

Breeding Dragons From Today

Chapter 651: The Loyalty of the Soldiers of the Underground City. The True Thoughts of the Nobles!

I hope that this foreigner can lead the underground city to glory!

Kneeling on the ground, the captain of the guards, Nair, thought of this and expressed his submission to the other party. This attitude was so respectful.

When the guards behind saw that their captain, Nair, actually showed such high respect to this man, the man who had just killed the old king, they were instantly shocked.

"Captain Nair, he..."

One of the soldiers pointed at Nair in surprise, unable to speak for a long time.

"Hey! Hey! Hey!"

Another soldier cried out in surprise.

"You have to know that the old King Reynolds has just died. Is this still the most loyal man to the royal family?"

The surprised cry of that soldier instantly attracted even more soldiers to watch.

"No way, no way!"

"This behavior is directly thinking about the foreigner offering his loyalty. Is this operation really okay?"

"Hey, hey, hey, should we kneel as well!"

The soldiers immediately exploded in discussion.

The scene of the soldiers talking crazily also quickly attracted the attention of some nobles.

When they looked at the center of the plaza, the scene in front of them shocked many nobles!

When these nobles saw the scene of Captain Nair kneeling down, they immediately exploded!

"Hey, look!"

A noble dressed luxuriously saw Captain Nair kneeling down in front of Joelson and was instantly stunned. He hurriedly called the people around him to come over and take a look at the scene in front of him.

A few other similarly luxuriously dressed nobles beside him felt annoyed when they were being tugged at. After repeatedly expressing that they were not going to look at him, the other party continued to pursue him relentlessly. They immediately felt a wave of displeasure, as he shouted, he flung the other party's hand away.

"Don't touch me, idiot!"

The noble who was being tugged at looked angrily at the noble who was tugging at his clothes. At the same time, he responded with an angry expression.

They were discussing a very important issue. Should they continue to support the son of the old King Reynolds, Leighton!

Although the old King Reynolds had been completely defeated and the hearts of the people had been completely lost, Leighton was, after all, Reynolds's son. He was the only legitimate heir of the underground city, this status made them worry even more when they were considering abandoning the old king's old regime.

That was the problem of their reputation!

These nobles who did not hold weapons were quite concerned about their own reputation!

Just as they were intensely discussing countermeasures, a person interrupted them. How could they not feel angry!

"Look over there! It's a major event!"

Although the noble who was sent away was not welcomed, he still said anxiously.

This matter was too important. It was so important that he had no choice but to ignore the public's objections and remind the others to pay attention to this!

This would be a historic scene for the future of the underground city!

"What?"

Finally, under the aristocrat's persistent persistence, the aristocrat finally looked at the scene in front of him. However, when he saw the scene in front of him, they immediately felt a wave of shock!

"Ah!"

They opened their mouths wide and looked at the scene in front of them.

"The captain of the guards who is loyal to the royal family, Nair, is actually facing that foreigner...!"

When the nobles saw the scene in front of them, they all had different thoughts in their hearts.

Some of them had a beneficial relationship with the captain of the guards. Some of them had no relationship with the captain of the guards. Some of them only knew the captain of the guards, Nair. And some of them had a superior-subordinate relationship with the captain of the guards...

No matter what the relationship between each person and Captain Nair was, they all knew that one thing was certain. After today, Captain Nair of the underground city would declare his loyalty to the outsider! This meant that the old king's power could not be restored!

Moreover, this also meant that Captain Nair would be the first person to board the ship of the new regime of the underground city.

This kind of treatment could not help but make many of them feel extremely envious and jealous!

This was great. If they could become the first person, the treatment they would receive would definitely not be shallow!

In such a position, quite a number of them were very envious. They wanted to compete with each other to offer their loyalty to Joelson. However, the people they usually set up were not like this, due to their pride, these nobles missed the opportunity and let Captain Nair take the lead!

This Captain Nair was really observant!

Some of the nobles began to think about their choice with Captain Nair. Was this choice really right? Could this foreigner, Joelson, really lead the underground city to a glorious tomorrow, towards a spring that did not exist!

Some of the people among them had heated gazes, some lowered their heads in thought, while others were looking at Captain Nair with venomous gazes.

These people were naturally people who could not come onto the ship of the new regime. Just now, they were also the ones who had been trying to use the old king,

Leighton, against the public opinion, they were supporting the king's authority given to Leighton by the underground city's first law code.

The reason was very simple, because they were the Elizabeth family's ministers in the dynasty!

These ministers' intestines were now green with regret. These people had no choice but to stand on the same side as the Elizabeth family because of their relationship in the family.

However, they knew very well in their hearts, how much the Elizabeth family had helped them in the past, and how badly they had screwed them now!

This Elizabeth family, who didn't deserve to be provoked, had actually provoked a man whom even the underground city's Iron-Blooded King Reynolds couldn't defeat.

This man was simply like a god. Such a man, yet the Elizabeth family had provoked him in an impartial manner—and the way they provoked him was quite irreconcilable!

Now that the old King Reynolds had been killed by Joelson, the nobles of the Elizabeth family were very clear that the tide had passed. The current king had completely collapsed, not to mention that Leighton had gone mad. To not mention that there was no one who could defeat this Joelson now.

Chapter 652: The Elizabeth Family in Fear

The old King Reynolds had already been killed by Joelson.

These nobles of the Elizabeth family understood very clearly in their hearts. They were now very clear that the tide had already passed!

The collapse of the old king's glory was already inevitable!

The current royal family had lost both the hearts of the people and the hearts of the people. It really made people feel that they could no longer support themselves.

Since the current king had completely collapsed, not to mention that Leighton had gone crazy.

Just take the current underground city for example. In front of Joelson, the strongest experts who were only at the peak of the deity-domain realm were not even worthy of carrying their shoes!

Right now, there was not a single person in the underground city who could contend against Joelson!

Joelson's strength, which was so powerful that it exceeded everyone's understanding, could not be underestimated!

Not to mention having the capital to contend with Joelson, just the courage to confront him was probably not something that many people would dare to bring out!

This meant that even if they had strong people in their hands, confronting Joelson was not a path that could be taken smoothly!

Under such a large background, it seemed that they could only follow the path of Joelson's will. However, there were a few people who could not walk this path at all.

Those people were the representatives and ministers that the Elizabeth family had arranged in the palace!

It was fine if they had hooked up with them. However, at this moment, they had instantly fallen out with each other and refused to admit their wrongdoings. They berated the various evil deeds of the Elizabeth family, as if they had never received any benefits from the Elizabeth family!

One had to know that they had previously wanted to squeeze into the banquet of the Elizabeth family with respectful faces, so that they could obtain the attention of the Elizabeth family and be able to climb up to this great family.

At this moment, those who had yet to climb up to the Elizabeth family's ship had all turned hostile, expressing that they and the Elizabeth family were sworn enemies!

Those fence-sitters who had been bribed by the Elizabeth family but had an ambiguous attitude also instantly severed their relationship with the Elizabeth family. They all wanted to quickly sever their relationship with the Elizabeth family, they were afraid of getting into trouble!

Who asked the Elizabeth family to offend such a powerful expert, Joelson!

All of them had witnessed the strength of Joelson. Wanting to destroy the entire Elizabeth family was simply a matter that could be solved with the snap of a finger. It could be done in a matter of minutes!

As they were well-informed, they had already inquired about the story of the Elizabeth family and this outsider, Joelson. This allowed them to quickly make the wisest judgment.

The Elizabeth family had already collapsed!

Those of them who were still able to jump out had all jumped out of the boat!

These ministers had previously taken advantage of the benefits of the Elizabeth family. However, at this moment, they had instantly chosen to sell off the Elizabeth family and leave!

As for those who weren't capable, their relationship with the Elizabeth family was inextricably linked...

They wanted to cry but had no tears.

Most of them were the direct descendants of the Elizabeth family. They were nurtured by the Elizabeth family and sent into the palace.

They were Elizabeth's chess pieces!

They were all grasshoppers tied to the Elizabeth family!

If the Elizabeth family was annihilated, they would definitely not have a good ending!

Under such a situation, the intestines of the few of them were now rolling out in regret.

If only they had not chosen the Elizabeth family at that time!

They thought unwillingly. At the same time, they did not dare to stop talking. They were spreading their thoughts and ideals everywhere. They wanted to rope in even one person to stand on their side so that the death of the Elizabeth family would not be so embarrassing!

Their only chance of survival was to pray that this foreigner, Joelson, did not plan to stay here for too long. After tidying up the Elizabeth family, they would leave immediately!

That's right, they were so humble that they prayed that Joelson would find this place meaningless and leave quickly!

However, this kind of mentality was simply unable to rope in anyone!

Everyone was avoiding the officials of the Elizabeth family just like they were avoiding the god of plagues!

They weren't stupid. The Elizabeth family had provoked an expert like Joelson and they had already died without a burial ground. Now, even the slightest bit of relationship with the Elizabeth family would bring them deep misfortune!

One had to know that this was Joelson, who could even defeat a god!

No one needed to question the power of Joelson!

The death of the old king, Iron-Blooded Reynolds, was the best proof!

If he was willing, the entire underground city would probably be overturned with a single thought!

With such strength, who would dare to stand on the side of the Elizabeth family?

Wouldn't that be courting death?

Hence, everyone couldn't wait to avoid those lobbyists of the Elizabeth family!

They weren't stupid!

At this moment, they saw Guard Captain Nair bow towards Joelson. How could their hearts not waver!

How could their hearts not be filled with anger!

The kneeling of this Guard Captain Nair represented too many things.

In such an environment, Nair, who had pledged his loyalty to the Eldoria and held military power, had defected to Joelson. This meant that they had no chance to turn the tables!

With the first supporter, there would soon be people who would follow suit!

Under such circumstances, everyone would soon defect to Joelson's forces!

It was over. The Elizabeth family was completely finished!

The few of them closed their eyes in pain and gave up struggling.

Their appearance was immediately noticed by the other officials!

They were members of the Glenn family!

Normally, they had always been suppressed but, at this moment, they had never felt so proud before!

Looking at those arrogant and despotic officials of the Elizabeth family, they were dejected. They were even happier than winning five million.

At the same time, they were constantly rejoicing. If their clansmen chose to do the same thing as the Elizabeth family to snatch the resplendent gemstones from Joelson...

All of them felt a cold shiver run down their spines!

They were probably no different from the ashen-faced Elizabeth family now!

At the same time, they were also rejoicing in their hearts.

Fortunately, the members of the Glenn family had foresight and had such foresight!

One had to know that at that time, the auction had just ended. No one knew what kind of strength Joelson had.

Before the situation became clear, they had chosen to help Joelson. This time, their Glenn family would finally rise to fame!

If they had followed the example of the Elizabeth family, they would have died a long time ago!

They clenched their fists in joy and excitement, looking at Joelson's figure with excitement!

Chapter 653: The Triumphant Glenn Family. A Hundred Years of Change in the Underground City!

Before the situation became clear, they had chosen to help Joelson. This time, their Glenn family would finally rise to great heights!

If they had followed the example of the Elizabeth family, they would have died a long time ago!

They clenched their fists in joy and glee as they looked at Joelson's figure in excitement!

That's right, this person was the key to the great change in the Glenn family over the past hundred years!

They must climb up to this powerful thigh now!

The few of them did not doubt him. They were just thinking about how to curry favor with Mr. Joelson. Now that they saw the captain of the guards, Nair, kneel down, they were instantly overjoyed!

With the captain of the guards, Nair, taking the lead, it would be much easier for them!

They quickly walked forward and looked at Joelson with deep eyes.

"We are waiting for the representative of the Glenn family to come and offer our loyalty to Sir Joelson!"

"Long Live Sir Joelson!"

They bowed and followed behind Guard Captain Nair and knelt down.

"Long Live!"

Their voices were loud and shocked everyone present!

When the people in the central plaza saw the ministers and captain of the guards kneeling in front of Joelson, they immediately understood. They understood very well that this was the critical moment when the underground city's structure changed!

Although they were all commoners and received very ordinary education, they did not know much about the structure and did not have much culture.

But even so, they understood the current situation in an instant!

It was very simple. There were so many ministers kneeling in front of Joelson. Wasn't it obvious?

This fact was very clear. It could even be said that everyone knew about it!

In such an environment, no one could not tell what kind of time it was!

This was the key node of the underground city!

The people were very clear. They immediately came forward and cheered!

They knew very well that Joelson was about to ascend to the throne and become their king!

The people immediately began to cheer!

"Long Live King Joelson!"

"Long Live King Joelson!"

The people below were shouting so loudly that the entire canyon shook violently!

They called out Joelson's name excitedly, their hearts filled with respect!

They even called Joelson the great king without permission!

This scene shocked all the officials and elders!

After all, even when the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds ascended to the throne, there wasn't such a loud roar!

But after thinking about it, they could understand what they were thinking.

The reason was very simple. It was because Joelson was their great benefactor who had saved them!

After all, that damned Iron-Blooded King Reynolds wanted to kill them!

That was their respected king!

They had once gave many offerings to this respected king. Every year, their taxes had caused many families to be exhausted, all in order to support their respected Iron-Blooded King Reynolds!

However, that damned Iron-Blooded King actually wanted to kill his loyal subjects the moment he was defeated and knew that his throne was in danger!

Wasn't such a person deserving of death?

This person, whom they respected so much in their hearts, actually wanted to kill them. And that Joelson, who had been booed by them all along, did not know them at all, nor did he receive any benefits from them, however, it was such a stranger who was willing to spare precious energy to protect these people for the sake of them whom they did not know!

How could such a spirit not shock them in their hearts!

How could such a noble character not make them feel touched!

Therefore, they offered their most sincere and sincere call!

"Long Live King Joelson!"

When the officials heard the people's high-pitched call, they immediately understood everything.

That's right, it was a publicly acknowledged fact that Joelson had become the king of the underground city!

Under such circumstances, everyone's resistance, or other plans and thoughts, was meaningless.

Many of the officials who were still hesitating sighed and walked towards Joelson's position.

"We are willing to offer our loyal subjects to King Joelson!"

More and more people walked towards Joelson's feet and knelt down to submit. It was like a domino. If one person chose to walk towards Joelson, there would be more people who would want to step under Joelson's feet!

The people who chose to submit were like nuclear fission. More and more people walked to Joelson's feet and chose what they thought was the right choice!

"We are willing to offer our loyal subjects to King Joelson!"

Seeing more and more people walking to Joelson, a few officials who worked under the Elizabeth family stomped their feet in despair and stomped their feet in anger!

Why, why did everyone choose Joelson!

Damn it!

Why did everyone not want to follow the Elizabeth family!

Clearly, just a few hours ago, their Elizabeth family was the largest and most influential family in the underground city!

Just a few hours ago, just before the auction started, everyone was still chasing after the Elizabeth family like a flock of ducks!

These members who were on the side of Joelson had once been fawning over the Elizabeth family, praying that they could get on the good side of the Elizabeth family!

In just a few hours, all of them, without exception, had fallen to the side of Joelson!

This was something that they could not accept!

This change was too sudden. Several of them had almost died from their heart failure.

Joelson calmly listened to everyone's cheers and endured all of them. He calmly looked at the people who were walking towards him and offering their loyalty.

He didn't think much of it. People at his level were already used to such things.

Such things were happening all the time in the infinite plane. All of this was just the most ordinary scene in the thousands of worlds.

However, it was the indifference on Joelson's face that shocked everyone below!

He was indeed a person with the aura of an king. In the face of such a thing, he was as calm as a cloud!

Chapter 654: The Miraculous Changes in the Underground City. The Various Factions with Different Hearts!

Such a thing was happening all the time in the infinite plane. All of this was just the most ordinary scene in the thousands of worlds.

However, it was the indifference on Joelson's face that caused everyone below to be shocked!

He was indeed a person with the aura of a king. In the face of such a matter, he was as calm as the clouds!

What Joelson thought was nothing out of the ordinary, in their eyes, had become extremely surprising!

How could they not be convinced by such a way of dealing with the world? How could they not be surprised by such a person who dealt with the world!

Such a Joelson was so carefree. This made the people kneeling under his feet sigh. Sure enough, there was nothing wrong with their choice. In their eyes, this was no different from the symbol of a king!

That's right!

People who wanted to become a king needed to have such elegance and strength to be called a king. The existence of a king needed to be carefree when encountering anything, he had to be extremely calm when he encountered anything!

Under such circumstances, all the existences were dejected!

Everyone looked at Joelson in the middle of the central square and instantly felt a wave of shock in their hearts!

This Joelson had the demeanor of a king!

Under the influence of such achievements, Joelson's actions were simply as noble as a king!

"Wow, look at that!"

A few ordinary people pointed at the powerful aura around Joelson and exclaimed.

Such a powerful Joelson had such a strong royal aura that it almost materialized!

Everyone felt a wave of respect for the powerful Joelson!

No one would question the existence of Joelson at this time. Question the strength of Joelson. In their opinion, the strength of Joelson was very unique.

Under such an aura, no one could resist the powerful personality of Joelson. No one could resist the strength of Joelson.

This kind of Joelson, under such strength, made people want to follow him!

"Long Live King Joelson!"

The call of the people did not stop for a long time. The overwhelming call and the overwhelming honorific title pushed this mysterious foreigner to an unprecedented height. This height was so high that ordinary people even looked up to the existence of Joelson!

"Oh my god!"

A few officials of the Elizabeth family were also frightened when they saw this.

Their hearts were filled with fear!

At such a time, no one would not feel fear!

Not to mention that they were the enemy forces of Joelson. They were extremely afraid. Looking at the central plaza where Joelson enjoyed the love of tens of thousands of people, their hearts were filled with fear. They were so afraid that their hands and feet turned cold. They were so afraid that their entire bodies trembled!

This height was something that no one, including the officials of the Elizabeth family, had imagined. This strange phenomenon caused everyone's hearts to tremble!

This kind of phenomenon had clearly exceeded everyone's expectations. This kind of terrifying phenomenon was something that they had never expected.

The officials of the Elizabeth family had previously harbored a pure fantasy. They had imagined that as a foreigner who was unfamiliar with this place, he would feel a certain degree of strangeness when facing the people of this place, they did not really want to stay in this damned place for long.

However, they had all guessed wrong. Not only did Joelson want to stay in this place for long but he was also received with such a high degree of welcome!

Such an overwhelming welcome was unexpected to all of them. In their eyes, this scene even surpassed the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds at that time!

They still clearly remembered the condition of the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds.

At that time, the Iron-Blooded King, the king of the underground city, Reynolds, was also a humble challenger in the central plaza.

The muddle-headed old king was escorted to this place by a group of soldiers. His clothes were messy, and his expression was one of panic!

Just like today's Leighton, he knew very well what his fate would be, so he was very panicked. He knew very well what his end would be, so he felt extremely panicked!

On a day that was similar to today's atmosphere, he was dragged to the central plaza by the executioner and pressed down in front of his former citizens.

Reynolds took the slaughtering broadsword, raised his hand and swung it down, taking away this muddleheaded old king!

His head bounced like a rubber ball, rolling to the bottom of the central plaza, rolling to the ground, rolling to the feet of the people, rolling to the front of them, these people directly picked up the king's head and kicked it up like a rubber ball. The feet of the people randomly trampled on the king's head in the dust, trampling on his corpse!

They still vaguely remembered that the muddleheaded old king had once predicted that the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds's throne would also end in the central plaza!

Along with the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds's life!

At that time, the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds was in high spirits, so how could he care about such a thing!

However, this prophecy, which was treated as a joke, actually came true at this moment!

Back then, Reynolds had already died.

Even when Reynolds had beheaded the muddleheaded old king, in those great days, they had never seen such a battle!

