Chapter 731: Joelson's Decision Surprised Everyone

Joelson looked at the pleas of the people below the stage and felt helpless.

One had to know that he would never accept the pleas of these people.

Because, in his heart, he would never accept such an outcome.

If he only stayed in such a small place to become a king, then what was the difference between this and retirement?

Joelson was very sure that this small underground city was definitely not his final destination.

In front of the road, there was something even more magnificent than the underground city!

It was absolutely impossible for Joelson to stop his footsteps in such a small underground city.

Joelson sighed heavily and said faintly,

"Get up, Captain Nair, Vice-Captain Hansen."

Joelson's tone was extremely heavy. His indifferent tone made Captain Nair and Vice-Captain Hansen's hearts tighten!

Damn it, it was really impossible to change all of this?

Captain Nair had already known about Joelson's decision just by listening to his tone.

That's right, Joelson probably wouldn't agree to their request.

However, the captain of the guards, Nair, still felt a wave of unwillingness in his heart!

Why, why couldn't Joelson become the king of the underground city?

The captain of the guards, Nair, felt a wave of unwillingness in his heart. He didn't want to give up just like that. The captain of the guards, Nair, understood in his heart that the underground city needed Joelson. Just like the night needed the moon to illuminate, Joelson was extremely important to the underground city!

They could not lose Joelson!

Everyone's heart was filled with pain!

"No, Sir Joelson! We won't get up!"

Captain Nair said with a bitter face.

"Sir Joelson, I really beg you to agree to us. We really need your leadership!"

The captain of the guards raised his head and said sincerely!

Such sincere words directly touched the kneeling people below the stage!

The captain of the guards, Nair, was so desperate. Did they have any reason not to follow him?

"Yes, we need you, Lord Joelson!"

"You are our only light. You can't abandon us!"

One after another, everyone cried and pleaded, echoing Captain Nair's words.

They didn't want Joelson to leave!

Joelson looked at everyone's sincere expression and sighed.

When Mia saw Joelson's sigh, her heart skipped a beat.

Mia knew what Joelson was going to say next.

"Haa, listen well, Captain Nair. I have more important things to do."

"Please don't pester me anymore. I won't become the king of the underground city."

Joelson said coldly!

Such a cold tone directly made the people of the underground city despair.

As expected...

Captain Nair's heart was filled with dead ashes.

Was it really true that the underground city couldn't have such a wise king?

Captain Nair thought unwillingly.

However, the outcome before his eyes seemed to have been decided.

When Mia saw this scene, she couldn't bear it

As an underground city person, how could Mia not want a wise and powerful king like Joelson?

Who wouldn't want such a powerful and wise king to lead them out of this barren land of extreme ice?

It must be known that ever since the citizens of the underground city were born, they had to constantly endure the hail and the constant harassment of magical beasts!

Even the powerful Iron-Blooded King Reynolds was unable to completely solve these problems.

However, Mia saw the possibility of changing all of this from Joelson!

Although Joelson was merely a peak demigod and, in terms of power, perhaps he was even weaker than the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds, Joelson was able to kill and defeat the old Iron-Blooded King Reynolds, who was of a higher level. He had created an almost impossible miracle.

That's right, Joelson's presence gave people the feeling that he had unlimited potential, as though he could do things that others couldn't!

If he could really become the king of the underground city, then perhaps he could really change the status quo of the underground city. He could really change the appearance of the underground city!

However, it was a pity that all of this would be a dream!

He could not become the king of the underground city because his lofty ambition would not stay in this small underground city.

This was a very sad thing but also a helpless thing.

Is there really no way?

Mia thought with unwillingness in her heart.

At the same time, the residents of the underground city were also disappointed.

Joelson could not become their king, the underground city lost Joelson.

A strong grief spread between them.

This grief was so painful that it was worse than killing them!

The pain of losing Joelson was much more painful than losing the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds!

Joelson was special. He was the most special one in the history of the entire underground city.

Although Joelson was a foreigner, his strength made everyone sigh in their hearts.

Such a powerful strength was unique in the underground city. Such a noble character was something that countless generations of kings in the underground city did not have!

This person was their savior!

Unfortunately, everything was just empty talk now.

The underground city could not have Joelson.

Joelson's ambition was far away. It was impossible for him to stay in such a narrow place. It was an insult to his status.

To the underground city, they didn't deserve to have him.

Such a tragic feeling spread among the people!

Some people couldn't help but cry when they thought of this.

They lamented that the underground city couldn't have him.

A strong sadness began to spread all over the underground city!

The sadness of the people made him feel helpless.

He really couldn't stay here for too long.

However, seeing these people sincerely urging him to stay, his heart was touched.

Sigh...

Joelson let out a long sigh.

Looking at the endless Wailing Abyss, he felt a wave of melancholy in his heart.

"Although I can't be your king, I still have a compromising idea."

Chapter 732: Joelson's Final Decision

When Mia saw him sigh, she knew what would happen next.

Mia had always been a good judge of character. Not only was she a good judge of character, but she was also perceptive about people.

Mia knew that Joelson would never become the king of this barren underground city. The reason was simple. Not only did Mia see the reason for his sigh, but she also knew the reason for his sigh. Mia also saw the evidence of his inner thoughts.

His ambition was far away, in the lofty mountains. The lower races of the underground city would not understand what he was fighting for.

The people of the underground city and the people of the underground city were like two parallel space-time lines, like two parallel rivers that never met.

The people of the underground city were destined to not be able to understand Joelson, and Joelson was also destined to not be able to stay in the underground city.

That's right, everything seemed to be preordained, everything seemed to be planned.

No matter how the captain of the guards, Nair, and the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, prayed, all these things were impossible to achieve.

Just as Mia was thinking, Joelson raised his head and looked at the blue glacier. He looked at the mountain of ice that was as tall as the clouds. He could not see the end of it.

While the people of the underground city were feeling sorrowful, Joelson slowly opened his mouth.

"Although I can't be your king, I still have an idea for a compromise."

Joelson let out a long sigh and slowly said.

This time, it was like a sacred flame, lighting up the hope of everyone in the underground city!

A compromise? Could it be that there was still a chance for all of this!

Joelson's words were like a lit match that fell into a dry fire, instantly lighting up the hope of everyone!

