't go find him myself and give him a good beating!"

Chapter 973

The leader of the Snow Ice Clan settled down the clansmen who had not turned into water, then closed the door and stopped welcoming them. Then he went out alone and angrily went to the cave of the Snow Elf Clan.

When Gu Shaoyang saw this, he wanted to go out and meet him, but suddenly he had another idea.

He followed the leader of the Snow Ice Clan to the entrance of the Snow Elf's cave. After the leader of the Snow Ice Clan entered and found that all the Snow Elves had turned into snow, Gu Shaoyang appeared disguised as the leader of the Snow Elves.

"Little man! Children! I'm back!" Gu Shaoyang imitated the voice of the snow elf leader.

When the leader of the Snow Ice Clan in the cave heard the snow elf's voice, and the snow elves all over the ground turned into snow, he subconsciously wanted to escape.

Although this book He didn't do it, but if the Snow Elf leader saw it, he would definitely think it was him. He couldn't explain it even if he had a mouth all over his body! So the leader of the Snow Ice Clan staggered out of the cave and wanted to find him quickly. He hid somewhere, but as soon as he came out, he met the snow elf leader Gu Shaoyang pretended to be

"Why are you here? Could it be that you are using your dirty tricks against the remaining snow elves like me again?"

Gu Shaoyang started to question the leader of the Snow Ice Tribe as soon as he saw it, and then immediately dragged him to prevent him from leaving, and then forcibly took him back to the cave.

When he saw the snow elves all over the ground turned into snow, he immediately bulged his eyes. He looked at the leader of the Snow Ice Tribe.

However, when the leader of the Snow Ice Tribe saw him like this, he immediately showed a horrified expression, and then he immediately stretched out his hand and shook it in the air: "It's not me! not me!"

The leader of the Snow Ice Tribe was struggling as he spoke, while Gu Shaoyang quietly grabbed him and refused to let him leave.

"You were the only one who came here before I came back, how could this be done by someone else! Even if you lie, you have to look at the actual situation!"

Gu Shaoyang pretended to be the leader of the snow elves and looked very impressive, and then his mind started to work rapidly.

"no! You must come up with me to find your superiors! I must punish you!"

Gu Shaoyang guessed that the snow elves and the snow ice clan in the snow mountains should be the lowest level elves. There should be people in charge of them above them, and they must also know the fast passage from bottom to top.

So. As long as Gu Shaoyang forces the leader of the Snow Ice Clan to go up, he can take him to the top of the snow mountain faster.

"no! You want to sue me again, but this time it's obviously you who is wrong! Don't even think about taking advantage!"

When the leader of the Xuebing clan saw Gu Shaoyang turning around and walking outside, he immediately pushed him away, and then immediately ran past him and ran forward.

Gu Shaoyang just wanted him to lead the way, so he fell to the ground. , to make room for him.

After he ran to the front, Gu Shaoyang got up from the ground and started to chase him.

"stop? You bully my tribe and you want the villain to file a complaint first! See if I don't catch you, I'll deal with you first!"

Gu Shaoyang followed closely behind the leader of the Snow Ice Tribe, and the leader of the Snow Ice Tribe was chased by Gu Shaoyang and ran very fast:"Obviously it was you who made the snow sticks and turned my tribe members into popsicles! You still want to slander me!"

"We will find out who is slandering whom by going to the higher authorities to comment on them!"

Gu Shaoyang is not a snow elf. After running behind the leader of the Snow Ice Tribe for a while, he became a little exhausted, but he kept insisting in order not to reveal his secret. The leader of the Snow Ice Tribe was also out of breath as he was chasing him. But because he was used to the weather on the snow-capped mountains, he could adjust quickly.

But in order to prevent Gu Shaoyang from following him any longer, he secretly made a big snow cake and threw it at Gu Shaoyang.

Gu Shaoyang subconsciously His reaction was to avoid it. Such behavior made the leader of the Snow Ice Tribe feel suspicious after seeing it.

Snow elves are the least afraid of snow. Besides, what I just threw at him was a snow cake. Logically speaking, he should eat it directly with his mouth wide open. Go down instead of hiding!

The leader of the Snow Ice Tribe quickly realized something was wrong, but Gu Shaoyang, pretending to be the leader of the snow elves, ignored this.

No! I have to experiment again! What if he still avoids this time and sees If he was unmoved by the snow cake, then he is a fake!

The leader of the Snow Ice Tribe thought silently in his heart, and once again made a big snow cake and threw it at Gu Shaoyang, and the result was not what he expected. The person behind me is indeed not the leader of the snow elves! It seems that he is pretending!

But why does he pretend to be the leader of the snow elves and dare to go up the mountain to confront me? What is his purpose?

