Chapter 105

105 . He Made up an Emotional Love Letter on the Spot

However, after she had said a lot, the middle-aged man who had been harsh just a moment ago remained silent.

Jessie frowned and slightly raised her small face to look at him. "Mr. Shawn?"

Shawn's face was full of shock at this moment. He stared at Jessie's face. After a while, he seemed to be trying hard to suppress the indescribable excitement. His voice was slightly trembling. "Miss, what's your name?"

Jessie could not help but be stunned.

nan

When Rafael saw him ask this, he thought that he wanted to know Jessie's name so that he could deal with her.

He took a step forward and pulled the stunned Jessie behind him. "What do you want? I'm called Rafael. What do you want to do? Come at me!"

Sally also walked over. "That's right. If you have the ability, come at all of us! What ability do you have to bully a woman?"

Shawn saw that they separated him and Jessie. He was so anxious that he did not care about his gentlemanly demeanor. He reached out his hand to push Sally away.

Sally refused.

"Miss, I mean no harm." Shawn was stopped by Sally and Rafael. He was so anxious that he raised his voice, "Is your mother called Jessica? Where is she now? Can you take me to see her?"

Jessie was still staring at him blankly. She could tell just now that he did not ask her name to deal with her.

She could hear something in his voice that could not be explained clearly.

It was just that she did not know why this feeling was so, so she forgot to react for a moment.

"Dad, what are you doing?" Fifi also noticed that something was not right. Shawn did not look like he wanted to take revenge for her. He seemed to have taken a fancy to that woman as well. He looked like he wanted to protect that woman immediately.

"Fifi, get in the car!" Shawn turned his head and scolded her.

Since young, Shawn had never spoken loudly to her.

Fifi widened her eyes in disbelief as she stared at him.

Shawn saw that she did not move. He said each word loudly: "Fifi!"

Fifi stared at him hatefully for a few more seconds. She suddenly turned around and strode into the car. She closed the car door abruptly, and her voice was very loud. She stepped on the accelerator and the car drove away very quickly.

"Fifi, stop the car." Shawn chased after her.

Fifi did not listen to him. She increased the speed of the car to the limit and disappeared in an instant.

Shawn was frightened by what he saw. He quickly ran to Jessie's side and forcefully stuffed a business card into her palm, "Sorry, Fifi driving like that is too dangerous. I have to go and find her immediately. This is my business card. Call me. You must find me."

Without waiting for Jessie to speak, he had already gotten into the car and followed Fifi's direction

"What is going on?" Sally walked to Jessie's side and looked in the direction where the car disappeared and asked speechlessly.

Jessie also looked in the same direction as her and she shook her head.

"Who are these two? He poured dog blood on our glass, so we won't pursue it?" Sally looked at the dog's blood and was immediately unwilling to give up

Jessie glanced at it, "I will go and get a cleaning tool to wash it."

"Sister Jeje, we can call the police. Didn't that girl's father give you a business card? We asked him to invite people to clean it!" Rafael walked over and took the business card from Jessie's hand to look at it.

Jessie looked up at them. "She is the daughter of Alex's elder sister."

Sally and Rafael were both speechless.

Because of the incident just now, all the customers in the shop had run away.

All the employees came out to help clean the glass window.

Jessie's phone rang. She took off the gloves on her right hand and took out her phone from her pocket. It was an unknown number.

She pressed the answer button.

Mike asked angrily, "Jessie, are you deliberately picking on me? What did I do wrong to you? Why did you insist on getting close to the Laurent family and destroying me? We have been married for a few years and I have been cold to you. But I am also fighting for my career. I did it? I don't care what method you used to threaten Boss Alex. You must stop right now. Leave R City immediately! Who do you think Boss Alex is? Even if you threaten him now, will he be threatened by you for the rest of his life? In the end, you will still be the one to suffer. Do you understand? I will warn you one last time!"

Jessie immediately hung up the phone. She did not care about what Mike said just now.

Sally saw that her face was pale. She came over and asked with concern, "What happened to you? Fifi again? Is this girl crazy? What does it have to do with her when you're with Boss Alex? Her grandparents like you very much!"

Jessie shook her head. A cold smile emerged on her lips. "It wasn't her. It was Mike. He thought that I used some kind of evidence to threaten Alex. I forced Alex to be with me so that I could enter the Laurent family to deal with him."

"Who does he think he is? Until now, he thought you would continue to circle around him. Recently, there have been more and more people who have gone crazy."

Jessie was silent for a moment before saying, "Mike is now with Fifi."

"What?"

It was almost lunchtime when Alex sent her a message on WeChat. "Bring me my food. Bring yours too!"