This was truly too astonishing!

The people cheered with overwhelming joy, waving their arms with all their might, shouting the name of their king!

Joelson!

At this moment, Joelson was the only god in their world!

Joelson was their only god!

If the Iron-Blooded King was still alive, no one knew what his expression would be like. No one knew if he would faint from anger, or if he would lament over Joelson's great achievements!

The few of them looked at the powerful Joelson. At this moment, the officials of the Elizabeth family were unable to offer their loyalty to Joelson. All the other officials in the palace were at the same time... they had directly offered their loyalty to the old king to the current him!

This time, the central plaza was very lively!

All the people scrambled to offer their loyalty to him. All of them wanted to express their loyalty to him!

All of a sudden, people were kneeling at his feet!

Those who couldn't even kneel even started to quarrel with each other!

It made them anxious which was seen on their foreheads.

Chapter 655: The Despair of the Elizabeth Family. The Faces of the People in the Midst of the Revolution!

This time, the central plaza was bustling with activity!

All of the people rushed to offer their loyalty to Joelson. All of them wanted to express their loyalty to him!

All of a sudden, people were kneeling beside him!

This scene made the officials who were loyal to the Elizabeth family feel uncomfortable. They understood a fact in their hearts.

The old king's influence had completely fallen!

The new king of the underground city was Joelson. This had already become a fact that a mother could not doubt!

And in the eyes of such a powerful person, the various crimes of the Elizabeth family made everyone feel a wave of fear!

They were extremely clear that the good and evil Joelson would not let go of the crime of not obeying the rules and even attempting to frame them!

Under such crimes, all those who were related to the Elizabeth family would probably not be spared!

Joelson indifferently looked at the people kneeling under his feet and felt somewhat helpless and exhausted.

These people were kneeling at his feet, and there was no space left.

Originally, he just wanted to recruit an assistant to help him eradicate the Elizabeth family in the underground city. The cause of all this was because he was too lazy.

It was only because of his laziness that he created such a chaotic scene. Joelson felt speechless. Such a scene was too ridiculous.

At this moment, all the people in the underground city were extremely excited. They looked at everything in front of them. They looked at the instigator in front of them and looked at the great Joelson in their hearts.

As for Joelson himself, he was also extremely distressed in the face of such a grand welcome.

It was precisely this grand welcome that caused Joelson to be extremely distressed.

Those who couldn't kneel even started arguing with each other!

"You b*stard, you don't have any right to kneel at Lord Joelson's feet!"

A high-ranking official kicked away a minister who was kneeling at Joelson's feet!

"Aiyo aiyo!"

That official's buttocks received a fierce kick. He was kicked so hard that his donkey rolled and fell to the ground.

"Sir Joelson, please allow me to offer my loyalty to your strength!"

The officer looked at Joelson excitedly, eager to let Joelson know his loyalty and to let him understand his painstaking efforts!

At this moment, all the officials were in danger. They all wanted to climb in a little so that they could get closer to Sir Joelson!

The few of them suddenly felt a wave of fear. They all wanted to hurry up and get a little closer to Joelson so that they could offer their loyalty to him!

It was as if, if they were a little further away from Joelson, their voices would not be able to reach Sir Joelson's heart!

Under such a situation, the few of them suddenly felt a wave of fear in their hearts!

They were all feeling a wave of fear in their hearts. They were afraid that their voices would not be able to accurately reach Joelson's side. They were afraid that they would be excluded from this circle!

As for the official who had been kicked away, he held his painful buttocks and his expression immediately became distorted.

"You b*stard, you actually dared to kick me!"

The official shouted angrily at the top of his voice.

Although he was cursing, he still felt a wave of fear in his heart.

He didn't dare to resist at all!

The reason was very simple!

The official who kicked him was the prime minister, the highest-ranking official under King Leighton. Other than the father and son that were kings, no one dared to challenge his authority and might!

The official did not dare to resist the official who kicked him but he kept cursing and swearing!

"You b*stard, snobbish dog Joey, aren't you the most loyal subject of the old King Reynolds?"

"If you didn't jump into the river of ice for the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds and catch the most delicious fat fish, freezing one of your legs until it was permanently disabled, no one would have valued you!"

"You b*stard, you're so snobbish. Now, you're actually offering your loyalty to a foreigner. Have some face!"

Hearing the complaints of the official who had been kicked by him, he couldn't stop chattering. Hearing this, the Prime Minister, Joey, was instantly enraged. He immediately stood up and limped to the side of the official!

"I am the Prime Minister!"

As he spoke, Joey directly slapped the other party's face!

Pa!

A blood-red palm print appeared on the other party's face!

He, Joey, was the prime minister. Below one person, above ten thousand people!

His authority and prestige were only second to King Leighton. In the underground city, without Leighton, it was he, Joey, who commanded the world!

When King Leighton was not around, Joey's words were the kings's words!

Who dared to treat the current prime minister like this?

No one dared to treat the prime minister like this!

Even today, when the emperor fell!

Joey angrily scolded that official. The official who was slapped covered his face and stared at Joey with a face full of hatred.

He really could not stand such humiliation!

The previous dynasty's prime minister, even if he was the prime minister, was also from the previous dynasty!

Now, it was time for the rise of the Joelson faction!

The previous official positions were basically useless when the emperor's faction collapsed!

"You dog Joey, what about being the Prime Minister?"

With a smack, the official who had been beaten chose not to hold back anymore and directly gave the other party a big slap!

"Ah!"

Old Joey had never suffered such humiliation before. He was directly beaten up until he staggered and fell to the ground.

His head was buzzing and he only felt a wave of dizziness. He looked at the official in front of him in disbelief!

He was the prime minister, the most doted subject of the former King Reynolds. Even if King Reynolds abdicated the throne and gave it to Leighton, Leighton would still have to avoid the other party in the palace!

Leighton did not dare to be so rude to him. This small official from an unknown department in front of him actually dared to directly hit him!

Old Joey was so angry that he blew his beard and glared at him. Clearly, he could not accept the reality in front of him!

He dragged his old body up with difficulty. Then, he glared angrily at the official in front of him. He rolled up his sleeves. Clearly, he was prepared to fight to the end!

Chapter 656: The Ministers' Ridiculous Chaotic Fight, as Well as the Loyalty of All the Guards Present!

Old Joey was so angry at the scene in front of him that he blew his beard and glared.

Obviously, as the prime minister, Old Joey could not accept the fact in front of him!

He dragged his old body up with difficulty and then looked at the official in front of him angrily. He rolled up his sleeves, obviously prepared to fight to the end!

"Hehe, old man, you can't beat me in a fight!"

The official was not willing to be outdone and rolled up his sleeves. He stared at old Joey with rage in his eyes and had the momentum to directly charge forward and fight!

"Since that's the case, then let's just fight!"

The two of them quickly got into a brawl. One slap, one punch. They fought back and forth. It was a lively fight!

When they saw this ridiculous scene, all the officials wanted to stop the fight at first but soon, they were also watching from the ground. They saw the prime minister fighting with an unknown minor official, it looked very funny!

Under such circumstances, they were also very excited to watch!

After all, that was their immediate superior. Seeing their immediate superior being beaten up by a minor official, how could such a scene not make their blood boil? It made their hearts surge!

However, at the same time, there were also some people who understood an extremely terrifying thing through this matter!

That was everyone's official position now. Other than those like Captain Nair who held military power, everyone else's official positions were held by the old King Reynolds.

A few hours ago, these official positions given by the old King Reynolds still represented great power and power. However, now, in their eyes, everyone suddenly understood a very important matter.

And that was...

Their official positions. At this moment, at the moment of the old King Reynolds's death, at this crucial moment... At this crucial moment of the change of regime...

Their official positions had already been destroyed along with the death of the old King Reynolds in that instant!

Under such circumstances, they felt a wave of fear!

That's right, their identity tags and everything on them had been destroyed along with the death of the old King Reynolds!

Their official positions and new powers had been inherited by Joelson. Would they really continue to recognize their rights?

The official positions and powers bestowed upon them by the old King Reynolds were all in the past!

With the death of the old King Reynolds, the madness of King Leighton, and the support of all the citizens of the underground city, they understood very clearly at this moment.

The identity tags on their bodies were all in the past!

The moment everyone realized this, they felt a wave of panic.

Of course, there were quite a number of people who felt a wave of surprise!

That's right, it was a pleasant surprise!

The reshuffling of the identity labels meant that some officials who had worked for a very long time and had no intention of being promoted had the hope of being promoted!

That's right!

The hope of being promoted!

All of their eyes were shining with sparks!

They looked at Joelson with burning eyes.

The hope of their identity reshuffling was all in the hands of this foreigner, Joelson!

This made some people even more regretful.

If only they had been like Captain Nair at that time.

If only they had acted like Captain Nair at the first moment instead of being embarrassed!

If that was the case, their power reshuffling might have been able to take a further step forward!

They were filled with regret. If only they had taken a step forward and thrown away the ridiculous face on their faces...

If only they had been one step ahead at that time!

Wouldn't it mean that they would have a share of the new power in Joelson!

Perhaps the new prime minister would be them!

If only he had come to Joelson's feet earlier to show his submission!

At the same time, there were also some people who had ulterior motives!

In the palace, these ministers had a lot of personal grudges!

Among them, there were many ministers who had personal grudges. However, due to their official positions, they could only keep quiet about it.

However, the situation was different now!

In their eyes, the scene of Prime Minister Joey being beaten up was a very good example!

This meant that they could take revenge now!

Those grudges that they could only choose to endure because of their official positions were now able to let go of their fear of their official positions!

This was because when the old King Reynolds died, those official positions were like poker cards that had been messed up on the gambling table. They were all reset to zero!

With the help of these two people in front of them, many of them quickly made plans.

A few hours ago, he was still the prime minister, but he was actually beaten up in the street. Then, could his hatred be...

Or rather, if he simply didn't have any hatred and just wanted to get closer to Joelson...

Could he also use violent means to achieve his goal?

Soon, someone put their actions into action!

Bang!

An ice-type spell smashed into the crowd!

Boom!

"You old thief, I'll kill you!"

More and more angry shouts followed. The entire underground square was turned into an open-air arena with Joelson as the center!

Rumble!

Waves of fighting sounds came from this bloody place.

"Hah!"

"Die!"

Such a magical scene immediately made the surrounding spectators cheer!

This was too explosive!

This open-air arena was still a chaotic battle without any rules!

How could such a scene not make them feel extremely excited!

Meanwhile, Joelson was frowning as he watched the chaotic battle below.

In his eyes, this chaotic battle below the Wailing Abyss was a little too absurd.

"Nair, it's your chance to show off and stop this chaotic battle."

Joelson said slowly.

Now was the time for Guard Captain Nair's test.

It was Guard Captain Nair's role to help him clear away all obstacles in front of him!

Chapter 657: Riot in the Square. Test of Captain Nair. The Restless Guards!

With an indifferent expression, Joelson looked at the kneeling Guard Captain Nair.

Now, it was time for Guard Captain Nair's test.

This was the best time to show Captain Nair's true loyalty!

To help him clear all the obstacles in front of him was the role of Captain Nair!

Captain Nair's body trembled. As if he felt something, he raised his head and looked at Joelson.

"Sir Joelson, do you need my help to stop this riot?"

Captain Nair raised his head and looked at the man in front of him with a determined gaze.

Not long ago, Captain Nair offered his loyalty to Joelson!

But now!

The ministers below the stage were all fighting for various reasons. At this moment, they needed someone to help Joelson quell this rebellion.

And the best candidate for that person was undoubtedly the person in front of them!

The captain of the guards, Nair!

He needed to help solve Joelson's problems!

Who was Joelson?

He had defeated the existence of the old god, the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds. One had to know that with Joelson's level of ability, let alone any ministers, even if another king or a demigod came, he would be able to wipe them out with a snap of his fingers, he would be able to wipe them all out!

Under such a major premise, why would such a powerful Joelson frown in the face of a group of ministers who were engaged in a chaotic brawl?

Could it be that with Joelson's power, he wouldn't be able to deal with these ordinary ministers?

This definitely wouldn't be the explanation!

With Joelson's power, even if he was a mighty figure of the heavens, he wouldn't even frown!

Facing the comical looks of the ministers in front of him, if he wanted it, he would just nod his head!

It was just a nod of his head, but he frowned!

The captain of the guards, Nair, thought quickly in his heart and quickly figured out the crux of the matter!

The crux of the matter was very simple.

It was impossible for him to not be able to defeat the other party because he did not have a way.

This was a test for him!

A test to see if he could be of use to him!

The captain of the guards, Nair, finally understood everything and nodded.

"I'll do it now!"

The captain of the guards said loudly. Meanwhile, Joelson closed his eyes and nodded in satisfaction.

It was obvious that this captain of the guards, Nair, was a smart person.

Joelson liked to deal with smart people.

But...

It was not enough for a person to be smart.

This person needed to be very capable and have the ability to accomplish things.

The current underground city was in chaos. The captain of the guards, Nair, did indeed have more than ten soldiers under him.

But at this moment.

At this time, when the underground city was in chaos.

Would the guards still be able to listen to the orders of Guard Captain Nair?

Would they still be able to listen to his orders and quell the rebellion?

All of this was a question mark.

The former king of the old era, the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds's claim of power, had now been reshuffled.

Would the soldiers in front of him still be loyal to Captain Nair?

After experiencing the endless planes and seeing so many people, it was normal for soldiers to lead a rebellion.

All of this, he had seen too much in the endless planes.

Now, it was the best time to test whether Captain Nair was a useful person!

Joelson slowly opened his eyes and glanced at Captain Nair, who was slowly walking towards the center of the square.

Let me see if Captain Nair is a fence-sitter who only knows how to adapt to the wind or a capable and tactful general!

There was a flash of sharpness in Joelson's eyes!

The discerning Joelson hoped that Captain Nair would give him a little surprise. Joelson still believed in his accuracy in judging people. If this Captain Nair was really just a fence-sitter who only knew how to adapt to the wind, then wouldn't that prove that he had misjudged people?

Joelson still hoped that the captain of the guards, Nair, would be able to show some strength.

"All the king's guards listen to my orders!"

The captain of the guards, Nair, slowly walked to the bottom of the platform in the central plaza. He breathed deeply into his core and used his abdomen to make a sound. His loud and deep high-pitched voice directly intimidated a large group of officials in the square!

However, those guards were all stunned on the spot. Not a single one of them stepped forward to respond to Captain Nair's orders!

This scene caused Captain Nair to frown!

As expected, too many things had happened in the central plaza. The hearts of the people had already been scattered!

Captain Nair had already expected such a situation because the changes today were simply too great.

The old King Reynolds had already died in battle and the entire power structure had been completely reshuffled!

Even if these guards were to turn hostile, it was very normal!

Guard Captain Nair understood. From his point of view, these were all things that could be predicted.

Nair was indeed the captain of the guards, but so what? The power of the underground city had already been reshuffled, and no one knew who was the boss anymore!

The prime minister, who was once below one man and above ten thousand people, was also beaten up by an unknown small official until his mother did not recognize him!

These guards were getting restless and their burning eyes stared at the captain of the guards, Nair.

That gaze was not burning loyalty but an impulse that was almost unbearable.

This urge was not physical, but psychological envy for the position of Guard Captain Nair!

This might be the only chance for them to turn the tables in their lives!

The guards rubbed their hands together and looked at Guard Captain Nair like wolves and tigers. At this moment, their eyes were filled with the desire to be promoted!

Those who had been in the lower levels for a long time were very eager for the day of their promotion!

All of their eyes flashed with a trace of viciousness.

"Hey, hey, hey, it's the General's order. What are you still standing there for? Hurry up and respond to him!"

A guard saw that none of the other soldiers responded to Captain Nair's call. He suddenly felt a wave of strangeness in his heart. He looked at his colleagues around him and looked at them in confusion.

However, no one responded to this pitiful person who did not see the situation clearly.

All the guards at this moment were holding their longswords tightly in their hands or gripping the long spears in their hands!

"Idiot, who is the captain of the guards now... That's hard to say!"

Chapter 658: The Restless Guards. The Great Test of Captain Nair!

The guards in the central plaza fell into a strange silence.

No one made a sound, and everyone's breathing became heavy.

They looked nervously at the situation in front of them and everyone held their anger in their hearts.

Having been trained on the battlefield for a long time, their eyes at this moment burst out with solemn killing intent!

A terrifying killing intent was united. The killing intent that was united was extremely high!

The area that the guards were standing at was filled with killing intent!

The civilians outside were still in chaos. They were celebrating and waving the flags in their hands. They were shouting Joelson's name.

They were clearly on the same field, but at this moment, there were two completely different scenes in the central plaza!

On one side were the civilians. At this moment, the civilians were celebrating to their heart's content. On the other side were the guards who were maintaining order outside the central plaza.

On the guards' side, there was a murderous aura. Everyone had a serious look on their faces!

If there was another scene, it would be the fight between the officials who had turned into a big mess!

Their side had also completely opened up. They took off their shoes one after another and began to fight with each other.

A battle was definitely incomparable to the intense life-and-death battles between experts. They were not experts, and they had not even reached the divine-domain realm. However, it was precisely because of this that they did not have powerful strength. This primitive battle was the only thing that made people feel interested!

Quite a number of people were watching the battle between the ministers in a serious manner. When they saw their passionate fights, they celebrated!

When they saw the fighting, quite a number of people even cheered!

In their opinion, although this battle was not as exciting as the battle between Joelson and the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds, it was still very interesting in their eyes!

Many passersby even began to bet on which minister would be able to make it to the end.

The scene in the central plaza was extremely absurd!

Captain Nair stood at a high place and looked at the scene before him with a frown.

He knew very well that his current situation was quite bad.

Looking at the murderous expressions of the guards below—their expressions and their appearances—Captain Nair felt helpless.

However, he couldn't blame anyone else.

This was all from the stupid things Captain Nair did!

He used to be too snobbish and didn't focus on cultivating his relationship with the soldiers, resulting in his current predicament. He really couldn't blame the heavens and blame others. It was all his fault.

Captain Nair let out a long sigh.

He looked at the sky and felt a wave of melancholy,

When Johnson saw the other party's appearance, he was instantly disappointed.

It seemed that this captain of the guards, Nair, was only so-so.

He had only grasped one hand of military power and did not grasp the heart of the army under him.

It was very obvious that the current scene was clearly beyond the control of this captain of the guards, Nair!

The captain of the guards, Nair, might not be able to settle all these matters.

It seemed that he had misjudged the wrong person!

Joelson shook his head deeply, feeling regretful for his own judgment.

This captain of the guards was only so-so.

Joelson's gaze slowly looked at the captain of the guards, Nair.

He saw the captain of the guards, Nair, standing in a high place, sighing slowly.

Within the guards.

"You, what are you doing?"

Some of the soldiers who did not see the situation clearly looked at their colleagues in shock. At this moment, their faces were filled with shock. Looking at the murderous aura on their faces, they were all terrified!

What were these people doing? Were they planning a rebellion?

They looked at the people in front of them in horror. These guards were not like this a few hours ago!

What was wrong with these people!

They couldn't figure it out!

It had only been a few hours, how did these people become so unfamiliar?

No one responded to this pitiful person who didn't see the situation clearly.

All the guards were now clenching their longswords or gripping their spears!

"Idiot, who's the captain of the guards now... That's hard to say!"

One of the guards looked at the captain of the guards on the high platform with a vicious gaze and said in a low voice!

At this moment, their gazes were exactly the same. Just as vicious!

At this moment, their gazes were very aggressive!

However, at this moment, none of them chose to make a move!

After all, the first to be shot was always the first bird!

None of them dared to be the first bird to be shot, but they were only one bird short of the first bird.

