

The Baby's Mother Need Love by hika

Chapter 117

/ The Baby's Mother Need Love by hika

1. The Word Aunt Made Jessie Have Goosebumps All over Her Body
When Alex heard her say 'home', his gloomy heart felt a little better. "It's not an important guest. You'll know when you come tomorrow."

Jessie remembered the soft and gentle voice of a woman on the phone just now. She nodded and did not ask further.

The next day, Alex woke up and his side was already empty.

He got up and saw a neatly folded dark blue suit by the bed. There was a white shirt, a dark blue tie, and a pair of black men's shorts on it. i

Gina had done this kind of thing many times in the past.

He did not feel anything special at that time, but when he looked at it now, his cold and hard heart inexplicably jumped.

Jessie was eating breakfast with the children in the dining room.

Alex walked in. Wearing the clothes that she had prepared for him, he felt refreshed. Jessie looked at him and her face was red.

"Good morning, Dad!" The two little fellows obediently asked him good morning.

Alex nodded and sat opposite Jessie. He took a cup of hot coffee from the side and said, "You got up very early?"

"Not very early either." Jessie glanced at him and then looked away. She cut the sandwich in front of her into small pieces and handed it to Fia.

"When we were still sleeping, Mommy woke up to make breakfast for us. Today's breakfast was made by Mommy." Fia chirped and helped Jessie claim credit.

"You are the only one who knows so much!" Alex snorted softly and did not blame her.

Fia lifted her chin proudly. "Because Mommy slept with us last night. Of course I know a lot!"

She did not believe that with Mommy's love for her, she could not beat her bad-tempered father!

Jessie heard the little girl's words and looked at the man opposite her guiltily.

Seeing that he was calm and collected, it seemed that he would not expose her. Only then did she heave a sigh of relief, but her ears were still red to the point that they were almost transparent.

After breakfast, Alex went to the garage to get the car. Jessie helped Felix and Fia put on their coats and took their schoolbags.

When they held the two little fellows' hands and waited for Alex to drive over, they saw a silver gray car slowly driving over and stopping not far away from them.

The car door opened. A girl wearing a white coat walked out of the car.

Her long black hair reached her waist, and her delicate face was covered with elegant makeup.

She looked at the two children and smiled.

It was cloudy today. It was eight o'clock in the morning, and the sky was still gloomy.

But when she smiled, her smile was like thousands of pear blossoms blooming elegantly. It was as if even the gloomy sky had become cool.

When Jessie and her looked at each other, both of them were stunned for a moment.

At the same time, Jessie's mind flashed with the phone calls from last night as well as the gentle female voice that came from Alex when he answered.

While Jessie was thinking about those phone calls, the other party was looking at Jessie with a pair of beautiful eyes that seemed to be sprinkled with stars.

"Hello, Yosie!" Felix's polite voice by Jessie's side made Jessie come back to her senses.

Alex said that there was a guest coming today, so it must be this person.

Fia had already let go of Jessie's hand and ran towards the girl with her short legs, "Yosie, are you on vacation?"

Jessie saw that the two children seemed to be quite close to her but she did not know how to greet her. She parted the corner of her mouth and smiled at her.

That girl was very polite and also returned Jessie's smile. She squatted down and touched Fia's head. Her voice was gentle and sweet. "These few days I am on holiday and Fia is becoming more and more beautiful. Come, let's kiss."

Fia took the initiative to move her small mouth over and kiss her face.

"My family's baby is really obedient. Do you know what I brought you this time?" She opened a pink bag and showed it to Fia.

"Is it the Balala Magic Fairies set?" Fia was very happy. She hugged her and kissed her a few more times.

"Felix, you have one too."

Felix also let go of Jessie's hand and walked over. He held her hand and politely thanked her.

Jessie held her empty hands. For some reason, she felt empty in her heart.

She could hear the voice of this girl. It was the person on Alex's phone last night. She had called him countless times. If it wasn't for Alex's tolerance and impatience, this girl wouldn't have dared to keep calling him.

The black Bentley drove out of the garage.

The girl heard the sound of the car and stood up between the two children. She used her beautiful

Alex walked out of the car. His body was wrapped in a black suit and he was tall. His deep and handsome face was as clear and hard as an ice sculpture in the light blue sky.

Jessie also did not know what was wrong with her. After she saw him, she subconsciously looked at that beautiful girl again.

Although it was very subtle, she seemed to feel that after the girl saw Alex, her entire white little face seemed to be glowing.

"Did you eat breakfast?" Alex's eyes were very light, and his tone was also very light. No one could guess what he was feeling.

The light on the girl's face gradually returned to calmness. She smiled gently and appropriately. "I came here early in the morning and haven't eaten yet. Uncle, are you going out now?"

Jessie was inexplicably shocked when she called him Uncle-in-law.

"Let's go in and eat breakfast first." Alex greeted her calmly.

"Miss Yosie is here?" Housekeeper came over and greeted the guest with a smile. He took the big bag and small bag from her hand.

After getting the gift, Fia and Felix returned to Jessie's side.