Jessie's mood was affected by Fifi and Mike the whole morning. Her mood was very low.

She only eased up a little when she saw his message. He rarely sent messages on WeChat Whenever there was a problem, he would call directly.

Last time, he had called her directly back. After she had questioned him, she did not expect him to send her a message on WeChat now.

He wanted her to go to his company to eat with him. Just thinking about it made her feel afraid.

She was worried that the people in his company also thought the same way as Fifi. They all felt that she was not worthy of him.

But no matter what, she was indeed not good enough for him. Since she had decided to be with him, these were things that she had to bear from the start.

She encouraged herself like this, and the last bit of anger in her chest dissipated.

She paused for a moment and replied to him: "What dish do you want to eat?"

"You don't know my taste?"

Jessie's lips slightly curved, "You are so picky, how would I know?" After typing, she habitually added a playful smile at the back.

Alex was free now. He used his slender fingers to send her a WeChat message word by word. It was because he suddenly remembered the animation that she had sent on WeChat. He wanted to see if she had sent him anything similar.

He didn't expect that she would send him a smiley face so soon. He looked very happy.

He deliberately put on a handsome face and replied, "You know that I'm picky, so pay more attention to me!"

Jessie quickly replied, "Okay, I'll pay more attention to you in the future. Then what do you want to eat for lunch today?" She added a shy and loving expression at the end of her sentence.

Alex replied very quickly, "Think about it yourself!"

Rick knocked twice on the office door but did not get a response. He pushed the door open and came in. He saw Alex smiling with a face full of love, which made him have goosebumps all over his body.

This kind of Alex completely overturned the noble and cold image he had in Rick's mind for years. This made Rick not used to it.

But work was more important. He braced himself and walked forward. He said carefully, "Boss, the proposal made by the Planning Department is out. Please take a look!"

Alex saw him. He put his phone on the desk and returned to his cold expression. "How are they doing? They have improved the few aspects I mentioned?"

"They changed." Rick flipped the folder to the revised page and handed it to him before he left.

He had just walked to the door when Alex called him again.

"Yes, Boss!" He turned around.

"Come here!" Alex's expression was cold.

Rick walked over with his heart hanging in his throat. "Yes, just tell me what to do!"

"Do you play WeChat?"

Rick did not dare to hide it and nodded.

Alex ordered, "Send me a message!"

Rick quickly took out his phone, opened WeChat, and looked at him. He carefully asked, "Boss, what do you want me to send?"

"Anything is fine."

Rick then realized that the boss probably wanted to learn how to use WeChat. He had never paid attention to these chatting software before, so it was not surprising that he was not familiar with it.

He immediately added Alex's WeChat number and sent a few words, (Hello, boss!)

Alex picked it up and took a look. He frowned and said, "As the chief assistant, you are only at this level?"

Rick was speechless.

Could it be that he still wanted to fabricate a love letter that would stir up emotions on the spot?

Alex was not satisfied. "Send it again!"

Rick wiped the cold sweat off his forehead and started to edit carefully.

Alex waited for a few minutes and impatiently said, "What are you dawdling about when I asked you to send a few words?"

So he only wanted a few words.

So he was saying that the words he just wrote were not good enough?

Rick quickly deleted the editor's long article and sent another greeting that was fabricated. "Sir, please have a good day!"

Alex was speechless.

Rick was helpless. "Boss, please kill me!"

Alex was so angry that his stomach hurt. "You are so stupid! Come over and show me the process."

Rick quickly went in front of him again. He opened his phone's WeChat and typed according to his instructions.

"You enter 'Hello!'"

Alex said one word. Rick lost one word. After he lost the word 'Hello', Alex pointed at his phone screen and said casually, "Add a smiling emoticon at the back!"

Rick quickly opened the emoji bar and added a smiling emoji.

After he lost, he turned his head and almost hit Alex's high nose bridge.

The two of them stared at each other. Alex cleared his throat and took a step back without a care. "Alright, you can leave now."

Rick was trembling with fear. He opened the office door and walked out.

Alex did not pick up his phone again until the door was completely closed. Jessie had already replied with another message. "Then I will buy whatever I want?"

Alex replied, "If the dishes don't suit my taste, You're finished!" After he finished typing, he opened the emoji column according to Rick's method. There were indeed a lot of facial expressions inside. Jessie's smiling face was also inside. He added an angry emoji after sending the message.

Chapter 106

106 . He Was Wearing the New Watch That She Had Given Him

Jessie, who had been waiting for him to reply, couldn't help but laugh when she saw this message.

This man was really childish!

All the employees in the coffee shop could get food. Jessie usually cooked with them in the kitchen of the coffee shop

Alex's message came late. Jessie's food had already been prepared. He did not say that he had to eat anything, so she packed two portions of the food and carried them to the Mumen Group building.

