

Billionaire's Ex-Wife And His Hidden Babies

66

Sophia's POV

She threw me by force, and my head hit something hard. "Aaahhh!!"

"She is now yours!" Iris ordered. Hearing her, I forgot about my pain and tried to stand to run away from there. I had barely sat on the floor when one by one, a lot of people started entering inside.

I knew half of them; they all were werewolves.

The last one closed the door from inside, I looked around, and that was when I realized that I was in another room of the mansion.

"Please..." I sobbed, looking for something with which I could protect myself but found nothing. I pulled my knees closed to my heart and covered myself with my hand. I counted the number of werewolves, and they were thirteen. "Please, let me go!!" I pleaded, wiping my tears when I saw one of them reaching near me. I knew everyone hated me here, but still, I was expecting mercy from them. "Brandon won't leave you if he will come to know about it.", I threatened, not sure it was going to work or not. Immediately the person coming toward me stopped.

'It's working, Sophia. Go ahead. Tell something more.'

"Don't.. Don't forget the incident of Las.. last time when... When I was pregnant.", I added, recalling the information that Bruce told me. And deep down, I kept praying that those words would come out to be true because if Bruce would have lied to me about that part, then there was no way I could protect myself from these dogs.

They kept looking at each other, but no one approached me then. Instead, they sat on the bed. I sighed in relief when I realized that it worked. It indeed worked.

Phewww!!

I stayed in that position, sniffing and pressing my head slowly because of the enormous pain.

"Did you and Boss ever have sex?", The one with raven black hair and black skin asked, narrowing his eyes.

What kind of question was that?

I just nodded my head, praying in my mind that they wouldn't start thinking of me as a whore or slut. They again didn't say anything, just looked at each other as if they were talking through telepathy. I couldn't help but be scared of them; I just wished I could call someone for help.

"We are animals but not heartless and cruel, are you, human.", The same raven black guy growled. "Stop getting scared of us." and his eyes changed.

"Calm down, Lucas. She is new to everything.", another guy near him said, calming him down.

"Are you being serious, Joshua?" he asked. "She spent all her life between rapists and was never scared of them, and now, when we haven't even touched her, then she is shedding her crocodile tears as if we are forcing ourselves on her.", he growled, looking at me.

I immediately stopped crying because my tears were irritating him.

"Leave it. Even though she isn't Boss' mate, she is close to him, and tasting his anger is not a good thing.", Joshua guy said. "I have mind link Beta Bruce; he will be reaching here shortly."

After a while,

"Beta Bruce is here!!", Saying this, the third person went to open the door, and Bruce was standing in front of him, in just boxer, taking a heavy breath.

"What the hell!! You all seriously have a death wish!" Bruce said, pushing him aside and walking toward me. "I left for two hours, and this happened.", he growled angrily.

"I told you all that to look after her, didn't I?" he asked, checking my injuries. "Brandon won't do anything to Iris but will kick your ass if he will find out about it."

"But we didn't do anything this time.", Lucas restored.

"That's why he will kick your ass because you all did nothing to protect her.", Bruce scolded. "I know you hate her but don't you love your own life?"

"Why are we panicking, Beta? It's not that Boss will come to know about it, and we can threaten her to keep her mouth shut.", Lucas said. "Also, Boss visits here only once a week or once in two weeks sometimes."

"Unfortunately for you all, he is on the way here.", Bruce said, picking me in his arms. "Get back to your position quick."

With this, Bruce started taking me to my room. I looked away when I realized that half naked.

"Did.. did any of them..."

"No.", I answered. "Just Iris."

"This woman has literally lost her mind.", he muttered. "I wouldn't be surprised if Brandon will send her to the mental hospital, and about the warriors.... Moon goddess! I don't know what Brandon will do to the warriors."

"He won't do anything. Don't worry.", I said with a weak smile.

"And how is that possible because you look terrible, and the print of Iris's hand is on your cheek."

"I will manage that. This is the least I can do for them because they didn't try to force themselves on me. I didn't know what their reason was for doing so, but it meant a lot to me. So, I will help them out."

"His car is near.", he said, but I didn't hear any sound of the car, but I didn't question him about it, knowing very well about his superhuman senses. He put me down when we reached my room.

"Thank you.", With this, I closed the door from inside. 'Please, god! Please end this drama soon.'
