

Baby alliance: helping daddy get a rich mommy chapter 762

On the day the concert was held, Selena and Jude rummaged through their wardrobe at home and specially dressed themselves up with jeans and baseball uniforms, as well as a cap.

Besides, Jude even prepared different merchandise for the concert, including some deer antler hairpins and some red ribbons. At that moment, both of them felt as if they were back to their schooling days.

Nonetheless, Jude had never really been to school before because she ended up with the Zephyr Organization in order to exact her revenge. It was only until she left the organization that she started learning new things, although she didn't learn them in school. As for Selena, she was planning to further her studies in the university, only to be thwarted by her unexpected pregnancy when she was 18 years old. Thus, both of them had never really been students in their life.

Although the two of them arrived at the stadium early, the place was already crowded with people. Meanwhile, Douglas had always been writing new songs but never showed himself to the public. With his impressive musical talents, he swiftly made his presence felt by many music lovers, and the mystery that revolved around him because he hadn't been seen before only added to his charm. Therefore, the stadium was full of people as many of them came for the concert.

Amidst the crowd, Jude and Selena were sandwiched by the cramped space, but fortunately, the tickets that Jude got were VIP tickets. Thus, they were given the privilege of accessing the stadium through the VIP passage. When they finally weaved through the crowd, they were panting and exhausted.

"Man, young people nowadays are simply just crazy. I guess I'm really getting old after all." Selena gasped for breath and took off her cap as she sat down. Then, she noticed that her clothes and bags were out of shape because they squeezed with the crowd.

"Come on, put it on! We're going to take a selfie." Jude held her phone and took a picture of herself and Selena in excitement. After all, ladies were always happy when it came to taking selfies.

Upon taking the picture, Jude uploaded the photo onto Twitter. When Selena subsequently browsed her news feed on Twitter, she saw her face covered by stickers in the picture.

"Hey Jude, that's not very nice. Why are you covering my face with stickers? Look at this one. You're covering my face with a poop sticker!" Selena agitatedly questioned Jude.

"I can't risk exposing my rich bestie to the public, or your name is going to appear on the headline tomorrow. As for the poop sticker... it's because you're like a poop that no one intends to keep!"

"What?! You're the poop here!" Both of them continued with their bicker.

Nonetheless, Selena understood that Jude didn't want to bask in her glory and make herself famous like that. After all, she was the president's wife of Fowler Corporation and Empire Group, as well as the director of JNS Corporation. With her status and power, her name could easily appear among the top searches on the internet. In fact, she was snapped by someone who saw her picking up her children from school earlier. Before the pictures could go viral online, she quickly instructed people to delete the post and undo the mess.

Although Selena couldn't have helped Jude get famous with all the power and influence she had, her friend seemed to instantly reject her kind offer.

A few moments later, more and more people came into the stadium as the environment became much noisier than before. Although Selena might be sitting next to Jude, both of them had to communicate with each other by shouting.

"Do you think Douglas looks ugly? Is that why he doesn't dare to show his face?" The fans began to murmur discussions and speculations. "Well, I guess I'll just save my energy for the screaming later."

Soon, the concert began with everyone looking forward to the beginning. As the curtains were drawn, Douglas' first song was played. At the same time, he slowly came into view, standing on the platform that ascended to the surface from underneath the stage. While the lights were too dim for anyone to make out his face, the screen helped show Douglas' looks to his audience. Thus, as soon as the platform rose to the surface, Douglas looked up and instantly spiced up the atmosphere with everyone screaming and losing their minds.

"Douglas! Douglas! Douglas!" The fans enthusiastically called out to their idol, filling the vibe with excitement and thrill.

Jude joined the crowd, shouting in exhilaration, "Look, it's Douglas Cloude! Oh, my God! He is so good-looking! Prince charming! Prince charming! Prince charming!"

Nevertheless, Selena only kept her eyes on the person on the stage without saying a single word.