She was teased by Sally, "No wonder Boss Alex wants to open your shop here. It turns out that he had planned this beforehand and was waiting for you to give him a caring lunch. He, a great president, is actually interested in showing off your love?"

Jessie was teased until her face turned red. She patted her and walked to the door to return, "Sally, don't tell him about Fifi's arrival. You also need to remind Rafael later."

"Okay. Fifi is the granddaughter of Laurent family. You don't want Boss Alex to be stuck in the middle, so of course we won't talk too much. I'm just worried for you. What if Fifi continues to be so against you in the future? When you marry into the Laurent family in the future, She's also your uncle's niece. You can't hit her, and you can't scold her either. But you can't always be bullied by her!"

Jessie pondered for a few seconds and smiled, "The person I want to follow is Alex. As long as he treats me well, I don't care how others look at me."

This was also what Alex told her.

Sally also revealed a smile. "It's good that you can think that way. It's not like we are living for other people. Why should we care about what other people think? Hurry up and give your love meal to him. Boss Alex has a bad temper. If you make him wait for too long... He might not even let you come back in the afternoon!"

It was Jessie's first time entering the Mumen Group. She had been in the R City for so many years, but she had only heard of this big company.

In the past, she would occasionally take a public bus and pass by the Group Building. From the window, she could see the famous Mumen Group on the building. The five words, she would also be like everyone who saw it, sighing in admiration for the courage to create such a wealthy empire's leader.

After sighing in admiration, she continued to follow the path of her life, living her ordinary

She had never thought that in her life, she would be like today, dating the man at the peak of this building, and preparing to marry him hand in hand...

Thinking of this, when she walked into the bright and high-end hall in the building, her face couldn't help but heat up.

A security guard walked over and respectfully asked her who she was looking for.

Only then did Jessie wake up. This kind of place definitely wouldn't let strangers in easily. It was all because she was nervous and forgot to ask Alex before she came.

She smiled apologetically to security guard and took out her phone to send Alex a WeChat message, "I am in the lobby of your company. Security guard asked me who I am looking for..."

She waited for a while but he did not reply to her.

She was wondering if he did not see the message she sent and if she should call him directly.

Security guard's walkie-talkie rang. It was Rick's voice. "Miss Jessie? Please wait a moment. I'll come downstairs to pick you up immediately!"

Hearing Rick's respectful tone towards her, security guard and the two beauties at the front desk in the hall instantly felt respect for Jessie. Even their smiles became much gentler.

That security guard even repeatedly apologized to Jessie and respectfully sent her to the elevator entrance to wait.

Jessie's face became even redder and politely thanked him.

Jessie was being reserved when Rick walked out of the elevator. When he saw Jessie, a warm smile bloomed on his face. "Miss Jessie, please follow me. Boss is waiting for you in the office.

"Thank you!"

In the elevator, Jessie was so shy that she did not dare to look at Rick's face.

She also did not know how Alex explained to Rick that she had come here.

Rick pressed the top button and asked with a smile, "Boss's new watch was given by you, right?"

Jessie looked up at him.

In the morning, she saw that he only threw the watch into the drawer of the car. Did he take the initiative to tell Rick about this?

She could not imagine a man like Alex telling his subordinates that he had received a watch. She smiled embarrassedly. "I just saw that he helped me a lot recently. I didn't mean anything else. It was just a gift of thanks."

"Your taste is quite good!" Rick said sincerely, "Boss really likes it."

He now completely understood. As long as Jessie and boss got along well, their treatment as subordinates would also become better. Looking at this, the person he was welcoming at this moment was very likely the future Mrs. President!

Jessie smiled and did not have much to say.

When she saw Alex in the morning, she did not see how much he liked this watch...

Rick brought her to the entrance of president's office and helped push the door open for her to enter. Only then did he close the door for them.

The moment the door closed, the colleagues who had not gone to eat lunch rushed over in unison and surrounded Rick tightly.

"Assistant Rick, who is that beauty?"

"Is she a relative of Boss Alex?"

"I heard that Boss Alex has quite a few beautiful relatives. Which one is this relative?"

"Assistant Rick, it's easier for you to get close to her. I think she suits you very well. Did you go to her for love?"

The more they talked, the more ridiculous it became. Rick's heart was pounding when he heard it. He quickly pushed them away from the office door and said in a low voice, "Are you tired of the company's work? Don't want to work anymore? That's the lover of our boss. You dare to use her for fun? Do you not want to live anymore?"

In the office.

Jessie carried the lunchbox and walked in uneasily. Alex was still busy in front of the computer behind the desk.