Fia held the gift with one hand and held Jessie's hand with the other to shake it. She looked up and acted spoiled, "Yosie came from North City to our house as a guest. Can I take a day off to accompany her at home?"

Uncle-in-law, Miss Yosie, North City...

These words did not need Alex to explain. Jessie was certain that this girl was his ex-wife's relative, Felix and Fia's cousin.

With Alex around, Jessie could not decide whether Fia would take leave or not.

Fia pestered her and asked. She could only use her eyes to look at Alex who was walking towards her.

Yosie had already walked into the garden and heard Fia's voice. She turned around and looked at Alex with a gentle smile, "Uncle, I took a few days off before coming over. Can you let Fia take a day off to accompany me? I will help her with her homework."

Alex lightly pursed his lips. "En."

Jessie could not help but raise her eyes to look at him.

Alex did not look at her. He used a serious tone to say to the two little fellows, "Ask your mother to call the teacher and ask for leave!"

"Mommy, call! Quick, call!" Fia was extremely excited. She threw herself onto Jessie and kept shouting Jessie did not think that he would actually introduce herself in front of the guests.

Facing the girl's slightly pale face, Jessie felt embarrassed.

Yosie had just seen the way this woman kissed Felix and Fia when they were together and thought that she was at most a family teacher who was more compatible with the little fellows.

But she did not expect that Alex would come and say that she was the mother of the child.

Felix and Fia were little aunt's children. Although little aunt had died a few years ago, she had never thought that her biological aunt's child would one day call another strange woman as a mother.

Seeing that Alex did not take the initiative to explain to her, she could not help but stiffen her small face and ask, "Uncle, who is this older sister?"

Only then did Alex's deep gaze meet Jessie's still dumbfounded eyes. Only then did he look at Yosie, "If you still acknowledge me as your uncle-in-law, she will be your new aunt."

Yosie looked at Jessie again.

After looking at her for a long time, she could not tell which aspect could be compared to her little aunt.

Gina was a very cultured and elegant lady. She was gentle and dignified and had received a good education. From the bottom of her bones, she exuded the charm of an intellectual woman.

However, the woman in front of her was young and immature, and every move she made was filled with a sense of pettiness.

If this woman became her new aunt, Yosie would only find it funny.

But since young, she had always used little aunt as the benchmark for her life. At this moment, no matter how bad her impression of this woman was, on the surface, she was still smiling sweetly like a flower. She even took the initiative to nod slightly to Jessie, "Hello aunty."

Her straightforward address of aunt made Jessie have goosebumps all over her body.

After entering the villa, Fia wanted to pull Jessie along to the room to play with the toys Yosie gave her.

The little lass liked Yosie to come and it was not because of her. Yosie herself was actually quite boring. She was young and light, but she had an air of age.

But every time she came, she would buy the two siblings very considerate toys, and it was her father who usually did not let her buy them to play with.

After she got the toys, the little girl immediately forgot about her cousin.

Jessie was just about to leave with the little girl when Alex's low magnetic voice sounded. "Fia, did you not see any guests at home? Your mother wants to accompany guests. Why not play by yourself like your brother? Or accompany a guest with your mother!"

Fia pursed her lips. "Then I will go back to my room. Mommy, after you accompany cousin, come and find me."

Jessie rubbed her small head and softly said, "En, you go first."

Yosie saw and smiled. "I will go with Housekeeper. Aunt, you should go and accompany Fia."

Alex did not seem to hear what she said and frowned as he looked at Jessie, "Yosie is studying abroad and rarely comes to Mountain and River Residence. Take her there. Tell the kitchen to make more breakfast if you want to eat."

At this point, how could Jessie not understand what he meant? Her heart rate sped up and the corner of her mouth also slightly curved. "I understand."

Yosie was also a smart person and naturally could also understand that her uncle was letting her know that she was a guest in the past and now she was also a guest. Moreover, the mistress of Mountain and River Residence was no longer her aunt...

Yosie was also not shy and generously followed Jessie to the dining room.

Jessie personally cooked and prepared breakfast for Yosie with the chef. Knowing that she was studying abroad, Jessie specially made some western pastries for her and also personally made a cup of mellow and coffee for her.

After everything was done, she carried it to the restaurant like a tray and placed it in front of Yosie. She smiled and said, "I don't know what kind of taste you like and made some simple dishes. Try it. If you don't like it, I'll go and let them change."

Alex treated the guests very generously and Jessie did not dare to neglect.

"Thank you, aunt. I'm not picky about food. I can't eat so much delicious food overseas." Yosie was very happy.

She looked sweet and gentle, and she was polite. Every word she said had a smile on her face, which was very likeable.

Alex was not a person who easily showed kindness to others. He saw through people and treated them lightly. Even his parents were the same. However, Yosie was clearly different from others. She seemed to be especially friendly to him.

The Baby's Mother Need Love by hika

Chapter 118

/ The Baby's Mother Need Love by hika

1. When You Get Married I will Tell Sister-in-law about You Peeing Your Pants

When Yosie was eating breakfast, Jessie wanted to avoid her feeling awkward and wanted to leave.

Just as Jessie got up, Yosie smiled and called her aunt again.

Jessie turned her head to look at her.