The atmosphere was at a stalemate.

After a long time, no one in the crowd dared to step out!

However, at this moment!

Finally, someone stepped out!

"Brothers, with spears in hand, follow me!"

A burly man wearing the uniform of the vice-captain of the guards suddenly shouted!

This time, it was as if a small stone had been thrown into the calm surface of the water, setting off a shocking wave!

"Ohhhh!"

In an instant, the entire guard regiment exploded. Everyone raised their long spears high and charged towards Guard Captain Nair!

"Hehehe, I've been waiting for this moment!"

Guard Captain Nair put away his melancholy and his gaze suddenly became fierce.

Since they hadn't established their prestige before, it wasn't too late to establish their prestige now!

Boom!

With a loud explosion, Captain Nair leaped into the sky!

"Thunderclap Ninth Heaven Double Kick!"

Captain Nair's legs flashed with a terrifying electric current as he stepped into the crowd of guards!

Boom!

Along the way, sparks and lightning flashed, and during it, the sound shook the ninth heaven!

Captain Nair plunged into the crowd like an air-to-ground missile. In an instant, he exploded with dazzling light!

A huge explosion attracted the attention of everyone present!

"Puwah!"

At the center of the explosion, dozens of guards were sent flying with blood spewing out of their mouths and electricity coursing through their bodies.

"What!"

When the vice-captain of the guards saw that the captain of the guards had such a powerful skill, he was instantly shocked!

"Wuh wahh! Don't kill me! I surrender!"

"Woo woo woo..."

There were many cries in the crowd. Obviously, a large portion of the people was shocked by this attack!

At this moment, there was a burst of fear in their eyes. After all, no one wanted to be the bird that shot the first bird!

"Idiots, this is a good time to be promoted to nobility. What are you afraid of, come on!"

The vice-captain of the guards saw that everyone's rush was gone and he immediately panicked!

Chapter 659: Guard Captain Nair Versus Guard Vice-Captain Yoke Hansen!

There were many cries and shouts in the crowd. Obviously, a large portion of the people was stunned by this strike!

Obviously, this lightning strike had caused quite a bit of psychological damage to these small fries.

Although Guard Captain Nair's Thunderclap Ninth Heaven Double Kick was powerful, it had only killed or injured a dozen people.

There were so many of them, so there was no need to be so afraid. After all, he only killed a dozen people in one move but there were so many people on his side!

With so many people, there was really no need to be afraid of the other party!

But...

No one wanted to be the one to die!

It was fine if it was others who were killed, but what if it was him?

It was true that power was extremely tempting, but his life was still precious!

After all, if his life was gone, then he would really lose everything!

Even if he could obtain power, obtain wealth and status that he would never be able to use up in his lifetime, everything would turn into an illusory thing after his heart stopped beating!

Being alive was everything to these lowly people. Only by being alive could they have the chance to turn things around in the future. Only by being alive could they have the motivation to turn things around in the future!

They still cherished their little lives very much.

At this moment, their eyes were filled with fear.

"Come, didn't you want to challenge my authority? Why don't you continue to come up?"

The captain of the guards saw that the people around him had been intimidated and immediately said with a smile.

However, under his instigation, no one dared to take a step forward and challenge the authority of the captain of the guards.

"I don't blame you. I'll give you a chance to rebel but you still have to see if you have the life!"

The captain of the guards saw that no one dared to come up and immediately said with a smile.

When the soldiers below saw the laughing captain of the guards, they immediately looked at each other. No one dared to come forward to challenge him.

After all, no one wanted to be the bird that shot the first bird!

The sky was big, the earth was big, but their own little lives were the most important!

"Idiots, this is a good time to be promoted and advance. What are you afraid of? Come quickly, follow me!"

The vice-captain of the guards frowned when he saw that everyone's rush was gone. He stood up and encouraged them.

However, no one was willing to follow the vice-captain of the guards.

Their eyes were filled with fear.

None of them dared to step forward and challenge Captain Nair when they saw the look in his eyes.

One had to know that Captain Nair was a deity-realm expert!

To experts of Joelson's caliber, although a deity-domain expert wasn't even worthy of carrying shoes, they were extremely powerful existences in this underground city!

In the underground city, a deity-domain expert wouldn't even appear among 10,000 people.

Even in the military camp, their strength was only an existence that even a group of deity-domain experts could look up to!

On the high platform, when Joelson saw what was happening below the stage, a smile appeared on his face.

"Hehe, it seems that this Guard Captain Nair still has some skill."

Joelson muttered as he indifferently watched everything that was happening below.

When Joelson saw guard Captain Nair's embarrassed state, he felt a wave of disappointment.

At that time, he thought that Captain Nair was just so-so and he was speechless at his performance.

He did not expect that after only a few minutes, this Captain Nair had opened his eyes!

He actually directly started fighting with the guards under him!

This was something that he did not expect!

It was not that he had not expected such a situation but the sight of brothers fighting each other was truly a novelty!

Joelson rubbed his chin as he slowly looked at Guard Captain Nair's actions in the middle of the battlefield!

In Joelson's opinion, the current situation was still not very optimistic.

The reason was very simple.

This was because Guard Captain Nair's strength was at the deity-domain level. This was the most crucial factor for him to be able to intimidate his subordinates.

However, there was another variable at the scene.

Joelson rubbed his chin and shifted his gaze to the vice-captain of the guards who was currently summoning his subordinates!

Under Joelson's eyes, the other party's strength could not be hidden from him!

On the other side.

When Captain Nair heard the vice-captain's encouragement, he immediately chuckled.

"Hehehe, if you want to challenge me, why don't you take a look at my strength!"

Guard Captain Nair waved his hand and released his own magic energy!

Divine domain!

Under such powerful magic energy, almost no one in the underground city could contend against it!

Under such a situation.

The guard captain, Nair, raised his head confidently, preparing to announce his victory.

"What are you being so arrogant for? !"

The vice-captain of the guards let out a loud bellow. The aura around his body suddenly soared!

Boom! Boom! Boom!

A fiery-red aura instantly lit up the entire underground city's plaza. It shocked all of the audience, causing them to cheer loudly!

"What?"

"This vice-captain of the guards is actually...?"

"F*ck, another deity-realm expert has appeared in our underground city!"

The audience below were all shocked. When they saw the situation below, they immediately became excited!

"What?"

The captain of the guards, Nair, was instantly dumbfounded!

The other party was actually a deity-realm expert as well!

When did this vice-captain of the guards break through to this level!

Cold sweat broke out on Guard Captain Nair's head.

This time, the situation that was about to become clear instantly became turbid.

Under such a situation, a battle between deity-domain-level and a deity-domain-level opponent, there really wasn't a situation where one could win with certainty.

Cold sweat dripped down Guard Captain Nair's forehead.

At this moment.

The soldiers below were stupefied!

What... What was this?

They watched in astonishment as the two captains clashed.

Whose side would they be on this time?

Both sides were deity domain experts. If they fought, it was hard to say who would win or lose. If they chose the wrong side, their professional careers would end here!

On the high platform, Joelson rubbed his chin as he watched the scene below.

Joelson would not help guard Captain Nair.

Although he had already offered his loyalty to him...

Joelson had yet to finish testing Guard Captain Nair.

Joelson calmly watched the battle below.

Chapter 660: Intense Battles. Small Skirmishes of the Deity Domain Are Equally Interesting!

On the high platform, Joelson smiled.

At this moment, he was calmly stroking his chin as he watched the chaos below with a relaxed expression.

Obviously, Guard Captain Nair had encountered quite a bit of trouble. However!

Joelson would not help Guard Captain Nair.

Although he had already offered his loyalty to him.

Joelson had yet to accept the other party's loyalty!

In Joelson's eyes, it was not okay for anyone to offer their loyalty to him!

Before accepting the other party, Joelson still had to test the other party!

Joelson looked down calmly at Captain Nair's determined face!

In Joelson's opinion, if he could not survive such a simple test and needed his help, then it would be difficult for him to be magnanimous in the days to come!

If he could not succeed, it would be useless for Joelson to ask for his loyalty!

Joelson was not a philanthropist and he was not a feudal monarch who took in useless servants!

Under such considerations, Joelson naturally would not make any reaction to the other party!

Captain Nair, let me see it for myself!

Under Joelson's indifferent scrutiny, there was a hidden expectation that belonged to him.

Joelson was still very much looking forward to having a person that could be used by him.

After all, Joelson was not a resident of the underground city. In the underground city, to the underground city, he was just a foreigner.

Joelson challenged the Wailing Abyss and came to the underground city. In the end, his goal was to get the resplendent gemstone, and the resplendent gemstone was to enter Lorna, so that he could get information about Lorna.

This meant that he would not stay here for long!

From the beginning, Joelson had no intention of participating in this power struggle!

From the very beginning, he had never intended to be the king of the underground city!

What was the point of being a king? In his eyes, a low-level civilization like the underground city was just a low-level civilization. Ruling over this civilization would not give him any pleasure!

Therefore, he needed someone who could help him in the underground city, someone who could entrust something to him.

And that person would take his place to take care of this underground city that had lost its king.

The underground city's Iron-Blooded King Reynolds had been defeated by him. The root cause of all this was because of him. Of course, Joelson would not leave after taking a shit and completely ignore this underground city.

The ordinary people here were innocent. If they did not support a person to stand up and lead them, the underground city would probably suffer countless casualties due to all kinds of power struggles!

One had to know that power was a bottomless pit that ate people!

Under this bottomless pit, a path filled with flesh and blood would be born!

Under the struggle for power, these innocent civilians would return to the primitive era!

The environment at the bottom of the Wailing Abyss was so terrible!

Snow kept falling and the temperature was so low. Snowstorms would fall from time to time. If a powerful country did not unite to resist the snowstorm, everyone would probably be swallowed by this terrifying man-eating snowstorm!

In addition, the magical beasts outside were constantly peeping at the underground city. They were very concerned about the flesh of the fat girls in the underground city!

In their cruel environment, if they were not afraid of the strength of the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds, they would have led the beasts to massacre the entire underground city!

The patron saint of the underground city had been defeated by Joelson. Joelson could not just leave. Otherwise, the magical beasts would quickly come back and rule the underground city.

Joelson needed a capable person who could help him represent the underground city, and the captain of the guards, Nair, was the one that Joelson valued.

Therefore, Joelson was still looking forward to the other party's performance. He wanted the other party to bring out something that would make his eyes shine.

A cold wind blew through the valley, and the wind and snow mixed together!

The two people under the central plaza were currently facing each other!

"Brothers, don't be afraid. With me here, that damned Captain Nair won't be able to harm you!"

The vice-captain's body glowed with red magical energy. His surging magical power was incomparably tyrannical, igniting the fighting spirit of the soldiers below!

"Oh! Long live the vice-captain!"

"Long live the vice-captain!"

The shouts below grew louder and louder!

After all, both sides were deity-level experts. Why couldn't they support the other side, which was also a deity-level expert!

Very quickly, relying on the tyrannical magic energy, the vice-captain of the guards attracted a huge amount of attention!

However, the captain of the guards, Nair, was not inferior at all!

"Everyone, listen up. The vice-captain of the guards is leading a rebellion. Such a crime is punishable by death. If any of you dare to follow in his footsteps, it will be the same crime. You will also be executed! Brothers who are unwilling to rebel, follow me to capture the traitor vice-captain of the guards!"

"Take down the vice-captain of the guards' head. I will heavily reward you!"

The captain of the guards raised his arms and shouted. At the same time, a violent explosion of blue magic energy burst out from his body!

This was actually lightning magic energy!

This lightning magic energy was extremely overbearing. It was as if the thunder god was still alive. A series of crackling sounds shook the surrounding guards, causing them to panic!

Such powerful magic energy had also won the praise of a large number of people!

With such powerful magic energy, how could they not be convinced!

"Long live the captain of the guards!"

"Long live the captain of the guards!"

"Follow the captain and catch the traitor!"

Amidst the grand momentum, the vice-captain of the guards on the opposite side frowned. "..."

"Guard Vice-Captain, let me give you a piece of advice. If you admit your mistake, it will be a great improvement. If you hurry up with your apology now, I can still spare your life. However, if you dare to continue resisting, I will definitely kill you!"

"I will definitely kill you!"

The captain of the guards shouted loudly. His blood was boiling with anger as if he wanted to devour the world!

Such a terrifying aura frightened the vice-captain of the guards, causing him to furrow his brows!

"Damn it! This Guard Captain Nair has such a powerful aura! I secretly cultivated it to the deity realm. I thought that I would be able to suppress the other party long ago.

However, I didn't expect that I wouldn't be able to defeat him safely after meeting him today. It seems that I have underestimated the other party!"

The vice-captain of the guards had a fierce expression on his face as he looked at Guard Captain Nair. His face was filled with anger!

"No, we can't let this bastard kid compete with us!"

Chapter 661: Guard Captain Nair's Tit-For-Tat Battle. In a Life-And-Death Battle between Two People, the Victor Is?

"Damn! This Guard Captain Nair has such a powerful aura. I've secretly cultivated to the deity domain realm. I thought that I would be able to suppress the other party long ago. However, I didn't expect that I wouldn't be able to defeat him safely after meeting him today. It seems that I've underestimated the other party!"

The guard vice-captain had an unhappy expression on his face as he looked at the Guard Captain Nair in front of him with fear!

In his opinion, this person could be said to be abnormally powerful!

Under such pressure, he actually had the illusion that he was going to lose!

No!

The guard vice-captain fiercely slapped his own cheek to wake himself up.

"Damn it, wake up!"

The vice-captain of the guards said fiercely to himself!

He could not be defeated by this damn Nair!

If he admitted defeat so easily, then what was the point of all these years of hard work? What was the point of all these years of hard work!

The vice-captain of the guards looked at him with a bitter expression!

One had to know that the vice-captain of the guards had been waiting for this day for 20 years!

He would never admit defeat in this lifetime!

Originally, that damned captain of the guards, Nair, was actually at the same level as him and entered the military camp together. The two of them had been best friends ever since they were in the training camp.

They trained together and received punishment together. They survived the tough days in the training camp together and were sent to the army together. In the beginning, they patrolled in the snow and ice, and the bitter two of them were often shivering from the cold!

During these days, the two of them formed a deep friendship with each other!

Once, when they patrolled in the snow and ice outside the city, they were attacked by a pair of magical beasts. The two of them finally fought their way out of the encirclement of the magical beasts. This battle became a famous battle between the two of them!

After the two of them escaped, they had a life-and-death friendship!

The abilities of the two of them were originally very outstanding in the underground city. After the explosion at that station, they were highly valued by the military officers. They were promoted all the way until they became the vice-captain of the guards!

The two of them, as new recruits who had joined the training corps in the same year, were promoted to the same post!

However, there could be two vice-captains but there was only one captain of the guards, the person who controlled the military power of the entire underground city!

Although neither of them mentioned this, both of them were calculating this matter in their hearts.

A clockwork time bomb was quietly buried in the depths of their hearts.

Fortunately, at that time, the former captain of the guards was still in good health and would not suddenly face the dilemma of being promoted. The relationship between the two comrades continued until that day.

On that day, the snow was exceptionally heavy.

According to the usual practice, the former captain of the guards led his team to the outside of the city to pay respects to the border guards. The snowstorm that day was very heavy, a snowstorm that had never occurred in his memory.

Paying respects to the border guards was a very common thing. For many years, under the iron-blooded military power of the Iron-Blooded King, magical beasts had not come to invade for a long time. Under such a numbing carelessness, did the former captain of the guards not bring many guards out of the city with him to comfort them? However, it was this carelessness that made the accident happen!

On that day, the accident happened too quickly. This kind of thing really exceeded everyone's expectations.

That night, the city guards used sleds to drag the bloody body of the former captain of the guards back to the camp.

Those poor soldiers who accompanied them had all died in battle!

It was a surprise attack from the magical beasts!

The magical beasts formed a large group of beasts and used the night to ambush all the patrolling soldiers outside the city. They wanted to use this as a springboard to directly attack the underground city!

Originally, the plans of these magical beasts were rather perfect. Everything seemed to be proceeding according to the calculations in their minds.

However.

The accident happened at that time.

The former captain of the guards actually brought the soldiers out to express his condolences!

An unexpected scene appeared, making the magical beasts harden their hearts, wanting to directly kill the captain of the guards!

They launched a surprise attack. Under the desperate protection of the soldiers under the former captain of the guards, they were able to save the captain of the guards.

However, the former captain of the guards was also severely injured at this moment. He was almost out of breath.

However, because the captain of the guards was attacked, the underground city successfully discovered the magical beast army that came to attack. This prevented them from being ambushed. Thus, they successfully withstood the magical beast army's Beast Tide!

The two people who were on holiday that night, who were also vice-captains of the guards, rushed onto the battlefield. The two of them understood that even if the captain of the guards survived the disaster, he would definitely not be able to lead his troops to battle later on.

Tonight, it would be the time to compete for the position of the next captain of the guards!

With this thought in mind, the two of them charged into the battlefield. Along the way, they fought and cleared out a bloody path!

It was at such a dangerous moment, the critical moment of the safety of the underground city, that the two of them went crazy from killing. They directly raised their blades and killed a great deal of magical beasts!

After the battle of the underground city that night ended, the two of them fought with blood. Both of them had made outstanding contributions!

After the battle ended, the two of them were called into the tent by the guards before they could clean up the battlefield.

The tent was filled with people.

Among them was the king of that time, Leighton.

In the middle of the tent, there was a bed. Lying on the bed was the former captain of the guards who was on his last breath!

The captain of the guards didn't have much time left to live but, at this moment, he was forcing himself to hold his breath. Because he still had an important matter to announce.

"Oh, my King Leighton, now that they are here, I can speak..."

Seeing the two of them arrive, a smile finally appeared on the captain's face, which was filled with worry.

Seeing the guard captain's expression, both of their hearts skipped a beat.

"The next guard captain will be... Nair!"

With the final declaration of the guard captain, the choice of the next guard captain was officially decided.

Similarly, with the announcement of the final declaration, the deep friendship between the two... all these years, everything came to an abrupt end with this declaration!

The friendship between the two of them was broken!

This promotion made the vice-captain of the guards the second in command for twenty years!

If it weren't for this rebellion, the vice-captain of the guards might never have had a chance to turn things around in his lifetime!

Chapter 662: The Break between Two People. A Life and Death Battle between Brothers, Who Is the Winner?

The vice-captain of the guards took a deep breath, the light in his eyes skyrocketed, and his spirit was raised to the highest level!

Facing the pressure of Captain Nair, the vice-captain of the guards' fighting spirit not only did not decrease but also rose higher!

In his eyes, there was a burning flame!

This flame was so domineering, so determined!

This determination was the end of the friendship between the two brothers.

"Hansen, I will give you one last chance. Surrender or die!"

Seeing that Vice-Captain Hansen's fighting spirit was so high, Captain Nair felt helpless.

He was his brother!

The time when the two of them trained together was still vivid in his mind. Those life-and-death relationships seemed to be yesterday!

Captain Nair was very clear that there would be a battle between the two of them, but he did not expect that this battle would come so suddenly!

Captain Nair knew the personality of Vice-Captain Hansen very well. Before he shouted this sentence, he had already guessed the other party's reply. However, he still had to try and try to salvage that beautiful friendship!

After all, they were comrades. No one wanted to see comrades drawing their swords at each other!

It was better to avoid such things if possible. If it was possible to avoid drawing their swords at each other, it was better to try not to draw their swords at each other!

They were all comrades. Captain Nair still did not want to draw his swords at each other.

Vice-Captain Hansen took a deep breath. The gaze he used to look at Captain Nair gradually turned cold.

This b*stard, with this look, he didn't even put himself in his eyes!