"Go to the sofa and wait for me." He glanced at her and then looked back at the computer screen. His long fingers were tapping on the keyboard smoothly.

"Okay." Jessie replied and stepped on the dark velvet carpet towards the sofa area.

There was a black leather sofa, a mahogany coffee table, a desk of the same color, and a few pots of green bonsai full of vitality.

The office was very big, and the renovation style seemed to have been around for some time, giving off a strong vintage vibe.

Jessie sat sideways on the sofa and took out the lunchboxes layer by layer, placing them neatly on the coffee table.

She inadvertently looked up and saw the man working seriously behind the desk.

He was completely different from the domineering and childish look in WeChat. At this moment, he was as calm and focused as a person in front of her.

He was dressed in a black suit and a thin patterned tie that looked as if they had just been ironed. His large hands, which had distinct joints, occasionally moved from the keyboard to the mouse beside him. From the sleeve of the black suit, a pure white shirt was revealed. The thin and powerful wrist bone was wearing the new watch that she had given him.

Jessie remembered that Rick had said, The Boss especially likes it, and her lips involuntarily curved up.

At this moment, the sound of someone knocking on the door came from outside.

Alex did not even raise his head. "Come in."

The one who came in was principal secretary and Shubi from the secretary department. She wore a light brown suit, which made her slim figure taller. Her light makeup was suitable. She was a beauty with both beauty and temperament.

She walked straight to the desk and smiled naturally and familiarly. "Boss Alex, I have already booked a seat in the R's Restaurant across the street. Can we go there now?"

Alex had finished his work. He turned off the computer screen and looked at her. "I already have lunch."

He did not look at her anymore. He walked around the desk and headed to lounge. He did not forget to tell Jessie, "I will go wash my hands."

He suddenly spoke to this side, causing that woman to also look at Jessie. Jessie somewhat felt a little uncomfortable and replied, "Okay." Then she smiled at that woman.

The woman had a smile on her face when she looked at Alex just now. Now when she faced Jessie, her smile was a little stiff, but she still politely nodded her head and said, "Hello!"

After greeting each other, the two of them did not have any other topic to talk about.

Jessie felt a little awkward, so she looked away. The food was ready, and she went to get the chopsticks again.

Shubi had never seen an unfamiliar young woman in Alex's office. Looking at the two servings of lunch on the coffee table, she was even more curious about Jessie and could not help but carefully observe her.

She was wearing a coffee colored shirt. She was wearing a light blue loose sweater, a white denim long skirt, white wooden shoes, a simple bun, and a pair of watery big eyes on her pretty oval face. It was similar to the female college students that the company recruited when they went to the university campus. Pure, clean, and she looked like she had never experienced the world.

Shubi thought that Jessie was invited by part-time delivery man in the restaurant and was waiting for Alex to pay for lunch. She took out her phone and walked over. "You are a delivery man, right? How much are these two servings? I will transfer them to you."

Jessie was stunned and immediately waved her hand and smiled, "I am not..."

The sound of the door opening in the direction of lounge sounded. Alex walked out and saw Shubi was still there. He said lightly, "Why aren't you going to eat?"

The phone in Shubi's hand was still in front of Jessie.

Alex walked over and sat next to Jessie. He took the chopsticks from her hand and only then did he notice Shubi's frozen hand in the air, "Secretary, you can go out now."

She was chased away by him again and again. A trace of embarrassment flashed across Shubi's exquisite face. She nodded and put away her phone and walked towards the office door.

When she walked to the door, her hand that was holding the phone tightly withdrew. She smiled again and turned her head, seemingly casually asking, "Boss Alex, Chief Fino needs to bring a female companion to attend tonight's golden wedding celebration. I will prepare the formal attire of the two of us according to the standards of the last wedding, right?"

Her words were faintly provocative and Jessie could not help but look over again.

Shubi did not look at her as if she was really just casually bringing up this question. Alex moved a plate of oily lettuce in front of him to Jessie and still did not raise his head, "You do not need to go tonight."

Shubi's face turned slightly pale and forced a smile. "Okay, I understand, Boss Alex."

Her hand holding the phone tightened again. She did not have the nerve to stay any longer. She pulled open the office door and walked quickly.

Jessie watched her disappear and only then did she withdraw her gaze.

She used her eyes to look at Alex who was sitting beside her.

In the office, he looked more domineering and calm. He was the kind of man who was very charming, no matter if it was his appearance, figure, or family background. There were naturally many women around him who had feelings for him.