"Aunt, I want to bring Felix and Fia out to play today, okay?"

"Okay."

Yosie was Felix and Fia's cousin. It was rare for her to come back from abroad, so it was reasonable for her to want to be alone with them.

"Thank you, aunt." Yosie smiled even more sweetly, "Can I trouble you to tell my uncle that you have something to do, so you can't accompany us? If I tell uncle-in-law, I'm worried that he will blame me for intentionally sowing discord between you and the children. Actually, I'm just not used to interacting with strangers. When we get familiar with each other in the future. .. I'll . definitely ask aunt to go and play with me."

Yosie had just called Jessie Aunt intimately, but now they had become strangers again.

Jessie looked at Yosie's clean and pure smiling face and suddenly felt that she could not see through this Yosie who was obviously a few years younger than her.

Jessie paused for a few seconds and still had a faint smile on her lips, "You are Felix and Fia's cousin. The three of you went out to play for a proper reason. Your uncle is busy and will not take this small matter to heart."

The sweet smile on Yosie's face froze for a second and quickly returned to normal. "Aunt is right."

"You can have breakfast." Jessie went out.

The sweet smile on Yosie's face gradually disappeared. She picked up the coffee that Jessie personally brewed and elegantly took a sip. She was rather surprised.

Yosie did not seem to be as simple as she appeared to be.

The corner of Yosie's beautiful lips could not help but have an interesting smile...

Jessie came out of the kitchen and heard Alex talking on the phone in the side hall.

Jessie vaguely heard Alex talking about Yosie. Jessie guessed that he was talking to someone from the Horfoud family in North City.

Jessie did not disturb Alex. She turned around and went to the children's room. Felix and Fia were playing with toys.

Fia had torn apart a blue doll into pieces. She was snatching parts of Felix's toy.

"You are not allowed to touch mine!" Felix was very angry. He tried his best to protect his toy.

Fia was anxious. "If you don't give it to me, when you get married, I will tell sister-in-law about you peeing your pants!"

Jessie was amused by Fia. She walked over and sat on the carpet with Fia and Felix. She took a small wig and helped Fia put it on the head of the toy doll. She casually asked, "Felix, Fia, do you want to go out and play with Yosie?"

Fia was the first to shake her head. "I don't want to."

Felix raised his head to look at Jessie and frowned, "Yosie wants to bring us out to play?"

"Yosie misses you guys. It's rare for her to have a holiday. She wants the two of you to accompany her,"

"I'm not going. Yosie will lose us again later." Fia muttered.

"Yosie lost you guys?" Jessie was shocked.

Felix nodded. "Last year during the New Year, Yosie took us out. She disappeared when we arrived at a supermarket."

"What happened after that?"

"Later, I found an uncle to borrow his phone to call Dad. Dad found us and we went to find Yosie. She was still looking for us everywhere."

Jessie frowned. She was somewhat worried that Yosie would bring the children out.

Jessie was chatting with the children when Yosie walked in with a smile on her face. "Felix, Fia, can you guys follow me out to play? Let's take the Ferris wheel!"

Before Jessie could reject, Alex's soft and magnetic voice sounded at the door, "The weather is not good. You guys don't go out. Felix, Fia, you two stay at home with Yosie."

When Jessie heard Alex say this, she felt relieved.

Fia heard that he wanted her and Felix to accompany Yosie. She immediately asked, "Is Mommy not at home to accompany us?"

Alex did not pay attention to Fia and looked at Jessie, "Your mom will come out and follow me to do some things."

Yosie still had a smile on her face, "It seems like it is going to rain outside. Then we will play at home. Uncle and Aunt, you guys go and do your work."

"Yes." Alex answered and walked in. He held Jessie's hand and walked out.

Yosie looked at Alex and Jessie's tightly clasped hands, especially the diamond ring on Jessie's ring finger. The smile on Yosie's lips was a little cold.

In the past when Alex and little aunt were married, he had never taken the initiative to hold little aunt's hand like this...

After getting into the car, Jessie asked Alex who was beside her: "What do we need to do?"

"Let's go to old residence."

When Jessie heard that they were going to Alex's parents' house, her heart skipped a beat for no reason. "Did your parents ask us to go?"

Alex did not answer and asked back, "You don't intend to prepare for the marriage?"

Jessie was stunned. She looked at Alex blankly.

Alex's expression did not change. It was as if he was talking about something very easy.

"But what if I am really that person's daughter?"

"It's not like you and I are blood relatives. What are you worried about? Don't think about all this nonsense. After we have settled the marriage with my parents today, the two of us will go to Nanchuan to pick up your grandfather, grandmother, and mother."

Alex was very useful, but Jessie could not relax no matter what.

When Alex and Jessie were about to reach the old residence of Laurent family, she could not help but hold his arm. She looked at him with a careful and sincere look. "Even if I reveal everything, you must not tell me that I am Felix and Fia's mother."

Jessie did not want her children to live in all kinds of strange eyes in the future. She also did not want the children to know in the future that she actually came from such an unspeakable background

Alex pursed his lips. He held Jessie's cool little hands tightly and did not say anything.

Laurent Residence.