That's right, it was hope!

Everyone in the underground city looked at this foreigner named Joelson with a face full of anticipation, this Joelson who could bring the underground city a bright future!

Everyone was filled with anticipation!

The captain of the guards had his head lowered. No one knew what he was thinking.

He seemed to be resigned to his fate. He understood Joelson's thoughts.

After all, Joelson was a powerhouse that the underground city could not understand. The other party had lofty ideals and ideals that the underground city could not understand. This was not Joelson's fault. This was the incompetence of the underground city.

It was their underground city's skin that was not worthy of Joelson's excellence. All of this seemed to be god's will. It was something that could not be forced.

The captain of the guards, Nair, knelt on the ground and lowered his head deeply. His eyes were filled with unwillingness.

However, the captain of the guards, Nair, knew that this was something that could not be helped. Although the captain of the guards knew that this was something that could not be helped, he still wanted the other party to take over the future of the underground city.

This was what the captain longed for!

After all, who wouldn't want a wise king?

Not to mention, this king had the ability to lead the underground city to a bright future!

With such a talent, if Joelson could lead the underground city, it would be an honor for Guard Captain Nair and Vice-Captain Hansen.

It would be an honor for everyone in the underground city!

It was a wish in Captain Nair's heart to have him.

Unfortunately, all of this was impossible.

His ambition was even further away. In his heart, he yearned for an endless distance!

When he heard the clear rejection, he felt a wave of sadness.

Sure enough, all of this was just a ridiculous wish in Captain Nair's heart. That ridiculous wish would never come true.

Captain Nair felt a wave of depression in his heart.

Captain Nair knew in his heart that he was probably going to become the king of the underground city.

Although this was something that Captain Nair yearned for very much in his heart, Captain Nair could not feel happy at this moment.

He clearly wanted to become the supreme king. Facing the situation where he was destined to be the king of the underground city, he was not happy at this moment.

On the contrary, Captain Nair was confused and helpless about the current situation.

Captain Nair did not know what kind of place the underground city would become under his rule. Captain Nair's heart was full of doubts.

Would it become more prosperous, or would it become less prosperous?

Captain Nair was at a loss at this moment. He did not know what the underground city would become under the leadership of someone like him.

Perhaps, let alone being rich and powerful, the underground city would be unable to survive the threat of the beast tide under the rule of Captain Nair. This was a big problem.

Perhaps the underground city would be directly destroyed in his hands.

Captain Nair thought bitterly in his heart.

He did not think that he had the ability to lead the underground city.

Captain Nair, who felt extremely guilty, knew that a person like him might really be unable to make the underground city better. To be able to defend the current underground city and not let the residents of the underground city become food for the magical beasts... This was already using up all of the brainpower of the captain of the guards, Nair.

Just as the captain of the guards, Nair, was in pain, confused, and puzzled...

Joelson slowly opened his mouth.

This sentence was like a lighthouse, giving the captain of the guards, who had lost his way in the fog, a glimmer of hope!

The captain of the guards, Nair, was extremely excited!

He raised his head excitedly and looked at Joelson, wanting to know what the compromise was.

The future of the underground city, everyone's hope, was on this compromise.

Just as Captain Nair was extremely excited.

Vice-Captain Hansen, who was beside Captain Nair, was also excited.

How could he not want Joelson to stay in the underground city and lead the underground city to the light?

Facing Joelson's words, Vice-Captain Hansen felt extremely sad.

"I have a compromise. Although I definitely can not stay in the underground city and be the king here, I am sure that Captain Nelson, I can rule in name in your country."

Joelson smiled faintly and said slowly.

"What? In name of the king!"

Captain Nair looked at Joelson in excitement.

Chapter 733: Title Of King? Everyone Had No Choice But To Compromise

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, was originally extremely sad. He was unwilling to accept the fact that Joelson could not succeed as the king of the underground city.

However, when Joelson spoke of his hope, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen's heart instantly lit up with a spark of hope!

Vice-Captain Hansen raised his head in surprise and looked at Joelson!

At first, Vice-Captain Hansen thought there was no hope in his heart!

At first, Vice-Captain Hansen was desperate to accept his fate. When he was about to command all the troops in the underground city and become the absolute general of the underground city. However, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, could not feel happy at all.

The reason was that the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, understood in his heart that compared to becoming the general of the underground city, enjoying the worship of all the members of the army, and becoming the absolute voice of the underground city's armed forces... these might be very good things for him, but none of them could compare to the loss of one thing.

If the underground city did not have a king like Joelson, that would be a great loss for the underground city!

The captain of the guards was certain in his heart. He understood what kind of loss this would bring to the underground city.

Perhaps if Joelson left, Vice-Captain Hansen could become the ruler of the underground city's military power and receive extraordinary benefits. However, compared to the benefits he would receive, the benefits of Joelson staying in the underground city as the king were obviously greater!

If the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, could choose to become the king himself, Joelson leaving, or Joelson becoming the king, then this Guard Vice-Captain Hansen would be demoted to an ordinary citizen. If he were to lose all of his current status, reputation, and power, then he would rather choose the latter!

That's right, Vice-Captain Hansen would rather become an ordinary citizen and lose the status and reputation that he had worked so hard for all these years. As long as Joelson could become the king of the underground city, then Vice-Captain Hansen would be willing to do anything in his heart!

Unfortunately, Vice-Captain Hansen understood in his heart that Joelson was not such a person.

It was because of his self-knowledge that Vice-Captain Hansen understood that his ambition and Joelson's ambition were not on the same level. Their talents and aspirations were more like a parallel line that would never intersect. The future of the two would never intersect.

Therefore, it was precisely because Captain Nair knew this that he understood why Joelson would definitely not agree to everyone's request. No matter how many requests people made, it would be useless.

Therefore, Vice-Captain Hansen's heart was filled with despair.

However, it was just now that Joelson slowly said his solution.

These words instantly lit up the vice-captain's heart that was as silent as ashes!

That's right, the news that Joelson brought was so exaggerated!

Vice-Captain Hansen understood in his heart that the possibility of Joelson changing his mind and being willing to stay was very low. That was why he was so surprised!

At this moment, Vice-Captain Hansen raised his head in surprise and looked at Joelson's unfathomable face.