The Baby's Mother Need Love by hika

Chapter 107

107 . Everyone Has Someone in Their Heart

Jessie had thought of this from the beginning. It was just that she had admired him purely in the past, just like how she liked handsome male celebrities when she was studying,

Now that she had established a relationship with him, she could not help but develop a kind of possessive feeling in her heart. When she saw other women surround him with loving gazes, she couldn't help but feel uncomfortable.

This female employee, when she first came in, Jessie did not have so many thoughts,

But from the moment she deliberately did it in front of Jessie, she said that she was Alex's frequent female companion. At that time, Jessie could tell that this woman had other motives for Alex.

Just as Alex finished moving the lettuce, he placed another plate of green beans in front of her.

Jessie was depressed in her heart. She simply pulled the other few plates of vegetables in front of him over to her, looking like she was angry. "If you don't like it, then don't eat it."

Compared to the delicacies that the woman brought, the lunchboxes that she brought were indeed pathetically shabby.

Alex raised his deep eyes and looked at her.

Jessie also did not understand why she suddenly became angry. After she met his dark and heavy eyes, she was somewhat in the wrong. She picked up the chopsticks and poked the rice grains in her bowl.

Alex was silent. He picked up the chopsticks but did not eat. He moved the lettuce and green beans back in front of him. He picked up a pair of chopsticks and ate elegantly.

Jessie saw that he deliberately ate the lettuce and green beans that he did not like in the past to make her happy. She could not help but feel sorry for him. She pretended to inadvertently move the pork liver and chicken meat in front of him.

Alex's thin lips slightly hooked up, "Aren't you making things difficult for me?" "Who made things difficult for you?" Jessie was annoyed. She did not think that he would still be able to see through her little thoughts.

He only pointed it out and did not say anything else.

Jessie could not help but smile.

Shubi came out of president's office and met Rick. He was about to go out to eat.

She walked over and walked out side by side with him. She pretended to be casual and asked, "Who is that girl in Boss Alex's office? I have never seen her before. Is she a relative of his family?"

"No." Everyone in the office knew what Shubi was thinking. Rick did not say much.

Shubi smiled. "Where are you going to eat?"

"The canteen."

"Let's go together."

Rick nodded.

In the elevator, Shubi flirtatiously pulled the long hair behind her ear. "I heard Boss Alex recently liked another girl. Are we going to have Mrs. President soon?"

Rick glanced at her and smiled faintly. "Boss's private matter has nothing to do with us. It's better for us to not talk about it."

"I'm just curious. I was just saying." Shubi smiled and then really did not mention it again.

When they were about to reach the first floor, Rick could not help but speak. "As the company's chief assistant, it's not wrong for you to care about CEO Alex. But there are some thoughts in your mind. You know that it's impossible, so it's better if you don't let it grow randomly."

Shubi was not afraid that he would point it out. She smiled and raised her eyebrows. "Thank you. I do like Boss Alex. I dare not say a hundred percent about a man like him. At least 80% of the women in the company have a crush on him. However, although everyone likes him, they won't interfere with his life. They wouldn't change anything just because they liked him. Everyone knew in their hearts that they weren't qualified. It was the same for me. Who didn't have someone they liked in their hearts? This wasn't something shameful. Don't you agree?"

Rick was rendered speechless by her retort.

Shubi patted his shoulder. "Don't worry. Even if Boss Alex marries his wife, we will still work hard for the company. We care more about our salary. We won't do anything stupid."

After Shubi said that, she twisted her slender waist and walked out of the elevator.

The sound of her high heels hitting the ground was very loud.

Rick looked at her enchanting back and could not help but shiver.

It was good to be a calm woman, but it felt a little scary!

as

Jessie ate slowly. There was still half a bowl of rice left in her bowl. Alex had already finished his bowl.

The man frowned. "Change to a big lunch box tomorrow."

Jessie blinked her eyes and looked at him. "Did I bring too little?"

Alex pursed his lips. His expression seemed to agree with her words.

Jessie looked at the food in her bowl, worried that he would dislike her. She did not share her food with him.

Alex took over the food container and took a look at it. He frowned even more. "You did not bring coffee?"

Jessie shook her head and gently put down her rice bowl. "Do you have a place to make coffee here? I'll make it for you."

Alex got up and took the cigarette case and lighter from the coffee table. "There is water bar outside. You finish your meal first."

Jessie heard him say that water bar was outside and became nervous. She felt full.

She gave him food and accompanied him to eat. She even went to make coffee for him now. What would his subordinates outside think of her?

The office door rang.

Shubi walked in and held a few documents. She and Alex were talking about work matters, but her eyes occasionally glanced at Jessie.

Because of this, Jessie subconsciously raised her eyes to look in their direction. Alex smoked as he took the documents from her.

In the light green smoke, he became more and more charming.

Seeing that he was looking for the ashtray, Shubi quickly took the crystal ashtray from the corner of the desk and handed it to him.