After Fifi was sent over in a coma, Old Master Rudolf heard that it was Alex who hit her. He immediately wanted to personally teach Alex a lesson.

Madam Restall knew about it on the phone, so she tried her best to stop Old Master Rudolf.

Old Master Rudolf and Madam Restall took turns to guard Fifi in the room.

Rick complained in his heart. He was afraid that Fifi would wake up. He was afraid that if she told the elders about Jessie, the boss would take his head with his own hands.

Luckily, Old Master Rudolf was taking a nap in the middle of the night, and Fifi just woke up at that time.

Rick did not wait for Madam Restall to speak. He went up to her and whispered, "Miss Fifi, the boss will take care of his matters. No matter how much you say, it will not benefit you. I think you should know who is in charge of Laurent family now."

No matter how domineering Fifi was, she would still think about what she should do.

Fifi had the temperament of a child, but she was no longer a three year old child. She understood that her current status and identity were all because of the powerful backing of the Laurent family.

If Fifi really angered Alex, she would not have a good ending.

If Alex pampered a person, he would be able to pamper a person to the heavens, but if he fell out with Alex, .. Not to mention his niece, . . Even if it was his daughter, he would still be as heartless as he could be

After weighing the pros and cons, although Fifi was still full of resentment and anger, she could only temporarily suppress it.

Fifi did not believe that Jessie could still hide for long!

When Alex and Jessie arrived at old residence, Madam Restall was ordering the kitchen to prepare shredded chicken porridge for Fifi.

When Madam Restall saw Alex and Jessie, especially the diamond ring on Jessie's finger, she thought of the scene where they parted on bad terms the last time. For a moment, she did not know how to describe her feelings.

scen

a 00

Originally, Madam Restall also looked forward to the day and night. Now, she finally waited until Alex married the wife that he liked. This was originally a joyous matter, but when she thought about Jessie's divorce and the rumors that she specially went to find out about her family, she could not be happy.

Alex took the bag that Jessie was carrying and handed it to Nanny Lisa, "Where is Dad?" He asked Madam Restall.

"Your dad is training in the backyard."

Alex took Jessie's hand and walked towards the garden.

you have any problems, we can talk about it later."

Madam Restall understood Alex very well. She saw that he had something to say from his attitude. She saw that Jessie was wearing a new ring on her hand. This time around, he might be talking about the marriage directly.

Madam Restall's heart was somewhat complicated. On the one hand, she felt that Alex and Jessie seemed to be a match made in heaven. From the bottom of her heart, she liked Jessie and hoped that she would become her daughter-in-law. However, she was also worried that Jessie's divorce and those rumors would affect the reputation of Laurent family.

After all, rumors would hurt people a lot!

Alex heard Madam Restall's words and stopped walking. He turned around and said, "Mom, you go to the study room first. I will call Dad over. Let's talk about something together."

Jessie's heart tightened for no reason.

"Are you going to hold a wedding right now?" Old Master Rudolf's cold voice came from outside the window of the side hall.

Alex followed Old Master Rudolf's voice and said, "The meaning is similar."

"You give it a try!"

Alex still wanted to argue, but Jessie pulled down his suit sleeve.

Old Master Rudolf was angry, so he went to the study room.

When Alex held Jessie's hand tightly and went in, Old Master Rudolf and Madam Restall's expressions were not very good.

Fifi heard the situation here and also walked over.

When Fifi saw Jessie, her eyes narrowed and her two hands tightly clenched. After meeting Alex's sharp and cold gaze, she then let go of her two hands.

After Alex and Jessie went in and sat down, Madam Restall was worried that they would come up and say that they wanted to get married. She spoke first, "Alex, you two..."

"Alex did not say anything, do you still need to help him start?" Before Madam Restall could say anything, she was interrupted by Old Master Rudolf with a cold snort.

Madam Restall was annoyed. "If you want to come, just listen. Don't interrupt me!"

Alex opened his mouth at this moment. "I came today because I have something that I have been keeping in my heart for a long time. I want to say it."

It was rare for Old Master Rudolf and Madam Restall to hear Alex's serious tone. Their expressions could not help but become serious.

Fifi couldn't help but sneer.

Jessie's heart could not help but raise to her throat.

"Five years ago when Felix and Fia came to my side, I was both happy and worried. I was happy that I became a father. I was worried that I was not ready at that time. I was worried that I could not bear the responsibility of a good father. Later, I watched them grow up day by day. Listening to them call me father, I admit... It was them who made me feel the happiness of being a parent."

The more Fifi heard, the more she felt that something was wrong. Didn't Alex want to confess Jessie's dirty deeds? Why was he talking about the two little fellows?

Old Master Rudolf snorted coldly.

Madam Restall felt sad because of Alex's words from the bottom of her heart that she had never heard of before. Her eyes even turned red.

Jessie heard Alex suddenly mention the two children and her face turned pale. She subconsciously thought that he wanted to expose the secret of the children's backgrounds.

The Baby's Mother Need Love by hika

Chapter 119

/ The Baby's Mother Need Love by hika

1. I will Beat You to Death Now

After saying that, Alex paused.