Hansen deeply misunderstood the other party's meaning!

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, took the other party's humility as a humiliation to himself!

Hansen had always been a very proud person!

The other party's humility made Hansen feel very ashamed.

The captain of the guards, Nair, had always liked it this way...

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, was furious, and the magic energy in his body exploded even higher!

"Surrendering is absolutely impossible!"

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, said coldly. The word 'surrendering' had never been a word that Hansen should have considered!

Such a word was simply the greatest humiliation to him!

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, took a deep breath, and a raging fire burned in his abdomen!

If it weren't for this rebellion, the vice-captain of the guards would never have had a chance to turn things around in his lifetime!

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, had to carefully consider whether this was the only chance he had in his life!

"No, I can't let this b*stard kid win!"

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, sank his energy into his core. Apart from his high fighting spirit, this fighting spirit was a listless response to the captain of the guards, Nair!

When the captain of the guards saw this scene, he immediately sighed helplessly.

The captain of the guards, Nair, had once thought about the scene of the two of them fighting. In fact, after he became the captain of the guards, his thoughts became more and more real.

However, when it really came to this day, the captain of the guards, Nair, was not prepared at all.

Because he was not mentally prepared at all. He was prepared to kill his own brother!

Such a day, the captain of the guards, Nair, hoped that it would never come.

But if this day really came, the captain of the guards, Nair, would not choose to escape!

Captain Nair slowly pulled out the sharp sword hanging by his waist.

This sword was proof that he had accepted the opponent's challenge!

After the two looked at each other vigilantly, both sides slowly moved, looking for the opponent's flaw!

No one made the first move. As long as one made the first move, it basically meant that the one who exposed his flaw first would be defeated!

In a battle of similar standards, the first to reveal their flaws would be defeated!

Both sides had been on the battlefield for decades, so they were very clear about the stakes, so no one made the first move!

The tense atmosphere in the central plaza lowered the atmosphere of the entire underground city to the freezing point!

This atmosphere continued as if winter had arrived!

"I'm sorry, my best friend!"

At this moment, Captain Nair chose not to continue the stalemate and chose to attack first!

His left foot moved slightly, and a violent lightning attribute magic energy covered his entire body!

Boom!

It was actually a lightning attribute instantaneous movement technique!

One step was equivalent to ten steps for an expert of the same level!

Under the enhancement of such terrifying movement speed, the Guard Captain Nair's speed was as if he was flying. In just an instant, he had arrived beside the guard vice-captain's side!

Shua! Shua! Shua!

Three sharp sword lights slashed towards the guard vice-captain's body!

"Thunderbolt Sword Technique!"

This move was precisely the guard captain's famous consummate skill!

Thunderbolt Sword Technique!

These terrifying moves were aimed at his opponent's vital points!

Under such an attack, Vice-Captain Hansen seemed to be in a desperate situation!

Vice-Captain Hansen was not afraid at all. He raised his hand and slammed his palm in the direction of his opponent!

Fiery-red magic energy gushed out, and intense flames burned as it rushed toward his opponent's figure!

"Soaring Phoenix!"

If they didn't dodge, they would be seriously injured!

Everyone was shocked when they saw this scene!

No one would be able to withstand such a terrifying move.

Joelson nodded his head in appreciation!

He actually advanced in order to retreat!

If Captain Nair didn't give up on his attack, he would probably be seriously injured! "..."

Using offensive means to force the other party to retreat was the way of defense of Vice-Captain Hansen!

However, something that shocked everyone in the square appeared!

Captain Nair turned his blade and slashed at the magic energy that the other party shot out!

The terrifying magic energy was attached to Captain Nair's sharp blade, giving off an aura that could split the sky and earth apart!

What a terrifying and powerful aura!

Under such an aura, there was a possibility that it could split apart the magic energy from the opponent's attack and attack the opponent at the same time!

The power of this sword was too powerful, causing the audience to cry out in surprise!

If this continued, Vice-Captain Hansen would be in danger.

If he did not dodge, he would definitely be cut in half by both magic and human!

Chapter 663: The Battle Is Intense. The Two of Them Are Risking Their Lives to Attack Each Other!

This terrifying sword attack shocked most of the people in the stands!

This kind of sword technique was too powerful. This sword technique was actually aimed directly at the opponent's vital points. If this was the case, the one who would suffer would be the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen!

This kind of battle between offense and defense was too exciting and dazzling. It made the people in the central plaza focus their attention on the battle in the central plaza!

"Go, Captain Nair!"

"Our Captain Nair is the winner that everyone expects!"

"Bullsh*t, the vice-captain of the guards is the strongest!"

Under the stage of the central square, the guards were directly divided into two factions, supporting each other—Captain Nair or Vice-Captain Hansen!

Both of them had served in the army for many years, and each of them had a very deep love for the grassroots!

The subordinates were all shouting with great effort!

Because this was directly related to whether they stood on the right team! As well as their future official positions and official careers!

If the side they supported lost, it was likely that the entire underground city's army would no longer have a place to stand!

Meanwhile, the audience below the viewing platform also continuously cheered in shock!

As expected, a battle at the level of a deity domain was a little more normal!

The battle between Joelson and the old emperor, Iron-Blooded Reynolds, was truly too astonishing. It had already surpassed the expectations of most of the people present!

They truly could not endure a battle that had long surpassed everyone's expectations. Many people had been so shocked by the aftermath of the battle that they were still unable to catch their breaths. Many people's heads were still aching, their eyes could not see clearly. This was only the aftermath of the battle between Joelson and the old Iron-Blooded King Reynolds!

Moreover, it was an ordinary deity-realm expert. This allowed them to relax and enjoy the battle. As for the exchange of blows between deity-realm experts, they could easily understand it. Their understanding of the battle would also deepen.

It was truly too shocking to watch a battle between gods. A battle between mortals was more suitable for ordinary people like them!

With this thought in mind, although the fight between the two of them was not intense enough, it still attracted the attention of most people!

Joelson held his chin with interest as he watched the fight below.

The way the two of them fought head-on was too intense, which surprised Joelson for a moment.

Joelson would not use such a desperate fighting method.

The reason was very simple. He did not understand his opponent at all. Blindly using this kind of attack to defend was too much of a gamble.

Life was still precious. If he used this kind of move frequently, he would definitely fail one day.

If he often walked by the river, how could he guarantee that his shoes would not be stained by the water?

Such a desperate move would definitely cost him his life in the battle.

It was just a matter of how fast the day would come.

Of course, there was still a very important prerequisite for this. That was, this kind of move required one to have a deep understanding of their opponent.

Under the premise that they had a deep understanding of their opponent, this kind of move could ensure that they would not lose the bet in the battle!

There was only one possibility for Captain Nair's desperate attack and Vice-Captain Hansen's desperate counterattack!

That was, the two of them must be very familiar with each other!

Only under the premise of knowing the other party's personality, could it be possible to achieve such a fierce and desperate attack!

Moreover, in terms of the techniques used by both parties to dissolve the moves, it was probably not as simple as being familiar with the other party. It was probably that they had fought more than once!

Only after many exchanges would they have such a good understanding of each other's attacks and make the most reasonable life-or-death attack!

Such a powerful attack would only dare to carry out such an unreasonable life-or-death attack when they were sure that the other party was someone they were very familiar with!

That's right, it did not conform to the common sense of battle!

An outsider would just watch the show, while an expert would watch the door!

Only Joelson, who had also honed his skills in battle, could clearly sense the illogic of the battle between the two of them.

As an expert in battle, Joelson was keenly aware of this point, and thus he noticed the conclusion that the two of them were very familiar with each other!

Were they mortal enemies, or were they just friends...

Joelson looked at the battle below the stage with great interest and revealed a smile.

In Joelson's eyes, this kind of battle was just a child's fight, but it was indeed very interesting!

The scene returned to the battlefield!

Guard Captain Nair directly slashed his sword at the magic energy that the opponent was bombarding over. This kind of sword technique was really too unusual, and it made Guard Vice-Captain Hansen sweat!

Could such a sword cut through his own magic energy?

The vice-captain of the guards looked hesitant. He looked at the incoming sword intent and hesitated!

Should I take a gamble?

But if I lose, I will die!

While the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, was hesitating...

The blade of the captain of the guards, Nair, did not hesitate!

This sword, with the terrifying magic energy of the lightning attribute, slashed straight at the captain of the guards!

This sword strike actually caused the air around Vice-Captain Hansen to be electrified, and even breathing felt a little numb!

The power of this sword strike was truly too powerful, causing the audience to cry out in shock!

If this continued, this sword strike might really be able to split apart the fire attribute magic energy of vice-captain Hansen!

If this continued, vice-captain Hansen's situation would become extremely dangerous.

If he didn't dodge, he would definitely be cut into two halves along with his magic!

There was no time to consider the stakes!

The blade of Captain Nair's sword was right in front of him and the hesitation in the vice-captain's eyes faded like a tide!

Since you choose to fight head-on, then I will also choose to fight head-on!

A golden light suddenly flashed in the guard vice-captain's eyes, shining with boundless radiance!

Under the radiance, fiery-red fire magic jumped, and the fire elemental sprites in the air moved joyfully, causing the entire underground world to become irritable!

One had to know that the fire elemental magic energy, in the freezing Wailing Abyss, was a very precious magic attribute in the underground city under the endless abyss!

Although the fire sprites were relatively rare in this freezing environment, as the only possible holder of the magical energy of the fire element in the underground city, the vice captain of the guards, Hansen, could mobilize all the magical energy of the fire element in the entire underground city!

Chapter 664: The Outcome of the Battle That Had Not Yet Been Decided Must Be Decided Today!

Although the fire sprites were rather rare in this freezing environment, as the only possible magical energy holder of the fire element in the underground city, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, could mobilize all the fire magic energy in the entire underground city!

It was like a pot of mushroom soup. Even if there was more soup in the pot, there would be more people sharing it, so there would be less porridge in each person's bowl.

However, if there were fewer people sharing it, even if the mushroom in the pot was very rare, then there would be more mushroom in that person's bowl!

The fire element magic energy in the underground city was a very rare and precious element energy!

However, there were very few people who could use the fire element magic energy.

Under this premise, the rare fire element magic energy actually became very rich for Vice-Captain Hansen!

Under this premise, Vice-Captain Hansen's body exploded with a terrifying aura!

The fire elemental magic energy on his body became more and more powerful, almost devouring the captain of the guards, Nair!

Such a terrifying aura shocked all the audience below!

"Oh my god, when did such a powerful fire elemental powerhouse appear in this underground city? He can use fire elements in this world of ice and snow. This is too rare. I have never seen a person who can use fire elemental magic energy in this underground city!"

"He's too strong! I'm so excited to watch such a life-and-death battle!"

"Come on, Captain Nair!"

"Mother Goddess, bless our Vice-Captain Hansen!"

Under such a powerful pressure, everyone's eyes lit up as they looked at the two people who were about to collide in the central plaza!

"Come on, let's use this move to determine the winner and loser of our 50-year friendship!"

Vice-Captain Hansen took a deep breath as a terrifying energy erupted from his body!

Captain Nair's body trembled slightly as he looked at the other party in shock.

Is he trying to determine the victor of our battle?

Captain Nair swallowed a mouthful of saliva.

What great courage or, rather, what great awareness!

Both the victor and the loser had to be determined!

In such a direct confrontation, it was likely that the outcome of the battle would be decided and, at the same time, the life and death of the two people would be decided!

If the outcome of the battle was decided in such a direct manner, perhaps only one of the two people would be able to stand on the central plaza alive. Only one person would be able to command the kingdom's guards of the entire underground city!

Guard Captain Nair deeply understood the other party's character. He knew that once the other party made a move, he would not stop!

It was exactly the same as the two of them training in the recruit training camp.

At that time, the two of them had the most intense simulated training in the entire recruit training camp. The others had followed the moves taught during the training to attack and defend, but the two of them were completely different!

The two people holding wooden knives in their hands were the fiercest fighting in the entire recruit training camp!

The two of them did not follow the rigid fighting techniques taught in the army to attack and defend. Instead, they used the most primitive fighting techniques like wild beasts, every move was aimed at killing the other party. Every move was vital!

Even with the wooden sabers in their hands, the two of them still ended up with bloody noses and swollen faces every time they finished their training. The severity of their injuries far exceeded the injuries suffered by the other people in the army!

However, it was also because of the wooden sabers in their hands that they had never been able to determine the victor in the recruit training camp!

Under the circumstances of using the wooden sabers, both of them had never admitted defeat. Even though they were badly bruised, they still insisted on continuing to fight. And before one of them was knocked unconscious, the angry instructor would come up and pull the two of them apart, and it was this regret that lasted until today.

The two of them had never been able to determine the victor. Both of them believed that in a real battle, they would definitely be able to defeat the other party!

After the two of them entered the official army, there was no longer any confrontation training like in the recruit training camp.

Later on, after the two of them achieved outstanding battle merits, both of them were promoted. The two of them who were in high positions could not even officially mention a duel in private.

The two people in high positions could no longer carry out confrontation training as carefree as when they were young.

Under such circumstances, the thought of deciding the winner was deeply buried in the depths of their hearts.

Under such thoughts, fifty years passed in the blink of an eye.

It was as if the confrontation training that could not decide the winner would no longer be able to be carried out.

This became a major regret in both of their hearts.

At first, Captain Nair thought that the two of them would never have the chance to decide the winner in this lifetime.

But the variables came so quickly.

A few hours ago, the king, Iron-Blooded King Reynolds, passed away and the old dynasty collapsed.

The power structure of the underground city had changed drastically, and the entire power at hand would be redistributed!

At such a critical juncture, Vice-Captain Hansen had to consider whether this was the only opportunity in his life!

He had been the vice-captain of the guards for twenty years!

Twenty years!

If not for today, he would have been the vice-captain of the guards for the rest of his life. He would have been trampled under the feet of the captain of the guards for the rest of his life!

His proud pride would never allow the captain of the guards, who was at the same time as him, to be above him forever!

Such an opportunity, such a great opportunity that the entire underground city would never have in ten thousand years, must not be let go!

Thinking of this, the vice captain of the guards, Hansen, who was supposed to be tense, suddenly relaxed.

This was a kind of unprecedented relaxation, a kind of relaxation that he had never had in so many years.

The vice captain of the guards, Hansen, suddenly revealed a smile.

Perhaps if it wasn't today, he would never be able to determine the winner with the captain of the guards, Nair!

That's right, today's battle was fifty years ago, in the recruit training camp, when the two of them had yet to determine the winner!

This time, the two of them were no longer using wooden sabers, but real sabers and swords. These sabers and swords were lethal weapons that could kill people!

The two of them who used such weapons would no longer have the fear of not being able to determine the victor at that time!

Under such an offensive, the two of them would have to decide the victor!

Today, on this special day, the two of them would have to decide the winner!

Chapter 665: The Two Who Use Weapons Decide the Winner. The Winner Is...?

The two looked at each other, their eyes burning with a strong desire to fight!

Seeing Vice-Captain Hansen's smile, Guard Captain Nair also smiled.

That's right, as a good friend for many years, Vice-Captain Hansen's high fighting spirit had been transmitted to Captain Nair!

The captain of the guards naturally understood what the other party was thinking!

That day. That year. The time in the training camp was still as if it was yesterday...

The victory and defeat that could not be decided by the wooden sword would be decided today!

The death battle that could not be continued that year would be decided today!

With this thought in mind, the captain of the guards, Nair, would definitely not choose to retreat and there was no reason for him to choose to retreat!

Fifty years! In the blink of an eye!

Fifty years ago, in the training camp, the two of them were still children who had just entered the army. At that time, they had the purest desire to win or lose.

Time had come to this day, fifty years!

The two of them had experienced too much. By now, things had changed!

After the baptism of time, the two of them had long lost their original purity. Facing such things, they had long lost their original hearts!

But now, at such a time, at such a time of great changes in the underground city, their fighting spirit was unprecedentedly high!

At this moment, they had found the heart that they had lost in battle!

That pure desire to win and lose to the extreme. Under this pure desire to win and lose, the two of them had found their original heart!

Shua!

The captain of the guards suddenly opened his eyes, and lightning flashed in his eyes, giving off the aura of an army destroyer!

Blue lightning gathered in the eagle-like eyes of the captain of the guards, and a bolt of lightning suddenly fell from the sky!

The captain of the guards actually didn't intend to retreat at all!

"Thunderbolt Sword Technique, Ninth Stage!"

The captain roared and raised his sword high up in the air. In an instant, a sharp bolt of lightning descended from the sky!

Kacha!

The bolt of lightning struck the sharp sword in Captain Nair's hand!

This strike was accompanied by lightning!

"Oh my god, he can actually summon heavenly lightning to fight!"

"No way, this is the bottom of a bottomless abyss. He can actually summon such a terrifying bolt of lightning to strike the lightning in his hand. This is too terrifying!"

"Oh my god, this is the first time I've seen such a dazzling lightning bolt!"

The ordinary people below were discussing animatedly. Looking at the two people who were competing with each other on the stage, such a high fighting spirit instantly infected the people below the stage.

"Come on, captain of the guards!"

"We can't lose, vice captain of the guards!"

There was a burst of exclamations from the audience seats. The guards at the side were incomparably excited. They waved their arms, supporting the side that they wanted to support!

At this moment, the two people on the stage were not only holding everyone's hopes of being promoted. At this moment, the two people on the viewing platform were relying on their high fighting spirit to infect all the audience below the viewing platform!

"Come, Hansen. Between you and me, we can finally decide the victor!"

Guard Captain Nair raised the long sword in his hand high up and looked at the other party with a proud expression. Guard Vice-Captain Hansen!

There would definitely be a battle between the two of them!

Since that was the case, he would not run away. He would fight to his heart's content!

As the two of them fought against each other, a terrifying magical energy spread out. Clearly, the battle between the two of them had reached a point where it could not be stopped!

At this stage, the vice captain of the guards, Hansen, felt relieved.

It was good that they would be divided today. It was also good that they would be able to put an end to the inner conflict that had plagued him for fifty years!

Even if this battle would result in his death, it wouldn't matter at all!

It was just death!

What was there to be afraid of?

Under such lofty enlightenment, the eyes of the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, were so clear and bright!

They were as bright as the waters of a river!

The manic fire magic energy actually paused for a moment and became calm!

Is this your awareness?

Guard Captain Nair looked at the fire elemental energy of the other party in surprise!

He was very clear that it was not a good thing for the other party's fire elemental energy to calm down!

Just like calm, the calm fire elemental energy was much more lethal than usual!

Such a terrifying fire was a powerful fire elemental energy that Guard Captain Nair had never seen before!

This was his opponent's lofty realization. He, Guard Captain Nair, had already deeply felt this realization!

With regards to this lofty realization, Guard Captain Nair could only respond to his opponent with a merciless attack!

"Ha!"

The terrifying sword of lightning slowly descended!

Such high-purity lightning, even he was unable to control it well!

This was an all-out effort that he had never used in all these years!

Let's decide the victor!

The eyes of Captain Nair became unprecedentedly clear!

At this moment, he had already put down all the miscellaneous thoughts in his heart!

At this moment, the entire world seemed to have fallen silent!

Rumble!

The magical energy of the two finally collided under the anticipation of the crowd!

Kacha!

A dazzling blue lightning burst out in an instant!

Bolts of lightning danced in all directions like venomous snakes in the forest, ready to strike!

"Oh!"

The audience was instantly shocked. Looking at the collision in front of them, their eyes widened!

That terrifying lightning snake was about to strike them!

However, just as the lightning was about to strike them, a golden barrier lit up in front of them!

It was Joelson!

Joelson calmly watched the battle on the stage. In just the span of a breath, he had released a barrier that could protect all the audience!

