

Breeding Dragons From Today

- Chapter 577: The Conflict Between the Two Great Families!

“It’s just a common auction tactic. I estimate that the price of this ax shouldn’t be lower than 100,000 snow crystal coins.”

“So expensive!”

Elena drew in a cold breath when she heard what Joelson said!

In Elena’s memories, although weapons were very expensive, they should only be worth 10,000 snow crystal coins at most, right?

In Joelson’s opinion, a god’s domain-level battle ax required 100,000 snow crystal coins to obtain.

One had to know that one only needed to pay 10,000 snow crystal coins to enter the auction house.

To Elena, this number was already an astronomical figure.

Just as Elena was still in shock, Freya, who was standing on the stage, felt that something was amiss.

She clenched her small fists and her eyebrows were raised. It could be seen that Freya was very angry at this moment.

“Dordona, what do you mean?”

Freya said through gritted teeth.

When the audience heard the news about Dordona, not only were they discussing it, but the name was well-known in the underground city.

After all, the Benolu family was on par with the Kardas family, and Dordona was the most eye-catching existence among the younger generation of the Benolu family.

Not only did Dordona possess an outstanding business mind, his strength was also quite good. Compared to the younger generation in the outer city of the underground city, it was already over 95%.

Even if the remaining 5% did not surpass, there was not much of a gap between him and Dordona. Perhaps, with some time, Dordona would be able to catch up to them. He would definitely be the most outstanding existence among the younger generation of the underground city.

“What do I mean?”

Dordona, who was in the private room on the second floor, laughed coldly.

“Lady Freya, you can understand it however you want. Since you’ve said so, then it’s meaningless for me to compete with your Kardas family. Then, I’ll give everyone a start. It can also be considered as throwing a brick to attract jade.”

As Dordona spoke, he pressed a button on the armrest of his seat.

Beep beep beep!

On the stage, behind Freya, a large screen appeared.

The number that was originally zero turned into 50,000!

“I’ll pay 50,000 snow crystal coins for this weapon. I don’t know if any of you have a higher price than me, Dordona. If you do, then I won’t compete with you.”

“After all, the good stuff is still behind us, isn’t it?”

Dordona Benolu’s voice seemed to contain a mocking emotion, which made people feel like beating him up.

Of course, most of the people present only had this evil intention, but they didn’t have the guts to do so.

How could the Benolu family, which was as famous as the Kardas family, be an existence to be trifled with in the outer city.

Once in the underground city, there were people who tried to challenge the authority of the Benolu clan. However, on the second day, that guy directly disappeared from the underground city. Even though many people were dispatched to search for him, they didn’t find anything.

It wasn’t until a month later that someone found the corpse of that guy who challenged the Benolu family in the sewer of the underground city.

The Benolu family wasn’t to be trifled with!

Everyone present looked at each other, not daring to raise their bids for a moment.

After all, although Dordona had said that he didn't need to care about him and could continue to raise his bid, who knew if this young master of Benolu's was a narrow-minded existence.

Even if there were people in the auction venue who really liked this god-ranked battle-ax, they still chose to give up.

They did not wish to offend Dordona, much less the Benolu family!

There was only one life left. Who knew if they would disappear into thin air the next day after offending an existence of this level? Eventually, their corpses would be found in the stinking ditch...

That would be too tragic. They were not willing to leave this world in such a tragic manner.

For a moment, the auction venue was extremely quiet.

As for the large screen behind them, due to the fact that no one increased the bid, a 60-second countdown appeared below the 50,000 snow crystal coins.

On the stage, Freya's little brows were tightly knitted together.

50,000 snow crystal coins was enough to bid for this god's domain ranked battle ax. Moreover, it was a rare weapon that possessed both lightning and metal attributes. It was simply a great bargain!

According to the calculations of the Kardas family's elite auctioneers, this god's domain ranked battle ax could be sold for at least 100,000 snow crystal coins!

Just because Dordona had shouted, the Kardas family had lost half of their snow crystal coins!

This was too ruthless!

This was not a simple loss of half of their profits. This god's domain ranked battle ax was a good item that the Kardas family had specially obtained from an adventurer for the sake of this auction.

If other sellers wanted to sell items at the auction, then selling them at a low price would only reduce the commission they received.

However, the current situation was different. There was a cost to it!

After going back and forth, it was likely that Kardas's first transaction had lost tens of thousands of snow crystal coins!

When she thought of this, Freya gritted her teeth.

This Dordona Benolu was probably here to cause trouble on purpose!

However, as the eldest daughter of the Kardas family and the auctioneer who represented the face of the Kardas family, Freya absolutely could not lose her composure.

She hurriedly took a deep breath and adjusted her emotions. Her underdeveloped chest was rapidly heaving up and down.

After over ten seconds, she finally recovered.

Meanwhile, behind Freya, the countdown on the gigantic screen only had half a minute left.

Thirty seconds!

Currently, no one was willing to make a bid!

Freya looked at the large screen behind her. Although she clearly knew that this god's domain-level battle ax was about to be taken by Dordona Benolu, she was still unwilling to believe this outcome.

Freya's small hands clutched her skirt as she pursed her lips. A hint of anticipation inadvertently flashed in her eyes.

The numbers on the large screen were still jumping!

Ten!

Five!

Three!

Two!

One!

The countdown ended. The battle ax, which was originally worth 100,000 snow crystal coins, had already entered Dordona's bag.

When Freya saw this outcome, a hint of disappointment flashed in her large eyes.

Although this was only a momentary reaction, Freya quickly recovered. However, all of this was still seen by Joelson.

Looking at Freya's reaction and the tone of Dordona in the VIP room, it was likely that the large families in the underground city were not united. In fact, they did not like each other.

When he thought of this, Joelson's eyes lit up.

This meant that as long as Joelson was willing, he had a lot of room to maneuver!

Freya shook her head, sweeping away her bad mood.

The gloomy expression on her face turned into a business-like smile.

If she had not seen the girl's expression earlier, she would have thought that Freya was an extremely gentle young lady.

"Congratulations to the guest in VIP Room 4 for obtaining this god's domain-level battle ax."

"Since this auction item has already been auctioned off, we won't waste any more time explaining. Now, let's move on to the next auction item."

Freya continued.

The staff behind her removed the metal box from the stage. In its place, a large ice cube appeared before everyone's eyes.

The ice cube was the size of a human head. In the middle of the ice cube, there was a blooming flower.

The flower was very beautiful. Many women in the audience were immediately attracted by the flower.

After all, which girl didn't like flowers?

Beauty ran through their lives.

Many powerful people, even when they died, would bury them with the most beautiful flowers.

Elena tugged at the corner of Joelson's clothes.

"Mr. Joelson, look, what a beautiful flower!"

"If someone gave me such a beautiful flower, I would be so happy!"

Elena said excitedly.

However, after Elena finished speaking, she didn't receive any recovery from Joelson. She not only turned her head, but also looked in the direction of Joelson.

"Mr. Joelson?"

At this moment, Joelson frowned slightly. He supported his chin with one hand on the armrest.

He nodded slightly as if he was thinking about something.

Feeling Elena's gaze, Joelson turned around.

"What's wrong, Elena?"

Joelson did not realize that Elena's words were directed at him.

"Nothing..."

Elena was a little disappointed and turned her head around.

For some reason, Joelson was not listening to Elena's words at this moment, which made her feel very uncomfortable.

What was going on?

Could it be that she was sick?

Elena was very confused.

Ever since the last time she was saved by a hero in the snow, Elena felt that her condition was getting worse and worse.

She would be absent-minded from time to time.

Even in some things that required a lot of attention, she would be like this.

Damn it, perhaps I've been sleeping too poorly recently...

I'll definitely have to change my pillow when I go back.

Elena thought to herself.

By the side, Joelson wouldn't know what Elena was thinking.

The moment he saw the fresh flowers being presented on the stage, he knew what they were.

The soul-absorbing Greenlandia lilac flower.

This was a type of plant that was born in ancient times. It was born with an extremely powerful, mesmerizing aura. Even powerful demigods who smelled the fragrance of the Greenlandia lilac flower would be temporarily mesmerized by it.

Even experts with the power of demigods were like this, much less ordinary people.

Once an ordinary person smelled this aura, their soul would most likely be drawn away, completely immersed in the scent of the Greenlandia lilac flower. They wouldn't think about food or tea, and in the end, they would starve to death by the side of the flower.

The corpses of these people were the best nourishment for the Greenlandia soul-absorbing lilac flower.

The more animal and human corpses died beside it, the more nourishment it would receive.

The Greenlandia soul-absorbing lilac flower in Freya's exhibit was the most powerful one that Joelson had ever seen.

Although this flower was firmly sealed by ice, even from such a great distance, Joelson was still able to sense the powerful soul-absorbing fluctuation that this flower emitted through magic.

From the looks of it, this was indeed a treasure!

This was what Joelson thought in his heart.

The use of the Greenlandia soul-absorbing lilac flower was not small. After grinding it into powder, it could be used as an augmenting medicine for various medicinal ingredients. Even if it was only used in an ordinary recovery medicine, it could also strengthen the effects of several times that of a recovery medicine.

On the stage, Freya also opened her mouth.

"This flower was found in the vast snowy mountains outside the underground city."

"According to the records, this flower is called the Greenlandia soul-absorbing lilac flower. The fragrance emitted by the flower is extremely mesmerizing."

"Moreover, looking at the hard ice in the surroundings, our Kardas family surmises that this Greenlandia soul-absorbing lilac flower has a history of at least 500 years."

"If any of you are interested in alchemy, you can consider making a move. After all, our family's appraiser has set a very low starting price."

“The starting price is 1,000 snow crystals. Each increment must not be lower than 50 snow crystals.”

When Freya finished speaking, the entire auction hall fell silent.

If the battle ax of god’s domain was something that everyone knew its value, then not many people knew the value of this flower sealed in ice.

After all, no matter how beautiful Freya’s words sounded, if they did not have any use for it, wouldn’t buying it be a waste of snow crystal coins?

Freya looked at the silence below the stage and subconsciously pursed her lips.

The first battle ax had already caused her family to lose quite a bit of snow crystal coins. Now, the second item had been neglected for so long. Could it be that the auction was going to fail?

The successive failures made Freya somewhat unhappy.

On the large screen behind her, a countdown appeared.

Sixty seconds!

After a minute, if no one was willing to make a bid, then the bid for the soul-absorbing Greenlandia lilac flower sealed in the ice and snow would fail.

“One thousand snow crystal coins!”

Finally, someone made a bid at this moment.

Upon hearing the bid, Freya’s eyes lit up.

Someone made a bid!

Although it was only the lowest price, it avoided the fate of letting the item go unauctioned.

Just when Freya thought that the flower was going to be sold for 1,000 snow crystal coins, another two bids were heard.

“1,100 snow crystal coins!”

“1200 snow crystal coins!”

Just as the huge countdown behind the stage was about to end, the number suddenly trembled and returned to one minute.

Joelson did not bid. After all, he was not like these anxious fellows. He was very calm.

Since the people of the Kardas family were able to find information about this flower, then there would definitely be one or two people who knew about it among the bidders present.

They were very clear about the effects of the soul-absorbing lilac flower.

1,000 snow crystal coins was really not expensive for such a medicinal herb.

“1,250 snow crystal coins!”

“1,300 snow crystal coins!”

“1,400 snow crystal coins!”

All of a sudden, there were more and more voices bidding for the flower.

Seeing the increasing number of bidders, not only did joy flash across Freya’s big eyes, she said excitedly.

“Someone has already bid 1,400 snow crystal coins. Is there anyone else willing to bid higher?”

“1,500 snow crystal coins!”

Below the stage, another bidding voice sounded.

However, when the price exceeded 1,500 snow crystal coins, the speed of bidding for the Greenlandia soul absorbing lilac flower slowed down.

After a while, when the auction price exceeded 2,000 snow crystal coins, it completely stopped.

It seemed that the highest bid of the bidders for such a flower that was sealed in ice and snow would only be 2,000 snow crystal coins.

This was a matter of course. After all, the auction item was just a medicinal herb. After it was used up, there was no more.

On the stage, Freya also nodded.

2,000 snow crystal coins was already a pass for such a medicinal herb that could bring an unknown amount of value.

Although the countdown on the big screen behind them had not ended, Freya intended to press the button in her hand to end the countdown ahead of time.

At this moment, a voice suddenly sounded from below the stage.

The voice was extremely magnetic and clear.

“10,000 snow crystal coins.”

The number that had stopped at 2,000 on the stage suddenly jumped and finally became 10,000!

The difference was a full five times!

The owner of this bidding voice was actually Joelson.

Seeing that there was no longer anyone else bidding, Joelson directly stated the price in his heart.

If this Greenlandia soul-absorbing lilac flower that was sealed in the ice and snow was just a medicinal ingredient that did not have a good appearance, it was likely that the price that Joelson offered was only around 2,000 snow crystal coins.

But the one on the stage was different.

Joelson could clearly feel the spirit-absorbing fluctuation that the spirit-absorbing lilac flower emitted from the ice and snow.

If there was no ice and snow to seal it, the scent that the plant emitted could directly control everyone present.

Such a powerful lilac flower was naturally not simple.

According to Joelson’s estimation, this lilac flower had already grown for more than 200 years before it was sealed in ice and snow!

A lilac flower that was a few years old, or even a few decades old, could not be compared to this lilac flower that had grown for 200 years.

Regardless of whether it was the medicinal effect or the soul-absorbing scent, the one on the stage right now was a high-grade one. Compared to the Greenlandia soul-absorbing lilac flower described in the illustrated handbook, the effect of this ice-sealed lilac flower was probably dozens of times stronger!

For this lilac flower that had been growing for at least two hundred years, the price in Joelson’s mind was around 50,000 snow crystal coins.

In other words, even if Joelson paid 10,000 snow crystal coins, he would at least earn 40,000 snow crystal coins!

Right now, there was no one who knew more about the existence of this plant than Joelson. This was a great bargain for Joelson.

Upon hearing Joelson's bid, the surrounding bidders were in an uproar.

They looked in the direction of Joelson but, unfortunately, the dark environment made it impossible for them to see his appearance clearly.

"My god, how can there be such a fool who is willing to pay 10,000 snow crystal coins to bid for such a plant?"

"Crazy, he must be crazy! Even if it's to give it to the woman he likes, he wouldn't spend so much money for nothing!"

"10,000 snow crystal coins, that's enough to buy a nice house in the underground city! He only bid for a plant that I don't know what it can do!"

"Damn it, he might be a rich man!"

The discussions rose one after another.

Elena, who was sitting next to Joelson, widened her eyes at this moment.

She didn't understand why Joelson would suddenly bid so much.

Just to bid for a plant that she did not know what it could do!

All of a sudden, all kinds of thoughts flashed through Elena's mind.

The most likely thought suddenly appeared in Elena's mind.

Could it be that he was bidding for her?

Yes, she had just told him that she liked this beautiful flower, which made him have the impulse to bid for this lilac flower!

Sure enough, Joelson really liked her!

In the darkness, Elena touched her fair little face and, sure enough, it burned badly.

After Joelson finished bidding, he sat on the chair and quietly waited for the auction to end.

On the screen, the number of 10,000 snow crystal coins was so eye-catching.

At this moment, Doldona Benolu in the VIP room carefully looked at the number on the screen, smiled and said.

“Ten Thousand and fifty snow crystals.”

Doldona’s voice echoed through the auction house.

Even the good-natured Elena was more than angry at the moment.

Where was this Doldona to bid for the lilac. It was obviously to deliberately disgust Joelson who was determined to win the lilac!

“10,500 snow crystals.”

Seeing that Doldona had increased the price, there was no change in his expression. He continued to raise the price.

“Fifteen hundred and fifty snow crystals.”

In the VIP room, Doldona took an interest.

It was not known whether he was interested in the frozen flower or in the Joelson at the auction.

“Twenty thousand snow crystals.”

Joelson’s face did not change.

This price was enough to shock everyone.

This was just a frozen plant, how could it be auctioned at such a high price?

Rich people were used to throwing money for fun, right?

Everyone was speechless in their hearts.

Everyone was waiting to see if Doldona in the VIP room would bid again.

But this time, Doldona didn’t bid.

Seeing that Joelson didn’t do anything, Doldona cursed him for being bored and stopped raising the price.

A full minute passed, and there was no sound at the auction.

Silence.

At last, when the countdown was complete, Freya was relieved.

She looked at the slightest of the VIP room in the eyes, but also flashed a touch of resentment.

That damned Doldona was actually trying to cause trouble.

Did he really think that the auction house of Kardas was owned by the Benolu Family?

Freya suppressed the unhappiness in her heart as she spoke to Joelson.

“Congratulations to Mr. King of Spades for winning the auction. He used 20,000 snow crystal coins to obtain this auction item.”

Joelson expressionlessly looked towards VIP room No. 4, where Doldona was located!

Chapter 580: No Need to Wear the Required God-Domain-Level Magic Ring!

"Congratulations to Mr. King of Spades for winning the auction with 20,000 snow crystals."

Without any expression, he looked at the No. 4 VIP room, where Doldona was!

Obviously, this "prank" of Doldona, has already made Joelson have an aversion to Doldona.

If Doldona continued to be so domineering, Joelson didn't mind paying an unbearable price to this arrogant playboy in the underground city.

And right now, he was in the VIP room.

Doldona lazily lay on the soft leather sofa.

Beside him were two bunny girls in revealing clothes.

This was a service exclusive to the VIP room. As long as Doldona needed it, the bunny girls would provide all the services he needed.

Joelson, who had the purple-gold bank card, also had this qualification. However, in order to find Elena's location, he voluntarily gave up this service.

Of course, as long as Joelson wanted it, he could enter the VIP room at any time.

And it was Doldona, who was sitting on the sofa lazily, hugging the bunny girls on his left and right, who suddenly shivered.

He looked left and right, as if he was looking for something.

All of a sudden, it was as if he was being targeted by a ferocious beast. The fear that came from his soul made Doldona extremely uncomfortable.

However, in the VIP room, other than the two bunny girls with gigantic breasts, what else could threaten Doldona's existence?

Doldona was not considered weak. In fact, he was even stronger than some middle-aged men. However, this still did not make him feel any sense of security at this moment.

He immediately said to the two bunny girls behind him.

"Leave my room, now!"

The two bunny girls were at a loss. Wasn't Doldona just touching their tits and wantonly venting his lust? Why did his attitude suddenly change so drastically? It was as if he had become a completely different person.

However, they did not dare to disobey Doldona's request at this moment. After all, it was not just the Kardas family's request. Doldona's identity also made them very apprehensive.

After bowing deeply to Doldona, the two bunny girls quickly left the VIP room.

"What's going on?"

"I'm the only one in the room right now..."

"Why hasn't this uneasy feeling disappeared?"

Doldona touched his heart and asked in puzzlement.

At this moment, the blood flow in his heart was accelerating, as if it was about to jump into his throat.

"Damn it..."

Doldona lay back on the sofa, his fists clenched, and a hint of struggle appeared on his face.

After an unknown amount of time, Doldona finally recovered.

At this moment, his entire body was drenched in sweat, and a sickly red flush appeared on his face.

Doldona looked at the one-way privacy glass in front of him. At this moment, Freya's auction had already auctioned off a few more items.

Weapons, gemstones, medicinal herbs, pets...

There were all kinds of items and some of them were sold at high prices.

After that, Joelson and Elena did not bid again. Because the lilac flower had to be paid for backstage after the auction was over, it had not yet entered Joelson's hands.

Even though they had bid 20,000 snow crystal coins, many people had ignored Joelson's existence because they had not bid for a long time.

"Next, the real treasures of our Kardas family will be auctioned. Please prepare snow crystal coins so that you don't run out of money."

After Freya said that, the staff behind her carried a fist-sized small box to the center of the stage.

The light from Freya's body gathered on the small box.

The entire box was crimson in color. Its skin was made of animal fur and it was furry.

The exquisite box slowly opened and a ring that was as bright as a gemstone appeared in front of everyone.

Only then did everyone understand why the light was focused on the ring.

Under the illumination of the light, the ring shone with a resplendent light. It did not lose out to any top-tier gemstones!

"It's too beautiful..."

Beside Joelson, Elena could not help but exclaim.

That's right. This ring was simply beautiful to the extreme.

Freya's voice sounded just in time.

"This is a magic tool forged by a master dwarf craftsman using his entire life's worth of knowledge."

"There's no need to explain its rank. The resplendent ring's rank has also reached the god's domain rank."

"This ring can release a defensive barrier. Its defensive power is quite good. Most importantly, the ring's defensive barrier can be set to a passive mode. When danger arrives that the ring can't react to, the resplendent ring will automatically release a defensive barrier to help the host defend against the incoming attack."

Freya said excitedly.

"Of course, none of this is important. The most shocking thing about this ring is that its assembly requirement is 0!"

"What does this mean? Even people who don't know magic can use this protective barrier magic by wearing the ring!"

"Of course, the magic needed to activate the ring also needs to be recharged by people who have magic. However, the recharging period is as long as a week. If the host is in extreme danger within a week, the ring will automatically release the protective barrier."

As soon as Freya finished speaking, all kinds of discussions immediately came from the audience. It seemed that the resplendent ring that Freya had introduced was indeed very moving to everyone present.

After all, even if there were no magic talents, they could still release powerful defensive magic just like other mages.

Out in the world, safety was the first priority.

If one were to accidentally lose their life, what use would it be even if one had a lot of snow crystal coins to squander?

Hence, many people in the auction hall were gearing up. It seemed that they were extremely tempted by the resplendent ring.

They all wanted to obtain this item, even if it meant paying a huge price!

When some people in the audience could no longer suppress the agitation in their hearts, Freya announced the starting bid for the resplendent ring.

"God's domain-level magic equipment: resplendent ring. The starting bid is 50,000 snow crystal coins. Each increment must not be less than 1,000 snow crystal coins!"

Even though Freya's bid was the highest so far, it still could not stop the enthusiasm of the various bidders.