The veins on Old Master Rudolf's forehead kept popping up. Old Master Rudolf said, "You have made the whole family restless. Was it to say such nonsense?"

Jessie felt nervous in her heart. Jessie could not help but hold Alex's hand even harder,

Alex felt the moisture in Jessie's palm and used his thumb to lightly scrape Jessie's palm, Alex then slowly opened his mouth and said, "My son Felix and my daughter Fia are not Gina's children."

Alex also wanted to do as Jessie wished. Alex and Jessie wanted everyone to not know about these things.

Yosie kept saying that the elder over there missed the child. Yosie wanted Alex to understand that if he continued to hide some things, it would only cause the Laurent and Horfoud families to develop a deeper grudge.

The deceased were already gone. Alex would not pursue the matter of Gina stealing Alex's sperm back then. However, Alex would not let the people from the Horfoud family interfere with the matter of Alex and Jessie's child.

Alex did not wait for the crowd's reaction. He continued, "My son Felix, and daughter Fia have nothing to do with the Horfoud family."

The study was very quiet in an instant.

Madam Restall slowly stood up from the chair. Madam Restall walked in front of Alex and bent down. "Alex, do you know what you are talking about? Felix and Fia were clearly born by Gina. If Felix and Fia are not your children, who can they be?"

Old Master Rudolf only felt very angry.

Old Master Rudolf finally managed to recover a little, and then he heard Alex say again, "Felix and Fia are my children, but Gina is not the birth mother of Felix and Fia."

Old Master Rudolf could not control himself anymore. He picked up the purple sandpot on the tea table next to him and threw it at Alex.

“You bastard, I knew you would do something ridiculous sooner or later. As I expected, I will beat you to death today, so that you won’t lose face outside!”

Although Alex had been disobedient since he was young, Old Master Rudolf did not expect Alex to have an affair in marriage and even have a child with another woman. If this matter was known to outsiders, the Laurent family would lose all their face. If the people of the Horfoud family knew about this matter, they would definitely come and cause trouble.

Old Master Rudolf was very angry. The teapot was about to hit Jessie, Alex instinctively reached out and held Jessie’s head into his arms.

The teapot accurately hit Alex’s forehead and then fell to the ground. The teapot flipped and broke into pieces on the ground.

Alex’s fair forehead was swollen by the teapot. A small piece of skin on Alex’s forehead was broken. Blood flowed out and flowed down Alex’s face.

Jessie, who was frightened earlier, looked up and saw half of Alex’s face was covered in blood. Jessie did not care to be afraid of Old Master Rudolf and Madam Restall. Jessie quickly came out of Alex’s arms. Jessie conveniently pulled out the bag from Alex’s suit pocket and helped him wipe the blood on his face.

Madam Restall on the other side saw Old Master Rudolf’s angry look and was also very anxious. Madam Restall called Nanny Lisa to quickly bring the calming medicine over.

Fifi was similarly shocked. Alex, this kind of normally serious man, actually had an affair. Alex even gave birth outside. Who exactly was the mother of Felix and Fia?

Fifi suddenly felt that it was not a big deal for Mike to have an ex-wife and former fiancée. Mike was a celebrity, so he was naturally more popular than Alex.

There were simply too many shameless women in the world.

Mountain and River Residence.

Fia took Felix’s transformer and sat on the carpet playing with it.

Felix did not want to play with Fia, so he took a detective novel and read it on the sofa.

Yosie personally baked some butter biscuits in the kitchen, and Yosie cut a plate of fresh fruit and brought it into the children’s room. Yosie said, “Felix, Fia, quickly come and eat some snacks. I roasted some cookies for you guys.”

Fia ran over like a little rabbit. Both of Fia's hands were full of cookies. Fia said, "Thank you, Yosie," and Fia ran back to continue playing with the toys.

Felix looked at Yosie and then looked at his novel. Felix said, "Thank you, Yosie, but I don't like sweet food. You and Fia can eat it."

Fia suddenly turned her head. "Felix, you don't eat sweet food? Then the next time Mommy makes cake, give me your cake too. Don't waste it."

"Get lost." After Felix scolded Fia, Felix looked at Yosie guiltily. "I just don't like eating sweet and hard things. I like sweet and soft cakes."

Yosie did not mind and smiled. "Then wait for a while. I will make fruit cake for you."

"No need." Felix sat up straight. "Yosie, I ate a lot during breakfast. I don't want to eat anything now."

There was one thing that Felix had always kept in his heart and had never told anyone.

e was one

Before Felix lost his way, Yosie had invited his father, Alex to go out and play with her, but Felix's father did not agree.

Later Yosie took Felix and Fia out to play. Yosie repeatedly reminded Felix and Fia to remember their father's phone number. If Felix and Fia left, they must be the first to leave and call their father.

Felix and Fia could not find Yosie in the supermarket. When Felix borrowed someone's phone to call his father, Felix seemed to see Yosie following not far behind Felix and Fia.

Later on, Felix and Fia's father received a call and rushed over. Felix saw Yosie walking out from the corner.

Because Felix and Fia's father had many blind dates with too many women, those women used all kinds of methods to meet their father. Yosie's method was clearly similar to those women's.