The leader of the Snow Ice Tribe is here After realizing that the person behind him was not the leader of the snow elves, he kept guessing about his identity. Finally, he suddenly thought of the gossip he had heard from his tribe before. He heard they said that humans had broken into the territory of the snow elves, and then the leader of the snow elves He sent people to deal with him. Later, the leader of the snow elves came to him and said that he used snow cakes to deal with them.

Chapter 974

Now it seems that all this should be done by that human being! And the purpose of this human being should be to go to the top of the snow mountain and take away our treasure! no! I absolutely can't let him succeed! I have to lead him to another place, and then go up the mountain to report to the commander!

After the leader of the Snow Ice Clan found out, he deliberately took Gu Shaoyang and ran towards the place where Xue Bing was.

Snow Devour is a very dangerous place in their snow-capped mountains. Once you enter, your soul is likely to be shattered. Even the creatures on their snow-capped mountains will not be spared if you enter.

What's more, Gu Shaoyang, a human being!

Gu Shaoyang didn't know the plan of the leader of the Snow Ice Tribe at this time, so he just kept a certain distance from him and followed him not too far or too close.

Following the leader of the Snow Ice Clan, Gu Shaoyang found that he was walking in a straight line at first, but now he suddenly turned a big turn and ran in the opposite direction. Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but wonder, and he couldn't help but doubt.

Why did the leader of the Snow Ice Tribe suddenly make such a big detour? Did he find me? Shouldn't it? Where do I have Exposed?

Gu Shaoyang kept reflecting on himself while being confused. He looked at himself and carefully checked whether there were any details that he had not handled well, but he did not find any.

Just when he was about to withdraw his gaze and calm down, he suddenly found a piece of snow and white sugar on his body!

Isn't this a snow cake? Why is it on my body?

Gu Shaoyang knocked the snow and sugar off his body with his hands, and while he was beating it, he suddenly remembered.

Now he is the leader of the snow elves, and the snow elves like snow cakes the most, but he was unmoved when he saw the snow cakes! This loophole is his biggest flaw!

And now the leader of the Snow Ice Clan no longer throws snow cakes at him. It seems that he has doubted his identity. Now he is changing direction and probably doesn't want to take him to the mountain.

And it is very likely that he will deliberately take him to a very dangerous place on the snowy mountain!

Thinking of this, Gu Shaoyang immediately stopped, and then shouted loudly at the leader of the Snow Ice Clan: "You villain! The direction you are running now is not the direction to find the leader at all!"

"Now you just want to take me to seek my own death! With your calculations, you still dare to say that we snow elves were not harmed by you! You see, I'm not clean, so I went up the mountain to report it!"

After Gu Shaoyang said that, he immediately turned around and ran in the direction he had just come from. The leader of the Snow Ice Clan couldn't help but wonder when he saw that the Snow Elf leader he suspected had found out.

If he were a human, he would not know that this direction was wrong, but he did just now I was unmoved in the face of the snow cake! Did I think too much?

The leader of the Snow Ice Clan was made to doubt himself by Gu Shaoyang's trance move, and Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but breathed a sigh of relief when he saw that his goal was achieved.

But then He began to worry again, because he couldn't find the road at all!

No! I still have to find a way to let the leader of the Snow Ice Tribe in front, otherwise I won't find it at all.

Gu Shaoyang thought silently in his heart, Then he made snow sticks while running, and soon a long snow stick appeared in his hand.

After seeing the snow stick in Gu Shaoyang's hand, the leader of the Snow Ice Tribe could no longer resist the temptation. Originally, he and There was a long distance between Gu Shaoyang.

As a result, he jumped up with the snow stick, flew directly in front of Gu Shaoyang, and then snatched the snow stick from his hand.

Gu Shaoyang watched the snow stick in his hand being moved by him After taking away the food, the leader of the Snow Ice Tribe began to lose consciousness.

And if he continues like this for a while, he will turn into a popsicle, so he must seize this time to ask the leader of the Snow Ice Tribe the way to the snow mountain, otherwise If he misses it, no one can tell him.

"Do you still want a snow stick? If you want, tell me the shortcut to the snow mountain. As long as you tell me, I will give you another one."

Gu Shaoyang no longer plays the role of the leader of the snow elves now. He directly returns to his true form, but he is wrapped in a layer of white cloth, integrating himself with the snow.

"Just go up here, walk in a circle, close your eyes and feel it, and you can see the road."

The leader of the Snow Ice Clan who lost his mind had to answer all Gu Shaoyang's questions, and he himself had no memory at all.

"So how can you, the Snow Ice Clan, recover after turning into popsicles? Like the snow elves, does it only need to snow again?"

Gu Shaoyang suddenly thought of something, so when he turned around and was about to leave, he suddenly returned

"We are the opposite of the snow elves. They need snow to accumulate and rely on the accumulation of snow to recover, but we need clear skies and sunshine, so that the sun can shine on our bodies and melt the ice on our bodies."