Joelson slowly sighed and said his plan.

That's right, to be a nominal king!

This sentence was like a mine falling into the water. It instantly shocked everyone present and made everyone's eyes flash with surprise!

That's right, to be a nominal king, this was too shocking for them.

What was a nominal king?

The residents of the underground city were kneeling on the ground at this moment. They looked at each other, completely unable to understand what Joelson meant!

A nominal king!

Captain Nair felt Joelson's plan and roughly guessed what he was thinking.

Could it be that the person was not in the underground city, but was the nominal king of the underground city?

Captain Nair sighed in his heart.

This kind of thinking was far too advanced.

However, this kind of thinking was the most suitable method for the current situation!

The captain of the guards, Nair, felt a wave of helplessness in his heart. He understood that Joelson's ambitions were different from those of the people of the underground city. In their hearts, they were thinking about how they could eat their fill. About how they could wear warm clothes. They didn't have such a grand vision in their hearts.

But Joelson was different. As a powerful existence, what Joelson was thinking about was something that the captain of the guards, Nair, and the others couldn't understand!

As a peak demigod, Joelson was able to easily kill the old underground city king, Iron-Blooded King Reynolds, who was a god. This proved that his strength was at a level that the people of the underground city couldn't even imagine.

During the duel, the ancient dragon soul that Joelson displayed shocked everyone in the underground city.

Joelson was like the giant dragon that slowly appeared behind him. Everyone's thoughts towards Joelson were something that they could only dream of.

This small underground city was unable to allow this giant dragon to live here comfortably.

The ambition of the giant dragon was far away.

However, everyone couldn't bear to part with Joelson.

This was because Joelson was too important to the underground city.

If Joelson could lead the underground city, it would not only improve the underground city but also greatly improve it!

To the underground city, the importance of Joelson was too important.

As long as they could have Joelson as the king of the underground city, the entire underground city would become even more powerful. They would walk towards the Underworld that their ancestors had been looking forward to for countless years, they would bask in the glory of Pluto's rule!

Almost all of the people in the underground city wanted to see him become the king of the underground city.

However, Joelson's ambition was different from the underground city.

The two groups of people could not reconcile.

Under this premise, the plan that Joelson proposed was something that everyone could accept.

Joelson really had no way to stay in the underground city, and the underground city really needed him.

Then, he could only become a king in name, the nominal king of the underground city. Wouldn't that be great!

Captain Nair was excited. This seemed to be a solution!

If Joelson can become the king of the underground city, then everything will become hopeful!

Chapter 734: The Solution To The Underground City. Joelson's Idea!

If the underground city needed Joelson very much, and Joelson really couldn't stay in the underground city.

Then perhaps, the solution that Joelson proposed now was really the best solution to the underground city.

In this way, the underground city had Joelson as the king, and Joelson could continue his never-ending journey towards the distant place that his heart desired

Thinking of this, the captain of the guards was suddenly enlightened.

Perhaps this was the best solution for the underground city at the moment!

If he did this, it would satisfy Joelson's idea of setting off to the faraway place and also satisfy the expectations of the captain of the guards, Nair, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, and all the members of the underground city.

If Joelson really couldn't stay here, then the underground city also hoped that he could become the king. This way, it would satisfy everyone's wishes.

This would be a perfect solution.

Captain Nair thought, and a smile appeared on his face.

"I think this method is feasible!"

Captain Nair knelt down and cupped his fists to express his opinion!

"What do you mean it's feasible? I don't think it's feasible at all!"

However, to everyone's surprise, Vice-Captain Hansen stood up at this time to express his incomprehension!

That's right, Vice-Captain Hansen did not understand the thoughts of Captain Nair and Joelson at all.

After all, it was the first time Vice-Captain Hansen was removed from the title of king. It was understandable that Vice-Captain Hansen did not understand.

Damn it, what does this mean?

Vice-Captain Hansen was confused. The same doubts as Vice-Captain Hansen were shared by most of the residents of the underground city.

That's right, most of them didn't understand it immediately. What exactly did this mean? When the captain of the guards, Nair, agreed to it, it made them even more puzzled!

What exactly did this mean? Why did the captain of the guards, Nair, who was unwilling to give up just a moment ago, suddenly switch sides? He actually agreed to Joelson's proposal.

This made most of them feel a wave of doubt in their hearts.

Could it be that Captain Nair had betrayed the underground city?

Everyone's hearts were filled with this question!

Could it be that Captain Nair did not know how important Joelson was to the underground city?

Everyone's hearts were filled with doubt!

Before this, Captain Nair had rejected Joelson's proposal.

Why did he suddenly change sides?

Everyone was confused.

Not long ago, everyone had witnessed Captain Nair taking the lead to oppose Joelson's promise and the right to be king.

Why did Captain Nair suddenly turn to Joelson in the blink of an eye?

Could it be that Captain Nair really wanted to become the king of the underground city? Now, he could no longer hold it in and revealed his true form, revealing his own weakness?

The residents of the underground city were furious when they saw Captain Nair calmly accepting Joelson's suggestion!

This fellow had actually betrayed everyone in the underground city!

It was simply an unforgivable crime!

Even if the captain of the guards, Nair, became the king, they would not admit it in their hearts!

The residents of the underground city looked at the captain of the guards, Nair, who had agreed to Joelson's point of view on the stage. Their hearts were filled with resentment as they thought to themselves!

Different from the excited citizens of the underground city, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, was not as extreme as they were.

After all, Vice-Captain Hansen understood that as his boss who had followed him for many years and as a good friend who had fought side by side with him for an unknown period of time, Guard Captain Nair would never betray his brothers and the underground city!

However, Vice-Captain Hansen was still surprised that Guard Captain Nair actually agreed to Joelson's plan.

This made Vice-Captain Hansen even more confused.

Why did the captain of the guards, Nair, directly agree to Joelson's idea?

Although Vice-Captain Hansen knew that his good brother, the captain of the guards, Nair would never betray him or the people of the underground city, he still had doubts in his heart.

After all, he was still confused about the plan that Captain Nair had agreed to. He didn't know what kind of medicine the other party had bought.

Just as the vice-captain was puzzled, Joelson slowly opened his mouth.