In the eyes of these ordinary people, a battle at the level of a deity domain was indeed very powerful. It might even be fatal. However, in the eyes of people at Joelson's level, it was merely a fight between children.

The attacks that they released could take the lives of ordinary people at will. In Joelson's eyes, they were nothing more than splashes of water. The magic energy that he breathed out could withstand the opponent's full-powered attack!

The golden barrier shone faintly, protecting all the ordinary spectators!

Such a miracle instantly caused everyone below the stage to cheer!

"Long Live Emperor Joelson!"

Such cheers rose and fell!

The crowd cheered!

Everyone was singing to their heart's content about Joelson!

Rumble!

At the critical moment when everyone was singing the praises of Joelson, the battle on this side was still extremely intense!

Lightning flashed and sparks flew in all directions!

Under such circumstances, the other party would definitely not give up on attacking so easily. The two of them would not have any room for negotiation!

There was no room for them to stop. Only when the victor was decided would there be a possibility of ending!

"Hansen!"

"Nair!"

Both of their faces were incomparably ferocious. Clearly, both parties had already used their full strength. At this moment, the battle had already entered a stalemate!

The sharp sword in the Guard Captain Nair's hand continued to advance in an attempt to cut through the other party's defense. However, the flame energy on the Guard Vice-Captain Hansen's body did not show any signs of weakening!

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The terrifying fire power finally erupted at this moment!

The audience instantly felt the temperature of the area rise. The heat was so hot that their entire bodies felt extremely uncomfortable!

"Quick, look, it's big brother Hansen's ability that has the advantage. He has the upper hand!"

A guard excitedly looked at the Vice-Captain Hansen's ability. Such a powerful and scorching fire ability was indeed a little more powerful than his big brother's!

Boom!

However, just as he was feeling pleased with himself, the other party suddenly exerted force!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

A series of explosive sounds rang out!

A few terrifying bolts of lightning descended and struck down towards the other party!

Bang!

With a terrifying explosion, the blue magical energy of Captain Nair gradually gained an advantage!

Rumble!

Bolts of lightning seemed to pierce through the entire underground city!

The blue-purple lightning attribute magic energy was gradually gaining the upper hand!

Bang!

Another explosion was heard!

The sharp sword in Captain Nair's hand suddenly flashed with a rather fierce momentum!

The shining blue magic energy attached to the sharp sword and the momentum of the sword became fiercer and fiercer!

Bang.

Captain Nair's sharp sword actually began to cut into the opponent's magic energy!

The guards below the stage keenly noticed this change and they were instantly shocked!

"Captain Nair, this is how it is, directly cutting through the opponent's bones!"

They cheered excitedly!

After all, it was difficult at the beginning!

If the sword wanted to defeat Vice-Captain Hansen, it had to first cut through the opponent's magic energy defense!

The current momentum was very good. If this momentum continued, it would definitely be able to directly cut through the opponent's muscles!

Yes, everything was difficult at the beginning but, once this big hole was cut through, everything would become simple!

"Damn it!"

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, looked angrily at the sharp sword that had cut open his magic energy, feeling a wave of displeasure in his heart.

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, was very clear. The other party had only cut open a little bit of his skin, but very soon, the other party would be able to directly break through this point and tear open a very big hole!

Boom!

The reality was just as the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen had thought. The hole in his magic energy was being ripped open by the other party, and it was getting bigger and bigger!

If this continued, he had no chance of winning!

He was too familiar with finding an experienced opponent like him. The other party would be like a swift leopard, biting its prey and continuously tearing at the other party's wound. Until the wound was enough to kill the opponent!

Boom!

Just as Vice-Captain Hansen was thinking, the strength of the opponent's hand increased!

"Admit defeat, Hansen. If this goes on, you will definitely lose!"

"You and I are brothers. If you are willing to admit defeat, I will spare your life!"

Captain Nair's forehead was covered with dense beads of sweat as he said.

"Shut up! Shut up!"

When Guard Vice-Captain Hansen heard these two words, he was instantly enraged!

After so many years, this bastard was still like this!

Guard Vice-Captain Hansen roared furiously in his heart!

This was a fierce beast that was unwilling to admit defeat, protesting against the injustice of fate!

This energy that was hidden deep within his heart flowed directly into his limbs, flowing into his body!

He, Hansen, was definitely not willing to admit defeat like this!

Rumble, a terrifying energy erupted from Vice-Vaptain Hansen's body!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Three consecutive loud bangs shocked the audience below the stands!

"What's going on? What's going on!"

The audience below the stands panicked. Looking at what was happening on the stands, everyone was at a loss!

What was going on!

They saw that the body of Guard Vice-Captain Hansen was burning with an orange-red flame. This flame was so terrifying and overbearing!

Such an overbearing flame was a strength that Guard Captain Nair had never seen before!

Boom!

Another wave of vibration. Such a strong force made Guard Captain Nair flustered!

This fellow, just how many ultimate skills had he cultivated when he did not know!

Captain Nair was shocked. He was panicking at the terrifying strength that the other party had displayed!

This fellow's ability was really too terrifying. Under such a powerful ability, he actually felt that he had no chance of winning!

At this moment, there was a rumble!

The vice captain of the guards, Hansen, slowly opened his eyes. His body exploded with rays of intense golden light. This golden light was so dazzling that it made people feel terrified!

What... What ability was this?

The captain of the guards, Nair, was shocked. The sharp sword in his hand was actually burning with a burst of heat. This burst of heat was so terrifying that it made people panic!

Bang!

Another burst of terrifying magic energy exploded!

The sharp sword in the Guard Captain's hand was actually bounced out!

The sharp sword that had clearly been chopped into was actually bounced out at this moment!

The Guard Captain Nair was not convinced. He still wanted to continue to exert strength and pierce into the other party's body again, but he was unable to enter even half of it!

"Take a look at the results of my cultivation!"

The Guard Vice-Captain Hansen slowly raised a large lotus flower in his hand!

This lotus flower was actually formed from the condensation of fire elements. Although it was formed from elemental energy, the appearance of this lotus flower was so slow and realistic. It made people feel that it was not a lotus flower made from fire elements, but a real lotus flower!

Chapter 667: The Ultimate Killing Move of the Two. The Winner Is...

The lotus flower in the vice-captain's hand had a terrifying power!

The lotus flower was half-opened. Its petals were full and brimming with life, as if it was an ordinary lotus flower in a pond!

However, under such a calm lotus flower, there was actually a terrifying killing intent!

That's right, it was killing intent!

Cold sweat dripped down Captain Nair's forehead. Looking at the blooming lotus flower in the other party's hand, he felt a wave of fear!

That's right, it was fear!

This ordinary lotus flower actually made him feel a deep killing intent!

Captain Nair wiped off the cold sweat on his forehead and felt a wave of coldness.

This was too outrageous. Captain Nair could not accept such a terrifying fact for a long time!

"Phew..."

Vice-Captain Hansen slowly opened his eyes. At this moment, there were no distracting thoughts in his eyes.

Under such a clear gaze, there was actually some relief.

"Bring it out... your real killer move!"

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, stopped his attack and turned to look at his former good friend with an indifferent expression. His eyes were filled with relief and calmness!

The miscellaneous desires from before had all disappeared at this moment.

What was left was a clean and clear desire to win!

That's right, the current Hansen's heart was so calm and at ease.

This fellow had not turned around to look at the other party for so many years. He did not expect that the other party whom he had once left behind was now chasing him to such a close place!

It seemed that he had been too arrogant and had not properly looked at his competitor of the same generation!

He did not expect that in just a few years, the other party had not only caught up to his pace but also had the intention to surpass him!

Captain Nair took a deep breath!

His aura was constantly increasing!

The current him should not be thinking of stopping this battle!

If he was really a good comrade for this companion of more than 50 years, then he should face the current situation!

There was only one correct way, and that was to do it.

And that was to do the same thing as him!

Bring out all of his strength and give a reasonable end to the fifty years of friendship between the two sides!

Rumble!

A bolt of lightning descended!

Guard Captain Nair closed his eyes deeply, his aura was constantly increasing.

Kacha!

Heaven and earth phenomenon!

While his aura was constantly increasing, Guard Captain Nair's ability was causing the entire heaven and earth to change!

On the high platform, Joelson nodded, and a hint of astonishment flashed through his eyes as he looked at Captain Nair.

This fellow had already touched the threshold of being a demigod!

That's right. In the world, the aura that he was using was the key to reaching the threshold of being a demigod!

If he were to train for a period of time, he would definitely be able to break through to become a demigod by then!

Such a powerful talent in cultivation could be considered one of the few top-tier cultivators.

Of course, compared to the group of people like himself and Godfrey, the difference was still quite great.

With such talent in cultivation, it wouldn't be long before he would truly be able to break through to become a demigod.

His gaze returned to the viewing platform. While Joelson was pondering, the aura of the captain of the guards, Nair, had already reached a terrifying peak!

Bang!

As if a lightning storm had descended, bolts of lightning continuously struck downwards!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Captain Nair, whose aura had reached its peak, slowly opened his eyes!

Powerful energy erupted from his eyes. This energy caused Vice-Captain Hansen to be shocked.

Was this the strength of Nair...

He was really very powerful.

However, this did not mean that Vice-Captain Hansen was going to retreat!

Vice-Captain Hansen slowly looked at the blooming flame lotus in his hand. His eyes were calm.

Even if it was just for the sake of a simple victory, the victory that he had waited for 50 years for would not come. He would definitely not retreat now.

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, raised the lotus in his hand high up. He wanted to use all the effort he had put in all these years to fight against the captain of the guards, Nair!

The captain of the guards, Nair, was also very clear in his heart. He put his palms together and unleashed his own unique killing move!

A terrifying lightning ball appeared in the hands of the captain of the guards, Nair!

The ball of lightning was unstable at first, but after a while, it gradually stabilized, the ball of lightning turned into a stable ball of lightning in Captain Nair's hand, shining with a blue light!

The ball of lightning wasn't just a layer of lightning, but multiple layers of lightning. The multiple layers of lightning were continuously shining and floating steadily in Captain Nair's hand!

"The name of this move is Thunder Hell Mad Ball!"

Captain Nair calmly said the name of the lightning ball in his hand.

On the other side, the vice-captain also raised the lotus in his hand.

"The name of this lotus is Buddha's Fiery Lotus."

The Vice-Captain Hansen calmly said.

"Come, let us determine the winner who is 50 years late."

The captain of the guards said as he slowly walked towards the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen.

One step at a time, slow and heavy. With this kind of pace, he slowly walked in front of the other party.

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, also slowly walked towards the captain of the guards, Nair, with the same pace.

The distance between the two of them was getting closer and closer.

After reaching a certain point, the two stopped.

The two suddenly attacked each other with their techniques!

Slowly, the ultimate killing moves of the two sides slowly collided.

Bang...

The two terrifying killing moves first collided with each other, producing a soft sound, as if two glass marbles had collided.

But soon after!

Bang!

A terrifying loud sound was heard!

On the viewing platform, a shimmering dot of light gradually grew bigger, and then engulfed the entire underground city!

The collision of the energy from this killing move produced a light that directly covered everyone's line of sight.

No one knew the outcome of the battle between the two. No one knew whose killing move was stronger, and no one knew whose ability was stronger than the other.

No one knew the situation on the stage.

Under the terrifying white light, their eyes were blinded by the intense light!

Chapter 668: After the Light Dissipates, the Result Is...

Apart from Joelson, who could clearly see what was happening in the middle of the arena, everyone else was blinded by this terrifying white light.

The world was completely blank

After a long time, the light finally dissipated.

Joelson revealed a smile.

The magical energy formed from the collision of this energy had actually reached the level of a demigod expert in a single kick.

As for the audience below the stage, they were all speechless. They rubbed their eyes, casting their vision, which had been restored with much difficulty, onto the stage.

The stage had long since been torn apart. The entire arena in the central plaza had become filled with potholes.

This was an arena made from high magic resistance, high-grade spirit ore. The fact that the arena, which had such high magic resistance, had been torn apart at this moment showed how fierce the battle had been.

However, under the bombardment of such magic energy, the two figures could not be seen in the fragmented arena.

The captain of the guards, Nair, and the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, were nowhere to be seen.

Everyone looked at the battle scene in the arena in silence.

"Who won?"

"I don't know. I can't see them at all. Did anyone see who won?"

"Oh my god, I've really had a feast for my eyes today. I've watched the battles of gods and the exciting battles of mortals. I feel that I can do this for the rest of my life."

The few of them looked at the rising smoke on the stage and discussed animatedly!

At this moment, someone noticed the two figures!

These two figures were none other than the Guard Captain Nair and Guard Vice-Captain Hansen who were fighting on the stage earlier.

At this moment, the two of them were in a sorry state. Their bodies were covered in mud as they fell in the middle of the stage.

What was even more shocking was that one of each of their arms was broken.

How tragic!

The wounds of the two of them extended all the way to their shoulders. That terrifying wound and the charred blood all proclaimed the tragic scene just now.

How could such a scene not cause the audience below the stage to panic!

"What?"

"Oh my God, it's actually a lose-lose battle!"

"Could it be that both of them have directly died in battle!"

All sorts of speculations spread throughout the audience.

If both sides of the battle, Captain Nair and Vice-Captain Hansen, had really died, this kind of duel would have been too dramatic.

Just as the people below the stage were quarreling non-stop.

Finally, someone noticed that on the stage, the two people's chests were slightly heaving up and down.

"Look, look, look! Both of them are fine!"

One person stretched out his hand and excitedly pointed at the two people on the stage who were still showing signs of life.

At this time, the two people were lying on the fragmented stage. Both of their chests were slightly heaving up and down. This result undoubtedly showed that both of them were still showing signs of life. Under this kind of result, it was undoubtedly the result that everyone was willing to see!

The ordinary citizens felt that it was probably the best outcome if there were no deaths on either side!

After all, both of them were top-notch training experts in the underground city guards. They were soldiers who had fought against the magical beasts outside for the sake of the peace of the underground city!

Both of them were still alive. It could be said that they were the hearts of the ordinary citizens of the underground city.

Their gazes moved to the other side.

To the guards, they did not want to see anyone die.

To them, regardless of whether the captain of the guards, Nair, or the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, survived, the people on the other side would suffer directly!

Those who stood on the wrong side would directly ruin their career prospects and chances of promotion for the rest of their lives!

Therefore, regardless of which side won, the other side would definitely suffer, and one side would definitely suffer.

Thinking about it this way, the current situation was the most advantageous for all of them.

They deeply understood this point, so everyone let out a deep sigh of relief.

However, at this moment.

The two slowly opened their eyes.

"Cough cough cough..."

Guard Captain Nair coughed a few times and coughed out a few mouthfuls of dark red blood. Then, he groggily crawled up.

"Pfft..."

Guard Vice-Captain Hansen spat out a mouthful of blood. He slowly woke up and used his remaining hand to support his body. Then, he slowly stood up.

"Nair..."

"Hansen..."

The two of them looked at each other. The fighting spirit in their eyes did not weaken at all.

However, at this moment, both of them were at the end of their strength. They did not have the ability to continue fighting. However, under such circumstances, both of them still did not want to stop!

"Oh my god, they still want to fight..."

"They are crazy. Is there a need to continue fighting like this?"

"The two of them shouldn't be able to hold on much longer..."

The few of them were engaged in an intense discussion. As they looked at the two of them swaying on the stage like flickering candles in the wind, admiration rose in their hearts!

A gust of cold wind blew past. This gust of cold wind almost blew the two of them to the ground. Both of them were currently heavily injured. A gust of wind would be able to knock them to the ground. However, they were unwilling to fall, instead, they stared at each other and moved their bodies with great difficulty, wanting to get close to each other and launch their final attack.

However, their bodies were in such an awkward condition that even a single move was painful. They could not even maintain their balance with only one arm, let alone launch an attack.

However, both sides did not give up on attacking.

Under such circumstances, the two weakly opened their eyes and stared at each other.

After a long time...

Captain Nair moved first!

As he staggered, Captain Nair staggered towards Vice-Captain Hansen. His eyes were filled with the desire for victory!

Nair staggered to the front of the vice-captain and waved his fist with great difficulty, attacking his opponent's face.

"The winner... is me..."

However, before Nair could be happy, this punch actually missed.

Nair, whose vision was blurry and his body was weak, missed this punch.

Nair swung his fist in the air and his already weak body lost its balance. He was about to fall!

"The winner... is me!"

Vice-Captain Hansen shouted excitedly when he saw the scene in front of him. At the same time, he threw his fist at Nair, wanting to end his opponent completely!

Chapter 669: Draw. The Reconciliation between Captain Nair and Vice-Captain Hansen!

No one could figure out the will of heaven. They didn't expect that Captain Nair's punch, which was about to win, would be missed. The missed punch shocked everyone below the stage!

"No way, it's punched. There's nothing we can do about it..."

"Yeah, it looks like the winner is about to change hands."

"That's right, it looks like Vice-Captain Hansen's victory."

The blurry vision of Captain Nair, whose body was weak, missed the punch that could end the duel.

Not only were the audience below the stage dumbfounded, but Captain Nair himself was also shocked!

What the hell was this? He actually missed...

This was impossible!

Captain Nair collapsed.

To him, this punch was supposed to be the punch that could end the match. However, he didn't expect this punch to miss.

Was he really going to lose?

Captain Nair missed his punch and his already weak body became unbalanced.

He staggered, and Captain Nair looked like he was about to fall.

Vice-Captain Hansen saw the scene in front of him, and his eyes widened as he looked at his opponent's swaying and weak body!

As expected, as expected!

The winner should be him!

Vice-Captain Hansen looked at the scenery in front of him in ecstasy. He had waited for this scenery for far too long!

He had been waiting for this scenery and this moment for too long!

The day of his victory should have come a long time ago!

The day he had been waiting for all these years should have come a long time ago!

Fifty years!

The feud between Captain Nair and Vice-Captain Hansen would come to an end at this moment!

The vice-captain had been waiting for this moment for too long!

"The winner... should be me!"

Vice-Captain Hansen shouted excitedly when he saw the scene in front of him.

How could he not break down after fifty years of suffering in his heart!

With tears in his eyes, Vice-Captain Hansen stumbled and ran towards Captain Nair!

As he walked, Vice-Captain Hansen punched Nair's body at the same time, wanting to end his opponent completely!

This punch carried the vice-captain's strong desire to survive, as well as his strong desire to win!

At this moment, his fist smashed towards the other party's face!

Although this punch was soft and not fast, it was still very slow in the eyes of ordinary people. Perhaps a punch from an old man in the park was much faster and stronger than this punch.

However, under such circumstances, as long as he could hit his opponent, based on Captain Nair's extremely weak body, he should be able to determine the outcome of this duel.

As long as he hit his opponent, this world-shaking battle would be over!

However, at this moment, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, actually missed his punch.

Having lost an arm, he had no way of maintaining his balance.

This punch missed everyone's expectations, but it also met everyone's expectations.

This punch was extremely empty.

The audience below the stage sighed when they saw this scene. They looked at the two people on the stage with admiration in their eyes!

Their fists had never touched each other. They had not been able to compete for today's winner.

This battle had entered its most difficult moment.

Guard Captain Nair's footsteps were extremely weak. With three steps, he walked in front of Guard Vice-Captain Hansen and raised his only remaining arm with great difficulty.

Guard Vice-Captain Hansen also moved his heavy steps and slowly walked in front of Guard Captain Nair, the person who was the most complicated to him!

Status, power, reputation...

For a normal human, the things that he had spent his entire life trying to obtain, for the two of them in their current state, they became illusory.

All of this was no longer important.

At this point in their battle, the things that ordinary people were searching for had been completely removed from their minds.