Alex took a look and did not go to dust the cigarette. He threw the documents she sent over to a stack of documents at the side. "We will talk about this next meeting. You go out first. We will talk about work after lunch break."

"Okay." Shubi left and did not forget to look at Jessie again with her eyes.

Alex walked over and bent down his tall body. He brushed the ashes of his cigarette into the ashtray in the corner of the tea table and sat beside Jessie. He glanced at the food that she did not move for a long time. "Are you stupid?"

Jessie only regained her senses and picked up a few rice grains and put them into her mouth. Her delicate little mouth chewed.

Alex finished smoking a cigarette and put it out in the ashtray.

He leaned against the back of the sofa and put one hand on his knee and the other on her right shoulder. He closed his eyes. "If you don't want to eat anymore, go make me a cup of coffee"

Jessie did not have any appetite. She put the bowl and chopsticks back on the coffee table and started to pack the lunchboxes.

She moved and Alex's big hand fell from her shoulder to her waist

Her waist was especially thin. Sitting like this, he could even touch her soft waist,

Alex's fingers gently caressed her waist.

Jessie could not resist the itch and reached out to touch his hand in annoyance,

Her slender fingers were held by the man in his dry and warm palm

She turned her head and saw that he had already opened his eyes. His dark and deep eyes were like an ancient well, causing her heart to involuntarily heat up,

She couldn't help but ask, "What does she do in your company?"

"Who?"

"The female employee just now"

"You mean Shubi? She's from the Secret Room What's wrong?" Alex's tone was casual. His eyes fell on the small hand he was holding. The skin of her hand was white. It was soft and boneless. It was completely different from his big hand that was covered in a thin cocoon, Her hand was soft and smooth. Every time he held her hand, he would be reluctant to let go,

Jessie pulled her lips. "It's nothing. She's quite pretty."

He looked up and looked at her with a smile that was not a smile. "She's not as good as you."

Jessie saw his teasing and her ears turned slightly red. She wanted to pull her hand out from his hand.

Alex exerted a little strength and not only did she not pull back her hand, but she was also pulled by him until she fell into his arms.

Jessie's head was stuck in her heart. At this moment, she did not want to get close to him and wanted to struggle out of his arms again.

Alex's iron clamp like arms tightly wrapped around her. His heavy body was almost all over her body. His deep voice was filled with a smile, "You still say you did not mess with me?"

"I didn't!" Jessie pretended to hit him, and her voice also became louder.

Alex picked up her slim body and put her on the sofa. His face almost touched her face, and the tip of their noses touched each other.

Both of their breaths were heavy. Jessie pushed him hard, "Go away. If you don't go away, I will shout!"

"Then shout!" Alex laughed maliciously in a low voice. He used the tip of his nose to rub against her fine white face.

"You are shameless!"

"If you scold me again, I will do something even more shameless. Don't cry when the time comes!"

Jessie could not beat him and turned her face to the side, saying, "If you don't get up, that Secretary of yours will come in again! When she sees you like this, perhaps she will hurt her experience and resign. At that time, you won't be able to see such a beautiful female secretary anymore!"

Alex stared at her and then laughed in a low magnetic voice.

When he smiled, she was even more annoyed. She turned her head and was so angry that her eyes were wide open. "Let me go!"

"Do you really care that there's a woman in my Secret Room?"

Jessie's face turned red when he said what was on her mind. "I did not! You think too much!"

Alex's fingers grabbed her chin, and even her bright red lips were deformed. There was still a smile on her handsome face. "Don't misunderstand. The female secretary is only needed for work. She has nothing to do with me. If I wanted to, it would not be your turn to send me food."

He pinched her lips so hard that she pouted. Jessie was unable to speak properly and vaguely said a few tough words.

However, she was obviously not as angry as before.

Alex smiled, lowered his head, and kissed her lips.

Jessie kept hitting his broad shoulders with her hands and muttered, "What are you doing? There are people outside."

Alex carried her up and entered the lounge. He closed the door of the lounge.

This was his private area. Except for his personal authorization, no one dared to enter without permission.

In lounge, there were rooms, bedrooms, and guards. A large bed was neatly laid out in the bedroom.

Jessie saw the bed and immediately became shy.

She subconsciously wanted to jump down from his embrace and escape. "I will go and make you coffee."

"Don't worry, sleep with me first!" Alex grabbed her wrist with one hand and unbutton her suit with the other.

108 . The Man Who Harmed My Daughter Is Mike

Jessie could not convince him, so she took off her outer clothing and pants and laid down under the blanket.

Her back was facing him. After a while, she slowly turned around and faced him face to face.