Below the stage, Elena softly asked Joelson.

"Mr. Joelson, what kind of astronomical price do you think this resplendent ring will fetch?"

Joelson nodded slightly.

"A conservative estimate is 200,000 snow crystal coins or more..."

"Mr. Joelson, what kind of sky-high price do you think this resplendent ring will fetch?"

Joelson nodded slightly.

"Conservative estimate, it should be above 200,000 snow crystal coins..."

It was at this moment that the auction round began!

"51,000 Snow Crystal Coins!"

"55,000 snow crystal coins!"

"60,000 snow crystal coins!"

"I bid 66,000 snow crystal coins!"

"All of you, move back a little. 80,000 snow crystal coins!"

For a moment, the voices of the bidders rose and fell one after another.

The depths of everyone's eyes were filled with fanaticism.

Elena looked at the bustling scene. If it wasn't for the fact that her wallet was shy, she would probably have also tried to bid at this moment.

It was not because of how powerful the resplendent ring was or the impenetrable iron wall. It was simply because the beautiful ring attracted Elena.

Elena had never seen such a beauty before.

Joelson looked at the craziness around him. His expression did not change and he remained unmoved.

At this moment, the numbers on the big screen behind Foya were changing crazily.

In the blink of an eye, the numbers had already broken through the five-digit threshold and entered the six-digit domain!

And all of this had only taken half a minute!

Seeing all the bidders below the stage being so enthusiastic, Freya was also very surprised.

She had expected that this resplendent ring would be very popular, but she had not expected it to attract such a fanatical reaction.

Just as Freya was slightly lost in thought, the number behind her once again shot up 20,000 snow crystal coins!

This speed made Freya, who had already thought that money was just a number, click her tongue.

The attraction of the resplendent ring was far beyond Freya's imagination!

The number behind the resplendent ring that represented the snow crystal coins finally slowed down when the auction price reached 200,000 snow crystal coins.

However, the slowing down was only relative to before. If one looked at it alone, the increase was still very exaggerated!

"211,000 snow crystal coins!"

"223,000 snow crystal coins!"

"229,000 snow crystal coins!"

"230,000 snow crystal coins!"

The numbers on the big screen kept jumping, tugging at the heartstrings of the people below the stage.

Most of the bidders had spent thousands of snow crystal coins in order to fail without raising the bid, or even to advance the bid.

Although the bid was successful, it caused the growth rate to grow faster and faster!

Finally, when ten minutes had passed, the bidding price of this resplendent ring had already reached 250,000 snow crystal coins!

Only at this moment did the auction speed visibly slow down.

On stage, Freya was extremely surprised when she saw that the price had actually risen to such a high level.

After all, the originally planned price for the thunder-attributed battle ax, which was also at god's domain rank, was around 100,000 snow crystal coins.

Currently, the resplendent ring did not possess any attack power. Moreover, its defense was much weaker than ordinary defensive magic equipment that required equipment.

Although the appraiser in the family didn't give Freya any reference price, Freya felt that this resplendent ring could only be auctioned off for 180,000 snow crystal coins at most.

But right now, the auction price had already reached 250,000 snow crystal coins, and it still didn't stop!

Even at this rate, it wasn't impossible for this resplendent ring to be auctioned off for 300,000 snow crystal coins!

"The highest price for this ring is 254,000 snow crystal coins from Mr. Jack of Hearts. Is there anyone higher than that?"

Freya said excitedly.

At this moment, many people were much calmer.

250,000 snow crystal coins was already too much for many people to bear.

Moreover, the auction hadn't reached the final stage, and the real treasure hadn't been taken out yet. It was probably not the wisest choice to empty their wallets now.

At this moment, a voice that had never appeared before suddenly spread throughout the entire auction hall.

The voice was transmitted from VIP Room 3.

This voice sounded extremely loud and clear. It gave one an inexplicable feeling that the owner of the voice was very reliable.

"I bid 270,000 snow crystal coins."

The loud voice from the VIP room slowly said.

Joelson slowly raised his head and looked at VIP Room 3 beside VIP Room 4.

From the looks of it, the person who had come to the auction this time around was indeed not just Doldona from the Benolu family.

The auction had finally entered the most heated segment. Even the members of the large clans in the underground city could not help but act.

Joelson knew that the minimum requirement to enter the VIP room was to have a purple-gold card.

That was a guarantee of at least 500,000 snow crystal coins!

Not everyone was like Joelson, casually taking out a few dragon scales and being able to exchange them for hundreds of thousands of snow crystal coins. If that was the case, the entire underground world would be in chaos.

On the stage, Freya heard the voice coming from VIP Room No. 3 and her body trembled.

She subconsciously raised her head and looked in the direction of VIP Room 3.

She was very familiar with that voice.

Briznavarro.

That was a big family in the inner city. It was not an existence that the Kardas and Benolu families could compare to.

Although the underground city was divided into the inner city of the outer city, the inner city and the outer city were like two different worlds.

The outer city, which was dirty and chaotic, was more like a place that had been abandoned.

And where the true talents gathered and the elites were located, they were all in the inner city.

Any small family in the inner city could be compared to an existence like the Kardas in the outer city.

However, it must be known that people in the inner city rarely left the inner city. After all, in their opinion, leaving the clean and hygienic inner city and going to the dirty outer city was already extremely ridiculous.

Why would people leave their comfort zone?

Kardas and the Benolu family had applied to the inner city more than once to become an inner city family, but they were all rejected without exception.

Even though the two families had many talents and they were not weaker than the average families in the inner city.

Even so, the inner city did not let their guard down once.

In the end, it was because the people in the inner city were too arrogant and disdained to associate with Kardas and Benolu families.

However, such an arrogant inner city family actually appeared in this auction.

This really made Freya very surprised!

Chapter 582: The Purpose of the Navarro Clan's Visit!

"I offer 270,000 snow crystal coins."

At this moment, Briz Navarro was sitting in VIP Hall Number Three. He crossed his arms in front of his chest as he spoke in a deep voice.

Briz Navarro was shirtless. There was an eagle tattooed on his muscular body.

This eagle was the symbol of the Navarro family. It was also their family's totem.

However, even ordinary people in the outer city of the underground city would subconsciously avoid this eagle when they saw it.

After all, the Navarro family could be considered as an existence that could be ranked high in the inner city of the underground city.

This place was the outer city. Even an ordinary person in the inner city could become an existence with an illustrious status in the outer city.

As the third young master of the Navarro family, of course, Briz could be considered as a superior person.

However, as the third young master of the Navarro family in the inner city, why did Briz enter the outer city and represent the auction house of the Kardas family?

Of course, there was a reason. As the third young master of the Navarro family, Briz had received the news of the last mysterious item in the auction house of the Kardas family, this was why the third young master of the Navarro family was sent to the outer city to inquire about the news.

If the news from the secret agents was true, Briz would represent the Navarro family to participate in this auction.

Originally, Briz hated the outer city of the underground city. In Briz's eyes, such an existence represented low status.

As one of the top ranked Navarro family in the inner city, it was naturally not surprising for him to have such an opinion.

However, even though he was the esteemed third young master of the Navarro family, even though he had an illustrious status in the inner city, he had no choice but to admit at this moment... the importance of the final auction item of the Kardas family to their family.

If Briz's guess was correct, the final mysterious item was the most important key that could open the legendary land of Lorna.

Lorna, the legendary Holy Land!

Even the head of the Navarro family and even the king of the underground city had to admit that this was the Holy Land that everyone yearned for!

It was known as the most open and free city in the underworld.

No matter how low your status was before, you were like an ant. After you entered Lorna, you did not need to be weaker than others.

On the contrary, if you were the king of the outside world, you would not be able to ask others to do anything for you in Lorna. Even if you asked others to pour you a cup of wine, it would still not do.

Lorna, who was completely prohibited from using force, had the most well-informed information in the entire underworld.

The organizations that were able to take root here were definitely not ordinary people!

Their strength was so strong that ordinary people couldn't imagine it. If they were willing, they could even clearly investigate what color underwear a certain king was wearing today.

Such a terrifying investigation made people shudder!

If it was not because Lorna absolutely forbade the use of force, the intertwined factions and organizations here would have exploded into incomparably terrifying sparks!

There were secrets that countless people wanted to know!

There were treasures that countless people yearned for!

As long as one had sufficient capital, they would be able to obtain these things from Lorna!

Right now, Joelson's goal was to enter Lorna and search for the whereabouts of the mysterious fragment.

Briz Navarro grabbed a bottle of wine on the marble table in front of him and roughly grabbed it. He opened his mouth and poured it down his throat.

This was already a very exquisite wine for the outer city, but in Briz Navarro's mouth, it tasted like urine.

Damn it, why are things in the outer city all the same? Dirty.

Briz put back the wine bottle in his hand. Although he did not say anything, his eyes did not hide his disdain for the outer city at all.

The two bunny girls who were in charge of serving Briz also felt Briz's undisguised disdain at this moment. They curled up at the side, not knowing what to do.

After all, in Briz's eyes, even their clothes were extremely dirty.

Briz shook his head and continued to look at the auction that was still ongoing outside the VIP room.

The auction was still ongoing.

Other than a few people who were extremely sensitive to the large families in the inner city, most people did not discover that Briz, who was sitting in VIP Room 3, was the third young master of the Navarro family in the inner city.

They only thought that the person sitting in the third VIP room was at most on the same level as Doldona in the fourth VIP room.

Although the Benolu family could be considered to be extremely powerful in the outer city, if they were to include the inner city and rank the entire inner city... Doldona's Benolu family and the Kardas family, who were currently holding an auction, couldn't be ranked.

In the eyes of the truly powerful families in the inner city, the two great families that were dominating the outer city were no different from clowns.

In fact, as long as the great families in the inner city were willing, they could easily bankrupt the two great families in the outer city and disappear without a trace within a short period of time.

After all, many businesses of the two great families relied on the people from the great families in the inner city.

Of course, Briz didn't care about these people who didn't realize Briz's identity and contradicted the bidding.

After all, in his eyes, these people were no different from ants.

If he were to stoop to their level, it would really lower his status.

Right now, he was already participating in the auction with this group of pariahs. If he were to announce his own family and compete with these pariahs for this resplendent ring, it would probably be too devalued and wouldn't match the prestige of the Navarro family.

Of course, the current focus of Briz wasn't on this resplendent ring, but on the mysterious existence that the Kardas family would be auctioning off.

Although this resplendent ring was a divine artifact, in Briz's eyes, it was just an extremely interesting little toy. It didn't have any practical value at all.

If he really managed to get it, that would be the best. If he didn't manage to get it, Briz naturally wouldn't mind.

After all, who would be angry with a bunch of ants?

Chapter 583: Chapter 584: A Glimpse across the sky, the survival of Doldona!

Just as Briz was bidding for the resplendent ring that could be used without any magical requirements, Doldona finally caught his breath in VIP Room Number 4.

He looked at the void in front of him with some shock.

What kind of existence was that? It was actually able to use an unknown method, almost causing him to collapse.

Fortunately, although Doldona was born in the outer city and was a precious existence, he had undergone a series of arduous training since young in order to take over the Benolu clan. At this moment, although Doldona appeared to be an incomparable silkpants... In the end, he still possessed a mental strength that was even stronger than an ordinary person.

However, it was this kind of Doldona who nearly lost to that terrifying inner demon under the sudden palpitations of his heart.

Doldona would definitely not believe that this frightening inner demon had appeared out of thin air.

This inner demon was so terrifying. There was definitely someone who had intentionally used it on him. Otherwise, its might would also be this terrifying!

Such a powerful inner demon could easily cause a determined ordinary person to instantly go crazy without any preparation.

When he was possessed by that terrifying feeling, Doldona felt as though he was on the gallows of death, and the person who cast this inner demon was the terrifying death god.

The death god was like a skeleton, holding a sharp and very long sickle in his hand as he looked at him with a smile.

It was as though the death god only needed to gently move his fingers to completely kill him!

Doldona lay on the soft sofa made of animal fur, panting heavily.

Only now did he realize how lucky he was to have escaped from the grim reaper's hands.

Doldona had even thought that he would not be able to overcome this hurdle and lose to that terrifying inner demon, thus completely throwing his soul into the abyss.

Fortunately, the present strong-willed Doldona, has been thoroughly survived.

After this experience of the terror of the inner devil Doldona, is also the first time to feel the precious life.

Doldona's experience this time, but also as one of the Benolu family heir, has made him matured a lot!

It was a long while before Doldona, who had regained his mobility, sat up slowly from his reclining position on the sofa.

Having regained control of his body, Doldona could not help but feel delighted.

He looked at his hands, which were slightly pale due to the lack of blood supply due to the pressure, and the corners of his mouth could not help but curl up.

He could clearly feel that after this crisis was over, the benefits brought to him were extremely great!

"My current strength has actually become even stronger!" Doldona said.

His voice was filled with incomparable shock and excitement.

The shock in his eyes was not hidden at all.

At this moment, after Doldona had gained control of his body, he could even clearly feel the movements of every single cell in his body!

This may sound a little vague, but it does prove that Doldona's magic perception has improved a lot. He couldn't feel anything at all, after experiencing this life-and-death crisis, I can also feel it.

Of course, if Doldona knew at this moment that this was merely a casual glance at Doldona from a distance, even he himself would not know how Doldona would react.

Maybe a guy with a slightly weaker tolerance would just pass out?

After all, Doldona had just done it on purpose to disgust Joelson.

If the big families in the inner city of the underground city wanted to crush the Kardas family and the Benolu family in the outer city as easily as crushing an ant, then perhaps Joelson wanted to settle the big families in the inner city, it was also merely the blink of an eye.

Having already reached such a level of strength, even without the help of the giant dragons that he had reared, Joelson could casually reveal two moves. These were existences that the underground city could not withstand.

Of course, there were exceptions.

The moment he entered the underground city, Joelson could vaguely sense an existence that was not inferior to him.

However, this aura was extremely ethereal, and it even carried a hint of uncertainty.

If his power had not reached the peak of the lower god level of Joelson, he probably wouldn't have been able to discover such an existence at all.

For the other party to be able to hide his aura so well, it was likely that he was at least an existence on par with Joelson's power!

Joelson was rather surprised. Why would there be such a powerful existence in this underground city? Could it be that they were stationed here to protect the underground city?

What sort of secret did this enormous underground city hold that an expert who was at least at the peak of the demigod level was actually willing to hide his aura and protect this place.

All of this was something that Joelson didn't know.

All of this was in the future. Right now, the auction was still continuing..

That resplendent gemstone was finally bought by a fat man who was no less famous than a small mustache, at a price of 310,000 snow crystals.

When the big fatty successfully bid for the resplendent ring, the auction house could not help but sigh.

Originally, because the auction house had deliberately set up the lights, as long as they did not make too obvious a move, no one knew who would end up with the resplendent gem. However, this big fatty was incomparably excited, he directly stood up and cheered.

This was the news that caused the resplendent gem to belong to who now, and it was known by everyone present.

After this fatty discovered that he had been exposed, he also covered his mouth in a somewhat embarrassed manner. When he discovered that it was already too late, and everything had already been exposed, he could not help but feel a little flustered and exasperated. He left the auction hall in front of everyone present.

"Nicholas, you have to protect your treasure. Don't let the thief think about it!"

"Yes, yes. I'm afraid that after you are exposed, it won't be the thief who will come. Instead, it will be a brazen robber!"

"Hahahahaha, Nicholas is doomed this time. The life-saving treasure that he spent so much money to bid for was actually known by so many people."

"I'm not afraid of thieves stealing, but I'm afraid of thieves thinking about it! I think Nicholas is going to suffer this time around. Who knows, this bright ring might bring him a calamity that will kill him!"

Quite a number of people looked at the figure of the big fatty named Nicholas as he left. They were all whispering while taking pleasure in his misfortune.

Quite a number of people immediately stood up and followed closely after Nicholas left the scene. It seemed that they already had an idea about the bright ring in Nicholas's hand!

Chapter 584: The Auction Item That Was Added at the Last Minute

Looking at the departing figure of Nicholas, as well as the figure that immediately failed to leave after Nicholas had left, Freya could not help but frown.

As the eldest daughter of the Kardas family, she naturally understood what these fellows that followed closely behind had in mind as they stood up to follow Nicholas.

Although Kardas would protect the safety of the successful buyer in a short period of time, he would also take a secret passage that no one knew the exit to protect Nicholas's safety after taking the items.

However, Nicholas had already exposed his identity as the buyer. As long as he was still in the underground city, the danger he faced would not disappear for a day.

The underground city was not a peaceful place. Even in the inner city, there would still be bloody scenes from time to time.

Freya had already predicted what would happen after Nicholas. At the same time, Freya also silently prayed in her heart. She hoped that this resplendent ring would not enter the Kardas family's auction house to be auctioned again.

If that was the case, there could only be two reasons.

Either Nicholas could not stand the harassment and was willing to hand this resplendent ring back to the Kardas family to be auctioned again.

Or Nicholas was already dead, and the existence that killed him did not need such a resplendent ring that did not require any holding requirements.

Judging from the current situation, Freya felt that there was a high probability that Nicholas would face the second outcome.

After all, most of the people who were able to bid for this resplendent ring did not have any magic power on them, nor did they have any magic talent.

This could not help but be the case. Most of these buyers were relatively wealthy existences in the outer city.

Otherwise, they would not care so much about their own lives. They would be willing to spend a lot of money to buy a defensive magic ring that could release magic without any magic power.

Fuya had heard of Nicholas. After all, the Kardas family had also done a lot of business with Nicholas.

According to Freya's weak memory, she knew that Nicholas's full name was Dadar Mondo Nicholas.

Nicholas specialized in selling gemstones and ornaments in the outer city. Over the years, because of their friendship, he had a lot of business and thus had a lot of wealth.

While carrying out these businesses, Nicholas had also provoked a lot of enemies. Some of them were even existences that would not rest until one of them was dead.

Nicholas was just an unarmed businessman. Other than being rich, Nicholas was just a fat man who could not fight back against threats.

If they didn't hire bodyguards, many street thugs would be interested in Nicholas. No wonder Nicholas was willing to spend so much money, he wanted to buy this ring that could save his life at the critical moment.

Looking at Nicholas's disappearing figure, Freya couldn't help but shake her head helplessly.

To put it bluntly, even if Nicholas died, it had nothing to do with the Kardas family.

As the eldest daughter of the Kardas family, Freya was naturally not a saint. The life and death of a businessman would not affect Freya's emotions.

At this moment, Freya opened her mouth again and said something to the bidders present.

However, just as Freya opened her mouth and was about to speak, the staff member below the stage rushed up. He looked like he was still panting.

The staff member looked extremely anxious. After whispering something into Freya's ear, he bowed deeply and left the stage.

Upon hearing the news from the staff member, the pupils in Freya's large eyes suddenly shrank.

She immediately turned her head and said to the auctioneer below the stage.

"Just now, our family received a new item."

"Because the value of this item is very high, our family planned to hold another auction next time, leaving this item as the finale."

"However, many honored guests have come to our auction, which brings glory to our Kardas family. My father, the current head of the Kardas family, has decided to move this item to this auction in advance!"

"The value of this item is beyond my imagination. Even I have never seen such a magical item before..."

As Freya spoke, the staff behind her had already moved a crystal table up.

On the crystal table, there was a small box-like item, which was covered by a red cloth.

The crystal table looked extremely precious. It seemed like the raw materials used to make the crystal were not inferior quality crystals, but crystals that truly belonged to gemstones.

There were also quite a number of threads on the red cloth. If one took a closer look, they would see that they were all sewn from gold threads!

When Briz and Doldona, who were in VIP Room 3 and VIP Room 4, saw this scene, they could not help but raise their eyebrows at the same time.

Although Briz looked down on the two great clans in the outer city, Briz could feel that the Kardas clan had actually taken out such a grand thing to carry this small box, this thing was definitely not an ordinary existence!

It was even possible that it was something as rare as a phoenix feather or a qilin horn even in the inner city.

Meanwhile, Doldona narrowed his eyes into a slit. For some unknown reason, Doldona had suddenly sensed an extremely dangerous aura from his newly increased magic perception ability!

That terrifying danger was even more terrifying than the inner demon that had suddenly appeared.

"What exactly is this thing? It can actually release a pressure that is not weaker than the inner demon from before?"

"This thing is definitely not simple. I did not expect that the Kardas family would actually be willing to put this thing up for auction. I thought that they would take it for themselves. This is really making me more and more curious."

Doldona felt that things were getting more and more interesting.

Below the stage, Elena looked at the stage that was completely made of gemstone grade crystals. Her big eyes kept blinking.

She turned her head to look at Joelson beside her. She tugged at the corner of his clothes curiously and asked.

"Mr. Joelson, this auction item looks very grand!"

"It must be something of the grand finale, right?"

Joelson stared blankly at the stage, a hint of surprise in his eyes.

It was the first time Elena saw him like this. Before this, Joelson had always been very calm in Elena's perception, and he had never shown any surprise.

Of course, Joelson would be shocked. At this moment, through magic detection, he discovered...

The box on the stage, was actually containing Hades's dragon scales!

Chapter 585: I Can't Really Have Fallen in Love with Joelson, Right...

At this moment, the five pieces of scales that Joelson had given to Mustache, which belonged to Hades, had appeared in the small box on the platform.

Although the small box was a magic tool that could shield one's aura, it was clearly not powerful enough to shield one from Joelson's magic detection.

If even a peak demigod like Joelson could be shielded from it, then the person who created this magic tool would probably be many times more powerful than Joelson?

Based on the magic detection that Joelson had released, he could sense the patterns on the small box wrapped in red cloth. Joelson could clearly tell which one the Mustache had put in earlier.

Could it be that the Mustache had been sold to the Kardas family?

That shouldn't be possible, right?

The Mustache had specifically warned him not to participate in this auction. Could it be that the Mustache was already certain that Joelson would listen to him and not participate in the auction?