Standing on top of the ring, Joelson clearly saw every aspect of the underground city residents!

Although the captain of the guards, Nair, had cleverly thought of Joelson's plan, Joelson saw it very clearly. Because of the captain's approval, the entire underground city... At this moment, there was already quite a large wave of opposition!

It seemed that the ordinary people of the underground city did not understand Joelson's plan at all.

Joelson indifferently looked at the ordinary residents of the underground city under the arena, and indifferently looked at the confused vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, who was kneeling beside him.

He knew that he needed to step forward and explain the cause and the outcome of this incident!

Joelson let out a faint breath and said slowly, "I have many lofty goals.

"To me, I still have many lofty goals. I am really too busy to be the king of the underground city. To you, the underground city really needs me to be your king."

"I understand your thoughts. You think that I have the talent to bring the underground city out of this gloomy place. I understand that you have all these concerns."

Joelson slowly explained everything.

"That's why I proposed such a solution just now.

"Since we can't reconcile the two sides, why don't we compromise? My compromise is...

"The captain of the guards, Nair, will be the acting king of the underground city and carry out the administrative order on my behalf.

"The actual person in charge of the underground city will still be me. This is the meaning of the acting king."

Joelson patiently explained to the people of the underground city.

Chapter 735: Acting Executor: Guard Captain Nair!

Joelson slowly explained, letting the people of the underground city slowly digest his proposal.

He knew that for the people of the underground city, what he said still contained a huge amount of information. He had to let their hearts slow down, let their hearts properly accept his thoughts.

As expected, when Joelson finished speaking, the residents of the underground city immediately began to discuss.

This was still a little too shocking for them.

"Hey, hey, hey. Sir Joelson means that the captain of the guards, Nair, will be the acting king, and then he will be the real king?"

"Oh my god, it's probably like this..."

The people in the underground city immediately began to discuss.

Compared to the shock of the people in the underground city, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, who was standing beside Joelson, was obviously much calmer. Facing Joelson's explanation, his brain was also rapidly digesting the series of words that Joelson had said.

This required the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, to take some time to digest.

The idea that Joelson had put forward was against the rule of the underground city for thousands of years!

Because, for thousands of years, since the birth of life, the evolution of intelligent creatures, and later the establishment of the country, the establishment of the underground city dynasty... All of these were built on a system.

For thousands of years, the underground city had only been ruled by one king!

Two kings, what kind of nonsense is this?

Everyone was basically puzzled, they did not quite understand the plan that Joelson had mentioned.

That's right.

This was the perception of most of the underground city residents.

All of this was a little too crazy. For those with conservative views, who had lived in the underground city for thousands of years, this was a little hard to accept!

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, was not the same as those conservatives. Although he was also one of the residents of the underground city, he was also a conservative person when it came to the policies of the underground city. After all, living in the isolated underground city, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, was definitely not as open-minded as the people of the Underworld who lived outside.

That was for sure.

But as a soldier, a soldier who had to face a cunning magical beast.

Vice-Captain Hansen's mentality change was obviously much better than other people in the underground city.

After all, if he did not change, he would not be able to survive the war with the magical beast.

Vice-Captain Hansen understood this very well. Therefore, compared to other underground city residents, his mentality would change faster. "..."

Regarding the understanding of Joelson's policy, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, also had his own judgment in his heart.

If the captain of the guards, Nair, became the acting king, then the actual king would still be Joelson...

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, touched his chin and carefully thought about the stakes of all this.

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, was not a stupid person. He quickly thought of the purpose of Joelson's actions.

It was actually very simple.

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, understood that Joelson's ambition was in a very distant place. It was completely different from the underground city road. Let alone becoming the king of a country, even if he managed the country to an unparalleled level of power, Joelson probably did not have much interest in it.

It could be said that the future of the underground city and Joelson's future were two absolutely parallel lines.

The future of the underground city and Joelson's future would never intersect.

For the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen could understand Joelson's thoughts and the purpose of his actions.

However, the old king of the underground city, Iron-Blooded King Reynolds, was killed by Joelson. At this moment, the underground city had no suitable candidate to become the new king.

At this moment, the underground city urgently needed a leader.

This leader, however, could only be Joelson.

When these two contradictory events were combined, perhaps only Joelson's proposal was reasonable.

That's right. Since Joelson was determined to be far away and did not want to stay in this barren land and the underground city urgently needed a god who could support everything...

Then, wouldn't everything be solved by making Joelson only the king in name?

When the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, thought of this, he was instantly excited!

Wouldn't that be the end of it!

Why didn't he think of such a suitable solution!

If this was carried out, Joelson would be able to travel around and not be trapped in this small underground city.

And the underground city would have a wise king.

Such a solution could be said to be the best of both worlds!

Vice-Captain Hansen was certain in his heart!

Such a solution was feasible. Not only was it feasible, but it was also a rarely seen perfect solution!

Vice-Captain Hansen, who had thought through all this, suddenly understood. He no longer had any resistance towards this proposal!

"Sir Joelson, I think that this proposal is very feasible!"

When Vice-Captain Hansen thought of this, all the problems in his heart were solved. He no longer had any doubts about Joelson's proposal and hurriedly said loudly!

When Joelson saw Vice-Captain Hansen's performance, he knew that Vice-Captain Hansen had thought through this matter.

After all, he had lived in the underground city for so long and was isolated from the outside world. It was not easy for him to understand these problems.

When Captain Nair saw his good brother Vice-Captain Hansen think this through, he felt a wave of emotion in his heart.

If that was the case, he would become the acting king of the underground city and Vice-Captain Hansen would become the military ruler of the underground city.

The long-cherished wish in their hearts was also understood.

After all, his heart was still longing for the high position of the underground city, while the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen's heart, was also longing for the military power of the underground city!

This was the pursuit that they could never let go of in their hearts.. Previously, because they wanted to make way for the development and glory of the underground city, they did not hesitate to abandon the pursuit in their hearts. But now that they had the opportunity to perfect both sides, their hearts instantly became incomparably excited!

Chapter 736: Everything Has Been Decided. The Last Thing About Joelson!

After Vice-Captain Hansen understood everything, he felt that everything was suddenly enlightened!

That's right, it was enlightened!