The leader of the Xuebing clan gave a somewhat mechanical answer, and after Gu Shaoyang got the answer he wanted, he gave the leader of the Xuebing clan a snow stick before leaving with satisfaction.

According to the directions given by the leader of the Xuebing clan, Gu Shaoyang walked The speed is indeed much faster, and the higher we climb, the less cold the temperature becomes.

Chapter 975

Not only did his hands and feet no longer freeze, he no longer needed to use internal force to maintain his own temperature.

Moreover, the weather was so warm that he could take a short break and survey the surrounding terrain to see if there was anyone nearby.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang came to a cave and lay down for a rare sleep.

Because he is not familiar with the snow-capped mountains and is worried that he will encounter danger while sleeping, he can set up a barrier after entering the cave to prevent anyone from intruding.

After doing all this, he dared to sleep peacefully, and it was rare for him to sleep soundly, probably because he hadn't closed his eyes for several days.

Or maybe it was because he was physically and mentally exhausted from the battle of wits and courage with the snow elves and the leader of the Snow Ice Tribe on the snowy mountain.

But when Gu Shaoyang rarely rested in the cave, someone passed by outside the snow mountain. This person was also alone. However, he did not take a shortcut like Gu Shaoyang, but walked up step by step. He came to the snow mountain for a longer period of time. Gu Shaoyang wants half as much.

However, because Gu Shaoyang was in a deep sleep, he did not hear the sound outside the cave. It was only when he woke up that he found someone's footprints outside the cave.

Gu Shaoyang raised his hand to remove the barrier, and then slowly walked out of the cave. Because there was no day or night on the snow-capped mountains, there was a dazzling light outside no matter what time of day.

In order to prevent his eyes from being hurt by the snowy mountains, Gu Shaoyang could only wear dark glasses to cover his eyes.

"Why are there human footprints here!" Although Gu Shaoyang wore dark glasses, he still recognized human footprints at a glance.

After realizing that there were other human beings here, Gu Shaoyang was still a little excited, and he kept following the footprints to find this person..

However, the smell of snow-capped mountains changes rapidly, and some footprints were covered by heavy snow, so Gu Shaoyang couldn't find any traces after searching for half of it.

But he had no choice but to give up looking for similar people.

"well! I don't know how long the man on this snow mountain has been here, and whether he recognizes Dahan or not."

Gu Shaoyang muttered to himself as he looked at the missing footprints, then squatted on the ground and wrote Dahan's name with his fingers. After writing, he turned and left, observing the situation around him.

Now he has recovered his energy after resting for a night. , and he had to hurry up to get the fourth key that existed on the snow mountain.

Thinking of this, Gu Shaoyang stood up directly from the ground, and then walked in a circle on the snow mountain.

Because of the experience of the snow elves and the snow ice clan before leaving, So Gu Shaoyang was much more careful when he continued walking forward this time, for fear of encountering any creatures on the snow-capped mountains again.

However, even though Gu Shaoyang was already very careful, he still couldn't avoid meeting him again.

This time, what Gu Shaoyang met was The most difficult snowworms on the snowy mountains, their bodies are extremely cold, and they are white but extremely hard.

Although they have no legs and feet and can only move by the wriggling of their bodies, their speed cannot be underestimated.

If a normal human being is one kilometer If it takes ten minutes, they can reach it in half the time, so they are also called speed bugs on the snowy mountains.

These bugs are not only fast, but also have delicious meat. After eating, they can increase the speed of people on the snowy mountains. , some people go to the snowy mountains just to catch this kind of bug, and then sell it to people who go to the snowy mountain to hunt for treasure.

Although Gu Shaoyang didn't buy this kind of bug, he heard people talk about it, so when he saw this kind of bug He subconsciously wants to capture it.

He now knows the shortcut to the top of the snow mountain. As long as his speed can be increased, the time until he reaches the top will be greatly shortened.

And with this insect, he can also replenish his physical strength. , so catching this speed bug is very beneficial to him.

Rumor has it that these bugs all act alone, but they are in groups in their nests. If they can find their nest, catch the bugs sleeping inside. Live, Gu Shaoyang no longer has to worry about speed.

Lifting up the clothes covering his trouser legs, Gu Shaoyang knelt on the ground with one foot and picked up a little snow with his fingers, then groped with his fingertips to see if there was any mucus on it.

As long as it was a speed bug. Their unique mucus will definitely be left wherever they walk, because their whereabouts are unpredictable, and there is nothing else to judge except looking for their mucus on the snow.

Then Gu Shaoyang tried it and found that there was no mucus:"It seems that their range of activities is not that low, and should still be at the upper level."

