- Chapter 545: The Way to Break Out of the Situation. The Primal Fear of the Beast!

How could she escape?

There was an adjective to describe the situation: a dead end!

That was, a situation where there was no way out! Elena closed her eyes in despair.

Should she... not trust this young man whom she had never met before, whom she had only met once?

'If I had trusted my judgment and rushed over directly, even if the sleigh was slowed down a little, there might still be a chance of survival. But the situation before me...

'It should be hopeless.'

Elena sat on the sleigh in despair. She lowered her head and sighed heavily.

"We're finished..."

Elena said in disappointment.

"Awooo!"

Seeing Elena's desperate expression, the leader of the wolf magic beasts, the Magic Beast Wolf King, suddenly felt proud!

That's right, you guys are finished!

Under such circumstances, even though they were as vigilant as the Wolf King, they relaxed. These humans were obviously in a desperate situation.

Unless they could grow wings out of thin air!

However, this was obviously impossible.

Moreover, so what if they grew wings? He was a wolf magic beast.

He could use long-range hail spells to attack!

His subordinates, so many wolf-type magic beasts, could also use long-range attacks!

If they dared to fly, then what if he let them fly?

“Sigh... it seems that optimism can't be used as food...”

Elena looked at Joelson helplessly.

This person looked quite handsome, but she did not expect him to come up with such a stupid idea...

Sigh, it was a pity that she had never been in a relationship before. She had not even kissed someone before.

It was as if she had a sweet relationship and died. She, who had never experienced anything before, was too unwilling to die just like that.

At least, let me know what it feels like to kiss.

Elena thought dejectedly as she looked at Joelson who was lying on the sleigh.

Hmm...

He wasn't very handsome, but he was really very handsome.

At first glance, she thought he was handsome. Now that she was in a life-and-death situation, she didn't expect him to be so handsome.

Why not... make do with him?

He could be considered to have fulfilled his bucket list...

However, how should she ask?

Why not forcefully kiss this youth?

No, no, no, it doesn't seem very polite...

Elena thought in distress. She did not notice that there was not a trace of despair on Joelson's face. Instead, he revealed a confident smile.

“Elena, can you help me up?”

Joelson asked and suddenly opened his mouth, scaring Elena.

“What's wrong?”

Joelson looked at the frightened Elena and asked in confusion.

“Nothing!”

Elena shook her head with a red face.

“That’s good... I said, can you help me up, Miss Elena?”

Joelson sighed and continued to say.

“Yes, okay...”

Elena answered absentmindedly, then went up and helped Joelson up.

What was this girl thinking?

What Joelson didn’t know was that Elena had already made a big decision!

She was going to die anyway, so who cared about her manners!

“I’m sorry, Mr. Joelson!”

The moment Elena thought about it, she lowered her head and kissed him directly!

“Miss Elena... Hmm?”

Joelson was shocked. Elena’s cold little mouth gently touched his mouth, as if cotton wool was touching his feet, which made people’s hearts stir.

“Miss Elena...?”

Elena raised her head and turned her face away, not daring to look at Joelson anymore. Meanwhile, Joelson was also dumbfounded. He looked at Elena and recalled Miss Elena’s outrageous action just now.

“I... I’m sorry!”

Elena said with a red face.

“Since I’m going to die, I’ll be straightforward. I want to experience the feeling of kissing before I die. I haven’t experienced it yet. I’m sorry for using you to attack Mr. Joelson!”

Elena turned her head away, not daring to look at Joelson at all.

“Hehe... you little girl... who said we’re going to die?”

Joelson laughed lightly, amused by Elena’s cuteness.

“Ah? That’s it... we still have a way to live?”

Elena said in puzzlement.

Elena pointed at the surrounding wolf pack. The wolf pack had already surrounded their sleigh from three layers inside and three layers outside. When Joelson and Elena said that there was a chance of survival, Elena would only feel that Joelson’s brain had been scared silly!

The Magic Beast Wolf King of the wolf magic beasts looked at the two people kissing each other. Suddenly, an unknown fire rose in his heart. When he saw the confident smile on Joelson’s face, the Magic Beast Wolf King of the wolf-type magic beasts was instantly furious!

It seemed that these two humans had treated their wolf magic beast army as a spectator stand for romance?

Anger instantly burned the wolf magic beast’s mind!

The Magical Beast Wolf King, who could no longer hold back, raised its head and issued a new order!

“Awoo...! (Wolf Language: Don’t be too proud. Everyone, attack!)”

The encirclement had been completely completed, and there was really no need to wait anymore!

The Magical Beast Wolf King opened its bloody mouth in anger, looking at the people on the sleigh below. It was furious, and directly gave the order to attack!

“Roar!”

The wolf magic beasts roared and immediately launched a general attack on the sleigh of Joelson and Elena!

“Waaa!!”

Elena covered her face in fear. She didn’t dare to look at the wolf pack. She didn’t dare to look because Elena was afraid that she would see the scene of her body being torn apart by the wolf magic beasts.

At this moment, there was only one thought in Elena’s mind.

She hoped that the wolf magic beasts would give her a quick death!

“Open your eyes, Elena. Look carefully. There is still a chance!”

Joelson excitedly looked at the tight, 360-degree encirclement. This was what he wanted!

“Drink!”

Joelson suddenly shouted and stretched out his hands. A terrifying aura appeared on his body!

“Flame Elves, please help me and listen to my commands!”

As he chanted, he mobilized his meager magic energy.

Damn it, if it was in the past, he would have been able to cast such a low-level spell in an instant. Now that things had come to this, his body was extremely weak, and he could only go back to the time when he had just learned magic and chant honestly... This was the only way to ensure the success of the spell!

“Flight of Fire: Fire Snake!”

A terrifying fire snake spat out!

With a rumble, the fire snake spat out from Joelson’s two hands. It was burning as it shot towards the pack of wolf demonic beasts!

The orange-red flames instantly lit up the entire valley. The raging flames were very terrifying!

With a rumble, the fire serpent spat out from Joelson’s two hands, burning as it shot towards the pack of wolf demonic beasts!

The orange-red flames instantly lit up the entire valley. The raging flames were so terrifying!

“Roar!”

The wolf demonic beasts immediately looked at the flames that they had never seen before in horror. Fear instantly crept into their hearts!

The deepest fear of humans was the unknown. Similarly, the fear of all living creatures was the same, the unknown!

The wolf demonic beasts in this world of ice and snow had never seen a fire before, and today was their first time seeing a fire. They were instantly terrified!

“Awoo, awoo, awoo, awoo, awoo...”

The wolf demonic beasts were instantly defeated, and they scattered in all directions. Elena's eyes instantly flashed with a glimmer of hope!

"Mr. Joelson! You really... really!"

Elena was so surprised that she lost her ability to speak!

"Roar roar! (Don't retreat!)"

The Wolf King of the wolf demonic beasts was so angry that his lungs were about to explode when he saw the pack of magical beasts fleeing in all directions in fear. He looked at his defeated subordinates and no matter how much he shouted or how many orders he gave... However, it could not stop the wolf pack that had been defeated because of fear!

Joelson waved his hands and used the flames that shot out from his hands to drive the wolf pack away. At first glance, it seemed like he was waving around randomly. However, upon careful observation, Joelson was actually using the fear of flames of the wolf demonic beasts to continuously adjust... to drive the position of the wolf demonic beasts!

This guy... What on earth was he doing?

The Magic Beast Wolf King of the wolf demonic beasts was suddenly shocked. The cunning Wolf King realized this but, no matter how hard it racked its brain, it could not figure out Joelson's purpose.

Moreover, the situation was turning to its advantage!

After the wolf demonic beasts experienced the initial fear of flames, their formation was in chaos. However, after watching for a while, they all steadied themselves and hid far away from Joelson, quietly watching.

It looked very embarrassing to be cowardly, but the most important thing was that the magic beast wolf pack did not disperse the encirclement of Joelson and Elena!

The situation was still in their favor, but they did not know what this human was up to...

However, it did not matter anymore, the Magic Beast Wolf King of the magic beast wolf pack thought.

Anyway, the scales of the goddess of victory had already been tipped to his side. That human's trick was no longer important. As long as he used up all his magic power and the flames stopped, the result would be the same.

Poor human!

The last struggle before death was like setting off fireworks for himself!

Elena, who was beside Joelson, also gradually realized that the deadlock had not been broken. Her originally ecstatic mood gradually calmed down, and her eyes were filled with worry as she looked at Joelson.

“Mr. Joelson... Can we... really survive?”

Elena asked. Her nervous mood was undoubtedly revealed through her trembling tone.

Looking at Joelson’s sweaty face, Elena, who had thought that she would see his desperate expression, saw a different scene.

“We will, Elena. I promise you, in the name of god!”

A confident expression appeared on Joelson’s face. That smile was as if he was not in a desperate situation. The one who should be sad should be the enemy!

This... why...

Elena was puzzled. She turned around and carefully observed the situation around her.

The wolf pack that was adjusted by Joelson’s flame...

“Wait...!”

Elena looked at the change in the wolf pack’s formation and was shocked!

This Joelson...

Was this all in his plan?

No, no, no, no...

From the beginning, everything was in Joelson’s plan!

“Mr. Joelson, are you a monster?”

Elena, who understood everything, asked happily.

“Hehe, who knows!”

Joelson answered with a smile!

The Wolf King, who was supervising the battle from high up, also noticed something...

This... This kid!

The Wolf King's eyes widened in anger!

This human was actually adjusting the formation of the entire wolf pack, making the wolf pack reveal the weakest point!

Most of the wolf pack was driven to a place, and that weakest point would be the direction where Joelson would break out of!

This kid... This bastard human!

The Magic Beast Wolf King's face was filled with unwillingness. It wanted to command the wolves and remind them of the fact that they were being controlled by Joelson!

However, it was too late to realize all of this...

The weakness of the magic beast wolf pack's formation had been completely controlled, and Joelson had given his command!

"Elena, charge!"

"Okay!"

Elena responded excitedly. She activated her magic energy and drove the sleigh towards the weak point of the wolf formation!

The flames in Joelson's hand continued to spew towards that place, and the few wolf demonic beasts hiding there immediately ran away as if they were running for their lives. The front of the sleigh was instantly cleared, and they rushed out of the wolf pack!

No wonder... No wonder that human did not choose to forcefully control the sleigh to crash into the few wolves blocking their way. That was because that human knew very well that even if they crashed into the few wolves, they still had many companions behind them... They would run into the middle of the road one after another to stop them. In the end, they would definitely be forced to stop and end up in a melee.

Realizing this, Joelson chose to stop directly. This way, he would use himself as bait to attract the attention of all the wolf demonic beasts, making all the wolf demonic beasts surround him. This way, there would be no more wolf demonic beasts after he broke out of the encirclement... They would ambush and stop him on his way forward...

When the encirclement was formed and there were no more wolves ambushing in the distance, Joelson began to use the fire trick to drive away the wolf pack. After they broke out of the encirclement, there would be no more wolves waiting for them in the middle of the road. All the wolves... had been chased behind them!

The sleigh that was caught in a simple chase might be able to outrun the magical beast wolf pack if it had the upper hand.

Damn it... Damn it... Damn it!

The Magical Beast Wolf King of the magical beast wolf pack angrily used its hooves to hit the ice layer under its feet. With a crack, the ice layer shattered like a spider web and broke into pieces!

“Roar roar? Roar roar roar! (Wolf Language: What are you standing there for? Chase after them!)”

The Magic Beast Wolf King angrily shouted. Its pair of wolf eyes stared at the place where Joelson and Elena were riding the sleigh far away. It was angry and unwilling to give up and urged its subordinates. The wolf demonic beasts were still recalling the fear of the flames just now. They lowered their tails. They stared at the back of the sleigh that was disappearing into the distance in fear. They did not dare to chase after it for a long time.

“Roarr? Roooaarrrr! (Wolf Language: What are you waiting for? Chase them all!)”

The Wolf King roared angrily, its pair of wolf eyes staring at the place where Joelson and Elena were riding the sleigh away. It urged its subordinates angrily and unwillingly, while the wolf monsters were still recalling the fear of the flames just now. Lowering their tails, they stared at the back of the sleigh that had gone far away in fear. They did not dare to chase after it for a long time.

The Wolf King was so angry that its eyes went black. It almost fainted.

“Hu! Speed up!”

Joelson shouted loudly. Seeing that they were about to completely leave the wolf pack without a trace, the two of them happily opened their arms and enjoyed the joy of surviving a disaster.

“Roar!”

The magical beast wolf pack roared uneasily. They held their tails between their legs and lowered their ears. Looking at the back of the sleigh that was far away, they did not dare to attack for a long time. The Wolf King paced left and right in anger. In the end, the paws under his feet suddenly slammed down, directly breaking the ice under his feet!

“Awooo!”

The Magical Beast King roared to the sky unwillingly. Traces of magical energy flashed in his eyes!

“Roar... Wuuuuu...”

Feeling the terrifying pressure of the Magical Beast Wolf King, the wolf demonic beasts immediately felt that something was wrong. They looked fearfully at the Wolf King standing at the bottom of the canyon, on a small mountain made of ice. Their eyes were filled with fear.

“Wuuuuu...”

The wolf demonic beasts whimpered in fear. Their eyes were filled with fear as they looked at the Magical Beast Wolf King. For a long time, no wolf magic beast dared to step forward to appease the angry Magical Beast Wolf King!

“Roar roar roar!”

Suddenly, the Magical Beast Wolf King lowered its head. A huge piece of dark ice condensed from its mouth. The terrifying magical energy shining on the dark ice made all the wolf demonic beasts present tremble in fear. They looked at the dark ice in the Magical Beast Wolf King’s mouth in fear, some of the wolves realized something. They whimpered, spread their paws, and suddenly fled!

“Roar roar! (Wolf Language: You bunch of trash!)”

The Magic Beast Wolf King cursed with a dignified expression. Then, the ice in its mouth suddenly broke into pieces and turned into many icicles!

Hail spell!

It was a very rare magic skill among the wolf magic beasts. It was precisely because it learned this skill that the Magic Beast Wolf King slowly became stronger from an unknown beast. Finally, it had its own say in the magic beast wolf pack. It continued to become stronger, in the end, it caused the dissatisfaction of the old Magical Beast Wolf King. On the day of a snowstorm, the Magical Beast Wolf King issued a challenge to the old king!

Recalling the past, the Magical Beast Wolf King vaguely remembered the scene of the old king’s neck being bitten open by him. It was the blood of the Wolf King, which contained magical energy. It made the Magical Beast Wolf King immerse himself in the nature of the wolf clan’s slaughter. The Magic Beast Wolf King, who was enjoying the joy brought by the slaughter, the pleasure of killing the old king, and the joy of the Wolf King’s ascension to the throne. Suddenly it saw the sorrow in the eyes of the old Wolf King.

“With the Magic Beast Wolf Clan, we will survive. With the Magic Beast Wolf Clan, we will occupy a place in this world of ice plains, at the bottom of this world...”

The Old Wolf King’s neck was bitten open, and he fell into a pool of blood. His mouth was full of blood, and the words that came out of his mouth were very unclear. However, it was still heard by the Magical Beast Wolf King who was in the joy of victory.

At that time, the Magical Beast Wolf King still solemnly swore to the old Wolf King that he would lead the clan to glory.

After hearing the words of the Magical Beast Wolf King, the Old Wolf King closed his eyes in satisfaction and died.

Now that he thought about it, the glory of the race...

Was all bullshit!

The Wolf King was jolted awake from his memories in anger. Looking at the cowardly Wolf Pack, his heart was filled with a raging flame!

“You lowly pack! You don’t deserve to live!”

“What bullshit glory!”

“All of you, go to Hell!”

The Wolf King roared and reprimanded. Icicles suddenly shot out towards the wolf pack!

Puchi!

One after another, the sound of sharp spikes piercing into flesh and blood filled the air. The wolf pack was filled with grief, some were dead and some were injured. In just a few hours, the entire pack of wolves was cleansed by the Magic Beast Wolf King, only a few sharp-eyed wolf-type magic beasts managed to escape from this place before the Magic Beast Wolf King started its massacre. Only then did they manage to survive!

“Wu wu wu...”

The entire pure white snowy ground was instantly turned into a hell on earth by the Magic Beast Wolf King. The blood dyed the entire snowy ground red. The warm and heated blood melted the snow on the ground. The snow and the blood mixed together, it turned into a small river that slowly flowed towards the low-lying area!

“Wuuuuu...”

The Magic Beast Wolf King looked down at the wolf magic beast that was still breathing under its feet. Its eyes were filled with a kind of emotion called coldness.

“Why...”

Hearing the question of the poor worm under its feet, the Magic Beast Wolf King snorted coldly.

“Aren’t you our king?”

The other wolf magic beast that was lying in a pool of blood looked at their king, their Magic Beast Wolf King, in disbelief.

“Yes, I am, the Magic Beast Wolf King.”

The Magical Beast Wolf King said slowly, then slowly walked forward, slowly walking towards the place where Joelson and Elena were escaping.

“I am the King of the wolf-type magical beasts. I am the strongest one, and not the nanny who is constantly cleaning up your mess. That kind of King has long been bitten open by me!”

The Magic Beast Wolf King said fiercely and ran in the direction of Joelson and Elena.

“Weak creatures are not worthy to live in this cruel snowfield. With such a group, it will only make my path to become stronger difficult!”

In such a short time, this Magic Beast Wolf King had changed from a king of a group to a lone wolf. The Magic Beast Wolf King that was far away from the wolf group became even more dangerous. Its snow-white fur was stained with the blood of its companions, on its brown eyebrows, there was a hidden danger.

A wolf pack was extremely terrifying.

A lone wolf was even more terrifying!

It, the magical Beast Wolf King, would continue to hunt its prey in the dark!

It would be like a predator, relying on its superb hunting skills, in the dark, it would hunt these two humans that had escaped right under its nose!

It, the Magical Beast Wolf King, was determined to bite off the neck of the man sitting on the sleigh and taste the fresh blood in his carotid artery!

It actually dared to show a confident expression towards itself, and at the same time, use its desperate situation to flirt with another female creature in its besiege and trap?

There was no way it could leave this icy plain alive!

The Wolf King's figure was hidden in the snow!

Chapter 548: Above The Wailing Abyss. Hades's Worry!

The figure of the Magic Beast Wolf King was hidden in the snowstorm!

The snowstorm became bigger and bigger. The snowstorm was as big as goose feathers, and the sky and earth became a white flower.

The Magic Beast Wolf King directly merged into this world of ice and snow. It smelled the scent of its prey in the air and kept moving forward.

"Hu..."

On the top of the Wailing Abyss.

Hades opened his eyes and looked at the flying snow in the sky. He looked at the black sky and let out a heavy sigh.

Fifteen days had passed. For half a month, Hades had been standing guard on the top of the Wailing Abyss, guarding the ice bridge at every step.

Looking at the bottom of the abyss, Hades could not help but cry out.

Fifteen days ago, if he remembered correctly, his father, Joelson, had climbed down from that place.

He did not know if the climb was going well?

Would he be in danger...

All kinds of questions, like vines of grapes, lingered in Hades's mind, making it impossible for him to fall asleep no matter what. The temperature was close to the extreme freezing point, and Hades had been enduring this kind of weather for fifteen days.

Hades could have fallen into hibernation directly. Hibernation could have avoided the terrible natural disasters in nature. As long as he fell into hibernation, even if the temperature here dropped to absolute zero, Hades wouldn't be afraid at all.

This was because Hades's hibernation could effectively save energy and avoid the cold winter by sleeping.

However, Hades didn't want to fall into a deep sleep. He just didn't want to sleep directly. He just didn't want to close his eyes.

Crack!

A clap of thunder sounded in the sky and temporarily illuminated the dark sky!

Hades had been feeling anxious recently. He didn't know whether it was because of the bad weather or because he was worried about the risk-taking Joelson at the bottom of the valley.

His father, Joelson, was suffering. How could he have the nerve to fall into hibernation to avoid this terrible weather?

The environment at the bottom of the valley must be even worse. His father, Joelson, didn't hibernate to avoid this terrible snowstorm!

Hades couldn't fall asleep because of the guilt he felt when he used hibernation to enjoy himself.

"Hey... big guy!"

An old man's voice suddenly came from the snowstorm.

Hades raised his head in surprise and looked around, trying to find the source of the voice. He wanted to confirm what kind of person was calling him.

Hades even thought that the human voice was his father when he was fighting against the snowstorm. But soon, Hades woke up and told him that it was not his father's voice, his father, Joelson, was not so old.

"Big guy, I'm here!"

Suddenly, the old voice sounded at his feet again. Hades lowered his head and looked at the old man.

It was the old man who lived on the top of the mountain.

"Big guy, do you want to go to my hut? There is a place to shelter from the wind and a barrier to resist the cold. The weather here is too cold. Really, I have lived here for so many years, but I have never encountered such cold weather. Can you resist it?"

The old man held the oil lamp in his hand. The orange flame of the kerosene lamp in his hand lit up the dark snow land. The kerosene lamp in the old man's hand was also swaying in the strong wind.

"No, thank you, kind old man."

Hades nodded and rejected the old man's kindness.

"I want to wait for my father, Joelson, here. I want to see him as soon as he comes up. If he's injured, I'll be the first to receive him."

Hades said slowly, his tone full of sincerity.

"Oh... what a loyal big guy..."

The old man said with emotion.

"You really don't want to come to my hut to get warm? Your father will go down for at least ten days. Even if he finds the bright gem immediately after going down, it will take a long time to climb up. I mean, you can wait here for ten days. Your father won't come back so soon."

The old man lamented Hades's loyalty in his heart, but he still sighed and sent Hades a final invitation.

"No, I'm afraid he'll come back early."

Hades shook his head and said.

"Alright... Alright... loyal big guy..."