But Yosie was Felix and Fia's cousin. Although Felix was young, Felix also knew that relatives could not get married, so Felix felt that Yosie deliberately hid it. She did not want Felix and Fia's father to come over. Yosie was only worried about Felix and Fia's safety.

No matter what, after this incident, even if Felix felt that Yosie was a good person in the past, he did not want to get close to Yosie anymore.

"Alright, tell me if you want to eat." Yosie walked over and rubbed Felix's head. Yosie carried the biscuits to Fia's side and sat next to Fia on the carpet. "Fia, if you like to eat, eat more. If there is no more, I will roast the biscuits."

Fia was trying her best to put the two heads of the transformer and barbie doll together when Fia said "Okay" and then Fia continued to play with the toys.

Yosie also did not say anything and leaned against the sofa to take out her phone.

Yosie entered a string of phone numbers and glanced at Felix and Fia. Only then did Yosie start to enter the information. (Send me a few videos of stepmother torturing children. The more bloody and violent the video, the better.)

After Yosie received the video, she stood up and smiled gently, "I will go and heat up two cups of milk for the two of you."

Fia immediately agreed.

Felix felt rather awkward when he rejected Yosie's biscuits just now, so he did not reject her at this time. Furthermore, Felix did not hate milk.

Yosie walked out of the room and went to the guest room to take out the card reader from her bag. Yosie took out the card from her phone and put the card reader into her pocket. After that, she went to housekeeper to get hot milk.

Yosie handed the milk to Felix and Fia. She sat for a while before asking Felix's opinion. "Can I watch TV?"

Felix nodded, "Do you want me to help you find a remote control?"

"It's fine. I'll look for it myself." Yosie walked to the television and took out the card reader from her pocket. She quietly inserted the card reader into the USB hole. Then she took the remote control and returned to Fia's side.

The television began to play an urban family drama.

Felix and Fia were not interested. After Felix and Fia heard the sound, they only looked at the television and then Felix and Fia continued to do their own things.

Yosie adjusted the progress bar when Felix and Fia were not paying attention.

Not long after, A scene of a middle-aged woman beating up a little girl appeared on the television.

The little girl was eating when the woman kicked the little girl's chair away. The woman took the clothes rack beside her and violently slapped the little girl.

The little girl screamed in pain.

The sound from the television attracted Felix and Fia to look at the television screen at the same time.

When Felix and Fia saw the scene on the television, Felix and Fia were shocked.

Yosie used the remote control to quietly switch to another scene.

This time, a little boy was shouting at a woman with red lipstick. "You are not my mom. My mom died a long time ago!"

The boy's father beside him gave the little boy a big slap in the face. "Stepmother is also a mother."

The boy refused. The boy's father beat the boy up again and the boy's father went to work.

Only stepmother and the boy were left at home.

Stepmother smiled and picked up the broom to whip the little boy. "Didn't you want me to be your mother? I will beat you to death now, you little beast!"

The little boy cried and wanted to run.

Stepmother grabbed the little boy's leg and used a rope to tie him up and hang him in the closet. Then stepmother took a pair of scissors and stepmother took off the little boy's pants, cutting the little boy's leg into a bloody mess.

Felix could not continue watching. Felix quickly ran to Fia's side. Felix reached out two small hands to cover Fia's eyes. Felix looked at Yosie coldly, "Turn off the TV!"

Yosie looked panicked. "Sorry, sorry. I just randomly clicked on a TV station. I did not expect it to show such a scary thing."

Felix saw that Yosie only cared about apologizing but did not turn off the TV that was getting scarier and scarier. Felix shouted, "Turn it off!"

Yosie nodded repeatedly. She used the remote control to turn off the TV. When Yosie got up and put the remote control back to the TV cabinet, she quietly pulled out the card reader and quickly put it in her pocket.

In Laurent Residence, Alex took the handkerchief from Jessie's hand and covered the wound for a while. Alex saw that Old Master Rudolf had taken the medicine and leaned against the sofa as if he had calmed down. Alex calmly said, "Are you alright? How about I continue after you calm down?"

"Bastard, what else do you want to say?" Old Master Rudolf was so angry that he wanted to throw something at Alex again.

"Calm down! If you kill Alex, can the matter not exist anymore?" Madam Restall used all her strength to stop Old Master Rudolf. Madam Restall turned her head to look at Alex and asked Alex in disbelief. "Didn't you say that Gina had a difficult birth? Your father and I clearly saw that Gina was pregnant for a full ten months before entering the delivery room. Are you saying that Gina was pretending to be for us to see? Gina would not do such a ridiculous thing. This kind of joke could only be told to the family. You don't have to say anymore. If the Horfoud family knew about this, They would think that you forced Gina to help you cover up the ugly matter in order to bring in the women and children you raised outside. You also caused Gina's death."

"What nonsense are you talking about?" Old Master Rudolf became even angrier and shouted loudly.

Old Master Rudolf was angry about his son's absurd matter, but Madam Restall actually spoke nonsense about the matter of human life. The atmosphere in the study room instantly became cold to the point of freezing.