Getting up and brushing off the snowflakes on his body, Gu Shaoyang continued to walk according to the shortcut told to him by the leader of the Snow Ice Tribe. After walking for another whole day, he suddenly saw a white and shiny thing on a snowball.

Because Gu Shaoyang wore dark glasses, so the shiny white thing was particularly obvious, and Gu Shaoyang stood there and found out at a glance.

The shiny white thing on the snowball was exactly the speed bug he had been looking for!

"It's actually here!"

Chapter 976

After Gu Shaoyang discovered its traces, he immediately leaned down and approached cautiously, fearing that the noise would be too loud and scare it away.

However, even though Gu Shaoyang was very careful, the speed bug on the snowball was still awakened by Gu Shaoyang's heavy breathing.

Because they have extremely high requirements for the sleeping environment, it must be a place where there is no sound at all. Because of this, they can be awakened by the slightest sound while sleeping.

When the speed bug was awakened by Gu Shaoyang and found that Gu Shaoyang's hand had reached behind him to grab it, it immediately ducked and disappeared in front of Gu Shaoyang in less than a second.

At the same place, Gu Shaoyang could only see a little bit of speed bug slime left on the snowball.

Seeing all the ducks flying away, Gu Shaoyang felt it was a pity, but he was not completely without gain. There was still a little secreted mucus left by the speed bug.

Although his mucus is not as effective as eating it itself, it can still have some effect, so Gu Shaoyang grabbed the snow from the place where the speed bug just stayed and stuffed it into his mouth.

Because he had never eaten it before, he thought it must taste fishy, but who knew that after entering his mouth, it turned out to be very fresh and sweet, just like seafood.

The taste was so delicious that after eating it, Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but smash it in his mouth, savoring the taste just now.

"The speed bug slime tastes so good, so I guess the taste of his hand would taste even better!"

After tasting a little sweetness, Gu Shaoyang was even more looking forward to catching speed bugs.

Now that he discovered the speed bugs, Gu Shaoyang took two steps and leaned down to check whether there was speed bug mucus on the snow, so as to judge their location.

For a while In the snow-covered snow, only Gu Shaoyang was seen bending down every few steps, as if he was worshiping devoutly, but in fact he was looking for it. He bowed down every few steps, so mechanically After repeating the action many times, Gu Shaoyang felt that his waist was no longer his waist.

His neck was also very sore, as if he had been beaten.

"This speed bug is too cunning!"

After searching seriously for a long time, Gu Shaoyang found nothing at all. He was so exhausted that he simply lay down in the snow.

Because except for speed bugs, there was nothing nearby that could pose a threat to him. , so he simply put a piece of cloth in the snow.

Then he lay directly on the cloth and wore a homemade eye mask to rest.

Because his body was too tired and his stomach was empty, he decided to take a nap and recover. He continued to climb towards the top of the mountain while searching.

Just like that, Gu Shaoyang lay on the snow and soon fell into a deep sleep. After he fell asleep, the speed bug he had been looking for came out.

In the middle of three days Two speed bugs emerged from the snow. They were not moving on the surface of the snow, but on a layer inside the snow.

After the speed bugs emerged, they gathered around Gu Shaoyang and did not dare to get close. Then they kept staring. After watching Gu Shaoyang for several hours, they slowly approached him after feeling that he was not in danger.

The Speed Bug approached Gu Shaoyang not to hurt him, but because they had poor sleep quality, and dark places could help him fall asleep quickly, and He was sleeping soundly.

When Gu Shaoyang was sleeping, he spread a piece of cloth on the snow. The speed bugs were really good at getting in, keeping them in the dark.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang slept on the cloth, while the speed bugs slept underneath..

And after the first speed bug got into Gu Shaoyang's body to sleep, there was a second one, and a third one...

Then more and more speed bugs were attracted, but the size of the cloth Gu Shaoyang spread was limited, so There are still many speed bugs that have not been able to get in and can only crowd in the corners.

And there are so many of them that they crowded around Gu Shaoyang, and he was like a dish. When he woke up He found himself next to a swarm of speed bugs.

When Gu Shaoyang woke up and saw his situation, he thought it was really a dream, so he fell down and continued to sleep.

But when he fell down and his body came into contact with the snow, he discovered the real touch, This is not a dream, this is reality!

"this....."

Surprised, Gu Shaoyang immediately covered his mouth as soon as he uttered a word, and then his breathing slowly became controlled.

Finally, he made sure that his voice was very quiet, and when he found it was almost inaudible, he carefully moved his body to take a closer look.

Gu Shaoyang slowly stood up from the cloth he had laid out, and then he saw many bulges of different sizes under the cloth.

In order to check, Gu Shaoyang carefully opened the cloth. As a result, when he just opened it a little to let the light in, the speed bug inside began to squirm, as if it was about to wake up.