The old man saw that his invitation had been rejected many times, and he understood Hades's firm attitude of waiting for his father. He could only shake his head helplessly.

After all, this was Hades's own choice. The old man had good intentions in his heart, so that Hades would not suffer so much. However, under Hades's insistence, the old man could not persist any longer. He only shook his head, he sighed and set off on the road back.

"My father, I hope that the Goddess of Fate will bestow her favor and bless all your actions to be smooth. I hope that you can return safely!"

Hades's deep eyes looked at the distant sky, the dark sky, and muttered. He offered his own blessing to his father, who did not know the situation.

"Phew..."

Joelson turned around and saw that none of the wolves had followed him. He let out a heavy breath.

"Were we saved?"

Elena asked curiously.

"That's right. It looks like we're saved!"

At this moment, there was really not a single drop of magic energy left in Joelson's body. The only spiritual energy left was very weak, and he could not directly scan a large area when he was healthy in the past, as for whether there were any magic wolves chasing after him, Johnson was not very clear about it.

"Phew... that was a close call..."

Elena let out a sigh of relief. From the beginning, Elena's heart had been hanging high like a giant knife on a guillotine. Now, she finally let out a sigh of relief.

"By the way... I'm sorry..."

Elena said as she drove the sleigh with her head lowered. From Johnson's angle, he couldn't see Elena's expression.

"Hmm? Why did you suddenly apologize?"

He was confused.

"It's... It's because I forced myself to kiss you just now..."

Elena's voice became softer and softer until the buzzing sound of a mosquito was almost inaudible.

"What did you say? Your voice is too soft, I can't hear you!"

Although he could hear Elena's words clearly, he still asked with a smirk.

"I said, I'm sorry for kissing you without your permission just now!"

"What did you say? Your voice is too soft, I can't hear you!"

Although Joelson clearly heard Elena's words, he still asked with a wicked smile.

"I said, I'm sorry for kissing you without your permission just now!"

Elena raised her voice in shame and anger and shouted loudly!

“Oh, about that... !”

Joelson said with a wicked smile and then licked his lips as if he was recalling the scene just now.

“Well... now that I think about it, you really went too far...”

Joelson said sinisterly.

“Ah... Are... are you angry?”

Elena was shocked and turned to look at Joelson.

“Yes, that’s right, I’m angry. I need your compensation.”

Joelson nodded seriously.

“This... How... How can I make it up to you...”

Elena looked worried and lowered her head, not daring to look at Joelson.

“Just say it. I’m the one who was rude. I’ll try my best to make it up to you...”

Elena said embarrassedly.

“Ah... Let me think about it!”

Joelson touched his chin and looked like he was thinking seriously.

“Since you kissed me forcefully, then do me a favor and let me kiss you back forcefully!”

After careful consideration, Joelson said in a light tone.

“Eh?”

Elena turned her head with a look of shock. Joelson reached out his hand, pinched Elena’s chin, and stuck his head out to kiss her.

“Oh!”

Elena’s face was full of shock.

Joelson took a good taste of it and let go of Elena.

“Hooligan!”

Elena wiped her mouth with her arm and turned her head. Her face was red as she cursed in a low voice.

Joelson nodded in satisfaction.

“If you want to talk about hooligans, then you have also forcefully kissed me before. Then, aren't you a female hooligan?”

Looking at the bashful Elena, Joelson said with a mischievous smile. Elena was rendered speechless by Joelson's words. Seeing that Elena did not retort, Joelson touched his mouth and said with satisfaction,

“Hmm... it was too short a time before. Now I finally have a clear recollection!”

To sum it up: ice-cold, revitalizing, and refreshing!

Just as the two of them were chatting, a snow-white figure quietly followed them from the dark.

It was the Magic Beast Wolf King from before!

The Magic Beast Wolf King's eyes were filled with a hunting aura. Its dark blue eyes stared intently at the rapidly moving sleigh in front of it.

“Huff huff huff...”

The Magic Beast Wolf King panted as it continuously chased after them. Finally, just as the two of them were relaxing, it used the augmentation of magic energy and the ice sprinting spell to successfully catch up to this damn sleigh.

When it caught up to the sleigh, the Magic Beast Wolf King once again smelled the very heavy magic energy. It continued to run wildly, trying to catch up to the other party.

If... If it could eat that guy...

A dangerous aura flashed across the Magic Beast Wolf King's eyes.

At this moment, Joelson's body was abnormally weak. The Magic Beast Wolf King's beastly perception had already clearly felt it.

At the same time that Joelson's body was weak, what made the Magical Beast Wolf King even more uneasy was that Joelson's body contained an extremely high level of nourishment!

If the body of a peak demigod expert like Joelson could be eaten alive by him... Being able to eat the soul of a peak demigod expert, then the wolf magical beast believed that he would definitely be able to directly rely on this soul to increase his power by several levels. He would directly break through his current low level and step into the world of demigod experts!

Hmph. Hmph. Hmph...

Continue to talk about love, humans...

The Magical Beast Wolf King laughed coldly in his heart. Seeing the relaxed Joelson and Elena, he felt wild joy in his heart.

The moment his prey relaxed was the moment the hunter made his move!

Hail spell!

The Magical Beast Wolf King suddenly opened his mouth, and a terrifying ice ball condensed within it. The black ice was completely formed, and the Magical Beast Wolf King's bloody mouth suddenly bit down. The ice ball shattered into countless icicles. The ice cones floating around its body were all aimed at Joelson and Elena on the sleigh!

"Go to hell!"

The Magic Beast Wolf King shouted crazily in its heart and instantly shot out the ice cones in its mouth!

Countless ice cones instantly shot towards Joelson on the sleigh!

The sound of air being broken could be heard and Joelson instantly became alert. His many years of combat experience told him that he could not slack off!

"Ha!"

Joelson ignited the magical energy that he had managed to recover with great difficulty on the way to escape just now!

"Elves in the snow, please help me to resist the incoming attack. I will give the snow goddess the most sincere tribute. Ice Wall!"

As soon as Joelson finished chanting the ice wall spell, the snow elements in the air were instantly summoned and formed an ice wall behind the sleigh, blocking the incoming icicles!

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!

The dense sounds of collision sounded in an instant. Elena stopped the sleigh and looked back in shock.

“What’s going on?”

Elena asked nervously. Joelson’s face was pale. His hasty defense had almost emptied out the last of his magic energy. Cold sweat rolled down his pale face. Joelson had reached his limit.

“There are pursuers...”

Joelson said weakly, and the dense sounds of collisions continued to ring out. The ice wall was struggling to block the Magic Beast Wolf King’s hail spell, and cracks appeared on the ice wall one after another.

Crack!

The ice wall suddenly shattered, and the ice pieces broke into pieces and flew in all directions. Fortunately, the hail spell’s attacks were all blocked, and the ice wall was able to block all the attacks at its last moment!

“Roar...”

A deep roar of a beast was heard. In the valley, the roar from the bottom seemed to come from all directions at the same time. Through the continuous echo in the valley, it gave a great sense of pressure to Joelson and Elena who were on the sleigh.

“Damn it... What is that?”

Elena looked around nervously, looking for the source of the attacker, but she could not be sure.

“Hu... Hu...”

Meanwhile, Joelson was sitting on the sleigh, gasping for air and breathing in the cold air. At the same time, he struck all of his spirit to recover the magic energy that he had just lost. Without knowing the exact location of the opponent..., Joelson did not dare to slack off at all. He looked around nervously.

The entire canyon fell into silence. Only the whistling sound of the wind, like the sound of a woman crying, was heard.

Swish!

Elena pulled out the slender long sword at her waist.

The entire canyon fell into silence. Only the whistling of the wind, like the sound of a woman crying, was heard.

Swish!

Elena pulled out the slender long sword at her waist.

“Phew...”

The air was very quiet. If a steel needle suddenly fell to the ground, both of them could hear it instantly.

Elena held the slender sword in her hand and nervously observed her surroundings. Meanwhile, Joelson was sitting on the sleigh, nervously recovering his magic energy.

Damn it...

Joelson cursed in his heart.

Crises came wave after wave. It was simply endless. As long as he relaxed a little, almost immediately, the crisis would come again. What was even more dangerous was that... every time, the little bit of magic energy that Joelson had recovered with great difficulty was forcefully used to protect himself. He could not concentrate on recovering the magic energy that could open his storage space. Every time he recovered a little bit, he was forced to attack. This made Joelson very frustrated.

In the valley—at the bottom of the valley—Joelson and Elena could almost hear each other's nervous heartbeats.

What about the Magic Beast Wolf King in the dark?

This attack that should have taken the lives of Joelson and Elena was blocked by Joelson's ice wall, which really made the Magic Beast Wolf King feel unhappy.

He had attacked just now because he was prepared to kill it in one strike. Now that the sneak attack failed, the other party became vigilant. This situation was not what the Magic Beast Wolf King expected.

“Damn it...”

Elena said nervously.

“Why hasn't he come out yet?”

Joelson's thoughts were completely different from Elena's. Right now, he was really hoping that the Hidden Magical Beast Wolf King would attack a little later. This way, he would be able to seize this little bit of time and quickly recover his energy.

"Roar!"

The Magical Beast Wolf King seemed to have sensed something. Hiding in the shadows, it stared uneasily at Joelson, who was sitting on the sleigh, looking extremely uneasy.

This human...

Wasn't ordinary!

Before he had been injured, his strength had probably far surpassed its own. It wasn't just the demigod that it had guessed. The current Magical Beast Wolf King thought to itself, this human, Joelson, might be at the peak of the demigod level, or even at the level of a god!

At such a dangerous juncture, this person had always been the calmest to make the best judgment, repeatedly breaking through the inescapable net that it had set up. This sort of person wasn't just powerful; in terms of scheming, it might even be slightly better.

As he thought to himself, the magical Beast Wolf King suddenly grinned evilly as he looked at Joelson on the sleigh.

Unfortunately, the current Joelson was in an injured state!

So what if he was a demigod, a peak demigod, or even a god?

The current Joelson was so weak that it's not like even a deity-level wolf magical beast like himself couldn't be able to do something about it!

If... If he could eat this fellow...

Right now, in the eyes of the Magical Beast Wolf King, Joelson's soul was even more alluring.

This fellow was very strong. He didn't know what kind of misfortune he had encountered to be in such a state. This was simply a great gift from the goddess of luck to him.

He had to seize this opportunity and seize the favor of the goddess of luck. He had to eat this human before him steadily!

Suddenly, the Wolf King's body shivered.

What was going on?

The Wolf King felt his body inexplicably.

His body actually felt uneasy for a moment just now...

Was he afraid of that human who was in trouble and was already so weak?

How could it be!

The Wolf King's claws suddenly reached out and deeply dug into the ice. His eyes stared at Joelson in front of him with hatred.

Suddenly, the Wolf King sensed something.

No... that human was rejoicing!

Why, why was that human rejoicing that he had fallen into my trap?

The Wolf King was shocked.

"Where are you? Come out!"

Elena couldn't hold on any longer under the tense atmosphere and shouted.

When the Wolf King saw that the female human was on the verge of collapsing under the pressure, it felt a wave of relief.

It had a certain amount of proof that this female human was capable of winning a battle with her.

To be honest, the level of this female human was more or less the same as the Wolf King's.

Both of their levels were around the peak of the deity domain.

Based on the data on the paper, in theory, Elena shouldn't have lost to the Magic Beast Wolf King.

However, the Magic Beast Wolf King was abnormally confident. This confidence came from one thing.

It was something called experience. The Magic Beast Wolf King firmly believed that this young lady wouldn't be able to last long against him.

Although this young lady had an extremely powerful level and had such high talent at such a young age, she had already cultivated to the peak of the deity domain so quickly. In the Magic Beast Wolf King's eyes, however, she was nothing.

With just a glance, the Wolf King could tell that this female human creature did not have much adventuring experience. The fact that she had zero adventuring experience was practically written all over this young girl's face.

If not for the interference from that Joelson, who had seen through his ploy several times, he would have already used his ploy to kill the other party the first time they met!

That's right, all the variables lay in that hateful human, who was also his main target this time.

That hateful human had seen through his schemes time and time again, breaking through his traps and breaking through his encirclement time and time again!

This human wasn't simple!

The Magic Beast Wolf King glared at Joelson with hatred in its eyes.

At this moment, Joelson was extremely weak. Even in his body, there was no magic energy at all. It seemed that he should be harmless, but the wolf magic beast was realistic. He felt an inexplicable pressure and a sense of fear from his opponent.

No...

The Magic Beast Wolf King shook his head and exhaled a breath of hot air. That hot air instantly turned into a puff of white smoke under the extremely cold weather.

No, it couldn't continue like this. Looking at that human, that Joelson's confident face, the Magic Beast Wolf King felt even more uneasy at this moment!

He had to immediately launch an attack!

His target would be Joelson!

As for the woman next to him?

Even if he was slightly injured, the Wolf King wanted to get rid of Joelson as soon as possible. He did not want to leave behind any hidden dangers. As for the woman, as long as his injuries were not too serious, he could still use his tricks... and then he would do it again!

Chapter 551: The Attack of the Magic Beast Wolf King. Elena Was Caught in a Fierce Battle?

Even if she was slightly injured, the Magic Beast Wolf King still wanted to get rid of Joelson immediately in its mind. It didn't want to leave any hidden dangers behind. As for that woman, as long as its injuries weren't too serious, it would still be able to use its tricks... he would do it again!

The Wolf King made the final decision in his heart!

He was ready to launch an attack!

"Hu... Don't be nervous, Miss Elena. Calm down. This will be beneficial to any difficulties you encounter in the future."

Joelson closed his eyes and tried his best to recover his body's weakness. He was trying his best to wait for his body to be in the best condition.

"Phew..."

Elena heard Joelson's words and reacted. She realized that she had fallen into a nervous and negative mood, so she quickly adjusted her emotions. She took a deep breath and tried her best to calm down her restless heart.

"Roar!"

Suddenly, an angry beast roar echoed in the valley and startled Elena!

"It's coming..."

Joelson's eyes focused, looking at the back of the sleigh with vigilance!

The Magic Beast Wolf King let out an angry roar, and all the snow-white fur on its body stood up. Its entire body seemed to have expanded by a circle and it let out a series of growling sounds from its throat. After accumulating power for a while, the Magic Beast Wolf King's body... Magic energy appeared one after another, and the surroundings of the Magic Beast Wolf King's body instantly became very cold. A terrifying aura appeared around the Magic Beast Wolf King's body, and the entire Magic Beast Wolf King's body seemed to have changed into a different species. It was giving off an extremely oppressive force.

Ice Magic: Ice Sprint!

Using the rich ice and snow elements in the air to stimulate the contraction of the muscles on his legs, it could allow the caster's body to become extremely swift. It could practically increase the speed of the caster by 50% in an instant!

Sensing the subtle changes in the aura around him, Joelson opened his eyes keenly and looked at the existence behind him!

"It's at that place!"

Joelson vigilantly said. Although the other party had already concealed his aura very well, Joelson, who had been traveling around for many years, was still keenly aware that behind him, there was an obvious killing intent that was gradually emerging!

Unfortunately, the target of the other party's killing intent was himself, which was why he was keenly aware of it. If the other party's killing intent was locked onto Elena's body, then even someone as strong as Joelson... Then it would be very difficult for him to sense the other party's existence just by leaking a little bit of his killing intent!

Almost at the instant that Joelson spoke, the Magic Beast Wolf King did not hold back any longer and suddenly pounced forward. With a sudden push of his feet, the ice layer under his feet shattered like a spider web, the Magic Beast Wolf King was like a rapidly moving cannonball, shooting towards Joelson's position!

"What!"

Even with Joelson's warning, Elena already had a certain amount of psychological expectations in her heart. However, when she saw the terrifying speed of the Magic Beast Wolf King, she was still shocked!

Oh no, that guy's target wasn't me?

Elena was surprised to find that the target of the Magic Beast Wolf King was actually the defenseless Joelson from the beginning to the end. This really made Elena's heart full of doubts.

Is there something wrong with his brain?

Why did he attack the unthreatening enemy first and not kill her first? She had the ability to resist!

Would it give the Magic Beast Wolf King an advantage if she killed Joelson?

Could it be that the Magic Beast Wolf King didn't know that Mr. Joelson was in a defenseless state?

Although there were many questions in her heart, Elena did not hesitate. She directly used the sword in her hand to slash at the body of the Magic Beast Wolf King that was flying towards her.

As long as the Magic Beast Wolf King did not give up on attacking Mr. Joelson, then it would definitely receive this sword. If the Magic Beast Wolf King did not want to be injured, if it did not want its stomach to be cut open by the sword... then the Magic Beast Wolf King's only choice was to quickly stop attacking Joelson!

The best defense was to attack!

Elena gave her own answer. Originally, Joelson had roughly thought the same.

After all, with common sense, no one would have thought that the Magic Beast Wolf King would take the risk of being injured and attack a person who had no ability to resist.

This was the cunning part of the Magic Beast Wolf King. It made use of people's habitual thinking and made use of what people thought was reasonable. Naturally, it allowed the Magic Beast Wolf King, who had made an unreasonable move, to succeed!

Fortunately, at the critical moment, Joelson keenly caught the killing intent of the Magic Beast Wolf King, which had been locked on to him.

This guy? ... Why didn't he dodge when he saw Elena's sword coming at him? Why did he directly crash into it!

Did he not want to live anymore?

No, this kind of attack would injure him and not kill the wolf.

However, why did this guy keep an eye on the risk of injury and insist on attacking a defenseless human like himself?

Joelson was puzzled, but he made a move with his hand!

Joelson reached out his hand and pushed the sleigh forward!

What?

The Wolf King was shocked.

His plan was actually seen through by this human!

The sleigh was pushed by Joelson and slid forward for a distance, causing the Wolf King's attack to miss. The Wolf King jumped onto the sleigh, but it didn't hit Joelson, the Magic Beast Wolf King that missed was shocked and doubtful.

Was this person... a monster?

He had hidden such a deep plan, how could it be seen through by this human in such a short time?

This made the Magic Beast Wolf King think that it was dreaming!

However, the situation at this moment could not make the Magic Beast Wolf King stunned. Almost as if it was fighting instinct, the Magic Beast Wolf King turned its head and opened its bloody mouth to bite at Joelson's head!

Elena was shocked in her heart.

When she saw that the Wolf King did not retreat. It wanted to stare at her sword attack and was determined to kill Joelson, Elena was stunned. Fortunately, Joelson was fast... he relied on his perception of killing intent to dodge the Wolf King's attack.

Then, seeing the Wolf King open its bloody mouth to bite Joelson, Elena did not hesitate this time. She did not miss the opportunity. She directly thrust her sword forward. The tip of the thin sword was aimed straight at the Wolf King's neck. This time... if the Wolf King did not retreat, the Wolf King's neck would be directly pierced through!

Chapter 552: Entanglement. A Stalemate with the Magic Beast Wolf King!

Following that, seeing the Magic Beast Wolf King open its bloody mouth to bite Joelson, Elena did not hesitate this time and did not miss the opportunity. She directly thrust her sword forward, and the tip of the thin sword was aimed straight at the Magic Beast Wolf King's neck. This time... If the Magic Beast Wolf King did not retreat, the Magic Beast Wolf King's neck would be directly pierced through!

Damn female human...

The Wolf King was aware of its current situation. If it continued to attack, it would lose its life. It could only look at the head of Joelson that it was about to bite off, its eyes filled with unwillingness.

It was... it was so close to biting off Joelson's head!

Although it did not want to give up, the Magic Beast Wolf King was not stupid. Its life was still very precious.

Taking a look at Elena who was holding a sword, the Magic Beast Wolf King retracted its bloody mouth and jumped back under the sleigh. It stared at Joelson and Elena who were on the sleigh.

"Phew..."

Joelson touched his neck. The head on his neck was still there. Just now, Joelson thought that the Magic Beast Wolf King would make a hole in his brain and kill him in this barren land.

"This wolf... seems to be the wolf king that has been chasing us since the beginning..."

Elena stared at the angry Wolf King and said in surprise.

"Yes..."

Joelson stared at the Wolf King in surprise.

"I didn't expect it to be so persistent..."

Joelson sighed.

"Stupid dog, your opponent is me!"

Elena said and jumped down from the sleigh. She waved her thin sword and stood in front of Joelson.

"Roar!"

The Magic Beast Wolf King was displeased. It walked back and forth. Its pair of sinister wolf eyes stared at Elena in front of it, looking for her weakness.

"Miss Elena, I advise you to be careful. This wolf magic beast is unusual. It has a different aura. You should be careful. Its target doesn't seem to be you. Wouldn't it be better for you to just run away?"

Sitting on the sleigh, Joelson tried to recover his magic energy while staring at the Magic Beast Wolf King in front of him.

Elena nodded.

That's right. From the looks of it, it was indeed better for her to just run away.

Because the Magic Beast Wolf King in front of her didn't seem to be targeting her, but Mr. Joelson behind her.

As long as she stepped aside and let the Wolf King attack Joelson, she would probably be saved, and she would not have to fight here.

"Speaking of which, Mr. Joelson. Perhaps if I stepped aside and let the Wolf King eat you, I would be saved, and I would not have to get involved in this battle..."

Elena muttered, her beautiful eyebrows tightly locked together.

"But, I refuse!"

Elena said righteously!

"If I abandon the weak in exchange for my own survival, I, Elena, can't do such a thing!"

A strong fighting spirit burst out from Elena's body, and even the Magic Beast Wolf King, who was watching from afar, was shocked when he saw Elena.

This kind of awareness...

Was called the awareness of protecting others!

At this moment, Joelson was already looking at Elena sideways. This kind of awareness appeared in the form of a novice adventurer.

"Roar!"

The Magic Beast Wolf King roared angrily. The snow-white fur on its body trembled, and its claws suddenly stretched forward!