When Vice-Captain Hansen was just thinking about it, he patted his own head with some resentment. He was annoyed that his brain was so slow. It was actually thought of by that bastard, Captain Nair!

Indeed, Captain Nair was the fastest person among all of them to understand all of this!

As for all of this, Captain Nair had already known all of it when he had just figured it out. After figuring out the stakes, Captain Nair did not hesitate much in his heart, he directly chose to lay his cards on the table to Joelson!

In the underground city, Captain Nair was the first to think of all the stakes involved!

Therefore, Captain Nair directly chose to agree with Joelson's plan before everyone else!

This Guard Captain Nair, who was one step ahead of him, made Guard Vice-Captain Hansen unhappy!

Guard Captain Nair actually thought of all of this before him. This sense of defeat caused guard Vice-Captain Hansen to feel a wave of displeasure in his heart!

However, even though he was unhappy, Vice-Captain Hansen still admired his good friend for so many years. He was so smart that he had thought of all this before everyone else!

Vice-Captain Hansen acknowledged the flexibility of Captain Nair's mind.

Captain Nair was also delighted after hearing Vice-Captain Hansen's affirmative answer.

His old friend Vice-Captain Hansen was not stupid after all. After being reminded by Joelson, he quickly understood the pros and cons.

Especially when he heard Vice-Captain Hansen's affirmative answer, Captain Nair felt a burst of emotion in his heart.

He did not expect that Captain Nair would still be the king of the underground city.

Now that the two of them had agreed, Joelson's plan could basically be carried out.

According to Joelson's plan, Captain Nair would be the acting king of the underground city. If nothing went wrong, he would soon become the acting king.

This was the dream of Captain Nair for many years!

The highest level of authority and status in the underground city!

The king!

Captain Nair's heart was once filled with a position that he did not even dare to dream of!

That was the king! Captain Nair never dreamed that he would actually be able to reach this position one day. Captain Nair felt even more dreamy in his heart.

But to Captain Nair, all of this was really a dream.

After all, before this, Guard Captain Nair did not even have the slightest thought of receiving the power of the king that Joelson had bestowed upon him. That was because he knew that, compared to Joelson, the position of King... Guard Captain Nair did not really deserve the position.

Just how powerful was Joelson's ability?

Putting aside his status as a guard captain, just the strength of Guard Captain Nair was merely at the peak of the deity domain. How could he compare to Joelson?

No!

Compared to Joelson, Nair, the captain of the guards, was not even worthy of being the underground city's king.

However, things were different now. If he were the acting king, Nair, the captain of the guards, would definitely be worthy of his position.

No matter what, he was still at the peak of the deity domain. Compared to the previous kings, aside from the old King Leighton and the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds, the majority of the others did not even reach the deity domain!

Hence, to Joelson, as the acting king, he was still a suitable match.

However, this was only for the acting king. He was a suitable match.

Under the premise that Joelson was the actual king, the captain of the guards, Nair, had the courage to be the acting king.

As the actual king, it was a blessing for the underground city.

The worry about the revival of the underground city had disappeared from Captain Nair's heart.

After all, being able to become the top of the underground city's power and position had always been his dream.

Besides him, Vice-Captain Hansen was also feeling emotional.

He did not expect that the day of his comeback would finally come.

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, had previously rejected the offer of the military power of the Joelson underground city out of consideration for the future of the underground city.

If it was now, there was hope for the future of the underground city, then the military power of the underground city was still quite tempting to the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen.

This was the military power of the underground city!

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, had been longing for something for god knows how long!

He had joined the army in order to become a general and stand out!

At this moment, he was able to calmly accept the gift from Joelson. This made the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, feel a wave of emotion in his heart.

Just as the two of them were feeling emotional in their hearts.

When the other residents of the underground city saw that the two—captain of the guards, Nair, and the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen—had agreed to this proposal, they also felt a wave of emotion in their hearts.

Although most of the people still did not understand what Joelson meant, a small number of people were already able to understand what Joelson was thinking. They were explaining to the people around them, why did Joelson make such a judgment!

As more and more people understood, most of the people in the underground city felt a wave of emotion at this moment.

That's right, this might be the best choice for the underground city.

As they understood, they felt even more fortunate!

The underground city could finally have Joelson!

Everyone was ecstatic!

Many people stood up and hugged each other while crying!

They were rejoicing that the underground city could really have Joelson. This would be a great blessing for the underground city!

"Long live King Joelson!"

"Long live King Joelson!"

"Long live King Joelson!"

Cheers began to spread through the streets and alleys of the underground city.

Everyone continued to cheer, celebrating the birth of the new king of the underground city!

Everyone was rejoicing in their hearts, and they cheered to their heart's content!

Seeing this scene, Joelson knew that his matter should be settled.

"Then, the matter is settled. The captain of the guards will be the acting king of the underground city, while the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, will be the military ruler of the underground city!"

Thinking of this, Joelson announced loudly.

- Chapter 737: Joelson's Final Decision. Everything Has Come To An End!

Chapter 737: Joelson's Final Decision. Everything Has Come To An End!

Guard Captain Nair and Guard Vice-Captain Hansen both felt a wave of emotion in their hearts!

They sincerely thought that Joelson's plan was perfect.

This would be a scene where both sides would have the best of both worlds!

Just a moment ago, the underground city and Joelson seemed to be unable to ease the tension between the two sides. Under Joelson's suggestion, at this moment, everyone in the underground city had resolved the conflict!

At this moment, the underground city looked very happy. It was impossible to tell that just a moment ago, they were still in a state of tension. Everyone was at odds with Joelson!

Such a scene could no longer be seen.

At this moment, all the residents of the underground city raised their hands high. Everyone was cheering for Joelson to their heart's content!

"Long live King Joelson!"

"Long live King Joelson!"

"King Joelson for all eternity!"

The waves of cheers that were louder than the previous ones shook the entire canyon until it was deafening!

The cheers of the residents of the entire underground city were like the cheers of an underground music hall. The cheers of the people were deafening. At this moment, everyone was cheering to their heart's content, and they were cheering for Joelson to their heart's content!

Not to mention the signs of the people celebrating, even in the underground city, many officials began to sing and dance as they began to praise Joelson's great achievements!

Many talented bards had already begun to sing about the deeds of the powerful Joelson in the underground city. The songs that were composed were constantly being sung by the people in the streets and alleys.