If he missed the news of the resplendent gemstone because of this reason, perhaps Joelson would directly roast the Mustache into nothingness.

If the mustached man really wanted some of Joelson's money and sold it to the Kardas auction house, Joelson would only say that the mustached man was extremely stupid.

After all, anyone who was not an idiot would teach the mustached man a lesson after such a series of operations.

"What's going on?"

But at this moment, Joelson frowned slightly.

He had discovered something unusual.

This treasure chest covered by a red cloth actually had a faint scent of blood on it.

Although this scent had been hidden very, very deep. To the extent that even Joelson, who had reached the peak of the demigod level, had almost overlooked it.

But the truth was the truth. Joelson could clearly sense an extremely subtle scent of blood on the veins of this chest.

Back then, when he saw the mustached man put the fragon Scale into the small box, he knew that there was no blood on it!

The precision of his magic detection was incomparable to any equipment or magic in the underground city!

Something must have happened to the mustached man!

That was what Joelson thought in his heart. The magic detection, which was originally only covering the entire auction house, suddenly soared in an extreme time!

Five hundred meters!

One thousand meters!

Two thousand meters!

Five thousand meters!

Soon, the pawnshop located in a remote corner of the underground city appeared in Joelson's mind.

This area was originally very deserted. If it was not for the robbers waiting for business, it would not be surprising if there was not a single person here for a day.

The door of Mustache's pawnshop was tightly shut.

Joelson's magic detection quickly passed through the door.

Blood!

There was blood everywhere!

Joelson raised his eyebrows slightly. Obviously, he didn't know that something like this had happened in Mustache's pawnshop.

The smell of blood was everywhere. The blood stained the walls, stained the table, and stained many of Mustache's "Works of art".

According to the identification of Joelson's magic detection, the blood all came from the same person.

Such a large amount of blood must have drained a person of all his blood, right?

That was what Joelson thought. The owner of this blood had already been sentenced to death by Joelson in his heart.

With such a level of injury, unless it was someone stronger than Joelson, or if Joelson was right beside him before he died, there was almost no way to save him.

As expected, in the next second, the magic detection that Joelson released found the small mustached man's corpse in a corner.

The small mustached man's corpse had already been broken into large and small pieces and was casually thrown into a corner as trash. It looked extremely bloody!

If one were to see this small mustached man, who had some reputation in the underground city, end up in such a state, countless people would probably sigh helplessly.

It was likely that someone knew that Mustache had this treasure. That was why he had killed and looted it after he left.

It was likely that Hades's dragon scales were not what the killer needed. That was why he had sold it to the Kardas auction house.

This was the result that Joelson came up within an instant.

Although Mustache's business in the underground city was not small and his reputation could be considered big in the outer city. He was even bigger than Nicholas.

However, Mustache was still an existence without any combat ability or magic talent.

Anyone who knew some offensive magic, or even as long as they were agile and did not need magic, could easily kill Mustache and complete the killing and looting.

However, to be able to cause such a terrifying amount of blood loss in the pawnshop, he was definitely not an assassin who did not know magic.

Joelson looked towards the direction of the small box on the stage, his eyes filled with indifference.

Although Joelson did not have a good impression of the Mustache. Even had a little disgust.

However, for some reason, Joelson wanted to find the murderer who killed the Mustache and stole his goods.

At this moment, Joelson's eyes narrowed, and a monstrous and terrifying aura was about to erupt.

However, at this moment, Elena's voice sounded from the side. This undoubtedly caused Joelson to immediately wake up from his absent-minded state.

"What's wrong?" Joelson asked.

"Nothing..."

Elena turned her face to the side and said in a coquettish manner.

"Why has Mr. Joelson been absentminded recently? Are you thinking about other girls?"

Joelson scratched his head, confused by Elena's sudden words.

After he entered the underground world, the only three women who had any influence were the innkeeper, Elena, and Freya, who was hosting the auction on the stage.

Although he was indeed a womanizer and had many romantic experiences with countless cute and beautiful girls, at least the current Joelson was still very innocent!

I have been a celibate for the past ten days, I can swear to my dragons!

He thought to himself.

Seeing that he was at a loss, Elena also knew that he wasn't like that.

But for some reason, Elena felt that she was more and more concerned about what he thought.

Even if he didn't pay attention to her, Elena was a little anxious.

Could it be...

That she really fell in love with Joelson?

In the darkness of the auction house, Elena touched her chest with her small hands, feeling a little uneasy.

Chapter 586: The Terrifying Pressure and the Bashful Elena

Just as Elena was thinking about this, Freya did not wait for Elena on stage.

Freya slowly untied the red cloth in front of everyone, and the small box was revealed to everyone.

When they saw that it was just a small box, many people in the ordinary audience started to whisper.

"No way. After talking so much, I was really looking forward to it. I didn't expect it to be just a small box."

"I've seen this small box before in the equipment shop. It only costs 2,000 to 3,000 snow crystal coins to get one."

"No way. The Kardas family actually said that it was very precious?"

"I think there's something wrong with the Kardas family's head..."

As they whispered, many of them understood that the main point was not the box.

"The surrounding people are really stupid. What status does the Kardas family have in the outer city? Why would they need to use tricks to trick you into buying a box at a high price?"

"That's right, that's right. This box is obviously only for storing things, not for auction. Just the box alone is already used with such a high-level item. I'm afraid the items inside won't disappoint us!"

"A single box will cost several thousand snow crystal coins. I'm guessing that the treasures inside will require at least six figures of snow crystal coins before they can be bought."

"Six figures? I don't think so. Up until now, haven't you guys noticed that the transaction volume is getting higher and higher? Although I don't know if it's controlled by the Kardas family, this mysterious treasure will definitely sell for an even higher price!"

"I say, even if it's over a million snow crystal coins, it's still possible!"

"If that's the case, it'll really be an eye-opener!"

Freya looked around the stage and said indifferently.

"Silence."

As the eldest daughter of the Kardas family, Freya's tone was still very imposing. After Freya said that, many people shivered and immediately quieted down.

After all, not everyone had someone to rely on in the underground city. They didn't want to rely on Doldona and the others.

Moreover, their strength wasn't enough to protect them from the wrath of the Kardas family. At this moment, they had to obediently admit defeat. Listening to the eldest daughter of the Kardas family was the best choice.

Freya looked at the scene that immediately quieted down and nodded in satisfaction.

Following that, she directly lifted the lid.

Bang!

Just as Freya lifted the lid, an incomparably terrifying aura directly came from within this exquisite small box!

It was like a shock wave!

Countless people's hearts were suddenly suppressed by this incomparably powerful pressure to the point that they could not breathe!

Even those with slightly weaker physiques directly bled from their seven orifices and fainted on the ground.

If they were not rescued in time, their lives might be threatened!

Countless people looked in the direction of the small box in great shock. Not only were their eyes filled with shock, but there was also fear!

What kind of existence was it? Just by opening the door, it released a terrifying aura that almost caused their hearts to stop!

It was too terrifying!

At this moment, Freya was at the very side of this exquisite small box. She was also the existence who had felt the strongest shock wave.

At this moment, even though Freya possessed a strength that was not inferior to Doldona, she had also lost her composure due to the incomparably terrifying pressure.

Due to the influence of the intense shock wave, Freya directly sat down on the ground. The scenery under the lolita skirt was directly displayed in front of everyone's eyes.

Of course, at this moment, everyone was thrown off their feet by this pressure. How would they have the time to look at such a beautiful scene!

Of course, this was not the case for Joelson.

At this moment, the corner of Joelson's mouth twitched as he watched her fall, revealing her tender white thighs and blue-white knee socks.

Good!

What a beautiful scene!

Freya was indeed a beauty. If it was not for her loli appearance, it was likely that Joelson would have already attacked her.

Unfortunately, if it was Elena who revealed such a beautiful scene to Joelson, he wouldn't have been so polite as to enjoy this delicious meal.

It wasn't impossible to use some time to pause the magic and wait for everything to be over before continuing with the auction

Many thoughts ran through Joelson's mind.

Elena, who was beside Joelson, was protected by his aura. She only fell from her chair and immediately got up from the ground.

Although she looked a little embarrassed, she was much better than the others.

Seeing that Joelson was staring at the bottom of Freya's skirt, Elena subconsciously covered his eyes.

"Don't look, is Mr. Joelson a hooligan?"

Elena's face was red and her eyes were closed tightly. She put her small hands in front of Joelson and said excitedly.

"Cough, cough, cough..."

Joelson hurriedly coughed to ease the awkwardness.

"Elena, you know, she's already an adult."

Elena snorted and turned her small face away. She said to Joelson angrily.

"I've finally seen Mr. Joelson clearly. You're not a gentleman. You're just a lecherous person!"

Hearing this, Joelson could not help but chuckle and directly put his arm around Elena's shoulder.

Joelson's face was directly next to Elena's ear as he slowly said in a deep voice.

"Elena, I have never emphasized that I am a gentleman."

"I will fall for the temptation of a beautiful girl."

"Of course, a beautiful girl of your level is also one of them."

Joelson's voice was very soft and cathartic. It directly traveled through Elena's ears and into her head.

In an instant, Elena seemed to have been struck by lightning. Her entire person was stunned on the spot.

After a long while, Elena finally reacted. Her originally fair little face had become incomparably red due to her shyness.

Elena did not dare to look in the direction of Joelson. She quickly turned her head and said slowly in a voice that only she could hear.

"I hate you... Mr. Joelson..."

"You still have a leg injury that hasn't healed yet..."

"Before your leg is healed, it's best that you don't do any of these..."

Elena's voice was low to begin with. The more she spoke, the less confident Elena became. In the end, she could barely hear.

Looking at Elena's extremely shy appearance, Joelson could not help but laugh out loud. He rubbed Elena's hair with all his might, making Elena's beautiful hair a little messy.

"Elena, I didn't expect to tease you. Your reaction is actually so interesting."

In the messy auction venue, Elena and Joelson were so eye-catching at this moment.

Chapter 587: After the Storm Passes, the Auction Will Continue!

The Kardas family did not expect that just opening this small box with dragon scales would release such a terrifying power!

On the stage, Freya climbed up from the ground in a sorry state. Many staff members quickly came forward to help her up.

After all, Freya represented the face of the Kardas family. She could not afford to make a fool of herself when there were so many important guests in the inner city and the outer city.

Soon, with the help of many staff members, Freya recovered her original appearance. Other than a faint expression on her small face, there were no other problems.

Previously, when she had opened the small box that contained the aura of Hades's dragon scales, Freya was the one closest to it. Naturally, she was the one who had been affected the most.

Fortunately, compared to most of the bidders in the auction venue, Freya's physique and strength were much stronger.

At this moment, this auction house was within the sphere of influence of the Kardas family. Although the Kardas family was originally nothing compared to the existence in the inner city, in the eyes of ordinary people in the outer city... it was a titan.

The moment this disturbance appeared, many staff members and security personnel immediately entered the auction house. The originally dim auction house immediately lit up.

The lighting gemstones used to illuminate the surroundings were fully activated. Every corner of the hall could be seen clearly.

There was no other way. After all, the people participating in the auction were not necessarily good people. If someone wanted to make a name for himself in this riot, it was not something Kardas wanted to see.

Therefore, countless security personnel and staff members were deployed to immediately maintain order in the venue.

Many of the staff members changed the tables and chairs with the help of the staff members.

Although the position of Joelson and Elena was not far from the stage, they were surprisingly not affected at all. Even their chairs did not move at all.

This made many of the staff members feel puzzled, but they did not dare to show it. Otherwise, if they offended someone they should not have offended, their lives would be over.

From the staff members' point of view, it was likely that Joelson and Elena were descendants of large families from the inner city. It was likely that after this riot was over, they would immediately report this news to the management of the Kardas family.

This was not the result that Joelson wanted to see. He raised his eyebrows.

A mysterious spiritual fluctuation swept over a dozen meters in the surrounding area. All the staff members were suddenly stunned. A lost expression appeared in their eyes.

Clearly, a certain memory in their minds had been erased by Joelson.

Joelson's technique of deleting memories was extremely exquisite, to the point that they hadn't discovered any clues at all. They had only thought that they were feeling a little uncomfortable because of the pressure of the dragon scales. And so, they immediately continued their work.

After all, Joelson had the power of a peak demigod. If these staff members of the Kardas family were able to resist Joelson's spiritual power, then the entire underground city would probably be in chaos.

It took roughly ten minutes to maintain order and then repair the entire place.

When the lights dimmed once more, the many bidders began to enter their original positions.

Clearly, after this short period of chaos, the auction was about to continue.

Within the VIP room, both Briz and Doldona opened their eyes at the same time.

Although the dragon scale had indeed created a great pressure and caused them to be in an extremely sorry state, compared to the auctioneers in the hall, Briz and Doldona were in a much better condition.

After a short period of palpitations, both Doldona and Briz revealed a surprised look in their eyes.

Just what was this thing?

It was actually able to release such a terrifying pressure?

The fear that came from the soul level made Doldona feel that it was even more terrifying than the inner demon from before!

Briz's brows were tightly knitted together.

The aura that this thing emitted was even more powerful than the strongest expert that Briz had seen in the inner city.

How could such a treasure appear in the small Kardas Family?

Briz could not understand it no matter how much he thought about it.

However, even if thirty Brizes racked their brains, they still could not think of anything.

On the stage, Freya coughed lightly and focused everyone's attention on Freya once again.

"Everyone, the chaos that was caused earlier was indeed because our Kardas family did not fully understand the information about this thing."

"Initially, we knew that this item was a little intimidating, but we did not expect it to be so terrifying."

"In order to express our loyalty and apology to all of you, all of you who have come to our Kardas auction house this time can receive a membership card from our Kardas auction house. You will receive preferential treatment compared to other bidders."

After Freya finished speaking, the eyes of many bidders below the stage suddenly lit up!

It was actually a membership card of the Kardas auction house!

One had to know that there were very few people in the outer city who could obtain a membership card of the Kardas auction house.

In addition, the families in the inner city looked down on the existence of the Kardas family. As a result, all of the people who had this membership card were those with prominent status in the outer city.

Right now, they had no power or influence. Yet, they were actually able to possess the same membership card. How could they not be excited?

Freya looked at the many excited fellows below the stage. A cold glint involuntarily flashed across her eyes.

Did these fellows really think that they could be on the same level as the big shots in the outer city just because they had obtained their family's membership card?

If they really thought so, Freya would also think that these people were just toads who wanted to eat swan meat!

The membership cards that were compensated to these bidders were all specially made by Kardas and were not standard membership cards.

Although they would receive a little preferential treatment compared to the customers who did not have anything, it was impossible for them to reach the true level of membership.

Of course, someone like Joelson who had a purple-gold card also didn't need a membership card to receive the best treatment from the Kardas family.

The Underground City's money house was both internal and external. This money house that could control the underground city's lifeline was controlled by the true king of the underground city.

It was the proof of the king of the underground city!

Chapter 588: Notify the Family and Prepare a Large Sum of Money!

"Everyone, this is probably the first time you've seen this thing, right?"

"To put it in a slightly embarrassing way, this is also the first time I've seen such an existence."

Freya picked up the small box and showed it to everyone.

Within it, five black dragon scales were faintly flickering with light. A faintly discernible pressure was emitted from within, as if warning everyone that he was the king that everyone looked up to.

"It's extremely well-preserved and has a 100% giant dragon aura!"

"And according to speculation, the owner of this dragon scale is an extremely powerful existence!"

Freya said excitedly.

After all, the strength of the owner of this scale was definitely an existence that she looked up to.

Which girl didn't like strong things?

As long as it was an existence that possessed overwhelming strength, Freya was willing to fall for it.

"Miss Freya, as for the exact strength... how strong is it?"

Below the stage, a bidder asked with great puzzlement.

Many people in the surroundings nodded in agreement when they heard that someone had voiced their doubts.

Freya frowned slightly.

"This is also unreliable information. It was given by an appraiser in our family."

"The level of the mana residue on the dragon's scale has already completely surpassed the realm of laws."

"I'm afraid that it has already surpassed the realm of god's domain and reached an even more unfathomable existence."

Hissss!

When Freya finished speaking, everyone sucked in a breath of cold air!

The owner of this scale was actually so terrifying!

One had to know that even mages in the realm of gods were already kings in their eyes.

As long as they were willing, they could casually destroy an entire city with an expert at the realm of gods.

And the owner of this scale was actually more powerful than an expert at the celestial realm level?

Didn't that mean that...

He had already transcended the mortal world and touched the domain of the gods!

They looked at each other and were extremely shocked.

The scale that existed on the body of a god actually appeared before their eyes at this moment.

This was really too shocking!

Even Briz and Doldona, who were in the VIP room, subconsciously swallowed their saliva.

They finally understood why the Kardas family wanted to let this item jump the queue and be auctioned before the final item.

They also understood why the Kardas family wasn't willing to hide such a terrifying item.

The value of this dragon scale was simply too terrifying. The Kardas family was merely a large family in the outer city of the underground city. In the entire underground city, they weren't even worth a fart. They simply didn't have the qualifications to eat this item.

In this world, there was no such thing as an impenetrable wall. If the news of the Kardas family possessing a dragon scale that surpassed a god-domain expert were to spread out and reach the ears of the people in power of the large families in the inner city, the Kardas family would most likely face a crisis of destruction!

This was not something the Kardas family was willing to see!

Right now, when the major families in the inner city were present, auctioning off this dragon scale was the best choice for the Kardas family!

Under the gazes of everyone present, the inner city family was also present.

They believed that the inner city family would definitely give the Kardas family a satisfactory reward.

The inner-city family was an existence that thought highly of themselves. If they were to openly snatch the Kardas family's things, there might not be any huge consequences. However, in the inner city, there would definitely be other families who would laugh at them.

Briz placed his large hand on his chin and thought rapidly in his heart.

Not long after, he came to a conclusion.

This dragon scale was similar to the resplendent gemstone. No matter how much he had to pay, he had to obtain it!

After saying that, Briz raised his right hand and snapped his fingers in the air.

Pa da!

In the next moment, the space behind Briz suddenly flashed, and a burly middle-aged man in a suit appeared out of thin air.

Previously, other than Joelson, no one had discovered his existence!

How did he appear!

This middle-aged man was clearly obeying Britz's orders. Although the middle-aged man's face was extremely solemn, one could still see the respect he had for Britz from his eyes.

"Young Master, what instructions do you have for me?"

The middle-aged man bowed extremely respectfully before speaking slowly.

"Tell the clansmen that the Kardas family's auction house has produced a dragon scale that surpasses the level of a god domain. I will definitely bid for it and have my clansmen prepare the funds for me."

Briz shot a glance at the middle-aged man behind him before casually giving his orders.

Clearly, Briz was not the least bit surprised by the middle-aged man's sudden appearance.

On the other hand, when the middle-aged man heard Briz's words, his body suddenly trembled. A hint of shock appeared in his eyes as he muttered to himself.

"A dragon scale that surpasses the realm of gods... Huh?"

"I understand, Young Master. I'll go and inform the master right now and report this news."

Suddenly, Briggs thought of something and hurriedly said to the middle-aged man.

"Wait a moment."

"What is it, Young Master Briz?"

"This matter must be kept a secret. No other existence other than Father must know about it. Do you understand?"

The middle-aged man frowned and quickly nodded.

"Let's go."

Briz waved his hand, and the middle-aged man's body flashed again, disappearing from where he was.

The space fluctuated, and the middle-aged man seemed as if he had never appeared.

Briz looked at Freya on the stage, and a faint smile appeared on his face.

"Interesting. Freya, your Kardas family is indeed a very sensible family."

"Your family is just an ant-like family in the outer city. Our Navarro family can easily kill you."

"Even if your Kardas family pays us protection fees, we won't mistreat you."

In Briz's opinion, the outer city, which was barren in the underground city, was an extremely precious existence in the outer city, even if the inner city had given out items casually.

It was a piece of cake to bid for this dragon's scale. One did not even need to use many resources.

Briz looked at Freya, who was standing on the stage, with great interest, waiting for her to announce the auction price for the dragon's scale.

At this moment, Freya on the stage had also displayed the dragon scale to everyone. She placed the small box back on the crystal table.

The dragon scale that had fallen off Hades's body was about to be auctioned!

Chapter 589: A New Bidder

"I'm sure you all know that this dragon scale is a priceless treasure. It's not enough to prove its value by using money. Therefore, in this auction, not only can we use snow crystal coins to bid, but we can also use items of equal value to barter. We can also get this dragon scale."

Freya continued to speak to the crowd.

"The bidding starts at 10,000 snow crystal coins. Each increment must not be less than 10,000 snow crystal coins!"

After Freya finished speaking, the number 10,000 appeared on the big screen behind her.

Obviously, the auction had already begun!

Everyone was a little shocked. Although they knew the value of this dragon scale, the starting price of 10,000 snow crystal coins still made them somewhat hesitant.

"100,000 snow crystal coins."

At this moment, a voice came from the corner.

On the big screen behind Freya, the number of 10,000 snow crystal coins was immediately increased by 0, turning into 100,000.

Raising the price by 90,000 snow crystal coins in one go, everyone's eyes widened.

This caused the starting price to increase tenfold. It had to be said that ordinary people like them could not imagine the world of the rich!

The price of 100,000 snow crystal coins only lasted for a short while before another voice suddenly sounded.

"150,000 snow crystal coins."

Another voice was transmitted over.

"200,000 snow crystal coins."

"210,000 snow crystal coins."

This voice, which had originally placed a bid, seemed to be a little angry when he heard someone snatching the dragon scale from him. He placed another bid.

"250,000 snow crystal coins."

The owner of the voice seemed to have confirmed that the dragon scale had already entered his pocket. There was not the slightest fluctuation in his voice. It was as though what was thrown out was not money but an ordinary letter.

Everyone's eyes widened. They did not expect that the auction would actually be able to be like this.

Raising the bid by tens of thousands of snow crystal coins at one go had already exceeded their imagination.

At this moment, Doldona, who was in VIP Room 4, also started to bid.