"It's more dangerous here. Please move aside, Mr. Joelson!"

Elena said as she kicked the sleigh, sending it to a place where the Wolf King could not attack. Then, she sent the sleigh to the outside of the battle circle between herself and the Wolf King.

"Alright, since you have such an awareness, then I can't say anything more. Please hold on!"

Sitting on the sleigh, looking at Elena who was gradually moving away, Joelson said calmly. He sat cross-legged and concentrated on gathering the magic elements in the air, hoping to recover as soon as possible and join the battle!

"Rooaaaarrrrrr!"

The Magic Beast Wolf King roared again and again, roaring and attacking forward. But Elena was not afraid at all. She raised her thin sword and also attacked the Magic Beast Wolf King!

"Stinky dog, come on!"

As Elena said that, she suddenly thrust her thin sword forward!

Secret Spell: Withering Heart-Piercing Stab!

This stab was like a ship breaking through the ice at the south pole. It pierced through the air and was about to pierce through the head of the Magic Beast Wolf King!

The Magic Beast Wolf King was not afraid of the attack that was launched with a terrifying aura. It let out an angry roar and charged straight at Elena's stab. It did not dodge at all!

You have the awareness of your protection, I have the awareness of my hunting!

The Magic Beast Wolf King's eyes were filled with determination!

At this moment, the mournful cry of the Old Magic Beast Wolf King that was about to die echoed in its mind once again.

"Bring our species, let our species, in this snowy land..."

As the words of the Old Wolf King that was about to die echoed, the Magic Beast Wolf King's eyes became even more ferocious!

I will naturally become the strongest magic beast wolf king in this snowy land!

All living creatures will watch in fear as I ascend to the peak of strength in this snowy plains. All living creatures will kneel before me, and all living creatures will be trampled under my feet!

I will become the peak of this food chain!

In this way, your wish will be fulfilled!

The Magic Beast Wolf King ferociously let out a long howl as it charged straight towards the thin sword that Elena was thrusting towards it.

If he retreated now, he would be doomed for the rest of his life.

However, if he could eat the man on the sleigh...

He would be able to fulfill his dream and stand at the top of the food chain!

"Roar! Roar! Roar!"

Seeing the wolf charging at her, Elena was surprised, but she didn't withdraw her attack. Instead, she stabbed at the Wolf King!

"Stinking dog, let's see if your resolution can withstand my sword skills!"

The human and the wolf magic beast charged straight towards the other party!

Suddenly, the Magic Beast Wolf King's body suddenly shrank, and its body soared into the air. It twisted in the air, and its body strangely twisted at a strange angle, avoiding Elena's sword tip!

"What!"

Elena's eyes were filled with shock. She couldn't believe that this Magic Beast Wolf King could actually move so quickly to dodge her attack!

Elena panicked when her sword missed. She quickly pulled back her sword and tried to block the attack of the Wolf King!

Chapter 553: Noble Consciousness. The Final Battle Between the Wolf and the Human!

Elena was a little flustered when her sword missed. She quickly pulled back her sword, wanting to pull it back to block the attack of the Magical Beast Wolf King!

"Damn it!"

Seeing that her attack missed, Elena became very nervous. She quickly pulled back her sword, which was exactly what the Magical Beast Wolf King wanted!

As expected, this idiotic human, who had no experience, fell into a panic after being dodged by her!

"Damn it, don't panic, Elena!"

At the back, Joelson hurriedly reminded her. However, how could Elena, who had fallen into a panic, recover her state in such a short time?

"Roar!"

The Magic Beast Wolf King looked at the shocked opponent with a mocking look. The fear in her eyes and the expression on the other party's face made the Magic Beast Wolf King's eyes filled with the satisfaction of having succeeded in its evil scheme. It directly leaped and dodged Elena, who was defending against it, its feet exerted force and it directly pounced towards Joelson, who was watching and recovering from a distance!

Idiot, from the beginning, my target was not you. From the beginning to the end, my target was the male human behind!

"Damn it!"

Elena's eyes were filled with fear. She defended herself, but the other party did not attack. This completely disrupted her formation. She could only watch helplessly as the Wolf King leaped straight towards the distant Joelson!

"Oh no, the other party's target is me!"

A trace of panic flashed across Joelson's eyes.

He should have expected this, but why did this guy still succeed?

Joelson began to complain in his heart. As expected, the fall had dulled his battle senses?

Wait for death, human! The Magic Beast Wolf King pounced forward, opened its bloody mouth, and attacked the opponent directly.

"Oh no!"

Joelson was shocked.

Elena was completely fooled by the opponent's scheme. And his magic energy had been exhausted. After meditating for a while, only a little bit of energy had been recovered in Joelson's body! What could such a little bit of energy do... if he wanted to block the opponent's attack? What could it do?

Joelson's heart was in a mess. He carefully recalled all the memories in his mind and recalled all the tactics that he had learned from the beginning until now, he recalled what other moves he could use to block the other party's ability, to stop the other party's attack, and to take back his life under that bloody mouth.

Damn it... he had never expected this...

Such a rare amount of mana, and the number of tactics that could be used was extremely few. At this critical juncture, it was as if Joelson had reached the end of his path. He had reached the end of his life at dusk!

As for Elena, he could no longer count on her. Looking at her, Elena's eyes were filled with fear. It was obvious that she had not expected the Magical Beast Wolf King to suddenly change its target. In such a state, she had no way of reacting... let alone save herself.

But suddenly, he saw a strange scene.

Elena's expression..

Didn't seem to be as simple as fear..

It seemed that Elena was smiling..

That guy... why was she still smiling?

Wait a minute!

He suddenly realized that it was Elena's growth!

"That's what I've been waiting for, stupid dog!"

Elena shouted in a delicate voice, and the thin sword in her hand suddenly thrust forward, aiming at the Magic Beast Wolf King who was attacking Joelson!

Idiot!

The Magic Beast Wolf King looked at Elena's actions and mocked in his heart.

Did she not know how long her thin sword was?

At this distance, Elena's long sword could not pierce through him, and it could not even touch him!

This was extremely stupid. What was this attack doing? Was it a child's play?

The Magic Beast Wolf King looked at Elena's actions and his heart was filled with mockery!

"Secret Sword Technique: Meteor Strike!"

Elena let out a soft shout and a terrifying combat aura burst out from her body!

Weng! Weng! Weng! Weng!

The sword in Elena's hand made a 'weng weng' sound. It shook and suddenly expanded!

Bang!

The thin sword in Elena's hand suddenly shot out like a rifle. With a bang, a puff of white smoke burst out, and the thin sword was shot out!

Elena held the hilt of the sword in her hand, and the thin sword was shot out like a bullet!

What?

How could the Magic Beast Wolf King have thought that his opponent had such a swordsmanship?

The Magic Beast Wolf King, who had no expectations at all, was now in the air, and there was nowhere to hide. How could it dodge in the air?

Puchi!

The Magic Beast Wolf King's stomach exploded with blood!

"Awooo!"

The Magic Beast Wolf King howled in pain and fell from the sky!

That slender sword was like a bullet flying at high speed. It actually directly pierced through the Magic Beast Wolf King's body!

"Beautiful! Elena, well done!"

When Joelson saw the scene before him, he immediately cried out in surprise.

Amazing!

Through the Wolf King's disdain for Elena, Elena deliberately showed weakness and used a sword technique that ordinary people could not imagine. All of this was for the other party, so the Wolf King could let down its guard against her!

Under the careful arrangement, this sword technique that was obviously not very strong—but against the Wolf King that had the same strength, it instantly caused an extremely serious injury. This time, it directly reduced the other party's strength.

Although it was not a one-hit kill... But with such a serious injury, the Magic Beast Wolf King definitely wouldn't be able to fight back anymore!

"Awooooo..."

With a plop, the Magic Beast Wolf King fell into the snow, lying in the white snow. It cried out in pain and looked at Elena in disbelief. The hilt of Elena's sword was still emitting white smoke.

"Hu..."

Elena picked up the hilt of her sword and blew into the black hole, blowing away the remaining white smoke in the hilt.

"Awoo... Awoo..."

The Magic Beast Wolf King felt the piercing pain in its lower abdomen. It cried out in pain and kicked its paws in the snow in pain, sending snowflakes flying.

"It's over... stinky dog!"

Elena took out a new thin sword from her pocket and placed it on the hilt of her sword. With a flash of her sword, she stared coldly at the Magic Beast Wolf King who was lying on the ground.

"Wuuuuuu..."

The Magic Beast Wolf King whimpered softly and sat up with great difficulty. Its pair of cunning blue eyes were filled with pain at this moment. It stared at Elena with great difficulty, the one who had caused all of this.

The Magic Beast Wolf King whimpered in a low voice as it struggled to sit up. Its pair of cunning blue eyes were filled with pain as it stared with difficulty at the other party, Elena, who had caused all of this.

"Wuwuwuwuwuuuuu..."

The Magic Beast Wolf King whimpered in pain as it relied on its willpower to slowly stand up. The current Magic Beast Wolf King, every time it moved, the wound on its lower abdomen would feel as if it was being torn apart, causing a heart-wrenching pain. However, the Magic Beast Wolf King still stood up. Its resentful eyes were filled with resentment as it stared at Elena.

This woman... This detestable human woman...

The Magic Beast Wolf King cursed Elena in its heart unwillingly. Its eyes were filled with disbelief and unwillingness.

It actually made use of its disdain towards this human woman, using its underestimation of the enemy to set it up!

“Roar...”

The Magic Beast Wolf King growled, a puff of white smoke coming out of its mouth. Its resentful eyes were filled with resentment as it stared at the other party's eyes. Its eyes were filled with malice!

I want... I want to tear your throat apart. I want to make all the blood flowing from your throat spill onto this piece of land!

The Magic Beast Wolf King thought viciously. Its tail hung behind its back, and the wolf fur on its body all stood up. Its terrifying energy carried a sense of determination as it growled at Elena.

The low roar was filled with hatred!

“Hey, hey. Hey... Do you still want to fight?”

A hint of surprise flashed across Elena's eyes.

“Roar!”

As the magic energy flashed, a white magic energy flashed across the Magic Beast Wolf King's body. This energy revolved around the Magic Beast Wolf King's body continuously, and the wounds on the Magic Beast Wolf King's body also gradually healed, the Magic Beast Wolf King with hatred in its eyes opened its bloody mouth and let out an angry roar at Elena!

This was an invitation to a duel between knights!

The angry roar of a trapped beast!

A hint of admiration flashed across Elena's eyes!

“Good!”

The thin sword in Elena's hand flew up and down, making the sword dance and saluting to the Magic Beast Wolf King.

“I, Elena, accept your challenge!”

“Roar...”

The Magic Beast Wolf King let out an inexplicable roar, with a determined spirit and a sense of pride that belonged to the wolf clan.

The two sides circled around each other. The human and the wolf were looking for the flaws in each other's body. Watching each and every move of the other. Observing every detail in each other's hands. And thinking about the flaws in each other!

“Ha!”

Elena took the lead in launching an attack!

“Roar!”

The Magic Beast Wolf King nimbly dodged Elena's first attack. Looking at its agile movements, it did not look like the Magic Beast Wolf King with a through-and-through wound on its stomach at all!

“Roar!”

After dodging Elena's attack, seeing that Elena's attack had missed, it was instantly overjoyed. It opened its bloody mouth and condensed a piece of dark ice in its mouth!

“Don't even think about it. If you want to succeed, you have to ask the sword in my hand first!”

Elena suddenly took a step forward, and the thin sword in her hand directly attacked the dark ice in the Wolf King's mouth!

Bang!

With an explosion, the dark ice in the Wolf King's mouth was directly hit by the thin sword, and the sword directly hit the ice ball in the Wolf King's mouth!

“Roar! Roar!”

Idiot!

The Wolf King mocked in its heart!

Didn't this help it complete the second stage of the hail spell? This time, Elena, who was close to it, directly entered the range of the Wolf King's hail spell!

Go to hell!

Seeing that Elena had entered its range, the Wolf King was overjoyed, and directly shot all of its hail spells at Elena's body!

Shua! Shua! Shua!

The sound of air being torn apart rang out again and again. One hail after another shot out towards Elena's defensive stand. Elena's situation suddenly became dangerous!

"Be careful!"

Joelson's heart immediately became anxious. Seeing that the opponent's attacks were about to hit Elena, who could not dodge them, Joelson's heart immediately burned with anxiety.

At such a distance, how could she dodge such a dense hail spell?

Joelson could not think of anything!

Now that his magic energy had recovered a lot, he could not help but want to intervene in the duel between Elena and the Magic Beast Wolf King.

However, this was a little too despicable.

Damn it...

Joelson's heart was suddenly in a dilemma.

"Hah!"

All of a sudden, a ball of golden light burst out from Elena's body!

Boom!

Elena began to spin, as graceful as a dancer. The thin sword in her hand danced up and down, blocking left and right, blocking all the hail that was shot by the opponent!

The magic energy flew up and down, blocking all the attacks from the opponent!

"Secret Sword Technique: Absolute Block of Waltz!"

Elena's sword technique instantly caused all of her opponent's attacks to miss.

"Beautiful!"

Joelson exclaimed in admiration. Seeing her opponent's ability miss, his heart that was hanging high was also relieved.

“Roooooaarrrrrr!”

The Magic Beast Wolf King roared unwillingly. Under its feet, brilliant magic energy flashed, directly causing its body to expand by a circle!

Beast Form: Berserk Skill!

This was a secret skill belonging to the Magical Beast Wolf Clan. It was a secret skill that could only be used in times of danger. It could allow its strength to increase greatly in a very short period of time, allowing it to obtain the ability to challenge those of a higher level within a short period of time.

“Roar!”

The Magical Beast Wolf King’s aura continued to increase. Its body expanded by more than three circles, and a strange blood-red rune appeared on its forehead. Its tail had also become three!

“Phew... What a terrifying aura!”

Elena’s eyes were filled with shock as she looked at the other party’s ability.

There was actually a technique that could increase its powerful energy in such a short period of time!

Elena did not dare to be careless. She stared at the other party’s movements vigilantly, guarding against the other party’s next attack. Her thin sword was placed in front of her chest, ready to block the other party’s attack.

“Roar!”

The Magic Beast Wolf King’s body stopped expanding and stabilized to the size of an adult grizzly bear. Its body shone with terrifying magical energy as it glared angrily at the tiny Elena in front of it.

“Roar! Roar! Roar! (Wolf Language: Die! Die, human!)”

The Magic Beast Wolf King roared fiercely and launched an attack at Elena in front of it!

This attack was so powerful that it seemed like it would flatten the tiny Elena and turn her into ashes and smoke before being completely extinguished!

“Roooooaarrrrrr. Roarr! (Wolf Language: Die! Die, human!)”

The Magical Beast Wolf King roared fiercely and launched an attack at Elena!

This attack was so powerful that it could swallow mountains and rivers. It was as if this attack would directly flatten the tiny Elena, turning the tiny Elena into ashes. Turning her into smoke and extinguishing her!

“Be careful! This is a battle between trapped beasts of the Wolf King! We’ll win if we can survive it!”

As he saw the approaching figure of the Wolf King, he was shocked!

“Damn it...!”

Elena was shocked. Seeing the attack of the Wolf King, she had no choice but to flee!

“Secret Technique: Lightning Strike!”

A terrifying lightning appeared on Elena’s body. The lightning was like tiny snakes of lightning, coiling around Elena’s body!

With a swoosh, Elena was like a bolt of lightning. Her speed increased tremendously, and she directly dodged the wolf claw attack of the Magic Beast Wolf King!

“Roar!”

One attack missed, but the Magic Beast Wolf King did not have the intention to give up. With a low roar, it continued to chase after Elena. Under its pursuit, the Magic Beast Wolf King’s attacks missed many times!

The lightning strike that Elena had used just now had used the energy of lightning to direct its own magic energy into its own body. The terrifying energy instantly stimulated its body’s speed to continuously increase!

“Roar!”

The Magic Beast Wolf King roared unwillingly and continued to attack Elena who was dodging. Under its continuous attacks, Elena had repeatedly dodged it. The Magic Beast Wolf King’s heart became more and more anxious.

“Ha! Look at the sword!”

Elena shouted and suddenly slashed at the Magic Beast Wolf King’s body. This sword cut open the Magic Beast Wolf King’s paws, and the Magic Beast Wolf King immediately howled in pain.

“Awoo...”

The Magic Beast Wolf King felt the pain on its feet. The Magic Beast Wolf King knew that it was at the end of its rope. Looking at the vigorous energy of its opponent, the Magic Beast Wolf King gradually became desperate.

If this went on, it was only a matter of time before it lost...

But...

It was unwilling, unwilling to lose just like that...

Was there any way...

It couldn't think of anything at all...

Could it be that this was the end of its miserable life...

Its heart was filled with unwillingness as it looked at Elena, who was constantly dodging right under its nose.

"That's right, just keep dodging like this, don't stop!"

Joelson warned loudly. At this time, there was no need to do anything else. Joelson knew very well that the other party's ability would not last for long. He only needed to watch the other party's attack and keep dodging. As long as he kept doing this, then... this Magical Beast Wolf King would also be unable to escape the fate of failure.

Joelson saw through the essence of the other party's strengthening ability at a glance. The principle was to burn one's own body to obtain an ability that far exceeded his current ability. In a short period of time, he could even obtain the ability to challenge those of a higher level. However, such an ability was extremely unhealthy. After all, by burning one's own flesh and blood, such a method of strengthening one's own ability would not be able to last for long. If this continued, as long as he could hold on until the Wolf King's flesh and blood were completely burned, the Wolf King would stop its attacks before that time. At that time, the victor would naturally be Elena.

Elena understood this very well in her heart. While continuously dodging, she was also balancing the consumption of her own magic energy in order to pursue her own magic energy, she would not end up in a disadvantageous situation when the other party could not hold on any longer and her own magic energy was exhausted.

At this rate... as long as she could not attack Elena, who was running around like a fly, she would have no chance of winning.

The Magic Beast Wolf King kept evaluating his ability in his heart. The evaluator said that he had little energy left, and he was evaluating the little energy he had left and the consumption of his opponent's magic energy.

The conclusion he came up with was very disadvantageous to the Magic Beast Wolf King.

Hiss hiss hiss...

A wave of pain came from his lower abdomen. The Magic Beast Wolf King took a deep breath in pain and stopped his attack.

Was this his limit?

The Magic Beast Wolf King lowered his head and looked at the snow-white snowflakes on the ground. Looking at the pure white snowflakes, his heart was filled with hatred.

Pitter-patter, two drops of blood dripped onto the snowy ground. Looking at the blood on the ground, the Magic Beast Wolf King was in extreme pain.

His body had already reached its limit. If this continued, it would not be long before his body would be dragged down.

That super strong human was not far away, and he had already reached this stage. He had already tasted the sweet flesh of that human on the sleigh a few times...

However, he was just a little bit away!

This little bit of distance became the furthest distance in the world. This tiny difference became the most painful difference in the world.

Although it was extremely unwilling, the Magical Beast Wolf King still lowered its head!

“Awooo...”

It lowered its head and showed its weakness to show its submission.

If this continued, no matter how much it struggled, it would be useless. If this continued, its failure would be a foregone conclusion. There was no need to continue resisting and embarrass itself!

Damn it...

Why... did the Goddess of Fate want to toy with her like this.

The Wolf King lowered its head, indicating that it was admitting defeat!

“Hu... hu hu...”

Elena panted heavily as she watched the other party admit defeat. Her heart was filled with shock.

I... really won?

Initially, there were still some doubts in her heart, and there were still some who did not react. However, when she saw the Wolf King lowering its proud head and looking at its submission, Elena's heart was filled with joy!

She had actually successfully defeated the Wolf King!

Elena jumped up in joy. This was the first time in Elena's life that she had tasted victory.

"Hmm...?"

Seeing the Wolf King's submission, the other party's submission made Joelson feel a wave of doubt in his heart.

This fellow... such a cunning Wolf King, it really admitted defeat just like that...

How strange...

There was a hint of wariness in his heart as he watched the other party submit. In any case, he didn't really believe it in his heart. Seeing the other party submit, there was still a hint of wariness in his heart towards this crafty creature. The crafty wariness of this Magical Beast Wolf King wasn't due to the viciousness in his heart, but was due to his intuition after all these years of being in danger!

Chapter 556: The Last Struggle in the Heart of the Magical Beast Wolf King. The Vigilant Joelson!

A sense of wariness remained in Joelson's heart as he looked at the other party's submission. In any case, Joelson did not quite believe it in his heart. Looking at the other party's submission, a sense of wariness towards this cunning creature still remained in Joelson's heart..., the crafty wariness of this magical Beast Wolf King was not due to the viciousness in Joelson's heart, but it was due to his intuition that he had been groping around in danger for so many years!

"GRRR..."

The Wolf King let out a low whimper. Elena heaved a sigh of relief. Looking at the Wolf King, who had its tail between its legs, she felt an uncontrollable joy in her heart.

"This is the first victory of my adventure!"

Elena excitedly raised the thin sword in her hand and pointed it high into the sky, celebrating the first victory of her adventure!

"Yes! ! !"

Joelson looked at the Happy Elena below and smiled.

He was really envious of the excitement of winning the first victory of his adventure. Seeing Elena's excited look, Joelson felt like he had just won his first victory in the beginning.

How Nice... Young Man!

"Roar!"

Suddenly, the Wolf King turned hostile!

That's right, from the very beginning, the Magic Beast Wolf King had never thought of admitting defeat. From the very beginning, when the Magic Beast Wolf King admitted defeat, its appearance of submission was just a smokescreen, used to make Elena relax her state of mind, thus revealing a flaw!

Young human... pay the price for your lack of experience!

Ice Sprint!

