

Baby alliance: helping daddy get a rich mommy chapter 341

What happened last night felt like a dream. The ring was tacky and bold, which fit his style. After some thought, Selena made a call. Soon enough, a delivery guy arrived at where she lived. "Greetings, miss. Would you like to have something delivered?"

Selena merely examined the man closely. He was quite young, so he blushed in spite of himself because he was being examined by a female client.

"Miss, you..." When Selena put down her order, she wrote under the remark section that she needed a handsome guy with a height of above 180 cm. God knows what she's up to, he thought.

"I needed to deliver something important today."

"What is it? Do you need a quotation?" the delivery guy asked patiently.

In the meantime, Meredith was in the midst of attending a program, so she was engaged in gossip alongside a few other female celebrities while they were in the dressing room.

"Meredith, there were a lot of scandals about you online recently. Are they true?" Julie Wright gazed at Meredith curiously as she spoke. At the side, the other celebrities were taken aback by her straightforwardness regarding such a sensitive question.

However, Meredith merely smiled. "It depends on your take on things." Her reply didn't answer the question at all.

Still, Julie wasn't about to give up, for she was just too curious. "So I will consider it as the truth. To be honest, Pierre Fowler is handsome and rich, so I bet you're the only one who can be a good match for him." What Julie said was smooth as butter, and it wasn't until then that the rest of them knew Julie was only trying to flatter Meredith.

When they were chatting, a man in a suit came to them. All of the ladies looked toward the handsome young man dressed in a branded suit, so nobody dared look down on him. "Miss Meredith Yard." He walked up to Meredith directly.

"You are..." Meredith didn't recognize the handsome young man.

"Oh, I came under President Fowler's orders."

Upon hearing that, all of them began hyping up.

"Oh, the scandals must be true then!"

"Yeah, Meredith! You should just admit it to the public! You don't need to cover it up."

"Yeah! You should make it public! When will we get to attend your wedding?"

Hearing that, Meredith blushed instantly. She didn't know why Pierre would send someone to seek her out. "Why are you here?"

The young man then fished out a ring box from his pocket. "This is a present from President Fowler."

"Oh, it's a ring box! Open it!"

Judging from its appearance, it was indeed a ring box. All of the women circled in to take a closer look at it. It wasn't until then that Meredith felt rest assured. She assumed that Pierre decided to propose to her after sleeping with her, as well as because she was Joaquin and Jameson's mother.

That must be it. Why else would he send me the ring? she thought. "Thank you." Meredith took the ring box before setting it down on the dressing table.

However, the young man didn't leave right away. Instead, he said with deference, "President Fowler also has a message for you, Miss Yard."

"What is it?"

"There will be a surprise during the award ceremony."

Meredith's heart skipped a beat when she heard that. The Silver Oak Awards ceremony would happen within a few days. Although it wasn't as prestigious as the Silver Fox Awards, it was nonetheless a critically acclaimed award, which her work was nominated for. Might it be that he's planning to propose to me during the ceremony? That must be it!

"That's all, Miss Yard. I already conveyed the message, so I will be leaving now." The young man was as polite as ever.