Seeing this, Gu Shaoyang quickly covered the cloth in his hand: How could he move in the light? Could it be that they like to sleep in dark places?

Chapter 977

With a guess in his mind, Gu Shaoyang began to try to uncover the cloth several times. Whenever light came in, the speed bug began to squirm.

He quickly put down the cloth again, and then he discovered that the speed bug would return to calm once it was in a dark place.

It seems to be as I suspected, so who wouldn't run away if they were caught in a dark place?

After solving one conjecture, another conjecture emerged in his mind: No! I'll have to try it myself!

There are so many speed bugs here now! If I try ten, it should be about the same.

Gu Shaoyang thought silently in his heart, and then carefully left the cloth spread on the snow and stood aside. Because of the cloth cover, the speed bugs are all in a deep sleep.

Therefore, Gu Shaoyang's actions and the sounds he made were inaudible. Gu Shaoyang stood there wanting to try and catch them while they were in deep sleep to see if they would react.

If they didn't respond, then all the speed bugs in front of Gu Shaoyang would be in his pocket!

And now the success or failure depends on the moment he catches it!

Gu Shaoyang rubbed his hands to ensure the flexibility of his hands, then carefully uncovered a little bit of the cloth and put his hand into the cloth to explore.

As soon as he reached in, he touched something hard. At first, Gu Shaoyang was cautious for fear of waking them up, but after he caught three or four in a row, he became bolder.

Because he is now sure that the speed bug is not as vigilant when he is sleeping, and it was unmoved when he caught him.

The only thing you have to be careful about is not letting them see the light, otherwise it will be counterproductive.

"Now you can climb the snow mountain faster!"

Gu Shaoyang continued to block the light and put the speed bugs into his space ring. It didn't take long before he caught thirty or forty of them.

Seeing so many speed bugs, Gu Shaoyang didn't want to continue catching them, so he wanted to give them some life back. , but he was worried that the snow-capped mountains were far away, and it would be difficult without this speed bug.

And if he met the old man's grandson on the mountain, he would definitely have to give him the speed bug, otherwise he would not be able to keep up with him.

In this way Thinking that Gu Shaoyang still had some speed bugs that might not be enough, he caught them faster, fearing that they would suddenly wake up and run away later. After speeding up, Gu Shaoyang caught all the speed bugs in a few minutes. After he finished catching, he directly took away the cloth spread on the snow.

After all, he could use the same method next time he wanted to catch speed bugs.

After putting away the cloth and leaving dozens of speed bugs alone, Gu Shaoyang once again As he set out on the road to the snowy mountains, he had just had a good sleep, and now he was full of energy and energy.

Moreover, he had just caught the speed bugs, so he could just use them to provide for his food and clothing.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang directly took it out of the space ring. A speed bug came out, and Gu Shaoyang was worried that it would suddenly wake up, so he took a piece of black cloth to cover it.

In this way, the speed bug would not wake up, and he could take a good look at how to eat them.

The speed bug His whole body was so hard that he couldn't bite it open even with his teeth. He had to find a way to do it.

Gu Shaoyang raised his head and looked at the sky. Suddenly, four big words appeared in his mind, and he was sure of it instantly. Ideas – steam, stir-fry or stir-fry?

"This speed bug lives in a cold place all year round, so it is probably most afraid of heat, so I will use fire to deal with it!"

With this thought, Gu Shaoyang started the pot and lit it on fire, then took two speed bugs from the space ring and threw them into the pot, and then quickly closed the lid.

Make sure that the speed bugs staying inside were in a dark environment.

Part 1 After the pot boiled for about half an hour, Gu Shaoyang carefully opened the lid to check. When he opened the lid, he did not find the speed bug.

But the originally white snow turned into a light blue.

Take Gu Shaoyang picked up a spoon and filled a bowl, then put it to his nose and sniffed gently. He only smelled a refreshing fragrance, and then Gu Shaoyang took a sip.

When he drank it into his mouth, a sweet and refreshing taste filled his nose. It exploded in his mouth, and as he swallowed, the light blue snow water and the speed bugs that had probably melted entered his stomach.

After having this bowl of soup in his stomach, Gu Shaoyang instantly became more energetic It was as if he had eaten three cows.

After eating, drinking, and resting, Gu Shaoyang put the things into the space ring guard, and then continued to set off towards the top of the snow mountain.

Because the shortcut had to go around the snow mountain, Gu Shaoyang walked to When the snow-capped mountains were facing south, he finally met his kind - a person!

After seeing the person, Gu Shaoyang greeted him warmly as if he were seeing a relative: "Hey! Big brother! How long have you been here?"

"What did you come up for? Do you want snowdrops or do you want to catch speed bugs? Why don't we two work together?"