The Magic Beast Wolf King's body suddenly became smaller, and its body flickered with white ice and snow elements. A wave of magical energy fused into its body, and the Magic Beast Wolf King's speed instantly received a terrifying leap!

"Awooo! ! !"

The Magic Beast Wolf King suddenly pounced forward, opening its bloody mouth and letting out a long howl, shouting out the dignity of the Wolf clan.

Never surrender, that's what a wolf is. If you surrender like that, that's what a dog is!

The Magic Beast Wolf King suddenly pounced forward. Obviously, it was not within Elena's expectations. This pounce really gave Elena, who was celebrating her victory, a good knock on the head!

"Damn it!"

The Magic Beast Wolf King's bloody mouth was about to bite Elena's neck. At the critical moment, Elena was completely helpless!

After completely relaxing her tense body, she needed to warm up!

Under such a sudden sneak attack, Elena almost fell into an absolute disadvantage.

"Roar!"

Watching helplessly as the Wolf King's bloody mouth was about to swallow her body, Elena closed her eyes in despair.

Her adventure... had come to an end..

"Bang!"

Suddenly, there was an explosion!

"What? !"

Elena opened her eyes in surprise,

"Evil creature!"

The one who made the move was actually Joelson!

Joelson's hand reached out in front of him like an eagle's claw. He stretched his hand forward as if he was strangling something's neck!

"AWOOOO..."

The Wolf King howled in pain.

An unknown, invisible hand grabbed the wolf king's neck.

What is this thing? !

The Wolf King was shocked. Looking at the situation, it was lifted up like a chick. It didn't have the demeanor of a wolf king, it was just like a poor animal, waiting to be slaughtered!

"This..."

Elena's eyes widened as she looked at Joelson who was sitting on the sleigh. Her eyes were filled with disbelief.

This fellow was actually so powerful? !

When she had saved Joelson, Elena had never thought that the other party's strength would actually be so powerful.

There was, however, a deep mystery.

At that time, she had already been guessing the other party's strength. But now, after seeing Joelson's true attack, she understood that the other party's strength was actually not the slightest bit weaker than hers.

As for Jorson's real strength, Elena guessed that his strength was about the same as hers, or even slightly stronger than hers.

The reason for Elena's misjudgment was very simple. The reason was that the few moves that Jorson had displayed were all very basic moves, such as ice wall and fire breath. These moves were not powerful, and were even skills that all low-level mages knew, Elena was not the least bit curious about the fact that Joelson could display these moves. However, the move that Joelson had displayed this time relied on magic energy to materialize, directly transforming into an invisible giant hand, the terrifying move of grabbing the opponent's neck had truly shocked Elena.

Initially, when Elena had not seen such a move, she had thought that the opponent's strength was roughly equivalent to an early-stage God's domain expert. However, now that Mr. Joelson had displayed such a terrifying materialization move..., Elena's assessment of Mr. Joelson's power had changed.

This person's power was at least not lower than hers. In some ways, he might even be slightly stronger than her!

Elena was a genius girl. To make such a judgement was already an extremely high estimate.

Who knew, Elena knew that Joelson's true power was actually at the peak of the demigod level. When that time came, how wonderful would his expression be.

"Ow, ow, ow, ow..."

The Wolf King struggled painfully in the hands of Joelson. As it struggled violently, the wound on its lower abdomen burst open. Fresh blood flowed out, and its white intestines were faintly exposed. The Wolf King let out a painful howl, the rupture of the wound instantly weakened the Wolf King.

"Woo-hoo..."

The Magic Beast Wolf King whimpered and stopped struggling. Seeing that the Magic Beast Wolf King had completely lost its temper, Joelson finally released the hand formed by magic energy. The Magic Beast Wolf King immediately fell and fell into the white snow pile.

"Huuu huuu..."

The Magic Beast Wolf King panted weakly. Looking at Elena in front of him, its eyes were filled with weakness.

"Sigh... Why..."

Elena sighed as she looked at the Magic Beast Wolf King with sorrow in her eyes.

The fate of the Magic Beast Wolf King was entirely its own fault. It would not have been fatal if it had been pinched just now. It had struggled intensely, which had caused the wound to open and it was at the brink of death, Elena walked to the side of the Magic Beast Wolf King—which was lying on the ground and gasping weakly—and touched its chin.

Although the two of them were rivals who wanted to kill each other in the battle of life and death, Elena put down her hostility and touched the Wolf King's chin when the Wolf King was on the verge of death.

"Wuuuu..."

The Wolf King whimpered, and the world in front of it became blurry.

Two figures slowly walked over from the horizon.

The girl wore a blue one-piece dress and had long white hair that was as beautiful as a snow elf's.

Her long hair was slightly curly and coiled around her head. Her shoulders were draped with a white shawl and she wore a light blue one-piece dress. Through the neckline, one could see the deep chasm of her cleavage. Her pair of gem-like eyes were watery and limpid, causing one to really be unable to resist taking a few more glances at her.

She was indeed extremely beautiful.

The man seemed to have experienced some vicissitudes of life. At this moment, he was wearing a set of ordinary clothes, and there were many injuries on his body. It was as if he had gone through a great battle.

In particular, one of his legs seemed to have been heavily injured.

At this moment, with the support of the woman, he was still walking in a very awkward manner. He was limping, and it was very strange.

The two of them were Elena and Joelson, who had come from the Wailing Abyss.

At this moment, in order to search for the gem, Joelson had fallen from a high altitude and suffered a lot of injuries.

Meanwhile, Joelson, who had coincidentally received Elena's help, followed Elena to the underground city.

At this moment, the two of them were sitting on the sleigh. Elena was controlling the sleigh, and Joelson was sitting behind the sleigh.

The cold wind blew on their faces, and Elena's shawl was fluttering in the wind.

In the vast white snow, the two of them were talking and laughing.

After an unknown amount of time, a huge and blurry outline appeared in the distance.

Seeing this scene, Elena's eyes not only lit up, but her originally exhausted spirit was instantly swept away. She pointed at the huge outline in the distance and shouted excitedly.

"Look, Joelson, that's the underground city!"

"We'll be arriving soon!"

Behind her, when Joelson heard the news from Elena, his exhausted spirit was immediately roused. He rubbed his tired eyes and yawned as he said.

"Thank you for your hard work, Elena."

In the vast white snow, the sleigh of the two of them flew at high speed, breaking through the cold wind and breaking through the ice and snow.

After driving for an unknown amount of time, the hazy outline in the fog gradually became clear.

The details of the huge city gate gradually appeared in front of their eyes.

The spirits of Elena and Joelson instantly felt a little excited. The magic energy in Elena's hand increased its output, and the speed of the sleigh immediately became faster.

The speed increased by another level!

Just as the two of them were hurrying along, an angry shout was suddenly heard.

“Stop, despicable foreigners!”

“What unspeakable motives do you have!”

“Why did you come to our beautiful and holy underground city!”

The guard was wearing a silver-white silver-scaled breastplate and a coat made of animal skin. His pants were made of pure cotton, and the boots on his feet emitted a dazzling light due to the reflection of the light.

The guard was a middle-aged man in his forties or fifties. At this moment, he was very angry. His eyes were bloodshot, and his thick eyebrows were raised. He was waiting for the two of them.

In his excitement, his neck was already red, and blue veins appeared on his face.

It seemed that he did not like to exercise. He only ran a few steps and roared a few times, but he was already exhausted.

At this moment, this guard was holding a silver spear that was about the height of a person. The spear was shockingly covered with complicated and fine lines.

It was unknown what magic was engraved on it. It faintly emitted a magical fluctuation and surrounded the spear.

This flustered and exasperated soldier appeared not far away from Elena and Joelson. Elena hurriedly stopped the sleigh.

Elena paused for a moment before she turned towards the direction of the guard and said apologetically.

“I’m really sorry, sir guard. We didn’t know that there were guards stationed nearby.”

“If we had known, we would have reported to you first before entering the underground world.”

The guard was not satisfied with Elena’s explanation.

To him, this man and woman had suddenly entered his territory and disturbed his rare peace and quiet.

One had to know that the area he was in charge of usually did not have any activity for several months.

This was also the reason why he was angry. More importantly, his beautiful lunch break was actually disturbed by these two guys!

Looking at Elena's extremely beautiful appearance and Joelson's inconspicuous presence in the crowd, the guard felt even more displeased.

This guard's family was not harmonious. Not only was his tigress wife not one-tenth as good-looking as Elena, she was not even one-twentieth as good-looking. Her figure was extremely bloated and her personality was vile. She often insulted him.

Damn it, how could this ordinary stinky man have such a charming, curvy, and perfect-looking wife?

Oh god, this is totally unacceptable!

Isn't it fair between people?

The guard shouted in his heart, but the people in front of him, such as Joelson and Elena, naturally did not know.

Seeing that the guard did not respond for a moment, Elena subconsciously raised her delicate hand and waved it in front of the guard.

"Sir guard, are you alright?"

The guard was stunned for a moment before he snapped back to his senses.

Seeing that Elena was not only so good-looking, but also so gentle, and that she was so concerned about him even though he was only stunned for a moment, he could not help but feel even more unbalanced in his heart!

He gritted his teeth and glanced at Joelson beside him.

"Have you two prepared the taxes for entering the city?"

The guard raised his eyebrows and stretched out his hand towards the two of them.

His attitude was very clear.

He wanted money!

Elena was about to speak when Joelson, who was behind her, asked first.

"How much money do you need?"

After Joelson said that, the guard sneered and stretched out his hand towards the two of them.

He stretched out his five fingers and made a figure of five.

“500 snow crystal coins per person!”

When Elena heard that a person actually wanted 500 snow crystal coins, she could not help but raise her eyebrows and open her small mouth slightly.

Elena was very shocked. Obviously, she was shocked by this number.

According to Elena’s memory, the price of a loaf of bread was only one snow crystal coin!

One person entering the city actually needed 500 snow crystal coins!

This number was too much!

Moreover, the amount of 500 snow crystal coins for two people would double, reaching a total of 1,000 snow crystal coins!

The guard looked at the two of them with a sneer, especially Joelson.

Don’t you have a beautiful wife? Today, I will make your wallet bleed!

“500 snow crystal coins per person!”

When Elena heard that a person actually wanted 500 snow crystal coins, she could not help but raise her little eyebrows and open her little mouth slightly.

Elena was extremely shocked. It was obvious that she was shocked by this number.

Behind her, Joelson glanced at the guard in front of him and shook his head.

Five hundred snow crystal coins per person was indeed a little high, but it was not too exaggerated.

If one really wanted to say it, one could only say that the ruler of the underground city was not very honest, but it would not be to the extent that everyone could not afford it.

However, for some small merchants and peddlers, if these ordinary people entered the underground city, just the tax for entering the city alone would probably make their hearts ache for a long time.

“I’ll give you 500 snow crystal coins,” Joelson said slowly to Elena.

“These 500 snow crystal coins are indeed above average, but neither of us are in a particularly good condition right now. One more thing is better than one less thing. I think it’s better to give them these 500 snow crystal coins.”

Elena nodded when she heard what Joelson said.

Joelson's analysis was very reasonable. After all, Joelson's leg had suffered a lot of damage. It was very difficult for him to walk normally now, and her condition was not particularly good. Even if these 500 snow crystal coins were expensive, it was not so expensive that it was outrageous.

Elena still chose to listen to Joelson's idea. She was ready to turn around and look at her purse, which was where she usually kept her purse.

Then, Elena took out 500 snow crystal coins from her purse and handed them to the guard in front of her very politely.

The guard was stunned for a moment!

He was trying to make things difficult for Joelson and Elena!

One had to know that ordinary people only needed 50 snow crystal coins to enter the underground city. Now that he had increased it by 10 times, these two guys were still able to take them out casually.

It seemed that they didn't feel any heartache at all.

Could it be that these two guys had a lot of money!

Hiss!

The guard sucked in a breath of cold air.

His heart was beating rapidly!

Originally, he had thought that Elena was Joelson's wife, and that was why he was extremely displeased with Elena and Joelson. But now, he thought that he had raised the tax by ten times to make things difficult for the two of them. He didn't expect that the two of them didn't feel any heartache at all!

These 500 snow crystal coins were a full month's salary for the guards!

The 1,000 snow crystal coins for the two of them would require a full two months' salary for the guards to be able to afford it.

One had to know that he was a silver rank guard in the underground city. His treatment was much better than bronze rank or black iron rank guards.

However, he could not take out a full 1,000 snow crystal coins in one go.

How could these two people casually take out 1,000 snow crystal coins? This would make him look like a joke, like a clown!

A pitiful and pathetic clown who thought he could disgust others but, in fact, others didn't even care about him.

A clown who was moldy in the corner and no one liked him!

In an instant, the guard was able to imagine this scene.

He gritted his teeth!

Elena's respect for him was completely an insult to him!

These two b*stards were actually insulting him!

If he couldn't take out 1,000 snow crystal coins in a month, wasn't that shameful?

I'm an existence that protects the underground city and protects the people of the underground city!

I'm a guard, and I have the highest honor!

These two b*stards are actually using dirty money to despise me. Looks like I'll have to teach these two guys a lesson!

Thinking of this, the guard snorted coldly.

"I remember now."

"Five hundred snow crystal coins per person. That was a rule set by the king last month. This month is already a new rule."

"Look at my memory. I almost made a mistake."

The guard looked at Joelson and Elena in front of him with a fake smile. A crafty look flashed in his eyes.

The crafty look in the guard's eyes was directly noticed by Joelson, who was sitting behind Elena.

Joelson frowned.

This guard...

He kept feeling that something was wrong.

Although Joelson had noticed that there was something wrong with the guard's eyes, he did not pay too much attention to it at the moment.

After all, the person in front of them was just a small guard in the underground city.

To the current Joelson, he didn't need to pay too much attention to it.

After all, Joelson could easily kill an existence of this level.

Even if he could play enough tricks, in front of absolute strength, it would be completely futile.

The guard continued to speak.

"The price of entering the underground city has doubled. It has become 1,000 snow crystal coins per person."

"There are two of you, so the price of entering the underground city is 2,000 gold coins."

"I almost made a mistake. What a sin."

The guard pretended to say.

They had just entered the territory of the underground city. From the looks of it, it was their first time in the underground city, or it had been a long time since they had been in the underground city.

There was definitely no problem with his excuse.

Even if it was exposed, the area under his jurisdiction in the underground city was very quiet. After getting close to the underground city, it would be even more difficult to find him.

As for whether the two of them were powerful or had high positions, the guards did not believe it.

If the two people in front of him had some power, would they be willing to pay him if he came to collect the money?

If these two people really had enough power and he came to collect the money, these two people would definitely not be so polite.

After all, the guards had received many strong people before. These people's personalities were worse than each other's.

Therefore, the guards believed that as long as there were strong people, they would definitely have extremely bad personalities.

The more vile their character was, the more powerful they would be.

It was a pity that the guards did not know about the survivor effect. Those existences that were extremely powerful and were extremely polite to the guards had not been discovered by the guards.

It was precisely because of this that the guards were at a huge disadvantage.

“A person actually costs 1,000 snow crystal coins?”

When Elena heard the guards say that a person actually costs 1,000 snow crystal coins, she could not help but say in shock.

After all, 1,000 snow crystal coins was enough for some families to eat bread for quite a while.

The two of them were now worth 2,000 snow crystal coins.

No matter what, the current price was too high!

Even Elena began to feel suspicious in her heart.

Chapter 559: Just a Glance. Is the Power Really That Great?

"It actually costs 1,000 snow crystal coins per person?"

When Elena heard the guard say that a person actually costs 1,000 snow crystal coins, she could not help but exclaim in shock.

When the guard saw Elena's change in attitude, he immediately realized that the price he said was a little too exaggerated. However, if he were to change the amount now, Elena and Joelson would definitely be suspicious.

The current guard felt like he was riding a tiger.

Even though it was winter and the cold wind was constantly blowing across his body, the bone-piercing coldness was constantly blowing on his face.

However, the guard still felt that there was sweat on his forehead.

He subconsciously wiped it off, his eyes evading.

However, when his hand really touched his forehead, he was shocked to find that he was really nervous and was sweating a lot.

Was he really that nervous?

The guard was a little surprised.

However, he still maintained a calm look. He looked at Joelson and Elena in front of him and said.

"Yes, the two of you."

"As I said, the price has changed since last month. "Since last month, if you want to enter the underground city, the tax to enter the city has changed from 500 snow crystal coins per person to 1,000 snow crystal coins per person."

"If you have any objections, just tell the king about entering the city. What's the use of telling us guards?"

"We are not people who change the price. Those who are really powerful would not be patrolling outside in such cold weather."

The guard's expression did not change as he said coldly.

After saying all this, he felt that he was simply a first-rate actor in the underground city.

He was actually able to lie with such perfect acting skills.

Even if he did not become a guard, he would be able to find a troupe and get a good salary with his acting skills!

Elena glanced at the guard. She already felt that there was something wrong with this guard.

However, what Joelson said earlier was right. They were not in a good condition now. Although it was possible that this guard was clearly trying to scam them of their money.

However, it might be a good option to spend money to get rid of this disaster.

After all, if there was a dispute, the mobility-impaired Joelson would bring them great inconvenience.

Thinking of this, Elena frowned slightly. She once again took out her exquisite purse from her fanny pack.

She took out another thousand snow crystal coins.

This was not a small expense for Elena!

Beside her, Joelson frowned slightly.

Right now, Joelson did not have any money. If the guards just asked them about the taxes for entering the city, Joelson would ask Elena to pay it.

After that, when Joelson received the money, he would return it to Elena.

But the problem was that there was an 80% chance that the guards were cheating them of their money. This made Joelson a little unhappy.

If the guards wanted to make Joelson a sucker, they might have found the wrong person.

Joelson frowned slightly and looked at the guard coldly.

The guard, who had just touched himself because of his acting skills, suddenly felt that an extremely terrifying beast was staring at him.

He only felt that at this moment, his surroundings were not the ice field that he was familiar with. His clothes had also disappeared and he had entered an extremely dark ice cellar.

That bone-piercing cold made the guard's soul tremble!

He felt as if his life was being targeted by that unknown beast.

As long as the other party was willing, he could end his life at any time.

His life was as easy as crushing an ant to death to that terrifying beast.

Bathump! Thump! Thump!

The guard only felt his heartbeat quicken, as if his heart was directly in his throat!

This feeling was too unbearable!

Every minute, every second was a torture to the guard!

Only two or three seconds had passed, but to the guard at this moment, it was as if several years had passed.

It was incomparably long!

At this moment, the guard's forehead and back were completely drenched in cold sweat.

It wasn't because of anything else, but because of that terrifying threat that came from god knows where, causing the guard to feel extremely uneasy!

Could it be that there was a terrifying existence in the underground city?

The guard subconsciously thought to himself, that huge sense of danger made it difficult for him to breathe!

In fact, he even had the thought of collapsing in an instant. Perhaps committing suicide right now was the best way to escape!

He did not have the ability to escape from a ferocious beast that could release such a terrifying aura!

It was likely that not a single person in the entire guard regiment would be a match for such power!

Even if there were ten or a hundred of them, the result would still be the same!

There was no difference!

Currently, Elena was not affected by Joelson's aura.

In fact, there was no pressure at all. To put it bluntly, it was just that the guard behind Elena coldly glanced at him.

Even the guard did not expect that his gaze would have such a huge effect.

He looked at the originally arrogant guard and was suddenly stunned. After which, he seemed to have received some kind of shock and his entire person seemed to be on edge.

Elena carefully discovered that the guard's thigh had already begun to tremble.

Even the majestic long spear in his hand was trembling at this moment. It continuously collided with the silver scale breastplate, emitting a 'ding ding ding'sound.

At this moment, 99% of the Guard's eyes were white, while his pupils had become the size of a pinhole.

His eyes were bloodshot, and they were trembling non-stop!

His face was pale, without a trace of blood!

At this moment, all the blood on the guard's body seemed to have been sucked dry.

This state lasted for a full minute.

"Sir Guard?"

"Sir Guard!"

Even if Elena took out her small hand and waved it in front of the guard's eyes, there was no reaction at all.

However, after a full ten seconds, the guard suddenly let out a loud cry and ran into the distance as if he had gone mad.

His voice was so loud that it was as if he had suffered a terrifying encounter.

On the snowy ground, a shiny object was left on the ground. It looked very conspicuous.

It seemed that the guard had left it behind by accident.

Chapter 560: Elena, Who Doesn't Know the Power of Love

On the snowy ground, a shiny object was left on the ground. It looked very conspicuous.

It seemed that the guard had accidentally left it behind.

Elena looked at the distant guard and was very puzzled.

She didn't know why he had suddenly run away.

He had just asked her and Joelson for the tax money to enter the city!

What had happened to cause such a change in this middle-aged man?

And it seemed that the change in his mental state was not small.

Had he suddenly received some sort of special shock?

Elena was puzzled.

However, the guards had already run far away, and even their figures had disappeared. Even if Elena wanted to summon the guards, it would not be realistic.

Elena's gaze landed on the shiny object that had fallen into the snow.

Because Joelson's legs were not that good, Elena volunteered to get down from the sleigh, and came to the shiny object.

Elena approached it carefully.

After her previous experience fighting wolf-type magical beasts, Elena was very cautious.

She knew that she had to be careful at all times.

After all, when she was out, her safety was the most important thing.

If she lost her life, no matter how much gold or silver she used, she would not be able to make up for it.

Elena approached the shiny object that had fallen into the snow.

Elena picked it up carefully and shone it under the light. Elena swept the white snow on it.

In the distance, Joelson narrowed his eyes and saw the thing in Elena's hand.

It was the token on the guard's waist.

The token was silver in color. It was exquisitely carved and engraved with the words 'front guard.'

On the back of the token was carved a lifelike snowland wolf.