"500,000 snow crystal coins."

This voice directly resounded throughout the entire auction hall. In an instant, the entire auction hall was extremely quiet.

Doldona was indeed worthy of being the most powerful Benolu family in the outer city, other than the Kardas family!

With just a random bid, he had doubled the price of 250,000 snow crystal coins!

Hiissss!

Everyone sucked in a breath of cold air.

At this moment, they finally understood what it meant to be rich.

This auction was probably not something they could participate in.

In VIP Room 3, seeing Doldona bid 500,000 snow crystal coins, Briz couldn't help but find it funny.

500,000 snow crystal coins?

As expected of an ant in the outer city of the underground city.

Don't tell me that you all think that 500,000 snow crystal coins is a lot?

No way. No way?

Just when all the bidders present thought that Doldona would bid 500,000 snow crystal coins for the dragon scale, Briz made an indifferent bid.

"2,000,000 snow crystal coins, plus the friendship of the Navarro family."

Briz's words directly caused everyone to open their mouths in shock!

Just a moment ago, Doldona had only doubled the price of 250,000 snow crystal coins to 500,000 snow crystal coins.

This was at most a sky-high price that everyone looked up to.

However, no one had expected that the Navarro family in the inner city would also make a move to compete for this dragon scale!

The moment she opened her mouth, the price of 500,000 snow crystal coins skyrocketed to 2,000,000!

It was four times the price!

Freya's eyes widened, and her small mouth opened in shock.

She had thought that Briz would bid, but she did not expect that he would bid so much at once!

One must know that even the Kardas family might not be able to take out 2,000,000 snow crystal coins!

Behind Freya, the number on the big screen had just changed from 250,000 to 500,000. Not long after that, it immediately changed to 2,000,000!

It was too terrifying!

Everyone felt their chests tighten as they couldn't breathe.

Including Doldona who was in VIP room No. 4, he was extremely shocked.

Only now did he know that there was a young master from the Navarro family in the VIP room next to him!

Indeed, the families in the inner city could not be compared with those in the outer city. The price that they casually offered included the existences that the Kardas family and the Benolu family had to look up to.

These 2 million snow crystal coins were enough to shock everyone. What made them even more excited was the friendship between the Navarro family that Briz had mentioned!

The friendship between the Navarro family!

Even in the entire inner city, it was an extremely heavy gift!

Many people cast envious gazes towards the mysterious dragon scale master.

To be able to gain the friendship of the Navarro family, it was worth more than 2,000,000 snow crystal coins!

After all, in the inner city, even 2,000,000 snow crystal coins could not buy the friendship of the Navarro family!

Looking at the envious gazes around him, Joelson could not help but feel extremely puzzled.

Why did everyone care more about the friendship of the Navarro family than 2,000,000 snow crystals?

Could it be that this family was extremely powerful in the underground city?

In VIP Room No. 3, seeing the chaos in the auction hall, Briz nodded his head in satisfaction.

This was the reaction he wanted to see.

The ants in the outer city were shocked beyond words by his random price.

This feeling made Briz feel extremely superior.

At this moment, on the big screen behind Freya, the number of two million was displayed. The countdown had begun.

The auction venue was incomparably quiet.

Everyone was staring at the countdown.

As long as the countdown ended, the dragon scale would belong to the Navarro family.

Everyone looked at the 2 million snow crystal coins on the large screen, feeling a deep sense of helplessness.

2 million snow crystal coins was a sum that they would not be able to earn in their entire lives.

At this moment, the countdown had already reached 30 seconds.

In the VIP room, Briz was looking at everything in satisfaction.

He was quietly waiting for time to pass.

It was as though this place belonged to the Navarro family.

However, just as the countdown was about to reach 10 seconds, a voice suddenly sounded out.

"3,000,000 gold coins."

The countdown on the big screen suddenly paused, and the numbers changed once again!

"Who is it!"

Briz was clearly extremely furious because someone had made a bid and provoked their Navarro family.

"Glenn family, do you have any objections?"

A leisurely female voice slowly sounded out from the 2nd VIP Room.

Chapter 590: Three Magical Beast Eggs! 9,500,000 Snow Crystal Coins!

"Who is it!"

Briz was obviously extremely furious because someone had made a bid to provoke their Navarro family.

"Glenn family, do you have any objections?"

From the second VIP room, a leisurely female voice slowly sounded out.

Glenn family!

Hearing these words, Briz Navarro who was about to explode with rage was suddenly stunned.

"You are Amys Glenn!"

Briznavarro said in shock.

"Young Master from Navarro family, do you have any dissatisfaction with our Glenn family?"

"If you do, you can bring it up."

The voice from the 2nd VIP Room carried a hint of arrogance, as if she didn't put Briznavarro who came from the inner city in his eyes at all.

"No..."

"I'm just very surprised. I didn't expect the Glenn family to participate in this auction."

Briz forcefully suppressed the fury in his heart as he spoke in a low voice.

Amys Glenn.

The eldest daughter of the Glenn family. Her status was incomparably high compared to Briz's own status.

Although the Navarro family was one of the top families in the inner city, it was nothing compared to the Glenn family.

In the entire inner city, there were only five or six people who could compare to the Glenn family.

Although Briz was very angry, he didn't dare to get angry with Amys.

If Amys really told the Glenn family, the Navarro family wouldn't have a good ending!

"Since you don't have any objections, let's continue."

Amys's voice echoed throughout the auction hall.

Many people raised their heads to look at the ceiling, subconsciously swallowing their saliva.

Another young lady from the inner city...

This time, the line-up of bidders in the auction was too extravagant.

They didn't even dare to stay here any longer, afraid that they would anger the two gods in the VIP Rooms.

Even Freya, who was on stage, had an unnatural expression on her face.

Although the family had told Freya that there were important customers from the inner city, Freya had never expected that there would be two young masters and young ladies from the inner city.

Although Freya could be considered as the young lady of the Kardas family, compared to her status, she wasn't even qualified to shine shoes for the two people in the VIP Rooms!

As the host of the auction house, the Kardas family would naturally keep the identities of all the VIP guests in the VIP area a secret. As long as they weren't willing to reveal their identities, even Freya wouldn't be able to know who they were.

Fortunately, at this moment, Freya's role on the stage was to introduce the items for auction.

The process of the auction was left to the big screen behind Freya.

Otherwise, if Freya accidentally angered one of the noblemen in the VIP Rooms, the entire Kardas family would be in big trouble.

Doldona, who was in the VIP room, did not even dare to breathe loudly.

He did not expect that there were two gods besides his VIP Room.

Thinking of the attitude he had displayed in front of everyone, Doldona felt extremely regretful.

These two young masters and young ladies from the inner city had probably treated him like a circus monkey.

The numbers on the big screen behind Freya were still jumping.

The auction was still continuing.

"Miss Amys, this is a fair auction. Am I right?"

Briz asked with a dark face.

"Of course. If you have enough capital to bid higher than our Glenn family, then you can do as you please."

Amys was extremely confident.

After all, the wealth of the Navarro family was like a star next to the bright moon in the eyes of the Glenn family.

If he wanted to rely on his wealth to defeat the Glenn family, it could be said that Briz was daydreaming.

"Hahahaha, interesting, the two of you."

Just as Amys and Briz were still fighting, another voice came from VIP Room 1.

Doldona, seeing this, knew at once that it was another master from the inner city.

There were so many surprises that Doldona was completely unimpressed.

"Bolen Elizabeth?"

Said Amys scowling.

The Elizabeths, an existence no less worthy of the Glenn family.

There's an Elizabeth hiding in VIP Room 1.

This caused Glenn to be somewhat surprised.

She didn't expect that this young master from the Elizabeth family would actually hide for such a long time.

It seemed that he was very shrewd!

At this moment, Briz's face was even darker.

A person from the Glenn family, Amys, had already caused him a huge headache. Now, there was the Elizabeth family.

The strength of the two families far surpassed that of Navarro. Right now, it could be said that Briz didn't have the ability to speak at all.

It was not just Briz. Everyone below the stage did not even dare to breathe loudly.

Although they were only commoners in the outer city, they had heard of the large families that were well-known in the inner city.

A large family of this level was an existence that could not be touched.

Even if they were unhappy with a single glance from him, the entire outer city would suffer!

Damn it, why would such a small auction attract so many people from the inner city?

Even Freya, who was on stage, could not understand.

Although the dragon scale was precious, it was actually not of much use, right?

At most, it was just a decoration. Why were so many inner city families fighting over it?

Bolen's voice came from VIP Room 1.

"I don't have a lot of snow crystal coins on hand right now, but I do have some treasures."

"Host Freya, you said that bartering can also be auctioned, right?"

Freya was stunned. She hurriedly nodded.

"As long as you can bring out items of sufficient value, you can still participate in the auction."

"In that case, I will offer you three pet eggs of a god-ranked magical beast."

As soon as Bolen finished speaking, Amys and Briz, who were in the VIP area, simultaneously narrowed their eyes.

Three pet eggs of a god-ranked magical beast?

These things were not cheap!

Even in the black market, a single one would cost at least 3,000,000 snow crystal coins or more.

And this was an existence that was priceless!

One had to know that god-realm weapons could at most help him add some icing on the cake and increase his combat power.

On the other hand, after nurturing three god-realm pet magic beast eggs, they would directly have three god-realm experts!

The difference between these two was self-evident!

After Bolen announced that he was going to use three deity domain ranked magical beast pet eggs for the auction, a staff member carefully carried three pitch-black pet eggs to the stage.

Meanwhile, the large screen behind Freya was also very considerate, giving a close-up of the three pet eggs.

This allowed everyone present to see the appearance of the egg clearly.

Joelson's magic detection slowly headed in the direction of the magical beast eggs.

Very quickly, Joelson came to a conclusion.

"It's the gale wolf's egg."

Joelson said calmly.

The gale wolf was a type of magical beast that lived in packs in the forest. It had a similar bloodline to the snowfield wolves that lived in the snowy plains.

Similarly, they liked to live in packs and hunt in teams.

As soon as they were born, they possessed the strength of the deity domain. When they reached adulthood, they could even fight until they reached the peak of the deity domain.

It was rumored that the windstorm wolf, which had undergone some mutations, could break through the peak of the deity domain and reach an even more powerful level.

However, it was clear that the three magical beast eggs that Bolen had taken out did not show any signs of mutation.

Looking at the three magic beast eggs, both Briz and Amys's faces turned black.

One magic beast egg was worth at least three million snow crystal coins. And the three magic beast eggs before their eyes were worth at least nine million snow crystal coins!

Nine million snow crystal coins. Compared to the three million snow crystal coins that Amys offered, it was three times more!

How terrifying!

Very quickly, the staff brought the appraiser to the stage to appraise the three magic beast eggs. Finally, they gave a total price of nine million and five hundred thousand snow crystal coins for the three magic beast eggs.

On the big screen behind them, a number of 9.5 million snow crystal coins slowly appeared.

When everyone saw this number, their hearts felt as if they had been grabbed by a big hand.

Briz was waiting anxiously. Right now, as long as he waited for the middle-aged man to bring back the news, perhaps he would have the qualifications to bid against Bolen and Amys.

Otherwise, with Briz's wallet alone, he would not be able to compete against Bolen and Amys.

However, he still had to bid for the resplendent gem later. He had to leave enough money as a backing. Otherwise, when the time came to bid, if he didn't have enough money, he would feel like crying.

At this moment, the space behind Briz suddenly trembled.

The middle-aged man in a suit immediately appeared.

"Young Master, the master has already agreed."

"The master has specially instructed that as long as we can take down this dragon scale, it doesn't matter even if we don't want that resplendent gem!"

The middle-aged man respectfully handed a golden card to Briz.

A golden card, an existence of a higher level than the purple-gold card!

Hearing what the middle-aged man said, Briz's brows lit up.

His father was indeed the head of the family. He was decisive in doing things!

The seriously ill young miss of the royal family needed this dragon scale. As long as he brought it to her, the status of the Navarro family might rise in the inner city!

It was even possible for him to surpass the Glenn family and the Elizabeth family!

As for the legendary Lorna, he might not be able to gain any benefits from obtaining the resplendent gemstone!

After weighing the pros and cons, the head of the Navarro family quickly made his decision!

He directly handed over the family's available funds to Briz!

Looking at the brilliant golden card in his hand, Briz's lips curled into an interesting smile.

Fortunately, he had the foresight to ask the middle-aged man to immediately apply for financial assistance.

Although this dragon scale was precious, it was clear that the Glenn family and the Elizabeth family would not stoop down and snatch it for his sake.

However, the resplendent gem that followed was different.

Therefore, if he was able to bid for this dragon scale and bring it back to the inner city, it would be an extremely important good thing for the Navarro family!

With this thought in his heart, Briz immediately placed a bid.

"The two of you are right. This is an auction. The highest bidder will get it!"

"I'll bid 10 million snow crystal coins and a demigod bow and arrow."

Briz said calmly.

On the stage, Freya, Amys, and Bolen all raised their eyebrows at the same time!

Although 10 million snow crystal coins was a lot, in the eyes of Amys, Bolen, and the others, it wasn't an exaggerated figure. What truly shocked them was the demigod bow and arrow that Briz had mentioned in the second half of his sentence!

According to what they knew, a weapon that had completely surpassed the peak of the deity domain, but had yet to reach the god rank, was called a demigod rank weapon.

Weapons of this rank were priceless even in the underground city's inner city.

As long as such a weapon appeared, it could easily fetch a price of tens of millions of snow crystal coins!

Now that Briz had chosen to take out a demigod weapon, they could not help but be extremely shocked.

Although it was not that their family did not have such a weapon, it was obvious that they would not pay such a huge price for the dragon scale.

Navarro himself was not as rich as their family. Now that he had taken out a demigod weapon, it seemed that he was determined to get it and had invested a lot of money.

On the stage, Freya was at a loss for words.

The big screen behind her had also changed from 9.5 million snow crystal coins to nothingness.

After all, it was not easy to calculate the price of a demigod-level weapon.

Amys and Bolen were silent for a moment before they announced that they were giving up.

After all, there were still resplendent gemstones after this. They were not willing to pay such a huge price for this piece of dragon scale.

Within the VIP Room, Bolen put down the exquisite teacup in his hand and slowly spoke.

"Since this little brother from the Navarro family likes this dragon scale so much, I'll give it to you."

Amys's voice followed closely behind.

"I'll give it to you. I just don't know if your family's wallet will be enough to compete for the resplendent gem in the future."

Briz smiled faintly.

“I’m sorry. I represent our family to withdraw from the auction this time. It’s enough for me to get these dragon scales.”

After Briz finished speaking, Freya, who was on the stage, hurriedly reacted and said.

“Congratulations to the distinguished guest from VIP Room 3 for successfully bidding for these five dragon scales!”

Briz handed the brilliant golden card in his hand to the middle-aged man. At the same time, he instructed the middle-aged man to bring over the semi-divine artifact from his family.

Although he had already completed the auction, he did not intend to leave the VIP Room.

After that, it would be the fight for the resplendent gemstone. Briz really wanted to know what kind of sky-high price this key that could lead to Lorna would fetch!

After the auction of the dragon scales ended, the auction hall finally regained its tranquility.

In VIP Room No. 3 where Briz was, the middle-aged man in a suit brought the golden card and the demigod weapon in his hand and went to the depths of the auction house of the Kardas family to handle the formalities.

Right at this moment, an extremely inconspicuous strand of magical energy attached itself to the middle-aged man’s body.

This magical energy was extremely tiny. Most likely, even ordinary demigods, or even peak-stage demigods like Joelson, wouldn’t be able to sense it.

The middle-aged man, whose strength was only at the deity realm level, naturally wouldn’t be able to sense that he had been marked and followed.

The marked person was none other than Joelson.

He wanted to know who had killed Mustache and given him the five dragon scales in exchange for his reward.

If he had not met this fellow, Joelson might have let him off the hook.

After all, he did not have much of a relationship with Mustache. It was a little ridiculous for him to specifically seek revenge for Mustache.

However, since the other party had chosen to auction the dragon scales in the auction venue, it meant that the owner of the dragon scales, who had killed Mustache, was also in the auction venue at this moment.

If he wanted to know the other party's true identity, he would have to follow the middle-aged man in the suit.

After the middle-aged man left the VIP area, he immediately went to the counter that the Kardas family had specially set up to handle the formalities.

They were from the Navarro family in the inner city. Of course, they had the service staff of the Kardas family that was especially used to receiving them.

"I'm here to handle all the formalities for the young master."

The middle-aged man didn't waste any more words and directly handed the gold card in his hand to the etiquette lady in front of him.

The etiquette lady received the gold card with great respect. After deducting the price of 10 million snow crystal coins from the card, she looked at the middle-aged man again.

"I've already given the order for the semi-divine artifact that young master mentioned in the auction. The item will be delivered in about half an hour."

The middle-aged man spoke faintly.

"Alright. I will wait for your good news here."

The etiquette lady nodded.

This reaction involuntarily caused the middle-aged man to feel a headache. He originally thought that with the face of the Navarro clan in the inner city, he would be able to take away the five dragon scales without having to bring over the semi-divine weapon.

However, it seemed that the other party would only be willing to hand over the dragon scales after obtaining the semi-divine weapon.

If there were no other inner city families around, perhaps Briz would have beaten up this Miss Etiquette and snatched the draconic scale away when he heard that she dared to speak to the people from the inner city in such a manner.

It was even possible that the demigod artifact would stand them up.

However, the Glenn family and the Elizabeth family were currently in the VIP area. It was likely that their family had sent out many spies to protect them when these two noble existences walked out of the inner city.

Perhaps, they had spies in the surrounding areas.

If their Navarro family's reputation of bullying the weak was discovered by them, they would definitely make a big fuss about it.

At that time, the Navarro family's position in the inner city would likely become even more dangerous.

This was also something that the middle-aged man absolutely did not wish to see.

Looking at the etiquette young lady before him, who was not the least bit afraid of him, and even the middle-aged man having such a thought, this etiquette young lady was most likely also a spy in the inner city.

Otherwise, as an expert at the divine realm level, how could he not be afraid of himself.

With this thought in his heart, the middle-aged man subconsciously emitted some aura as he approached the etiquette miss.

However, when the aura that the middle-aged man released just approached the etiquette miss, a huge wave of magic power directly devoured it.

The etiquette lady, who was originally wearing a professional smile, had a gloomy expression on her face.

"Damn you, this old lady has already cooperated with your performance so much, why do you still have so many things to do?"

"Let me tell you, this old lady only wants to do her part well, and doesn't want to do anything troublesome."

"Kid, if you want me to do something troublesome, do you believe that after returning to the inner city, I won't personally come to your Navarro clan and teach you a lesson?"

This etiquette young lady who had suddenly gone berserk grabbed the middle-aged man's collar and fiercely said to him.

That gentle fake smile of a professional seemed as if it had never appeared before, as if she had always been this irritable.

At this moment, the middle-aged man's heart was incomparably on the verge of collapse.

Good heavens, this fellow in front of him was indeed a spy of the Glenn family or the Elizabeth family.

Moreover, this big sister's strength had completely surpassed his own.

The middle-aged man's strength had only reached the middle-stage of the deity realm.

And the person in front of him, who was pretending to be an etiquette lady, had at least reached the high stage of the deity realm.

Although it was said that there was only a small stage, the actual gap between them was so great that only those who had reached the god realm would know how great it was.

The middle-aged man was like a shriveled chicken. He hurriedly raised his hands and surrendered.

He could be considered to have admitted defeat. Facing a high-level expert of the divine domain, he did not have the qualifications to fight back.

If this etiquette lady wanted to kill him, the middle-aged man before him would have long since become a corpse.

"We'll continue to handle the formalities after the demigod artifact is delivered."

The middle-aged man hurriedly said.

Only then did the etiquette lady release the middle-aged man and reveal her professional fake smile once again.

"In that case, I'll be waiting for your good news."

Looking at the smile on the etiquette lady's face, the middle-aged man only felt a chill run down his spine.

Fortunately, he didn't act arrogant in front of this big sister. Otherwise, the lesson that this big sister gave him wouldn't be so simple.

After the middle-aged man waited for over ten minutes, the Navarro clan members immediately sent over the semi-divine weapon.

After the etiquette lady checked that the semi-divine weapon was correct, she directly handed the small box containing the five dragon scales to the middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man was just about to open the box to inspect the goods when he was glanced at by the etiquette lady.

“If you want to inspect the goods, then get the hell out of here to inspect the goods. If you let the pressure of the dragon scale mess up this place and cause me to be complained about, you will suffer a good end.”

After hearing the etiquette lady’s words, the middle-aged man only opened a crack. After confirming that it was the dragon scale inside, he hurriedly closed the box and immediately left the processing area.

At this moment, the magic power of Joelson was transferred from the middle-aged man to the lady.

She did not notice it at all!

After the middle-aged man left, the etiquette lady continued to wait on the spot.

After another few minutes, a young man wearing a luxurious gown slowly appeared.

“Are you the auctioneer of the dragon scale?”

The etiquette lady’s face once again revealed that professional fake smile.

The young man in the luxurious gown nodded, but did not say a word, and directly stretched out his hand.

The meaning was simple, the item had already been sold, and it should be time to pay.

The ceremonial young lady was only pretending, and when she saw how rude the other party was, an unnoticeable vein appeared on her face.

It could be seen that the other party’s attitude made the ceremonial young lady want to beat him up.

However, the identity of Miss Etiquette could not be exposed at the moment. This time, she came to the outer city because she had a special mission to complete. Although she really wanted to take care of this young man in front of her, she finally took a deep breath, she still held it in.

“Please wait a moment. This is the semi-divine weapon that the Navarro family has just sent over. Please keep it well. Our financial department is deducting the related fees. We will be able to hand over the rest of the money to you in about five minutes.”

The etiquette lady said with a fake smile. It was obvious that she was suppressing her anger.

Joelson, who was possessing the etiquette lady, frowned.

Why was this little girl so irritable? What was her background?

