

THE BREAKING POINT OF LOVE

---- Chapter 512

After a long pause, Wynn asked again, "Anything else?" Jordyn was sipping her drink and didn't quite understand. "Hm? What do you mean?" "Things your dad did for your mom of his own accord." 1 Jordyn set down her cup, frowning slightly. "No. After that, Mom caught a fever. Dad kept taking care of her, and he said kids could get infected easily, so he didn't let me near her. @ "Lonely saw Mom again after she got better." Wynn froze for a moment. "So, after your mom got sick...

It was your dad who looked after her?" 4 "Yeah." Lowering her gaze, Wynn asked, "That must have been because your nana told him to, right?" Jordyn shook her head. "No. Mom had a fever even before sunrise yesterday. When Dad found out she was sick, he looked after her himself while calling someone to arrange for Dr. Carter to come by helicopter to treat her. 2 "Nana only learned Mom was ill after Dr. Carter arrived." ---- From what Jordyn said, Wynn could already guess who this "Dr. Carter" was. He was, after all, quite well-known in Baumond Then, she asked, "So, after Dr.

Carter arrived, it was still your dad who took care of your mom? Your dad spent the whole day yesterday looking after her?" Jordyn nodded. "Uh-huh. Dad stayed with her until she got better. Wynn fell silent. Yesterday, she had called Trevor. At first, he didn't pick up. 2 Worried something had happened, she called Jacob instead, who told her Trevor had phoned him earlier to say he had things to deal with, so some of his scheduled work had been postponed to today. 7 Hearing that, she thought something urgent must have come up. When she tried calling again, Trevor finally answered.

But at the time, he had simply said it wasn't anything big, just that something at the manor kept him from leaving... = She hadn't pressed him on the details. So, Trevor had pushed aside his work yesterday and told her he was stuck at the manor, all just so he could stay and take care of ---- Celeste? 5 Since Wynn stayed quiet, eyes fixed on her journal, Jordyn assumed she was really focused on reading and didn't disturb her again. + But soon, she grew bored and sighed while looking toward the door.

"Why is Dad taking so long on the phone?" 1 No sooner had she said it than Trevor pushed the door open and came back in. He ruffled her hair at once. "Hungry?" "A little." After chatting briefly with Jordyn, he noticed Wynn still staring silently at the journal. "Something you don't understand?" he asked. 2 His tone carried the obvious meaning-if there was anything she didn't get, she could ask him. 1 Wynn turned her head toward him. 2 On the surface, his attitude toward her seemed unchanged from before. But the way he treated Celeste now was undeniably different.

---- Seeing her lost in thought, Trevor asked, "What's wrong?" Wynn shook her head. She was about to say something, but stopped The reason she had brought the journal out in the first place was that there were quite a few things she didn't understand, and she'd hoped Trevor could help her sort them out.

But now, hearing him say this, she suddenly thought- If it were Celeste holding the journal, and Trevor asked her about it, he probably wouldn't be saying, 'What don't you understand?' 7 Instead, he'd be brimming with interest, eager to discuss the deeper points, the controversies, and even the possible flaws in the articles themselves.