While everyone was rejoicing in their hearts, Captain Nair and Vice-Captain Hansen, who were on the stage, were secretly delighted.

They both approved of Joelson's reward and his decision.

For Captain Nair, he had obtained the supreme power that he had dreamed of and the continuation of the future of the underground city.

The desire for a high position was something that the captain of the guards, who had been born a serf, yearned for the most. One had to know that the goal of the captain of the guards was the pursuit of power and status!

Before this, the captain of the guards had yearned for these things. However, because of the future of the underground city and the hope of his descendants, Captain Nair did not directly agree to Joelson's request.

Now, although Joelson still wanted to leave, Joelson became the underground city's nominal king!

This was a great encouragement to Captain Nair.

Previously, Captain Nair, because of the future of the underground city, did not directly agree to Joelson's proposal. Did not directly agree to Joelson bestowing him the position of king.

However, for the sake of the future of the underground city, Captain Nair had a helpless estimation that he could not directly agree to Joelson's request.

The reason was actually very simple. It was because Joelson was too dazzling.

Compared to Joelson, the gap between the two was too big. If Captain Nair directly took the position, perhaps the people of the underground city... none of them would recognize the captain of the guards, Nair, as the king.

Joelson was simply too outstanding. Such an outstanding Joelson truly caused everyone to feel a wave of helplessness in their hearts!

This sort of power directly surpassed the understanding of everyone in the underground city. In their hearts, they didn't know how they could reach the level of power that Joelson had reached! At such a young age, he had already reached the peak of the demigod level, and at the peak of the demigod level, he was able to easily suppress the old King Reynolds!

It must be known that the old king, the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds, was a powerful expert of the god level!

A god, compared to the peak of the demigod, Joelson, although it seemed as though there was only a difference of one level, in their eyes, this tiny difference in level was like an insurmountable chasm!

To them, a god, compared to a peak demigod, might seem as though there was a tiny difference in level, but in the eyes of experts, this tiny difference in level was like an enormous fissure!

It didn't mean that just a difference of one level was enough for them to casually challenge it!

On the contrary, to them, this tiny difference in level was extremely great to a demigod!

A level was like being separated by a world!

Logically speaking, the peak demigod, Joelson, would never be able to defeat the old king, the Iron-Blooded King Reynolds, who was a god.

This was a natural chasm. It wasn't something a mortal could easily cross!

To them, such a powerful Joelson was simply impossible to imagine with their brains. How could they possibly catch up to Joelson's shadow!

No, perhaps it would be a luxury to be able to catch up to Joelson's shadow. It would be an extravagant hope for them to do their best to catch up to Joelson and see his back!

Compared to the weak captain of the guards, such a powerful Joelson was like the sky and the earth!

With such a huge difference between the two of them, the residents of the underground city would never agree to let the captain of the guards become the king!

That's right, the captain of the guards, Nair, who was good at dealing with people, was able to make his own judgment with such certainty. The people of the underground city would definitely not admit that they were a weak king.

However, all of this was actually based on a premise.

That was, Joelson would directly leave the underground city!

Now, Joelson had directly become the king of the underground city. He was only a subordinate of Joelson and was acting as an agent for Joelson. This undoubtedly gave Captain Nair an extremely open and aboveboard reason, to directly become the acting king of the underground city and openly embrace this high position that he had been longing for a long time!

Now, with Joelson's final announcement, everything was like dust falling on the ground. Everything was frozen!

He would be the acting king of the underground city!

Captain Nair felt a burst of joy in his heart. In his ecstasy, he was even touched.

He had actually achieved his dream for many years. He wondered if his old mother, who was resting at home, had learned this extremely exciting news?

Chapter 738: Captain Nair's Joy. Joelson's First Order!

When Captain Nair thought of this, he was extremely moved. Hot tears flowed down the corners of his eyes.

In his ecstasy, he actually shed tears of excitement.

Not long ago, Joelson announced his order loudly!

He ordered Captain Nair to be the acting king of the underground city and Vice-Captain Hansen to be the military ruler of the underground city!

This order confirmed the core ruling position of Captain Nair!

In the entire underground city, the strongest and highest position was actually the position of the king of the underground city!

This position was the pinnacle of power and status that could control everything!

Captain Nair's heart was very clear about what this position meant to him.

Once he accepted this position, he would directly represent all classes in the underground city. Everyone in the underground city would have to listen to Captain Nair!

If Captain Nair did not refuse, after today, he would be the person with the highest status in the entire underground city!

This Captain Nair would become the acting king. This would be the new center of power in the underground city!

Although he was just an ordinary acting king, the real underground city king was actually Joelson.

However, the captain of the guards knew very well in his heart that Joelson's ambition was so great that it was impossible for Joelson to stay in this small underground city for long.

For the underground city, Joelson was indeed the only savior. For the residents of the underground city, Joelson was the only designated king that they recognized.

However, the captain of the guards knew in his heart that Joelson was like a huge flying dragon. He would not sit on a small hill full of treasures and be complacent. He would guard his little treasure and not make any progress.

On the contrary, Joelson was a flying dragon with a distant ambition!

His goal was no longer this small underground city, but the vast and distant underworld continent. It was the underworld continent that was filled with experts and mountains of treasures!

On the underworld continent, there were countries of all sizes, and many of them had powerful kings!

These kings were extremely powerful. For the small underground city, each of these kings' strength could easily destroy the entire underground city!

And on the Underworld Continent, the land was vast and sparsely populated. On top of it, there were countless countries of all sizes!

To the underground cities, the continent of the Underworld was mysterious and dangerous. It was a dangerous place that could not be easily touched. It was a dangerous place that could not be easily approached by the people of the underground cities.

However, for a powerful person like Joelson, he would not feel that the continent of the Underworld was a dangerous place. On the contrary, the continent of the Underworld was a beautiful and mysterious world to Joelson, it was a world worth exploring!

During the exploration process, Joelson would encounter those people and things that they were afraid of, and use them as stepping stones to become stronger and stronger step by step

And Joelson's target was the beautiful and dangerous underworld continent!

To Captain Nair and the others, the extremely dangerous Underworld Continent was an extremely beautiful treasure trove for Joelson!