However, Joelson did not intend to place his focus on the etiquette lady. Although the etiquette lady possessed the strength of a high-level divine domain expert, she was still not a threat in front of Joelson.

Without any hesitation, the spell that Joelson released changed its target and possessed the luxurious young man.

Based on Joelson's investigation, this young man appeared to be in his early twenties. He possessed the strength of a low-level divine domain expert. Since he possessed such strength at this age, it seemed that he was an existence with an illustrious status in the inner city, right?

The luxurious man's face was also a little impatient, but he still chose to wait.

Five minutes later, a staff member arrived in the room behind the etiquette lady. He took out a golden card and handed it to the luxurious young man in front of him.

The luxurious young man clicked his tongue. He did not say anything else and directly turned around to leave.

The moment the luxurious young man left the room.

The moment his magic landed on the body of the luxurious young man, Joelson's magic burst forth!

Space conversion!

The moment the door was opened, the luxurious young man was instantly surrounded by a sense of weightlessness. After opening the door, he was clearly on the way out of the auction house of the Kardas family. Right now, he had indeed fallen into the endless black abyss!

"What's going on!"

The luxurious young man was also shocked by this sudden change as he spoke with incomparable fear.

"That dragon scale, how did you obtain it?"

A voice directly sounded from all directions.

Joelson's voice had been blurred and it was impossible to distinguish his gender and age.

Although the people in the underground city basically did not know of Joelson's existence, it was still best to be careful and try not to expose his identity as much as possible.

Hearing this voice, the luxurious youth subconsciously swallowed a mouthful of saliva.

But very quickly, he recovered from his originally frightened appearance.

Who was he? He was a famous playboy in the inner city.

With the support of the inner city family, there were not many people in the entire inner city who dared to make a move against him. He did not expect that there was actually someone who had the courage to kidnap him now.

Was he not afraid that his family would come and settle the score?

Or perhaps, this fellow did not know that he was the young master of the inner city, which was why he had taken action to kidnap him?

The luxurious young man's brain instantly spun rapidly and immediately came to this conclusion.

This fellow had kidnapped him completely because he had sold the mysterious dragon scale. Moreover, he did not know that he was an existence of the inner city family.

When such a fellow came to settle the score with the family, he might not even know how he died!

"You dare to threaten me?"

"Let me tell you, I'm the second young master of the inner city's Elizabeth family. If you dare to touch a single hair on my head, my family's people will definitely make you pay ten times, a hundred times, or even a thousand times the price!"

The luxurious youth snorted coldly.

In the outer city of the underground city, the word 'inner city' was the best signboard. Moreover, he was from the top few existences in the inner city, the Elizabeth family.

When the other party heard the words 'Elizabeth,' his heart would definitely collapse!

He was actually so unlucky to have kidnapped the young master of the Elizabeth family. This time, he was doomed!

He had to quickly release this young master and treat him well. Otherwise, if the Elizabeth family were to find out, they would probably not let him off!

At this moment, the luxurious man was already starting to imagine the thoughts in Joelson's mind.

But would Joelson really think that way?

In the next moment, Joelson used his actions to reply to the luxurious man.

An extremely fast magic power, incomparably sharp!

This magic power directly flashed across the noble man's shoulder. In the blink of an eye, one of the noble man's arms disappeared!

A large amount of blood directly flowed out from the noble man's exquisite clothes!

The nobleman looked at his missing right arm in a daze. In the next moment, his pupils suddenly shrunk to the size of a pinhole!

"Ahhhhhh!"

The nobleman covered his missing right arm in pain and shouted.

He could not believe that Joelson would actually dare to hurt him!

Moreover, he was so vicious that he cut off one of his arms without saying a word!

Although there were many treasures in the inner city that could allow his right hand to grow back, this meant that the magic power stored in his right hand would disappear forever!

He was originally a stubborn profligate in the Elizabeth family and did not like to cultivate magic. His entire cultivation base was forcefully built up by relying on various medicinal herbs.

Now that he had lost his right hand, even if he could grow back in the future, it would be impossible for him to reach his original strength.

Thinking of this, the eyes of the luxurious man could not help but be filled with hatred!

This damned fellow!

I'll tell the family and have you dismembered into ten thousand pieces!

"How did you get that dragon scale?"

Joelson's voice sounded once again from the space, but there was still no emotion in his voice.

It was incomparably cold!

“How did you get your hands on that dragon scale?”

Joelson’s voice rang out from within the space once again. There was still no emotion in his voice.

Hearing Joelson’s voice ring out once again, the luxurious young man’s body could not help but tremble.

Could it be that this fellow did not even know about the inner city and outer city?

Once this thought appeared in the luxurious man’s mind, he couldn’t get rid of it.

After all, in the underground city, who didn’t know about the Elizabeth family in the inner city?

But if this individual in front of him was from the outside world...

The Elizabeth family and the Glenn family would probably be completely useless!

The luxurious young man subconsciously swallowed a mouthful of saliva, not caring about his right arm that was still bleeding.

“Sir, I think there must be some misunderstanding!”

He looked at the endless darkness around him and said with great difficulty.

“Although I don’t know why you are here, I think you must be merciful. Our Elizabeth family is one of the top families in the inner city of the underground city. If you need anything, just let me know and I will definitely hand it over to you!”

“I’ll ask you one last time. If you don’t answer, the next time will be when your neck is separated from your head.”

Joelson’s voice was like the god of death, causing the luxurious man’s entire body to tremble.

He finally understood that the other party wasn’t here for his family at all. It was all because of that dragon scale!

“I... I’ll speak!”

“Please spare my life!”

“I’ll tell you everything!”

In the choice question of dignity and life, as the famous hedonist of the Elizabeth family, it was clear that the luxurious young man did not hesitate at all.

When he heard that there were no more sounds and magic coming from the surroundings, the luxurious young man hurriedly told him how he had obtained the dragon scale.

It turned out that the mustached man had originally intended to offer the dragon scale to the imperial family in the inner city to curry favor with them. However, he had just left when he was caught by the group of luxurious young men who had come to participate in the Kardas family auction.

The luxurious young man was the silkpants of his family. It was completely not his turn to participate in this auction. He had come to accompany the current successor, Bolen Elizabeth.

Seeing that the mustached man actually possessed such a good treasure, the luxurious young man began to harbor evil thoughts in his heart.

He also knew that if he were to snatch the mustached man's treasure, if this news were to spread, it would definitely cause the Elizabeth family to be laughed at. He would also suffer the fury of the elders in his family.

Hence, he directly found a few outlaws from the outer city and directly entered Mustache's pawn shop to kill him. This way, the dragon scale would also end up in the hands of this luxurious young man.

"Sir..."

The luxurious young man said with snot and tears.

"This is all that happened. I deserve to die!"

"Please bear in mind that I am speaking the truth. Please spare my life for the sake of the Elizabeth family."

However, just as the luxurious youth was about to say the next sentence, his vision suddenly blurred.

In an instant, his body turned into dust, the raging flames directly burning his body into ashes.

Although the mustached man did not have the slightest bit of friendship with Joelson, having a greedy heart for anything belonging to him was a death sentence!

After doing all this, Joelson slowly opened his eyes.

From an outsider's perspective, after the luxurious young man left the auction, he had completely disappeared. There was no way he would suspect Joelson.

On the stage, Freya took a deep breath and slowly opened her eyes.

A solemn expression flashed across her eyes.

She knew that the next item was extremely important to the Kardas family and even the entire inner city of the underground city.

"The next item will be the last item in this auction."

"I believe that everyone has already seen his figure on the flyer."

"The key to Lorna. The resplendent gem."

Freya suddenly opened her eyes and looked at everyone below the stage.

"To be able to go to Lorna, I believe that all of you know how important this resplendent gem is."

"Next, Freya will not waste any more words. Everyone, please prepare for the auction."

"This item is an auction item that a mysterious existence has entrusted to our Kardas family. According to his request, we can also use precious items to exchange for it."

"The starting price isn't set. Our Kardas family has taken the initiative to set the price to 50,000 snow crystal coins each time. I hope everyone can understand."

After saying that, Freya bowed deeply to everyone. Then, she asked the staff to push out a cabinet.

Among them, there was a gemstone the size of a human head that was shining with resplendent light.

It was the first time that everyone saw the real object of the resplendent gemstone. They could not help but swallow their saliva.

The resplendent gemstone lived up to its name. It was indeed too beautiful!

Compared to the bright ring from before, this resplendent gemstone was probably the one that could truly be called bright.

Freya slowly left the stage.

The final item was given to the big screen behind her. Even if Freya was the eldest daughter of the Kardas family, she did not have the qualifications to host such a high-level transaction.

“Why is everyone so shy? They’re all bidding.”

At this moment, Bolen Elizabeth, who was in VIP Room Number 1, spoke faintly.

“As a family that can be ranked within the inner city, our Elizabeth’s bid naturally has to match his status.”

“So...”

“On behalf of the Elizabeth family, I bid 50 million snow crystal coins.”

50 million snow crystal coins!

Hissssss!

Everyone present sucked in a breath of cold air!

One had to know that during the auction of the five dragon scales, only the Navarro family had bid 10 million snow crystal coins and a demigod artifact.

However, the Elizabeth family had actually increased their bid by five times!

And this was only the starting bid!

According to the rules of the auction given by the Kardas family, if anyone wanted to obtain this resplendent gemstone, they had to pay a higher price than the Elizabeth family!

On the large screen, a total of 8 digits appeared.

50,000,000

Looking at this ridiculous number, Elena’s jaw dropped.

This was the first time she had seen such a ridiculous number.

In the eyes of rich people, was money so worthless?

She pursed her lips, and there was a bit of disappointment in her eyes.

Fifty million snow crystal coins was not a price that she could afford.

In VIP Room No. 1, Bolen was currently watching everything in the auction hall with interest.

At this moment, his eyes were filled with a sense of victory.

Bartering?

Why did they need to barter?

Although the Elizabeth family had many treasures that could not be measured with money, the current snow crystal coins were even more useless to them.

As one of the largest families in the inner city, Elizabeth's wealth could be said to be unlimited.

It could even be said that as long as he opened his mouth, he could have as many snow crystal coins as he wanted.

As long as Elizabeth used her personal relationships, she could even easily destroy the economic lifeline of the entire underground city.

Of course, the inner city's royal family would not allow the Elizabeth family to do so.

However, such an exaggerated power also proved from another perspective that the Elizabeth family possessed a terrifying wealth!

Just using snow crystal coins was enough to easily drown people to death!

Just when Bolen thought that no one present could fight, a voice sounded from the hall.

"60 million snow crystal coins!"

This voice did not come from the VIP area, but from the crowd below the stage.

When Joelson heard this voice, he could not help but raise his eyebrows, and a playful smile appeared on his lips.

From the looks of it, the big families in the inner city were not the only ones who had made up their minds to take away the resplendent gemstones.

And the number on the stage had also changed from 50 million to 60 million.

"Oh my god, Mr. Joelson."

"The person who placed the bid actually came from around us!"

Elena said excitedly.

“Are there invisible rich people around us?”

Joelson shook his head helplessly and said, “I don’t know either, but the current price is not something we can participate in. Let’s patiently watch them compete.”

Elena nodded.

If they were to really talk about it, the total wealth of everyone present was probably not as good as Joelson’s.

Just Hades’s dragon scales, which had previously shocked four of them and could be auctioned off for ten million snow crystal coins, could be said to be as many as Joelson had in his warehouse.

Honestly speaking, it really wasn’t enough. Outside the Wailing Abyss, there was still a living Hades waiting for him.

If he asked Hades for the scales, could it be that Hades would refuse?

Not only that, as a peak demigod, Joelson had a terrifying amount of treasures in his warehouse.

Many of the treasures of the defeated warriors had entered the space of Joelson.

The package of that luxurious young man was currently lying quietly in the space of Joelson.

Joelson’s magic scan had discovered the person who had bid earlier.

This person was dressed in a black robe, and his face had a picture of a jack of hearts on it.

At this moment, the light was very dim. Even the face sitting next door could not be seen clearly. Hence, even if this person was wearing a mask, he would not attract any attention.

It was likely that this Jack of Hearts did not expect that Joelson would be able to discover him, right?

In VIP Room 1, Bolen’s brows were gently lifted.

He spoke faintly.

“Continue bidding. The Elizabeth family offers 70 million snow crystal coins.”

70 million snow crystal coins!

The Jack of Hearts was not willing to be outdone. After the Elizabeth family finished bidding, before even the large screen could react, another bid was made.

“80 million snow crystal coins.”

In VIP Room No. 4, Doldona’s mouth was wide open.

80 million snow crystal coins. This was a figure that even their Benolu family could not come up with!

Just what kind of existence was this guy in the auction venue?

Meanwhile, in VIP Room 2, Amys slowly put down her bid.

Although she was not without money, she did not know how many hidden opponents there were. It was better not to enter the auction battle before the competition.

In VIP Room 1, Bolen heard that the other party had bid 80,000,000 snow crystal coins. After pondering for a while, he called for the old butler of the Elizabeth family.

After whispering to him for a moment, Bolen slowly pressed the bid button.

“Very interesting, this unknown friend.”

“I represent the Elizabeth family and bid 100 million snow crystal coins. If you still have rich snow crystal coins, you can compete with me.”

100 million snow crystal coins. Even in the outer city of the entire underground city, there shouldn’t be so many snow crystal coins in circulation, right?

Although the outer city was very big compared to the inner city, but in the eyes of the major empires on land, it was still a stretch.

Joelson silently observed the man in black who was wearing the mask of the Jack of Hearts.

At this moment, although he couldn’t see the expression under the mask, it was clear that after hearing Bolen’s bid of 100 million snow crystal coins, the Jack of Hearts was somewhat anxious.

He revealed his finger and continuously tapped on the chair handle.

After about ten seconds, he spoke.

“8,000 snow crystal coins and a demigod artifact.”

The price of a demigod artifact wasn't just 20 million snow crystal coins.

At this moment, two more voices appeared in the venue.

“Two demigod artifacts.”

“Two demigod artifacts and an orchid fragrance flower.”

Bolen frowned. It seemed like many hidden people were preparing to participate in this competition.

He wasn't too surprised. After all, the elders of the Elizabeth family had told him before he went to the public auction this time, there would probably be many mysterious existences in this auction. He had to be careful.

Some of the elders in the family had even specially emphasized that they had to return to the inner city carefully after obtaining the resplendent gemstone.

These words lingered in Bolen's heart for a long time.

What did this mean?

It meant that even the Elizabeth family, one of the best in the inner city, could not guarantee his safety.

Moreover, he had at least three peak-stage god-domain existences by his side!

Was the temptation of the resplendent gemstone, Lorna, really that great?

Bolen slowly let out a long breath and continued to bid.

“Five demigod artifacts, one of which is a damaged demigod artifact.”

The entire crowd was in an uproar!

They had never thought that the Elizabeth family would actually choose to take out a damaged demigod artifact!

Even if it was a damaged one!

In the underground city, where the strongest person on the surface was only a peak-stage divine-level existence, the temptation of taking out a demigod artifact was absolutely terrifying!

Even though many people knew that Elizabeth was a magnate existence in the inner city, they still harbored evil thoughts.

If they could rob the Elizabeth family, how much wealth would they have?

Chapter 596: When Joelson Made His Move. The Entire Crowd Was Shocked

"Five half-divine artifacts, one of which is a damaged demigod artifact."

The entire crowd was in an uproar!

A half-divine artifact was worth at least 50 million snow crystal coins.

And a damaged demigod artifact was worth at least 100 million snow crystal coins.

Such a price had to be said to be exaggerated!

Joelson raised an eyebrow.

The price of this resplendent gemstone was truly too exaggerated. Joelson had originally wanted to use Hades's dragon scales to exchange for this resplendent gemstone.

It seemed that Hades's dragon scales were inferior.

Hades, you didn't live up to your expectations!

At this moment, Hades, who was far away in the snowy mountains, suddenly sneezed.

Eh?

'Why does it feel like someone was scolding me just now...'

Joelson continued to check the items left behind by the luxurious man who had just been dealt with.

There was a bright golden card with the amount of eight million snow crystal coins inside.

Seeing this, Joelson couldn't help but feel a little displeased. He hadn't expected that the Kardas family's auction would be so ruthless. They had actually taken a fifth of it in one go!

But fortunately, it was clear that this rich young master had another small treasury.

An interspatial ring. Inside it was a dazzling gold card with a limit of 30 million snow crystal coins.

There was also a demigod-grade bow and arrow.

There were also some trivial and not very valuable things that were ignored by Joelson.

Adding the snow crystal coins on Joelson's hand, it was only less than 40 million snow crystal coins.

Even if he added in this demigod weapon bow and arrow, it probably wouldn't even reach the value of 100 million snow crystal coins.

For the Elizabeth family, who had taken out five half-divine weapons and a damaged demigod weapon in one go, this was truly a bit of a stretch.

No...

A demigod weapon?

Joelson's eyes lit up.

He seemed to have quite a few of these things!

If a damaged demigod artifact could be auctioned off at such a price, then if he took out a genuine demigod artifact, wouldn't he be able to directly keep the resplendent gemstone?

In any case, he was only using the Sword of Slaughter at the moment. It would be useless to keep the other weapons.

Thinking up to this point, a thought appeared in Joelson's mind.

"Elena, the price is really too high. It's making my stomach uncomfortable."

Joelson turned around and said to Elena beside him.

"To be honest, Mr. Joelson, I'm also shocked. This price is not something we can afford anymore..."

"Shall I help you leave?"

Elena was about to stand up and help Joelson.

Joelson waved his hand.

"You can continue watching here. I can do it myself. When the time comes, I will wait for you outside so that you can tell me how much this resplendent gemstone was sold for."

Elena nodded.

"In that case, Mr. Joelson, you must pay attention to your safety."

Joelson picked up his walking stick and limped out of the venue.

At this moment, the light was dim and everyone's attention was on the bright gemstones on the stage. Other than Elena, no one realized that someone had left the venue.

After leaving Elena's line of sight, Joelson placed the walking stick in his hand into the space and slowly put on the mask of the King of Spades.

The moment he put on the mask, Joelson's temperament suddenly changed. His entire body revealed a faint aura of a superior, making people want to kneel down to him uncontrollably.

As he left the venue, he was immediately noticed by the staff. He waved his hand and said to the staff.

"Call your person-in-charge over and arrange a VIP Room for me."

When the staff saw the mask on his face, he didn't dare to be negligent and quickly ran to find the supervisor.

As a staff member of the Kardas family, he knew what the mask meant!

He was either rich or noble, someone who could enter the VIP area!

Now that he had appeared, it was likely that the guest with the king of spades mask was a big shot in the inner city!

He had come for the resplendent gemstones!

Soon, a refined and tall man jogged over and bowed respectfully to Joelson.

"Sir, what can I do for you?"

"Arrange a VIP Room for me. Quickly."

"I want to participate in this auction."

Joelson said faintly.

The middle-aged man with eyes nodded and did not dare to be negligent. He hurriedly led Joelson into VIP Room 5.

The VIP Room was very spacious. It was about 50 square meters and a huge sofa was placed in the middle.

On the opposite side of the sofa was a single-sided wall. From here, one could clearly see the auction situation in the venue.

Even from Joelson's angle, with his strong eyesight, he could still see Elena's figure.

"Get everyone out. Don't disturb me."

Joelson ordered faintly.

The person in charge nodded and got the two exposed bunny girls in charge of service in the VIP area to follow him out of the VIP Room.

Right now, only Joelson was left in VIP Room 5.

Joelson slowly closed his eyes, and mana instantly covered the entire room.

After confirming that there were no surveillance equipment, Joelson took off his mask.

He sat on the sofa and looked at the three incomplete inferior divine artifacts on the stage. He couldn't help but smile faintly.

Joelson pressed the bid button, using his magic power to change his original voice, then said calmly.

"A perfect demigod weapon. Spear. Fire attribute."

As soon as these words were spoken, the entire place fell silent!

Even Bolen of the Elizabeth family suddenly turned his head, staring towards VIP Room 5, where no one had ever made a bid!

Someone actually bid with a piece of perfect demigod equipment!

Moreover, he had hidden it so deeply that he had not bid for it even once!

Not only the VIP Room 1 where the Elizabeth family was located, the people of the Glenn family in VIP Room 2, Navarro family in the the third VIP Room, and Doldona in the fourth VIP Room all had their eyes wide open.

They all knew that some of the top-ranked families in the inner city did indeed have inferior divine artifacts, but these things were never sold, or even showed up!

The fortune that a divine artifact could bring to a family couldn't be measured with money!

The Elizabeth family also had a perfectly good inferior divine artifact, but they weren't willing to use it for auction...

And now, when Joelson made his move, everyone was shocked!

Chapter 597: After Bidding. The Suspicions of the Inner City Families

"A perfect demigod weapon. Spear. Fire attribute."

As soon as these words were spoken, the entire place fell silent!

Even Bolen of the Elizabeth family suddenly turned his head, staring towards VIP room number five, where no one had ever bid before!

Bolen's forehead was gloomy. He had never imagined that someone would actually be willing to pay such a high price for this resplendent gem!

Although the Elizabeth family coveted this resplendent gemstone, the price of paying an undamaged demigod artifact to a family that was ranked in the top few places in the inner city was far too great.

A sinister look flashed through Bolen's eyes. He waved his hand, and an old housekeeper immediately understood and hurriedly walked up.

"What is it, Young Master Bolen?"

Bolen frowned slightly, as he slowly looked at the outer wall of VIP Room 5, and spoke indifferently.

"It should be impossible to directly spend money to bid for that resplendent gemstone. Who exactly is this madman in VIP Room 5? Quickly help me investigate his background."

"I want to let him know that he will have to pay a heavy price for robbing our Elizabeth family."

Bolen snorted coldly.

"Understood, Young Master Bolen. I'll go investigate right away."

The old butler nodded, then immediately disappeared from his original spot.