The snowland wolf bared its fangs and brandished its claws. It looked extremely cold and awe-inspiring, as if it was going to jump out of the token in the next moment and attack Elena and Joelson.

Even the experienced and knowledgeable Joelson was secretly exclaiming in his heart at this moment.

This symbol was drawn very well. It completely drew the essence of the snowland wolf.

That imposing manner... That imposing manner, even Joelson could feel a trace of the cunning of the snowland wolf from it.

Joelson stopped the distracting thoughts in his heart. At this moment, the picture of the snowland wolf was secondary. The most important thing was still the words 'front guard.'

It was likely that as long as he had this thing, he would be able to enter the underground city without any obstruction.

However, the most important thing about this token was that it should be able to free him from some financial worries.

At this moment, this was what Joelson thought in his heart. After all, he did not have a single snow crystal coin on him.

"Joelson..."

"This should be the identity token that the guard accidentally dropped."

"Maybe we should return it to him."

At this moment, Elena thought that Joelson, who was sitting in the back seat of the sleigh, didn't know what he had gotten from the snow. She hurriedly said to Joelson, who was sitting in the back seat.

Joelson pretended to nod and said to Elena seriously.

"So it's the identity token dropped by the guard..."

"Elena, we can't even find the shadow of the guard now. It seems that it will be difficult for us to return this token to him."

Joelson sat in the back of the sleigh, holding his chin with his big hand and slowly said to Elena.

Elena also nodded.

The guard suddenly roared and ran away as if he had met a monster.

If this was said to the other guards, they would probably not believe it.

If these guys had a bad guess, it could be that Elena and Joelson had killed people to silence them and obtained the guard token. Perhaps the two of them would still encounter a prison sentence for no reason.

Elena did not come all the way here to go to prison.

Joelson saw that Elena was already on her own path, so he continued.

"Now that the guard has run far away, he hasn't even completed the work that he needs to patrol. If the people above him find out that the guard has gone missing, and we recklessly handed this token to them, it might cause a misunderstanding."

"I'm afraid that this is also something that you don't want to see, Elena."

Elena nodded.

There was nothing wrong with Joelson's analysis. That was exactly what Elena was thinking.

At the same time, in Elena's heart, Joelson's status was even higher.

She couldn't help but think to herself, why did Joelson guess what she was thinking clearly.

Could it be that because they had kissed before, it was because of the exchange of saliva that led to the telepathic connection between the two of them!

This... shouldn't be possible!

Elena couldn't help but feel a little flustered. In her mind, she couldn't help but recall the scene where she was surrounded by the snowland wolves and Elena forcefully kissed Joelson in front of all the snowland wolves.

Of course, she also naturally recalled the scene where Joelson forced himself to kiss her back.

Joelson's strong and powerful chest...

Joelson's manly taste...

Joelson's intoxicating lips...

And Joelson's crazy tongue...

Scene after scene flashed in front of Elena's eyes. At the thought of this, Elena's fair little face couldn't help but turn red.

Beside her, Joelson was puzzled when he saw Elena suddenly turn red.

Of course, Joelson was also very gentlemanly and didn't interrupt Elena's fantasy.

Although Joelson didn't know that Elena was currently reminiscing about the passion between the two of them, if he knew, he would probably be disobedient again.

After a long while, Elena finally woke up from the original scene and remembered that she had been in a trance for so long.

Elena quickly patted her little face to wake herself up.

Elena, Elena, what are you thinking about!

Wake up!

After patting her fair little face until it was slightly red, Elena returned to the sleigh.

She gave the token that she had just picked up from the guard to Joelson for safekeeping.

Elena did not know why she gave the token that she had just obtained to Joelson. She was not a fool. Of course, she knew how much benefit this token would bring her if she did not give it to the guards.

However, Elena gave the token to Joelson without hesitation. For some reason, Elena always felt that she could relax when she was beside Joelson.

She did not think too much about it and handed over the token directly.

After all, Elena had never been in a relationship before. Of course, she did not understand the power of love.

Chapter 561: If You Hadn't Met with Danger, Would You Have Kissed Me?

Joelson and Elena entered the city.

With the token, they could enter the underground city without any obstruction.

Joelson thought that after showing the guard token, the guards would at least ask him a few questions and charge him a slightly cheaper tax to enter the city.

However, not only did they not ask Elena and Joelson to pay the tax, they did not even ask him a single question.

Of course, the guards did not dare to ask the two of them because the token in Elena and Joelson's hands was silver-grade.

One had to know that there were only four types of guards.

Black iron, bronze, silver, and gold.

After that was platinum, which was something that only existed in the inner city.

The entire underground city was divided into two levels, the inner and outer.

Joelson asked around and it seemed that ordinary people did not have the qualifications to enter the inner city.

However, he did not know the specific qualifications.

After all, in the outer city, most people's identities were not that special. They were just ordinary passersby.

As for the guards who had gold rank or above, they all had unique skills and were extremely powerful.

Of course, to be able to have a silver rank guard token in the outer city, one could be said to be a very powerful existence.

One had to know that many guards had only heard of the outer city's soldier commander.

This soldier commander's strength was not simple. Someone had seen that the soldier commander was unarmed and had directly defeated an entire pack of direwolves!

He was unarmed, and he did not even have any defensive equipment.

This battle record could be said to be very shocking!

If an ordinary person were to face a pack of direwolves, no, even if it was just a single direwolf, or even a heavily injured existence, an ordinary person might not be able to defeat them.

Of course, the probability of being killed by the direwolves was higher.

After hearing the news, Joelson was also a little interested in the rumored commander of the outer city soldiers who had a gold token.

Perhaps they would really meet and make Joelson's eyes light up.

At this moment, Joelson and Elena had entered the underground city.

Their first goal now was to find a hotel.

Due to the fact that she did not pay the taxes for entering the city, Elena's wallet was still very abundant. She was even confident that she could check the prices of some luxurious hotels.

Of course, she was only checking the prices.

Elena and Joelson had come to this underground city with a mission objective that belonged to her.

She did not plan to stay in the underground city for too long. As long as she completed the mission objectives, she would immediately get up and leave.

Of course, she was not sure how long it would take to complete the mission.

Therefore, when Elena chose the cheapest hotel, she actually chose the cheapest one.

After all, if Elena and Joelson needed to stay in the underground world for a long time, the overpriced hotel would directly empty Elena and Joelson's wallets.

He almost forgot that it was Elena's wallet.

At the moment, Joelson did not have a single snow crystal coin in his pocket.

Even if Joelson had something that was priceless and could be exchanged for a lot of snow crystal coins, Joelson still did not have the chance to exchange for it now.

After all, he still had a pair of legs that were inconvenient to move on!

Because of the inconvenience of his legs and legs, Elena tied her sleigh to the side and let Joelson sit there and wait for her. She would come to pick him up after Elena had completed the check-in procedures for the hotel.

Looking at Elena's disappearing figure, Joelson could not help but mutter.

What a good girl!

Looking at his legs that could no longer move on their own, Joelson was indeed a little unhappy.

It seemed that he had to find a place quickly and use a healing potion to heal his legs.

Joelson hoped that as soon as possible. If possible, he planned to heal his legs immediately after he stayed in the hotel.

It was indeed difficult to be a disabled person!

At this moment, he could already feel how difficult life was for those who were born without legs.

With this thought in mind, Elena walked over from the corner of the street, holding two keys in her hands.

Apparently, she had already completed some of the procedures for staying in the hotel.

Without any nonsense, he directly entered the hotel with the help of Elena.

The hotel was not shabby, but as soon as he entered, he could feel the old feeling of the hotel.

Although the floor was wiped clean, he could still feel the vicissitudes of time on the stone floor.

The wooden handrail was also full of scratches.

On the wall, posters had been used to cover the marks.

It seemed that many things had happened in this place.

Perhaps some people cheered here, while others cried here all night.

However, with the passage of time, those important things and those important people had become unimportant.

With the passage of time, the river of time had completely disappeared in everyone's eyes.

However, these traces could never be buried, time was fair. Regardless of whether it was men, women, old or young, poor or rich, they all had the same amount of time.

Time was also cruel. Whether it was the heavily injured criminals or the veterans who were struggling on the verge of death, their time would not be extended by a second because they had done a good deed or protected the safety of the people.

"Joelson, what are you thinking about?"

Elena, who was supporting Joelson, could not help but ask when she saw that he was staring at the wall in a daze.

Joelson was stunned for a moment. He recovered from his daze and gave Elena a faint smile.

"Nothing important. I just suddenly feel a little emotional. Maybe I'm getting old."

Elena could not help but laugh when she saw that there was nothing going on with Joelson.

"You still call yourself an uncle? You're obviously still very young and handsome. You're very charming."

Joelson could not help but tease her.

"So, even if you didn't meet those snowland wolves, you would still do those things to me for a reason?"

The kind of things that Joelson was talking about were, of course, the intimate actions between the two of them earlier.

After being mentioned by Joelson, Elena's fair little face could not help but become slightly hot again.

She subconsciously stretched out her small fist and gently hammered on Joelson's chest.

Then, she whispered in a voice that only she could hear.

"It should be..."

"It should be..."

Chapter 562: What the Hell Is Wrong with Me!

Because she chose a hotel that wasn't very luxurious, Elena naturally gave Joelson and herself a separate room.

Although when the two of them were with the direwolf, Elena wanted to find a man to give her first kiss before she died, so she kissed Joelson.

But now that Elena had calmed down, she naturally wouldn't choose to stay in the same room as him.

Although Elena knew that because of his mobility, she could take better care of him if she stayed in the same room as him.

But Elena didn't do that.

When Elena leaned her head on his chest, she felt the sound of his heart beating and his manliness.

Elena was not sure if she could remain calm when she was in the same room with him.

Therefore, it was the best choice for the two of them to separate.

Elena coughed and helped Joelson into the room. Then, she lit the kerosene lamp on the side.

The filament of the kerosene lamp was lit and the light came out from it. The simple room seemed to be alive.

The walls of the room where Joelson and Elena were located were completely made of wood. It was unknown what kind of paint had been used on the surface of the wood. It had clearly been through countless years, but the surface was still extremely smooth.

Some potholes would be directly covered by that magical paint.

At this moment, the kerosene lamp that Elena had just lit was reflected, causing the entire room to light up.

On the wall, there was an oil painting hanging on the head of the bed. To be precise, it was right above the pillow.

The oil painting was bound with a very exquisite wooden frame.

On the oil painting, there was a naked, plump woman. She was lazily sitting by the lakeside, looking into the distance.

If there was anything special about this woman, it would be the pair of huge beautiful wings behind her, which were emitting a dazzling light.

Under the contrast of these wings, the naked woman actually did not appear to have a trace of lewdness. Instead, she appeared to be extremely holy.

Elena looked at the oil painting by the bedside and her face subconsciously turned red.

Although Elena could also feel the holy aura from the oil painting, Elena still could not help but look at the woman's chest.

There was a pair of huge breasts there.

On the other hand, Elena's chest seemed to be even more barren.

Elena subconsciously glanced to the side and did not intend to continue looking at the oil painting.

Why did this damn oil painting have to be placed in the hotel?

This oil painting was not particularly obscene or sacred.

Elena didn't even know what the artist was trying to say.

Could it be that the hotel she chose was a hotel reserved for couples?

All of a sudden, many inappropriate scenes flashed through Elena's mind.

But in the next moment, Elena rejected her inner thoughts.

After all, she had seen many burly men and handsome men drinking on the first floor of the hotel.

Their bodies were full of muscles, and they even had their arms around each other's shoulders. They were extremely intimate.

Wait a minute!

Elena's little eyebrows shot up. Could it be that these strong men who were so intimate with each other...

Could it be a couple?

Thinking of this, Elena's fair little face could not help but become even redder. At this moment, her face was like a ripe apple.

"Elena, what are you thinking about?"

Looking at Elena, who was supporting herself, in a daze at this moment, Joelson could not help but ask subconsciously.

As for the thoughts in Elena's mind at this moment, Joelson definitely did not know.

He would not associate so many things just because of a painting.

When Joelson saw that Elena did not have any reaction, he not only frowned slightly.

He stretched out his hand and gently flicked Elena's small face.

Click.

Elena's smooth and elastic small face made a wonderful sound at this moment.

"Ah?"

Elena was obviously shocked by Joelson's behavior, and she was supporting him at this moment. Otherwise, this sudden behavior of Joelson would make Elena panic.

"Are you feeling unwell?"

Joelson asked with great concern.

After all, they had just encountered the snowland wolf and had not even received any treatment.

After that, Elena had been driving the sleigh and heading towards the underground city for a long time.

If Elena had suffered some minor injuries in the beginning and had forcefully endured without treatment, it was likely that she would have suffered a serious injury and had to be treated immediately.

Elena shook her head and hurriedly explained to Joelson.

"I'm fine. Don't worry about me."

When he heard that Elena was fine, Joelson suddenly understood.

He suddenly remembered that girls had a few special days every month.

"Oh, I see."

"I understand."

Joelson clapped his hands and pretended to understand.

Elena did not know what Joelson understood. She put Joelson on the bed and said to him.

"Joelson, my room is next door."

"I'll go back to my room to tidy up. I'll go out later to see if I can find some herbs for your leg."

Before Joelson could speak, Elena immediately left the room and closed the door tightly.

After Elena closed the door, she subconsciously looked back at the wooden door.

Behind the door was Joelson who was lying on the bed.

Elena leaned against the wall and took small breaths.

She had just supported Joelson and was extremely close to him.

The manly aura coming from Joelson made Elena's imagination run wild.

She pursed her lips and swallowed subconsciously.

In her mind, the romantic scene of kissing under the siege of the snowfield wolf had once again appeared in her mind.

She quickly calmed down and patted her cheeks with her little hand, hoping to use the pain to slightly ease her wild thoughts.

"What's wrong with me?"

Elena was very confused. She entered her room and went into the bathroom, washing her little face with clean water.

The temperature of the water was very cold, which made Elena sober up at this moment.

She recalled all kinds of strange actions that she had just done, and her mind became more and more confused.

She was not like this before!

Chapter 563: Take the Medicine. It's Time to Restore Your Legs!

In Joelson's room.

Feeling the outside of the door, Elena's figure had already walked far away.

"Phew..."

Only then did Joelson let out a long sigh of relief. The huge burden in his heart had finally been lifted.

Currently, Joelson's mobility was inconvenient. Naturally, it was because he had fallen from the Wailing Abyss, causing his legs to be completely crippled.

If he was an ordinary person, he might have been crippled for the rest of his life and lost the ability to move.

The days that followed would probably be very difficult.

However, it was different for him. There were many potions in his system space.

Especially one of the potions. He remembered that it was especially useful for injuries.

He slowly closed his eyes.

Magic power gradually emerged from his surroundings.

At first, there were only a few magic waves.

But then, in less than five minutes, the magic waves in the room became more and more intense!

It was like boiling water, constantly bubbling.

At this moment, if other mages who were proficient in magic were beside him, they would definitely be shocked by the magic waves in the surroundings.

This was because the magic fluctuations that covered the entire room represented that Joelson's control over magic power had already reached an extremely terrifying level.

It was likely that even if one looked at the entire city, one would not be able to find someone like Joelson who could control magic power to such an extent.

After which, another ten minutes passed.

The entire room was completely filled with Joelson's magic power. The magic power in the entire room suddenly stopped.

Subsequently, the magic power in the air suddenly shrunk together.

The magic power in the entire room began to shrink continuously.

From the size of the entire room, it finally turned into a magic light ball that was the size of a normal man's head.

The magic energy within it had changed from the gaseous magic energy that had filled the entire room to a sticky slime-like existence.

This magic energy was completely golden. If an ordinary person were to look at the current Joelson, they would definitely think that he was holding a very precious gem.

Unfortunately, this magic light ball was not worth a single cent.

After all, this magic light ball could not escape Joelson's control. Once it lost control, this magic light ball would instantly disappear.

Of course, there was also a small chance that the chaotic magic law within would cause a violent explosion.

If this extremely terrifying explosion could be considered a value, then this magic light ball of Joelson's should also be worth something.

After all, if such a terrifying bomb could be produced, it would also require a lot of resources.

At this moment, Joelson's eyes were tightly shut.

His mental energy was extremely concentrated.

The magic light wave on his right palm slowly began to change.

At the beginning, it was only a circular shape, but soon, the magic light ball in Joelson's hand became complicated.

The light ball turned into fine threads and slowly wrapped around his body.

The magic threads were even thinner than hair. As the magic threads wrapped around his body, various details about his body gradually appeared in his mind.

It was extremely detailed, and he did not miss even the slightest bit of information.

After performing a major examination on his upper body and finding that there was no problem, and that he was even healthier than most people, Joelson turned his gaze to his lower body.

He had fallen from an unknown height, but only his lower body had suffered serious injuries. It seemed that his body was indeed very strong.

That was what Joelson could not help but think.

However, as the magic filaments wrapped around Joelson's lower body, he could not help but frown.

What was going on?

This situation was too horrible to look at!

At this moment, it was not an exaggeration to describe Joelson's lower body as tragic.

Below his thigh, there were shattered bones. Even Joelson could not find where his original knee was.

His muscles had also suffered terrible injuries. It could be said that it was already a miracle that both of his legs had not been amputated.

Of course, the biggest reason was that the extremely powerful magic power in Joelson's body was supporting the lower half of his body.

This majestic magic power covered the lower half of Joelson's body and helped his legs bear 99% of the force.

If he did not have this magic power, it was likely that his legs would immediately explode and turn into a bloody mist.

After completely understanding the situation, he was able to find the right medicine.

His right hand slowly snapped his fingers in the air.

After which, the space slowly twisted, and a strange system space appeared in front of him.

Among them, all the good things that Joelson had looked for were placed in this place.

Joelson searched for a while, and finally found an extremely ordinary small bottle in a corner.

With a flash of light, this small bottle appeared in Joelson's hand.

Joelson twisted the cap of the small bottle, but before he could open it, a rich medicinal fragrance came from within.

This thing was called the Tears of Goddess Walgrace. It was something that Joelson had found on a journey. It contained a huge amount of magic power and could repair various injuries to the body.

Even if he was only left with his last breath, as long as he drank this thing, he would be able to recover his strength in a short period of time.

Joelson did not hesitate. He directly opened the bottle cap and swallowed the turbid liquid into his mouth.

The moment the turbid liquid entered his throat, he raised his eyebrows.

Bang!

Bang bang!

He could clearly hear the sound of his heartbeat coming from his chest.

His heart had been strengthened.

It was as though his heart was operating like a steam engine.

After the pressure of the heart, countless blood rushed towards the five viscera and six bowels!

After the five viscera and six bowels were strengthened by the blood of the heart, they also showed different changes.

Chapter 564: The Lower Half of His Body Has Been Repaired. He Can Finally Stand Up!

At this moment, Joelson felt that the temperature of every organ in his body had begun to rise.

From the initial warmth to the boiling heat, it was now like lava!

Joelson subconsciously exhaled!

In the next moment, the countless magical energy in Joelson's body directly rushed towards his lower half.

The mission of this magic energy was to repair Joelson's thigh.

If a doctor heard about Joelson's plan at this moment, he would probably show a disdainful look.

After all, Joelson's legs were completely shattered into powder at this moment. It was impossible to repair them.

Forget about repairing them, even if he could only roughly shape them, the difficulty was extremely exaggerated.

In the next moment, both of Joelson's legs turned red!

At this moment, the bones in Joelson's thighs were slowly growing.

Although the growth speed was not fast, it was already observable by the naked eye.

However, there was also an extremely intense pain.

However, at this moment, Joelson's expression was very casual.

After all, he had experienced all kinds of things and had seen all kinds of things. Right now, it was just a little pain. Joelson did not care. He just had to endure it.

After about half an hour, Joelson's leg bones had finally finished growing.

Under the observation of the magic filaments, Joelson found that his bones were now even harder.

It was as if his bones were as bright as gemstones.

Joelson could feel a strong sense of power coming from his bones at this moment.

But this was only the beginning of the repair. If Joelson wanted to stand up again, he would need to grow ligaments and muscles.

After the bones in Joelson's legs had completely grown, they continued to strengthen a little. Around the originally bright bones, there was a circle of milky-white things.

These milky-white things wrapped around the bones in his legs. Right now, the bones in his legs were similar to those of an ordinary person. However, if the difference in strength was really greater than theirs, it would be extremely exaggerated.

Right now, if he was willing to stomp his feet, the entire hotel would probably be shocked.

The guests in the hotel would probably think that an earthquake had suddenly occurred and run out to take refuge.

Thinking of this, Joelson could not help but feel a little funny. He did not continue to think about it. Instead, he continued to focus on repairing his legs.

After the repair of his leg bones was completed, muscles grew out of Joelson's leg bones like strands of hair.

This was undoubtedly a huge project, but Joelson did not intend to complete it in one step. He was very patient and controlled the muscles on his leg bones to grow slowly.

Another hour passed, and the clock hanging on the wall had already pointed to the direction of five.

More than two hours had passed since Joelson started to treat his legs.

At this moment, the muscles in Joelson's legs had also completely grown.

The muscles were extremely strong, and Joelson felt that his legs had become stronger after being reorganized.

If the strength of his legs had originally been one, then the strength of his legs, which had yet to be completely repaired, had already reached the level of six.

This was a gap of six times!

And Joelson also estimated that after his legs were completely repaired, his strength would increase once again, reaching ten times of his original strength!

This was an extremely exaggerated level.

After all, ordinary people wouldn't smash their legs into pieces for no reason.

Although Joelson had broken his legs, it was a blessing in disguise, and he had gained even more power.

It wouldn't be long before Joelson's power would rise from the peak of the demigod level to the god level.

At that time, Joelson's power would once more increase!