Chapter 978

Chapter 978 Wind

Because there was still a distance between Gu Shaoyang and that person, Gu Shaoyang could only roar loudly to ensure that the other person could hear him.

But he didn't expect him to be so loud, and the other party still didn't react at all.

Am I not loud enough? Why can't he hear it?

Gu Shaoyang thought that his voice was not loud enough, so he called again several times, but not only did the other party not respond, but he even raised his head and squinted at him.

That look seemed to be calling Gu Shaoyang a fool, but also seemed to be disdainful of him.

Why are you ignoring me?

Gu Shaoyang was very puzzled, but in order to find out what was going on, he still ran forward and asked carefully.

Because Gu Shaoyang ate the speed bug, he ran very briskly in the snow. He didn't feel strenuous at all, but he was also very fast.

He arrived in front of the man in a few steps, and then Gu Shaoyang directly spread his arms to block his way.

"Hey! Brother, can't you hear me? Why are you ignoring me?"

After Gu Shaoyang got closer, he saw that the person in front of him had fair skin, but his hands were very rough, and his lips were chapped. It looked like he had spent some time on the snow-capped mountains.

"Um? Can't you hear me?" When Gu Shaoyang saw that he still had no reaction, he could only dance and gesture, hoping that he could understand what he meant. Did you see a young man? His grandfather was waiting for him below.

Gu Shaoyang danced and gestured out these words, but in front of him But the young man pushed him away without saying anything.

"It seems that this little brother is not only unable to hear, but also mute! well! So pathetic!"

When Gu Shaoyang saw that the other party didn't answer, he secretly guessed in his heart, and he finally met someone of the same kind, so naturally he wouldn't leave him behind.

"Little brother, my name is Gu Shaoyang. Maybe we are the only two on this snowy mountain now, otherwise we can depend on each other."

Gu Shaoyang was walking, talking and gesticulating with his hands, just to let the brother in front of him understand what he meant.

Gu Shaoyang thought he was mute, so he didn't ask his name and just used Little brother came to call him instead.

Regarding Gu Shaoyang's dancing gestures, the little brother neither refuted nor nodded, but just walked around him and walked alone.

The little brother walking in front of Gu Shaoyang also walked in a circle around the snow-capped mountains. Look at it this way I came to this little brother because he knows the shortcuts on the snowy mountains.

"Little brother, do you know what monsters there are on this snowy mountain? I just went up the mountain and already met three kinds, snow elves, snow and ice monsters, and snow worms."

As Gu Shaoyang spoke, he wrapped the snowworm he caught in black cloth and put it in front of the little brother.

After seeing the snowworm in Gu Shaoyang's hand, the little brother's eyes immediately shone. His Bingshan face also showed a rare look of desire.

Gu Shaoyang saw that he wanted these snow bugs, so he generously took out five of them from the space ring, then wrapped them in black cloth and handed them to him

"Seeing that you really want them, I still have dozens of them here, so I'll give you five."

Gu Shaoyang stretched out his hand and handed it to him, and the little brother stopped when he saw his hand stretched out in the air. He wanted to lift the hand hanging on his legs.

But after struggling for a while, he turned away and went straight towards He walked forward and gave up Gu Shaoyang's good intentions.

Gu Shaoyang was a little confused when he saw that the little brother wanted it but refused him:"Little brother, don't worry, I really have a lot of these bugs, just take it.""

"Are you worried that I will really ask you to help me find something? You think too much, I won't do that, and I won't ask you for any compensation."

Gu Shaoyang continued to dance and gesture, but the little brother was finally stopped by his non-stop movements, and finally took the snow insect in his hand.

"Thanks."

After taking the snow bug, the little brother suddenly surprised Gu Shaoyang, because the little brother suddenly said two words from his mouth, which made Gu Shaoyang, who originally thought he was mute, stunned.

"You...you can actually talk! I thought...hahaha....."

Gu Shaoyang originally wanted to say that he was mute, but in the end he held back those two words.

"So can you hear me?" After learning that the little brother was not mute, Gu Shaoyang guessed that he might not be deaf either, so he asked carefully. But this time, the little brother was no longer indifferent, but just nodded towards him lightly, answering all his questions.

"Ouch! I thought...then what's your name? Tell me what I can call you, otherwise I will always call you little brother."

After Gu Shaoyang saw that he was willing to take care of him, he started asking questions non-stop. The little brother didn't want to tell him in the first place, so at first he let him ask no matter how much he asked.

After Gu Shaoyang's persistent questioning, the little brother finally gave him the answer. His last name is

"okay! I tell you! Just call me Feng."

Chapter 979

"wind? Fine! Then I'll call you Feng Xiaodi. I feel like I'm much older than you. Just call me Brother Gu!"

After Gu Shaoyang finally got the answer, he started to make arrangements, and he knew that this little brother Feng didn't like to talk much, so he stopped talking.