This old butler hadn't revealed any aura at all, no different from an ordinary old man without any magical energy. But now, the magical energy which had suddenly burst forth from his teleportation had reached a terrifying deity level.

And he was at the peak of the deity-level!

Just how many experts had been gathered in such a small auction house?

No one knew.

Just as the discussions of the Elizabeth family in VIP room number one were finished, within VIP room number two, the Glenn family's Amys spoke out as well.

"A perfectly good demigod artifact..."

"Is this guy crazy? Or is a demigod artifact so worthless in his eyes?"

Amys was puzzled. It must be understood that if a perfectly good demigod artifact was offered as a reward, most likely all of the experts in the underground city would flock to it.

But right now, the other party hadn't done so. Instead, he had chosen to directly compete with them in the auction.

This person couldn't be a fool, right...

This thought couldn't be controlled in Amys's mind.

After all, the auction in the auction house was just a pity for the big families in the inner city towards the outer city.

It was a kind of charity for the upper class to exploit the poor lower class.

Right now, they were using a peaceful method to compete for this resplendent gem.

But if the big families in the inner city didn't come to an agreement on who would get the resplendent gem, they would probably have to engage in a battle of force.

However, Amys didn't intend to participate in this fight. She didn't care about such a low-level battle.

"It seems that we won't be able to get the resplendent gemstone by auction."

Amys said indifferently. She slowly took off the ring in her hand and handed it to the maidservant behind her.

"Go. There's something the master gave me. The first plan has failed. Carry out the second plan."

The two maids behind him nodded and did not say anything, immediately leaving the room.

However, the moment the two maids left the room, their clothes changed from maid attire to tight-fitting black nightwear.

As for Briz of the Navarro family, who was in VIP Room 3, he happily poured himself another glass of wine.

Behind him, the middle-aged man in a suit had already returned. In his hand was a small box, which contained the dragon scales that Joelson had given to Mustache.

Joelson did not lack these dragon scales. Now that the Navarro family had offered such a sky-high price, there was no need for him to take them back.

"Uncle Michel, do you think that the guy in the fifth VIP room will be able to take down this resplendent gem?"

When the middle-aged man in the suit known as Michel heard Briz's question, he was clearly stunned, and he hurriedly said.

"Young Master Briz, a demigod artifact is still undamaged, and it has the fire attribute. How could it be possible that the other inner city families would choose to increase the price?"

Michel was right. Even the imperial family of the underground city wouldn't necessarily take out a demigod artifact and bid for it for nothing.

A demigod weapon was an existence that could not be measured by money in the underground city.

Having a demigod weapon was a symbol of status and power.

If you did not have enough power, once they found out that you had such a powerful weapon, it was inevitable that greed would arise.

As the saying goes, if a man was innocent, he would be guilty. Under the sharp gazes of countless people, those who could finally have a demigod weapon in the underground city were all magnates.

As for the person in VIP Room 5, Joelson, he had offered this price right from the start. Michel believed that no one would be able to compete with the person in VIP Room 5.

However, Michel was extremely puzzled. Just who was the person in VIP Room 5?

Could it be someone from the royal family who was able to offer such a high price?

The moment this thought appeared in her heart, Michel immediately rejected it.

After all, if it was the imperial family, there was no need to go through so much trouble. Just based on the appearance of any of their direct family members and the reputation of the imperial family, it was impossible for any of the families in the inner city to dare to fight over it.

While Michel was racking his brains, Briz could not help but burst out laughing.

He turned around and looked at Michel, his eyes couldn't help but reveal a smile.

"Uncle Michel, that's not what I meant."

"Who is the person in VIP Room No. 5? Does this matter have any meaning to our Navarro family?"

"Since he chose not to speak and didn't reveal his identity, he definitely doesn't want us to know."

"Right now, we're not participating in the competition for the resplendent gem, and we won't compete with him in the future. No matter what, the other party won't affect our Navarro family."

"What we need to do is to use our eyes to see what the mysterious person in VIP Room 5 is capable of."

"I'm really curious whether he can safely take back the resplendent gem."

Only then did Michel come to a realization.

Briz wasn't worried that the person in VIP Room 5 wouldn't be able to take the resplendent gemstone. Instead, he was even more worried about whether he would be able to protect the resplendent gemstone from the hands of the many inner city families!

Although many things had happened, everything was happening at the same time.

The entire Kardas auction house was surging with undercurrents!

Countless pairs of eyes were staring at the big screen. The countdown on the big screen had entered the final moment.

5 seconds...

4 seconds...

3 seconds...

Everyone held their breaths. Everyone was anticipating whether the resplendent gemstone would be able to refresh the bidding of the existence in VIP Room 5.

“What a pity. Mr. Joelson will never see such an exciting auction.”

Elena looked at the big screen with some regret.

At this moment, the number on the big screen had turned to zero!

The countdown had ended!

No one placed a bid. This officially announced to everyone that this resplendent gemstone belonged to the mysterious guest in VIP Room 5.

After the auction ended, the lights slowly lit up.

Everyone looked at each other in confusion.

They could see the intense shock in each other’s eyes.

That’s right, even though they knew the legend of Lorna and knew that the resplendent gem was the key to entering Lorna...

But they didn’t know the method at all!

They also didn’t know how to find the entrance to Lorna.

But at this moment, the big families of the inner city in the VIP area were able to pay such a huge price for the resplendent gem. They most likely knew the method to enter Lorna.

At this moment, they were only lacking the resplendent gemstone.

And with the resplendent gemstone, they had the qualifications to head to Lorna.

Once any family in the inner city sent people into Lorna and successfully returned, it was likely that that family’s status in the inner city would soar!

It would even grow to the level of being on par with the imperial family.

This was too shocking.

However, everyone in the auction venue was very tactful. They weren't prepared to stay in the auction venue for too long.

They knew that the families in the inner city would definitely not let this matter rest.

Since they had already stopped using the auction method to obtain the resplendent gem, these arrogant fellows would definitely use violent methods to obtain the resplendent gem.

A bloody storm would likely appear in the Kardas auction house.

As weak as they were, they definitely wouldn't be able to survive the battle between these enormous creatures in the inner city.

The most rational method at the moment was to quickly leave this land of chaos!

Before the battle between the inner city families erupted!

Some people hurriedly stood up. They didn't even have the time to pick up the things that had dropped before they immediately ran out of the auction house.

There were quite a number of people who did this in the auction house.

Unfortunately, Elena did not understand why the people around her were in such a hurry to leave. They did not even have time to pick up the items.

Elena placed her small hand on her chin and revealed a puzzled expression.

"Why is everyone so anxious to leave the auction house?"

"Don't tell me there's an important auction waiting for them?"

Elena didn't understand and didn't think any further. She slowly stood up and waited for the crowd to disperse before leaving the auction house.

Meanwhile, in VIP Room No. 5, Joelson also slowly stood up and put on the mask of the King of Spades.

The hidden door behind the VIP room slowly opened. The tall and thin middle-aged man who had brought Joelson into the VIP room also appeared.

He spoke to Joelson very respectfully.

“Congratulations, sir. You have successfully bid for the resplendent gem.”

“Please follow me to the VIP’s exclusive processing hall to go through your procedures. At the same time, you can also take away the item that you have bid for.”

Joelson nodded and did not say anything else. He followed behind the tall and thin middle-aged man and entered the hidden door.

Behind the door was a long secret passage that spiraled around.

Only one person was allowed to pass through. The tall and coquettish man was in front. After Joelson’s disaster, the two of them slowly walked forward.

Under the probing of magic power, Joelson discovered that this secret passage was actually five hundred meters long. The bricks surrounding this secret passage were all meticulously engraved with magic.

Even for a mage of the divine realm, it would be extremely difficult for them to sense Joelson’s existence.

Of course, to Joelson, who was at the peak of the demigod realm and was able to easily insta-kill someone of the same level and battle someone of a higher level, these wall bricks were practically useless.

However, this didn’t affect the practicality of these wall bricks.

In addition, the number of bricks used in this five hundred meter passage was probably not a small number.

After all, every brick carved with magic cost a lot of money.

Joelson thought to himself. It seemed that the Kardas family had spent a lot of money to keep the existence of the VIP area a secret.

After about two minutes, the two of them walked out of the secret room.

When they opened the door, the auction building was still outside, but the location had changed.

This was an extremely spacious hall. The floor was made of exquisite marble tiles.

The red walls and thick pillars made this place a little high-end.

Obviously, Joelson did not care too much about these things. He only wanted to get his hands on the resplendent gem as soon as possible.

“Sir, please sign here.”

The tall, middle-aged man respectfully took out a piece of gilded paper from the side. There were a lot of rules written densely on it.

Joelson raised his eyebrows, and his magic power directly covered the gilded paper.

Although it was written in a complicated manner, the content was probably just some disclaimer clauses. It specifically stated that once the auction item was obtained, it would have nothing to do with the Kardas family. Even if it was dropped later, or if it would still be snatched away by others, he couldn't turn back to look for the Kardas family.

Seeing this, Joelson couldn't help but burst out laughing in his heart.

According to the behavior of those families in the inner city, it was very likely that they had already sent people to investigate his background.

Once the investigation was done and they confirmed that he didn't have any background in the underground city, these large families in the inner city would immediately launch an attack on him.

However, all of this was a matter for later. If those large families in the inner city wanted to snatch the resplendent gemstone in his hands, the prerequisite was that they would be able to find him.

Through so many concealment methods, even Elena, who was by his side, wasn't clear about his true identity. How could he possibly expose himself?

Joelson handed over a fire attribute demigod weapon spear from the system space to the tall and coquettish man in front of him.

As soon as this demigod artifact spear appeared in Joelson's hand, it immediately emitted a fiery aura.

For a time, the temperature in the hall rose by a lot.

Chapter 599: Mole

Chapter 599: Mole

Translator: Simple MTL Editor: Simple MTL

The tall man wasn't very strong. Facing the sudden increase in temperature, his clothes were immediately drenched in sweat.

He carefully took the spear from Joelson's hands.

The tall man didn't have any thoughts that this spear wasn't a demigod artifact. The terrifying pressure coming from the spear would always cause the tall man's scalp to go numb.

His knees went soft. He didn't know how long it would be before he would be unable to endure any longer and kneel down because of this demigod spear.

"Sir, the resplendent gemstone will be here soon."

The tall man hurriedly placed the fiery-red spear into a large sealed aura box, then immediately called for a nearby staff member to carry it away.

Not too far away, the sound of crisp, high-heeled footsteps slowly rang out from the corridor. Turning his head, a familiar figure appeared in front of Joelson.

That person was dressed in lolita fashion, with a long ponytail behind him.

That person was Freya Kardas, the only young lady of the Kardas family. She was also the host of the auction.

It had to be said that even though she was a short person, she was still wearing long high heels. Her appearance was indeed a little comical.

Joelson clearly knew that Freya in front of him was already an adult, and she was in her twenties. However, he could not control the corner of his mouth and wanted to laugh.

However, in the current situation, it seemed that it was better to hold it in.

Joelson was wearing a mask and the corner of his mouth was twitching crazily.

"Hello, respected sir."

"This is your resplendent gem. Please keep it well."

Freya did not put on any airs. She directly took out a small box towards Joelson. The inside of the box contained the resplendent gem.

Joelson opened the box. The beautiful glittering resplendent gem was emitting a beautiful light.

He nodded, indicating that he had received the goods.

Now that he had obtained the resplendent gemstone, he was ready to leave and meet up with Elena who was waiting at the door.

He had to be fast, otherwise, if Elena waited for too long, his identity might be exposed.

As he thought of this, he immediately quickened his pace.

“Wait, respected sir.”

Freya’s voice came from behind Joelson.

Joelson frowned under the mask. He slowly turned around and looked at Freya.

“What is it?”

Joelson’s voice had been changed by magic. There was no emotion in his voice.

When Freya heard Joelson’s voice that had been changed by magic, the corners of her mouth could not help but curl up slightly.

As the eldest daughter of the Kardas family, she naturally understood that this was a voice that could only appear after magic power had been changed.

The other party was wearing a mask, and there were no eye-catching marks on his entire body. Even his voice had been processed by magic power.

Of course, other than the bottom of Joelson’s pants, there was a trace of charred marks.

It was very obvious that the other party did not want the Kardas family or other families to know his identity.

Freya shook her head and finally gave up what she wanted to say.

A faint smile appeared on her tender face.

“Nothing...”

“Sir, please have a safe journey and pay attention to your safety.”

Joelson nodded and did not say anything. He directly walked towards the door in the distance.

Under the detection of Joelson’s magic power, there was also a secret passage outside the door.

However, this was no longer important to Joelson, who had already obtained the resplendent gemstone.

After opening the gate, no one could see Joelson's figure with their magic power perception.

The next moment, a strange gate condensed by magic power suddenly appeared in front of Joelson.

Teleportation spell!

Intense spatial fluctuations constantly burst out from the strange gate. In the blink of an eye, Joelson's figure completely disappeared from the Kardas family's building.

Creak.

The door slowly opened and the person who walked in was Freya.

Behind Freya was an old woman.

The old woman had a kind expression on her face. She arched her back and turned to look at Freya, who seemed to have something on her mind.

"Freya, do you have someone you like?"

As soon as she said this, Freya's reaction was as intense as stepping on a cat's tail.

"What are you talking about, Grandma!"

"I'm just a little worried about him..."

"After all, in order to enter the inner city, our Kardas family has already spent many years to understand all the families in the inner city, big and small."

"But that gentleman just now didn't have the temperament of an inner city family at all. He didn't even have the temperament of an underground city citizen."

The old woman's narrowed eyes slowly opened, and a hint of surprise appeared in her eyes.

"Freya, are you saying that the auctioneer isn't from the underground city?"

"Yes... the probability is like this. If he's here for the resplendent gemstone, then he'll definitely be noticed by all the big clans in the inner city."

Freya said with some worry.

Although she had never seen Joelson take off his mask, she did not know why, but the mysterious temperament that came from Joelson's body made her very moved.

Even if she had never seen Joelson's true face, Freya's heart was full of butterflies and she was very excited.

No matter what, Freya was just a little girl in her twenties. When faced with Joelson, whose strength and beauty were both extremely outstanding, she naturally fell for him immediately.

"Hehehe, a good person will have his fortune. Isn't that young man's identity not exposed yet?"

The old woman chuckled and continued.

"He is always so cautious. He shouldn't be caught by the big families in the inner city, right?"

Freya pursed her lips and nodded.

"I hope he is alright..."

Just as the old woman and Freya left the hall, a staff member's eyes flashed.

He was the staff member who had taken away the inferior artifact from Joelson.

After hearing the conversation between the old woman and Freya, he immediately took out a strange small stone from his pocket.

The small stone was the size of a fist and was about the same size as a pebble. There were complicated magic patterns engraved on it.

If someone in the industry saw it, they would definitely recognize it immediately.

Short-distance communication magic tool.

Its function was similar to a walkie-talkie, but the short-distance communication magic tool could only be used in pairs, and the distance couldn't be too long. This caused the status of the short-distance communication magic tool to be very awkward, as a result, until now, not many ordinary families were willing to use it.

"Sir, we have found the characteristics of the guy who photographed the resplendent gem. He is wearing the King of Spades mask, and there are burn marks on the bottom of his pants!"

“My lord, we have found the characteristics of the guy who took the photo of the resplendent gem. He is wearing the mask of King of Spades, and there are scorch marks on the bottom of his pants!”

In the VIP room, Bolen Elizabeth slowly opened his eyes.

The voice of the short-distance communication magic device in the hands of the old butler behind him was transmitted by the staff of the Kardas family.

Bolen slowly put his hand on his chin and said thoughtfully.

“That guy in VIP Room No. 5 won’t be wearing a mask all the time. The only message he left us now is that his pants legs are burnt...”

“Wait...”

Bolen seemed to have found something at this moment and interrupted the old butler who was about to say something.

Then, his eyes suddenly lit up.

At this moment, he seemed to have understood something.

“I understand, butler.”

Bolen suddenly stood up from the sofa.

“Young Master Bolen, what do you understand?”

The old butler behind him was also shocked by Bolen’s behavior.

“That guy is not from the inner city. Narrow down the search area.”

“If he was a noble from the inner city, he definitely wouldn’t let himself wear a pair of pants legs that had scorched marks for a long time.”

Bolen slowly told the analysis in his mind to the two people behind him.

“I see!”

The old butler and the staff member of the short-distance communication magic tool in their hands revealed a voice of sudden realization.

“Pass down the order. There’s no need to search in the inner city. Go and find those new faces.”

“Although we can’t track the resplendent gem, the wooden box that stores the resplendent gem was made by the carpenters under the Elizabeth family.”

“They definitely would never have thought that the rubber wood that made the box would emit a peculiar fragrance, and this fragrance is also the key to finding him.”

Bolen coldly snorted, a vicious glint appearing in his eyes.

If the other party was a noble of the inner city of the underground city, the assassin of the Elizabeth family might still show mercy and only snatch the resplendent gem.

However, the other party was not an existence from the inner city at all. In that case, the assassin from the Elizabeth family would not have any restrictions and would be able to start a massacre.

Of course, the inner city had its own rules, just like the outer city.

The king of the underground city had specially issued a law stating that the nobles in the inner city were not allowed to oppress the citizens of the outer city.

Moreover, experts at the god’s domain level were not allowed to take action in the outer city unless their lives were threatened.

Of course, the Elizabeth understood that the underground city’s king had promulgated this law. However, they had also found a loophole in this law.

The people of the inner city were not allowed to bully the people of the outer city. In that case, would it not be long before the people of the inner city nurtured the assassins of the outer city?

The underground city’s king seemed to have discovered that many of the inner city’s families had done the same thing. However, he had no way to refute them. He could only acquiesce to such a situation.

However, this did not mean that the underground city king was something that they could easily contend against. Even the Elizabeth had to try her best to keep a low profile when doing these things so that the public opinion of the matter would be reduced to the lowest level.

“Just you wait, mysterious fellow. I will let you know the consequences of snatching the things of our Elizabeth family!”

“Without a background in the inner city, even if you were an immortal, you wouldn’t be able to escape from the grasp of our Elizabeth family.”

Bolen sneered and walked out of VIP room number one.

The old butler didn't say anything when he saw this.

After all, what Bolen said was right. In the underground city, other than the imperial family, there were very few families in the inner city that could compare to the Elizabeth.

No one in the entire underground city dared to care about what the young master Bolen wanted to do.

...

On the complicated streets, many people passed by.

At this moment, a delicate and sweet-looking girl stood by the side of the street.

With her hands behind her back, her small head leaned forward as if she was looking for something.

But at this moment, this action of hers exposed the flaw of her soft breasts.

This person was Elena.

The auction had already ended for a while, but Elena still did not see Joelson.

Didn't they say that they would meet at the entrance of the auction building after the auction?

Could it be that she remembered wrongly?

Elena did not see Joelson at this moment. She did not think that it was Joelson's fault. Instead, she felt that it was her fault.

Just as Elena was a little confused, two figures walked over from the side.

Both of them had long yellow hair, and their hairstyles had been made into a large triangular symbol.

In addition, they were wearing black skeleton costumes, which gave them a somewhat unconventional feeling.

"That..."

"May I ask what is the matter?"

Elena could not help but frown as she saw the two figures approaching her.

"Can't you come here if you have nothing to do?"

One of the triangular-headed men said with a smile.

“Little sister, you are so beautiful. This is the first time I have seen such a beautiful girl like you.”

“Yes, yes. We grew up in the outer city, but we have never seen such a beautiful girl like you.”

“In my opinion, only the eldest daughter of the Kardas family can be compared to you.”

The two triangular heads blocked Elena’s path of retreat.

The auction had just ended, and it was the afternoon when there was a lot of people.

Seeing Elena surrounded by the two triangular heads, the surrounding people whispered.

Many women and children avoided them.

It seemed that these two triangular heads were not good people.

“I’m waiting for someone... Sorry...”

Elena frowned and did not want to talk to the two triangles in front of her.

If these two guys were ordinary people who came to ask for directions, Elena would not be so disgusted.

However, the problem was that not only did these two guys feel good about themselves, they directly came to chat with them. They also emitted a rotten smell that they had not showered for several days.

This could not help but make Elena, who loved cleanliness, very unhappy.

If it were not for the fact that she did not want to stir up trouble, Elena would have cast a spell and attacked the two of them.

“Little sister, you are too beautiful. I like you very much.”

“There is a bar nearby that I like very much. Let’s go there and have a drink.”

“Of course, I’ll treat you.”

After saying that, the triangular-headed blond looked at Elena with a wretched expression.

He even stretched out his hand, ready to grab Elena.

“Don’t come over...”

Feeling the two stinky smells approaching, Elena’s face turned green.

At this moment, the two triangular-headed men suddenly froze, as if they had sensed an extremely terrifying existence.

Then, the two of them did not care about Elena, and directly shouted and ran away.

“Mr. Joelson?”

Elena said in surprise.

The two people who were in the way left, and Joelson appeared in front of Elena with his crutches.

“Mr. Joelson?”

Elena was pleasantly surprised.

The two guys who were in the way left, and Joelson appeared in front of Elena with his walking stick.

“Sorry, I was a little delayed when I helped the old lady cross the road.”

Joelson’s face was neither red nor did his heart rate skip when he lied.

“Is that so? No wonder you were gone for so long, Mr. Joelson!”

“As expected, Mr. Joelson is very kind. His legs and feet are inconvenient, yet he still helped an old lady cross the road!”

Elina’s eyes were full of stars. She excitedly held onto Joelson’s hand.

As expected, girls who were in love did not have any logic.

Elina did not realize that Joelson was lying at all. She directly supported Joelson and walked in the direction of the hotel.

“What a pity. A resplendent gem can actually be auctioned for such a high price.”

Elena, who was supporting Joelson, sighed in disappointment.

“Why? What was the final price of the resplendent gem? You haven’t told me yet.”

Joelson smiled faintly and said.

“Originally, the people in VIP Room 1 had already bid a high price. Later, a person from VIP Room 5 suddenly appeared. This person hid it too deeply. Guess how much he bid?”