The Baby's Mother Need Love by hika

Chapter 120

/ The Baby's Mother Need Love by hika

1. 1 When He Called Me Brother-in-law, I Got Nervous All over
Jessie's face was so pale that it was almost transparent. Her fingertips almost sank into Alex's palm

Alex could feel her enormous pressure. He also wanted to follow her and not say anything in order to protect the two children. But if they continued to drag it on, how long would it take for her to officially become the mother of the child?

Since it had already been said to this point, it was better to make it clear in one go so as to avoid all sorts of unnecessary accidents.

"Gina did not help me hide anything, but there is another reason." When Alex said this, he lifted his eyes to look at Fifi who was sitting on the chair closest to the study. "Fifi, you go away for a while."

Fifi, who was listening excitedly, was not willing to leave. She stared at Jessie discontentedly, (This novel will be daily updtad at ) "She doesn't want an outsider to leave. Why do you want me to leave?"

*Fifi!" Alex increased the tone of his voice.

Fifi snorted. In the end, she was still intimidated by his aura. She got up and went out, closing the door with a bang.

Old Master Rudolf was so angry that he laughed coldly, 'You even know to care about your face in front of this junior. If you have the guts to do ugly things, why would you be afraid of letting others know?'

"I don't mind. It's just that this matter is very likely to affect the reputation of the entire Laurent family. I'm doing this for your sake...'

Alex's voice had yet to fade. Old Master Rudolf threw another cup over. "Go to hell now!"

Alex did not dodge. The cup hit his ear, then fell to the ground and broke again.

Jessie saw that the wound on Alex's forehead was not healed yet, and there was a birth wound on his ear. She felt sorry for him, but at the same time, she was extremely afraid. She hugged his arm and wanted to stop him.

However, Alex had already opened his mouth. You might not believe what I said, but I am not lying. Felix, Fia, and the rest..."

"Uncle and aunt!" Jessie could not control the fear in her heart anymore. She could not help but raise her voice to interrupt him. When he heard her voice, it was clearly trembling badly. "Uncle and aunt. Alex brought me back today to see you all. I want to discuss our marriage with you all i want to be with Alex. I also want to love Felix and Fia. I hope you all can fulfill my wish!"

Alex suddenly turned his head and stared at her. His eyes were terrifyingly dark. He was obviously angry because she interrupted him

Jessie looked into his cold eyes. Her large eyes were so clear that one could see his reflection clearly

Old Master Rudolf and Madam Restall were both stunned.

After that, Madam Restall's eyes instantly turned red. She looked at Jessie and felt her heart tighten

She knew that she did not see the wrong person. Jessie really treated Alex sincerely. Otherwise, after hearing about such an ugly thing like Alex, she could still express her attitude of being with him.

So what if she was divorced? It was a rare blessing for her not to blame Alex at a time like this. It

Old Master Rudolf stared at the two of them. He only fixed his eyes on Alex after a few seconds." You were going to say Felix and Fia. Say it. Why don't you say it to your heart's content this time? In the future, don't ever give me this mouth again!"

Alex stared at Jessie with sparkling tears hanging from her eyes. Her fingers that were holding his hand were also trembling. His face was cold as he furrowed his brows, "Jessie is right. Let's talk about the marriage as well."

"Don't interrupt me. Do you think you can fool what happened just now by talking about the marriage?" Old Master Rudolf's face turned pale from anger, and his voice became even louder.

"They said we were going to talk about marriage, so let's talk about marriage. Old master, why are you still messing around?(This novel will be daily updated at)" Madam Restall was afraid that Jessie would go back on her words, so she quickly stopped Old Master Rudolf.

"Shut up!" Old Master Rudolf's tone did not decrease, "She does not know what kind of moral character your son has, but as a mother, you still do not know. With his b*stard appearance, you still agree to let her follow him. When that time comes, she will be bullied. Can you solve the problem?"

Alex was also provoked. He directly retorted, "You are her future father-in-law and mother-in-law. That's why I brought her here to inform you. However, regarding our marriage, she will marry me, not you."

"You unfilial son..."

Before Old Master Rudolf could pounce over, Alex had already held Jessie's hand. They turned around and strode out of the study.

Just as they reached the door, they bumped into Nanny Lisa, who was rushing towards the study.

Nanny Lisa looked at the room full of wolves and was shocked.

Madam Restall originally wanted to chase after Jessie and say a few words of comfort. She saw Nanny Lisa at the door and complained, "Why are you blocking here?"

Nanny Lisa, who was angry for no reason, did not dare to delay and quickly replied, "Mr. Shawn is here. He is at the door and said he is here to visit your two elders..."

dragged her out of the house.

They saw a familiar figure walking towards the entrance of the house.

Jessie saw his face clearly and she was suddenly stunned. Her face turned slightly pale.

Alex also stopped walking. His face was still gloomy, but his tone had calmed down. "Brother-in law, come over. Mom and Dad are at home. You can go in. I still have something to do, so I'll leave first."

Shawn did not look at him, nor did he respond. His gaze fell on Alex and Jessie's tightly clenched hands.

Earlier in the coffee shop, he saw Alex standing up for Jessie. At that time, Shawn had been caught up in a series of events and did not even think about it.

