Gwen

How dare he? I kept silent because if I said a word, I would burst into tears.

"Do you understand what I'm saying to you?" He said.

I kept mute.

"Are you there?" He asked, "I'm talking to you and I need a response."

I turned around and left his room banging the door behind me.

"Gwen?" I could still hear him calling my name.

What an asshole!

Alpha Noah

Okay, maybe I did too much or did I?

Perhaps she's mad at me.

I don't understand her. Did she realize how worried she left me?

Hold on a minute, why did I get so worked up? Why did I go searching for her all through the night? I couldn't even sleep.

No, I don't have feelings for her. She's a member of my pack and she also lives in my house. She is my responsibility.

I should be the furious one here.

She seems so upset I hope she's not thinking of leaving.

What am I supposed to do now? Apologize? I can't do that. I can't apologize to a maid.

Well I don't care if she's mad, she'll get over it. I'd rather have her mad at me than be in trouble.

Alpha Noah

The next morning, she knocks on my door. I could already tell she was the one from her scent so I ordered her in.

"Good morning." She said

I can't see but I can tell that she's not smiling. I think I look forward to her scent these days. That lavender and lemon scent. It just makes me feel at home. 1

Perhaps, I perceived something familiar on the other night out but it was stronger.

Good morning, Gwen. Hope you had a good rest. I say.

She paused before answering my question.

"I'm fine, thank you." She said blandly.

Nothing else. She didn't even ask if I rested well.

Yeah, she's mad.

At least she's still here. Is she here to tell me that she's leaving?

Maybe I should just apologize for yesterday.

I clear my airways to render the most nonapologetic apology

Hmm, I want to ...

"I want..." We end up talking at the same time so we both pause

Ok, you go first, I say first with the hope that she wouldn't resign.

"No, let me just put this out," I interrupted her again.

"The way I spoke to you yesterday might have been a bit harsh so please do not take it to heart. My top priority is keeping my pack safe. It would be a shame if I couldn't keep a member of my household safe. So, please. Next time, make your whereabouts known." I say.

She was silent for a second.

"I will heed your warnings. I apologize." She said,

She is sorry! Yeah, that's how you be a boss!!!

"I heard you were attacked yesterday, can I check your wounds?" She said,

My wounds? No, it's no bother. I'm fine.

I shouldn't have said that. I want to keep her around a bit more but I already said no. It's too late now.

"Any other thing you need my help with?" She asks calmly.

No, I'm good.

Then she leaves.

I hate to see her go. I'm beginning to lose focus. I'm acting normal. What is she doing to me? I don't even know what she looks like, but I know what she smells like, what she sounds like, and what having her around makes me feel like.

Gwen

Damn, I can't believe this guy. He's the worst. Was that supposed to be an apology?

I can't wait to gather enough money so I won't have to deal with the likes of him.

I met Peter in the hallway as I was leaving Noah's office.

I like Peter, he's cheerful and simple. I'm sure he's a smooth lover, unlike some hard dude that I work for.

"Hey, Peter! How are you today?" I greet him.

"Gwen!" He said in a lively tone. How are you?" He smiled

I'm great.

"I can see you're getting a hand oh how things run in our pack. We get attacks from time to time here but I'm sure you'll be fine. Our alpha might be blind but he has eyes everywhere. You'll be safe. " He said

"So who were the people that attacked yesterday?"

They were a bunch of rouges. I think they were sent by the same guys who tried to attack you. They wanted to have a beef with our alpha. I think he messed that guy up pretty badly. I heard he couldn't change to his wolf again after Noah attacked him. He's in pretty bad shape. " Peter explained.

What? I was dumbfounded.

" I need to go report to the alpha, I'll see you later Gwen. " He left while I stood in the hallway in shock.

That is why he was worried about me. He thought I had been attacked.

I can't believe the trouble I brought him, now he's fighting with other packs just because of me. Damn! I was too hard on him.

I need to apologize to him. He only acted like an Alpha.

Alpha Noah

Peter is in my office to give me reports on the ambush last night and just like I suspected, they were rouges, sent by the wolves who attacked Gwen.

It's the audacity they have to try to attack back that amazes me.

The guy I bit has lost his changing power.

Yeah, that happens sometimes but these fools wouldn't learn. My Thyla is so powerful that if my bite goes deep into a wolf's bloodstream, it could either kill or de-wolf it.

People who misuse the power of their wolves deserve to be de-wolfed.

Next time they would not mess with mine.

I tell Peter to disburse an army to find these culprits and their kind and make sure he erases them from existing. Otherwise, they will keep coming back.

Peter as usual 9s up with his banters.

"Wherever these wolves are they'd think you are in battle with them because they mess with your mate. If you would go this length for your maid, I wonder how far you'd go for me.. " he smiles stupidly.

I don't have time for your foolishness, I say.

" On a serious note Noah, I was thinking Gwen, your maid should come to stay with me for the time being... " He said and I couldn't believe the words that were falling out of his mouth.

" Are you out of your mind Peter? Why would you suggest that? "

I ask him.

" You might keep getting attacked each time you step out and a lot of eyes will be on you and her. It's not safe, especially for you. I don't want us to start meaningless wars. "

Everything you just said made no sense whatsoever. What purpose will she serve in your house Peter, tell me?

If you are horny, I can take you to a strip club where you'd get a good shag! Take your eyes off my maid.

"No, you're getting it all wrong, of course, she still belongs in the pack, just for safety purposes... "

Shut up, Your business is done here I guess, bye. I say and bid him farewell.

I can't believe this dude!