The two of them walked together like this, heading towards the top of the snow mountain.

Gu Shaoyang didn't know that little brother Feng went to the snow mountain. What is it for, and Feng Xiaodi also doesn't know what Gu Shaoyang went to the snow mountain for.

In fact, it's not that Gu Shaoyang has never asked, but Feng Xiaodi seems to have experienced something, so no matter how Gu Shaoyang asks, he doesn't answer.

As time goes by, Gu Shaoyang It's rare to ask. After all, it's someone else's business, and he can't keep forcing it. After walking on the snowy mountain for another two days and one night, the speed bug in Gu Shaoyang's body has been exhausted. Gradually, his physical strength can't keep up, and Feng Xiaodi But he can maintain the speed.

Gu Shaoyang watched Feng Xiaodi walking with a cold face, not knowing whether he was tired or not: "Brother Feng, aren't you tired? I feel a little tired already."

The further up he went, Gu Shaoyang felt as if something was blocking his breathing, making him breathless.

"This is your first time going to a snow mountain."

Faced with Gu Shaoyang's inquiry, Feng Xiaodi rarely said a few words, but his words were all affirmative sentences. There was no doubt. He seemed to have no interest in Gu Shaoyang at all.

"yes! First time, isn't this your first time on a snow mountain?"

Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but be curious when he saw how mature he looked, but Feng Xiaodi fell into silence again, as if he was isolating himself from the outside world.

"well! Why are you like this again!" Gu Shaoyang couldn't help but sigh deeply when he saw that he didn't answer, but he still insisted on keeping up.

In this way, Gu Shaoyang marched for another half day under the leadership of Feng Xiaodi, and his physical strength had been exhausted to the limit.

"No more! No more! Brother Feng, I really can't walk! Although there are no monsters on this snowy mountain, this road is really scarier than monsters!"

Gu Shaoyang said and sat down directly in the snow, while Feng Xiaodi stood quietly and watched him complain.

He neither meant to encourage him nor to help him up, which made Gu Shaoyang most fortunate. What's more, Feng Xiaodi didn't want to leave him alone.

"Brother Feng, you are waiting to cook a snowworm and we can eat it before we leave, otherwise my body will be too uncomfortable!"

Gu Shaoyang said that he was about to take out two snow bugs from the space ring, but before he could take it out, he was stopped by Feng Xiaodi.

"Stop eating it! You must break through your own physical limits, otherwise the road ahead will be even more difficult!"

Little Brother Feng grabbed Gu Shaoyang's hand and let go when he didn't take out any more snow bugs:"Rest where you are and wait a while before going on the road."

After finishing speaking, Feng Xiaodi also sat on Gu Shaoyang, while Gu Shaoyang asked curiously

"Brother Feng, are you familiar with this snow mountain?"

It is rumored that it is impossible for anyone to survive on this snowy mountain, but when Gu Shaoyang looked at Little Brother Feng, he looked like he had been living on the snowy mountain for several years.

"Um." Little brother Feng replied calmly. Although his tone was calm, Gu Shaoyang found that when he sat down to rest, his eyes were staring at the bottom of the mountain.

It was as if he was standing on the top of the mountain and looking at something down the mountain.

Gu Shaoyang saw his movements , and also looked down from his direction.

Although he was not familiar with this snow-capped mountain, he could still roughly tell the direction, and the place where Feng Xiaodi was looking was exactly at the foot of the mountain in the east.

And the foot of the mountain in the east is the place with the fewest people. , why does Feng Xiaodi miss that place? Is there someone he misses somewhere?

Gu Shaoyang muttered silently in his heart, although he wanted to ask Feng Xiaodi directly, but based on his understanding of him after observing him in the past few days.

Feng Xiaodi He would definitely not say anything to his inquiries, and asking too many questions would make him unhappy, so Gu Shaoyang could only rely on his own guesses.

Just when Gu Shaoyang thought for a long time and was about to give up, he suddenly thought of Dongbian Mountain There was a person at his feet - the old man!

Before he went up the mountain, he promised the old man to help him find his grandson. When he first met Feng Xiaodi, he thought he was mute, so he made a search plan for him.

But at that time But he pushed him away, and he didn't think about it again later. But now when he suddenly stopped to rest, he did think about it.

"Brother Feng, can I ask you about someone?"The more Gu Shaoyang looked at Feng Xiaodi, the more he felt that he might be the person he had been looking for.

So he asked directly. Although he knew that Feng Xiaodi might not answer him, he had the old man to help him before he went up the mountain. Something to give.

If Feng Xiaodi is really the person he wants to help the old man find, then he is not afraid that Feng Xiaodi will not admit it.

"Do you know the old man at the foot of the east mountain? When I went up the mountain, he asked me to help him find his grandson."

