

THE BREAKING POINT OF LOVE

Chapter 524

After Trevor explained his purpose to Matthias and exchanged a few pleasantries, he left together with Wynn.

Celeste watched quietly, without saying anything from start to Patricia's injury was not life-threatening, but her arm was fractured. She would need to stay in the hospital under observation for two days before surgery could be arranged. Seeing that the situation wasn't too serious, and with Trevor arranging the best orthopedic team for her, the Shaw family finally felt reassured. 2

Since it would still be a while before Patricia woke up, Harvey said, "Trevor, thank you for today. It's getting late, and I hear from Wynn that you have a flight tomorrow. Why don't you head back and rest?"

Trevor didn't insist otherwise. "Alright, I'll take my leave then." Harvey seemed to have something more to say to him, so he added, "Trevor, let me see you out."

Trevor seemed to guess his intention and smiled. "Sorry to trouble you." 1

After Harvey and Trevor left, Ruby couldn't help but smile Trevor really is wonderful to Wynn and to our whole family."

Linda quickly agreed. "Of course, and all thanks to Wynn."

Hearing this, Wynn forced a faint smile to her lips but said

At this moment, Trevor still appeared to treat her the same as before, yet it was also true that his concern for Celeste had grown noticeably. She didn't know how long his kindness toward her would last. 1

Thinking of Celeste brought another important matter to mind.

She and Trevor had left the YodaVision banquet early. When they left, Celeste's identities as both Zachary's student and one of YodaVision's founders had not yet been made public.

Now that the banquet had long ended, she wondered—

She immediately picked up her phone and went online to check
She found that after she and Trevor had left, Celeste did indeed take the stage on behalf of YodaVision to give a speech.

But there was no mention at all of her being Zachary's student, nor of her being one of YodaVision's founders

Wynn let out a long sigh of relief. 2

Meanwhile, with Patricia out of danger, the Shaw family was fully at ease, and at that point, Linda also went online.

She came across the same news.

Unlike Wynn, however, when she saw that Celeste—not Matthias—had represented YodaVision on stage, and that Zachary's wife, the highly renowned medical figure Nadine Yarborough, had half-embraced Celeste affectionately, clearly showing her fondness,

Linda was so angry that her face turned green

She gnashed her teeth. "That Celeste—what gives her the right?"

Her outburst drew the others' attention. "What is it?" someone

"Celeste represented YodaVision at their banquet, making a speech thanking the guests and spouting all sorts of nonsense.

The way she carried herself—it was as if she really were the boss of YodaVision. Shameless!"

The Shaw family hadn't been able to attend the banquet, but they had been following it closely.

After watching Celeste's speech, and then seeing in the video how Zachary and his wife expressed such affection for her, and hearing how Matthias's parents, as well as industry giant Victor, political heavyweight Harold, and other prominent figures all showed such admiration for Celeste, their expressions turned

The more Linda looked, the angrier she became.

"Mr. Fisher even said he wanted to offer Celeste a high salary to lead his company. What on earth is he thinking? Surely he doesn't really believe Celeste has that kind of ability?"

Lilian and the others also didn't think Celeste had such ability. 1

They hadn't expected Matthias to value her so highly either. On such an important day for YodaVision, he had actually let Celeste take the stage as their representative.

Watching Celeste bask in admiration, Lilian's eyes also turned cold. But after a moment's thought, she quickly composed herself again. 2

She then said calmly, "Nothing is decided yet. Things can still change. Celeste may seem glorious now, but..."

But that didn't mean she could stay glorious forever.

She didn't finish her sentence, but everyone understood what she meant.

Hearing this, the Shaw family's mood finally lifted. 2

Linda snorted and said, "Exactly. For all we know, before long, that bitch will just be abandoned by Matthias!" 2

Only Wynn remained silent.

At that moment, Harvey returned. Luther quickly asked, "Harvey, how did it go? Did Trevor agree to help?"

Harvey smiled, "Of course, he did."

The Shaw family was even more delighted.

Wynn was stunned for a moment, but her mood finally improved

The next morning, after Celeste woke up, washed up,, and returned to her room, she turned on her phone and saw an unread message from Trevor. Content originally comes from findnovel.net

"I have to go to Andostan to take care of something. I'll probably be gone for quite a while. Please take care of Jo for me." 1

Occasionally, helping take care of Jordyn wasn't a problem.

Thinking about how little time was left before the mandatory waiting period ended, Celeste replied, "When will you be back? I don't want to go through another mandatory waiting period for the divorce." 4

Perhaps he was already on the plane—because even after a long time, Trevor never replied. 2