Right now, his muscles and bones had already grown back. In the end, the only thing that needed to be reconstructed was his ligaments.

This step could be said to be extremely simple, but it could also be extremely difficult.

After all, if Joelson only wanted to stand up and rely on his own strength to walk, then he would only need the most ordinary ligaments to achieve his goal.

It could even be said that ligaments that were inferior to ordinary people could also help Joelson achieve his goal.

However, Joelson was unwilling to do so. After all, if his ligaments could reach the level of bones and muscles, then the strength of his legs could reach an astonishing ten times.

How could this allow Joelson to choose the most ordinary, or even inferior, ligaments?

With this thought in mind, the repair work in Joelson's legs was not neglected. Strips of fine ligaments were formed above the muscles.

Logically speaking, ligaments were the same as muscles. However, unlike muscles, ligaments required a stronger ability to stretch and contract. This was also an advantage that muscles did not have.

This time, the feeling that came from his legs was no longer an incomparable pain. Instead, it was an itch that made people break down.

If it was said that an ordinary person could still use an iron-like will to resist pain, an itch would cause the vast majority of people to despair.

The desire to scratch would really cause one to break down.

Even an expert with such great willpower like Joelson was currently covered with perspiration on his forehead.

Joelson's brows were tightly knitted. He subconsciously clenched his fists so that his body would not be unable to control itself from scratching his legs.

Joelson knew that once he scratched his legs, it would further slow down the progress of his treatment, or even reverse the situation.

Therefore, he absolutely could not scratch his legs.

Joelson took a deep breath and could not help but swallow his saliva.

His fists could not help but tremble.

Although the ligaments did not take as long to regenerate as the bones and muscles did, it was so itchy that even he almost could not hold on.

Finally, after another ten minutes, the ligaments in his legs had completely grown.

Thus, both of his legs were finally fully recovered!

However, he did not stand up immediately. He used the magic thread to continuously scan the condition of his legs. Only when there was no problem with his legs did he use all his strength.

He stood up!

In the dim room, the figure of Joelson standing up was so prominent.

It had been a long time since he felt the feeling of standing up alone. For a moment, joy flashed in his eyes.

“Is this the feeling of standing up?”

“I haven’t felt it for a long time indeed.”

Looking at his standing posture, he couldn’t help but mutter to himself.

“No, this is different from the feeling of standing up...”

He felt that his body had become lighter compared to his original body.

His jumping ability had even increased by several times.

Just as Joelson was feeling the sensation of his legs, Elena's voice suddenly came from outside the door.

"Mr. Joelson, I'm back. Have you rested?"

"Is it convenient for me to come in now?"

Elena's voice seemed to be a little tired.

However, Elena was indeed a very virtuous girl.

There was not a single snow crystal coin in Joelson's wallet at the moment. Elena was the one who paid for the hotel.

Although Joelson planned to return the hotel money to Elena in the future, wasn't it because he had not returned the money to Elena yet?

In this way, the right to use the room at the moment was actually not Joelson's, but Elena's.

However, Elena did not think so. Instead, she knocked on the door and asked Joelson if he was willing to let her in.

If it was Joelson, he might have pushed the door open and entered.

One had to admit that Elena's upbringing was excellent.

In addition to her beauty, there should be quite a number of men who pursued Elena behind her back.

In an instant, Joelson hurriedly sat on the bed and shook his head.

"I haven't rested yet."

"The door isn't locked. Just open the door."

Hearing that Joelson was willing to let Elena in, Elena turned the doorknob and pushed the door open.

Creak. Creak.

The old wooden door made an ear-piercing sound.

Elena entered from the corridor. Her beautiful figure looked particularly breathtaking under the light behind her.

“Mr. Joelson, I just went out and found some medicinal herbs that might be good for your body.”

“I’ve already asked someone to help me process them into powder. Mr. Joelson, please forgive me for acting on my own initiative. Please pull up your pants. I’ll help you apply the medicine.”

Elena lifted the bamboo basket in her hand. There were several small bottles among them.

The small bottles were completely sealed, but there was still a slight smell of medicinal herbs coming from inside.

It seemed that these medicinal herbs were the ones Elena had gone out to look for for Joelson.

Joelson sniffed and probably figured out which medicinal herbs were among them.

Damask vanilla...

Glen fragrant flower...

Graeme hazelnut...

..

More than ten different medicinal herbs appeared in his mind.

These medicinal herbs didn’t have any common characteristics. If he had to say it, it was just one word.

Expensive.

Although these medicinal herbs didn’t do much harm to the human body, to say that they could really treat his legs was simply a pipe dream.

“Elena, the guy who gave you the medicinal herbs, did he really say that these medicinal herbs could help me treat my legs?”

Joelson asked Elena in confusion.

Elena nodded and opened the bottles one by one.

“That doctor gave me his word. He said that although it can’t immediately restore your vitality, it can at least guarantee that the blood in your legs will flow smoothly and that there won’t be any other diseases because of it.”

Elena's hands were very gentle. She poured the powder one after another onto Joelson's calf and then patiently helped him start massaging.

It had to be said that Elena's little hands were cold and felt very good.

Looking at Elena taking care of him very gently at this moment, Joelson could not help but feel a little headache.

Damn it, why did he subconsciously pretend that he had not recovered his body just now?

Now that he suddenly said that he was fine, it would probably be very awkward.

Elena had probably been cheated by the seller of the medicine, and she had also been cheated of a lot of money.

If these medicinal herbs could really be used, then it would be fine if it was Joelson. But the problem was that these medicinal herbs had no other use except for being expensive.

Not only that, medicinal herbs like the damask vanilla had extremely high profits.

It was likely that they could obtain a profit margin of more than 30% just by changing hands.

Joelson was already calculating how much money Elena had been cheated of.

"Elena, how much did you spend on these medicinal herbs?"

Joelson asked.

Elena was still very serious as she helped Joelson to massage his legs.

"Not much, just a little snow crystal coin."

Elena was not good at lying. At this moment, under Joelson's questioning, in order to not make Joelson feel guilty, Elena subconsciously told a white lie.

At this moment, Elena's small face was slightly red, and her eyes were darting around, not daring to look directly into Joelson's eyes.

Joelson raised his eyebrows. A little snow crystal coin?

How was that possible.

The cheapest medicinal herbs here were probably things that ordinary people could not afford even if they lived frugally for a few months.

This girl was really simple. She was actually able to pay so much for a stranger that she did not know by the roadside.

If he was a swindler, Elena would have already been cheated by him until she was penniless. She might even have helped him count his money.

There were probably not many such simple-minded people in the world.

Joelson thought to himself.

“How much is it exactly?”

“In short, there should be a specific number. I don’t have any snow crystal coins on hand right now. After I exchange the money, I’ll return it to you along with the hotel room fee.”

Joelson said.

Elena waved her hand and rejected Joelson.

“There’s really no need. I really don’t have much money.”

“Elena, tell me.”

Joelson stared at Elena very seriously.

Elena, who was uncomfortable from being stared at by Joelson, finally said in a low voice.

“Five thousand...”

“Five thousand snow crystal coins...”

Joelson raised his eyebrows.

Good heavens, Elena was really a completely little rich lady.

She had been cheated of five thousand snow crystal coins so easily. Most ordinary people would not even be able to take out one-fifth of that.

He was really curious about this little girl’s background.

With this thought in mind, Joelson patted Elena’s head.

“Don’t worry about me. I will pay you back the five thousand snow crystal coins I owe you.”

Although Joelson would pay back the money he owed Elena, those who cheated Elena had been blacklisted in his heart.

Chapter 566: The Auction of the Kardas Family, News of the Resplendent Gemstones

The next day.

Joelson and Elena were already on the street.

It was crowded at the moment, and many pedestrians were hurrying along the huge street.

At this moment, Joelson was really starting to size up the city.

It hadn't rained last night, but the ground was as wet as if water could be wrung out.

The floor tiles were made of marble, and there were many dirty stains on them.

It seemed that the sanitary conditions of the underground city were not that good.

The air was very humid, but the temperature was very cold.

Elena subconsciously scrunched her shoulders up, trying to hide her neck into a warm coat.

Elena somehow found a pair of crutches for Joelson, but he didn't say anything and just used them.

He couldn't suddenly tell her that his legs had suddenly healed after seeing this pair of crutches.

Sigh...

Joelson sighed helplessly in his heart.

As expected, if a person told a lie, he would need to use another ninety-nine lies to make up for it.

If he had controlled his actions last night and told Elena directly, he would not be so embarrassed now.

With his crutches, it was much easier for him to move. He did not need Elena's help. Without the help of the sleigh, he could move around by himself.

Of course, this was only from Elena's perspective.

Elena and Joelson walked on the streets of the underground city.

Not far away, a young man in a suit was very polite, which attracted Joelson's attention.

It wasn't that the young man was handsome but that he was handing out flyers.

On the flyers, there was information about the auction.

For this unfamiliar underground city, Joelson needed to understand all kinds of information.

After all, there was information about the resplendent gem, and he could not let go of any information.

If he really missed the news about the resplendent gem because of his carelessness, then Joelson would really chase after his chest and stomp his feet. He would be vexed for a very, very long time.

Narrowing his eyes, Joelson's gaze suddenly flickered.

With the support of magic power, Joelson was still able to clearly read the content written on the flyer even though they were dozens of meters apart.

The general content was that an auction would be held in an auction house owned by the Kardas family in the outer city soon.

At that time, many treasures would appear. Hopefully, everyone would be willing to come and participate in the auction.

"Joelson, that guy in front seems to be handing out something."

Elena pointed at the young man in a suit.

"He should be handing out flyers."

Joelson was about to tell Elena about the contents of the flyer.

However, when Elena heard that he was handing out flyers, she immediately became interested. She hurriedly trotted towards the direction of the young man who was handing out flyers.

Joelson had no intention of going over. He just held onto his walking stick and waited for Elena.

Not far away, Elena chatted with the young man in a suit for a while and immediately ran back.

Elena's small face was filled with excitement.

"Joelson, guess what news I heard!"

Joelson raised his eyebrows and said in a calm voice.

"I guess you heard that the young man is a flyer bearer. He is from the Kardas family, and his status is not very high. The flyer bearer is because his family is going to hold an auction."

"There are a lot of treasures in the auction. I hope everyone will participate."

Elena was stunned when she heard what Joelson said. The expression on her small face was very interesting.

"Joelson, how did you know?"

Joelson shrugged his shoulders.

"Maybe my eyesight is better. I can see the contents of the leaflet clearly from this distance."

"Hey!"

"Mr. Joelson, since you know, why didn't you tell me? You made me come here for nothing."

"Didn't you run away before I even opened my mouth..."

Joelson said helplessly.

Elena seemed to have realized that she was a little reckless, so she stuck out her little tongue.

"In that case, let's go to the auction."

Elena said to Joelson.

Hearing that Elena was going to the auction, Joelson raised his eyebrows.

Why did this girl suddenly go to the auction?

Shouldn't their target now be the resplendent gem?

Seeing that Joelson was extremely puzzled, Elena couldn't help but burst out laughing.

"Mr. Joelson, I guess you just looked at the flyer from afar. You must not have seen the back part of the flyer."

Joelson was a little puzzled and asked.

"What's printed on the back of the flyer?"

Elena took out a flyer that she had just taken from the young man from her pocket and handed it to Joelson.

The front of the flyer was exactly the same as what he had seen earlier.

However, when he turned the flyer upside down, his pupils constricted.

On the flyer, there was a picture of a resplendent gem!

The meaning of the resplendent gem to him was self-evident!

This was an existence that he had to get his hands on.

Since the resplendent gem was most likely related to the Kardas family, it was necessary for him to make a trip to the auction that was about to start.

Joelson held the flyer tightly, deep in thought.

Standing aside, Elena looked at Joelson in puzzlement, not disturbing his deep thoughts.

How much snow crystal coins was a resplendent gem worth?

Joelson thought to himself.

Although Elena was indeed a little rich and didn't even blink when she bought the medicinal herbs for more than 5,000 snow crystal coins, 5,000 snow crystal coins was child's play compared to the resplendent gem.

Joelson conservatively estimated that if the Kardas family knew the use of the resplendent gem, they would need at least one hundred thousand snow crystal coins to obtain it.

One hundred thousand snow crystal coins was already an astronomical figure in the outer city of the underground city.

Of course, this wasn't much to the current Joelson, even though he didn't have a single snow crystal coin.

But if he took out any of the treasures in his storage space, it would probably be enough to exchange for an extremely exaggerated number of snow crystal coins.

But if he did that, it would definitely attract attention. This wasn't what he wanted.

At this moment, he and Elena were in the underground city. Everything was very unfamiliar. Before he could find out about the enemy's situation, he felt that it was better to keep a low profile.

Elena and Joelson were walking on the street at this moment.

Joelson looked at the flyer in his hand and fell into deep thought.

He especially saw a note at the bottom right corner. If one wanted to participate in the auction, one had to provide at least 10,000 snow crystal coins as proof.

“Elena, do you know that if you want to participate in the auction, you have to provide at least 10,000 snow crystal coins as proof of assets?”

Joelson asked Elena.

Elena nodded. Although 10,000 snow crystal coins was not a small number, she could still take it out if she gritted her teeth.

After all, to enter the auction, one only needed to provide proof of assets of 10,000 snow crystal coins. It was not the entrance ticket that required 10,000 snow crystal coins.

If one really needed 10,000 snow crystal coins to enter the auction house, then it would be a robbery.

10,000 snow crystal coins could buy a whole 10,000 pieces of bread.

To the ordinary people in the underground city, this was an extremely terrifying number.

Unless it was the real group of rich people at the top of the underground city, the price was too high.

Elena replied to Joelson.

“I can barely take it out.”

Elena took out her small pink wallet from her waist and compared it with Joelson’s.

“In that case, you should go to the auction house first.”

Elena asked in puzzlement.

“Joelson, aren’t you going to the auction house with me? I remember that your target is also the resplendent gem, right?”

Joelson said indifferently.

“Of course, my target is also the resplendent gem but Elena, you probably didn’t look at the flyer carefully. The asset proof on it is based on the price of the head.”

“In other words, if the two of us go together, we need 20,000 snow crystal coins as the asset proof.”

After Joelson said that, Elena’s eyes widened.

“What?”

“This is too much!”

“It’s actually 20,000 snow crystal coins.”

Elena was in a dilemma. If it was 10,000 snow crystal coins, she might be able to barely make it out.

But if it was 20,000 snow crystal coins, she definitely wouldn’t be able to take it out.

The resplendent gem was a necessity for Elena. No matter what, Elena needed to get it.

What Elena didn’t know was that this 10,000 snow crystal coins was just a drop in the ocean for the price of the resplendent gem.

Joelson shrugged and continued speaking to Elena.

“You can just go to the auction house later. You don’t have to worry about me.”

“You helped me treat myself and helped me pay for the hotel. I already owe you a lot. Right now, you can’t take out so many snow crystal coins. Of course, I can’t continue to seek your help.”

“Don’t worry, I have my ways.”

“I must get this bright gem.”

Joelson smiled faintly, and his face was full of confidence.

As if Joelson’s smile was too charming, Elena’s little face not only blushed slightly.

Then Elena nodded obediently.

“In that case, Mr. Joelson, I’ll go to the auction house first to collect some information.”

After saying that, Elena and Joelson split up and headed to the auction house first.

Looking at Elena’s disappearing figure, Joelson let out a sigh of relief.

“Alright, Elena has left.”

“Now it’s time to solve the problem of the wallet.”

After saying that, he walked away with his crutches.

...

At the corner of the street, in a very hidden location.

This was a pawn shop in the underground city. At the same time, it was also a place that provided usury to all kinds of people.

Joelson’s figure appeared in front of the pawn shop. Joelson raised his head and looked at it. His eyes were slightly flickering with light.

The people in the pawn shop seemed to have also discovered Joelson’s existence and hurriedly came out to welcome him.

The newcomer was a thin middle-aged man with shifty eyes.

He sized up Joelson from head to toe, as if he was thinking about how much money he could squeeze out of him.

However, the middle-aged man felt very strange about the current Joelson who was holding a walking stick.

The middle-aged man's name was Giko. In the outer city of the underground city, those who knew him usually called him Mustache.

If it was a disabled person with a cane, Mustache would probably kick them out.

After all, they were disabled, which meant that they had lost the ability to make money, so they couldn't extract much from them.

If they lent money to such people, they might even lose money.

However, the feeling that Joelson gave Mustache was very different. He wasn't like those disabled people who had lost the ability to move, emitting a dispirited aura.

Instead, he faintly had the aura of a superior person.

Obviously, Joelson did not do anything. He just stood there with his crutch. However, he still emitted an oppressive aura.

This kind of aura could only be felt by some extremely powerful people or people in high positions.

Mustache rubbed his hands and hurriedly welcomed Joelson in.

He didn't know why, but his body had already done so.

Maybe this was the subconscious.

His body was telling Mustache that if he didn't treat Joelson respectfully, there was a high possibility of serious consequences.

The pawnshop was located in a remote area outside the underground city.

If it was a resident of the outer city, they would definitely stay away from this area. After all, this was a street known as the criminal paradise.

If you were a weak old man or a woman walking alone on the street, then the probability of you being robbed would be at least 80%.

Not far from the pawnshop, there were two or three figures who had already noticed the person who was about to enter the pawnshop.

These three people were all famous local ruffians and hooligans on the streets.

Especially the leader, the bald man who was blind in one eye. This made the surrounding residents even more terrified.

These three people were people who killed without batting an eye. As long as there were benefits, they would not show any mercy.

Moreover, the three of them were extremely narrow-minded.

There was once someone who angered the three of them. The three of them sneaked into another person's house in the middle of the night and directly killed all the women and children in the other person's house.

They would not take the initiative to provoke the strong, but bullying the weak was their hobby.

"Boss, that disabled person went to the pawnshop!"

"Should we make a move?"

Behind them, one of the gangsters said.

Chapter 568: The Targeted Joelson. The Dragon Scale That Shocked the Mustache!

"Boss, that disabled man went to the pawnshop!"

"Should we make a move?"

Behind them, one of the hooligans asked.

The three of them had been paying attention to Joelson, who was on crutches, for a long time.

From the moment Joelson entered the street, they had already regarded him, who was inconvenient to move, as their fat sheep today.

Although he was wearing a shabby coat and limping on his crutches, his unique temperament could not be concealed.

These three hooligans felt that he must be a down and out noble.

Now that he had come to the pawnshop, he must be auctioning off his belongings.

"Boss, if he goes in, the treasures that can be exchanged for money will be taken away by the Mustache!"

Another gangster said anxiously.

The Mustache had quite a reputation in the outer city of the underground city. If the three of them stole the business of the Mustache, they would definitely be hated by the Mustache. At that time, it would be even more difficult for the three of them to move in the underground city.

The one-eyed bald man called boss frowned. He glanced at his underling behind him and gave them a hard slap on the face.

"Are the two of you brainless?"

"Do you really have to steal Mustache's things?"

"He went to a pawn shop. Could it be that Mustache wouldn't give him money after he pawned his things?"

"We'll wait for him to finish exchanging the money and directly rob the money in his hands. Wouldn't it be more convenient and faster?"

Every time the one-eyed man said something, he would give his underlings a hard slap on the face.

When the one-eyed man finished speaking, the faces of the two underlings were already completely swollen.

"As expected of the boss. He's really smart!"

"That's right, that's right. When that brat comes out, we'll make a move. This way, we won't even need to do anything dirty."

The two underlings echoed.

The one-eyed man fiercely said, "When that brat comes out, we'll follow him all the way. When we reach a place where there's no one, we'll make a move."

"That brat is just a cripple who can't move easily and needs to rely on crutches to walk. It's absolutely impossible for him to escape from our hands!"

"Boss is mighty! Boss is wise!"

"Boss is mighty! Boss is wise!"

A cruel glint flashed across the eyes of the two lackeys.

They could already imagine the miserable state that Joelson was in under their hands.

If Joelson still dared to resist, they did not mind chopping off all of his fingers and adding another nameless corpse to the underground city.

The three of them laid in ambush at the door, waiting for him to come out.

...

He entered the pawnshop.

There weren't too many complicated displays in the pawnshop. There were only a few scattered items.

These items were all very strange. Rather than saying that they were commodities or treasures, they were more like a kind of art that was only used for decoration.

These decorations were all pieced together with white strips of objects, forming one strange pattern after another, making people feel particularly uncomfortable.

Seeing that Joelson had noticed these decorations on the table, the mustached man explained.

"These are all my spoils of war."

"Spoils of war?"

Joelson frowned, not understanding.

"Other than running a pawn shop business, I also lend money to some people when I have nothing to do. These are all things left behind by those customers who didn't pay on time."

The mustached man continued to explain.

"Of course, I didn't kill them. I just left them with a deep lesson."

"Every month that the arrears are delayed, I will take a bone from them and use it as the material for my artwork."

When Joelson heard this, he was a little surprised.

It turned out that these artworks that made Joelson a little uncomfortable were actually made from human bones.

The mustached man looked shifty-eyed. He didn't expect that he would be so vicious.

"Sir, you're only here to pawn things. Just pretend that you didn't see these things."

"Hahahaha, in this line of work, no matter what, you have to have some deterrence. Otherwise, the money borrowed will be like water splashed out. It won't come back, will it?"

The mustached man rubbed his hands and said to Joelson with a shifty look.

Although Joelson could not agree with the mustached man's way of doing things, he could not deny it either.

If the loan shark was not ruthless, then he was doing charity work.

"Sir, what do you want to pawn in our pawnshop?"

The mustached man and Joelson came to the center of the pawnshop. There was a round crystal-like instrument here. It seemed to be used to identify things.

"I need money urgently. These have been pawned for me."

Joelson took out two or three pieces of objects from his pocket.

These pieces of objects were completely black. In the dim room, they reflected light.