At this moment, the two of them were covered in injuries and looked extremely weak. If they were exposed to others, it would be a very embarrassing scene.

However, at this moment, neither of them was thinking about their own faces!

At this moment, their minds could no longer contain anything else.

There was only one thing in their minds at this moment.

Victory!

Fifty years ago, there was no such thing as victory in the recruit training camp.

Fifty years later, there would definitely be a victory in the central square!

The two of them walked into each other's attack range.

"Nair..."

"Hansen..."

Their dirty eyes were bloodshot. The impact earlier had affected their vision. Their eyes were filled with ash, as if they were dead.

However, there was something shining in their eyes.

That thing was called the desire to win!

"Nair!"

"Hansen!"

The two let out angry roars and waved their fists.

Under the stands, the hearts of all the audience members were hanging at the highest position.

Who would win?

Bang!

A muffled sound and a heavy sound made all the audience members stretch their necks out of curiosity. They looked towards the middle of the central square, wanting to see who would win all of this.

In the stands, Joelson slowly clenched the fists of the two people.

"It's done."

Joelson said slowly. The fists of the two people were firmly clenched by Joelson.

The two of them widened their eyes. They were so weak that they did not even notice when Joelson had arrived by their side.

Both of them looked at Joelson, who had stopped the two of them, in surprise.

Not to mention Captain Nair and Vice-Captain Hansen, both of their bodies were extremely weak. It was understandable that they did not notice it. However, there were so many pairs of eyes under the ring. They were all healthy and lively people!

Under the gaze of so many people, no one noticed it. Without anyone noticing, Joelson had already arrived in the middle of the ring and stood behind the two of them

More importantly, the two of them could feel gentle magical energy coming from Joelson's body. It slowly flowed into the two of them and repaired their bodies that were riddled with holes.

Their bodies were badly damaged. They could no longer hold on and fell to the ground.

The two of them could feel an extremely gentle magical energy flowing into their bodies through Joelson's hand, repairing their bodies that were riddled with holes.

Such gentle magical energy was completely different from the one that had fought against the old Iron-Blooded King Reynolds!

They could still vaguely remember what had happened.

The Iron-Blooded King Reynolds's tyrannical lightning and ice magic energy had been completely suppressed by the fire magic energy of Joelson!

They could remember it very clearly!

When had the fire magic energy been so tyrannical? It was so terrifying!

But under this premise, the magical energy that Joelson had displayed was so gentle. So reserved. It wasn't overbearing at all!

"Oh my god!"

The captain of the guards, Nair, cried out in surprise.

He understood the reason behind all of this.

It was very simple. Not only was Joelson able to suppress the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds, but he was also able to heal his wounds. It was very obvious that he was the possessor of multiple magical elements!

Joelson was able to interact with multiple magical elements!

To be honest, such a person was not rare. In the underground city, there were many people who could do such a thing, such as the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds, who was a possessor of the lightning element and the ice element.

However, Joelson was different from those people!

In the case of multiple element affinity, they would usually only be able to get close to elements with similar attributes. Elements with completely opposite attributes would usually not appear on the same person!

For example, a person who had an affinity with the wind element would also have an affinity with the fire element. This was a relatively normal scene.

However, a person who had an affinity with the fire element would basically not be able to have an affinity with the water element!

The reason was very simple. Two opposing elements could not coexist!

However, this was only what would happen under normal circumstances.

Everything would have a special situation.

This special situation was for people like Joelson!

They were multi-ability affinity users, but at the same time, they also had this ability in their bodies. They could allow different elements with completely opposite attributes to fuse together and coexist harmoniously!

This ability was quite rare!

After receiving treatment from Joelson, both of them were in much better condition. Their legs no longer had any strength, and they no longer walked unsteadily. They could even stand up straight!

The terrifying wound on their shoulders had also successfully stopped bleeding, and it was visibly healing.

Was this the person who had defeated the old king, the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds...

The vice-captain's gaze was like a torch as he looked at the person in front of him with a look of admiration in his eyes!

This person was completely different from the type of great devil he had imagined!

Instead, his actions carried the aura of a king!

Such an aura made everyone present feel a wave of comfort!

The king's aura on Joelson's body was even denser than that of the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds!

No wonder, if it was this kind of person.

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, nodded. The gaze he looked at the other party was filled with extraordinary admiration.

If that was the case, then the fact that Joelson had defeated the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds now seemed very reasonable.

"The duel between the two of you ends here."

Joelson said calmly, his tone carrying an unquestionable tone.

“Yes!”

The two of them knelt down one after another, indicating that they would comply with Joelson’s arrangements.

“Here are two recovery potions. If you drink them, it will be beneficial to the recovery of your broken arms.”

Joelson turned around, and with a flip of his hand, he took out two bottles of red potions.

“Thank you, Sir Joelson!”

The two of them quickly kowtowed to express their gratitude, and then took the bottle of red medicine from Joelson.

The captain of the guards, Nair, used his only remaining hand to hold the bottle of medicine. Then, he bit open the glass wooden stopper with his mouth. After, he raised his head and swallowed the red medicine in the glass bottle in one gulp!

The captain of the guards, Nair, was not afraid of the poison in the bottle at all. This was because if Joelson wanted to kill him, he would not need to go through so much trouble. All he needed to do was to cast magical energy with his eyes, and it would probably be enough to kill him.

Moreover, if Joelson really wanted to kill him, he was afraid that even if he did not want to give it to him, it was not something that he could decide!

The open-minded Captain Nair drank the red potion in the glass bottle in one gulp.

The moment the potion entered his mouth, it was slightly bitter and had a very strong bubble. It stimulated the taste buds on the tip of Nair’s tongue, causing him to shiver. After the red potion entered his stomach, a warm wave of heat spread throughout his body, it spread throughout the entire body of Captain Nair.

“Oh!”

Guard Captain Nair, who could not suppress his heart in the wave of heat, couldn’t help but shout out!

After shouting out, the Guard Captain Nair felt much better. The warmth in the stomach dispersed very quickly, and his shoulder, that terrible wound, unexpectedly quickly healed up!

Visible to the naked eye, small white granulation kept emerging, and bones were constantly regenerating. Guard Captain Nair opened his mouth in surprise, looking at the scene in front of him with a burst of shock, it was the first time he had seen such a magical scene. He was curious as he looked at his rapidly regenerating arm!

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, was also surprised when he saw it!

What a powerful potion!

One must know that the potion that could heal one's injuries was a very precious item in this underground city!

This potion could allow a person to regrow a broken arm after a few years of recuperation. It was a good item that could be bought by people in the entire underworld!

The item that Joelson took out was too powerful!

It was actually able to regrow Captain Nair's broken arm with the naked eye!

After a few breaths of time, Captain Nair's arm had completely regrown!

Captain Nair looked at his hand that had regrown and was surprised. He touched his hand. It was as smooth as a baby's skin. Captain Nair was surprised and delighted at the same time!

This was too magical!

It was actually able to directly regenerate his broken arm. Such technology was simply unheard of and unheard of!

Such superb recovery speed was simply an eye-opener for Captain Nair!

This was something that even the records in the books had never heard of!

Such a powerful magic potion, did it really exist in this world?

Chapter 671: The Miraculous Recovery Potion. The Persistent Vice-Captain Hansen!

In any case, in the past, Captain Nair would never have believed that such a miraculous magic potion existed in this world!

It was actually able to regenerate his arm, which had been blasted into ashes by the magic energy, in an instant!

This magic potion was a little too magical!

Thinking of this, the captain of the guards was surprised again.

That's right, such a precious magic potion... let alone the underground city, it would probably be very rare in the entire underworld!

No, not rare. It would be biased to describe this potion as rare!

Even in the underworld, this medicine was priceless!

And just now, he had drunk such a precious thing.

Thinking of this, Captain Nair was shocked.

"Damn it, this subordinate deserves to die!"

Thinking of this, Captain Nair directly knelt down and kowtowed to Joelson!

Such a heavy favor was something Captain Nair could not accept!

Such a precious recovery potion was directly given to him by Joelson. This was a great favor!

Captain Nair did not know how to repay such a great favor!

"There's no need to do this."

Joelson said indifferently. Looking at Captain Nair's actions, he found it funny.

Joelson naturally knew what Captain Nair was thinking.

Indeed, this kind of potion was very precious to the entire underworld. Few people could afford this quality of potion.

However, this was only for the underworld.

For Joelson, this kind of potion was not that valuable.

He had the Dragon God Ranch System. Although there was no place to store such a potion, there was no need to worry about running out!

To Joelson, such a bottle of potion was like bread before a meal. It was not a formal meal at all!

Joelson's indifferent response made Captain Nair even more touched. He directly knelt down and kowtowed twice.

"Well, it's not a big deal. Get up."

Joelson said indifferently, which made Captain Nair not so excited. Captain Nair nodded and stood up.

Vice-Captain Hansen was still kneeling on the ground.

The glass bottle in Vice-Captain Hansen's hand was filled with red recovery medicine, but he didn't drink it at all!

"What's wrong?"

Joelson turned around and looked at the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, who was kneeling on the ground.

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, knelt on the ground and didn't say a word.

Although the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, didn't say anything, Joelson could roughly understand what he was thinking.

However, Joelson didn't say it directly.

He just stared at Vice-Captain Hansen.

Vice-Captain Hansen lowered his head deeply, his expression constantly changing.

Obviously, he was struggling intensely in his heart.

Fifty years...

He had waited for this moment for too long.

Although, at the last moment, the victor couldn't be guaranteed to be him...

However, both of them still had this regret in their hearts.

They were too eager to have a result after fifty years of struggle!

Especially Vice-Captain Hansen, who was kneeling on the ground. At this moment, he felt extremely unwilling.

If it wasn't for Joelson stopping this battle, he might have won!

Captain Nair thought to himself.

If it wasn't for Joelson's interference, this battle of fifty years of old grudges would have had an outcome!

But the reality was reality. There weren't so many ifs in reality.

Everything had already become a foregone conclusion!

"Damn it!"

The vice-captain of the guards punched the ground. With a bang, the floor shattered. His only remaining hand had recovered a little after much difficulty. This punch had once again turned it into a bloody mess.

At this moment, Vice-Captain Hansen knew that he could not express his dissatisfaction. However, this result made Vice-Captain Hansen too depressed.

"Are you thinking that if I did not intervene, you would have won?"

Joelson said with a faint smile.

When Captain Nair heard this, he was stunned. A trace of fear flashed in his eyes as he looked at the other party!

Captain Nair turned his head to look at Vice-Captain Hansen who was kneeling on the ground. He winked wildly, hoping that the other party would understand his meaning and not speak carelessly.

From Captain Nair's point of view, he really understood Vice-Captain Hansen's character too well!

This stupid guy would very likely directly give a positive answer to Joelson!

If Vice-Captain Hansen answered like this, it would be too rude!

In the face of such a rude answer, even a good-tempered king would drag such a bold person out to be beheaded!

That was a powerhouse who had the power to decide the life and death of others!

How could he sympathize with their ridiculous feelings and understand them?

In fact, even without Captain Nair's warning look, Vice-Captain Hansen was very clear about a fact.

If he directly answered yes to the other party's words, then the other party would definitely not give him a good look!

This was a rebuttal to the other party!

With such rudeness, the only thing that would welcome him was death!

The vice-captain was very clear on this point.

He understood it very well.

But...

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, could not choose to remain silent!

He raised his head and looked at Joelson with a burning gaze!

"Sir, forgive me for my offense!"

The vice-captain of the guards did not care about the Guard Captain Nair, who tried his best to stop him in a low voice. He raised his head resolutely and asked a question.

"I indeed feel that if you don't intervene, I'm afraid that I will win this duel!"

The vice-captain of the guards raised his head firmly and said loudly!

As soon as he said this, the people below immediately exploded!

"This vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, is really sick. Not to mention that Lord Joelson gave him such a precious recovery potion. Not only did he not drink it, he actually dared to contradict Lord Joelson!"

"That's right, he didn't die, right!"

The people below discussed animatedly as they pointed at the Guard Vice-Captain Hansen who was kneeling on the stage!

Guard Captain Nair raised his head in despair. This Hansen's personality was too straightforward, to the point of being vile!

This was the end. This idiotic Guard Vice-Captain Hansen was definitely done for!

Chapter 672: The Two Who Decide the Outcome. The Reconciliation of Joelson!

Guard Captain Nair raised his head in despair. This Hansen's character was too straightforward, to the point of being vile!

This was the end. This idiotic guard Vice-Captain Hansen was doomed! "..."

Guard Captain Nair looked nervously at the situation in front of him. He looked helplessly at the guard vice-captain who did not know the big picture!

This idiot!

The captain of the guards held his forehead, speechless.

To say such rude words, wasn't that courting death!

No matter how good his temper was, he definitely wouldn't forgive such an idiot!

After all, such rude words were openly challenging the authority of Joelson!

One had to know that Joelson was an existence that could defeat the old King Reynolds!

Who was the old king, the iron-blooded Reynolds? That was the Iron-Blooded King!

What was the strength of the king? That was a god. The entire underworld was at the upper reaches, and was above everyone present!

Under such a major premise, Joelson had defeated this great demon king with relative ease!

It must be known that in the entire underground city, even demigods were extremely precious. For a clan to produce a demigod every hundred years, it was all thanks to the blessings of their ancestors and the blessings of god!

In such an environment, the god-level Iron-Blooded King Reynolds was an extremely powerful existence!

This existence caused everyone to feel terror!

Such a powerful Iron-Blooded King Reynolds had obtained an absolutely perfect victory under the hands of such a terrifying god!

Such a victory was too perfect. Even at that time, Joelson still had time to protect the others!

Although Joelson, who had obtained a perfect victory, was indeed only at the peak of the demigod level, his victory over the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds had already proved his formidable power!

There were indeed one or two peak demigod experts in the underground city. For example, the former king, Leighton, was a demigod.

However, Joelson's demigod was completely different from what everyone understood as a demigod!

To them, after defeating the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds, Joelson's power had already far surpassed that of a peak demigod.

Not to mention, to these people in front of them, Guard Captain Nair was merely at the peak of the deity-level, while Guard Vice-Captain Hansen was merely at the deity-level, having just touched upon the peak of the deity-level!

To them, Joelson was an existence that they could not compare to!

To these people, this existence was far too powerful, far too ridiculous!

To them, if Joelson wanted to be annihilated, he could do so with a flick of his finger!

To these people, this sort of strength was a peak that they could not even look up to!

This peak, to everyone, this peak was too high. To everyone, it was already at the level of a god!

For such a powerful person to openly express his dissatisfaction, this Guard Vice-Captain Hansen must be out of his mind!

When the guard captain heard the conversation between Hansen and Joelson, he felt annoyed and closed his eyes.

He could not bear to see Joelson punish this ignorant idiot. How would a powerful person like Joelson turn the vice-captain of the guards into ashes?

The ordinary people below the stands were even more terrified. This idiotic vice-captain of the guards actually dared to anger Joelson and that powerful person!

They all looked at Joelson in fear, wanting to see the angry look of this powerful king.

In the eyes of the ordinary people below the stage, when this king was angry, the entire underground city would shake. His angry shout would definitely shock all the ordinary people and make them faint!

They looked at Joelson in fear, waiting for the first time that this king would get angry in front of them.

But in the end, nothing happened.

That's right!

Facing the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, who spoke rudely to him, there was no change in his expression!

There was no anger, no anger to the point that his face was distorted, nothing at all!

This great king was elegant in front of them, and there was no sign of anger on him!

Could it be that this Lord Joelson, who was so magnanimous, actually did not bother with the vice-captain of the guards?

Impossible, that's not right!

In everyone's hearts, they all rejected this conjecture!

That's right!

Absolutely impossible!

Such an outcome was absolutely impossible!

It must be that when Joelson was angry, he wouldn't show it at all!

Towards this person in front of him, Joelson didn't have the slightest bit of anger. On the contrary, he was extremely calm.

Was this possible!

After all, that was a powerful existence that could defeat the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds!

Such a powerful person, to them, would definitely not be as refined and easy-going as an ordinary person. He would definitely be like a proud swan, raising his head high and not looking at those people beneath his feet!

Those pitiful people, in Joelson's eyes, would definitely not let him lower his head to look at them!

Since he was so powerful, he would definitely be so arrogant

This was inevitable, certain, and there was no need to doubt it!

He was definitely a person who would not show it when he was angry. He was a person who was already burning with anger in his heart, but was still very calm on the surface!

Such a person was actually more terrifying than those who would show it when they were angry. Compared to those who would fly into a rage when they were angry, this kind of person was even more terrifying.

Because, no matter how they planned to deal with the person who made them angry, they would not show it!

Under their calm appearance, they would not reveal their emotions. It made people feel that they had not gotten angry yet, but in their hearts, they had already sentenced the other party to death!

It was this kind of performance that would make the people in front of them numb. They would think that he was a very refined and easy-going person, a very gentle person. On the contrary, he was a poisonous snake disguised as a block of wood!

Before you were bitten, you wouldn't even be able to feel how he attacked you!

This kind of person was the most terrifying!

Compared to those people who would be furious and red-faced when they were angry, they were very simple. If they were angry, they were angry. If they expressed it openly, it could be felt!

Such a person was like a lion. He was powerful but, as long as he was not provoked, everything would be fine.

- Chapter 673: Joelson's Answer. The Winner Was Decided Fifty Years Later!

Everyone looked at Joelson, who was standing quietly by the side, in fear.

Joelson's face was indifferent, and there was no trace of anger on his body.

He was still so calm, so profound, and so unpredictable!

Joelson was like a high mountain, whose body was surrounded by a thick layer of fog. This fog made everyone unable to figure out the unfathomable man in front of them.

Was he really not angry?

No one believed it!

Compared to people who were like lions, Joelson, who would not get angry, was even more dangerous. He was like a dangerous viper. He would disguise himself as a dangerous piece of wood. By the time you were bitten, it would be too late!

However, it had to be said.

Such a person would be more powerful than those who showed their emotions on the surface.

Compared to those people, they also had the temperament of a king!

The worries of a king could not be easily seen through by others. Compared to those kings who were easily seen through by others, their worries were buried deep in their hearts and would not be plotted against by their subordinates!

As expected, compared to the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds, Joelson was more suitable to be the king of a country!

Everyone kept guessing at the situation in front of them. Although they had different thoughts in their minds, they had a common understanding in their hearts!

That was, Joelson was definitely not as calm as he appeared to be. This was impossible, absolutely impossible!

Joelson must have already announced the death penalty for Vice-Captain Hansen in his heart!

For Vice-Captain Hansen, contradicting Joelson would definitely result in death!

The audience below the stage looked regretfully at Vice-Captain Hansen, who was kneeling on the stage.

They felt sorry for this poor guy who couldn't turn his head!

It was a pity that his superb combat strength and his desire for victory had infected almost every audience member present.

But it was a pity.

He didn't even turn his head, he was too straight!

He actually dared to contradict someone so much stronger than him, he really didn't want to live anymore!

For a powerful person like Joelson, it was much easier to kill him than to blink his eyes!

With such a huge difference in strength, he actually dared to contradict Joelson. He really didn't know if this Guard Vice-Captain Hansen's brain was damaged or if he had been kicked by a donkey!

This guy was really crazy. He even dared to talk back to a powerhouse like Joelson!

The outcome would definitely be extremely miserable!

One had to know that Joelson had just defeated the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds. For Joelson, after defeating the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds, he was about to hold the highest authority in the underground city.

This vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, dared to contradict him. He was the best material!

What material?

Material to make an example out of!

The hunter's gun was aimed at the first bird that stood out.

The monkey trainer of the circus killed chickens for the monkeys to see!