Elena seemed to be still immersed in the excitement of the previous auction.

“I don’t know.”

Joelson suppressed the desire in his heart to tell Elena the truth.

For some reason, teasing this young girl in front of him, who knew nothing at all, made Joelson feel rather happy.

“A full demigod artifact!”

“This is simply too extravagant!”

“The level of a demigod isn’t something a deity like us can imagine, much less a weapon of that level!”

Elena said excitedly.

As the two spoke, they slowly walked towards the inn.

Right at this moment, an assassin hidden within the crowd suddenly discovered the limping Joelson.

There was a slight burn mark on the leg of Joelson’s pants.

Was it this person?

The assassin frowned.

If it was before, this assassin would have rushed forward without hesitation.

But this guy in front of him was a disabled person.

The walking stick in his hand didn’t seem like a high-end item.

How could such an existence be able to bid for the resplendent gem?

The assassin didn’t believe it.

It wasn't that he didn't want to kill the innocent, but if he acted rashly and got the wrong target, he would probably let the person who obtained the resplendent gem know.

If the other party was on guard, the difficulty of attacking the other party would increase by several levels.

At this moment, the assassin suddenly raised his brows.

He recalled that their family's young master, Bolen Elizabeth, had once said that the wooden box containing the resplendent gemstones was one of the products of their businesses.

It seemed that young master Bolen had already spent a large sum of money to bribe a mole within the Kardas family, requesting them to install this special small box on the resplendent gemstones.

Rubber wood!

The assassin slowly became infatuated with his eyes. After long periods of arduous training by the Elizabeth family, he had obtained five senses that surpassed that of an ordinary person.

His sense of smell was extremely sensitive, and he was actually using his nose to probe across the entire street.

After a full half a minute, the assassin suddenly opened his eyes.

"It really is him!"

The assassin's expression gradually turned cold. Now that he had found the target the young master was looking for, he naturally had to get ready to take action.

The assassin slowly took out a short-distance communication magic tool and said in a low voice.

"I have found the target."

"I repeat, I have found the target."

"The opponent is on Seahorse Street, walking towards Elk Alley."

The short-distance communication magic tool in his hand immediately replied when he heard the assassin's voice.

"Understood. All the family assassins have been sent to Elk Alley. Please wait patiently."

The assassin put the magic tool back into his pocket and followed Joelson closely!

At this moment, everything that the assassin did was already seen by Joelson's magic power.

Seeing that the other party had already discovered him, Joelson sighed helplessly in his heart.

Originally, he had thought of meeting up with Elena and solving these troublesome matters after returning to the hotel.

Now that he had already been discovered by the other party, there was no need to continue hiding.

Joelson's original goal in heading to the underground city was to obtain the resplendent gem. Now that he had obtained the item, he did not have any worries even if he revealed his identity.

Even if he were to hide in the underground city, an existence with a strength similar to his would definitely not be able to do anything to Joelson.

At this moment, Joelson spoke, intentionally or unintentionally.

"Elena, I don't think I've ever asked you why you're looking for the resplendent gem."

"Do you want to head to Lorna?"

Elena couldn't help but be stunned when she heard what Joelson said, then she shook her head.

"There's no such thing. I just want to prove myself to my grandfather."

Elena revealed a bitter smile.

"So, you're only looking for the resplendent gem to prove yourself?"

Joelson was a little surprised.

"But you have more choices, don't you?"

"An adventure, a weapon, and even some rare natural treasures. You can be a target."

"Why did you choose the resplendent gem?"

Elena snorted and said, "No. When I was young, my grandfather always told me myths about the resplendent gem and the death god artifact."

“Because of these, I insisted on finding the resplendent gems. My grandfather also had a big headache because of this.”

Joelson chuckled and said, “I didn’t expect you to have a rebellious side, Elena. I thought you would always be like a good child.”

“No way...”

“I’ve always been very obedient, okay...”

Hearing what Joelson said, Elena’s fair little face gradually became ruddy.

At this moment, Joelson stopped walking.

Elena thought it was her own problem.

“What’s wrong, Mr. Joelson? Are your legs uncomfortable?”

Joelson didn’t answer and slowly looked behind him.

They had entered Elk Alley and were surrounded by two-story buildings. At this moment, there was no one around them even though it was the most crowded time in the outer city of the underground city.

“Since the hidden rats can’t wait any longer, why haven’t they shown themselves?”

Joelson’s voice slowly came out of his mouth.

His voice was loud and powerful. It didn’t sound like the words of a person with a walking stick.

Translator: Simple MTL Editor: Simple MTL

“Since the hidden rats can’t wait any longer, why haven’t they shown themselves?”

Joelson’s voice slowly came out of his mouth.

His voice was loud and powerful. It didn’t sound like the words of a person with a walking stick.

Joelson looked into the distance. Elena, who was beside him, asked in puzzlement.

“What’s wrong, Mr. Joelson?”

“I don’t see anyone in the alley.”

However, after Elena finished speaking, shadows began to appear in the area that Elena had already swept past.

They were all neatly dressed in black clothes, and their faces were completely covered by strips of cloth.

If one were to look from afar, one might really think that these dozen or so fellows were mummies.

Under their black clothes, their strong muscles directly propped them up.

The clothes that originally looked very loose were directly pressed into tight clothes by them.

A total of more than ten tall and burly people directly surrounded Elena and Joelson.

“What’s going on, Mr. Joelson? What are they here for?”

Elena was frightened by the pressure from these people.

Although Elena could be considered an adventurer, she had never killed anyone with her own hands. At most, she was just a ferocious beast.

However, these people were full of murderous aura. At a glance, it was obvious that they had walked out of a mountain of corpses and bones. They were nothing compared to an inexperienced adventurer like Elena.

“You actually discovered us.”

“Very interesting. Since you possess such a keen sense of smell, why didn’t you run when you discovered us?”

The leader of the group, a man dressed in black, said coldly.

At this moment, they took out their weapons in unison.

Over a dozen high-level deity domain weapons appeared in their hands.

Deity domain weapons were not like cabbages on the streets. Yet, these people were actually able to produce over a dozen identical weapons of the deity domain at once. If the Kardas family members saw this, they would most likely think that they were dreaming.

This was definitely a large-scale operation. Most likely, the only people capable of producing such a large-scale operation were people from the inner city.

At this moment, Joelson was holding his walking stick as he calmly looked at the dozen or so people in front of him. There was not a hint of panic on his face.

If she was not surrounded by the dozen or so strong men, Elena might have thought that Joelson was taking a walk in the garden.

“Mr. Joelson... What should we do...”

“The aura from their bodies show must have killed before...”

Elena felt her knees go weak.

Although she had killed many magical beasts, compared to the aura of these experienced professional killers, Elena was just a newbie.

Just the murderous aura from their bodies was likely enough to make Elena lose her ability to fight.

Joelson looked at Elena, who was already a little afraid, and rubbed her head.

“It’s okay. They won’t make a move yet.”

In the distance, the leader of the men in black couldn’t help but be a little surprised when he heard Joelson’s words. He said coldly to Joelson.

“How do you know that we won’t make a move against you?”

“Kid, do you know our background?”

Joelson shook his head.

He didn’t know anything about the outer city and inner city of the underground city.

However, there was no need for him to know anything about it. Now that he had obtained the resplendent gem, the strongest existence in the underground world was only on par with him in terms of strength.

In front of absolute strength, this insignificant information could be ignored by Joelson.

The black-clothed man in the lead frowned.

At this moment, Joelson’s expression was too relaxed. It even made him feel a strong sense of contempt.

He had been the shadow of the Elizabeth family dealing with dirty matters in the outer city for so many years. These guys who were about to die were breaking down in his hands one by one.

They would do their utmost to let him live, or they would beg for their relatives to be spared.

But as the shadow of the Elizabeth family, the man naturally would not leave any survivors.

Over time, he had gotten used to the appearance of the prey begging before they died.

It was the first time in more than ten years that someone was as calm as Joelson.

Not only was the black-clothed man in front of him, his subordinates behind him were also very puzzled.

Could it be that the Joelson in front of him had already been frightened to the point of collapse, causing him to lose his mind?

That's not right..

The leader of the men in black frowned. He felt that the situation was not simple.

Could it be that the man in front of him was more powerful than them, which was why he was so calm? Was he waiting for them to make a move and save the damsel in distress?

When the man in black thought of this, his eyes tensed up. He hurriedly released his magic power to probe into the body of the man in front of him.

They were professional assassins. They would choose to be ten times or even a hundred times more serious in any tiny mistake they made.

Joelson's magic power was constantly activated. Now that the leader of the assassins wanted to probe his own power, Joelson couldn't help but find it funny. He didn't have any thoughts of defending himself, he allowed the assassin's magic power to probe him.

He was a peak demigod. How could the assassin, who was at the peak of the divine realm, succeed in detecting his strength?

The black-robed man's gaze became more and more solemn.

After all, he had already probed Joelson's entire body. He didn't have any magic at all. Elena, on the other hand, was an existence at the divine realm level.

However, she wasn't very powerful either. At most, she had just entered the divine realm. In front of them, she didn't pose much of a threat.

The black-clothed man was very confident in his own strength. After all, in the underground city, other than some old monsters who had lived for a very long time in the inner city's great clans, there was practically no existence who was stronger than him.

The peak of the deity domain was the highest point in the outer city of the underground city.

Even if the other party was on par with him, he would still be able to sense the other party's mana fluctuations. It would not be said that he could not even detect them.

The black-clothed man's eyes were cold.

He had already obtained the answer. Joelson was just an ordinary person. He did not even have the slightest bit of mana. There was no reason for him to be so arrogant. He probably thought that he could scare them.

Unfortunately, they were all professionals.

The leader of the assassins snorted coldly. He hated people like Joelson who played tricks the most.

When the young master came, he would give Joelson the most painful way to die.

Tap. Tap. Tap.

The sound of footsteps slowly came from the alley at the corner of the street.

When Elena heard the sound, she couldn't help but panic.

She didn't know who the person who came was...

If it was an unrelated ordinary person, it would only implicate them, but if it was the assassin's people, it would only make her and Joelson more passive.

Until now, Elena did not know why these assassins came to find them.

Could it be because Joelson had bought the frozen flower that Freya had auctioned?

She remembered that it was called something like the Greenlandia soul-absorbing lilac flower.

If it was just because of this flower, it would not be necessary to mobilize so many people to surround them, right?

Elena wasn't a fool. These people clearly had an endless murderous aura.

Perhaps they wanted to take their lives!

It was just a flower. How could it cause them to fall into such a predicament.

Could it be because of the resplendent gemstone!

In an instant, an incomparably bold idea appeared in Elena's mind.

She looked at the nearby Joelson, who was holding a walking stick but, very quickly, Elena rejected this idea in her mind.

If Joelson really had money, he wouldn't have licked his lips and asked her to borrow money from the inn.

How could a mysterious existence who could take out a demigod artifact be short of a few hundred snow crystal coins?

Her train of thought was interrupted, and everything returned to its original point.

Elena pursed her lips, listening to the sound of footsteps approaching them...

The unease and anxiety in her heart grew even more intense.

Regardless of whether the other party was an enemy or a friend, to the current them, it wasn't a good ending.

Just as she let go of her thoughts, Elena suddenly saw the appearance of the other party.

The person in the lead was dressed in a black coat with golden edges, and the clothes on his body could be described as luxurious.

He looked to be less than thirty years old. He was nearly two meters tall, but he did not look burly.

His white hair was neatly arranged at the back of his head. His eyes were filled with the expression of a cat trying to catch a mouse.

The person who came was the current young master of the Elizabeth family, Bolen Elizabeth.

Bolen wore a faint smile, as if everything was under his control.

Meanwhile, Joelson did not say anything. He simply looked at Bolen, who was walking towards him from afar.

Although Bolen did not know who Joelson was, Joelson knew who Bolen was.

After all, Joelson's magic detection range was extremely wide and his concealment was extremely strong. Even an old butler at the peak of the deity domain would not be able to sense what Joelson was doing.

Joelson had seen everything that Bolen had done in VIP Room No. 1.

In terms of information warfare, Bolen was at an absolute disadvantage.

After all, in order to compete for the resplendent gemstones, Joelson had even sent out a wisp of his divine sense to investigate the Elizabeth family.

And now, with his magic detection, all the random people in Elk Alley had been forcibly cleared out. There were no more innocent people within a one-kilometer radius.

Meanwhile, in a corner that Joelson and Elena could not see, there were still over a hundred people hiding in the surrounding area.

These people's strength was generally above the basic-level of the deity domain. Their actions were clean and efficient. They wore black clothes and their bodies carried a dense baleful aura. With just a glance, one could tell that they had killed quite a number of people.

Seeing this situation, Joelson could not help but curl his lips.

This fellow was really acting cool in front of him.

It seemed that he still did not know who was the founder of the world of acting cool.

Of course, Joelson would not reveal his thoughts to everyone. Otherwise, Joelson's persona would completely collapse.

Bolen did not speak the entire time. He slowly approached Joelson and Elena before he started speaking.

Right now, under the encirclement of so many top experts, Bolen wasn't the slightest bit worried that Joelson would be able to escape.

"Hello, unknown friends."

“I’m the eldest son of the Elizabeth family, Bolen Elizabeth.”

“I presume that the two of you also know why I’ve come. There’s no need for us to waste our breath.”

“Hand over the item, and our Elizabeth family will consider giving you a certain amount of compensation.”

“If you don’t hand it over...”

Bolen narrowed his eyes and didn’t continue.

However, Elena and Joelson both understood what Bolen didn’t say.

“Mr. Joelson...”

“What did he say...”

Elena looked at Joelson as if she was asking for help. In her impression, Joelson had only bid for the soul-absorbing lilac flower...

Did he secretly bid for something else?

He glanced at Elena without any change in expression.

He was conflicted about whether he should reveal his identity or not.

Actually, my leg injury had already healed. I was using the crutches these days to make you care about me.

I was just pretending to be sick and trying to flirt with you.

If he were to tell Elena so bluntly right now, there was an 80% chance that he would fail.

Facing an angry Elena, it might be many times more difficult to flirt with her in the future.

And if he did not expose himself, he would not have a better opportunity to reveal that his leg injury had healed.

Limping every day was indeed very inconvenient.

As for Elena’s personal safety...

Joelson had never considered this problem. Under the protection of Joelson’s magic power, not to mention these minions, whose strength was only at the peak of the deity domain, even that mysterious existence, who had hidden himself extremely well, it would be extremely difficult for him to sneak an attack and injure Elena.

Of course, Elena wouldn't be able to discover this magic with exaggerated defensive power.

Joelson pondered for a while.

Finally, he took a deep breath and shook his head helplessly.

"Alright, I'll give it to you."

Joelson took out a ring from his pocket.

Seeing that this ring clearly had the mark of the Kardas family, Bolen became even more certain of his suspicions.

Elena didn't know what to do either. She didn't know what exactly was contained in this ring.

Was it the soul-absorbing lilac flower...

Or the resplendent gemstone...

Seeing that Joelson had no intention of resisting, Bolen nodded with satisfaction and said.

"Since the two of you are so cooperative, I'll thank you on behalf of the Elizabeth family."

"If the two of you need compensation, you can come to the Elizabeth family in the inner city to take it."

After saying this, Bolen let someone take the ring from Joelson's hand.

Although Bolen was extremely satisfied at this moment, a disdainful expression still flashed across his eyes.

After taking the ring, Bolen slowly poured magic power into it.

With a flash of light, the item within immediately appeared in Bolen's hand.

Greenlandia soul absorbing lilac flower?

Bolen's face darkened.

Bolen slowly injected magic power into the ring.

As the magic power slowly poured into the ring with the image of the Kardas family, a faint magic halo slowly filled the dark ring.

The patterns on the ring were gradually filled with magic power...

Light flashed!

An object the size of a human head directly appeared in Bolen's hand.

This object weighed around ten kilograms. A bone-piercing chill came from it the moment it landed in his hand.

This was not a resplendent gem. It was the Greenlandia soul absorbing lilac flower that was auctioned off to Joelson!

The smile on Bolen's face immediately froze. His face seemed to be covered with dark clouds.

The corner of his mouth, which was originally smiling, was twitching non-stop at this moment. He raised the Greenlandia soul-absorbing lilac flower in his hand and began to tremble in anger.

The old butler was following by the side. This was the first time he had seen Bolen so angry.

He looked at the innocent-looking Joelson in the distance and shook his head helplessly in his heart. In his heart, he had already sentenced Joelson and Elena to death.

They actually dared to play such a trick on Young Master Bolen. It seemed that they were tired of living!

There were many good-tempered young masters in the Elizabeth family but Bolen was definitely not one of them.

Although he was usually amiable on the surface, that was only on the surface.

Once it did not conform to Bolen's intentions, then Bolen's anger would follow one after another, making people feel terrified!

Although he had seen many scenes of Bolen being angry, this was the first time he had been so angry.

At this moment, Bolen was so angry that his hands were trembling. He gritted his teeth and continuously emitted the sound of grinding teeth.

Blue veins popped up on his face.

“You... are... playing... with... me?”

Bolen practically squeezed out a few words from between his teeth as he enunciated each word clearly.

At this moment, everyone understood Bolen's rage.

Bolen was the eldest young master of the Elizabeth family. Naturally, he had received the most outstanding training since he was young. Although his talent was not top-notch, he had already possessed the strength of a deity's domain even though he was not even thirty years old yet.

Of course, Bolen's strength was not small. With such an enraged expression, cracks immediately appeared on the ice cube in his hand.

Crack!

The ice was unable to withstand Bolen's strength and was instantly reduced to fine powder!

Even the Greenlandic soul-absorbing lilac flower was directly reduced to fine powder!

Joelson frowned slightly, but he did not say anything.

At this moment, through his magic detection, two rapidly approaching black shadows appeared.

Their speed was very fast. It was not long before they arrived at their location.

“Butler, teach this guy a good lesson.”

Bolen said angrily.

Although he was angry at this moment, he had not lost his mind. He added another sentence.

“It's fine as long as he remains alive. I want to show him the real pain.”

The old butler behind Bolen sighed helplessly and could only nod.

He slowly walked forward and stretched his back.

“I'm sorry, young man. This is the young master's request.”

“I’m just a butler. I can’t disobey orders.”

After the old butler said this, his figure immediately disappeared from where he was.

The next moment, a cold attack directly appeared at the position of Joelson!

Elena looked at the attack that was rapidly approaching her. She was extremely afraid.

After facing the direwolf once again, Elena felt a deep sense of despair, as well as a sense of powerlessness.

She did not have any power that could change the current situation.

The enemy was simply too powerful. They did not even have the space to risk their lives.

She was merely a basic adventurer in the deity domain. Against a peak-stage deity-domain adventurer like the old butler, who possessed extremely powerful combat experience, there was not the slightest possibility of them winning.

However, at this moment, a circle of green magic light suddenly lit up beneath the feet of Joelson and Elena.

“Wind Elf! Listen to my command and change your position!”

A mysterious voice suddenly appeared in space.

The light rapidly formed a magic array. Following which, the magic array quickly charged!

Everyone present was stunned. They had recognized this magic array. This was a wind-type teleportation spell!

Someone wanted to bring Joelson and Elena away from this place.

“Old butler, stop him!”

Bolen shouted. He did not want to see Joelson and Elena escape from the inescapable net that he had set up.

Wind-Type Spell: Transfiguration.

The green wind-type spell was fast lightning. It could recharge at a rapid speed and help others escape from their positions immediately.

Although this teleportation spell could only teleport a person out for 300 meters at most, they were still surrounded by Bolen.

However, their current location could not be controlled. If they appeared at the weak position that Bolen had set up, then the two of them would have the possibility of escaping.

“Trying to escape?”

“Impossible!”

The old butler’s cold attack had arrived.

The old butler’s two fists were thrown out, aiming at the lower abdomen of both Joelson and Elena!

The old butler was very clear about the power of his punch, and he was also very clear about the effect of the wind elf’s shape-shifting shadow spell.

The shape-shifting shadow spell could only shift the existence within the formation.

If Elena and Joelson were hit by this attack, then the powerful impact would allow the two of them to leave the formation where the shape-shifting shadow spell was.

Although he did not know who wanted to help Joelson and Elena escape, he knew very well the cooldown of the skill.

A full ten minutes!

These ten minutes were enough for Joelson and Elena to die countless times!

After all, the old butler was a peak expert in the deity domain!

In almost an instant, the old butler’s powerful fists struck Joelson and Elena’s bodies.

Success!

Bolen also understood the old butler’s thoughts. At this moment, when he saw that the old butler’s fists had successfully struck the two of them before the array was fully charged, he could not help but be overjoyed!

However, at this moment, the old butler’s expression was incomparably gloomy!

Just as his fists struck the bodies of Joelson and Elena, the feeling that came from his fists did not feel like a physical body at all, but more like an indestructible diamond!

The terrifying hardness almost shattered the old butler's hands!

In just a split second, the shape-shifting formation under the feet of Joelson and Elena was fully charged. Their figures flashed and disappeared from the spot.

"No!"

Seeing the two of them disappear, Bolen shouted.

Translator: Simple MTL Editor: Simple MTL

"No!"

Seeing the two of them disappear, Bolen roared.

The old butler's two punches missed, and he was similarly stunned on the spot.

He looked at his trembling hands. His eyes were filled with an indescribable shock.

How was this possible!

One had to know that he had the strength of a peak-stage deity domain expert. Not to mention a rock, even if a mountain was placed in front of him, the old butler would be able to easily punch through it with a single punch.

Yet, despite these two terrifying punches, the old butler was unable to break through his opponent's defense...

In fact, he did not even injure his opponent!

This had completely exceeded the old butler's expectations.

In particular, at that instant, he had even seen Joelson's disdainful gaze.

Of course, as everything had happened in a split second, the old butler was not sure if he had been mistaken over Joelson's disdainful gaze.