Alex rested his elbow on the back of his head and closed his eyes. The buttons on his shirt sleeves had not been undone.

Jessie, who had a little OCD, could not stand it and reached out to help him undo the buttons on his shirt.

After she unbutton it behind his head, she stretched out a hand from his chest to unbutton his shirt button.

She had just touched the button when Alex suddenly opened his eyes and turned over to press her...

At about 1:30 PM, Alex carried her to the bathroom inside to take a shower.

Jessie was exhausted to the extreme, but she was willing to endure it.

She remembered which book she had read in the past. It was addictive to have sex. Those who had sex were like those who had been infected with drugs and could no longer stop having sex.

She and Alex seemed to be in that state right now.

They wanted nothing more than to stick to each other.

After they finished bathing, they returned to the bed. Alex pushed away the long hair on her forehead and kissed her cheek. "If you are tired, continue sleeping. I will wake you up in the afternoon to pick up the child."

Her face was still red as she nodded.

She took the initiative to wrap around his neck, kiss his thin lips, and then sleep soundly.

After she closed her eyes for a while, Alex's big hand grabbed her hand.

He liked to caress her hand when he had nothing to do, and she was used to it. Besides, she did not have any strength at the moment, so she let him pinch her.

He pinched her fingers for a while, then suddenly went out.

She thought he had something to do, so she ignored him and continued sleeping.

Until she felt a sudden chill on her fingers, and then something slipped into her ring finger.

Jessie opened her eyes.

Alex had put a diamond ring on her finger.

In the middle of the six-clawed platinum was a sparkling diamond.

She looked at the ring and did not know how to react.

After a long while, she asked foolishly, "Why did you give me the ring?"

Alex cast a sidelong glance at her. After he fastened the belt buckle, he pulled over the collar to call her.

She saw that he didn't want to answer and felt that her question was a little silly. She stretched out her finger and looked at the ring. The more she looked at it, the more she felt that it was beautiful. Her heart was filled with circles of sweetness.

This was the first time she wore a ring. In the past, when she was with Mike, he was very poor at first, but later on, he didn't love her anymore. One day, Jessie's romantic thoughts about rings, flowers, and wedding dresses also disappeared.

Although Alex did not say anything sweet, this ring was the sweetest thing he had ever said to her. Jessie understood in her heart.

She no longer felt sleepy, so she got up too.

Alex buttons on his suit and looked down at her flushed face. His handsome face revealed a smile. "Are you so happy that I gave you the ring?"

Jessie was shy. She pulled up the blanket to cover her face and then stuck her head out again. She looked at the watch on his wrist with a reproachful smile. "What about you? Are you unhappy that I gave you the watch?"

Her jet-black long hair was scattered on both sides, making her white and red face look tender like a flower that had just bloomed.

Alex grabbed the back of her head and used his thumb to force her to raise her face.

He lowered his head and kissed her hard on the lips...

Fifi came to R City to see her grandfather and grandmother almost every year when she was young. Shawn did not have the face to go to Laurent family, and Laurent family did not want to see him either. He sent his daughter here every year, and the people of Laurent family took Fifi back. Shawn stayed in the hotel.

After that, Shawn bought a property in the Fragrant Pavilion of R City.

After Fifi left the Felixia Coffee Shop, she returned to the Fragrant Pavilion.

When Shawn drove home, Fifi had already smashed the living room into a mess. All the things that she could move and push were smashed by her.

Shawn walked in with a frown.

Another loud noise came from the bedroom on the right.

He walked over and another makeup box flew out of the open door.

After the makeup box fell to the ground, the cosmetics inside scattered all over the floor.

"Fifi, stop!" Shawn saw that she lifted up the laptop again and was about to throw it, so he berated her.

Fifi only glanced at him and did not hesitate to smash the laptop in her hand heavily. The laptop immediately fell into two pieces.

Shawn could not hold it anymore and strode over. He raised his palm and was about to slap her.

Fifi was even more angry than him. She widened her eyes and hysterically shouted, "You want to hit me, right? Hit me! If you don't hit me today, you will regret it someday!"

"You – "

Shawn raised his palm again. However, after a few seconds of trembling, he still could not bear to hit her.

Fifi stared at him. Tears began to gather in her eyes. "You have changed. You have never yelled at me before. Now you actually want to hit me? Listen carefully, from now on... You're not my father anymore, we'll cut our ties. I don't have a mother since I was born, so it's no big deal if I don't have a father now. I won't let you be my father even if I become an orphan!"

Her eyes were very similar to Amanda's. She just stared at him like that, and Shawn's facial nerves couldn't help but tremble.

Fifi kicked away half of the notebook in front of her and walked out like the wind.