When these black objects appeared in the room, they instantly emitted a terrifying pressure.

It was as if a hurricane had suddenly appeared in the room.

The things that Joelson took out were the dragon scales that Hades had dropped.

After a long while, the pressure that represented Hades in the room slowly dissipated.

At this moment, the mustached man was able to take a deep breath. His legs went soft and he sat down on the ground.

He looked at the dragon scales that Joelson had taken out and his eyes were filled with disbelief.

Hiss! Hiss! Hiss!

The mustached man sucked in a breath of cold air!

He had thought that the noble temperament of Joelson would belong to some poor noble family. The things that he had taken out were only good things that only some noble families had.

However, the moment the dragon scales appeared, the mustached man's view of Joelson had completely changed.

One had to know that these were dragon scales!

Legendary existences!

The dragon scales that had fallen off a dragon's body could only be preserved in the shortest amount of time possible to store the energy within them.

If the dragon scales had fallen off for too long, the energy stored within the dragon scales would disappear into the world.

The pressure within it would naturally disappear completely.

Although such a dragon scale had some value, it was definitely not as valuable as a dragon scale that could be preserved completely.

Since Joelson was able to take out such a terrifying dragon scale, it was definitely a dragon scale that had been preserved completely!

Moreover, the owner of this dragon scale was definitely an extremely terrifying existence!

The mustached man looked at the scattered dragon scales on the table, and his heart was filled with shock.

His voice was trembling from the intense shock.

The mustached man looked at Joelson and, in that instant, he became respectful.

He originally thought that Joelson was just a down and out noble, but now it seemed that he had underestimated Joelson.

To be able to produce such a powerful dragon scale, how could Joelson be a simple character!

All of a sudden, the mustached man became a little flustered.

Perhaps Joelson's background was much more terrifying than he had guessed.

"Sir, this thing of yours is really too valuable. I don't dare to accept it!"

The mustached man said in fear and trepidation.

There was no change in the expression on Joelson's face as he said to the mustached man indifferently.

"Name your price. There's no need to say the rest."

When the mustached man heard what Joelson said, he subconsciously swallowed a mouthful of saliva.

After deliberating for a long time, the mustached man finally took a deep breath and said solemnly to Joelson.

"Sir, my shop is small. The price I said might not be able to enter your eyes, but please believe me. This is already the highest reward I can pay."

The mustached man slowly raised one of his fingers and said with difficulty.

"I can give you a maximum of 100,000 snow crystal coins for each dragon scale."

"This is really the highest amount that my shop can give you. If you think it's too little, I'll immediately recommend a few bigger pawn shops in the inner city for you."

"You can definitely get the amount you want there."

"If you don't have the permission to enter the inner city, I can think of a way to help you open it."

The mustached man said with difficulty. He could not help but close his eyes.

He was afraid that Joelson would teach him a lesson because he heard that the price was too low.

It was not that the mustached man was too weak, but it was because the mustached man did not dare to fight back at all!

How could it be easy to take out a treasure that had the complete aura of a dragon scale?

If he really wanted to fight back, his precious life would be forfeited here.

The mustached man swallowed a mouthful of saliva and closed his eyes with difficulty.

He had already sensed Joelson's fury.

One second...

Two seconds...

Three seconds...

It was clearly such a short time, but now it had become so long. Even the mustached man felt as if several years had passed.

“One dragon scale for 100,000 snow crystal coins?”

“Then it’s settled.”

Joelson’s voice slowly sounded.

The mustached man suddenly opened his eyes. His eyes were filled with disbelief.

How could it be!

This gentleman was actually willing to exchange 100,000 snow crystal coins for one dragon scale!

One had to know that a dragon scale that was not well-preserved could be exchanged for at least 50,000 snow crystal coins in the underground city.

And now that it was so well-preserved, it could at least be doubled!

Not to mention, the owner of this dragon scale was an extremely powerful existence.

This point did not need the mustached man to observe. Just the terrifying pressure produced by the dragon scale produced by Joelson alone was enough to prove that the owner of these dragon scales was extraordinary.

“Sir...”

“Are you not lying to me?”

“Do you really intend to use the price of 100,000 snow crystal coins to sell the dragon scales in your hands?”

Mustache’s voice was trembling. Even now, he still felt like he was in a dream.

One had to know that the reason he was offering 100,000 snow crystal coins for a dragon scale was entirely because he only had so many snow crystal coins in his hands. It did not mean that this dragon scale was only worth so much.

If the dragon scale was really put in the auction, any dragon scale would probably fetch a sky-high price of at least 500,000!

Moreover, the lord in the inner city just happened to need the dragon scale...

Under such circumstances, the value of the dragon scale in the auction would probably be even higher!

And the Mustache just needed to casually flip the dragon scale on the table, and he could directly earn over 100,000 snow crystal coins!

This was picking up money while lying on the ground!

This kind of free-for-all business was a loss for the current Joelson. Why did he do it?

For a moment, Mustache didn't understand.

Joelson nodded, agreeing to this deal.

These dragon scales were nothing to Joelson. These were all dragon scales that fell off from Hades's body when he grew up. They were all conveniently placed into the system space by Joelson.

There were at least as many of these dragon scales in his warehouse as there were hills. If one had to estimate a rough figure, there would probably be more than a thousand of them.

These things might be very precious to Mustache, an underground city merchant who had rarely seen dragons, but to the dragon master, they were like weeds on the side of the road. They were not rare at all.

Mustache rubbed his hands. After making sure that he was not joking, he carefully placed the dragon scales on the table, which were emitting a strong pressure, into a special box.

This box seemed to be a magic tool. After placing the dragon scales inside, the small box was directly locked to isolate the pressure coming from the dragon scales. At the same time, complicated magic patterns appeared from the lock core.

From the looks of it, it should be a magic tool that could seal off one's aura.

From the analysis of the materials, this small box should not be cheap to make.

As Joelson sized up the small box in front of him, the mustached man also took the reward that he promised to Joelson.

The mustached man held a thick envelope in his hand.

"Sir, I have received a total of five dragon scales from you. I will exchange them for one dragon scale at the price of 100,000 snow crystal coins. This is an underground city bank card with a face value of 500,000 snow crystal coins. You can exchange it for 500,000 snow crystal coins in any bank in the underground city.”

Of course, the mustached man would not directly take out 500,000 snow crystal coins to give to Joelson.

If Joelson did not have the system space, he would probably carry this mountain of snow crystal coins back. He would probably become the most eye-catching person in the outer city of the underground city.

Perhaps even the inner city of the underground city would spread the news of Joelson.

He took the card from the mustached man, which could be exchanged for 500,000 snow crystal coins.

He did not know what kind of gem the card was made of. The moment he took it, it felt very cold, but then he immediately felt a very warm feeling.

This completely opposite feeling made him feel very strange.

On the card, there was a string of numbers formed by tiny magic threads.

It was the number of the balance in the card.

500,000

After a slight magic scan, Joelson found that there was indeed a special signal fluctuating in the card.

It seemed that the mustached man was not lying to him.

Chapter 570: Uninvited Guests

Joelson took the card and scanned the card's structure with magic. After confirming that the Mustache did not lie to him, he prepared to leave.

"Sir!"

At this moment, the Mustache suddenly called out to Joelson.

"What's wrong?"

Joelson stopped in his tracks and turned to look at the Mustache.

"Maybe I'm wrong, but you don't want to attend the auction held by the Kardas family, do you?"

Mustache asked worriedly.

The auction held by the Kardas family?

Wasn't that the purpose of Joelson's trip?

Joelson was puzzled, but he didn't show it. He wanted to know what Mustache was trying to say.

"So what if I do? So what if I don't?"

Joelson's expression did not change in the slightest as he calmly replied to the mustached man.

He did not know why, but even though Joelson was leaning on his walking stick and looked like he could fall at any moment, in the eyes of the mustached man, the Joelson in front of him was as terrifying as a flood or a ferocious beast.

Just when Joelson looked at him, he did not know why he felt uncomfortable all over, as if he was being targeted by a ferocious beast as its prey.

The mustached man couldn't help but tremble, and quickly continued.

"I just heard the news from a rumor. Sir, please don't tell anyone about it."

"I heard that the last item in the auction held by the Kardas family is extremely precious. Even some big families in the inner city of the underground city have come. I even heard that some forces have sent assassins to kill people and steal the goods."

"Although I don't know what the last item in the auction is, I'm afraid it's definitely not an ordinary item. Otherwise, these big forces wouldn't make such a big move."

"You suddenly need so many snow crystal coins. In my opinion, sir, you're going to participate in the auction of the Kardas family, right?"

"Please listen to my advice. If possible, you can attend the next auction..."

"I'm afraid that the auction this time will be very dangerous."

The mustached man's voice became softer and softer. In the end, his voice became as soft as a mosquito.

As he spoke, he looked around, afraid that someone was eavesdropping on his words.

If the people from the big families heard this, it was not impossible for them to kill Mustache immediately.

Mustache, who had lived in the underground city for so many years, naturally understood how terrifying these big families were.

It could be said that if there was no king in the underground city, the current underground city would have long changed its name to the city of slaughter.

When Joelson heard the news about the Mustache, he nodded.

"I got it. Thank you for your information."

After saying that, he leaned on his walking stick and disappeared into the pawnshop without looking back.

Leaving the Mustache alone, he looked at the sealed dragon scales on the table and was somewhat lost in thought.

Joelson limped as he walked.

At this moment, Elena had clearly left him, but Joelson was still happy to play the role of a disabled person.

There was no other reason. This appearance of his was too suitable for concealing his whereabouts.

No one in the underground city would spare him a second glance, because his current appearance was an existence that did not even have the ability to fight.

Hiding meant that it would be easier to gather intelligence, allowing Joelson to quickly grasp this underground city that was hidden in the underground world.

However, as he walked, Joelson felt that something was not right.

Under his perception, there were three small hooligans following him quietly.

Even if he quickened his steps and turned a few corners, these three small hooligans did not have any intention of giving up.

These guys, could it be that they saw that he was easy to bully and were planning to rob him?

Joelson thought in puzzlement.

But soon, Joelson understood.

These hooligans must have seen that he had entered the pawnshop and thought that he had sold some treasures. And because he was a disabled person who could not even truss a chicken, they were planning to make a fortune on him.

At this moment, the corner of Joelson's mouth could not help but curve into an interesting arc.

Who could not be picked by these people? They had actually picked on him.

He really did not know whether he should blame these people for their bad luck or their luck being too good.

Joelson, who was leaning on his walking stick, slowly came to a stop.

There were no people in the surrounding alleys. Logically speaking, this should be the best place for these three hooligans to strike.

As expected, just as Joelson stopped his body, the figures of the three hooligans directly dashed out from a short distance away.

Not only that, each of them held a shiny long blade in their hands.

The long blade was shockingly more than a meter long, and it seemed to be quite powerful.

Joelson laughed coldly in his heart, but his expression did not change. He indifferently looked at the three hooligans walking towards him.

The hooligan in the lead was bald and had one eye. He used a blindfold to cover his left eye.

At this moment, he saw that there was no way for Joelson to escape. He sneered and said to Joelson.

"You brat, it seems that your luck is not very good today. You met the three of us."

"If you are sensible, hurry up and hand over all the money you have on you. Maybe we can save you from a physical disaster today."

After the bald hooligan said that, the two underlings behind him chimed in.

"Yeah, yeah. Kid, your luck today is really bad."

"But don't think that we'll let you off just because you're a disabled person."

"I don't know if you've heard of the name of the Viper Trio? "But it doesn't matter. If you don't hand over all the money obediently, I'm afraid that our Viper Trio will be the last name you'll ever hear in your life."

The two underlings shouted crazily. After all, in their eyes, Joelson was just an ordinary person who was inconvenient to move around.

Joelson didn't have any expression. He looked at the two people in front of him indifferently.

"So, have you said enough?"

"I advise you to be sensible and quickly leave."

Joelson gave the three hooligans a final ultimatum. If the three hooligans were sensible and left, Joelson didn't want to lower himself to the level of these hooligans.

"Know what's good for you?"

"Your brain must be fried along with your legs! That's what we said!"

"You're really too arrogant. If I don't educate you, you really don't know who you are!"

The hooligans rubbed their fists and could not wait to give Joelson a good beating.

Chapter 571: The New Card of the Bank?

"Kid, you really are too arrogant. I really don't want to educate you. You really don't know who you are!"

The hooligan rubbed his hands together. He couldn't wait to give Joelson a good beating.

Joelson watched as the hooligan walked towards him. He didn't panic at all.

After all, Joelson, who was at the peak of the demigod level, would probably be able to kill these hooligans with just a casual blow.

However, he didn't do so. It had been a long time since he had pretended to be a pig to eat a tiger. He really wanted to see just how shameless these three hooligans would be to a 'disabled person' like him.

Looking at these three hooligans, it was likely that they had been running amok in the streets of the underground city for a long time.

What made Joelson puzzled was why these three hooligans wanted to attack him.

Obviously, Joelson already felt that his face was very dignified. If he were to seriously stare at them, he would also feel a complete sense of oppression.

However, these three hooligans were not intimidated by his gaze. Could it be that the power of money was too great?

Perhaps if Hades was by Joelson's side, then the appearance of such a large dragon in front of them might be able to calm them down.

However, this was of course impossible. Because the Wailing Abyss was too narrow, Hades was simply unable to enter the Wailing Abyss.

Otherwise, Joelson wouldn't have left Hades alone outside the Wailing Abyss.

At this moment, Joelson didn't know how Hades was doing.

Was he eating on time?

The punks didn't know what Joelson was thinking. If they knew that they were threatening him because they were thinking about whether their pet was eating on time, they would probably be so angry that their lungs would explode.

They also didn't know that they weren't facing a disabled person, but a terrifying existence with the power of a peak demigod.

Of course, an even greater situation was that they didn't even know the concept of a demigod.

They were just ordinary hooligans. How could they possibly understand such a powerful existence like Joelson?

The leader of the hooligans looked at the calm Joelson and was instantly intimidated by him.

After all, there were quite a number of big families in the underground city. To be able to face their threats without any fear was definitely not something they could afford to offend.

However, in an instant, the leader of the hooligans shook his head.

If he was really an existence with a high status in the underground city, why would he come to such a remote place.

It should be known that the people from those large families hated commoners like them the most. In their eyes, commoners like them were no different from rats in a stinky ditch.

An existence with such a status would definitely not have no reaction when facing them. Instead, he would reveal an expression of disdain.

"Kid, I was almost fooled by you."

The head of the gangsters pressed Joelson against the wall and looked at him provocatively.

At this moment, the distance between the head of the gangsters and Joelson was only half a meter.

Joelson looked at the head of the gangsters who was very close to him and could not help but frown.

He could already sense the sour stench from the gangster leader's body because he had not showered for a few days and did not like to be clean.

Seeing the frown on Joelson's face, the gangster leader was shocked.

Could it be that he had guessed correctly that the person he was targeting was really an existence with an illustrious identity?

No, that might not be the case.

In an instant, the gangster head suddenly turned his head and pulled one of his underlings behind him over to his body.

The underling directly sniffed the scent of the gangster head's body. The strong pungent smell directly stimulated the underling's nasal cavity, instantly causing the gangster underling to be unable to stand it.

The little brother's legs went weak and he knelt on the ground, unable to control his retching.

"Boss..."

"The smell on your body is really..."

"It's too big!"

"Yeurgh!"

Just as he finished speaking, the little brother directly vomited.

It could be seen that the pungent smell on the gangster's body was indeed not something that an ordinary person could stand.

However, the head of the gangsters was very happy at this moment.

After all, Joelson's reaction was very calm. If it was those young masters, their reaction would definitely be hundreds of times more exaggerated than their own underlings.

He slowly put the long knife in his hand against Joelson's neck.

"Hand over all the money you just took from the mustached man. My patience is very limited."

The gangster leader had just finished speaking when Joelson took out the envelope from his pocket and placed it between his index finger and thumb.

"If you want it, you can take it."

"If you are qualified to take it from me."

There was still no fluctuation in Joelson's voice, as if he did not care about the three gangsters in front of him at all.

This was the attitude of a superior.

An existence that was above these three hooligans.

For some reason, the head of the hooligans did not dare to retort when he saw the look in Joelson's eyes that made him extremely unhappy.

He directly snatched the envelope from Joelson's hands and cursed.

"At least you know your place."

Joelson shook his head and expressed his regret.

The gangster leader directly opened the envelope in front of Joelson.

At this moment, the card made of gemstones appeared in front of the gangster leader.

"Boss, why is this card purple-gold?"

"I see that the bank cards in the outer city are all bronze, silver, and gold. This card can't be fake, right?"

The other subordinate had just finished vomiting. He quickly wiped his mouth and poked his head over.

"No, this kind of card can only be made by a bank. Other than a bank, there's no other way to forge this kind of card."

"Maybe it's a new model. We haven't seen it before."

The gangster leader also believed his subordinate's words. After all, in their knowledge, no one other than a bank could make this kind of card.

The gangster leader slowly took out Joelson's card.

The warm feeling made the gangster leader feel a little strange.

Because he had robbed a lot of people before. He had never felt so comfortable when he took the card from them.

At the next moment, the three gangsters saw the number on the card.

500,000 snow crystal coins!

At this moment, they sucked in a breath of cold air!

They even stopped breathing!

500,000 snow crystal coins!

At this moment, the three gangsters sucked in a breath of cold air.

In the underground city, one snow crystal coin could be exchanged for a piece of bread. This was a total of 500,000 snow crystal coins. It was definitely a terrifying number that an ordinary family could not imagine.

This was also the most snow crystal coins that the three of them had ever robbed.

Before this, they had only robbed once, but it was only 60,000 snow crystal coins.

And even that 60,000 snow crystal coins was enough to make them feel at ease for quite a while.

But they did not feel happy at all.

They even felt a chill down their spine.

They were very clear about the exchange ratio of the mustache pawnshop. If an item was worth 100 snow crystal coins, then the mustache pawnshop would only pay 80 snow crystal coins at most. Most of the time, the mustache pawnshop would only pay 50 snow crystal coins.

And this 500,000 snow crystal coins was very likely something that was worth 1,000,000 snow crystal coins that was exchanged by Joelson!

Was Joelson really just a disabled person with limited mobility?

If that was really the case, why could he suddenly take out a treasure that could be exchanged for such a huge amount of snow crystal coins?

What exactly was that thing?

If Joelson could really take out such a priceless treasure, then Joelson was most likely a member of the underground city's big family.

But this also didn't explain why Joelson would come to such a place to sell stolen goods, and not bring any bodyguards with him.

This was a paradise for criminals. Anyone with a bit of background in the family would strictly tell their children not to come to this street.

The head of the gangsters looked at the extremely warm card in his hand, and muttered in his heart.

He subconsciously raised his head and looked at Joelson's face.

However, as the thug leader had expected, Joelson's panic did not appear.

On the contrary, Joelson's expression was extremely indifferent as if he was looking at a stain in the corner of the wall. He looked at himself calmly.

Although Joelson did not say anything, did not do anything, and did not even reveal anything on his expression.

However, the pressure that this suddenly gave to the head of the gangsters was not small!

It was as if there were many small hills on the shoulders of the head of the gangsters at this moment. The pressure made the head of the gangsters unable to breathe.

The underlings behind the head of the gangsters did not look directly into Joelson's eyes. Therefore, they were not affected by Joelson's terrifying aura.

They looked at their boss in confusion. They did not understand why their boss kept staring at his face and did not move his eyes away.

Could it be that their boss had such a special hobby?

Thinking of this, the two underlings subconsciously looked at each other, and then their bodies suddenly shivered.

They even felt that their tailbones were cold.

Their toes suddenly buckled on the ground, and they felt so uncomfortable that they had nowhere to put them.

Although they did not object to their boss having such a special hobby, after all, everyone was free.

But they were hanging out with their boss every day. If their boss developed feelings for them over time, it would be terrible.

The head of the gangsters was now staring at Joelson. He did not realize that under such a strong pressure from Joelson, his forehead was already covered with fine beads of sweat.

His breathing gradually became rapid, and he could not help but clench his fists.

“Who exactly are you?”

After a long while, the gangster leader finally managed to blurt out these words with great difficulty.

At this moment, Joelson had clearly not done anything, but he had already given the gangster leader a huge amount of pressure.

If it was not for the gangster leader’s exceptional courage, having seen many big scenes, and having a good mental fortitude, he would probably have fled like the guard who had entered the city.

If someone who was familiar with him were by his side, most likely they would think highly of this bald gangster leader.

After all, for him to be able to stare directly at the power of a peak demigod for so long was already an incredible achievement.

Although he didn’t even frown.

“I’m just an ordinary disabled person.”

He said calmly.

“You’re lying!”

“To be able to release such a huge pressure on me, you’re definitely not an ordinary person.”

“Even if you’re a guy whose legs can’t move freely, you’re definitely not an ordinary existence.”

“Let me tell you, even if you have an extraordinary background and are from a large family, I’ll definitely eat this 500,000 snow crystal coins.”

“Up until now, no prey has been able to escape from my hands!”

“Not a single one!”

The gangster leader’s clothes were completely soaked in sweat.

He panted heavily and felt that his chest was under intense pressure.

As a result, although he had been breathing heavily, he still felt that he had not taken in much oxygen.

He was a little short of oxygen. After saying so much in one breath, his vision suddenly turned black.

His hand that was tightly gripping the hilt of the long knife was also somewhat unable to move.

The two underlings behind him were shocked when they heard their boss’s evaluation of Joelson.

They had originally thought that their boss had taken a liking to Joelson’s beauty and wanted to tease him before making a move.

But they had not expected that they would meet a tough guy!

In the past, when they robbed, of course, they had also met a lot of tough guys.

After all, in the criminal streets of this underground city, without some skill, they would not dare to live in it.