Joelson would not stay in the underground city for too long.

Captain Nair was certain that Joelson would not stay in this place for too long.

Perhaps, he would leave directly the next day. There was such a possibility!

Captain Nair clearly understood this in his heart. That was why Captain Nair was excited.

If that was the case, he would be the person in charge of the underground city on the surface!

This was the supreme authority of the underground city.

Captain Nair was certain in his heart that if that was the case, then Joelson would obviously become the king of the underground city!

Although behind the scenes, Captain Nair still had to listen to Joelson, Joelson would only point out a path for Captain Nair. At other times, Captain Nair was still the apex of power in this underground city.

One had to know that this was something Captain Nair had yearned for countless years!

This was something Captain Nair had yearned for since he was young!

To hold power, to hold position, to become the true ruler of the underground city!

For such power, Captain Nair had yearned for it for god knows how long.

When he was young, he was born into a serf family and lived in poverty. He was constantly bullied by the son of the farmer. Even his parents were bullied by the farmer and his wife!

Such days had planted a seed in the heart of the small captain of the guards, a seed that longed to become a strong person.

Under the merciless oppression of the landlord's family, the captain of the guards constantly longed for those things that he could not get before. From a young age, the captain of the guards longed to become a person who could hold the power of speech, to be able to have the power and status to influence others!

However, the captain of the guards did not wait to stand out, did not wait for his own development. He first waited for the father of the captain of the guards, because of the mistakes he had made, he became the scapegoat of Captain Nair's family.

This matter dealt a huge blow to Captain Nair!

This created a character that Captain Nair yearned for power.

However, while Captain Nair yearned for power in his heart, he also understood what kind of power he couldn't touch.

For example, the king of the underground city. This power was something he absolutely could not touch.

Therefore, Captain Nair had always been subservient to the underground city king and his family. Even if the king had given an unfair trial to his soldiers, Captain Nair did not dare to have any complaints in his heart, he just quietly submitted to the underground city king's family.

But today, the feng shui had changed. Today, Captain Nair was going to become the king of the underground city.

This undoubtedly made Captain Nair feel a burst of ecstasy in his heart.

When his old mother was still alive, he had reached a position that he had never dared to imagine!

Chapter 739: Guard Vice-Captain Hansen's Emotions. Accept The Award!

Guard Captain Nair kneeled on the ground, tears streaming down his face.

Guard Vice-Captain Hansen looked at his good friend beside him and felt happy for him.

Guard Vice-Captain Hansen knew very well what his old friend, Guard Captain Nair, was thinking.

Vice-Captain Hansen also understood Captain Nair's crying behavior.

He understood what kind of pain Captain Nair was feeling.

The first time Vice-Captain Hansen and Captain Nair met was when they were recruiting new recruits in the underground city.

At that time, in the recruit recruitment office, in the physical fitness test area, Captain Nair, who still had a ruffian look on his face, bumped into Vice-Captain Hansen, who was doing the physical fitness test.

At that time, the test was to use magic energy to charge the crystal stones. The standard was that each person had to be able to directly charge five crystal stones to full.

However, at that time, many people who came to participate in the recruit recruitment were unable to meet the standard. Looking at how weak they were, Guard Vice-Captain Hansen felt very disdainful.

Guard Vice-Captain Hansen came from the academy. He was considered a strong person who had studied and had a degree. In the academy, Guard Vice-Captain

Hansen was considered an extremely powerful existence, not to mention in this small underground city's recruitment office.

There were all kinds of people in the recruitment office. The overall quality was on the low side!

With the few people in front, let alone filling up five magic crystals, it was already quite difficult for them to fill up a magic crystal with their meager magic energy.

Not to mention, there were a total of five magic crystals here for them. This assessment was too difficult for them.

They were just people who wanted to come to the underground city to earn a living. They did not have any rare abilities. Many of them did not even know how to use magic energy!

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, looked at the performance of the people in front of him and immediately understood the standards of the people in the room.

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, was lining up with disdain in his heart. However, the outstanding performance of the captain of the guards, Nair, who was in front of him, shocked the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen's heart!

The captain of the guards, Nair, mobilized the magic energy in his body and filled more than ten magic crystal stones with magic energy!

Such powerful strength made Vice-Captain Hansen notice the Guard Captain Nair, who was particularly eye-catching in the crowd.

Not to mention Vice-Captain Hansen, he was shocked by such powerful strength.

Such powerful strength, even the examiners at that time were all shocked!

They really did not expect that a student could be so powerful. In their understanding, the quality of the recruits would not be so high.

This guard captain, who was like a hooligan, had actually filled up so many charging crystals. This had attracted the attention of many instructors.

Under everyone's attention, another person also quietly noticed the performance of the guard captain.

That person was the Guard Vice-Captain Hansen!

While the examiners' attention was attracted by the guard captain, Hansen walked up with a calm expression and held the charging crystal used for the test.

Boom!

Vice-Captain Hansen mobilized all the energy in his body and charged into the charging crystal!

A dazzling magical energy appeared and rushed towards the small magic crystal like a flood. The charging crystal in his hand exploded!

The charging crystal emitted a few strange rays of light and exploded into pieces in Vice-Captain Hansen's hand.

This sound immediately attracted the attention of most of the people in the room to the Guard Vice-Captain Hansen!

It directly exploded the magic crystal!

Everyone in the room focused their attention on Vice-Captain Hansen at this moment!

The Guard Vice-Captain Hansen enjoyed the attention of the people in the room and only lightly waved his hand.

Under the gaze of the crowd, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, waved his hand and picked up the second charging crystal.

Shua!

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, once again activated the manic magic energy in his body and directly rushed into the small charging crystal. The manic magic energy once again broke through the magic crystal!

Boom!

The charging crystal directly exploded into pieces and flew back into the city. Everyone was even more shocked!

Not only did he explode one of the charging crystals but he also exploded two magic crystal stones consecutively!

Just what kind of background did this guy have?

Everyone was shocked. Faced with the identity of the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, they began to have endless suspicions.

After all, it was easy to fill up an energy crystal but it was extremely difficult to charge and explode one!

And the culprit, Vice-Captain Hansen, picked up the third energy crystal under everyone's gaze!

This scene directly shocked everyone!