"Where are you going?" Shawn saw her walk away and only then did he wake up. He asked with a slightly hoarse voice.

Fifi did not reply and continued to walk out quickly.

Shawn was worried that something would happen to her if she ran out like this. He chased after her and grabbed her arm. His tone was not as stern as before. "I was wrong. But you splashed dog blood on the wall of their shop. If I scold them indiscriminately, what would others think of us?"

Fifi shook his hand hard but did not shake off his hand. She turned around and looked at him coldly. "Get lost!"

"Fifi..."

"Just because you are weak and cowardly so you refused to help my mother and my mother died miserably in that barbaric place. Now you still want to watch me get bullied without helping me. A man like you is not worthy of being my father!" Fifi looked at him coldly. Every word was like a sharp knife that stabbed into his heart until it was badly mutilated.

The bloody scenes from many years ago appeared in front of his eyes once again.

That man's kitchen knife stabbed into Amanda's chest. She fell in a pool of blood and weakly stretched out her hand towards him...

The blood seemed to have blocked his Aura, making him suffocate...

Fifi left Fragrant Pavilion and drove the car at high speed, while dialing Mike's number.

"Where are you?"

Mike answered with a smile on the other side of the phone. "I'm filming an advertisement in Nanxin Company. What's wrong?"

"Come and accompany me!"

"I'm working right now. Send me the address. I'll come and find you in an hour."

Fifi shouted into the microphone, "I want you to come over now. Don't you understand?"

"I have to finish filming the contract within today."

"I will only give you three minutes. Meet me in Hill Hotel. If you are late, you don't have to look for me in the future!" After saying that, she hung up.

Mike was so angry that he wanted to curse.

Fifi was even harder to deal with than Yura. He did not understand why these rich girls could not be as good-tempered, patient, and kind as Jessie.

How could he leave before the advertisement was completed? Mike left his agent to discuss with the partners and drove to Hill Hotel at a high speed.

Hill Hotel

Fifi took the elevator to the bar on the fourth floor and ordered a private room. She threw her bag and jacket at the waiter and said, "Serve the drinks!"

The waiter hung her bag and jacket on the rack next to the sofa. He took the list of drinks and asked her to order.

Fifi was impatient, "Bring all the wine on the menu!"

"Okay, Miss!" The waiter went out and turned into an empty corner. He took out his phone and dialed a number. "Mrs. Zara? Miss Fifi has come to our hotel now. She is now in Room 30 on the fourth floor. She is alone. Alright, I'll do as you say..."

Zara had been looking for Fifi everywhere recently and wanted to meet her alone. When she heard that she often came to the bar in Hill Hotel, she spent money to bribe this waiter. As long as he saw Fifi, he would immediately inform her.

The waiter brought wine over and moved his lips close to Fifi's ear, "There is someone who wants to see you in the private room at the side. She said that she has something to tell you about your boyfriend..."

Fifi entered the room at the side doubtfully and Zara quickly got up to greet him. "Miss, hello!"

"What do you have to tell me?" Fifi felt that she looked familiar.

"Don't you remember me? We met at the entrance of Mike's apartment."

Fifi remembered when she said that. One day after the Mid-Autumn Festival, she went to Mike's house. Mike was sending this woman out. At that time, his expression was very ugly.

After she left, Fifi asked Mike. He said that she was a distant relative of his and came to find him for help.

Fifi felt that with his family background, he would definitely have many poor relatives, so she did not ask anymore.

No matter what, this woman was also a relative that Mike had personally admitted. Fifi endured the disdain in her heart and sat on the single sofa beside her. Her tone was indifferent, "What do you want from me?"

How could Zara not see her arrogant and contemptuous attitude and did not dare to waste her time anymore. The smile on her face also slowly turned into a depressed and painful expression, "My daughter Yura is currently in prison. This is the second time she is in prison. She has been in prison twice because of a man. When this man was engaged to her a few months ago, his ex-wife appeared. The two of them were inseparable. Because of this, that man even broke the engagement with my daughter, and my daughter likes him too much. She was unwilling to be abandoned by him. So she went to find his ex-wife to argue, but that man framed her and sent her to jail."

"The second time she was imprisoned was because she had an argument with his ex-wife on the street. She angered this man, so he sent my daughter to jail again."

Fifi did not expect this woman to be Yura's mother. But she thought that it might be because of Mike's help that Yura became famous. It was not surprising. She listened to her talk about her daughter for a long time and Fifi became more and more impatient, "Do you want me to help you save your daughter from prison? I do not have the ability."

Zara took a deep breath and then said word by word, "The man who harmed my daughter is the popular Mike in the entertainment industry now. His ex-wife's name is Jessie."