But the feeling of his hands was definitely not mistaken.

Up until now, the old butler's hands were in pain as if they were about to shatter.

On the side, Bolen roared indignantly.

After a long while, Bolen finally recovered from his shock. He looked at the old butler beside him, and his eyes were filled with a strong viciousness as he spoke slowly.

“Old butler, give me an explanation.”

Although Bolen’s voice was extremely calm, the old butler knew that Bolen was currently at the peak of his anger.

He helplessly sighed and raised his trembling hands as he spoke.

“I’m very sorry, Young Master.”

“I’m not trying to deny it. It’s just that I really didn’t manage to break through the opponent’s defense just now. In fact, my hands were almost crippled from the attack just now.”

“I don’t know who attacked, but I’m afraid that the opponent’s strength is not lower than mine.”

The old butler told the truth.

However, Bolen narrowed his eyes and said, “Who exactly is it that dares to snatch people in front of our Elizabeth family? It seems that they are tired of living.”

“Now is not the time. Everyone, go and find them!”

“The shape-shifting formation can only cover a distance of 300 meters. I don’t believe that they can escape from the inescapable net that I have set up!”

Bolen said fiercely.

...

At the same time.

Joelson and Elena’s figures flashed at the same time and appeared in a remote place.

In front of them were two young girls wearing black night clothes.

Joelson raised his eyebrows. These two were the two maids behind the Glenn family’s Amys in the auction house’s VIP Room No. 2.

It seemed that the current Joelson and Elena had been saved by these two maids.

Seeing that Joelson and Elena were safe and sound, the two maids couldn’t help but let out a long sigh.

Although these two maids were wearing the same style of clothes, their hair was a double ponytail and a long straight black hair respectively.

The little hands with the double ponytail patted her own chests as she spoke.

“That really scared me to death. That old man’s speed is too fast. It seems that his strength has already reached the peak of the deity realm...”

“I clearly felt that that old fellow’s attack had already made a move, but why didn’t it hurt you guys? I thought that our plan had failed...”

“What are you two looking at? If I hadn’t moved you away just now, you would have died!”

The twin ponytails looked at Joelson unhappily.

“Alright. Alright. Romi, let’s stop talking for now. We’re not out of danger yet. We don’t have time to chat.”

The long black-haired woman called the twin ponytails Romi.

“Got it, Mia...”

“Can’t you say a few more words? Be careful not to become a nagging old woman when you get old.”

Romi stuck out her tongue at Mia and directly grabbed Elena’s small hand.

“Come with us. This place is still in the area that the Elizabeth family has sealed off. I know a way to the downtown area.”

“As long as we leave the encirclement of the Elizabeth family, we should be fine.”

“This is a law promulgated by Lord Leighton. Even the Elizabeth family wouldn’t dare to rashly defy it.”

Romi said in a very friendly manner.

“Lord Leighton?”

“Who are you guys?”

Elena was a bit confused by this sudden matter. She didn’t know what to do.

“Sigh... Don’t you know this? Forget it, the situation is urgent now. In short, let’s take action first. I’ll explain it to you slowly on the way!”

Romi shrugged and immediately took Elena and Joelson away from the street corner.

Not long after Romi and Mia left this place with Joelson, the assassin team found the place.

They saw the familiar remains of the shape-shifting formation on the ground. They could not help but frown and pick up the short-distance communication magic tool.

“Sir, we have found traces of their escape...”

...

The four of them jogged.

At this moment, Joelson still had not found a reason to put down his walking stick. He was still holding his walking stick and following the footsteps of the three girls.

On the way, Romi could not help but turn her head to look at Joelson.

She was really puzzled as to why Joelson could run so fast with his walking stick.

Could it be that this guy was a world-class long-distance race champion before he was on crutches?

However, when it came to Joelson’s handicapped position, Romi was too embarrassed to ask. Although she was very curious, she ultimately restrained herself from asking.

Along the way, Romi also told Elena about the questions that she was curious about.

Only then did Elena know that the Lord Leighton that they were talking about was the king of the underground city.

And the two maids were here to protect them.

But when she asked why Romi and Mia wanted to protect them, Romi giggled and refused to say anything. She looked at Joelson.

Joelson naturally glanced to the side.

Although he knew what the two girls were planning, he also needed the resplendent gem to find Lorna and the fragment of the death artifact.

If it was anything else, perhaps Joelson would consider it. Resplendent gemstone?

Forget about it!

The four of them jogged along, chatting and laughing. It was impossible to tell that they were currently being pursued by the Elizabeth family.

In the distance, the bustling streets could already be seen.

“Look, we’re about to break through the Elizabeth family’s blockade.”

Romi pointed at a spot not far away and said excitedly.

“I have an ominous premonition...”

Mia frowned slightly and looked at the corner of the street.

At this moment, countless footsteps suddenly sounded in the surroundings.

They were extremely fast and were surrounding them!

“Oh no!”

“When did we reveal our tracks?”

Romi blinked her large eyes, and her expression couldn’t help but turn ugly.

“There’s still a distance of about 500 meters...”

“If we forcefully break through, we might have a chance!”

Romi looked at the surrounding figures that were already surrounding them, and she curled her lips as she spoke.

After forcefully breaking out of the encirclement, the Elizabeth family did not care about the lives of the poor, and directly started killing!

“There’s still about 500 meters left...”

“Forcefully breaking through, there might be a chance!”

Romi looked at the surrounding figures that had already surrounded them, and curled her lips as she spoke.

“The opponent’s strength is much stronger than ours!”

Mia said worriedly from the side.

There was still a full three minutes left before the cooldown of the [form shifting shadow] finished. It was already too late for her to use it again to dodge the Elizabeth family’s pursuit.

Elena pursed her lips as a hint of anxiety flashed across her eyes.

Ever since she had encountered the direwolf and been saved by Joelson, Elena had shockingly discovered that she had always been the one being protected.

However, Elena could have faced the risk alone!

She was also a warrior and an adventurer!

Elena didn't want to be a burden to the team.

"Everyone, please listen to me."

Elena pursed her lips and said with a frown.

"There are still five hundred meters between us and the street. Even if Mr. Joelson were to burst out at full speed, he should be able to break through within ten seconds with the support of magic."

"I have a way to resist them for around three seconds. Let me do it!"

Elena made up her mind and said.

When Romi saw Elena's serious expression, he could not help but chuckle.

"Please. You only have the strength of a deity domain primary stage. How can you be a match for them?"

"Even if you can really hold them off for a few seconds, you'll still end up in the tiger's den. According to our young miss's instructions, I reckon that we'll have to come back and save you."

"Don't make a move. Watch what sister Mia and I will do."

After touching Elena's head, Romi turned around and looked at the countless figures rapidly approaching her.

At this moment, the twin ponytails on Romi's back suddenly fluttered. An intense aura directly erupted with Romi as the center.

Bang!

A green cyclone directly enveloped Romi. The originally golden twin ponytails had completely turned green at this moment. The black nightwear on her body continuously swayed, revealing the graceful figure hidden within it.

"All of you, run!"

“As long as you enter the streets, you’ll be safe!”

“When the time comes, don’t forget to report my contributions to the young miss!”

Romi made a small, brilliant face at Elena and the others. Following which, the mana throughout her body surged to its peak.

“Wind Elf, listen to my command!”

“Transform into endless power and temporarily increase my strength!”

Romi let out a lovely cry. Her power, which had been at the middle-stage of the deity realm, instantly skyrocketed, and within a short period of time, she had reached the peak of the deity realm!

Although it seemed as though she had only increased her power by two minor realms, the increase in power she had given to Romi was incomparably enormous!

It must be known that ordinary people, without divine sparks, would be unable to advance one step further from the peak of the deity realm to become a demigod.

Thus, the power of a peak-level divine realm expert was practically the peak of the underground city’s power!

Romi looked at her hands, feeling her incomparably powerful strength. A hint of joy flashed through her eyes.

Although her current power didn’t last long and consumed Romi’s life force, she was able to truly sense the power of the underground city’s peak!

“You bunch of fellows, properly become a stepping stone for my Lady Romi!”

“Wind element, quickly transform into an incomparably ferocious green dragon and devour the enemy in front of me!”

Romi cried out in a lovely voice. Her small hand suddenly pointed in the air.

Layers of ripples were directly created by Romi’s finger.

Soon after, an incomparably complicated magic array appeared in front of Romi.

The magic array was at least three meters in size. Under the crazy infusion of Romi’s magic power, it shone with an incomparably intense and dazzling light.

Within the complicated magic array, a green dragon-like pattern was being formed. It was just like a black hole that was devouring everything, crazily devouring the surrounding wind elements.

Not far away, the dozens of killers frowned when they saw Romi who was casting a spell.

“They want to break through the blockade by force. Stop them!”

“That guy wants to cast a spell!”

“We can’t let them escape! We can’t bear the anger of Young Master Bolen!”

Many people snorted and increased their speed again.

In the narrow and dark Elk Alley, the distance between the two parties was rapidly closing!

Swoosh!

After many figures increased their speed to the maximum, one sonic boom after another was actually transmitted.

At this moment, the magic array that Romi pointed out with her right hand was also fully charged.

A haggard look flashed across Romi’s small face, but even so, her eyes were filled with an unconcealable excitement!

This was the strongest move that she could unleash until now!

“Go, Green Wind Dragon!”

“Devour them!”

Romi’s voice had just sounded when a deafening dragon roar was suddenly transmitted from within the magic array!

The entire small alley began to shake violently at this moment. The bricks fell off and the clothes that had been dried fell to the ground!

This scene was just like an earthquake!

In the next second, the enormous green wind dragon’s voice suddenly appeared!

Its powerful aura caused one to feel fear!

When the green wind dragon's figure appeared, it immediately swept up a hurricane in the alley. The pressure of the dragon race was clearly displayed at this moment!

Beside him, Joelson's eyes could not help but light up.

"It is actually able to use magic to simulate the aura of a dragon. Although it is only the weakest of the sub-dragons, to be able to do this is already very impressive."

Mia, who was fleeing with Joelson and Elena, turned her head to look at Romi, who was blocking the enemy. A trace of worry could not help but flash across her eyes.

"That magic can only be released when Romi burns the life force in her body..."

"What!"

Elena cried out in surprise. She subconsciously turned her head to look.

Romi's valiant and valiant back, which was like that of the valkyrie, could still be seen.

Was such powerful strength obtained by burning her life force in exchange for it?

Elena did not understand. She frowned and asked Mia.

"Why?"

"Why are you willing to pay such a huge price to save us?"

Mia was silent for a long time before she slowly said.

"This is just the young miss's arrangement. We are just chess pieces of an execution tool. We don't have the right to ask."

"No, Romi won't be able to hold on at this rate!"

"We have to go back and save her!"

Elena stopped walking, her words were filled with determination.

"No, if this goes on, Romi won't be able to hold on!"

"We have to go back and save her!"

Elena stopped in her tracks, her words were filled with determination.

"Are you crazy!"

“Romi was the one who stayed behind to protect you guys. If you guys go back now, wouldn’t all of Romi’s efforts be in vain?”

Mia grabbed Elena’s arm and said anxiously.

“But I can feel that Romi’s life is being drained!”

Elena said unwillingly.

Under her magic power perception, Romi’s life force was rapidly draining. At this rate, Romi would not be able to hold on for more than half a minute.

If Romi’s magic power and life force were exhausted, it was likely that Romi would immediately be captured by the enemy. At that time, Romi would be in danger.

“If Romi is captured, won’t she suffer in our place?”

“In the most extreme case, Romi might die!”

Elena pursed her lips and said.

“No, Romi will at most suffer a little. I promise you, Romi will definitely not die.”

“We are sent by the young miss to protect you. After Romi is captured by Bolen and the others, the young miss will naturally negotiate with the Elizabeth family. At most, she will be able to exchange Romi for a bit of compensation!”

Mia looked at the huge green dragon released by Romi behind her and hurriedly said.

“Um, why don’t I do it?”

Looking at Mia and Elena’s anxious quarrel, Joelson couldn’t help but raise his eyebrows and pointed at himself.

“If I do it, everything should be settled.”

“Mr. Joelson, there’s no time to joke now! Although I know you have some extraordinary abilities, you’re not a match for those big families!”

“Didn’t you see how many assassins that guy sent just now wanted to capture us?”

A hint of anxiety flashed across Elena’s eyes.

“Let’s go quickly. Don’t let Romi’s efforts go to waste!”

Mia said.

Elena nodded and finally turned around to look at Romi's back, who was releasing the huge green dragon. Two green ponytails were floating in the air.

"I'm sorry, Romi."

Elena pursed her lips and could not help but harden her heart. She turned around and ran toward the street not far away.

Seeing that Elena did not allow him to make a move, Joelson sighed helplessly.

He turned to look at Romi who was currently engaged in a fierce battle and shook his head helplessly.

"I'll help you out. Whether you can leave or not will depend on yourself."

Joelson's eyes narrowed. The assassins who were heading towards Romi in the distance suddenly felt a terrifying killing intent!

This kind of frightening killing intent was more than they had ever seen in their entire lives combined. Even though they had seen countless mountains of corpses and seas of blood, they could not help but shudder.

At that instant, it was as if they had fallen into an endless abyss. Their souls were sealed in an ice cellar.

It was also because of this moment of hesitation that Romi, who was ready to attack, had the opportunity to attack.

At this moment, Romi had used a secret technique to forcefully increase her strength. Currently, a peak-tier deity domain expert would not be able to hold on for long. At most, she would be able to hold on for a little longer before she forcefully withdrew from this excited state, she would be temporarily exhausted.

At that time, if Romi still had no way of dealing with the enemy before her, the only outcome awaiting her would be her capture.

Therefore, Romi had no other choice but to fight with her back to the wall.

She had to go all out and kill the assassins who were chasing after Elena in the shortest time possible.

Boom!

The assassins who wanted to dodge Romi's attack were restrained by the cold look of Joelson.

The green dragon attack released by Romi completely hit them.

In an instant, the earth shook and the sky shook!

The entire Elk Alley shook crazily!

After more than ten seconds had passed, the terrifying tremors gradually stopped.

As far as the eye could see, the ground was filled with unconscious or dead assassins.

One had to know that these people's strength was at least at the early-stage of the intermediate deity realm!

Romi's strength had originally only been at the same level as theirs. Now that she had forcefully raised her strength, she was actually able to create an attack of this level. How could this not be shocking!

Looking at the damage she had caused, Romi forcefully suppressed the weak aura in her body. Her eyes could not help but be filled with joy.

She could feel that after releasing such a terrifying move, her understanding of the wind element had become even deeper.

If she could survive, she might be able to break through to a higher realm in the future.

Although Romi had instantly killed all the enemies in her sight, there were more than just a few assassins from the Elizabeth family who had been assigned by Bolen.

Following the rapid footsteps from afar, Romi gave a bitter laugh.

She knew that with her current condition, there was no way she could continue to stop the enemy's actions.

The secret technique that she used to forcefully increase her strength would end in ten seconds at most, forcing her to enter a state of exhaustion.

Facing countless assassins from the Elizabeth family, she was afraid that her ending would not be too good...

Da! Da! Da!

Countless black shadows directly surrounded Romi's delicate body, instantly blocking off all of Romi's escape routes.

Romi did not think of escaping, the aura around her body condensed once again.

She wanted to release another spell in the last few seconds before she could fight to stop the enemy's footsteps.

However, just as the magic power in her body circulated, a black shadow that shot from afar directly hit Romi's lower abdomen.

Puchi!

Romi, who was still gathering her strength, was interrupted by this sudden attack. The magic that was about to come out was interrupted!

A mouthful of blood was spat out from Romi's mouth. The aura on her body was rapidly declining. It seemed that Romi could no longer maintain the secret technique that could increase her strength.

"Damn it..."

"I still haven't been able to use my last move..."

Romi somewhat pathetically wiped the fresh blood at the corner of her mouth. Waves of intense fatigue came from her entire body. In front of her eyes, waves of blackness came one after another.

"Isn't this the dog that the Glenn family reared?"

"Why would it appear here?"

At this moment, an extremely discordant voice came from afar.

Romi raised her head and looked over. It was the eldest young master of the Elizabeth family, Bolen, and the old butler who was only following behind him.

The old butler was holding two small stones in his hands. It was precisely these stones that forcefully interrupted Romi's attack earlier!

Translator: Simple MTL Editor: Simple MTL

Tap. Tap. Tap.

Footsteps kept coming.

Romi raised her head and saw that Bolen and the old butler had appeared in front of her.

Romi frowned and looked at the two fellows in front of her without saying a word.

“Could it be that the one who has been obstructing me is your Glenn family?”

At this moment, Bolen Elizabeth had already recovered from her previous state of fury. A faint smile still appeared on her face, and she looked very easy to talk to.

“Hmph. Young Master Bolen, I have nothing to say to you.”

Romi forcefully maintained her body, preventing herself from falling to the ground.

Bang!

A muffled sound rang out!

Romi's eyes instantly bulged a little.

Bolen's foot ruthlessly kicked Romi's lower abdomen!

At this moment, Romi was already like a candle in the wind. How could she endure this kick from Bolen?

One had to know that Bolen's strength was also at the deity domain level. Although he did not have much combat experience, this did not mean that he was weak.

As a result, Romi's body was sent flying by Bolen's kick. Her delicate body flew backward, landing heavily on the wall beside her.

The wall had been damaged by Romi's green dragon earlier and many of the bricks had fallen off. Now that Romi's delicate body had crashed into the wall, the wall could no longer bear the weight and collapsed.

Boom!

Countless smoke and dust scattered.

Bolen looked at his exquisite leather shoes, which were covered in dirt and blood, and could not help but frown.

“What a dirty place. Dirty people.”

“Butler, have those people with the bright gemstones run far away?”

Bolen did not turn around, and said to the old butler behind him indifferently.

“Young Master, because of this girl, those people have already broken through our family's blockade and entered the densely populated intersection.”

The old butler frowned and said.

Although the Elizabeth family was a magnate in the underground city and could be said to be an existence that walked unhindered, it could only be said to be below one person and above ten thousand people.

Above the head of the Elizabeth family, the imperial family and the underground city's king, Leighton.

Leighton had previously issued a special law forbidding their large families in the inner city to come to the outer city and act wantonly.

If the Elizabeth family kept a low profile, even if the underground city king, Leighton, and the royal family found out about it, they would at most turn a blind eye to it, however, if the Elizabeth family chose to chase after Joelson and the others in the crowded streets, it would incur Leighton's fury.

The Elizabeth family could not bear such fury.

Hearing the old butler's words, Bolen could not help but subconsciously frown.

"Butler, are you saying that we can no longer chase after them?"

"You're right, Young Master..."

"If we continue to chase after them, I'm afraid that his majesty will be enraged..."

The old butler spoke in an extremely sincere manner.

If they continued to chase after them and provoked Leighton's fury, who knew what kind of punishment the Elizabeth family would receive.

It wasn't impossible for them to be removed from the inner city.

Bolen's brows were tightly knitted. At this moment, a sound suddenly came from a corner that had been destroyed by Bolen and turned into ruins.

Romi crawled out from the ruins with great difficulty. At this moment, her entire body was covered in wounds and her clothes were tattered.

Her entire body was in an extremely weak state. It could be said that at this moment, Romi's physical fitness was even inferior to that of an ordinary person.

"You're so lucky?"

Bolen raised his eyebrows and sneered.

“Capture the dog that the Glenn family raised for me.”

Before Bolen finished his words, Romi, who was in the distant ruins, was directly dragged over by two assassins by her collar, as if she was dragging trash.

“I remember that you are one of the followers of Amys, right?”

Bolen paused for a moment and recalled Romi’s identity.

“Go to hell...”

Romi was extremely weak at this moment, but she still spat out two words from her mouth.

Bolen frowned slightly and directly grabbed Romi’s neck, lifting her up.

At this moment, she was suddenly deprived of the right to breathe, and Romi’s entire body was trembling non-stop.

“Don’t you understand the current situation?”

“Before your eldest daughter redeems you, I only need to keep you alive. Do you know what this means?”

Bolen sneered. He pulled his face closer to Romi and continued speaking.

“This means that I can torture you to my heart’s content.”

“I can completely cripple all the magic power in your body, turning you into a complete waste!”

“Or I can let my subordinates break your limbs...”

“Take a guess. After your eldest daughter redeems you, she’ll see that you’re already a waste that can’t be used. Will she still keep you by her side?”

Hearing Bolen’s words, Romi’s pupils suddenly constricted.

Bolen’s heart-wrenching words had indeed hurt Romi at this moment.

“Tell me about the guy who got the resplendent gemstone and I might be able to let you live...”

Bolen snorted coldly and tightened his grip on Romi’s neck.

“Aaaahhhh...”

Romi groaned in pain, and her four limbs started to struggle uncontrollably.

Bolen let go of his hands, and Romi's delicate body instantly fell to the ground.

Once again possessing the ability to breathe, Romi couldn't help but take large breaths.

"Come, tell me his information."

Bolen glanced at Romi on the ground, looking at Romi as if he was looking at trash.

"I'm sorry, Young Master Bolen..."

Romi struggled to get up from the ground, coldly looking at Bolen in front of her.

"Our Glenn family really doesn't know anything about their intelligence."

"I'm only under orders to protect them."

"In the end, what our Glenn family wants most isn't an opportunity to head to Lorna. We just don't want your Elizabeth family to obtain that resplendent gemstone..."

Before Romi could finish her words, Bolen's palm had already slapped her fiercely.

Bolen's strength was so great that Romi's delicate body was instantly sent flying by another meter.

"Lock this guy up and torture him properly!"

Bolen said coldly.

"Butler, tell those killers not to worry and continue to chase after those guys."

"I don't believe that they can really escape from my palm!"

"Young Master, please think twice before you act!"

The old butler saw this and quickly wanted to stop Bolen but he was interrupted by Bolen himself.

"Butler, are you going to stop me too?"

The old butler wanted to say something but, in the end, he shook his head and sighed.