He saw it again, and the two of them were so close. For a moment, his mind went blank from the shock.

His brother-in-law and his daughter were a pair?

He couldn't accept such an absurd thing.

Before he could recover his senses, Alex greeted him. He had already pulled Jessie into the car.

The car started and Jessie could not help but turn around. She looked at Shawn, who was frozen in the wind, and could not come back to her senses for a long time.

There was a sharp thing poking down on her head, and it caused a burst of pain.

She saw that Alex's car was heading towards the company.

On the way, Jessie asked him to stop the car. She went to the pharmacy to buy medicine before getting back into the car.

She originally wanted to apply medicine to the wound on his forehead. However, Alex did not stop his car. He drove all the way to the coffee shop.

Sally was going to the bank to do something today. There was no business in the shop. (This novel will be daily updated at ) There was only one part-time student grinding coffee beans in the bar counter.

Jessie and Alex went to the small room inside. She held his hand and pulled him to the sofa to sit down.

Alex pursed his lips. He let her hold his hand and sat on the sofa. He leaned his head against the back of the sofa.

She took out the medicine and band-aid from the bag. She leaned against him and dipped a cotton swab into the medicine to help him clean the blood stains on his wound.

Alex obediently did not move. His deep and serene gaze was firmly fixed on her face.

“Are you in a hurry to go to the company?” Jessie’s face turned red from being stared at by him.

She avoided his gaze and continued to clean his wounds. After she finished washing, she applied ointment on him and pasted the band-aid on him.

“I’m fine now.”

“Then you can rest here for a while. I’ll go make you a cup of coffee.” Jessie was about to get up and leave when her wrist tightened.

She was pulled back to the sofa by the man. Immediately after, his lips fell, Jessie had just mustered her courage to contradict him in front of his parents. She thought that he would definitely be in a bad mood. So even if she was worried that part-time student would come in now, she would still obediently respond to his kiss.

Alex’s fingers untied the buttons on her coat.

Jessie subconsciously looked at the door of the small room. The door was not locked.

She could not help but reach out to push him.

Alex let go of her lips and his dark eyes stared at her. “What’s wrong?”

Jessie looked at his angular face and shook her head. “No.”

He kissed her again.

Jessie heard the light footsteps outside and quickly went to push the man’s head that was buried in her arms.

Alex felt that she was distracted and looked up. “You don’t want to?”

Jessie’s heart palpitated when she saw his deep but seemingly shattered black eyes. She held his face with both hands and raised her head to kiss his lips. “You can go to the company. We will go home tonight and then...”

Alex stared at her for a while and quickly got up.

Jessie felt a little lost for some reason.

She saw the man with a dark face take the car keys from the coffee table and was about to leave. She could not help but reach out and grab one of his slender fingers,

Alex turned around to look at her.

Jessie's face was as red as blood. She did not dare to look into his eyes and said in a low voice, "Why don't we go to the bathroom inside..."

Alex just stared at her from above. He did not leave and did not seem to have any intention of staying.

Jessie became even more shy from his stare. She lowered her head and let go of his hand.

Just as she put her hand back on her knees, her body was suddenly lifted horizontally by the man. The scene in front of her eyes flowed. The man carried her and strode into the bathroom.

The bathroom was small, so they did not dare to make too much noise, Jessie bit her lower lip tightly.

Not long after. The man reached over and used his strength to save her lower lip, which was about to break. He left his index finger in her mouth.

At this time, Jessie's consciousness was unfocused and did not care about him. She opened her mouth and bit his finger. Everything that she had encountered in Laurent Residence earlier was also gradually buried by excitement...

Alex hugged her in the small washroom. Jessie had to lean her head on his shoulder. The man's deep eyes and tail were clearly visible.

Jessie raised a hand and touched it, "You have wrinkles."

Usually when people talked about wrinkles, it indirectly meant that others were old. Especially now.

Alex's eyes slightly darkened as he focused on her.

Jessie was covered in youthful Auras, and her face was full of glutinous protein. If he didn't know about her matters, he would have recognized her as a university student who had just left the campus.

And he had started training in the business world since university. His life experiences had long carved countless traces on his body.

Not to mention, between the two of them, Seven years of age difference.

For some reason, Alex was a little annoyed. He lowered his head and took a bite on her lips. (This novel will be daily updated at ) "No matter how old I am, I can make you cry!"

Jessie remembered that he had also said to make her cry under such circumstances last time.

Her pink face became even redder. She clenched her delicate hand into a fist and punched his shoulder. "You are shameless!"

"You are already the mother of two children, yet you still keep blushing!" Alex was in a good mood, so he teased her in a low voice.

Jessie was about to scold him. The man was so violent that all her words were drowned in her throat.

A string of phone ringing rang in Alex's pocket in his suit.

The ringtone came too suddenly. Jessie was so scared that her small face lost all color.

"You didn't do anything wrong. Why are you so scared?" Alex sneered at her. He took out his phone and looked at the caller. His thick eyebrows were locked. He pressed the answer button and his voice returned to normal. "Brother-in-law." The moment he called her brother-in-law, Jessie's entire body tensed up.