Killing him, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, could be used to warn all the people in the underground city who had evil thoughts!

They thought that if Joelson wanted to ascend to the throne, he would definitely have to kill someone to warn all the people in the underground city who had bad thoughts. He wanted them to restrain themselves and stabilize the position they had just obtained.

However, almost all of them had guessed wrong!

At this moment, not only was Joelson not angry, he was elegant and easy-going like a stable mountain.

That's right, he was like a stable mountain!

His true appearance was mysterious and unpredictable. No one could guess what he was thinking!

He did not even have any interest in kings!

In his opinion, kings were boring to the extreme!

He was not interested in such power.

Joelson, who had a giant dragon, felt that it was ridiculous to stand still in a place and become complacent.

There were many powerful people in this world. For Joelson, constantly challenging them was the joy of life!

Power and status, in Joelson's eyes, were all very boring things!

He had seen too many things while traveling through the infinite planes. If it was at the beginning of the story, perhaps he would still be obsessed with these ridiculous things. However, after experiencing the baptism of the infinite planes...

He had already seen through the essence of these things!

In his eyes, these were all low-level pleasures.

Therefore, it was impossible for him to stay here and be a king.

A person who had experienced an infinite plane was like an eagle flying in the sky. How could he be interested in the low-level pleasures that the creatures on the ground pursued?

They naturally could not see through the thoughts of Joelson.

However, in the eyes of everyone, the Joelson in their eyes was too powerful and impossible to see through.

For example, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, who was kneeling at Joelson's feet.

He was kneeling on the ground with his head lowered, his eyes filled with fearlessness.

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, did not know what Joelson was thinking at the moment. He only knew that the other party would not let him off so easily in his heart!

His rude words were simply against Joelson's authority!

It was a direct confrontation with Joelson!

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, lowered his head, unable to hide the unwillingness in his eyes!

That's right, so what if he died!

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, clenched his fists, feeling a wave of unwillingness!

That's right, he couldn't accept it!

He couldn't accept the duel between him and the captain of the guards, Nair, ending in such an anticlimactic manner. He couldn't accept the fact that this duel was 50 years late, and there was no concept of victory or defeat.

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, lowered his head deeply and looked at the ground.

He really believed that what kind of concept was the anger of Joelson. To Joelson, he was just an ant who could not stand on the side of the road. If he wanted to stomp him to death, it would be as easy as eating and drinking water.

He was afraid that before he could react, his body would be turned into ashes!

With his dragon soul, it was just a matter of blowing air to turn his body into ashes.

However, under such powerful life and death pressure, he still had to raise his doubts!

He was unwilling to accept such an outcome. After fifty years of duels, there should be an ending!

The Vice-Captain Hansen did not accept the result of a draw!

He also did not approve!

He must know who was stronger, him or Captain Nair!

He gritted his teeth as he thought.

Chapter 674: The Victor Is Decided. Joelson's Answer!

He had to know who was better, him or Captain Nair.

This was the answer that he had been wanting to know for 50 years.

If he drank the recovery potion that Joelson had given him, he would never know the truth.

This might be the only chance that Vice-Captain Hansen had in his life. For this chance, he had to seize it.

Joelson was so powerful that he dared to speak rudely in front of such a powerful person. Vice-Captain Hansen knew what would happen to him.

It was obvious that he would die!

Even if he could leave a complete corpse behind, it would be hard to predict.

However, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, lowered his head. There was no room for a retreat in his eyes.

Because he had waited for this day for too long.

Fifty years ago, it was needless to say that the two of them were simply good brothers. They simply wanted to defeat each other.

However, ever since the former captain of the guards died in the battle with the magical beasts twenty years ago, everything had become strange.

The pure desire to determine the outcome of the battle with the other party had become strange. Everything had become uncomfortable at that moment!

The only variable was the change in the relationship between the two of them.

They were originally of the same level, and both of them were vice-captains of the guards. At that time, the outcome of the battle had not been determined, so it did not matter.

But at that moment, everything had changed.

With the previous captain of the guards dying in the attack of the magical beasts, and with Nair taking over as captain of the guards, everything had changed!

The two of them had clearly not decided the outcome yet, but Nair had stepped on his head and ascended!

Under such circumstances, the vice-captain of the guards was displeased!

Although he was very unhappy, he was still very happy when his good brother was promoted.

At the celebration banquet, the two of them toasted each other and drank until they passed out. The two of them did not seem to have such complicated feelings of jealousy.

At that time, perhaps Hansen was really not jealous of Nair. After more than ten years of settling down, the unhappy mood at that time was gradually changing.

After graduating from the recruit training camp fifty years ago, Hansen's promotion speed was very fast. However, after 20 years of Nair's promotion, Hansen's position had not changed at all.

The unhappiness in his heart, after decades of settling down, was like a vintage wine that had a wonderful chemical reaction. The slight unhappiness at that time had long turned into the dissatisfaction and anger of now!

He, Hansen, buried the dissatisfaction and anger deep in the depths of his heart. These emotions gradually became the motivation for his cultivation.

After training every day, Hansen would lock himself in the cultivation room and cultivate diligently!

While others were eating, he was cultivating. While others were visiting brothels, he was also cultivating!

Day after day, year after year. Under such difficult cultivation, it was not easy for him to cultivate to the realm of a deity.

One had to know that at that time, the intensity of the realm of a deity could be counted on one's fingers in the entire underground city. It was a very popular talent in the palace!

Just as Hansen was filled with joy and wanted to find Captain Nair, he suddenly discovered that after being promoted to captain of the guards, Nair had gone around to curry favor with the nobles in the palace, establishing a deep relationship with them.

When the nobles saw Captain Nair wandering around, he quickly obtained the joy of many people. He received countless natural treasures that were used to help him cultivate. With the help of these natural treasures, Captain Nair had long reached the deity-domain level!

This matter immediately caused the unwillingness in Vice-Captain Hansen's heart to turn into hatred!

That's right, it was hatred!

The hatred in his heart had turned into an extremely powerful resentment!

If he had been promoted back then, he would definitely have been able to trample over the other party!

If he had been the one using these natural treasures, he would probably have long since reached the strength of a demigod!

It was this glib-tongued, opportunistic soul who had snatched away everything that should have belonged to him!

After Vice-Captain Hansen returned, he, who was extremely resentful, began to train even harder.

Under the training day after day, Vice-Captain Hansen had been quietly waiting for an opportunity, an opportunity to renew the fight in the new guest training camp!

This opportunity was right in front of Vice-Captain Hansen's eyes!

He had to seize this important opportunity. He couldn't let them slip away like this!

Even if he would die if he asked, then he would die!

It was better to die than to be tortured to death for the rest of his life. He couldn't think of a reason.

Vice-Captain Hansen's wish was that simple.

He wanted to know who was more outstanding between him and Captain Nair.

He gritted his teeth and thought. He was waiting for the judgment to come, waiting for the moment when everything would come.

Vice-Captain Hansen knew that all of this was about to be revealed.

The right to reveal was in the hands of the person in front of him, Joelson.

"Get up."

Under everyone's gazes, Joelson said indifferently.

"What?"

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, raised his head and looked at the other party with puzzlement.

"I said, stand up. There's no need to kneel."

Joelson was still so easygoing. His elegant appearance made people suspicious. Was he really not angry at all?

The audience below the stage and the commoners also had shock on their faces.

This Joelson was really not angry?

"No, I won't get up. I just want to know who won this duel between me and Nair."

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, gritted his teeth and rebuked Joelson again.

He did not dare to look up at Joelson's expression, afraid that the other party would directly skin him in anger.

The audience below the stage also looked at Joelson, who was standing calmly on the stage, with fear and trepidation.

Joelson would definitely be angry!

They thought in their hearts with certainty!

"If I say it's a draw, you definitely won't accept it, right?"

Joelson calmly put his hands behind his back and looked at the other party.

"That's right, this subordinate definitely won't accept it!"

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, knelt on the ground and pressed his head against the ground as he sincerely requested.

"Please, sir. Please decide whether I, Hansen, am stronger or the captain of the guards, Nair, is stronger. Who won?"

Chapter 675: The Irrational Captain of the Guards, Nair. The Two Who Raised Objections to Joelson!

The vice captain of the guards, Hansen, did not hesitate. He knelt on the ground and pressed his head against the ground, pleading sincerely.

"I beg of you, sir. Please decide whether I, Hansen, am stronger or the captain of the guards, Nair, is stronger. Who is the winner?"

Vice-Captain Hansen lay on the ground, his tone full of humility.

Whatever it was, it was no longer important to Vice-Captain Hansen.

In the eyes of Vice-Captain Hansen, he no longer had any desires.

At this moment, Vice-Captain Hansen only wanted one thing. One result.

That's right.

Vice-Captain Hansen only wanted one result.

Even if the captain of the guards, Nair, was even more powerful, he would still accept it.

This was because Joelson's strength was far above the two of them. The result that he decided was the most accurate.

To Joelson, in this battle before him, perhaps only Joelson would be able to decide the outcome of this battle in the entire underground city.

Joelson's strength was at the peak of the demigod level. In terms of battle records, he had even defeated the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds and possessed this supreme ancient dragon soul.

In the eyes of everyone, this sort of power was undoubtedly the most powerful, and publicly acknowledged as the most authoritative expert in the entire underground city!

It could be said that in the entire underground city, no one could make a decision that was more authoritative than Joelson's.

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, pressed his head tightly against the ground. His tone was filled with humility. This sort of attitude was merely because he wanted a fair judgment.

Even if the price of a fair judgment was his own life, the vice captain of the guards would still be able to accept this outcome.

Humans were creatures that lived their entire lives. There would always be a day when they would die. The vice captain of the guards did not have a strange feeling about the fear of death. He only felt that he should receive a fair judgment, he should receive a judgment.

The feeling of not caring about life and death gradually spread to the hearts of everyone in the underground city.

The duel between the two of them had spanned fifty years. If they could not be separated on this day, this regret would be deeply buried in Vice-Captain Hansen's heart for the rest of his life!

This persistent thought infected all the audience present.

They looked deeply at everything in front of them.

Captain Nair also felt this strange atmosphere.

He slowly opened his eyes and was shocked and surprised to find Vice-Captain Hansen kneeling on the ground with his head on the ground, expressing his humility.

Captain Nair was stunned.

As a good friend of the vice-captain of the guards for many years, he knew Hansen's character too well.

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, had always been a very proud person

To make the vice-captain of the guards kneel down, it was much more difficult than cutting off his head!

Now, Vice-Captain Hansen was doing this just because of the fight between the two of them

Captain Nair sighed deeply, his eyes filled with complicated emotions.

If he could not understand the vice-captain's actions just now, then the current Captain Nair's heart was like a bright mirror.

Nair's gaze slowly landed on the vice-captain kneeling on the ground.

All these years, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, must have been very indignant and angry.

After all, at that time, if the previous captain of the guards had not died from the night attack of the magical beasts, the two of them would still be of the same level and would still be vice-captains of the guards.

Then, would everything be different now?

The captain of the guards, Nair, looked deeply at the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, who was kneeling on the ground in front of him.

Even if the former captain of the guards had brought enough guards that night, the former captain of the guards who had enough manpower might not have died, and there would not have been any conflicts after that.

Perhaps, that night, in the tent, if the successor of the former captain had been chosen by someone else, there would not have been anything after that!

All these bad karma needed to be ended by one person!

Vice-Captain Hansen had been working so hard for the outcome of this battle. How could he stay out of it like this? It was simply disgusting!

The vice-captain of the guards, Nair, clenched his fists tightly. He looked at the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, and felt a wave of guilt in his heart.

No!

The captain of the guards, Nair, cried out deeply in his heart.

The captain of the guards, Nair, everything that happened was because of him!

Everything that happened was because of him in the tent that day!

All of this was caused by him being chosen by the former captain of the guards!

He was the fuse of this matter. How could such a crucial person like him keep himself out of it!

Captain Nair took a few steps forward and knelt on the ground with a thud.

"I'm sorry, Lord Joelson. I also hope to get an answer, an answer that has troubled me for more than fifty years!"

The captain of the guards, Nair, actually knelt down together with him!

Everyone was astonished!

This person was far too bold!

That was Joelson, a peak demigod who was able to defeat the old emperor, the iron-blooded Reynolds!

In the entire underground city, his strength was at the very top of the top, absolutely and completely.

Such a powerful Joelson, the captain of the guards, Nair, actually dared to contradict him!

Crazy. Crazy!

The audience below the stage were all shocked.

This captain of the guards, Nair, must have a screw loose. He actually dared to contradict Joelson!

One had to know that the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, could be ignored. He was publicly acknowledged by the citizens of the underground city as a stubborn person. There was no turning point. It was very normal for such a person to contradict Joelson.

However, under such circumstances, the captain of the guards, Nair, also started to make a fuss!

This was too hasty!

The captain of the guards, Nair, was a very rational person!

The captain of the guards, Nair, was very rational. He was very tactful in everything he did. He did not seem like the person who did this!

It was normal for the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, to do such a thing. However, it was too abnormal for the captain of the guards, Nair, who had always been calm and tactful, to also do such a thing!

Chapter 676: The Ending Has Been Decided. The Two of Them Are as Good as New

When the nobles of the underground city saw this scene, they were all shocked!

It must be known that the people of the underground city all understood Captain Nair very well.

The reason was simple.

This Captain Nair was a person who knew how to conduct himself. How could such a smooth person not know how to look at colors!

The captain of the guards, Nair, was a very rational person!

The captain of the guards, Nair, was a very rational person. He was very tactful in everything he did. He did not seem like a person who would do such a thing!

It was normal for the vice captain of the guards, Hansen, to do such a thing. However, it was too abnormal for the captain of the guards, Nair, who had always been calm and tactful, to also do such a thing!

It must be known that Captain Nair was so tactful that he did not have any animosity with all the nobles in the underground city. Everyone's relationship was handled fairly well, and there were no enemies in the palace. No one would hate Captain Nair, who was very good at doing things.

Captain Nair was very good at doing things. And he was very good at handling interpersonal relationships.

But today, facing the most powerful person in the underground city, Joelson, facing this monster who could defeat the old king, the iron-blooded Reynolds.

This captain of the guards, Nair, was so blind!

Did he not know what the consequences were? Did this idiot not know what the consequences were!

Facing such a powerful person, such a mighty person, no one in the underground city could resist him. Not even a few people had the qualifications to carry his shoes!

Facing such a powerful person, that idiot vice-captain of the guards actually knelt down!

Kneeling down, what did it mean!

It meant that he and that idiot vice-captain, Hansen, were going against such a powerful person!

These two people were ridiculously crazy!

One had to know that if Joelson wanted to kill them, it would be as easy as stepping on two cockroaches.

In their eyes, was their lives so unimportant?

On the arena.

The Guard Vice-Captain Hansen, who was kneeling on the ground and prostrating himself, saw the Guard Captain Nair, who ran over to his side and knelt down. His heart was filled with alarm.

"Idiot, what are you doing!"

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, looked at the captain of the guards, Nair, who was kneeling beside him and questioned him angrily.

It was enough for him to go against Joelson!

The vice-captain of the guards just wanted an ending. An ending that had not been decided for fifty years!

For his tiny wish, he would not hesitate even if he was killed by Joelson!

Under such a wish, it wouldn't be a loss for him to die alone!

But at this moment, the captain of the guards, Nair, had actually rushed over.

This was completely unnecessary!

The vice captain of the guards, Hansen, looked angrily at the captain of the guards, Nair, who was kneeling beside him.

It was fine if he died, but why did this idiot follow him!

Facing the vice captain of the guards, Hansen's angry rebuke, and his angry gaze, the captain of the guards slowly raised his head and looked indifferently at the vice captain of the guards, Hansen.

His eyes were so calm!

"Idiot, do you think that only you want to know the ending of that year?"

"I also want to know the ending that has been silent for so many years!"

Captain Nair's firm tone caused the vice-captain to be stunned for a moment.

So, this matter was also so important in Captain Nair's heart!

Guard Vice-Captain Hansen's chest rose and fell violently. That's right, he was indeed the same type of person as himself. Otherwise, many years ago in the recruit training camp, the two of them wouldn't have become good friends.

In this sort of atmosphere, if he were to resolutely refuse the other party's desire to die, then he would truly be too blind.

Guard Vice-Captain Hansen had decided that he would go together with Guard Captain Nair to receive the verdict of the most powerful person in this underground city!

The two of them looked at this powerful person in front of them with rather determined gazes. This peak demigod was an existence who could defeat a god.

The fifty years of doubt would finally be completely resolved today!

This sort of atmosphere had also infected the audience below the stage.

Everyone's breathing quickened as they looked at the only person standing on the stage, Joelson!

What kind of reaction would this person have?

Would he directly kill the two people in front of him, or did he have other plans.

Everyone's gazes were nervously looking at Joelson.

"Hahaha..."

Who knew that, when Joelson saw the scene in front of him, not only was he not angry, he even laughed out loud.

This Joelson was actually laughing out loud!

Facing the vice captain of the guards, Hansen, who dared to contradict him, and the vice captain of the guards who did not respect him!

This strongest man in the underground city was actually laughing out loud!

This scene immediately caused everyone in the underground city to be stunned.

This...

What was going on?

Could it be that Joelson was so angry that he started laughing out loud instead?

Everyone was stunned. Looking at the scene in front of them, everyone felt a wave of fear.

It was as if the strongest underground city in front of them, Joelson, who no one could fight against, was going to be like the old King Reynolds and start killing ordinary people in anger!

There was a tense atmosphere in the air!

This tense atmosphere caused everyone present to not dare to make any huge movements.

"Hey, tell me... how will this Joelson kill these two idiots in front of him..."

"Fool, don't speak nonsense. If Lord Joelson hears you, he will transfer his anger onto us and we will be completely finished!"

The people below were completely silent. The occasional discussion was quickly extinguished in their fear.

The spread of fear was spreading throughout the central plaza of the underground city. It was spreading in the hearts of the people.

"Good, good!"

After Joelson finished laughing, there was no anger on his face at all!

Joelson's easygoing temperament calmed the spreading wave of fear in the central plaza of the underground city.

"Don't you want a fair verdict? I'll give it to you!"

Joelson said loudly with his hands behind his back.

The people below immediately pricked up their ears, wanting to hear the result of the duel clearly. It was the verdict of the strongest man in the underground city!

Chapter 677: The Judgment of Joelson. The Decision of Captain Nair!

Joelson was very clear about the people in front of him, what they wanted in their hearts.

Although Joelson did not know the love and hatred of the other party in his heart. Neither did he know the story behind Captain Nair and Vice-Captain Hansen.

In Joelson's heart, he could still clearly sense the thoughts of the other two, and understand the thoughts of the other party.

This pure desire to survive was something that he understood very clearly!

This was a battle between two men, and they needed this verdict very much!

"Don't you want a fair verdict? I'll give it to you!"

With his hands behind his back, he said loudly.

When he said this, everyone was stunned.

Did he really want to give a verdict for the duel between the two men?

The people below immediately pricked up their ears, wanting to hear the result of the duel clearly. It was the verdict of the strongest man in the underground city!

"It's very obvious that the winner is..."

Joelson set his gaze on the two of them.

When the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, heard Joelson's words, he set his gaze on the vice-captain of the guards who was kneeling beside him.

There was no hatred in his eyes. At this moment, he did not have any unnecessary emotions. He just wanted to know a result that everyone could accept.

Only Joelson could give him this result!

Only a powerful person like Joelson could cut off all his thoughts and make him completely cut off all the thoughts in his heart. Only by cutting off all the things that he should or should not have, could he let go of the unwillingness in his heart, only then could he face the good comrade beside him.

