Sophia's POV

When Brandon left, I too left and reached near the window to see Brandon leaving, but he didn't come out of the mansion even for a while. I stepped out of the room and looked around, there was no one, so after closing the door behind me, I walked slowly in search of Brandon.

This mansion was large than anything I had ever seen in my life but was between the forest, a perfect place for the werewolves to stay.

All of a sudden, I heard Brandon's voice; I followed it, not knowing whether I was doing the right thing or not by doing this.

'.... on high alert. After that, we will plan Sophia's fake kidnapping news and then the rest of the things.' I saw Brandon speaking.

If I wasn't wrong, I guess Iris looked at me for a second before shifting her eyes to Brandon as if she could sense my presence.

So, Brandon was planning for my kidnapping plan.

'Then filming her video where she will be brutally raped and beaten by us.' She said, widening my eyes. I shivered in fear, hearing those words. 'Brutally rape & Abuse.'

Never in my life had anyone laid their hand on me because of my brothers; they were way more protective of me. And at the same time, I was the most pampered child in my family.

'I can't believe that, being a female, you're talking like this.', Brandon said in a disgusting tone.

'This was what happened with your Abby.'

Your Abby!!

That 'your' words were like acid on my pain. I wasn't sure, but a part of me was telling me that she was doing this on purpose.

'... and you wanted to do the same with this bitch in the beginning, don't you? Then what changed, Hunter? This was why we used Mason to trap her in his love web and bring her to us!!'

Whattttt? Was Mason sent by them in my life?

I couldn't understand how to react to that fact?

What getting me pregnant by him and the rest of the things were also his plan?

Was he disappeared all of a sudden because they did something to him or gave him a lot of money because of which he flew somewhere, leaving me in this state? And that was when Brandon entered my life as a savior?

'Then what changed in fucking one year? Or, that whore is so good in bed that you didn't want to share her with anyone?'

I couldn't help but gasp hearing those cruel words. Tears started brimming in my eyes, and the way Brandon's body stiffened, I knew he was now aware of my presence. I quickly ran toward my room when Iris growled at me. Entering my room, I fell to the floor, cowering myself in one corner of the room with my knees to my chest.

I was feeling bad for what my family did to his family and wanted to apologize to him on their behalf. Since I missed that opportunity today, I thought to do that tomorrow, but after hearing the conversation between Brandon and Iris, I doubt that he was doing any less.

I didn't know yet that my dad and my late brothers were someone capable of hurting a woman.

But one thing was sure that he didn't do the right thing by wiping out the whole pack.

"Hey," I lifted my head and saw Bruce with a weak smile and turmeric milk in his hand. He sat beside me, offering me the Milk on which I shook my head.

I didn't need anything.

"Caroline is still dependent on you, so I guess you need to stay strong and healthy."

I didn't know how to stay strong and healthy when you're completely broken inside.

"I just came to know that you heard a conversation if Brandon and Iris, Brandon's elder sister.", So that mean lady was his sister. "I might have forgotten to mention her previously."

"You... you have also forgotten to mention that... that.." 'sniff' "... Mason was also sent by you all.", I said between my cries. "But.. but, sleeping with two men, 'sniff' Doesn't make me a whore."

"Two men?" Bruce asked in confusion. "Who are those two men?" he asked again, to which I didn't answer and kept crying. "Okay. Forget that I even ask that question.", he added.

"Bastard never told me about it.", he muttered, more like talking with himself.

"See, Sophia, one after another, all the times that are coming in front of you are breaking your heart. I can smell your feeling. But by using Mason, we just wanted to kidnap you; we didn't know that he would cross his limit, and when I saw you visit Pharmacy and buy a pregnancy kit, at that moment, I felt something was fishy. The very next day, I dragged Mason from his house, but that asshole still didn't admit anything like that. So, I personally met you that evening to figure out everything on my own, and after meeting you, I killed that asshole."

"You did what?"

So, Mason never came back because he was already dead.

"You can't blame me for that. I was damn too pissed. Because of that idiot, we had to delay our plan because Brandon didn't want to bring that baby in the middle of everything.", he said and pushed Milk toward me again and the hot water bag.

I placed the bag near my lower abdomen and took a sip of the Milk.

"I know Brandon is threatening you indirectly about killing Caroline, but more than me, you know that he can't do that."
