

Billionaire's Ex-Wife And His Hidden Babies

Brandon's POV

"Beta Bruce will have our head if he will come to know that neither of us accompanies you."

"You know that I can take care of myself, don't you?" I asked, on which he nodded his head.

Great!!

I reached the location where my informer had spotted Ethan. I was not getting good vibes from that place. Women were willing to strip, throwing themselves on other men.

'I hope Abby won't be doing anything like this? But what if she will be found doing anything like this?' Only God knew how much she would have changed in the previous seven years. I wondered what those bastards would have done to her?

I looked around in search of her or Ethan or any familiar face.

"Hey, handsome" A half-naked girl approached me, pushing her face and boobs toward me, and I ignored her. I was already married, and cheating on her was the last thing I would ever do. I reached near the bar and scanned the whole place as per my informer, he was still here but where? I sent him the message to let me know the exact place where Ethan was.

"One blueberry mojito," I ordered.

"Mojito?", The bartender was surprised to hear my order. His expression was telling me that it had been a while since someone would have heard anyone ordering Mojito. Well, I was not into alcohol.

"Yes!" I confirmed, recalling the first drink of my life with her. I willingly lost that night because I was scared that I might end up revealing my secret to her if I would drink more. I kept looking at the women who were doing lap dance, pole dance, and other sensual activities.

But here I was, remained unaffected by anything. They couldn't give me a boner that Sophia's wet hair could alone give me without doing anything. Even a slight thought of her gave me a boner.

"Brandon?" I heard a familiar sound, on which I turned around and found Oscar, my brother-in-law, looking at me, narrowing his eyes. "What are you doing here at this moment?"

So, was this a kind of trap?

I smiled confidently at him, "I can ask the same."

"Don't try to play smart. You're at this moment, leaving my sister at home.", he snapped. "Are you cheating on her?"

I rolled my eyes at his words. "I'm sure you would have done a background check on me. By the way, I'm here to crack a business meeting because my business partner is casanova by nature."

"At this moment?"

"Yes!! I have to sometimes keep my sleep at bay for work purposes, and if I would have to cheat on Sophia, then you would have found me between those girls, drinking wine or something, not sitting here, drinking Mojito."

"Yeah! I'm sorry for doubting you. For a moment, my brother mode turned ON."

"It's okay. By the way, what are you doing here? Does your wife know you're here?"

"She will cut my balls if she will come to know that I'm here. And just like you, I'm here because of work. You already know what is happening around, so I'm just helping Ethan to trap that wolf. I'm positive that he will surely come here after knowing that his mate and Ethan are here."

"Oh, okay!!" I muttered, nodding. "I didn't know that you also use women and children for your benefit.", I muttered, sipping Mojito and trying my best not to break it.

"I know it is wrong. But I'm just trying to protect my family."

"Even after knowing that your family is the one who started everything."

"Surprisingly, even Laila said the same.", he muttered. "She suggested that I should let this matter go and give that wolf a chance and talk to him about leaving our lives with his mate. In that way, he also has a chance to create a family with his mate and live happily because an eye for an eye will make the whole world day, one day."

"I must say that I like your wife's suggestion.", I muttered, nodding. "By the way, where are Ethan and that girl?" I asked nonchalantly.

"They're upstairs, second VIP room.", He said. "By the way, when your business partner is going to come?" he asked, on which I mentally facepalmed, wondering what to reply to him, and thanks to my life savior, my best friend appeared out of the blue along with Lucas.

"Hi Brandon.", Lucas greeted, giving me a bone-crushing hug. They might have heard our conversation. "Long time"

"Hi, Lucas!!" I hugged him back. "Yeah, long time, I said with a smile while I gave them a 'Long time, huh?' look.

Oscar gave a slight nod and left them, assuming them as my business partner.

"Thank you, guys!!" I said once he left. "I have to reach upstairs, but to reach there, I will have to divert his eyes from there.", I added and shared my plan to inform send his wife a few pictures of him at this place. I had Laila's number on my phone. I had to send her some pictures with an unknown number and call her, informing them that her husband was cheating on her.

"Are you being serious?" Bruce asked in horror. "What if her wife will leave him or divorce him? From when we started doing the job, homewrecker?"

"They have been married for five years, Bruce. If a wife can't trust her husband even after knowing him for so long, then they don't deserve each other. And it's not that we are going to send her any nasty pictures of his. See, even he is staying away from all women, which shows that he is one woman man...."