The two underlings were very clear about the plan of meeting tough guys. They had already carried out these acts at least a hundred times in the previous robbery.

They directly drew out their shining long knives and tilted their heads.

“Kid, I think you’re going to do it the hard way instead of the hard way!”

“We were kind enough to let you avoid the physical pain. In the end, it seems like we’re treating you like a good person. You want us brothers to teach you a good lesson, right?”

“Since that’s the case, we’ll teach you a lesson!”

“Boss, how about I chop off this kid’s little finger first!”

One of the underlings snorted coldly and walked forward.

However, as expected, their boss’s response did not come.

What was going on?

This was different from their previous procedure!

The underling subconsciously looked at Joelson and was instantly stunned.

It was a pair of deep eyes!

It was as if their souls would be sucked into it.

And the pressure that was faintly emitted from these deep eyes made their souls feel fear!

This kid was definitely not an ordinary person!

The underling subconsciously looked at Joelson and was stunned.

Those were a pair of deep eyes!

It was as if their souls would be sucked into them.

And in those deep eyes, there was a faint pressure that made their souls feel fear!

This kid was definitely not an ordinary person!

Subconsciously, this little brother took a step back.

His sixth sense told him that this man was extremely dangerous!

He absolutely did not want to interact with such a terrifying existence. Even if they were to look into each other's eyes, he absolutely did not want to!

Unfortunately, it was already too late!

Just as this little hooligan wanted to move his eyes away to avoid looking into Joelson's incomparably deep eyes, he shockingly discovered that he could no longer control his body!

He was incomparably shocked!

Just what was going on!

His heart was beating non-stop!

Bang!

It was as though an invisible large hand had directly pinched his heart.

The little thug's forehead was also beginning to be covered with fine beads of sweat. He pursed his lips and strongly wanted to break free from this feeling.

However, he quickly discovered that all of this was futile.

This feeling was like a quagmire. The more he wanted to break free, the deeper he would sink.

The little thug swallowed a mouthful of saliva. At this moment, he finally felt the pressure that his boss was experiencing.

He finally understood why his boss would say such extraordinary words.

To be able to give them such a terrifying, mountain-like pressure with just a glance without using any magic was simply too terrifying.

They would probably be unable to come up with such a background even if they racked their brains.

If they knew that a random pet dragon that Joelson took out could destroy the entire underground city, they would definitely be shocked to the point of suffocation.

They had actually provoked such a terrifying existence.

Of course, Joelson would not be so bored as to reveal his family name.

To Joelson, wasting so much time with the usually evil hooligans was already lowering his status.

If he still announced his family at this moment, wouldn't it be a little too demeaning.

Under the terrifying pressure of Joelson, the hooligan leader and another hooligan were fixed in place, not daring to move.

Obviously, Joelson did not use any magic, nor did he use any spiritual power.

However, the gangster leader and the other gangster followers could clearly feel a strong threat of death.

It was as if they had already washed their necks clean and placed them in the ferocious beast's bloody mouth.

As long as the ferocious beast bit down hard, their lives would be destroyed in an instant.

At this moment, their bodies had also entered a miraculous state of suspended animation. Like frightened hamsters, they handed over the control of their bodies to Joelson, even if Joelson had no intention of taking them.

The other follower saw that his boss and the other follower were all firmly fixed by a look from Joelson, thinking that Joelson had used some secret method.

He cried out in his heart that things were not good, and quickly prepared to escape.

The green mountain would not change, and the green water would flow forever!

If his boss and his companions died, they would die, but they would only have one life. If they died, they would really be unable to revive. If he were to follow them, he would definitely be finished as well.

Now was the best time to escape!

With this thought in his heart, this little hooligan directly ran behind him without turning his head back.

But who was Joelson?

If this hoodlum could really escape from Joelson's hands, then the real Joelson wouldn't need to be a hoodlum anymore.

At this moment, just when the hoodlum thought that he had successfully escaped, Joelson's pupils slightly moved.

"Fire elves roaming in the sea of fire, hurry up and burn all the enemies in front of you into ashes!"

Even though Joelson did not say anything, everyone present could feel this incantation!

The voice came from all directions, but no one could guess where it came from.

The voice of the incantation was Joelson!

Immediately after, a ball of intense flames suddenly burst out from the space.

The location of this flame was the body of the little hooligan who was about to escape successfully!

The flame burned fiercely. Its length and width reached two meters!

In an instant, that terrifying high temperature completely incinerated the little hooligan!

He did not even cry out in pain.

Under the burning of this terrifying flame, it was as though his soul had been shattered by the flame.

This flame only appeared for an instant. In the blink of an eye, the terrifying flame in this space had disappeared in an instant.

It came and went so quickly, as if it was an illusory dream!

However, the heat that came from the air told everyone present that this wasn't a dream, it was all reality!

The heat wave that followed directly made the gangster leader and his underlings feel as if they were about to melt.

What kind of terrifying high temperature was this!

Even if these little gangsters didn't have any knowledge of alchemy, they could roughly guess it.

The temperature was probably more than five thousand degrees in an instant!

Otherwise, they were almost fifty meters away from the escaping little gangster. How could they be so far away and almost take them away in an instant.

The shock in the eyes of the gangster leader and his underlings had turned into despair and bitterness.

They had never thought that Joelson was not only a disabled person with limited mobility, but also a terrifying arcanist.

They had seen many arcanists, but none of them could release magic directly like Joelson, who did not need to chant spells or use a magic wand.

What kind of existence was Joelson?

However, this was not important to the gangster leader and his underlings.

They had provoked a master arcanist who could cast such terrifying flames, and their ending was obvious.

The gangster leader swallowed hard.

He stared at Joelson.

He forcibly took back control of his body from the pressure of Joelson.

He panted heavily, and sweat kept falling from his body onto the ground, dripping like rain.

“Tell me your name.”

The gangster leader said coldly.

“Joelson.”

Joelson’s expression remained unchanged, as if he was the god of death who held the power of life and death.

Boom!

At the next moment, flames suddenly appeared!

The terrifying heat wave directly enveloped the gangster leader and his underling!

In just an instant, the two of them disappeared on the spot, not even leaving a shadow behind.

Chapter 574: You Have the Purple-Gold Card. I Have No Right to Check Your Balance!

The flame was burning!

Then, it suddenly disappeared as if it had never appeared!

In the air, the purple-gold card that felt cold yet warm hovered in the air.

With his crutches, the card automatically returned to his pocket.

"Now that I've got the snow crystal coins, it's time to go to the auction."

"I wonder if Elena has already entered."

As he muttered to himself, he slowly walked towards the auction house with his crutches.

The auction held by the Kardas family was located in a high-rise building near the inner city.

This high-rise building was the property of the Kardas family.

In the underground city, which had at most four or five floors, there were more than ten floors. Moreover, it was extremely spacious. The building, which was like a castle, was extremely prominent.

When Joelson was halfway there, he could already see the building from afar.

"Is the auction house there?"

He casually glanced at the time.

It was almost noon.

According to the time on the flyer, the auction would start at noon. It seemed that there was not much time left for him.

He was not anxious because of the time constraints. He continued to walk slowly towards the auction house with his walking stick.

During the previous trip, the pace of his life was so fast that he did not even have time to breathe.

Now that he had broken his leg, he could have a short and slow life.

This made him enjoy this feeling.

Looking at the hurried crowd around him, they were running for their lives.

Looking at the hawkers by the roadside, they were fighting for a better position.

Even the wild cats by the roadside had their own stories.

Joelson walked very slowly, as if everything around him had become one story after another in his eyes.

"Sir, welcome to the auction house organized by the Kardas family. What can we do for you?"

Just as he was immersed in the slow pace of life, a sweet female voice called him back to his senses.

In front of him were two rows of scantily clad bunny girls.

They were well-built, with bulging front and back. They wore bunny ears, fishnet stockings, and high heels.

They also wore bunny ears on their heads.

It seemed that they were the bunny girls that the Kardas family had specially welcomed guests at the door this time.

At the moment, Joelson was still holding a crutch, but these bunny girls did not look down on him just because he was a disabled person. Instead, they treated him like an ordinary guest.

This could not help but make Joelson a little surprised. were these bunny girls so high-spirited in their service?

Of course, what these bunnies would not tell Joelson was that they would only treat a disabled person like Joelson, who had an extraordinary temperament, in such a way.

If there really was a disabled person who wore shabby clothes and whose entire body was filled with a terrible stench wanting to enter the Kardas family's auction house, it was likely that he would be directly thrown out by the security personnel.

"I'm here to participate in the auction."

Joelson took out a flyer and said faintly.

Although these bunnies were all beautiful girls, Joelson felt that they were still a little lacking.

Having seen so many beautiful girls, ordinary beautiful girls would not be able to enter Joelson's eyes.

Hearing that Joelson was here to participate in the auction, the two rows of bunnies became even more respectful.

"Sir, please follow me this way. I will bring you to the inspection area now."

One of the bunnies walked over and helped him up.

The bunny's breasts were not ordinary. Perhaps the bunny did it on purpose, but the two huge objects were directly attached to his arms.

That incomparably soft touch was indeed something that could not be replaced by anything else.

Ah, boobies are really a good thing.

Joelson could not help but think so in his heart.

The rabbit girl did not give any sexual hints to Joelson and did not say much either. After bringing Joelson to the verification hall not far from the main door, she bowed deeply to Joelson, after that, she immediately left the hall.

"Hello, sir."

A middle-aged man in a suit slowly walked over.

It seemed that the bunny girl was not in charge of verifying Joelson's eligibility to enter the auction.

"Welcome to this auction. In order to not cause any trouble to your auction, please show us at least 10,000 snow crystal coins or the equivalent."

"We will keep the items you provide for the time being. After the auction is over, you can take back the items that belong to you."

"Of course, the items you provide or snow crystal coins can also be used in the auction."

After the middle-aged man in a suit introduced the items to Joelson, he politely brought Joelson to a small workbench.

He didn't want to talk to the middle-aged man in the suit.

After all, middle-aged men were the most boring. They didn't have boobs, big butts, or even a beautiful face.

If he didn't have to deal with this guy, he wouldn't even want to spend a second with this guy.

Boring, really boring.

Please give me more boobs or butts.

Of course, he wouldn't tell others what he was thinking. He took out the purple-gold card from his pocket and placed it on the workbench.

The middle-aged man in a suit saw the purple-gold card and his pupils shrank.

The servants of a big family like Kardas understood what this purple-gold card meant.

In the underground city's money houses, those who could provide purple-gold cards had at least 500,000 snow crystal coins.

Among the big families in the underground city, the god who controlled the family's funds had cards of this color in their hands!

He had thought that Joelson would take out something worth 10,000 to 20,000 snow crystal coins in exchange for the right to enter the auction, but now it was obvious that he was looking down on others.

The middle-aged man in a suit broke out in cold sweat. He quickly picked up the purple-gold card that Joelson had placed on the workbench with both hands and handed it to Joelson respectfully.

"Sir, I'm really sorry!"

"You have a purple-gold bank card. According to the rules of the underground city, I have no right to see your card."

"You can enter the auction directly!"

Chapter 575: Mr. Joelson, Did You Really Go Commit a Robbery?

"Sir, I'm really sorry!"

"You have a purple-gold bank card. According to the rules of the underground city, I have no right to see your card."

"You can enter the auction directly!"

Joelson looked at the man in a suit in front of him, who had been gentle and elegant at the beginning, but now he was full of fear and trepidation. He was not used to it.

If you were a pretty girl, you could just be my lap dog. But a middle-aged man who was his lap dog was really unbearable.

The man in the suit took out a poker mask from the side.

"Sir, guests who provide more than 500,000 snow crystals at one time are all qualified to enter the VIP room of the auction. This is your pass, and you can also bring it to prevent your privacy from being leaked."

Joelson looked at the poker mask handed over by the middle-aged man in the suit. The mask was pure white, but in the middle, there was a king of spades printed on it.

King of Spades?

This card was quite good.

Joelson didn't intend to stand on ceremony. He directly took the mask from the middle-aged man in the suit.

"Sir, due to your identity as a purple-gold card, we don't know the exact amount in your card."

"But you have a limit of one million snow crystal coins. Even if you don't have that many snow crystal coins now, you can still take the rest of the auction items away when you come to pay the rest in the future."

The middle-aged man in a suit said respectfully.

Joelson raised his eyebrows and looked at the purple-gold card in his hand.

It seemed that the purple-gold card given to him by the pawn shop mustache was indeed quite useful.

Under the enthusiastic guidance of the man in the suit, Joelson officially entered the area of the auction house.

This was the underground floor of the building.

It was different from what he had imagined. The underground floor was ridiculously wide.

Even if it could accommodate two to three hundred people, it would still be very easy. It did not seem crowded at all.

The lights suddenly dimmed. At this moment, there were already many people sitting around, waiting for the auction to begin.

Joelson released his magic power. In the blink of an eye, his magic power filled the entire underground auction hall.

In an instant, Elena's figure was discovered by Joelson.

At this moment, there were many people who could use magic in the auction hall.

However, to be able to use magic without being discovered by anyone like Joelson, only Joelson alone could do it.

There was no other way. In this place, he was definitely an ancestor of magic.

Elena was sitting in her seat. Her eyes were filled with anticipation for the auction.

She put her hands together uneasily. After a while, she would look around for something.

"What are you looking at?"

Beside Elena, he suddenly asked.

"Ah!"

Elena was shocked by the sudden appearance of Joelson. She was about to scream, but she immediately covered her small mouth to prevent her scream from attracting the people around her.

It had to be said that Elena's quality was very good.

The other girls would definitely scream when they were scared by Joelson.

"Mr. Joelson, don't scare me..."

Elena patted her small chest and couldn't help but blame him.

"But Mr. Joelson, you are really amazing. You managed to gather 10,000 snow crystal coins in such a short period of time."

Elena looked at Joelson in surprise.

After all, it had only been an hour since they separated from each other.

And within that short hour, Joelson had actually managed to obtain 10,000 snow crystal coins. This really surprised Elena.

Even if they were to rob someone, it wouldn't be that fast.

"I feel that I'm quite slow."

Joelson laughed and directly sat beside Elena.

At this moment, the light in the auction venue was set to be very dim. Even those with good eyesight wouldn't be able to see very far in this place.

However, for the powerful magic and spiritual power of Joelson, this place was no different from turning on the lights.

Joelson sat down, took out a small money bag and handed it to Elena.

This was what Joelson had collected from the three hooligans.

He did not know how many innocent people these hooligans had harmed.

"This is the hotel fee you paid for me and the snow crystal coins you used to buy medicine for me. I'll return it to you."

"Mr. Joelson, I'm not that desperate for money. You don't have to be so desperate to give it to me..."

Elena wanted to return the money bag in her hand to Joelson, but she accidentally touched his big hand.

The wonderful touch made Elena's hand shrink back as if she had been electrocuted.

"Just take it. It's not a lot of money anyway."

"Besides, we still have to go to the seller to settle the score. When the time comes, the money from his hand will be mine."

Elena didn't understand what Joelson meant.

She had already bought the medicine, so why did she go back to the seller?

Elena was a little confused.

However, Elena finally took the money bag from Joelson.

When she opened it, Elena couldn't help but cover her mouth.

There were 8,000 snow crystal coins in this money bag!

Elena subconsciously looked at Joelson, her beautiful big eyes full of shock.

"Mr. Joelson, where did you get so much money!"

"You got 18,000 snow crystal coins in an hour. Mr. Joelson, you didn't really rob someone, did you?"

Elena thought that Joelson had also put 10,000 snow crystal coins in the verification hall like her.

Therefore, she was so surprised when Joelson took out 8,000 snow crystal coins.

If the few hooligans who robbed Joelson had more than 10,000 snow crystal coins, then Joelson would have directly mortgaged the snow crystal coins to the front desk instead of using the purple-gold card.

However, it was a pity that only 2,000 snow crystal coins were missing. Even if Joelson wanted to keep a low profile, he couldn't.

In any case, Joelson couldn't take a piece of Hades's dragon scale as collateral, right?

If that was the case, the entire Kardas family would be shocked by the piece of dragon scale that he had taken out.

In fact, many large families in the underground cities would fight over the Hades's dragon scale that Joelson had taken out.

This was a treasure among treasures!

After all, other than Joelson, who else could possess a dragon scale with such a powerful aura from Hades?

Just as Elena wanted to say something to Joelson, a light suddenly lit up on the stage not far away.

It seemed that the auction had officially begun.

Although Elena wanted to continue, it did not seem like the right time.

After the auction was over, she would have a good chat with Joelson.

With this thought in mind, Elena shifted her gaze to the stage not far away.

On the stage, the curtain was slowly pulled open.

It was a circular stage with layers of lights. The effect was very gorgeous.

It seemed that the Kardas family had done a very good job with the stage's lighting effect.

Then, a groove appeared in the center of the stage.

A beautiful figure appeared from it.

It was a woman wearing an extremely gorgeous lolita outfit.

Her face was as white as milk, and her eyes were as bright as gems.

She had a head of golden wavy hair that hung at her waist.

Looking from afar, she looked like a doll.

She was indeed an extraordinary beauty.

Joelson, who was sitting below the stage, commented in his heart.

This beauty was not bad, but her chest was too unfortunate.

Even Elena's poor breasts were much better than this doll-like girl.

Thinking of this, Joelson could not help but raise his head.

This emcee girl, could she be an underage girl!

If that was the case, it would probably be able to explain why her breasts were so poor.

"Look, it's the eldest daughter of the Kardas family, Freya Kardas!"

"She's as beautiful as the rumors say!"

"Yeah, she's clearly in her twenties but she looks like a child."

"Shh! Keep your voice down. Lady Freya hates it when people call her 'little girl.' If she hears you, I'm afraid you won't have a good ending!"

"Ah! Little girl, I like this type of girl the most!"

When Freya appeared at this moment, there was a commotion around Joelson.

Through the magic power that was released, Joelson could easily hear the voices of these people discussing.

After collecting this information, Joelson was even more surprised.

This girl who looked like a doll was actually in her twenties?

Wasn't she a legal loli?

Perhaps he should consider this type of beautiful girl as well?

On the stage, Freya would not slow down the progress of the auction just because of what Joelson was thinking.

She raised her small hand and held the microphone-like magic item that was used to amplify the volume with some difficulty.

“Dear guests, I am the eldest daughter of the Kardas family, Freya Kardas. Here, on behalf of the Kardas family, I would like to express my most sincere gratitude to all of you for coming to our family's auction.”

After saying that, Freya bowed deeply.

Of course, these were just pleasantries. They were just the most basic procedures.

If they really treated this eldest daughter of the Kardas family, Freya, as someone who was easy to bully, they would probably suffer a great loss.

“On behalf of the Kardas family, as the host of this auction, I would like to introduce the various details of this auction to all of you.”

“We don't need to say any more nonsense. Let the auction begin.”

Freya casually said a few words before snapping her fingers.

The staff at the side immediately understood. They immediately pulled an incomparably huge iron box onto the stage.

Everyone's attention was immediately attracted by this huge iron box.

After all, this was the first item in the Kardas family's auction. It was definitely not an ordinary item.

“Next, let's directly introduce the first item.”

“To be honest, I don’t really like these things. This kind of thing is not a hobby that a lady like me should have.”

After Freya finished speaking, the huge metal box behind her suddenly opened up. An incomparably huge metal ax appeared in front of everyone.

This metal ax was three meters long. Just the tip of the ax was one meter long.

The ax’s blade was dark-gold in color, and it was engraved with a complicated magic array.

It seemed to have several magic seals on it.

Moreover, this ax’s blade looked extremely sharp. Its might should not be underestimated.

This was an extremely exaggerated ax. If an ordinary person were to stand beside it, the ax’s blade alone would take up half of their body, not to mention brandishing it.

“The first item in the collection is a weapon.”

“The Berserker’s battle ax has metal attributes and is at god’s domain rank.”

“The starting price is 5,000 snow crystal coins. Each bid will be increased by at least 100 snow crystal coins.”

Before Freya could finish her sentence, everyone present was in an uproar.

A weapon at god’s domain rank!

One had to know that even in the inner city, a god’s domain rank was a top-tier existence.

As for the majority of the people in the outer city, they had to raise their heads and look up at the word ‘god’s domain.’ Now that a god’s domain ranked weapon had appeared before their eyes, how could they not be shocked?

“Is this really a god’s domain ranked weapon...”

Some people below the stage muttered to themselves.

On the stage, Freya also heard this voice that made her unhappy.

Freya snorted coldly and said, “If you doubt our Kardas family’s reputation, you can give it a try.”

When the person below the stage who had been doubting Freya heard what she said, he could not help but shudder.

That's right. Kardas was a golden signboard in the underground city. They would not tarnish their own reputation just because of a god-domain-level weapon.

At this moment, an unpleasant voice rang out from a private room directly above the stage.

"You can't say that, Miss Freya. Your Kardas family's signboard can not be used as a guarantee for the quality of this ax, right?"

"If you ask me, if this ax really hasn't reached the god-domain level and caused the buyer to suffer a great loss, if the other party has no power or influence, would they dare to look for you?"

When Freya heard this voice, she immediately raised her head to look at the mysterious private room.

As the eldest daughter of the Kardas family, she naturally knew who this voice belonged to.

The underground city was located in the outer city. It was an existence whose reputation was on par with the Kardas family.

The Benolu family!

Below the stage, Elena whispered into Joelson's ear.

"Joelson, this is a god's domain weapon. Why is it only selling for 5,000 snow crystal coins?"

"Isn't this a loss?"

Joelson shrugged and said calmly.

"It's just a common auction method. I estimate that the price of this ax shouldn't be lower than 100,000 snow crystal coins."

"So expensive!"

Hearing Joelson's words, Elena sucked in a breath of cold air!