Chapter 980

Gu Shaoyang asked directly, and Feng Xiaodi's eyes were obviously moved when he heard Gu Shaoyang say that the old man was looking for his grandson.

But it disappeared in a flash, as if he was worried about something.

And Gu Shaoyang concluded that Feng Xiaodi was the grandson he wanted to help the old man find just by looking at him for that second.

But Feng Xiaodi seemed unwilling to admit it, and when Gu Shaoyang saw him like this, an idea suddenly came up in his heart, and he wanted to deliberately mess with him.

"well! Brother Feng, you don't know that the old man at the foot of the mountain is so pitiful! I heard that he had been waiting for his grandson at the foot of the mountain for several years, but he never did."

"Many people said that the grandson of the old man must be dead and asked him to go home quickly and find a place to live in his old age, but the old man had to say that his grandson was not dead yet."

"Moreover, I met the old man when I came up. He said that he would go up the mountain in person to find his grandson. Now that I have been here for so long, I don't know if the old man will really go up the mountain without any news from me."

Master GuAs he spoke, he looked in the direction where Feng Xiaodi was looking, with a worried look in his eyes. Feng Xiaodi immediately looked anxious after hearing Gu Shaoyang's words.

"Eh! Looking down from your position at the foot of the mountain on the east side, I don't know if the old man will meet the snow elves if he goes up the mountain. They are very good at throwing snowballs!"

Gu Shaoyang pursed his lips and kept staring at the foot of the mountain. When Feng Xiaodi heard what Gu Shaoyang said, he immediately got up from the snow and walked towards the top of the mountain.

Seeing him like this, Gu Shaoyang was not in a hurry, but put the space ring Inside, he took out a large bag of things the old man gave him.

"Before I left, the old man gave me a big bag of things, and I didn't know what was in it. Now I just remembered the old man, so I might as well open it and take a look."

As soon as he finished speaking, from the corner of his eye, Gu Shaoyang saw Feng Xiaodi, who had stood up and walked towards the top of the mountain, stop and squat down next to him.

Seeing that he still didn't acknowledge his identity, Gu Shaoyang took the package away. He said, "The old man asked me to bring this to his grandson. I can see it, but you can't."

After saying that, Gu Shaoyang got up and walked away with the package, but Feng Xiaodi immediately became anxious when he saw this.

"Eh! I... let's watch it together, the real old man doesn't know."

Little brother Feng looked very curious, but the more curious he was and the more he refused to acknowledge his identity, the more Gu Shaoyang refused to show him

"That won't work! I promised the old man! I must hand this package over to his grandson in person. What if there is some treasure inside and you see it and want to grab it directly?"

"And you are so familiar with this snow-capped mountain. What if you run away to hide somewhere and I can't find you, and then I find the old man's grandson who can't bring out anything to acknowledge you."

Gu Shaoyang used the old man as a shield in every word he said, as if he was not going to let him know whether he was alive or dead.

But Feng Xiaodi was anxious and angry. He stood up and tried to grab what Gu Shaoyang was holding, but he was blocked every time. Gu Shaoyang dodged perfectly

"You see! You see! Let me tell you, you will covet the treasure in this package! I started snatching it before I even saw it. If you saw it, you couldn't just kill me and take the package away! Gu

Shaoyang said as if to prevent Little Brother Feng from grabbing the package, he simply put the package into the space ring. When Little Brother Feng saw that he had put the things away, he ordered: "Hurry up and take out the package!" I want that package!"

However, Gu Shaoyang didn't take Brother Feng's orders to heart at all, because Brother Feng's cultivation level was simply not enough for him.

Although Brother Feng was physically stronger in the snow mountain, the reason why Gu Shaoyang was able to come up was entirely due to his strength. What matters is his own physical ability and cultivation.

"Come on, boy! You are no match for me! If you want to grab the package, you have to tell me who you are first!"

Gu Shaoyang has actually recognized him, but he just wants to force him to admit his identity. The Feng Xiaodi he told him before is not his real name at all. It should be a name he gave himself after going to the snow mountain.

"Brother Gu! I won't snatch your package, can we just take a look at it together?" Seeing that the robbery failed, Brother Feng began to pray, but his approach was not satisfactory to Gu Shaoyang.

"no! I must give the contents of the package to the old man's grandson. Okay, don't look at it and I won't look at it either! This is other people's privacy!"

When Gu Shaoyang saw that he still refused to admit his identity, he simply stopped forcing him. Maybe he had something to hide. But if Feng Xiaodi misses this opportunity, Gu Shaoyang won't do it easily the next time he wants to say that he is the grandson of the old man. Give him the package

"Okay, let's go quickly, don't waste time, if I can't find the grandson of the old man, I will go down the mountain and tell the old man! But we can't let the old man actually go up the mountain in person."