What was this guy trying to do?

It was one thing for him to explode two magic crystals, but this guy actually wanted to continue using the magic crystal ball!

Under everyone's astonished gazes, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, picked up the third crystal ball and used majestic magic energy to continue pouring into it!

Rumble!

Powerful magic energy, like a tsunami of magic energy, once again poured into the charging crystal!

The majestic magic energy once again charged into the magic crystal ball, directly causing the two magic crystal balls to burst open!

It wasn't over yet. Vice-Captain Hansen continued to work hard, continuing to charge into the magic crystal ball. Very quickly, only a cracking sound could be heard!

Bang!

The charging crystal was once again directly exploded by Vice-Captain Hansen!

Such powerful magic energy had exceeded the expectations of many people, and exceeded everyone's expectations!

Such magic energy had planted a seed of shock in everyone's hearts!

However, Guard Vice-Captain Hansen, who had exploded three charging crystals consecutively, did not stop what he was doing. Instead, he continued to pick up the next magic crystal!

Chapter 740: The Valiance Of Guard Vice-Captain Hansen! (I)

Such powerful magical energy had exceeded the expectations of many people, and exceeded the expectations of everyone!

Such magical energy had planted a seed of shock in everyone's hearts!

However, the Guard Vice-Captain Hansen, who had consecutively detonated three charged crystals, did not stop what he was doing. Instead, he continued to pick up the next magic crystal!

Once again, the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen's body lit up with a powerful light. This light was the magic energy of the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen!

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, had actually once again instilled powerful energy into the charging crystal. His momentum was incomparably strong. He actually wanted to directly charge the magic crystal!

At this moment, everyone stopped what they were doing and looked at the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, who was standing in the middle with a shocked expression!

Everyone's eyes were filled with shock as they looked at the unfamiliar youth in front of them. They wanted to know if he could break through the fourth charging crystal!

Vice-Captain Hansen was red from holding his breath. He continued to mobilize all the magic energy in his body and continued to attack the magic crystal that was filled to the brim!

Would Vice-Captain Hansen be able to break the fourth magic crystal?

Everyone held their breath.

They looked nervously at the magic crystal stone in Captain Nair's hand.

They were extremely curious. They wanted to know if Vice-Captain Hansen could explode the stone in his hand. They wanted to know if the magic energy in Captain Nair's body was really that exaggerated!

Under everyone's expectant gazes, Vice-Captain Hansen's face turned red as he tried his best to pour magic energy into the charging crystal. The powerful magic energy actually wanted to directly explode this magic crystal!

Everyone's hearts were filled with doubt. Before this, Vice-Captain Hansen had already exploded three charging crystals consecutively. Now, this was the fourth charging crystal!

Kacha!

Just as everyone held their breath and looked nervously at the charging crystal in Vice-Captain Hansen's hand, suddenly!

Kacha! Everyone's ears accurately caught it!

Everyone's hearts were filled with fear. Everyone's hearts were filled with fear.

This guy, was he really going to burst four charging crystals in a row?

Just as everyone was confused, Vice-Captain Hansen suddenly let out an angry roar!

"Hah!"

Along with this angry roar, terrifying magical energy burst out from Vice-Captain Hansen's body!

Boom!

With a loud explosion, the charging crystal in Vice-Captain Hansen's hand was directly exploded by Vice-Captain Hansen without any resistance!

This time, everyone sucked in a breath of cold air!

What a good kid, he actually had such powerful magic energy!

The instructor at the new recruitment office looked at Vice-Captain Hansen, who was panting heavily, and felt a wave of relief in his heart.

This guy was really too powerful!

He was a good seedling that could be cultivated!

The captain of the guards, Nair, who had been praised by everyone just now, saw the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, who had such powerful abilities. He also had a whole new level of respect for him.

The captain of the guards, who had been through a lot in the gang, had full respect for the strong.

When he saw that everyone in the room was so weak, the captain of the guards still felt a wave of disdain in his heart.

In his heart, the captain of the guards thought that the people in this place were so weak.

The famous guards in the underground capital were just a bunch of mobs.

However, when the captain of the guards saw such a powerful person like Vice-Captain Hansen, he was shocked.

Good kid, this guy's strength was not ordinary!

It was easy to fill up the energy crystal, but it was not easy to explode the energy crystal.

First of all, the magic energy needed to explode the crystal was not as simple as 1+1.

The total amount of magic energy needed to explode the crystal was far greater than the amount of magic energy needed to explode the crystal!

To explode the crystal, the amount of magic energy needed was at least double the amount of magic energy needed to explode the crystal!

Secondly, just having such magical energy was not enough. It also required a very strong magical energy usage technique!

It was just like a water bottle that was filled to the brim. If the water bottle continued to be filled, it would only flow out. It would not directly burst the water bottle.

If one wanted to burst the water bottle, not only would they need to have enough water, they would also need to have enough water pressure to be able to directly burst the water bottle!

The same principle was applied when magic energy was charged into the charging crystal.

If he wanted to burst the magic crystal, then not only would he need a large amount of magic energy, but he would also need a certain level of magic energy usage skills. Only by doing so would he be able to burst the magic crystal!

From the looks of it, this unfamiliar youth in front of him was obviously not an ordinary person!

The captain of the guards felt a wave of emotion in his heart. He wanted to go up and exchange a few words with the captain of the guards.

The vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, immediately attracted the attention of the captain of the guards, Hansen.

In everyone's hearts, the performance of the vice-captain of the guards, Hansen, was acknowledged.

However, the vice-captain of the guards once again took action.

The vice-captain slowly picked up the fifth lesson charging crystal.

At this moment, Vice-Captain Hansen was panting as he held the charging crystal in his hand. His eyes were filled with determination.

"Hey, hey, hey! Young man, do you still want to..."

When the examiner saw Vice-Captain Hansen's determined face, he was shocked.

He really did not expect Vice-Captain Hansen to want to break another charging crystal!

Before this, Vice-Captain Hansen had already broken four charging crystals!

If Vice-Captain Hansen broke another one now, he would have broken five charging crystals.

Such powerful strength was simply admirable.

If this Guard Vice-Captain Hansen could really break the fifth one, then there was no doubt that he would be the most powerful recruit in this batch of recruits in the underground city!