The friendship between the two of them could only be reconciled by Joelson's judgment!

At this moment, the captain of the guards, Nair, was kneeling on the ground with an indifferent expression.

He no longer cared about the real result.

Whether he won or lost, everything would be like a floating speck of dust. The floating speck of dust would eventually fall to the ground, waiting for the moment when the dust would fall to the ground. He had waited for fifty years!

50 years was such a long time. Many things had changed during these 50 years. However, some things would not change. That was the concept of victory and defeat between two people!

Today, this speck of dust would finally fall to the ground!

Everything would be destined!

Captain Nair was relatively calm at this critical juncture. He didn't have too many waves in his heart.

As for the result, Nair did not care much about it.

What was important was the result itself.

There was a result, but the result was not good for him. This did not matter to Nair.

What was important was that there needed to be an ending to this matter. This way, the two of them would be able to get a better answer after more than fifty years of ill-fated relationship.

Guard Captain Nair kneeled on the ground, quietly and calmly waiting for the result that was about to come.

He was calm in his heart, but he was completely opposite to Guard Vice-Captain Hansen.

Guard Vice-Captain Hansen and Guard Captain Nair had the same thoughts. He didn't care much about the result.

He cared about the result itself.

But the result itself made him unable to calm down.

Looking at Joelson, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen's chest rose and fell violently, waiting for the result.

"The winner of this duel between the two of you is... the captain of the guards, Nair!"

Finally.

After a short wait.

Joelson announced loudly.

When the captain of the guards, Nair, heard the result, he didn't smile and didn't feel too happy. He looked at Joelson and nodded slightly.

"Thank you for your appreciation, Sir Joelson."

Captain Nair nodded slightly to show his approval.

To him, this result was not very surprising. There were not many waves in his heart.

Captain Nair had already expected this result.

It could be said that it was exactly the same as what he had imagined.

"Ah..."

Vice-Captain Hansen's body swayed as he looked at everything in front of him. Everything seemed unfamiliar.

Vice-Captain Hansen's chest was heaving violently at this moment. The cold air was sucked into his lungs, causing his dazed mind to become much clearer.

Looking at the people in front of him, the vice-captain's body swayed and he slowly raised his head.

Originally, it meant that he would admit defeat and obey the arrangements of fate. However, when the verdict was handed down, Vice-Captain Hansen realized that it was very difficult for him to accept such an arrangement.

Under the teasing of fate, such an arrangement was too difficult to accept.

Vice-Captain Hansen panted heavily. He looked at Captain Nair beside him and found that his face was calm, without any joy of victory.

Perhaps, Captain Nair was jumping with excitement at the news of his victory. Celebrating in front of his eyes would make the vice-captain of the guards feel better.

But Captain Nair did not do that at the moment.

To accept the good news of his victory in such a calm manner and accept the reality in such a calm manner, wasn't that a slap to the face of his Vice-Captain Hansen?

Wasn't this saying that he had already expected this victory? It was as if he had already known the outcome of his victory!

Such a calm expression was actually a kind of silent arrogance to the vice-captain!

This arrogance made the vice-captain's heart extremely uncomfortable. He almost couldn't breathe.

After a few intense breaths, the vice-captain retracted his uncomfortable expression.

Then, he looked at the man in front of him, Joelson.

The most powerful man in the underground city was standing in front of him, quietly looking at the two people in front of him.

His eyes were calm. He looked at everything in front of him as if it didn't matter.

"Forgive me for being presumptuous!"

The vice-captain of the guards stood up unwillingly and asked.

"Why? I want to know the reason why Captain Nair won and not me. I clearly did not fall into his disadvantage in the battle just now!"

The vice-captain of the guards asked unwillingly.

When the audience below the stage heard the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen's question, they were so scared that their scalps went numb.

This person was really crazy!

Obviously, Joelson had been very magnanimous to judge the battle between the two of them, but this bastard was still not satisfied. He even wanted to ask Joelson a question, and even wanted to know his ridiculous question!

Chapter 678: The Reason for Captain Nair's Victory. All the Guards Are Feeling Uneasy!

When the audience below the stage heard Vice-Captain Hansen's question, they were instantly filled with astonishment!

In their opinion, this kid in front of them was truly insane!

That was Joelson!

Needless to say, he was at the peak of the demigod level. In truth, his battle record was even more terrifying. He was able to perfectly defeat the god-level Iron-Blooded King Reynolds!

This powerful outsider, despite being rebuked by the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, didn't get angry. Instead, he came to help the two fight for justice.

This sort of Joelson was extremely magnanimous, helping the two determine the victor. In the end, this vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, was truly audacious. He actually dared to ask another question!

This guy simply didn't put the might of Joelson in his eyes. He really did not give him face!

If Lord Joelson was angered by this damned Guard Vice-Captain Hansen, who knew what such a strong person would do in his fury!

Everyone looked at the scene in front of them in fear, afraid that Joelson would do something terrifying in his fury.

After all, there wasn't a single person in the entire underground city who could stand up to him!

Even that damned old king, iron-blooded Reynolds, who had painstakingly trained to become a god, hadn't been able to slaughter everyone in the underworld yet. Instead, he had been directly stopped in this godforsaken place. How miserable he looked.

It must be known that a demigod was unheard of in the entire underground city. In the underworld above, he could become a high official in a large noble family!

It must be known that the nobles in the underground city were different from the nobles in the Underworld!

The difference between the two was like the difference between heaven and earth!

Not to mention the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds, who had trained to the god level.

Reynolds was unprecedentedly powerful in the entire underground city!

Since the beginning of life in the underground city, there had never been such a powerful existence. Rather than saying that such a powerful existence was his hard work, it would be more accurate to say that it was the underground city's luck!

Such a powerful person, just by relying on his cultivation, would probably be able to obtain a pretty good job in the underground city.

No one would have thought that such an existence would be so easily defeated!

To repeatedly offend and contradict the publicly acknowledged strongest Joelson, it was likely that this idiot in front of him had already lost his mind!

It was fine if it was just once but, after Joelson's generous forgiveness, he was actually questioning Joelson's judgment for the second time!

One had to know that it was already a great blessing that Joelson did not directly kill the other party right from the start!

Everyone's eyes were filled with various colors as they focused on the vice-captain of the guards who was kneeling on the ground. Their eyes were filled with puzzlement and confusion at this moment!

What was this person thinking? How dare he be so impudent!

"Crazy, he's crazy beyond belief. In my opinion, this Vice-Captain Hansen is a complete lunatic!"

"That's right, how can he speak like that? He's simply courting death!"

Most of them were angrily cursing the Vice-Captain Hansen who was kneeling on the ground. Their eyes were filled with incomprehension and confusion.

However, just as everyone was scolding Vice-Captain Hansen for having lost his mind.

There were also some people who were not that impetuous.

They looked at Joelson calmly on the stage.

Their hearts were very clear because they had the same confusion as Vice-Captain Hansen, who was kneeling on the stage!

Why did the captain of the guards, Nair, win?

Everyone clearly saw it!

Clearly, that captain of the guards, Nair, and the vice captain of the guards, Hansen, were evenly matched!

The two of them used their final killing moves and it was a draw. Each of them lost an arm.

Clearly, neither of them had taken advantage of the other!

Why did that Joelson say that the captain of the guards, Nair, was superior?

Since Joelson had made such a decision, he definitely had his own reasons!

Because, Joelson was much more powerful than all of them!

Joelson's power was at the peak of the demigod level. In the entire underground city, aside from the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds, no one else had ever reached such a height. Everyone naturally knew he had stood at a height that no one could see and made this evaluation!

This evaluation definitely had its own reasons. It must have been that Joelson, standing at the peak, had seen something that they had never seen before!

This thing had prompted Joelson to make this decision.

However, those at the bottom couldn't see it. Thus, they were eager to know why v had made this decision!

Why did Joelson make such a decision?

At that height, what kind of scenery did Joelson see that they could not see?

These people thought of these in their hearts.

At this moment, their hearts were like being spared by a cat, very itchy!

They were eager to hear the explanation from Joelson's mouth.

Unless, it was Joelson who deliberately wanted to favor Captain Nair.

However, they all understood that the possibility of such a thing happening was relatively small.

Very few people in the underground city were able to detect anything fishy.

Without exception, all of them had a very obvious characteristic.

Their cultivation levels were generally very high!

At the very least, they were at the beginning stages of the divine realm!

This was because only those with high cultivation bases would be able to notice this.

In their eyes, nothing was more important than this answer!

All of them looked at Joelson on the stage with sincere gazes, wanting to see what kind of explanation Joelson would give.

In the guards' ranks, everyone was also nervously looking at Joelson who was standing on the stage.

In their eyes, Joelson's next sentence would be directly announced to everyone present!

They knew very well that once one side won, the fate of those who supported the other side would be greatly affected.

If one's career advancement was affected, it would be a light matter.

If the person in power used bloody methods to rule the army, the entire army would probably be wiped out in an instant!

It could be said that regardless of whether the people on the other side could win, the people on the other side would immediately suffer.

Their fate was practically bound to the moment when Joelson opened his mouth.

The guards were all nervously holding their weapons as they looked at Joelson on the stage in fear, waiting for the reason given by the other side. Waiting for their fate of being judged.

Chapter 679: The Reason for the Victory Has Been Announced. There Is Something Else Going on behind the Scenes!

Everyone was looking at Joelson nervously.

They were waiting.

Some were gloating, wanting to see the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, be killed by the furious Joelson.

Some were afraid, afraid that Joelson would be angered by the vice-captain and do something terrible.

Some people were worried about their own future. One had to know that if either side won, the side that lost would have no hope of getting promoted.

Some people were simply curious and wanted to know the reason why Joelson judged Captain Nair to win.

Everyone's gaze was different. They had their own special thoughts, some were filled with anticipation, and some were filled with fear as they looked at the person standing on the stage.

Joelson.

On the other hand, Joelson stood on the stage with a calm expression on his face. He looked at the person in front of him indifferently. His eyes were calm, and he did not see the slightest bit of anger burning. He did not see the slightest bit of displeasure expressed.

"Hey, tell me, didn't the captain of the guards, Nair, and the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, fight to a draw? Why did Sir Joelson judge the captain of the guards, Nair, to be the victor?"

"Of course! The captain of the guards, Nair, was the first one to curry favor with Lord Joelson, and now he's siding with him!"

"Go, go, go! How can you say that? Lord Joelson is not that kind of person!"

"Lord Joelson is fair in his heart. A person of his level is a god's favored existence in the entire underworld. How could he favor someone in such a small arena..."

"That's right, that's right..."

The people below the stage discussed intensely about who was the strongest in the arena.

As the center of the discussion, Joelson was still calm at this moment. He looked at the captain of the guards, Nair. Nair had a calm expression on his face. He lowered his head and quietly waited for Joelson's judgment, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, was kneeling on the side with a sincere expression on his face.

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen's eyes were filled with sincerity at this moment. His eyes were burning as he looked at Joelson in front of him, wanting an explanation.

Originally, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, thought that he would be able to receive the verdict of Joelson more easily. However, the restlessness in his heart clearly showed that he desired a fair trial.

Vice-Captain Hansen was currently yearning for a fair trial. He wanted to lose clearly and have an easy life in the future.

Of course, if Joelson was irritated by him and sentenced him to death on the spot, then as a warrior who desired victory, the vice-captain of the guards felt that he deserved to die.

All of this, to Vice-Captain Hansen, was just a soldier's desire to obtain the result of the battle.

All of this was seen by Captain Nair.

Looking at the other party's sincere eyes, wanting to know the answer, Captain Nair was also encouraged.

However, Captain Nair did not want Vice-Captain Hansen to know the truth.

The reason was very complicated, so he also looked at Joelson with a hint, hoping that Joelson could help him keep the secret.

Captain Nair really didn't want Vice-Captain Hansen to know everything he had done.

Looking at the sincere eyes of the two, Joelson shook his head indifferently.

"Why hide such a thing from him?"

"Or rather, Captain Nair, do you really think you can hide it forever? Sooner or later, he will find out."

Joelson's indifferent words made Captain Nair's body stiffen.

When the vice-captain heard Joelson's words, his eyes were full of confusion.

What did he mean?

What was he hiding? Who was he hiding it from?

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen's eyes were filled with confusion. Listening to their words, not only did he not dispel the confusion in his heart, he felt even more confused.

However, at this scene, between Captain Nair and Vice-Captain Hansen, there was one person who heard this sentence clearly!

This person was none other than Captain Nair.

This seemingly confusing sentence was actually meant for Captain Nair to hear. Therefore, Vice-Captain Hansen naturally sounded confused.

After Captain Nair heard this, he lowered his head deeply.

Looking at the complicated gaze on the ground, Captain Nair knew that the things he was hiding were very clear to Joelson, and his exhortation was also very reasonable!

Joelson sighed indifferently. Looking at Captain Nair looking at the ground with a complicated expression, he spoke again.

"Sigh, so you still want to stop me from telling the truth?"

Joelson's indifferent words made the vice captain of the guards, Hansen, who was kneeling on the ground, even more confused.

What were these two people talking about? Were they speaking in riddles?

He looked at Captain Nair, who was kneeling next to him, with a confused look. This kid definitely understood, or else his expression wouldn't be so complicated!

Vice-Captain Hansen, who knew this, looked at Captain Nair with a burning gaze, trying to see something from his face.

Vice-Captain Hansen also hoped that the other party could read his confusion from his eyes and guide him in the future.

However.

Under the scrutiny of Vice-Captain Hansen, the captain of the guards, Nair, had an indifferent expression.

"Sigh..."

The captain of the guards, Nair, seemed to be thinking about something very important just now. When he raised his head, under his clear eyes, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, knew that he had guessed correctly.

This captain of the guards, Nair, definitely had something very important hidden from him.

Captain Nair's indifferent eyes were filled with complicated emotions. He looked at Joelson in front of him in confusion, ignoring the passionate expression of his good comrade, Vice-Captain Hansen.

At this moment, Captain Nair's face was filled with confusion.

"I don't know."

Captain Nair slowly opened his mouth and said softly.

"I'll leave everything to you to decide, Lord Joelson. No matter what judgment you make, I'll support you unconditionally and wholeheartedly."

The captain of the guards slowly made an extremely respectful gesture!

"Alright, then I'll say it..."

Chapter 680: The Truth behind the Matter. The Concealment of Our Comrades!

Vice-Captain Hansen was looking at the two people in front of him with a stunned expression.

That's right, stunned!

He couldn't understand it!

What were these people talking about!

Why couldn't he understand a single word of their words?

The people were as confused as Vice-Captain Hansen, as well as the audience below the stage.

They were also confused. They couldn't figure out what kind of strange topic Lord Joelson was talking about with the captain of the guards, Nair?

They looked at the communication between the two people on the stage in confusion.

"You see, you see. I told you that Lord Joelson must be trying to appreciate Captain Nair, so he deliberately decided that Captain Nair would win!"

"I told you, Captain Nair and Vice-Captain Hansen were evenly matched in battle, and the two of them were clearly tied. Lord Joelson must have his own selfish motives for judging Captain Nair to be the winner!"

"Don't talk nonsense. You people are not serious. How can you be sure that Lord Joelson's judgment was unfair?"

"Needless to say, then Lord Joelson has started to play charades with Guard Captain Nair. What else could it be? It must be Lord Joelson hinting that he appreciates Guard Captain Nair!"

The people below discussed animatedly. Everyone was puzzled by the two's strange words. What exactly did they mean?

While the two were puzzled, Guard Captain Nair slowly made a gesture of prostrating himself on the ground!

"Everything will be left to Lord Joelson to decide. No matter what choice you make, I will support you wholeheartedly and won't complain at all!"

The sincere Guard Captain Nair respectfully knelt on the ground of the arena. Looking at Joelson in front of him, his heart was filled with sincerity.

At this moment, Guard Captain Nair was filled with confusion. He didn't know what was the right thing to do and what was the best thing to do. He couldn't figure it out no matter how hard he thought, so he chose to leave the decision-making power to Joelson, let the much stronger and higher realm Joelson make the decision. No matter what, the decision that he made would be approved by Captain Nair in his heart.

At least, he would not regret making that decision in the future.

Captain Nair respectfully bowed to Joelson, which made Joelson raise his eyebrows.

That's right, Joelson could also see the other party's helplessness and confusion.

Since the captain of the guards, Nair, could not make his own decision, then he would help him!

Joelson made up his mind but, before that, he had to confirm it again.

"I'll ask you again. No matter what the final result is... Captain Nair, you won't regret it?"

Joelson's indifferent tone reminded Guard Captain Nair for the last time.

In this world, there was no medicine for regret that could make people start all over again.

Hearing Joelson's question, Guard Captain Nair slowly raised his head and nodded firmly.

"It's okay. No matter what decision you make, I'll accept it!"

The captain of the guards, Nair, said firmly. His eyes were filled with determination.

At this moment, the captain of the guards, Nair, had already made up his mind to let Joelson decide on this matter.

Joelson's power was at the peak of the demigod level. He was an existence that even the entire underground city couldn't compare to.

His battle record was even more ridiculous. Even the god-level expert, the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds, had been completely suppressed and killed by him.

This sort of Joelson, standing at a high place, whether in terms of state of mind or power, was much higher than him.

For him to decide on this matter, he definitely had to handle it better than himself.

"Alas, let me decide on this stupid matter between the two of you."

Joelson shook his head helplessly.

Indeed, his state of mind and power were far higher than the two of them. If the captain of the guards, Nair, let Joelson decide on this matter, of course he could.

However, the captain of the guards, Nair, overlooked a major premise.

That was, this matter was a private matter between the captain of the guards, Nair, and the vice-captain of the guards. The matters between the two could not be judged by reason alone.

However, since the captain of the guards, Nair, had already entrusted it to him, then Joelson could only rely on his own rational thoughts to judge the grudges between the two brothers.

Joelson took a deep breath indifferently and looked at the two people in front of him. He decided to tell the truth.

"Why would I judge the captain of the guards, Nair, to win this victory? It's very simple. It's because of the captain of the guards, Nair."

Joelson's gaze landed on the captain of the guards, Nair. The captain of the guards felt as if his entire body was locked, as if there were 10,000 needles hanging on his skin!

The way Joelson looked at the two of them was obviously very calm but, under the feeling of Captain Nair, it made him feel uncomfortable!

Obviously, Joelson did not do anything, but Captain Nair already felt that he could not even breathe!

Captain Nair swallowed a mouthful of saliva and waited for Joelson's follow-up words.

The audience below the stage held their breath and focused their attention, afraid that they would miss any of Joelson's words.

The experts among them were very curious about Joelson's judgment standards. They were curious about what kind of scenery the other party had seen from a height that they could not see to make such a judgment.

With such curiosity in their hearts, they were all very curious as they looked at Joelson's figure.

At the same time, those who were originally thinking about other things also saw the scene in front of them, and could not help but feel curious about the truth.

That's right, they also wanted to know the truth of the matter.

Under the anticipation of so many people, Joelson slowly moved his gaze away from the Guard Captain Nair and shifted his gaze to the Guard Vice-Captain Hansen.

Guard Vice-Captain Hansen raised his head in excitement, his pair of red eyes staring intently at Joelson's imposing figure!

Guard Vice-Captain Hansen only wanted to know why, he wanted to know the answer!

"The reason why you were not judged and Guard Vice-Captain Hansen won was because Guard Captain Nair went easy in the duel just now!"

Under the expectant gaze of Vice-Captain Hansen, Joelson calmly told the truth of the matter.

This truth made Vice-Captain Hansen's ears explode like thunder. All the audience below the stage were shocked.

They did not dare to believe what Joelson said. They widened their eyes and looked at Joelson on the stage.

"What do you mean...?"
